

Marines invade Grenada

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan said today the early morning landing of U.S. and Caribbean forces on Grenada was "completely successful" and had as its overriding purpose the protection of 1,000 Americans on the island. Later, Reagan said U.S. forces had suffered some casualties.

"I know there are casualties but I don't have any official report right now," the president said during a picture-taking session in the Oval Office with Lt. Gen. H.M. Ershad, the president of Bangladesh.

In a statement to reporters earlier, Reagan said he wanted to withdraw the American soldiers "as quickly as possible." House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill said the troops would be in Grenada "five to seven days or less."

A senior administration official said 30 Soviet advisers and 600 Cubans, stationed on the island nation had been "secured." The Cubans, he said, would be allowed to leave on a Cuban ship now in a Grenadian harbor. The handling of the Soviets, he said, was still under consideration.

The invasion force included elements of an 1,800-man U.S. Marine amphibious unit and Army Rangers.

Pentagon sources who requested anonymity said they understood the casualties had suffered by the Rangers, but the source said they had no details.

Also sent into the area was the 76,000-ton aircraft carrier Independence with its 70 planes and about 10 other ships.

At the White House, a senior military official who also declined to be identified said that 400 to 500 Marines had landed by helicopter near Pearls Airport, along the island's northeastern coast. Some 700 to 1,000 Rangers had parachuted near the island's other airport, Point Salines International, where a 10,000-foot runway was being built by Cubans.

That official said the troops then moved from their landing zones toward the capital of St. Georges, several miles north of Point Salines.

At mid-morning the official reported "there is still some ground fire" but added that initial anti-aircraft fire encountered by the helicopters had been "suppressed."

Reagan said the countries of Antigua, Barbados, Dominica, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and Jamaica contributed 300 troops in all to the operation.

Decision to intervene made last week, says official

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. decision to intervene in Grenada was made the "middle of last week" and military-related intelligence information for the landing was pouring in by Friday, a State Department official said today.

The official, who spoke on condition he not be identified, said the intelligence information included the best landing sites, location of coral reefs, the basing of Grenada's security forces and the site of arms caches.

"You don't do that unless you're planning something," he said. "That's how you put something like this together."

Earlier today, President Reagan announced that military forces of the United States and six Caribbean nations had landed on Grenada to protect Americans living there, to restore law and order and to end the chaos on the island nation ruled since last week by a leftist military junta.

Reagan said the United States had received a "formal request" on Sunday from the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States to help "restore order" on the island.

While confirming that the request was made over the weekend, the official said the U.S. "decision (was) made the middle of last week" after a "straw poll" of the Caribbean nations.

The official said U.S. motivation for the move included concern over the possibility that the leftist military coup in Grenada could destabilize other nations in the Caribbean and that Soviet bloc nations would have access to a 10,000-foot runway now under construction.

He said the airport could be used to refuel Libyan transport planes carrying heavy military equipment to Nicaragua's leftist government. Reagan has in the past cited Grenada's new airfield, being built with Cuban assistance, as a threat to U.S. interests.

'Is my son alive?'

Families await word on conditions

By The Associated Press
Death wore a uniform and life came with a phone call for the agonized families of U.S. servicemen in Beirut today, as those who already knew the worst treasured last letters and railed against a massacre that "didn't have to happen."

"I want someone to tell me why my son had to die," said Lou Meurer of Louisville, Ky., whose 21-year-old son Ronald was killed in Sunday's terrorist bombing. "I guess I don't matter because I'm just a dead Marine's mother. But I hope a lot of people start asking this question now."

The parents of Lance Cpl. Duane Wigglesworth, 19, of Naugatuck, Conn., grieved in private, but the slain man's uncle criticized the "low-key"

Marvin Helms, Mark's father. "Then this morning the Marine Corps came and told us that it was the end of it for our son."

As the grim news came formally, with a visit from an officer in dress uniform, good news filtered in on television pictures, radio, in phone numbers passed hand-to-hand among servicemen in Lebanon.

Mary Ciokon of San Diego learned her husband, Navy Senior Chief Journalist Joseph Ciokon, 43, was safe after she recognized him in a telecast from U.S. military headquarters in Beirut.

"I was happy and I felt guilty," said Mrs. Ciokon. "So many had not heard about whether their men were safe. I saw Joe on TV last night and I am grateful he is

Officials prepare for arrival of bodies

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Officials at the Dover Air Force Base are preparing for the arrival of the 191 American servicemen killed Sunday in a bombing attack in Beirut.

No date has been set for the arrival of the bodies, but a base spokesman said Monday they may start arriving "in the next couple of days."

The victims will be greeted by chaplains and an honor guard, Sahli said.

The mortuary, the largest in the U.S. Armed Forces, opened 13 years ago and processed thousands of servicemen killed in the Vietnam War. In 1977, more than 300 victims of a collision of two airliners in the Canary Islands were processed here.

The facility can handle as many as 1,000 bodies.

security at the Beirut airport, where the bombing occurred.

"Other than the fact of shock right now of what happened, the family feels that it didn't have to happen, that it shouldn't have happened," said Grover Wigglesworth, the corporal's uncle.

The crushing irony of a jaunty letter received Monday morning added to the pain for the parents of Pfc. Mark Helms of Dwight, Neb., who learned of their 19-year-old son's death from Marine officials after reading "Hello, I'm still alive" in a message from Lebanon.

"Of course last night was a sleepless night, sitting and waiting, hoping for a phone call rather than a uniform," said

OK. I feel for the wives and families who are still waiting for word."

"The only thing I want to know is whether or not my son is alive," said Irene Henry of East St. Louis, Ill., talking about Lance Cpl. Eric A. Pulliam, 19. "All I know is that his platoon was to pull out of there in November. He was supposed to be home for Christmas."

For many, no news was good news.

"We haven't heard a thing and we're delighted," said Lavon Singleton, father of Lt. Mark Singleton, 24, of Conway, S.C. "We're really glad we're thinking Mark is all right."

Commissioners vote to oppose issuance of apartment bonds

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer
Howard County Commissioners Monday voted 4-0 to approve a resolution opposing the issuance of tax-free bonds for the construction of a proposed apartment complex in the Coronado Hills subdivision.

The developer originally applied for commissioners' approval of the bonds financing the housing project, but withdrew its application after Big Spring City Council members supported the measure in a stormy meeting Oct. 11.

Commissioners decided to hold the public hearing and deny the request of the Bent Tree Apartments developer after being bombarded by telephone calls and meetings with citizens in their precincts, they said during their meeting Monday.

The bonds would be issued tax-free to investors by the Permian Basin Housing Finance Corporation, a body related to the Permian Basin Regional Planning Council.

Although commissioners agreed with the opponents of the development and voted to oppose issuance of the bonds, their action is significant only in that it could persuade city council members to withdraw their support of the apartments, according to Jerry Tschauer, director of planning for the Permian Basin Regional Planning Council.

County approval is not necessary for the issuance of the bonds, Tschauer said, because the complex will be built within the city limits.

However, the city council must approve the bond issue before the regional planning council can vote to issue the bonds. The council usually goes along with what the See APARTMENTS, page 2A

Cold front knifes through West Texas

A cold front knifed into the Big Spring area today, accompanied by strong north winds that produced chilly temperatures and scattered showers.

Temperatures behind the front, which extended from the Panhandle into North Central Texas early today, were in the 40s and 50s. Ahead of the front, skies were mostly clear and temperatures remained in the 50s and 60s.

In Big Spring, the overnight low was 51 degrees.

Today's local forecast calls for northerly winds at 15-25 miles per hour, a 50 percent chance of rain and a high temperature in the low 60s.

The U.S. Big Spring Field Station recorded only a trace of precipitation last night, as did most of the area. The largest rainfall measured in the area was at Lomax west of Big Spring where .30 of an inch was reported.

The front also brought fog, drizzle and some thunderstorms to parts of North and West Texas with locally heavy rain — more than an inch in two hours — reported in Abilene.

The West Texas thunderstorms were moving toward the east to southeast at about 10 to 15 miles an hour, the National Weather Service said.

Forecasts call for the cold air to push all the way down to the lower Rio Grande Valley by tonight.

Garza says bill will pass

Harte-Hanks Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — Rep. E. "Kika" de la Garza, D-Mission, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, predicted Monday that Congress will pass a feed assistance bill for drought-stricken ranchers "within the next two weeks."

Following passage of the bill, de la Garza added, the committee will investigate charges by Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower that grain stored in a West Texas elevator has deteriorated dramatically.

"There have been so many accusations," said de la Garza in an interview Monday. "It could be one hell of a mismanagement. The committee will have to look at it independently and get our own investigator."

But de la Garza stressed that the investigation comes second to the drought bill. "We don't want to rock the boat," he said.

Since the USDA has disputed Hightower's figures, de la Garza noted, a congressional investigation of the elevator situation now could hurt the bill's chances.

U.S. Agriculture Secretary John Block said Friday he would drop his fight against the emergency feed bill, which would force the U.S. Department of Agriculture to sell federally owned grain to drought-stricken farmers and ranchers.

Block earlier said the bill would be too costly and merely aid producers in the West Texas region. His abrupt about-face has apparently set the stage for quick passage of a bill.

"Optimistically, we could have something passed by the end of next week," de la Garza said. "It should be within the next two weeks."

But de la Garza said he expects a House-Senate conference committee will work out the differences in the next two weeks.

DRACULA BITES BACK — Rick Davis and Marsha Hudson refine their roles in a recent rehearsal of Seven Wives For Dracula to be presented at the Coahoma Halloween Carnival Saturday.

