Area jobless rate down

By BOB CARPENTER
Staff Writer

The opening of Wal-Mart Discount City and the return of students to college campuses helped cut the Howard County unemployment rate to 7.8 percent for August, the lowest it has been since January's 7.7 percent figure.

The August figure is 1.3 percent below July's 9.1 percent rate, according to Texas Employment Commission statistics. This is the second month in a row that the county's jobless rate has edged downward.

TEC August figures show the county counted 18,098 persons in the civilian labor force with 16,709 of those employed. Unemployed persons totaled 1,389 in August — a decrease of 265 from July.

July statistics showed 18,238 persons in the work force and 16,584 holding jobs.

"Probably the decrease in the work force came from the kids going back to college," said John Eckley, employment supervisor of the local TEC office. "And the increase in employment is probably due to the opening of Wal-Mart."

Traditionally, college students returning home for the summer raise the jobless rate in Big Spring as they search for summer jobs; however, their return to classes in the fall generally decreases unemployment, according to Eckley.

Wal-Mart contributed about 100 jobs to the county's economy.

According to TEC figures from Austin, the City of Big Spring has an unemployment rate of 8.9 percent — down 1.6 percent from July.

TEC statistics showed the city had 13,691 in the labor force, 12,476 employed and 1,215 unemployed.

Howard County ranks below the national average of 9.2 percent. See EMPLOYMENT, page 2A

may recall workers

Oilfield Industrial Lines, Inc. (O.I.L.) announced yesterday it has sold a 750-horsepower rig to an Indonesian firm for drilling in that country.

Richard Fackler, chief operating officer at O.I.L., said in a press release the rig sale will necessitate a partial recall of laid-off workers.

Fackler could not be reached by phone today for comment.

Other officials at the Air Park manufacturing plant would not comment on how many workers would be recalled, the amount of the rig sale or the name of the Indonesian firm.

Cool

weather lingers

From staff and wire reports
Unseasonably cool weather greeted Texans again today as a ridge of high pressure remained centered across the state.

The combination of mostly clear skies, light northerly winds and an influx of cold Canadian air pushed pre-dawn temperatures to record lows across many areas.

The U.S. Big Spring Field Station recorded an overnight low of 44 degrees. The record low for the area on this date in 41.

The mercury dipped to 45 at Dallas-Fort Worth, breaking a previous record low for Sept. 22 of 50 set in 1918. San Antonio recorded 46, breaking the old record of 52 set in 1918. Austin recorded 49, compared with the old record of 52 set in 1938. Victoria dipped to 51, edging the old record 53 set in 1913, and Del Rio's 55 tied a record low set in both 1918 and 1975.

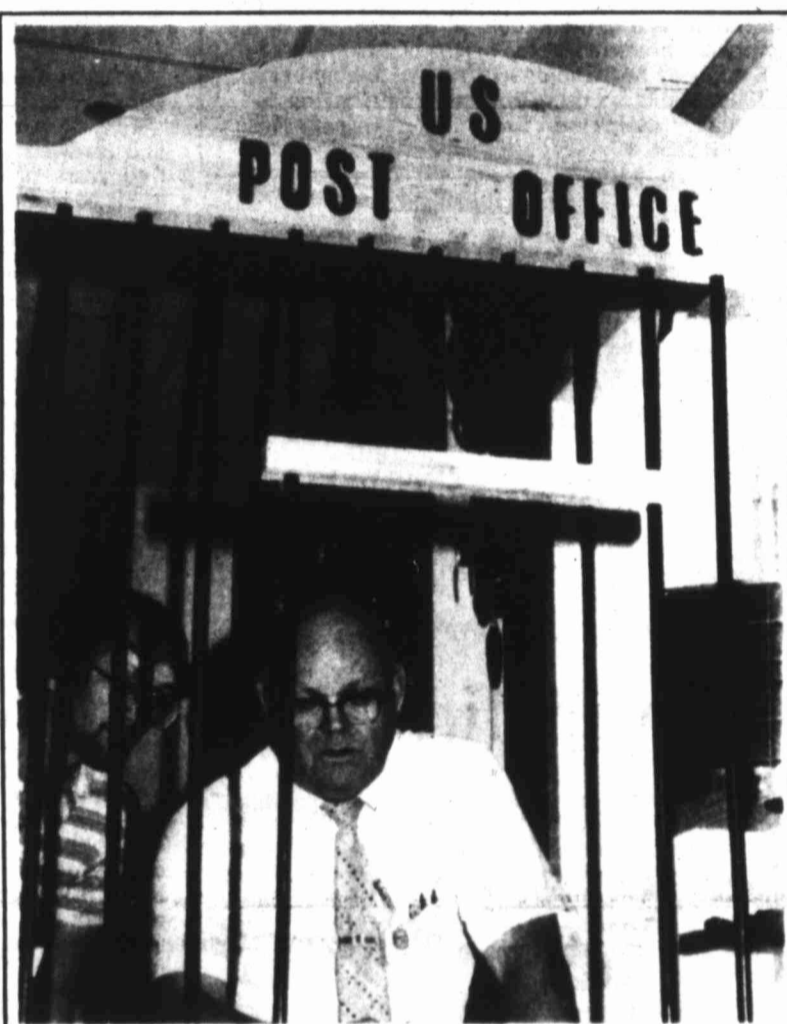

Amarillo, which had its first summer freeze on record when the mercury plunged to 31 early Wednesday, escaped record cold early today when the low was 42. The previous low was 40.

Pre-dawn readings ranged from 43 at Waco to 65 at Brownsville and McAllen. Winds had shifted to the south over West Texas.

The forecast called for fair to partly cloudy skies and cool temperatures statewide through Friday.

Autumn also jumped the gun across the rest of the South and Midwest today with most major cities from reporting record chilly weather on the last full day of an unusually hot summer.

It had never been so cold so early. See WEATHER, page 2A

OPEN WINDOW — Rain Barrel General Store co-owner Steve Lewis looks on as Acting Superintendent of Postal Operations in Big Spring Charles Dickson describes post office procedures in preparation for the opening of Substation No. 10 today in the Lewises' store.

Post office substation opens in Rain Barrel

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

Amid a confusing pile of paperwork and instructions, gift shop owners Wednesday prepared to open the second post office substation in Big Spring.

"I'll just stay until you're thoroughly confused. Are you confused now?" Acting Superintendent of Postal Operations in Big Spring Charles Dickson asked Rain Barrel General Store co-owners Steve and Amy Lewis.

The new post office substation window is designed to match the Rain Barrel's general store as an old-fashioned general store. A wooden window, complete with bars, was built on the store counter near stationary sold by the pound. Letters proclaiming the site as an official post office substation are carved above the window.

The U.S. Post Office is opening the new substation in the gift shop located in the College Park Shopping Center to alleviate traffic congestion near the main post office downtown, said Carroll Osburn, superintendent of engineering for postal operations in Big Spring.

The main post office handles 80,000 pieces of mail a day six days a week, he said.

The substation will be able to handle most of the functions of the main post office, Osburn and Dickson said.

"You (the Lewises) may decide you don't want the station when you find out how much business and trouble it is," Dickson said.

