Reagan calls for 'Day of Mourning'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan, rejecting critics' complaints that he has not been tough enough with the Soviet Union for shooting down a Korean airliner, asked Friday: "Short of going to war, what would they have us do?"

"I know that some of our critics have sounded off that somehow we haven't exacted enough vengeance," Reagan said. "Well, vengeance isn't the name of the game. Short of going to war, what would they have us do?"

The president spoke on a closed-circuit television hookup with Western Republican leaders, meeting in Scottsdale, Ariz., after he joined relatives of the victims of Korean Air Lines Flight 007 at a memorial service at Washington Cathedral.

He also declared a national day of mourning Sunday for the 269 people killed when the jumbo jet was shot down Sept. 1 by a missile fired by a Soviet jet interceptor.

In his TV remarks to the GOP officials in Arizona, Reagan spoke of retaliatory steps open to the United States. "The idea is to make it plain to the world, as we have, that this is the Soviet Union against the world, not just the United States," he said.

The president said citizens of 13 nations in addition to the United States were aboard the Korean airliner. He said the most important thing is to "get the 13 countries together and take our case to the international organizations, for restitution to the families of the victims of that terrible tragedy, that massacre.

"We are also trying ... every way we can to see if we cannot get an end to the lying, an end to the defiance that the Soviet Union is presently voicing and seeing if we cannot eliminate the possibility of this ever taking place again," he said.

His response to his critics, who include some of his staunchly conservative supporters, were not made available by the White House but were recorded by Cable News Network.

At the memorial service, Reagan sat with his wife Nancy as Episcopal Bishop John T. Walker praised the president's restraint, denounced the deaths as a senseless tragedy and described the Soviet Union as "an outlaw in the family of nations."

"Indeed, the very earth has wept over this violation of its life," the bishop said.

"We applaud and support the controlled anger demonstrated by our president and our National Security Council and State Department," Walker said.

Reagan moved Thursday to sever all American business ties with the Soviet airline Aeroflot and has ordered the closing of its already dormant offices in Washington and New York. Earlier in the week, he announced a series of modest sanctions, including cancellation of a transportation agreement with the

C-City shooting probed

COLORADO CITY (SC) — District Attorney Rusty Carroll said Friday he expects to file charges next week in connection with the Thursday night shooting of a 39-year-old Colorado City woman at a truck stop here.

Sue Turner was listed in stable condition Friday night at Root Memorial Hospital where she was recovering from surgery for a gunshot wound to the abdomen.

Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant said yesterday Mrs. Turner was shot during an argument which arose between the management of Visa Energy Truck Plaza and the management of the Visa-Cattleman Restaurant over ice.

The two establishments are located together on Interstate Highway 20.

Carroll said two suspects in the shooting were treated for unspecified injuries and released from Root hospital after the incident. He would not say if the two are employees of either business.

Bryant said deputies were called to the scene about 8:37 p.m. when they received a report of aggravated robbery there. He said Mrs. Turner had been taken by private car to the hospital before deputies arrived.

No arrests have been made in connection with the incident, he said.

He said the shooting took place in the restaurant which was occupied by several customers at the time. Although several shots were reportedly fired, no one else was hit, he said.

USSR explains

IT HAPPENED THIS WAY — Soviet Chief of Staff Nikolai Ogarkov points to a map showing the Soviet version of what happened to a South Korean airliner which was shot down.

Soviets defend shooting

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet officials insisted Friday that an intruding South Korean jumbo jet was flying a spy mission in tandem with a U.S. reconnaissance plane, and that the airliner ignored 120 warning shots and all other signals before the order was given to blast it out of the sky.

At a rare, two-hour news conference, they warned that any other such intruders would also be shot down.

Three top officials appeared at the news conference before hundreds of reporters to present the Soviet version of events surrounding the shooting down of the airliner with a loss of 269 lives. It was the latest Kremlin effort to stem the international outrage over the action and to lay the blame on the United States.

Marshal Nikolai V. Ogarkov, Soviet chief of staff, said the South Korean airliner rendezvoused with a U.S. RC-135 spy plane and flew side by side with it for 10 minutes.

In Washington, White House spokesman Larry Speakes said "The Soviet event today did not provide us and the rest of the world with answers to questions we all have about the Soviet actions in this case. The Soviet Union still owes the world answers and assurances that civil aviation will not be targeted in the future."

Asked about the Soviet allegation that the Korean plane was on a spy mission, and in contact with the reconnaissance plane, Speakes said it was "absurd."

U.S. officials have said a U.S. spy plane was in the general vicinity of the jumbo, but that the reconnaissance plane was never closer than 75 miles to the airliner and landed in Alaska an hour before the catastrophe.

The jumbo jet was shot down by an air-to-air missile Sept. 1 over the Soviet Far Eastern island of Sakhalin.

Ogarkov, the Soviet chief of staff, told a packed news conference that was televised abroad that Soviet search efforts had found no survivors or bodies. The news conference was not broadcast in the Soviet Union.

The 65-year-old military chief, his chest covered with decorations, repeatedly pointed to a four-color 20-foot by 10-foot backdrop map to support his allegation that the plane was on a spy mission under the direction of the "special services of the United States of America."

Ogarkov said, "the decision to terminate (shoot down the jetliner) was taken by the district air defense command post," that the fighter crew and ground command acted properly and legally, and that "in the future, if need be, they will also perform their combat tasks."

Ogarkov, flanked on the dais by First Deputy Foreign Minister Georgi M. Kornienko and Kremlin spokesman Leonid M. Zamyatin, said Soviet radar first began tracking the jetliner in the same area where the air defenses had detected an American RC-135 spy plane more than two hours earlier.

He said that the jetliner and the spy plane "merged on the radar screen for 10 minutes" before one of the planes flew toward Alaska, while the other headed straight for Kamchatka. "This led the Soviet control point to the conclusion that an American airplane was entering Russian airspace," he said.

"What was the point of that entry? Obviously, the flight of that plane was being controlled, precisely controlled I would say, and the entry was

Auto insurance rates here could jump over 9%

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau AUSTIN — Automobile insurance rates in Howard County would increase an average of 9.2 percent if the State Board of Insurance follows the recommendation of the automobile insurance industry.

Statewide, automobile premiums would increase an average of 11.4 percent under the industry recommendation released Friday.

Those recommendations will be presented to the State Board of Insurance at hearings on state automobile insurance rates Sept. 27.

New rates adopted by the board would go into effect Jan. 1, 1984.

The state's insurance industry is represented by the Texas Automobile Insurance Service Office. The State Board of Insurance staff, which generally recommends rates lower than those proposed by the industry, is expected to release its recommendations late next week.

A staff spokesman said the agency is still reviewing the industry's investment income levels.

In Texas, automobile insurance premiums vary according to a variety of factors, including the type of automobile driven, the county it is driven in and a motorist's driving record.

The industry's rates are based on the use of a 1983 low- to medium-priced Buick, Chevrolet, Ford, Honda, Mazda, Nissan, Oldsmobile, Plymouth, Renault or Volkswagen not used for business but driven to and from work. The rates assume the driver is a male at least 25 or a female at least 21.

In Howard County, automobile insurance premiums would increase $54 over the $584 now being paid by the average motorist.

Included in policies renewed after Jan. 1 are higher bodily injury and property damage liability limits ordered by the 1983 Legislature. Motorists currently are required to carry a minimum liability of $10,000 for bodily injury, $20,000 for property damage and $5,000 for personal injury protection.

Those limits will be raised to $15,000, $30,000, and $15,000, respectively by the new legislation for policies renewed or issued after Jan. 1.

That increased liability requirement accounts for $14 of the premium increase proposal sought by the insurance industry in Howard County.

The industry's policy examples include a $50 deductible for non-collision coverage for $200 for claims resulting from collisions.

In Borden, Dawson, Glasscock, Martin and Mitchell counties, located in a different rating territory, the insurance industry proposes that premiums be increased 9.3 percent, or $47. Motorists currently pay $503.

A year ago the State Board of Insurance hiked automobile premiums an average of 14.8 percent statewide. In 1981, the board approved a 16.3 percent increase statewide.

TESCO continues plea for $195 million hike

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau

AUSTIN — West Texas Utilities and Texas Electric Service Co. officials continued to plead their cases for revenue increases before the Public Utility Commission Friday, but the fruits of their labor won't be known for quite some time.

Both rate hearings began before commission hearing examiners Tuesday. Testimony in West Texas Utilities' bid for a $26.6 million annual increase in revenues is expected to close Monday.

Arguments in Texas Electric Service Co.'s bid for a $195 million annual increase in revenues, marked so far by conflict of interest questions, is expected to continue through at least next week.

The Texas Municipal League, which is fighting both rate requests on behalf of its member Texas cities, argues that WTU deserves only a $13.8 million increase while TESCO should get no more than $54.9 million.

A commission spokesman said Friday that once the hearings are completed, the examiners reviewing each case probably won't issue recommendations for two months.

Focalpoint

Bell workers join hurricane cleanup

About 800 Bell System telephone installers kissed their spouses and kids goodbye this week and joined caravans of Bell trucks headed for Houston to help restore service wiped out by Hurricane Alicia.

Alicia ripped through Southeast Texas Aug. 18, leaving $20 million in damage to Southwestern Bell equipment and facilities in its wake.

"Installers are coming from cities throughout 10 states, including Big Spring, and represent three different companies: Southwestern Bell, South Central Bell and Southern Bell," according to Darlene Gifford, Southwestern Bell's Big Spring area community relations manager.

The caravans will tea up with about 2,200 Houston-area installers, bringing the restoration crew to about 3,000 employees.