Halloween Carnival set for the Coahoma Elementary School Saturday.

Coahoma sets Halloween carnival

The Coahoma Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the Coahoma school district, will be held Saturday at 6 p.m. Activities include a spook house, hay rides, various booths and a dinner theater.

The dinner theater production, entitled Seven Wives For Dracula, is made of Coahoma faculty, parents and community members. The group will present two performances with the first beginning with dinner at 6 p.m. followed by a 6:30 p.m. show. The second performance will have dinner served at 7:30 p.m. with the show to start at 8 p.m.

Price for the dinner theater will be $2 for adults and $1.50 for students. Profits from the carnival go to the band boosters, classes, clubs and other school activities.

local governing body agrees to, Tschauner said.

Commissioners said they voted to oppose the issue because the new development primarily because other developers were required to finance their projects through the private sector.

County commissioners also said the development would employ little local labor and materials and would cause more traffic congestion in the Coronado Hills area.

In addition, the area was not zoned as a multi-family residential area, Commissioner Paul Allen said.

The vacancy rate of apartments in the city is around 23 percent, Allen said. Fellow commissioner William Crocker said he couldn't see "adding problem to problem."

However, a spokesman for the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce said that although the chamber does not keep vacancy rates for apartments, its records show that most apartments in the city had waiting lists.

Commissioners also approved funding for partial salary of the breathalyzer test analyst in Midland through February. Commissioners originally budgeted $3,400 for the whole year, but later found the cost was different than estimated.

Current funding will enable the county to use the analyst's services through February, when commissioners will re-evaluate continued participation in the program.

Commissioners also tabled until their next meeting consideration of a proposal by County Librarian Judith Gray to join an areawide automation effort by the West Texas Library System that would involve matching grants from the county and state.

Members of the commission must sign a non-binding letter of intent by Nov. 21 to be included in the system. If the county decides to join the automation system later without signing the letter, two-thirds of the other libraries or their governing bodies must approve before the county can be included in the program.

In other action, commissioners also amended the revenue sharing funds for the 1982-83 annual budget. The amended budget shows $184,289.57 in receipts; a balance on Oct. 1, 1982 of $46,784.41; and total expenditures of $111,872.21, for a balance on Sept. 30, 1983 of $119,201.77.

Commissioners awarded the bid for county office supplies to Tallant Printing, at a cost of $4,999.29. They also asked for bids for a replacement car for the sheriff's department and for the courthouse janitorial service.

Also on Monday, county surveyor C.R. Crim handed in his resignation to commissioners, who replaced him with Telesforo F. Fiero Jr., an employee in the surveyor's office for 20 years before his promotion. Crim is retiring.

Commissioners also appointed Tommy Rutledge to the Industrial Board Steering Committee to replace Clyde McMahon Sr., whose term expired.

Commissioners also requisitioned $1,800 to install electrical outlets in the equipment yard of the Road and Bridges Department and $1,549.64 for prime oil for the engineering department.

In other recent action, the commissioners nominated Jack Watkins as their nominee to the board of directors for the Howard County Tax Appraisal District.

Other nominees include Robert L. Roberson, by the Forsan Independent School District; D.D. Johnston by the City of Big Spring; Harold Pierce, by the Coahoma ISD. The Big Spring ISD nominated the present board members for re-election: Lila Estes, Arnold Marshall, Wendell Shive, Billy T. Smith and Clay Reid.

Voting governing bodies must vote and return their ballots to County Clerk Margaret Ray by Nov. 15. Results should be ready by December.

For others, waiting was agony. "It's like you heard the first shoe drop when you heard of the bombing, and now you're waiting to hear that second shoe drop," said Sue Freeman, whose son, Lance Cpl. Clayton J. Freeman of Greenville, was in Beirut at the time of the attack. "You can't relax."

Three uniformed soldiers came to John R. Price at his home in Attalla, Ala., to tell him of the death of his 20-year-old son, Marine Pvt. Christopher James Price, after the father had spent a wide-eyed night on the telephone trying in vain for information.

"He didn't say much in letters because he didn't want to scare us, but he sometimes would say he didn't really know what his mission was," the elder Price said. "I feel my son was sacrificed."

"I get so nervous when the telephone rings, wondering what I'm going to hear," said Michelle Calbert, the wife of Marine Cpl. Robert Calbert, 28, of Wichita, Kan. "If a man in uniform came up to the front door, I'd go out the back door. I couldn't face him."

Marine Lance Cpl. Michael Balcom of Vernon, N.Y., was reported dead Monday, but three hours after his family got the official word of his demise, Balcom called home from a hospital in West Germany.

American lives, the purpose of the operation was "to restore law and order and democracy" and to "forestall further chaos" that had existed since a military junta took over.

But the chancellor of a medical school attended by most of the Americans said they had not been in any imminent danger and that any loss of life would be Reagan's responsibility. Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif. and one of the congressional leaders briefed at the White House, said afterward, "It's incredible that we are involved in a fight in still another place."

Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., another of those briefed at the White House were Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger and Secretary of State George Shultz, said the Soviet "will be provided safe exits from the island, but they will be asked to leave."

Reagan told reporters that the U.S. action was in response to a formal request Sunday from the Organization of Eastern Caribbean states to help restore order to the island, whose government was overthrown by what Reagan called "a brutal group of leftist thugs."

District judge revokes probation
118th District Court Judge Jim Gregg Monday revoked the probation of Randy Allen Moore, 32, of 1601 B Lincoln for violations. Moore was sentenced to two years in prison with credit for eight days in jail.

Jessie Esquivel, 25, of Gail Route Box 437 Monday pleaded guilty in Howard County Court in connection with a charge of driving while intoxicated. County Court Judge Milton Kirby fined Esquivel $350 and $97 court costs and one year probation.

Deputies arrested Alfredo Torres, 31, of Levelland in connection with a warrant for murder Feb. 5 after his bondsman went off bond. Bond is $2,500, according to sheriff's records.

Delores Marie Davis, 21, of 706 B Goliad was released from Howard County Jail on the authority of the adult probation department. Davis had been arrested in connection with a charge of revocation of probation.

Howard County sheriff's deputies arrested Debra Woodard Sisco in connection with a warrant charging her with revocation of probation on a DWI charge. She was released on $1,000 bond set by Municipal Court Judge Kirby.

Deputies also arrested Victor Garcia Sr., 78, of 401 N.E. 10th in connection with a peace bond. He was released on $1,000 peace bond set by Justice of the Peace Lewis Heflin.

Deputies also arrested Forrest (Mike) Michael Schoenvogel, 30, and Pamela Kay Schoenvogel, 22, both of Route 3 Box 85. Each was released on $500 pre-set bond by Heflin.

Three local residents injured in 1-car crash

A Big Spring resident remained in surgery this morning and two other residents were admitted for observation at Malone-Hogan Hospital after a one-car accident 25 miles South of Big Spring on U.S. Highway 87 early this morning injured the three.

The accident occurred in Sterling Co. There were no other injuries or fatalities reported.

Danny Jene Priest of Big Spring was in surgery at the emergency room of Malone-Hogan Hospital in undetermined condition. Jonette Hughes and Robert Richard Pearson also of Big Spring remained under observation at the hospital. A fourth person in the car, Daphne Michele Crane, refused treatment at the hospital, a hospital spokeswoman said.

The accident occurred at 5:14 a.m. The four were driving south on Highway 87 in a 1982 Pontiac Firebird and ran off the road; the car then hit a concrete culvert and rolled over, a highway patrol spokesman said.

3 suspended after slaying

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — School board members have expelled three high school students apprehended near the house where a former teacher's aide was slain.

The school board of the Southside Independent School District voted unanimously without discussion Monday to bar the students, ranging in age from 14 to 17, for the rest of the school year.

"Their parents did not choose to have a hearing, so the action was the shortest thing on the agenda," superintendent Ronald Geyer said.

A 14-year-old Southside freshman is being held in connection with the Oct. 7 death of Clara Lynn Popham.

Investigators said the 34-year-old woman's throat was slashed during a rape attempt.

Police reports said that the juveniles sold the property to known persons, and the persons were fully aware that the property was stolen.

Cactus Jack's owners file for move to I-20

Owners of Bogarts Speakeasy Inc., doing business as Cactus Jack's Dance Hall and Saloon located in the Big Spring Air Park, have made application with the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission to move their location to 3202 East I-20 and change their trade name to the Texas Country Ballroom.

Big Spring City Attorney Doyle Curtis said Tuesday the move might involve litigation on the part of the Big Spring City Council if Cactus Jack's breaks its lease with the city. The lease is up on Jan. 30, 1986, an Air Park spokesman said.

The address is the location formerly occupied by the Skate Palace.

Several persons who live in the area of the proposed move have called the city attorney's office and expressed their disapproval of the move Curtis said. He said some of them plan to attend the city council meeting tonight at 6:30 p.m. to complain, Doyle said.

Drugs not so fun

LONDON — Rock star Sting, lead singer with Police, says he began experimenting with drugs when he was 12 years old, but stopped last year because he decided drug-taking was wrong and "not even that much fun."

"I wasn't a heroin addict or anything like that. It's just that drugs are around, and you take them, and then you start taking them on your own as well, and that's dangerous," the 31-year-old multimillionaire singer said in an interview.

"You start lying to people and to yourself. When you're feeling vulnerable they're there. But you mustn't. It's wrong ... They're not even that much fun," he said.

"I've been taking drugs since I was 12, so about a year ago I decided to stop them altogether."

