Farm bill proposal studied

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

U.S. Rep. Charles Stenholm (D-Stamford) wants his proposed legislation to set a permanent method of determining crop yields and bases passed by the House Agriculture Committee by the end of the session, according to his agricultural aide, Randy Green.

"He wants to get it done this year because the sexy issues like target prices and price supports will be coming up in 1985, and some of these other things will fall through the cracks," Green said. He and another Stenholm aide, Dale King of Stamford, were in town Thursday night for a meeting with area farmers and ranchers.

"The basic thing we're trying to do (in the proposed legislation) is document production," King said. He agreed with one of the farmers in the audience that the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office documents acreage production, but said they were continually re-interpreting the data, depending on the politics of the administration in power.

"Every farm program I've ever seen was addressed at a problem we already had," King said. "Why can't we address a long-range program rather than just fighting forest fires? Bases and yields are the place to begin."

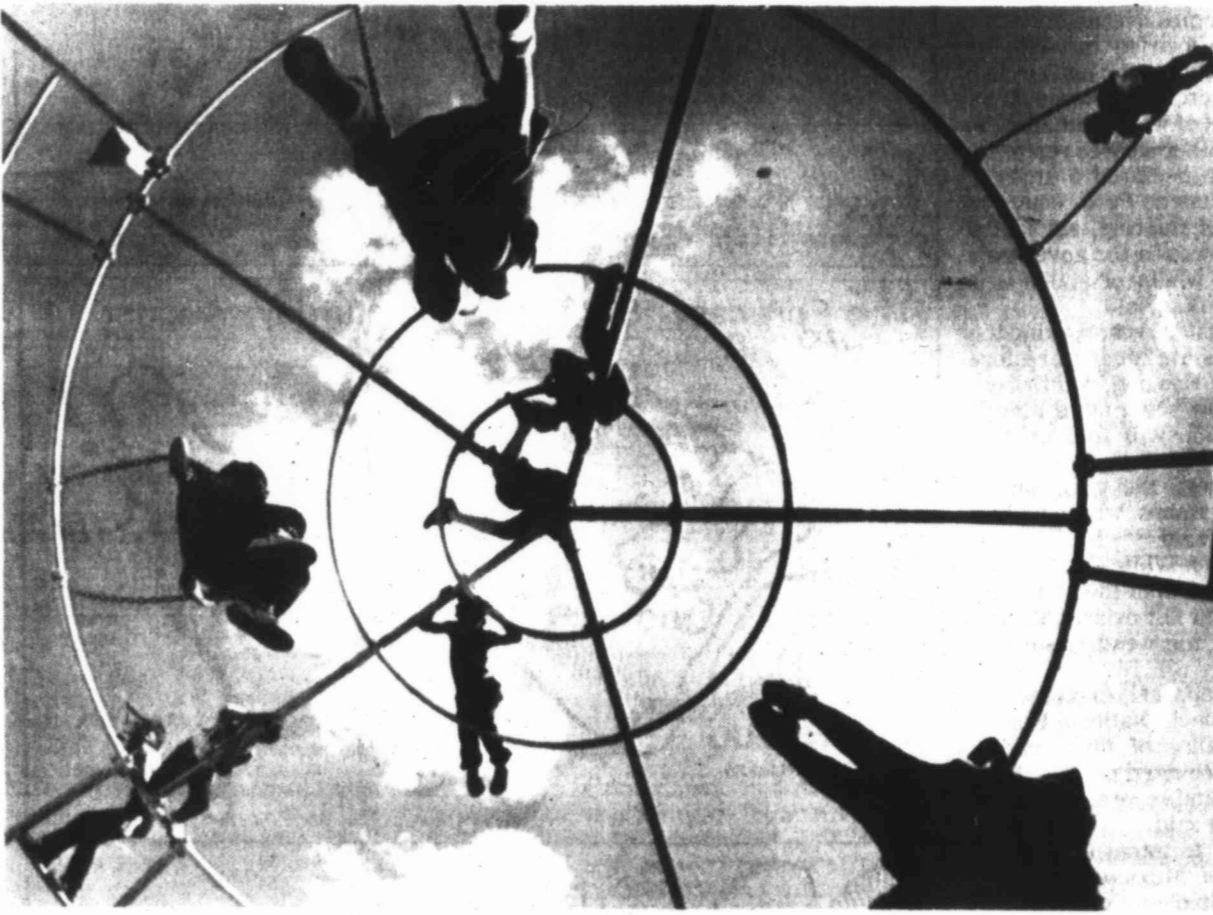

Stenholm's bill, if passed, would:

• Establish a farm acreage base on a rolling five-year average for farms on which wheat, upland cotton, rice or feedgrains were grown at least one year between 1981-1985.