Customers will be able to certify registered letters, buy stamps and postal money orders, obtain return receipts, drop off mail, mail overseas letters and pick up and fill out change of address cards and kits.

However, the substation cannot accept Express Mail or overseas packages. Both can be sent only from the main post office downtown.

Post office officials expect the substation to handle a lot of mail.

"We used to have one (a substation) in the TG&Y (also located in the College Park Shopping Center), and it did good volume. If he (Lewis) gets good volume, he'll handle 200 to 300 pieces of mail a day," Osburn said.

Phil Gramm enters race

By JAY ROSSER
Harte-Hanks News Service

AUSTIN — U.S. Rep. Phil Gramm, a former university economics professor, officially launched his 1984 U.S. Senate bid Thursday, saying that he won't employ a Democratic strategy of "buying votes at taxpayers' expense."

Gramm's announcement here that he is seeking the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by Republican John Tower in January 1985 followed an initial declaration in his hometown of College Station. Similar announcements in 19 other Texas cities are planned by Sunday.

Gramm currently represents the 6th Congressional District that roughly runs from the south city limits of Dallas to the north city limits of Houston.

Like Tower, Gramm is a former university professor, having taught economics at Texas A&M University before entering politics.

"I will not, in this campaign, imitate the practice of those who seek to court votes by breaking our state and nation into narrowly defined special interest groups whose votes can be bought by piling a heavier burden of taxes and inflation on the backs of our working people," Gramm told reporters during his Austin stop.

Instead, he said, he will campaign using issues of concern to all Texans such as inflation, jobs and taxes.

Announcement of his decision was anything but a surprise, but it cements — for now, anyway — what is expected to be a rough-and-tumble 1984 election season for both Republicans and Democrats.

In addition to Gramm, those seeking the Republican Party's senatorial endorsement are U.S. Rep. Ron Paul of Lake Jackson and Robert Mosbacher Jr., a Houston oilman.

Democrats contending for their party's nod include former special ambassador to Mexico and former U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger, state Sen. Lloyd Doggett of Austin and U.S. Rep. Kent Hance of Lubbock.

Gramm will be trying to add a fifth election notch in his successful campaign belt, a string that dates back to his initial 1978 victory in the 6th Congressional District as a Democrat.

He retained that seat as a Democrat in 1980 and 1982. After a bitter feud with the House Democratic leadership, spurred by his support of Reaganomics, Gramm left the Democratic Party and won re-election in a special election earlier this year as a Republican.

Gramm's 1984 election plans mark the second time he has set sail for the U.S. Senate. He lost a 1976 Democratic bid to unseat incumbent U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen.

A key plank Gramm intends to place in his campaign platform is his support for Reagan's economic policies. Those policies, aided by his leadership in the House, have reduced the growth of federal spending from 18.5 percent annually to 5.5 percent, he said.

Gramm discounted talk that his recent conversion to the Republican Party will cost him votes among tenured conservatives, saying, "I'm proud to be in a party that has a merit system, not a seniority system."

Fifteen U.S. Senate Republicans last Friday signed a telegram in support of Gramm's bid, but one, Roger Jenson of Iowa, has rescinded his endorsement saying he was unaware Gramm faces a challenge in the party's primary.

Gramm said his previous Senate campaign taught him the "magnitude" of the effort he now See GRAMM, page 2A

Big Spring resident charged with embezzling

A Big Spring resident has been charged in Midland County with embezzling federal funds. Richard Joseph Nunez, 22, a former counselor for the Housing and Community Development Office in Big Spring, was arrested Sept. 9 by Midland County sheriff's deputies.

Police Beat

Record collection stolen

A $5,000 record collection consisting of 400 78-rpm rock and western albums was reported stolen from Thomas J. Henley of 1006 W. 6th, Apt. 1, yesterday between 9 p.m. and 11 p.m.

Also reported stolen were one cassette antenna valued at $149, a 12-inch black and white portable television worth $100 and a silver satin tapestry worth $10.

According to police, unknown suspects entered the house through the kitchen window and left through the front door.

Jose Young, 807 N. W. 4th, told police that a lawn mower worth $200 had been taken from the bed of his truck while it was parked in the driveway.

Police reports also showed that eight radiators, 100 pounds of No. 2 copper wire and 350 pounds of No. 1 copper wire were reported stolen from McPrevo Junkyard at 201 N.E. Second.

According to reports, an unknown suspect broke the lock to the front door and removed the property through the back door.

Clyde man arrested in Abilene area rapes

ABILENE (AP) — A 34-year-old Clyde man has been charged with aggravated kidnapping in the abduction of a 7-year-old girl, and officials said he has been identified as the man who raped two young girls 11 days ago in nearby Merkel.

James Allen Seelke also faces charges of indecency with a child filed Wednesday in Callahan County in connection with a 11-year-old girl's report that a man exposed himself to her in her mobile home in Eula, a small town in the county, authorities said.

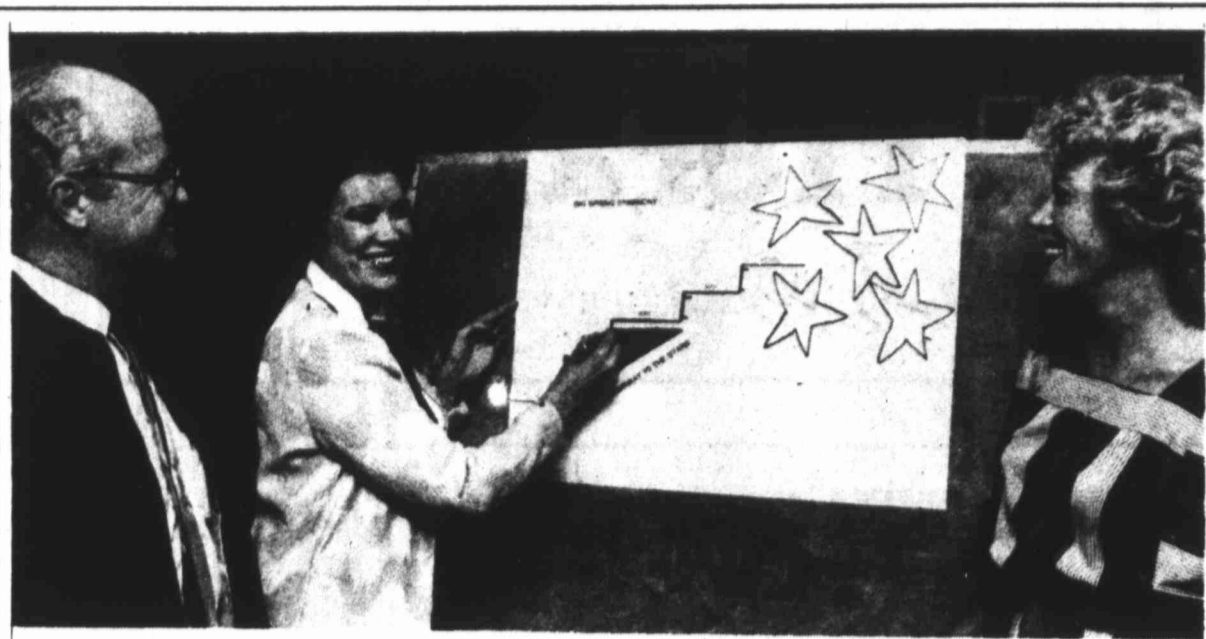

Merkel Police Chief Ray Pack said a girl under age 10 identified Seelke as the man who raped her and a friend Sept. 11. Police were trying to arrange to have the second girl brought in today to see if she could identify her attacker.

