MORE THAN 250 LADIES WATCH MRS. CHITWOOD IN DEMONSTRATION ON PIES AND PASTRIES AT BAPTIST CHURCH TODAY

There's no argument about it, Lubbock women are certainly interested in cooking. Mrs. Ida Chitwood, the Plains Journal's food expert, opened the second class of her cooking school to a greatly increased audience of women in the Baptist church this afternoon. Monday's crowd was estimated to be more than 200, while the class that greeted Mrs. Chitwood today was more than 250.

COMMUNITY COMMENTS

By CURTIS A. KEEN

YOUR PART IN THE TECH PARTY

"They can handle the party without me, or what could I do on a big thing like that, or I am too busy to give any time to such foolishness."

You have heard all of them with reference to the Tech party, the work of the Chamber of Commerce, the annual South Plains Fair and the other activities of the city. Folks fail to appreciate the fact that the word "they" means nothing more than a big bunch of "I's" working together for the good of Lubbock and that if the individual citizen is not a part of that same "they" that he is a civic slacker and not entitled to swell his chest and proudly admit that he is from Lubbock, the Hub of the Plains, the Home of the Tech College, the Dallas of the Plains, and the other things that we boast of. He is just a parasite, a hanger on, a leech on the civic growth of the town that supports him and enables him to make a profit in his profession, at his trade or in his investments.

The biggest things ever done in Lubbock have only been possible through the fullest co-operation on the part of the hundreds and hundreds of little ordinary "me and you's" that it takes to make up any city. When Lubbock, with the assistance of her wonderful, big hearted, whole souled neighbors fed 35,000 people in 47 minutes a little over a year ago, when meat was counted by the ton, bread by the thousand loaves and coffee by the barrel, an impossible thing was accomplished, and yet that great undertaking was not so big after all. The individual man just did his little individual bit, sliced bread until his eyes flickered for a week, cooked meat until his back ached, dished coffee until all water looked brown for the rest of the summer, etc., but individually he did nothing big—and yet, altogether, the world stood astounded at the accomplishment of an impossible task.

We can do anything in the whole world if we all work together, and even though we do not have the time, can't find the time, or feel that we won't take the time, if we will all hold together and give just a little of the time that we regularly waste, there is no limit to what we can do here as a city and as a citizenship.

Your part in the coming Tech party is to do the little thing that is assigned to you just like your life depended upon it. It may be a lot, or it may not be much, but whatever it is, do it and do it with all of the enthusiasm in the world. If nothing is assigned for you to do, why get out and find something to do. There is work enough for every man and woman in Lubbock and you won't have to hunt long before you find something worth while to do that will contribute a lot to the success of the coming event.

Let's make this a big 'un, like the first one was. It means a lot to the College, a lot to our city and a lot to the Plains country and West Texas. Let's go!

TROOPS TO HERRIN

CARBONDALE, Ill., Nov. 4.—National Guard troops today were ordered to mobilize and proceed at once to Herrin and Marion, in "bloody Williamson county." The troops were requested when indications pointed to trouble there this afternoon in the Klan war.

Before the meeting today, early arrivals among the "students" were entertained by a Brunswick concert, under the direction of Mrs. Needam McClure. The Brunswick and records were furnished by the Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company, who promise an especially good program starting promptly at 1:30 tomorrow.

Commenting on the concert, Mrs. Chitwood said, "While music is furnished quite extensively in the living room, it should become a part of the dining room at meal time, using the slogan of a well known chewing gum, 'It aids digestion.'"

Pies and Pastry Today

Following a few brief remarks, Mrs. Chitwood started her demonstration on pies and pastries, using Crisco, Amaryl's flour and Royal baking powder as the chief ingredients. Cream for whipping was furnished by Medlock's dairy.

In her demonstration today Mrs. Chitwood turned her attention to pies and pastries and their latest demonstrations. More housewives are judged by their ability or inability to bake good pies and pastries than by any other kind of cookery and there are more poorly made pies and pastries than any other kind of foods, the expert said. She especially stressed the mixing of the ingredients and the importance of using only good materials in the making of pies and cakes.

Close attention must be paid to the stove used in the work and also in the manipulation of the ingredients. If pies and pastries are not made well they form one of the most injurious types of food known. On the other hand, if they are well prepared, they form one of the most nutritious types of food. Mrs. Chitwood pointed out, she demonstrated the baking of two types of pies, which though very good pies, were inexpensive to bake.

Tomorrow Mrs. Chitwood will prepare her famous "Rose Luncheon," which, although very inexpensive, makes one of the most charming menus for light repasts known to modern cookery. It will be noticed throughout the school that Mrs. Chitwood stresses economy, a trait which she became accustomed to during the war when she was an instructor in war cookery for the United States government. The menu for her Rose Luncheon will consist of the following:

Crab cocktail, lettuce soup with cheese noodles, rose spinach, chicken a la king in Swedish timble cases, roasted potatoes, rose fruit salad, rose cakes and black coffee.

Men Get Enthusied

Lubbock men are behind the cooking school. They don't have any objections to their wives attending Mrs. Chitwood's demonstrations, a Plains Journal reporter learned by inquiring around the streets. For obvious reasons, these gentlemen wish their names withheld, but the general consensus of opinion was that the cooking school is a fine thing, that improvements in the family table are welcome, that reductions in the grocery bill are good, etc., ad infinitum.

Be sure to register every day at the Cooking School. Because of the fact that the Cooking School is held at the Baptist church, it was found necessary to eliminate the drawing for prizes announced in Sunday's Plains Journal. The management of the Plains Journal request every woman attending the Cooking School to register every day on the card provided for that purpose. The Plains Journal will find some suitable way to distribute the various food products provided for this purpose by the manufacturers at the close of the school to ladies attending.

Watch for announcement later, but register.

JOHN VOTES 'ER STRAIGHT

LOCUST VALLEY, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Amidst a battery of photographers and reporters, John W. Davis went to the polls today and voted a straight Democratic ticket from president on

VINDICATED

Former Governor James E. Ferguson, of Temple, whose name is being vindicated by Texas voters today as they are electing his wife, Miriam A. Ferguson, as the State's chief executive, the first woman ever elected to such a high office.

RURAL HEADS OF CAMPAIGN TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW

Organization Not Finished As Originally Announced, Red Cross Officers Say

The organization of the city and rural teams and their captains, who will carry on the annual Red Cross drive for funds in Lubbock and surrounding counties of the South Plains has not yet been completed, officials of the local bureau announced today. The local organization was to have been completed yesterday, according to a previous announcement made by Judge James H. Goodman, director of the campaign, but for some reason the organization was not attended to. Names of the rural captains and teams will be given out tomorrow officials stated.

Bureau Busy

Since the tenth day of January the Lubbock Red Cross has been a very busy office. Men needing to be sent to the hospitals for treatment have come in great numbers and have received medical attention here in many cases. Their cases have been investigated and if found to be worthy, they have been given transportation to the Veterans Bureau or to Government hospitals where they receive treatment. Compensation has been applied for in interest of hundreds and many more have been helped to secure proper employment. There has been no line drawn to the boundary of Lubbock county and men have been assisted from Lubbock, Crosby, Hale, Lamb, Lynn, Terry, Garza and Gaines counties in particular.

One man was sent to the Lubbock Red Cross from Lamesa who had but recently escaped from an asylum for the mentally deranged in California. When questioned it was found that he had great fear of being locked up or of being sent back to California. He was given board and lodging and kind treatment for over two weeks. It was learned that he had a mother living. She was communicated with and made his guardian so that he might receive the money justly due him by the government and at the end of the two weeks he was escorted by two Lubbock ex-service men to a government hospital in Iowa which hospital was in visiting distance of his mother.

Quite a number of ex-service men come over from New Mexico to the Lubbock Red Cross and many others stop off on their way from Oklahoma on their way to California. Some of these constitute very great problems inasmuch as their brief stay does not give the proper time for investigation. The Red Cross is ever ready to assist those who are in need but the ones who come to Lubbock to impose are offered employment if they are not sick and expected to earn their way as the rest of the people of Lubbock do.

DAVIS SWEEPING SOUTH WITH CAL. LEADING IN N. Y.

LaFollette Shows Surprising Strength In Illinois Reports State

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 4.—(SPECIAL)—John W. Davis and Charles Bryan, Democratic candidates for president and vice-president, are sweeping southern and southeastern parts of the United States, scattered election reports received shortly after noon today indicate. So little is the strength of the Republican and Progressive parties in this section that nothing was available on their polling at the time of the first tabulation.

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 4.—(SPECIAL)—Early election returns, tabulated at one o'clock today for the heavily populated parts of the east and the northeast, show Calvin Coolidge, and his running-mate, Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidates for President and Vice-President, respectively, leading in the voting, with Robert M. LaFollette and Burton K. Wheeler running second, as candidates of the Progressive party. The strength of John W. Davis and Charles Bryan, the Democratic candidates, cannot be estimated in this section of the country although there is room to believe that they will wind up ahead of the LaFollette-Wheeler forces.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—(SPECIAL)—Showing a surprising strength in this city and nearby localities Robert M. LaFollette and Burton K. Wheeler are contesting the candidacy of President Calvin Coolidge and his running-mate, Charles G. Dawes, for the voting supremacy. Early and indefinite reports on the election give little data, however, and the outcome of the voting will probably show a majority for Coolidge and Dawes.

Reverend White succeeds Reverend W. P. McMeekin, who filled out the unexpired term of Reverend C. N. N. Ferguson, who died in Lubbock last spring. During the session the conference paused to commemorate the life and work of Reverend Ferguson who was one of the outstanding pastors of the district.