• Establish a crop acreage base equal to a rolling five-year average of the total acreage considered planted for the crop in question, and would not exceed the farm acreage base except in cases of double cropping.

• Allow the county ASCS committee a great amount of flexibility in increasing or decreasing the crop acreage base by a maximum of 10 percent of the farm acreage base, and would not change the farm acreage base for the year. County ASCS committees must receive notice of the change 60 days prior to the earliest program announcement date.

Veteran journeys to reunion

By LUIS RIOS
Staff Writer

It was a giant step back in time for Ross Callihan and 860 other World War II veterans when they gathered for the 37th Annual CBI Veterans' Association Reunion in San Antonio last weekend.

Callihan, 64, is a life-long Howard County resident. The retired Southwestern Bell Telephone employee was stationed in the Far East in the China-Burma-India Theater.

"We were kind of a lost outfit," Callihan said. "We got the last part of everything."

Callihan was stationed in Calcutta following the bombing of Pearl Harbor. He returned to Big Spring before the war was over in 1945.

Forty years had passed since he had seen any of the men, he said. Changes were inevitable, but the men were still the same.

"I was a little nervous," Callihan said. "I was not knowing what to expect. We had kept in touch, but I had not seen many of the men."

"There is something unique

about this organization. It is like a family, if you could call it that. Even if you are a complete stranger someone will ask you who you are, where you are from and where have you been."

With the war merely a memory now, the conversation at the reunion centered around the lighter side of the war, Callihan said.

"One fella' did not know what he was going to say when people asked him where he had been shot," he said. "He was crawling when he was shot there."

Although the men in the China-Burma-India campaign were not as well-equipped as soldiers in the Pacific campaign, they were not lacking in sheer brute and determination.

"In this respect, when we got there we did not have much of anything," Callihan said. "I had my pack, rifle, 20 rounds of ammunition and two grenades. And the supplies were slow in coming."

The biggest difference between World War II and other conflicts and wars fought since is that the United States had intentions of winning the war.

"What made the situation worse in Korea and Vietnam was that they went in there with one hand tied behind their back," Callihan said. "We went over there to win the war."

Fiberflex hearing slated

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

118th District Court Judge Jim Gregg has set a 10 a.m. Thursday hearing to decide whether to grant a temporary injunction against Fiberflex Products Inc. corporate officers in the latest installment of a battle for control of the company's stock.

Former O.I.L. president Charles "Chris" Christopher, who claims he controls a majority of corporate stock after receiving 31,500 shares in an out-of-court settlement, and Fiberflex director Billy Massingill filed a motion late Thursday for a temporary injunction.

Christopher and Massingill are asking the court to restrain corporate officers Tom Rutledge, Russ Rutledge and John Freeman from voting the 31,500 shares formerly owned by company patent attorney Guy Matthews as well as almost 17,000 other shares at a special shareholders meeting Christopher called for 10 a.m. Aug. 18.

The purpose of the shareholders' meeting, according to a notice filed in district court, is to reduce the current 15-member board of directors to a 10-member board. Removed from the board would be Tom Rutledge, Russ Rutledge, their father, W.T. "Woody" Rutledge Sr., Freeman and Fred Morrow.

The Rutledges and Freeman were granted 11-month proxies on all the stock in question, as well as a 10-year voting rights agreement on Matthews' stock. In a trial earlier this week, retired 118th District Judge Ralph Caton ruled that a foreclosure sale of 20,000 shares of Matthews' stock invalidated the voting rights agreement on that stock.

However, Caton has not ruled that the Rutledges' right to vote the other 11,500 shares Matthews sold to Christopher Tuesday was affected.

Christopher and Massingill in a suit filed Wednesday have asked the court to rule that agreements held by the Rutledges and Freeman are no longer valid, and that later voting rights agreements benefiting Christopher and Massingill be upheld.

Sailing patterns mapped

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — French and U.S. minesweepers headed for the Red Sea on Friday and Egypt, which suspects Iran and Libya of laying mines in the sealanes, said it would close the Suez Canal to any country proven to be responsible.

Egyptian Defense Minister Abdel-Halim Abu-Ghazala told reporters in Cairo that officials are studying "some unusual sailing patterns" by ships before the start last month of explosions that are believed to have damaged 14 ships.

