Stereo company examined

By MIKE DOWNEY
Staff Writer

An auction of cut-rate stereo equipment scheduled for last Monday in Big Spring may have been canceled due to an investigation by the Texas Attorney General's office, according to the county attorney's office.

A company called Stereo Liquidators had advertised in local media for an auction of stereo equipment at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum, but the auction was not held.

County Attorney Bob Miller said his office was contacted by the attorney general's office to assist in the investigation.

"I was asked to cooperate, but they (Stereo Liquidators) never showed up," Miller said.

While the cancellation has not resulted in filing charges, more than one party was victimized by the company. According to Herald Advertising Director Cliff Clements, Stereo Liquidators has stopped payment on the check for their half-page ad.

Dick Fields of KBYG said the company had tried to cancel their advertising by calling the disc jockey Friday night. The radio advertising went on the air, he said, but Stereo Liquidators said they were stopping payment on the check.

Bob Bell of KBST said Stereo Liquidators had purchased advertising, but the ads were not aired. He said payment had been stopped on the check, too.

Dave Trusty, general manager of KWKI-KHEM, said the company had scheduled advertising with the station, but he had not experienced any problems with payment. In fact, Trusty said he was expecting a second check for more advertising.

According to Coliseum Manager John Weeks, the company had canceled its contract for the Monday reservation shortly before noon on the 13th. Weeks said the company had put up a deposit for the reservation, but the college had experienced no problem with the check.

Victoria Essom, an investigator for the Consumer Protection Division of the attorney general's office, said problems with a similar company in Lubbock in July had "put us on our guard" about Stereo Liquidators. Ms. Essom said she had been in Big Spring Monday to investigate the company's auction.

She added she has not heard from the company since the cancellation although she said representatives had met with her prior to the scheduling of the Big Spring auction.

The principal problem, Ms. Essom said, was possible misrepresentation in the advertisements for the auction. "In an auction, they have to sell to the highest bidder," Ms. Essom said. Sometimes companies just sell the items, rather than auction them as advertised, she said.

The name "Stereo Liquidators" was also deceptive in that the company was not really liquidating its stock, Ms. Essom said. "That's deceptive in itself," she said.

"The suspected violations would fall under the Deceptive Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Act," Ms. Essom said. Section 32.42 of the Texas Penal Code concerning misrepresentation was also under consideration, she said.

Ms. Essom said she did not why the company canceled the auction. The main purpose of her investigation was to ensure consumers weren't hurt. She noted the company had held an auction in Plainview Sept. 9, but the consumer protection office was not able to investigate it.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP SEMIFINALISTS — Jerry Speight Grimes and Heidi M. Brown, both students at Big Spring High School, have scored in the top one percent of Texas high schools on the PSA/NMSQT test, according to the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

Two Big Springers in Merit semifinals

Heidi M. Brown and Jerry S. Grimes, both Big Spring High School students, today were named semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship Corporation competition for 5,000 scholarships.

They join 15,000 other students who represent the top one percent of each state's high school senior class.

According to NMSC, more than one million students have taken the PSAT/NMSQT test for this competition. Ms. Brown and Grimes are among the highest scorers in Texas, the NMSC says. The finalist competition will involve additional requirements to be met by each student.

Heidi Brown, the tall, quiet daughter of Mrs. George Brown of Gail Route in Big Spring, is a member of the National Honor Society, the Spanish Club and the basketball team. Ms. Brown is planning to major in bio-chemistry because "I like science," she says.

She says two things are important when deciding on a career. "You need to enjoy it and you should help others," Ms. Brown said.

Ms. Brown sometimes likes books over people. "I'd mostly rather read a book than talk to someone unless I know them real well."

On the other hand, Jerry Grimes is outgoing and likes people, but "I don't like doing what everyone thinks I should," he said.

Grimes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Grimes of 1604 Osage, intends to major in mechanical engineering, but hasn't decided on a college yet. A member of the National Honor Society, Tri-Hi-Y and the varsity swim team, Grimes enjoys his advanced science class the most. "It's all lab. The teacher gives us 16 experiments and we can pick which ones we want to do."

Ms. Brown also likes advanced science, saying it's her favorite class "next to basketball."

Grimes picked engineering as a major because he likes that field more than any other. "I enjoy problems working with numbers and it's a central branch. I can go into other fields from there."

The two scholarship contenders do not spend all of their time at the books. In fact, both students say they have a tendency to put off things, including studies, to the last minute. "I'm trying to break myself of that habit," Ms. Brown said. Grimes calls himself "the world's greatest procrastinator."

The names of Merit Scholars will be announced in April and May of 1983, according to the NMSC. The scholarships are worth between $1,000 and $8,000 over a four-year period.

Iran shoots ex-minister

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Sadegh Ghotbzadeh, the former Iranian foreign minister who fell from favor after opposing spy trials for the American hostages in Tehran, was executed by a firing squad for plotting to topple Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's government, the official Iranian news agency reported today.

The news agency IRNA said the execution was carried out in Tehran Wednesday night on the basis of a verdict issued by the Army Revolutionary Tribunal and approved by the High Judicial Court. IRNA gave no other details of the execution.

Ghotbzadeh, 48, was arrested early in April and charged with masterminding a plot to overthrow the Islamic government and assassinate Khomeini, his one-time mentor and Iran's supreme revolutionary leader.

His close ties to Khomeini were evident in 1979 when Ghotbzadeh returned home after 20 years aboard

IN BETTER DAYS — Executed former foreign minister in Iran, Sadegh Ghotbzadeh, is seen here with the man he used to work for, the Ayatollah Khomeini. The photo was taken in 1979; the ex-minister was executed yesterday in connection with a plot to overthrow Iran's government.

White's record defended by wife

By BOB CARPENTER
Staff Writer

Linda Gale White, wife of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Mark White, yesterday rebutted attacks made by Gov. Bill Clements concerning her husband's competency and past record as attorney general.

Mrs. White was on a three-day campaign tour of 15 West Texas cities when she stopped in at the Howard County Courthouse for a brief press conference and reception.

Mrs. White said that Gov. Clements' advertising campaign is an attempt to brand the attorney general as incompetent.

"Gov. Clements has said Mark has never won a major case. I don't know where he gets his figures because Mark has a 98 percent success ratio in the cases he's worked on," Mrs. White said.

... defends husband

Mrs. White also said the governor has criticized White's use of outside legal counsel, specifically in a prison reform suit White inherited from former attorney general John Hill.

"Mark finally agreed to high outside counsel after the governor had recommended a law firm to handle the case. And later the governor attacked him for doing that. That just goes to show you how stories and facts can be twisted," she said.

Mrs. White said the governor has ignored the problems of education since his election in 1978 evidenced by a current teacher shortage.

"Right now prison guards in Texas make more than a beginning school teacher. Teachers see our children more than we do each day. They are training the leaders of tomorrow so we need to get teacher salaries up to a respectable level," Mrs. White said.

Mrs. White also railed against what she called Clements' "inability to listen."

"He refuses to listen to people. Last week he called a special session to deal with the employment compensation fund. If he had listened to warnings by legislators and the Texas Employment Commission he could of taken care of the problem long ago," she said. The Legislature headed off a potential 2,000 percent tax increase in the employment fund taxes during the session last week.

"Mark has the reputation of listening and being able to compromise and come out with solutions. We need a governor we can be proud of," she said. "And we're not able to spend the money he's spending ($7 million) so we have to depend on people in the counties to get out and work and bring people to the polls — that's the only way we can have success."

Mrs. White's trip to Big Spring also heralded the opening of the Howard County Democratic headquarters at 304½ Main.

Israeli troops battle in streets of west Beirut

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israeli troops battled PLO guerrillas and Lebanese leftists in the streets of west Beirut today and the military command said Israeli seized control of "all key points" in the former PLO stronghold.

Fighting died down in midafternoon and the Christian Voice of Lebanon radio said leftist militiamen had agreed not to confront the Israelis. But leftist Lebanese radio stations said resistance would continue.

Since the main body of Palestine Liberation Organization troops were evacuated from Beirut three weeks ago, Israeli and Beirut sources have reported that some PLO troops remained in west Beirut along with leftist Lebanese troops who had been aligned with the Palestinians.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Menachem Begin summoned an emergency Cabinet session in Jerusalem, and Lebanese Prime Minister Shafik Wazzan called for urgent U.S. help to stop what he called Israel's conquest of west Beirut.

Israeli officials said it was unlikely their forces would pull back from captured positions in west Beirut until Lebanon was on the way toward solving the constitutional crisis that arose with the assassination Tuesday of President-elect Bashir Gemayel.

The Israeli officials, who requested anonymity, rejected Wazzan's assertions that Israel had violated the U.S.-negotiated agreement under Palestinian guerrillas were evacuated from west Beirut.

They said the agreement made no reference to Israeli deployment into west Beirut and that "we had to move fast" following Gemayel's assassination Tuesday.

Midland Police Department also has an aggravated robbery warrant for Moore, Kennedy said.

Wolf said the suspect admitted in a written statement to the August robberies of Safeway, 1300 Gregg, and Pinkie's Liquor Store, 1414 E. Third.

The attempted robbery at Friendly Food Store in Stanton was similar to the two Big Spring robberies in which a total of $2,050 was stolen, Wolf said.

A white male armed with a chrome automatic pistol and wearing a blue windbreaker was disarmed and apprehended by the corporate store owner, Bill Coggins, Kennedy and Wolf said. Stanton police arrested and jailed the man in Martin County Jail, Kennedy said.

A Big Spring police detective and a Texas Ranger interviewed the suspect in Stanton and obtained a written confession to the Big Spring robberies, Wolf said. Local police are in the process of obtaining an arrest warrant, Wolf said.

Eliahu Ben-Elissar, chairman of Parliament's Foreign Affairs and Security Committee and a close associate of Begin, told Israel radio that Israeli forces moved into west Beirut because once Gemayel was gone, the Lebanese army lacked the leadership to maintain control of the sector.

"We had to fill in this vacuum," Ben-Elissar said. "Otherwise, different movements could have been created, thus resulting in a very dangerous situation. It is in order to prevent possible disorder that we had to do what we did."

Ben-Elissar said that Israel would not expand its operation or be dragged into a quagmire in Beirut. "Since we have no intention of conquering or occupying Beirut or staying there more than necessary, there is no fear whatsoever that we will be dragged into conditions we are not interested in," he said.

The Tel Aviv command said in addition to taking control of "all key points" in west Beirut, its forces called on leftist militiamen and guerrillas to stop shooting and urged civilians to resume their normal routine.

Israeli military sources said the troops had been instructed to fire only in self-defense if fired upon in west Beirut. Army radio said earlier a cease-fire had gone into effect, but the command denied this.

"The Israeli Defense Force controls all key points in Beirut," the military communique said.

It claimed "a large number of terrorists" had remained in Beirut with mortars, anti-tank weapons and personal arms in violation of the agreement under which all guerrillas of the Palestine Liberation Organization were to have left Beirut.

Fund continues to grow

The Bible Fund total now stands at $10,857, moving closer to this year's goal of $14,000. The fund will provide Bible classes in local high schools.

Contributions may be sent to the First Baptist Church or the Big Spring Herald. Persons making gifts to the fund will be listed in The Herald.

Court reverses 3 murder cases

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has overturned three capital murder convictions and granted new trials to defendants from Lubbock, Bryan and Houston.

The court, returning to work Wednesday after a summer recess, upheld the conviction of a fourth capital murder defendant, from El Paso.

Clarence Allen Lackey of Lubbock was convicted in 1978 of capital murder in the rape of a woman whose home he was burglarizing. Prosecutors said he beat her and slashed her throat. Detectives found her body near Lackey's home.

Police also his fingerprints in her home, found her blood on his boots and gained the testimony of Lackey's live-in girlfriend that he had admitted the killing.

But the appeals court, which had previously upheld the legality of the search of Lackey's home and affirmed his conviction, ruled Wednesday that a juror was improperly dismissed.

Curtis Paul Harris of Bryan was convicted in the 1978 capital murder of Timothy Merka. According to trial testimony, Merka was flagged down on a rural road by Harris and a friend who told Merka they needed booster cables to start their stalled van.

The court granted Harris a new trial because, it ruled, the trial court did not allow the defense to adequately cross-examine Harris' female companion, a witness to the murder.

Sammie Norman English of Houston won a new capital murder trial because the court ruled that he had no legal counsel before he was examined by a psychiatrist.

English was convicted in the 1977 slaying of David Harry Samsel, who was kidnapped during the course of a robbery and later shot to death.

The court upheld the capital murder conviction of John Melvin Dorrough Jr. of El Paso. Dorrough had been sentenced to life in prison after he was convicted in the 1977 shooting death of Samuel Cocergine.

Mechanical armadillos to be raced in Lamesa

LAMESA (SC) — There have been mechanical bulls and now there are mechanical armadillo races.

Coming to Lamesa on Oct. 30, will be the races, the armadillo races, that is. Official title of the event is Lamesa's First Annual Thoroughbred Mechanical Armadillo Races.

The races will be held downtown with the first heats taking place at 11 a.m. Finals will be held at 2 p.m.

The mechanical armadillo is on three wheels and requires a "jockey" to manipulate the handle bars back and forth to advance the armadillo.

First prize is $100 with men's and women's divisions as well as two different age groupings: 16 to 35 years of age; and ages 36 and up. Second prize is $75 and third prize is $50.

Winners will receive traveling trophies.

There will also be team events, four people per team at $50.

Regular rides during the day will be $1.

Lions get into school spirit

Downtown Lions got a good dose of school cheer at their meeting Wednesday.

Cheerleaders Amy Ragan, Norma Rubio, Misty Meyers, and Kay Pollard went through several of their routines, and led the club in a Big Spring High School yell and the school song.

Adam Rodriguez, quarterback, told the club that the Steers this year are in the best condition and have no morale problems... only a little difficulty in punching in points. They rank second in the district in offense, and second from bottom in offense. Adam predicted the latter matter would be cured.

Lorraine city council votes to close controversial street

LORLAINE (SC) — On a 2-1 vote, the Lorraine City Council agreed last night to close a controversial street that has been holding up construction of a $385,000 senior citizens apartment complex.

Colorado City attorney Pete McKinny, representing the senior citizens, told the council he was requesting the city to close Colorado Street from the alley back to the next street. McKinny pointed out a previous city council had conveyed the land to the senior citizens for the purpose of building the apartments.

Councilman Calvin Forbus, who voted for the proposal, said, "I can't believe 40 feet of street can cause this much trouble." While McKinney stated, "I am pleased with the outcome."

Also at last night's meeting, the resignation of councilman Raymond Hackfeld was accepted.

West Texas Chamber award nominations being accepted

Nominations are now open for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Achievement Awards for 1982, according to Juanita Bryant, WTCC Cultural Affairs Chairman in Lubbock.

The presentation honoring 1982 recipients will be held in conjunction with the WTCC's annual convention in Kerrville April 17-19, 1983. Nominations and materials must be in by Dec. 15.

Nominations and materials supporting the nominations, such as news clips, brochures, letters of recommendation and other written information should be sent to cultural affairs staff representative Larry Fitzgerald, West Texas Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 1561, Abilene, Texas, 79604.

Materials should not include video tapes, slides, records or anything that requires mechanical assistance.

CROWD CELEBRATES MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE — A crowd of approximately 50 people gathered today at the Big Spring VA Hospital to celebrate Mexico's independence from Spain. Sept. 16 is traditionally set aside by Hispanics as a time to honor their heritage and culture. Several speeches were given as today's ceremonies, as well as a film presentation.

Police Beat

Suspect nabbed after chase

Police said they arrested 24-year-old Klaus Quernheim of Gail Route on suspicion of driving while intoxicated and seven traffic citations after pursuing him through Malone-Hogan Hospital's parking lot.

Officer Maurice Meek said he attempted to stop the Chevrolet Nova driven by Quernheim when Quernheim pulled into the hospital parking area and weaved around the parked vehicles trying to elude him.

Quernheim's car struck a tree but continued moving, police reports said. Meek stopped the car a few minutes later and made the arrest.

Police reports also showed the following:

● Ron Chapin of 19 Halsey, Hutchinson, Kan., said a white female and black female stole $602 from his wallet in room 249 of Mid-Continent Inn at 1 a.m.

● A fight in the Howard College men's dorm parking lot at 9:50 p.m. yesterday resulted in damage to a car and simple assault, police said. Danny Grayson of dorm room 211 told police he was struck in the right side by a Hispanic male after he attempted to break up the fight. Mark Griggs of dorm room 201 told police several males damaged his 1979 Olds Cutlass.

