Indictments name 4 residents

ABILENE — A Big Spring man who entered a plea of innocent to five cocaine-related charges that are scheduled for a June 11 trial was re-indicted here yesterday by a federal grand jury on six "superceding" cocaine charges. Harold Gaida "Guy" Talbot, 37, of 817 W. 17th, whose trial on the original charges was postponed Monday until June 11 by Federal Judge Hal Woodward, was one of four Big Spring residents named yesterday in new federal grand jury indictments.

Talbot appeared in court briefly here today and entered innocent pleas to the six charges. Trial for Talbot's case remains set for June 11.

Others indicted are Terry White, 35; Kay Jimenez, 22; and Caitano Chavarria, 35.

Talbot is the president of Talco,

Inc., an electronics security firm at 701 E. FM 700. He is a former Howard County chief probation officer and a former investigator in the 118th District Attorney's office.

He was accused Jan. 24 by a San Angelo federal grand jury of distributing cocaine and of conspiring to possess cocaine with intent of distribution in 1981 and 1982.

"(The new Talbot indictment) takes the place of the preceding indictment and adds an additional count," U.S. attorney Richard Stevens said this morning in explanation of yesterday's action.

According to Stevens, five of the six counts remain essentially the same as the previous indictment, with the exception that one amount was changed and one time period was expanded.

He said he could not comment on the reason why the changes were made. A motion for dismissal of the five charges contained in Talbot's original indictment will be filed at a later date, he said.

Yesterday's indictment charges Talbot with:

- Distributing one-half ounce of cocaine on Aug. 4, 1981.

- Distributing 1 ounce of cocaine on Dec. 2, 1981.

- Conspiring to possess cocaine with the intent of distribution between Nov. 10, 1981 and Dec. 15, 1981 and again on Feb. 5, 1982.

- Distributing 2 grams of cocaine on Dec. 31, 1981.

- Distributing one-quarter ounce of cocaine between mid April and early May 1983.

Big Spring police have asked that names of witnesses involved in the charges not be printed so as not to hinder an on-going drug investigation being conducted by that department, the FBI and the state Department of Public Safety.

Indicted with Talbot yesterday by the same grand jury was Terry White, 35, of Sterling City Route, an employee of the Pinkie's Liquor Store at 1414 E. Third.

White is charged with making a false declaration Jan. 24 to a San Angelo grand jury investigating cocaine distribution in Howard County.

The Abilene Reporter-News today published a portion of the grand jury transcript quoting White as saying, "I haven't seen any coke (cocaine) in Howard County ... I am not going to be a stoolie for you or anyone else, and I hope these people understand that, too."

The federal prosecutor then asked, "I am asking you to tell the truth." "I am. I haven't seen any," White stated, according to the indictment.

The indictment accuses White of knowing his statement to be false, that he had seen cocaine in Howard County and that his knowledge was relevant to the grand jury investigation.

Also accused by the grand jury was Caitano "Tano" Chavarria, 35, of 3703 W. Highway 80. His occupation is not known.

In a three-count indictment, he is charged with:

- Distributing 2½ grams of cocaine on April 19, 1983.

- Distributing one-quarter ounce of cocaine on April 22, 1983.

- Distributing one-quarter ounce of cocaine on June 28, 1983.

Hart wins a pair

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
AP Political Writer

Victories in the industrial states of Ohio and Indiana have blown new fire into Sen. Gary Hart's faltering presidential candidacy, offsetting Walter F. Mondale's wins in Maryland and North Carolina and guaranteeing the nomination struggle will continue through the final primaries and possibly onto the convention floor.

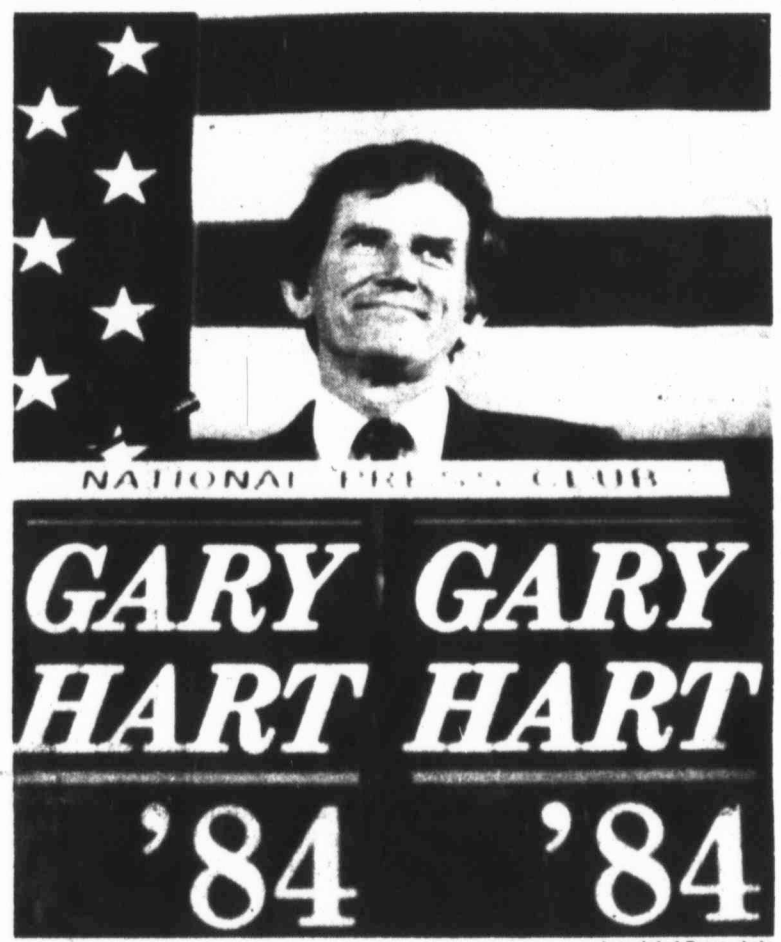

"The Democrats of this nation are not prepared to have this contest and this debate end at this time," a jubilant Hart told supporters Tuesday night.

Mondale, appearing tired, subdued and clearly disappointed, told reporters, "I am confident as the debate goes forward that I will get the delegates that I need to be the nominee."

But he conceded there is "a good chance" the fight for the nomination will continue to the Democratic National Convention next July in San Francisco.

The big prize that day is California with 345 delegates, and that is where the three contenders were likely to spend most of their time. Hart, who hadn't won a primary since Connecticut on March 27, suddenly had a chance to put together a winning streak. Hart swamped Mondale in caucuses Monday in his home state of Colorado, he is favored to carry Oregon's primary, and he scheduled the next several days campaigning in Nebraska.

But Mondale's big wins in Maryland and North Carolina more than offset Hart's delegate gains in his narrow victories in Indiana and Ohio. The former vice president picked up 186 delegates in the four states compared to 139 for Hart and 42 for Jackson.

Mondale now has 1,446.05 delegates, Hart has 874.75, and Jackson 279.2. With about 800 delegates left to be allocated in the remaining primaries, Mondale needs 521 to reach the 1,967 needed for a convention majority. Mondale will get at least 100 delegates from Texas, where the allocation from last Saturday's caucuses has not yet been determined.

Returns from Ohio and Indiana showed how thin Hart's victories were there:

In Indiana, with 97 percent of the precincts reporting, the vote was: Hart 288,058 for 42 percent; Mondale 281,143 for 41 percent; and Jackson 92,161 for 13 percent.

In Ohio, with 100 percent of the vote in, it was: Hart 608,438 for 42 percent; Mondale 583,574 for 40 percent; Jackson 236,829 for 16 percent.

Mondale enjoyed more comfortable margins in Maryland and North Carolina.

Complete but unofficial returns from Maryland gave Mondale 209,509 votes or 43 percent; Jackson 127,799 or 27 percent; and Hart 119,886 or 25 percent.

In North Carolina, with 99 percent of the vote in, it was: Mondale 337,957 for 36 percent; Hart 285,657 for 30 percent; Jackson 238,844 for 25 percent; no preference had 43,695 votes or 5 percent.

Woman questioned about kidnapping

A California woman being questioned in connection with a 1981 kidnapping of a 4-year-old Breckenridge girl is staying with relatives in Big Spring pending the results of lab tests by Nolan County sheriff's deputies.

Law enforcement officials are comparing footprints to determine if a 6-year-old girl traveling with the woman — both from Waterford, Calif. — is Ryan Nicole Burton, abducted from her Breckenridge home Aug. 6, 1981. The missing child would be 6 on Aug. 2.

She was last seen in July 1982 when she spent about two weeks at a day care center in Mesquite, according to an Abilene-based FBI agent.

Both Howard County Sheriff A.N. Standard and Big Spring Police Lt. Jerry Edwards said they were not aware the woman was staying in Big Spring.

"Our office is not working on that (the Burton abduction)," Standard said. "Nobody's announced that to me."

"They haven't contacted us at all," Edwards said. "This is the first I've heard of it."

Both the woman and child were released Tuesday afternoon about six hours after officials from the Nolan County sheriff's office and the FBI questioned them and foot-printed the girl.

A Roscoe resident called the Nolan County sheriff's department Tuesday when she thought the woman and girl — who stopped at a Roscoe fast food restaurant — matched FBI sketches and descriptions released Monday, according to Nolan County Sheriff Jim Blackley.

Blackley and a deputy stopped the woman when she was east-bound on Interstate 20, and the woman voluntarily accompanied them to the sheriff's department, Blackley said.

The footprint comparisons could be completed sometime today, Blackley told the Abilene Reporter-News.

The woman said she was traveling to Florida and then to Ohio to visit her parents, but agreed to stay with relatives in Big Spring until the tests are complete. Law enforcement officials followed her to Big Spring, Blackley said.

Officials initially thought the girl was the missing child, partly because of a very light birthmark

Man upset over Quebec shooting wounds 2 people

QUEBEC (AP) — A gunman today wounded two people on a city street and then took his own father hostage, Canadian Press said. The man reportedly was upset over the killing of three people by an army corporal who sprayed Quebec's legislative chamber with sub-machine gun fire on Tuesday.

Today's attacker fired on passers-by in downtown Quebec with a shotgun, slightly wounding a male pedestrian in the arm, leg and hip, Canadian Press quoted police as saying.

It said a female motorist suffered a minor throat injury when shotgun pellets pierced her car window. The shooting occurred on the Charest Boulevard in the commercial Saint-Roch district.

The gunman later was found to be in a private home, the news agency quoted police as saying. He fired shots at police through the door, and was holding his elderly father hostage to keep authorities at bay, Canadian Press said.

