AN EDITORIAL

They're All Trying!

Who will not agree that a serious parking problem exists in the immediate downtown business district of Brownfield?

Of some fifty prominent businessmen who met Tuesday to come to grips with the situation, not one publicly denied the apparent facts.

Tenor of the two-hour session was — commendably so — "The manner of the final solution is not of paramount importance. That some solution is arrived at, is."

Result of the Tuesday get-together: A recommendation was passed, almost unanimously, that Brownfield City Council be asked to declare a two-hour parking limit around the courthouse square for one block on all streets in all directions.

Is the foregoing the solution? Will it be received favorably by a MAJORITY of our citizens? Well . . . there was strong opposition voiced Tuesday. Quite likely, there'll be strong protests heard in the future.

However, the recommendation was approved at a PUBLIC meeting, attended by a disappointingly small number of citizens. At that session were men whose money—big money — is invested in our downtown stores. Who has a more logical and reasonable right to press for a solution?

We believe that a reasonable move was made Tuesday. And . . . we urge everyone to keep an open and thinking mind about the matter.

Here's something else to mull over. Nearly everyone at the meeting Tuesday in City Hall agreed that the situation could be resolved nicely were all employers and employees to use the public parking lots during the business day.

Frankly, it takes guts for one businessman to step forward and make a strong suggestion affecting many others. That sort of intestinal fortitude was displayed admirably Tuesday.

We don't believe that "the impossible" is facing us. The problem will be solved.

Lalar D. Wilkerson of Matador, Weldon Beckner of Lorenzo, Carroll of Morton, Rex E. Shelton of Sundown, Jim Edmondson of Ralls, William C. Brewer Jr., of Anton, Georgie M. Willson of Post, Mrs. L. H. Christensen of Floydada, C. B. Abercrombie of Spur, and M. G. Davis of Slaton, Hugh M. Ellison, Ralph T. Benningfield and Russell Cothran of Levelland, and Marjorie Griggs and Alice Ann Yates of Plainview.

Awards will be given as follows: Chorus—Division 1 in concert or sight reading (bronze plaque). Division 1 in both concert and sight reading (silver sweepstakes plaque). Division 2 in either or both events (certificate).

Ensemble—Division 1 (medals for each participant). Division 2 (certificates).

Soloists—Division 1 (medal). Wall said this morning that menu for the noon meal in BHS cafeteria will comprise meat loaf, cream potatoes, green beans, tossed green salad, hot rolls and butter, iced tea or milk, and apple cobbler. Serving hours: 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The Brownfield mixed choir will sing its three selections at 1:15 p.m., in the auditorium, will attend a clinic in the library at 1:45 p.m., and perform sight singing in the Choral Room at 1:45 p.m.

The choir will present to the judges Palestrina's "Adoramus Te Christe," Richter's "Creation" and York's "One To Every Man and Nation."

The trio of songs to be sung by the Brownfield girls choir at 2:15 in the auditorium: Bell's "Let Us Break Bread Together," Cain's "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes" and Aschenbrenner's "Chesnut Tree." The girls will sit in the clinic at 2:30, and will perform sight singing in the Choral Room at 2:45.

BHS individuals who will perform are Betty Collins at 9:42 a.m., Dixon Latham at 9:48 a.m., Betty Bragg at 9:54 a.m., Mary Kate Ramseur at 10 a.m., and Girls Trio at 10:06 a.m.; all in Room 114.

"No admission will be charged for any part of the contest," Wall explained this morning. "However, doors will be closed during performance." See FESTIVAL Page 4

CHEVROLET

The following lines are taken from an article by Roger Angell entitled "Baseball—the Perfect Game." Mr. Angell has written one of the most fascinating articles about the world's number one sport it has ever been this writer's pleasure to read and I am sure that everyone will enjoy it as much. During the next few weeks this column will carry a portion of the article and when it has been completed I feel sure you will enjoy having it in your sports library.

What makes an adult American sit under a broiling sun in order to scream or pray over the flight of a ball? If this question stumps you—here is the answer.

Everyone talks about baseball.

"Baseball? a man said at a party last summer. "Baseball?" he repeated in a loud, angry voice. "I despise it. I loathe baseball. What a bore, what a criminal waste of time to spend even five minutes of one's day reading or talking about a boys' game played by hired hands. It's a mark of our childishness that we pay so much attention to it. I hate baseball!" And he looked fiercely around the room over his glass, a rebel unafraid.

In the same week last summer at a dinner party two new Americans, a Swedish-born oceanographer and a Hungarian-born magazine editor, were deep in a serious conversation. They were discussing what was wrong with the Giant's infield.

FROM THE OUTFIELD — Park attendant Wendell Newman is seen smoothing dirt that was dumped this week over the entire Babe Ruth league baseball diamond at Lions Ball Park. An attempt is being made to improve the face of the field by covering it with dirt into which grass will be planted. The photo was taken from deep centerfield. (Staff Photo)

Union school was host to the District 7B tennis matches Tuesday. Odus Waiser of Union is district tennis director.

In junior boys singles, Joe Rhodes of Whiteface paced the winners, followed by Pete Green of Union in second place. Junior girls' winner was Helen Hungerford of Union.

And later a friend just back from an international convention in Venice. He said he had been introduced to a Japanese delegate there and that the man's first question had been: "How do you think the Yankees' pitching is going to hold up this year?"

Baseball is everybody's game, still the American pastime. Baseball preoccupies us, fascinates us, excites us, charms us, lulls us, bores us, and otherwise takes up more of our time and attention from late winter to early autumn than all other sports put together.

and Lloyd Hester of Union came in second; and Charles Smith and Odell Scribner of Whiteface placed third.

Coaches are Charley Beoz, Whiteface; Charley Rand, Meadow; Kenneth Sams, Union; and Rip Sewell, Wellman.

District 4B literary events are scheduled for today at New Home, and the district track event will be in Lubbock March 28.

Whether or not we ever get to the ball park, whether or not we even care for the game, we are all, in a sense, in attendance. More than a sport, baseball is an environment, a condition of our warm-weather existence.

All through the summer in our-house, life goes on, on hot weekend afternoons and on steamy evenings, against a backdrop of baseball-by-radio, to the cry of cicada and the announcer, to the noise of double-play and thrush and Stan Musial and lawn mower, all intermingled in a summer sound. I am not listening to the ball game, not really, but I am there; part of me, at least, is following the game. And so are millions of Americans, many of them not even within earshot of radio.

One night while in a cab, the cabbie stopped for a red light on a crosstown street. Beside us, in a parked limousine, a Negro chauffeur was sprawled out behind the wheel, his feet on the dashboard and his eyes closed, apparently asleep. There was a faint running murmur from his radio. My driver listened for a moment and then asked, "They score yet?" The dead man stirred, opened one eye and said "Nah". The light changed, we moved on. But the link was there; the exchange of four words had been enough to establish the three of us—hackie chauffeur and passenger — as fans sitting side by side at the same far-off ball game.