● Someone stole three stop watches and damaged two doors in the attendance and principal's offices at Runnels Junior High between 9 p.m. Tuesday and 7 a.m. yesterday.

● David L. Collins Jr. of 1206 Sycamore said a person known to him took a Smith and Wesson .357-caliber revolver from the trunk of his car without his permission about 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

● Fred V. Stenburgh of 307 N. Carrizo, Midland, said a man stole his yellow 1978 Toyota pickup truck from Faye's Lounge parking lot, 3317 W. Highway 80, at 8 p.m. yesterday.

● A former vending machine company employee robbed several vending machines at Big Spring businesses, police said. The ex-employee apparently has a set of keys, according to police reports.

● An Oldsmobile 98 driven by Opal M. Snelling of 1714 Goliad and a Ford Thunderbird driven by Nathaniel H. Brock of 507 Johnson collided at 10:49 a.m. yesterday at 18th and Main. Police cited Ms. Snelling for running a stop sign. No serious injuries were reported.

Sheriff's Log

Two receive prison sentences

Two persons received prison sentences and one a ten-year probation period after the three pleaded guilty in 118th District Court, according to Howard County sheriff's records.

Jim Burton, 40, of 2110 Nolan, pleaded guilty to forgery and received a five-year sentence to the Texas Department of Corrections. Douglas Wayne Smith, 47, of 1323 Utah, received a three-year sentence after pleading guilty to theft over $200. Both men remain in Howard County jail awaiting transfer to prison.

● Andy Guzman, 17, of 1501 Stadium, was assessed a 10-year sentence in connection with an aggravated assault charge, records show. A second charge of burglary was dismissed and he was released, according to sheriff's records.

● William F. Berreth, 44, of Colorado Springs, Colo., is in county jail being held in connection with a Colorado warrant of forgery, according to sheriff's records.

● Harnell Hodnett, 22, of 702 E. 15th, was released from custody today after being held in county jail since July 6th. Records show Hodnett was arrested in connection with a parole violation. The Midland parole office withdrew its parole violation warrant, according to sheriff's office records.

● Shirley Ann Larry, 23, of OK Trailer Park, paid a fine of $206 in connection with a commitment warrant, sheriff's records show.

● William David Keener, 27, of Euless, posted a $1,000 bond in connection with a driving while intoxicated charge and was released. Bond was set by Justice of the Peace Bobby West.

Ghotbzadeh

on the same airplane as the exiled religious leader and promptly emerged as one of the most powerful men in Iran. He had been one of Khomeini's closest confidants ever since the ayatollah was exiled by the late Shah of Iran, Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, in 1963.

Ghotbzadeh was named foreign minister a few days after student radicals seized the U.S. Embassy, taking Americans hostage in November 1979. After 444 days in captivity, the 52 hostages were released Jan. 20, 1981 — the day President Reagan took office.

During the early months of the hostage crisis, Ghotbzadeh's face became a nightly feature on American television screens as he answered questions and gave his government's position on the hostages.

In June 1980, he openly opposed spy trials for the hostages that were being demanded by Iran's Moslem militants. At one point, Ghotbzadeh had supported such trials, but later moderated his stance to say only the United States — not the hostages themselves — should stand trial for alleged crimes against Iran.

Ghotbzadeh's opposition to the spy trials put him on a collision course with the militants holding the Americans and the Moslem extremists running the Parliament.

Later he was arrested by Islamic revolutionary guards and charged with criticizing government officials but was freed. He was stripped of his position in August 1980 and kept a low profile after leaving office.

He apparently made no attempt to leave Iran as did fellow moderate, former President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr, who fled to France in 1981 after being ousted from power by Moslem fundamentalists in the regime.

Shortly after his April arrest, Ghotbzadeh appeared on Iran's state television and admitted he had conspired to blow up Khomeini's residence and to overthrow the government.

$1 million suit filed in 118th District Court

A $1 million dollar civil suit has been filed in 118th District Court by a Big Spring woman against the trucking company involved in the traffic accident in which her husband was killed.

Elvira Hernandez is suing Hanson Transport, Inc. of Big Spring and the driver of the truck in the collision, John Thomas Midkiff of Route Three. The Aug. 26 accident also injured one of the Hernandez' nine children, 18-year-old Guadalupe.

According to police reports, the truck driven by Midkiff was in collision with the Hernandez vehicle at the intersection of Birdwell and Farm Market Road 700 around noon. Decideriol Hernandez, 64, was pronounced dead at the hospital approximately three hours after the accident. Midkiff told police his brakes had failed as he approached the intersection.

The suit claims Midkiff was guilty of gross negligence in his operation of his truck. One-half of the $1 million is being sought by Mrs. Hernandez for the loss of her husband while the remainder is being sought for injuries suffered in the wreck by her daughter.

James R. Edwards Associates of Lubbock is representing Mrs. Hernandez in the suit.

Bear parts found floating in Lake Conroe

CONROE, Texas (AP) — Body parts found floating in Lake Conroe near here were determined today to be non-human, an official announced.

Sheriff's department spokesman Ed DeForest said a Harris County medical examiner said the parts were six front paws and four back paws of some animals, probably a bear.

DeForest said his department has also received a report that a man dumped bear parts into the lake.

DeForest, somewhat embarrassed, said he checked with an expert at Texas A&M University and was assured that confusing human parts for bear parts "is a very common mistake."

"Even medical doctors sometimes make this mistake," DeForest quoted the expert as saying.

The body parts were found floating in the lake on Wednesday and sheriff's officers told newsmen they appeared to be five neatly severed feet and four hands. Some officers even talked about how they appeared to have been surgically removed and raised the possibility of a mass slaying with many bodies being dumped into the murky waters of Lake Conroe.

Divers were sent back into the lake today in an effort to recover what officers suspected was the rest of the bodies.

But a Harris County medical examiner this morning quickly identified the parts as non-human.

"It's a mistake anyone could have made," said DeForest.

Bank president says he embezzled funds to combat disease

TEXARKANA, Texas (AP) — The former president of two failed banks says he embezzled $4.8 million to finance a motion picture so he could generate money to battle the disease that claimed the life of his daughter.

Henry Earl Fagan, 45, was sentenced Tuesday to eight years in prison after pleading guilty to embezzling the funds from one of the banks.

Fagan said Wednesday he chose an illegal means to obtain the money because "time was running out" on the fight against cystic fibrosis and the bank's funds were "an available resource."

"My goal, my desire, is to make a significant contribution in the fight against cystic fibrosis," he said. "I hope to do this now through public education."

CISD plans to crack down on delinquent taxpayers

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Taxpayers who owe the Colorado Independent School District soon will be hearing from tax attorneys as a result of Monday's school board meeting.

Superintendent Charlie Ueslton stated, "We have a list of 42 names which will be turned over to our tax attorney for collection, or suit, or the $15,000 we have that is delinquent."

Water skiers cause problems

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Water skiers on Cherry Creek and Morgan Creek, branches of Lake Colorado City, were discussed when the Mitchell County Commissioners met Monday afternoon.

Game Warden Ronnie Aston and his supervisor from Abilene, Curtis Jones, stated complaints were coming from residents along the creeks and it would help if the county would either help patrol the area or eliminate some county restrictions.

Judge Bill Carter announced the county will be getting an estimated $133,461 in revenue sharing funds next year — about $31,000 more than last year.

The commissioners also voted to purchase two new vehicles for the sheriff's office at a cost of $18,253.68 with trade-ins from Hutchins Ford, the low bidder.

Deaths

Gilbert

Ragsdale

Gilbert C. Ragsdale, 83, died at 3:30 a.m. Thursday in a local hospital following a lengthy illness. Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with Rev. Sam Scott, pastor of College Baptist Church, officiating.

Graveside services will be at 5 p.m. Saturday in Weatherford.

Mr. Ragsdale was born July 4, 1899 in Weatherford. He married Ruby Oberchain, April 19, 1921 in Fort Worth. He started to work for the railroad when he was 17 years old. After marrying, Mr. Ragsdale and his wife moved to Del Rio and he worked for the Southern and Pacific Railroad for 43 years, retiring in April 1970.

He was a member of the College Baptist Church where he was a longtime deacon. He also was a member of Big Spring Masonic Lodge No. 1340 AF&AM, Laura B. Hart Chapter 1019 Order of the Eastern Star and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Soviets unveil Mideast plan

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union apparently is bidding for a stronger Middle East role by offering its version of plan for "lasting peace," which looks almost identical to an Arab proposal rejected by Israel last week.

The six-point plan was offered Wednesday by Soviet President Leonid I. Brezhnev, who called President Reagan's peace initiative "basically vicious" because it does not offer Palestinians an independent nation.

Brezhnev's plan, unveiled at a Kremlin dinner for South Yemen President Ali Nasser Mohammed, is the third Middle East peace plan offered in as many weeks. Israel did not immediately respond to it.

South Yemen is a Marxist state aligned with the Soviet Union since 1979.

Western observers said Moscow seemed to be bidding for a more active role in a settlement by emphasizing the role of the U.N. Security Council or its permanent members, which includes the Soviet Union.

The Soviet plan proposes a guarantee of the regional peace settlement by the 15-member Security Council. As an alternative, not offered in the Arab plan, Brezhnev suggested a guarantee by the council's permanent members.

Under the U.N. charter, the Soviet Union is one of five permanent council members, empowered to kill any measure with a veto. The other permanent members are the United States, Britain, France and China.

Until now, the Kremlin's Middle East role primarily has been arming the Palestine Liberation Organization and Syria, whose Soviet-built arsenal includes SAM-9 surface-to-air missiles. Syria has deployed those missiles in Lebanon's Bekaa Valley but Israeli jets have destroyed many of them.

Last week Arab leaders at a summit meeting in Fez, Morocco, adopted a peace proposal, a week after Reagan offered his plan. Israel immediately rejected both plans after they were publicized.

Like the Arab plan, the Soviet plan calls for:

- Complete Israeli withdrawal from the West Bank of the Jordan River and the Gaza Strip, including dismantling Jewish settlements.
- Establishment of a sovereign Palestinian state on those territories, including Arab east Jerusalem, which Israel annexed in 1980.
- Giving Palestinian refugees the opportunity to return to their former homes in Israeli territory or get appropriate compensation for property they left.
- Secure, inviolable borders for Israel and its Arab neighbors including the "right of all states in the area to safe and independent existence."

Chrysler, UAW OK pact

HIGHLAND PARK, Mich. (AP) — Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers reached tentative agreement today on a new contract, but not before thousands of Chrysler workers walked off their jobs when a midnight strike deadline passed.

"This tentative agreement achieves our principal goal to start the Chrysler workers on the long, long road back to parity with workers at General Motors and Ford," UAW President Douglas Fraser and Vice President Marc Stepp said.

Chrysler workers, trying to help keep the company from bankruptcy, agreed to concessions two years ago that left them about $2.60 an hour behind their counterparts at General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. Fraser said the new Chrysler agreement, which he called "modest," would reduce the difference to about $2 an hour.

"I don't think it's going to be an easy ratification because it is a modest agreement," he said at a news conference.

"So I suppose it's a question of convincing the membership. We couldn't have gotten anything better without a prolonged strike."

The first step in the ratification process will be to present the agreement Friday to the union's Chrysler Council, comprised of top local union officials from around the country.

Thomas Miner, Chrysler vice president of industrial relations, said after the final 21-hour marathon bargaining session that the agreement was "good."

Asked about the cost of the new pact, Miner refused to be specific but termed the increase in Chrysler's labor costs "very, very modest."

Chrysler Chairman Lee A. Iacocca, in an interview on NBC's "Today" program, called the accord fair. "I think we have an agreement both parties can live with. We think the market is going to turn around and we'll make some money and we'll share it with our employees," he said.

The agreement came more than six hours after the strike deadline passed, triggering walkouts — the first in nine years against the nation's No. 3 automaker by Chrysler workers at plants around the country.

The contract, covering 43,200 U.S. autoworkers plus 40,000 on indefinite layoff, originally was slated to expire at midnight Tuesday. But 20 minutes before that deadline, Fraser announced a 24-hour extension, saying both sides needed more time.

The accord, a one-year economic and two-year non-economic pact, includes resumption of cost-of-living allowances tied to quarterly increases in the Consumer Price Index and a wage increase based on Chrysler profits, Fraser said.

If Chrysler makes between $20 million and $50 million in a quarter, the automaker will share $4 million of that with its workers, he said. If the profit exceeds $50 million, the share for workers will increase to $8 million.

The company failed to get any co-payments or deductibles on health care, he said.

Retired workers will get a small increase in pensions, the UAW president said.

WAITING FOR OWNERS — Unclaimed property dating back several decades is assembled here at the California comptroller's office. The articles were gathered from abandoned safe deposit boxes.

Unclaimed property

State has the goods — but who owns them?

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — In a tiny, box-like room ringed by closed-circuit television cameras and electrically locked doors, state workers sift a curious debris — part of a forgotten $25 million worth of cash, trinkets, bank accounts and jewelry.

The hunt, conducted by the state Division of Unclaimed Property, plumbs the past, the private lives of families from skid row to Beverly Hills.

Each year, thousands of safety deposit boxes, savings and checking accounts, credit certificates and other valuables are unintentionally abandoned in California. And people die without leaving a will or they name heirs that can't be found.

By law, the unclaimed property — mostly in the form of ignored bank accounts — goes to the state after seven years. Then, government investigators track down the rightful owners through a blizzard of telephone calls, Social Security numbers, old city directories, passbooks, frayed maps, newspapers and library research.

The chase often leads to transients and people on welfare or well-known Hollywood celebrities and powerful politicians.

"The banks are required to send us a list of the accounts that haven't been closed," said Lea Garcia, assistant chief of the unclaimed property division.

About one-fourth of the forgotten cash and valuables eventually is returned to the legal owners by Miss Garcia's office, following investigations that crisscross the state and often take months or years.

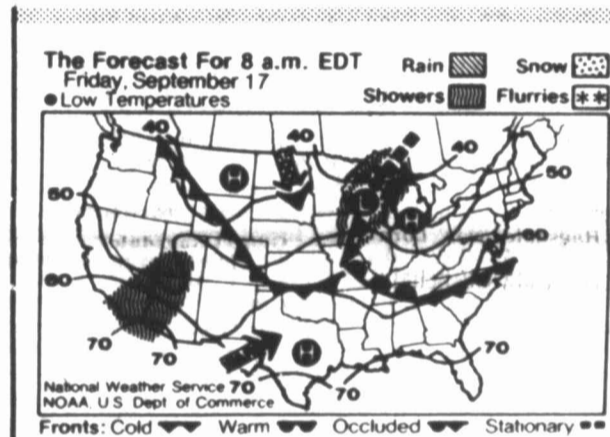

The rest, most of it converted to cash after being sold at state auction, remains indefinitely in the state's General Fund, drawing 5 percent interest while it awaits rightful claimants.

It's not quite like the old television program "The Millionaire" where each week a different person received a check for $1 million.

But in Sacramento, an elderly welfare recipient once discovered he had $80,000 coming to him, and in Los Angeles a woman who lived within a block of her bank recovered $100,000 from a forgotten account, Miss Garcia said.

"When he (the elderly man) first came in we couldn't understand him," she said. "He was kind of senile and he couldn't even spell his own name. He looked like he lived on skid row." Later, she added, a welfare worker arrived and helped him provide documentation that enabled him to collect the money.

Weather

Texas gets wet

By Associated Press

Showers and a few heavy thunderstorms were reported early today in many portions of North Texas, West Texas and South Central Texas.

Radar indicated showers and a few heavy thunderstorms located from north of Dallas southward to Hillsboro. A heavy thundershower moved across Lake Ray Hubbard, northeast of Dallas, during the pre-dawn hours.

Other thundershower activity was reported from west of Eagle Pass and southwest of Del Rio and west of the Pecos River near Andrews. Other widely scattered thundershowers roamed the area between Sonora and Sanderson.

Skies were clear to partly cloudy elsewhere. Early morning temperatures were in the 60s in the Panhandle and in the 70s over the rest of Texas. Extremes ranged from 57 at Amarillo to 77 at several points along the lower coast.

WEST TEXAS FORECAST

Partly cloudy through Friday. Widely scattered thunderstorms south today. A little cooler southwest and a little warmer Panhandle this afternoon. Warmer north Friday. Highs mid 70s north to mid 80s south except low 90s Big Bend valleys. Lows low 60s north to near 70 south. Highs Friday near 80 north to mid 90s south.

