Floudada Trippers Boost Celebration There July Fourth

Between one hundred and one hundred fifty boosters from Floudada invaded Lubbock today, accompanied by a band of twenty odd pieces, advertising the Fourth of July celebration and food to be held in that city on the third and fourth of July. They spent thirty-five or forty minutes in Lubbock, meeting local business men and renewing old acquaintances here.

The boosters came here from Abernathy and today was the second day of the two-day jaunt. They made all of the nearby plains towns to the west yesterday and report a very pleasant visit with their neighbors in that direction. If Maury Hopkins, secretary of the Floudada Chamber of Commerce, can be relied upon, and the general Maury, usually can, the celebration in Floudada will be one of the biggest things of its kind ever staged on the plains, even taking into consideration the Tech celebration here.

The visitors told of the things that had been ordered in the food line for the barbecue. They will be prepared to feed an army.

SOUTH PLAINS BUSINESS

Material is being received on the Street Paying project that will total better than $550,000. Material has been received for the $30,000 street lighting program and work will start within a few days. The $90,000 City Hall is being pushed to completion and it is announced that the building will be occupied by the middle of August or the first of September.

Labor Situation Varied
There is a shortage of harvest hands in the South Plains -- especially in the wheat fields of the section. But there is a growing surplus of floating labor of every other kind, especially carpenters, painters and other building trades. They are becoming known as "tourist labor" in this section for the reason their tools are in the back of a jitney and travel from town to town, working just a day or two here and there and are gone. But there are two to take the place of every one that drives on.

Much Land to Be Sold
While the real estate transfers are comparatively light through the summer months the real estate men are busy throughout the South Plains section getting ready for the coming heavy business through the fall and winter months. Large tracts of land are being surveyed, mapped, staked and abstracts prepared. Sales organizations are being perfected, advertising matter planned and everything is getting into shape for the heavy immigration that is expected to flow into this country following a good cotton crop at a good price. During the six months ending the 30th of April 4,822 new families moved into the South Plains territory—more than three fifths of whom were farmers.

In spite of the heavy development that has been under way in this section during the past three years less than 25 percent of the available farm lands are under cultivation. More than 10,000,000 acres of farm land are yet unreturned, with at least 1,750,000 acres of it now available for the small home seeker on favorable terms.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED

Joe Hies, W. H. Meador and J. A. Rix are the members of the committee from the Chamber of Commerce which will cooperate in getting permanent quarters for the district highway engineer and his forces here. The committee was appointed at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday morning.

Peacock Fails To Be Here For Conference

T. R. Peacock, who has been working as a middle man in the local hotel situation for the past several months, did not come to Lubbock again last week as he had planned; but instead sent a telegram stating that his visit here was indefinitely postponed. Just when Peacock will appear here again, or will be able to successfully close the deal, could not be stated by Chamber of Commerce officials yesterday. It is unofficially understood, however, that his inability to be here last week was caused by a hitch in his arrangements.

GIVEN NEW QUARTERS

The local artillery battery of the Texas National Guard, and the district highway engineers have been granted quarters in the buildings at the fair grounds in lieu of permanent quarters for both organizations.

Fernandez Stars In Lumberjack Role At Lyric Next Monday

A typical product of the timberlands of Canada is the Louts Lenoir portrayed by E. L. Fernandez in Ernest Shipman's super-production, "The Man from Glengarry," an adaptation of Ralph Connor's widely read and famous novel of the same name, which will be shown at the Lyric Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Swarthy, powerful, volatile, E. L. Fernandez gives a vivid and convincing characterization of the reckless and godless bully of the lumber camps.

Standing in the prow of his boat, garbed in the attire of a typical lumberjack, at the head of his gang of shanty men, flinging taunts at the Glengarry men whom he challenges to combat, he makes a picturesque figure that leaves a lasting impression. No more realistic character has been portrayed on the screen in a long time, and Mr. Fernandez deserves great credit for a most excellent piece of work.

Are You Building a Home---or a House?

To Build a Real Home, Not Just A House, Takes Skilled Carpenters Plus Good Dependable Lumber

Leave one or the other out and you will not have a home that will last for a life time.

Inferior labor or poor lumber builds a house that very shortly becomes a liability—skilled labor and good lumber erects a home—not a house—that is truly an asset on any man's books.

Lumber is the backbone of every dwelling—good lumber must be used to secure a substantial home.

Build your home with lumber—weather seasoned—sun dried—nature treated—free from knots. Then winter's snowy winds—spring rains will leave no visible tell-tale marks.

