COTTON PICKERS ARE NEEDED ALL OVER TERRITORY

East and Central Texas Needs Them As Badly As Planters in West Texas

"Give us cotton pickers," is the cry of every town and county on the South Plains just now. One 650-acre cotton field four miles from Lubbock with a hundred bales open had one lone picker scratching along edge this week while the owner was working East and Central Texas for pickers.

"A four-room house, running water in the house and fuel furnished for a family of cotton pickers," read one ad this week. A half million acres of cotton is open in the South Plains section today with less than one-fifth as many pickers as are needed. Lubbock gins have turned out only 2,000 bales against an estimated run for the season of more than 14,000 bales—on account of a shortage of pickers.

Dawson county, Lynn county, Terry, Hale, Floyd, Crosby—all of the South Plains counties are crying for pickers for the next 60 days. The past week has shown a material increase in the number of pickers coming in from the lower part of the state but they are just a few drops in a very empty bucket in proportion to the number that is needed.

The South Plains crop will exceed 200,000 bales, according to the most conservative estimate with 225,000 as a fair average of present indications as reported by the ginner and cotton buyers who have studied conditions.

abilities of Madame Jumel's life, having a fascinating period of American history as a background and possessing the charm which the mastery of technique gives the story, this book is yet one which leaves the reader with the same disgusted feeling which he experiences when he has been forced to listen to avid gossip seasoned with a hint of scandal. most popular books of the library. The following is a list of ten of the best books written by H. G. Also the question of the furnishings for the room for the library in the new city hall was brought up and discussed. The members were all in favor of buying new furnishings instead of moving the old book shelves and furnishings.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy. (Adv.)

LUBBOCK COUNTY EXHIBIT PLACES EIGHTEENTH IN STATE FAIR HELD IN DALLAS

POSITION WAS HIGHLY CREDITABLE CONSIDERING MATERIAL FURNISHED; FORTY-TWO COUNTIES ENTER IN HOT COMPETITION

Out of forty-two counties exhibiting according to a score card Lubbock county finished in eighteenth place, David F. Eaton and Miss Martha Marsh, Lubbock county agents, stated upon their return from the state fair, at Dallas, the early part of this week. According to both Eaton and Miss Marsh, Lubbock's entry in the county agricultural exhibits department was highly creditable and considering the material this county was able to submit at such an early date its rank was really remarkable.

Lubbock county would have probably finished several places higher had not the small grain exhibits been injured in transit, which went to the State Exposition at Amarillo, Eaton stated. The county's exhibit scored $75.2 out of a possible 1,000. Hale county, for the second consecutive year, took the first prize with a score of 959.5. Floyd county, in second place, scored 934, while Randall, in third place, mounted 930.3.

Other nearby counties showing at the fair, with their scores, were: Crosby, 809.7; Dawson, 820.5; Midland, 586.5; Terry, 580; Dickens, 548; Potter, 501.2; Colorado, 549; and Garza, 510.5.

Lubbock county's complete score showed up as follows: Corn and grain sorghums, 231.2; cotton and wheat, 196; oats and barley, 30; peanuts and cowpeas, 45; alfalfa, sweet clover and velvet beans, 45.5; annual forage crops, 42.5; fruits, 47; vegetables, 47; other crops, 47; appearance and neatness, 144.

Grain sorghums and oats and barley were the best parts of the Lubbock exhibit while in the appearance and neatness the local exhibit also showed to good advantage, Agent Eaton stated. The cotton from Lubbock county did not show to such a good advantage because of the fact that it was collected at too early a date to give it justice. Fruits, vegetables and other crops of that type also showed up well as did the annual forage sorghums. In the fruit line especially Lubbock showed up well, scoring 47, the same as Hale county, in first place.

The fair this year was sadly handicapped from a standpoint of livestock, due to the quarantine caused by the hoof and mouth disease in South Texas. The agricultural exhibits, in the new and large hall, were the best in the history of the fair, Eaton stated.

Every day while the Lubbock representatives were at the fair huge crowds thronged the grounds and it is almost assured that the greatest crowds in history viewed the mammoth event.