"They'll have time off during the project," Ms. Gifford said. "But it could be about 10 weeks before these folks return home for good."

Cleaning up after Alicia probably will take two weeks, according to telephone company damage reports, and service restoration could take an additional eight weeks, Gifford said.

But the installers are well-armed for the challenge. "They have two hundred cases of bug spray for mosquitoes and wasps, four million feet of drop wire, about a thousand telephone poles, and a hundred cases of paper towels," Ms. Gifford said.

The company was ordering more than a million feet of drop wire per day. Drop wire is the line leading from poles and connector boxes to customer homes.

Initially, the greatest need is for hardware to replace downed aerial cable. The storm ripped up nearly 1,600 telephone poles.

One imperative item is insect spray, she said. Pools of stagnant water and 90-degree temperatures that Alicia left in her wake provide happy hunting grounds for mosquitoes and major problems for telephone employees working outside to replace damaged facilities.

"We've gone through 200 cases of mosquito spray, and we'll go through that much more in the next few days," Ms. Gifford said. "At 12 cans a case, that's a lot of bug spray. And I could get $10 a can for wasp spray out here. These bugs are big enough to carry you away."

So far, there have been no shortages, she said. "But I worry about that bug spray ... we wouldn't want to run short on that."

Chili cook-off scheduled

The Tejas CowBelles will sponsor a Chili Cook-off for area residents Sept. 24 during the Howard County Fair. Entry fee is $5.

Contestants must provide their own equipment and supplies. Cooking can begin after 11 a.m. Entries will be judged at 5 p.m.

First, second and third place winners will receive gift certificates for beef. Showmanship and taster's choice awards also be given.

Participants should call Bobbie Nix at 263-3060 or Lucille Sterling at 965-3464.

Sheriff's Log

Burglary suspect sentenced

Evarista Franco Pineda of 1304 Kindle pleaded guilty Friday in 118th District Court to burglary of a building with intent of aggravated assault. He was given eight years probation.

Larry Austin Parker pleaded guilty in Howard County Court to driving while intoxicated. He was fined $300 and court costs.

Eric K. Brister was arrested in Corpus Christi on a bondsman off bond resulting from a Howard County theft warrant. He was released on bond set in Corpus Christi.

Weldon Trammel, 33, of 812 W. Third was transferred to county jail from city jail Friday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was released on $2,500 bond set by Municipal Judge Melvin Daratt.

Police Beat

Equipment reported stolen

Management of McMahon Concrete Co. at 605 N. Benton said an electric disc grinder valued at $219 and a torch valued at $450 were stolen from the shop area sometime in the past three weeks.

Police reports also showed the following:

Trent Fraley of 1506 Stadium said a dirt bike valued at $180 was stolen while it was parked near 1314 E. Third at about 11:40 a.m. Friday.

Management of Bill Chrane Auto Sales at 1300 E. Fourth said someone removed a battery and four wheels and tires from a parked vehicle sometime Thursday. The loss was estimated at $360.

Police arrested George Smith, 17, of 509 E. 13th on a warrant for simple assault Friday afternoon.

Suits filed in hurricane

HOUSTON (AP) — The state Attorney General's Office filed civil suits Friday against five Houston-area companies that allegedly price-gouged customers in the wake of Hurricane Alicia.

The Glass Masters Co. and American Ice Co. agreed to return money to customers. Hearings were set for later this month for Wattigney Services and Bill Beal's Bonded Tree Services Inc., both tree companies.

Malone and Hogan Clinic names 6 to staff

Malone and Hogan Clinic has announced the addition of five physicians to its staff.

The doctors are specialists in the areas of dermatology, ophthalmology, radiology, gynecology, obstetrics, orthopedics and anesthesia.

The clinic has added the husband and wife team of R.K. Reddy and N.K. Reddy. He is an orthopedic surgeon, having begun his practice in Big Spring in 1981 as an independent physician. His wife served during that time as an independent anesthesiologist.

He is a graduate of Guntur Medical College in India and has served residencies in general, vascular, plastic and orthopedic surgery in hospitals across the United Kingdom.

She received her diploma in anesthesiology from the Royal College of Surgeons of England. She completed her residency in the United Kingdom. She has also completed a residency at Thomas Jefferson Hospital and worked on a staff at a hospital affiliated with the University of Pennsylvania.

The Reddy's are the parents of two children, Praveen, 18, and Naveen, 15.

F.J. del Castillo joins the clinic staff in the fields of obstetrics and gynecology. Castillo received his MD degree from the Universidad Autonoma de San Luis Potosi in Mexico in 1976.

Castillo is a member of the American Medical Association and a junior fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

He and wife, Maria Teresa, have two children, Javier Eli and Sofia.

Another new staff member is Harvey DuBiner who comes to Big Spring from New Orleans, La.

DuBiner is an ophthalmologist, and he graduated from Chicago Medical School in Chicago, Ill., in 1979. He has served residencies at Cook County Hospital in Chicago and Charity Hospital in New Orleans.

DuBiner is single. Zimbabwe native Max Wolf is a specialist in radiology and a graduate of the University of Cape Town Medical School, Groote Schuur Hospital in South Africa.

Wolf interned at Conradie Hospital in Cape Town in medicine and surgery. He served a residency in diagnostic radiology at the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, South Africa.

He and wife, Carol-Anne, have a daughter, Martynne, and a son, Jonathan.

Thomas Long, a graduate of the Harvard Medical School, specializes in the practice of dermatology.

Long took his MD from Harvard in 1978 and has served residencies in dermatology at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, Mass., during 1981-82 and 1982-83.

He interned during 1978-79 in internal medicine at the UCLA Center for the Health Sciences in Los Angeles, Calif., and served residencies in internal medicine from 1979 to 1981.

THE GOOD LIFE — SMU students enjoy happy hour that is free to guests at the Twin Sixties Inn in Dallas.

They are staying at the hotel in their dorm is renovated.

SMU shows it's a country club school

DALLAS (AP) — While the University of Texas at Arlington is facing a crisis in student housing, Southern Methodist University is accommodating some of its students in facilities that feature free coffee, maid service, a pool and a free drink at "happy hour."

About 75 SMU students are upholding the Dallas school's reputation as a "country club" school. As a temporary measure, the school has put the students in a Dallas hotel while their dormitory is being renovated.

SMU housing director Eugene Ward said the displaced students should be back in their dorm by the beginning of October. The cost of housing the students at the Twin Sixties Inn is about $10,000 a week, according to hotel general manager Jody Johnson.

Ward said the university is spending a little more than twice as much to house the students as they are paying the school. He said the temporary measure is "a hassle for us and for the students."

Not all of the students, however, agree. "The first three weeks have been great," said SMU sophomore Charles Slack. "With wake up calls, free papers and coffee each morning, it's not a bad way to start the school year."

"You'd never see anything like this except at SMU," said Ben Smith, a junior. "Where else would you find a dorm where you can enjoy happy hour, take a dip in the pool and then call room service?"

At the nearby University of Texas at Arlington, the housing shortage is a different story.

UTA's growth, which has made it the state's fifth largest school, has created a housing shortage that is forcing prospective students to enroll elsewhere, officials said.

"Lots of (students) are finding another place to live, and others may have gone to another school if it has more housing," said Will Parker, UTA director of student housing.

UTA officials said that on Sept. 1, about 580 students were on a waiting list for dormitory units and another 1,100 wanted to lease an apartment or house from the university.

deliberate," he said. Kornienko said "their flights were certainly coordinated so as to make our task more difficult and confuse our air defense forces."

Ogarkov said the intruder crossed over the Kamchatka peninsula and four fighters were scrambled and tried to force the jetliner to land at a Soviet airfield.

But the plane's pilot "altered his course and began approaching positions of our anti-air defense forces base. There was no doubt then it was a reconnaissance plane," he said.

The plane then crossed over Sakhalin Island, six more interceptors were sent aloft, and from a distance of six miles they fired 120 tracer shells to warn the intruder, he said.

"As even after that the intruding craft did not obey and tried to escape heading for Vladivostok ... the interceptor aircraft was given an order to terminate the flight using air-to-air missiles. The order was executed," Ogarkov said.

"Termination of the flight ... was not an error. Anti-aircraft defense forces attempted to (force a landing) ... complete conviction was achieved that we were dealing with a reconnoitering plane," he said.

"We dragged on our activities for 2½ hours and it was only when we were convinced we were dealing with a reconnaissance airplane totally ignoring our defense forces. What was left to us?"

Zamyatin, known for his fiery oratory, said: "There was no other way out for the Soviet air defenses which guard Soviet air space."

"That is what we tried for two hours to make it land safely on Soviet territory. And now you're speaking of lost lives. We tried to save those lives. But at that time we did not know it was a civilian plane. We knew it was a military aircraft."

Ogarkov insisted the Soviets did not know the intruder was a Boeing 747 carrying passengers, including 61 Americans.

Reagan

Soviets and suspension of talks on opening consulates in Soviet and American cities.

Much of the Washington diplomatic corps joined senior U.S. military officers and members of Congress and Reagan's Cabinet at the 45-minute service. Afterward, Reagan met privately in a cathedral chapel with 75 relatives of the victims.

"No words can compensate for the burden of sorrow you carry," the president told them. He shook each of their hands in what White House aides described as an intensely emotion meeting.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes quoted Reagan as telling the relatives, "At times like this, we can only trust in God for His mercy and wisdom. We are determined to do everything we can to see if things can't be done so that events like this will never happen again. I promise you we'll do everything we can."

The families then went to the State Department to hear Undersecretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger express condolences and attend a briefing by department lawyers, who explained the claim for compensation that the United States intends to present to the Soviet Union on their behalf.