RIOTS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Three men had been shot, one stabbed, another kidnapped and one polling place burned in Chicago today as election disturbances, a gang of armed men in an automobile killed one man and wounded two others.

LEADS IN POLLING

"Ma" Ferguson, of Temple, Democratic candidate for governor of Texas, whose election seems certain as early reports come in. If elected, Mrs. Ferguson will be the first woman in the history of the United States to hold the office of governor. Despite the fact that her election is forecast her opponent, Dr. George C. Butte, is polling the greatest Republican vote in the history of his party in Texas.

NO ACCURATE REPORTS ON COUNTY RETURNS BEFORE NOON TOMORROW ELECTION OFFICIALS HERE STATE

BUTTE TO POLL FAIRLY LARGE VOTE, FORECAST, BUT MRS. FERGUSON EXPECTED TO CARRY COUNTY AT FINAL COUNT

There will be no accurate reports of the outcome of the election in Lubbock county available until tomorrow noon, local election officials stated shortly after noon today. The only information the officials could give out was the fact that voting was much heavier in the city of Lubbock than pre-election estimates suggested. Voting at Lubbock precinct number four, being held in the Sheriff's office, was especially heavy, officers said.

REPORT FINDING OF OIL IN WELL AT JUSTICEBURG

Phelps Well On Boren Farm Is Good For Fifteen Barrels, Report States

A telegram received here this morning by a geologist representing a large oil company stated that at a depth of 2,440 feet, the oil well being drilled in Garza county by Phelps, et al. on the Boren farm, produced oil to such an extent as to estimate an average yield of from fifteen to twenty barrels per day.

An attempt to get Phelps or one of his associates on the telephone shortly after noon today was unsuccessful and while the report was received here it is not official. No information was given concerning the second well being drilled on the Connell place, also in Garza county, which last week was shut down at a little more than 700 feet. The well being drilled on the Connell place is being sunk by the Union Petroleum company.

FIRST POLL IS IN

NEW ASHFORD, Mass., Nov. 4.—New Ashford was again first under the polls today with complete returns. The polls opened at 6 a. m. Fifteen minutes later the town's 24 votes were in, 20 to Coolidge and 4 to Davis. Two voters were ill and four were out of town, comprising the entire strength.

KIMBRO FOREMAN OF JURY CALLED LATE YESTERDAY

No Announcement Yet Made On Attorneys To Represent Willie Hall

The special grand jury, called in the case of Willie Hall, negro, who is alleged to have assaulted a white woman near Lubbock last Thursday, met at four-thirty yesterday afternoon and with a very short investigation and probing of the evidence filed a complaint against the negro charging assault with intent to rape. H. T. Kimbro, prominent local grain man, was selected as foreman of the grand jury.

In addition to Foreman H. T. Kimbro, other grand jurors sitting on the case were M. W. Dickinson, O. J. Snow, J. Terrill, Williamson, James Vance, Pete Rosey, J. M. Isaac, L. E. Brooks, J. M. Benton, F. T. Bryant, J. H. Hankins and R. C. Clutter. Sheriff H. L. Johnston stated today. Immediately after their investigation of the negro's case the jury was excused.

No Attorney Chosen

No announcement has been made as to what attorney or attorneys will be called to represent Hall in the case, which will open on Thursday morning before Special Judge Pike N. Dalton, of Crosbyton, who by the time the trial is called will be District Attorney-elect of the Seventy-second judicial district. As Hall is without friends or money it is presumed that an attorney will be chosen by the court to take charge of his case, as the law provides that any prisoner placed on trial has the right of counsel.

Until a counsel for Hall is appointed it is not known what the plea of the suspected man will be. Should his counsel elect to have his client plead guilty the insanity aspect of the case will have to come up, as the law provides that if a prisoner pleads guilty to a felony his sanity must be decided upon by the court, as was the case in the Leopold-Loeb case tried recently in the city of Chicago.

CAL IS BETTING FAVORITE BY 11 TO 1, IS REPORT

Davis Forecasts "Silent Vote" To Go To Him As It Did To Woodrow Wilson

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—(SPECIAL)—Before the opening of the polls here today those in close touch with the political situation were offering odds of eleven to one that President Calvin Coolidge would be named by the voters of the United States today to succeed himself as president. Reports reaching here stated that Wall Street brokers were offering twelve to one odds on a similar choice of the election's outcome.

Campaign managers of Coolidge, Davis and LaFollette all issued statements late last night, each forecasting victory for his candidate but neutral observers are prone to favor the return to office of President Coolidge.

John W. Davis, Democratic candidate, undismayed, by the results of numerous "straw votes" which found him running behind Coolidge in every instance and behind LaFollette in some cases, stated last night that the silent vote, which elected Woodrow Wilson over Charles Evans Hughes, would go to him and assure his election to the nation's highest office.

TEXAS QUIET

FORT WORTH, Nov. 4.—With the exception of the burning of a poll at Coker, near San Antonio, today's election was generally reported quiet over the state with indications of one of the heaviest votes in history. The first quarter to be heard from was Houston, where one precinct gave Buite 108 and Mrs. Ferguson 82, and another box reported 35 for Buite and 15 for Mrs. Ferguson. Houston went for Robertson in the primary.

Miss Edith Carter had as her guest...

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ottwager have as their guests...

Miss Frances Baker has as her guest Miss Ruth Lovinger...

Above is shown the Amarillo creamery of the Mistletoe Creamery company, the organization which is one of the largest suppliers of dairy products in West Texas. Mistletoe-brand butter will be used exclusively in the Plains Journal Cooking School, which is in session this week. The Mistletoe Creamery company is distinctly a West Texas organization and has always stood in the foreground in doing its share toward the development of this section. It is the owner of the famous herd of Mistletoe Jersey cattle, displayed at the Panhandle and South Plains Fair, the Amarillo Tri-State Fair and other expositions over Texas.

Graduation Thins Ranks of Net Stars; Thalheimer Will Be Eligible Again

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—Tennis prospects at the University of Texas are considerably weaker this year than last, according to Dr. D. A. Penick, tennis coach. Two members of the undefeated team of the past year received their degree in June and will not be eligible for the tennis team this year. Lewis White of Austin, winner of the National Intercollegiate Tennis double championship with Louis Thalheimer of Dallas in Philadelphia last summer, has already played his three years of collegiate tennis. Marshall Dell, also a member of the University team, did not return this year. Captain Thalheimer, however, will be eligible as will Edward Mather of Austin, Albert Love of Austin, Ernest Funkhouser of Fort Worth. These men will be the nucleus of the team this year, Dr. Penick said.

Austin Woman Given Honor in Naming of Women's Dormitory

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—In the Helen Marr Kirby Hall, the girls' dormitory recently completed by the Methodists at the University of Texas, there is a large social room which has been named for Mrs. T. A. Brown, of Austin, chairman of the board of control during the construction of the dormitory. The room is very spacious, and the furnishings and appointments are luxurious. An immense rubbed wood fireplace and mantel is the center of attraction, and the room contains a pleasing arrangement of mahogany and overstuffed chairs and lounges. Lighting fixtures and draperies harmonize with the general features. Adjoining the Brown room are two smaller social rooms. One was furnished by Dr. Will Brown, the son of Mrs. Brown. The other was furnished by Murray G. Smyth of Uvalde, as a tribute to his mother. Mr. Smyth is a 1924 graduate of the Law School of the University. These two smaller rooms are furnished in a manner to harmonize with the Brown room.

PROFESSORS ARE TO MAKE LIQUID AIR AT TEXAS U.

New Machine Is To Be Placed In Laboratories In Thirty Days, Heads State

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—Liquid air will be manufactured at the University of Texas when the new liquid air machine is installed in the chemical laboratory. It is said that this machine is the first of its kind in this part of the country, and is a distinct addition to the University equipment. The machine will be installed in about thirty days. It is a high pressure four-staged pump, working under a pressure of 3,000 pounds. It is mounted on a cement block, and a 15-horsepower motor is required for its operation. Liquid air is used for freezing purposes, and for obtaining very low temperatures for experimental work. With the aid of this machine, experiments will be made at the University which have not been possible heretofore. The use of liquid air is one of the most convenient ways for making low temperatures, it is stated, and is now largely used in chemistry for that purpose. It can be stored very easily in vessels and poured out like water. In fact, it looks like water, but is much colder than ice.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD AT STATE THOUGHT WINNER

Fifteen Men Competing For The Squad With Comanche Boy Chosen Captain

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—The University of Texas will have another strong cross country team this year. With four of his men showing mid-season form in the early tryouts, Coach Roy J. McLean has more than even chances of repeating last year's feat, and placing on the cinder path another conference winning aggregation. There are over fifteen men out for the Varsity team, and Coach McLean has been giving each man special attention in the daily workouts that are held. The men will have to be in the best of condition to meet the schedule arranged this season. A. & M. College has practically intact the team that ran Texas close for honors last year. Boyer, Gillespie, and Royal are the outstanding runners from Aggie land, and will give Reese and his long distance runners a hard tussle for honors. The other conference contenders, Southern Methodist University, Texas Christian University and Oklahoma A. & M. are also reported to have fast-time teams.

HOUSEWIFE

How should the housewife spend the family budget to get the best return in food value? The home economics specialists at State College say that of the money allowed for food, one-fifth should be spent for breadstuffs and cereals, one-fifth for vegetables and fruits, one-fifth for milk and other dairy products, one-fifth or less for meat, and one-fifth for other foods, including the fats and sugars.

Dr. Sherman of Columbia University, after many years of investigation and research, has found that the average American family spends more money for meat than for any other foodstuffs in the diet.