"We are studying the timing of the explosions in relation to the timing of passage through the Suez Canal of certain ships. There is some suspicion that they are Libyan and Iranian ships but we don't have any proof," he said.

"There is also some intelligence information (implicating Iran and Libya) but it is not confirmed," he said. "We have to have solid proof before we do anything."

President Hosni Mubarak said Egypt would use the power given it in an 1888 agreement to close the canal to whichever country is responsible for the mines. Abu-Ghazala said Egypt also reserves the right to "retaliate in any other way that we think is proper."

Asked about an article in the state-owned Al Ahran newspaper accusing Libya and Iran of responsibility, Mubarak said: "I think See RED SEA page 2-A

Summer session set for SWCID students

By CAROL BALDWIN
Staff Writer

Forty students are expected on the campus of the SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf Sunday for a 2½-week summer orientation program.

Terry Dobson, program coordinator, said the event will give administrators and students an idea of what is needed during the coming semester. "It will give us a chance to take a look at the students and see what skills they have," Dobson said.

The session will give new students a chance to look at various programs and learn what will be expected of them as a student at SWCID.

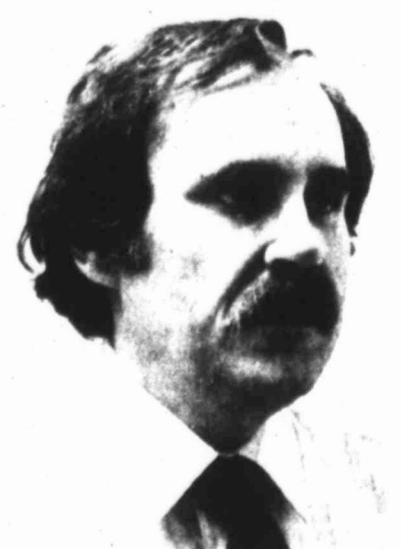

Dobson said administrators decided last summer that "an instructional program (in the summer) wasn't very beneficial."

Dobson said most of the new students participating in the program have high IQ's but have had difficulty in some areas of education. Putting students into programs that are frustrating is something SWCID administrators want to avoid.

"If a student just doesn't have the skills needed (for certain coursework,) it is frustrating to the student and to the instructor," Dobson said.

Dobson said, "we want to retain more of these students later by helping them now. If they get frustrated they will drop out."

Dobson said the program is "streamlined so the students can get some idea of what they want to go into." The session is aimed primarily at vocational-technical classes.

Students will be in a "very structured atmosphere. They will not have a lot of time to themselves" during the session, Dobson said. The program will begin at 7:45 a.m. and continue until about 9:30 p.m. each day.