The dollar amount of the claim will not be known until the lawyers complete their work on the case, probably sometime next week, officials said.

Back at the White House, Reagan signed a proclamation designating Sunday as a national day of mourning.

Speaking so softly that reporters standing nearby in the Oval Office had difficulty hearing him, Reagan said, "I don't know of anything that would be more fitting in view of what we are mourning today, the tragic murder of those 269 people, 61 of them our own citizens."

The proclamation read in part, "Good and decent people everywhere are filled with revulsion by this despicable deed and by the refusal of the guilty to tell the truth. This was a crime against humanity that must never be forgotten, here or throughout the world."

Bell rate hike hearing delayed

AUSTIN — Hearings on Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.'s record $1.7 billion rate hike case have been delayed from Oct. 11 to Oct. 24.

The two-week delay granted by a Public Utility Commission hearings examiner is considerably less than the two to three months requested by several consumer groups and the state's new Public Counsel's Office.

Hearings examiner Jacqueline Holmes said she was not bowing to Bell's "doomsday drums" but she could not see delaying the case beyond Oct. 24.

Bell is trying to win at least temporary rate increases by Jan. 1 to support the company after it becomes independent of its parent company, American Telephone & Telegraph.

Representatives of the Texas Municipal League, the Texas Consumers Union and Public Counsel Jim Boyle said at least a two-month delay was necessary because Bell won't even complete its filing of rate case information until Sept. 26.

"We're not asking for a delay simply for the sake of a delay," league attorney Don Butler told Ms. Holmes. Such a complex and unusual case, he said, requires more preparation, especially in light of Bell's late filings.

"It's a question of balance and fundamental fairness," said Texas Consumers Union attorney Carol Barger. "We are being penalized. The company can file late but we're expected to go to trial a week later."

Bell's attorney, Jon Dee Lawrence, agreed that everyone would like more time. However, he said the commission hearings examiners also need a chance to hear some of the testimony before they must decide in December on interim or temporary rate increases.

Judge orders Gibb jailed

LONDON — A divorce court judge ordered rock star Robin Gibb of the Bee Gees jailed Friday for talking to reporters about his former wife, but an appeals court later released him and fined him $7,500 instead.

Gibb, 36, was sentenced to two weeks in jail on a charge of contempt of court stemming from a court order forbidding him to tell newspapers about his failed marriage.

Gibb had argued in divorce court that an article about his marriage published in the Scottish Daily Express in May was based on an "emotional outburst" by him.

Gibb's lawyer, Andrew Kirkwood, told the appeals court the case was one of urgency.

"Quite apart from the distress and anxiety Mr. Gibb is feeling at the moment, he has a commitment ... to perform a show with his brothers in Verona, Italy, tomorrow," Kirkwood said.

Gibb's ex-wife, Molly, 36, who had brought the action, burst into tears when the jail term was imposed. "I didn't want that," she told reporters.

Gibb and two brothers, Maurice and Barry, formed the Bee Gees in Australia before moving to Britain. They have another brother, Andy, who is not part of the group.

Rocker likes to fish

LANSING, Mich. — Rock star Ted Nugent is familiar to millions as wielder of a screaming guitar, but in his off time he's more likely to be armed with a fishing rod or a shotgun.

Nugent, who says his greatest thrills are found in duck marshes or fishing for largemouth bass, is honorary state chairman of National Hunting and Fishing Day, to be observed Sept. 24.

"Hunting and fishing are hobbies I not only want my son and daughter to enjoy as much as I do, but they're part of my life I'm proud of," says Nugent, who lives on a farm near Jackson, in southern Michigan.

He is involved with several conservation groups, including Ducks Unlimited, the National Wildlife Federation and Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

Actress named chairwoman

NEWARK, N.J. — Actress Celeste Holm has been selected chairwoman of the New Jersey Motion Picture and Television Commission, according to a published report.

Ms. Holm, one of 11 unpaid members of the commission, owns a vacation home in Washington Township, Warren County.

Her appointment as chairwoman is to be announced Sept. 19, when a special "show train" will bring celebrities from New York City to Newark for a reception, The Star-Ledger of Newark reported Friday.

Her movie credits include "Gentlemen's Agreement," starring Gregory Peck; "Snake Pit," starring Olivia deHavilland; "All About Eve," starring Bette Davis and "High Society," starring Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and Frank Sinatra.

Ms. Holm won an Academy Award for "Gentlemen's Agreement" and was nominated for her work in "Come to the Stable" and "All About Eve."

Fans greet 'Happy Days'

MILWAUKEE — About 500 screaming fans turned out to welcome the cast of "Happy Days" to Milwaukee, the setting of the series, for a celebration of the show's 10th season.

Al Molinaro, who plays Al; Marion Ross, whose character is Marion Cunningham; Anson Williams, who plays Potsie; and Ted McGinley, who portrays Coach Phillips, were greeted at the airport Thursday night.

They and other cast members, including Scott Baio, who plays Chachi; Tom Bosley, who plays Howard Cunningham; and Henry Winkler, better known as Fonzie, were to appear at area shopping centers Friday.

A "Happy Days" parade was scheduled Saturday.

Ralph's uniform arrives

GREENVALE, N.Y. — A bus driver's uniform worn by Jackie Gleason in the 1950s TV series "The Honeymooners" has arrived at C.W. Post College here for display by a fan club headed by a college employee.

Peter Crescenti, co-president of RALPH — the Royal Association for the Longevity and Preservation of the Honeymooners — said Friday that the club paid $650 at auction earlier this year for a uniform worn by Gleason's character, Ralph Cramden.

But the uniform never was turned over and the club sued.

When Gleason heard about the problem, he sent another of the uniforms he wore during the long-running comedy series.

Missing boy returns

INDIANAPOLIS — A 12-year-old boy who took $40 from his piggy bank and drove his stepfather's car 500 miles from Jackson, Tenn., to Indianapolis was picked up by police Friday on his grandmother's front porch.

The youth's parents moved to Jackson from Indianapolis last month, and he had returned, hoping to attend class with his former schoolmates.

He drove the entire Jackson-Indianapolis distance alone, but was arrested for trespassing when he couldn't enroll in the eighth grade at School 28 because he didn't have his parent's signature. He has not been identified because of his age.

The boy was temporarily housed at the Marion County Children's Guardian Home, but on Tuesday he walked away from it and was listed by police as a runaway.

Police Sgt. Robert McLaughlin said he located the youth about 1 p.m. Friday at the home of the youth's grandmother, who was at work.

"He was laying on the front porch," said McLaughlin. "He will be held at the Juvenile Court Detention Center for Tennessee authorities."

Adults prosecuted in case

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP) — Police are backing down from an earlier statement that children in this town were operating a "prostitution ring," but authorities say two adults who paid youngsters for sexual services will be prosecuted.

Windham County State's Attorney John Rocray declined to identify the two suspects or say what charges were being brought against them. But Lt. Richard Guthrie, the head juvenile officer for the Brattleboro Police Department, said earlier this week that anyone arrested in the case would probably be charged with sexual assault or lewd and lascivious behavior.

Police earlier this week said they had cracked a sex-for-hire ring involving 10 local youngsters ranging in age from 8 to 13.

But some local and state authorities are backing off from their original description of the activity as a "child prostitution ring." And a woman who says one of her children was involved in the incidents has complained about the term as well, saying, "These are innocent kids."

Rocray, Brattleboro Police Chief Marcel LeClair and John Burchard, commissioner of the state Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services, issued a news release Thursday saying the term "prostitution" was "inappropriate."

'Dem bones' are real find

CORAL SPRINGS, Fla. — While walking his dog, electronics technician and fossil enthusiast Scott Stafford stumbled upon what may be the bones and teeth of a mastadon or great sloth that roamed Florida 10,000 years ago.

"I was jumping for joy," said Scott Stafford. "When I was a kid, dinosaurs were my main interest."

Stafford found the bones Sunday near a townhouse construction site. One fragment appears to be the rounded end of a leg bone. Two teeth are about the size of a desk top tape dispenser and weigh 4 pounds.

Dr. Ed Sobey, director of the Science Museum and Planetarium of Palm Beach County, called the find "fairly unusual." He estimated the bones are 10,000 years old.

"What has gotten our attention is that if (Stafford) found these samples casually, there could be something substantial there if we take a closer look," said Sobey.

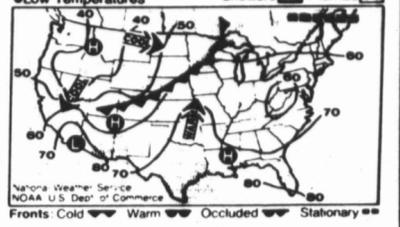

The developers of the townhouses, MAP Builders, have agreed to let museum representatives inspect the site to determine the significance of the find.

Sobey said the teeth are similar to those found in a mastadon, the ancestor of the modern elephant. But they could also belong to giant sloth or bear, he said.

The variety of bone fragments implies the site may have been a deep peat bog into which early mammals fell, Sobey said. The soft, black organic soil would have preserved the bones, he said.

Flash flood watch

By The Associated Press
A flash flood watch was in effect today for the Texas Gulf Coast as a number round of thunderstorms dumped rain from Southeast Texas across the coastal plains to the Rio Grande Valley.

The storms were spawned by the combination of a pocket of cool air aloft and daytime heating.

The heaviest activity this morning was reported near Brownsville and between Bay City and Galveston. Rain also was approaching El Paso from the southwest because of a upper air disturbance over northern Mexico.

Skies were fair over most portions of west and north Texas but low clouds enshrouded the Hill Country and Edwards Plateau eastward through Central Texas to the coastal bend. South to southeasterly breezes at 5 to 15 mph maintained high humidities and above normal temperatures.

