Yitzhak Shamir wins nomination to succeed Begin

JERUSALEM (AP) — Yitzhak Shamir, a former underground fighter and Israel's hardline foreign minister, won his party's nomination today to succeed Prime Minister Menachem Begin and swiftly reached agreement with coalition partners to form a new government, a spokesman said.

There appeared still to be some areas of disagreement among the partners, but gave their endorsement to Shamir as the next prime minister. He said he hoped to conclude negotiations for setting up his new government "in two or three days."

Shamir won a solid victory over Deputy Prime Minister David Levy with a 436-302 vote by the central committee of the Herut Party, the movement formed by Begin in the 1940s that now dominates the governing Likud bloc. Seven votes were invalidated.

'Scoop' Jackson dead after suffering massive heart attack

EVERETT, Wash. (AP) — Sen. Henry M. "Scoop" Jackson, the powerful Democrat who combined hardline anti-Soviet stands with liberal views on social issues, is dead after suffering a massive heart attack at his home. He was 71.

Jackson, who failed in two bids at the presidency but never lost an election in his home state of Washington, died Thursday night, just hours after holding a news conference to condemn the Soviet Union for shooting down a Korean jetliner the day before.

He was known as an advocate of a strong national defense, a friend of Israel and supporter of emigration for Soviet Jews. He played a major role in the creation of the Environmental Protection Agency and was considered a champion of organized labor and of civil rights for minorities.

City manager wants 2-cent tax hike in '84

By RICHARD HORN
Staff Writer

City Manager Don Davis said today he will ask the Big Spring City Council to approve a 2.3-cent property tax increase for the 1983-84 fiscal year.

The increase is needed to cover a loss in sales tax revenue and losses in revenue due to last year's property reappraisal, he said.

Davis said the city staff is proposing an $11.6 million budget for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1. That figure represents a 4.7 percent increase over the estimated $11.1 million budget for the current fiscal year.

The Big Spring City Council will hold a public hearing on the budget and tax increase proposals at 6:30 p.m. on Sept. 13 at City Hall. The council may vote on the budget following the hearing.

Davis said he is recommending no increases in sales taxes or water and sewer rates.

The current ad valorem tax rate is 65.7 cents per $100 market value. Davis said he is asking the council raise that to 68 cents, a hike that would bring an estimated $70,000 to the city's general fund.

The city's tax roll, released this week by Gene Pereira, chief appraiser for the Howard County Tax Appraisal District, is $418,627,078, Davis said. He said this is the market value before homestead exemptions and other exemptions are deducted.

Last year's tax roll amounted to $419,374,077, according to City

Soviets claim warning shot fired at South Korean plane

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union said today that the Soviet fighters that intercepted an unidentified plane over Sakhalin "fired warning shots with tracer shells along the flying route of the plane."

A statement by the official Tass news agency said the plane continued toward the Sea of Japan, but that the intrusion "cannot be regarded in any other way than a pre-planned act."

"It was obviously thought possible to attain special intelligence aims without hindrance using civilian planes as a cover," the statement said.

President Reagan, who had planned to end a vacation at his Santa Barbara, Calif., ranch next Monday, was instead returning to Washington today for a round of White House meetings with his national security advisers and the bipartisan congressional leadership.

Congress is in the midst of a five-week recess due to end Sept. 12, but there are no indications the House and Senate will reconvene earlier.

In Paris today, the Soviet Embassy today accused the United States of launching a "hysterical anti-Soviet campaign" over the plane.

The embassy added no information.

CONDEMNED — Convicted child-killer Jimmy Lee Gray was executed in Mississippi's gas chamber early today. He was the first person to be executed in Mississippi in 19 year. Gray is shown here in his death row cell in 1982.

Condemned murderer executed

PARCHMAN, Miss. (AP) — Inhaling deeply as wisps of lethal gas curled under his chair, Jimmy Lee Gray moaned 11 times and died today with a series of wrenching spasms in Mississippi's death chamber for the rape and murder of a 3-year-old neighbor girl.

"I think he's finally paid his debt," said Sheriff John Ledbetter of Pascagoula, who watched Gray die for the sex slaying of Deressa Jean Scales.

Gray's death shortly after midnight in the steamy silver gas chamber was Mississippi's first execution in 19 years and the eighth in the nation since the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed the death penalty in 1976.

Gray kidnapped the toddler from her Pascagoula apartment, then raped and sodomized her and finally suffocated her in a muddy ditch in 1976. The child's body was thrown from a bridge.

"He took the life of my daughter and therefore I did not think he should live," Richard Scales of Dallas, father of the slain child, said today.

After the state executioner, T. Berry Bruce, dropped cyanide crystals into a solution under Gray's black steel chair to form the deadly gas, the 34-year-old former computer programmer inhaled deeply.

His head slumped forward and then pitched backward. Gray moaned 11 times before falling quiet.

At one time, his head struck a metal pole behind the chair with such force that it shook the six-sided gas chamber.

Two doctors witnessing the execution in the maximum security section of the state penitentiary, monitoring his heart through a stethoscope attached to his chest, said Gray died two minutes after gas wafted through the chamber.

But Gray's attorney, Dennis Balske of Montgomery, Ala., claimed his client was still alive when Balske and 14 other witnesses were ushered from the execution room eight minutes after the gas first appeared.

"He was alive — he was breathing when they asked me to leave. There's no doubt about it," Balske asserted. "That's why I was told to leave while he was still breathing, so I couldn't come out here and say he was suffering."

Balske said Gray suffered "a painful death."

"He was in pain," the lawyer said, adding that "He was breathing in as heavy as he could" to speed his own death.

Governor wants old corn for cattle in drought areas

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau
AUSTIN — Gov. Mark White says he will ask Agriculture Secretary John Block on Friday to let drought-area ranchers use deteriorating corn stored during the Soviet grain embargo to feed their dwindling herds.

White, Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower and scores of other governors and congressmen from drought-plagued states will meet in Chicago at Block's request on drought troubles.

The federal government is currently paying a $5 million storage tab for the grain — much of which is now unfit for human consumption after three years in grain elevators, White said.

Releasing the grain would help West Texas ranchers sustain their livestock through the winter since range vegetation — the mainstay of the livestock diet — has been killed by drought, White said. "Even if it rained there right now, in many parts of West Texas, it would not improve range conditions because it's too late in the season for them to get the grass growing," White said.

Also, the cost of grain has soared because of the drought in the "Corn Belt" and a federal program payment-in-kind program to reduce crop yield.

Many ranchers are selling their breeding stock, White said, since they cannot afford to feed them.

Police Beat

2 taken on weapons charge

Big Spring police arrested two persons Friday morning in connection with unlawfully carrying a weapon and public intoxication at the Apache Bend Apartments.

Sharon Crawford, 22, of 1600 Robin and John Diehl, 28, of 3116 Ninth were arrested at 1:43 a.m. when police responded to a disturbance complaint. Police discovered a .25-caliber semi-automatic pistol and a shotgun in the car Crawford and Diehl were sitting in when they were asked to step out, police reports said.

Crawford also was arrested in connection with assault.

Police investigated a report that Runnels Junior High School was burglarized between 9 p.m. Wednesday and 6 a.m. Thursday.

Persons broke into the school by prying open a window, police reports said. Runnels Principal Tom Henry told police someone had taken a movie projector valued at $1,200, an unknown quantity of film and a travel clock.

Big Spring police arrested Ronald Porter, 21, of 504 Circle at 9:26 p.m. Thursday at 16th and Scurry in connection with driving while license suspended. Police stopped Porter because his car's tail light was out, reports show.

Thomas Hensley, 20, of 1006 W. Sixth, Apt. No. 1 reported an aggravated assault to police at 5:10 p.m. Thursday. Hensley told police that someone he knew hit him with a jack handle and a fist.

Police received another report of aggravated assault Thursday. Joseph Perry, 20, of 603 Runnels was treated and released from Malone-Hogan Hospital for severe blows to the face by a sawed-off shotgun barrel by a person he knew, police reports show.

The Dallas office of the Southland Corp. told police most of the 7-11 stores in Big Spring had cashed 39 forged and stolen checks between June 29 and July 5 for a total of $694.44.

The personalized checks had been stolen from Donald McCommons, reports said.

Sheriff's Log

Peace bond arrest made

Howard County Sheriff's deputies Thursday morning arrested David Leon Randall, 23, of 1001 N. Main, Apartment 32, in connection with a peace bond. Randall was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Lewis Heflin and released on $2,500 bond.

Sheriff's deputies also arrested Gay Leonard Moore Jr., 41, of Westbrook at noon Thursday at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in connection with driving while intoxicated. Moore was arraigned before County Court Judge Milton Kirby and released on $1,000 bond.

Deputies investigated a report of stolen gas at the First Baptist Church in Sand Springs. According to sheriff's deputies reports, church bus driver Sandy Hilderbrand Thursday morning found 20 gallons of gasoline missing from the bus. The gasoline lock cap was discovered on the ground nearby.

A witness said he saw two unidentified white males in a white pickup truck in the church parking lot near the bus at about 1:15 a.m. According to church member Lillian Bohannon, who reported the theft, about $60 of gasoline has been stolen from the bus in the past two months, records show.

Texas jobless rate plunges

DALLAS (AP) — Texas' unemployment rate plunged to 7.3 percent in August, evidence that the state's economy is continuing its recovery despite hard times in the oil industry and the depressed peso, a labor analyst said today.

The state's jobless rate, which hit an all-time high of 9 percent in March, gradually declined to 8 percent by July before falling sharply in August.

"It's a nice drop," Nick Santangelo, economic analyst for the regional Bureau of Labor Statistics office here, said the August figures.

"I wouldn't make a big deal of it, because a lot of it is teen-agers dropping out of the labor force ... and going back to school, but there also is an indication that unemployed adult males also found work. I don't have a good number, but the direction seems to be there."

The 7.3 percent figure is a seasonally adjusted rate that accounts for teen-agers who normally leave their jobs in August. But Santangelo said he believed that a larger number of jobless teen-agers than normal gave up finding work in August and returned to school, contributing to the lower figure.

Terrence Travland, labor market analyst for the Texas Employment Commission, agreed that part of the drop could be attributed to young workers returning to school and leaving the labor market about the middle of August.

"No doubt part of this is a seasonal reduction, but it is accelerated by a general improvement in the overall economic condition and an easing of the recession," Travland said.

The national unemployment rate held steady at 9.5

percent in August. About 300,000 found jobs in August, but the overall jobless rate remained unchanged because 100,000 other Americans resumed their search for work, but failed.

About 555,000 people were out of work in Texas during August, down from 616,000 in July and a peak of 680,000 in March, Santangelo.