Senate kills abortion vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a setback for the New Right, the Senate has closed off efforts by conservative Jesse Helms to push anti-abortion legislation through the Congress this week.

After two weeks of tense debate and procedural struggle, the Senate voted 47-46 on Wednesday to set aside an anti-abortion package drafted by Helms and bitterly resisted by a small group of liberals.

"We just weren't going to get rolled on this issue which was supposedly so popular," said Sen. Lowell Weicker, R-Conn., a liberal Helms opponent. "We weren't going to get snowed under by a moral crusade."

Senate liberals won apparently by making clever use of rules on filibusters, thus blocking a direct yes or no vote on Helms anti-abortion measures.

Helms has also introduced legislation designed to restore prayer in public schools, which was still before the Senate today. But in the wake of their victory, liberals said they would fight that measure as tenaciously as they did the abortion measure.

Both the prayer and abortion proposals were attached to a federal debt limit bill that must be approved by Oct. 1, or the government will be without authority to borrow enough money to pay its bills.

Sen. Bob Packwood, R-Ore., the leader of the liberal filibuster, said abortion is an issue on which most senators have already made up their minds so they were unlikely to change their minds even if the president of the United States asked them to.

The Helms amendment included a congressional finding that the Supreme Court was mistaken in 1973 when it legalized most abortions. There was also a provision to facilitate a quick Supreme Court review of any anti-abortion legislation enacted by a state legislature.

It also would have permanently prohibited all direct and indirect funding of abortions, including research and the training of medical students in abortion procedure.

Reader resents prostitution story

Dear Editor,
I was appalled at your feature story "Portrait of a Call Girl" and resent such trash being published and especially featured on the front page of my hometown newspaper. What did the articles accomplish other than glamorizing a prostitute, free advertising and pointing out that our police force closes its eyes to this practice?

The fact the prostitution existed in the Bible era does not make it acceptable — then or now. I doubt such activities were advertised in those days as the penalty imposed upon a woman found guilty of that offense was death.

Are there not more worthy, uplifting and enlightening subjects about which to write? Consider, perhaps, articles on "Portraits of a Christian Wife and mother, nurse, sales clerk, beauty operator, secretary, etc."

If however, you feel this type of feature story is beneficial to the citizens of Big Spring and Howard County, enlighten us further by a follow-up feature from one of Debby's playmates, entitled, perhaps, "I Was Debby's 45th Date of the Week."

Female editor should be home

Dear Editor:
With your permission, may I extend my personal opinion of the recent articles that were run as front page priority.

One, may I congratulate you upon the effort of your duties of your profession — stimulation of circulation!

Secondly, I must take umbrage with the sophomoric manner in which you did so.

Your borderline of "yellow journalism" is an affront to the quality people of our city and surroundings and this includes all those involved in law enforcement.

Ah, yet the saddest part to me is the fact that a young lady of your breeding and education would demean her exalted position of life, that of female, and I refer you to your predecessor in journalism, Daniel Defoe, (Ed. Review-1704-1713-England) who wrote, "If a woman be well bred, and taught the proper management of her natural wit, she proves generally very sensible and retentive; and without partiality, a woman of sense and manners is the finest and most delicate part of God's creation, the glory of her Maker, and the great instance of His singular regard to man, His darling creature, to whom He gave the best gift either God could bestow or man receive."

"She is every way suitable to the sublimest wish, and the man that has such a one to his portion has nothing to do but rejoice in her and be thankful."

That you would sobrogate this exalted position of life, in pursuit of a professional accomplishment, to me is a tragedy and an insult to the graciousness of the majority of the staff of our community, which also includes you.

For record: I once, while having lunch at Jack Dempsey's, overheard Walter Winchell, a peer of yours state, when asked what the biggest mistake he had made in his illustrious career was. He immediately replied, "When I informed on Lepke, and set him up for law enforcement. I gave him my parole, that as a newspaper man and a Jew, I'd not divulge his hiding place, which I did. I sold a lot of newspapers by my effort; I also sold my soul."

(i.e. Lepke Buchalter was executed as a result of Winchells betrayal, for his involvement in "Murder, Inc.")
Our professional associate, Ian Calder, of "The Enquirer" has the "smut" field monopolized, so a suggestion to you: written by this Cavalier Poet, Robert Herrick (1600-1633).

"Then be not coy, but use your time
And while you may, go marry:
For, having lost but once your prime,
You may forever tarry."

Go home, have kids, love a man and be a complete woman. Journalism, as we know it in a contemporary vein, is a dead profession; in the near future to be replaced by a network of computers. Don't "blow" both careers. Mine own beloved of three score and more, would heartily recommend the institution of marriage and motherhood. To quote her, "It wasn't always easy, yet there was always love."

We love you!

I remain, sincerely

Water levels need watching

Dear Editor:
First of all, I want to say how much I enjoy The Herald here in Stanton, as I always look forward to receiving it.

Case in point on the malfunctioning telemeter system: You are right on target. When we were living in New Mexico, the very same thing happened and three houses burned to the ground before emergency water hauling could be brought into action.

(There were) two major breaks and with the meter level not working, the water supply was depleted and no water was left to put out the fire.

A person didn't have to worry about water pressure — let the insurance company find out about the broken telemeter and watch your rates go sky high.

Yes, the residents had a right to be concerned about the system being the way it is.

(It) is a very serious problem, and water levels should be observed 24 hours a day.

Thank you,
JACK HASTEN

discouraging Castro from trying to export revolution to Central America. They would also give him an alternative to permanent vassalage to the Soviets, who alone have been willing to protect him against the continuing threat from the north.

CASTRO IS obviously interested in thawing relations with Washington. Wayne Smith, former chief of the State Department's Cuban desk and head of the U.S. mission in Havana until this year, writes in the current issue of Foreign Policy magazine that the Cubans have repeatedly indicated their willingness to negotiate on all issues, including their role in Central America. But instead of pursuing its goals through diplomatic means, the administration has simply escalated the cold war with Cuba — banning American tourist travel, cancelling fishing agreements, and proposing the establishment of Radio Marti.

What does Cuba have to gain from rapprochement with the hated Yankees? A respite from a formidable military threat, new markets for its stagnant economy, hard currency from increased American tourism and the chance to attain independence from Moscow. What does the United States have to gain? The elimination of one source of instability in this hemisphere, better relations with our Latin neighbors and the opportunity to deprive the Soviets of their only American satellite.

None of these achievements are guaranteed. They will take great patience and arduous negotiations. But with a little imagination and a little luck, Ronald Reagan might be remembered as the President who pushed the Soviets out of the Americas.

Around the Rim

By GREG JAKLEWICZ

Er, well, uh...

Why do people think we writers can speak?

Sure we can order hamburgers and conduct interviews but some folks think we can also do well behind a podium or microphone. So they ask us to speak at various events.

Yes, we're honored when we're asked to speak. But what they don't realize is many of us scribes have resorted to print media because a long, long time ago, we learned the hard way that speaking publicly wasn't our thing.

Why this tirade, you ask from your easy chair? Well, I was asked to give the pep talk at the Big Spring High Friday. Just a measly three-to-five minute speech to a gymful of students, cheerleader Kay Pollard said in the note she left on my desk. No sweat.

Sure. No problem, Kay. So what if my knees quake, my voice shakes, my throat bakes, my head aches. I'll be glad to do it. I'll just double up on my anti-perspirant, comb my hairs and wear a tie. No sweat.

ALL MY LIFE, I've dreaded speaking to people I didn't know and even people I did know. I remember once, after having served quietly as vice president of student government all year, I had to lead a meeting when the big chief was absent one evening.

Everyone had two pairs of eyes on me, just begging for wisdom and leadership. My voice failed me, my mind collapsed and when I thumbed through my notes, the pages stuck to my wet palms. I survived the meeting but was glad to see the president back the next week.

I've had to give pep talks before. I had no idea what to say at my first one in junior high. I was asked to fire-up the Wylie Pupils (we became Bulldogs when we grew up) and I thought seriously about tossing out Milkbones to the football players. By comparison, I was Dachsund and they were Great Danes.

So, I made up a poem. It had a funny line about each player. One line I remember went something like "And then there's our quarterback Ricky McMinn, he's a good passer despite being so thin." How about that, huh? You've got to remember I was in seventh grade at the time.

I had to give another when I was a senior. The guy that guessed the scores for the Abilene newspaper (I later worked for him) said we were supposed to lose to his hometown. Well, our opponents weren't very good that year and we were and when he said something about "The Bulldogs will get eaten up in the Bear's den," I got fired up.

I got the guys fired up, too, and we drove inside their 10-yard four times in the first quarter. We didn't score on any of them but that wasn't important. My pep talk had trapped the Bears deep in their own cave.

SINCE THEN I've spoken to civic groups, school classes and other groups. I kind of enjoy it but I always get nervous. A lot of times, the speaking comes after a meal and boy, that meal is hard to swallow when you're stomach is in knots.

Before leaving Stamford, I addressed a group of Rotarians on my observations of the town in my year and half there. I was asked to speak because I was sure to say some things the businessmen needed to hear. I was nervous but once I got going, I spoke for 35 minutes straight and laid things on the line. I wasn't sure if they were going to let me live but after I finished, I got a lot of handshakes and agreeing nods.

Back to the pep talk, I'm thinking of how to give a speech that will be remembered forever and ever. I've got just five minutes maximum (Kay said to keep it short) so a poem is out. I know it will take me one minute just to get a word out of my mouth after all the uhs and umms and wells.

That's why in one of my great performances as an actor in high school, I played a dead body. Just so I wouldn't have to say anything.

But this is more important. Big Spring will beat Levelland — I just need to remind the guys of that fact.

What about the heck. If I bomb out completely, I can just get someone to say the complete transcript of my speech can be found in tomorrow's paper.

And that is what God has done of us in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ, God's only Son, came to die on the cross for our sins. He was perfect, but in his love he took upon himself the punishment for your sins and mine. "He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness" (1 Peter 2:24). The Bible declares, "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8:1).

How can you know you are going to Heaven? You can know by committing your life by faith and trust in Jesus Christ. By a simple prayer of faith accept Christ into your heart, and trust him to save you, as he has promised he will do.

DETENTE WITH Cuba need not be

Now, Ronald Reagan can do with Cuba what Nixon did with China. By normalizing relations, opening up trade and possibly providing some aid to the economically beleaguered island, he would start a process that might eventually bring Havana into the American orbit. This would remove the only real threat to U.S. interests in this hemisphere, while depriving the Soviet Union of a valuable ally.

Slave laborers exploited

WASHINGTON — Secret intelligence reports portray an awesome human epic now unfolding in Siberia. A long, lonely stream of slave laborers — tens of thousands of faceless men, existing on starches and water — are working from dawn to dusk, laying the Siberian pipeline.

The reports describe the anonymous workers as Soviet prisoners sentenced to forced labor and Vietnamese "volunteers" shipped to Siberia to help pay off Vietnam's debts. They reportedly are working under grim conditions for bare subsistence.

Our European allies are supplying vital equipment for the pipeline construction, which makes them indirect partners in this massive crime against human rights.

Of course, the Kremlin doesn't permit the Moscow Evening News to film the brutal conditions for all the world to see. So hard proof is lacking to bring formal charges against the Soviet taskmasters.

But letters from the Vietnamese laborers, postmarked in the Soviet Union, have reached the outside world. Our intelligence agencies have also put together other jigsaw pieces which form an appalling portrait of human exploitation.

The State Department has been the most cautious about accepting the intelligence findings. Its Bureau of Intelligence and Research published a classified summary a few months ago citing reports — with no conclusions — that the Soviets are using slave labor to construct the controversial pipeline.

But the Human Rights Bureau, insiders say, is convinced of the terrible truth. Pentagon intelligence experts also believe the evidence is compelling.

Intelligence sources told my associate Lucette Laganado that the Russians don't even hide the fact that Vietnamese "volunteers" are working in the Soviet Union. The precise number could be as high as 100,000.

The sources insist, however, that the youths are not volunteers at all, but are sent to Siberia against their will to work in the harsh environment. According to one report, many are children of families that opposed the Viet Cong during the war.

Sen. William Armstrong, R-Colo., has received several letters from Vietnamese emigrants who have heard from relatives about the victimization of the laborers. Some letters have actually slipped through the Iron Curtain.

"It is already two months since I last heard from my family in Vietnam," wrote one desolate captive. "I do not know what the future has in store for me... I am being tightly controlled... The pay is very low and conditions in this infamous area are cruel... My life here is several times poorer and harsher than in Vietnam."

He tells of dreaming vainly of ways to escape and closes with this poignant plea: "Can you spare some money? Can you send me a few

Billy Graham

Is heaven a sure thing?

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I heard you recently on a radio broadcast ask, "Do you know you are going to Heaven?" How can I know for sure that I will go to Heaven when I die?—L.B.

DEAR L.B.: There is no more important question facing every individual than the question of where he or she will spend eternity. I am thankful you are concerned about this; tragically, many people shut their minds to this subject and are unprepared for eternity.

You can know that you are going to Heaven when you realize and accept what God has done to make it possible for you to go there. First, realize that in yourself you have no right to go to Heaven. Heaven is the dwelling place of God, and the Bible tells us about God. "Your eyes are too pure to look on evil; you cannot tolerate wrong" (Habakkuk 1:13). In other words, we must be pure in God's eyes before we can go to Heaven.

But how is that possible? You and I are not pure and perfect — we are sinners who constantly do wrong. Even if we had only committed one sin, we would not be worthy of God's Heaven — and of course we commit many, many sins every day in thought, word and deed. How can we be made fit for Heaven? Only God can do that. Only he can purify us and cleanse us from our sins.

IN STATE — The body of Princess Grace of Monaco lies in state in Monaco Palace as Monaco residents take a last look at their late princess. A funeral service for the former U.S. film star is scheduled for Saturday.

Grace was in coma while injuries called not critical

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP) — Princess Grace spent her last hours in a coma, kept alive by machines while the world was assured her injuries from a car crash were not critical, senior medical sources directly involved in her treatment said today.

The sources, who requested anonymity, said palace officials knew from the start that the former American movie star was in extremely serious condition.

"She had multiple injuries of the head, thorax and legs and no surgical operation was conceivable," one of the sources said. "The seriousness of her condition was confirmed by a scanner examination."

Initial but unofficial reports from palace sources said only that Grace had suffered a broken leg and her daughter Stephanie escaped major injury Monday when their car plunged 120 feet into a ravine in French territory just outside the Mediterranean principality.

Less than 40 hours later, Grace was dead.

A palace statement said Grace had been driving the 10-year-old Rover and that its brakes had failed on a steep mountain road.

That contradicted other reports that 17-year-old Stephanie, ineligible for a driver's license until her 18th birthday, had been behind the wheel. A witness who claimed to have pulled Stephanie from the wreckage said she was on the driver's side.

Investigators said it was impossible to determine yet who was driving or what caused the accident.

Grace's husband Prince Rainier III and their two other children, Caroline, 25, and Albert, 24, were at her bedside when she died, the palace said.

On Wednesday afternoon, Rainier broke the news to Stephanie that her mother was dead, then returned to his ancient hilltop castle with Caroline and Albert.

Stephanie remained hospitalized today. A palace spokeswoman said none of the girl's injuries "threatened her life."

Nadia Lacoste, who had been Grace's spokeswoman since she married Rainier 26 years ago, said she spent some time with Rainier and his children Wednesday after rushing back from a West German vacation.

"They all looked so sad it hurt just to look at them," Mrs. Lacoste said, her face ashen. "The prince looked terrible. He looked beaten."

She said the princess "regained consciousness at some point before her death because she requested that if people were going to send flowers, they be small, simple flowers."

Outside the castle perched atop a rocky peak, residents began paying their last respects to Oscar-winning actress their handsome prince wooed away from Hollywood at the height of her brief but triumphant career.

Camera-toting tourists hovered outside, snapping pictures of the daily changing of the guard and chattering in a dozen different languages.

Palace guards, black armbands on their spotless white uniforms, allowed only Monaco's 30,000 residents into the palace chapel to view the open coffin.

The princess' body, gowned in white silk, will lay in state through Friday.

Funeral services were set for Saturday. About 500 people, including celebrities from around the globe, are expected to attend. No official guest list has been released yet.

Japan's economy in 'state of emergency'

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Zenko Suzuki, citing mounting revenue shortfalls and massive budget deficits, said today that Japan is facing a financial "state of emergency" and asked the Japanese people for help.