THE CHAMP — Pictured above is Pete Green, who swept aside all competition here Saturday in the annual Terry County Spelling Bee. Pete, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green of Route 2, will go to Lubbock on March 30 where he'll participate in the South Plains Spelling Bee, sponsored by The Avalanche-Journal. With success, Pete can go later this year to Washington, D. C., for the national. Four contestants took part in the bee Saturday, held in Junior High School. Judges declared the Union school student the winner when his nearest competitor spelled d-i-s-p-a-i-r. Corrected, it is d-e-s-p-a-i-r, according to Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary. (Staff Photo)

HUNT ODD JOBS

Saturday Is Hobo Day for Juniors

Need your car washed? Need a baby sitter? Need your yard cleaned, a cake baked? Lawn mowed?

The above odd jobs can be done handily from 9 a.m. until noon Saturday by Brownfield Senior High School juniors.

Saturday is the class' annual Hobo Day. The group will be trying to raise money for its annual Junior-Senior Banquet and its senior graduation plans.

If you need the services of the juniors for the day, a telephone call to 2644 will suffice.

BUT HOW AND WHY

Not What He Had, Or Where He Lived

One electric clock, an almost unlimited supply of candy and chewing gum, and 46 packs of cigarettes—these comprised the worldly possessions of L. M. Bulliner, arrested this week living in an old vacant house near the Virgil Burnett farm southwest of Brownfield. Sheriff James Fulford said this morning that he and deputies went to the house and placed Bulliner under arrest after receiving a tip.

The 23-years-old man, recently released from the state penitentiary at Huntsville, told Fulford that he had:

1. Stolen two tractor batteries from Virgle Travis. 2. Broken into a Seminole drive-in cafe. 3. Stolen a car last Sunday night in Lovington, N.M.

Bulliner was released to Gaines County sheriff's deputies this week for prosecution. When finished in Gaines, the sheriff will release him to the FBI, which holds an arrest-warrant charging him with violation of the Dyer Act—transportation of a stolen automobile across state lines.

In other activities this week, Fulford and his deputies arrested a white man and a Negro for illegal possession and transportation of alcoholic beverages; arrested a local man for driving while intoxicated, and arrested four drunks Saturday night.

Nazarene Church To Hold Revival March 27 Through April 7

Twelve days of revival services, embracing two Sundays, will be held from March 27 until April 7 at Church of the Nazarene, South Second and Tate.

Evangelist will be the Rev. Charles Higgins of Las Cruces, N.M. who will come here from a revival in Oklahoma.

The event was announced this morning by the Rev. Howard Smith, pastor: "We invite the public to be with us at our revival Wednesday April 7.

"Services will be held at 7:30 p.m., daily. Our regular Sunday morning worship service will be held at 11 o'clock. Music for our programs will be furnished by local talent, and we'll have junior services."

The Rev. Mr. Higgins is a pastor of long experience in the New Mexico District.

Reunion Held In Mrs. Graves Home

A family reunion was held in the home of Mrs. G. W. Graves, 616 E. Main street, the past week end.

Members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. George Lynch and sons, Jim Bob and Dickie, of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Boone and son, Tommy, of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Graves and children, Ernie, Jerry, Carolyn and Junie of Seminole; Mr. and Mrs. Royce Kelly and sons, Mike and Craig, of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, of Brownfield.

Bugs Collins, of El Paso and a friend of the Boone family, also attended.

Those of the family unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Horn and daughters, Jackie Sue and Barbara Ann, of McAllen, and Bob Boone, a student at A & M College.

Conservation Is Garden Club Study

The Brownfield Garden Club met March 13 at 3 p.m. in the Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse.

Mrs. Mitchell Flache was program chairman for the practical conservation program.

Jim Foy and Henry Williamson showed colored slides and discussed "For Slides to SPOKE". Mrs. Joe Jackson spoke on "Birds, the Gardener's Ally".

A housewarming table, with a line mass arrangement of fruit, stressing color, scale and design, was shown by Mrs. John King. A going away party table, a line mass arrangement using all green foliage for a morning coffee was demonstrated by Mrs. J. O. Satterwhite.

Following the program, vice-president Mrs. Ernest Latham presided at the business meeting.

the more than 500,000 in the United States.

Monday afternoon in assembly, the one-act play cast previewed the play they took to Monahans Tuesday night for the interscholastic league competition there. Dixon Latham was selected best actor.

Elections were held Tuesday morning for a junior class vice-president and a president and vice president for the freshman class. George Fugitt was elected junior class v-p and James Forehand and Jimmy Dan Green will finish out the year as freshman class president and v-p, respectively.

The annual choir contest is scheduled to be held here this Saturday and A. V. Wall, BHS choir director, and his several choral groups are busily working toward the big day.

"Twirp Week" will come once again during the week prior to the senior play, and will be climaxed by the Friday night performance of "Outward Bound" March 29. During that week it will be up to the girls to get the date and foot the bill.

The last annual deadline has been met, and if all goes well, the finished product should be in time for students to receive them after Honor Assembly, May 14.

Opposition Is Voiced Here To Pending Laws

Strong opposition to coverage of farm workers by federal wage-and-hour legislation has been announced by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

AFB's stand was revealed here this week by Winfred Tucker, legislative chairman of Terry County Farm Bureau, who said:

"Expansion of the wage-and-hour law into agriculture would be a 'foot in the door' and, if passed, will mean the ruin of free American agriculture."

Tucker said that Matt Triggs, assistant legislative director for AFBF in Washington, testifying before the Senate Labor Committee, pointed out that farm wages have increased 28 per cent during the last 10 years, during a period in which farm prices have declined 15 per cent.

Of Family Farms
Tucker explained that Triggs based Farm Bureau's opposition on the fact that "Agriculture is fundamentally an industry of family farms."

Triggs also told the Senate group: "The application of minimum wage-and-hour regulations to the complex business of agriculture is considerably more difficult than the application to industrial enterprises."

Tucker explained this morning that TCFB's legislative committee is keeping close watch on all pending legislation affecting agriculture in Washington as well as in Austin, and has been in contact with senators and representatives on several issues in the past month.

ing. Roll call was answered with "a bird in my garden".

Vol. 20 Brownfield, News-Herald Thursday, Mar. 21, 1957 No. 12

Spring has come, the grass has riz, and as usual we're wondering just exactly what is around the corner for us before the weather settles down to really being Spring. However, the rain was most appreciated, don't you think? And appropriate to usher in the first day of Spring.

Although we've been in our new building for some two weeks now, we had to sort of get things squared around before inviting you in to share our pleasure with us. Now, we'll be open for your inspection from 8 to 3 Saturday and we hope you'll all come in and let us show you around.

If you haven't dropped by yet (as some of you have), let me tell you that this is a far cry from our former home and that we think you'll be most pleasantly surprised to find that our new home is as modern and as comfortable, as well as beautiful, as any business in Brownfield. We can't help crowing about it, and you will find we're justified when you see it. Please take this as a personal invitation to drop in sometime Saturday for a tour.

One of Brownfield's newer businesses, the Hitch-N-Post (located across the street from Lindsey Hardware on the highway) not only serves delicious pit barbecue, but also offers customers a chance to win a free meal. Just look on the bottom of your tray for the word free, and if it's there, it means just what it says.