Police surrounded the house and sealed off the area. They were negotiating by telephone with the gunman, whose name was not disclosed.

Witnesses had initially described the gunman as being dressed in military uniform or an army jacket.

Canadian Press quoted police as saying the gunman told them he could not sleep overnight because he was troubled by the shooting spree in the Quebec legislative chamber, where three people were killed and 13 were wounded in a hail of sub-machine gun fire.

The Canadian soldier taken into custody in the Tuesday incident, identified as Cpl. Denis Lortie, a 22-year-old supply technician, said his goal was to destroy the separatist provincial government.

The soldier, who held a sergeant-at-arms hostage for more than four hours Tuesday in the National Assembly building before surrendering, was scheduled to appear in court today.

Wearing green combat fatigues, a flak jacket, beret and ammunition belts, he was taken into custody by Quebec City police.

Canadian Press quoted police as saying the gunman told them he could not sleep overnight because he was troubled by the shooting spree in the Quebec legislative chamber, where three people were killed.

Tuesday's dead and injured were low-ranking legislative employees preparing for a committee meeting, rather than the top politicians who apparently were the target of the attack. Flags at the assembly building were flown at half-staff today in mourning.

Defense Department officials said Lortie was a native of Pont Rouge, Quebec, and worked at an armed forces base at Carp, Ont., just outside Ottawa, which is the government's emergency bunker and communications center for use under nuclear attack.

As a supply technician, he would have access to weapons, but no authority to take them off the base, authorities said.

Krueger asks for recount...

HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Krueger, narrowly edged out of a spot in the Democratic runoff for the U.S. Senate nomination, wants the votes re-counted in at least 18 counties, his campaign officials say.

Krueger's campaign director, Alan Schoenbaum, said re-count petitions were filed Tuesday in Harris, Bexar, Dallas, El Paso and Tarrant counties, the state's most populous counties, and in Fort Bend, Brazoria, Brazos, Chambers, Jefferson, Waller, Wharton and Washington counties.

The re-count in Harris County was to be done today.

In Amarillo, Krueger campaign official Morris Overstreet said Democratic vote canvassing boards in Potter, Randall, Armstrong, Gray and Moore counties have been ordered to delay the voting tally for the U.S. Senate race. Overstreet said he didn't know the names or the number of other counties where the spot recount has been requested or ordered.

Action to stop the canvassing was taken because it is more complicated and expensive to make a recount after the votes are finalized by the boards, Overstreet said.

"Once the votes are canvassed, you have to file a lawsuit to overturn the canvassing board's decision," he said.

...while Hance fires pollster

AUSTIN (AP) — The pollster who was fired by U.S. Rep. Kent Hance the day after the congressman finished first in the Democratic U.S. Senate primary says he still hopes Hance will win the June 2 runoff.

"I don't want to hurt him. I worked for him and I wouldn't have if I didn't think he's a good guy and a good congressman and would make a good senator," Boston-based pollster Irwin "Tubby" Harrison said Tuesday.

Hance aides defended the firing of Harrison, who said he had pinpointed amnesty for illegal aliens as a major campaign issue.

The aides also downplayed speculation that opposing amnesty was the key to Hance's finishing ahead of state Sen. Lloyd Doggett and former congressman Bob Krueger.

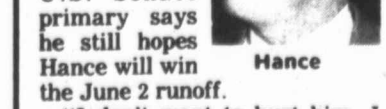

Sources said Harrison sent Hance a memorandum in mid-April pointing out that opposition to amnesty was an issue that would attract voters to Hance and cut the lead that opinion polls then showed for Krueger.

During the campaign's final days, Hance stressed again and again that he opposed granting amnesty to illegal immigrants while Doggett and Krueger favored it. Many of Hance's television ads stressed the issue.

Things should be heating up

By the Associated Press

Texans awoke to unseasonably cool temperatures today, but the National Weather Service said a warming trend would begin today and continue at least through Thursday.

Temperatures were generally in the 40s and 50s this morning, with early morning readings ranging from 39 at Marfa in the Davis Mountains of far West Texas to 64 degrees at Laredo.

Record lows for May 9 were established at Port Arthur and Houston. The low was 50 at Jefferson County Airport in Port Arthur and still dropping. That broke the old mark of 53 set in 1961. Houston's low at 4 a.m. was 49 and still dropping. Houston's previous low for the date was 54 in 1982.

Winds were south to southwest in much of North and West Texas, with wind speeds generally in the 5 to 15 mph range.

Afternoon temperatures today and Thursday should be in the 70s and 80s, with the mercury reaching near the century mark in the Big Bend, the weather service said.

Another front is expected to enter the state from New Mexico on Thursday, but no precipitation is expected from the system. However, scattered thunderstorms should develop over Oklahoma Friday and Saturday and over much of the eastern two-thirds of Texas over the weekend, the weather service said.

3 burglaries reported

Three persons reported burglaries to police within the last 24 hours, according to police reports.

An estimated $1,000 in jewelry was stolen between 6:45 a.m. and 3:45 p.m. Tuesday when someone broke the south side window of 1612 Bluebird, Beryl Richardson told police.

Taken was a $150 gold ladies watch, a $150 gold ladies necklace, a $100 gold wedding ring, a $100 gold ring with a small diamond, and a $300 gold one-half inch band.

Irene Maynard of 1609 Cardinal told police someone damaged a plastic window and took $104 in cash, a set of wedding rings and a $230 class ring from her house Tuesday.

Klaus Szabo, an employee at the Dolly Madison Thrift Store at 1103 E. 11th, told police someone had caused $30 damage to one door and unknown damage to a wooden door when the person entered the store and took a $40 saw between 6:45 p.m. Monday and 4:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Raymond Davis of 305 S. Goliad told police at 8:56 a.m. Tuesday that someone had taken his 1968 Chevrolet. Police recovered the vehicle at 9:53 a.m. at 11th and Settles.

Georgia Sanders of 4107 W. Highway 80 told police at 11:23 a.m. she was missing a $65 pistol.

Perry White of Gail Route told police Tuesday that someone, between Saturday and noon Tuesday, damaged the backyard gate and two windows of his rent house.

Deaths

Ruth Thorp

Memorial services for Ruth Thorp, 77, who died Sunday, will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel.

The Rev. Victor Sedinger of the First Christian Church will officiate.

She was born April 26, 1907 in Lauderdale County, Miss. She married F.M. Thorp July 3, 1952. He preceded her in death.

She grew up in Big Spring and lived all of her life in Howard County. She was a member of the First Christian Church. She was a member of the Business and Professional Womens Club and was a secretary at Texas Electric Service Co. for more than 20 years.

Survivors include one daughter, Gerri Poteet of Fort Worth; three grandchildren; one brother, James Suttle of Pittsburgh, Pa.; one stepbrother, L.L. Pistole of Bryan; two sisters-in-law, Bernice Whitmore of Big Spring and Bertha Ragsdale of San Saba; and one brother-in-law, A.H. Shroyer of Big Spring.

The family suggests any memorials be made to the First Christian Church.

Juanita Flores

Juanita (Jeannie) Guzman Flores, 41, died Tuesday morning at Malone-Hogan Hospital following a long illness.

Rosary will be at 7 p.m. Thursday at the St. Thomas Catholic Church. Burial will be at Mount Olive Memorial Park.

She was born Aug. 27, 1942 in Big Spring. She was a lifetime resident here. She was a member of the St. Thomas Catholic Church.

Survivors include her husband, Salvador (Sukie) Flores of Big Spring; three sons, Pfc. Edward (Eddie) Flores, USMC, Camp Pendleton, Calif., and Gary Flores and Gino Flores, both of Big Spring; one sister, Mrs. George (Luz) Martinez of Big Spring; four brothers, C.H. Guzman of Phoenix, Ariz., Armando Guzman of Pico Rivera, Calif., Henry Guzman of Midland and Tony Guzman of Big Spring.

She was preceded in death by her father, Clemente Guzman in 1975; her mother, Guadalupe Holguin Guzman in 1943; three sisters, Elena Hernandez, Victoria Fierro and Juanita H. Guzman; and one brother, Simon Guzman.

Pallbearers will be Joe Martinez, Salvador Hernandez, Augustine Hernandez, Sam Hernandez, Henry Guzman Jr., Mike Guzman, Freddie Martinez, Tony Guzman Jr., Richard Guzman, Albert Guzman, Armando Guzman Jr. and Louie Brown.

Curtis Reynolds

Curtis (Rip) Reynolds, 73, died this morning at Malone-Hogan Hospital. Services are pending at the Nalley-Pickle and Welch Funeral Home.

Bill Davidson

STAFFORD, Ariz. — Former Howard County resident W.A. (Bill) Davidson, 77, died Monday in Tucson, Ariz., where he had undergone treatment for cancer for several years.

Davidson will be buried Wednesday in Stafford. Services are under the direction of the Cool Wells Funeral Home.

Davidson was born Nov. 17, 1906 in Grayson County, Texas. He married Mahaley Yarborough in 1933.

Guilty plea in JP court

Howard County sheriff's deputies arrested a 25-year-old Big Spring man Tuesday after he pleaded guilty in Justice of the Peace Lewis Heflin's court to possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

William Earl Albers of 200 Goliad was placed in county jail in lieu of a $146.50 fine imposed by Heflin.

Tracy Lee Patterson, 20, of 601 Circle pleaded guilty Tuesday in county court to driving while license suspended. County Judge Milton Kirby sentenced Patterson to a $100 fine, $86 court costs and three days in jail. Patterson paid the fine and court costs and was credited with jail time already served.

William Anderson of Route 3 told sheriff's deputies at 8:45 p.m. Tuesday that someone stole two bank money bags containing between $300 to $400 from under Big Mike's Farm Store while he was checking another part of the building, according to reports.

The two bank bags were labeled Snyder National Bank and First National Bank of Snyder, the report stated.

Deputies said they have a suspect in the case.

Raymond Fierro, 20, of 204 W. 12th was placed in county jail today to serve two days of a 10-day sentence for driving while intoxicated.

Raul Estrella Perez, 27, of the Apache Bend Apartments was released Tuesday from county jail to Gaines County authority on their warrant for revocation of probation.

Joe Morris Hays, 28, of Apache Bend Apartments was released Tuesday from county jail to Lubbock County authorities on a writ of attachment.

The FBI is looking for John Morris, about 25 to 31 years old, and an unnamed woman in her 20s, who are believed to be holding the missing child. The couple is thought to still live in the Southwest, according to FBI agent Bill Weishaupt.

Chavarria was transported to Abilene this morning and turned over to the U.S. Marshal's office, according to Sgt. Bill Price.

