SCHEDULED MAY 17-18

Ambitious Program Is Set for Cotton Week

Plans were adopted temporarily Tuesday for an ambitious two-day program here to introduce National Cotton Week, May 19-25.

From a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce, the following emerged:

The occasion will be held May 17-18, and will be known officially as the Terry County Cotton Carnival. The program will involve parades, carnival atmosphere, clowns, booths, musical review both nights in Brownfield High School auditorium, bands, floats, a maid of cotton ball and crowning of the maid of cotton.

In addition, these persons will be named: the prince and princess of cotton (6-12 years old), duchess of cotton (13-19 years old), and matron of cotton (more than 24 years old).

The foregoing program was determined during the chamber session, attended by the following:

Mrs. Loyce Floyd, chairman of Terry County Home Demonstration Council; Mrs. M. E. Henson, council treasurer; Mrs. Tom Pettigrew, council vice-chairman; Miss Shirley Holbrooks, Terry County home demonstration agent; and Dennis Q. Lilly, chairman of chamber's agriculture committee; Coot Arnold, chairman of chamber's retail committee; Charlie Kersh and R. D. Jones Sr., directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.; Virgle Travis, chairman of Terry County unit of National Cotton Council; Jim Foy, county agent; Joe Satterwhite, chamber manager, and Hal Roche, who was asked to promote this year's observance.

Here are members of the steering committee: Roche, Kersh, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Henson, Arnold, Jones and J. T. (Jake) Fulford, president of Terry County Farm Bureau.

It is contemplated that the event and those in coming years will be self-sustaining. Persons attending one or both of the two nightly programs in the auditorium will be charged $1.

Mrs. Floyd emphasized that the observance was to be participated in by "everyone in the county. All girls and women in Terry are eligible to enter one of the major age-classification contests."

More than 10 major committees comprising some 100 persons will be working to put across this year's event.

A meeting to talk further plans will be held at 7 p.m. Friday in the courthouse. The public is urged to attend, said Mrs. Floyd.

EARLY SUNDAY

Fire Hits Drug Firm

Brownfield police this morning still were investigating suspected arson in the fire which destroyed Primm Drug Store in the early hours of last Sunday.

Police Chief James Tippitt and Sheriff James Fulford explained that they suspect a burglar set fire to the store in an attempt to cover his tracks.

C. C. Primm, owner of the firm, said about $5,000 in jewelry and $200 in silver, plus a bottle of opium, were missing when he took inventory soon after the blaze.

Damages have been estimated at $80,000.

The fire was discovered just before midnight by Patrolman Zane Williams. Chief Leonard Issacs and about 28 volunteer firemen battled the blaze and controlled it about 1 a.m.

Issacs this morning paid warm tribute to Brownfield's volunteer firemen. The blaze was fought in bitterly cold wind, made more troublesome by flying spray.

Firewalls on each side of the drug store apparently protected Fair Department Store and Wacker's Variety Store, located on each side. Some smoke damages resulted, however.

Primm said the firm was burglarized about three years ago when more than $10,000 was taken from a safe. However, the safe apparently was not tampered with Sunday.

IN THE PICTURES

— Brownfield property failed to escape completely the wrath of last weekend's "big blow." From left in the pictures: An early Sunday morning scene at Primm Drug Store, 111 South Sixth, which was gutted by fire. Volunteer firemen, working in bitter cold wind, are shown playing water on the blaze. In middle panel is the Rev. L. C. Robinson, pointing to blown-out window pane in his church, New Hope Baptist. Recognize the tumbled sign? It's the huge familiar Piggly Wiggly sign at the intersection of Hill and Fifth streets. In extreme right panel is shown a wire fence near Terry County Park. Medical Needs for County To Be Reviewed By Group

Is there a need for more doctors and hospital facilities in Terry County?

Answer to the question will be sought in days to come by a seven-man committee appointed this week by Terry County Commissioners Court.

Committeemen are Henry Chisholm, Robert Beasley,

Superintendent And Football Coach To Resign at Wellman

Wellman school board trustees last week accepted the resignations of Supt. J. T. Bryant and Head Coach I. T. (Rip) Sewell.

The superintendent has been with the Wellman schools since 1948, and Sewell, since 1952.

Bryant said he was resigning to establish a permanent residence in a college town. His contract is to be terminated Aug. 1.

Both Bryant and Sewell said this morning that they were well satisfied with the Wellman school and that its spirit, salary and operation were excellent.

They explained that they owed it to their families, however, to look for advancement in the school profession.

Marvin McNutt, George O'Neal, Curtis Sterling, C. E. Ross and L. D. Hamm Sr.

The court appointed the study group after consultation with three directors of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce: O'Neal, Sterling, Morgan Copeland.

The trio was appointed last fall by the chamber's full board to approach the court. This it learned quickly this week.

Terry County already is at the constitutional tax limit of 80 cents per $100 valuation. County Judge Herb Chesshir told the trio that "Only way to derive more money from the 80-cent limit is to increase property valuations."

Broken down, the 80 cents is distributed 45 to the general fund, 15 to the road and bridge fund, 6 to jury fund and 14 to permanent improve-

Neither Sleet, Nor Rain Nor Hail Deter High School Choirs

Morton, Slaton, Littlefield and Plainview — high school choirs from these towns won sweepstakes honors here last Saturday.

Event was the annual vocal music competition festival of Region 1, University Interscholastic League.

Terrific winds and blowing sand, plus sunshine, rain, snow, sleet and cold failed to deter more than 1,200 students and teachers who came here from 19 South Plains schools for the occasion.

Each of the sweepstakes winners, determined by the taking of first places in both concert and sight singing, received silver plaques.

The seven men are to report to the court in the near future.

Terry Wildcat Indicates Good Devonian Pay

Prolific Devonian production has been indicated on a drillstem test at J. C. Williamson of Midland No. 1, west-central Terry County wildcat.

Test was conducted opposite a Devonian interval from 12,500-707 feet. With tool open 44 minutes, 2,500 feet of water blanket surfaced in 10 minutes and oil flowed by heads in 29 minutes.

Oil flowed to pits at the estimated rate of 60 barrels oil per hour for remainder of test. A full string of oil, 12,600 feet, was reversed out, with no water. Formation pressures ranged from 4,050-5,170 pounds, flowing, and 15-minute shutin was 5,340 pounds.

Operator was conditioning hole at total depth of 12,707 feet at last report.

The significant Devonian prospect earlier encountered fair pay shows in the Spraberry lime and flowed oil on a drillstem test of the Wolfcamp. Flow from the Wolfcamp was at the rate of 10 barrels oil per-hour and there was no formation water.