It is no wonder that discriminating architects—well known-builders—recommend Higginbotham-Bartlett lumber every time to home builders—it's good lumber.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT LARGE
STILLWATER, Okla. (INS)—Summer school enrollment at the Oklahoma A. and M. college this year is nearly one-third greater than it was last year, it is shown by the registrar's report made public. Total enrollment for the current summer term is 1579, against 1119 last year, both figures exclusive of all short course attendants. Included among students at the summer school are nearly 100 teachers from all sections of Oklahoma and the southwest, according to the estimates of Herbert Patterson dean of the school of education and director of the summer session. Special lectures and courses have attracted students from many states in the middle west it was said.

GRANT RAILWAY FRANCHISE
CLAREMORE, OKLA. (INS)—A franchise giving the Oklahoma Union Railway company a right-of-way through Claremore, to enable that road to connect with the Missouri Pacific railroad here was granted this week by the city commission.

VOTE HUGE SUBWAY
NEVADA, Mo. (INS)—By a majority of 16 to 1, Nevada this week voted $100,000 bonds to pay half the cost of a subway to be built under the Missouri Pacific and M. K. & T. railroad tracks. The railway agreed to pay the other half of the cost. Had the city failed to provide for the subway, the two state highways would have passed east and north of Nevada.

With a gesture of impatience the old farmer laid aside his paper and went to the door. "Come in, darn ye!" he said; but silence followed. He closed the door and went back to his paper. Presently he went to the door again, and again he found no one there. "What's the matter?" asked his wife. "That blamed dog," he grumbled, "has been scratching at the door to git in for the last hour, but he runs away every time I open it." "That ain't the dog," she explained, "that's the hired man writing a letter on the kitchen table."

The Judge: There's Something Wrong On the Face of It. - by M.B.

In personalities but rather prefers to deal in the facts of the case. If current rumors are to be believed the coming election will not be decided upon from a standpoint of the individual candidate but from the standpoint of subsidiary parties, or, in the parlance of every day, "cliques."

Regardless of the individual members of these cliques to select public officials in this manner is nothing short of a grave fallacy. Election to office should be based on the personality, the ability and the reputation of the individual candidates and on nothing else. Integrity and talent should be welded together by the voters to form a great measuring rule to test the individual office-seeker and those never has the personnel of the candidates been higher than it is this year.

Patriotism and the love of this section of Texas should be sufficient causes for the voters to put aside all malice and guile, all hypocrites and evil speakings, and select for office the men whose qualifications and whose reputations demand that they should be placed there. Forget the cliques and subsidiary parties and vote for continued progress, unhampered by inferior office holders.

COUNTY RECREATIONAL PARK IS NOW POPULAR WITH CITIZENS OF LUBBOCK

The County Recreational Park is growing in popular favor, not only with the tourist through this city but with the citizenship of Lubbock County. Every afternoon a large number of tourists are camped in the park, and from six to twenty-five local cars are to be found driving around in the park or picnic parties camped around the lake or the hills of the canyon. The public golf course is in good condition, the fairways have been mowed, and is being used more and more. A bunch of youngsters may be found swimming in the lake almost any time of the day or night. In short the County Recreational Park is already justifying Lubbock county in voting the special fiveing the wisdom of the citizens of Lubbock county in the purchase and maintenance of Recreational Parks.

The keeper in charge, Mr. Woods, has been very successful for the past four years in handling the public. He understands that they do not mean to destroy property or violate other people's rights. But unless the general public shows more consideration in their use of the Recreational Park and its facilities it is going to be necessary to lay down a rigid set of rules to govern those making use of the grounds. The keeper is a regular deputy under Sheriff Johnson, and has authority to see that the privileges of the park are not abused but he has not found it necessary to use such methods and does not anticipate any trouble from campers, picnickers, tourists, or the general public as soon as they are made to appreciate that the park is the property of them all and not the private playground of a few to be used or abused as they may see fit without regard to the rights or pleasure of others. If you haven't seen the park lately drive down and look it over. You will be proud of the start Lubbock is making to take care of the recreational demands of the city in the future. It is going to be one of the outstanding beauty spots of the plains within a few years. The Club building is a dandy and is the talk of every tourist that passes through the city.

BURGLAR RETURNS
ELLINWOOD, KAS. (INS.)—Two years ago a burglar entered a local store but was unable to open the safe. He left a note saying he would be back again and have another try at it. And this same bandit made good the promise last week when he returned, took $24 from the safe and left a note reminding the proprietors of his projected return.