Sting separated from his wife, actress Frances Tomelty, last year and now lives with girlfriend Trudie Styler who is expecting their baby in January.

Success doesn't bring happiness, the onetime Catholic school teacher said in an article published Monday in the weekly magazine Woman.

"I think we're here to learn, and the pursuit of knowledge alleviates the pain of being human," he was quoted as saying.

"And everybody is in pain, but if you're learning something, your mind is diverted."

Trial not postponed

LOS ANGELES — NBC Tonight Show host Johnny Carson lost a bid to have a hearing on his divorce postponed, and lawyers for Carson and his estranged wife Joanna were ordered to appear in court today.

Mrs. Carson is seeking monthly support payments of $220,000 during the couple's divorce litigation. That includes $37,000 a month for jewelry and furs, $5,000 for household help, $5,000 for clothing and department store purchases, $12,000 for gifts, and $2,700 for travel. A lawyer for the 58-year-old Carson, Norman Oberstein, entered the case last week and asked for a 60-day postponement to give him more time to prepare his case.

A Superior Court judge on Monday turned him down.

Chemical People launched

WASHINGTON — Actor Michael Landon was at the White House for some television work, and his co-star was first lady Nancy Reagan. Landon, 46, and Mrs. Reagan taped a television promotion Monday night to be used in a nationwide community campaign against drug and alcohol abuse.

The campaign will be launched in connection with a program called "The Chemical People."

Said Mrs. Reagan: "I long for the day when our schools and homes will be drug free."

The promotion will be shown on public TV early next month.

Singer to settle down

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — Air Supply keyboardist Ken Rarick says he expects to settle down now that he's married.

"I certainly don't want to tour forever," he said. Rarick, 27, was wed Saturday to Kristine Hill of Australia at the Broadway Christian Church in Fort Wayne.

The musician, who played piano in a high school jazz band and later performed in local rock 'n' roll groups, says he'll rejoin Air Supply — which has sold 20 million albums in three years — for two tours and a recording session in the Caribbean, but then he hopes to wind his traveling down.

"Kris and I are very interested in having a family," says Rarick, "and I don't really want to be an absentee father."

He's trying to "gravitate to things like writing and studio work," he said.

Anchorman shot, injured

LOS ANGELES — A veteran television anchorman and a studio makeup artist were shot and wounded when the newsmen's Rolls-Royce convertible was ambushed outside ABC studios, and their four assailants remained at large today, police said.

Jerry Dunphy, 62, a KABC anchorman and a fixture on Los Angeles newscasts for more than two decades, was in "satisfactory but stable condition" today at Hollywood Presbyterian Medical Center after surgery for wounds suffered Monday night, nursing supervisor Lourdes Ducut said. He was shot twice, in the neck and left arm, she said.

His companion, Sandra Marshall, 36, also was in stable condition with a right arm wound, Ms. Ducut said.

Police said they had no hint of any motive for the attack.

Fellow KABC anchorman Paul Moyer quoted Dunphy as saying at the hospital that his assailants ordered: "Don't move, and I didn't, but they shot anyway."

KABC anchorwoman Tawny Schneider said Dunphy spoke to witnesses just after the shooting.

"He told some people at the scene that several people apparently were waiting for him at the street corner and opened fire on him," she said.

"He tried to speed away. His car crashed into a house just several doors down the street. At the time we understand he staggered out. The gunmen took off and one eyewitness said the gunmen fled in some kind of van," she said.

Witnesses who live in the area a few miles northwest of downtown said they heard six shots and ran outside to see the Rolls-Royce, its windshield shattered, smash into a house.

"My God, I've been shot in the neck!" Dunphy said, according to a male witness who would not identify himself.

"They jumped out of the car and ran to the studio (across the street), and then they collapsed," said Adelaide Eda. "They were both lying inside the studio gates until the paramedics came."

Chicago classes resume

CHICAGO — Classroom doors swung open today for Chicago's 436,000 students, a day after teachers approved a one-year contract that ended the city's longest public school strike.

The teachers Monday voted 3-1 in favor of the contract, which provides a 5 percent pay raise, to end the three-week walkout.

The strike began Oct. 3 and students missed 15 days of school.

The contract was forged in a 34-hour negotiating session that required physical restraint by a federal mediator to keep both sides in the same room until they reached a tentative pact Sunday.

The 5 percent pay increase goes into effect January 1.

Inmate refuses operation

RICHMOND, Va. — A death row inmate who has suffered two heart attacks is refusing a state request that he undergo a $35,000 taxpayer-paid heart operation that might keep him alive to face death in the electric chair.

Corrections Department spokesman Gilbert Miller said prison authorities cannot force Manuel Quintana to undergo the operation, despite their responsibility for his health. "You can't club someone over the head," he said.

Quintana, 30, came to the United States from Cuba in the 1960 "freedom flotilla." He was convicted two years ago of beating an elderly Arlington woman to death with a hammer after robbing her apartment.

The inmate suffered two heart attacks earlier this year while on death row at the state's Mecklenburg Penitentiary. He was listed in critical condition early today at the Medical College of Virginia Hospital, suffering from what prison officials called an unspecified heart ailment.

In an Aug. 28 letter to prison officials, handwritten in Spanish, Quintana explained his refusal to undergo the recommended triple-bypass surgery.

"The possibility I have of dying if I do not undergo the operation is the same as the luck we all have of dying unexpectedly," he wrote. "My life depends on Jesus Christ and in the benevolence of the law."

Wayne Farrar, another prison spokesman, said Corrections Department officials have "no idea when, or if, he'll ever be executed."

Savitch died quickly

NEW HOPE, Pa. — Although NBC News anchorwoman Jessica Savitch apparently "made some attempt to get out," she and a New York Post executive drowned within minutes after their car plunged into a canal during a rainstorm, a coroner has ruled.

Miss Savitch, 35, and newspaper executive Martin Fischbein, 34, were trapped Sunday night when they made a wrong turn in foul weather and the car overturned in the water and silt of the Delaware Canal, police said.

"I will say I think an individual's first response in that situation is to gasp. I think she probably did do that, and her lungs filled with water... Death did not occur on impact; it was not instantaneous," Dr. Thomas Rosko, medical examiner for Bucks County, said after performing autopsies late Monday night.

Fischbein was found strapped into the front seat by his seat belt, while Miss Savitch was found in the back seat, officials said.

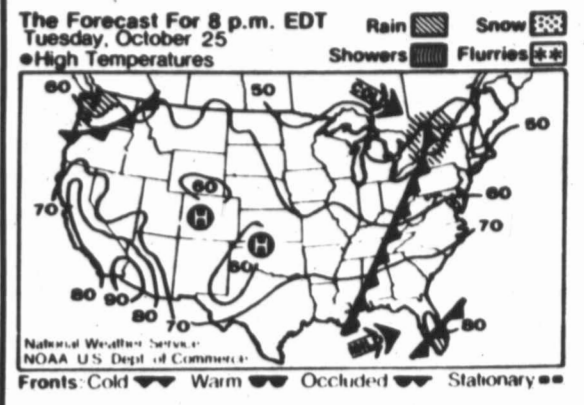

Rosko said nothing in the car or in the autopsies indicated that Miss Savitch struggled to escape. But because she was found in the back, he said, "it's reasonable to assume Jessica Savitch made some attempt to get out and he did not."

Mud on the floor of the canal made the car doors "impossible to open," said New Hope Police Chief Walter Everett.

Fischbein was driving and apparently became disoriented when he left a parking lot near the historic Chez Odette Restaurant and drove into the shallow canal, Everett said.

"It was raining. The weather was bad," Everett said. "The visibility was very poor."

Showers linger

Showers and thunderstorms lingered over widely separate areas of the continent today as most areas enjoyed sunny skies and moderate temperatures.

A few showers were scattered from the eastern parts of the Upper Great Lake region to the mid-Atlantic coast. Showers and thunderstorms dampened southern Florida while other storms developed from eastern Arizona to West Texas.

Temperatures were expected to dip below zero from northern Colorado to southeastern South Dakota and into the 30s from the Dakotas to New England.

Temperatures across the southern tier of states were expected to be mostly from the 70s and 80s in parts of California and the Southwest and in the 60s and 70s across the Gulf states, with a few areas touching the 80s in Florida.

Temperatures at 3 a.m. EDT ranged from 28 at Yellowstone, Mont., to 80 at Homestead, Fla.

North Texas: Partly cloudy days mostly fair at night Thursday through Saturday. Highs in the mid-70s to lower 80s Thursday, warming to the low to upper 80s Friday and Saturday. Lows in the upper 40s to mid-50s Thursday night otherwise the 50s to lower 60s.

West Texas: Mild sunny days and clear cool nights Thursday through Saturday. Lows generally 40s north to mid-50s south. Highs mostly 70s north and mountains to mid-80s south.

South Texas: Fair and rather cool Thursday. Clear to partly cloudy and warmer Friday and Saturday. Lows near 50 Hill Country to near 60 extremes south Thursday morning warming to the low 60s north to the mid- and upper 60s south Saturday. Highs mid- and upper 70s Thursday warming to the mid- and upper 80s Friday and Saturday.

New car sale announced

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. announced Monday that its sales of new cars in mid-October increased 36 percent from the same period last year. American Motors Corp.'s sales were up an estimated 41.2 percent.

Ford reported 55,658 autos shipped from Oct. 11-20 compared with 40,922 last year.

AMC estimated 4,800 autos sold, compared with 3,400 a year earlier.