In order to come within the budget allowed for meat and still feed the family properly, the housewife must plan meat substitutes. Here are two or three suggestions given by the home economics department of South Dakota State College.

 1/2 pound American cheese grated
 Cook onions and peppers in bacon fat until soft but not brown. Stir in flour quickly and continue stirring until mixture is well blended and smooth. Add hot tomato juice and stir until it boils. Add salt and macaroni and cheese. Place in a buttered baking dish, sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and brown in the oven. Cooked rice may be substitute for macaroni.

Editorially Speaking

Your Library

In every city there are a few people who realize keenly the importance of the Public Library in community life. They use it, support it, and tell others about it. Do you? There are many citizens, however, who are apt to take their Public Library for granted—a public institution, of course, but one which does not touch them closely or particularly need their support. Are you one of these citizens?

Here they are mistaken. The Public Library has something to give every citizen. There is not a man so far advanced in his business or profession but that he can learn something from the experience of others. There are books and pamphlets on practically every kind of work which has been done, which give the experience of men who have succeeded and are available as "tools" for those who wish to succeed. They give information, knowledge, power, qualities that are essential to executive as well as to the employee.

"Readers' Ink," published by the Indianapolis Public Library, quotes William Maxwell, vice-president of the Thomas Edison Company, "Were I twenty-one again, I should do a great deal of reading. Six hours each week of serious reading is not much, but it may mean the difference between the $20,000 executive and the $25 a week clerk. It is not worth the while of any community to make this a possibility for any of its citizens? It is a work of citizenship to be able to maintain a creditable Public Library for the community. Know your Public Library, also know the keeper of it, the Librarian. Be able to talk intelligently about your Library and what books and magazines are in it.

Where Are We Going To Put Them?

Every time a convention is announced for Lubbock or a big gathering of any kind is considered the first and most important question asked is, "Where are we going to put them?"

The situation is growing to a point where it is little less than desperate and still no concerted action is being taken to meet the growing demand for living quarters of every kind. Traveling men come into Lubbock on the late trains and sit up until morning for lack of rooms or beds. Visitors come to the city before dark and cannot find a room until one is vacated by the traveler leaving on a late train. Folks try to move to Lubbock and cannot find rooms, or a house to rent and are forced to move on to some other town.

Four women made a house to house canvas of a part of the city for four hours one day last week and were able to persuade private citizens to make room for only 40 visitors. The housing committee of the Tech party has the biggest job on its program for you simply can't get blood out of a turnip, no matter how hard you squeeze, and rooms in Lubbock come in about the same class.

When the Tech opens next fall and 1,000 to 1,500 students pour into Lubbock to attend this great institution that we are proud of and have worked so hard for and that all of West Texas has such confidence in, where are we going to put them? A student can't pay the prices being asked for rooms in Lubbock today, plus the price of board, and the other expenses of school life, and afford to stay in school. And if we, as a city, fail to meet our responsibility and lose a few hundred students to the college for lack of adequate and reasonably priced homes to live in the first year, it will take the college and the city ten years to get over the damage, the bad reputation and the harm that will be done.

Maybe it is a little early to start howling, but it takes time to plan, finance and construct homes, apartment houses and living facilities of any kind and if we are to meet the situation before us it is time to get busy. Where is our hotel? Lubbock has had a "crying need" for 10 these many moons and still we have no hotel. It is time to start planning for the fall before it is too late to cry.

A Dose Of His Own Medicine

An editor and a merchant were discussing the virtue of billboard advertising. The merchant contended that more people read the billboards than the newspapers. After a lengthy conversation in which neither man would give in the next part. The next week the merchant came tearing down the street to the newspaper office wanting to know why the obituary of his wife's mother was not in the paper, especially after he had seen that a copy was taken to the newspaper office. "Well," said the editor, "I knew you wanted the obituary read by the people so I took it out and nailed it up on your billboard."—Exchange.

Billboard or rather poster advertising may be all right but it cannot be identified with newspaper advertising. Nor does it have the same effect. Those who advertise on the boards are restricted to a minimum number of words; the shorter the better. Because the majority of people will not take the time to read it. The message, therefore, must be short and to the point. The newspaper goes into the home, where readers can peruse the pages at leisure and the real message told in a manner that convicts. The lesson shown above is an excellent example.

With Our Contemporaries

There is a great deal of reckless driving in Vernon these days. Good fortune, however, has kept the number of serious accidents down to a minimum. One or two accidents of serious nature have happened in the past few weeks, but the fact that they were not more serious or even fatal may be attributed to good luck rather than to careful driving of automobiles.—Vernon Record.

Everywhere people are coming to realize more and more how independent we are upon each other. The only individual who is self-sufficient is a hermit. The keynote—foundation of civilization, is the family. We all concede that. And we are rapidly coming to realize that our own home town, is a home town family—simply the family unit a little bit extended through neighborly cordiality, friendship, and pleasant social intercourse. Common good will and recognition of our human obligation is a deeper currency than any system ever invented. But it is also to our advantage on the material side of life, it rebounds in better practices, living conditions, more generous impulse.—Slatonite.

A good man is the answer to everything. And all history is an organized man hunt. Scientists say that a dew drop, being a complete sphere, reflects the universe. When a good man appears he mirrors human life. A reasonable, radiant, right man—he brings along the solutions to all our problems and in himself, arms folded, the ultimate goal we long have sought.—Hockley County News.

The first building ever erected in Lubbock for an office structure only, has recently been completed. It is more than a building, it is a hint of the future. The Wilson Building, two stories in height now but with a foundation which can and will some day accommodate five stories, makes it easier for us all to visualize what will happen in Lubbock as the years go by. It tells us of what is to come with additional progress.

GROWTH OF CITY SURPRISING SAY INSURANCE MEN

Representatives Of Jefferson Standard Company Hold Meeting Here

The Jefferson Standard Life Insurance representatives and home office officials held a short conference in Lubbock recently morning in the office of the South Plains representative of the company, Curtis A. Keen, in the Wilson building. H. B. Walton, General Manager of the Mortgage Loan Department of the company, from Greensboro, N. C.; Claude Allen, North Texas Manager, with headquarters at Fort Worth; Harry M. Radey, Panhandle Manager, with headquarters at Amarillo; Special Agents F. W. Morgan, of Lamesa, and Leland Abbott, of Amarillo, were in attendance from out of town.

The company has loaned more than a million and a half dollars on real estate and business properties in the Panhandle during the past four years and through the local offices, is taking care of a number of conservative loans on property in this city. The conference dealt particularly with the trend of property values, the basis of determining conservative loan values, and the extension of the limit on local loans.

Loan Man Pleased With Lubbock
The company has long looked with interest upon the development of Lubbock and the South Plains and we thought that we were closely in touch with your growth, but we have found in driving over the city that our records have not kept pace with the development of the city. You have more construction under way today in Lubbock than I have seen in any city of three times your population in the entire South, and I spend most of my time traveling, inspecting property," said Mr. Walton.

Every Housewife in Lubbock Should Visit the Cooking School This Week

Our one desire and purpose is to serve and satisfy our patrons a LITTLE BETTER. In order that you may more fully appreciate our ambition "TO DO A LITTLE BETTER WHAT MANY CONCERNS ARE SATISFIED WITH DOING WELL" we have arranged to have Mrs. Chitwood give free every afternoon a short demonstration on the proper use of a family refrigerator, which is nothing more than a small cold storage plant.

It should be of great importance to each housewife to know how to preserve the food for the family, at the least possible cost. If you want to reduce your ice bill, don't fail to hear this talk and see the refrigerator demonstration each afternoon.

A well iced refrigerator is just as necessary in winter time, as summer time, to those who fully appreciate health, which is a direct result of well preserved, wholesome food. A well iced refrigerator in winter the same as summer is actually a life saver, not a luxury. Do you know that 25¢ worth of ice every other day in winter will properly preserve $5.00 worth of food each day? Do you know that a chemist can take the water from the drip trap in a refrigerator and tell you what foods were stored in the refrigerator? Do you know that milk spoils rapidly above a temperature of 55 degrees and should be kept in a well iced refrigerator the year round at 40 degrees?

A spoonful of milk properly handled and delivered by the dairyman and immediately placed in a well iced refrigerator will contain only a few thousand bacteria in such dazed condition that they may easily be digested, while the same spoonful of milk not properly iced will contain from two to five billion bacteria.