About 7.08 million people were employed last month.

"It's the largest number we've had in quite a while," Santangelo said.

In July, 7.04 million Texans were employed, up from 6.9 million in March.

"We're continuing on track with the recovery in Texas," Santangelo said. "We do have some terrific economic problems in the state in the border counties, in Laredo and the alike, and in Houston. But when you look at the state as a whole we look pretty good."

The jobless rate has been hovering around 20 percent along the Mexican border where businesses have suffered from devaluations of the peso that have driven away Mexican customers. Houston, which had a jobless rate of 9.8 percent in July, was hurt by the downturn in the oil industry which forced many manufacturing plants in the area to close or curtail operations.

"There are three areas that are kind of hanging around the neck of Texas — the oil industry, the peso devaluation and the West Texas drought, which is starting to give us some problems," Santangelo said.

About two dozen West Texas counties have qualified for federal disaster aid because of a drought this summer.

Shamir

Twelve hours later coalition Chairman Avraham Shapira told reporters the coalition parties signed an agreement to ask President Chaim Herzog to designate Shamir as prime minister.

The agreement went a long way toward assuring Shamir's succession of Begin. "We've accomplished 99 percent. We have a government, and all that remains are small details," said Communications Minister Mordechai Zippori. Shamir told reporters: "I hope that in another two or three days we will conclude the negotiations and we will be able to bring a new government to the Knesset (Parliament)."

The swift action apparently was prompted by strong indications that the opposition Labor Party would try to lure some of the coalition partners out of the government and form an alternative coalition.

Begin's departure loosened the bonds of the coalition, and Shamir needed to make sure agreement was reached in principle on his succession before the ties grew any weaker.

Airliner

A Japanese Maritime Safety Agency patrol boat reported finding a 330-foot-long oil slick 18 1/2 miles off the southwest coast of the Soviet island Sakhalin, where the South Korean jumbo jet is believed to have gone down Thursday. Search boats and planes, including two U.S. military aircraft, hunted for traces of the jumbo jet in frigid Sea of Japan waters. Some wreckage was reported seen from the air, but Japan said Soviet officials had refused to allow search boats into Soviet waters.

The United States and South Korea demanded an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council, which was likely to be convened today.

"Words can scarcely express our revulsion at this horrifying act of violence," Reagan said, uniting with congressional leaders in strongly worded condemnations and calls for a full accounting from the Kremlin.

"The United States joins with other members of the international community in demanding a full explanation for this appalling and wanton misdeed," the president declared.

House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., called it "an unbelievably barbaric act," adding, "explanations and apologies will not suffice."

dent, died within an hour after being brought to Providence Hospital, just 12 blocks from his Everett home. Jackson, whose death stunned those who knew him for his hard-driving schedule and energetic lifestyle, had never been in the hospital before, except to meet with its board of directors and sip tea with its Catholic nuns.

"I always thought he was indestructible. He took exceptional care of himself," said former Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash, who served 28 years in Congress with Jackson. "I lost a great personal friend. We were very close."

Denny Miller, Jackson's administrative assistant, said Jackson had been at home with his wife, Helen, at retired early at about 7:30 p.m. "complaining of not feeling too well."

Miller and a family friend, Dr. Haakon Ragde, later came to the house and found Jackson stricken in bed. He was rushed to the hospital and pronounced dead of a massive heart attack at 9:25 p.m., after attempts to revive him failed.

The senator did not smoke, drank little and exercised religiously. The son of Norwegian immigrants, he delivered newspapers while in school, earning him the nickname "Scoop."

He apparently had few medical problems in the past several years. The last time he was hospitalized was in 1975 for a gallstone operation.

The ranking Democrat on the Senate Armed Services Committee, Jackson sought his party's presidential nomination in the 1972 and 1976 campaigns, losing to George McGovern the first time and Jimmy Carter the second. He was third on the Senate seniority list.

Fire hits pottery workshop

SCHERTZ — Fire raced through a pottery warehouse near this San Antonio-area community, causing $2 million in damage and backing up traffic on Interstate 35 for miles when police blocked the road.

About 100 volunteer firefighters battled the fire for three hours at the Garden Ridge Pottery and World Imports warehouse. An employee had first spotted the flames about 5:45 p.m. Thursday.

Twelve firefighters were treated for smoke inhalation, and two were taken to nearby hospitals for treatment.

Eric White, the warehouse's owner, said the business was only partially insured.

A faulty exhaust fan in a storeroom may have started the fire, White said, because another recent fire in the storage room was sparked by a faulty fan.

The storeroom is stocked to the ceiling with wicker, silk flowers and rattan furniture.

About 40 employees were safely evacuated from the store and, because it was 15 minutes from closing time, no customers were in the store, White said.

Thirteen neighboring fire departments helped douse the fire.

Private plane crash kills 2

HOUSTON — The right engine of a twin-engine plane failed shortly after it took off from a far west Houston airstrip, sending the plane hurtling to the ground, where it exploded and killed two men, a witness said.

Pilot Kenneth Faunce, 38, and his passenger, 38-year-old Ronald Dean Marney, had intended to fly to Orange Thursday when they took off about 2:10 p.m., authorities said.

Trusty Whitehead, a pilot for a Dallas construction company, said the plane had lifted about 50 feet off the ground when the right engine "just quit." He estimated the plane was flying about 80 mph.

Whitehead said the plane dipped to the right and was flying nearly upside down when it brushed through treetops and plunged to the ground.

The plane burst into flames on impact, he said. Both men were burned beyond recognition.

Blaze destroys apartments

LEWISVILLE — A fire roared "like a tornado" through an apartment under construction in this North Texas city, gutting 260 units and leaving behind an estimated $6 million in damage, a fire department spokesman said.

At least 30 firefighting units from Lewisville and surrounding communities and as many as 100 firefighters battled the blaze, which broke out about 9:30 p.m. Thursday, said dispatcher U.D. Walker.

The rapidly moving fire, which also consumed a nearby house, could be seen 20 miles away before it was brought under control about 12:30 a.m. today, authorities said.

Texas graduates 1,000 MDs

AUSTIN — Texas medical schools had more than 1,000 graduates for the first time this year, the Texas Medical Association reported today.

The 1,049 students graduated from the state's seven medical schools is a 7.8 percent increase over 1982.

Of the graduates, 76 percent were male and 24 percent female.

Fifty-six percent of the graduates plan to remain in Texas for graduate medical education.

University of Texas System schools accounted for 770 of the graduates with UT-Southwestern at Dallas producing the largest class of 204.

State may sue Corps

AUSTIN — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has asked the state attorney general's office to sue to stop the U.S. Corps of Engineers from placing dredge spoil in East Matagorda Bay.

Officials of the Parks and Wildlife Department said today dredging operations by the corps in the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway have caused excessive flows of spoil material across a wide area of the bay, covering the bottom with silt and damaging fish and shellfish habitat.

Houston dump rated 3rd

HOUSTON — The Environmental Protection Agency says a Houston dump is the third most dangerous to public health and the environment out of 133 hazardous waste sites added to its national list for emergency cleanup.

The former Geneva Industries plant in south Houston is contaminated by polychlorinated biphenyls — PCB's — as deep as 35 feet underground, EPA spokesman Roger Meacham said Thursday.

He said cleanup of the site about a mile east of Hobby Airport is scheduled to begin in October and is expected to cost between $3 million and $5 million.

Peking to get Paris touch

PEKING — Tender quiche Lorraine and tempting salad served to a seductive disco beat, or imported French wine and haute cuisine in turn-of-the-century Parisian elegance — foreigners and rich Chinese will savor both when fashion designer-entrepreneur Pierre Cardin opens his Maxim's of Paris in Peking later this month.

"Maxim's isn't just a restaurant, it's Paris!" Cardin, 65, exclaimed at a news conference Thursday. "It's a place where you can go to dream in life."

"China is a changing place and my idea would have been unthinkable only five years ago," said Cardin who owns the original Maxim's of Paris. About 200 workmen are toiling day and night to finish the ambitious project, incongruous in gray Peking, for the grand opening Sept. 26.

The restaurant is housed on two floors of the former China Travel Agency just south of the quaint old legation quarter in the heart of the city. The main restaurant upstairs will be a replica of Maxim's of Paris, complete with art deco murals, Tiffany glass windows in a setting of dreamlike opulence for China.

Tractor pulling victory

HURON, S.D. — Sen. Larry Pressler, R-S.D., says he'd rather have been driving his own tractor — a John Deere model D — but he rolled to victory anyway in a tractor pulling contest at the South Dakota State Fair.

"He really pleased the crowd," said Paul Stahl, organizer of the antique tractor pull and show, after the senator took first place in the class 8 heavyweight division Thursday by hauling a weight 231 feet with a 1938 John Deere model G.

"I'm used to driving a D John Deere," Pressler said. He was, however, pleased with the award. "They gave me a trophy," he said, "I'm going to put it up in my office."

'Mel' faces heart surgery

BURBANK, Calif. — Actor Vic Tayback, who plays the overbearing owner of Mel's Diner in the television series "Alice," will undergo heart surgery this weekend. Producers of the show said Tayback, 53, would enter St. Joseph's Medical Center today to have a bypass operation Saturday.

Taping of 16 additional "Alice" episodes for the 1983-84 season, which was to have begun Sept. 8, has been delayed four weeks, said Warner Bros. Television spokeswoman Bette Ashley.

However, six episodes for the season were completed before the two-month summer hiatus, she said, so the broadcast of new episodes should continue uninterrupted. "Alice," starring Linda Lavin as a diner waitress, is heading into its eighth season on CBS.

Children involved in unrest

WARSAW, Poland — Government-controlled Polish newspapers said Friday that gasoline bombs were hurled at police and children were used "to sow tension" in clashes that grew out of demonstrations marking the third anniversary of Solidarity.

Disturbances were reported in at least nine Polish cities Wednesday, and police used force to disperse backers of the outlawed labor union in Nowa Huta, Wroclaw, Lubin and Gdansk.

The most severe unrest was said to be in Nowa Huta, near Krakow in southern Poland, where 10,000 steelworkers battled riot police for most of Wednesday afternoon.

A dispatch by the official Polish news agency PAP indicated that the demonstrations in the southwest city of Lubin were equally violent, although on a smaller scale. Three people were killed there in disturbances Aug. 31, 1982, marking the second anniversary of the Baltic accords that legitimized Solidarity.

"In spite of repeated appeals to disperse, the most aggressive people threw stones at militia officers and did not hesitate to use petrol bottles," the PAP report said.

"It proved necessary to use force," the agency continued. "Order was restored in the town late in the evening. It is meaningful that even children were used for attempts to sow tension."