A man kidnapped the two girls from a park in Merkel, 17 miles west of Abilene, and raped them outside of town, Pack said.

STAIRWAY TO THE STARS — Johnnie Lou Avery, chairperson of the Big Spring Symphony Association Fund Drive, outlines contributions thus far to the Symphony campaign. Looking on are Wally Whittington, representing American Petrofina, and Suzanne Haney of the Symphony Guild.

Symphony fund drive begins

The Big Spring Symphony Association's annual fund drive began today with two major contributions placing it 28 percent closer to its $16,820 goal. Wally Whittington, representing the American Petrofina Foundation and the Cosden Oil & Gas Refinery, presented a check for $2,000 to fund drive Chairwoman Johnnie Lou Avery.

More significant to the Big Spring area will be the formation and presentation of Big Spring's own symphony orchestra in the Spring of 1984. Symphony board members and guild volunteers will be seeking tax deductible contributions from individuals, businesses and major corporations through Sept. 30.

FBI looking for kidnap link

GRAND PRAIRIE, Texas (AP) — FBI agents attempted Thursday to determine if there is a link between a woman who abducted a 3-month-old infant from a day care center and a caller who told another facility she was searching for her kidnapped daughter.

Learning Center by a woman posing as the child's aunt, authorities said. FBI agents were told Wednesday by the owner of a DeSoto day care center, who asked not to be identified, that she received a telephone call two or three weeks ago from a woman who said she was looking for her 3-month-old daughter, according to The Dallas Morning News.

Gramm

Continued from page one. "I know how big the state is. I know how many people have to be reached to get a message across," he said. Among those people, Gramm acknowledged, are Texas Hispanics who generally vote Democratic but who also could swing the election for any candidate in the race.

Employment

Continued from page one. The TEC released a city-by-city list of unemployment rates for August. Of the 25 urban areas listed, only two — Abilene and McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg — showed a higher figure than in July.

The post office's sectional center turned down a proposal to build a substation in the Big Spring Mall because the bid was too high, they said. The post office now will reopen bidding for a substation to be located there, they said.

The TEC released a city-by-city list of unemployment rates for August. Of the 25 urban areas listed, only two — Abilene and McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg — showed a higher figure than in July. Abilene's rate increased from 5.2 in July to 5.4 in August, and the McAllen area inched up- ward from 21.0 to 21.1 percent.

TESCO fails in bid to query ex-PUC director on stand

AUSTIN — Texas Electric Service Co. failed in its attempt Wednesday to put a former Public Utility Commission staff member on the witness stand in its $195 million rate case. Denying the company's request, commission chairman Al Erwin and commissioner Peggy Rosson said the commission's integrity could be jeopardized if they ruled otherwise.

ABC stays at top of ratings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — ABC's "Hardcastle & McCormick" show, about an unlikely crime-fighting duo, came on like gangbusters in its two-hour debut — giving ABC two straight weeks on top of the ratings for the first time since May.

The premiere finished No.1 for the week ended Sept. 18, five points ahead of its nearest rival, and helped give ABC its first Sunday victory in non-special programming since October 1980.

The lighthearted adventure stars Brian Keith as a tough, retired judge who collars Daniel Hugh Kelly, a race car driver with a prison record, as his partner against crime.

"Hardcastle & McCormick" was created by Stephen J. Cannell, whose other creation, NBC's "The A Team," finished fourth for the week. Cannell has yet another tongue-in-cheek adventure coming up, NBC's "The Roustabouts."

ABC won the A.C. Nielsen Co. ratings with a network average of 16.2. CBS was second with 14.0 and NBC was third with 13.8. The networks say this means that in an average prime-time minute 16.2 percent of the nation's television homes were tuned to ABC.

Tied for second were the season premiere of CBS' "60 Minutes" and an original ABC special, "Life's Most Embarrassing Moments II."

CBS' "NFL Football Post Game Show" was in fifth place and NBC's telecast of the Miss America Pageant — traditionally first in the week of its broadcast — was sixth. Completing the Top 10 were ABC's "Three's Company," seventh, CBS' "Simon & Simon," eighth, and CBS' "Magnum, P.I." and ABC's "9 to 5," tied for ninth place.

Another ABC premiere, "Webster," was 11th. ABC's "Matt Houston," which made its season debut the week before, was 20th. ABC's "Benson" made its season premiere in 28th place.

In 18th place was "NBC's All-Star Hour," which was a promotion of the network's fall season shows from the saloon set of "Cheers."

NBC's "First Camera," a revamp of its magazine show "Monitor," had a less auspicious debut. In its new spot opposite CBS' "60 Minutes" the show finished dead last in 65th place.

NBC's "We Got It Made," which premiered last week in second place dropped to No. 21. NBC's "Real People" was in 33rd place for its season premiere.

Although the fall season doesn't begin until Monday, the day after the Emmy awards telecast, the networks have already begun sneak previews of their new and returning series.

The final episode of ABC's "Two Marriages" was 35th. It was the highest-rated of all the network summer shows and may be revived. ABC has ordered new scripts from the producers.

The five lowest-rated shows in descending order were a special showing of NBC's "Different Strokes," the CBS movie "Senior Trip!," NBC's "First Annual Yummy Awards," the NBC movie "Young Frankenstein," and the debut of NBC's "First Camera."

"The CBS Evening News with Dan Rather" was once again the highest-rated news show. NBC, in third place last week, moved ahead of ABC to take second place. ABC slipped into third place. The ratings: CBS 12.6, NBC 9.8, ABC 8.8.

Here are the Top 20 programs:

1. Movie—"Hardcastle & McCormick," ABC, a rating of 26.7 or 22.3 million households.
2. "60 Minutes," CBS, 21.7 or 18.1 million.
3. Tie—"Life's Most Embarrassing Moments II," ABC, 21.7 or 18.1 million.
4. "The A-Team," NBC, 20.9 or 17.5 million.
5. NFL Football Game Post Game Show, CBS, 20.6 or 17.2 million.
6. "Miss America Pageant," NBC, 20.5 or 17.1 million.
7. "Three's Company," ABC, 20.0 or 16.7 million.
8. "Simon & Simon," CBS, 19.5 or 16.3 million.
9. "Magnum, P.I.," CBS, 19.4 or 16.2 million.
10. Tie—"9 to 5," ABC, 19.4 or 16.2 million.
11. "Webster," ABC, 19.2 or 16.0 million.
12. Movie—"Beulah Land," Part III, NBC, 19.0 or 15.9 million.
13. "Lottery," ABC, 18.6 or 15.6 million.
14. "Newhart," CBS, 18.5 or 15.5 million.
15. "Hill Street Blues," NBC, 18.3 or 15.3 million.
16. Tie-Movie—"Beulah Land," Part II, NBC, 18.3 or 15.3 million.
17. Tie—"M-A-S-H," CBS, 18.3 or 15.3 million.
18. "NBC's All-Star Hour," NBC, 18.1 or 15.1 million.
19. "The Jeffersons," CBS, 17.9 or 15.0 million.
20. "Matt Houston," ABC 17.7 or 14.8 million.