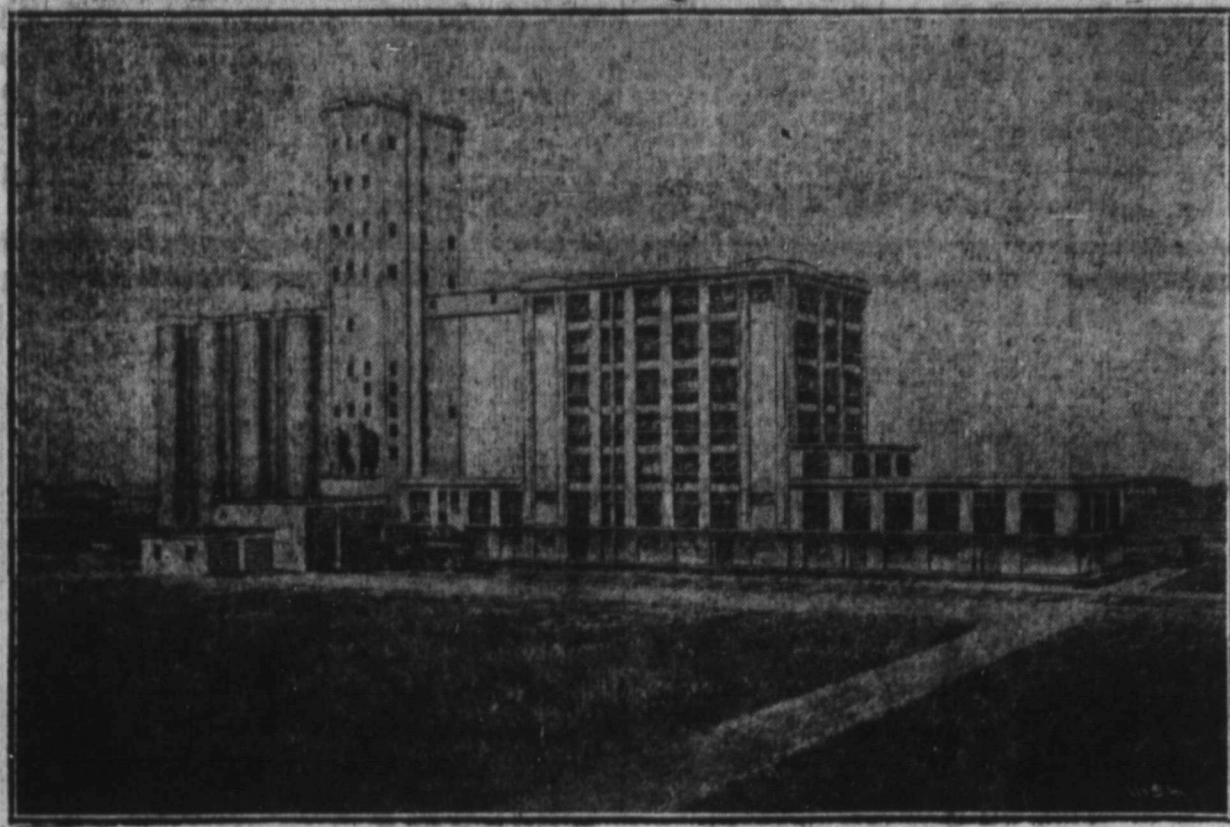

We have many housewives in Lubbock who use ice the year round

Evan Harries, director and principal character of the play, "An Old Bachelor," presented at Lubbock high school's auditorium last Thursday and Friday nights to benefit the curial fund of the institution, will return to this city in December or January and present another play for the benefit of the athletic fund of the local school, he stated this morning. Harries will go from Lubbock to Plainview, where he will present "An Old Bachelor" in conjunction with the Plainview high school. From Plainview he will go to Elato, where the same play will be presented. After his Plainview showing he will present "Stricken Blind" at Lorenzo high school and then will again come to Lubbock. The play presented here last week was very well received and about twelve hundred persons were in the two audiences. The play, "Stricken Blind," is the best in his repertoire. Harries states and he finds more pleasure in it than he does in "An Old Bachelor," which has been so well received in this vicinity. Harries also carries the title role in "Stricken Blind," a four-act presentation of which he is the author.

All Courses, Report Of Registrar Shows

AUSTIN, Nov. 1.—Out of twenty-two men's social fraternities in the University of Texas, twenty passed the average set by the entire student body and are eligible to initiate their members this fall, according to information given out by Dean H. T. Parlin, chairman of the committee on students' social organizations. All of the girls' sororities passed the average. Highest standing scholastically among the organizations belongs to the girls, as Kappa Alpha Theta sorority holds first place on the list, according to grades made by the members last session. Ranking second among the girls is Alpha Delta Pi sorority, which tied with the highest ranking of the men's organizations in the scholastic averages. Acacia, Masonic fraternity, holds first rank among the men's social clubs, and Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity ranks second. The only two fraternities failing to make the average for initiation were Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Sigma. Last year eight fraternities failed to make the average, and this year's record is considered remarkable.

According to regulations of the University, no social organization may initiate new members unless the average scholastic standing of the group is equal to the average scholastic standing of the entire student body. A chapter ineligible to initiate this fall, however, may become eligible to initiate new members in the winter term, provided they raise their scholastic standing sufficiently during the current term.

To Be Placed In Big Field
Museum For Display

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Wild life of the lower Texas border and coastal waters, much of which will soon become extinct owing to the invasion of agriculture, horticulture and commerce, will be preserved in its present state in the Field Museum here.

Alfred C. Weed and Leon L. Fray, of the Division of Fishes of the Museum, have just returned from the vicinity of Point Isabel, Brownsville and Kingsville where they spent two months gathering scores of fish, bird and mammal specimens under the auspices of Capt. Marshall Field's expedition.

Although the primary business was to collect the unusual species of fish along lower Texas gulf coast, the scientists brought back forty kinds of mammals, including a rare rice rat and nest, two small southern cottontails, about half the size of ordinary rabbits, seventy-five birds for mounting, including a Texas screech owl, and hundreds of insects.

Several large sharks, a sawfish with a saw three feet long, giant sting rays, large leopard rays, curious cow nosed rays appearing to have two mouths, thirty and forty pound channel bass, twenty pound sea pike, tarpon, pigmy pine fish, electric fish, large black drum, hammerhead sharks and many other specimens were included in the results of the fishing expeditions.

'ANGEL CAKE'

One Of The Best Cake Recipes
In Mrs. Chitwood's Large Repertoire

So many requests have come in for some of the recipes used by Mrs. Ida Chitwood in the Plains Journal's cooking school that we are reproducing her recipe for "Angel cake," which so pleased the many ladies present at the first session of the school.

According to Mrs. Chitwood, this is one of her best cake recipes and has met with unbounded popularity wherever she has gone.

ANGEL CAKE

1 1/2 cup egg whites (9 to 11 eggs)
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups fine granulated sugar (sifted twice)
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup flour, sifted once, measured then sifted 4 times
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 teaspoon rose or almond extract.

Four egg whites on a large platter, add salt and beat with a flat egg beater until foamy. Add cream of tartar and continue beating until the eggs are stiff but still dry. Fold in the sugar, 1 tablespoonful at a time. Add flavoring. Fold in the flour in the same manner as the sugar. Pour in an ungreased cake tin of a special construction so as to permit a knife being inserted under the bottom of the cake. Bake in a very slow oven 50 to 60 minutes, increasing heat slightly when cake is almost done. Remove cake from tin with a broadbladed knife. Two tablespoons of cold water may be substituted for two egg whites

VOTE TODAY

WHO ARE THE MEN IN LUBBOCK WHO DO THINGS?

Back of every movement there is a personality. Back of every city there is a group of men who give freely of their time, their labor, their money and their thought, and the women are just as much a part of the growth and progress of the city as are the men. In Lubbock who are they?

Honorable, lofty, personal reward—they seek none of these. Blame, criticism and misunderstanding—these are the expected parts of their pay. But their work is necessary and is responsible for the growth, development and standing of our city as one of the outstanding cities of the Southwest.

Below is listed a part of the list that have been nominated for the Plains Journal Hall of Fame. Take your pencil and make a check mark by the side of the three men and two women who, in your mind, have contributed the most, in proportion to their native ability, means and personal influence, to the growth, reputation and standing of this city. In making these checks, remember the old timer, the new comers, the rich, the poor, the big, the little—all of them—and vote upon a strict basis of what they have done in proportion to what they are capable of doing. One man may give $1,000 to a cause and not be entitled to as much credit as another man who only gives $5, and the same is true in every other measure of civic work and responsibility.

If you think of other men you want to vote for, write their names in at the bottom of the list and turn in to The Plains Journal. Let's give honor where honor is due and while the folks to whom the honor should be given are alive and can enjoy knowing that the folks of Lubbock appreciate the work they have done for the city and for our progress, prosperity and reputation.

RURAL VOTERS LINE UP WITH MRS. FERGUSON

MRS. FERGUSON PILES UP LEAD OF FORTY THOUSAND VOTES IN EARLY COUNTING; BUTTE RUNNING STRONG

MANY CITIES RETURN MAJORITY TO REPUBLICAN BUT RURAL DISTRICTS OVERWHELMINGLY FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—(SPECIAL)—Piling up a lead of forty thousand votes in the first 270,000 ballots counted, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, seems certain of being the next governor of Texas. Counting up to one o'clock today gave Mrs. Ferguson 160,125 and George C. Butte, Republican, 119,723. A number of the larger cities of the state have returned majorities for Doctor Butte, however, and he refuses to concede his opponent's victory until the last vote is counted. Cities returning a majority to Butte thus far include El Paso, Amarillo, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston. The rural districts, however, as they are slowly being reported, are giving Mrs. Ferguson an overwhelming majority.

Butte Claims Victory

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—(SPECIAL)—Declaring the illegal discarding of ballots cast in his favor had robbed him of any early indications of victory, Dr. George C. Butte, Republican candidate for governor, today declined to follow the advice of his campaign managers and concede victory to Mrs. Ferguson. Butte said he was proud of his standing thus far and that he still had confidence in Texas voters. He claims but thirty per cent of the vote in the larger cities, that are his strongholds, is in and that Mayfield beat Ferguson and that he can do the same. He declared that election judges were defeating him by throwing away the ballots where voters had written his name and that he would fight to the last ditch for the victory that he claims rightfully his.

Butte Leading Panhandle

AMARILLO, Nov. 5.—A majority of nearly two to one was given Dr. Butte over Mrs. Ferguson by Panhandle voters in returns compiled by the Daily News at an early hour this morning, with incomplete returns from twenty-five counties. Five counties reported giving majorities to Mrs. Ferguson, in all cases with small returns, while many of the majorities for Butte over Mrs. Ferguson were overwhelming. Donley county reported two to one for Butte, with Ochiltree county reporting more than four to one for Butte.