BLACK FRIDAY PASSES
KANSAS CITY, MO. (INS.)—Friday the 13th has come and gone and there were no startling reports of any unusual bad luck accompanying the alleged national "black" day. A careful scrutiny of the morning papers last Saturday, and every day since then has failed to show any victims of black cats, under sides of ladders or spilled salt. Where have the good old days gone when it was common for many persons to register that day as their one golden anniversary of contrary happenings?

ADVERTISE EXPOSITION
TULSA, Okla. (INS.)—Every letter sent out this summer by 251 business firms in all parts of the country will carry with it, on the outside of the envelope, a red and black Indian head design advertising the International Petroleum Exposition, to be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, October 2 to 11. Thus far 619,900 envelopes have been distributed locally. Firms ordering envelopes thus inscribed extend from New York to California and from Chicago to Houston.

Lubbock County Politics Warming

Fifty-three citizens of Lubbock and Lubbock county have entered the political derby and are asking for public offices, subject to the democratic primaries to be held one month from today, on July 26. The fifty-three candidates are contesting for twenty-two offices, ranging in importance from a position in the state senate to a term as precinct weigher or constable.

Some Better Fitted
Despite the high calibre of the contestants, however, in keeping with the program of creation, some of them are better fitted for the places for which they are striving than are others. It is at this juncture that the voter takes prominence, not because, taken collectively, he has the power to bestow office and honor, but because it is up to him, simply, to cull the sheep from the goats, the qualified from the unqualified, and then cast his ballot accordingly.

As a glimpse into the past will show, the American party system of politics seems to be deteriorating rather than becoming more efficient. This aspect may have been caused by the recent national political scandals which rocked the nation upon its very foundation stones, or it may have been caused by any number of other reasons, one of which might be mentioned as disinterest on the part of the thinking public.

Difficult Problem Here
The voters of Lubbock county and this congressional district have a more difficult problem to solve this term than on usual terms, when, as everyone knows, the selection of office-holders is difficult enough. Before this section of Texas stretches a period of progress and advancement which can be alluded to as nothing more or less than a crisis. We have but ventured into the path of progress and many milestones intervene ere its peak will be reached. With all of the prospects for a greater crop-and-business year in the offering it is but logical to believe that a good set of public officials will aid in the advancement of the territory. Look at all matters in the identical light it is but logical to believe that a poor and ill fitted selection will as greatly hamper the wheels of progress.

1. Salad materials should be: Tender, cold, crisp.
Gather green vegetables in the early morning or after sunset, keep in cool place, closely wrapped in paper or in a closed vessel.

2. Salad materials should be symmetrical in shape and next:
1. Water and oil do not mingle readily, so vegetables should be carefully dried before adding dressing.
4. A salad is well dressed when each bit of vegetable is lightly coated with appropriate dressing.

Bottled or mayonnaise dressing.
4. Potato Salad.—(generally), boiled dressing.
5. Cabbage Salads.—boiled dressing, sour cream dressing.

SALAD DRESSINGS
Mayonnaise Dressing
1 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon powdered sugar
Few grains cayenne
Yolks of 2 eggs
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 1/2 cups olive oil
Mix dry ingredients, add egg yolks and when well mixed add one-half teaspoon of vinegar. Add oil gradually, at first drop by drop and stir constantly. As mixture thickens, thin with vinegar or lemon juice. Add oil and vinegar, or lemon juice alternately until all is used, stirring or beating constantly. If oil is added too rapidly, dressing will have a curdled appearance. A smooth consistency may be restored by taking yolk of another egg, and adding curdled mixture slowly to it. It is desirable to have a bowl containing mixture placed in a large bowl of crushed ice, to which a small quantity of water has been added. Olive oil for making mayonnaise, should always be thoroughly chilled. A silver fork, wire whisk, small wooden spoon, or egg-beater may be used as preferred. Mayonnaise should be stiff enough to hold its shape. It soon liquefies when added to meat or vegetables; therefore it should be added just before serving time.

Fruit Salad Dressing
2 eggs
3 tablespoons melted butter
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup powdered sugar
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon paprika
3 drops onion juice
Beat eggs until very light, and add gradually while beating constantly, melted butter, lemon juice and salt. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Cool and add cream beaten until stiff, and remaining ingredients.

Pineapple Salad Dressing
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup pineapple juice
1/2 cup sugar

FINISH CITY MAPS
A. L. Harris, county surveyor, is busy finishing up on the making of the new maps of the townsite and tech site of Lubbock and when he finishes will have sold approximately sixty of them. Harris is making the maps with his new and recently installed blue print apparatus which is one of the finest to be found in West Texas. He has also recently completed making a hundred prints of the new map for the Dr. Paul W. Horn has purchased the high school.