'Bubble boy' celebrates 12th birthday

HOUSTON (AP) — A boy who has never been touched by a bare human hand or kissed by his mother celebrates his 12th birthday today in the plastic bubble that protects him from the potentially lethal, germ-filled world.

The party for David will be small and private — his family's identity has been kept secret — but there will be a cake, set on a plate sterilized with a paracetic acid solution and passed to David through an airlock.

"He seems happy. He seems to accept his life," said Susannah Moore Griffin, spokeswoman for the Baylor College of Medicine, which directs his care.

Doctors say David is the world's oldest survivor of severe combined immune deficiency, which involves the lack of two types of white blood cells: T-cells, which ward off infection, and B-cells, which produce antibodies against germs.

The condition, discovered while David was in his mother's womb, makes every germ potentially lethal. So the consecrated wafers he receives when a Roman Catholic priest visits to administer communion are irradiated; his books, clothing and bedding are sterilized with ethylene oxide gas.

From inside a four-compartment bubble that takes up most of the living room and dining room, David can watch movies on a video cassette recorder the family installed last year. He plays an electronic game and has started to play a miniature electronic piano.

For his birthday he expects to receive "Jedi" toys, favorites since he was treated to a special showing of "Return of the Jedi" at a local theater. He will also get video game cartridges, electronic toys and adventure books, Mrs. Griffin said.

Doctors had planned after David's birth to transplant bone marrow from his sister, but abandoned the idea when they found the blood types were incompatible. Bone marrow produces lymphocytes, which are used in the production of antibodies.

Since then, except for the filtering of the air in his bubble and the constant protection from the dirty outside world, David has received no treatment for his condition.

He is monitored for two weeks a year, one each in June and December, at the Texas Children's Hospital in Houston. Two rooms are reserved for him at the hospital the year around.

David has been found to have a superior IQ and the scholastic abilities of an eighth-grader. A tutor teaches him at home for two hours daily, and he spends another 2½ hours each morning and afternoon participating by a telephone hookup in a regular sixth-grade class at a nearby school.

His family takes him on outings in a portable isolator which fits in a van. David himself takes care of the inside of his bubble, passing out clothing, bedding and wastes for disposal.

Dr. William Shearer, David's physician, said it appears to be the only matching donor has been found.

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1983

GENERAL TENDENCIES: It is important to concentrate on your instincts today. They are right on the mark. Concentrate on career goals which seem to be shaping up well for you at this time.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Higher-ups expect a lot from you at this time. Make sure your day-to-day routines are in good, working order.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A new situation has arisen which requires some looking into on your part before acting on it.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Exercise more patience and cooperation with co-workers. Loved ones need more of your attention also.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Confer with associates for better results in the future. It is important to reach agreements.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Plan to get your activities in order so you can gain the benefits involved. Concentrate on being more efficient.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan your weekend social events from the point of view of cost. It is important for you to exercise thrift.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Domestic affairs require more attention from you than you've been exercising. Extend social invitations.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Handle correspondence early in the day. Later, devote your energies to smoothing over bad feelings with co-workers.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Pay all outstanding bills today in order to clear up messy accounting. Later, be with good friends.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Look around your abode for possible improvements to be made, then do them. Use caution in motion.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Outside influences are dangerous at this time. You need to be by yourself and get things on a firmer basis.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Spend time showing devotion to friends who've been neglected recently. Handle career matters also.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those charming young persons born with a natural ability to lead. There is a tendency toward rash judgments, so teach early to be more thoughtful and to think ahead. There is some talent here for music.

'Ranch hand' disputes Agent Orange fears

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (AP)— Jack Spey doesn't mind being a guinea pig in the U.S. Air Force's study to determine if Agent Orange caused the illnesses that many Vietnam veterans blame on the dioxin-laced herbicide.

"We've focused on the emotionalism, the sensationalism and we've ignored most of the science on this thing," Spey said. "It's sad in a way. A lot of people have been unnecessarily worried."

The outspoken former Air Force pilot is convinced neither he nor any other veteran was harmed by Agent Orange, despite the fact that it contained small amounts of dioxin, a highly toxic byproduct of the manufacturing process.

Spey, known as "Mr. Ranch," is president of the Ranch Hand Vietnam Association. Its membership includes the more than 1,200 veterans who sprayed Agent Orange and other herbicides on Vietnamese jungles and crops during a 10-year defoliation campaign known as Operation Ranch Hand. These men are now the subjects of a 20-year Air Force study.

The study's first finding — that there was no evidence of abnormal deaths among the Operation Ranch Hand members — was released by the Air Force in July.

Fifty of the 1,247 Ranch Hands who survived the Vietnam War have died since, a mortality rate matching that of a 6,171-member comparison group and the general U.S. population of white males of the Ranch Hands' age group, the study said. Four Ranch Hands died from cancer, a slightly lower rate than normal, it added.

But some critics still aren't convinced.

They said the first report dealt only with the the question of mortality and didn't consider whether Agent Orange affected veterans' physical or mental health or caused birth defects in their children.

More results — focusing on whether the Ranch Hand veterans are experiencing more health problems than other veterans — will be announced next month.

"It's good news for the Ranch Hand personnel but I don't think it guarantees a clean bill of health for the ground units who served in Vietnam," said Rep. Thomas Daschle, a South Dakota Democrat who is chairman of the Vietnam Veterans in Congress Caucus.

Spey, a 45-year-old retired major, who served six years in Southeast Asia — three as a Ranch Hand — isn't one of the worriers.

Today he operates a sailboat charter and rental business in this beach resort just a few miles from Eglin Air Force Base, where another Agent Orange study is going on.

Ranch Hands, including Spey, sprayed a bombing range there with the herbicide. Scientists are monitoring the range for long-term impact on flora and fauna.

The Ranch Hand association was initially formed and still serves mainly as a social group. It holds reunions — this year's is scheduled for next month in Fort Walton Beach.

Spey has testified before congressional committees in support of the Air Force's contention that Ranch Hands had more exposure to Agent Orange than other servicemen, a point contested by some critics.

"I've tasted it, I've had it in my mouth," Spey said. "We had daily intimate contact with the chemical."

It blew in the fliers' faces through open windows from planes flying ahead and sloshed over them from spills, some routine and others the result of battle damage, he said.

The C-123 Provider cargo planes took 8,000 hits during the 10-year spraying period. One plane, nicknamed Patches because it was riddled with 600 bullet holes, is now on display at the Air Force Museum in Dayton, Ohio.

Critics of the Agent Orange study contend Ranch Hands were able to shower off the herbicide after each mission, while ground troops spent days and weeks wearing clothes, eating food and drinking water contaminated with it.