Potter Goes To Butte

AMARILLO, Nov. 5.—Potter county broke all previous records in voting yesterday when 4,125 votes were cast with the greatest number of these cast for governor. Butte received 2,723, Ferguson 1,197. The Park levy carried 1760 for levy and 857 against levy.

NAME M'DONALD AS CHEF AT BIG LEGION REUNION

Local Legionaire Chosen As Chief Cook And Bottle Washer By Committee

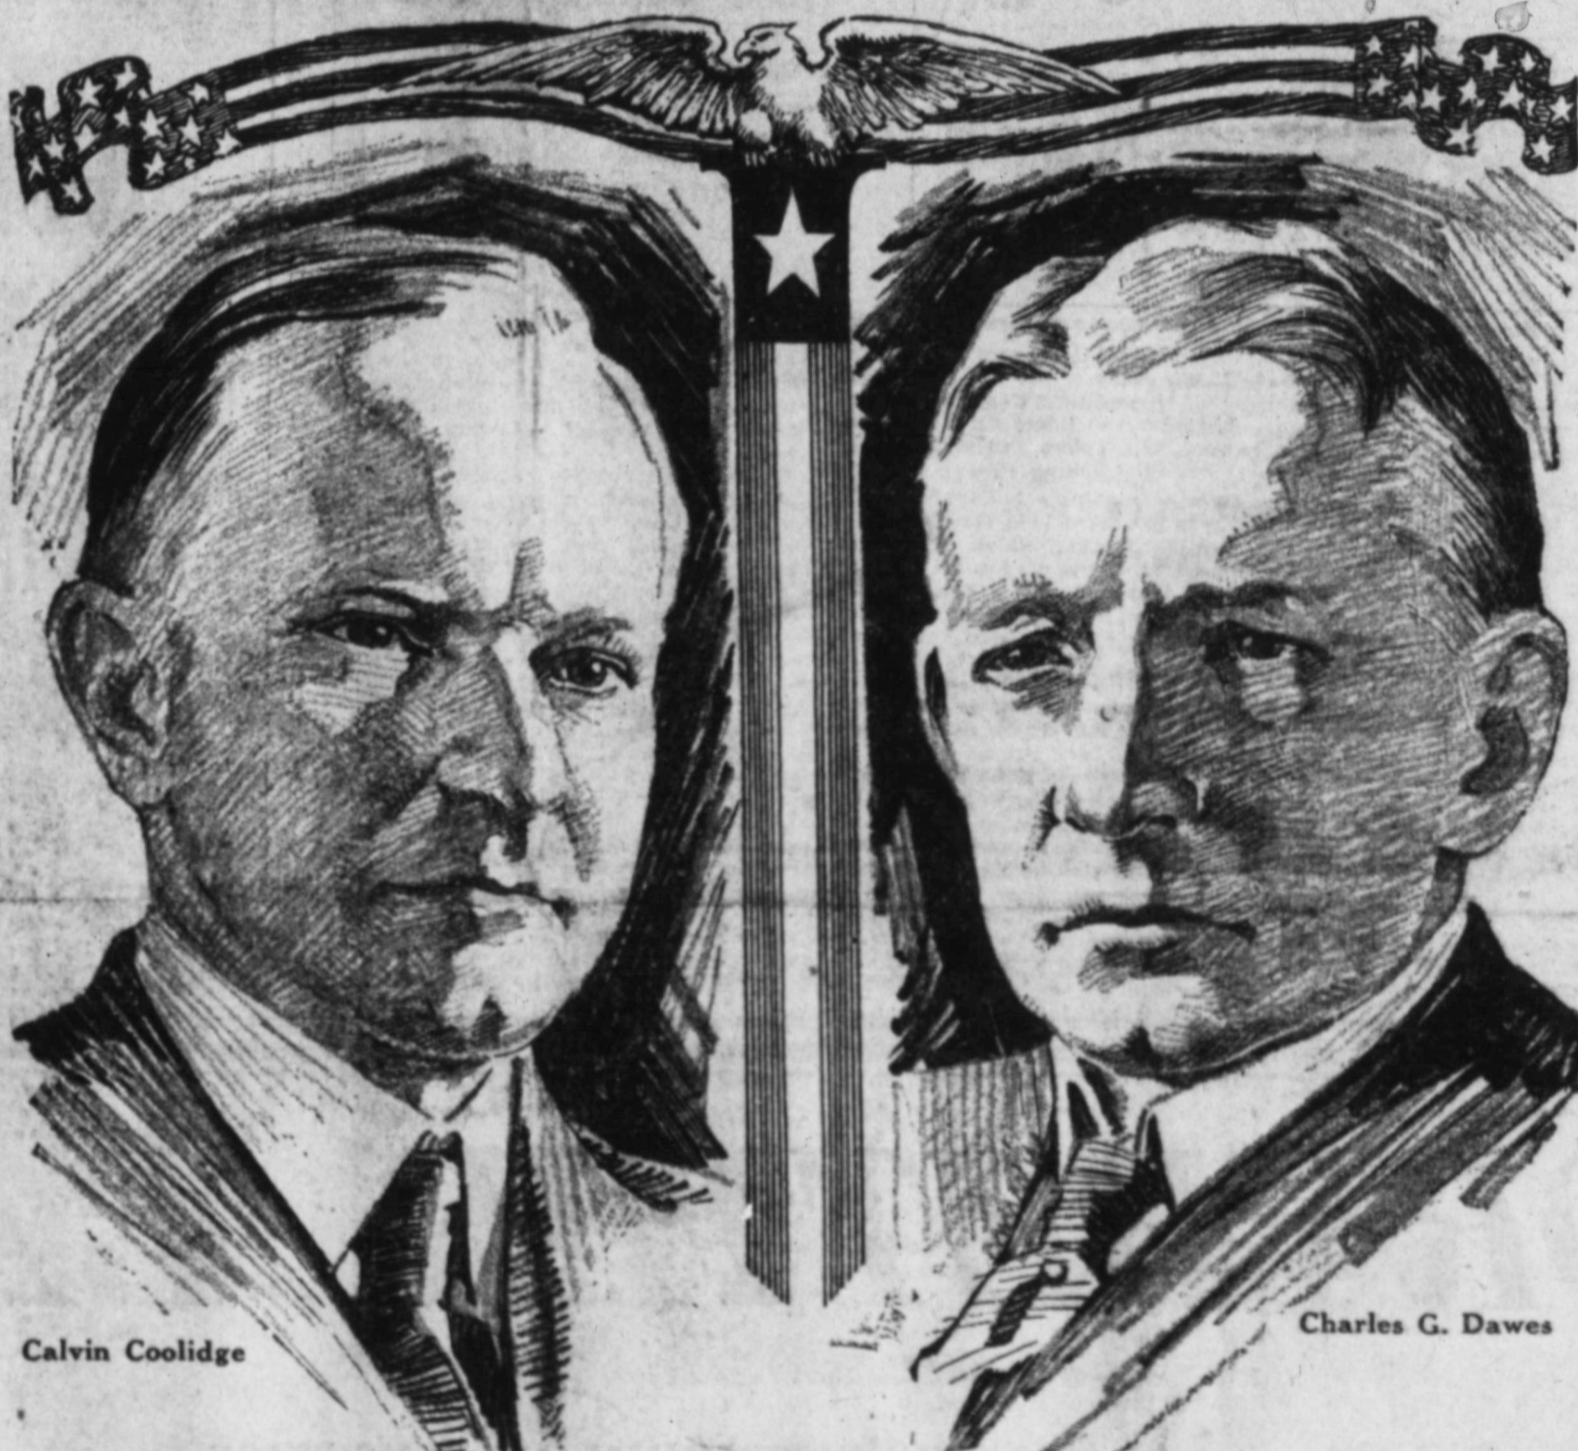

Alec MacDonald, of the Allen Brothers post of the American legion, will serve as chief cook and bottle washer in the all-day reunion and encampment held here in connection with the Tech celebration on Armistice Day. H. D. Woods, chairman of publicity, stated this morning. The legion committee, composed of Byron C. Dickinson, chairman, Hubert L. Allen and M. R. Hillburn, closed the deal with MacDonald yesterday.

From six to eight members of a "K. P." detail will aid in the serving of the ex-service men and the menu will consist of the old army fare of "canned Willie" and all the fixings. MacDonald, while not a former army chef, is said to have had a great deal of experience in K. P. duties and according to local ex-service men, will fill the bill to a nicety.

JOINS SHERROD FORCES

DeCrow will have charge of the radio and farm implements departments. B. Sherrod stated today. While a resident of Aughtin DeCrow was owner and proprietor of a radio supply shop.

THEY WILL GUIDE AMERICA'S DESTINIES

Calvin Coolidge

Charles G. Dawes

The Republican nominees, President Calvin Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes, whom press reports indicate are sweeping the country, in the regular presidential election. Coolidge's election is a vote of confidence in Coolidge, the man, as his party, with its numerous scandals, has fallen into ill repute with practically every one save "dyed-in-the-wool" Republicans. Early reports indicate that Davis and Bryan will finish second, with LaFollette and Wheeler a poor third. Coolidge is leading LaFollette in Wisconsin, the latter's own home state.

NATION RALLIES TO STANDARD OF PRESENT LEADER

Landslide Of Votes For Silent Man From Massachusetts Buries Opposition

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 5.—(SPECIAL)—With only a few states, comprising a total of twenty-five electoral votes, President Calvin Coolidge and General Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidates for the presidency and vice-presidency, are certain of victory today. The states still missing in returns are New Mexico, Minnesota, Montana, Arizona, and Nevada.