The report did not elaborate on the role of children in the disturbances.

Major attack launched

N'DJAMENA, Chad — More than 3,000 Libyan soldiers and Chadian rebels launched a major attack at dawn today on the isolated government outpost of Oum Chalouba, the government reported.

The attack on Oum Chalouba broke the three-week-old tacit truce between the Libyans and their Chadian rebel allies on one side and the French and the Chad government of President Hissene Habre on the other.

Information Minister Soumaila Mahamat said the garrison of Oum Chalouba, 400 miles northeast of N'Djamena, repulsed two successive enemy onslaughts and at last report government forces were "in full pursuit of the attackers."

"The battle continues at this moment," he said. He said the attackers suffered numerous dead and wounded in the two attacks, but he did not specify the number of casualties by either the government troops or the attacking force.

Soumaila said the attackers used "the entire arsenal at their disposal" — including heavy tanks, artillery and armored cars — but did not call in their air force, which repeatedly divebombed the Oum Chalouba garrison until the Aug. 14 truce.

Oum Chalouba is more than 50 miles beyond the northernmost French stronghold at Arada. Soumaila said the French forces there did not intervene in the battle.

Fight song wakes astronauts

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — The "red-eye special" space shuttle astronauts were roused with the Penn State University fight song Thursday night for another day of experiments with Challenger's space crane, a 50-foot-long mechanical imitation of a human arm.

"I really enjoyed that Nittany fight song," said astronaut Guion Bluford, a Philadelphian who received his bachelor's degree in aeronautical engineering from Penn State in 1964. The school's teams are known as the Nittany Lions.

Mission control started referring to the eighth shuttle flight as the "red-eye special" because the astronauts begin their sleep in afternoon and start their day late at night.

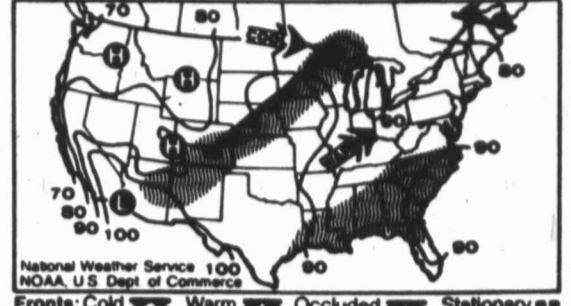

The arm demonstrated on Thursday it can do the heavy lifting that may some day be needed to build an outpost in space. But more tests were scheduled for Friday, the ship's fourth day in space.

"It sure is a fine piece of machinery," said Richard Truly, commander of the space shuttle. "It worked like a champ."

On awakening, Truly spoke of seeing "a couple of spectacular night passes" over Africa, the Middle East, the Nile River Valley, Israel, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and "all the way to India." He said the view of the northwest part of Australia was "absolutely unbelievable."

Labor Day may be hot

By The Associated Press

Clear to partly cloudy skies dominated Texas horizons today as forecasters called for a hot Labor Day holiday weekend across the state.

A few heavy thunderstorms rumbled off the upper Texas coast in the Gulf of Mexico before dawn. Scattered showers also dotted isolated portions of South Texas.

Pre-dawn temperatures were mostly in the 70s and lower 80s, with readings in the 60s noted across the Panhandle, South Plains and parts of Southwest Texas. Temperatures at 4 a.m. ranged from 65 at San Angelo to 82 at Laredo and Corpus Christi.

Winds were light and northerly over the eastern half of Texas, while variable breezes at 5 to 10 mph were reported over western half.

The forecast called for clear to partly cloudy skies with widely scattered thunderstorms through Saturday. Most of the shower activity was expected over East and Southeast Texas and near the coast.

Thunderstorms lingered over the Southeast today and a heat wave continued to bake the Northern Plains states.

The city of Charleston, S.C., was flooded with more than 4 inches of rain from mid-day Thursday until early today. Rain in Myrtle Beach, S.C., totaled nearly 2 inches by early today and Tampa, Fla., received more than an inch as thunderstorms continued to pester the Gulf Coast and southern Atlantic states.

West Texas — Mostly fair through Saturday. High 96 north and mountains to 104 Big Bend. Low 58 mountains to 66 Panhandle to 74 south. High Saturday 96 Panhandle to 106 extreme south.

Families of passengers express anger, grief

By The Associated Press

Stunned and angered, families and friends of passengers aboard a downed Korean Airlines jumbo jet expressed one sentiment again and again upon hearing the U.S. report that the airliner had been shot down: "I can't believe it."

At least 51 U.S. citizens were aboard Flight 7, Korean Air Lines officials say. U.S. officials say the jetliner was shot out of the sky Thursday by a Soviet missile.

The passengers were going to Asia for reasons both joyful and sad: a Massachusetts man heading to Taiwan to teach English; two Rhode Island roommates taking their yearly vacation together; a New Jersey family on their way to a relative's funeral; a Pennsylvania engineer traveling to his sister's wedding.

"I don't know why this happened. I don't understand," sobbed Yeong-Sheng Liu, 40, the manager of a Chinese restaurant in York, Pa. His schoolteacher wife, Yun-Hsing, 34, their 10-year-old daughter, Pei-Shaun, and their 9-year-old son, Chao-Po, were returning to their native Taiwan, where they lived part of each year, before school started in a few days.

"Now they are all gone, my children, all my family," Liu said sadly as he sat alone in his restaurant. Holding up a morning newspaper that had printed an incorrect report that the plane had landed safely, he cried, "Why did they print this? Why did they print this?"

"I'm not sure the shock has set in yet. I just don't know what to say about it," said 28-year-old Michael McNiff of Beverly, Mass., whose identical twin, Kevin, had been chosen to teach English in a two-year exchange program with a Taiwan university.

"He's a great guy, very humorous and adventurous," McNiff said of his brother, who had studied for three years at the University of Alabama. "He had bought a Mao cap. He wanted to be dressed properly, he wanted to have a good time."

McNiff said his brother had changed travel arrangements several times before calling him Monday to to say he was leaving the next day. "I still can't believe he was on that plane," he added.

"We couldn't believe it," said Harold Lebow of Queens, N.Y., whose daughter, Diane Arijeje, 30, was returning with her 8-month-old son, Sammy, to be reunited with her husband, a Thai businessman. Lebow, an employee of a New York television station, heard the news from neighbors who had heard reports that the plane had been shot down.

"I think the Russians are gearing up for war," Lebow said angrily. "I hold them responsible for every bad thing that has happened all over the world. Cuba, Nicaragua, Israel, Korea. All over the world."

Edgardo Cruz, 59, and his wife, Frisca, 60, of Irvington, N.J., were on their way to the Philippines to attend the funeral of Cruz's father, said their 38-year-old son Rodolfo.

"They're innocent," said Cruz, the eldest of nine children. "Two hundred passengers. They're all innocent. They're only trying to visit their relatives."

Han-Tae Park, 43, an electronics engineer from Valley Forge, Pa., was flying to his former home in Seoul both for business and for pleasure — to attend his sister's wedding, said a neighbor, Chung Lee. Park's wife, Kyuon, "is emotionally distressed and in seclusion," Lee said.

LOVED ONE LOST — Sisters of Lee Chul-Kyu, a passenger on the ill-fated Korean Air Lines 747 jetliner, weep as South Korean government spokesman Lee Jin-Hie announced in Seoul Thursday that it was "almost certain" the jetliner had been shot down en route to Seoul, South Korea.

Howard College figures encouraging

It's encouraging to hear that enrollment at Howard College will increase over last year's figures. Although registration continues until Sept. 12, school officials predict an increase over last year's total enrollment of 1,140.

In these difficult times, Big Spring is extremely fortunate to have an inexpensive college for its residents to attend. Without it, Big Springers would be forced to pay many more dollars to obtain their educations in other cities.

Also, Howard College is wisely providing many evening courses so that working adults can pursue their education. Recognizing needs and then working to meet those needs is essential for success in any operation, and Howard College is certainly capitalizing on its opportunities. The development of modern nursing, medical technology, dental hygiene, computer training and other certified programs are good examples of Howard College staying up with the times.

Paul Harvey recently commented that in the future, anyone who can afford to go to college won't need to; but that the people who need to won't be able to afford it.

Fortunately, Big Springers and area residents need not ever face that dilemma, thanks to Howard College.

She's dying of loneliness

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I watched you the other night on television speak about loneliness. I guess that is my biggest problem. I have a good job and everything, but I just about go crazy when I come home to the four walls of my apartment. Please pray for me. — A.A.

DEAR A.A.: I believe loneliness is one of the most critical problems in our nation today. There are some things in our society — such as the fast pace of city living — that truly make many people lonely in the midst of a crowd.

There are two things I especially want to tell you. First, no matter what your situation may be, God is always with you. You are never completely alone when you know Christ. The Bible promises, "God has said, 'Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you'" (Hebrews 13:5). No matter where you go or what you do, God is there and by faith you can reach out to him. This is one reason why I am convinced the first step in solving your problem is for you to ask Jesus Christ to come into your heart by faith. When you accept Christ, he comes into your life and establishes a personal relationship with you. Jesus stands at the door of our hearts and promises, "If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me" (Revelation 3:20).

The second thing I want to urge you to do is to take definite, practical steps to establish friendships with others. Church is an excellent place to do this — not only in Sunday morning worship, but especially in the many other activities most churches have. (You also need the fellowship of other Christians to grow spiritually.) Ask God to lead you to a church where Christ is preached and where you can find friends.

Also take other steps to reach out to others. Are there others at work who are also lonely? Are there others in your apartment building who seem to have few friends? It may not be easy for you at first, but learn to be a friend to others. A good way to start is to do something practical for someone else who has a need.

The Milky Way can be easily seen as a bright haze on a clear summer night.

Hello, Big Spring

Big Spring has, so far, been a pleasant surprise. Growing up in the midwest, I had come to believe that the way to get to Texas was to head east until you smelled it and south until you stepped in it.

However, so far, I have enjoyed Big Spring. It's a seemingly friendly community and the town is pretty.

NOW ONTO being a columnist. It's not an easy transition, going from reporting the news objectively to giving my own opinions, but it's one I look forward to.

Thus in the coming Fridays I'll let you know about the things I care about. I'm not an expert on too much, except why the Milwaukee Brewers will overtake Baltimore in the A. L. East and go on to win the series, but I do have my convictions. There is much that I'm cynical about, such as organized religions more concerned in money than people, liberal and conservative organizations that know all the answers, people in general and love in particular. Things that I care about include dogs, certain individuals, bratwurst and Marx Brothers' movies. There are also things that bother me a lot, such as bullies and self-righteousness.