Not so, Spey said. For one thing, the herbicide was sprayed over enemy-held territory where American troops were unlikely to come in contact with it, he said.

Then, if troops were down there, he argued, the spray they'd receive would be so fine they would hardly feel it, much less be soaked by it. Very little of even the fine spray could get through the thick jungle canopy to ground level, Spey contended.

Another criticism of the study is that it often takes 20 years or more for cancer to show up and that's too late for veterans who are seeking benefits now. But Spey pointed out that it has been 20 years since the first exposure he and many other Ranch Hands had to Agent Orange.

Memphis newspaper to fold

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The Memphis Press-Scimitar, the afternoon newspaper in Tennessee's largest city, will cease publication Oct. 31, a victim of declining circulation and changing reader interests.

"We are taking this course because we have concluded that we can better serve the readers and advertisers of the Mid-South by concentrating our resources on a single newspaper, rather than continuing to divide them between the two," said Joseph R. Williams, general manager of the Memphis Publishing Co.

The death of the 102-year-old Press-Scimitar leaves Memphis with a single daily newspaper, The Commercial Appeal. Both The Press-Scimitar and The Commercial Appeal are part of the E. W. Scripps Company's Scripps-Howard Newspapers chain.

A number of other afternoon papers have closed in recent years, including the Chicago Daily News, The Washington Star, The Cleveland Press, The Bulletin of Philadelphia, the Des Moines (Iowa) Tribune and the Tonight edition of the New York Daily News.

About 90 editorial employees of the Press-Scimitar face possible unemployment, but Williams said The Commercial Appeal's staff will be expanded to include some of the Press-Scimitar's reporters, photographers and editors.

He said company officials will meet with union representatives to discuss impending dismissals and transfers.

The end of afternoon publication will also affect an undetermined number of production, circulation, advertising and business office workers at the publishing company.

The announcement, read to employees of both newspapers at 7 a.m. staff meetings, came as no surprise.

Rumors of the impending demise of the Press-Scimitar had been circulating for months as the newspaper's circulation fell below 80,000. Ten years ago, its circulation was 127,000.

On Tuesday, the president of the Memphis Newspaper Guild, a union representing editorial personnel, asked management to respond to rumors of the newspaper's impending death.

Milton R. Britten, editor of the Press-Scimitar since 1975, read Williams' announcement in a low voice that was almost inaudible at times.

There was little visible reaction among the staff although Britten paused frequently to swallow as he read his newspaper's death notice.

"All he had to do was tell us when to quit putting out the paper," said one journalist. "We already knew we were dead."

"We're in competition with every leisure pursuit," he said. "People used to go home and sit on the front porch and read the afternoon newspaper."

Miss Hart honored at bridal shower

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held Monday evening in the parlor of the First Presbyterian Church for Carol Hart. Hostesses were Cecelia McKenzie, Patti Hutte and Carolyn Witthuhn. They presented Miss Hart with a wedding book. They also presented white corsages to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Tommy Hart. Other special guests at the shower included Miss Hart's aunts, Lisa Hubbard and Pauline Wood. Guests were served from a table centered with a white silk flower arrangement. The bride's chosen colors of burgandy and off-white were featured on a cake baked and hand-decorated by Mrs. Witthuhn. Miss Hart and Steve Baldwin will be married Saturday morning in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church with the Rev. David Walsh officiating.

Dear Abby

Wife privately pans husband's performance

DEAR ABBY: This is the second marriage for both of us, and I haven't the courage to face my family and friends and admit that it was a mistake. I feel like I'm just a cook, housekeeper and sex partner whenever my husband is in the mood. I am starved for some real affection. All he wants is a five-minute sex affair with no hugging, kissing or sweet words. When we first met he was very passionate, and insisted on going all the way on our second date. I should have known he wasn't a real lover — that all he wanted was sex. I am 74 and he is 80, and we've been married for five years. I had been a widow for three years, and he had recently lost his wife before he gave me the grand rush. I don't need his money and he doesn't need mine — our lawyers drew up a prenuptial agreement. We appear to be an ideal couple. If we were to divorce, our children would be shocked and our pastor would be surprised. Don't recommend a marriage counselor, Abby. This man would never listen to anybody. I just know that I would be so much happier if I didn't have to keep putting on a front. What should I do?

MADE A MISTAKE
DEAR MADE: "All the world's a stage," and this is no dress rehearsal, so don't worry about what your friends, family or pastor will say. Tell your husband where he has disappointed you. If he wants a chance to win you by changing his ways, give him a limited probation period. And if he doesn't shape up — ship him out. Life is too short.

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter signed "Mornings Are Murder" from the wife who couldn't drag her husband out of bed, I had to let you know how I solved the same problem. For months my husband would go back to sleep after I had awakened him, then he'd get mad at me because I didn't get him up again in time for work. So here's what I did: I shot him — right between the eyes! No, not with a real gun — they make too much noise; besides, it would get my bedspread all bloody. I used a water pistol, confiscated from my young son. Just one squirt usually did the trick. Sometimes he would cover his head with a pillow, but since he sleeps in the nude, finding another target area was no problem. He never gets angry about being shot — he just wakes up laughing. Perhaps you could pass this along. My name is Edna, but sign me...

Dr. Donohue

Thyroid connection

Dear Dr. Donohue: Please explain hypothyroidism. Having watched two different TV discussions, I'm concerned.

The first warned that many people are taking medicine for low thyroid who really shouldn't be. Then I heard a doctor who is a specialist explain that the true test for low thyroid is an underarm temperature. He said 50 percent of the U.S. population should be taking medication for low thyroid to relieve fatigue, depression and weight gain. Since I am often tired and have always required a full nine hours of sleep at night, I'm wondering if I might need medication? — S.M.

I don't believe that 50 percent of the population needs thyroid medicine. And I don't believe an underarm temperature is the best way to detect low thyroid function. There undoubtedly are people taking thyroid medicine who don't need it. They take it because they feel tired or worn out and their thyroid has been blamed without confirming matters with adequate tests. Most physicians I know want to have evidence from laboratory tests to determine blood thyroid hormone levels. Fatigue is only one part of the low thyroid story. Dry skin, elimination problems, change in voice, brittle hair — on and on go the symptoms to low thyroid gland activity. The doctor wants to feel the size of the gland itself. He checks the pulse. A slow pulse can be another of many indicators of low thyroid levels. He wants to tap the knee for reflexes, which are sluggish if thyroid hormone levels are low.

Finally, if signs point to the problem, he wants to have blood tests to see how much thyroid hormone is being made. From all of this evidence, he then decides if the person needs supplemental thyroid hormones.

Thursday Notes

It's time for District 4-5A football, called by most the best in the state of Texas.

And why not? Permian, San Angelo and Midland Lee are all ranked among AP's top 10 teams. Three teams from one district in the top 10. And Odessa High and Midland High can't be too far behind.

How well did the league do in pre-district games? How about 18-6. Toss out the Abilene schools and it's 16-2. That's a cool 89 per cent win-loss ratio.