Every state east of the Mississippi and north of the Mason-Dixon Line except Wisconsin was swept by the Coolidge tide in an avalanche of ballots which were surprising even to his campaign managers. Throughout the day and night, as the returns poured in the Nation's vote of confidence to the silent man from Massachusetts appeared more and more miraculous. Early indications lead politicians to believe that the landslide in his presidential campaign, Warren G. Harding, in 1920, will be surpassed.

Following the first returns Coolidge was assured of three hundred fifty electoral college votes and needs but two hundred forty-six for victory. The fears that the three-cornered race would be so closely contested that it would be forced into the senate for final settlement have been dispelled.

Two surprises in the voting which were outstanding today were the weaknesses of LaFollette and Davis in the sections where it was forecast their votes would be heaviest. Davis seems certain of carrying Oklahoma but will lose all of the other border state, while LaFollette failed miserably in Iowa and the Dakotas, where it was thought he would lead the field.

Neither Davis nor LaFollette, either personally or through their campaign managers, have conceded the supremacy of their Republican opponents as yet but statements from their camps are expected by tonight. As is customary habit, President Coolidge has remained silent on the election thus far.

COMMUNITY COMMENTS

By CURTIS A. KEEN

OUR NEW CITIZENS—ARE WE ASSIMILATING THEM?

Every train into Lubbock brings one or more new families, new citizens or prospective citizens. They come here from old established homes where folks knew them, appreciated them and called them Tom, Dick, Harry, Sally, Kate or Sue when they met them on the street. Most of them grew up from childhood in these other towns and are accustomed to having folks shake hands with them at church, invite them to visit them in the evenings, go out picnicking in the afternoons, and otherwise appreciate the fact that they are normal, worth while, interesting, human folks.

How do we receive them in Lubbock? How many new folks have you met this week? How many new folks have you called on this month? How many of our new men have you invited to join the Chamber of Commerce, attend church, or stop to chat with you in your place of business at his convenience? What about their boys, their girls, their families, as a whole? Are we, of Lubbock, doing anything definite to make them a part of our civic life, make them know that we are glad they are moving here, that we are "just folks"—the same kind that they knew back home?

It only takes a little time to be human. We, who have been here several years, have our own little group of friends and do not feel the need of enlarging the circle, particularly. But our new folks moving to town have an actual need for human relationship, for personal contact, in a social way, with the same kind of folks that they themselves are, and are accustomed to mixing with and knowing and unless they enjoy some such relationship they are going to get the wrong impression of Lubbock and before we know it they have moved away, with a bad taste in their mouth for our city and our folks. It has happened and is happening right here every week in the year. And if we but knew them we would find them among our dearest friends and they in turn would like Lubbock, contribute much to its progress and soon be just as much a part of the city and its life as the oldest timer in the city who thinks the sun rises in the canyon and sets beyond the Tech site.

Make our churches the vital contact points of our community life. Make the Cooking School an opportunity to meet new folks. If you see any lady there that you do not know personally, step right up to her and get acquainted, sit together and when they return again tomorrow, speak to them, and if you do not get a single idea from the school, but make one new friend and three new ladies in town feel that Lubbock is a "human town" you will be well repaid for the time you give to attending the school from day to day.

After all, we are all just folks, and there is less than 2 per cent difference between the best of us and the worst of us, so why not get down off of our dignity and be human?

COUNTY RETURNS YET INCOMPLETE

Unofficial Count Indicates A Lead Of About Fifty Votes For Ferguson

No official election returns for Lubbock county were yet available today although two-thirds of the ballot boxes were in the hands of the County Clerk shortly after noon. The official results of the balloting in the county will not be announced until the county committee goes over the ballots and certifies the counting.

Unofficial reports, however, with approximately two-thirds of the votes counted, indicated that Mrs. Ferguson had passed George C. Butte in Lubbock county and was leading by approximately fifty votes. Indefinite returns may be available later this evening, officials said but nothing concerning the Lubbock county balloting can be taken as final until the commissioners are called into session and complete their work.

VOTE RECORD MADE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A new world's voting record of at least 30,000,000, if not 35,000,000, is anticipated today with ideal weather prevailing in all parts of the Nation. Party leaders found satisfaction in the heavy vote. William Butler, G. O. P. manager, declared the larger the vote the larger would be Coolidge's majority. Fair weather will bring out the large "silent vote" Davis expects, his managers asserted. The farmers will be able to get to the polls, meaning a victory for the Progressives, they declared.

The sign was put up to keep applicants for jobs away from the office but people interested in the Tech will find the authorities willing to tell them anything in their powers at any time.

MRS. HOBART AND COMPANIONS ARE FINED IN COURT

Widow Of Man Found Dead Last July In Amarillo, Fined For Disturbing Peace

AMARILLO, Nov. 4.—(SPECIAL)—Mrs. Ruth Hobart, of Plainview, widow of E. W. Miller, pleaded guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace in Judge H. R. Airhart's court today and were fined one dollar and costs.

Mrs. Jack Truscott and Vincente Aravala, a Mexican, were released on bonds of one hundred dollars each on the same charges and will be tried later. The parties were arrested at 1313 Garfield street, officers stated. The case of Mrs. Hobart has attracted wide attention throughout West Texas ever since the discovery of her husband's body near the baseball park here and following his death his wife was charged jointly with Ernest Miller, a local attorney, with his death. Both are free on bonds.

HIS FAVORITE SON

MRS. CHITWOOD'S
RECIPE FOR BISCUITS

The following is Mrs. Ida Chitwood's famous recipe for biscuits, the baking of which she will go into tomorrow at the Plains Journal's first annual cooking school, being held every afternoon through Friday at the First Baptist church.

Making Biscuits
The ability of a person as a cook is very often judged by the biscuits she makes, yet I know of nothing which is more often poorly made than biscuits and they are really very simply and quickly made. If the recipe is followed carefully and measurements are made accurately, only a little experience is required to produce most excellent ones. Good biscuits, I think, are light and flaky with a crisp brown top and under crust and with a delicious flavor.

The principal requirements in making biscuits, as in the preparation of other foods, is to be sure to use the best ingredients possible and to follow a good recipe in a systematic way.

Read the recipe.

Place all utensils required on the table.

Collect all ingredients called for.

Light the fire.

Mix and bake.

Utensils Required
Mixing bowl (earthen preferred). If not available use an enamel bowl. A pan with a round bottom is most convenient for mixing the dough.

One knife.

One spatula (medium size).

One tablespoon.

One teaspoon.

Flour sifter.

One measuring cup.

One shallow biscuit pan.
Biscuit cutter.

Ingredients Required
A good bread flour, Royal Baking Powder, salt, Crisco and milk.

Lighting Fire
Biscuits require a hot, quick oven, because if cooked in a slow oven, the carbon-dioxide gas which causes biscuits to "rise" will escape. They should remain in the oven 12-15 minutes to give them an appetizing delicate brown and thoroughly bake them, that is the average sized baking powder biscuit.

Method of Mixing
Sift the flour once before measuring, then mix and sift dry ingredients three times into a round bottom bowl.

Cut the shortening into the dry material with a knife, or rub in with the tips of the fingers. The mixture should have somewhat the appearance of cornmeal when the shortening is well worked into the flour.

Add milk gradually, enough to make a soft dough.

Turn dough onto a well floured molding board, or on the floured top of an enameled-top table.

Pat or roll lightly, until three-fourths of an inch thick. Handle the dough just as lightly and quickly as possible.

Cut with a biscuit cutter first dipped in flour. Place biscuits close together on a slightly greased baking sheet and bake in hot oven 12-15 minutes (temperature 475 degrees).

Baking Powder Biscuit
(Emergency or Drop Biscuit)
Sift into mixing bowl:
2 1/2 cups bread flour.
5 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder.
1 teaspoon salt, with tips of fingers work in.
3 tablespoons Crisco, then add gradually.

3/4 cups milk. Mix with knife to soft dough. Pat and roll 3/4 inch thick, shape with biscuit cutter and bake 12 minutes at 450 degrees-500 degrees F.

Cheese Biscuit
To Royal Baking Powder Biscuit mixture add:

1 cup grated cheese. Roll 1-3 inch thick, shape with small round cutter and bake 10 minutes at 450 degrees-500 degrees F. Serve with salad.

Butterscotch Biscuit
Roll Royal Baking Powder Biscuit mixture very thin and spread with 1-3 cup Crisco creamed and mixed with 3/4 cup brown sugar. Roll up like a jelly roll, cut in pieces 1 inch thick, put in greased muffin pans cut side up and bake 15 minutes at 400 degrees F.

Orange Biscuit
Roll Royal Baking Powder Biscuit mixture 3-4 inch thick. Shape and cut with round cutter 1 inch in diameter and place close together on greased tin sheet. Break 15 lumps demerara sugar in halves and squeeze the juice from 1/2 orange. Drop pieces of sugar, one at a time, in juice and press down into center of each biscuit. Grate orange rind over biscuits and bake 15 minutes at 400 degrees F.

W. T. S. T. C. Manual
Training Students
Constructing House

CANYON—Students of the Manual Training Department of the West Texas State Teachers College have begun work on a large class project. They are building a frame dwelling 24x28 feet with four rooms and bath. All of the architectural work in connection with the house has been done by classes in Mechanical Drawing and Architecture.

The students compiled statistics regarding prices of material, studied modern methods in construction, and together decided upon the kind of a building they wished to put up.