TECH PUBLICITY HAS PUT SCHOOL TO GREAT START

That the Texas College of Technology has profited by the unending stream of favorable publicity concerning it was brought out by President Paul W. Horn recently when he disclosed that in one morning's mail he had received inquiries concerning the new state school from five different states. In addition to Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana and Mississippi citizens were asking about the operations of Lubbock's and all Texas' vocational institution.

Newspaper publicity has helped to out the Texas Tech on the educational map already, but the activities of Dr. Horn have also had a lot to do with the school's early popularity. Dr. Horn in the month of May, filled twenty-four commencement dates. This month he will speak to no less than six acts of college graduates. In every instance he brings out that the Tech will open in Lubbock in September of 1925. Doctor Horn recently heard from a student in Massachusetts Tech, probably the greatest school of the type in the world, in which the student told him of widespread interest in the school to be built here.

CITY DADS TO ENFORCE RULES ON TRAFFIC; FINES TO BE LEVIED

City officials are endeavoring to enforce the laws of the city of Lubbock on traffic and parking in this area. As soon as sufficient time has elapsed to give every citizen acquainted with all of the ordinances governing the driving and parking of all vehicles in the city limits, infractions of the rules will be met with stiff punishments being meted out to their breakers, according to statements put out by officials the last few days.

In addition to the other ordinances which have been in effect here for the past several months another one has been added to the list. The new law governs the turning around completely at the intersections at Avenue I with both Main and Broadway, and Avenue J with Main and also with Broadway.

Fines ranging between the sums of five dollars and one hundred dollars were decided upon as punishment for the breakers of this ordinance and all former rules and regulations which violate with the new one are made void by the institution of the act.

Other traffic laws which are in vogue in Lubbock at the present time include: every vehicle must be driven on the right or device sufficient to warn all persons upon which it is being used; no vehicle be turned around except at the intersection of two streets other than those which have been set apart as prohibited; no vehicle shall back except when leaving the curb; drivers will extend their arm signifying a turn.

Parking time is restricted to thirty minutes on the west side of Avenue I.

"Well, Sandy," said the laird, "you are getting very bent. Why don't you stand up straight like me, man?" "Eh, man, do ye see that field o' corn over there?" "I do," returned the laird. "A' weel, ye'll notice that full heads hang down, and the empty ones stand up."

to voice it until that despotism shall be removed.
In the Congressional campaign of 1922 the conference secured a balance of power in Congress. This has worked to the people's benefit. The issue now is the election of a majority in Congress. In every Congressional District, and in every State where a Senator is to be chosen, the Progressives will have an active candidate, pledged against special privilege ownership of government.

All parking shall be made at the right hand curb with the vehicle left at an angle of approximately forty-five degrees with the front wheel on the left side against the curb, and not closer than three feet from any other vehicle. No vehicle shall be stopped at the intersection of any two streets or at the intersection of a street with an alley no within twenty feet of any of the following places: the intersection of two streets; the intersection of a street with an alley; or a fire plug.

Within the business district no person shall drive a vehicle in or out of an alley without immediately prior to doing so sound a bell, horn or other device sufficient to warn all persons within a radius of 100 feet of the street and alley intersection.

Fines for violations of any of these traffic rulings have been set by the city commission as not less than five dollars or more than two hundred. Officials have been lax in the laying of penalties in the past but with the city growing by leaps and bounds and with the traffic ever increasing the time has come to enforce these rules to the letter in order that human life and safety, in addition to personal property, may be safe-guarded.

Catholic boys on the street, some of them tipped their hats and said in a chorus, "Good evenin' Pader." The minister had hardly passed when one of the youngsters who had not touched his hat turned on the others in disgust with: "Fader! he's ra Pader; he's got three kids."

LAFOLLETTE MAY BE DRAFTED BY INSURGENT G. O. P.

BY H. K. REYNOLDS,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON.—The drive in behalf of Senator Robert M. La Follette for the Presidency of the United States will receive considerable impetus July 4 from the convention of the Conference for Progressive Political Action at Cleveland, Ohio.

La Follette was one of the organizers of this conference, dominated to a great extent by the railroad labor unions, which succeeded a year ago in electing to Congress a number of the candidates which it endorsed and which now proposes to repeat the performance on a grander scale, even to the extent, perhaps, of directly participating in the election of a President.