In a nationally televised news conference, Suzuki said the lackluster performance of the Japanese economy could lead to tax revenue shortfalls in the current fiscal year equal to $19 billion to $20 billion out of planned revenues of about $141 billion.

His admission of serious financial problems is likely to have political reverberations, coming as it does when the ruling Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) is gearing up for a November election to choose a new leadership.

Suzuki indicated that salary increases for government workers could be curtailed, and people receiving welfare might have to sacrifice some of their benefits to "share the burden" and help rescue government financing.

The Cabinet will meet soon to draw up a new set of pump-priming measures to stimulate the economy, reportedly through increased public works spending and tax credits for smaller businesses, Suzuki said.

20 million displaced after Indian flooding

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Some of the worst monsoon floods of the century have displaced 20 million people and caused damage to more than 20,000 villages in northern and eastern India, according to reports from the areas today.

Official casualty figures were not available but the unofficial count of flood-related deaths since seasonal monsoon rains started in late June totaled more than 700.

Most of the displaced people were in northern Uttar Pradesh state and eastern Orissa state, the reports said.

Three-fourths of the districts of Uttar Pradesh, India's most populous state, were stricken as the Gonti, Sai, Burhi and Rapti rivers swirled through southern parts of the state, including the state capital, Lucknow, 250 miles southeast of New Delhi.

Official estimates placed damage to crops and property in Uttar Pradesh and eastern Orissa at nearly $400 million. Rail and road connections in Uttar Pradesh and other northern states were severely disrupted.

In northeastern India, a wave of floods hit Assam and Arunachal Pradesh where the Brahmaputra, the "river of sorrow" — and its tributaries entered the plains.

Most wanted man arrested

NEW YORK (AP) — A 65-year-old fugitive, listed on the FBI's "10 most wanted list" for six years, was arrested as he stepped off an Amtrak train with suitcases full of weapons, authorities said.

Joseph McDonald, charged with stealing a $500,000 stamp collection more than a decade ago, was taken into custody Wednesday morning as he got off a train at Pennsylvania Station, authorities said.

After insisting for more than nine hours that he was John Kelly of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., McDonald finally admitted his true identity after police obtained a warrant to search his luggage, authorities said.

When the suitcases were opened, police found two .38-caliber automatic guns, a .45-caliber automatic weapon similar to an Israeli Uzi submachine gun, three silencers and ammunition. McDonald, who had boarded the train in Hollywood, Fla., was charged with illegal weapons possession.

Dr. Donohue

Bleeding: placenta problem?

Dear Dr. Donohue: Can you tell me anything about placenta abruptio? I had one during my eighth month of pregnancy. There were no known causes, no diabetes, hypertension or other abnormality.—R.A.

Before explaining what happened, I cannot be of much help to you. The placenta is the thick wall of tissue that becomes attached to the uterus during pregnancy. It is through this organ that the fetus is nourished and through which its wastes are eliminated by way of the connecting umbilical cord. The placenta normally remains firmly attached until delivery, at which time it separates from the uterus and becomes the after birth.

As the term implies, abruptio placentae means that the placenta has separated too soon. It usually happens in the last three months of pregnancy, and the detachment can be partial or complete, with bleeding the prominent sign that it has happened.

The seriousness depends on the degree of the separation. If it is only slight, then, with rest, there may be no worsening of the situation and the pregnancy can go on without trouble. If it is severe, the doctor is faced with a life-threatening situation. Delivery must be prompt, and sometimes a cesarean delivery is done.

Some of the prominent causes of this problem have been ruled out in your case, diabetes and toxemia, which is marked by a rapid rise in blood pressure. Should you become pregnant again, your doctors will certainly keep an eye out for recurrence of this complication.

Dear Dr. Donohue: What can you tell me about pyoderma gangrenosum, the skin problem? I have had it for years. I am in good health, have mild blood pressure, which I keep in check with medication. I have no allergies. I am active and don't feel sick before this comes on or after.

It will come on any time of the year. It comes on my left leg, and it takes about two months to clear up. I go to the doctor, who gives me prednisone. I keep the sores clean and stay off my legs as much as I can.

I don't work, am 38, married, and have two children. No one at home has this but me. It was not in my parents or their families. I like to bowl, walk, ride, bike, play tennis and I eat well. When I get this I just tell my friends I am allergic to myself (smile). I'd like to know more.—Mrs. L.M.U.

Pyoderma gangrenosum is a strange and rare skin disorder. It starts out looking like an innocent red patch and within a few days it develops into a large ulcer that heals, but leaves scarring.

The only thing I can tell you is that it is most often seen with people who have ulcerative colitis. But you do not have to have that to get this skin problem. If a person does have ulcerative colitis, the pyoderma comes under control as the colon disturbance is correct. In an otherwise healthy person, the skin flare-up is a mystery, and, for all I know about this, it might be that you are "allergic to yourself," as you tell your friends.

I just don't know much about this. When I find out more, I'll let you know.

World War I vets discuss resolution

Members of the Veterans of World War I and its auxiliary met Saturday and heard a report of the National Convention for the organization. Virginia Younger and Maxie Irland gave their views of the event, which was held in Des Moines, Iowa.

Irland told the group that 15 billion dollars is spent annually for all U.S. veterans. He also discussed House Resolution 1918, which states that a small pension should be paid to every veteran. Irland said that only way to get action on H.R. 1918 is to continue to talk at the local level to all voters, and to point out how World War I vets have been discriminated against in help with education, housing, insurance and other needs. Congress has neglected the World War I vet, Irland told the group, and needs to be reminded of their needs.

Plans for a Nov. 13, District 19 convention was discussed. Mrs. Hattie Box, department of Texas president, is expected to attend.

During the meeting, the charter was draped for Lucille Jacobs.

Forsan Study club discusses business

The GFWC Forsan Study Club's first business meeting of the year was Monday in Susan Alexander's home.

Participating in the program were Sara Thixton, Emily Munn, Brenda White, and Susan Gaston, who invited members to a coffee for State Representative Jerry Cockerham.

Kathy Pickett discussed the Forsan Community Clean-up set Saturday. Volunteers should report to the Forsan Community Center at 7:30 a.m. for job assignments. Senior Citizens will provide sandwiches. The entire community will gather at 6 p.m. for a covered dish supper.

Donna Parker made assignments for the Six Flags Over Texas Smorgasbord to be held in conjunction with the Forsan Homecoming Oct. 1. Members are to have their dishes at the cafeteria between 5:30 p.m. and 5:45 p.m. The meal will be served from 6-7:30 p.m. Admission is $4 for adults, $3 for students and $2 for children under 12. Recipes need to be turned in to the chairman by Sept. 20.

Dear Abby

Ratchet-Jaw CB'er is loud and clear

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a neighbor with a homebased CB radio. He talks with people along the Gulf Coast and in Canada. He is on his CB some mornings, all afternoon and most nights. He loves the theme from "The Lone Ranger" and plays it often. How do I know? Because it comes over my television set!

I watch TV for my own entertainment, not to hear this man. Don't get me wrong, he's an upstanding citizen with a charming wife and family, but my set isn't the only one that his CB interferes with. Almost everyone in the neighborhood knows when he's on because we hear everything he says.

Many of my favorite TV shows have been interrupted, which frustrates me no end. What a man does in his own home is his own business, but when it comes into my home, it becomes my business.

What should I do?

TIRE D OF "15-4" IN CHARLESTON, S.C.

DEAR TIRE D: If you haven't already complained directly to your neighbor, you should. If you have, but to no avail, either call or write to your local Federal Communications Commission office and ask someone there to please send you the booklet, "How to Identify and Resolve Radio-TV Interference Problems." The booklet offers tips on how to correct this interference. (Perhaps your set is at fault.)

If the problem persists, write to: The F.C.C., 1919 M

DEAR ABBY: I asked one of my closest friends to be my bridesmaid, and she immediately said, "No, I can't afford the dress." A week passed, and I called and told her I would pay for the dress. Then she hemmed and hawed and asked, "Are you really going to have a formal church wedding?" I said, "Yes, of course."

Then she asked, "Won't you feel hypocritical. Then she came right out and said she couldn't be my bridesmaid because she didn't think I deserved to have a church wedding with a gown and veil and bridesmaids."

I felt hurt, angry and shocked that she would sit in judgment of me. (She is not exactly a saint herself, if you know what I mean.)

Should I invite this girl to my wedding?

Gemayel's death — a blow to Israel

By MARCUS ELIASON
Associated Press Writer

TEL AVIV, Israel — The assassination of Lebanese President-elect Bashir Gemayel looks like the third serious setback to Israel's ambitious plans for Lebanon.

The first setback was Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat's emergence from the Beirut siege with his political standing enhanced.

Instead of appearing beaten and humiliated by the ouster from Lebanon, Arafat was feted by the Greek government and met with Pope John Paul II. Outraged Israeli leaders say the Palestine Liberation Organization, its guerrilla army vanquished, would quickly drop from sight if the West would only stop courting it as a political force.

The second setback has been President Reagan's Mideast peace initiative, which runs counter to Israel's aims in the Lebanon invasion.

Israel hoped the PLO's defeat would break its hold on the people of the occupied West Bank of the Jordan River and Gaza Strip, and allow a Palestinian leadership not linked to the PLO to come forward and accept the limited self-rule Israel is offering for the territories.

Israel believed the United States could have shown more gratitude for the blow it struck to Soviet interests by ousting the PLO and mauling the Soviet-armed Syrian forces in Lebanon. Instead, even as the last guerrillas were leaving Beirut, Reagan unveiled a plan that ultimately would deny Israel the domination it seeks over the West Bank and Gaza.

Now comes the death of Gemayel, whose Christian militia has received millions of dollars in Israeli military aid and whose election as Lebanese president was hailed here as an important step toward a new era of Israeli-Lebanese friendship.

Gemayel's death can be to Israel's advantage only if his successor, not yet chosen, proves to be even friendlier toward Israel, and at the same time more capable of pulling Lebanon together into a united, peaceful nation. But in Lebanon's present volatile state, the two do not seem to go together, as Gemayel's violent death demonstrates.

ISRAEL'S ULTIMATE goal is to sign a peace treaty with Lebanon, and only two weeks before his death Gemayel was reported to have met secretly with Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin and urged him to be more patient with Gemayel's hesitation to embrace Israel openly.

Israel radio said Gemayel offered de-facto peace entailing open borders and trade, but did not feel firmly enough in power to take the bold step of signing a formal peace.

The immediate result of Gemayel's murder was that Israeli troops were ordered into hostile west Beirut, where they reportedly clashed with Lebanese Muslim fighters.

That could mean more casualties for an Israel that already is emotionally wrenched by the loss of 340 men so far in the 101-day-old invasion. At the same time, however, the push into west Beirut may allow the Israelis to root out any remaining Palestinian guerrillas and Muslim leftist militias there.

The minority protests that have accompanied the Lebanon war from the outset were already being heard anew Wednesday.

Peace Now, Israel's leading anti-war movement, has demanded that Israel stop fighting and accept that the talk of peace with Lebanon and the destruction of the PLO was "an illusion."

Shimon Peres, leader of the opposition Labor Party, says a multinational force should keep the peace in Beirut. "The Israeli army should be looking for ways to extricate itself from Beirut instead of getting deeper into it," he said.

Eliahu Ben-Elissar, a close Begin associate and chairman of Parliament's Foreign Affairs and Security Committee, says he believes that the Israeli army is the only force preventing Lebanon from sliding back into civil war.

Hitler deputy, 88, gets health checkup

BERLIN (AP) — Rudolf Hess, the 88-year-old former deputy of Adolf Hitler, was transferred from his Spandau prison cell to a military hospital for a medical checkup, a British forces spokesman said Wednesday.

Hess is the only inmate at Spandau prison, a Berlin prison run by four World War II allies. A Nuremberg war crimes tribunal sentenced him to life in prison on Oct. 1, 1946.

The British spokesman did not give details about Hess' health condition. On April 6, 1981, Hess was hospitalized for examinations and doctors said he suffered from pneumonia. He was later said to be recovering from the ailment and transferred back to his cell.

Human rights groups and leaders of several Western nations have appealed for his release in recent years, but the Soviet Union has vetoed all efforts to free him. A decision to release Hess would have to be approved by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

600,000 are without buses in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Negotiators trying to get public buses back on the road say they made "substantial progress" before recessing today and leaving 600,000 commuters facing a second day of packed parking lots and traffic jams.

A bargaining session wound up at 2:30 a.m., and spokesmen for the Southern California Rapid Transit District and United Transportation Union issued a joint statement saying that "substantial progress" was made.

But RTD spokesman Jim Smart and UTU spokesman Goldy Norton honored a news blackout and would not elaborate on the outcome of more than five hours of discussions except to say the two sides would meet again this afternoon.

During an early-morning break, UTU General Chairman Earl Clark said, "Things are going fine. We're still here and it's a good atmosphere."

"Right now we've got some things we're looking at and it's difficult to say whether they're going to be acceptable or not. We're trying," he said.

The union represents 4,600 bus drivers. The district serves five counties.

Tuesday, Clark accepted binding arbitration at least on the central issue in the strike — the district's demand that it be allowed to double the number of part-time drivers to 20 percent — but RTD President Mike Lewis rejected it.

Supervisor Ed Edelman urged RTD directors to reconsider Wednesday, but Lewis declined to say what the board decided. However, the Los Angeles Times and Los Angeles Herald Examiner said today that the board had voted to submit the issue to binding arbitration, which means both sides would agree to abide by the findings of an impartial arbitrator.

Smart said late Wednesday night that he would have "no comment" on the reports.

Traffic accidents were up 200 percent Wednesday as Los Angeles freeways jammed during rush hours, the California Highway Patrol reported. Traffic was 50 percent heavier than normal, the patrol said.

Taxi companies and rental car agencies reported booming business as commuters in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino and Ventura counties sought other ways to get to work. The region has no subway system and no other mode of mass transit besides buses.

The transit district estimates it serves 600,000 commuters a day.

Chemical dumping protested

AFTON, N.C. (AP) — Police arrested more than 100 protesters singing "We Shall Overcome" who tried to block the dumping of toxic chemicals at a Warren County landfill as a statewide PCB cleanup began.

Among those arrested during a confrontation and sit-down at the dump site were two leaders of the demonstration, the Rev. Leon White and Ken Ferruccio, who refused to move out of the middle of the road.

About 35 state troopers were on hand, billy clubs outstretched, to keep the protesters out of the landfill.

The arrests came after some of the demonstrators began yelling, "Let us through. We're going through."

Lt. H.B. McKee of the Highway Patrol told the demonstrators they would be arrested for impeding traffic over the highway leading to the dump site. The demonstrators began pressing against the cordon of officers.

Ferruccio was placed in a nearby prison bus, where he continued to lead the demonstrators in the singing.

The marchers were allowed to march past the first of two police check points undeterred by riot-helmeted troopers who lined the road.

Russ Edmonston, a spokesman for the North Carolina Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, said troopers at the first checkpoint had been instructed to let the protesters through.

White, of the United Church of Christ's Commission for Racial Justice, used a bullhorn to tell the crowd of protesters that they would try to stop the trucks.

"We're going to break the blockade or go to jail," White had vowed.

A National Guard helicopter hovered over the area.

Meanwhile, dump trucks assigned to pick up the toxic chemicals along North Carolina roadsides began rolling about 8 a.m. on the first day of the state's cleanup operation, and there were no reports of interference.

Removal operations began on N.C. 58 in Warren County, one of 14 counties where illegal PCB dumpings occurred in 1978. State officials say it will take five state Department of Transportation crews about six weeks to move the polluted soil from roadsides.

PCB — an acronym for polychlorinated biphenyls — was used in electrical transformers as a cooling agent before their use was banned. The chemical was linked to cancer in laboratory animals several years ago. The ban left some businessmen with gallons of the chemical.

Four men have pleaded guilty to charges of illegally dumping the chemical on North Carolina roadsides.

On Tuesday night, about 300 people opposed to the landfill met for a rally at the Warren County Courthouse and vowed to try to stop the dumping.

A federal judge ruled last September that the state could go ahead and build the landfill after he dismissed a suit filed by residents. U.S. District Judge W. Earl Britt ruled that all possible precautions had been taken to ensure that the storage site would not pose an environmental danger.

Citizens of Warren County claim the state chose their county because it is rural, poor and largely black.