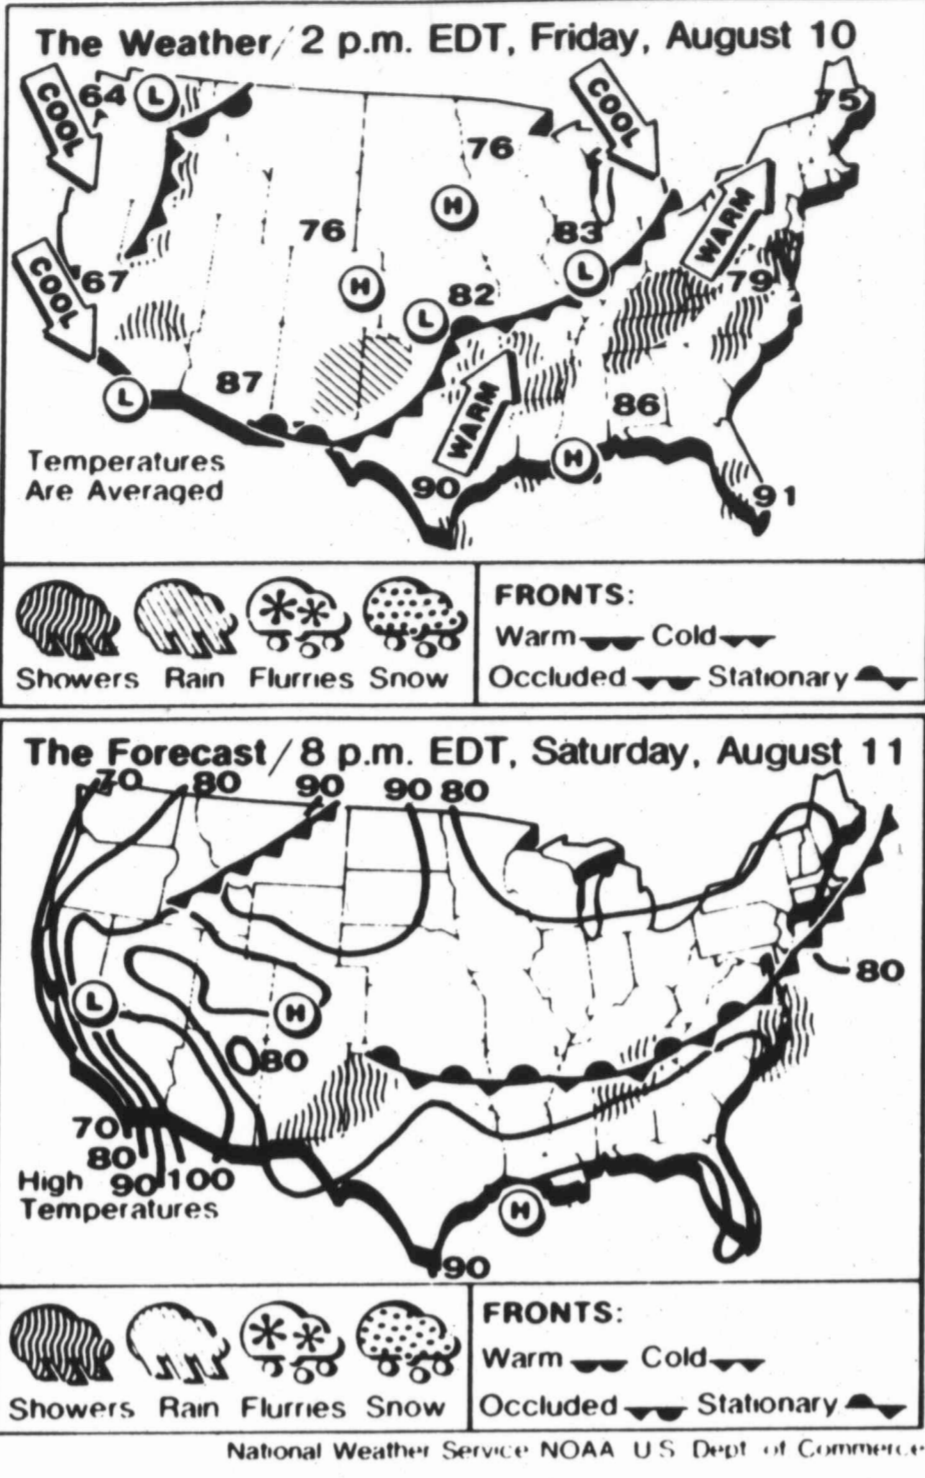

During the session, students will participate in testing and will work in nine different vocational areas, including drafting, residential maintenance, business, word processing, computers, automotive repair, automotive technology, dental lab technology and paraprofessional services for the hearing impaired.

Explosion kills 2

BEIRUT, Lebanon — A chain-reaction explosion set off by a militiaman's careless handling of a grenade ripped through a 10-story building Friday, killing two men and wounding 11.

Five explosions rocked mostly Moslem west Beirut overnight, and the army command warned of "attempts to sabotage the security plan" aimed at extending state control beyond the capital.

Police said two men were killed and 11 wounded in Beir Al-Abed, a southern suburb of Beirut, in a building that houses a security office and an arms depot of Lebanon's dominant Shiite Moslem Amal militia.

The police and Amal said the blasts began when a hand grenade went off accidentally as a militiaman was "toying with it." That explosion set off a nearby box of grenades. State radio said the initial explosions set off a series of blasts in an Amal arms depot in the basement of the building.

The militiaman who set off the first grenade was killed, along with a colleague.

Guerilla killed

BOGOTA — A leader of the leftist April 19 Movement, Dr. Carlos Toledo Plata, was shot and killed by assassins on a motorcycle Friday, four days before the rebel group was to sign a truce with the government, his wife said.

Toledo, ideological leader of the insurgent organization, was shot five times at close range as he left his home in Bucaramanga, eastern Colombia, Mrs. Toledo said in a broadcast interview.

Toledo, a , emerged from hiding and received amnesty from the government last December. He had been living with his wife in Bucaramanga.