TEXAS COMMERCIAL NEWS CREDITS LUBBOCK IN FIRST PAGE ARTICLE

THIS CITY IS GIVEN A FULL PAGE OF STORIES IN STATEWIDE PUBLICATION; BUILDING PROGRAM IS STRESSED

The following article, which has been covered in several different ways and from several different angles but which is always new and interesting to the reader, appeared in the recent issue of the Texas Commercial News, printed in the city of Sugarland. Three other articles, including one on the Tech party to be staged here on Armistice Day, were included on the first page of the magazine:

The $45,000 brick church building of the First Presbyterian church of Lubbock is nearing completion while work is getting well under way on the brick building of the same value of the Church of Christ. The four largest brick churches in Lubbock, all three of which are within less than three blocks distance of each other when those two churches are completed, and already, upon a fair Sunday, the automobiles of the First Methodist, the First Baptist and the Church of Christ congregations overflow into the streets at all three churches for there is only two blocks total distance between the three churches.

The $130,000 church building program exactly matches the $130,000 high school building program that adds another addition to the present high school building that will double its present capacity and leads but little the $100,000 city hall that is nearing completion.

The present building program under way in the city, exceeds $2,000,000 worth in course of construction or to be started within the month. The above mentioned churches totaling $130,000, the high school at $130,000, the city hall at $100,000, together with the $1,000,000 Tech building program, four buildings of which are under construction and contracts to be awarded for others on the 23rd of this month; the $1,000,000 paving project that is under way; the $300,000 storm sewer contract that is being rapidly pushed; the $25,000 white way contract; the $100,000 addition to the light and water plant of the city; the $200,000 addition that is announced for the Texas Utilities Company's light and ice plant; a $100,000 theatre that is nearing completion; two $40,000 garage buildings; two $20,000 wholesale buildings that have been completed within the past 30 days; five brick retail stores under construction at a total cost of better than $150,000; a $50,000 addition to the plant and storage capacity of the Lubbock Company; a $125,000 enlargement program being completed at the Lubbock Oil Company's $250,000 mill, and scattering properties of a smaller value, residences, warehouses, additional truckage, water, light and telephone extensions and improvements that will run the total for the year to considerable more than $2,000,000 worth of construction completed or under way for the twelve months ending January 1st.

New Farms Lands Being Opened Up On October 6th, 50,000 acres of land, in one tract, was offered for sale. On October 20th, 1,000 acres of that tract had been sold—and 50 per cent of it will be in cultivation next year. More than 2,000,000 acres of land are on the market and being actively pushed at this time.

BUY SPADE LANDS LITTLEFIELD—Another land deal running into big figures was effected at Lubbock when M. H. Reed and W. H. Radtger, trustees for the Yellow-house Land Company, acquired from W. L. Ellwood a large block of the Spade ranch. This land lies south of and adjoining the Santa Fe Railway and State Highway 36, T, a distance of about ten miles. It is to be subdivided and sold at once.

Rev. W. P. Jennings, pastor of the First Christian church, is in Cleveland, Ohio, attending a national convention of Christian pedtors.

HEADS OF TEXAS UTILITIES HERE

Three St. Louis Men May Be Here For Several Weeks; Plan Improvements

H. Wurdack, I. R. Koso and E. S. Billings, all of St. Louis, officials of the Texas Utilities company, are in Lubbock conferring with Hubert L. Allen, local manager, and may remain in Lubbock for several weeks, it became known here today.

They are planning extensive improvements in their public service holdings in this section of Texas and since taking charge of the Lubbock district have had crews of men working on improvements and enlargements of the various plants at all times. An announcement concerning further enlargements will be made in the near future.

The Texas Utilities company yesterday purchased the Canyon city light and power company, for a sum purported to be $40,000. A statement issued several weeks ago, telling of the sale of the Canyon plant was a false rumor. A. J. Arnold, who has owned the plant for some time, having disposed of his interests just yesterday to the Texas Utilities company.