Last year's mid-October domestic car sales were the lowest in 24 years, based on daily sales.

In a statement, AMC said more customers were in its showrooms because of the recent debut of the Renault Encore, a hatchback derivative of the popular Renault Alliance. Ford did not comment immediately.

So far this year, Ford's sales are up 15.5 percent, from 1,070,549 to 1,236,628.

Alliance sales have helped boost AMC's tally 91.2 percent above year-ago levels, or 151,515 compared with 79,253.

Father thanks doctors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The sunshine of Charles Fiske's life — his 2-year-old daughter, Jamie — is a beacon of hope today for families of critically ill children, and Fiske wants to thank the doctors who made her survival possible by hearing his plea for help a year ago.

His daughter's favorite toy, he told the doctors, was a stuffed animal that played the song, "You Are My Sunshine." "Jamie is our sunshine," Fiske said, choking back sobs.

A week after his appeal to the pediatricians, Jamie had undergone the operation using the liver of a 10-month-old Utah boy killed in a traffic accident.

"I want to say 'thank you' to the Academy. I had come to them for help last year when Jamie was so sick. And here we are, a year later," Fiske said Monday.

In the first address ever by a layman before a scientific meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics, Fiske appealed last Oct. 28 for assistance in finding a liver donor for his infant daughter.

Today he returns to the group to express his gratitude.

"One of the things we wanted a year ago was to be at this point right now, to have Jamie come back and walk up on stage without us having to carry her," Fiske said Monday as he prepared to speak to the academy members at their annual convention.

Jamie suffered from a rare liver ailment called biliary atresia, and doctors said she would die within a year without a transplant.

"I have a daughter, Jamie, who is only 11 months old," Fiske told the 30,000-member group last year in New York. "She is fighting for her life at a hospital in Minnesota, and my wife and I are praying you can save her life. We are racing against time."

Introducing The Telephone Exchange Fund-AT&T Shares. (A Unit Investment Trust)

Remember the '73 oil embargo

We have just marked the 10th anniversary of the Arab oil embargo and the energy crisis that radically changed Western economies and lifestyles.

On Oct. 16, 1973 Arab nations, angry at U.S. support of Israel, boosted oil prices 70 percent, cut production and turned off the spigot to the United States and Western Europe. Within days, the United States was plunged into an unprecedented fuel crisis. Gasoline stations were closed on weekends. The national speed limit was lowered to 55 mph. A national "energy czar" with wide-ranging fuel allocation powers was created. And motorized outings became a luxury.

Over the long term, the oil shutdown led to soaring gasoline prices, smaller and more fuel-efficient cars and higher rates of inflation and unemployment in the Western world.

Although the West appears today to be in far better shape to handle another oil crisis, the threatening war between Iran and Iraq is a reminder of the fragile nature of Mideast oil supply lines.

To guard against this threat, the United States has stockpiled 360 million barrels of crude oil in salt caverns near the Gulf Coast. Currently, the strategic reserve can replace the level of Arab imports for two years. It is under congressional mandate to double its capacity by 1990.

American dependence on Arab oil also has declined by 27 percent since 1973 due to the development of oil fields in the North Sea, Canada, Alaska and Mexico.

American energy consumption, meanwhile, has declined by approximately 16 percent, thanks to individual conservation efforts and the development of more energy efficient motor vehicles and airplanes.

These gains are no reason for complacency, however. Recently lowered gasoline prices have encouraged motorists to switch from fuel-efficient to larger, high-performance cars. Energy conservation practices and interest in alternative energy sources have declined.

While a consensus may be lacking on ways to handle another fuel supply crisis, the 10th anniversary of the oil embargo is no time to put the issue on the back burner.

The CIA and its superhero

Who says there aren't heroes left in America any more? Just the other day, in a surprise ceremony, the CIA awarded CIA Director William J. Casey the "Distinguished Intelligence Medal," the agency's highest award. Casey was cited for "outstanding leadership" and for restoring the credibility of the CIA and bringing "imagination to our operation."

In the past a decoration of this magnitude was usually reserved until the director retired or resigned from the job. But apparently the people who work for Mr. Casey couldn't wait. I am not privy to how these awards are made, but I know they're not easy to get.

They must have an awards committee out at Langley that goes over every one of the citation nominations to make sure the person is deserving of the honor.

"Gentlemen, our first nominee is James Blickstein, who, in a clandestine operation, dropped behind enemy lines in Afghanistan and delivered needed radio equipment to the rebels. He then walked barefoot 500 miles across Russian-held territory back to Pakistan. Does he get a medal?"

"He's paid to do that. Why should he get an award? If we give out the 'Distinguished Intelligence Medal' to every Tom, Dick and Harry involved in a clandestine operation, it will deflate its value."

"Okay let's forget Blickstein. The second nominee is Hiram Cope, who managed to go over the wall at the Soviet's submarine base at Murmansk and steal all the U.S.S.R.'s naval codes. He then swam in a frog suit to Norway."

"Big deal. I'll admit it wasn't a bad operation, but is it worth a medal?"

"All in favor say aye — all against, nay. The nays have it. Scratch Cope."

"We now come to Nicaragua and Honduras. Our man down there, T.L., managed to get around all the restrictions the congressional committee on intelligence laid down for covert operations, and got his people to bomb Nicaraguan soil."

"He should get a medal."

"But do we want to give him the highest one?"

"I don't think we do, because we have to make him the fall guy in case Congress starts raising a ruckus. Let's give him the CIA's Good Conduct Award. We can always give him the biggie just before we fire him."

"We're all agreed then on T.L. Now I have a CIA person that I am proud to nominate. I propose that we give the 'Distinguished Intelligence Medal' to none other than our revered director, William J. Casey."

"I have no quarrel with that. The man certainly has gone beyond the call of duty."

"You won't hear a nay from me. He's the bravest of the brave."

"The smartest of the smart."

"His outstanding leadership has made this organization what it is today."

"If it wasn't for his imagination, I don't know where we'd all be today."

"I take it then there is no opposition to awarding the director our highest decoration."

"I've still got five years to go before retirement. You won't hear any objection from me."

"Good. Then I'll write up the citation and we'll get Deputy Director John McMahon to present it to him in a full-fledged formal ceremony, with the CIA Undercover Band."

"It's the least we can do for the old man."

"No one in the CIA deserves it more."

"How did you ever think of it, Willoughby?"

"When you're in the intelligence business you HAVE to think of everything."

Billy Graham

The life of Jesus: is it myth or fact?

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I think the Christian faith is just a myth. After all, what proof do we have that there was ever a man named Jesus Christ, or that people didn't just make up the stories we read in the Bible? — G.L.W.

DEAR G.L.W.: There was once a time in my own life when I asked myself a similar question, and in fact began to doubt whether or not the Bible could be relied upon to give us the truth about God and Jesus Christ. To make a long story short, I resolved those doubts first of all by telling God that I was going to trust him and his Word until he showed me a reason not to. And across the years he has done the opposite — he has shown me reason after reason why he can be trusted, and why the Bible can be completely trusted also.

I do not know a serious historian today — believer or non believer — who would claim that Jesus Christ never existed. One reason for this is because they have discovered written records (other than the New Testament) which mention Jesus and were written very close to the time he lived on the earth. In addition, a great number of the events, people and places mentioned in the Bible are known to us through other sources, such as the remarkable discoveries of archaeologists in the last century or so. If you are interested in honestly examining this evidence, go to a Christian bookstore and ask them for a book which reviews the historical evidence for the reliability of the Bible.

But I also want to challenge you to read the Bible for yourself. I think you will be surprised how totally different it is from the ancient myths you may have read in other books. It centers on the greatest event in human history — the coming of God himself into our world in Jesus Christ. I invite you to examine him with an open mind and heart.

Around the Rim

By CAROL HART BALDWIN

Camelot lost

Poor Nancy Reagan. I don't think things are turning out the way she envisioned them when 'Ronnie' became President.

Back when Reagan was elected, the story got out that Nancy couldn't wait to get into the White House and redecorate. She was so anxious to spruce up after those peanut farmers from Georgia, the Carter's, left that she was calling up Rosalyn Carter and asking permission to come look around.

And remember when she was criticized for buying new White House china for the presidential dinner table. And news stories said that "chic" was in and "hick" was out in Washington. Formal dinner parties, expensive clothes and being on the right social lists became important again after the Carter's "down home" reign came to an end.

But Nancy's dream about the way Washington might be must have been dashed by now. Being President of the United States is no picnic — or no formal dinner party. It's a time-consuming, gut-wrenching, dangerous job.

Nancy Reagan isn't the only First Lady to have trouble befall her while in the White House. But she has certainly had her share of tragedies and near tragedies.

It started when John Hinckley stalked the President and finally caught up with him and shot him in the chest. A brush with death takes the shine off any job. Nancy has said since that time that she has lived in a nightmare — one that doesn't end — because she began to realize how someone could take potshots at the First Family at any time. After her husband began recuperating, she was faced with her stepfather's death. Recently she said she had to tell her mother that her stepfather had died and "this was one of the hardest things I've ever had to do." Now her mother is in ill health.

And the Reagan's can't even take a little vacation without sidestepping crazies who want to "talk to the President" with the aid of a pistol. That happened this weekend in Augusta, Ga., as Reagan was playing golf. When Charles Harris crashed through the gate of the Augusta National Golf Course and took hostages, I'm sure this put another damper on the Reagan spirit, even though no one was injured.