The headquarters of the Conference for Progressive Political Action is in Washington, and its chairman is William M. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, one of the leading railroad unions. Arthur E. Holder, secretary of the conference, is in charge of plans for the Cleveland convention, and he is being flooded with requests for credentials from scores of farmers' organizations, labor unions and other groups which are disappointed with Government as is Increased Political Factor.

The pot-shot which Senator La Follette took at the "communist convention" in St. Paul has added to the prestige of the Conference for Progressive Political Action and increased its importance as a factor in the year's Presidential campaign.
"It is the business of the conference," says an official statement from its headquarters, "to see that the protest of the millions of citizens against the enslavement of the American people to a predatory financial despotism be made articulate. We propose to voice this protest now and to continue

"We have proven that a balance of power in Congress is not enough to secure constructive legislation. That was shown in the struggle for the Howell-Barkley Railroad Labor bill and the fight for the Norris-Sinclair Farm Relief bill. In the present House we have seen the balance of power turned by a large group of ignorant and indifferent individuals in both parties, when issues arose between reactionaries and progressives. The battle of the Sixty-ninth Congress is a battle to win a progressive majority in for every constructive principle for which we have organized the people's forces."

Among the planks in the platform of the Conference are:
1. Repeal of the Esch-Cummins act, and for public ownership of railroads, with democratic operation.
2. Abolition of the "tyranny and usurpation of the courts, including the practice of nullifying Acts of Congress and of State Legislatures."
3. "Abolish Labor Injunctions."
4. Abolition of injunctions in labor disputes and of the power to punish for contempt of court without trial by jury.

4. Adequate laws creating a Government marketing corporation to establish a direct route between farm producer and city consumer and to assure farmers fair prices for their products, and to protect consumers against profiteers in foodstuffs.
5. Public ownership and development of the nation's waterpower and creation of a public superpower system.
6. Reconstruction of the Federal Reserve System to provide for direct public control of the nation's money and credit, and legislation to permit and promote co-operative banking.
7. International action by the United States to outlaw war, and abolition of profit in the manufacture of the country's war materials.
One can almost imagine that it is the voice of Senator La Follette speaking when officers of the Conference outline their political views and hopes for the future.

CONTEST STAGED BY JOURNAL WON BY MRS. CANNON

Great Interest Shown in Race To Name Advertisers Whose Slogans Were Given

Interest in the Plains Journal's Slogan Guessing Contest which appeared in the last issue was great. The results and responses were gratifying to the merchants whose cooperation made the contest possible. The first prize of $5.00 went to Mrs. W. A. Cannon of Loveland, who not only guessed correctly on each puzzle but wrote the firm signature in exactly the style used in the regular advertising of these merchants. Second prize was awarded to Mrs. W. J. Weeks of Lubbock for the next best answer. Mrs. Curtis Stevenson of Lubbock won third prize.

All prize winners answered the contest correctly but varied slightly in the manner in which the answers were submitted.—Homeside—question—goes to Arlon Peel, Route 1, Lubbock, and S. H. Standefer, both of whom guessed correctly.

Mrs. Lillian Stephens takes the Blue Ribbon for the nearest solution. Mrs. Stephens missed one firm name. Out of the huge pile which almost covered the Contest Editor's desk the winners were selected. None of the contestants failed on more than three out of the eleven slogans which speaks volumes for the way Plains Journal readers consistently read the messages of its advertisers.

BASKIN TO HEAD BLUE GIN HERE, DEAL IS CLOSED

Well Known Local Man to Run Gin Formerly Property of West Texas Company

Bill Baskin, generally known as "Popular Bill Baskin" to the cotton farmers of Lubbock county has completed the purchase of the "Blue Gin" formerly owned by the West Texas Gin company in this city and will operate it through the coming cotton season.

Baskin will completely overhaul the machinery and bring the plant up to the highest state of efficiency and declares that he is going to set some records in turnout, number of bales ginned and general ginning service through the coming fall.

CLARENDON MEN POSTPONE TRIP

The Clarendon College boosters will not appear in the city today to advertise their college before Lubbock people, according to an announcement put out by the Chamber of Commerce after receiving a telegram stating that the trip had been indefinitely postponed. No reason for the failure of the appearance of the boosters was given in the wire received here.

Lubbock is fortunate in having gin men and gin plants of the quality and efficiency that she has for with a 30-40 to 50,000 bale cotton crop certain for the coming fall, the ginner and his work is going to be a vital factor in the prosperity of every citizen in Lubbock and the city should see between 18,000 and 25,000 bales of cotton ginned here this fall. It is a mighty close tie between Stanton and Lubbock for first place in number of bales ginned with Idaho coming close on the heels of both of the first two.