It's no wonder, then, Big Spring would like to remain in 5-A football. Tip-toeing the 4-A and 5-A line, the Steers are perennial underdogs in this district but that makes the victories that much sweeter.

And with Quinn Eudy and the new attitude for the 80's having arrived, perhaps BSHS will be one of those top 10 bullies before too long.

The latest 4-5A stats — to be published in whole Friday — are out. Permian is tops in offense while San Angelo is No. 1 in defense.

Mojo has ground out 1,196 yards in three games (399 per game). Meanwhile, the Angry Orange has given up just 263 yards (88 per game).

Big Spring is sixth in offense with 261 yards a night and sixth in defense, giving up 247. Senior Mike McKinley is No. 8 in rushing with a 6.0 average while both Jay Pirkle (4.5 average) and Eric Sherman (5.0 average) are among the top 15.

Passing-wise, Mark Johnson is fifth with 165 yards and a TD in a back-up role to starter Tommy Gartman. Midland is hogging the receiving stats with Air Welborn but Robert Porras and Charley Ragan are tied for fourth with six catches each.

Pirkle is No. 4 in punting with a 38.5 average.

The LaJet-Coors Classic is underway in Abilene and as usual, the weather is just beautiful. How those guys over there have such pull with Mother Nature, I don't know.

If you have the chance between football games, drive over to Fairway Oaks. Fuzzy Zoeller, the man who made over $130,000 in five days at Las Vegas, is there along with Ben Crenshaw, Tom Kite, Wayne Levi, Gary Player, Craig Stadler, Hal Sutton and many of your other favorites.

If you think trying to sink a 25-foot putt for a birdie or par is pressure-packed, wait until you watch the pros do it. You can actually feel the tension in the air. It's great.

Tickets are $15 per day. You can still get them here in Big Spring at the Comanche Trails pro shop.

Speaking of golf, the Big Spring City Championship and Seniors Championship is scheduled Oct. 15-16 at Comanche Trails. It's a 36-hole medal play event. Entry fee has been reduced to $30 to help in our hard economic times. Deadline is Oct. 10 and all entries must be residents of Howard County.

Also coming up Oct. 1-2 is the Big Spring Golf Association Grand Tournament at Comanche Trails.

Lots of good golf, if you can break yourself away from football for 18 holes.

In other events, the Miller High Life-sponsored slow-pitch softball tournament begins Friday at Johnny Stone Park. Today is the last date to enter the event which benefits the local United Way. Fee is $90 per team. Trophies go to the top six teams with individual awards to the top four. An all-tournament team, most valuable player and golden glove winner will be honored.

Friday is the deadline to enter a racquetball tourney benefiting the United Way. Scheduled to begin Monday at the YMCA, the event features seven divisions for men and five for women. Entry fee is $10 per event, $15 for two and $20 for three.

Coogs host Big Spring in volleyball tonight

ABILENE — Big Spring High goes for win No. 3 in District 4-5A play here tonight when they test Cooper High.

The Cougars are 2-1 in league play with two-game wins over Midland and Odessa; Cooper lost its opener to defending champion San Angelo. Big Spring is also 2-1, besting Odessa and Abilene and tumbling in three-games to Midland.

Overall, Big Spring is 6-11. The junior varsities play prior to the varsity contest. BSHS is 2-1 after losing a three-gamer to Odessa Tuesday. The Lady Steers JV is 9-4 for the season. Varsity game time is 7 p.m.

JUST A WARNING FROM THIS STEER — Big Spring High wide receiver Dale Crenshaw earned all-District 4-5A honors last year and is aiming for a repeat this season, beginning with Friday's showdown with Abilene High.

Pass-catcher Crenshaw receives proper notice

By GREG JAKLEWICZ
Sports Editor

To call Dale Crenshaw slender is giving his physique too much credit. But District 4-5A opponents know it's a slender chance they'll keep the lanky receiver from catching the ball once league play begins Friday.

The Big Spring High senior doesn't carry too much weight on his 6-2 frame but that's good. Otherwise, he might not be able to whisk to a 4.6 clocking in the 40. Good speed and good hands won Crenshaw all-district honors as a junior and he's poised to step back into that spotlight.

Beginning Friday with Abilene High. "I'm pretty sure we can take 'em," he predicts. "We have a good team. If we play a good game, we can beat them big. We've had three good practices this week. Coach (Quinn) Eudy says there's a lot of pressure on us but we can handle it."

True, the pressures are there. Big Spring, like Abilene, is hoping to win its league opener. But it has been 11 years since the Steers have defeated the Eagles.

"I don't know what it is," Crenshaw says about the past. "Last year, I don't think we were ready for it. Now, we're picked even with them. I think we can do it."

The Steers hosted Abilene last year with high hopes but an 80-yard scoring pass from Steve Stacy to John Yarbrough keyed the Eagles' 20-6 victory. Big Spring had only 58 yards passing in the game, causing Crenshaw to reflect on his performance. "I don't think it was good."

Actually, the Steer receiver caught four passes for 46 of those yards and began his trek to all-league laurels. None of his 17 catches (18.5 ypc), however, went for touchdowns.

"I was running for one against San Angelo and then I fumbled the ball at the five," he recalls. "That stayed with me all summer."

Entering Friday's game, Crenshaw has caught just two passes for 21 yards in three pre-district games. He caught an apparent 19-yard scoring throw against Levelland but pulled in the pass beyond the back line of the end zone.

"I didn't know where I was. I was already open and just jogging. The ball was thrown long and I caught in out-of-bounds. There was no argument," he explained.

"I haven't been getting many plays called for me," he admits. "Most of them have been going to the other side. Maybe it's because that side is weaker. But I didn't do anything in pre-season last year either."

After winning all-district honors, it wouldn't be unusual for a team to put its best secondary personnel on Crenshaw. "I've been able to get by them. I think they'll start hitting me with more passes. I hope to be able to beat them deep and then run with it. That's the way I get the yardage."

Crenshaw also plays in the defensive secondary, although it's only in a back-up role. "I don't expect to play too much defense, but I'll be ready for it. I feel better about it this year. I wasn't too sure of myself out there but I've grown a little more."

"I'd like to get a couple of interceptions," he said, smiling.

Catching the ball is his main job and he patterns himself after the Dallas Cowboys' all-time receiver Drew Pearson. "He's been my idol ever since I started watching the Cowboys and that's been a long time. He's a good team captain and always make the clutch play, like that Hail Mary pass against Minnesota. That's when I first started liking him."

Crenshaw moved to Big Spring from Odessa after his freshman year. He had been a quarterback but was moved to receiver when he joined the Steer sophomore team. Also a basketball and track letterman, Crenshaw sees football as his future.

"I need to have a good year. I want to go to college and play football," he says. Starting with Abilene, the senior wide receiver wants to display his ample talents. "They're just another team to beat. I feel good about the game. Everybody is ready. We want to beat them we haven't beaten them in a long time."

As for the rest of the district scheduled, Crenshaw warns opponents to watch out for the Steers. "I think it looks good. We'll (Continued from page 1-B)

Caldwell dislikes runner-up image

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — While Fuzzy Zoeller and Hal Sutton are engaged in a head to head struggle for the PGA Tour's money-winning lead, Rex Caldwell continues his personal, career-long quest for his first victory.