Ken Ferruccio, a leader of the Warren County Citizens Concerned About PCBs, said other methods should be tried before the state moves the dirt. He suggested that the chemical be treated on the roadbeds where it was dumped.

Another Warren County resident, Joyce Lubbers, said Tuesday that she was willing to go to jail to stop the dumping.

...Sinatra!

STILL THE CHARMER — Frank Sinatra's appeal is undiminished. Here, he hands flowers to a grateful fan in the Carnegie Hall audience during a concert in New York this week. After closing his show with "New York, New York," Sinatra was presented with the bouquet, which he then cheerfully handed out to members of the audience.

By MARY CAMPBELL
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK — A crowd was gathered around the artists' entrance at Carnegie Hall more than an hour before Frank Sinatra arrived Tuesday night, to cheer the singer's dash from limousine to stage door.
The crowd inside later cheered each song for an hour and a quarter. It was a program of standards, not the biggest hits Sinatra has had in all cases, but definitely familiar tunes instead of the novel or new. And Sinatra was in vintage voice. He hit and held the high notes, made his voice warm and mellow in the low notes and sometimes slurred a word and note all the way to the basement.

The "fall Sinatra season," his third in Carnegie Hall in three years, began Monday with a benefit for the World Mercy Fund. It "opened" Tuesday, to run through Sept. 23, with no performance on Monday. Tickets are $50 top and all tickets were sold before the opening.

Sinatra gave the audience a concert in a mood of relaxed well-being and didn't get as frisky as he sometimes does. Neither did he dwell on his being a saloon singer, though he did announce "two saloon songs we do in every performance." They were "The Gal That Got Away" and "It Never Entered My Mind."

The one-time skinny idol of bobby soxers is slim again, looking trim, healthy and nonflamboyant. He made his traditional toast in red wine but took only three sips of it and only three puffs on a cigarette during the saloon songs. He wore a conventional tuxedo, red handkerchief, wedding ring, one ring on his right hand. He kept the microphone in his right hand, moved so smoothly it was a glide.

The band included a tuba, which chugged low on "the road gets rougher" of "The Gal That Got Away," but Sinatra put grit on the edge of his voice and did the tuba one better. The band also included a harp, which came in to good effect on the "when you're alone" line of "When Your Lover Has Gone."

Part of the good-taste feeling of a Sinatra concert always has been the instrumental arrangements behind him.

High point of the evening was "The Lady Is a Tramp," in which Sinatra pronounced it in two syllables, tray-amp, toyed with the lyrics a bit and may just have swung the song as high as he ever has. He also swung "I've Got You Under My Skin" and "The Best Is Yet To Come" and sounded like his old record of "I Won't Dance." While he didn't take any encores, he did reprise a couple of songs.

He sang "The House I Live In," saying before it, "It's not flag-waving, but if it is, it's also OK." He smiled his way through his kind of song, "My Kind of Town," shifting his shoulders a bit to show he isn't without street smarts. And he sounded like "king of the hill, top of the heap" in his standing-ovation finish, "New York, New York."

Emmy awards: One critic's picks

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK — The television industry gets to pat itself on the back Sunday night, when ABC presents coast-to-coast "thank you's" on the Emmy Award show. Here are our choices:

Outstanding Drama Series: "Hill Street Blues" is writing the book on how a soap opera can be powerful, poignant, funny, sexy and dramatic. Nothing on TV comes close. All other cops on TV rinse out a pale blue.

Outstanding Comedy Series: "M-A-S-H." The Korean War will end this season after 11 years. Throughout, "M-A-S-H" has kept the patients and one-liners going. Despite its 1950s setting, "M-A-S-H" stays fresh with insights into human struggles, strengths and weaknesses.

Outstanding Drama Special: "Skokie" made the events and divergent perspectives from the Nazis' march come alive. Danny Kaye, in his first dramatic role for TV, truly is "multitalented."

Outstanding Information Series: The networks also left this field to public television. Something about priorities. Tough choice between "Creativity With Bill Moyers" and "Middletown," which pointed its cameras at Muncie, Ind., and photographed a nation. Edge to "Middletown."

Outstanding Lead Actor in Dramatic Series: Ed Asner ("Lou Grant") has alienated too many voters with his political stands, so that leaves it open for Daniel J. Travanti of "Hill Street Blues," whose Capt. Frank Furillo, the latest sex symbol, pulls off toughness and tenderness convincingly.

Outstanding Lead Actress in Dramatic Series: The object of some of that tenderness is Veronica Hamel (Joyce Davenport). When she cried or went through a career crisis, we believed. And, when she cuddled up to Pizza Man in bed, it looked like they were playing for keeps.

Outstanding Lead Actor in Comedy Series: Another difficult call. Alan Alda in "M-A-S-H" is the wise-cracking medic who sometimes lets a feeling out. Judd Hirsch in "Taxi" expresses a few more emotions and is our pick, although Hal Linden may get the sentimental vote, because "Barney Miller" ended its long run.

Outstanding Lead Actress in Comedy Series: Carol Kane, who will be a regular this year on "Taxi," was better at her dialect than Andy Kaufman, and he invented the language. If she wins, let's hope she says "Tank you berry much." Swoosie Kurtz held her own against Tony Randall in "Love, Sidney."

Explaining the economy: Why natural gas prices are rising

ARK (AP) — It is quacks in economy that can expect natural prices to increase an average of about 20 percent in winter while oil prices are likely to be stable, and may even fall.

In the past, the explanation for energy price increases was supply shortages. It was inevitable, for example, that the five-month Arab oil embargo that began in 1973 would send prices of crude oil and petroleum products spiraling upward.

But today there are no shortages. In fact crude oil and natural gas are in oversupply.

So it may seem strange that an act of Congress four years ago, taken in response to supply shortages, has set the stage for a winter of higher natural gas prices.

Here are some questions and answers to help explain why natural gas prices are going up at a time when supplies are adequate and oil prices are leveling off:

Q. Why did Congress want higher natural gas prices?

A. The Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978, passed by Congress after tumultuous debate, was a compromise designed to stimulate production of natural gas by bringing its price gradually in line with crude oil prices. Some experts warned that without an orderly abandonment of controls that had limited natural gas prices since 1954, the fuel would be in short supply by the middle of this decade.

Natural gas is the only primary fuel that remains largely under federal price controls. As the law stands now, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission controls the activities and prices of natural gas producers and interstate pipeline companies.

Q. How can natural gas prices go up when oil prices are stable or coming down?

A. Part of the answer is that crude oil prices are not regulated by the government as natural gas prices are. When President Reagan lifted the remaining controls on oil in January 1981, prices jumped up. But an oversupply of oil on world markets and an unexpectedly large drop in oil demand has pulled prices down.

Because of the long period of price controls on natural gas, its price has been held far below the equivalent crude oil price. But gas prices now are rising in line with a schedule set by the Natural Gas Policy Act to narrow the gap between oil and gas prices.

That act immediately ended price controls on natural gas produced from wells deeper than 15,000 feet, or about 3 percent of total gas production. It set a schedule for the gradual removal of prices on other gas discovered after April 1977, and left the remainder under permanent price restraint.

Q. How high will natural gas prices rise?

A. As circumstances stand today it appears that prices in some parts of the country will jump 50 percent this winter, while analysts estimate the average increase at about 20 percent. Some of the biggest increases are expected in California, Michigan and Illinois. Part of the price rise will be due to the seasonal pickup in demand for natural gas.

Q. What alternatives do gas users have?

A. To some extent consumers already are turning back to home heating oil, although the big concern of gas utilities is losing more of their industrial customers. In a scramble to retain high-volume industrial users, some utilities are asking state regulatory commissions to approve price discounts for those customers, even though consumer rates are going up.

That has created a political headache for the state regulators.

Q. What do the gas producers claim would happen if price controls were abolished?

A. Advocates of a quicker removal of gas price controls say that while prices surely would increase, they would provide the needed incentives for companies to explore for and produce more gas. In the long run, they claim, gas would be in greater supply and prices would be more stable than under a system of government controls.

Thursday Notes

Remember the Houston Astros? The team that was supposed to be battling the Dodgers of L.A. for the National West pennant? They're back, folks. You're kidding, Braves fans say.

Just when Atlanta was about to sell all those World Series tickets, here come the obnoxious Astros to the Ted Turnerland and behold, they sweep a three-game set in front of Chief Noc-a-homa and everyone.

Now it's off to finish 13 of the last 16 regular season games on the road for Atlanta. Meanwhile the Dodgers will camp out just a few miles away from Disneyland. Don't cry now, Ted. How many lucky breaks did you expect, now really?

It sure is fun picking these football games. Except when you don't know who is going to win.

Half of Texas will be in the Concho City for the San Angelo-Brownwood. It's Bobcats against Lions. Jimmy Keeling against Gordon Wood. If Angelo wins, it could be No. 1 in all the land. If Brownwood wins, well, it'll just be a normal day's talk around Underwood's.

Since the Angry Orange are the upstart team, Brownwood has to be a slight favorite. Take Angelo at home and it becomes a half-of-a-slight favorite. The Lions may not roar through this one but even a little growl will be heard over the Bobcat's meow.

Okay, running nuts, listen up.

The West Texas Running Club monthly run will be in Coahoma Oct. 2, a week earlier than planned. The distances are two and nine miles (NINE MILES!). Sherill (Long Distance) Easterling says free T-shirts will be given out to all contestants. Entry fee is $1 for members and $2 for non-members. That's pretty steep, there, Sherill.

NINE MILES!

She'll have more info on time, age divisions and course later...when she finds out that info later.

But NINE MILES!

The district football stats are out for the week.

Boy were people chuckling last week when Big Spring was standing on top of the defensive stats. "That won't last long," they said, "especially after Estacado gets through running all over them."

Well Estacado did more running to and from the dressing room than they did on the field. And so Big Spring slipped all the way to No. 2, thanks only to Midland's granite defense against highly-rated Andrews.

Big Spring has given up 265 yards total in two games, second only to the Bulldogs' 196 total. Permian has surrendered 287 to come in third.

The difference in 2-0 and 1-1 right now is mistakes that keep the Steers out of the end zone. Big Spring is just ahead of Midland at the bottom of the offensive charts.

Quarterback Adam Rodriguez is No. 12 in rushing despite a few big sacks late in the Estacado game and is third in passing behind Brent Kelley of Permian and Tommy Tarr of Cooper. He's hit 12 of 29 throws for 148 yards.

When the passing game gets going further, watch out. Robert Porras wasn't one of those guys mentioned in the pre-season stories but what a catch he made against Estacado. It should be on NFL highlights or something.

We'll how everyone stands going into district play.

One last note about football. There was joy in Lamesa this week. The Tors snapped a long 12-game losing streak that should have ended the week before against Levelland. There was joy in Forsan when the Buffs played more like what they are capable while Garden City, despite having a talented team, couldn't overcome the jinx that has plagued them against their east neighbors.

Sands has won twice, one less than all of last year and Klondike looks strong. Young Grady learned a lot and will get better while Coahoma may get win No. 1 this week after battling tough Stanton to the wire.

Greenwood is better than 0-2 and wants to right the ship this week while Colorado City gets better while playing perhaps the toughest non-district schedule of everyone.

Players announce Tuesday strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Football League Players Association will go on strike Tuesday, just two weeks into the season, unless there is a breakthrough in contract negotiations resuming Friday, union leader Ed Garvey says.

Garvey confirmed Wednesday night what sources in the NFLPA and elsewhere in the labor movement told The Associated Press earlier: that Monday night's Green Bay Packers-New York Giants game will be the last one played until a new collective bargaining agreement is reached.

The formal decision will be made by the union's nine-member executive committee at a meeting Monday in New York, Garvey said.

The first game to be affected by pro football's first regular-season strike would be Atlanta at Kansas City on Thursday.

The owners have indicated they will try to put on games despite a strike, using free agents along with any regular players who defy the union. The NFLPA has signed a contract with Ted Turner's cable television superstation, WTBS, to stage a series of makeshift all-star games.

"This is totally consistent with what we have heard all along," Jack Donlan, chief negotiator for the owners' NFL Management Council, said of the Tuesday strike date. "The NFLPA has had a master plan to strike."

He vowed that a strike will not gain the players their main goal, a salary scale based on a fixed percentage of the 28 clubs' gross revenues.

Sources who asked not to be identified told the AP that the executive committee decided earlier this week to walk out Tuesday with virtually no advance notice for fear that the players would be locked out by the owners.

Garvey, the NFLPA executive director, at first called the report premature. However, he was quoted in today's editions of The New York Times as saying later: "Our choices were to announce a strike for Tuesday or to wait a week. In any event, we were going to announce it Monday. But the sentiment is to do something sooner, if we find Friday that the owners are still not serious about bargaining."

He could not be reached late Wednesday night for comment. The operator said Garvey's telephone was off the hook.

Negotiators for the two sides last met Sept. 8, when the players rejected the owners' plan to raise minimum player salaries, ease movement of free agents and pay seniority bonuses of $10,000 per player for each year of service in the NFL, up to $60,000.

Garvey said the union would respond to that proposal point by point Friday and discuss other ideas to meet the players' concerns.

The NFLPA announced last week that any strike would come between Sept. 19 and Oct. 3, the second and fourth weekends of the season. Garvey said Sunday that it probably would be Sept. 26 or Oct. 3.

One union source said the Tuesday deadline should come as no surprise because "striking with little or no notice will apply the maximum pressure needed to win our demands."

The owners have steadfastly refused to negotiate on the players' demand that the NFL divert 55 percent of its gross income to a trust fund that would pay player salaries on a seniority-based scale with performance incentive bonuses.

"When the strike is over there will be no percentage of gross. And the offer on the table will be substantially reduced by the amount of money the owners lose in a strike," Donlan said Wednesday night.

He said the owners' proposal last week was close to their final one.

There has been no progress since the NFLPA and the management council began negotiations on a new collective bargaining agreement in February. The old, five-year pact expired July 15.

In its effort to win support, the NFLPA has spent months aligning with the AFL-CIO, the nation's largest labor federation.

Union officials say more than 90 percent of the league's 1,500 players support the union in a strike. But a small minority, including such stars as quarterbacks Terry Bradshaw of Pittsburgh and Joe Montana of San Francisco, has broken ranks with the union leadership.

Seattle quarterback Jim Zorn and wide receiver Steve Largent said they would not strike "because we feel that we personally would not be serving or honoring God in a strike."

Montana and kicker Ray Wersching of the San Francisco 49ers quit the NFLPA, saying they couldn't support the union's percentage-of-gross-revenues demand.

"What it amounts to is a lot of players like me would be taking pay cuts," said Montana, the most valuable player in last January's Super Bowl who is in the first year of a four-year contract that will pay him $400,000 annually.

Garvey discounted reports of union dissent.

"There are those who might have structured their demands differently," he said. "You are always going to get a few who think that they would do better individually than they would be trying to help the group."

Bills concerned with Vikings new offense

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (AP) — Despite quarterback Tommy Kramer's passing prowess, the Minnesota Vikings' offense is looking for a more balanced attack this season, leaving the Buffalo Bills with a little more to worry about.

Minnesota, which achieved just that last Sunday in beating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, will once again try to prove its backfield can run as well as catch when the Vikings meet the Bills at 8:30 p.m. EDT at Rich Stadium in a nationally televised game.

Last Sunday against Tampa Bay in their 1982 National Football League opener, the Vikes rushed for 101 yards and a touchdown and passed for 115 yards in beating the Bucs 17-10.

Last year, Kramer threw for 3,912 yards — the Vikes' pass offense ranked second in the NFL — and Minnesota picked up three yards in the air for every yard gained on the ground.

"We went in this year with the idea of opening up the run," said Ahmad Rashad, Minnesota's all-time leading receiver.

Ted Brown, the fourth-year veteran, rushed for 1,063 yards last year and once again is Minnesota's leading rusher. He caught 83 passes.

Great things also are expected of rookie Darrin Nelson, the first-round pick from Stanford.

"He's as good as any new back I've seen in the 11 years I've been in the league," Rashad said.

"Nelson is going to turn that 5-or-6-yard completion into an 80-yard run at the end," Bills' Coach Chuck Knox said. "He's to their team what Joe Cribbs is to ours. He's dynamite."

Cribbs, an All-Pro his two years with the Bills, is holding out for a new contract and won't play tonight.

Minnesota, which finished 7-9 last year, showed indications of improvement in several areas besides running against Tampa Bay. The Vikes held the Bucs, NFC Central champs last year, to just 65 yards rushing, and they intercepted three passes. The offensive line also opened holes for Brown and Nelson and didn't allow a sack.