Early morning temperatures were mostly in the 70s and ranged from 65 at Marfa to 81 at Galveston and Corpus Christi.

The forecast called for thunderstorms over most of the state tonight and Saturday. Lows tonight are expected to dip into the lower 70s. Highs Saturday should reach the lower 90s.

Thunderstorms ranged across the plateau region to the northern Rockies, while widely scattered thunderstorms struck in the Gulf coastal states.

Temperatures included highs near 100 in the central and southern Plains and the mid-Mississippi valley. Highs of 100 to 110 were recorded in the desert Southwest. There were readings in the 70s and 80s in most of the Northeast.

Heavy thunderstorms drenched southern Texas as well as the northern Rockies and the northern Plains.

A warm front stretched across eastern Missouri and central Iowa, extending to a low over north central South Dakota.

A cold front extended from a low in northeastern Manitoba through southwestern Ontario and northwestern Minnesota to the low in South Dakota. There was a stationary front across northwestern Wyoming stretching to a low over northern Nevada and northern California and the Pacific.

The National Weather Service forecast for Friday called for thundershowers across the Rockies, the northern Plains, the upper Mississippi valley, Florida and the Gulf coast. Fair weather was expected from New England and the Atlantic coast to the central Plains. Sunshine was called for in California and partly cloudy conditions in the Northwest.

Temperatures around the nation at 3 p.m. EDT ranged from 57 in Klamath Falls, Ore., to 100 in Palm Springs, Calif., Phoenix, Ariz., and Topeka, Kan.

Here is Thursday early afternoon weather from selected cities, as supplied by the National Weather Service:

—East: Atlanta na, Boston 81 fair, Buffalo 71 partly cloudy, Caribou na, Charleston, S.C., na, Cincinnati na, Cleveland na, Detroit na, Miami 90 partly cloudy, New York 80 fair, Philadelphia 80 fair, Pittsburgh na, Washington 84 fair.

West Texas: Isolated to widely scattered late afternoon and evening thunderstorms mainly south. Otherwise, partly cloudy today, clearing tonight and fair Saturday. Highs today and Saturday mostly in the 90s except near 104 in the Big Bend valleys. Lows in the 60s except 70s south.

'Wildfire' almost never happened

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — There almost never was a generation of horses named "Wildfire."

Three years before Michael Murphey wrote the hit song about an elusive and haunting stallion, he was told by doctors he might never sing again because of nodes on his vocal cords. He could do nothing and hope to heal on his own, or undergo surgery with a 50 percent chance of success.

He chose the operation and, "Wildfire," which came out in 1975, went on to sell 2 million records and inspire a generation of fans to name their horses after the song.

At most concerts, Murphey says, "I have two or three kids come up and say, 'I have a horse named 'Wildfire.' It's probably the best feeling of anything in my career — that I had a part in someone's childhood."

Some of the youngsters who loved the song eight years ago are young adults now, and are record buyers.

"As they've grown up, they've kept close to the tune and I've had a resurgence from them," says Murphey, 38.

His career has had a resurgence, too. His "What's Forever For" was a hit on the country and pop charts this year. His 10th album, "Michael Martin Murphey," yielded three consecutive Top 10 country hits. In May, the Academy of Country Music voted him top new male vocalist — even though he had been a recording artist for 11 years. He wrote music and the screenplay for the movie, "Hard Country."

The turmoil over his medical problems cost him a marriage. His record company dropped him before he had a chance to do "Wildfire," and his band quit. He was drained financially.

"I was incredibly depressed," Murphey said in an interview from his home in Taos, N.M. "I discovered how important singing was. It was probably the most instructive, but the toughest time, of my life."

"It leveled everything in my life. Then I started over. Out of those ashes came the most successful period of my life. You have to get down in a valley before you can climb to the mountaintop."

Now, he says, a movie might be made based on "Wildfire."

"There seems to be a desperate feeling for the horse and freedom and escape," Murphey says. "I think this made it a hit song; the song played to the nostalgia of that time. That explains why 'The Black Stallion' (the movie) was a hit."

"If you go back to early legends of the West, one of the earliest is the pacing stallion; he roams free on the range. He's a magic horse that symbolizes this free, roaming aspect."

While other country singers and songwriters focus music on spirited beer drinking and faithless spouses, Murphey concentrates on softer images such as Indians and horses.

Besides "Wildfire," other Murphey songs include "Geronimo's Revenge," "Cherokee Fiddle," "Renegade" and "Medicine Man."

Murphey, who looks like a bearded Robert Redford, wrote "Cherokee Fiddle" after meeting an old Indian fiddler on a train in Colorado. It was a hit for Johnny

A GENERATION OF WILDFIRES — Since 1975, people have been naming horses after Michael Murphey's song "Wildfire." The song was about an elusive stallion.

Lee and was part of the score in the movie, "Urban Cowboy."

Murphey's fascination with Indians carries over into his private life. His second marriage — he's been married three times — was a traditional Indian ceremony in South Dakota in 1973.

He has turned to love themes in the past year, with the melodic "What's Forever For," written by Rafe VanHoy of Nashville, "Love Affairs" and the current "Don't Count the Rainy Days."

The title cut of his next album, "The Heart Never Lies," describes the wonder people feel when positive forces, beyond intellect and imagination, take control of life.

Born in Dallas, Murphey moved to Los Angeles in the 1960s where he studied creative writing, poetry, Latin and medieval English at the University of California at Los Angeles.

He returned in 1971 to Austin, Texas, and joined Willie Nelson, Jerry Jeff Walker and others in establishing the city as a recording center.

from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1983
GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a good Sunday to get a good rest and to build up your physical, mental and spiritual resources and well being and not to extend your present interests by any expansion.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your luncheon may not be good at all today so be alert and use only your good judgment. Study the situation around you.
Taurus (April 20 to May 20) Don't take up any more points with others or big trouble could result. Look up that good friend who can bring you happiness.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A day for rest and relaxation and to plan your coming week's activities most wisely. Pay more attention to a family tie.
SCORPIO CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Stick to your finest principles and don't run off on any silly tangent that could be depressing. A good friend wants to visit.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Seek out a practical person who can give you excellent advice, but don't put any new plan to work just yet.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) You have to think straight if you are to keep out of trouble today so don't arrive at any stupid decision.
LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) Good day to think over all those practical plans that are in your mind and know how best to put them in operation another day.
SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) You may have some personal wish today but do nothing about it since later on you may change your mind.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You may have amusements, but rise above them and don't lose your temper, and you can handle them wisely.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Be careful of your actions so that you do not irritate others, and lose good friends. You can garner data from a newcomer.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Plan how to improve your status and make notes so that you won't forget ideas later on. The one you love is in a fine mood.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Be with that wise person today instead of running off here and there without much purpose in mind.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who will be full of energy which should be channeled in right direction otherwise your progeny could easily get in with the wrong crowd and ruin an otherwise promising life.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1983
GENERAL TENDENCIES: From earliest moment possible in the morning you have the chance to really express yourself and to project your ideas.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You can carry through with decisions you made over the weekend, so get an early start.
Taurus (April 20 to May 20) Getting business deals set up wisely today is good and gain new ideas.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Partners make suggestion that should be followed, both modern and orthodox.
SCORPIO CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Begin week's activities most wisely. If well, also adding some modern touches.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Early make arrangements for pleasure that will bring you joy and happiness.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) A good day for more concord at home and discussing mutual affairs intelligently.
LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) Good day for communicating and making your daily life more prosperous. Plan visits.
SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) If you add a modern system to a present set-up, you can make much more money now.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Bring finest talents into play and you can accomplish almost anything you desire.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try to get the support of bigwigs quietly for any projects you may have in mind.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Ideal day to be your own gorgeous self. See as many friends as you can.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Plan how to further your career in both standard and modern ways for the right results.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those delightful young persons who can get ideas across to others in a most direct way, but be sure to first teach to be well prepared with facts and figures.

Movies turn serious as fall approaches

I like to save all my movies for fall, when people start acting like human beings again. — Mel Brooks

Hollywood tells us summer is the time for fun. Well, summer is over. Let's get serious.

The movie industry saves its serious shots for the cold days. Also its best work. Few movies this year, not even the year's big hit Return of the Jedi, have stuck in the mind for long.

With the exception of the quirky Scottish movie Local Hero, there don't seem to be any sure Academy Award contenders.

The serious subjects this fall and winter include tales of the Rosenberg execution, the Mercury astronauts, the suspicious death of a nuclear energy employee, the death of a Playboy centerfold star and troubled youth in Oklahoma.

On the lighter side, there's a James Bond film to challenge Roger Moore's efforts, a new Dirty Harry movie, a new Mel Brooks movie, two Stephen King thrillers and a spoof of The Hunchback of Notre Dame.

Here are some of the major releases for the coming months:

DANIEL — A fictional treatment of the Ethel and Julius Rosenberg execution, starring Timothy Hutton and Ed Asner. It's directed by Sidney Lumet, based on the novel The Book of Daniel by E.L. Doctorow (Ragtime).

SILKWOOD — Karen Silkwood was killed in an automobile accident on her way to testify on dangers in the nuclear power industry. Some say it was no accident. Meryl Streep, Cher and Kurt Russell star in this film directed by Mike Nichols.

THE RIGHT STUFF — Based on the bestselling novel by social critic Tom Wolfe, this film tells the adventures of the early aviators and astronauts that put us into the space race. The book did not always look favorably on Glenn, Grissom, Schirra and company. Phillip Kaufman directs.

'Falcon Crest' star sets facts straight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After filming an upcoming seduction scene for CBS' "Falcon Crest," Laura Johnson frantically runs around apologizing to the crew.