DURING THE next few weeks my passions will become more obvious. I hope I keep you entertained. I also hope that I make you think occasionally. I think the most important thing a columnist can do is, whether you agree or disagree with his view, is to make you think. For when we think we feel, and when we feel, we are human.

Baseball, the contact sport

All I know about baseball is what I see on television. And the only thing they show on the news about baseball is managers and players pouring out of dugouts, slugging each other over some question concerning an umpire's call. Baseball owners are now aware that the fans expect at least one good fight on the field or they don't feel they got their money's worth.

It is for this reason that owners have changed their thinking about the type of baseball managers they must hire for their teams. "Corky, I'm going to have to let you go."

"Why, Mr. Stillwater? The club is in first place in our division and we've never been playing better ball."

"Have you seen the attendance records for our last 28 games? We haven't filled half the park. Do you know why? Our team doesn't have the fighting spirit."

The reason we're getting such poor gates. I have attended every home game and not once have I seen one of our outfielders throw his bat at a first baseman after he struck out.

"If he did that he could be tossed out of the game."

"What's the big deal if he's thrown out of the game?"

"He also could be fined $500."

"I'm glad you brought that up. Do you realize this team has the least fines for unsportsmanlike behavior of any club in the league? We're the laughingstock of the division."

"But we're role models for kids all over the country. Throwing bats at opposing players could give the game a bad name."

"Perhaps, but we have to think of the box office, Corky, or there would be no role models for the kids to follow."

"I can't do anything about it if my players follow the rules."

"It's obvious, and that's why I'm letting you go. You're a good manager when it comes to baseball but you don't have any pizzazz."

"What do you mean by pizzazz?"

"Have you ever kicked any dirt in an umpire's face when you objected to a call?"

"No, sir."

"Have you ever spit tobacco on one who threatened to throw you out of the game?"

"I don't chew tobacco."

"Have you ever grabbed an umpire's hat and thrown it on the ground?"

"Not that I recall."

"That's what I mean by pizzazz. Do you realize every time you come on the field to protest a call, the TV people go to commercials?"

"I don't like to hold up the game."

"You're hopeless, Corky. You're so polite the crowd doesn't even know your name. No wonder nobody ever asks you to do television commercials."

"But I've given you a winning baseball team."

"I don't want a winning baseball team. I want one that will pour out of the dugout every other inning and beat the tar out of the opposition. That's money in the bank. Let's face it, Corky, you're no Billy Martin."

"Why the sudden decision to fire me now?"

"I decided you just couldn't hack it when George Brett had pine tar up to the top of his bat, and you didn't say a word about it."

"We tossed him out at third base."

"Yeh, but not one station carried us on the evening news. Let me give you some advice, Corky. If all you think about is winning, and not fighting, you'll never work in baseball again."

Did Nixon have secret CIA funding?

WASHINGTON — A little-noticed item in the financial pages recently reported the purchase of Tom Pappas's oil company, Esso Pappas, by the Greek government. There's a fascinating story behind the $15 million deal.

Pappas was a major fund-raiser and contributor to the 1968 campaign of Richard Nixon and his running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, who was to become the highest elected official of Greek-American background. The Esso works in Greece was just one of the multimillionaire's holdings, which also included shipping and soft drink companies.

The Pappas enterprises were alleged to be fronts for CIA operations in Greece during the period when the military junta was in power. More serious were charges that CIA funds found their way through Pappas back to the United States into the Nixon-Agnew campaign fund. If Nixon got his hands on U.S. Treasury money indirectly through the CIA, it is a scandal of first magnitude.

An investigation into the Nixon-Pappas-CIA connection was begun by the Senate Intelligence Committee in 1975. But it was dropped at the personal request of then-Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

The money trail led from the CIA to its Greek counterpart, the KYP, then to Pappas and back to the United States and into the Nixon-Agnew campaign. Pappas vehemently denied the charges, which had come from Elias Demetracopoulos, a respected Greek journalist who had fled his homeland after the junta took over in 1967.

A few weeks before the 1968 election, Demetracopoulos took his charges to Lawrence O'Brien, then chairman of the Democratic National Committee. O'Brien issued a press release demanding that Nixon and Agnew explain their relationship to Pappas, but it drew little attention in the final days of the campaign.

It is conceivable that if the truth about Nixon's secret funding by the CIA had come out, he might have lost the extremely close election to Hubert Humphrey. As things turned out, though, the Greek exile leader's charges may have played an unwitting part in Nixon's ultimate downfall. Here's how:

In 1971, Demetracopoulos laid his explosive charges before a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee, and was asked to submit details in a memorandum. Before he could do so, Nixon's longtime adviser, Murray Chotiner, told Demetracopoulos: "Lay off Pappas. It's not smart politics. You know Tom Pappas is a friend of the president's."

Then Attorney General John Mitchell got into the act. At a party, he confronted a Republican friend of the Greek journalist, Louise Gore, then-ambassador to UNESCO. She wrote Demetracopoulos: "(Mitchell) is furious at you — and your testimony against Pappas. He kept threatening to have you deported." Demetracopoulos submitted his memo to the House subcommittee anyway — disclosing that he had documentary evidence to support his charges. The White House was obviously worried about Demetracopoulos' evidence — and, according to competent sources, that may have been one reason the Watergate burglary was authorized. Nixon wanted to know what ammunition Demetracopoulos had supplied to the Democrats.

The "smoking gun" in the Greek connection was eventually provided by the late Henry Tasca, in 1976 testimony to the House Intelligence Committee. Tasca previously had been U.S. ambassador to Greece, and his sworn testimony was kept secret at his insistence. He confirmed the funneling of money from the Greek junta to the Nixon campaign.

The eminent investigative reporter Seymour Hersh, in his book about Henry Kissinger, has written that Tasca's testimony "raises the question whether the CIA... was aware that some of its funds were being returned to the United States for use in a presidential election."

As for the Senate investigation of 1975, Hersh declares: "Sources close to the committee have said that its investigation was abruptly canceled at Kissinger's direct request."

Footnote: Nixon, Kissinger and Pappas were either unavailable or refused to comment.

EXPENSIVE MOPPING: Because some Naval Academy midshipmen had to swab decks and work in the galley for a few weeks — and a Maryland member of Congress misconstrued the reason for this demeaning duty — the taxpayers will get stuck for millions of dollars.

Rep. Marjorie Holt, R-Md., thought the midshipmen's menial chores were caused by failure of private contractors to perform properly. In fact, it was civil servants who failed to perform; they transferred, quit or took early retirement when they learned that private firms had been awarded the janitorial contracts, leaving the middies stuck with the dirty work.

Holt's misinformation led the House to pass a one-year moratorium on private contracting for the three service academies. Even when her mistake was discovered and the amendment dropped, the Navy — evidently reluctant to offend the congresswoman — assured Holt that it will delay the switch to private contracting anyway. The move could cost more than $5.5 million.

TANK TROUBLE: The Pentagon is trying to play down yet another problem with its trouble-plagued M-1 tank. During tests at Aberdeen, Md., last March, a 120mm shell exploded in an M-1 tank's gun. The Pentagon called the mishap an "unexpected test incident" and said no one was hurt. Sources say three persons were injured, perhaps seriously.

Mailbag

Bible answers fetus question

Dear Editor, I would like to give some Bible quotes that I think will shed some light on the question is the Fetus human... Mailbag said nothing biologically human at fetus at this point Aug. 18th (Big Spring Herald)

Here is the quotes take it for what it is worth, may not be worth much to some folks. Deuteronomy 32:15 in part "then he forsook god who MADE HIM." The verse ahead of this one stated, "Understand ye brutish among the people, and ye fools, when will ye be wise?"

Isa 43:20 "The beast of the field will honour me, the dragons and the owls, because I give water in the desert, to give drink to my people my Chosen."

Verse 21 same chapter, "His people have I formed for myself, they show forth praise" (no comment).

Amos 7:2 (in part) "and behold HE (God) formed grasshoppers..."

Romans (New Test.) "Nay but, O man who art thou that repliest against God Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, why hath thou made me thus. (21) Hath not the potter power over the clay of the same lump, to make one vessel unto honour and another unto dishonor."

Gen. 2:7, "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of Life and he became a living soul."

Psa 2:7, "The sea is his and He made it... and His hands formed the dry land."

NOW THIS... Jeremiah 1:4-5 (in part) "BEFORE I FORMED THEE IN THE BELLY I KNEW THEE... AND BEFORE THOU COMEST FORTH OUT OF THE WOMB I SANCTIFIED THEE" — end of Bible quotes.

Some might say...if you knew what your thoughts meant to me, you wouldn't get to the trouble to mention them...I say that if we had paid more attention to what the Bible says, maybe we wouldn't be in the mess we are in over these things now...

End... John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believed in him should not perish but have everlasting life." Amen.

Jude 1:3: I write unto you and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints... Amen.

Dear Abby

Husband drops out of wife's reunion

DEAR ABBY: Last July, my wife and I went to a small town in Minnesota to attend her 30th high school reunion. This was the first class reunion I had ever attended, and it will be my last.

On our arrival we were met by a lady with a big smile who took my $30 for the dinner and said, "Thank you." That was the only time anybody other than my wife spoke to me. I tried on four separate occasions to talk to people, but they turned their backs on me.

I'm an average-looking man, quiet by nature, but I don't have leprosy. I finally felt I had had enough of these rude people, so I went out and sat in the lobby. I didn't feel like eating, so I found my wife and told her I'd be waiting for her in the lobby when the banquet was over.

My wife is still mad at me for skipping the dinner, but Abby, those people really hurt my feelings. Please comment.

NO MORE REUNIONS
DEAR NO MORE: Since you are quiet by nature, your wife should have made an effort to introduce you around.

I know it's not easy to have a good time with a bunch of strangers, but you could have been a good sport and sat with your wife at the banquet. Your conspicuous absence at the table probably embarrassed her. (To quote myself: "When you pick a lemon, make lemonade.")

Some general advice: Never drag a reluctant spouse to a class reunion.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I would like to know more about the disease called aphthous stomatitis. I suffer with this day after day. I have been to the doctor several times. He feels it is caused by mental stress. Can you comment on this problem? — Mrs. L.W.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I am 41 and ever since childhood have suffered periodically from canker sores in my mouth. My condition doesn't seem to be improving with age, either. If anything it's getting worse. Is there anything I can do to prevent or cure canker sores? They make it difficult to perform my job, which involves public speaking. — R.M.T.

Canker sores, aphthous stomatitis, they both mean the same — the appearance of those little painful lesions in the mouth. Why some people get them and others are spared is not known, but there are a number of theories offered, none of them proven.