Morris has a thin build, is about 5-foot-11 and has long, straight dark-brown hair, according to the FBI.

The woman thought to be with Morris is described as 5-foot-6 or 5-foot-7, weighs about 120 pounds, and has long, straight, dark blond hair, according to the FBI.

The missing child has blond hair, blue eyes, two chipped upper front teeth and a light-colored birthmark under the left shoulder blade, according to the FBI.

The grand jury also returned a two-count indictment against Kay Jimenez, 22, charging her with distribution of one-quarter ounce of cocaine on April 4, 1983 and April 11, 1983.

According to FBI agent Jesse Rogers, Ms. Jimenez's address, occupation and whereabouts are unknown. A federal warrant has been issued for her arrest, he said.

Ex-bank commissioner receives $53,000 gift

DALLAS (AP) — Robert E. Stewart, who retired in August as Texas banking commissioner, says he doesn't believe he did anything wrong by accepting a $53,000 cash gift last week from the financial institutions he regulated for 23 years.

But the gift drew protests from John Hildreth, executive director of Common Cause of Texas, a public interest lobbying group, and from Donna Mobley, a former ethics adviser to the Texas Legislature.

"It raises substantial questions," Ms. Mobley told the Dallas Times

Herald. "How does this affect people in the banking department now? Would this affect their decisions because they might get a big reward once they leave office?"

The state banking department oversees the operation of state-chartered banks, including granting charters, approving change-of-control applications and conducting supervisory examinations.

"All we wanted to do is show some appreciation for the man's service," Flynn said. "It kind of hurts me that anyone would think otherwise."

Cosby wants an award

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Comedian Bill Cosby, whose Fat Albert and Weird Harold characters sprang from the streets of Philadelphia, says it's about time his native state of Pennsylvania gave him an award.

BILL COSBY

Cosby, 46, accepted the fifth annual Distinguished Pennsylvania Artists Award from Gov. Dick Thornburgh at ceremonies Tuesday in the state Capitol.

"I've been in show business 22 years and so far I've been awarded something by every other state," Cosby said. "Pennsylvania came in last." Then, referring to the small sculpture he received, he said: "And it weighs the heaviest."

Cosby and Thornburgh drew laughs from the audience of several hundred people as they engaged in a mock tug-of-war with the sculpture, which Cosby stuffed into his coat jacket.

Thornburgh said Cosby "has used his priceless gift of humor to help millions of Americans understand and overcome, through laughter, the racial, social and psychological barriers that might otherwise keep them needlessly divided."

Cosby said artists don't set out in search of awards, but instead embark on "some sort of dream, some sort of mission."

The Philadelphia-born comedian said Fat Albert and Weird Harold routines were dreams "of doing something to help educate and bring aid to teachers."

Nixon likes sleuth show

NEW YORK — Former President Richard Nixon likes to watch "Barnaby Jones" reruns and wants to join a fan club honoring the television sleuth, the club's president says.

BUDDY EBSEN

Jordayne Thomas, president of the Barnaby Jones Luncheon Club, said Tuesday that series star Buddy Ebsen told him in a letter that Nixon had seen all the episodes and could quote lines from some.

Ebsen saw Nixon recently in Palm Springs, Calif., and said the former president "has expressed a lively interest in joining your club," Thomas said.

Thomas, 67, said he hasn't heard from Nixon yet. There was no immediate response to reporters' messages left with the former president's office in New York.

Rebel attack on Khadafy quelled by Libyan forces

ROME (AP) — Libyan forces reportedly crushed a daring attempt by a small band of men to storm

KHADAFY

Moammar Khadafy's fortress-like barracks home. Khadafy said in an interview that the rebels were betrayed by a captured leader.

The Libyan leader's statements about the attack on the outskirts of Tripoli appeared today in Le Monde, a leading Paris newspaper, whose Libyan correspondent said he interviewed Khadafy after witnessing part of the assault Tuesday.

Italian news reports said loyalist forces burst out of the barracks in armored vehicles and defeated the 20 or so rebels who fired rocket grenades. Le Monde's correspondent, Eric Rouleau, wrote that the barracks, where Khadafy lives with his family, "showed no trace of any fighting." He wrote that all the attackers were killed and their bodies put on display in Green Square in the city center.

A group calling itself the National Front for the Salvation of Libya called The Associated Press today and Tuesday and claimed responsibility for the attack. It said the attackers were killed, but vowed to escalate actions against the Libyan leader.

"Khadafy himself managed to escape before our forces were able to get to him," a statement today from the group said. It said the National Front's forces "clashed with Khadafy's forces at the barracks for more than five hours."

The statement claimed soldiers and civilians from within the barracks joined the attack, in which 15 National Front supporters were killed along with "in the tens" of Khadafy's special guards. The statement said there were several Khadafy guards injured.

One diplomat said some of the dead were reported to be "Palestinians and people trained abroad by Britain and Sudan."

Even before the Le Monde interview, there were preliminary intelligence reports from Tripoli indicating that Khadafy had survived yet another of a series of attempts to oust him since he seized power in a coup 15 years ago.

Khadafy said in the Le Monde interview that Libyan security forces skirmished with three infiltrators near the border with Tunisia on Sunday, killing one and wounding and capturing the other two. He said the infiltrators carried Sudanese diplomatic passports and claimed they were Palestinians but spoke Arabic with Libyan accents.

The official Tunisian news agency reported today that Libyan authorities were holding three Tunisian border guards who accidentally drove into Libya on the Mediterranean coast.

On Tuesday, Libya's news agency, JANA, said Libya had arrested three Libyans and killed one who it said belonged to a British-backed terrorist group. It said they were arrested trying to infiltrate from Tunisia.

It was not clear if the accounts from JANA, Khadafy and Tunisia all referred to the same arrests.

Khadafy claimed that the infiltrators carried names, addresses and telephone numbers of fellow conspirators in Tripoli and lists of Libyan officials they were sent to assassinate.

The conspiracy's leader was arrested and promptly betrayed a dozen other plotters who had rented an apartment in the center of Tripoli, Le Monde quoted Khadafy as saying.

Nicaragua downs helicopter

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Nicaragua said its forces shot down a military helicopter from Honduras that crossed into its airspace. Honduras said the U.S.-built craft was unarmed, part of its air force, and that all eight men aboard died.

The foreign minister of Nicaragua's leftist government, Miguel d'Escoto, said the violation of the airspace Tuesday was "evidence one more time of the danger with which the American administration, through the CIA, is pushing Honduras into participating in the aggression against our country."

Nicaragua claimed another helicopter crossed into its airspace but escaped back to Honduras.

The Sandinista government took reporters to see the helicopter's remains, scattered over an acre about 10 miles south of Potosi, a port on the Gulf of Fonseca which is shared by Nicaragua, Honduras and El Salvador.

CIA-backed rebels based in Honduras have attacked Potosi four times since January. U.S. officials suspect that Potosi, 150 miles northwest of Managua, is the launching point for small boats ferrying Nicaraguan arms to leftist guerrillas in El Salvador.

On Monday, the United States, El Salvador and Honduras ended 12 days of naval exercises in and around the gulf.

In El Salvador on Tuesday, election officials opened ballot boxes from Sunday's presidential runoff and began the official vote count. Guerrilla leaders of the war to topple the U.S.-backed government boycotted the election and claimed they prevented voting in 91 of El Salvador's 261 municipalities. The army said voting was blocked in only 45 towns.

Jose Napoleon Duarte, candidate of the moderate Christian Democrat Party, has claimed victory based on unofficial tallies by party representatives at polls across the country. Challenger Roberto d'Aubuisson, of the ultra-conservative Republican Nationalist Alliance party, has refused to concede until official results are announced.

Honduras condemned the downing of the helicopter as "brutal."

News in brief

By the Associated Press

Cauble gets five years.

TYLER — Attorneys for millionaire rancher Rex Cauble say he will stay in custody at least through today while they scurry to raise a $1 million bond to give him 13 more days of freedom.

The convicted racketeer Tuesday was ordered to report to prison May 22 to begin serving his five-year term. He ran afoul of racketeering, banking and criminal travel laws in connection with what prosecutors said was the largest drug-smuggling operation in Texas.

Defense attorney Melvyn Bruder said Tuesday night he's trying to raise the bail money, but that "I doubt very seriously that we will have the bond posted tonight."

Air gets good report

WASHINGTON — The air is cleaner than 14 years ago when Congress passed the federal Clean Air Act, says the government's chief air pollution official who believes by the end of the decade the whole country will be meeting air standards set by the law.

Joseph A. Cannon, assistant EPA administrator for air and radiation, says a study confirms big declines over a seven-year period in major air pollutants.

The EPA's study released Tuesday deals with past and present conditions. But, asked by reporters, Cannon said he sees nothing that would indicate an end to progress until the whole country complies with air pollution standards.

Perot lures lobbyists

AUSTIN — H. Ross Perot, offering some of his pointed one-liners, is recruiting lobbyists for his upcoming education reform scuffle in the Legislature.

"The dumbest young people in college, if you will, are enrolled in our schools of education and are getting teacher certificates to teach your children," he told the Texas Society of Association Executives.

The Dallas computer millionaire and chairman of the Select Committee on Public Education told the lobbyists luncheon Tuesday that a revamped school system is to their clients' advantage.

Fire destroys 1,500 acres

BASTROP — A wind-driven blaze has engulfed more than 1,500 acres and destroyed at least three homes near this Central Texas city, authorities said.

Smithville Fire Department spokesman Steve Burns said the fire was still virtually out of control late Tuesday night, but no injuries had yet been reported.

Helicopters evacuated several people from the area, and at least three homes and a trailer have been destroyed, he said. No monetary figure has been set yet on the damages, but Burns said they'll be "a mint."

Burns called the fire — which started about 3:45 p.m. on the north side of Texas Highway 71 — "one of the most awesome I've ever worked on in my 11 years."

N-dump would harm W. Texas

To the editor:
We, as concerned citizens of Big Spring, Howard County and West Texas, feel that a nuclear waste dump site in or near the watershed to Big Spring is potentially dangerous. Competent opinions have been expressed that there is a possibility of contamination to our water supply from a dump.

Not even the slightest possibility of water contamination can be tolerated. Even if the probability is very low, the consequences of harming the water supply are immeasurable and irreparable. To harm our water would mean the end of West Texas as a place to live and work, or to raise a family.

Only when thorough, competent scientific evidence proves conclusively that there is no likelihood of harm to our water supply, or otherwise, can a waste dump be allowed in our area, or elsewhere. This is not an issue restricted to West Texas, but the degree of harm to West Texas would be far greater than to a great many other areas, therefore we must be more cautious.