"We come at you so many ways," Rashad said.

Buffalo also won Sunday, edging Kansas City 14-9. The Bills' defense came up with three sacks and an interception, but the running game never really got untracked.

Buffalo's starting backfield consists of an aging veteran, Roosevelt Leaks; and a fullback-turned-halfback, Curtis Brown.

At backup, rookie Booker Moore lines up with Arthur Whittington, the halfback picked up on waivers from Oakland. In the wings are two players released by other teams, Ted McKnight and Allan Clark, and three injured players from last year.

McKnight was Kansas City's leading rusher in 1979 and 1980. He underwent a knee operation last year and spent most of the season on injured reserve.

Clark was released by New England.

4-AAAAA Picks

By GREG JAKLEWICZ
Sports Editor

Big Spring at Levelland — In the stats and on the field, the Steers showed they could contain a speedy Estacado team last Friday in Memorial. Steers must cut down on the mistakes that cost them dearly in last outing. Loboos are 2-0 under former Permian head coach Gene Mayfield. Levelland picked for middle of pack in District 1-AAAA but early signs are that the Loboos may be more improved than at first thought. Steers offense is getting in high gear and defense has been tough for eight quarters. Look for mistakes to clear up and Big Spring go into district play 2-1. (Game time 8 p.m.) BIG SPRING 20, LEVELLAND 6

Longview at Abilene High — Longview won this game last year but has just nine lettermen back. Abilene is hot, hot after Sweetwater bypassed them for upset win last week in the Bowl. Eagles are always tough at home and Longview may be wishing this game wasn't this week. Ron Lewis will make the difference. ABILENE 21, LONGVIEW 14

Cooper at Temple — The Coogs seem to be going again after tangling with Brownwood in season opener. Allen Gunter and Michael T. Royals are dynamite and Coogs play that good defense too. Temple was a bi-district champ last year and lost a few players but is still projected second in district (behind highly-regarded Bryan). Wildcats get nod on home turf. TEMPLE 24, COOPER 14

O.D. Wyatt at Permian — Last week's guess here was 30-6, Mojo...final score was 32-6...but then, again, it's easy to figure out what Permian does every week...Wyatt isn't too strong this year. Mojo is home in new stadium and they have big offense. Go, Mojo, go. PERMIAN 35, WYATT 8

Odessa at Hobbs, N.M. — What does Hobbs have? Don't no much except the home team is 2-0 and hasn't given up a point yet. Broncos are playing good defense, too, giving up only two touchdowns in two games...this one will be a defensive struggle with Hobbs handing the Broncos their first loss...but just barely. HOBBS 17, ODESSA 6

Estacado at Midland — Boy did Andrews learn a lesson in defense last week...the supposedly rebuilding Bulldogs are Junkyard Dogs on defense...defense stopped Estacado last Friday although the Mats flashed breakaway threats against Big Spring...good defense will stop a good offense, so...MIDLAND 18, ESTACADO 8

Midland Lee at EP Eastwood — Eastwood has gone 9-1 twice in last two years and is itching for district crown...Lee is 2-0 on the season and looking good...nod here goes again with the home team with just a little bit more talent back. EASTWOOD 21, LEE 17

Brownwood at SA Central — You want me to pick this game? Jimmy the Greek wouldn't touch it...No. 3 AAAAA San Angelo hosting No. 1 AAAAA Brownwood...there isn't enough seats in West Texas to seat everyone that will watch this one...both teams are 2-0...both have good offense...both have good defenses. Eemie-moemie-minee-moie, the Lions are the way I'll go. BROWNWOOD 21, SAN ANGELO 17

LAST WEEK: 5 right, 3 wrong — 62.5 percent
SEASON: 13 right, 3 wrong — 81.2 percent

Twins topple Rangers; Brews, O's hold tight

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota pitcher Bobby Castillo says he works better as a starter than as a reliever. And he proved it by winning a spot in the Twins' starting rotation for the 1983 season.

"I think I've earned the right to start again next year," Castillo said after hurling the Twins to a 10-2 victory over the Texas Rangers Wednesday night.

Texas third baseman Buddy Bell, a .300 hitter who went 0-4 Wednesday night, said Castillo has "the best screw ball in the league."

"We don't see that many right-handed screw balls and he was tough tonight with his control and other stuff," Bell said of Castillo.

Gary Gaetti belted four hits and Lenny Faedo drove in three runs to spark Minnesota's 15-hit attack behind Castillo's six-hitter.

Castillo, 10-11, saw his streak of 20 2-3 scoreless innings snapped in the sixth inning on a two-run triple by Jim Sundberg.

Loser Frank Tanana, 6-18, lasted until the fifth, when the Twins scored three runs for a 6-0 lead.

Minnesota got a first-inning run on a double by John Castino, who had three hits, and a single by Kent Hrbek, one of his three hits. The Twins also picked up single runs in the third on a leadoff triple by Bobby Mitchell and a single by Castino, and in the fourth on Faedo's RBI double.

Castino opened the fifth with a triple and after a walk to Tom Brunansky, was singled by home by Hrbek. Both Brunansky and Hrbek later scored on Gaetti's single.

American League

Orioles 8, Yankees 5

Dave Winfield and Roy Salley are on a home run binge for the New York Yankees — but the defending American League champions aren't getting much relief from their bullpen these days.

For the fourth straight game Wednesday night, the Yankee bullpen blew a lead and the result was an 8-5 loss to the charging Baltimore Orioles, who won their 23rd game in the last 27.

Brewers 5, Tigers 3

Roy Howell drove in three runs with a double and a single to lead Milwaukee over Detroit.

Howell's RBI double featured a two-run second inning and his two-run single in the fifth provided the Brewers with a 5-2 lead.

Milwaukee starter Pete Vuckovich, 17-4, went 7-1-3 in innings, allowing 11 hits before getting relief help. Dwight Bernard finished up for his fifth save.

Royals 5, Mariners 4

Steve Hammond lined a one-out, bases-loaded single off first baseman Jim Malar's glove in the 11th inning to carry Kansas City over Seattle.

White Sox 8, Angels 3

Dan Quisenberry, 8-5, gained the victory in relief, pitching the final three innings. Quisenberry aided his cause by picking two Mariners runners off first base.

Vance Law stroked a two-run triple to highlight a five-run fourth inning as Chicago defeated California and snapped the Angels' five-game winning streak. Law's triple in the fourth knocked out Geoff Zahn, 16-8, and gave the White Sox a 5-1 lead at the time.

Jerry Koonsman, 9-6, allowed two runs and seven hits over the six innings he worked before being relieved by Warren Brusstar.

Indians 7, Red Sox 3

Andre Thornton drove in three runs with a homer and a single and Larry Milbourne and Ron Hassey collected three hits apiece, leading Cleveland over Boston.

Len Barker and Dan Spillner combined to check the Red Sox on five hits and just one earned run. Barker, 13-11, went the first six innings before Spillner came on to earn his 19th save.

Blue Jays 3-12, A's 2-11

A pair of Oakland errors allowed Damaso Garcia and Al Woods to score in the seventh inning and Luis Leal scattered four hits in 7-3 innings as Toronto downed the A's in the first game of their doubleheader. Dave Baker, atoning for three errors, drove home Garth Iorg from second with a one-out single in the ninth inning to give the Blue Jays the victory in the second game.

Astro spoilers bop Braves again

ATLANTA (AP) — "We don't have a whole lot to look forward to except playing the role as spoiler," Houston Astro Manager Bob Lillis said after his team swept a three game series from the pennant contending Atlanta Braves.

While Lillis now looks forward to doing the same to Los Angeles later this week, Atlanta Braves players envision better times ahead.

"We've played well on the road all year," said Bob Horner after Wednesday night's 5-4 loss to the Astros. "Now, we have to, for we play 13 of our last 16 games on the road. We are running out of days and weeks, and we are already out of months."

The loss of the third straight to Houston finished a critical homestand for Atlanta and left them with only four wins in the last ten games. But Horner said the Braves' latest slump "shouldn't bother us too much. We've come back before and we can do it again."

Horner's two-run homer in the eighth inning pulled the Braves to within a run, but Astro reliever Dave Smith held Atlanta in the ninth for his 11th save.

However, most of the aggressiveness Wednesday night in Atlanta came from Astro shortstop Dickie Thon, whose three-run double in the seventh against reliever Donnie Moore put them ahead for good.

Before Thon's drive just fair down the right field line, the score was 2-2. Tommy Boggs, 2-2, surrendered a single to Alan Ashby to lead off the seventh.

After moving to second on Danny Heep's grounder, Ashby was thrown out at third on a grounder by Bill Doran. But pitcher Nolan Ryan was safe on second baseman Glenn Hubbard's fielding error and Terry Puhl walked, loading the bases.

Dodgers 5, Padres 0

They call Burt Hooton "Happy," yet this has been anything but a happy year for the 32-year-old right-hander.

Hooton underwent knee surgery on June 21, missed six weeks and only now is recapturing the form which has made him a mainstay of the Los Angeles Dodgers pitching staff. On Wednesday night, Hooton indicated that the remaining aches and pains are a minor annoyance as he blanked the San Diego Padres 5-0 on three hits. The Dodgers' sixth straight victory upped their National League West lead to 2½ games over Atlanta, which lost 10-2 to Houston.

It was Hooton's second shutout of the season, but his first since April 29. In his eight starts since his surgery, he has allowed 12 earned runs in 49 innings, a 2.20 earned run average.

Expos 6, Mets 2

Andre Dawson, another player plagued by injury, ripped his 20th homer of the season in the 11th to lift the Expos over the Mets. Montreal is two games behind St. Louis in the East, but just a half-game in back of second-place Philadelphia.

Chris Speier cleared the bases with a three-run triple in the seventh to aid the Montreal cause.

Cardinals 8, Phillies 0

If anyone had doubts about the Cardinals' pitching, all they needed was to see the performances St. Louis' hurlers put on in Philadelphia this week. Joaquin Andujar threw a three-hitter Wednesday for his fifth shutout of the season as the Cardinals grabbed a 1½-game lead over Philadelphia in the NL East. It was the second straight shutout for St. Louis — John Stuper and Bruce Sutter combined on one Tuesday — and the Cards surrendered only two runs in losing to Steve Carlton on Monday. George Hendrick had a two-run single and two sacrifice flies for St. Louis.

Cubs 7, Pirates 2

The Cubs used the longball to subdue Pittsburgh as Jody Davis smashed a three-run homer and Keith Moreland and Leon Durham added solo shots. Ferguson Jenkins gave up 11 hits in posting his 275th career victory, good for 20th on the all-time list.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Plan carefully how best to handle work in the near future and then you get good results. Personal goals can be attained now.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Make the arrangements now for social and recreational activities in the future. Show others you have wisdom.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Good day to get your home in fine condition. Talk over your ideas with associates and gain their cooperation.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Make constructive plans that could give you more abundance in the future. Adopt a more practical outlook on life.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Make sure you get a monetary deal handled intelligently and satisfactorily today. Take no risks with your reputation now.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Going after personal aims is wise now since you can easily gain them. Show closest tie that you are really devoted.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You are now able to garner the information you want that has been difficult to get in the past. Put it to good use.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Put those ideas across to friends that will brighten their future as well as your own. Show that you have poise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan just how you can expand in career activities in the future. Bring your finest talents to the attention of higher-ups.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get busy studying new philosophies and other interests that could be useful to you. Express happiness.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Discuss the future with loved one and come to a fine agreement. Steer clear of a group meeting today. Be wise.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will get along well with others and it behooves you to give the best education you can afford in preparation for a most successful life. Spiritual training is important early in life. A good marriage is indicated here.

TIPS FOR ENERGY SAVERS
How to Save Electricity Before It Comes To You
During late afternoon and early evening hours, the load on the nation's electrical systems usually reaches its peak. To meet the heavy demand, electric utilities often must use back-up generating equipment that is not energy efficient.
Try to use energy-intensive appliances such as dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers, and electric ovens in the early morning or late evening hours to help reduce that peak load.
This energy-saving tip is brought to you by the classified advertising department in the interest of energy conservation.
To buy, sell, trade or rent, place your ad in the classified section.

UT finally starts play

The season opener is finally here for the defending Cotton Bowl champion Texas Longhorns, who have been most restless to start the season.

Two Longhorn players had to be disciplined for taking liberties with a stop sign and linebacker Jeff Leiding hurt himself trying to hurdle a chain blocking a driveway.

"We didn't think the season would ever get here," said Longhorn Coach Fred Akers, who leads his 18th-ranked team against Utah in Austin Saturday night.

Texas was a 10-point favorite over the Utes, who have already played two games, beating Montana State 30-12 and losing to Arizona State 23-10 after leading 10-6 at halftime.

In other games involving SWC teams, Arizona State at Houston was rated a pick 'em affair; Texas Tech was a seven-point favorite in Jones Stadium over the Air Force; Arkansas was a 17-point nod over Navy in Little Rock; Kansas was a seven-point choice over Texas Christian in Lawrence, Kan.; Texas A&M was a three touchdown selection over Texas-Arlington at College Station; Tulane was a seven-point favorite over Rice in New Orleans; and No. 6 ranked Southern Methodist was a prohibitive favorite over Texas-El Paso which lost 55-0 to Washington last week.

Baylor will be idle after almost upsetting Ohio State last week before falling 21-14.

Leading will play for Texas although he cut his face trying the high jump.

Texas will need him to help stop Carl Monroe, an exciting running back who returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown against Montana State.

The Longhorns' tailback, John Walker, suffered a knee injury suffered in spring training and will be ready to go.

It will be the first meeting between the two schools.

The only other times SMU played Texas-El Paso came when the Miners were known as the Texas School of Mines and Metallurgy. SMU won 26-0 in a special 1932 post-season exhibition game played in El Paso.

SMU won again 27-6 in 1933 on the opening day of the State Fair of Texas at the Cotton Bowl.

Tailback Craig James said the Mustangs won't be taking the Miners for granted.

"You've got to play every game like you are in a street fight, tough and hard every play," James said.

Quarterback Lance McIlhenny agreed, saying "I don't care what their record is or what they've done in the past. All I know is that I want to come out of there 2-0. They stand in our way of doing that. We're going to play hard and do our best."

The SWC stands 3-4 against outside competition going into Saturday's full slate of games.

Rockets have chance at obtaining Sampson

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers, perennial playoff contenders, may have found the big rebounder they need to win a National Basketball Association championship in center Moses Malone, last season's Most Valuable Player.

The Houston Rockets, who traded the 6-foot-10 free agent to Philadelphia on Wednesday, are looking toward the future... specifically, the future of the Cleveland Cavaliers and possibility of getting two-time college basketball player of the year Ralph Sampson of Virginia.

Houston sent Malone — who had signed a six-year, $12.7 million offer sheet with Philadelphia on Sept. 2 — to the 76ers for 7-foot forward Caldwell Jones and Philadelphia's first-round pick in the 1983 college draft. That first-round pick was acquired by Philadelphia from Cleveland in a 1977 trade for the late Terry Furlow, meaning the Rockets will now draft in Cleveland's spot.

"Cleveland won 15 games last year and the club closest to them had 31 victories, so the law of averages suggests Cleveland will not finish very high (in 1982-83)," said Houston General Manager Ray Patterson.

The Rockets hope to use that pick to draft either the 7-foot-4 Sampson or possibly 7-foot Georgetown center Pat Ewing, if he chose to pass up his last two years of college eligibility.

"We're capable of winning a championship, but everybody's got to play together and everybody's got to work hard," Malone said at a press conference in Philadelphia.

Malone, 28, a five-time All-Star and two-time MVP, said he thought he would fit in well with Philadelphia's fast-break style, rather than Houston's deliberate offense.

"I think I'll be a better player with a team that runs," he said.

Malone has been one of the top centers in the NBA since coming to the league in 1976. He is considered one of the best rebounders in league history.

Last season, Malone played in 81 games and averaged 31.1 points, second in the league, and better than 14 rebounds per game, best in the NBA. He handed out 142 assists.

Jones, 32, played six years with the 76ers and averaged 7.2 rebounds per game.

The trade ended a dispute over the multimillion dollar offer sheet signed by Malone, who has been with five teams during an eight-year pro career.

Houston, which had until Sept. 18 to match the offer, claimed that the offer contained illegal provisions aimed only at making the Rockets pay more to keep Malone. NBA Commissioner Larry O'Brien and the Rockets challenged the agreement.