Wellsite locates 2,310 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of Section 93, Block D-11, C&MRR survey; 11½ miles west of Brownfield. It is one-half mile north of depleted Devonian production in the Coroco pool and four and one-half miles northwest of the Texaco No. 1 Black, completed as a Devonian discovery last year.

News and Views

Ever give much thought to why Brownfield shouldn't attract more conventions?

Principal drawback to handling such events in most cities of comparable size is the lack of hotel or motel space, eating and parking facilities and general assembly room.

What with our new motels, fine eating places and the new Brownfield High School auditorium, perhaps we are missing the boat, somewhere?

Manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce posed the following situation this week: "Why not start off a possible string of conventions here by grabbing the District 183 Rotary session next year?"

Not to leave the impression that "nothing ever is held here," we remind everyone of the April 9-10 PTA convention and the May 31 convention of IFA which will be in Brownfield.

We want to congratulate Jim Bayless and the men who served during 1956 on the first Chamber of Commerce retail committee. They were successful in getting some designed parking lots in use which has been complimented many times by other businessmen and shoppers.

We also are hopeful the City Council will pass the two hour parking law or come up with something similar to make the downtown parking spaces available to customers rather than employees and employers.

We are happy to welcome some newcomers to our Brownfield and into some local business establishments, such as Walter Hord who will join Portwood Motor Company's selling force Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hord have been in Lovington where Walter was working for Jackson Chevrolet Company. See NEWS VIEWS Page 6

BEAUTY — Pictured above is Miss Rita Holmesley of Brownfield Kappa Zeta Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Miss Holmesley has been entered in the beauty contest, which will be held in conjunction with the ESA state convention, May 17-18 in Odessa. The event will be judged by Lawrence Walk, famed "champagne" music leader. Some 15 Kappa Zetas are to take part in the Odessa sessions. (Lowe's Photo) ball mentor, were presented twin lounge chairs by the community in appreciation of their accomplishments this year.

Faculty members, trustees, parents and other supporters of the teams also were on hand for the cafeteria-style dinner, which included barbecue, chicken and dressing, steak and gravy, salads, numerous desserts, tea and coffee.

To round out the trustee election picture, voters in Precincts 3 and 4 will cast their ballots in Elmer Brownlee's courthouse office for county trustees. Incumbents E. H. Farrar of No. 3 and J. L. Lyon of No. 4 have no opposition. Also to be elected is a county trustee-at-large. The post currently is being held by L. D. Hamm Sr., and he has no opposition.

We learned today that Charles Goza, attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, has received the $100 Valdean Durette scholarship. The award helps defray his college expenses. It is given to the student who contributed most to athletics in his senior year at Wellman High School. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Goza. Mr. Goza teaches science here.

Representing the Cubs will be Johnny Raybon, Jackie Meeks, Johnny Jones, Ellis Cox, Jerry Don Huckabee, Larry Meeks, Ronnie Bartley and Eugene Hughlett.

Although the Cubs haven't fared outstanding during the current season, there have been some impressive marks set by the local lads. Raybon was clocked at 50.9 for the 440. Jackie Meeks hit the broad jump and marked 20 feet 11 inches and Jones putting the shot hit the 47-foot mark.

During the two-day meet Raybon will run the 400 and 440, Jackie Meeks has been assigned the broad jumping chores, Jones will enter the shot put competition, Cox and Jones will comprise the high jump team. Larry Meeks and Jones will run the high hurdles and Hughlett will do the pole vaulting.

Postal Receipts Here Show Jump Over 1956

Postal receipts here through March 28 totaled $19,415, Postmaster Joe Shelton said this morning.

The total represents a 9 per cent, or $1,964, increase above the same period of last year.

Postal receipts comprise stamp sales, newspaper and circular mailing.

News-Views—

Gene Gunn is quite proud to announce the addition of a new assistant manager to his business with acquiring Clarence Dewbree who will handle tire and appliance sales. Clarence and wife have a 16-year-old daughter who will be in school and a 13-year-old boy. They are members of the Church of Christ.

Jerry Ellis is also back in town after spending several months with RCA in the Bahama Islands working as an electronic technician on radar controlled guided missiles. Jerry is also with Gene Gunn as a TV technician.

Bill Green also is being announced in this issue of the paper as sales manager of New cars and trucks for Portwood Motor Company.

It was quite surprising to learn that well over 800 samples of soil have been tested in the Goodpasture Agricultural Laboratory since its opening. They are learning that a number of the better farmers in the county are finding a big shortage of potash in their soil. So if you have been irrigating your cotton for several years you might want to have your soil analyzed.

We learned this week that Terry was ninth in cotton production among the cotton-producing counties this past year, and from the numbers of wells going down we might get closer to the top by the end of 1957.

Heard a good farmer say this week, "You mark my word, within 10 years Terry County will be a big livestock producing county again." He reasoning is that this one way to fertilizing and building the organic matter of the soil and making money too.

We want to thank all the people who were brave enough to come to visit our new building last Saturday and to thank those wonderful friends of ours who sent flowers. The weather was disagreeable and if you would like to visit, feel free to come by this Friday and Saturday and some of us will be available to show you through. We are proud of our new facilities and nothing would please us more than to have every person in Terry County visit at your convenience sometime this year.

TEENS' PROBLEMS APPEAR PARAMOUNT

Consideration Shown For Youth in Future

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The question: What change or addition would you like most to see made in Brownfield? Here are some answers.)

By DON NOBLE NEWS Staff Writer

J. O. SATTERWHITE of 801 East Broadway: "Brownfield almost has doubled in population since 1950, and as our city grows the problems of our youth increase. The problems our other endeavors, that we must be considered, along with might maintain a clean, wholesome town."

"We have organized little leagues, and certainly they are doing a tremendous job. But what about the youngster who is not quite good enough to make one of these teams. He still likes to belong and surely should not be left out. Most any vacant lot should provide him a place for supervised play.

"We surely don't want to forget our girls. They also enjoy wholesome recreation, and are entitled to just that."

"We believe that one of the means of helping our teenagers get the stream out of their systems is the organization of a Hot Rod Club, supervised to conform with the National Youth Hot Rod Association."

"We also need a juvenile club, properly supervised by adults who are interested in working with youth and in helping them through this age of adventure. That within itself will be Brownfield of tomorrow."

MRS. O. D. KENNEDY of 709 East Lake: "If it were in my power to change or add to Brownfield, I first of all should create a closer relationship between all the people of Terry County. This is chiefly a farming area, and our interests are similar. So . . . I most of all would like to see the county as one big community."

"My heart, however, goes to the youth of this county. My greatest desire is that we provide them with proper facilities for education and recreation. We sorely need improved library facilities and a recreational program for all our youth."