Miss Johnson, who plays a former prostitute in the hit prime-time soap opera, wants to make sure nobody gets the wrong idea.

"I tell them, 'I'm not really like that,'" she says. "I spent yesterday in the swimming pool at my parents' home in Ojai playing volleyball with 9-year-olds."

She will join the cast in the fall as Terry Hartford, sister to Susan Sullivan's character. As the show opens, she has gotten the whiff of money and comes running from New York to the fictional wine country of Tuscany Valley. She gives up prostitution, but not men. In the episodes filmed so far, Terry has had affairs with two characters.

"Terry's an exciting character to play and a departure for me," says Miss Johnson. "I've always played doctors and lawyers — upscale people. Now I'm playing a former call girl. When you play someone like her, you want to give her a lot of dimension, otherwise she would be too arch."

She has a sibling rivalry with Miss Sullivan. Actually, "Falcon Crest" thrives on rivalry.

"She's very jealous of her sister," Miss Johnson says. "She didn't get the love from her father that her sister got. So she's devoted her life to manipulating men to get that love. Knowing that helps me to play Terry."

She describes Terry as "vicious, manipulative and oversexed. She's just a bad, bad girl."

In the 12th show, Chase (Robert Foxworth) wants Terry to leave town. "He writes out a check for $500," she says. "I look at it and say, 'Tack on another zero and I'll leave.'"

It's the first regular series role for Miss Johnson, although she did make three appearances on another Lorimar Productions show, "Dallas."

Two days after she got the call to do an audition, she says, she was standing in front of the camera in the Napa Valley.

Casting director Barbara Miller had remembered her from "Dallas" and other shows, and she had four other interviews before she met with Earl Hamner, the executive producer and creator.

"I was exhausted," she recalls. "I hadn't eaten. I walked in with a handful of corn chips. I had a flip, so-what attitude, and I think that's what got them. And I was that way because I was so tired."

Miss Johnson was a bit baffled, at first, by the show's schedule of filming pieces of 12 shows on location, then returning to the studio to film the indoor scenes.

"I spent my whole time in the Napa Valley studying scripts and trying to figure out what I was doing," she said. "The rest of the cast was taking mud baths and going to wine tasting parties."

STAR 80 — Mariel Hemingway plays Dorothy Stratton, the Playboy centerfold murdered by her husband. Bob Fosse (All That Jazz, Cabaret) directs.

RUMBLEFISH — Few people liked The Outsiders, Francis Ford Coppola's first film version of a S.E. Hinton novel. But he said that was more or less practice for this tale of growing up in 1960s Oklahoma. Matt Dillon and Diane Lane star.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, MR. LAWRENCE — David Bowie plays a British prisoner of war during World War II in this Japanese-made film.

SCARFACE — Al Pacino stars as a Cuban gangleader in 1980s Miami in Brian De Palma's update of the 1940s film.

TERMS OF ENDEARMENT — Larry McMurtry's novel about a Texas mother-daughter relationship features a great cast, including Debra Winger, Shirley McLaine and Jack Nicholson.

GORKY PARK — Based on the popular murder novel set in modern Moscow, this film stars William Hurt as a Russian policeman who gets in trouble with the KGB. It's directed by Michael Apted (Continental Divide).

THE MAN WHO LOVED WOMEN — Blake Edwards tries to update the Francois Truffaut film with Burt Reynolds in the title role.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE — Mel Brooks is back, this time with Anne Bancroft in a remake of the Jack Benny-Carole Lombard comedy. Brooks writes and directs.

NEVER SAY NEVER AGAIN — Sean Connery plays an aging James Bond in this film which is supposedly taken directly from an actual Ian Fleming plot. Kim Basinger costars.

GREYSTOKE: THE LEGEND OF TARZAN, LORD OF THE APES — The biggest, most expensive Tarzan movie yet. Directors as divergent as John Milius (Conan) and Robert Towne (Personal Best) have been involved in this.

NEW ADDITION — Laura Johnson will appear in her first regular series role when she joins the cast of CBS' "Falcon Crest" when it returns this fall. Ms. Johnson will star as Terry Hartford, a former prostitute from New York who gives up the street life but not men and moves to the fictional wine country of Tuscany Valley.

Cross-County Clashes

G-City busts streak, rips Buffaloes, 16-13

By GREG JAKLEWICZ

FORSAN — No one could remember how long it had been. Some said seven years, others said 20 years, some said back in the Stone Age. But all that's in the past now.

Garden City used timely defense and the quick-decision running of quarterback Richard Batla to take a 16-13 victory over Forsan Friday night, snapping a losing streak to the Buffaloes that extends back to who knows when.

"It feels real good," said Batla, who rushed for 93 yards and passed for 34 more. Did teammate Doug Hoelscher feel the same way? "It feels real good," he repeated. "This is the first time in a long time."

Tradition's dark cloud hung low on the Bearkats after Forsan scored with 11:51 to play. Quarterback Todd East evaded a hard rush and lofted a 20-yard scoring strike to Rodney McMillan to give his team a 13-10 lead after his PAT kick.

Batla regathered his troops, however, and marched Garden City 65 yards in nine plays to take the lead back with 7:18 to go. After rushing for 62 yards in the first half, Batla had been held to a minus six total in the second half before the winning drive. On the way to the touchdown, he kept the ball six times for 39 yards including a

GAME FACES FOR THE BIG SHOWDOWN — The annual Forsan-Garden City rivalry heated up again Friday night, this time at Forsan. Sizing each other up are Tommy Montgomery (51) of the Bearkats and Mitch Hays (22) of the Buffaloes. Garden City snapped a long losing streak with a 16-13 victory.

19-yard scamper for the six points.

The Bearkats had to hold off the Buffaloes twice in the closing minutes of the game, but plays by Hoelscher, Tommy Montgomery and Joe Alvarado kept Forsan away from scoring again.

Garden City scored first on a 30 yard field goal by Hoelscher with 5:14 to go in the first quarter. Batla dove a yard seconds into the second period and Hoelscher added the PAT to make it 10-0.

A blocked punt by McMillan and recovery by Gary Little on the Bearkat 13 set up Brad Jenkins' TD run on the very next play. East's kick was wide to the right, leaving the score 10-6 with 5:38 to go in the half.

Late in the half, Garden City drove from its 34 to the Forsan goal line and apparently put more points on the scoreboard. The scoring pass from Batla to Hoelscher was wiped out, however, by an offensive pass interference call.

The Buffs were hampered by three lost fumbles and an interception in the first half and coach Jan East told Bearkat counterpart Stewart Cooper after the game. "We like to be congenial hosts."

"It was what we expected," East said. "We knew we had to stop Batla and we didn't do it. We were pretty generous with the football in the first half. You can't have five turnovers and expect to beat a team like Garden City."

Cooper was elated with his team's game. The key, he said, was the play of his young offensive line on the winning touchdown drive.

Jenkins led Forsan with 61 yards rushing.

Tight-fisted Bulldogs stall Stanton, 13-11

By BOB CARPENTER
Staff Writer

STANTON — A stingy defense and a second-string quarterback helped edge the Coahoma Bulldogs past the Stanton Buffaloes 13-11 here last night in a non-district battle.

Coahoma lost starting quarterback John Swinney in the first quarter when Swinney, who also plays safety on defense, was injured on Stanton's first offensive possession leaving the controls in the hands of Todd Engel.

However, Engel didn't take the helm until after Stanton's Bobby Almagar kicked a 21-yard field goal with 6:10 left in the first quarter to give the Buffaloes a 3-0 lead. The field goal came after Stanton put together a 14-play drive that was squelched by the Bulldog defense on its own 11.

After a couple of possessions Coahoma capitalized on a Stanton mistake early in the second quarter when the Buffaloes' quarterback Darren Sorley mishandled a snap and the Bulldog defense pounced on the loose ball at the Stanton 17.

Engel and Co. managed a first down at the Buffalo 7 behind 5-yard runs by Richard Seals and Jimmy Yanez. Then it was Seals into the line on three straight dive plays which netted only two yards to the Stanton 5.

STINGY COAHOMA DEFENSE — Five Coahoma Bulldog defenders swarm on Stanton halfback Eddie Thomas, 30, during fourth quarter action last night in Stanton. Bulldogs pictured are Rickey Delacruz, 50, Todd Engel, 11, Tony Burnett, 55, Jeff Dever, 60, and James Sanders, 77. The Bulldogs defeated the Buffaloes 13-11 in a non-district contest.

On the next play, Engel faked Seals into the line and sprinted left to outdistance Stanton defenders for a touchdown with 8:23 left in the first half. James Sanders' extra point was good.

Coahoma began the second half with a sustained drive to the Stanton 19 aided by a 30-yard run ripped off by Engel. However, the Buffalo defense dug in forcing the Bulldogs to attempt a 29-yard field goal which went wide left.

Stanton failed to move the ball on its next possession punting to Coahoma at the Buffalo 38.

The Bulldogs lost ground to the Stanton 40 on three plays. However, Coahoma chose to go for the yardage on fourth and long and succeeded when Engel dropped back and fired a strike to halfback Scott Mayhall who took the ball to the Stanton 6.

Coahoma only needed three plays before fullback Seals bulled over from the 7 with 3:35 to play in the third period to make the score 13-3. The PAT was blocked.

Stanton mounted its comeback with less than 3 minutes left in the game after taking possession at the Bulldog 47 and moving downfield on 7 plays before Rocky Barnes scored on a 3-yard run. The Buffaloes also scored a two point conversion on a pass from Robby Barnes to Jerry Anderson.