"I want to win," he said before teeing off today in the first round of the $350,000 LaJet Coors Classic.

"It's a personal thing with me. The money's important. Sure. But let me win and they can pay me $10."

"I think I'm a good enough player to win. But I haven't done it. Not yet. And that's what I want."

"Just one time, I want to be able to say I went out there against the best players in the world and on that one week, I beat 'em."

"It seems like everybody else on the Tour is winning. Am I the only guy on the Tour, the only guy not a rookie, who hasn't won? It seems like it. You've got guys out here trying to quit the Tour, and they come up and win one. Look at Pat Lindsey. He's ready to pack it in, and he wins and he's exempt for two years. No way in the world he can quit now."

"They're trying to pack it in and they win. I'm out here for the long haul and I can't win. You figure it out."

"Maybe runnerup is my niche."

It has been this year. The lanky, talkative Caldwell, not yet a winner in nine years of Tour activity, has had four runnerup finishes this season.

Two of those came in playoff losses. Another came last week in the Las Vegas Pro Celebrity Classic when he made an unsuccessful attempt at overtaking Zoeller. He came from six shots back in the final round and was within two with two holes to play.

"I don't feel like I was choking. Not at all. I had the feeling I could win. At the end, I had to try to make something happen. And it didn't work out," said Caldwell, who collected $81,000 and pushed his earnings for the season to $216,851, 13th on the year's standings and more than twice his previous high.

Zoeller won the biggest prize on the American Tour, $135,000, and took the money-winning lead away from Sutton at $413,852. Sutton trails by only $429 with five official-money tournaments left this season. The LaJet, however, is expected to be the only remaining tournament in which both will play.

Other leading players in the 156-man field that is chasing a $63,000 first prize include defending champion Wayne Levi, Hale Irwin, Tom Weiskopf, Lee Trevino, Ben Crenshaw, Tom Kite, David Graham and Craig Stadler.

Australia II 4-AAAA Picks fights back

By GREG JAKLEWICZ

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Resilient Australia II stayed alive in the America's Cup battle thanks to must-win, comeback victory.

That meant she needed only two more must-win victories. Still, Aussie skipper John Bertrand, who conquered crippled Liberty in Wednesday's fifth race, says the tide is flowing his way.

"We certainly have momentum now," Bertrand said after Australia II sailed to a one-minute, 47-second victory that cut Liberty's lead in the best-of-seven series to 3-2. "Now, we've got two races to win."

"I think we could win 50 in a row with this yacht," said Australia II syndicate chief Alan Bond, whose boats won just one of 13 races in his three previous Cup campaigns. "The victory today proves we can win in any wind conditions."

Winds in the 10-20 knot range were forecast for today's sixth race.

Australia II was thought to be vulnerable in the fairly strong winds of 16-18 knots and choppy seas on Rhode Island Sound Wednesday. But it charged ahead of Liberty late on the (See 'America's' on pg. 6-B)

Texas makes A's again

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — The Texas Rangers wish they could have played all 162 games against the Oakland A's.

The Rangers downed the A's 4-2 Wednesday night to sweep all six meetings in Arlington Stadium against the A's.

American League

They finished the season 11-2 against Oakland, and the victory fashioned on Mike Smithson's five-hitter was the fourth consecutive for Texas, which is edging up on Kansas City for second place in the American League West.

Orioles 3-7, Tigers 0-6

It was business as usual for the Baltimore Orioles.

Rookie Mike Boddicker calmly quieted the whooping fans at Tiger Stadium with a first-game shutout, and then John Lowenstein blasted a two-out grand slam to cap a six-run rally in the ninth inning of the second game to complete a sweep of Detroit in their Wednesday two-night double-header.

Brewers 10, Indians 7

Don Sutton won his first game since July 14 — breaking his eight-game losing string.

LA cripples Astros' bid

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fernando Valenzuela hadn't won a game in more than a month, and he hadn't completed one in nearly two months.

He accomplished both Wednesday night, pitching Los Angeles over Houston, 2-1, as the Dodgers improved their lead over Atlanta in the National League West to four games.

National League

The victory also reduced the Dodgers' magic number for clinching the division to eight.

Now the Dodgers are off to Atlanta for three games beginning Friday night, then two in Cincinnati and two more in San Diego before coming home to finish the season against San Francisco.

The Dodgers can wrap up the division crown on the road, and the way they've performed against the Giants this year, it would be in their best interests to do so.

Braves 9-3, Reds 1-4

A botched suicide squeeze play by the Atlanta Braves may have killed their chances to catch Los Angeles in the National League West pennant race.

The Braves, who already had beaten by 8½ games. The Orioles have 11 games remaining; Detroit has 10 left.

White Sox 2-7, Twins 1-6

LaMarr Hoyt won his 11th consecutive game in the opener and now leads the majors with 22 victories.

Hoyt, 22-10, allowed seven hits and Chicago won it when Harold Baines ripped an RBI single in the seventh to snap a 1-1 tie.

The nightcap in Chicago was tied 6-6 in the ninth inning when Tom Paciorek walked, took second on Ron Kittle's single and scored on Scott Fletcher's one-out single.

Blue Jays 4, Mariners 3

Doyle Alexander, who lost his first eight decisions of the season, continued his resurgence with his fifth consecutive victory. Alexander, 5-8, gave up eight hits and struck out five in pitching his fourth complete game of the season.

Red Sox 3, Yankees 1

Boston led 2-1 when New York loaded the bases with one out in the top of the eighth inning.

Butch Wynegar then flied out to right fielder Reid Nichols, whose throw to the plate nailed Dave Winfield, ending the inning.

BUTCH JOHNSON ...thinking it out

Johnson back in Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Disgruntled Dallas Cowboys' wide receiver Butch Johnson says he's made up his mind on what he'll do at the end of the season.

But Johnson won't say if he'll stay with the National Football League club, retire or force a trade.

"I've made up my mind what I'm going to do at the end of the season," Johnson said Wednesday. "But I'm not going to say what it is because it would only be a distraction."

Johnson spent Monday in Cancun, Mexico after being granted a day's leave by Coach Tom Landry. He's caught only one pass in the Cowboys' first three games.

Asked if Johnson had requested a trade, Landry said, "Butch is constantly wanting to be traded. And I don't blame him to an extent."

Crenshaw warns foes about Big Spring

be in contention, I'm serious about that. Odessa and Lee are good but we'll be right up there with them. They're going to have to watch out for us.

"People are starting to respect us more. It'll be a big boost for us and the town if we win. They (the community) are behind us real good and we appreciate that."

And the town is thankful for Dale Crenshaw who hopes to catch Abilene off-guard Friday night.

DECKED OUT IN THEIR NEW THREADS — Former Houston Oilers Archie Manning, left, and Dave Casper discuss the turn of events after their first practice session Wednesday with the Minnesota Vikings. Both were traded Tuesday for 1984 draft choices.