One theory says they are due to a variety of strep germ. Another holds that they are due to some form of self-allergy, in which the body is attacking its own tissue. Hormones seem to play a role since the sores do seem to appear in women during pregnancy. And yes, emotional stress has a role. Genetic factors have been suggested, for they are more common in twins. But to be honest, we really can't say we know why they appear.

Sorry to have to tell both writers that we don't have any sure-fire effective treatment to stop them. But there are a number of remedies to lessen the pain. Hydrogen peroxide mouthwashes help clean off the crusts that form on the sores and a thick solution of the numbing agent, lidocaine, used also as a mouthwash, eases the pain. Another mouthwash containing diphenhydramine, a common antihistamine, can help relieve painful symptoms.

If they are very severe, the application of a little steroid cream may bring relief. I wish I had the final answer to the problem of canker sores, which bring so much misery to those who have them, but I don't.

FOR G.R.R. — From your description of the pain you have, I, like your doctors, cannot relate your problem to Guillian-Barre syndrome. That illness appears quite suddenly and usually after a viral infection, like a cold or intestinal infection. It may begin with peculiar sensations in the feet and legs and then progress to muscle weakness. The weakness can progress from the legs up the body to a point where breathing muscles are affected. For the patient with this paralysis, an artificial respirator is required.

Guillian-Barre usually runs its course in a period of weeks and months, although a few will have residual weakness for years. Fewer still will have permanent residual weakness, but most recover from what can be a terrifying illness. I think you should see a neurologist, who can tell you why you are having your longstanding limb symptoms.

Refugees brought to U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — To meet a U.S. government timetable for it, Church World Service is bringing 150 Ethiopian refugees to the United States this month and next before obtaining sponsors for them. But the agency, relief arm of the National Council of Churches, has appealed to member Protestant and Orthodox denominations for help, and they're offering it, enlisting congregations as sponsors. "We must act quickly," said Lilia Fernandez, refugee coordinator for one denomination, the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

Woman becomes pastor

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Ordained by the Pine Bluff Baptist Church here, the Rev. Esther Tye Perkins this month became the first woman to serve as pastor of a Baptist church in South Carolina.

Although about 25 other Baptist women have been ordained in the state, they serve as associate pastors or in other staff ministry positions, but none as senior minister, reports the Baptist Courier, news journal of the South Carolina Baptist Convention.

Ms. Perkins, widow of the Rev. Charles G. Perkins who was pastor of Pine Bluff before his death last May 23, disavowed "any interest in women's lib."

Minister talks about church

By RHONDA WITT
Church Editor
"The Church of God is the oldest pentecostal church, and I take great pride in that," says Earl Akin, pastor of College Park Church of God. The Church of God will celebrate its 97th year, this month.

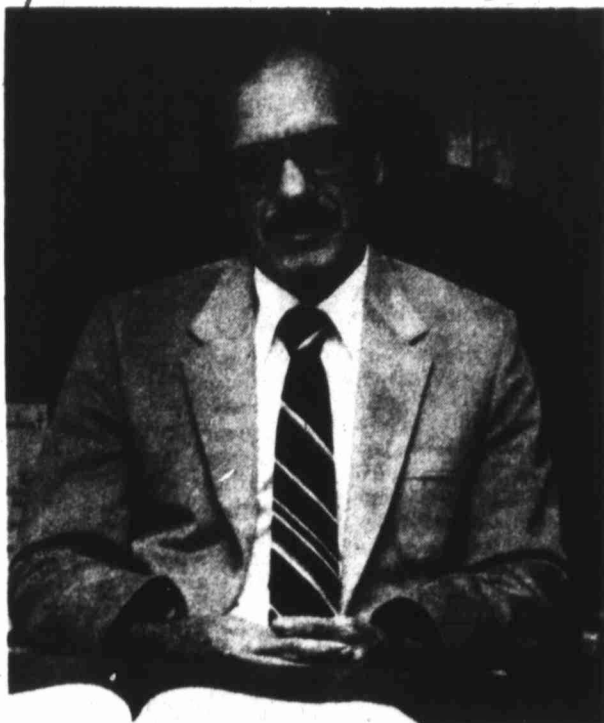

The Church of God, established in Tennessee by Baptists and Methodists, has spread and is larger overseas than in the United States.

A general assembly for the Church of God is held every two years. All ordained ministers attend the meeting and go over all needs and goals that need to be discussed for the next two years.

"The Church of God is one of the fastest growing churches in the world," he said. "We have more than doubled outside the United States in the last two years."

"The sun never sets on the Church of God. It is in over 90 countries around the world," Akin said.

No matter where a person goes in the world, a person is considered part

THE REV. EARL AKIN
...pastor of College Park Church of God of the family in another Church of God, he said.

Akin, whose father was a minister, was raised in the Church of God. "Of course, I didn't realize I was going to be a minister, but I felt the call in 1963," he said.

"My personal goal is to be an effective minister and pastor. The goal of the church is to meet the need

Akin enjoys pastoring in Big Spring. "I feel that I am pastoring some of the greatest people in the world," he said. "There are some wonderful people in Big Spring."

Akin graduated from Lee Bible College in Cleveland, Tenn. He enjoys fishing, hunting and woodworking.

Akin has pastored three churches. He started a new church in Texarkana, where he stayed for three years. He also pastored in Blossom for nine years and in Big Spring for five years.

Akin and wife Patsy have three children, daughter Doretha Gail May, and sons, Tommy and Delan. The couple also has three grandchildren.

Dr. Jampolsky to speak

DR. JERRY JAMPOLSKY
...to speak in Midland

Quinn Eudy to speak

Quinn Eudy, head football coach at Big Spring High School, will speak at the Emmanuel Baptist Brotherhood Prayer Breakfast at Herman's Restaurant, Saturday, at 7 a.m.

Officers installed

ODESSA — The Permian Basin Chapter of B'nai B'rith Tuesday welcomed four new officers at its annual installation banquet which featured a U.S. Senate candidate reaffirming his support for Israel.

Assuming duties for the West Texas lodge, which includes several Big Spring residents, are Noah Fishman of Midland, president; Ronald Blumka of Odessa, vice president; Jim Rowland of Odessa, secretary; and David Rosen of Midland, treasurer. Outgoing president Michael Abrams of Midland becomes chaplain in the B'nai B'rith tradition.

The Permian Basin Chapter must not only promote the stated high ideals of B'nai B'rith, it also must strive for greater member participation in area philanthropic activities, Fishman said in his installment address.

U.S. Rep. Kent Hance of Lubbock, a democratic primary candidate for retiring John Tower's Senate seat, delivered the banquet's keynote address in which he said he was "among the first (in Congress) to speak out on Israel being right in invading Lebanon. It came down to the point that they had no other choice."

"There can be no doubt that when you have a country that's a democracy in an area like that, (then) we have an ally we can depend on," Hance said. "There can be no easy answers in that area."

Hance, a third-term congressman who sponsored a House resolution opposing arms sales to Jordan, said he favors increased military assistance to Israel because of its security requirements.

He said he became aware of the country's precarious geography when he visited the Middle East in 1980 on a tour sponsored by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Women have retreat

The women of the First Church of God observed their annual Prayer Retreat, Aug. 24, in the church sanctuary. The theme of the program was "Quiet My Soul."

Jean McCray, spiritual life director, led the group in thinking about the problems of young parents, single persons, middle-aged people and older people, and in speaking about the need for prayer in each person's individual life and the complications that each lifestyle brings with it.

The group divided into small prayer groups with Anna Smith, Nelda Reagan and the Rev. Robert McCray, pastor, serving as leaders. Music for the evening program was provided by Susan Wood and Donna Lee.

Bible study classes planned

The Rev. Carroll C. Kohl will begin a new Bible Study course at the St. Paul Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday. The first meeting will be an organizational meeting with a definite dates for remaining sessions to be set.

The 16 week Bible study class is open to the public. The only text Kohl uses is the Bible. Areas of study include suffering, life, death, baptism, holy communion and prayer. No obligation is involved.

Businessmen to meet

Dr. Jerry Lee Jones of Odessa will speak during a meeting of the local chapter of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International in the Cactus Room at Howard College, Saturday, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Jones is an educator and has held positions as business manager, vice chancellor, director, assistant professor and vice president in colleges and universities in Texas, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Dr. Jones serves the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) as an elder and adult Sunday School teacher. He currently serves as first vice president for the Odessa chapter of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. for $5 per plate. The public is invited.

Penny paycheck upsets employee

CHICAGO (AP) — A part-time grocery bagger who came to this country from Romania to seek a better life has found the American way of life taxing — his latest paycheck totaled 1 cent, all that was left after deductions.
 "I hoped that here I will find justice," said Titus Tomescu, 17, who came to the United States with his parents a year ago.
 Tomescu, an honor student beginning his senior year at Lakeview High School, still has hope, although the check he received this week shook him up a bit.
 His gross pay for 17 hours of work at $3.75 an hour at a supermarket was $63.75, but his net pay was 1 cent.
 Payroll deductions gobbled up the rest. There was $4.41 for federal income taxes, $4.27 for Social Security, $2.23 for state income taxes and $2 for health and other insurance — plus a whopping $10.83 for union dues and $40 toward a union initiation fee.
 Last week, on the same gross earnings, Tomescu got a check of $3.08. Union deductions were $47.50.
 Ron Powell, secretary-treasurer of Local 881 of the United Food and Commercial Workers, said Tomescu's penny paycheck was unfortunate, but there was a logical explanation.

 He started his job on May 2 and was not enrolled as a union member until late July. Thus, he owed back dues and a $60 initiation fee.
 The union recently converted to an advance dues payment system, so $10.83 was also collected for September, Powell said. It all came out of Tomescu's two recent checks.

DWI sticker issued to driver

RICHMOND, Texas (AP) — In an attempt to discourage drunken driving, a judge issued a probationer a bumper sticker whose scarlet letters spell out "Driving While Intoxicated."

Some 460 drunken driving cases have been filed in Fort Bend County, southwest of Houston, in the first seven months of this year, compared with 560 for all of last year, prompting Judge Thomas R. Culver III to seek a new deterrent.
 He said Thursday night he has 249 stickers left after ordering Joseph Gutowski to place one on his bumper, and acknowledged that "at some point I may have to re-order" a supply of stickers.
 "I wouldn't want one of those bumper stickers on my car," Culver said. "I don't think anyone would."
 He said he had expected to issue the stickers only to repeat offenders or defendants whose drunken driving caused an accident.

 Culver said he hoped the stickers will deter other motorists from driving after drinking, while reminding probationers of their status.