If things break right there will be some ginning records set this year.

QUIT WHEAT POOL

HUTCHISON, Kans.—Wheat growers in Kansas are quitting the wheat pool by scores, according to R. E. Lawrence, secretary of the Farmers' co-operative Grain Dealers association. Mr. Lawrence forwarded to the Kansas Wheat Marketink association this week, in one installment 49 cancellations, and the day before a bunch of others, all from farmers cancelling their contracts in the pool. Mr. Lawrence has been accused by the president of the Farmers' Co-operative Elevator and Supply company of Ness City, of sending out propaganda to influence the farmers to cancel their contracts.

TULSA GOOD HOST

TULSA, Okla.—With less than half the year gone, Tulsa has already played host to more than a score of conventions and gatherings, many of them of national importance, and activity of the Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies has resulted in big conventions being landed for next year.

CHANG WORK HOURS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—Oklahoma City retail merchants have decided not to "start fooling with the clock," but will begin their day half an hour early and quit an hour sooner, it has been announced by the Retail Merchants' association. There will be no daylight saving time.

SICKNESS HALTS OLSON IN MATCH HERE LAST WEEK

"Terrible Swede" Unable to Be Part of Match with Thor Jensen Saturday

The wrestling match to have been staged here last Saturday night between Charles Olson, of Lubbock, "The Terrible Swede," and Thor Jensen, of Hereford, "The Terrible Dane" was not featured at the City Auditorium as scheduled, due to a sudden attack of illness suffered by Olson. Whether the match will ever be staged here is not announced by members of the American Legion, under whose auspices last week's battle was advertised.

The match was to have been staged to decide the opponent for Kala Pasha, of Brown, Texas, middleweight champion, here on July 4, but according to a statement issued by Olson Monday he is doubtful that the expected independence day match will be staged here as there does not seem to be much interest in wrestling in Lubbock at the present time.

Olson is making arrangements now to show in Florida on July 4, and unless present plans and indications change he will enter a Florida ring instead of a Lubbock arena, when the signing of the declaration of independence is celebrated.

Jensen was in the city for the match and while here stated that although the referee's decision was rendered against him in his match with Cal Farley, in Amarillo, last Friday night, the decision was very unpopular, although Amarillo is Farley's home town.

REPAIR MACHINERY

Machinery which has been in use on the county roads is being overhauled and repaired at this time, according to a statement issued by I. O. Burford, road supervisor, yesterday.

CHARGE CATTLE STEALING

MCFHERSON, Kans. (INS)—The first cattle stealing case on record in this county for a number of years developed this week, when C. F. Reicher of near here, entered a plea of guilty to having stolen two head of cattle from a neighbor's pasture. He admitted having sold the stolen cattle to a Hutchinson packing house.

DON'T MIND HEAT

KANSAS CITY, (INS)—H. W. Barnes, Cincinnati, is the latest claimant for fame via the summer overcoat route. Mr. Barnes entered a local hotel yesterday, a suit case in hand and swathed in a long overcoat. He went to the desk and registered. "Do you want a nice cool room?" the clerk asked. "Want it nice but don't care how cool it is," the prospective guest replied.

WILL ERECT GYM AT AGG COLLEGE

Waco Firm Receives Contracts To Start Construction Next Week on Structure

COLLEGE STATION—Contract for a modern fireproof gymnasium to provide basketball courts, facilities for corrective physical training, offices for the athletic staff and dressing rooms for all athletes of the A. & M. College of Texas has been let to the Johnson Construction Company of Waco and work will begin next week. James Sullivan, business manager of athletics has announced. With the accommodations that it will afford, A. & M. athletes will have opportunities for physical training and athletic competition not surpassed by the students of any other institution.

The walls of the building will be of brick, the roof of concrete and steel and the courts will have a maple floor. Seating stands will also be of concrete and will accommodate 3,000. To supplement this capacity several hundred temporary seats can be provided for the more important games. Provision is also made in the plans of the building for a later construction of balconies that will accommodate 2,000 more persons.

Equipment will be added to the building for carrying out the enlarged program of physical training which has been charged to the newly organized department of physical education of which H. H. House, former assistant coach, has been made head. Compulsory physical training has been included in the A. & M. scheme of education for a number of years but the necessary gymnastic facilities have been lacking to enable the greatest effectiveness.