This is not just a temporary gimmick, either... it stands permanently.

Troop 9, formerly Troop 2, of the Girl Scouts here in Brownfield are busily getting ready to produce "Midsummer's Night Dream." Nothing unusual in that, except for the

If all goes well, by the time you read this, Ida Mae Shelton will be the proud owner of a certificate of merit that qualifies her to fit foundations. She attended a school in Dallas the first part of this week instructing the fitting of Warner's foundations and corsets. All of you who have worn Warner's garments know how wonderful they are, and I'm sure Ida Mae will be able to make you even happier with them.

Incidentally, while in Dallas, she is busy filling special orders that you gals have requested... here a special evening dress for the graduating senior there a particularly cute Easter outfit... and many other extras that you ask for and that she's happy to try to find for you.

Darling little dresses and suits are arriving for your wee ones... Bryan ruffled nylon waterproof panties for your baby girls and smart Little Craft shorts with pocket detail and "shirt like daddy's" for the little boys.

Also brand new are the Jane Irwill sports wear in cotton knit... so cool and practical. In black, yellow, and aqua solids with matching stripes "mix and mates." Three different styles of slipovers, from three quarter length sleeves to none at all, and short, Jamaica and Bermuda shorts, as well as pedal pushers. These will become some of the most important items in your summer wardrobes, believe me.

Some of the most delectable little girl dresses in soft materials are frosted with lace, ruffled and tucks. You'll love a little white glazed cotton sprinkled with rose buds and enhanced with ruffles and lace.

Please go by and see all these beautiful new things at Ida Mae's. It's hard for me to get around to all the striking apparel you'll find at SHELTON'S these days! adv.

MR. and MRS. JERRY ELLIS

Miss Nelda Joyce Bowlin, Jerry F. Ellis Married In Double Ring Rites

Miss Nelda Joyce Bowlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bowlin of Route 2, became the bride of J. Frederick Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Ellis of 911 East Hill, in rites read at 7:30 p.m. March 16.

Dr. Jones W. Weathers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony performed in Calvary Baptist Church, before an archway of greenery flanked with baskets of white gladioli and a branched candelabra holding tapers.

Leonard Ellington, organist, offered traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. William B. Cope as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Wears Original Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model gown of white imported French lace and nylon tulle ruffles over net and satin. Designed with a portrait neckline outlined with scalloped lace holding folds of tulle, the fitted bodice had long sleeves ending in points over the hands and terminated with a point at center front waistline. A voluminous waltz-length skirt of tiers of ruffled tulle was topped with an scalloped lace peplum coming to points at center front and back and emphasized by crinoline worn underneath. She carried a white Bible topped with roses.

Miss Dixie Bowlin attended her sister as maid of honor, and Mrs. Lanny Webb was bridesmatron. They wore identical gowns of blue taffeta fashioned with empire bodices, and full gored waltz-length skirts accented with center front panels extending the full length of the skirts. They wore matching headbands and carried bouquets of white carnations. Linda Bowlin, sister of the bride, and Bobby Ellis, brother of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. Linda wore a blue taffeta dress fashioned with square neckline, puff sleeves, full gathered skirt and a sash tied in back, with a matching head band.

Alvin Strickland of Abilene was best man, Don Bevers of Denver City was groomsmen, and ushers were Graham Swain of Brownfield and Mackey Hord of Lubbock.

Reception In Home

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Collier at 1204 East Buckley. The couple was assisted in receiving by their parents, Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Webb and Miss Bowlin.

The table was laid with a white cloth and featured a white carnation centerpiece flanked with blue tapers. Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Robert Brooks, Mrs. Lynn Wright, and Miss Shelby Thompson.

Guests attended from Lubbock, Lamesa, Portales, N.M., Abilene, Odessa, Midland, Skellytown, and Brownfield.

For a wedding trip, the bride chose a powder blue linen sheath dress with matching jacket, black accessories, and white rose corsage. After Saturday, they will be at home at 406 South Second.

Mrs. Ellis is a graduate of Wellman High School and is employed with Magnolia Petroleum Company here. Mr. Ellis is a graduate of Brownfield High School and Coyne Radio and Electronics, Chicago, Ill., and is employed with Gene Gunn Tire Store.

One of the most important discoveries of this miracle age of new medicines is the right use of vitamins. Properly taken they are a blessing to mankind.

Be cautious about claims made for their use by untrained door-to-door salesmen and stores that sell them under the name of food supplements. Compare the potency, price and quality of the vitamins they sell with the reliable brands we pharmacists offer.

Be wise. Ask your physician or pharmacist for the answer to your vitamin questions. We both are dedicated to consider your health more important than quick profits.

TERRY 4-H Roundup

By BOB ETHEREDGE
Assistant County Agent

Genell Cornett, Union 4-H Club member, was in the top three among 12 4-H candidates for princess of the South Plains Junior Livestock Show at Lubbock.

Although she was not chosen, Genell turned in an excellent performance of representing Terry County in the event last Saturday. Here's flowers to Genell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cornett of Route 5.

One of the five judges who selected the FFA princess was the president of Terry County 4-H Council, Hillbern Briscoe.

Bennie Haney is showing his Hampshire barrow at the Lubbock show at the time of this writing. Haney is the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Haney of Wellman. This is his first year of 4-H work.

James Riley Davis also is showing at Lubbock—a Berkshire barrow. He's in the eighth grade at Brownfield Junior High School, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Davis of Route 5.

Colonial Heights, Jessie G. Randal and West Ward 4-H clubs met last week and viewed beef cattle, sheep and swine judging colored slides.

Band Members Selling Candy To Secure Funds

Members of Brownfield High School Band currently are selling 50-cent chocolate bars, the money to be used for the group's annual banquet.

At the banquet, the band sweetheart and winner of the annual Sousa Award will be made known. The members urge that everyone buy his "chocolate bar" from them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Berryhill and Mr. and Mrs. Billie Gene Cason spent the week end visiting Juarez, El Paso, and points of interest in New Mexico. The trip was made to celebrate the Berryhill's second wedding anniversary Sunday, March 17.

Look who upset the "Low-price" Applecart!

This one's had them rubbing their eyes ever since it landed smack in the middle of the "low-price" field! The handsome rebel you see right here is upsetting tradition right and left on what a modest budget should buy. It's pricing a big 122-inch wheelbase right down with cars from four to seven inches shorter! It's adding a big bonus of extra road-hugging heft—and powering it with an all-new 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8 for highest horsepower per pound in the field! A lot of might and muscle for sure—but it's gentled like nothing else on the road by Pontiac's exclusive Level-Line Ride and Precision-Touch Controls. And remember—the Chieftain's standards of luxury and quality were set by the same men who gave America the incomparable Custom Star Chief Catalinas. What we're leading up to is this: If smaller cars have gotten you down, you can actually buy a Chieftain Pontiac for less than 30 models of the "low-price three"! Southwestern Life Insurance Company's 54th annual financial statement, released today, revealed record gains in sales and in the payment of policy benefits for 1956.

Operating in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico, Southwestern Life is represented in Brownfield by W. Graham Smith.