"We need trained workers, of course, but we also need volunteers who understand the problems and needs, to work until such a time that sufficient funds are available."

"Our churches, 4-H clubs, Scouts and Little League are but a few of the places of services where help is needed. If it were in my power, I would like to see all the youth of Terry County participating in some kind of organized programs that would bring about better citizens of tomorrow and happier surroundings for today."

B. C. Vick Attending School in San Angelo

B. C. Vick, who is division equipment coordinator for General Telephone Company of the Southwest in Brownfield, is in San Angelo attending a three-week company school in Basic Toll and Carrier Fundamentals.

The course is designed to train Company personnel in installing and maintaining various toll and carrier equipment. He will receive a Certificate of Award after completing the 120-hour course.

greatest needs Brownfield now has is some type of entertainment for our teenagers. It seems as though we do most of our planning for our children until they are about 14 or 15 years old then we provide no place for them to go!

"I don't know whether a youth center is the answer. I am inclined to believe that if some businessman or concern would put in our town a decent, respectable and law-abiding bowling alley or skating rink, some of our problems would be solved."

"Such a place would have to be under strict supervision and properly managed at all times."

MRS. J. W. LUCAS of 510 North Fifth: "I always have felt a great love and interest for youth. Having come from a large family and being a mother, I am aware that young minds must be occupied."

"There must be a healthy balance between work, study and recreation—or else delinquency results. The officials of our town are aware of this."

"The new park and swimming pool, as well as the proposed outdoor recreation area, more than prove that our city councilmen are interested in our youth."

"I feel that the next project should be—or should include—a library. Access to a good library would provide many boys and girls with a source of reading material and information which they otherwise would be denied."

MRS. E. C. DAVIS of 501 East Broadway: "For 50 years Maids and Matrons Study Club, with the assistance of the county commissioners, has maintained the only public library in Terry County."

"With the increase in our population, increase in the cost of books, and the increase in maintenance, the continuance of this club project is almost impossible."

"Therefore, an organization called Friends of the Library was formed last September with the purpose of educating the public to the needs of a county-owned and county-operated library in a building of its own."

"This above all else at the present time is the civic project most dear to my heart."

Terry Council Cancer Program Is Recognized

For its current efforts to educate the public concerning cancer, national recognition has come to Terry County Home Demonstration Council.

The group's work was recognized when it received a letter this week from the National Home Demonstration Council's vice-president, Mrs. Homer Green of Tutwiler, Miss.

Mrs. Green paid much tribute to the Terry group and its program, and asked Mrs. Loyce Floyd, TCHDC chairman, to write an article covering the cancer program for "National Notes," official organ of the national council.

Terry council's education program for cancer was begun last November, when its education committee obtained the services of an American Cancer Society representative from Midland.

The representative worked closely with the Terry group, teaching it to carry on the program. Since that month, a highly informative color film and much literature concerning cancer has been presented to the nine HD clubs in the county.

Said Mrs. Floyd: "With our program, we have been able to reach any number of persons who otherwise never would have received this latest knowledge of cancer. Our program is a continuing thing."

Mrs. Floyd explained this morning that news of the Terry council work was relayed to the national council by the American Cancer Society.

Chairman of the education committee in November was Mrs. R. D. Shewmake. Current chairman is Mrs. J. L. Procter.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS WILLIS

Miss Sharon Kay Lindsey, Thomas Lee Willis Married In Home Rites

Miss Sharon Kay Lindsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lindsey of 1012 South Fourth, and Thomas Lee Willis, son of Mrs. Arlo Willis of Paducah, were married in the home of the bride's parents March 23 at 8 p. m.

The Rev. Warren Stowe, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, performed the double ring rites before an arched mirror framed with gladiolus and wedding bells.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white dress fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and three quarter length sleeves, with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with carnations and showered with streamers.

Myrna Riley of Lubbock attended her sister as matron of honor and Ada Altum of Brownfield was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of pink imported silk, white head-dresses and carnation corsages.

Warren Young of Lubbock was best man. At a reception, the couple was assisted in receiving by their parents and attendants. Mrs. James Willis registered guests and Mrs. Larry Lindsey and Mrs. R. G. Nutt assisted with hospitality.

The table was laid with a white lace cover over pink and was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Guests attended from Lubbock, Wellman, Paducah, Foster and Brownfield.

For a wedding trip to El Paso and points in New Mexico, the bride wore a navy blue suit with light blue accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bride attended schools in Brownfield and the bridegroom attended schools in Paducah. The couple is at home in Brownfield. He is employed by Young Irrigation Company of Lubbock.

had a bowling party. After bowling, they ate, then returned to Brownfield.

Several shin-digs are in the offing for "Twirp Week", including a donkey ball game tonight, and a couple of informal dances. Friday morning a kangaroo court will be held in assembly in order to try and punish those people found guilty of such crimes as girls failing to carry a boy's books to class, girl refusing to allow boys to enter a doorway first, etc. William Smyrl will preside as judge, and various students will serve on the jury and as

Brownfield Athlete Appear in National Basketball Playoff

Phil Addison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Addison of 101 East Tate, Don Koonce of Sunday and Arnold (Goose) Patton of Meadow all played basketball with the San Angelo Rams in the national finals in Hutchinson, Kan., last week.

The Rams were winners of the national tournament for junior colleges. Addison and Jay Hawley were highly praised for their outstanding play during the tournament. The San Angelo Times had this to say, "San Angelo College has a pair of blue chip basketball players."

They are capable of playing their greatest game when the pressure hits its sharpest pitch. Jay Hawley and Phil Addison—SAC's two guards—have been the difference thus far in boosting San Angelo in the National Junior College tournament. The Times had this story just prior to the semi-finals game of the tournament.

Smith OK's Bracewell

AUSTIN, March 21 (special)—State Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock, who represents the 11 counties of the 28th Senatorial District, has announced his endorsement of Senator Searcy Bracewell of Harris County for the U. S. Senate in the April 2 special election. "Searcy Bracewell and I were freshman legislators in the House in 1946," said Senator Smith, "and I have had a chance to observe him over a period of years both in and out of Austin." Senator Smith said that one of the highest recommendations for Senator Bracewell was his record in the current session during which he has refused to campaign on the taxpayers' money and devoted his time first to doing his Senate job. "Searcy Bracewell is a conscientious and high-minded young man who is dedicated to public life," said Senator Smith. "One of the finest recommendations I can give him is his record in the present session of the Texas Senate where he has not missed a legislative day or a committee meeting. That's the kind of man he is—willing to sacrifice time from campaigning to do his duty on legislative matters." Senator Smith emphasized that Senator Bracewell was the only candidate in the race who had both youth and experience. "Some of the candidates have youth and some have experience," said Senator Smith. "But only Searcy Bracewell has both. I predict the people of Texas would not be disappointed in sending him to the U. S. Senate."