TEXAS FLAGS TO BE USED IN BIG PARADE IN CITY

Five Thousand Ordered For The School Children To Be In Tech Celebration

"There is not one man out of three in this meeting that can draw a diagram of the Texas flag," declared Prof. Dupre, superintendent of public schools for this city, in a recent meeting when he insisted that the school children of Lubbock should carry Texas flags in the stantive parade that will precede the formal laying of the corner-stone of the Tech College on Armistice Day, November 11th.

His statement carried conviction and 2,300 Texas flags have been ordered for the occasion. The parade will be led by the American flag and each class of the school will be headed by an American flag—but the individual school children will carry the Texas flag in honor of the laying of a cornerstone for a Texas institution.

The American Legion, ex-service men, and National Guard will participate in the parade and the program connected with the placing of the corner-stone of the $350,000 administration building.

Hub Jones transacted business in Crosbyton the first of the week.

TIME SAVERS IN COOKERY

A high stool to sit on will many times save tired feet and back. Right height of work table and sink will save backs and fatigue. A small soft washable rug in front of the sink is a great help to tired feet.

Keep coffee and tea with measuring spoon in air-tight receptacles on shelf beside stove. A hinged shelf is very useful in a small kitchen for extra spice. No matter how few the tools you have to work with, keep them in good condition. (An egg beater that sticks in turning, a can opener that slips or that is too dull to cut the tin, dull paring knife for peeling vegetables, a sauce pan that leaks just a tiny bit, that has no handle, or that is worn so thin that nearly everything burns in it, means a loss of time and temper.)

It is not necessary to have a great assortment of kitchen equipment nor is it desirable for the woman who does her own work but it is essential to have the necessary things and to keep them in good condition. A few work saver suggestions in combining foods. Use two measuring cups, one for liquid and one for dry measure. Always beat egg whites first to avoid washing the egg beater between operations. A small egg beater that fits into a cup is splendid for small amounts of cream, soups, etc. Rollers will not stick to cup if fat or water is measured in it first. Long handled dust pan saves stooping. When through planning the meal be sure everything needed will be on hand at time of preparation. Plan them with due consideration of time and work required for preparation as well as food needs of the family. Simple food well cooked and attractively served is as appetizing and often more digestible than elaborate meals.

HAS NEW CANTALOUPE

AMARILLO.—And now comes D. J. Muncy of Tascosa with a new cantaloupe. It is a cross between the famous Honey Dew and Burwell's gem cantaloupe. Muncy has produced a few bushels on his farm this season and plans their growth on an extensive scale next year.

The new melon differs from the Honey Dew in that the meat is pink and the melon is of oblong shape. It is nearly solid, having only a small center of seeds. OPERATION MADE TO SAVE COW IN OKLAHOMA A. & M. Three Thousand Dollar Animal State's Best, Is Saved By Surgeons Recently

OPERATION MADE TO SAVE COW IN OKLAHOMA A. & M.

Three Thousand Dollar Animal State's Best, Is Saved By Surgeons Recently

STILLWATER, Okla.—Life of a $3,000 cow at Oklahoma A. and M. college was endangered by her propensity to collect hardware in her stomach, and was only saved by a surgical operation by which the indigestible articles were removed. One eight-penny nail, three six-penny nails, a tack, a wire about three inches in length, two small rocks and a bolt nut were removed from her stomach, says Dr. H. W. Orr, college veterinarian and operating surgeon. The cow was Rosa Segis Johann, a Holstein. Prof. A. C. Baer, head of the department of dairying at A. and M., values her at $3,000. She is the best cow owned by the college, he declares. Doctor Orr, assisted by Dr. Frank Knotts, Stillwater veterinarian, and Dr. E. E. Harnden, associate professor in the school of veterinary medicine, performed the operation in the presence of Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of A. and M., Dr. C. H. McElroy, dean of the school of veterinary medicine, and C. T. Dowell, dean of the school of agriculture. A crowd of dairy students also was present. Dr. Orr found the large nail had penetrated the stomach and had lodged near the heart. Local anesthetic was applied, and the operation was performed in the dairy barn while the cow hung in a suspensory. Rosa is a state record cow, on official test last year having produced

CROPS ALL OVER TEXAS ARE FINE

SAYS REPORT ISSUED BY RAILWAY

PANHANDLE ESPECIALLY IS IN FOR FINE SEASON ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD MEN SAY AFTER MAKING STATEWIDE SURVEY