Assets, by which a company's true strength is best measured, amounted to $393,037,669, according to President James Ralph Wood of Dallas. Increase in the assets during the year amounted to almost $24 million.

The financial statement also showed a gain of over $125 million of Southwestern Life insurance in force, bringing the total amount of life insurance in force on December 31, 1956 to $1,466,401,879.

Wood said the field organization set a new record in sales for the eighth consecutive year, producing $266,104,960 of paid-for new business—an increase of over $47 million above the 1955 total.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATE DECLARES

Federal Government, State Must Work For Solutions To Dire Water Problem

"The farmer and rancher are entitled to a fair share of the national prosperity. Price supports, soil conservation and similar measures should be a part of any long-range program to put this essential part of our economy on a sound basis."

So said James P. Hart last week when he stopped briefly in Brownfield during a West Texas campaign tour. Hart, of Austin, is one of 23 candidates in the April 2 senatorial election.

Hart told the Brownfield NEWS that "The federal government must not encroach on the authority of the states in local matters." He also emphasized:

"The need for water is a national problem. The federal government should aid Texas in developing a system of dams and distribution canals which will make full use of the state's water resources."

The statement shows a total outstanding investment of $189,541,282 in such loans, which account for 48.22 per cent of Southwestern Life's total assets.

of the state's water resources."

The April 2 candidate listed some public services which "might" qualify him for election: 1932-36... district attorney of Travis County, 1938... special district judge of Travis, 1939-41... assistant attorney general in charge of the Oil and Gas Division for Gerald Mann, 1947... Appointed associated justice of Texas Supreme Court, 1948... elected to the court in highly successful race, and 1950-53... chancellor at University of Texas.

Poage Bill Will Cost 118,000 Cotton Acres

WASHINGTON, March 21 (Special)—Rep. George Mahon of the 19th District has reported from Washington that the controversy over the Poage cotton bill will continue for several weeks and that the outcome is uncertain.

Dates for further hearings have not been set.

Mahon said figures prepared by the Department of Agriculture show that if the Poage bill is enacted into law it will cost the 19th Congressional District of Texas 118,000 acres of cotton allotment next year, channeling the acres into East and Central Texas.

This would result from changing the base period for allotments from the previous five years as in the present law to the previous three years, Mahon explained. The Congressman and representatives of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., pointed this out in testimony before the House Committee on Agriculture last week.

One provision of the Poage bill would require the Department of Agriculture to establish a special loan on light spotted cotton. West Texans have been working for a light spot loan program for a long time. The Secretary of Agriculture now has the authority under the present law to establish such a program.

In order to take the light spot issue out of the area of controversy, Mahon has introduced a separate bill which provides for a loan on light spot cotton but which omits the objectionable provisions of the Poage bill. Mahon said he would work for a settlement of the controversy which would include elimination of all provisions of the Poage bill which are discriminatory toward West Texas.

The congressman pointed out that our cotton problems are national in scope and that no good purpose was being served by proposals reopening the cotton allotment fight between East and West Texas.