China syndrome

PARIS — Cold sweat used to bead European brows at the merest hint of American withdrawal from the Continent. But not in the case of President Reagan's trip to China, and the many accompanying signs of an American tilt to the Pacific.

On the contrary, the shift in American perspectives is surprisingly commonplace here. This visitor has heard it discussed casually in the past few days among journalists, political scientists, diplomats, elected officials, and over lunch, the other day, at the Elysee Palace of President Francois Mitterrand.

A French member of parliament pointed out that the trip to China — not summit with the Russians, still less the coming session with the leaders of industrialized countries in London — would be the centerpiece of Reagan's campaign travels abroad.

A political scientist cited Gary Hart's comment that Nixon, in his cynicism, was a "European" president. The scholar then went on to point out that for the first time since World War II there was no candidate in the running for the American presidency with deep European connections.

"Reagan," he said, "knows nothing of our internal politics. Jesse Jackson thinks the Third World is more important than Europe. Hart wants to pull American forces back everywhere. Even Mondale has only a thin connection. His parents came from Norway."

Finally, there is almost constant discussion of the lead taken by the U.S. and Japan over Europe in economic growth, and particularly in high technology. As one European statesman put it: "The Japanese have a strategy. The Americans have a dream. But where do we fit in?"

Unease about all these factors seems not to worry them. The Europeans do not think the Reagan China trip will change much. They note that the Russians have seized the occasion to drive home the weakness of the Sino-American tie by launching a major offensive in Afghanistan. They point out that a high-ranking Russian, Ivan Arkhipov, will be received in Peking next month.

The condition, which leaves this country, Britain and even Germany lagging way behind the U.S.

Newspaper didn't cover our event

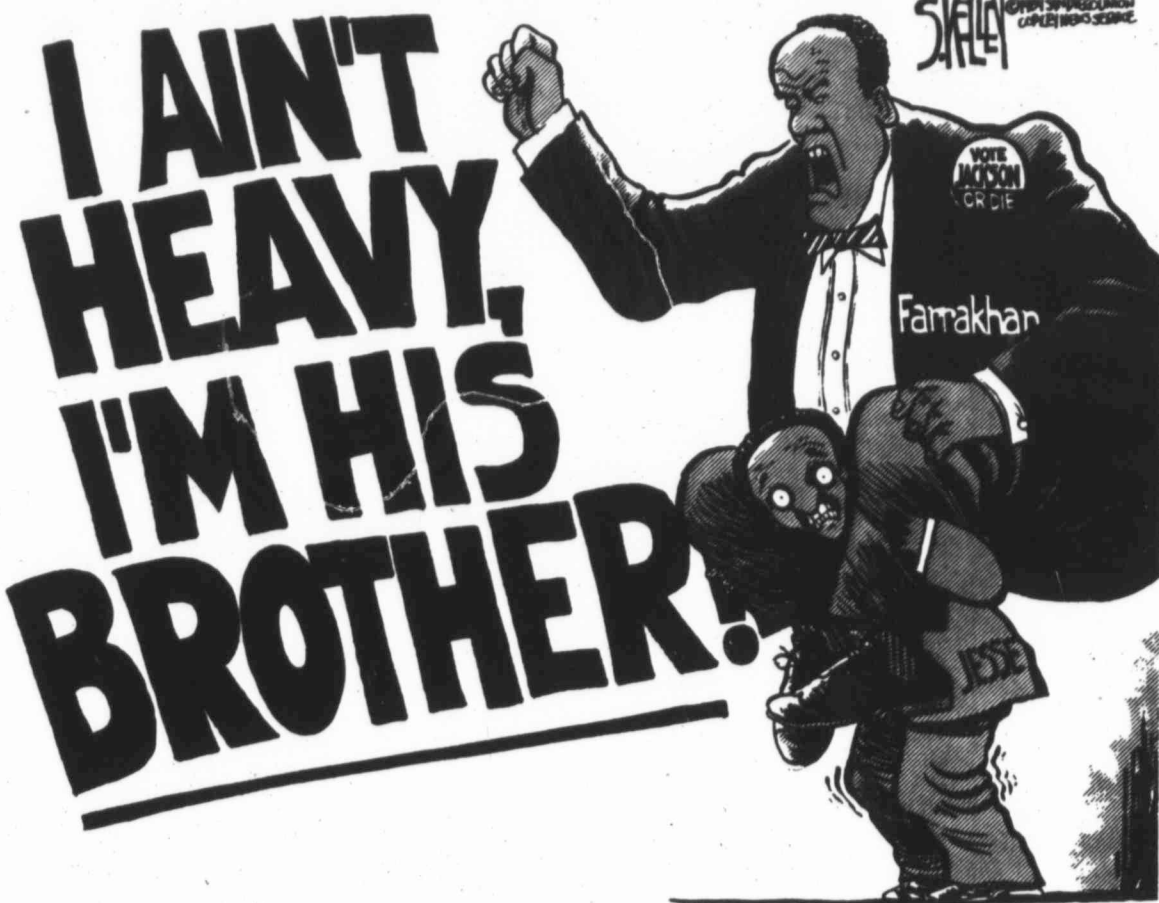

To the editor:
We believe in Big Spring! — but apparently the Big Spring Herald doesn't believe in us! The Big Spring Road Riders sponsored their 2nd Annual Crossroads Rally at Comanche Trail Park this past weekend. This dedicated group of motorcyclists spent nearly a year planning and promoting the event which brought approximately 500 fine folks to Big Spring.

As of Monday evening, we've not seen one mention of the event in the Herald (other than a note in the calendar last week). We realize that the elections took up lots of space but surely you could have found room to cover a local story such as this while it was still fresh news!

We do, however, appreciate the support received by the many businesses in Big Spring who donated lots of prizes for the rally. The local radio stations gave us tremendous support too. The Chamber of Commerce and the City Parks Department were behind us all the way. Without this support, the Crossroads Rally could not survive.

We're ready to start planning for next year's 3rd Annual Crossroads Rally. We hope the Herald will be fit to help us out next year!

Readers respond to woman's plight

WASHINGTON — Long ago and far away, Jesus Christ said of a poor widow: She gave "all that she had." There is heartwarming evidence that the sainted widow, who donated her last two mites, has a counterpart in America today.

Such a woman was Joann Jones of Paris, Ark., who was drained by medical bills until she had no money to keep up her insurance premiums. Then she lost all her possessions in a fire. She moved her three children into a cheap, cramped, second-hand trailer and found work as a waitress in a small diner.

While living under these conditions, she came across four Mexican migrant workers shivering beneath a cedar tree on a bitter cold day. Only one had a blanket; the other three were in shirtsleeves. She took two blankets off her own bed, and her sick son gave up his wool coat so each Mexican could wrap himself against the cold.

When I heard about her kindness, I tried to locate her, but she had no telephone. I finally reached her at the diner where she worked. But she didn't want to talk about her good deed. "Charity should be given in secret," she said. "Anyway, it was no big deal."

I wrote about Joann Jones anyway, and a remarkable thing happened. Thousands of Americans sent her money to buy a new home. But the most incredible thing was that most donations came from women who didn't seem to be much better off than Joann.

Typical was a worn, single dollar bill from a woman in Hot Springs, Ark. "I don't have much money, but I do want to help a little," she wrote.

From Poplar Bluff, Mo., a great-grandmother wrote: "We have very little cash, but we do own our home. My heart was touched by the story of Joann Jones. Please accept this small check."

A widow, plagued with problems of her own, wrote: "Joann's story has been an inspiration and help for me. I hope my small contribution helps her to continue helping others."

Life has also had its difficulties and discouragements for a Granite City, Ill., woman who sent a tattered $5 bill. "My first reaction to the Joann Jones column," she wrote, "was to wish I could afford to make a donation. After a minute's reflection, I decided I couldn't afford not to."

Perhaps the most startling contribution came from a woman in Pacific Grove, Calif. "I have a small savings account and am a senior citizen on social security," she wrote. "I feel if Mrs. Jones can do it, I can at least do this much." She enclosed a check for $1,000.

An elderly couple subsisting on social security, ages 84 and 73, sent a dollar apiece from Collings Lake, N.J. A housewife, caring for a stricken husband, contributed $10. Another widow, living on a pension, mailed in $6. And a man, who had already given all he could afford to charity, wrote me: "After reading your column, I have been moved to give a little more. Thank God for people like Joann Jones."

Study of angels is encouraging

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: Do you really think there are such things as angels? If so, where did they come from, and what do they do? — F.D.

DEAR F.D.: Several years ago, I became interested in this subject and decided to study the Bible carefully to see what it said about angels. What I found was a great encouragement to me, and, in fact, I wrote a book about angels to help others discover what the Bible says about them.

The Bible teaches that angels are real — whether we can see them or not. They were created by God in great numbers. Hebrews 12:22 speaks of "thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly." When Jesus was born, his birth was announced to the shepherds by an angel; that angel then was joined by "a great company of the heavenly host" (Luke 2:13). On occasion, they can take human appearance. However, they have been given special supernatural powers by God.