Brownfield Rotarians Set for Lamesa Meet

Brownfield members were making plans today to take part in the 1957 conference of District 183, Rotary International, to be held April 7-8-9 in Lamesa.

All Lamesa committees have started to work in earnest, with the housing committee faced with the task of providing housing for the more than 500 members expected to attend.

However, Sam Jenkins, housing chairman, announced today that his committee sees little difficulty in providing the necessary rooms for members and guests.

Several local motels, said Jenkins, already have made arrangements to hold open more than three-fourths of their rooms on the dates of the conference. More than 100 rooms already have been reserved for conference delegates.

Owen Taylor, a charter member of the Lamesa Club, who has a perfect attendance record of more than 19 years, said that plans for entertainment also are well along. Signed to provide vocal selections at one of the social functions of the conference are the Lamesa Barbershop Quartet and Chorus. J. D. McPhaul, attendance chairman, explained that members of the host club are making visits to a number of the clubs in District 183 with personal invitations to attend the 1957 conference. Several clubs in the immediate area already have been contacted said McPhaul, and other clubs in the district will be contacted between now and April 7.

Reports from the registration chairman, Pat Ryan, indicate that if the present sign-up rate continues, attendance of at least 500 persons is assured.

Registration for the conference will start at 2 p.m., Sunday, April 7, and early arrivals will have a chance to go a round of golf at the newly renovated Lamesa Country Club that afternoon.

Sunday night at 7:30, special Rotary services will be held at the First Methodist Church. This will be followed by entertained and refreshments at the newly completed Rotary Community Center in Forrest Park.

The 1957 plenary session of the conference will be held at 8:30 a.m., April 8.

A pretty young thing passing by is still a sight to see, even in 1957 with its Middle East crisis, et al.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD CHAP SAYS SO

Housing A Postponable Item?

Asked recently what might be done to ease the repressive effects of the Federal Reserve Board's tight-money policy on home building and home buyers, Vice Chairman, C. Canby Balderson replied: "Housing is a postponable item."

This cavalier attitude toward a 20 billion dollar a year industry and the millions of families who want and need housing raises some questions—to which, we believe, the American people deserve straightforward answers:

If housing is postponable, is the huge building materials and supply industry postponable? Is the lumber industry postponable? Are the furniture, home furnishings and housewares industries postponable? Are the housing needs of American families of modest means postponable—in the face of clear evidence that we are heading for disastrous housing shortages in the 1960's unless production can be stepped up now? And are the jobs and living standards of the millions who work in and for the housing industry postponable?

Does the Federal Reserve Board suggest through its Vice Chairman that perhaps a little more unemployment would be good for the American people? Layoffs have begun in key industries dependent on home building. Once started, a downward spiral could be difficult to halt, and it is quite possible the Federal Reserve Board in the not-too-distant future may find itself fighting not inflation but recession.

We have no quarrel with the fundamental need for sound economic policies to prevent runaway inflation. But what are the facts? The Board began tightening the monetary screws in 1955 with the announced intention of curbing credit. In that year industry spending for plant and equipment expansion amounted to about 25 billions. In 1956 it was 35 billions and so far this year the spending rate is 40 billions.

Where has this extra credit come from? It has come largely from the resources normally available to home builders. Favored with special tax advantages over home builders or buyers, corporate borrowers have been able to get all the credit they need (perhaps more) by paying increasingly higher interest rates.

The result is clear. In 1956, there were 200,000 fewer homes built than in 1955 and a further drop seems inevitable this year. Practically all of this loss has occurred in the VA and FHA markets. The GI housing program is all but dead because lenders will not buy mortgages at a 4 1/2 percent interest rate.

The blunt fact is that housing, and particularly low-cost housing, is the only segment of our economy which is being "postponed" by tight money. And it is high time for a re-examination of the Board's policy, its overall effectiveness and the fairness of its application to borrowers at every economic level—when the American family can borrow for a Caribbean pleasure cruise, but not for a VA-insured home!

The week commenced with the special "Cox" committee reporting to the House, and the House voting to censure forever Representative James E. Cox for conduct unbecoming a Representative.

This Committee is continuing its investigation into the matter and several more witnesses appeared during the week. In fact, one reluctant "natoropath" has been threatened with contempt charges for refusing to answer certain questions concerning his background.

Of course, everyone is interested in the progress of H. B. No. 133, the General Appropriations Bill. As I said last week, the State Comptroller estimates a surplus in the State Treasury.

Oil Allowables have since been cut, which will decrease crude oil-tax incomes, however, the Comptroller stated this week that there should still be a surplus somewhere near $20 million.

Can it be that a long-suffering American public has at long last just about made up its mind that Federal Government spending must be cut? There are definite signs that the "worms" (the American taxpayers) are just about ready to "turn," to stage another Boston Tea Party unless the $72 billion fiscal '58 budget proposed by President Eisenhower is cut and then some. Congressmen report that they are literally being swamped with letters from the folks back home, complaining bitterly about increased government spending and expressing their dissatisfaction that no tax reliefs seem to be in sight.

Business executives are alarmed at the dangers inherent in the spending proposals, fearing that they will result in further inflation and increased taxation. They also are disturbed at the AUSTIN—Legislative digging into the affairs of ICT Insurance Co. has reached the pick-and-shovel stage.

Previous session-a-day pace could hardly be maintained. In prospect now is an exhaustive turning over of every detail of the bankrupt company's financial history. Goal is to discover if crash was due to any violations of law or lack of adequate laws or enforcement.

One possibility for fresh sensations would be the return of BenJack Cage, former manager of the company. Cage is in South America. He said he would be glad to talk with the committees, but was busy right now and couldn't get away.

Cage's successors at ICT have accused him of squandering the company's funds in numerous bizarre promotional schemes.

Recent disclosures from testimony: (1) Former Insurance Commission Chairman J. Byron Saunders received some $7,000 from ICT Discount Corp. in monthly checks. Saunders said it was in payment for his interest in Wood County oil wells. Atty. Gen. Will Wilson questioned Saunders closely as to why the money was listed on his income tax return as legal fees rather than money from a property sale.

(2) Two former Insurance Commission examiners were asked to explain if they were the same men whose names appeared on checks from a BenJack Cage interest. A doctor certified the two, L. W. Blanchard and Robert Butler, were too ill to testify. Both had been discharged from the commission for alleged connections with another company that went broke.

(3) Rene Allred Jr., court-appointed liquidator for ICT, charged the company was organized with borrowed money, a procedure contrary to state law. He also said year-end statements were fattened by former legislators testified concerning fees from ICT. Most were small in amount and received some time ago.