Actual construction is being done under the supervision of Prof. Robert Donald. Every detail will be cared for by student labor except possibly some flue building and plumbing. This type of work gives the architects and wood workers actual experience in meeting structural difficulties, and class room work is thus tested under normal working conditions.

This house is the second one attempted by the Manual Training classes. Last year a similar project was carried on with great success.

Mrs. James R. Dow is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Maddox, of Farwell.

Highway lighting is evidently commanding attention in New Zealand. The General Electric Company has received word that about 180 of its No. 1500 units will be located there.

MOTHER TEACHES OFFSPRING ART OF STEALING FOOD; SHE'S A BEAR AT IT, TOO, OFFICERS HAVE FOUND

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Big Lena is on record in the Bureau of National Parks as having taught her cubs to become the smartest camp robbers of any of Uncle Sam's tourist domains. Lena and her family live in the Rocky Mountains adjacent to Granite Park chalet camp in Glacier National Park, Montana.

The tourist camp cook was at his wit's end keeping hams and bacon away from Lena during the early summer. He finally hit upon what he thought was a safe place to hang them. He stripped a thin lodge pole pine and with the aid of an extension ladder, strung the meat high up. From the kitchen chalet window he and the cubs enjoyed many laughs at the expense of big fat Lena who presented a ludicrous sight as she tried to hug the slender circumference of the lodge pole pine in futile effort to climb it. There was not enough tree for Lena to properly hug to make the ascent. The show was better than a vaudeville performance the first two mornings at daybreak. But on the third day, Lena brought her cubs with her and staged an act the cooks didn't get a laugh out of. For, when they looked out of the window, they saw Lena sitting on her haunches eating a ham which she was holding in her forepaws. Two cubs were at her side each munching at a slab of bacon. A third cub was nearly up to the top of the lodge pole pine where it tapered the most, tugging tenaciously at a ham to dislodge it.

The smoked meat supply of the chalet tourist camp in the recesses of the Rockies was safely kept the rest of the summer, but not until an umbrella-shaped piece of tin was fastened on the pine six feet from the ground. The cubs came back for more but the cooks had the laugh on them again for although the little bears exhibited all manners of cuteness in their efforts to get up, on each occasion they ended their amusing antics by sitting up and gazing nonplussed at the barrier.

The electric barbecue has arrived. Out in Ephrata, State of Washington, where five thousand persons gathered this summer to see a round-up of cattle, the entire multitude was fed with beef of four steers, weighing 2,600 pounds each. The meat was roasted for twenty-four hours over a pit in the bottom of which were several electric heating units. The flavor of the beef was declared to be improved.

DEAD PRESIDENT OF C. I. A. TO BE GIVEN MONUMENT

Thousands Of Friends Of Frank Bralley Rallying To Cause With Their Dollars

DENTON, Nov. 4.—If President Bralley lives again upon the campus of the College of Industrial Arts, it will be because those who loved and revered him in this life have willed it. To be sure, he can not come again in the flesh, but through the purst strings of Texas citizenship he can come again in spirit in the role which, lying closest to his heart in life, must yet be his in death—that of service.

No pile of stone or brick on Blue Serge Hill can adequately commemorate the man who died a martyr that Texas might have the greatest state woman's college in the world. And yet, through serving a purpose, through aiding in the shaping and moulding of the plastic young lives about it, such a memorial to the great educator might somehow objectify the work of a hand now stilled.

Accordingly, friends of the late C. I. A. president and patriots in the service of the college have embarked upon a campaign with one of three ultimate goals in view. With the dollars of those who find in the inspiration of President Bralley's life just cause for contributing to a worthy monument so that others may ever be reminded of his service, a new building will be erected, a building now on the campus will be memorialized, or a legislative appropriation for some needed building will be supplemented. It is hoped that the first named project may be carried out.

The college is badly overcrowded, and to construct a new building for a memorial would serve a tremendous useful purpose. And too, a building program was ever the cherished ideal to which Dr. Bralley clung during his administration.

And so, two thousand graduates, most of whom walked the way with him a little while, 1700 students now enrolled, the faculty, the ex-students and all the great host of friends of C. I. A. will be petitioned in the cause. Upon their response in tribute to the memory of the man who gave his all for education, will depend the consummation of this cherished project.

Frank Bralley hovers close about the college on a hill in Denton. It has lost none of its reverence for the idealism, the rugged courage that characterized his life upon the campus. But will posterity, those who never were touched by the dynamic personality of the serious-faced man, feel yet the caress of a vanished hand? Frank Bralley's friends will answer!

Editorially Speaking

It Can't Be Done

One of the very first things an editor learns is that he can't please everybody. The ones who have not learned this are too dumb to be trying to run a newspaper. Human nature is so constituted that some of our readers would like to have us feed them on scandal; some would like to have us tell the unvarnished truth about them, while others would kill us if we did. It is a comforting thought to the editor to know that the Savior Himself did not please everybody while He was on earth. We labor hard to entertain and please our subscribers, but that we should occasionally fail is to be expected. Yet you will always find us ready to be forgiven. No matter how old we may grow to be, however, there is one thing that we are never going to forget. And that is that an editor can't please everybody. If he could he would be wearing wings on his shoulders in another world instead of patches on his pants in this one.

What Makes A Good Town Good?

You can talk all you please of the city's white glow, and its wealth (you'd increase if you could); you can boast of the figures the next census will show, but that won't make a good town good.

Your town may have people that history records in that book that they call "Who's Who," but no matter how greatly they praise you with words, there's always someone that's bigger than you.

No, it ain't jst the size, nor the wealth, nor the fame, that develops a good neighborhood; it's the soul of the folks who play fair in life's game, that's what makes a good town good.

For A Soul, $457

It costs $457 each to convert a person to the church, but considering the priceless value of a human soul that's dirt cheap.

The figures are Dr. C. J. Culp's. Dr. Culp is chairman of the foreign missions committee and submitted the figures recently to the New Jersey Synod of the First Presbyterian church.

It's cheaper to convert the heathen than native Americans, Dr. Culp asserts. The church can convert a heathen at a cost of $263.

In this country it required nearly 10,000 churches and nearly as many ministers and the expenditure of over forty million dollars to secure 87,632 additions to the church on confession of faith, at a cost of $457 a person, while in the foreign mission fields of the denomination 1,600 missionaries and 8,890 native workers baptized 19,693 persons at a cost of $263 a person. There are facts for you!

According to the Rev. John A. Marquis, reporting to the same synod, the church in this country has a real fight on its hands with the radicals. Missionaries in the mining and lumber camps run up against a "wall of scorn and blasphemy from members of the I. W. W." Mr. Marquis said. To meet this situation the church is sending only men of exceptional physical and mental strength into the camps.

Those who would have the church and its ministers stand still without taking forward steps when occasion requires would doom the church to extinction. It must rise to meet conditions as they come, otherwise it will find itself high and dry on the pedestal of its own self-sufficiency while the tides of life swirl and eddy at its feet, untouched and unheeding.

The Worst Gambler

Every right thinking person condemns the man who gambles away the means of providing the necessities of life for his family, yet many of our worst gamblers would resent being so designated.

We refer to those who fail to provide insurance for the protection of those dependent upon them. Heads of families, especially, who do not avail themselves of reasonable life and fire insurance are gambling with fate. Without this protection, the earning power of the family provided or the savings of a lifetime may be swept away without warning.

Insurance is one of the most beneficial devices of civilization and while it costs something, the cost is insignificant compared to the sense of security and satisfaction it brings.

Every man owes it to himself and to his family to provide this protection. He who does not is a gambler, indeed.

The Home Owner

A family that owns its own home, takes pride in it, maintains it better, gets more pleasure out of it, and has a more wholesome, more healthful, and happier atmosphere in which to bring up children.

The home owner has a constructive aim in life. He works harder outside his home, he spends his leisure hours more profitably, and he and his family live a finer life.

A husband and wife who own their own home are more apt to save. They have an interest in the advancement of a social system that permits the individual to store up the fruits of his labor. As direct taxpayers they take a more active part in local government.

The love of home is one of the finest instincts of our people.—Herbert Hoover.

With Our Contemporaries

Colonel Mansfield of London has recently come forward with the statement that as a result of exhaustive researches he has proven, to his own satisfaction at least, that Christopher Columbus was a Spaniard.

This question has been raised frequently and the truth may never be positively known, although Columbus has so long been thought to have been an Italian that the world at large will always consider him as such.

However, his nationality is not important, excepting as a topic for academic discussion. What he did is what counts and we today are enjoying the blessings made possible by his genius.—Plainview Herald.

We note that nearby communities are advocating the paying of cotton pickers in cash, rather than by check. A number of checks have been raised, and besides it works a hardship on the pickers and merchants to hold checks that cannot be cashed Saturday night. It might be a good scheme for McLean farmers to think of the advantages of this method of paying. It is a good idea to play safe on the check proposition and at the same time accommodate the pickers.—McLean News.

Four high school girls climbed the stairs 57 stories to the top of the Woolworth Building in New York the other day. Two of them made it in 30 minutes without a stop to rest—the first time the feat ever has been performed by a woman.

The strongest of the wasp-waisted tight-corseted women of the Nineteenth Century would have collapsed before she had reached the tenth floor. No less important than the emancipation of women's minds and the enlargement of their social and political status has been the emancipation of their bodies.—Star-Telegram.

Ho, hum. If you can't get a chuckle out of this stuff you can listen to the radio politicians and laugh out loud.

And by the time we thought up a new costume for a masque ball we decided to go as a nervous wreck.

In Boston, a man claims a 10,000 reward for staying sober ten years. Even if he doesn't get it, he has saved that much.