Stanton then held Coahoma on downs and got the ball back on its own 45 with 1:38 to go; however, two penalties destroyed the Buffaloes' hopes of victory.

C — Engel 5 run; Sanders PAT
S — Seals 7 run; PAT blocked

Lloyd, Martina face each other in singles final

NEW YORK (AP) — Martina Navratilova and Chris Evert Lloyd, who were seeded to meet in the women's final of the U.S. Open Tennis Championships, reached that point with straight-set victories Friday.

In the tournament's first final, John McEnroe and Peter Fleming teamed to defeat fellow Americans Fritz Buehning and Van Winitsky 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. It was their third U.S. Open men's doubles title in five years.

Saturday's title match will pit the tournament's No. 1 seed, Navratilova, against the defending champion, Evert. It is the seventh time the world's top two women players will meet in the final of a Grand Slam event. Navratilova holds a 4-2 advantage, with Lloyd winning their last match, capturing the Australian Open last year.

Navratilova needed only 55 minutes Friday to eliminate fifth-seeded Pam Shriver 6-2, 6-1 and avenge last year's stunning U.S. Open quarterfinal defeat. Lloyd, a six-time winner of America's premier tennis event, stopped No. 14 Jo Durie of Britain 6-4, 6-4.

Saturday's men's singles semifinals will send second-seeded Ivan Lendl against No. 9 Jimmy Arias and defending champion Jimmy Connors against No. 16 Bill Scanlon.

Navratilova, seeking her first U.S. Open crown, is in the final for only the second time. She lost to Tracy Austin in the title match two years ago.

Against Shriver, Navratilova broke her doubles partner in the opening game, then lost her service in the fourth game. But Navratilova broke right back and went on to win the final four games of the first set.

"I think I lost my chance in the first set when I broke back and I was serving...and I had an overhead that I missed," Shriver said. "And on an ad point, I had an easy backhand volley that I pushed long. That would have put me up 3-2 in the first set."

"Those are the positions you want to try to get her in. You want to have her serving at 2-3 instead of serving at 3-2 up or 4-1 up because she's so hard to stop."

Shriver couldn't stop Navratilova once the Czechoslovakian-born left-hander began rolling. Shriver held her service to begin the second set, and after that, it was all Navratilova, who won the final six games of the match.

"You know, there's nothing she can't do on the tennis court," Shriver said of her opponent. "She's a great athlete...She moves better than any of the other girls, she volleys better, she hits her overheads better than the other girls. There are just no weaknesses."

A victory Saturday not only would give Navratilova her first U.S. Open singles crown — a title she readily admits is her biggest goal — but would swell her 1983 earnings by $620,000. The singles title is worth $120,000, and she could add the $500,000 Playtex Challenge bonus by winning three of four selected tournaments.

She already has captured the Family Circle Cup at Hilton Head, S.C., which is played on clay, and Wimbledon, which is contested on grass. The U.S. Open is contested on the hardcourts of the National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow.

Because of illness, Navratilova missed the first stop on the Playtex Challenge, the U.S. Women's Indoor, which is played on carpet.

4-AAAA Roundup Sweetwater shocks

By GREG JAKLEWICZ
Sports Editor

Two upsets spoiled an otherwise perfect night of non-district football for teams in District 4-5A.

Sweetwater overcame a 10-0 halftime deficit to whip favored Abilene High 21-10 in Abilene while Bill Morrison scored three times for Andrews as the Mustangs thumped Midland 25-20.

In other games, Lee blasted Monahans 31-0, Permian chilled El Paso Hanks 46-7, Odessa High ripped El Paso Burges 30-6 and San Angelo crunched San Antonio Jefferson 50-0.

Cooper plays at Wichita Falls Saturday night.

Here's the way they went around the league Friday night:

Sweetwater 21, Abilene 10

ABILENE — Donald Jones scored on runs of 3 and 2 yards and quarterback Scott Richardson passed 55 yards to Mike Welch to insure the Mustangs' big win over the Eagles.

Abilene led 10-0 after two quarters as Guy Sims ran 4 yards for a touchdown and Steve Stacy added the PAT and a 33-yard field goal on the final play of the half.

Andrews 25, Midland 20

ANDREWS — Morrison's three scores overcame another 300-yard passing effort by Bulldog quarterback James Welborn.

Andrews led 10-0 early on a 22-yard field goal by Danny Neighbors and Morrison's 48-yard run. Midland's Randall Collins scored on a 2-yard run, making the score 10-6 at halftime.

The Bulldogs rallied into the lead as Allan Forett caught an 11-yard scoring pass from Welborn but TD runs of 6 and 2 yards by Morrison and a 35-yard field goal by Richard Ruiz put Andrews on top 25-13.

Todd Shiplett caught a nine-yard pass from Welborn to close out the Midland scoring.

Lee 31, Monahans 0

MIDLAND — The Rebels scored in three quarters with Craig Kamradt kicking four PATs and a 39-yard field goal.

Walter Jones scored on a 7-yard run in the first quarter, Issac Garnett on a 72-yard burst up the middle in the second period and John Abbot on 5-yard burst in the final quarter to build Lee's lead.

Randy Ellis, on his first carry of the game, zipped 60 yards for the final score.

Permian 46, EP Hanks 7

ODESSA — The Panthers got a 2-yard scoring run from Britt Hagar to snap a 7-7 first quarter tie and went on to crush Hanks in Ratliff Stadium.

Hagar had the game's first TD on a 56-yard run. Quarterback Rex Lamberti passed for another touchdown and scored on a short second quarter run as Mojo built a 30-7 halftime lead.

Permian amassed over 500 yards total offense in boosting its record to 2-0.

San Angelo 50, SA Jefferson 0

SAN ANGELO — Bevans Hoffmann scored on runs of one, two and one yard in the first half and the subs mopped up as Central played the part of the rube host.

Central led 29-0 at halftime and TD runs by Derrick Campbell (11 yards), Larry Guerrero (5 yards) and Tim Ribe (16 yards) in the third quarter upped the count to 50-0.

There was no scoring in the final period.

Odessa 30, EP Burges 6

EL PASO — The Bronchos rolled to their second straight win over Burges. No other details were available at press time.

Dawson tramples Wildcats, 58-25

GRADY — Dawson exploded for 28 second-quarter points to defeat the Grady Wildcats 58-25 in six-man football here Friday night.

All-state halfback Arthur Hernandez scored on runs of 8, 20, and 4 yards to lead the Dragons to a 44-8 halftime lead. Hernandez tallied again in the fourth quarter on a 23-yard scamper.

Grady quarterback Dennis Sawyer passed 10-yards to Charlie Perez to keep the score close at 16-8 in the first quarter. But two touchdown runs by Hernandez, one by Ed Martin and a 54-yard pass from Juaguin Rodriguez to Jesse Rodriguez blanked the Wildcats in Neil Weeks of Dawson ended the matchup by scoring a safety late in the game.

Grady, 1-1 on the season, hosts the Ira Bulldogs next Friday for homecoming.

Dawson is 2-0 for the year.

YOU CAN'T CATCH ME — Lamesa quarterback Kreg Bryant, 11, gains a couple of yards and avoids a sack by Brownfield defenders in first quarter action in Lamesa last night. Brownfield player is Reese Wright, 40. Lamesa's Gilbert Arrendondo, 35, is shown throwing a block for his teammate.

Tornadoes crush Brownfield, 34-0

LAMESA — Kenneth Williams ran for two touchdowns and Kreg Bryant passed for two others as the Golden Tornadoes of Lamesa blanked the Brownfield Cubs 34-0 in 4-A football Friday night.

Williams bulled over from six yards out to open the scoring with 8:35 left in the first quarter. Four minutes later Bryant passed to Blake McKinney on a 20-yard touchdown strike. Frank Gonzalez got both PATs.

Williams got the only score of the second quarter, going off from three yards out with 1:12 left in the half. Gonzalez kicked the conversion.

With 11:45 left in the third quarter, Bryant hit Leonard Woodbury on a 68-yard bomb. The PAT by Gonzalez was good. Running back Greg Hogg ended the scoring with 7:71 left in the third quarter on a six-yard run. The PAT was no good.

Lamesa, 1-1 for the season, hosts the Andrews Mustangs next Friday.

Brownfield, losing its opener, was held to 80 yards rushing and 20 yards passing.

Wink walks over Greenwood, 26-6

GREENWOOD — Two third-quarter touchdowns, the first coming on a 4-yard run by Raymond Adams and the other on a 13-yard run by Travis Price, led Wink to a 26-6 victory over Greenwood Friday night.

It looked like the Wildcats would blow the game open early as they scored twice in the first half to build a 13-6 lead, but the Rangers narrowed the lead to seven at the half when Chad Longley hooked up for a 6-yard touchdown pass to David Skinner.

The Rangers threatened to score twice in the fourth quarter; however, the Wink defense and penalties shut down both drives.

"We feel like we are improving after every ball game," Coach Joe Longley said, adding that in the second half the Wildcats were able to come up with the needed plays while the Rangers were hurt by penalties.

GIMME THAT BALL — Water Valley quarterback Carlos Romo, 10, struggles to recover his own fumble in third quarter action against the Sands Mustangs.

Romo was out of luck; however, as Sands' Marshall Long pounced on the ball. Sands lost the game 21-14.

Meadow topples Bronchos, 21-14

MEADOW — Klondike watched a 14-7 halftime lead trampled under two second half scoring drives by the Meadow Bronchos who shut down the Cougar's offense in the last two quarters to take a 21-14 victory in football action here Friday night.

Klondike opened the scoring on a 16-yard run by junior tailback Rolando Juantos with 4:33 left in the first quarter. Jim Cope got the PAT. Meadow quickly retaliated when fullback Chris Terry ran the ensuing kick off back 87 yards for a touchdown. The PAT was good.