It is one of several Dallas-based insurance companies that are to be investigated by a special Dallas County grand jury.

Governor Stevenson said the original founders of the company sold some of their stock through the company at a tremendous profit and retained the money themselves. None of these people is in authority now, he said, and the firm has sued for recovery of the money. "It will go a long way

MISSISSIPPI'S JAMIE L. WHITTEN

Democrat Calls for 'Complete New Look at Farming Set-Up'

Congressman Jamie L. Whitten, Democrat of Mississippi, speaking to the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., March 18 in Lubbock, called a complete new look at the agricultural program, including price supports. Whitten, chairman of the Agricultural Appropriations Committee, the first to insist that the Department of Agriculture sell its surplus cotton in world markets at competitive prices, said this sales program had done lots of good and if continued would relieve some of our problems.

He insisted, however, that there were many defects in the present law which have become apparent after years of "Also, the department has shown, through its shortsighted policy of holding U. S. offerings in world trade above world prices, which it followed up until a year ago, that while such course would help hold up world prices, in the process foreign increased production, got the markets, and the U. S.

ended with surpluses on which it paid storage and counted to reduce U. S. acreage; while foreign acreage expanded.

"We have learned that Secretary Benson's theory of reducing price supports won't work. In recent hearings before my committee it was shown that the Secretary's action in reducing price supports on cotton $15 per bale had not decreased production, had not increased consumption, nor had this reduction been passed on to the consumer." All his action did, the Congressman said, was to lower the income of the cotton farmers.

"Existing law," the congressman said, "invites every farmer to increase his production per acre to the fullest extent he can. Present efforts to control U. S. production by acres leads to more and more use of expensive fertilizers, insecticides, irrigation equipment and other expensive equipment, adding to operating costs.

"As the farmer, with the reduced acreage, tries to produce more and more per acre under existing law, in effect he cuts his own acreage for the following year. And, if continued, it would mean a gradual shrinkage of an already too small acreage, resulting in more and more people being forced from the farms."

The present acreage reserve program, where the farmer is paid for leaving out of production a part of his allotted cotton acreage, also, heads in the wrong direction and is based on the premise that receiving acres until present supplies are sold will correct the farm situation.

"It is my opinion," Whitten said, "that such program is doing untold harm to every country. I would point out another fact which farmers should recognize. Today there are only 13 per cent of the American people on farms and the other 87 per cent will believe that this acreage reserve payment is a direct gift to the farmer, whereas in fact it will be of little help to the farmer, for the reason that the farmer must leave this acreage out of his already limited allotment.

"Such payment from the government will not add substantially to his income, but is in substitution for the income he would have received from the acreage. Since the payment comes for not farming, it is my opinion this will, in time, inflame the American people against farm programs generally.

If we do not let our farmers farm, he asked, where are the thousands and thousands of young 4-H Club members going to find a place to use their talents in connection with farming?

"It is my belief that the best approach to our present farm difficulties is through a domestic allotment plan. I have been working with lawyers at the Department of Agriculture in recent weeks, in an effort to write such a bill, which would apply to wheat, tobacco and rice on the same general basis as it would for cotton.

We all recognize that with a dollar an hour minimum wage, the bargaining rights of labor increase since World War II, and all the other costs built into the American economy by various laws, it is absolutely essential that some protection against such costs be given to the American farmer through price supports.

I am convinced, however, that these protections should be self-financing in that the costs should be passed on the consumer by the sales price. All the costs of minimum wages are borne by the consumer. All the costs of freight rate increases are borne by the user. Thus it goes. Only the farmer is left dependent upon annual appropriations of the Congress; and yet the necessity for such financial support of the farmer flows from these other laws which add to his costs.

Therefore, I am preparing a bill which will be introduced shortly, wherein the American cotton farmer will be given support on his share of the domestic market, figured in terms of bales or pounds. Such support on the farmer's share of the domestic market should be on the basis of 100 per cent of parity.

Under such bill, the farmer will be released from acreage controls and any cotton that he produces beyond his share of domestic markets would be available only for world trade and on that share of his crop the farmer would be dependent on what the world market would pay."

Based on my years of experience as chairman of the Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee, where we review annually the over-all farm program operations," Mr. Whitten said, "it is my belief that the mechanics of such a program would be to issue to the farmer annually certificates for his share of the domestic market, figured on bales and pounds on somewhat the same basis as acreage is now figured. Domestic mills then would be required to use only certified cotton to meet their domestic market, but would be authorized to buy at the world price a sufficient quantity of cotton for their export market."

Such bill will require the Secretary of Agriculture to sell at competitive prices any cotton above a security reserve which comes into the hands of the Commodity Credit Corporation, within 12 months after title is taken over by such corporation. Such a program would regain and retain the farmers' export market upon which their economic well-being is dependent.

The congressman concluded by asking that all farmers and farm organizations study such proposals for the purpose of improving on his views. "I am sure," he said, "that such a program will do much to correct the glaring defects in the present law which reduces the

Jury Duty Actually Is 'Sacred' Obligation

One of these days—perhaps soon—you may get a notice telling you to report for jury duty—and to "fail not." If serving, you share one of the most solemn duties known to our democracy.

Some people try to get out of jury service. It may be inconvenient or unpleasant. Yet when you are put on a jury you should think of this as a chance to help make good on the promises of our Constitution—trial by jury. Say the following to yourself:

"My forefathers wrested my right to serve as a juror from tyrants.

"Under our law no one's life, liberty, or property can be taken without due process of law.

"Trial by jury is our basic right. All who seek their day in court, should have a fair hearing. They will get it from me.

"I will not ask to be excused from jury service except in an emergency.

"On my oath I will well and truly try each case before me, and a true verdict render under the law given me by the judge and the evidence introduced at the trial—without fear, favor, or hope of reward.

"I will listen closely, with open mind to all of the testimony, instructions, and arguments. I will not make up my mind until all the facts are in and the judge has instructed the jury on the law.

"I will search for the truth regardless of wealth or poverty, friendship or enmity, of any party or witnesses.

"To someone my decision may mean the difference between freedom or imprisonment, poverty or wealth.

"Justice, once but a dream, is a reality when I, as a juror, do my full duty. No act of mine shall bring shame to our system of liberty under law."

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person ever should apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

This Week in Austin

By PRESTON SMITH
State Senator

Two large tax bills have been introduced, in what still promises to be a no-tax session of the Texas Legislature.

One is the measure suggested by Gov. Daniel "if new taxes are needed." It calls for a 3/4 cent levy on "dedication" of natural gas. The customary formula to increase levies on oil and gas production when new money is wanted is the other suggested measure.