And Reagan didn't even get to finish his weekend holiday. He was awakened at 2 a.m. Sunday morning with the grim news that close to 180 Marines had been killed in Beirut. He and Nancy scurried back to Washington to deal with repercussions this news caused.

As a result, Nancy has lost a lot of weight and is struggling to keep herself in a size 2 dress. She has been battling a little ill health of her own, and that's no wonder, considering what she has had to deal with in the past couple of years.

I can't help but feel a little sorry for the lady who wanted the glamor and sophistication that the title of First Lady had to offer. It seems to have backfired. Right now, First Lady is a job that doesn't have much appeal at all.

Mailbag

Newspaper not doing its job

Editor: I, as a contributor to your paper, am very disgruntled and appalled about the treatment of the Megaphone. I am not sure if this has happened to other schools that send their school happenings to be put in, but if it has, I ask that they also write to the editor.

Here at Garden City, the megaphone is not something that we are required to do. It is written because somebody feels that the citizens of this school district have the right to hear what is happening at their school. I do not write the Garden City megaphone just so I can have my name and picture put in the paper, I do it because I want the parents, students and anybody else within your distribution area to know what goes on here. I spend my time, at least an hour a week, writing it when I could be studying, spending time with my parents or catching up on my sleep. But, what do we (the readers and I) get from this? Maybe a few lines, stated in paraphrased form, of what has happened in the last week!

I feel that you, the paper, owe the public more than that. Sure you have to sell ads to make money, but why neglect informing the people for a few bucks? All too many times in the past the Garden City megaphone has been edited to barely nothing... or even left out. Near the end of school last year, the megaphone was finally given up because it wasn't worth the trouble to write, have someone drive into town and deliver it to the right office just to have it edited to pieces or completely neglected and thrown in the trash!

Take for instance last week's (Oct. 16) Garden City megaphone. I, beyond a doubt, know that quite a bit more was turned in than printed. Specifically, a congratulatory note about our football teams. The Varsity had beaten Irion County 13-6, and the score from the homecoming game two weeks before that was edited out of the Oct. 9th issue. Also a note about the Jr. High, who has won all of their 5 (now 6) games of the season was edited out. If this, in your eyes, is not worth printing, I respectfully ask that you turn in your editor's pen.

I have noticed that other schools (of those megaphones that are printed) were quite longer than Garden City's barely ten line (sic) report. We may be a small school, but many people would like to hear about us. Specifically the citizens of our large county who send their children to Garden City's county-wide school. Most of these people only hear of what happens through the megaphone.

In closing, I once again ask that you, the Big Spring Herald, owe it to the public, yourselves, and the very least, me, to print as much of any and every school's megaphone.

Are we merchants of Soviet killing?

Editor: Was an American weapon used by that Soviet pilot to shoot down Korean Airlines Flight 007? Did his communications equipment, his radar, and the entire Soviet electronic defense network come from American companies? Was his SU-15 fighter using Lockheed RB211 engines which had sold to Moscow? The answer to all parts of the above questions is: "Quite likely!"

About one year ago American Opinion magazine writer Stephen B. Cole wrote the following, "During the peak years of the Carter Administration, some 60 U.S. companies had science and technology transfer contracts with the U.S.S.R. Among them were Bechtel Corporation then run by (Reagan appointed) Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger and Secretary of State George Shultz."

But the deeds of Shultz and Weinberger at Bechtel are hardly unique. For example the leadership of Chase Manhattan Bank have for some time has been (sic) making "loans" to the Soviet Union through their subsidiary Chase Manhattan Bank of 1 Karl Marx Square in Moscow. Said "loans" if not paid by the Soviet Union are paid by the American Middle Class. Thus the military build up of the Soviet Union has cost the government of Russia next to nothing.

Congressman Lawrence

McDonald was certainly a leader and champion of the great American Middle class. Was the shooting down of K.A.L. 007 an assassination of the Number one leader of the Middle class of both the U.S. and Korea? Ask this question of your congressmen and senators. Let us not forget the 268 other innocent women and children and helpless people that so-called "American Corporate" Socialists and International Bankers helped murder!

Walker family grateful for help

Editor: The parents of Bruce Walker would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the Big Spring Police Department, Ruidoso Police Department, Gordon Myrick, Roy Thornton and the many people who worked all night of Oct. 1 to locate and help get us home the night of the shooting of our son and Ira Hooper. We know you spent many hours without sleep. Much thanks also go to Dr. Crockett and his very professional work on Bruce. Without his knowledge Bruce would not be here today.

I want to thank all the people who have offered their services, for all the cards and letters and most of all their prayers. It is working as Bruce is improving more and more everyday. The doctors in Lubbock General Hospital are wonderful.

For the people who want to know, Bruce started taking fluids. His lungs have cleared and are looking better every day. He will be on a breathing machine for two months. They will know more about it then, if he will be able to breathe on his own. The doctors are pretty sure he will be paralyzed from the neck down for the rest of his life. We hope they are wrong, but after seeing the x-rays, it doesn't look good. But Bruce has a lot of determination and I think he will hurdle this obstacle. Keep your prayers going for him and thank you for your support Abilene, Coahoma, Big Spring and the many friends who care.

Romine family grateful for help

Editor: Mere words will never ever be enough to express the deep gratitude Jacky and I feel about everything that's been done for us. These fund raisers started with an ice cream sale in Lamesa, and from there things just kind of snowballed. So many people got caught up in the excitement and planning of the different events, and they turned into some real fun times. The money will certainly help, but Jacky and I were surrounded by so much love and moral support that it really kept our morale up, and that's been so important to us, for this we are deeply grateful and will always remember.

The many events following the ice cream sale were a three-wheeler rodeo, dunking booth, cake walk, domino tournament, and 42 tournament at Knott. A bike-a-thon at Grady. Swim-a-thon at Tarzan. Dance and cake sale at Stanton. Also there was a garage sale, KBST Radio-Thon, roping and barbecue and an auction at Big Spring. We would like to thank all the people who worked so hard putting the different events together, some of you worked on several of them and they all turned out so well. We deeply appreciate each and every one of you.

Also a special thank you to the many individuals and businesses in the different communities who donated money, merchandise, and various items and products for the different events. Some of it was anonymously and we thank you all.

We knew we had a lot of friends but we never realized how many people would rally round in our time of need. You came out and shared some good times with us and we have a lot of happy memories to cherish always. We love you all. God Bless You.

Dr. Donohue

Single drug has many uses

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I suffer from migraine headaches. Now my doctor has prescribed Inderal. He explained that it is a heart medication and it lowers blood pressure. My pressure is always low and I don't want to create any new problems. I am 48 years old and except for my migraine am in good health. My father, who is 79, is also taking this medicine, to regulate his heartbeat. Please comment. — Mrs. J.B.

How one drug (propranolol) can help in many different unrelated illnesses is hard to understand. But this one does, and effectively, too. It's used to treat high blood pressure; it's used for angina, and it's used to regulate the heartbeat, as in your father's case. Propranolol is also helpful in controlling some kinds of tremors; and yes, it also can prevent migraine attacks — prevent them, not relieve them once they have occurred.

I can't in this brief space tell you all the details of why such a drug can have so many uses. It has to do with the nervous system and how it influences artery and heart activity, specifically how nerve signals are received by those structures. Propranolol blocks those nerve signal receptors. It's a safe drug.

If your blood pressure is already low or low normal the medicine will not in most cases cause further lowering. Why? Because your nervous system's not sending out too many signals, the ones that cause arteries to clamp down and pressure to rise. If your migraine attacks are numerous, then propranolol is a good drug for control. Many use it for this purpose.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I am overweight and have high triglycerides, according to a recent test. If I lost weight will I correct triglyceride level, bring it down? — Mrs. T.Y.

Yes, if you bring your body weight down to normal for your frame and height the triglycerides level should return to normal. And you should also look to other ways of lowering body fats. Alcohol elevates blood triglycerides, and extra calories from carbohydrates do, too. Avoid fatty cuts of meat, and generally favor fish and poultry as much as possible. Use vegetable oils instead of those from animal sources. Look to products high in polyunsaturated fats and low in the saturated kind.

A rule for telling if a substance is polyunsaturated is if it is liquid at room temperature, unlike lard and butter. The combination of weight reduction, moderate use of alcohol, limitation of refined sugars, and avoidance of animal fat will bring your triglyceride level down in short order. For discussion of blood fats, see the booklet "Control Your Cholesterol Sensibly," which other readers may order by writing me care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50 cents.

Dear Abby

Husband's magazines are soiling marriage

DEAR ABBY: What can a wife do about a husband who constantly buys porno magazines? I don't mean just Playboy and Hustler, I mean magazines with one nude picture after another — no articles at all.

We've had many fights about this. It's been going on for five years. I've threatened to leave him, then he promises he won't buy any more, but I keep finding them hidden all over the house. I even found some stashed under his car seat.

We have three kids, and when I think of how much money my husband has spent on this filth when it should have been spent on the kids, I could cry. I am not bad-looking, Abby. I'm 27, have a good figure and I'm still asked for my ID when we go out. I even get whistles from guys when I'm in the car or walking by myself.

Why does my husband keep buying this filth? He knows how much it hurts me. He will get up in the middle of the night to read these magazines, then he wakes me up for a little fun. I feel so used. What can I do? He says he loves me just the way I am.

HURT AND BETRAYED
DEAR HURT: Believe it or not, your husband's preoccupation with nude pictures has nothing to do with you. If he loves you and wants your marriage to survive he will see a therapist about his problem — and it is a problem if it's damaging your marriage.