Klondike went ahead with 5:17 left in the second quarter as junior tight end Leo Amador took a 45-yard scoring strike from Tim Cope, who kicked the PAT.

Brett Pendergrass capped a 75-yard, 11-play drive for Meadow in the second half, going over on a five-yard run with 6:35 left in the third quarter. The PAT was blocked. Meadow quarterback Darrell Bingham Klondike, 0-2 for the season, hosts the O'Donnell Eagles next Friday at homecoming.

Water Valley rally downs Ackerly, 21-14

ACKERLY — Water Valley staged a two-touchdown fourth-quarter rally Friday night to defeat the Sands Mustangs 21-14 for its second season victory in 7-A competition.

Sands got the first points after a scoreless first quarter on a 21-yard run by Santos Ybarra with five minutes left in the half. Will Charlesworth took the ensuing kickoff 70 yards to put Water Valley on the board before halftime.

Sands got the only score of the third quarter as Robby Creswell bulled over from one yard out with two minutes left.

Pryor downs Arguello in 10th

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Aaron Pryor knocked out Alexis Arguello in the 10th round Friday night to retain the World Boxing Association junior welterweight title and foil Arguello's bid to make boxing history.

Pryor landed a bunch of head punches in the first minute of the round. Then after the action slowed briefly the champion hit Arguello with a right-left to the jaw and followed with a barrage of punches that put Arguello down.

Arguello got to a sitting position then listened as Referee Richard Steele counted 10. The end came at 1:48.

The knockout was the third time Arguello was on the canvas on this hot desert night before an almost sellout crowd of 13,000 at an outdoor arena at Caesars Palace. Arguello bidding for the second time to become the first man to win four titles in four weight classes also hit the deck in the first and fourth rounds, but his fighting heart kept him battling back.

However, Pryor was too much for the native of Nicaragua as he had been when he stopped him in the 14th round of a much more dramatic fight last Nov. 12 in Miami.

The defeat wrote an end to Arguello's illustrious career. Before the fight the 31-year-old three-time champion said we would retire win or lose.

Then Pryor made the message clear, and Arguello got the message.

"I did my best. I want to say goodbye to the boxing people. I love them."

"I pray for him, he's a good fighter," said Pryor. "I will put the last drop of my blood into the fight."

Arguello gave it all he had, Pryor had just too much firepower and speed.

Pryor also said he might not fight again, but most people in the boxing business think he will.

It looked like the fight might end in the first round when at the 40-second mark, Pryor, who will be 28 on Oct. 20, dropped Arguello with a right to the jaw. Arguello jumped up and took a mandatory eight count.

Mariners rip Texas, 6-4 SCORECARD

SEATTLE (AP) — Run-scoring doubles by Darnell Coles and Jamie Nelson keyed Seattle's four-run fourth Friday night as the Mariners defeated the Texas Rangers 6-4.

With the Mariners losing 4-2, Pat Putnam doubled to lead off the Seattle fourth and scored two outs later on Coles' two-base hit. Nelson's double then scored Coles to tie the game.

Harold Reynolds walked and Nelson and Reynolds moved up on a wild pitch by Mike Smithson, 8-14. Spike Owen's infield single scored Nelson to put Seattle ahead 5-4, and Phil Bradley's infield single scored Reynolds for a two-run cushion.

Yankees 5, Orioles 3

NEW YORK (AP) — Graig Nettles belted a tie-breaking two-run homer in the eighth inning to propel the New York Yankees past the Baltimore Orioles 5-3 Friday night.

Nettles, who also had two doubles, drilled a 2-2 pitch from Scott McGregor into the right-field seats for his 19th home run. The blast came after Don Baylor began the eighth with an infield single.

McGregor, 17-6, took a 13-0 record in road games this season into the matchup.

The loss, before 47,221 fans, came in the opener of a four-game series and trimmed Baltimore's lead in the American League East to four games over the second-place Yankees. Baltimore had won 13 of its last 15 games.

Ron Guidry, 18-8, allowed seven hits while striking out five and walking two in his 17th complete game of the season.

A's 7, Blue Jays 5

TORONTO (AP) — Mike Heath's RBI single capped a three-run Oakland rally in the eighth inning as the A's posted a 7-5 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays Friday night.

Losing 5-4, the A's tied the game in the eighth on Dan Meyer's RBI double. One out later, Heath singled to score the tie-breaking run and chase Jim Clancy, 9-15. Jim Acker then relieved for the Blue Jays and gave up a run-scoring double to Dan Meyer that gave Oakland its two-run cushion.

Steve McCatty, 6-7, earned the victory with late relief help.

Red Sox 6, Indians 4

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dave Stapleton drove in four runs with a homer and single, and Dwight Evans homered and scored three runs as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians 6-4 Friday night.

John Tudor, 11-10, surrendered all four Cleveland runs on seven hits over the first six innings, before Bob Stanley blanked the Indians on three hits over the final three innings for his 28th save.

Boston jumped to a 4-0 lead in the third against loser Neal Heaton, 10-5. A leadoff single by Jerry Remy, followed by one-out singles by Jim Rice and Evans scored the first run. After the second out, Stapleton slugged his ninth homer.

Twins 7, Royals 6

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kent Hrbek led off the 10th inning with his second home run of the game to give the Minnesota Twins a 7-6 win over the Kansas City Royals Friday night.

Hrbek lined the second pitch off loser Mike Armstrong, 7-7, over the right-field fence for his 14th homer. Jack O'Connor, 2-3, pitched the final 2-2-3 to earn the victory.

The Royals had tied the see-saw game 6-6 with a pair of runs in the seventh as Pat Sheridan and George Brett led off with singles. Rick Lysander relieved Ken Schrom and Hal McRae's RBI single and Frank White's sacrifice fly scored both runners.

Hrbek's two-run homer with two out in the third gave the Twins a 5-4 lead and Minnesota boosted its advantage to two runs in the sixth inning on Lenny Faedo's sacrifice fly.

White Sox 11, Angels 0

CHICAGO (AP) — Britt Burns hurled a masterful one-hitter and Carlton Fisk Tom Paciorek and Greg Luzinski hit successive homers Friday night to lead the rampaging Chicago White Sox to an 11-0 victory over the California Angels.

Burns, 9-9, retired the first 20 batters before Mike Brown spoiled his bid for a perfect game with a line single to center with two outs in the seventh inning.

The victory was the fifth straight for the White Sox, who reduced their magic number to eight in quest of the American League West title.

to steal third, Hernandez singled through the hole vacated by the third baseman to break a 3-3 tie. The Mets scored an insurance run in the ninth on George Foster's RBI single.

Padres 8, Reds 2

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Tony Gwynn extended his hitting streak to 19 games with a two-run single and Andy Hawkins pitched a four-hitter as the San Diego Padres defeated the Cincinnati Reds 8-2 Friday night.

Hawkins, 4-6, won for the first time since being recalled from Las Vegas of the Pacific Coast League August 27. The loser was Charlie Puleo, 5-10, a last-minute replacement when Joe Price's shoulder stiffened while he warmed up.

Dann Biliardello gave the Reds a 1-0 lead when he clubbed his second home run leading off the top of the fifth.

But in the bottom of the inning, Gwynn singled with the bases loaded to put the Padres on top and Kevin McReynolds' sacrifice fly made it 3-1.

San Diego put the game away with a four-run sixth inning highlighted by Bobby Brown's three-run homer off reliever Bill Scherrer. McReynolds doubled in the other run of the inning.

Phillies 4, Pirates 3

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Joe Lefebvre's two-out single in the top of the 13th scored winning pitcher Willie Hernandez with the winning run as the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 Friday night to take over first place in the National League East.

Cardinals 6, Cubs 5

CHICAGO (AP) — Willie McGee singled home Ozzie Smith with one out in the top of the 10th inning Friday to earn the St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

McGee's single, his third of the game, came off Cub reliever Lee Smith, 4-8. Smith had drawn a one-out walk and stolen second. McGee then lined a sharp single to center to score Smith.

Cardinal relief ace Bruce Sutter, who entered the game in the eighth inning, picked up his ninth win against nine losses.

St. Louis used six pitchers while the Cubs used five.

Wacker wound up for Horned Frogs' fight with Kansas

By The Associated Press

Jim Wacker gets his baptism into NCAA Division I football Saturday night when his Texas Christian Horned Frogs open their 1983 season with Kansas in Fort Worth.

Wacker won back-to-back Division II national championships at Southwest Texas State before going to TCU, but the Frogs haven't had a winning season in 12 years.

In Southwest Conference games Saturday afternoon, Texas Tech visits Air Force on regional television and Tulsa is at Arkansas. Saturday night, Minnesota is at Rice, Southern Methodist plays Grambling in Shreveport, La., Houston hosts Miami, Fla., and Baylor hosts Brigham Young.

Kansas Coach Mike Gottfried had his debut with the Jayhawks ruined last week by Northern Illinois, which won 37-34 with a late field goal.

Kansas' offense is led by quarterback Frank Seurer, who went 17-for-31 for 172 yards passing last week, and will be aided by the return of standout running back Kerwin Bell. Bell missed 10 games last year.

Wacker has reworked the Frog offense around quarterback Anthony Guiley and running backs Kenneth Davis and Egypt Allen.

No. 15 SMU, which defeated Grambling 59-27 two years ago, opened its season last week with a 24-6 victory over Louisville to extend the nation's longest unbeaten streak to 17 games.

SMU running backs Reggie Dupard and Gary Hashaway, who are replacing the departed "Pony Express" combination of Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for 171 yards against Louisville. The Mustangs are second to Houston in total offense, total defense and rushing and lead the league in rushing defense.