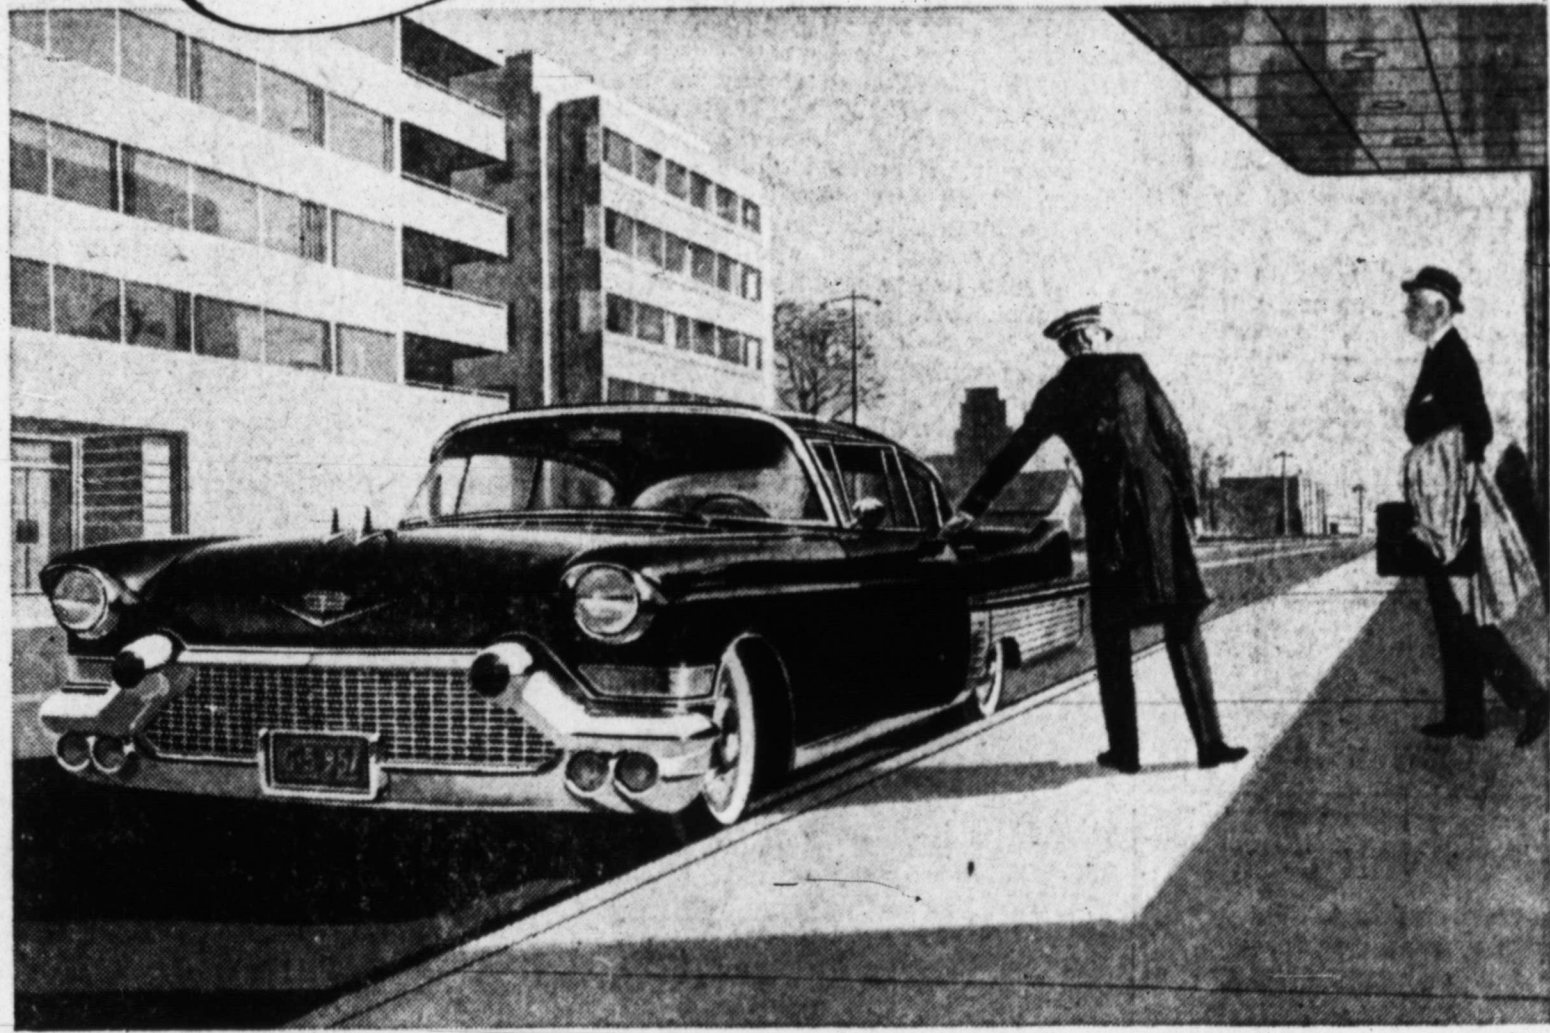

Mahon said he had received much helpful information in regard to the cotton acreage controversy from various farm organizations and farmers in West Texas and that he was presenting it to the House Committee on Agriculture. He said that he would keep West Texas farm groups advised of developments on the pending legislation.

Entering the door of the new building, located at Seagraves Road and Bandy Drive, is Mrs. R. J. (Jeanne) Boren, secretary for the firm for two years. Pioneer is owned and operated by Al Hallbauer, the trucking company, by his brother F. E. Hallbauer. Al lives at 1208 East Broadway with his wife and three children: Cindy 2, Allen Lee 10, and Leslie 17, who's a student at

New Meico Military Institute. F. E. lives at 104 North Cedar with his wife and son. Oilfield construction is Pioneer's business. For the purpose, the firm recently bought new machinery, including five bulldozers, 24 trucks and loading and grading equipment. The company has been operative here for three years, their work being done mostly in West Texas. In upper panel, Mrs. Boren is seated at her desk in the reception room. Cadillac Speaks A Language All Its Own!

Take a good look at this gentleman as he strides out into the early morning to his waiting car.

In all probability you feel—as we do—that you know a goodly number of things about him.

First of all, we would be willing to venture that he is a man who holds to high standards of achievement.

We would guess that he is held in high personal esteem by his friends and associates.

And we would also suppose that he is a practical man who is keenly aware of the basic value and worth of the things around him.

The reason for all this is not far to seek.

For the motor car that awaits him at the curb-side bears the beautiful crest of Cadillac. And here, beyond all conjecture, is the most eloquent spokesman in the entire realm of possessions.

In fact, the Cadillac car has, over the years, been so closely associated with the leading citizenry of our land that the two have become all but inseparable in the public mind.

And just as these motorists have placed their trust in Cadillac, so Cadillac has given them everything they could hope for in an automobile.

Cadillac has given them unduplicated beauty and luxury... unsurpassed performance and comfort... and extraordinary quality and value.

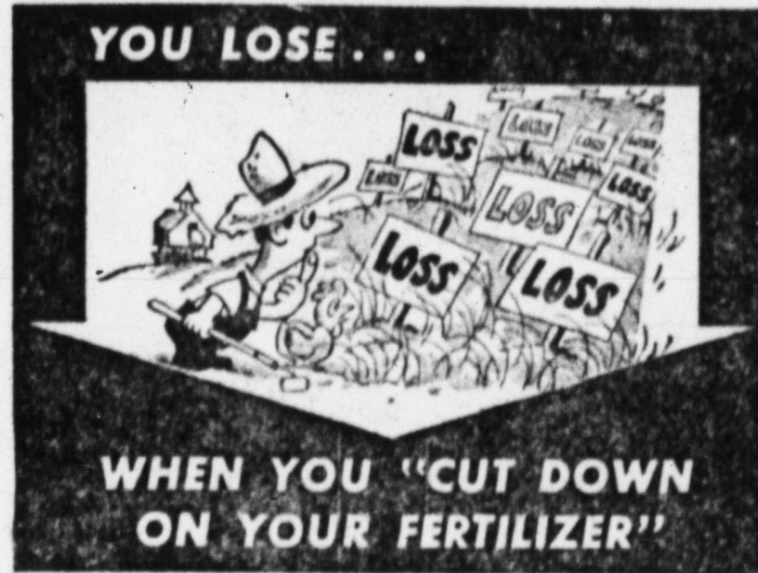

Have you driven a 1957 Cadillac? If not, we urge you to come in and let the car tell you its own thrilling story on the highway.

We think you will agree that this year, more than ever, Cadillac speaks a language all its own!

IN COMMUNITY DO-IT-YOURSELF

There's A Fine Lesson Here

In these take-it-easy, let-George-do-it days of bond issues, state and Federal handouts, we give you Laurinburg, a small North Carolina textile community, as the nation's shining example of courageous, independent do-it-yourself citizenship.

Combining civic spirit with the willingness to dig down deep into their own pockets, residents of Laurinburg battled 17 other larger cities for the privilege of assuming a multi-million dollar obligation. They pledged three million in a whirlwind community campaign, and as a sort of encore, gave $87,000 more to enlarge their hospital and an additional $40,000 for a municipal swimming pool! Little wonder that the National Municipal League and Look magazine named Laurinburg an All-American city — the smallest to be so honored, and the only one in the South.

Back of the commotion and the honors was the decision of three small Presbyterian colleges, located in three different cities, to merge into a single, consolidated Presbyterian College, construction of which would cost about seven million.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Laurinburg was impressed with the cultural and educational advantages and the general progress such an institution could bring to their city. They convinced 500 others, and the campaign was on. Pledges from 3,000 individuals soon totaled more than three million dollars. Many were reported as giving not merely a tenth of their income, but a tenth of their net worth!

Particularly impressive was the performance of Laurinburg's textile industry, hard hit in recent years by the severe price depression brought about by the flood of low-cost Japanese imports. The town's 2,900 workers contributed $110,000 to the college. The nine mills and their executives gave $850,000 — for an industry total of about one third of the entire fund.

It has been pointed out that neither the college nor the fancy new swimming pool is a financial asset. Rather, from a bookkeeping standpoint, they are liabilities. But the townspeople believe that both will contribute to the kind of city they intend to have.

On the other hand, Halbert M. Jones, textile executive, and the man who presented the Laurinburg story to the All America nominating committee, figures that by their spontaneous and forthright giving, his fellow citizens are "obtaining facilities at a net cost of 40 to 50 percent less" than by floating bond issues. What it would have cost to use "free money" from Washington, no one can tell — except that it's never free, and complete surrender of local management and control are part of the down payment.

Most important of all, the people of Laurinburg have displayed the self-confidence, the faith and the fortitude not merely to meet their own problems, but to seek out and seize their own opportunities. Many in Laurinburg are feeling the pinch of their own generosity — but all are free, and all are proud. They are not infested with Federal overseers — and are not about to be.

THE AMERICAN WAY

ATLANTIC CHARTER FOR WORKERS

By George Peck
 (EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

Early in the year 1942, shortly after the Japs catapulted this nation into World War II, Winston Churchill, Prime Minister Great Britain and Franklin Roosevelt, President of the U. S. A. met and drew up the "Atlantic Charter" which set forth four freedoms to which England and America pledged themselves to fight to the death to achieve.