See a family therapist with him. You both need to understand why your husband needs these magazines. Share this letter with him today. It could save your marriage.

DEAR ABBY: Please answer this in the paper because there are some folks who need to see it. I am a widow, 85 years old. I just had a wedding anniversary, and not one friend or relative sent me a card or wished me a happy

DEAR ABBY: A few years ago you had a poem in your column that started with, "Thank God for dirty dishes." I clipped it, hoping to make a needlepoint sampler of it to frame and hang in my kitchen. Now I can't find it, and I'm going crazy looking for it.

Can you help me, please?
ANNA IN ASHTABULA

DEAR ANNA: Yes. Thank God for dirty dishes. They have a tale to tell:

While other folks go hungry,

We're eating very well. With Home and Health and Happiness

We shouldn't want to fuss,

For by this stack of evidence, God's very good to us!

Reports of state meeting were given at Homemakers meeting

Reports on the Extension Homemakers Clubs' state meeting in Lubbock were the highlight of the Howard County Extension Homemakers Council meeting at First Methodist Church Oct. 3.

The state meeting took place Sept. 20-23. Delegates from Howard County were Naomi Hunt, extension agent; Myrl Soles, council president; Frances Zant and Frances Mason. The 1984 state meeting will be in San Angelo.

Local clubs discussed programs recommended for the 1984 club year. The clubs reported on the upcoming year's activities including several tours of interest. A $10 prize was given to the club having the highest attendance at the meeting. It was won by Elbow Extension Homemakers Club.

"Evils of Dope Traffic" was presented by members of Elbow Extension Club. Plans for the Dec. 5 Christmas party at First Methodist Church's Youth Hall were made. Midland County Extension Homemakers extended an invitation to the local clubs to attend "Achievement Day Luncheon" Oct. 21 at the County Exhibit Hall.

"Putting One's House in Order" club members were urged to bring gifts for patients at Big Spring State Hospital to the county agent's office by Nov. 1. The gifts are for the annual patient Christmas Party.

Wem Spaan of the Netherlands was special guest. He is an agricultural instructor at a college.

During a question and answer period, he answered questions on moral conditions of youth and education, food production and life in the Netherlands as compared to the United States.

Service projects discussed at Xi Pi Epsilon meeting

Xi Pi Epsilon, chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Stephanie Roll, Sept. 28.

Service projects were discussed and voted upon. The club was informed of the City Council Rush meeting at the Farm Bureau Oct. 6. A wine and cheese party would be

Gas explosion injures 13

PRINCETON, Ill. (AP) — A natural gas explosion and fire that injured 13 people and destroyed four buildings occurred just half an hour before nearly 200 moviegoers across the street would have been walking toward their cars, officials said.

"The potential for this explosion was really bad," said Fire Chief Terry Himes after the Sunday night explosion. "There was nobody on the street at the time. Anyone on the street would have been killed. We would still be looking (for bodies)."

Thirteen people were hurt when an accumulation of natural gas exploded inside a bakery around 8:30 p.m., he said. However, most of the injuries were minor, and only one person with a minor back injury was admitted to the hospital.

Barry Schultz, director of employee relations at Perry Memorial Hospital, said 12 people, suffering mostly from smoke inhalation and shock, were treated and released.

Five businesses in four downtown buildings in the community of 7,600 were destroyed by the blast and fire. Several other nearby businesses were damaged by smoke and water,

Investigation

begins Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Justice Department on Monday began an investigation into the source of leaked FBI surveillance tapes in the John De Lorean cocaine trafficking case that were broadcast on network television.

De Lorean is scheduled to go on trial Nov. 1 on charges of dealing in $25 million worth of cocaine to save his ailing sports car business. His attorneys suggested after the tapes were aired Sunday on CBS-TV that a dismissal of the charges might be in order because of the prejudicial publicity.

Assistant U.S. Attorney James Walsh said Monday he feels the trial should go on as scheduled. But he conceded the tapes might have some impact on the schedule.

"What effect this latest wrinkle will have, I don't know," Walsh said.

De Lorean's attorney, Howard Weitzman, said Monday, "I really don't know what I am going to do next."

In Washington, Justice Department spokesman John Russell said an investigation has been opened into who leaked the De Lorean tapes.

Weitzman said he understood the tapes were given to CBS by Larry Flynt, publisher of Hustler magazine. Flynt claimed on a KNXT-TV broadcast that he got the tapes from someone in the government.

"Well, the source I got them from was the government actually," Flynt said on the Sunday night broadcast. "You know, everybody's got their price."

He did not immediately return phone calls seeking further comment Monday.

The tapes showed the automaker discussing his ties to the Irish Republican Army and his need to obtain financing for his failing car company in Northern Ireland.

Himes said, adding that 250 firefighters from eight towns put out the blaze by 11 p.m.

Although there was no damage estimate, the cost will likely come to "thousands and thousands of dollars," said Duane Quiram, Princeton's commissioner of health and safety.

Himes attributed the explosion to a natural gas accumulation. "We don't know why or how, but it has been shut off," he said, adding that there had been no reports of a gas smell before the blast.

Police Officer Steve Olson was driving on Main Street when the explosion occurred, blowing the front of McCaslin Bakery across the street and shattering windows in the squad car. Himes said. Olson was not hurt.

As many as 15 cars parked on the street were damaged by the force of the explosion, Himes said. "Back windows were blown out, bricks and other shrapnel" were blown into the cars, he said.

The Apollo Theater, located directly across from the bakery, was not damaged, although the 187 people watching the movie "Vacation" were evacuated, manager Tracy Merkel said.

Highland Park new 5-A No. 1

By The Associated Press
The Highland Park Scots have hovered near the top of The Associated Press Schoolboy Poll most of the season and finally got the opening they needed to move to the top of the Class 5A list.

San Antonio Roosevelt ended Converse Judson's reign as the No. 1 ranked team with a 35-24 victory last week and Highland Park jumped up one notch into the lead.

The Scots joined Fort Bend Willowridge in 4A, Littlefield in 3A, Groveton in 2A and Bremond in A as the No. 1 ranked teams in the state.

There also were two newcomers on the 5A list replacing No. 7 Gregory Portland and No. 10 Austin Reagan, who lost their games last week.

Unbeaten Houston Yates and San Antonio Clark moved into the top 10 as the ninth and 10th ranked teams.

Judson remained in the top 10 as the No. 8 ranked team.

Highland Park received 15 of the 20 first place votes cast and took the lead by a 195-175 point margin over the new No. 2 ranked team,

Nebraska rules college poll

By The Associated Press
Nebraska, Texas and North Carolina continue to pace the Associated Press college football poll for the third week in a row, while Auburn and Florida will clash Saturday as the 4-5 teams.

Meanwhile, Boston College and Notre Dame returned to the Top Twenty as Arizona and Arizona State dropped out.

Nebraska's 69-19 rout of Colorado earned the Cornhuskers 54 of 58 first-place votes and 1,156 of a possible 1,160 points. Texas, which nipped previously unbeaten Southern Methodist 15-12, received the other four first-place ballots and 1,106 points. The Longhorns are No. 2 for the sixth week in a row.

Last week, also with 58 votes participating, Nebraska led Texas 52-6 in first-place votes and 1,154-1,107 in points.

North Carolina, idle last weekend, received 1,010 points.

Auburn, a 28-13 winner over Mississippi State, moved up from fifth place to fourth with 944 points, replacing West Virginia, which skidded from fourth to 12th after a 41-23 loss to Penn State.

Florida, which visits Auburn on Saturday, rose from sixth to fifth the 8-9 teams after ranking 10th and 11th a week ago. Michigan shaded Iowa 16-13, while Illinois downed Purdue 35-21.

Rounding out the Top Ten is SMU, which slipped from ninth to 10th with 602 points.

The Second Ten consists of Washington, West Virginia, Maryland, Oklahoma, Brigham Young, Ohio State, Iowa and Alabama, with Boston College and Notre Dame tied for 19th.

Last week, it was Illinois, Iowa, Arizona State, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Ohio State, BYU, Arizona and Alabama.

Arizona State dropped out of the Top Twenty by losing to Washington State 31-21, while previously winless Stanford knocked Arizona out for the first time all season with a 31-22 triumph.

Meanwhile, 5-1 Boston College, which was idle, made the rankings for the second time this year and 5-2 Notre Dame, which has won four games in a row, made it for the first time in five weeks. The Irish were No. 6 in the preseason poll and rose as high as fourth early in the year.

Top managers honored

LaRussa gets AL's award

CHICAGO (AP) — Tony LaRussa, who twice in the last two seasons came close to being fired by the Chicago White Sox, smiled graciously when he learned he had been named American League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

"I'm very pleased," said LaRussa. "I felt I had a chance but it's the kind of thing that you don't think is going to happen."

LaRussa, who turned 39 during the AL playoffs, said "Of all the honors and awards one receives, this is where you have to pass the credit around. There is no other individual honor dependent on so many other people."

"There are the players, the coaches, the general manager, the owners," said LaRussa, whose team caught fire in the second half of the season and won the AL West by a record 20 games before succumbing (See 'Sox' on page 2-B)

Lasorda gains third honor

NEW YORK (AP) — Tommy Lasorda of the Los Angeles Dodgers captured his third Associated Press National League Manager of the Year award today by one vote over Houston Astros Manager Bob Lillis.