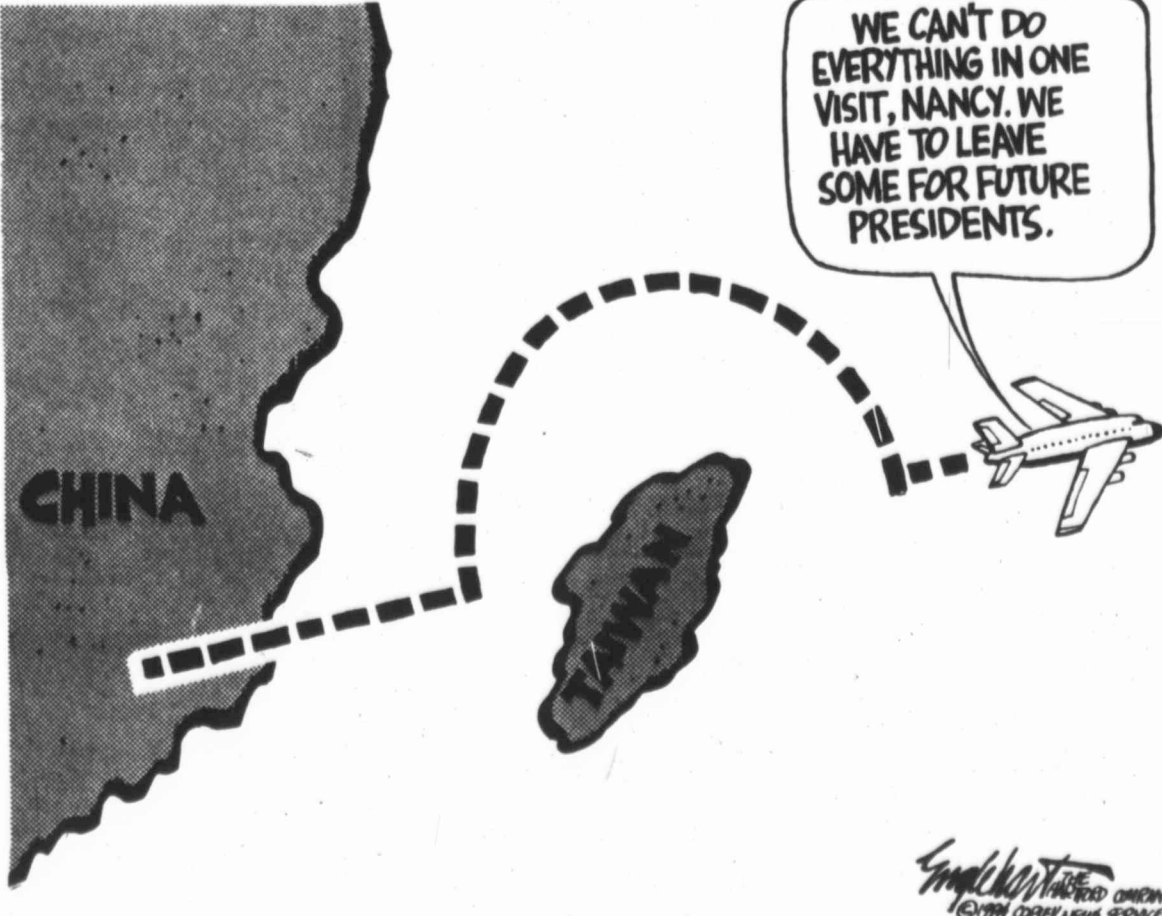

The Bible says the angels have one purpose: to serve God. They have especially been given the task of helping all those who belong to God's family through faith in Jesus Christ. "Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?" (Hebrews 1:14). Occasionally, we may be conscious of their work on our behalf (even if we cannot see them) — as, for example, when we find ourselves facing great danger and are delivered. The Bible promises, "If you make the Most High your dwelling — even the Lord, who is my refuge — then no harm will befall you... for he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways"

(Psalms 91:9-11). The Bible also warns that angels may be instruments of God's judgement. An angel turned back the Assyrians who were poised to crush the city of Jerusalem (2 Kings 19). It was an angel who struck down King Herod Agrippa, who had persecuted the early Christians (Acts 12). God's holy angels will go forth at the end of time to gather all to judgment before God (Matthew 13:49-50).

We are not to worship angels — God alone is to be worshipped. But we can thank God for them and know we can trust him because he has provided them for our benefit.

Around The Rim

By KEELY COUGHLAN

Minority vote

Elections in this town breed apathy, but only among the electorate.

Only about one of three registered voters elected a district attorney, a justice of the peace, or a county commissioner Saturday. Only one of three voted for a U.S. Senator in a race which at one time had only a 310-vote difference between the run-off spot.

If the people who ran elections were that apathetic, only one of three polling places would have been open Saturday. Instead of voting becoming a simple 16-minute procedure, it would have become at least a 30-minute procedure.

If the election judges and the county clerk's deputies had been as unconcerned about elections as the electorate, voters would have faced innumerable little delays or inconveniences.

If there had been the same percentage rate of turnout for election workers as for voters, only one of three election workers would have helped count ballots. And only one of three voter registration cards would have been mailed.

Instead, the clerks and the workers in the tax assessor-collector's and county clerk's office bent over backwards to make registration and voting easy.

If you lost your card, they looked it up on the list. If you were confused on where to vote, they gave you precise instructions. They even explained the confusing Democratic Party caucus system, which required voters to return at 7:15 p.m. to the polls to pick a presidential nominee.

And even Knott, proud of its high turnout rate — more than 60 percent, and 9.11 percent higher than other county boxes — would have suffered a loss of election services if they were based on voter turnout rates.

Of course, no one should even dream of making voting services dependent on the turnout. But, to paraphrase Winston Churchill, never have so many worked for so few — and on a continual basis. Voter turnout rarely is high. And yet the persons involved in making sure elections run smoothly and legally continue to work, usually without any fanfare.

Even during the confusing city elections, County Clerk Margaret Ray and Tax Assessor-Collector Dorothy Moore did all they could to help voters distinguish between the three types of elections — city, school and county.

Election night, these workers endured all kinds of obstacles in the performance of their duties.

Through it all, the election workers and their family members — recruited to serve in this hour of need — kept calm and collectedly counted away.

The most praise I can give them is to say they exemplify the phrase, "grace under pressure."

Opinions expressed in this column are those of the staff writer and do not necessarily reflect the views of the newspaper's management.

Reagan plans foreign aid speech

RONALD REAGAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the help of graphs and charts, President Reagan is counting on bolstering public support for his policies in Central America with a televised appeal urging Congress to step up the flow of U.S. aid to the troubled region.

In a nationally broadcast speech from the Oval Office tonight, the president also will be trying to persuade a reluctant Congress that the embattled El Salvador government may face a fall offensive it will be powerless to overcome unless it gets enough aid to fight off the leftist guerrillas.

All of the major television networks planned to broadcast the presidential address live starting at 8 p.m. EDT.

Advance reports indicated Reagan was likely to tell Congress it would have to accept the blame if it failed to provide aid to El Salvador and that country later fell to the leftists. But White House aides said Reagan instead will seek bipartisan cooperation to help him achieve his goals in Central America.

White House aides familiar with drafts of the speech described it as explanatory rather than newsworthy, conciliatory rather than strident.

At stake is the president's request for $132.5 million for military aid to El Salvador in fiscal year 1985 that is languishing in Congress. For 1984, Congress appropriated $64.8 million for El Salvador but a Senate-passed supplemental emergency fund of $61.7 million is bottled up in the House.

Reagan is expected to say that U.S. intelligence shows the El Salvador government, supported by the United States, is facing a fall offensive from leftist guerrillas that it will be powerless to overturn without U.S. aid.

By most accounts, Reagan will have an easier task in gaining congressional support to approve his aid package because of the apparent election in El Salvador's presidential runoff balloting of moderate Jose Napoleon Duarte. It was considered possible that Duarte himself may lobby Congress on the aid issue in the near future.

Council approves auction

By RICK BROWN
Staff Writer

Cars, trucks, heavy machinery, furniture, adding machines, typewriters and even four spinet pianos will go on the block Saturday when the city of Big Spring conducts its yearly auction of surplus materials.

The Big Spring city council authorized disposal of the property at its meeting last night at City Hall.

In addition to the city property, items from Howard County, the Big Spring Independent School District and the Howard College Junior College District will go on the block.

The auction will be held in the old Trans-Regional Air hangar in the northwest portion of Big Spring Airpark.

In other action last night, the council:

- Administered the oath of office to new councilman from District 3 Harold Hall.

- Granted a request for a carnival permit for a carnival to be held May 22 to June 3 at the College Park Shopping Center.

- Denied a request for permission to keep a 9-foot Burmese python snake at 1307 Mount Vernon.

- Approved specifications and granted permission for city administrators to advertise for bids for two pan-trailers that have are budgeted to cost $17,000.

- Awarded a bid of for the city depository to Security State Bank. The city will receive an interest range of 8-9 percent on the money it keeps in the bank.

- Approved use of the municipal swimming pool by the YMCA and the Jack and Jill School, approved municipal swimming pool hours of operation and approved use of five acres of the Moss Creek recreation area by the Big Spring Model Airplane Association.

- Approved a resolution authorizing Mayor Clyde Angel to submit a request to the Criminal Justice Division of the governor's office for renewal of the Big Spring police department's crime prevention grant.

- Approved a resolution authorizing Angel to sign a lease agreement with Basin Construction Co. for 11 acres of land and a building at Big Spring Airpark.

- Authorized a refund of $35,892 to the County Tax Assessor Collector because the city was overpaid when receiving its ad valorem taxes from the assessor's office.

Lobby supports road tax

AUSTIN (AP) — The highway lobby, trying to piggyback on growing support for higher taxes for education, called Tuesday for doubling the gasoline tax and raising motor vehicle registration fees to about $50.

The Texas Good Roads and Transportation Association said the state must spend $1.26 billion a year for eight years "to catch up with the backlog of repair needed on 60,230 miles" of bad roads.

Gene Robbins, association president, said Texas drivers now spend an unnecessary $168 a year in wasted fuel and car repairs caused by bad roads. The total cost to motorists is $1.71 billion a year — $1.37 billion in wasted fuel and $341 million in auto repairs, he said.

The association, which represents contractors and other groups that favor road repair and construction, wants to double the 5-cent gasoline tax (the nation's lowest) and raise auto registration fees to about $50 (now fees average about $15).

Doubling the gasoline tax would add $375 million to highway funds and $125 million for education, according to Robbins. Increasing the auto registration fee to $50 would bring in an additional $300 million. The association also wants a bigger chunk of motor vehicle sales tax to go to roads.

The increases would be "cost effective," Robbins said. "For $50 a year we can once again have good roads in the state," he said.

The gas tax is almost certain to come up at an expected summer session of the Legislature. Gov. Mark White, looking for more education money, favors a gas tax increase.

"The success of the education people (in a special session) and our success are tied very closely together," Robbins said at a Capitol news conference. "I don't think either of us will succeed without each other."

Asked if the tax hike would face citizen or lawmaker opposition, Robbins said, "When you talk about increasing taxes you always have trouble."

Texas' 5-cent gasoline tax was set in 1955. The national average now is 11.2 cents.

A study prepared by The Road Information Program for the Texas Good Roads and Transportation Association said 70 percent of the state's "main road" system is "substandard."

"We do have a crisis in highway transportation in Texas," Robbins said.

The cost on drivers is excessive, according to the TRIP report that showed:

- At 40 mph, a vehicle operating on "fair" or "poor" roads eats up 56 percent more fuel than the same vehicle on good roads.

- Rough pavement causes 150 percent more tire wear.

- Bad roads necessitate brake, steering and suspension repairs nearly twice as often.

YMCA pool to be closed for repairs

A scheduled $39,000 renovation will close the YMCA swimming pool for about five weeks starting in mid-July, according to YMCA director Wallace Gill.

YMCA officials have worked out a trade of services arrangement with the city of Big Spring to allow Y-sponsored swimming classes at the municipal pool at Comanche Trail Park while the YMCA facility undergoes renovation, Gill said.