Crop conditions in all parts of Texas, especially the Texas Panhandle are excellent, according to the monthly report issued by the Rock Island railroad. The largest production of grain sorghum crops in the history of the Panhandle is predicted in the report. The report covering Texas is given below: General.—Crop, soil and weather conditions generally are good; heavy rains over practically the entire state during the latter part of September have proven very beneficial to crops, and also soil in excellent condition for fall plowing. Cotton.—Condition 52 per cent; forecast production, 4,237,000 bales last year; picking is well under way and already completed in some sections. Corn—Forecast production, 78,384,000 bushels compared with 96,440,000 bushels last year; condition 56 per cent compared with the ten-year average of 71 per cent. Winter wheat.—Estimated production 22,422,000 bushels, compared with last year's harvested production of 16,376,000 bushels; quality 97 per cent, compared with the ten-year average of 86 per cent. Oats.—Forecast production 48,994,000 bushels, compared with 40,652,000 bushels last year; quality 81 per cent compared with the ten-year average of 83 per cent. Panhandle.—Sufficient rain has fallen in this section to mature all crops; indications are that row crops, such as milk maize, kaffir corn, fescue, etc., will show largest production ever grown in this section; the cotton crop also gives promise of being above the average. Fall plowing is well under way; in many sections seeding of wheat is completed. Ranges are in better shape than for years. Western Central, Northern and Northwestern Texas.—Weather the past month has been generally favorable both for growing crops and for farm operations. Corn.—This crop is in excellent condition, except in few sections where more moisture would be beneficial. Wheat.—Productions from the thresher was more than previously estimated. Cotton.—Condition generally is good; some slight damage due to excessive rains and boll weevil is reported. Ranges.—Condition is excellent. Eastern Central and North Central Texas. Cotton.—With more than one-half of the crop picked, and gins running night and day, cotton activity in this section is at its height; condition is good but grade was lowered somewhat due to rainy weather. Corn.—Yield and quality are good; average was about 15 per cent less than normal. Oats.—Production was about 30 per cent below normal, due to late spring freeze and dry weather at maturing period. Wheat.—Production was about 30 per cent below normal. Fall plowing is well under way. Southwestern Texas.—Cotton.—Picking is completed, yield was fairly good—in Rio Grande Valley district it was much better than at first expected. Ranges.—Condition is excellent. A large acreage will be planted in winter vegetables this year.

Southern Texas.—Rice.—Forecast production 1,500,000 bags, which compares favorably with last year's crop; harvesting is about completed and quality is good. Cotton.—Some damage to this crop is reported due to lack of moisture at the proper time and extremely high temperature during August and September. Ranges.—Condition is only fair.

El Paso Section.—Cotton was exceptionally good, the plants being heavily fruited with bolls, squares and blossoms. Ranges.—Condition is only fair. Arroyos devoted to principal crops served by the Elephant Butte Reservoir are: Cotton, 76,000 acres; alfalfa, 46,000 acres; fruit and truck farms, 30,000 acres.

The same crop, soil and weather conditions as shown above for the Panhandle of Texas also prevail in eastern New Mexico. Ranges.—Recent rains assure good winter range conditions. They are at this time in better shape than for years.

Telephone companies are not abstract corporations functioning mysteriously in high finance as used to be the common opinion. Their skill, knowledge, hard work, and united funds make an essential contribution to the progress of the community.

Industry is Doing the World's Work

The people who know most about industry are those who are in industry. In addition to knowing about industry people who are in the public service industry know about the interest that all the rest of the people have in that industry.

The public utility industry—for instance the service of light and power is peculiar in that it can do well only as the people served by it do well. It is an essential service, and experience has shown that an industry which is affected with a public interest serves well only through cooperation between the service and the people served.

The spirit of cooperation for the benefit of both the service and those served is the spirit that inspires this company to look always to the welfare of its customers and of the community it serves.