The stickers say: "The driver of this vehicle is on probation in the County Court-at-Law of Fort Bend County, Texas, for DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED. Please report unsafe driving to the Adult Probation Department."

 Gutowski, who was the first person to receive a sticker as a condition of his probation, pleaded guilty Wednesday.

Big Spring has hungry look

Eudy labels opener against Snyder 'most important'

By GREG JAKLEWICZ
Sports Editor

If Big Spring High's 1982 season compares to a box office smash, the question now is whether the sequel will receive the same rave reviews.

The Steers, sporting six new faces on defense and a new leader on offense, host the Snyder Tigers tonight at 8 p.m. in Memorial Stadium trying to build on what last season's team accomplished.

"We are ready to play football," head coach Quinn Eudy said firmly. "Our players are excited. The first game of the year is the most important one there is. A team establishes its rhythm. The first district game is important, too, but this one sets the tone for the season."

Big Spring brought a 2-8 record up to 4-6 last year, coming close to winning two more games. Long the defensive doormat of the district, the Steers ranked No. 3 overall in District 4-5A. Half of those players — including Most Valuable Defensive Player George Bancroft — graduated leaving Eudy with the task of patching up his unit.

"Again, we're going to put the best eleven football players in Big Spring, Texas, on defense," he said. Five of those saw star...noseguard newcomer...

ting action last year: tackle Doug Walker, cornerbacks Eric Sherman and Jay Gonzales and safeties Robert Porras and Jay Pirkle.

The key newcomers fill the linebacking and noseguard positions. Mike McKinley and Pete Crabtree have the enviable assignment of filling the departed shoes of Bancroft and Danny Stephen at linebacker. Danny Arista has been selected to take over for Pat Burke at noseguard. Their predecessors all won post-season honors.

The inexperience of the defense showed against Sweetwater. Although the team never close after that.

The Lady Steers scored the final six points of the game with Donelson again handling the serving duties. Four of her efforts scored without the ball returning over the net.

A scoring strike by Mathews snapped a 2-2 tie in the second game and sent Big Spring rolling towards its initial win. In this game, the Lady Steers moved their feet on defense and checked Lamesa's scoring opportunities. By prolonging the point, the Big Spring players were able to force the Tors into a mistake.

Lamesa drew as close as 8-7 midway through the game but BSHS scored the next six points, five on Lamesa errors. Ahead 14-7, Big Spring dropped two points but when the Tornadoes misplayed Donelson's last serve, Sharp had her first victory.

"Boy it feels good to beat Lamesa," she said, sporting a broad smile. "These kids have played each other since seventh grade and they all know each other. That makes it feel good."

The win also reversed one of the previous six losses. Lamesa won earlier in the season in three games.

"We had some good serving tonight," she continued. "We've been working on that. Before we go in from practice, you have to make a certain amount of serves. That's made a difference."

Donelson had nine serving points in the first game while Vickie Halfmann and Monette Wise had four each in the final game.

The junior varsity won its seventh match in nine tries with a 17-15, 11-15,

SNYDER AT BIG SPRING — The Steers unveil a revamped defense against a small but mobile Snyder team. Big Spring is armed with a fleet of running backs, two dependable receivers and a veteran secondary. Snyder always plays well in this game and brings in more individual skill than a year ago. If Steers can punch football into the end zone early, it could be a lopsided affair. Big Spring 21, Snyder 7

BROWNWOOD AT COOPER — This game is always a thriller, in either Shotwell or Gordon Wood stadiums. Cooper's the home team this time around and Allen Gunter returns for a third season. The Lions have a lot of new faces but somehow, like Permian, they develop into household names quickly. Have to like the Lions, even on the road. Brownwood 20, Cooper 18

ABILENE AT WF RIDER — New coach Don Crumpton has a ton of players out and is piecing them together with a group of veterans. Mickey Russell is the starting quarterback, given nod over veteran Steve Stacy. Rider is projected to do well in a heated 5-5A race. Watch out for the Eagles, however. Abilene 22, Rider 20

LEE AT LUBBOCK CORONADO — Lee also has an army of players out and that's makes for a tough defense. The Rebels have lost two quarterbacks but should generate enough offense to score, and that might be all that's necessary. Lee 19, Coronado 6

LUBBOCK MONTEREY AT MIDLAND — Monterey had a playoff year with its 8-2 mark last season and has an ample share of those players back. Midland, however, plays its best when it's the underdog and this defensive-minded unit will come through tonight. Midland 13, Monterey 12

PERMIAN AT EP CORONADO — Permian is picked in 4-5A and Coronado in 1-5A. That should make for a good ballgame, right? Well, maybe. Mojo has a way of handling these El Paso schools. No change of script here. Permian 26, Coronado 6

ODESSA AT AMARILLO HIGH — This could be the year of the Bronchos. Talented runs deep at the other Odessa school this fall and, unfortunately, the Sandies get a taste of the dust their first week out. Odessa 20, Amarillo 7

AUSTIN ANDERSON AT SAN ANGELO — Again, the Angry Orange are ballyhooed throughout the state. A running back by the name of Hoffman, a quarterback named Thomas and a thousand players to choose are why. Anderson is picked last in 26-5A...oh, boy. San Angelo 28, Anderson 6

Teamply sparks BSHS to first win

By GREG JAKLEWICZ

It was too long coming but sure sweet when it arrived.

Mixing teamply with spot spiking and consistent serving, the Big Spring High Lady Steers delivered first-year coach Susan Sharp her first varsity victory with a 15-6, 15-9 win over Lamesa Thursday night in Steer Gym.

The win was the first after six tries for Sharp's squad and no one was happier than the rookie coach. "Teamwork," she said, repeating, "teamwork. We hustled and anticipated real well. They used their brains for the first time this year."

Big Spring was in control of the contest all the way, that in itself the difference in the final outcome. In Tuesday's loss to Monahans, the Lady Steers took to the defensive immediately and were blow out of the gym. Last night, they asserted themselves early and forced Lamesa to crumble under the pressure.

The Tornadoes led 5-2 early in the first game but a block at the net by Tris Clemons and a scoring tip by Jana Mathews knotted the score 5-5. Three pin-point serves by Debbie Donelson boosted BSHS into an 8-5 lead and it was never close after that.

The Lady Steers scored the final six points of the game with Donelson again handling the serving duties. Four of her efforts scored without the ball returning over the net.

A scoring strike by Mathews snapped a 2-2 tie in the second game and sent Big Spring rolling towards its initial win. In this game, the Lady Steers moved their feet on defense and checked Lamesa's scoring opportunities. By prolonging the point, the Big Spring players were able to force the Tors into a mistake.

Lamesa drew as close as 8-7 midway through the game but BSHS scored the next six points, five on Lamesa errors. Ahead 14-7, Big Spring dropped two points but when the Tornadoes misplayed Donelson's last serve, Sharp had her first victory.

"Boy it feels good to beat Lamesa," she said, sporting a broad smile. "These kids have played each other since seventh grade and they all know each other. That makes it feel good."

The win also reversed one of the previous six losses. Lamesa won earlier in the season in three games.

"We had some good serving tonight," she con-

CELEBRATION TIME — The season's first win was a long time coming for the Big Spring High Lady Steers but finally arrived Thursday night. Big Spring downed Lamesa 15-6, 15-9 to cause the celebration by Lady Steers. Jana Mathews, right, joins the hugging session.

tinued. "We've been working on that. Before we go in from practice, you have to make a certain amount of serves. That's made a difference."

Donelson had nine serving points in the first game while Vickie Halfmann and Monette Wise had four each in the final game.

The junior varsity won its seventh match in nine tries with a 17-15, 11-15, 11-11 win over Lamesa.

Down 5-0 in the third game, Big Spring roared back into a 5-5 tie and moved out to a 12-5 lead as Lisa Subia served up six straight points.

Coach Elaine Stone praised Subia who made her first start of the season and banded in all 13 of her serves. "We had some lucky breaks," she added, "but because of Lisa's erves, we were able to win."

Subia, playing on the back row, and Tonya Gilstrap, handling setting duties, keyed the win. Adrienne Allen had nine service points in the first game and three in the second.

The varsity played Andrews this morning in the first round of an invitational tournament in San Angelo.

Coahoma tries No. 19 'Jackets'

COAHOMA — The state's No. 19 ranked Class 3-A team rolls into town tonight but Coahoma coach Larry Hudson says his team is ready for the challenge.

The Bulldogs, coming off a 3-7 season, are expected to be a much better team than the one which lost 25-0 to the Yellowjackets in the 1982 season opener.

Feature Game

"Our players are very excited...a little nervous...but we're ready to play," said Hudson this morning. "If we play defense up to par and generate some offense, we'll be all right."

Hudson is going with junior John Swinney at quarterback, moving Todd Engel, last year's starter, to the left halfback position. Richard Seal's fullback and Robby Henry the right halfback in the re-aligned backfield.

"We are way ahead," he reported, "of where we were last year."

Kermit was 8-2 last year and returns six offensive and six defensive starters including quarterback Agmed Ramirez. The 'Jackets are picked to win another 5-3A title, their fifth in the past six seasons.

Cougars' explosive offense extends Owls' skein, 45-14

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston running back Donald Jordan saw his long touchdown runs against Rice Thursday night as his way of showing that he is ready to play a dominate role in the Cougar offense.

HIGH-STEPPIN COUGAR — University of Houston quarterback Lionel Wilson cuts upfield for a gain Thursday against Rice. The Cougars won the SWC opener, 45-14.

Houston quarterback Lionel Wilson saw them another way.

"Those are Cotton Bowl plays," said Wilson, after Jordan scored on runs of 47, 45 and 1 yard to help thrash the Owls 45-14 in the Southwest Conference season opener for both teams.

The victory gave Houston the early lead in the SWC race and made Rice a loser for the 13th straight game, tying Kent State for the longest losing string in the nation.

Jordan, who missed spring practice because of knee surgery, didn't miss his chance against the Owls. Rice was reeling from his three touchdowns and Mike Clendenen's 22-yard field goal by the midway point of the second quarter.

"For three years, I've had great backs in front of me," said Jordan, a senior. "Tonight I got my chance. Our offensive line performed superbly. I had great blocks on the touchdown runs."

Houston Coach Bill Yeoman said Jordan also helped his own cause.

"What helped was when Jordan ran over two or three people..." Yeoman said. "That's the difference between a long run and a 9-yard gain."

Jordan is significantly stronger than a year ago, Yeoman said. "Donald claims his marriage got him going in the right direction. I don't care what it is, he's a talented kid."

Wilson, criticized for his turnovers last season, did not yield a fumble in the game although he tossed an interception to Donahue Walker, who returned it 65 yards for a touchdown.