Under the terms of the arrangement, the YMCA will conduct fitness tests for city fire department personnel in return for use of the city pool, Gill said.

"It's about a $1,200 trade in services," he said.

Before the deal can take effect it must be approved by Big Spring city council members, he said. The council is scheduled to discuss the trade at tonight's 6:30 p.m. meeting.

Renovation of the pool will include sandblasting, painting of the pool and pool-area walls and the installation of new windows at the facility, Gill said.

Jean Durkee to present microwave cooking school

By TINA STEFFEN
Lifestyle Editor

Jean Killner Durkee will present a gourmet microwave cooking school at Garrett Hall of First United Methodist Church, May 17 and 18. She will cook recipes from her second of three cookbooks Tout de Suite a la Microwave II, which features Mexican, Italian and French foods.

The event is sponsored by the Big Spring Junior Women's Club. The two-hour lesson will be presented at 7 p.m. May 17 and again at 9 a.m. May 18. Tickets are $15 and may be purchased from any Big Spring Junior Women's Club member, at Kopper Kettle, Pretty Things, Chamber of Commerce or by calling Gay Herren at 263-3767. Price of ticket includes a copy of Mrs. Durkee's cookbook Tout de Suite a la Microwave II, which sells for $10, and samples of the foods she will prepare.

Mrs. Durkee wrote and published Tout de Suite a la Microwave I, a gourmet cookbook featuring French, Acadian and Creole recipes, in 1977. She wrote and published Tout de Suite a la Microwave II in 1980. Her third book Voila! Lafayette Centennial Cookbook 1884-1984 was published December 1983. It was published as part of the Lafayette, La. Centennial.

Mrs. Durkee is an alumna of Mrs. Connett's Chateau Country Cooking School in Chinon, France, Le Cordon Bleu and LaVarene Ecole de Cuisine in Paris, and the Culinary Arts with Julie Dannenbaum at the Greenbrier Cooking School in West Virginia. She has appeared on radio and television programs in Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Florida and for P.M. Magazine. She also conducts cooking schools nationwide. Jolene M. Levermann is her assistant in the kitchen.

Below are a few of her recipes featured in her cookbook Tout de Suite a la Microwave II.

CHILAQUILES

Tortillas in chili sauce
1 medium onion, sliced in rings
1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
1 (10-ounce) can Ro-tel tomatoes and green chilies, chopped with liquid
1 (14 1/2-ounce) can whole tomatoes, drained and chopped
1 1/2 tps. salt
12 corn tortillas, cut into 1/2-inch wide strips
4 ounces Monterey Jack cheese, sliced in 2-inch strips
4 jalapeno peppers, quartered in strips and seeded

Place onion and oil in a 7 x 11-inch baking dish covered with plastic wrap. Microwave on high (100 percent) 5 minutes until tender. Add tomatoes and salt. Place tortilla strips in tomato mixture toasting to mix. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave on high (100 percent) 3 minutes, stirring once. Add cheese and jalapeno pepper slices on top of Chilaquiles. Cover with plastic wrap and microwave on high (100 percent) 2 minutes. Cut in squares to serve. Serves 8. Total cooking time: 10 minutes.

SEAFOOD GUMBO II

Gumbo aux fruits de mer
Seafood Stock:
Fresh shrimp heads and/or shells and/or fresh fish bones
1 1/2 quarts water
3 celery stalks, cut into 2-inch pieces
1 medium onion, quartered
2 cloves garlic, crushed
1/2 lemon, quartered

1 tsp. vegetable oil
1 1/2 cups onion, diced
1 cup green bell pepper, diced
1 (16-ounce) can whole tomatoes, drained and chopped

GOURMET COOK — Jean Killner Durkee, left, will present a gourmet microwave cooking school at Garrett Hall of First United Methodist Church, May 17 and 18. She will cook recipes from her second of three cookbooks Tout de Suite a la Microwave II, which features Mexican, Italian and French foods. The event is sponsored by the Big Spring Junior Women's Club. Jolene M. Levermann, right, is Mrs. Durkee's assistant.

1/2 cup tomato puree
1 1/2 quarts seafood stock*
8 crab claws
1 (10-ounce) carton frozen cut okra
1 1/2 tps. gumbo file
1 Tbsp. Creole seasoning
3/4 tsp. garlic powder
3/4 tsp. thyme
1/2 tsp. saffron
2 bay leaves
2 tps. salt
1 to 1 1/2 pounds raw shrimp, peeled
12 raw oysters and liquid
1 pound lump crabmeat

To make seafood stock,* combine shells, bones, water, celery, onion, garlic and lemon in a 4-quart casserole. Microwave on high (100%) 30 minutes. Let stand until needed, then strain.

Saute oil, onion and green pepper in a 5-quart covered casserole on high (100%) 8 minutes until softened. Add tomatoes, tomato puree, stock and crab claws. Cover. Bring to a boil on high (100%) about 16 minutes.

Microwave carton of okra on high (100%) 6 minutes. Add okra to gumbo along with file, Creole Seasoning, garlic powder, thyme, saffron, bay leaves and salt. Microwave covered on high (100%) 10 minutes. Add shrimp, oysters and crabmeat. Cover. Microwave on medium (50%) 20 minutes or until shrimp are tender and pink, stirring once or twice. Serve in gumbo bowls with steamed rice. Serves 8.

CHICKEN CACCIATORE

Pollo al cacciatore
1 (3-lb.) chicken, skinned and cut in pieces
Micro-Shake to sprinkle
3/4 cup green bell pepper, chopped
2 cups onion, chopped
3 cloves garlic, crushed
2 Tbps. olive oil
4 large tomatoes, peeled and chopped
1/2 tsp. basil
1/2 tsp. oregano
1/2 tsp. thyme
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
5 large fresh mushrooms, sliced
Cooked noodles for six

Season chicken pieces with Micro-Shake or an all-purpose seasoning. Place in a 10 x 10-inch baking dish. Cover and microwave on high (100%) 18 minutes until partially done. Set aside covered. Sauté bell pepper, onion, garlic and oil in a 3-quart casserole on high (100%) 5 to 6 minutes. Add tomatoes, basil, oregano, thyme, salt and pepper to onion mixture. Microwave on high (100%) 10 minutes. Add mushrooms and cooked chicken (bone if desired). Cover and microwave on high (100%) 7 to 8 minutes or until chicken is tender. Serve over noodles. Serves 6.

HUKI LAU

Pronounced who-key-lou
1 pound beef tenderloin cut in chunks
1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
1/2 large green bell pepper, sliced in strips
1/2 cup onion, cut in chunks
1/2 cup celery, cut in 1/2-inch slices
1 (8 1/2-oz.) can water chestnuts, sliced

1 (10 1/2-oz.) can beef consomme, undiluted, (to be divided)
1/2 tsp. garlic powder
Sauce:
Remaining consomme (5 oz.)
2 Tbps. cornstarch
1 tsp. molasses or honey
2 tps. red wine
1 tsp. salt

Preheat empty browning dish on high (100%) 5 minutes. Add oil and beef chunks. Quickly sear meat turning and rearranging with a wooden spoon. Some pieces may still be pink. Stir in bell pepper, onion, celery and water chestnuts. Pour 3/4 cup consomme (reserve remaining consomme for sauce) and garlic powder over mixture. Cover and microwave on high (100%) 5 minutes, stirring once. Do not over cook meat. Sauce: Place cornstarch in a 2-cup measure and pour remaining consomme in slowly to blend. Add honey, wine and salt. Microwave on high (100%) 2 minutes, stirring at 30-second intervals. Spread sauce over meat and vegetable mixture. Serve at once with steamed rice and Chinese fried noodles. Serves four.

STEAMED RICE

4 cups water
2 cups long grain rice
1 tsp. salt
Bring water to boil in a 4-quart casserole on high (100%) 8 to 10 minutes. Add rice and salt. Cover with wax paper and microwave on high (100%) 15 to 20 minutes, stirring at 10 minute intervals until rice is light and fluffy. Let stand 10 minutes.

CHEESE AND MUSHROOM OMELET

3 large eggs, well-beaten
3 Tbps. water
2 (3/4-oz.) slices American processed cheese
4 fresh mushrooms, sliced (can be omitted)

In a 1-quart bowl whisk eggs then add water. Beat until mixed well. Break cheese slices into small pieces and add to egg mixture. Stir in sliced mushrooms, if desired. Microwave on high (100%) 2 minutes 30 seconds. Rotate (but do not stir) dish 1/4 turn after half the cooking time. Turn quickly out on serving plate.

MEXICAN RICE WITH TOMATOES

1 cup raw rice
2 cups water
1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
1 cup onion, chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 (4-oz.) can whole green chilies, seeded and chopped large OR 2 chilies serranos, seeded and quartered
1 cup canned tomatoes, chopped reserve liquid
1/2 cup reserved liquid from tomatoes
1/2 cup chicken stock
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. ground cumin
1 tsp. chili powder

Bring rice and water to a boil in a 4-cup measure covered with plastic wrap on high (100%) 4 minutes. Quickly add oil and rice stirring with a wooden spoon so rice will not burn. Add onion, garlic, chilies, tomatoes, juice, stock, salt, pepper, cumin and chili powder. Cover with lid and microwave on high (100%) 15 minutes, stirring twice. Let stand covered 10 minutes. Serves 6.

MEXICAN CORN BREAD

1/2 pound bacon, diced
3/4 cup yellow corn meal
1 egg
3/4 cup buttermilk
3/4 tsp. baking soda
3/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. garlic powder
1/4 cup bacon fat
1 (8 1/2-oz.) can cream-style corn
1 cup onion, chopped
3 jalapeno peppers, seeded and chopped
1 1/2 cups Longhorn cheese, grated (any mild yellow cheese)

Microwave diced bacon covered in an 8-cup measure on high (100%) 5 minutes. Pour off fat (reserve 1/4 cup) and continue cooking on high (100%) 1 or 2 minutes until bacon is crisp. Remove bacon and remaining fat. Drain, crumble and set aside. In the same dish mix together corn meal, egg, buttermilk, soda, salt, garlic powder and bacon fat. Mix well. Stir in corn, onion, peppers, cheese and crumbled bacon. Pour into a greased 9-inch round dish. Microwave on high (100%) 10 minutes. Rotate dish 3 times. Slice and serve warm. Serves 6.