Lasorda, who guided the Dodgers to their fifth NL West title in 10 years, emerged victorious from a three-way voting war that also included Pittsburgh Manager Chuck Tanner. Lasorda received 28 of a possible 87 votes from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Lillis, who led the Astros to a third-place finish in the NL West, received 27 votes, and Tanner, whose Pirates finished six games back of Philadelphia in the NL East, was third with 23 votes.

Paul Owens, the Phillies general manager who took over in the dugout on July 18 from the fired Pat Corrales, had six votes. Atlanta (See 'LA' on page 2-B)

HIGH FLYING CARDINAL — Steve Bird (82) leaps over the top of converging New York Giants during the first quarter of Monday night's NFL game in St. Louis. Bird evaded Terry Kinard but couldn't clear the other New York tacklers. The teams battled to a 20-20 tie through regulation play and Giants salvaged a tie when Cardinal placekicker Neil O'Donoghue missed three field goals in the extra period.

Missed field goals tie Cards, Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP) — If Neil O'Donoghue never has to endure another such ordeal, he already has paid his dues.

"I felt good, but I missed," said O'Donoghue after missing on three field-goal attempts in overtime for the St. Louis Cardinals Monday night. "If I had them over, I'd make them all."

But O'Donoghue got no second chances, and the New York Giants were able to walk off with a 20-20 tie in the National Football League contest.

O'Donoghue, at 6-foot-6 the tallest kicker in the NFL, embarked on his misadventures after first rescuing St. Louis from defeat.

His 22-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in the fourth quarter created the tie. It offset Ali Haji-Sheikh's earlier boot of 28 yards for the Giants, but later the St. Louis kicker went cold.

"There's no excuse," said O'Donoghue after squibbing a 19-yard attempt among the three he missed in overtime.

"These things happen. It's been a long time since I missed three in a row," the mild-mannered veteran of seven NFL seasons said.

St. Louis, after trailing most of the way in regulation time, dominated the overtime period to no avail.

O'Donoghue first missed a 44-yard field goal attempt following a short New York punt. Following the try from short range with 1:03 to go, he missed a 42-yarder with 44 seconds remaining.

It was the first tie of the year in the NFL and only the seventh in 87 regular-season overtime contests since the NFL went to sudden-death play in 1974.

St. Louis wound up with a 388-264 advantage in total yards, much of it generated by Mitchell's rushing total of 108 yards on 24 carries.

RICHARD HILARIO

Five Big Spring High football players have been honored by head coach Quinn Eudy and his staff this week.

The "Top Steer" award as the top defensive player in Friday night's 52-12 loss to Midland Lee is shared this week by senior Danny Arista and junior Jay Pirkle. Arista returned to the lineup after missing two weeks with an injury and recovered a fumble. Pirkle, playing a defensive end position, teamed with Arista to slow Lee's potent rushing attack.

Senior Richard Hilario again won the "Hawk" award as the top performer in the secondary. With the Rebels passing very little, Hilario had to come up from his free safety position to give run-support.

Pirkle grabbed the "Bullet" award for special teams play this week. He punted three times for a 45 yard average including a 54-yarder than pinned the Rebels deep in their own territory.

The "Golden Spike" award as the game's top backfield performer went to senior Dale Crenshaw. Crenshaw pulled in three passes for 39 yards, his 18-yard catch in the second quarter setting up the first Steers' touchdown.

The "Conan" award, made to the game's outstanding lineman, went to senior Jimmy Cearley. Faced with Lee's massive defensive line, the BSHS center's blocking gave Steer quarterbacks the time to throw.

The five awards are made every week by the Steers coaching staff after grading the film of the previous week's game.

Freshman Donnie Davis was honored as Student Trainer-Manager of the Week by head trainer Everett Blackburn. Davis has helped with taping and wrapping throughout the season and has been named chief assistant because of his hard work and technique, Blackburn said.

Big Spring hosts No. 7 state-ranked Permian Friday night in Memorial Stadium.

Rivera had 5 past violations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh Steeler defensive lineman Gabriel Rivera, who injured his spine in what police charge was an alcohol-related car crash, was involved in five traffic incidents in his native Texas over a four-year span.

Doctors say it will be another 10 days before they learn whether injuries to the 22-year-old athlete's spine will leave him paralyzed from the chest down.

Rivera was in serious condition Monday at Allegheny General Hospital, after being in critical condition over the weekend. He was admitted Thursday night after being hurled through the back window of his sports car during a head-on collision in suburban Ross Township.

Police charged Rivera with drunken driving, speeding, reckless driving and driving on the wrong side of the road.

The San Antonio (Texas) Light reported that police records show Rivera was involved in five separate traffic incidents between March 1, 1979, and Jan. 12, 1983. He was charged and pleaded guilty in at least four of them.

Rivera was first involved in a collision in San Antonio on March 1, 1979, when he was 17, but police records don't indicate whether he was charged, the newspaper reported.

He was charged with speeding on July 31, 1979, in San Antonio; on Oct. 10, 1980, in Tom Green County in west Texas; and on Dec. 9, 1980, in Lubbock, according to the newspaper.

The last two violations occurred when Rivera was a student at Texas Tech University.

The paper reported that Rivera was charged with running a stop sign in San Antonio last Jan. 12, four months before the Steelers made him their No. 1 draft choice.

Rivera, a native of Crystal City, Texas, pleaded guilty and paid fines on all three speeding charges and the stop sign violation.

Last Thursday night, Rivera demolished his 1983 Datsun 280-ZX sports car.

Sox finished fast

to Baltimore in the playoffs.

LaRussa won the honor easily, getting 51 of a possible 67 votes from a national electorate of sports writers and broadcasters. Joe Altobelli of the Orioles finished second with 21 votes. Toronto Blue Jays Manager Bobby Cox was third with 11 votes, and the other four went to Sparky Anderson, whose Detroit Tigers finished second to Baltimore in the AL East.

Last year, LaRussa's job was in jeopardy when the team fell to .500 before making a job-saving turnaround. The same thing happened this season when the club was struggling at 16-24.

LaRussa, who was first hired by former owner Bill Veck late in the 1979 season, developed a managerial knack of using all 25 of his players.

"The reason I try to use the entire roster is not to make all 25 players happy," said LaRussa. "Nobody can make everybody happy. In my 20 years in baseball I've learned that when you're a contender or you are in first place, there's happiness.

"If you can get the entire roster involved during the season, you have a better chance to have a good year. Playing 162 games is an endurance grind and the people on the bench have to play if you are to win.

LaRussa admits the White Sox accomplished something this year by winning the division.

"I'm pleased to have that feeling," he concluded, "but I don't feel satisfied. We have two more steps to go — the pennant and the World Series."

LA held off Braves

The Dodgers, the hottest team in baseball in April, won 21 of their first 28 games. But they still trailed Atlanta by 6½ games on Aug. 10 before warming up again. On Aug. 16, they started an eight-game winning streak, and the Dodgers won 12 of 13 until they led the division by one game on Aug. 29. They never relinquished that lead, finishing three games ahead of the Braves.

ta Braves Manager Joe Torre, last year's NL Manager of the Year, had two votes, and Bill Virdon of Montreal received one.

The 56-year-old Lasorda took over the Dodgers from Walter Alton in 1977 and immediately led the club to the National League pennant. He also won pennants in 1978 and 1981, when the Dodgers won the World Series in six games over the New York Yankees. He won his previous Manager of the Year awards in 1977 and 1981.

This year, the Dodgers clinched the NL West on Sept. 30, the Friday night before the end of the season, and wound up with a record of 91-71. They lost the playoffs in four games to the Philadelphia Phillies.

Freshman end year with win
 The Big Spring High School freshmen volleyball team closed out its season Monday night with a 12-15, 15-0, 15-10 victory over Lamesa.
 Sonya Evans and Sheila Chapman served 10 points each in the match.
 The Lady Steers closed the year with a 16-2 mark, losing twice in powerhouse Monahans. Five District 4-5A matches were cancelled by Big Spring opponents, thus boosting the team's record to 21-2.
 The freshman preceded the Lamesa victory by winning their division at the Snyder tournament this past weekend.

Y volleyball event postponed
 The YMCA-sponsored coed volleyball tournament benefiting the United Way has been postponed until a later date.

Shula turns down offer

MIAMI (AP) — The money certainly got his attention, but then the attention got to Don Shula.
 That, said the Miami Dolphins coach, was why he decided Monday that he was "no longer interested" in an offer of $1 million a year to coach the United States Football League's New Jersey Generals.
 "When the third question in my press conference following the ball game is about my personal contract, not about our football team, I think it's time to draw a line," Shula said in his surprise announcement.
 The Generals have not fired Coach Chuck Fairbanks, whose team was 6-12 in its inaugural season, but club officials have made it clear he won't coach in 1984. Trump said he'd have an announcement soon.
 Shula makes a reported $450,000 now with Miami.

Let's talk.
 Information about your changing telephone service from Darlene Gifford, Community Relations Manager

A look at the future
 When Southwestern Bell is divested from AT&T next January and becomes a separate company, you can be sure that your local telephone service will continue working the way it always has. We're committed to providing high quality, dependable local service at affordable rates.

But there will be some changes in the way you do business with us... from how to handle telephone repairs to the way you're billed. Here's a quick look at what will and won't change:

Local service
 As mentioned, Southwestern Bell will continue to be responsible for providing local telephone service. To start, stop, change or move service, you will do the same as you do now — call your Southwestern Bell business office.

Long distance service
 Beginning January 1, Southwestern Bell will still provide long distance service within your surrounding area. However, calls outside this area will be handled by AT&T or other long distance companies. Since there will be more competition in the long distance market, there will be more choices for you as a customer.