Tiger Coach Eddie Robinson begins his 40th year at Grambling with a record of 305-101-13.

Tech is trying to win its first opener since 1980. The Red Raiders beat Air Force last year 31-30.

The Raiders are returning quarterback Jim Hart and tailback Robert Lewis from last year's 40-7 team that lost heartbreakers to Washington and SMU, which were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country at the time.

The Falcons, 8-5 last year including upsets over Brigham Young and Notre Dame and a Hall of Fame Bowl victory over Vanderbilt, kicked off their season last week with a convincing 34-13 romp over Colorado State.

Tulsa's only last loss last year was to Arkansas, 38-0. The Hurricane, which is coming off a 34-9 victory over San Diego State, is led by freshman quarterback Steve Gage, who ran 40 yards for one touchdown and passed for another, and senior Michael Gunter, who ran for 100 yards and two touchdowns.

The Razorbacks lost the heart of the 1982 team that defeated Florida 28-24 in the Bluebonnet Bowl and won their first seven games.

But veteran quarterback Brad Taylor is back and the defense has good potential built around end Ron Faurot, linebacker Bert Zinamon and end Robert Brannon.

Rice is coming off a lopsided 45-14 loss to Houston Sept. 1. Minnesota, which is opening its season Saturday night, won its first three starts last year, but failed to win again.

Houston led the SWC in four of six team categories after the first week with 464 yards total offense, 333 yards rushing, 221 yards total defense and 104 yards passing defense.

The Cougars' Donald Jordan leads the SWC in rushing with 138 yards and 9.9-yard-per-carry average, following touchdown runs of 47 and 45 yards against Rice.

Quarterback Lionel Wilson averaged 7.6 yards per passing attempt in the season's first game to give the Cougars promise of another productive offensive year.

Bear-less Tide takes on Georgia Tech

By The Associated Press

Most of the nation's Top Twenty teams and traditional powers will be in action this weekend, but Saturday marks the start of a new era in college football.

The winningest coach ever, the late Paul "Bear" Bryant, has bequeathed Alabama's tradition of excellence to 41-year-old Ray Perkins, who gets his first taste of what it's like to follow a legend when the 14th-ranked Crimson Tide meets Georgia Tech at Birmingham's Legion Field.

"I guess I'm holding up all right," says Perkins. "It's only the biggest game of my life."

Six members of the Associated Press Top Ten — runner-up Oklahoma, No. 4 Auburn, fifth-ranked Notre Dame, No. 6 Michigan, seventh-rated Ohio State and No. 9 Southern California — make their 1983 debuts, while top-ranked Nebraska, a 44-6 winner over Penn State in the inaugural Kickoff Classic almost two weeks ago, plays host to Wyoming.

Meanwhile, Oklahoma visits Stanford, Auburn entertains Southern Mississippi, Notre Dame is at Purdue, Michigan hosts Washington State, Ohio State entertains Oregon and Southern Cal is at home against No. 18 Florida. The only other pairing of Top Twenty teams finds No. 12 Florida State at No. 13 LSU.

Elsewhere, eighth-ranked North Carolina entertains Memphis State, Utah is at No. 11 Arizona for a night game, No. 15 Southern Methodist meets Grambling under the lights in Shreveport, No. 16 Iowa is at Iowa State, No. 17 Maryland at Vanderbilt, No. 19 Washington at Northwestern and Cincinnati at No. 20 Penn State. Third-ranked Texas and No. 10 Georgia are not scheduled.

Perkins' debut as Bryant's successor finds him coaching against an old Baltimore Colt teammate and close friend, Bill Curry.

"All of that will not matter once we line up for the kickoff," says Curry. "We'll both be trying to win the game as hard as we can. But it will be good to see Ray again. He's been a good friend for a long time."

"There will be a great deal of extra attention on this game because of Ray replacing Coach Bryant. Our objective will be to concentrate on the game itself and not the hoopla surrounding it."

Alabama is an 18-point favorite, but Perkins, sounding pessimistic in the best Bryant tradition, says he expects a tough game.

"Simply because it is the first game of the year against the first opponent, regardless of who is playing, I look for both teams to be fired up and looking forward to picking on someone else, for a change."

Oklahoma is opening on the road for the first time since 1978 when the Sooners beat Stanford 35-29. However, three years ago, Oklahoma visited Stanford, led by John Elway, and was upset 31-14.

Elway is gone, but Oklahoma is leery of any Stanford quarterback. In fact, the Sooners have displayed a propensity for letting opposing passers enjoy big games.

"It's doubtful we could have picked a tougher team to open against," says Coach Barry Switzer. "We have had trouble in the past with teams that throw the ball as well as Stanford does. I hope we remember what happened a year ago when West Virginia riddled us so badly. We certainly cannot afford to make a lot of mistakes and still win. John Elway may be gone, but Stanford always has excellent, skilled athletes and we fully expect them to have quality in their passing game."

At the controls will be 5-foot-10 senior Steve Cottrell, who threw only nine passes last season. Cottrell's main claim to fame was pitching Stanford to its lone victory in the College Baseball World Series last June against James Madison.

Southern Mississippi, which lost to Auburn by two points a year ago, is hoping to catch the Tigers looking ahead to next week's game with Texas. Not if Auburn Coach Pat Dye can help it.

"Southern Mississippi has a record of 11-6-1 over the last five years playing against the Southeastern Conference. They don't have anything to prove to us," says Dye.

Notre Dame begins its third year under Coach Gerry Faust, who has yet to approach immortality.

However, Faust says the '83 Irish possess "the talent to have a great football team. But we've got to be more consistent than we were a year ago. We won some big games last year, but then we stumbled against teams everyone else assumed we would beat. I think we're a little bigger this year, a little stronger and a little quicker. But we've got to prove it by being ready to play every week."

The Irish have only 11 seniors among their top 44 players and Faust is concerned that "historically Notre Dame has had trouble at Purdue. I found that out two years ago when they beat us there in the last few seconds."

Although the Boilermakers were only 3-8 last year, Coach Leon Burnett expects plenty of improvement.

"Last year at this time we were looking for starters," Burnett says. "This year, we're looking for depth. We're established at our No. 1 positions. We know that we're an improved team, but Notre Dame is an improved team, too."

Mahaffey keeps slippery lead

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — John Mahaffey surrendered the lead while waiting to tee off and then regained it with an afternoon charge Friday in the second round of the $350,000 Bank of Boston Golf Classic.

Mahaffey, who shared the first-round lead at 65 with J.C. Snead, added a 2-under par 69 for a 36-hole total of Thompson pulled into a tie, but Mahaffey carded birdies on three of his last five holes to shoot past his chief rivals.

"It was a very shaky 69," said Mahaffey, the 1978 PGA champion and winner here now looking for his first victory in two years.

"I three-putted for a bogey on my first hole and that didn't help," he said. "I might have been pressing at the start, but I finally settled down and just played."

Hal Sutton, the reigning PGA champion and the leading money winner with $412,000 in earnings this year, started the day three strokes back at 68. He moved 6-under after 27 holes, but had four bogeys and a double bogey with just one birdie on his last eight holes, finishing with a 73 for 141.

McCumber, who opened with a 69, improved with a 68 for his 137. However, McComish, who started with a 66, slipped to a par-71 on Pleasant Valley's 7,119-yard layout.

Tied with Snead at 138 were recent World Series of Golf winner Nick Price, Kermit Zarley, Allen Miller, Joe Inman and Mark Lye.

The cut for the final two rounds was made at 144, one stroke more than last year. There were 82 survivors, with casualties including defending champion Bob Gilder and former Pleasant Valley winners Larry Wadkins and Tom Shaw.

Bank of Boston

134 and a one-stroke lead at the halfway mark of the 72-hole event at Pleasant Valley Country Club.

While Snead faltered with a 2-over par-73 for 138, Leonard Thompson and Fuzzy Zoeller moved into a tie for second. Thompson added a 65 to his opening 70 for 135, while Zoeller fired a 68 to go with a 67.

Unheralded Sammy Rachels, who has undergone three operations for disc problems in his lower back since 1978, and Wayne Levi were tied at 136, one stroke ahead of Mark McCumber rookie John McComish.

Rachels posted his second consecutive 68, while Levi, the 1980 winner here, slipped to a 70 after an opening 66.

Zoeller took the lead among early second-round finishers, going 7-under-par despite bogeys on the 11th and 12th holes when "I fell asleep."

Minor league bus crashes; 1 dies

WELSH, La. (AP) — A chartered bus carrying a Texas minor league baseball team crashed into a truck Friday, killing the bus driver and injuring five people, state police said.

The bus was carrying nine members of the Beaumont Golden Gators, who had just won the Texas League championship Thursday night with a victory over the Jackson Mets of Jackson, Miss.

It struck the rear of the truck on Interstate 10 near this southwest Louisiana town, said trooper John Hebert.

"The bus was just going faster than the truck," Hebert said. "We have no idea what the speed of either vehicle was."

Hebert identified the dead bus driver as Edward W.

Sheppard, 44, of Huffman, Texas.

He said the driver of the truck and four ballplayers were treated for minor injuries at area hospitals and released.

They were identified as truck driver Joseph LeBlanc of Lake Arthur, La., Steven Garcia of Pleasantine, Calif., Willie Hardwick of Berkeley, Calif., Walt Vanderbush of Beaumont and Larry Platt of Sunnyvale, Calif.

The owner of the Jackson Mets, Mississippi state Sen. Con Maloney, said he had been aboard the team bus shortly before it left Jackson.

He said the team was chartering a new bus because its old one was no longer in good shape.