Chairman Frates Seeligson of the revenue and taxation committee has proposed a complete recodification of the tax laws. However, the objective of his 227-page bill is not to increase taxes.

More bills to reduce present taxes than to increase them or levy new ones have been introduced at this session.

The tax on "dedication" of natural gas, recommended by Gov. Daniel if any new revenue must be raised, was turned down several years ago in favor of the gathering tax, which was annulled by the U. S. Supreme.

Those who favor the dedication theory say it is a legal and effective way to do the same thing attempted in the gathering tax—to tap the big gas transmission lines on gas exported from the state, to benefit industry in other state at the expense of Texas' industry.

The other big proposed levy is outlined in the bill by Rep. L. C. Terrell of DeKalb. Rep. Terrell suggests raising the oil production levy from 5.6 to 6.2 per cent, not including the small administrative cost tax on oil. This would raise the production levy on natural gas from 8 cents to 9 cents.

Gov. Daniel estimated that the dedication tax on gas would bring the state approximately $35 million in two years. The proposed increase in production levies would bring about $25 million from oil and possibly $14 million from natural gas in the two-year period.

THIS WEEK -In Washington

With Clinton Davidson
Although it is just now beginning to break into the open, one of the hottest farm issues before Congress is whether to extend the $1 an hour and 8-hour day Fair Labor Standards law to include hired farm workers.

Several bills to do that have been introduced, including one by Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, and hearings have begun before the Senate and House Labor committees. Although the proposed legislation would exempt most small farmers it is estimated that the minimum wage and maximum hour provisions would apply to about 1,200,000 workers and would add approximately a billion dollars a year to the cost of producing and processing foods and fibers. Testimony so far in favor of the bills has come largely from spokesmen for organized industrial labor. They argue "equal treatment" for both industrial and farm labor. There are some scattered union efforts to organize farm workers. Similar bills have been introduced in the past, but this is the first time one has progressed to the point of public hearings before a congressional committee. There is considerable doubt that legislation on the subject will be enacted this year, but that will not be the end of efforts.

Spokesmen for the major farm organizations have joined in strong opposition to minimum wages and maximum hours for hired farm workers. They see the proposal as a threatened increase in costs of production. They point out that farm wages have increased 28% during the past 10 years, during a period when farm prices have declined 15%, and that farmers now have to compete with industry for workers.

But their main argument is that agriculture cannot be operated successfully on an 8-hour day, punch-clock basis. The addition of over-time, at time-and-a-half pay, would add substantially to costs during rush seasons.

"Farmers who have been able to expand their operations should not have regulations imposed upon them which would be so burdensome as to be penalties," the Farm Bureau protested during Senate hearings.

Elimination of the agricultural exemptions now in the wage-hour laws would have a two-fold effect, the Bureau argued: 1. It would transfer income from farm people, whose net incomes have been declining for several years, to workers, whose net incomes have been increasing steadily for many years.

2. It would impose a regulatory burden involving excessive costs and record keeping, the cost of which would in a large part be borne by farm people.

The National Grange raised substantially the same objections and, in addition, pointed out that a great majority of the harvest operations in agriculture are paid for on a piece basis. Likewise, the Grange said, farm workers normally are furnished housing and other prerequisites without charge.

In support of arguments that current farm wages are not out of line with farm prices and income, the farm groups quote government reports showing that farm operators last year had an average income of only 70 cents per hour for their labor and management.

Whatever the merits of the arguments on both sides, the whole issue is one that you are sure to hear more about in the future.

Bible Comment: Inconsistencies Aid Resurrection Story In New Testament

THE greatest event in history, as one great Christian leader has described it, was the Resurrection. The story of the Resurrection is full of mystery as it must inevitably be, for there cannot be a miracle without mystery. When one sees today the great conflict among students of the life and time of so great an American as Abraham Lincoln, it is not strange that stories should differ concerning an amazing event that happened centuries ago. Then there was nothing approaching modern means of communication and methods of scientific investigation were unknown. The New Testament stories of the Resurrection do not agree on every point makes it plain that there was no fabrication of the story. The writers were not all agreeing to say the same thing.

The important thing is what all the New Testament stories have in common—the clear evidence that the resurrected Christ appeared to the disciples. That discouraged group of men, who felt that the great adventure of faith upon which they had staked everything was over, were suddenly quickened into faith again. They went forth to establish the Christian Church and to make permanent the mission and work of their Master in the world. For the modern world this is the great evidence of the Resurrection of Christ and His triumph over death. We cannot think of Christ as dead; we think of Him as a living Christ, whose presence and power and influence have been manifested all through the Christian generations since the day when the two Marys found the opened and empty tomb. His living presence is the inspiration of the church today. This fact makes Easter the greatest feast of the Christian year.

Just don't content yourself with "squawking" to the members of your family, your friends and acquaintances — register your "beef" where it will count to your Representatives at Washington. Senator Harry F. Byrd (Dem., Virginia), who for many years has been the campaign of the nation's down-trodden taxpayers, and who most of the time has been a lone voice crying in the wilderness, must be delighted at the flood of demands that is reaching Washington calling for cuts in President Eisenhower's proposed budget for fiscal '58. He should be taking comfort in the knowledge that at long last his voice for economy in government is not falling on deaf ears—that John Q. Public is rallying to his support. I know of no better way to close this column than to quote what our "Champ" has said about the shocking proposed $72 billion budget. Said he:

"The President's budget is inflationary at a time when the country is facing a definite threat of inflation. It represents an increase of seven billion dollars over outlays in fiscal year 1954. The principal reason why the Eisenhower administration was able to stabilize the dollar in its first three years in office was because the President with though these hearings are revealing some "astounding" information. These committees will probably investigate much further and the results should have a decided effect upon the proposed re-organization of the State Insurance Commission.

The Conservation and Reclamation Committee — of which I am a member—has been working overtime conducting hearings relating to the help of Congress, cut nine billion dollars out of the budget Truman has proposed.

"We have certainly gone into a period of inflation now and the Eisenhower budget will increase that trend. It ought to be cut five billion dollars and I am going to try to show Congress how that could be accomplished."

TERRY 4-H Roundup

By BOB ETHEREDGE
Assistant County Agent

Terry County 4-H Club had its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, March 19, in The Party House with some 30 boys and girls attending. Recreation, with Mrs. James Thurman in charge, constituted most of the program. Adults attending were Mrs. Reg. Martin, Mrs. Earl Cornett and E. D. Duncan. Refreshments were served, and a good time was had by all.

4-H jackets came in last week. So . . . if you ordered one and haven't picked it up yet it is in the county agent's office. Boys and girls ordering the jackets were Lawrelle Wheatley, Bennie Spain, Barry Parks, Herman Wheatley Jr., Ray Brown, Charles Plymell, Water Conservation, and these bills are progressing favorably.