The new building will be erected on the site of the frame shack that has served as a gymnasium for many years. Professor E. B. LaRoche is the architect of the structure. It will be officially known as the Athletic Field House.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well known druggists say every body uses Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it d. r. r. e. s. t. o. r. e. s. naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use. You merely dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful—ad.

A. AND M. PREPARES FOR BIG NUMBER IN SHORT COURSE

Think Three Thousand Farmers And Their Families Will Enter Summer School

COLLEGE STATION, June 26.—The A. & M. College of Texas will make the greatest effort of all years to give the farmer and his family the information and demonstration that they most need when they come to the fifteenth annual Farmers' Short Course at the College July 28 to August 2. Research specialists who are constantly engaged in devising better methods of cultivation, developing better varieties of plants and discovering cure or disease will cooperate with the extension agents who spend their time in the field with the farmer and know his problems at first hand and these two will join with the teachers to devote their time and effort to presenting knowledge and demonstrating its application in a great effort to give the farmer and his family the greatest amount of practical information in the shortest length of time.

They will give him, his wife, daughter and son, the most basic facts in the fundamental science of the farm enterprise, stressing those phases which the Extension Agent's survey shows to be most lacking in Texas agriculture. The short time will not permit of a thorough training but enough can be given to demonstrate to the farm family that improvement in their methods and equipment is possible, practicable and so promising of dividends that they will go away inspired to join the ranks of the progressives who are cooperating with the county agents, studying the A. & M. and U. S. Department of Agriculture bulletins and investigating the work of others.

Over 2500 attended the Short Course last year and that number is expected to be exceeded this summer. Dormitories and mess hall will be opened, and every facility of the institution devoted to the work of the Short Course. The actual cost of room and meals will be $1.50 a day. Railroads will give reduced rates.

County Agent Gives Out Formula to Cut Number of Hoppers

Since grasshoppers bid fair to be numerous in the territory this year, County Agent D. F. Eaton, has figured that a number of persons will be glad to get hold of a solution which will help away with every "hopper" which happens to get hold of it. Here it is: Wheat Bran ..... 25 pounds White arsenic or Paris green 1 pound Lemon or orange ..... 6 fruits Low grade case or sorghum molasses ..... 2 quarts Water ..... 2 quarts

Mix the bran and poison thoroughly while dry. Dilute the molasses with the amount of water as named, squeeze the lemon juice into this diluted molasses, then grind the rind of the lemons with a meat chopper and add this also to the liquid. Then mix the liquid thoroughly with the poison bran mixture. After an even mixture has thus been obtained, add more water and mix, until a mash is obtained that when squeezed in the hand readily falls apart.

PLAYS WITH FIRE HOUSTON, (INS)—I should have known better than to step out while my wife was away. Thus did S. A. Mason sum up his woes and causes thereof after accepting an automobile party invitation from a strange man and two equally strange if not vicious women. Mason informed police that after "knocking him for the well known row" the trio "took him down the line for everything he had" and tossed him from the car to walk home.

SMALL BLAZE EXTINGUISHED Prompt action on the part of the Lubbock fire department extinguished a small blaze in a pile of lumber and trash behind the Plains Journal building last Thursday night. Wooden boxes and a quantity of kindling were piled up awaiting the trash haulers when a carelessly thrown match or particle of tobacco set it into flames which, had they been unnoticed, would have caused a large fire, due to the high wind blowing. This publication is indebted to the members of the fire department for their efficient work and prompt response to the call of fire.

TO THE VOTERS

Law enforcement was the job given me when I was elected to be sheriff of Lubbock County, and my every effort has been directed to this end.

In enforcing the laws of our county and state it has been my policy to show no partiality to any violator. A man who violates the law of our state, regardless of church or lodge affiliations, will be handled on the merits of his case and not on his standing in the community or affiliation with church or lodge. This is the only just way in which law enforcement can be carried out, and it, I believe, the way prescribed by the law abiding citizens whose interests I am employed to protect.

I am running for re-election strictly on my record of law enforcement since being elected to this office, and any reports that I am being run by any organization or set of men are false and I will be glad to prove them so.

There has been no mob violence in Lubbock County since I took the sheriff's office, and five cases of mob violence were committed during the term of office just prior to my election, and for the information of the voters I wish to state here that any cases of this nature arising while I am sheriff will be thoroughly investigated and I will exert every effort to learn who is responsible.

I ask the consideration of the voters of Lubbock County on the basis that I am running for sheriff on my own record, and to assure them that should they see fit to return me to this office for another term I will have only the best interests of the law abiding citizens to protect and no one to compromise with.