Special arbitrator Kingman Brewster, who oversees the Robertson Agreement that covers the movement of free agents, on Monday invalidated one clause and was to have ruled on four others by Monday. O'Brien approved the trade Wednesday and allowed two of the provisions to remain.

Harold Katz, owner of the 76ers, said negotiations for Malone began on Sunday and ended at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

"They wanted more than Caldwell (Jones) and the draft choice," Katz told reporters. "I finally told them that was it. Either it's a deal today (Wednesday) or no deal."

Floyd needs Hall of Fame to jump into money race

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Ray Floyd faces a must-win situation this week in the $250,000 Hall of Fame Classic, a lame-duck event that will drop off the PGA Tour schedule next year.

"It's obvious that I must win at least once more to have a chance," Floyd said of his uphill struggle to overtake Craig Stadler on golf's money-winning list.

The veteran Floyd, enjoying one of the finest seasons of his two-decade career, is the favorite in a 156-man field that includes only two of the year's top 10 money winners.

But even a victory here would not do it for Floyd. He trails Stadler by $54,492 with only five more official events remaining on the schedule this season.

First prize in this tournament, which got underway today on the 7,005 yard, par-71 No. 2 course at the Pinehurst Country Club course, is $45,000.

Ayala gains delay from technicality

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — The defense invoked a legal technicality today to win a five-week delay in the state's attempt to revoke the probation of junior middleweight boxer Tony Ayala Jr.

Ayala, 19, had been scheduled for a hearing today after his Aug. 15 arrest on a burglary charge.

State District Judge Mike Machado granted the delay until Oct. 25.

Stadler, who counts the Masters and World Series of Golf among his four titles this season, is not competing this week. He has $441,301 in winnings. Floyd, with $386,809, can't catch him in this tournament. But only a victory will give him a chance. Anything less would virtually eliminate him from the race for the title he calls "one of my goals."

And, he said, his chances of making up some ground are very good.

"You can't say you're going to win any particular tournament," said Floyd, who has three 1982 victories including the PGA. "There are too many factors that enter into it to do that."

"But I'm playing very well, very well indeed. I've played well for the past three years. I fully expect to play well here."

Floyd, a former winner of this title, faces a field that includes Jerry Pate, U.S. seniors champion Miller Barber, Andy Bean and defending title-holder Morris Hatalsky. Also included are 1982 Tour title-winners Ed Sneed, Tim Morris, Payne Stewart and Ed Fiori.

The tournament, a fixture on the PGA schedule for the past 10 years, will be replaced next season by a $1 million, 5-day event in Las Vegas. Pinehurst and the Hall of Fame will sponsor a seniors tournament.

Attorney to aid city

By CAROL DANIEL
Staff Writer

The Big Spring City Council agreed last night to hire an attorney to assist with two lawsuits claiming more than $2.5 million damages against the city. The council also agreed in their regular meeting to join 12 counties to form a regional housing finance corporation.

In a called executive session, council members named George Staples of Hurst as special counsel to City Attorney Doyle Curtis to assist with the lawsuits. Chamblee vs. the City and Priddy vs. the City were filed in 118th District Court in August.

Staples will be employed on an hourly basis until litigation is complete, City Manager Don Davis said. The hourly pay rate was not disclosed. Chamblee vs. the City claims $2 million damages against Big Spring and Big Spring police officer Dean Boyd, resulting from an Oct. 14, 1981 automobile collision between the policeman's patrol car and a vehicle driven by Raven Sheree Chamblee.

Priddy vs. the City asks for a total of $55,024.75, charging city employee Ernesto Rodriguez with negligence in a collision between a city pick-up truck driven by Rodriguez and Virgil Priddy's vehicle on March 23, 1982.

The council also approved the creation of Permian Basin Housing Finance Corp., making the city eligible for low-interest, tax-free housing loans should funds become available.

The HFC — uniting 12 counties and the city of Big Spring — would be a non-profit regional housing finance corporation which would issue mortgage revenue bonds (MRBs) on the local governments' behalf. The proceeds would finance low-interest loans for single-family home buyers.

Middle-income (about $29,000 yearly income) home-buyers should be able to obtain loans at about 13 percent on a 30-year mortgage, Assistant City Administrator Bill Hall said. Hall is the appointed representative for Big Spring on the HFC Board of Directors.

Funds generated through bond sales will probably be held at a central point and administered through Savings and Loans on a first-come, first-serve basis to each entity, Hall said.

Although there are 17 counties in the Permian Basin, only 12 expressed interest in the HFC, Hall said. Big Spring was the only city above 20,000 population and eligible for its own HFC. Odessa and Midland already have successful corporations, Hall said.

Hall said the consolidation of the 13 entities into a single HFC should generate about $33.7 million worth of tax-exempt bonds. Any funds will be allocated between the 13 entities shortly after January, 1983, Hall said.

Agreement from the 13 entities to form the HFC and successful application for incorporation is needed to create the regional HFC. Howard County commissioners approved it Tuesday. County Judge Bill Tune was named to serve as Howard County's representative on the board.

City Manager Don Davis said Price Construction Co. submitted a tentative progress schedule for capital improvements in the city. Paving behind curbs on Wasson Road, such as driveways, should be finished today or tomorrow; Wasson Road, from Randolph to Parkway, should be paved Friday or Saturday; and Washington Place street repairs should begin Monday, Sept. 27.

The east entrance to the Airpark on 16th will be closed tomorrow and for about two or three weeks while workers reconstruct the entrance, Davis said. Other entrances will remain open.

In other action the council:

- Passed on first reading an ordinance to levy Wasson Road property owners for curb and gutter construction. Notices will be sent to property owners on completion of the job, Davis said. Owners will be assessed $6.40 per linear foot, with eight percent interest and a three to five year payback limit, Davis said.

- Agreed to allow the YMCA to use Johnny Stone Field as a soccer field on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sunday afternoons. The YMCA will pay all maintenance and electrical costs.

- Gave permission to seek bids for city employee uniforms, although uniforms will be purchased only as needed until the city receives its tax dollars for the general fund.

- Granted a specific-use permit to Amelia Farrar to run a preschool day care center and kindergarten at 1200 Runnels.

- Honored three city employees with service awards. Sewage treatment employee Manuel Cervantes received a 30 year pin and a plaque, general maintenance welder Robert Alvarez received a 20 year pin and Police Sgt. J.D. Carter received a 10 year pin.

- Heard the final reading of a resolution granting a lease to R.E. McClure for building 1014, a residence on the golf course.

- Heard the first reading of a resolution granting a lease to Mullins Equipment Co. to lease Industrial Park building 5, 43 acres of unimproved land, 61 acres of improved ramp area and five rooms on the second floor of building 1106.

Animal events to highlight fair

The 1982 Howard County Fair is sponsoring a number of animal shows this year which gives the area 4-H and FFA youth a chance to show off the product of many hours of hard work and effort.

Next Wednesday the fair's animal shows kick off with a jackpot lamb show and a goat show. Chairmen of the event, Lynn Walling and Charles Phillips, said the lambs must be in the show barn by 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 20 and a weigh-in and tagging will begin at 8 a.m. the next day.

County Fair '82

Judging gets underway at 9 a.m. Wednesday and lambs will be shown by the following breeds: finewool, finewool cross and medium wool. Exhibitors must be between 8-19 years old and be a 4-H or FFA member.

A $250 prize will be guaranteed to the grand champion lamb and $100 will go to the reserve grand champion. Other prize money will be prorated in all classes according to the number of rules.

The goat show, which has been a weak point in the past, hopes to gain more entries this year with Dennis Poole.

Traffic case dismissals explained

By MIKE DOWNEY
Staff Writer

"Case dismissed" — Why are appeals of city traffic violations dismissed so often in county court? Why are so many appeals made to county court? Who is responsible?

County Attorney Bob Miller, who is responsible for prosecuting county cases, says the problem is twofold concerning the appeals from city municipal court. One is the number of appeals. "How many are you going to do?" Miller said. "The physical capacity (of the court) can not handle that many."

During pre-trial hearings in county court Tuesday, 73 of the 132 cases were appeals of traffic violations. County Court Coordinator Mike Barton estimated if the county tried all the appeal cases — at $15 a juror and a maximum $200 fine — the court would only realize about $5 per case.

The real reason for so many dismissals is the number of technical errors in the appeals themselves, Miller said. He will not prosecute cases that will just be thrown out by the court anyway, he said. "If the technicalities exist, we don't have any choice but to dismiss," the county attorney said. "What choice do we have?"

A review of approximately 47 recent technically-defective appeal cases in county court reveals most of the cases from municipal court will be dismissed because of dates. One example is a speeding violation with the judgment of guilt dated July 23 while the sworn complaint charging the person with the offense is dated Aug. 11.

"How can you be found guilty of something before you are charged with it?" Barton said. Other cases had problems such as the appeal bond being dated before the judgment or the complaint. Some cases lacked the actual seal of the notary public; some lacked proper signatures; one case was dated "the July day of 31, 1982."

One case showed the complaint had been sworn to by the arresting officer nine days after he was found guilty by the municipal court. Another case on July 22nd stated a person was guilty of following too closely behind a vehicle driven by himself.

Barton said the appeals placed extra work on the county clerk's office, particularly when the cases would have to be dismissed anyway. The problem appeals also affected another party, Barton said. "It's unfair to the police because they're out there doing their jobs."

City Attorney Doyle Curtis had not been aware of any problems with the technical nature of the complaints and judgments, but said it was "common knowledge" the appeals were not prosecuted in county court. "I never see many of these appeals," Curtis said. "The only ones I see are the ones I try."

However, Curtis said he had just been made aware of possible errors in municipal court. "Apparently, we have some problems," Curtis said. Curtis, who has only been city attorney for less than three months, said he intended to eliminate the problem if one existed.

"I intend to get the cases done right in a professional manner," Curtis said. "I intend to visit with the municipal judge (Peace Justice Bobby West) and the clerk of the court."

Asked about the 47 appeals to be dismissed due to technicalities, Curtis replied: "There shouldn't be that many errors. If they (the appeal cases) are in that shape, nobody could prosecute them. It's our fault. I want to straighten it out."

But Curtis said the overall difficulty with the appeals may stem from another source. "Maybe the reason it's happening is the attitude of the county attorney saying he's not going to prosecute appeals," Curtis said. The feeling may be that no matter how good a job is done in municipal court, the case will just be dismissed, Curtis said.

Stenholm hosts dinner for Shaw

Congressman Charles Stenholm is hosting a "Fall Fiesta" in honor of State Rep. Larry Don Shaw on Saturday, Sept. 18 from 7-10 p.m. at Dora Roberts Community Center.

Keeping with the annual Diez y Seis Mexican celebration (Mexican Independence Day), the event will include a dinner of Mexican delights and festive music. A number of other dignitaries, including fellow representatives, will attend.

All interested in meeting Rep. Shaw and his supporters are urged to attend the affair. Tickets are $12.50 per person or $25 a family. For more information call 263-7396.

CHAMBER KICKS OFF FAIR — The Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring two events at the 1982 Howard County Fair. Tuesday the chamber will lead a tour of the McDonald horse farm at 8 a.m. and then return to the fair barn for a free barbecue meal at 11 a.m. Tickets for the tour and luncheon must be picked up in advance at the chamber office by Friday. Pictured left to right are Travis Floyd, Pete Jones and LeRoy Tillery.

Hall-Bennett names Nurse of the Month

Troy Jones, a Licensed Vocational Nurse at Hall-Bennett Hospital, recently was selected as the Nurse of the Month at that facility.

"I was completely flabbergasted when I was told by the hospital administrator that my fellow co-workers had selected me as the Nurse of the Month for September," Jones said. "Although I am completely outnumbered by my female counterparts, I am very proud to join their ranks."

Jones is a 1976 graduate of Howard College's school of vocational nursing. Charles A. Weeg, administrator at Hall-Bennett, said Jones' dedication to his work, his church, his community and to his patients were instrumental in Jones winning the honor.

Baby shower honors mother-to-be

Mrs. Bobby Bradberry was honored with a baby shower September 9 in the Fellowship Hall of Calvary Baptist Church.

Hostesses for the event were Vera Hipp, Mami Madry, Peggy Vernon, Odell LaLonde and Darlene Hipp. The hostesses presented Mrs. Bradberry with a corsage made of yellow baby socks.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated with green and yellow accessories.

Special guests were the honoree's mother Elizabeth Smith, her sister Lisa Smith and her "Grannie" Largent, all of Big Spring.

Baby Bradberry is expected to arrive Oct. 22.

Mindlings honored for anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mindling were honored on their 25th anniversary with a reception in their home Aug. 24. It was hosted by Josie ding and Mike Mindling. The couple has lived in Big Spring three years. Mindling retired from the Air Force while at Webb AFB. He is employed by Oilfield Industrial Lines. In their spare time, the couple enjoys craft work and gardening.

Mindling and Mary Williams. The Mindlings have four children: Chris Mindling, Josie Mindling, Nick Min-

Member presents

The Big Spring Music Study Club held its first meeting this club year in the home of Mrs. Marjorie Dodson. Mrs. Jeanine Fishback co-hosted.

Mrs. Maureen Haddad, vice president, presided. Mrs. JoAnne Bonnington became a new member during the meeting.

ABWA chapter to hold fund raising project

The Scenic Chapter of American Business Women's Association will sponsor a Coke Booth at the Howard County Fair Sept. 20-25th, according to Audrey Wilson, Ways and Means chairman.

The booth will be open from early afternoon to 10 p.m. Members will be wearing bright gold sun visors with the letters ABWA printed on the bill.

Monies raised will go toward the Chapter's educational fund which provides scholarships for women on a local and national level.

Club drapes charter

The Gold Star Mothers Chapter Charter was draped in memory of deceased member Lucille Jacobs during their meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. A.W. Moody. The charter was draped by Mrs. Truitt Thomas, chaplain, who was assisted by Mrs. Moody.

The members had a covered-dish luncheon during the meeting with Mrs. Melvena Moore and Mrs. Lena Blanton, both of San Antonio, hosting Mrs. Lupe Dominguez, director of volunteers at Veteran's Administration Medical Center, and her secretary, Carlene Wood, were special guests.

Fifty-five patients were served coffee and cake at the VAMC Sept. 9 with Mrs. Herbert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Moody serving. Twenty-one vases of flowers, 37 trays of food and 15 visits to shut-ins and friends, 21 courtesy trips, and $155 given for memorials and donations to charity were reported.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 14 in the home of Mrs. E.L. Perkins at 1700 Lancaster.

Fair worker shares favorite recipes

Although she is busily preparing for the Howard County Fair, which kicks off Monday, Nell Burgess took some time out to share some of her favorite recipes with the Recipe Exchange.

Mrs. Burgess joins a number of women working in the Women's Division, the largest division in the fair. She is serving as adult clothing chairman of the event this year, and as such is in charge of displaying a variety of clothing entered in various categories such as infant wear, children's wear, women's wear, and men's wear.

Mrs. Burgess and a number of other women also have been working to put together the Howard County Fair Cookbook, which is available at the County Extension Agent's Office in the Howard County Courthouse, and will be on sale at the Fair. The cookbook will include blue ribbon winners from past fairs.

Below are some of Mrs. Burgess's favorite recipes.

COCONUT-OATMEAL COOKIES

- Nell Burgess
1 cup Crisco
1 cup sugar
1 cup brown sugar (light)
2 eggs, beaten
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
2 cups flour
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. soda
2 cups oatmeal (dry)
2 cup nuts, if desired
1 cup or can flake coconut

Mix ingredients in order as listed. Drop by teaspoon on greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for eight to 10 minutes.

NELL'S NUTTI BARS

- Nell Burgess
1 cup brown sugar
5 Tbsp. flour
1/4 tsp. soda
1 cup chopped pecans
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
2 Tbsp. oleo
Powdered sugar

Melt oleo in 8x8x2 inch pan. In small bowl, mix brown sugar, flour, soda and pecans. In large bowl, beat eggs. Stir in brown sugar mixture and vanilla. Pour over the melted oleo in pan. Do not stir. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from oven. Let cool slightly. Cut in bars and sprinkle with sifted powdered sugar. Makes about 18 bars.

MOTHER'S BAKELESS CAKE

- Nell Burgess
3 egg whites, beaten stiff
1 cup sugar
1 stick oleo, melted
1 small can (No. 2) crushed pineapple drained
1 lb. vanilla wafers
1 cup pecans
Beat eggs. Add sugar, oleo, vanilla. Mix. Add pineapple and pecans. Mix well. Place layer of vanilla wafers in bowl, then mixture, then layer of wafer, layers of mixture. Layer of wafers on top. Place in refrigerator and let set for at least six hours or overnight.