She told the Colombian radio chain Todelar that her husband had left the house and was getting into his car when a young man got off a motorcycle, shot Toledo, climbed back onto the motorcycle and sped away with his partner.

The April 19 Movement has been Colombia's most active leftist guerrilla group since its guerrillas shot their way into the Dominican Republic's embassy in Bogota on Feb. 17, 1980. They took captive about three dozen people attending a diplomatic reception and held about half of them, including U.S. Ambassador Diego Asencio, for two months at the embassy.

Asencio and other captive eventually were freed in exchange for a ransom estimated to be $1 million. The guerrillas also gained safe passage to Cuba.

Naval target hit

IRAQ — Iraq said Friday that its naval forces attacked and destroyed "a small naval target" that "flames were seen rising" from it. The Baghdad radio broadcast, monitored in London, gave no details.

Persian Gulf shipping sources in Bahrain said no distress signals were picked up, and a spokesman for Lloyd's of London shipping intelligence department in London said the insurance underwriters had received no word of a new attack by Iraq in the Persian Gulf.

5 Klansmen arrested for hurting couple

ATLANTA (AP) — Five Ku Klux Klansmen were arrested Friday for allegedly breaking into homes at night and assaulting an interracial couple and a white woman believed to be associating with blacks, the Justice Department announced.

The indictments were handed up Wednesday night by a federal grand jury here and announced Friday in Washington by U.S. Assistant Attorney General William Bradford Reynolds, head of the Justice Department's civil rights division.

Justice Department officials said the indictments marked the biggest case they and FBI agents have yet brought involving what they called an emerging form of Klan violence — break-ins and beatings at the homes of people believed associating with other races.

Factory town placed under curfew

LAWRENCE, Mass. — A state of emergency was declared and a dusk-to-dawn curfew imposed in this factory town Friday after tensions between whites and Hispanics boiled over into a second night of rioting and firebombing.

"I am satisfied that a riot or other civil disorder may occur and that a curfew is necessary," Mayor John Buckley said in announcing the curfew, which bars all activity in a three-by-four-block area of the declining, blue-collar Tower Hill neighborhood.

Under the order, only police and emergency vehicles will be allowed on the street from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m., "places of amusement and entertainment" were closed and a ban on liquor sales, begun Wednesday, was continued. Violators will face up to six months in jail and $500 fine.

In Boston, Gov. Michael Dukakis appealed in both English and Spanish for an end to the violence. "It is time for the healing to begin," Dukakis said at a news conference.

Veteran actor dead at 62

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Character actor Richard Deacon, who appeared in numerous television series including "Leave It to Beaver" and "The Dick Van Dyke Show," is dead of an apparent heart attack at age 62.

Gold said Deacon's death was of "apparent natural causes," possibly a heart seizure.

NEW YORK — Singer Billy Joel has won the hand of his "Uptown Girl" — model Christie Brinkley — and the two plan to wed in a quiet ceremony, two newspapers report.

The couple, who have been dating for a year, have not set a date for the wedding and are planning a quiet affair limited to family and close friends, both newspapers reported.

The Post said Joel presented Miss Brinkley with a five-carat solitaire engagement ring, while the News said simply that the ring was "large."

How to keep brass beautiful

Despite its need for constant cleaning, most of us enjoy the rich golden color of brass in hardware, lighting fixtures and furnishings. With little time to clean, however, it's important to prolong the effect of a polishing job and to keep brass looking good.

Solid brass is a fairly durable alloy of copper and zinc, while brass plating is a thin layer of brass bonded to a steel base. Solid brass can take much harsher cleaning than plated brass. Use a magnet to test for plating. A magnet will stick to the steel beneath plated brass, but not to solid brass.

Tarnish doesn't harm brass, and can create an "antique" look. But tarnish tends to darken with time, so if you want to see detail or have a lighter look in your brass, polishing is necessary.

First remove the old protective coating. Brass is usually sealed with clear lacquer, varnish or epoxy. Where the coating nicks or wears away, it tarnishes from oxidation.

Since you typically won't know which sealer was used, experiment. Chemical strippers or acetone (nail polish remover) may do the trick. Wear rubber gloves, work in a well-ventilated area and use very fine steel wool (0000) to remove the coating without scratching the brass. Traces of residue left by the stripper should be removed with detergent and water.

For less harsh lacquer removal, make a bath from household products. Dismantle the piece before soaking in a mixture of the following:

*1 part ammonia to 2 parts hot water, or

*1 part vinegar to 2 parts hot water, or

*4 tablespoons baking soda to one quart boiling water.