Speaking of water — I hope that our West Texas areas have received their share of the recent rains.

We have had some severe hail and windstorms in the Austin area this week, but they were accompanied by large amounts of beneficial and welcome rains.

I have heard some good reports of rain fall on the "high plains" and hope that we received our share.

Lynn Dill, David Chisholm, Jackie Dill, Ronnie Dunn, Ronnie Floyd and Clayton Newson.

Site for the 4-H and FFA junior livestock show April 18 has been changed from Lioas Baseball Park to the Rodeo Arena, according to the Jaycees, who sponsor the annual event.

The Sears, Roebuck Foundation pigs will be distributed May 15 and May 31. Eight gilts and one boar will be given away this year to 4-H boys. The pigs will be registered Black Poland Chinas.

It is the plan of the foundation that each boy weaning a pig is to receive a reasonably good pig, in good health, at the time of delivery. We cannot expect the sponsor to replace to the club member, pigs which die or get useless as breeding animals throughout the year. If a pig dies or becomes useless within a reasonably short time after delivery, and the occurrence was accidental and beyond the control of the club member, the animal will be replaced immediately. No such replacement shall be made under any circumstances on sows after July 1.

More information about the program will be given at a later date; however, essays will be submitted by 4-H members stating why they want a Sears gilt or boar and how the animal will be cared for.

Shower Honors Mrs. Jones

Mrs. Frankie Jones was honored with a layette shower given in the home of Mrs. Robert McIntyre March 22 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Hostesses with Mrs. McIntyre were Mesdames Merline Speed, James Meeks, Charlie Jones, Walter Brinson and L. G. Chambliss.

The serving table was laid with a pink cloth. Blue punch and blue sandwiches were served, and favors were miniature buggies made of marshmallows and jelly beans.

Approximately 25 guests called.

A hostess gift of a chest was presented the honoree.

The easiest way to make an expert mad is to keep some news from him.

The empty honors that the world bestows do not carry beyond the grave.

Barren Soil

Erosion of the soil like this is a disheartening sight; it seems so unnecessary and irreparable. A picture of the human soul eroded by sin and self-sufficiency would be a spiritual sight more disheartening than even this field, for as the eroded soil means a barren field, so the eroded soul means a barren life. Remorse, however, is not the only mood for one who sees his soul looking like this barren ground. God is eternally ready to restore the lost sheep to the fold when the sheep is ready to give up trying to be a self-sufficient wanderer. You who are a stranger to God today, behold, He stands at the door of your heart and knocks—won't you stop running and let Him in? He brings not barrenness or punishment, but love and a new life.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

of their true value. Confused History — House bribery investigators are having slow going with the Texas Naturopathic Association.

Efforts to uncover details of the TNA's past legislative activities have been repeatedly balked by faulty memories and lack of records.

On the committee's recommendation the House formally censured ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe. Cox has been indicted on charges of agreeing to accept a bribe from the TNA.

Panel then turned its attention to reports of a fund raised by the Naturopaths to "educate" the Legislature in 1955. Fund was variously estimated from $8,000 to $59,000.

But only hazy and conflicting testimony was received. No records were kept, said a former office secretary.

Irked by it all, the committee prepared contempt charges against a Dallas naturopath, Dr. Robert Spears, for refusing to answer questions about his background.

Oil Down Again—Texas' big gush of oil production was short-lived. Europe couldn't use it after all.

Texas Railroad Commission cut the April allowable by 224,710 barrels a day. It is to be at 3,564,665 barrels a day on a 16-day producing pattern. This puts things back about as they were in February before the big jump to 18 producing days in March.

Major oil companies had strongly urged increased production on the commission. But after three weeks under the higher pattern, they were unanimous in asking a cutback.

News of the lower allowable brought uneasiness to Legislators. They had been counting on high oil production to bring in the increased revenue to put over their record spending program without new taxes.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert had forecast an extra $100,000,000 for the next biennium. After the Railroad Commission order, Calvert said he was not changing that forecast yet. It included some leeway for fluctuation in oil revenue, he said.

Limited Sales Approved — Bill to prohibit limiting of sales for below-cost items is back. Senate State Affairs Committee approved the measure sponsored by Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr.

A similar measure passed in 1955 was outlawed by courts because it applied only to groceries. Aikin's bill applies to all retailers.

A record crowd attended the committee meeting. Bill is generally favored by smaller grocers how contend it is necessary to prevent big chains' usurping all the business with drastic price cutting.

Short Shorts — Texas Research League announced it has accepted the Insurance Commission's request to survey its activities and offer suggestions for more efficient operation. A bill to make parents liable up to $300 for a minor child's property damage is unconstitutional, ruled Atty Gen. Will Wilson. Former Congressman Brady Gentry of Tyler was appointed Highway Commission chairman by Gov. Price Daniel. Gentry previously headed the Commission from 1939-45. Texas highway deaths during 1956 hit a record-breaking 2,611, reported the Dept. of Public Safety in closing its statistical books for the past year. More discouraging, the number of deaths per miles traveled also inched up. Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the conviction of George B. Parr for threatening to take a human life. A Jim Wells County court had convicted and assessed a $1,500 fine against the onetime political leader. February saw 3,202 Texans enter the armed forces while 2,932 were separated, reports State Selective Service Headquarters. Only 816 of the 3,202 entrants were drafted.

Visitors recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Luckie were friends from the East Coast, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Noyes, and an aunt and uncle Pasqualin Flory, and a friend.

Double Ring Rites Unite Miss Bobbie Brown and Bill E. Green

Before an archway of greenery flanked with tapers in branched candelabra, Miss Bobbie Jo Brown became the bride of Bill E. Green in an 8 o'clock ceremony read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Privitt March 27.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown of John McCoy, pastor of Crescent Hill Church, of Christ, officiated at the double ring rites. Recorded selections, "Because," and the traditional wedding march, were played during the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a navy blue suit accented with white faille revers collar and cuffs and a small satin crown hat trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white Bible belonging to Mrs. Privitt, topped with white carnations and showered with streamers and stephanotis. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and her father placed an old Indian-head penny, gift of Prentice Walker, in her shoe for luck.

Mrs. Barney Doss attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a navy blue suit and a white carnation corsage. Another sister, Mrs. Alma Stone, lighted the candles. She wore a pink faille dress and a white carnation wristlet.

Rep. Robert Bowers of Austin was best man.

At a reception held following the ceremony, the couple was assisted in receiving by their parents and attendants. Guests attended from Brownfield, Lubbock, Greenville and Arlington.

THE MAN WHO OWNED MOBY DICK

It was actually a too-big car. At gas pumps, it drank like a fish. So he called it "Moby Dick."