Rice Coach Ray Alborn said Owl defenders were in position to stop Jordan's runs but didn't get the job done.

"On his second touchdown run we put two guys right where they are supposed to be and they don't make the tackle," Albarn said. "I don't know what you're supposed to do. You've got to give Jordan credit for making a helluva a run. Two kids put their helmets on him just like they are supposed to do."

Houston turned the game into the expected rout with three third-quarter scores on Dwayne Love's five-yard run, a 47-yard run by freshman Raymond Tate on his first college carry and Albert Pope's 32-yard interception return.

Rice quarterback Phillip Mease, intercepted twice in the game, tacked on the game's final score with a 20-yard pass to Tony Burnett with 4:14 left in the game.

LeBlanc and Rick Wilson's 28-yard field goal.

Charlie Smith ran 10 yards to make the score 30-0 in the third quarter before Prairie View countered early in the final period with a 27-yard scoring pass from Archie Seals to Roland Ratliff.

Freshman quarterback Todd Whitton then completed the scoring for the Lumberjacks with a 65-yard, fourth-quarter touchdown gallop.

SFA pounds Prairie View, 37-6

NACOGDOCHES, Texas (AP) — Quarterback Tod Weder threw for one touchdown and ran for another to lead Stephen F. Austin to a 37-6 win over Prairie View A&M in the non-conference college football opener for both schools.

Weder jaunted three yards for the first score Thursday night and threw 10 yards to Floyd Dixon late in the second quarter as SFA built up a 23-0 halftime lead.

The Lumberjacks' other first-half scores came on a 1-yard run by Michael LeBlanc and Rick Wilson's 28-yard field goal.

Charlie Smith ran 10 yards to make the score 30-0 in the third quarter before Prairie View countered early in the final period with a 27-yard scoring pass from Archie Seals to Roland Ratliff.

Freshman quarterback Todd Whitton then completed the scoring for the Lumberjacks with a 65-yard, fourth-quarter touchdown gallop.

Morris blanks Rangers, 5-0

DETROIT (AP) — While teams are involved in their respective pennant races, Detroit's Jack Morris and Chicago's LaMarr Hoyt are staging a personal race of their own for most victories in the American League. Thursday night, Morris got to the winner's circle just about one hour ahead of Hoyt. Morris, the major leagues' hottest pitcher, won his 10th straight game and 18th of the year with a six-hit, 5-0 victory over the Texas Rangers. Shortly thereafter, Hoyt tied him for wins by pitching a four-hit, 12-0 beauty over the Kansas City Royals. Ironically, it was the first shutout for each this season.

Morris, 18-8, struck out five to boost his league-leading total to 194. The 18 victories represent a career high for Morris, who twice has won 17. Tom Brookens and Chet Lemon backed the Tiger right-hander with home runs.

American League

White Sox 12, Royals 0

In Chicago, Hoyt, 18-10, got batting support from Carlton Fisk and Tom Paciorek, each of whom hit home runs. The homer by Fisk, a solo shot in the first inning off Bud Black, 8-5, was his 22nd of the year and tied him with Sherm Lollar for the most homers in a season by a White Sox catcher.

A crowd of 30,852 witnessed the blowout. The total season attendance reached 1,671,149, the largest in Chicago White Sox history. The club is only 3,784 from the all-time Chicago attendance record set in 1969 by the National League Cubs.

Blue Jays 5, Orioles 3

In Toronto, Jesse Barfield smashed two home runs and Ernie Whitt and Willie Upshaw each hit one to back the six-hit pitching of Doyle Alexander, lead the Blue Jays over Baltimore and snap the Orioles' winning streak at eight.

Barfield, who has five homers in his last five games, has 19 for the season — 16 at Exhibition Stadium. Alexander, 2-8, outpitched Jim Palmer, 3-4, for his second consecutive victory. The Toronto right-hander struck out six and walked two in hurling his third complete game of the season.

Twins 11-3, Red Sox 0-9

In Boston, Tom Brunansky drove in six runs with a pair of home runs and Al Williams pitched his first major league shutout with a five-hitter as Minnesota breezed over Boston in the first game of the doubleheader.

Tony Armas drove in four runs and AL batting leader Wade Boggs knocked in two in powering the Red Sox over the Twins in the second game. Left-hander Bobby Ojeda, 7-7, blanked Minnesota on three singles through six innings, and allowed a run in the seventh before being lifted in the eighth for Mark Clear.

A's 2, Yankees 0

In Oakland, Chris Codiroli pitched a three-hitter, topping the four-hit performance of New York's Dave Righetti, to lead the A's over the Yankees. Codiroli, 12-9, struck out five and walked four in pitching the second shutout of his rookie season. He preserved the shutout by pitching out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth.

Ryan gets 13th, Astros within 6

HOUSTON (P) — Houston manager Bob Lillis says his team isn't in a must win situation. But he knows the Astros can't afford to lose too many more games if they are to remain in contention in the National League West.

"We have to win a high percentage of our remaining (29) games," Lillis said. "With two teams to catch (Los Angeles and Atlanta), winning games is even more important to us."

The Astros used a three-run triple by Kevin Bass to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 Thursday. Nolan Ryan and Frank DiPino combined on a three-hitter as Houston downed the Pirates for the fifth time in six games.

National League

The Astros had started the day seven games behind first place Los Angeles in the Western Division. Bass pinch hit for Ryan in the seventh and delivered his first game winning hit of his career.

Ryan struck out 10 batters through the first seven innings, the 150th time he has struck out at least 10 in one game, a major league record.

Ryan, 13-6, was making his first start in six days after recovering from a groin injury. The victory was his seventh in a row over Pittsburgh.

Expos 8, Dodgers 3

Montreal jumped on Rick Honeycutt early and dealt the left-hander his first NL defeat. Gary Carter's RBI single gave the Expos a 1-0 lead in the first inning and Montreal scored three more runs in the third.

Manny Trillo singled home one of the runs, Al Oliver doubled home another and Carter's groundout produced another.

Honeycutt had won his first two games for the Dodgers since being acquired from Texas Aug. 19.

Cardinals 8, Braves 3

Darrell Porter belted three doubles and one of them drove in a run during St. Louis' six-run fourth inning. The visiting Cardinals jolted Pascual Perez, 13-6, and relievers Rick Camp and Pete Falcone for 14 hits as Atlanta lost for the fourth straight time.

Bob Forsch, 8-11, the third St. Louis pitcher, got the victory.

Cubs 3, Reds 1

Rookie Carmelo Martinez, called up from the minors Aug. 22, hit his fourth home run in 28 major-league at-bats to help Chicago.

Dick Ruthven, 11-10, allowed four hits in 7 1-3 innings. Lee Smith pitched hitless relief over the final 1 2-3 innings, striking out three, for his 23rd save.

Phillies 4, Giants 2

On a team known for its veterans, a pair of rookies teamed up to boost the Philadelphia Phillies into a share of first place in the National League East.

Al Sanchez, promoted from Triple-A just hours earlier, triggered a three-run fifth inning with a pinch-single to give Tony Ghelfi, called up from Double-A the same day, the victory as the Philadelphia downed the San Francisco Giants 4-2 Thursday night.

Vilas, Navratilova gain opening wins

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Connors led the seeded players' parade into the third round of the United States Open and continues to flourish at the National Tennis Center, a setting many players find nightmarish.

Planes from nearby LaGuardia Airport soar noisily overhead. The fans are boisterous, frequently ambivalent to the pleas for silence from the chair umpire. The wind is capricious, ignoring tramping his 31st birthday today, loves it all.

He ignored the disj his 31st birthday today, loves it all. He ignored the distractions Thursday and dispatched Sweden's Thomas Hogstedt 6-1, 6-2, 6-3, advancing along with No. 6 Guillermo Vilas of Argentina, No. 11 Gene Mayer and No. 14 Eliot Teltscher.

U.S. Open

Vilas outlasted Tom Cain 6-7, 6-3, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2. Mayer and Teltscher also survived five-set tests, Mayer defeating Cristo Steyn of South Africa 3-6, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2 and Teltscher eliminating Sammy Giammalva 6-2, 6-3, 5-7, 4-6, 6-2.

John Lloyd of Great Britain, husband of Chris Evert Lloyd, posted the tournament's biggest upset so far, stunning No. 10 Jose Higuera of Spain 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

Among the women, top-ranked Martina Navratilova staged another quest for her first-ever Open crown with a 6-1, 6-0 destruction of Argentine Emilise Raponi Longo.

Third-seeded Andrea Jaeger downed Elise Burgin 6-2, 6-3; No. 6 Wendy Turnbull of Australia defeated Sharon Walsh 6-3, 6-3; No. 7 Sylvia Hanika of West Germany beat Peruvian Laura Arraya 6-1, 6-3; No. 9 Andrea Temesvari of Hungary downed Virginia Wade of Britain 6-2, 6-3; and No. 12 Kathy Rinaldi defeated Vickie Nelson 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Seeded women losers were No. 11 Barbara Potter, beaten by Lisa Bonder 7-5, 6-7, 7-6, and No. 13 Claudia Kohde of West Germany, who bowed to Bonnie Gadusek 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

Connors, the defending champion, is seeking a fifth U.S. Open crown. No man in the last half century has won the title more frequently and the ones who did it before him had more serene surroundings in which to play.

The other Grand Slam events, Wimbledon, the French Open and the Australian Open are like libraries compared to the Open. But that's fine with Connors.

"Here you must put up with the conditions," he said. "I just happen to love the atmosphere and I always have."

"Here you have the planes flying over and 20,000 people crowded in animalistic style. The people get you revved up to play good tennis because they have every kind of sport here and they want you to go out there and kill yourself for them. I don't mind giving that to them."

O'Meara tops B.C.

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — Mark O'Meara should lift heavy luggage more often. The golfer from Irving, Texas, spent most of Monday and Tuesday in bed with an ice pack on his neck after suffering painful muscle spasms — apparently, he said, from lifting too many heavy bags Sunday night.

But in spite of pain that almost had him walking off the links Thursday, O'Meara posted an 8-under-par 63 to grab a 3-stroke lead in the first round of the B.C. Open.

O'Meara, the 1981 Professional Golfers' Association rookie-of-the-year, has yet to win a tournament, although he finished second this year in the Phoenix Open.

Three strokes back going into today's play were three other little-known golfers, none a tour regular — Eric Batten of San Jose, Calif.; Ronnie Black of Kountze, Texas; and Brad Faxon of Somerset, R.I.

In all, 73 players matched or bettered par 71 on the 6,966-yard En-Joie Golf Club course. First prize in the $300,000 PGA event is $54,000.