For polishing solid brass, you can use a commercial brass cleaner in liquid or paste form. Liquid cleaners containing a very fine abrasive do a good job in the tarnish, but may leave residue in joints or carved areas if not completely removed. Both types of cleaner require elbow grease where tarnish is heavy.

Brass polish can damage wood finishes. So when cleaning brass hardware in place, tape light cardboard snugly around it to protect the wood underneath.

Apply all polishes with a soft cloth in one direction, either along the length of the piece or in the direction in which it's been turned. Continue to polish with clean parts of the cloth so tarnish won't be rubbed back into the brass.

Homemade concoctions of ammonia, lemon, or a mixture of vinegar and salt will also remove tarnish. Submerge and soak the piece, then work with 0000 steel wool. When the tarnish is completely removed, polish with a soft cloth and a fine polish.

Brass plating is usually coated with a clear protective sealer which must be removed. The same stripping solutions for solid brass can be used on brass plating, they don't contain abrasives.

Since the thin coating of brass is easily removed from plated brass, don't buff, use vinegar and lemon, or use abrasives, like steel wool. Many mild commercial polishes may work on brass plating, but do a test patch when using anything stronger than detergent and water.

Use tung oil, commercial brass wax or lacquer to prolong and protect the polishing job. First make sure the brass is clean and free of fingerprints, polishing compounds and other substances. Since fingerprints will show up under the finish, wear rubber gloves when handling the piece. Use lacquer thinner to remove traces of polish and greasy fingerprints.

To apply a tung oil finish, place the brass in a 150 degree oven for 20 minutes before applying the oil with a soft cloth. Let the piece dry at least four hours. Apply commercial brass wax the same way.

Lacquer can diminish the brilliance of brass, but it may be worth the sacrifice to protect it. Brass may be either dipped or sprayed with lacquer. Do the job on a clear day when humidity is low. Speed up drying time by warming the piece with a heat lamp or hair dryer before lacquering.

For lacquer dipping, make a 50-50 solution of lacquer and thinner. Dip the brass, hang, and let it dry five to 15 minutes. Once you have lacquered a piece, avoid brass polish or ammonia-based cleaners. Instead, clean with a mild detergent, rinse, wipe dry and take a break from polishing.

R for your garden

by Don Richardson

Add zest to your summer garden

Do you like bright splashes of color in your gardens and bouquets, or do you favor pastels? Perhaps rich shades in between are your preference. Whatever your choice, there's a zinnia for you!

Red, purple, orange, pink, rose, salmon, yellow and white — that's the palette of zinnias you can enjoy. They're not only beautiful, they're easy to grow, too. They bloom fast from direct-sown or your transplants, and they keep right on flowering until fall frost.

Zinnias can be directly seeded in mid-summer and will produce an abundance of color until late fall. Hot weather doesn't seem to bother them as long as they get a good soaking every 5 to 7 days.

Zinnias are easy to grow, even for beginners. They need sun — at least 5 to 6 hours daily for satisfactory bloom — warmth, and well-drained soil which doesn't hold puddles after a heavy rain. Choose an area free from competing tree and shrub roots.

Working up the soil by spading to a depth of 6 to 8 inches, incorporate any fertilizer needed at this time. A soil test will give you the best indication of any fertilizer needed; however, an application of a complete fertilizer at the rate recommended on the container is usually satisfactory.

Level and pulverize the top few inches of soil. Sow zinnia seeds evenly and thinly, and cover with 1/4 inch of fine soil. Keep the soil slightly moist all the time until the seedlings are up and growing well. They usually emerge about 7 to 10 days after planting.

When the seedlings have one or two pairs of true leaves (not counting the pair that unfolded at emergence), thin or transplant to the distances recommended on the seed packets. As a general rule, large-flowered zinnias need at least 18 to 24 inches of growing space in all directions, and small-flowered zinnias need 12 top 15 inches.

Thinning is very important, because it gives the remaining plants the room they need to thrive. Crowded plants often grow spindly, excessively tall and are more prone to disease, including mildew.

Mildew is the most common problem affecting these relatively carefree plants. The disease is most apt to strike during damp, cool weather, especially late in the season. You can reduce the risk of mildew by spacing your plants as recommended on seed packets to avoid crowding and allow good air circulation. Water zinnias at ground level so leaves don't get wet. The Zenith hybrid zinnias, which have won five All-American awards, are somewhat resistant to mildew. If mildew becomes a problem excellent control can be obtained with Funginex.