George Peck

William P. Witherow, at that time President of the National Association of Manufacturers, countered with what he termed an "Atlantic Charter for Business," outlining four freedoms which he believed were a "must" if the Axis

Powers were to be defeated in war:

- (1) Freedom from inflation — a blown-up war debt and keep it shortest possible time. These at would saddle America with our grandchildren paying and paying while damning our stupidity.
- (2) Freedom from unwise taxes that would deplete the essential resources of industry, inviting post-war economic chaos.
- (3) Freedom from strikes for the duration of the war.
- (4) Freedom for industrial management to run it own affairs, as far as would be compatible with wartime restrictions, so that it could devote its energy to winning the war of production.

While Business was not accorded a full measure of these four freedoms, enough was granted and American industry performed miracles of production that were the greatest factor in achieving victory over Germany and Japan. The American working man, the most important partner of industry did his part toward the accomplishment of this remarkable feat.

It is now twelve years since the end of World War II. In the interim this nation became involved in a "Police Action" in Korea—a United Nations project, but one in which America bore the brunt. Again American

The investigating committee has continued their work this week. The work of the group looking into the ICT Insurance Company grows larger and larger. We should have a report this week from the committee investigating the James Cox case.

Biggest news this week is that the House approved a record $2 billion major appropriation bill, after 14 hours of almost continuous debate. This was accomplished by staying in session until 12:50 a.m., last Friday.

The bill passed substantially as it came out of committee. There were three amendments added to the two-year spending budget which were proposed by the House Appropriations Committee. They included $2,154,000 for expanded county agriculture extension services, $35,750 for a cotton marketing research at the University of Texas, and some $1-million for 200 additional beds at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston.

The comptroller estimates that there will be still some $40 million in the state's treasury.

This Week in Austin

SEN. PRESTON SMITH

With three separate investigating committees functioning in Austin, more arguments appear daily in favor of Gov. Price Daniel's proposal that the state authorize a law enforcement commission for Texas.

The foundation for such a commission would be grand jurors selected from the 11 state judicial districts. This would do away with many one-shot investigating committees appointed in the House and Senate.

At present, two such investigating committees, one from the House and the other from the Senate, are looking into the ICT Insurance situation while a third committee is delving into the alleged offer of Rep. Cox to commercially withdraw his own bill which threatened to outlaw the practice of naturopathy in Texas.

There is no question of the sincerity of the nine House members who are conducting the Cox inquiry, or of the two committees investigating the ICT situation.

But there are arguments, however, against the type of committees they represent.

The mere mechanics of appointing a House inquiry group resulted in a wide breach in that body. Some of this stems by the Cox affair could have who wanted, and even asked for, places on the committee, and were not selected. Some of it stems from sincere protests of East Texas legislators that they have no representation on the committee.

The investigating committee members themselves are in jeopardy of being criticized by the House as "witch hunters" or for attempting to advance themselves politically. This breach in the House caused investigations of insurance companies will continue beyond the session's end.

Panels in both houses are delving into circumstances leading to the bankruptcy of the ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas. The more they investigate the more widespread and complicated the involvements.

Recent disclosures from testimony: Former Insurance Commission Chairman Garland Smith was on several occasions the guest of Ben Jack Cate, onetime ICT head, on pleasure trips. Smith's son-in-law, Max Wayne Rychlik, received $8,400 in salary from Cate, for a job with no duties. ICT lost $2,000,000 in a series of stock transactions with Pierce Brooks, head of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. of Dallas.

A Senate committeeman said that an independent investigator had been hired to look into the affairs of at least five other insurance companies.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed a bill by Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria to reorganize the Insurance Commission. It abolishes the present board and substitutes an executive director and a part-time, three-man policy board.

An amendment by Sen. Frank Owen of El Paso would require the Insurance Commission to move out of its headquarters. It occupies some eight floors of the International Life Insurance Co. building in Austin.

Owen contended that the state should not be paying rent to an insurance company over which it exercises control. Opponents counter that insurance companies of Texas pay the rent and the money does not come out of the state's general revenue fund.

They say further that if the commission returned to the old Land Office building, now in See HIGHLIGHTS Page 5 from jealousy of individuals very well some effect on the legislative program.

These and other current events have influenced support for the governor's law enforcement commission to replace many single-shot investigating groups.

American—

can workers and industrial management more than held up their ends.

Now, we are engaged in a "Cold War" against a nation and its group of satellites which threatens to become hot and plunge the world into a third world war that will destroy civilization. Most certainly we must keep our "powder dry" against an emergency which we hope and pray will not come to pass. Most certainly we must keep American industry strong, according to the maximum of freedom to management and workers—especially to the workers.

Testimony now being given before the McClellan Committee of the United States Senate, holding hearings on racketeering in our labor unions, certifies that the large arena in the auditorium will make the giant production possible.

mainly indicates that many American workers are not enjoying the freedoms they so richly merit. There seems to be a crying need of an "Atlantic Charter for Workers" that will emancipate that segment of their ranks from the dictatorial slavery imposed upon it by self-seeking and racketeering leaders. The four freedoms of such a Charter could well be:

(1) Freedom to work where

Navy Band To Play Twice in Lubbock

Scheduled for two performances at the Lubbock auditorium Saturday, March 23, the United States Navy Band is primarily a stirring military band, capable of doing justice to all the magnificent works of music written for a band. The approximately 100 musicians who make up the group are men of such fine musical versatility that the band may on a moment's notice furnish a great symphony, a lively foot-tickling dance band or a string ensemble.

Commander Charles Brendler, conductor of the band, collects musical scores of all ages, including those just off the composer's desk.

Tickets for the appearance in Lubbock are on sale at the box office, priced at $1.00 on the lower floor and $1.50 in the balcony, for the Student's Matinee; and $2.00 on the lower

The Clock Keeps TICKING

The clock never stops and moment by moment life is ebbing away from each one of us. Each swing of the pendulum means one less moment of our earthly existence. Whether that fact strikes terror in one's heart depends on whether or not he is reconciled to God. Fear paralyzes the ability to affirm life and eliminates any chance for a meaningful life. The Church proclaims that God is love and that love casts out fear. Even the passing of life will not be fearful to those who are reconciled to God. Give yourself a chance. Go to Church on Sunday!

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has commited the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redemption. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God.

the Church in everyone!*

'Credit Squeeze' Relief From Personal Savings?

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT
NEW YORK, March 18—Rising personal savings promise more in the way of relieving the so-called credit squeeze than all the rhetoric now being devoted to the topic in and out of Congress.

In the final quarter of 1956, the Department of Commerce reports, savings were 7.6 per cent of personal incomes. That's marked increase from the 6.8 per cent reported for the like quarter of 1955.

Of course, statistical savings are not quite the same as money in the bank. Reduction in mortgage indebtedness and rises in cash surrender values of life insurance policies are both counted statistically as savings. In truth, they are savings, but we don't usually consider them that.