EVAN HARRIES HERE TO DIRECT A BENEFIT PLAY FOR LOCAL SCHOOL

"AN OLD BACHELOR" SCHEDULED FOR LUBBOCK ON OCTOBER 30-31; DIRECTOR IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED TO CITY PEOPLE

"An Old Bachelor," a play which has been given in a number of cities over the south and southwest, will be presented here at the high school auditorium on October 30 and 31, for the benefit of the curtain fund of the local high school. Evan Harries, a well known actor of the American stage, will direct the play and is already in the city preparing for the presentation.

Harries came to Lubbock from Stanton where he had a great deal of success in staging the play benefitting the high school in that city and according to a statement issued by C. L. Stone, hundreds of people were turned away from the doors on the night the play was given. After presenting the play here Harries will go to Plainview where he will continue his work and will later make a great number of other towns in this vicinity. He is booked up almost solidly for the next two years but will return to this city in the winter where he will stage another play for the high school to benefit the athletic fund.

In the play, "An Old Bachelor," Harries himself takes the title role supported of course by a local cast. According to his statement yesterday he has been playing the part for many years and until he had played it for fifteen years was unable to give it justice. There is not an actor on the American stage who can do it justice in less time than that, he avers.

For twenty-five years Harries was on the American stage and has played with such men as Frank Bacon, who died after endeavoring himself to the showing public all over the country through the production of "Lightnin'." Bacon and Harries used the same dressing room in a Boston theatre for more than three years. Harries has played years on the stages of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Nashville, Pittsburgh and Los Angeles and for a long time toured the country with high class road shows.

To show what the people in one town where he staged the play think of him here is a letter from L. H. Denman, superintendent of the high school at Minden, Louisiana. It came uncollected.

Minden, La., Jan. 30, 1922.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to say that Mr. Evan Harries, the bearer of this letter, is known to me as a man of character and address.

Mr. Harries has been associated with me in various ways for a number of years and he has shown himself to be a man of wonderful talent and ability.

Here in Minden he has just staged the most successful play ever given in the town, playing to a capacity house in the large high school auditorium for two nights.

At Patterson, La., in 1920, he put on this same play with results almost equal that his recent success in Minden. In fact, Texas, in 1917 he put on this same play, "An Old Bachelor," to a capacity house in the city hall for two nights and scored the greatest success ever achieved in that city.

Mr. Harries works for the upbuilding of every community where he puts on his plays. He believes that the school should be the community center and works for the complete harmony of the school with all the other interests in the community. He does not hesitate to say the school is the greatest asset to any community.

Mr. Harries has my unqualified indorsement and I take pleasure in recommending Mr. Harries to other school principals and to community organizations as a safe and sane man to help in any good work desired in the upbuilding of any school or community enterprise.

Yours very truly, L. H. DENMAN, Supt. Minden High School.

WEST TEXAS MONOPOLIZES PRIZES IN AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT OF STATE FAIR; HALE TOPS THE LIST

DALLAS.—West Texas scored heavily in the awards of county exhibits prizes in the agricultural section of the State Fair of Texas announced by J. A. Moore, in charge of the Agricultural Building exhibits. Hale County for the second consecutive year took first place and Floyd county, runner-up last year, is again in second place. West Texas counties carried off the first eleven prizes awarded and also came in for the larger part of the other prizes.

The awards were made after exhibits of forty-two counties had been inspected and graded by experts on the basis of the usual score card of the fair, allowing certain points for each product embodied in the exhibits. After these figures had been compiled a separate committee judged the arrangement on the basis of decoration and arrangement.

The regular score card point system gives 250 points on corn and grain sorghums, 250 on cotton and wheat and 50 each on oats and barley, alfalfa, sweet clover and velvet beans, peanuts and cowpeas, forage crops, fruits, vegetables and miscellaneous crops, with an extra 50 points for attractiveness, a total of 1,000. The grades shown for the various counties represent percentages of this total of points. Rank of the counties and their scores and cash awards, to a total of $5,000, follow:

In competition with twenty-five Panhandle counties, Hale county's exhibit likewise took first place at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair for the second consecutive time this year. Hale county in recent years has won first place for her county exhibit at the Waco Cotton Palace, National Wheat Show and International Farm Congress. At the latter, which is generally considered the world's agricultural fair, Hale county won first place against thirty-nine foreign countries and most of the States of the Union in a recent year. More than 2,000 blue ribbons won at district, State and national fairs hang on the walls of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce office.