Tall or short plants, large or small flowers, solid colors or bicolors — take your pick. There are zinnias for just about every garden purpose.

Dr. Donohue

After stroke expect depression

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: Is depression expected in all stroke victims? My husband who is 49, had a stroke recently that affected his right side, his working side. He does not seem to want help, and doesn't want to try to speak, although we are told his stroke was not severe and that real improvement is possible. Is depression a part of the picture? — Mrs. B.A.

You must expect a certain degree of depression in the post-stroke patient; that's natural. The person reacts to the loss of the part of his or her physical functioning. A study indicates that the depression is greatest in the first several months, before the person is able to shake himself free of the feelings.

Your husband requires close family support during this time. That is particularly important in the rehabilitation efforts being made, for therapy is always most effective in the earliest weeks and months.

Around half of all stroke victims have serious depressions afterwards. Nortriptyline has proven to be a very effective drug in alleviating many stroke victims' depression.

I think you will note some improvement soon, so keep trying. The booklet, "Stroke Recovery — Hope and Help" discusses this. Other readers may order a copy by writing me care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and $1.00 for printing and handling.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: How reliable is ultrasound in showing the presence of an ovarian cyst? What percentage are missed in this procedure? Enjoy your column. — N.W.

Conscience does not allow me to state simply that ultrasound is very reliable in this regard, so I looked it up. Ultrasound is 91 percent accurate in detection, localization and size determination of growths (cysts, tumors, etc.) in the pelvis, and that includes those on the ovary. One qualification: The growths have to be 2-3 centimeters (about an inch) in diameter to be picked up.

Dear Abby

Lady concerned about chemicals

DEAR ABBY: I clean house for a well-to-do lady twice a week. She has several small grandchildren that I know she loves, but I am shocked that this same lady, who will not drive a block without buckling up her grandbabies, leaves the dishwasher detergent and drain crystals under her kitchen sink. (The toilet bowl crystals are under her bathroom sink.)

Everyone knows that these chemicals are very dangerous to a child, and I told the lady so. She acted insulted, and said she always watches her grandchildren carefully while they are in her home.

I tried putting these boxes in higher cabinets, but the lady got mad, said it was too "inconvenient" and put them back under the sink.

Abby, those chemicals can kill a child if he takes a fistful in his mouth.

Please print this for all the granies and mommies to see. I'm sure this lady's daughters-in-law would be shocked if they knew these poisons were within reach of their children. Should I tell them?

LILLIAN: Yes. And the sooner the better. It may cost you your job, but if you don't tell, it may cost a child his life.

DEAR ABBY: It's all in the past, thank God, but I hope you will print this because there is a lesson for parents here.

For five years, my husband (he's now my ex) abused me verbally at home, at family gatherings and even in public. He did this in front of our young son and my parents. How I wished someone had said to him, "Don't talk to her like that!"

Nobody came to my defense, not even my parents, so I started to believe his abuse was OK. Soon, the verbal abuse led to physical abuse. After a while, my son saw me taking all this punishment and he grew to have no respect for me.

To make a long story short, a dear friend saw what was happening to me and she made me get professional help. Now I realize I could have been spared years of pain if my parents had taken my part.

A LESSON FOR PARENTS
DEAR LESSON: The lesson here is not for parents, it's for any wife who permits herself to be abused. When your husband first started to abuse you verbally, you should have said, "Don't you talk to me like that!"

Had you spoken up in defense of yourself, you may have been spared years of pain.

(If your social life in a slump? Lonely? Get Abby's updated, revised and expanded booklet, "How to Be Popular" — for people of all ages. Send your name and address clearly printed with a check or money order for $2.50 (this includes postage) to: Abby, Popularity, P.O. Box 38923, Hollywood, Calif. 90038.)

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age.

Chicago, Ill. — A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest hearing aid Beltone has ever developed will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

It's yours for the asking, so send for it now. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. The actual aid weighs less than an eighth of an ounce, and it fits completely into the ear canal.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Although a hearing aid may not help everyone, more and more people with hearing losses are being helped. For your free sample write today to: Department 59376, Beltone Electronics Corporation, 4201 West Victoria Street, Chicago, IL 60646.

Gregory Jones finalist for 'Carrier of Year'

Gregory Michael Jones, a Big Spring Herald carrier, is one of three finalists for the Texas Youth Carrier of the Year contest sponsored by the Texas Daily Newspaper Association and the Texas Circulation Management Association.