Savings institutions reported their rate of adding deposits showed no change from 1955 to 1956. So the fact that savings rose is a tribute to the campaign of the New York Stock Exchange and individual investment houses to have savings put directly into corporate securities. Net purchases of such securities last year were twice those of 1955.

Moreover, as 1956 progressed securities buyers turned more and more to bonds—a shift which the course of common stock prices shows to have been a wise one.

Higher savings and lower spending—the two must go hand in hand—will soon relieve credit stringency, if nothing political is done to upset the apparent before this result arrives.

Atoms For Industry—The atomic energy industry and nuclear technology are going through a transition period from essentially military into largely peaceful applications. Present and anticipated dimensions of the peacetime nuclear industry are so great that almost every segment of industry can expect some impact from the new technology.

Among the country's leading corporations with a broad interest in industrial and therapeutic applications of atomic energy and its by-products is Schenley Industries, Inc., a major producer of alcoholic beverages, pharmaceuticals, copolymer and farm feeds. Lewis S. Rosenstiel, chairman of the board and president, announced this week that the company is one of the firms participating ing with the Case Institute of Technology of Cleveland in the Case Industrial Nuclear-Center Study Group.

The study, it is hoped, will lead to the building of a nuclear research and development center in Ohio. This would include a high-flux engineering test reactor and associated equipment to support a broad program of research, education and training in the nuclear sciences and their application to industrial processes.

Things To Come—"Wireless Electronic Nurse" is the name of a sending device that is plugged in above an infant's bed. Any noises break in on the nearest radio or television receiver. Little girls are going for electric trains, too. The principal maker has just turned out some in pink, blue, lilac, and yellow. A new playhouse, built like an igloo, fits together with ball joints that are locked with a screwdriver after the structure is erected.

Junior's car seat has grown up to include an extra-large steering wheel; contoured braces, thick plastic cushion and safety belt.

Right Path For Corn—There's a tremendous surplus of corn in America. Now agricultural economists in the nation's private grain-handling trade believe they have found a way to get rid of it. This is simply to apply to corn an export program like that now in effect for wheat.

Wheat export, previously entirely in government hands, was restored last September to private industry. Since then 210 million bushels have been shipped abroad. That's considerably more than twice the 89 million bushels the government shipped in the like period of 1955-56.

Industry economists ask: "Why not the same program for corn?"

They feel that the problems of surplus are similar, and that experience with wheat tends to prove that, whatever the government is able to export under the present system, much more could be shipped by returning responsibility to private hands.

Shorter Summer—Last fall's ore piles on the southern shores of Lake Erie are larger than anyone expected, so the opening of shipping traffic on the Great Lakes will probably be deferred until April 15. Last year the first boats put out around April 1.

The Great Lakes aren't as dangerous as the annual announcement that they are "open" implies. Boats can run until Thanksgiving, and could start right now, if it were worth while, but most often it isn't.

A boat caught in ice around the Soo or the Straits of Mackinac would be in little real danger, but the payroll would go right on while the voyage was suspended. And it's true that there is enough actual danger that insurance rates are higher on early and late voyages.

Bits O' Business—Retail sales in February, at $14.2 billion, were 7 per cent above those of February, 1956. Auto production in the March 8 week was up to 141,393 units. Paper production in the March 2 week eased to 95 per cent of capacity from 97.4 the week before.

Highlights—

adequate for the enlarged commission, the state would be providing free space and forcing other departments to move—and pay rent.

They also point out that there is no other building in Austin large enough to house the Insurance Commission.

Gov. Price Daniel is supporting a bill in the House, by Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, which would provide a full-time insurance board. The Senate version is not the Governor's bill.

New Commission Pushed—Governor Daniel has put the "emergency" label on his request for a State Law Enforcement Commission.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria submitted the Governor's proposal in a bill co-signed by 102 House members.

Commission's duty would be to "put the spotlight of truth" on charges of official misconduct.

Twelve members would include a chairman appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, plus 11 other members named by grand jury foremen in the state's judicial districts.

Daniel Backs TPA Bills—Simultaneously with his announcement of a Crime Commission Bill, Governor Daniel gave unqualified endorsement of 15 "Better Government" legislative measures recommended by the Texas Press Association.

Daniel extended his personal compliments to TPA and the press of Texas for "unselfish effort in the fight to bring better government to the State and its citizens."

In his endorsement the Governor said the 15 bills sponsored by the press of Texas would supply some badly needed laws, and strengthen several existing laws. They have my unqualified endorsement.

New Water Board—Another phase of the water conservation program has reached conference committee stage. Bills to create the Texas Water Development Board passed both houses.

Senate version calls for a five-member board: House, three members, Board's responsibility would be to administer the proposed $200,000,000 bond issue. Money is to be loaned to local districts for conservation projects.

Truckers Seek Increase—A bill to increase truck-load limits has stirred the perennial controversy between the motor freight and railroad industries.

Truckers are pushing a bill to increase the limit, now 58,420 to 72,000 pounds. Backers contend that putting the increased weight on an extra axle would mean no more wear and tear on roads than present loads. Truckers, they add, paid $97,000,000 or 41 per cent of state highway use taxes in 1956.

A State Highway Department bridge designer said that a 72,000-pound load would shorten the lives of Texas bridges.

A railroad spokesman warned that truckers "can't pay enough for the damage done to Texas highways."

Loan Laws Urged—Measures to regulate small loan businesses are being studied in the House. At committee hearings Former Sec'y of State Tom Reavley, the Texas Junior Bar and a military official made strong appeals for loan regulation. They cited cases of interest and charges allegedly running to nearly 30 per cent.

A bill by Rep. Tony Koriath of Sherman would license persons making loans up to $500, allow 10 per cent interest and other charges up to 3 per cent a month on unpaid balance of less than $100.

Mental Health Department—Session's trend toward reorganizing state agencies has

Farmers Will Need Many Forms In Their Application for Old-Age Insurance Money

Farmers who are giving up the operation of their farms and intend to apply for old age insurance benefits should bring the necessary proofs to support their claims with them when they visit the Social Security Administration district office.

A representative from the Lubbock social Security office will be in Brownfield March 28 at 9 a.m. in the basement courthouse.

Having proof of age and earnings when you go to the office will speed up the processing of claims and make return visits unnecessary. A farmer when he retires and applies for old-age benefits will need extra copies of his 1955 and 1956 federal income tax returns, proof of his age, his social security tax receipts for 1955 and 1956 and his social security account number.

For a self-employed farmer making a claim, proof of earnings is a "must". He should bring along a cancelled check, money order stub, or some other evidence to show that his income tax returns for 1955 and 1956 were filed with the district director of internal revenue.

If his wife has passed her 62nd birthday and is making claim for old age benefits at the same time, it is important that she, too, bring along proof of age. A birth certificate, established at the time of birth, is the best proof of age. However, if you do not have one, don't put off filing your claim for that reason.

Mrs. Charlie Barret and three daughters and Mrs. Arvil Hall and daughter spent the weekend visiting relatives in Caddo, Okla., Cartwright and Sherman.