Oilers' trading leaves Nielsen No. 1 passer

HOUSTON (AP) — Quarterback Gifford Nielsen has lined up in the Houston Oilers depth chart behind such glittering names as Dan Pastorini, Kenny Stabler and Archie Manning.

Yet when the dust settled from Tuesday's block-buster trade that sent Manning and tight end Dave Casper to the Minnesota Vikings, there was Nielsen, back on top as the Oiler starter.

Just call him a survivor.

"I've had a lot of ups and downs on this team and played behind three good quarterbacks that have come and gone and I'm still here," Nielsen said.

"I'm thrilled at the chance to play. It's been a tough three games (three regular season losses). But I've got confidence in myself and in the team that we can put things together."

Nielsen is getting his fourth chance to take charge of the Oiler quarterbacking position. He went to training camp as the starter the past three seasons but was sidelined twice by injuries and beaten out this season by Manning.

But when the Oiler offense went into a tailspin after enjoying brief success against the Green Bay Packers and when Manning tossed eight interceptions in three games, Coach Ed Biles decided to return to youth.

"Gifford performed well when he played for us," Biles said. "Archie just didn't fit into our long-range plans. No one game had anything to do with this decision."

Nielsen's next challenge may not be any farther away than the next National Football League draft, however. He expects the Oilers to choose a quarterback with the draft choices they obtained from the Vikings.

"They have to draft a quarterback next year, I'm sure," Nielsen said. "But I'm not worried about it. If they do draft a quarterback I hope he's a great one and can help this football team. I just hope he doesn't start."

The shakeup also will offer a chance to see if third-string quarterback Oliver Luck, a second-year player from West Virginia, will figure in the Oilers' future plans.

Neither Luck nor Nielsen has played in any of the Oilers' three losses.

"I have mixed feelings about Archie," Luck said. "I think he liked it here and wanted to stay. But I'm also happy for myself. I want the opportunity to play, too."

Luck set eight school records at West Virginia and also was a winner in the classroom, graduating with a 3.96 grade point average, and was one of 12 Rhodes Scholar finalists.

Luck has yet to play in a pro regular season game.

Bum says Saints eager to test Cowboys again

IRVING, Texas (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys are the team Bum Phillips loves to test.

"I like to play Dallas because it's a challenge to beat somebody like that," Phillips says. "I have a lot of respect for them."

"Their players conduct themselves properly and there are no cheap shots or bitchin' or gripin'. I respect that."

The coach of the New Orleans Saints gets another shot at Dallas Coach Tom Landry Sunday and says the Cowboys "are playing like hell."

Phillips is 1-1 against Landry in regular season National Football League games, losing a 21-7 decision last year.

However, on Thanksgiving Day in 1979, the Houston Oilers took out the Cowboys 30-24 with Phillips on the sidelines. That was the day Phillips said "Dallas may be America's Team but Houston is Texas' team." Phillips was eventually fired by owner Bud Adams.

"The Cowboys are playing better than I've seen them," Phillips said. "In the past it has always been better to play Dallas early before they get going. But they are making the plays right now."

He added with a laugh, "I'm still not convinced they are America's Team."

The improved Saints bring a 2-1 record into Texas Stadium for the noon kickoff against the 3-0 Cowboys, the only unbeaten team in the National Conference. The Los Angeles Raiders are the only other unblemished team in the NFL.

The Cowboys were eight-point favorites over a club they have beaten nine times in 10 decisions.

The star running backs for both teams were nursing knee injuries and their effectiveness could be limited.

New Orleans' George Rogers had strained right knee ligaments and Dallas' Tony Dorsett was protecting a deep bruise in a similar spot.

If Dorsett can play, he needs only 24 yards to tie Leroy Kelly for ninth place on the NFL's all-time rushing list with 7,274 yards.

Dallas quarterback Danny White needs 144 yards passing to reach the 10,000-yard mark for his career.

The Saints are fresh off their first overtime victory in team history, a 34-31 triumph over the Chicago Bears. They have beaten St. Louis and lost to the Los Angeles Rams.

Dallas has downed Washington, St. Louis and the New York Giants.

"We're fortunate to be 3-0," Landry said. "In fact, I'm surprised. We aren't playing solid football, but we have played well in certain areas."

Crisis brewing at LaJet Classic

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — Golfers may think it's only a water hazard, but a creek running through the Fairway Oaks Golf Course can prove menacing to spectators at the LaJet Coors Classic thirsty for some of the tournament sponsor's brew.

The creek, which separates a Taylor County precinct that allows beer sales from one that doesn't, runs between the 17th and 18th holes and cuts through the 10th, 14th, 15th and 16th holes.

To the west of Buttonwillow Creek, beer sales are permitted. The majority of the course is in the "dry" area east of the creek.

"I've been on the (professional golf) tour for 20 years and this is the first time I've seen anything like this," said Mike Cimino, a concession salesman for Joe Lynch Amusement Enterprises Inc.

Last year, concession operators at the Professional Golfers' Association tournament attempted to get around the prohibition on beer sales by "giving" beer in return for "donations," according to concession stand operator Bill Terlecky. But state liquor control officials put a stop to that practice.

Spectators must walk across some floating bridges to reach the portion of the course where they can buy beer.

Traffic became so heavy last year on one of the bridges that it started to sink, leaving some of the thirsty spectators with wet feet.

America's Cup could go 7 for first time

A victory by Australia II today would send the America's Cup to a seventh race for the first time. A victory by Liberty would make America's 25th defense of the Cup, which it has held since the first competition in 1851, a successful one.

"I won't feel comfortable until we win, but I'd rather be three wins and two losses than two wins and three losses," said Liberty skipper Dennis Conner. "Obviously, Australia II's a very good boat and very strong in all wind conditions."

The pre-series predictions — Australia II's superiority upwind and in light to moderate airs and Liberty's superiority downwind and in stiffer breezes — have not held up. The series has been unpredictable.

So was Wednesday's race.

Australia II, plagued by equipment failures the first two races, seemed to be in control when one of Liberty's two hydraulic jumper struts, V-shaped supports for the mast, bent and collapsed about an hour before the race. Then, as Liberty's crew tried to set its jib to start the first leg, a luff tape on it tore, forcing Conner to use his second choice for the headsail.

But Liberty seized on Bertrand's second consecutive poor start to grab a whopping 37-second advantage.

Finally, good fortune and the winds shifted back to Bertrand, who rode on a directional change in the breeze to a 23-second lead at the first mark.

When the jumper strut collapsed, Liberty crew members Tom Rich and Scott Vogel went up the mast to dismantle it and replace it with another one that had been rushed in from shore. The job was done two minutes before starting maneuvers were to begin. But about three minutes into the race, the replacement collapsed.

"We would have been faster if we had had no problems," Conner said. "Certainly, psychologically it takes a little bit out of you to have the problems we had for a half hour prior to the race."

Soon, however, it was Bertrand who had a psychological letdown. His boat was about two feet across the starting line when the race began, forcing him to circle back and start again.

"We were down three races to one. We went for broke and I got a little too greedy," he said. "Having to return in a yacht race like that is hard to take and, as a result, you have to lift yourself up very quickly."