Yours for continued law enforcement.
H. L. (Bud) JOHNSTON,
Sheriff of Lubbock County and candidate for re-election to that office.

Rural School Notes

By W. M. Pevehouse

The school year of the rural school was brought to a close last Friday, June 21, when Bledsoe and Liberty closed. Those schools were late in closing for two reasons: late beginning and epidemics. Whether or not is a good plan to pick cotton before beginning the rural schools is a question that must be worked out in each individual community. The County Board for the County Superintendent, has a legal right to say to the trustees to begin their school at any set time. The citizens of a district should get together and decide whether or not they shall have school first and cotton picking last, or whether cotton picking shall come first, and then if there is any time left, let the children go to school. Now, understand, I have my convictions, but I am not trying to force them on the people. I believe in education of the masses and not in special training of the favored few of the best classes. If there is anything that is good for a people, then this good thing or idea should be passed along to all the folks. Some folks say that when we open the school, it is open to all, and if some people do not want to send their children, then they only are to blame. Well, there are two sides to that question. In one sense, the statement is true. In another sense, it is not. We do know that the average farmer throughout all the past ages has not been able to make a living under the existing conditions, without the help of his children in the crop. Then just when and how much help should be given seems to be the main issue. Ninety percent of the farmers want to educate the boys and girls, but a living must be earned, and then there is a spark of fire that burns bright in many a human breast to kindle that great flame which culminates in owning a home for the mother and the little ones. How is the farmer to see the little farm slipping away from him, and then not use every effort to stem the tide that bears away? And thus it goes.—Sec. It behooves all of us to try to solve the question of just how much school we are going to have in the county and just when that said school is going to start. Now it is clear to me that few of our children get too much schooling, if it is properly directed, but another thing is clear, and it is this, that at the rate we are going, we shall soon have a majority of seven months schools instead of eight and nine months terms. When I came into the rural schools of this county, many of the communities had less than nine. I taught two full nine months terms complete, but now last session, only two nine months terms were had and one seven. The other twenty were eight. Now will another six years see most all seven and some six months schools? It is up to the farmers themselves. I believe in Democracy. Let the majority rule, but the main question is, can that majority be guided right. Of course, not all our students will be doctors, shows rose tree

PLAINVIEW, (INS)—A local follower of Luther Burbank is exhibiting a rose tree which is attracting much attention. Four years ago the owner grafted a small rose cutting on a black locust tree sapling. The tree is now ten feet high and is covered with beautiful roses. The leaves all closely resemble rose leaves, although the limbs of the tree are like those of the black locust. There are no branches up to about six feet and with the exception of the flowers and leaves the tree has much the shape of a locust tree. More than 40 blooms were counted on the tree at one time this week. The tree has attracted many visitors.

BRANDING TIME HERE
MIDLAND, (INS)—Calves were branded at the rate of 500 a day this section during the past 10 days. It is estimated by W. W. Brunson, secretary of the Midland-Terrell-Breeders' association, that from 27,000 to 30,000 calves have been branded here this year. The calf crop is declared to be extra good this year. The number of cattle branded this year is the greatest in the history of the cattle industry in the Midland country. It is estimated that the shortage in this country of grass cattle is at least 50 per cent. It is believed this will bring a better price for the stock. William White, formerly linotype operator for the Plains Journal, has returned to take up his original position in the mechanical department of this publication.

Form Rescue Circle For Unhappy Spirits
LONDON, (INS)—A "rescue circle" for suffering spirits undergoing punishment in the next world has been started by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Lady Doyle. The "circle," Sir Arthur declared, interviews these stricken spirits. Each spirit comes in turn and receives instructions as to what to do to be happier in the hereafter. "There is no torture in the next world," Sir Arthur continued. "There is no hell, but a dark life of bitterness for those who have not risen above the material in their earthly life." Such spirits, he declared, were still earthbound and it is to make their lot happier and more bearable that the "rescue circles" have been formed.

CHASES REAL BANDITS
KANSAS CITY, Kans. (INS)—The real, honest, goodness bank robber fleeing with his loot, offered a motion picture camera man the opportunity of his lifetime near here, when they sped into a picture he was taking. The robbers were making a run away from Mead, Oklahoma, when they had gathered for themselves considerable swag, when they were speeding down the road toward where the movie man was filming "The Dust," a picture soon to be finished. Scenes along the highway were being filmed, when they appeared to the camera man. He climbed into his automobile and sped after them, with such ardor that they abandoned their car and fled into a nearby woods.