Telephone sets
 Between now and the first of the year, all single-line customers have the option of buying the telephones that they currently lease on a monthly basis from Southwestern Bell. If you decide to continue leasing your telephone sets, ownership of this equipment will be transferred to AT&T January 1. Of course, you'll still have the option of purchasing new telephone equipment from a variety of other suppliers. Pending agreement from the Federal Communications Commission, Southwestern Bell may also offer telephone equipment for sale, beginning in 1984.

Telephone repair
 If you continue to lease the Bell-owned telephones, repairs will be handled by AT&T beginning January 1. There will be no charge for repair of these phones, provided you either mail your leased phone or return it in person to designated AT&T locations. However, if you wish to have a service technician repair your phone on your premises, there will be a charge for this service.

Telephones purchased from Southwestern Bell before the end of the year also will be serviced by AT&T, but you'll be charged for those repairs if your set is out of warranty. Of course, repairs of telephones purchased from companies other than Bell should be referred to the store they were purchased from or the manufacturer.

Billing
 You'll continue to receive one bill for all services provided today by the Bell System, except for purchases of new equipment from AT&T. This single bill — to be produced by Southwestern Bell — will list Southwestern Bell's charges separately from AT&T charges. In the future, Southwestern Bell may serve as a billing agent for other long distance companies as well. Toll-free telephone numbers of each company will be featured on your statement in case you have questions about your bill.

We want you to know
 At Southwestern Bell, we want you to know about these and other changes that will affect the way we do business with you. Watch for more details in the months ahead — both in this column and in your bill insert.

Remember, if you have something to talk about, don't hesitate to give me a call at 267-5098 or drop me a line.

Lockheed becomes first aerospace firm with union shop

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP) — Unionized workers at three Lockheed Corp. plants overwhelmingly approved a new three-year contract Sunday that makes Lockheed the first aerospace firm in the nation with a union shop, a union spokesman said.

The contract covers 25,000 skilled workers at Lockheed's three largest divisions in every classification except engineer.

The covered plants are: Lockheed California Co. in Burbank and Palmdale, which builds T-3 Orion anti-submarine aircraft; Lockheed Missiles and Space Co. in the northern California community of Sunnyvale, a general defense supplier, and Lockheed Georgia Co. in Marietta, Ga., which builds the C-5 military transport.

The contract provides 3 percent bonuses the first two years and a 3 percent general wage increase the third year, said Neil Vandercook, spokesman for the Burbank local of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers.

GOLDEN GATE RV CENTER — New 7,500 sq. ft. building now open 8 miles east of town.

Golden Gate RV Center Expands Sales, Service

Golden Gate RV Service Center has just opened its new 7,500 sq. ft. building which will enable them to offer more complete service facilities and a large RV sales showroom.

Located 8 miles east of Big Spring on I-20, the new enlarged service center is an adjunct to Golden Gate Siding Company and Golden Gate Storm Window Glass & Mirror Company.

The RV Service Center handles a complete line of new vehicles, and has parts and accessories in stock. They offer a complete service department — everything from welding to engine overhaul.

Golden Gate Siding offers 8 different colors in USS all-steel siding for residential or commercial use. For whole-house installation Golden Gate applies insulation between walls and siding. The siding has a lifetime non-prorated guarantee against fading, rust and peeling; and a 50-year guarantee against hail.

Golden Gate makes custom storm doors and windows, and will install them or deliver to customers who wish to install their own. They are available in three colors of frames and in three different kinds of glass. Installation should save 20% to 30% on heating and cooling bills.

Golden Gate also offers Coronado rock trim — this is real stone — for exteriors or for fireplaces.

For commercial and residential installation, Golden Gate has decorative mirrors or will install mirrored walls.

Golden Gate gives free estimates and will work within customers' budget perimeters. Most installations require no money down. No job is too large or too small.

Golden Gate is a Christian company, locally owned and operated. Mike and Carol Arnett, owners, say that all materials and service is guaranteed, and every customer must be satisfied.

The staff includes Robert Rivera, Owen Johnson, Leon Prescott, Curtis Fry, Edwin Taylor, Lori Taylor and Randy Dubler.

Golden Gate is located 8 miles east of Big Spring on I-20. Phone them at 394-4812 or 394-4844. They now have expanded with a sales office for siding and storm doors/windows in Snyder and Sweetwater.

Al's Barbecue Offers Catering and Take-Out

Al's Barbecue has been a Big Spring landmark for about 19 years.

The man for whom the restaurant was named, operated it for 14 years and developed a following from many other towns and states. He retired several years ago and now it's owned by Charlene Rinard. Charlene is quick to point out that Al's original barbecue technique and his sauce are still served.

The menu is simple — and just what real barbecue lovers expect. They serve barbecue beef, ham, sausage, ribs and chopped beef. The plate comes with choice of salad (macaroni or potato), slaw, beans, onion, pickle, pepper and bread. The combination plate (two or more meats) at $4.25 and the regular plate at $3.75 also come with cherry cobbler. There's also a small plate and a child's plate.

and will service private parties at the restaurant in the evenings.

Located at 411 West 4th, Al's is open from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday thru Saturday. The staff includes Daniel Garcia, manager, and Frances Garcia.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1983

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The morning is fine for getting in touch with whomsoever is available and making satisfactory arrangements with them or putting your ideas across most easily.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Improve your routines in daily matters in the morning and then go out and buy presents for your family and please them.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You get good ideas about adding to your income considerably, so start putting them in motion today.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Ideal morning to know what it is you really want out of life, then get into financial affairs and handle them efficiently.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Early plan how to have more abundance after you have consulted with an intimate advisor, and later pursue personal aims.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Early shopping around for whatever you need is wise, then take care of private affairs which require immediate attention.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Ideal morning to incorporate new ideas into your routines so that you can advance your career considerably.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Early rising and looking into new projects is wise, and then get busy on routines which require revamping.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make sure you heed your hunches in the morning since they are accurate and later you can get into new outlets that appeal to you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get right into the work ahead of you and get much done, and later you can be with partners.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get your work done first then be happy at romantic or recreational activities which you need right now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get your talents before the public and make a better impression than in the past. Avoid jealous individuals.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) See to it that the needs of kin are met before you go out to new outlets, ventures. You could easily be neglectful.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those lucky young people who is very apt to have a most successful life since the planets are most favorable to your charming progeny. Provide an education rich in the arts and classics.

"The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

National briefs

Tylenol letter found AIDS warning given

CHICAGO (AP) - An extortion letter found in the apartment of James Lewis, accused of trying to profit from last year's Tylenol murders, demanded $5,000 a month from unidentified banks and threatened to insult bank customers if the money is not paid, prosecutors say. The letter was revealed in federal court Monday during Lewis' trial on charges of trying to extort $1 million from Johnson & Johnson, parent of the company that makes Extra-Strength Tylenol. Seven people died in Chicago from taking cyanide-laced capsules of the medication, and no one has ever been charged in the actual killings. Prosecutors said they have been unable to establish if the letter, found in Lewis' Kansas City, Mo., apartment, was written by Lewis.

ATLANTA (AP) - Although there is no evidence AIDS can be spread through casual contact, health workers should avoid exposure to victims' blood and body fluids and only administer mouth-to-mouth resuscitation through plastic mouthpieces, a health official says. Dr. Ken Castro of the national Centers for Disease Control told a convention of the American College of Emergency Physicians on Monday that some aspects of the deadly immune disorder resemble the hepatitis B virus, and physicians and emergency technicians should observe the same safety precautions taken with hepatitis patients. Acquired immune deficiency syndrome has mainly affected homosexuals, Haitians, abusers of injectable drugs and hemophiliacs, and probably is spread through sexual contact, transfusions and tainted needles.

Okies clean up

GUTHRIE, Okla. (AP) - As residents cleaned up debris from widespread flooding that has caused $53 million in damage, Gov. George Nigh asked President Reagan to declare 10 counties in central and southwestern Oklahoma a major disaster area. The request came Monday as floodwaters from four days of heavy rain began to recede along parts of the Red River. However, the Army Corps of Engineers opened spillways from Denison Dam at Lake Texoma to cope with runoff that is still swelling the river to record depths. Reagan on Monday declared New Mexico a disaster area as a result of storms and flooding that began Sept. 18, the White House said.

Putting waste to use

NEW YORK (AP) - Officials who opened a greenhouse warmed by leftover heat from a power plant are urging other utility operators to put their waste heat to use. The greenhouse, located next to the Charles Poletti Power Project in Queens, was dedicated Monday. It was financed by the state Power Authority and built and operated by Aqua Farms, which is selling the fresh produce to local supermarkets and restaurants. The cucumbers, tomatoes and lettuce grown in the greenhouse are fed with nutrient-enriched water and are "far superior to field-grown vegetables," said Stephen Singer, chairman of Aqua Farms.

MOD sponsors haunted house

The Caprock Chapter of the March of Dimes will present a Halloween haunted house at the Big Spring Mall Friday and Monday. Proceeds from the house go the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation. The haunted house is located next to Beall's Department store. A jack 'o lantern contest at 5 p.m. Friday will be followed by a costume contest at 7 p.m. Hours for the haunted house Friday are 2 p.m.-10 p.m. and on Monday 5 p.m.-9 p.m. Entrance fee is $2. Participants include the Spring City Theater, the Big Spring Rotary Club, and Big Spring High School students from the Key Club, Student Council and Future Homemakers of America.

David Trusty, chairman of the March of Dimes, said "Be devils and when the spirit moves...come out and join us."