Civic clubs 'filling stadium'

In an effort to put fans in the stands, club members are selling $4 tickets that can be redeemed for reserved seats at the gate on game night or at the BSSISD administration offices Aug. 22-Sept. 2.

Civic clubs participating in the "Fill the Stadium" project are the Big Spring Rotary, Greater Big Spring Rotary, the Downtown Lions, Evening Lions, Morning Optimists, Noon Optimists, ABC, Civitans, Kiwanis, Ambassadors and Jaycees. Members are trying to sell 5,000 tickets.

Lions serving BBQ for game

The Big Spring Evening Lions Club is sponsoring a barbecue dinner at the high school cafeteria prior to Friday's first football game.

Serving is scheduled from 5-7:30 p.m. Tickets are $4 per plate, with to-go orders available.

All proceeds go to various Lions charities.

Police host softball event

The Big Spring Police Association is sponsoring a softball tournament for Class B and C teams this weekend at Johnny Stone Park.

Entry fee is $100 per team with trophies going to the top six teams and individual awards to the top four. A 12-man all-tournament team, two golden gloves and a team sportsmanship award will also be given out.

Airlines flying Asian route have no plans to alter flight patterns

NEW YORK (AP) — Airlines flying the Asian route taken by a Korean jumbo jet that the United States says was shot down by a Soviet warplane don't plan to curtail or change flight patterns that skirt Soviet air space, according to company spokesmen.

"We don't plan to change our airways," said Jeff Kriender, vice president for corporate communications at Pan American World Airways.

"We take care every time we go out there. Our pilots are conscious of the plotting on the map, and this incident has certainly heightened that."

Philippine Air, whose service area includes San Francisco, Manila, Seoul, Tokyo and Hong Kong, will continue to use the air corridors near the Soviet Union, a spokesman said.

"We've used those routes for years, and we've never strayed into Russian territory," said Vic Dunga, vice president and general manager of the U.S. office of the airline.

He added that Philippine Air takes extra care on all routes over the Pacific Ocean to make sure navigation equipment is working.

"If we have reason to doubt that the equipment will work along the way we delay the flight or cancel it," Dunga said. "We cannot afford to get lost over the Pacific. There is no where to land and the ocean will just swallow you up."

If a Philippine aircraft did veer into Soviet territory, he added, "I think the Russians might be friendlier to us."

Soviet fighter planes on Wednesday tracked and shot down a Korean airliner carrying more than 250 people after the aircraft had strayed into Soviet air space, said Secretary of State George P. Shultz. Among the passengers was U.S. Rep. Larry McDonald, D-Ga.

The International Civil Aviation Association, in Montreal, establishes international air routes by treaty, and the route traveled by the Korean aircraft was set two years ago.

to Seoul night flight. And a reservations clerk at Los Angeles International Airport who declined to give her name said few people canceled their reservations on today's flight.

A KAL jet with 110 people aboard was fired upon by Soviet aircraft in April 1978 and forced to land at Murmansk, a Soviet city. The Soviets alleged that the jet had violated their air space while on a flight from Paris to Seoul. Two passengers were killed and 13 others injured in the incident.

Japan Air Lines, which flies to Seoul from Tokyo and to Moscow three times a week, "adheres to the routes and there's no problem," said Morris Simoncelli, deputy director of public relations for Japan Air Lines.

Pan Am has been flying routes in the Pacific for 48 years and "we've never been fired upon during a time of peace," said Kriender, the spokesman.

Brent Baskfield, vice president for corporate communications at Northwest Orient Airlines, said his company provides direct flights to Seoul from Seattle, Chicago, Los Angeles and New York.

"We've served the Orient for 37 years ... and never had a problem," he said. "If an airplane stays in international air space, they won't be fired upon," he added.

The Air Line Pilots Association, which represents 34,000 U.S. commercial pilots, said in a statement Wednesday that it was "angered and revolted ... and we can think of now motivation whatsoever that would justify such hideous action."

The association sent a letter to the Soviet Embassy in Washington condemning the act and also asked the 65-nation International Federation of Airline Pilots Associations to join its protest by sending a message to Soviet President Yuri Andropov.

Grizzly bear documentary topic

NEW YORK (AP) — Grizzly bears, certainly not man's best friend, are victims of creeping humanity, according to a CBS News documentary. But no matter how valid the point of view, it's awfully hard to get worked up by one man's sentimental homage to these disappearing creatures.

The man, marching to his own environmental drumbeat, is Shad Northshield, who produced, directed and wrote tonight's "Paradise Lost," which grieves that the grizzly is going the way of the buffalo.

Northshield, his craggy voice conveying a sense of outrage, says that man has disrupted the balance of nature by taking his campfires and energy quests to the grizzly's doorstep. "When they are here together, there is trouble in paradise," he says. "Things and theories die. The balance is destroyed. That's the way a paradise gets lost."

Northshield once was executive producer of NBC's "Huntley-Brinkley Report" and now serves as senior executive producer of CBS' pioneering "Sunday Morning" broadcast. These are testaments to Northshield's vision, not "Paradise Lost."

"Paradise Lost" would have worked well as a 10- to 12-minute feature on "Sunday Morning" — combining picture postcards from the Western wilderness with the lament that life ain't what it used to be for the grizzlies.

As an hour, it comes off as piously indulgent. For Northshield to quote French author Albert Camus ("Life is a series of symbols"), and link the bear market on grizzlies as somehow reflective of America's weakening values is stretching the point.

"It has been said that wild animals define wilderness," says Northshield, "and that a nation that preserves that wilderness deserves to call itself civilized."

Although not every documentary has to be as purposeful as Edward R. Murrow's landmark piece on migrant workers, "Harvest of Shame," CBS News is experiencing a budget crunch and should have more important items on its agenda. Gene Jankowski, head of the CBS Broadcast Group, made that clear in his celebrated pep talk to the troops at CBS News last June, when he appealed for more hard-hitting documentaries.

But, even as a soft, quiet naturalist piece, "Paradise Lost" doesn't work. Pictures of places where the grizzlies used to roam in large numbers — the bear community at Yellowstone National Park has dwindled to 200 — are not that interesting. And the parade of experts, bemoaning the grizzlies' plight, becomes repetitive gazing.

To find grizzlies gambling in their natural habitat, "Paradise Lost" traveled to Denali National Park in Alaska, where grizzlies are flourishing, the experts say, because man — not beast — is the rarity.

In the 1960s, Yellowstone's garbage dumps were closed. "Without available garbage, (the grizzlies) wandered into trouble," says Northshield. "With people, of course."

This raises an ecological question about man's responsibility after he upsets the balance of nature. But, with its documentary output vulnerable to the auditors' knife, don't CBS News and Northshield have more important issues to examine?

The "CBS Evening News" is the commercial networks' only evening newscast not undergoing a facelift Monday, when Tom Brokaw goes solo on the "NBC Nightly News" and Peter Jennings becomes the single anchor for ABC's "World News Tonight."

Dan Rather remains the voice of authority on the "CBS Evening News," just as Walter Cronkite and Douglas Edwards were before him.

Supermarket bills increase

By The Associated Press

Supermarket bills increased about one-third of a percent last month, according to an Associated Press marketbasket survey which shows higher prices for eggs and lower prices for some meats.

The rate of increase during August was slower than it was during July, and prices generally remain lower today than they were at the start of the year, thanks to price decreases early in 1983.

The good news may not be too late to classify the checklist store in six cities and decreased in seven. The average increase was 3.7 percent and the average decrease was 3.6 percent. When the increases and decreases were averaged, the AP found the marketbasket bill had dropped by an average of two-tenths of 1 percent in the first eight months of 1983.

During the same period of 1982, by contrast, the marketbasket bills rose an average of 4.1 percent.

—There was discouraging news for egg lovers. The price of eggs went up at the checklist store in 11 of the cities surveyed during August. The increases ranged from 1 percent to 49 percent.

—The picture at the meat counter was brighter. The price of chopped chuck decreased at the checklist store in seven cities and all-beef frankfurters went down in five cities.

A look at the overall number of items in the AP survey showed slightly fewer increases during August than during July. Here are the percentages of increases and decreases:

Up	July Aug.
Down	24.7 23.6
Unchanged	19.2 23.1
Unavailable	47.3 50.6
	4.9 6.6

No attempt was made to weight the AP survey results according to population density or in terms of what percent of a family's actual grocery outlay each item represents.

The day of the week on which the check was made varied depending on the month. Standard brands and sizes or comparable substitutes were used. Items temporarily out of stock on one of the survey dates being compared were not included in the over-all total.

The AP did not try to compare actual prices from city to city — to say, for example, that eggs cost more in one area than another. The only comparisons were made in terms of percentages of increase or decrease — saying a particular item went up 10 percent in one city and 6 percent in another.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, milk, frankfurters and granulated sugar. A 15th item, chocolate chip cookies, was dropped from the list when the manufacturer discontinued the package size used in the survey.

The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, R.I., Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Private pleads guilty to manslaughter charges

NEW BRAUNFELS, Texas (AP) — An Army private pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter charges Thursday in the deaths of a pregnant mother and her two children who were struck and killed as they walked along a road here.

Mexican-American groups had been outraged when Pfc. William Dale Savage was tried only for the death of the family's father, Ruben Saucedo, and sentenced to 10 years probation.

About 200 protesters marched on the Comal County courthouse and four jail inmates went on a 20-day hunger strike.

Savage, 23, had tears in his eyes Thursday as he entered the guilty pleas, which were part of a deal his attorney struck with Assistant Attorney General Luis Vallejo.

Visiting Judge Carl Anderson of Waco sentenced Savage to 10 years probation on each of the three involuntary manslaughter counts, but said the probation would all run concurrently with his first probated sentence.

Anderson also ordered the soldier, stationed at San Antonio's Fort Sam Houston, to make $8,200 in restitution to the surviving members of the Saucedo family.

Savage's attorney, Rick Woods of San Antonio, said he waived his right to any appeals as part of the plea bargain.

Saucedo, his wife Hortencia and their two young children were killed Oct. 30 as they walked along a highway in this town north of San Antonio.

A medical examiner testified at Savage's trial in April that the private was "stumbling drunk" when he left Wurstfest, an annual festival celebrating New Braunfels' German heritage.

A parade of state witnesses testified Thursday that justice would be served if Savage, who had no previous criminal record, received probation instead of going to prison.

"We had to speak for their (the Saucedo's) rights, because they could not," testified Virginia Pacheco, head of the Committee for Justice for All. The predominantly Mexican-American group had pushed to have Savage prosecuted further.

"All they wanted was consideration," she said, "and to bring William Savage to the understanding of what he had done. Sending him to prison is not the conse-