Dear Abby

Twenty-year age gap too wide to cross

DEAR ABBY: The man I dearly loved for two years walked out on me to take up with the woman who had been my best friend for 25 years! I am devastated. She had been separated from her husband, so I foolishly invited her along to make it a threesome. I'm 50 and am now going with "R," a man of 70 who has been waiting in the wings for me. He loves me, but I can't return his love as I will always love the other man no matter what he does.

I admire and respect "R," but I feel the need of a younger man. (Am I wrong?) He is good in the bedroom, but I feel like I'm making love to my father, and that bothers me.

"R" insists on the bedroom scene and I would rather not. (Can you blame me?) How do I get around this? He's attractive and well-to-do and would give me the moon. People say I look 40, and I feel 30. What should I do?

HURTING
DEAR HURTING: Since you are not sexually attracted to "R" and he insists on the bedroom scene, he is clearly not for you. It's lovely to have a man who would give you "the moon," but what good is the moon if you need a younger man? It's not up to me to blame or judge you. You are the one who must live with your decision. Let him go for your sake and his. There are plenty of women your age who would find

"R" the answer to their prayers.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I need a couple of questions answered. In the last two years, three of our son's girlfriends have had babies by him. What are those babies to us? And what are they to our son?

And if our son should decide to marry one of these girls, would he have to adopt his own baby to make it legally his?

NEEDS ANSWERS IN ALABAMA

DEAR NEEDS: The children fathered by your son are your grandchildren regardless of whether they were born in or out of wedlock. And your son is the father of these children. You need more than answers from me; you need counsel from a lawyer who practices law in your state. And let me offer a little unasked-for advice: It's high time your son learned something about birth control as well as self-control.

GENUINE U.S. GOV'T. MORGAN SILVER DOLLARS

ALL COINS UP TO 100 YEARS OLD

U.S. COIN RESERVE

U.S. Coin Reserve has unearthed over 5,000 Original Morgan Silver Dollars dating as far back as 1878. These treasured coins will be released to the American Public for one week only at a guaranteed price of $27.90 each... an incredible $50.10 less than a major national advertiser. Orders received later may not be honored due to volatile fluctuations in the precious metals market, and checks may be returned uncashed.

CONGRESS MELTS MORGAN SILVER

Created by the U.S. Mint over a century ago, more than 270 million Morgan Silver Dollars were melted down during World War I by the Federal government increasing the value of these coins dramatically. After only one more minting, Morgan Silver Dollars were never issued again. Their silver content then as today is almost one Troy ounce of .900 fine silver. Despite fluctuations in the price of silver, Morgan Silver Dollars have had an average annual appreciation of 26.5% in value over the last 10 years alone!

PRIVATE INDUSTRY MELTS MORGAN SILVER

In January of 1980 silver hits a record breaking $50.00 dollars per ounce, triggering a second massive melting of Morgan Silver Dollars. The combination of these two major meltings has left the Morgan Silver Dollars more scarce than ever. We have been approached by the European Markets for the rare coins, but we feel they should be in the hands of the American Public. In consideration of the fewer number of these coins available, we predict an increase in value that could be over 100% yearly. Which means in five years they could be worth up to Five Hundred Dollars a piece.

MORGAN STOCKPILES FOUND

Our find of over 5,000 original Morgan Silver Dollars will be released from guarded vaults to the American public only through this notice! Each coin is up to 105 years old and guaranteed to be genuine, in Fine condition or better with a Certificate of Authenticity to that effect. We can only guarantee this price for one week due to the volatility of the precious metals market.

STRICT LIMIT

Since our price of $27.90 each is an incredible $50.10 less than a major national advertiser, we expect an avalanche of orders to come pouring in. Therefore, we advise you to get your order in early before the strictly limited supply at this price is sold. We offer a 4 day examination period for each coin; coins returned within that time will receive a full refund. A limit of sixty coins per order will be strictly adhered to! So, avoid disappointment. Act now!

Dates will be selected at random.

Dr. Donohue

'Arthritic loves push-button world'

Dear Dr. Donohue: If I may, permit me to respond to the arthritic who commented recently about difficulty with buttons, etc. I have severe arthritis and have found many aids that help. I also have a husband who cares enough to alter our home. Here are some things that help:

My husband has put in single-lever faucets. He has changed the switches of lamps, installing pull chains (with bangles for easy grabbing). He has put in lever handles instead of door knobs, even changed light switches on the walls to mercury type that turn easily. We have TVs and radios with push-button controls.

I have many convenience items in my kitchen to make chores easier. One of them is a dandy, easy-to-use automatic can opener. I have snap-on handles for soda pop cans, etc.

For convenience I have a commode that can be positioned over the toilet by remounting the seat. Old "pump" type product dispensers can be filled with many other products, including condiments. Self-elevating chairs and bed make it easier to get up and down. I position chairs in the kitchen to make it easier to get around. I keep doors, drawers, etc. well-lubricated, also windows, so that they slide open and shut easily.

As for clothing, the Velcro you mention is wonderful. It can replace regular zippers and buttons without changing clothing style. Elastic in sleeves rather than buttons permits easy on-and-off maneuvers. I find capes better than sweaters and jackets. Slip-on shoes and slippers don't require bending over to put on or take off. The public should be aware of the many aids available.

Music Study Club installs new officers

Officers were installed at a Big Spring Music Club luncheon in the home of Mrs. Suncha Christensen, Saturday.

Officers installed were Carol Boyd, president; Jeanine Fishback, first vice president; Doris Mason, second vice-president; Thelma Carlile, recording secretary; Danna Moore, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Christensen, reporter-historian; Linda Lindell, treasurer; and Gaye Cowan, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Christensen installed the officers. Mrs. Lindell presented Mrs. Christensen with the president's pin and sang the president's song. May 6-13 is National Music Week. The next meeting will be in September.

Terri Hart honored at shower

Mrs. Terry Lee Hart, formerly Terri Lynn Boyett, was feted with a bridal shower and brunch at Wesley United Methodist Church in Memorial Hall, April 28.

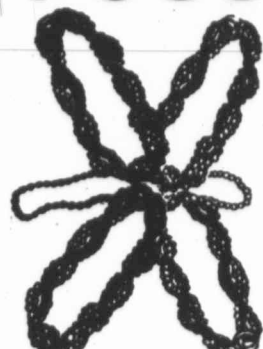

Hosting the event were Madeline Boadle, Wavie White, Pauline Garrison, Dorcas Bedford, Gladys Merrell, Pam Carlile, Ethel Pringle, Sue Ann Born, Shelane Roberts and LaVera Mitchell. They presented Mrs. Hart with an electric toaster, an electric can opener, a cookbook and a white carnation corsage accented with blue ribbon.

Special guests were Mrs. Bill Bodin, mother of the bride, Mrs. Travis Hart, step-mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Marvin Miller, the bridegroom's grandmother.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth, and centered a candelabrum holding blue candles.

The couple was married March 8 in the chapel of Wesley United Methodist Church with the Rev. Johnny Robertson, pastor, officiating.

Soviet pullout at LA not expected to hurt Olympics

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Olympic organizers insist the Summer Olympics "will break even" financially despite the Soviet Union's pullout, which one legislator blamed on "malicious ... almost barbaric" politics.

Harry Usher, executive vice president and general manager of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee, said the economic impact should be minimal if the Soviets stay home, with no risk to taxpayers. "We're set up so we can't go over into the red," Usher said Tuesday, confident that the Games' $500 million budget won't be battered by the Soviets' absence.

Usher said the $225 million broadcasting contract with ABC is "the only thing that changes financially." Provisions in the contract reduce ABC's payments if the Soviets and other Communist-bloc countries do not participate in the Games.

A published report in the Los Angeles Times said the LAOOC, the first private group to organize the Games, stands to lose up to $90 million from contracts that would be subject to "downward arbitration."

Meantime, he said, the organizing committee is keeping the door open for the Soviets to reconsider.

Because the Soviets have steadfastly stated that the final decision would not be made until late May, it "leads us to wonder how official all of this is."

During a press conference, Usher was asked if the Soviet announcement might be a trial balloon. He replied, "This balloon seems to have a lot of lead in it."

He said no plans have been made for Peter V. Ueberroth, LAOOC president, to fly to Moscow for a meeting with Soviet officials. An LAOOC delegation is in East Germany today for discussions, he confirmed.

The 150-plus eligible countries have until June 2 to officially notify the LAOOC of their intentions to attend the Games.

Asked what economic effect a

Soviet boycott would have, Usher said, "Virtually none." He said the number of tourists and visitors from the more than 20 Communist-bloc countries were "negligible."

Barring major setbacks, the LAOOC had predicted a surplus in excess of $15 million. However, that was based on a worse-case scenario, with the Soviets and their allies not participating, according to the Times.

The newspaper said two former high-ranking LAOOC officials said they saw financial projections in January that indicated the surplus could be as high as $110 million if the Soviets and Eastern bloc countries participated.

In backing out of the Games, the Soviets cited security concerns as a main issue.

Law enforcement agencies in Los Angeles sharply rejected the claim, with Sheriff Sherman Block characterizing it as "hogwash ... a ploy to extract some concessions from the U.S."

California based group takes responsibility for withdrawal

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Athletes, politicians, and ticket holders all had reason to be upset after the Soviet Union said it would not send athletes to the Summer Olympic Games, but one group basked in glory after the announcement.

"It's a great day for America," said E. Gene Vosseler, a coordinator for the Ban the Soviets Coalition, a group that has been organizing to either keep the Soviets out of the Games or encourage defections if USSR athletes do participate. "We're definitely responsible," for the Soviet Union's decision announced Tuesday not to attend the Summer Games, said David Balsiger, national executive director for Ban the Soviets.

"I'm sure they decided to pull out because the U.S. would not muzzle our coalition and agree to turn defectors back over to the KGB, which was probably the major reason they withdrew," he said.

In its Tuesday statement, the Soviet Union said it was pulling out of the Games because the United States could not guarantee the safety of Russian athletes.

"Extremist organizations and groupings of all sorts, openly aiming to create 'unbearable conditions for the stay of the Soviet delegation and performance by Soviet athletes, have sharply stepped up their activity with direct connivance of the American authorities," the Soviet statement said.

AWARD WINNERS — Winning the top awards handed out Tuesday at the Grady High School All-Sports Banquet were (left to right), Sandra Garza, Brenna Hale, Lino Cantu, Shanna Hale. Garza and Brenna were honored as the top senior lady athletes, Cantu claimed the Fighting Wildcat award and best all-around boy plaque and Shanna Hale was awarded the best all-around girl plaque.

MCC, San Jacinto carry best marks into state tournament

By BILLY NABOURS
Sports Editor

ABILENE — McLennan Community College of Waco and San Jacinto College of Pasadena appear to be the favorites when the State Junior College Baseball Tournament gets underway here at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 10 on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University.