SIX NEW BRICK BUILDINGS FOR ABERNATHY SOON

Cotton Crop Is Held Up Due To Lack Of Pickers But Is Believed Fine One

Special to The Plains Journal. ABERNATHY—Six new brick buildings were started in this town this week with three more being planned for early construction. This brings the total business houses under construction to twelve with approximately 50 residences under construction in the city and on nearby surrounding farms and indicates the development that the town, along with the rest of the Plains is now enjoying.

The scholastic enrollment for 1925 was 325 and school opened this fall with more than 425 in attendance with more to come at the close of cotton picking.

Crops Are Good
Through July and August 146,000 bushels of wheat passed through the two local grain elevators. An average of $2,000 worth of farm produce, poultry, eggs, turkeys, vegetables and cream, is marketed each week and is estimated that 6,500 bales of cotton will be ginned in this city during the fall.

The cotton crop is moving very slowly due to the shortage of pickers, less than 1,000 bales having been ginned to date. At least 100 new farms will be opened for next year's crop in addition to a material increase in the acreage under cultivation on the farm now occupied.

San Angelo Is Rich

Bank Reports Show

SAN ANGELO—On two successive bank calls, covering the first three-quarters in 1924, deposits in five San Angelo banks have exceeded the $5,000,000 mark. This is a record that has seldom, if ever been attained, and reflects business conditions favorable in the live stock industry, farming and business generally, despite some handicaps. Among these were a dry spell in the late summer that cut down the cotton production and since then quarantines against Texas by other states, necessitated by the foot and mouth disease around Houston which have contributed to lowered market prices and have prevented the delivery of approximately 150,000 lambs contracted in West Texas this spring.—Standard.

Cotton Pouring Into Gins In Hale County

PLAINVIEW.—Cotton is opening very rapidly in the Plainview country, and the fields are white with the fleecy staple. The fine, warm, sunny weather of the past two weeks is causing the cotton to open rapidly. The farmers are indeed busy with the harvest, and hundreds of additional pickers are needed.

About 200 bales have been ginned to date in Plainview, and possibly 1,000 bales in the county, as the cotton at Petersburg, Abernathy and Hale Center was a little more advanced than here.—News.

It is claimed that these materials when mixed make a very powerful gas against which no mask is effective. The Service of Light & Power Must be a Reasonable Cost!

It is an essential service. It is so necessary to the people of a community that the best interests of the people who use the service, those who supply the service, and those whose money is invested in the plant for supplying it, are all one and the same. It is a stable industry. It grows as the community grows. Neither the industry nor the community can grow without the other.

Our interest is to serve the community well and to provide service ahead of its need so that the community can grow and develop.

The interest of the community is to see to it that the service is adequate and efficient and always ready at hand. That is to say, that the service be kept strong so that it can meet these demands.

There is mutuality of interest in the public utility service and the community such as is not found in ordinary lines of industry.

This company is anxious to do its full share in recognition of this mutual relation, particularly since it is your own company.

HEY SKINNEY! HAGENBECK-WALLACE IS HERE TOMORROW WITH LOTS OF ELEPHANTS, LIONS AND EVERYTHING

Action, color and music, plenty of each, from the time the trumpets announce the grand entry, until the final strains of the band tell that the big show is over, are paramount features of the 1924 performance of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which for afternoon and night exhibition and grand, free street parade at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Not only is it true that there is not a dull moment during the entire two and one-half hours of entertainment, but the most blasé circus "fan" comes away admitting that, for novelty and variety of character, the Hagenbeck program is entitled to a 100 per cent rating.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, this year as always, is making a feature of its trained wild animal acts, and the biggest and best wild animal acts now before the public, appear in the large steel arena. For the past thirty years the name of Hagenbeck has been noted in America, as well as Europe for the best in animal numbers, and all of the acts have been trained by John Heliott, authorized training representative for Hagenbeck in this country.