Hopeful Crop Year Is In Sight, Says Agriculture Leader

Although Texas' drought remains unbroken, it has been eased somewhat and many farmers face their first hopeful crop prospects in years, say John C. White, state agriculture commissioner.

Not since 1931 has planting moisture been available to so many of our hard-hit farmers.

Good February rains have fallen over much of the state, restoring confidence to hundreds of those who have survived the long, dry years in between.

In the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where early prospects were dim and irrigation water critically low, cotton plants have begun to emerge and many farmers have withdrawn cotton acreage originally signed up under the Acreage Reserve Program.

Probably the most encouraging report of all, however, comes from the real drouth bowl which lies south of San Antonio and west of Laredo. That area has been virtually without rain for seven years, and only this year have many cotton farmers had proper planting moisture, White explained.

As a practical matter pink bollworm regulations which prevented cotton planting in 22 of these South Texas counties before March 5 were changed to allow farmers to take full advantage of the mid-February rains. And those who planted on the heels of the first rains were blessed by later moisture which should bring their crops up.

But even with glowing reports from these and other sections of the state we are still faced with the lasting effects of drouth hardship. Even if the drouth should end soon, and we have no assurance that it will, recovery is still a long way off.

The dry weather has left its mark with many mortgages, wind-eroded fields and broken spirits. Drouth relief measures must be continued without relaxation and all future aid consideration must go on.

The future, as in all of these lean years, remain uncertain.

Engineers Oppose Heavier Loads For Trucks on Highways

AUSTIN, March 20 — Texas Highway Department engineers are on record that the state's bridges are not designed to carry the 72,000-pound gross weight sought by truckers in bills before the legislature.

Randle B. Alexander, chief bridge designer for the state, and E. A. Jelinek, supervising design engineer, so testified before the House committee on motor traffic.

Said Jelinek: "There is not a single bridge in our state designed for two tandem (double) 32,000 pound axles."

The trucking interests are seeking to increase vehicle limits from 58,420 pounds to 72,000 pounds by placing a second tandem axle under trucks. Alexander declared the 95 per cent of the bridges can not safely carry the proposed 72,000 pounds.

"Only a maximum of 5 per cent of the bridges in Texas can carry 72,000 pound loads," Alexander told committee members.

"I am not going to say that they are going to wreck our bridges, but in my opinion the life of the bridges will be shortened."

He added that occasionally the Highway Department had to replace or repair bridges damaged or destroyed by heavy trucks.

Both Alexander and Jelinek pointed out that bridges on the main highways are designed for loads of 40,000 pounds and that those on the farm-to-market roads are built for 30,000 pound traffic.

Numerous county judges and members of county commissioners' courts testified that trucks are leaving the primary roads and are destroying the more lightly-constructed rural pavement and bridges.

Their testimony was summed up in statements by County Judges Henry J. Schovajsa

The official lid is being kept on talk about cutting the government budget, but the fact is a strong back-stage pressure is being built up for sizeable cuts, with foreign aid as the principal target. There's grumbling, too, about the size of the defense budget.

Congress is in an economy mood. There is no doubt about that. Congressmen who have been here for many years tell us they are getting more spending protests than ever before from their constituents.

Treasury Secretary George Humphrey has quieted down, publicly, but in private talks with congressmen apparently is not discouraging them from making cuts in the budget. Word is that the White House told him to "lay off" talking for publication.

It is a well-established, although little known, practice of government agencies to lobby Congress for all the money they can get. These lobbyists are government officials on the public payroll.

By contrast, there are almost none here who represent and speak for taxpayers before the appropriations committees. It is the common practice to hold appropriations hearings in secret, behind locked and guarded doors. Testimony is edited, and released only after the appropriation bills have been passed by Congress and signed by the President.

When it is too late to do anything about it, taxpayers learn the size of the government bill they are going to have to pay. Their only hope is that the appropriations committees will whittle the agency demands and that the Senate and House will buck up any cuts they make.

The $72 billion Federal budget for the year starting next July 1 looks awfully big to a lot of taxpayers who will have to foot the bill. That bill will amount to almost $500 per person, on a national average. Several congressmen tell us they won't dare go home unless they vote for a reduction in government spending.

The difficulty is that they are not given enough unbiased information on which to make intelligent cuts. Probably 99% of the testimony in hearings is for the budget requests, and very little argument against them. They hesitate to vote blindly against White House estimates of what is needed.

This hesitancy is especially true in the case of defense and foreign aid estimates. No congressman wants to weaken the national defense. The two combined—military functions and foreign aid—amount to $45.3 billion, or almost two-thirds of the 1955 fiscal year budget.

The international situation being what it is, there isn't much chance that Congress will override Presidential objections and whittle any sizeable chunk off defense and foreign aid spending. It isn't, however, too difficult to detect a feeling on Capitol Hill that some of our allies ought to be doing more for themselves.

It takes $7.4 billion a year just to pay the interest on the $269 billion national debt and that, of course, can't be cut. The debt carrying charge accounts for more than 10 cents out every dollar collected in taxes.

That leaves only about $20 billion for all other government expenses, and odds are against Congress cutting those as much as 10%. So, you can look for very little reduction in government spending—or in taxes, for that matter.

of Fayette county and Sam Stone of Williamson county that trucks do 90 per cent of the damage to the roads and that it is expensive to the state and to the counties.

Lamesa To Host 500 Rotarians April 7-9 At Spring Meeting

April 7, 8 and 9, the Lamesa Rotary Club will be host to an expected 500 Rotarians from all over West Texas at the annual Spring Conference of the Organization.

Plans for entertaining housing and feeding the larger than usual number of members who are expected to attend, are well underway by the local club. Hundreds of rooms are being made available by hotels, motels and private citizens for the influx of visitors.

Restaurants are expected to put on their best "bib and tucker" for the three-day affair, and the city as a whole is preparing to open its heart to welcome Rotarians.

The planned "Friendship House", set for Sunday afternoon and evening, will be held at the newly completed Lamar Forrest Community Center, in beautiful Forrest Park.

The $40,000 structure, erected with funds obtained by voluntary subscriptions from Rotarians and civic-minded Lamesans, was turned over to the City of Lamesa upon completion, for use by all the residents of the city.

Several entertaining and interesting sessions have also been arranged for Rotarians, wives of members.

Several speakers in International Rotary will be on hand for the general sessions of the organization. Entertainment will also be sparked by top names in the world of entertainment.

Members of the housing committee have announced that reservations have already begun to pour in, several requests are being filled daily, and an attendance mark of over 500 persons in almost assured.

To Make Laundering Lighter...Washdays Brighter...*

Smart Moderns go GAS!

AUTOMATIC GAS
CLOTHES DRYER

*You've no idea how much lighter your washday load can be 'til you've tried a work-saving GAS clothes dryer—minus all the lugging, lifting, stooping and stretching that go with old fashioned line drying. Lightens the load on hubby's pocketbook, too. Did you know that it costs only about $2.60 a year to dry clothes for a family of four? Plus the fact that GAS drying saves on clothes because it's easier on cloth fibres than outdoor drying! Is it any wonder, then, why SMART Moderns go Gas?

For all the facts, consult your Gas Company... then see a gas appliance dealer.