The Highlanders (43-15) and Ravens (42-8) bring the best records into the double elimination, four day affair and the most tradition. MCC has won the tournament five straight years and is the defending national junior college champion. San Jac has come up the bridesmaid five consecutive years.

MCC won Region V with a 21-3 mark while San Jac took its Texas Junior College Athletic Conference (TJCAC) crown with an 18-2 slate. MCC, owners of 11 wins in 12 times against Howard College (including six this year), has a relentless hitting attack coupled with some solid pitching while San Jac coach Wayne Graham said his team, "has good speed along with talent, power and hitting."

Graham's statement is evidenced in the fact seven of this year's current Ravens have been drafted by major league teams.

That list includes ace pitcher Billy Dody (12-0) and pitching partners Blane Beatty and Steve Bowden. First baseman Damon Baldwin, catcher Pat Moore, shortstop Chris Moritz and centerfielder Joe Mikulak round out San Jac's list of potential pros.

Barring upsets, MCC and San Jac can not meet until the third round in the winner's bracket and that game would be at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 12.

San Jac gets things started Thursday at 11 p.m. by facing East Texas Junior College Conference (ETJCC) runnerup Panola (29-21).

MCC plays TJCAC runnerup Blinn College (24-15-1; 14-8) of Brenham at 5 p.m. Thursday. In between, Howard College faces Angelina at 2 p.m. (see Herald sports Tuesday, May 8).

In Panola, the Ravens are facing last year's ETJC champion. This year the Ponies slipped to 10-6 while Angelina used a hot streak to take the title. Angelina, 1-20 at one point in the season, comes in with a 14-0 conference mark and has won 18 of its last 20 games.

Blinn, runnerup to San Jac for a second straight year, is "really wanting to play," MCC said Blinn coach Leory Dreyer.

In addition to the three opening round games at 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., one loser's bracket game will be played at 8 p.m. pitting the losers from the Panola-San Jac and Howard-Angelina contests.

Action picks up again on Friday at 1 p.m. on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University.

Grady athletes feted with banquet

GRADY — Brenna and Shanna Hale, Sandra Garza and Lino Cantu were the major award winners at the Grady All-Sports Banquet held here Tuesday night.

Seniors Brenna Hale and Garza were honored as Grady's Lady Athletes for 1983-84 and Shanna Hale, a sophomore who set school records in the long jump, 800 meters and 1600 meters and was Grady's first state meet participant ever, was honored as the Best All-Around Girl Athlete.

Cantu, a senior and a Six-Man Coaches Association All-Star Basketball selection and alternate for the SMCA All-Star football team, garnered Best All-Around Boy Athlete honors and Fighting Wildcat award.

The banquet departed from traditional format in that there was no guest speaker, but coaches Richard Gibson, Ted Bedwell, Lynn Maxwell and Johnny Tubb all had praising remarks when presenting awards. In special presentations, Myrl Mitchell and Eddie Odom were presented with plaques for their years of service on the Grady school board and support of the school's athletic and academic accomplishments. Lucille Farrington was honored for her service and work connected with the Grady Booster Club and Tubb, who is the boys basketball coach, was given an award for his work with Grady's UIL mathematics contestants.

Akeem's agent tells NBA no rules broken

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The agent for Akeem Olujuwon says he has told the National Basketball Association that neither the Portland Trail Blazers nor the Houston Rockets violated NBA rules by contacting his 7-foot client.

Michael McKenzie, a Houston businessman representing Olujuwon, said he called the NBA Tuesday morning.

"I'm telling you exactly what I told them this morning: There were no contracts, no money from either club," he said.

On Monday, NBA Commissioner David Stern announced that the league was investigating charges that the Blazers and Rockets had contacted both the University of Houston center and Georgetown's Patrick Ewaf before the May 5 deadline for undergraduates to apply for the NBA draft.

Stern also postponed Thursday's coin flip between the two clubs for the No. 1 pick until after a May 17 hearing.

The New York Post reported April 27 that Olujuwon had already agreed with the Blazers for a seven-year contract that would pay him $1.2 million a year. Both Olujuwon and the Blazers denied the report.

"If Akeem asked me, I'd tell him that's too long of a contract," McKenzie said. "With the way inflation is spiraling, he'd be working for nothing by the time that contract ran out."

"And two, if (Ralph) Sampson makes $1.3 a year, and Moses Malone makes $2.3, well, $1.2 is too low. Akeem should be somewhere in between."

McKenzie said he didn't speak directly with Stern when he called Tuesday, but instead with "someone named Russ." The NBA Guide lists a Russell Granik at the NBA's general counsel, but a league spokesman wouldn't say if it was Granik with whom McKenzie spoke.

TEERING OFF — Domingo Guerra was one part of a foursome at the recent Comanche Trail Partnership Golf Tournament that also consisted of Matt Nunez, Joe Trevino and Albert Rodriguez. Club pro Al Patterson said the field was one of the largest ever. For additional information about the tourney see 2B.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A great day for you to carry through with whatever course of action has already been decided upon and for you to show off how well you can reduce your ideas to a working success.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Good day to discuss with experts how to improve your work routines and become more efficient. Be cooperative with associates.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Sit down with associates and know just what is expected of you and how to have more mutual success in the days ahead.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You can improve home conditions by agreeing with ideas of kin more. Don't neglect younger persons who are eager for guidance.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Get in touch with persons who know all about entertainment that is foreign to you but would like to get into.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Study monetary brochures before you handle whatever it is you have in mind and become better informed.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Be sure you know your true desires before going after them since there is every chance you will gain them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Get busy and make a workable plan for the days ahead and then put it quickly in operation. Make life easier by being modern.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Try to get friends to help you in your aims and take suggestions that can bring you greater success.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Study what your true position is with those who can assist you in your worldly goals. State your ideas and ambitions.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Find the right interests through which you can make progress in some plan that you have. Be tactful.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you have handled those duties that your mate requested, your romantic life is fine, but if not, get them done quickly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) If you don't like terms of a contract with partners, say so, but be very precise. Avoid one who has an eye on your assets.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one who will get along well with associates because of the ability to find out what is expected of him, or her and also gain their good will. However, there could be a streak of stubbornness here that has to be curbed.

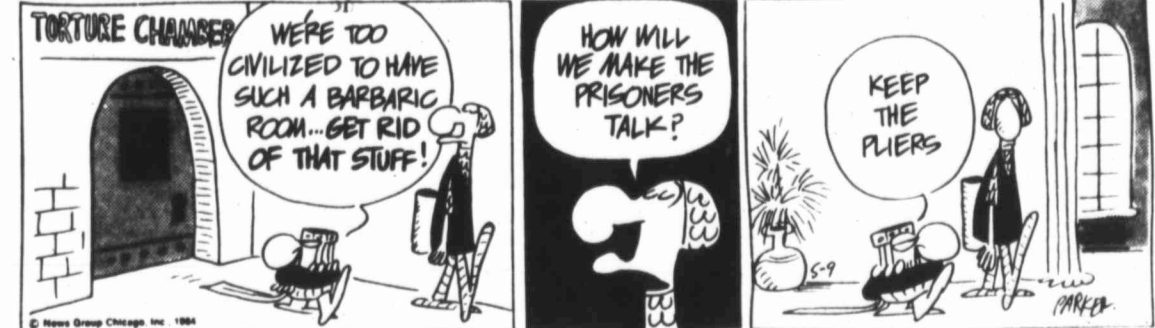

"The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

PUBLIC NOTICE

Statement of nondiscrimination
 Cap Rock Electric Cooperative, Inc. has filed with the Federal Government a compliance Assurance in which it assures the Rural Electrification Administration that it will comply fully with all requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Agriculture issued thereunder, to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in the conduct of its program and the operation of its facilities. Under this Assurance, this organization is committed not to discriminate against any person on the ground of race, color or national origin in its policies and practices relating to applications for service or any other policies and practices relating to treatment of beneficiaries and participants including rates, conditions and extension of service, use of any of its facilities, attendance at and participation in any meetings of beneficiaries and participants to the exercise of any rights of such beneficiaries and participants in the conduct of the operations of this organization.
 Any person who believes himself, or any specific class of individuals, to be subjected by this organization to discrimination prohibited by Title VI of the Act and the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder may, by himself or a representative, file with the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, or the Rural Electrification Administration, Washington, D.C. 20250, or this organization, or all, a written complaint. Such complaint must be filed not later than 180 days after the alleged discrimination, or by such later date to which the Secretary of Agriculture or the Rural Electrification Administration extends the time for filing. Identity of complainants will be kept confidential except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Rules and Regulations.

Manifestacion de no discriminacion
 Cap Rock Electric Cooperative, Inc. archivo con el Gobierno Federal un decreto que le asegura a la Administracion Rural de Electrification de cumplir conforme los requisitos de la ley que estan en el Titulo VI en el Acto de los Derechos Civiles del 1964 y tambien las Reglas y Regularmientos del Departamento de Agricultura y todo lo que publica en particular de que ninguna persona en los Estados Unidos sera por razon de raza, color, o origen nacional excluido de participar, o negar los beneficios, o que se cree sujeto a discriminacion en la conducta de los programas y operaciones de las facilidades. Bajo este decreto esta organizacion se a cometido de no discriminar contra ninguna persona por razon de raza, color, o origen nacional en sus politicas y en su ejercicio en relacion a las aplicaciones de servicios y tambien en cualquier otra politicas y ejercicio en relacion a los tratamientos de beneficio y participar en los negocios de estimares, o en las condiciones y extensiones de servicios, o en el uso de las facilidades, o atender y participar en las juntas de beneficio, o negar los derechos de expresar los ejercicios en la conducta de las operaciones de esta organizacion.
 Cualquier persona que se cree asi mismo, o cualquier individuo de cualquier clase especifico, que se cree sujeto a discriminacion por esta organizacion, o que la organizacion a prohibido la ley en Titulo VI de la Acta y tambien las Reglas y Regularmientos puede a la persona mismo, o con un representante, archivar con el Secretario de Agricultura en Washington D.C., 20250, o con el Rural Electrification Administration Washington D.C., 20250, con una "queja escrita." La "queja escrita" debe de ser archivada, no mas tarde de 180 dias despues de que la discriminacion fue cometido. El Secretario de Agricultura, o la Administracion Rural de Electrification puede extender el tiempo de archivar si es necesario. La identidad del individuo que fabrica la "queja escrita" sera confidencial, excepto con la necesidad de extender las intenciones nada mas en las Reglas y Regularmientos.