It even had fins like a fish. Parking it was like trying to squeeze a whale into a goldfish bowl.

He thought about trading "Moby" for an economical little foreign car. It was too little for 5 kids.

So he bought Rambler, only car with room for six 6-footers, plus European car economy, handling ease.

32 MILES PER GALLON

It was a Rambler "6" that set the NASCAR cross country record of 32 miles per gallon with overdrive.

Rambler's 1st in trade-in value among all low-priced cars because it's the smartest buy, now or used.

Meadow Methodist Church Sets Meet

Rev. M. W. Reynolds, pastor of Meadow Methodist Church, announces the beginning of a series of Revival Services at the church March 31 through April 7.

Rev. Clarence Collins of Midland, will be the speaker. Rev. Collins has been pastor at St. Luke's, Midland, for the last four years. He is a promising young man with a wife and two daughters. He has had several years experience in the ministry and is an outstanding worker with youth.

Rev. Collins moved to Midland in 1953 without a church building or parsonage or church membership. All he had to begin work with was a vacant lot and some prospects. He now has a beautiful church building and parsonage and a church membership of 687, and that membership is growing rapidly.

Rev. Reynolds feels that he surely is a man who can inspire all of us to higher living for Christ.

Joe Bursleson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyler will have charge of the music.

The morning services will begin Monday through Friday, at 7:00 a.m. Evening services will be 7:30, through April 7.

SENIOR PLAY CAST IN REHEARSAL — Pictured above are the nine Brownfield High School students comprising the cast of this year's senior play, "Outward Bound" by Sutton Vane. Clockwise, they are Judith Prewett, who has the role of Mrs. Clivenden Banks; William Smyrl, the Rev. William Duke; Charles Inscore, Mr. Lingley; Tommy Brookey, Scrubby; Roy Snow, Mr. Prior; Jerrie Nell Pipkin, Mrs. Midget; Norris Lewis, Henry; Gail Cottrell as Ann, and Doyle Simpson, as the Rev. Frank Thompson. The annual event will be presented at 8 p.m., Friday in the school auditorium. Admission is 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults. Miss Janie Hodel is directing the play. R. T. Wilson is in charge of the ticket sales and Miss Mattie Morgan is directing publicity. The trio is class sponsors.

WSCS Continues Study of Letters

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday at 9:30 a.m. in the church parlor to continue their study of "Paul's Letters to the Churches."

Mrs. J. C. Criswell presided. The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Burton Hackney. Mrs. J. L. Randal gave the devotional.

Mrs. J. H. Carpenter was in charge of the program, the subject being "Paul's Idea of the Church." Participating were Mmes. Leo Holmes, Erie Proctor, and J. H. Carpenter. Mrs. Ray Elmore was a guest.

Whew! And that, gentle reader, takes care of the past week-end. Despite the weather (and we had some of everything) we were so glad to have everyone come by and see our new office. It was a real pleasure to have you and we hope you'll come back anytime you feel the urge.

So grateful we are, too, for the many, many beautiful flowers. Both our florists here outdid themselves in making up attractive arrangements, and we never could decide which were the prettiest, although Jewelry finally settled on the red roses, I think. Anyway, we are grateful, you wonderful, wonderful Brownfieldites.

If there are any of you local yokels who don't know Eldora White, then I feel sorry for you, but to the host of her friends (and she has more than most of us put together) you'll join me in being so glad that she's feeling better these days. Had a terrible bout with pneumonia but is improving, and I know she'd love having a card from you.

Tell me, do any of you gals have a red verberna bed you plan to thin this spring? If so, please call Josie (Mrs. Curtis) Sterling, as she's most anxious to get her a border of them going. I can't say that I blame her either

... I think they make a very striking setting for a flower bed. She's also in the market for some dark calladium bulbs for her mother-in-law. Mrs. J. C. Criswell at 701 East Hill is busy these days whipping up some rather spectacular belts and buckles that will be wonderful to start wearing now and right on through. Not only that, but they will make unusual and much-appreciated gifts for the sweet girl graduates coming up here very soon. I know she will be glad for you to come by and look them over.

Friday night the BHS senior class will be "Outward Bound" and I know you'll want to see their class play they've worked so hard on. Take the whole family... they'll love it.

Monday is Dollar Day once more in Brownfield and I think this will be of extra-value to you. Merchants are making it easy for you to get lots of graduation and wedding gift buying done by "specialling" items that will be just right for the occasion. Be sure you spend your dollars in Brownfield... not only Monday, but every day.

Although it's not in the least unusual for me to commit a boo-boo, I not only feel it my duty, but sincerely wish to, correct it if possible. And, so, dear little friends at Cobb's, whom we love ever so much, I'm very sorry that your name was left out of the country club style show story last week. Coot, you old coot, you know I wouldn't slight you for any amount of money and Mrs. White is so cooperative with this annual affair. I could simply kick myself because it happened. A thousand pardons because... Cobb's, Collins, Sheltons, Dunlaps and Western Boot and Shoe are going to have a terrific parade lined up for the

Brake-Parrish Vows Solemnized

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Langford of Route 1 announce the marriage of their daughter, Wanda Brake, to Harold Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parrish of Route 1, Tokio, in a single ceremony performed March 16 in Hobbs, N.M. Rev. Bill Parsons of the Jefferson Street Church of Christ officiated.

The bride wore a two piece navy blue suit with navy and white accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Carpenter.

After a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the couple is at home in Brownfield, where the bride is employed with the First National Bank and the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

Spring Program To Be Sunday Affair

Mrs. John Luckie will present her students in a Spring vocal program to be held at the First Methodist Church Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Students to be presented will be Betty Collins, Betty Bragg, Virginia Cooper, Priscilla Cornett of Union, Sandra Armstrong of Ropes, Sharla Berry of Ropes, Don O'Neal, Nancy King, J. W. Hawkins of Texas Tech, Peggy Wilks, Carol Christopher.

ladies at the style at the Brownfield Country Club Tuesday at 2 p.m. (admission $1.50 for dessert, fashions and a crack at great door prizes), and I hope to see you all there.

Pleasure Bridge Club Met With Mrs. Barrett

Mrs. Mike Barrett was hostess to Pleasure bridge club at her home Tuesday evening. A congealed dessert and coffee were served to Mesdames Bob Hoey, Jack Hamilton, Jerry Kirschner, Joe Henson, George Weiss, Grady Goodpasture, Lee Brownfield, Perry Bear, Tom Harris, Joe Henderson, J. T. Bowman, and Ed Wilder. Mrs. Harris scored high and Mrs. Goodpasture was second high. Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Goodpasture binged. Personally, we prefer the go-getter type of women to go get somebody else.