We wouldn't send a daughter of ours to a dance with a drunk, not even if we had a dozen daughters.

The first reliable sign of old age is when a man starts thinking the rising generation is going to the dogs.

Woman in Steubenville, O., shot her husband, which was rather old fashioned of her.

The man who kicks because the cat gets under his feet, should try keeping goldfish instead.

The circus ring isn't as amusing as the political ring.

And political machines, as you may have heard, use a lot of gas.

Dealers say we are smoking less tobacco, but don't say more what.

The world, says a scientist, shakes like jelly; but maybe he has been going to too many dances.

We spend so much for fun and have so little of it.

It's awful to be just rich enough to make your wife wish she could afford a fur coat.

This often seems to be the land of the free and home of the easy.

Probing a woman's mind is about as simple as unscrambling an egg.

He Was Too Inquisitive!

"Pirate Pete" had things pretty much his own way for 26 years. Farmers along Lake Fren, in southwestern Louisiana, would see him sneak up and kill off their pigs. But the big 625-pound alligator always succeeded in eluding them on the way back to his lair. The other day though, he grew curious when he heard a lot of noise around. And that was his undoing. When he shot his head up through the sand, a lasso tightened around his jaws. Now "Pete" is making all the fairs down south.

Fresno, Cal., has decided to illuminate its back alleys and obscure lanes, in the interest of better policing. Plans have been completed for installing twenty-four General Electric Navalux highway lighting units for the purpose. Each unit will be placed midway of a 200-foot alley, so that its light will shine in both directions for the entire length of the alley.

Historical Club Is In Receipt Of Fine Relics Collection

CANYON.—The Panhandle Plains Historical Society's museum has received the following valuable relics during the past week: A ten cent and a three-cent paper piece issued by the United States in 1842. These paper pieces state that they may be used in payment of all debts except customs; a statement of indebtedness made to a plantation owner, and dated at Charleston, South Carolina, 1858. These were given by Felix Phillips, a student of the West Texas State Teachers College. Everett Dixon, of Happy, Texas, added to the collection a cap and ball pistol, and a razor, the latter over 100 years old. Miss Laura V. Hammer, county superintendent of Potter County, Texas, sent the museum a copy of the Secession Ordinance of Alabama. This will be used in the study of American history as well as by students interested in documents.

Carnival Increases Fund For Dormitory For Canyon College

CANYON.—The Mary E. Hudspeth Hall Fund, which is being built up to erect a co-operative home for young women students of the West Texas State Teachers College, was increased slightly more than $225 by a carnival which was held in Canyon recently. The work connected with the production of the carnival was all donated and the expenses of the enterprise amounted to only about twenty-five dollars. Mary E. Hudspeth Hall is to be erected by the ex-students of the Teachers College; it is named in honor of Miss Mary E. Hudspeth for many years dean of women of the college and always a friend of all girls.

Every Housewife in Lubbock Should Visit the Cooking School This Week

Our one desire and purpose is to serve and satisfy our patrons a LITTLE BETTER. In order that you may more fully appreciate our ambition "TO DO A LITTLE BETTER WHAT MANY CONCERNS ARE SATISFIED WITH DOING WELL" we have arranged to have Mrs. Chitwood give free every afternoon a short demonstration on the proper use of a family refrigerator, which is nothing more than a small cold storage plant.

It should be of great importance to each housewife to know how to preserve the food for the family, at the least possible cost. If you want to reduce your ice bill, don't fail to hear this talk and see the refrigerator demonstration each afternoon.

A well iced refrigerator is just as necessary in winter time, as summer time, to those who fully appreciate health, which is a direct result of well preserved, wholesome food. A well iced refrigerator in winter the same as summer is actually a life saver, not a luxury. Do you know that 25c worth of ice every other day in winter will properly preserve $5.00 worth of food each day? Do you know that a chemist can take the water from the drip trap in a refrigerator and tell you what foods were stored in the refrigerator? Do you know that milk spoils rapidly above a temperature of 55 degrees and should be kept in a well iced refrigerator the year round at 40 degrees?

A spoonful of milk properly handled and delivered by the dairyman and immediately placed in a well iced refrigerator will contain only a few thousand bacteria in such dazed condition that they may easily be digested, while the same spoonful of milk not properly iced will contain from two to five billion bacteria.

We have many housewives in Lubbock who use ice the year round

RED CROSS GIRL TELLS OF CHINA AND REVOLUTION

"War Is Hell," She Says As She Vividly Describes Awful Conditions There

Red Cross participation in the present war in China is vividly told by Mrs. Myrtle Dyson in a recent letter to her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sheldon of Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Dyson is a foreign missionary in China. Her husband, J. W. Dyson, is an instructor at Soochow University, which is 40 miles from Shanghai on the Shanghai-Nanking road. "Slow-moving houseboats unload the dead and dying at the entrance to the University walls," Mrs. Dyson writes. "Here they are cared for by a group of foreign Red Cross workers."

"War is hell," she continues. "The hospital is full, corridors, roof and old language school home and eleven other hospitals here are filled to overflowing. All the foreigners are working like dogs. Sometimes I wonder—the men we are working on are so beastly and are real cut throats for the most part. Yet that is Christ's way—save all the sheep, black and all. So I suppose all this effort will bring the reward to His name."

It is easily understood from Mrs. Dyson's letters that she realizes it is not the getting, but the giving in life that counts.

Paid War Lords Bleed China.
"Poor China," she declared. "Never have I realized her needs as now, and never did I feel so keenly that her only hope is in Christ. I believe that public conscience is awakening. We see it all about us, and some day paid war lords won't dare butcher and bleed these people dry of lives and money."

"Why should we foreigners be concerned for ourselves when these poor people are in such dire straits, afraid of their own men with no recourse at all, save to foreign protection?"
"As to us, we are real well and not one bit disturbed. Little by little we are getting our food supplies in. This is our real serious problem. The railroad to Shanghai is blown up and our only connection to Shanghai is by boat. We are hoping this will stay open and it will as long as our province wins. Otherwise, we'll be called to Shanghai, I expect."

Americans Feel War Will End Soon
"The situation is grave but not serious and we feel that all will be well with us. All our people are safe except Miss Rogers (a Methodist missionary from the south). She probably is. She is in the firing zone near Tai Chang."

Mrs. Dyson's last letter was dated September 11. At that time, evidently, the Americans in China were looking forward to a quick close of the fighting.

"School can't open," she says. "Money is close and if war ends in ten days, as some predict, we will be months in getting on our feet again in schools and churches, especially in the country districts where there has been fighting."

"My efforts have been mostly in getting supplies. With several foreign women and Chinese, women refugees in dormitories, we made five dozen large shoes (seams by hand) seven pads and twenty aprons in two days."

CITY DIRECTORY WORK STARTS IN EARNEST, STATED

One of the principal features of the directory will be a classified business directory and buyers guide and every business firm in the city will be included in it. Kershner solicits the cooperation of everybody in the city in order to make the book as complete as possible.

A Cooking School "Discovery" as Demonstrated by Mrs. Chitwood

Santone Rolls as demonstrated at the cooking school this week by Mrs. Chitwood, was first worked out and demonstrated by her at a school being conducted at Texarkana, Texas.

This new and delightful use for Gebhardt's Deviled Chili Meat found instant favor with the ladies in attendance. The recipe has been used at all schools following and printed copies have been distributed to thousands of women interested in new things to eat.

We know of no single recipe that has met with such approval. We immediately incorporated the recipe in our new edition of "Deviled Dainties," a distinctive little recipe book that gives many unusual and tempting ways to use Deviled Chili Meat in addition to sandwiches for which it is unexcelled.

Be sure and get a copy of this booklet from our representative at the school or from Mrs. Chitwood.

You will like Deviled Chili Meat. Like all Gebhardt products it is absolutely pure and wholesome and is made in a sun-lit, white-tiled kitchen under rigid Government inspection.

COOKING SCHOOL

end of this five-course luncheon the rose resin is carried out in all of the foods used. The Rose luncheon is original with Miss Alice Bradley, head of the Boston school of cookery, which institution Mrs. Chitwood attended. Miss Bradley is well known to the women of Lubbock as head of the departments of cookery of the Ladies Home Journal, the Woman's Home Companion and other women's current magazines. Mrs. Chitwood became familiar with the luncheon at a recent term she spent in the Boston school and from personal instruction from Miss Alice Bradley.

The menu for the Rose luncheon was given out by Mrs. Chitwood as follows: Crab cocktail, lettuce soup with cheese noodle, rose spinach, chicken a la king in Swedish timble cases, rose creamed potatoes, rose fruit salad, rose cakes and black coffee. Every part of the menu has something suggestive of a rose in it and makes a beautiful service as well as being economical. Mrs. Chitwood stated.

Breads And Biscuits Tomorrow
Tomorrow she will take up breads and biscuits and stresses that this is to be one of her most important sessions. The baking of breads and biscuits is one of the most important departments of cookery, and Mrs. Chitwood, through lecture and demonstration, will show Lubbock housewives the latest in home baking.

On Friday meals will take up the afternoon and several different methods of cooking meats will be gone into thoroughly. Mrs. Chitwood said today. She urges the attendance of every woman who can possibly arrange to view her work and plans are being made every day to take care of the ever increasing crowds attending the school.

Misses Gladys Potts and Leola McCray rendered a Highland-Scottish dance which was a very appreciated feature of the program.

Old time Halloween games and stunts such as peanut and potato races, and bobbing apples, were enjoyed.

After the program refreshments consisting of red apples and old fashioned stick candy was served. —Reporter.