ORANGE MERINGUE PIE

- Nell Burgess
1 1/2 cup sugar
3 Tbsp. cornstarch
2 pinches salt
2 cups orange juice (frozen mixed as directed on can)
Cook above ingredients until thick, stirring constantly.
Add:
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
Pour slowly into above mixture while cooking. Mix well. Remove from heat.
Add:
3 tablespoons oleo
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Mix well. Pour into 10 minute baked crust.
Meringue: Mix 3 egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar, 6 tablespoons sugar. Beat until stiff. Add 1/4 tsp. vanilla. Bake 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

CHESS PIE

- Nell Burgess
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 level Tbsp. flour
1 1/2 sticks oleo
3 eggs
1 teas. vanilla
Beat eggs well. Mix sugar and flour. Add to eggs. Mix well. Add melted oleo. Mix. Add vanilla. Mix well. Pour into 9-inch unbaked pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees until golden brown, about 1 hour.

HAMBURGER BIRD

Nell Burgess

- 1 lb. hamburger
1 cup fine bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
Juice of one lemon
1/2 cup grated American cheese or longhorn
1 green pepper, chopped fine
2 Tbsp. chopped stuffed olives
1 tsp. salt
2 Tbsp. chopped pimento
Form ingredients into six rolls, wrap a strip of bacon around each roll, and sear in deep fat. Put in covered baking dish with 1/2 cup water and bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Serves six.

BEEF JERKY

- Nell Burgess
1 1/4 lb. flank steak
1/2 tsp. liquid smoke
Dash tabasco sauce
Garlic powder or pepper
1/2 cup soy sauce
1/4 tsp. lemon pepper
Marinate 3 hours. Bake at 140 degrees for 11 hours. Cut steak with grain.

SQUASH CASSEROLE

- Nell Burgess
1 lb. hamburger, browned
4 med. sized squash, boiled, seasoned with butter, drained
Stove Top dressing crumbs
Mix in bowl:
1 can cream of chicken soup, undiluted
1 small carton sour cream

1 package herbs from dressing.
Moisten stove top dressing crumbs with butter. Layer in casserole: layer of crumbs, 1/2 layer of meat, layer of squash, layer of cream. Spread rest of crumbs over top. Bake at 425 degrees for 20 minutes.

YEAST PAN ROLLS

- Nell Burgess
Dissolve one yeast cake or

pkg. in 1/4 cup luke warm water.

Sift four cups flour
Mix in large bowl:
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup shortening
1 cup water
1 unbeaten egg
Stir in yeast. Add flour and 1/4 cup scalded milk alternately. Mix well. Knead on floured surface until dough is smooth and feels springy. Put in greased bowl, turn dough once to bring greased side up. Cover and let stand until double in size; about 2 hours. Shape dough into balls, place 1/4 inches apart in tightly greased oleo pans, or two loaf pans. Cover and let stand in warm place again until double in size. Bake at 350 degrees until golden brown.

Use recipe above and add 1/4 cup more sugar, 1/2 pkg. more of yeast and about 1 more cup of flour. After dough has risen first time, divide into thirds. Roll out, cover with thin layer of oleo and sprinkle with mixture of cinnamon and sugar. Roll — twist — place in greased (oleo) pan and let rise until double in size. Bake until golden brown. Seems to work best in glass pans.

NELL BURGESS shares recipes with Exchange

women, is on sale at the Howard County courthouse in the Extension offices, and will be available at the Howard County Fair.

Fish and chips tasty

The cuisine of England has been criticized as being too bland, and it may lack the piquant quality of food served in some European countries. But the English have made notable contributions to the culinary world, such as roast beef and Yorkshire pudding and that wonderful combination, fish and chips.

everywhere, and the scones of Devonshire match almost anything we can produce for breakfast.

My favorite English dish, however, is fish and chips. This is to the average Briton what hamburger and french fries is to Americans. Actually the term chips is misleading to us, since it means french fries and not the paper-thin potato chips Americans know.

English food in the main can be described as hearty. Its rare roast beef can be a delight and so can the grilled mutton chops. Another classic is steak and kidney pie with a savory seasoning that is anything but bland.

No one knows who first thought up the idea of combining white fish fillets and fries, but the dish is said to have made its debut around the middle of the 19th century in the East End of London and was mainly a meal for the working man. Today fish and chips are consumed with vinegar and a dash of salt by all types of Britons from laborers to cabinet ministers. There are an estimated 17,000 fish and chip shops scattered throughout the British Isles. A number of kitchens also have sprung up in the United States.

When I lived in England some years ago, fish and chips were usually enjoyed in the evening after the movies, or a bowling session. They could be consumed on the premises, but most Britons preferred to take them out, wrapped up in a cornucopia of paper, to be eaten with the fingers.

Any kind of white fish can be used and about one fillet per person is enough, as in this recipe.

Ingredients:
 1/4 cup flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 egg, well beaten
 1/2 cup milk
 1 tablespoon water
 4 fillets flounder, sole or the like

Instructions:
 Sift flour and salt into a bowl. Make a well in center of flour and add egg and 1/4 cup milk and stir till smooth. Add remaining milk and 1 tablespoon water and stir till batter is well mixed. Rinse fish fillets and pat dry with paper. Cut fillets into three or four strips. Dip fish into batter and fry a few pieces at a time in deep, hot fat till batter is golden brown and crisp. Drain fish on paper towels.

You may also deep fry about 1 1/2 pounds potatoes, peeled and cut up, but you'll be pretty busy with the fish and it might be preferable to heat frozen french fries in the oven.

Rice naturally healthy

"May your rice never burn" is the New Year's greeting of the Chinese. Rice in the Orient is the staff of life, and people take it seriously. The Japanese word for rice, "gohan", also means meal. In Japan it is believed that rice has a soul and, therefore, must never be stolen.

Though the U.S. produces less than two percent of the world's rice crop, in most years it is the number one exporter of quality rice. Texas, one of the country's top five rice-producing states, exports around two-thirds of its crop.

Americans eat only nine pounds of rice per person annually, but purchases at the retail grocery level have risen 20 percent since 1975 because rice is economical and is a naturally healthy food.

Rice is low in sodium, free of cholesterol, and has the highest quality protein of any cereal grain and contains eight of 11 essential amino acids. It is also a carbohydrate, the only major dietary constituent not linked to any adverse health consequences.

Brown rice, even more than white, is gaining the attention of the health-conscious. The whole, unpolished grain with only the outer husks and a small amount of bran removed, brown rice contains more protein, calcium, phosphorus, potassium, niacin and Vitamin E than enriched rice and three times more fiber.

Peanuts add rich flavor

Peanuts contribute rich flavor and crunchy texture to many foods. In Africa, the Middle East and the Far East, peanuts and peanut butter are used in sauces, stews, breads and garnishes.

Latin Americans use the peanut with a flair in poultry and meat recipes. For centuries they have ground the nut and mixed it with honey or cocoa to make a sweet spread.

In the United States, a country which produces peanuts abundantly, the nuts are used primarily in peanut butter and as snack food.

Peanuts, however, are a versatile food. They are an excellent source of protein and will boost the nutritional content of most dishes they are added to.

One suggestion for the use of peanuts is chopping them then tossing them with a fresh green salad.

Police Beat

Two arrested for theft

Two arrests on theft warrants were made at 11:20 a.m. yesterday, police said. Arrested were 18-year-old Melinda Juarez of 602 Abrams and 23-year-old Mary De La Cruz of 502 S. Bell. The two were released on $100 bond each set by Peace Justice Bobby West, police said.

Police reports also showed the following:

- Melinda Regis, 22, of a September Trail address was arrested at 2:46 p.m. on suspicion of theft at Gibson's Discount Center, 2303 Scurry. She was released on $60 bond set by the city.
- A 16-year-old male was arrested at 11:20 p.m. yesterday on suspicion of no driver's license and no liability insurance. He was released, but bond was forfeited this morning because he failed to appear at city court, police said.

The arrest was made after the Ford van he drove struck a parked Chevrolet Bel Air owned by Ismael F. Lujan on the 1000 block of Nolan.

- Gena Graham of 2410 Alabama said someone stole a $489 two-wheel motor scooter from her backyard between 9 a.m. Saturday and 11 a.m. Sunday.
- Lee J. Atwell of 2519 Ent said someone stole a black and white TV from his residence between 5:40 a.m. and 7:40 p.m. yesterday.

- Terry Camden of 3211 Auburn said someone stole a check book, driver's license, papers and a portable AM-FM radio from his car parked at 7-Eleven, 1801 Gregg, between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. yesterday.
- Russel Rayburn of 1910 Scurry said someone stole a battery and a radial tire from his car parked at his residence between 5 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. yesterday.
- Betty Rains of 2904 Parkway said someone stole a $20 bill and damaged a door at her residence between 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. yesterday.

Council will discuss landfill site policy

COLORADO CITY (SC) — The city council was in session last night and, according to city manager Rick Crowley, soon will formulate a new policy for use of the sanitary landfill site.

According to Crowley, the "open door" policy is creating some problems.

In other action, the council set a 20-mile per hour speed zone in the downtown area, awarded a bid of $24,239 to Lydik Hooks roofing company for the reroofing of city hall, the civic center, the police department and the museum and okayed a request by the state park to use the sanitary landfill site at a cost of $100 per month.

Deaths

Bob Kerby

Bob Smith Kerby, 70, of Route One Big Spring died Sunday in Midland Memorial Hospital.

Pallbearers will be Domingo Galaviz, Thomas Lujan, Freddie Torres, Pete Florez, Charlie Florez and Tony Galaviz.

Swimming helps kids

Swimming regularly can help children with cystic fibrosis, a chronic lung disease, to breathe better. This is the finding of an Austrian medical study.

The subjects of the study, children aged six to 18 years, had 17 one-hour swim lessons in a heated pool over a seven-week period. The Austrian medical investigators found that this activity led to a marked improvement in the overall breathing and helped clear lungs of mucus.

NEIL BRYANT...shop foreman at Hester-Robertson

Hester-Robertson can help cut cooling costs

Home energy costs are going up fast and it looks as though consumers can expect them to go up higher in the coming months. Hester-Robertson mechanical contractors on N. Birdwell Lane has the equipment necessary and the programs designed to help consumers beat the spiraling costs.

HESTER-ROBERTSON offers new energy-saving units such as Carrier, General Electric, Lennox, and Singer. The newer the model, the more fuel efficient and cheaper to operate the unit is.

As an added incentive to use more efficient energy systems, Hester-Robertson wants to remind consumers of the TESCO rebate program now being offered. If you replace your existing unit or heat pump with a high efficiency system with an 8.5 Seasonable Efficiency Rating (8.0 for heat pumps), TESCO will give you a rebate on some of the costs.

Hester-Robertson services all the equipment they sell. They can price any work they may do. And since summer is here it may be the time for you to install a new system or let Hester-Robertson update the system you have.

Hester-Robertson also sells Aireze Fiberglass Coolers and MasterCool Evaporative Coolers. These are economical and supply good cooling for your home.

In addition, they can supply duct systems and do sheet metal work.

THE FRIENDLY staff at Hester-Robertson will be glad to answer any questions you may have. They invite you to come by and pick up one of the free brochures they offer. It will give you all the information you need about the new energy saving systems.

Open for business

The new Union Carbide plant has named its manager, RICK KENNY, who took over the job this week. He is 30 years old, married and has no children. He will be introduced at the Chamber Community Luncheon.

Another bit of news from the Union Carbide Company is their purchasing manager, CARLOS PAULEY, was in town this week making contacts with local business suppliers for items needed in the new offices and plant.

They want to buy everything locally if at all possible, which includes many types of items from office desks to business equipment. If you were not contacted by Mr. Pauley in the last few days, call Rick Kenny and ask for a list of things they will be buying so you can have an opportunity to sell to them.

Congratulations to THE TREE HOUSE for their slick new look. If you haven't seen the remodeling they've done, stop by. Also, watch for the opening around the first of October of a clothing addition to Helen's Shoe Stop. Helen's is located at the Big Spring Mall. The Tree House is on Eleventh Place.

Sonny and Shirley Shroyer will attend a special computer school Sept. 27-29 in Dallas through ADP Services. The Shroyer Motor Company is moving toward full computerization in their accounting, car orders and warranties. They have approximately half their records now on the computer.

LeRoy Tillery leaves Monday for the West Texas Chamber Industrial Tour to be held in New York Tuesday through Thursday. We've had some very good industrial contacts through these trips and well worth the money and effort.

Edna Womack reported that the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs will be meeting Oct. 2 in Garrett Hall of the Methodist Church for their annual luncheon. Featured will be a book review by Annie Matt Angel. Virginia Whitten's art works will be featured also in a private showing in conjunction with the luncheon. Approximately 500 are expected to attend with about 10 percent of that number from out of town.

SPEAKING OF PEOPLE coming from out of town... let me share some interesting that were presented yesterday at the Tourist and Convention Council Board meeting. Since Jan. 1, there have been 24 events officially sponsored by the Tourist and Convention Bureau, drawing 16,973 to Big Spring from other areas. A dollar spent by tourists is considered to "turnover" seven times in the community. Therefore the economic impact of the 24 events in the 8½ months is $3,221,737.

The tenth annual Howard County Fair will be the biggest fair in our history. It is slated to kick off Monday and end Saturday, Sept. 25.

The event schedule looks like this:

MONDAY
 Grand opening and ticket booth opening-----4 p.m.
 Judging women's department-----1:30
 Judging agricultural products-----5:00
 Circus-----3:30 and 8:00
 Hard Times Band-----7:30

TUESDAY
 State Hospital, nursing homes, elementary schools free through Thursday-----10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
 Sew it with Cotton Contest-----7:30 p.m.
 Fiddler Contest-----7:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY

The pet show has become a favorite at the annual fair. BRUCE WRIGHT is again chairman of the event. He shared the rules and regulations with us so that any adult or youngster wanting to enter an event can plan ahead.

The judging will be on Friday. All domestic animals should have rabies shots and all exotic animals must be caged and on a leash. Entries in the past have been predominantly children and it is hoped it will remain so. The following classes have been set up and additional categories will be offered if sufficient entry warrants:

Dogs: largest, smallest, cutest, best-dressed, best-behaved, best-groomed professionally, best-groomed amateur, most unusual.

Cats: largest, smallest, prettiest, best-groomed, best dressed.

Farm animals: fowl, pigs, other.

Exotic animals: hamsters, guinea pigs, gerbils, prairie dog, ect

Appeals court upholds local drug conviction

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau

AUSTIN—A Howard County man's contention that a 10-year prison sentence he was assessed for possession of heroin was the result of an unreasonable search didn't convince the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday.

The appeals court upheld the prison sentence handed Larry Marquez in District Judge James Gregg's 118th District Court. The court ruled that, contrary to Marquez' contentions, a Department of Public Safety trooper had every right to search his car in a Big Spring parking lot.

The trooper, assisting San Angelo police in a narcotics surveillance operation, said he searched the car after witnessing what he thought was a drug deal. The car was searched, he said, after Marquez made an abrupt reach under his seat.

Advertising is the most effective money-stretcher of them all.

Advertising is a great educator. It brings news of products and services. It offers you a chance to compare claims and prices. It shows you pictures of products and suggests how to use them. Advertising informs you how products can save you time, energy, and money. How in the world would you know all this if advertising in the Herald didn't tell you?

Advertising is an astute watch-dog of the marketplace. When one merchant's merchandise or prices appear to be most attractive to the consumer, other merchants take notice and try to provide a better sales environment or better values. Advertisers offer discount coupons to lure the consumer to try their products.

Advertising saves you a lot of time, a valuable commodity to working folks. You don't have to phone around or visit a dozen locations to find the product that's right for you, when you read the Big Spring Herald.

Advertising provides the energy that keeps the economy growing. New products arrive ... new colors ... new styles ... and the old ones must go out at reduced prices to make room. And the consumer, who's been reading ads all along, knows which items (or services) are best for his or her needs and can now buy at money-stretching sale prices.

Advertising is only one of the ways the Big Spring Herald saves you money. There's the popular classified section. And daily news of the world, editorial opinions, advice columns, entertainment reviews and much more information to help you make better, more productive choices in your daily activities.

And it can all be brought to your doorstep for only 17 1/3¢ per day, for leisurely evaluation, at your own time and pace.