But animal acts do not constitute the program alone, for among the two hundred stellar performers are found artists of international reputation. Included in the list of features are the Australian Woodchoppers; the four troupes of Chinese stars; the Davenport, Crandall and Lowande riding acts; the society horse number, as well as the old-time English fox hunt.

Many Improvements Are Made By Local Compress, Is Shown

The Lubbock Cotton Compress has more than doubled its platform storage capacity since last fall, and with five concrete fire walls, a new 100,000-gallon reserve water tank elevated to the required 100 feet to give fire fighting pressure, one of the lowest fire rates in Texas is enjoyed by the compress.

Gravity tracks facilitate efficient handling of the cotton at the platform. Two switch engines are regularly employed in the yards of the Santa Fe.

SPOKES IN THE HUB

WILLIAM BARR ATKINS
William Barr Atkins, better known in Lubbock as "W. B.," has only been in this city for twelve years but in the relatively short time he has resided in Lubbock has accomplished much for the city and the surrounding territory.

It was 1912 when W. B. Atkins moved here from Plainview. He's glad he made the move and he said so. He chose this city as his home because it was and is centrally located and makes the best distributing point in this part of Texas in both retail and wholesale lines.

Atkins was born in Pontotoc, Mississippi, on August 1, 1873, and just twenty years after moved to Plainview. He was married on November 8, 1898, to Miss Kate Mercer and has one daughter, Katherine Glynn, who completed her course in Lubbock high school last year and is now a student in Kidd-Key seminary at Sherman.

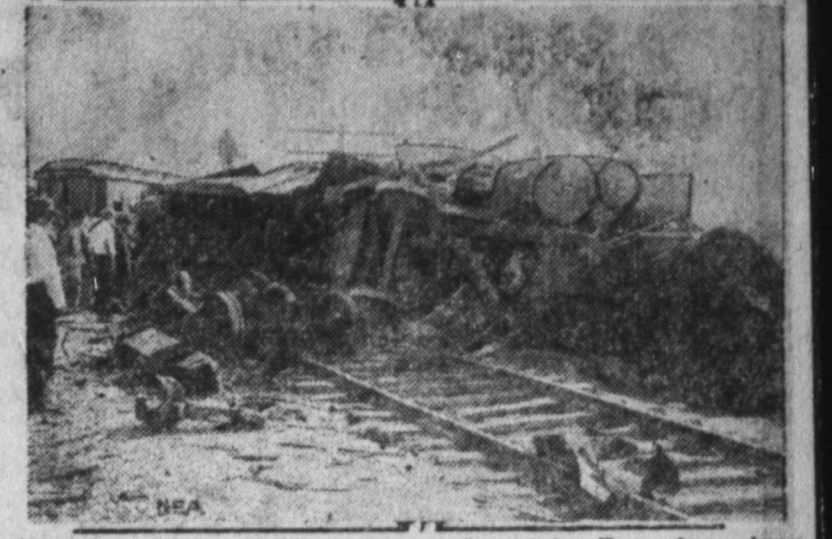

He is at present serving a term as president of the local Chamber of Commerce and that organization is prospering under his guidance, covering more territory and probably being more beneficial to the city than ever before in history.

In addition to his activities in the Chamber of Commerce Mr. Atkins is an active member of the Kimanis club, the Masonic lodge, the Baptist church and is also serving as the chairman of the Red Cross board. He is also a member of the board of trustees of the Lubbock Independent school district, having served in this capacity for the past eight years. His name appears on the cornerstones of the high school, George M. Hunt and K. Carter buildings.

He is manager of the local branch of the Higginbotham Bartlett Lumber company and is also in charge of that firm's sash and door factory in this city.

When asked his opinion of the future of Lubbock he said: "Lubbock is going to make a great city and has only begun its metropolitan expansion. Its future greatness, however, depends largely on how the citizens solve its problems. I believe its population will reach 25,000 by 1930."

When Horse Got in Train's Way

This picture shows what happened near Sweetwater, Tex., when a horse meandered out on the tracks in front of the Sunshine Special, crack passenger train of the Missouri Pacific and Texas & Pacific lines. Engines and fireman were killed. The train at the time was traveling at a high rate of speed, trying to make up lost time.