Gregory won a $375 cash award from TDNA. If selected as Carrier of the Year, he will win an additional $375 from TDNA and TCMA. Final selection will be made after personal interviews with the finalists at the TCMA board of directors meeting this month.

The announcement will be made at the TCMA meeting this October in Austin.

Gregory, who lives at 3301 Auburn, is 13. He has been a Herald carrier since 1982.

Gregory said, "My paper route has been a source of money and it has taught me the responsibilities of money management. It has shown me the importance of doing a job to the limit of your abilities and the benefits that will come from a job well done."

"My paper route is more than a source of income to me because I have come to enjoy giving good service. It allows me to ease some of the expenses of my parents, and to save money for my college education."

Greg has been the Big Spring Herald Carrier of the Month and Carrier of the Year. Because of good service on his route, he has won trips to Carlsbad beach and Six Flags over Texas, Chuck Benz, circulation manager, said.

Customers on Gregory's route have said, "We always receive the paper on time. He is very consistent." Other comments include, "Best carrier in Big Spring. We can set our watch by his delivery." Also, "He is consistent, always on time and the newspaper is on the porch. He's the best carrier we've had in 13 years."

District sales manager George Fautleroy said, "Gregory is one of the finest youngsters I have ever had the pleasure of working with. He is very honest and straightforward in all his dealings...He would serve well as 'Texas Carrier of the Year.'"

Gregory plans to attend Abilene Christian University and major in business management. He is a member of the Signal class at Runnels Junior High School. The class is designed for advanced students. He is also in scouting and active in his church.

Farmers are struggling

Have you heard the one about the farmer who won a million dollar lottery? When asked what he was going to do with all the money, he replied, "Reckon I'll just keep farming 'til I use it all up."

That sums up the frustration felt by area farmers at a meeting with Congressman Charles Stenholm's agriculture aides Thursday. Between the high cost of borrowing money and inflation coupled with low margin of profits, farmers are struggling; then add a drought that hangs on and it becomes a losing battle.

Stenholm's aides, Dale King and Randy Green, came primarily to present a summary of the agriculture efficiency and equity act Stenholm's proposing, and to get the area farmer's feedback.

Merritt Sprague, general manager of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, and Stenholm will be in Big Spring Aug. 20 to meet with farmers about their farm insurance. The meeting is at 2 p.m. in the Cactus Room at Howard College.

Stenholm's annual Funday will be Saturday, Sept. 8. This big, outdoor picnic in Stamford draws hundreds.

West Texas' first full-fledged business exposition will debut Sept. 11-13 in Lubbock. The U.S. Business Expo will be in the Memorial Civic Center in downtown Lubbock. Early projections indicate 20,000 business and industrial decision makers will attend.

Doris Vieregge, president of the Big Spring Art Association, has released plans for a "Meet the Artists Reception" to be held Sept. 15-16. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the YMCA where a Paris setting will be the theme. The reception will continue Sunday from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Artists should contact Doris at 263-3224.

Oil patch prospects looking up

HOUSTON (AP) — Suppliers of equipment and services to the oil patch can look forward to better times in the coming year because of favorable conditions for oil and gas exploration, industry executives say.

"Although the outlook for a rapid increase in demand for oil and gas is not encouraging today, the very conditions that create difficulty for you ... create unusually favorable conditions for the business of exploration and development of oil and gas," J.C. Walter, chairman of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association said Wednesday.

Although wellhead prices for oil and gas are down 15 percent from all-time highs, costs for drilling, services and equipment are down 30 percent, he said.

C.R. Anthony company notes founder's birthday

The C.R. Anthony Company, which has a store in Big Spring's College Park Shopping Center, celebrated the 100th birthday of its founder, Charles Ross Anthony, this week.

Anthony was born in Gibson County, Tenn., on Aug. 10, 1884. He was raised in poverty, orphaned, then founded a major American retail company from one small dry goods store in 1922 in Cushing, Okla.

Anthony served as a J.C. Penney store manager in Idaho for several years and incorporated many Penney business methods into his own company.

The first Anthony store was known as the "Dixie Store," and originally planned as part of the J.P. Martin chain. The store became Anthony's after Martin decided not to enlarge his chain.

The "Dixie Store" grew into a chain and was incorporated in 1926. The C.R. Anthony Company moved to new headquarters in Oklahoma City.

Throughout the years, Anthony was the recipient of many awards, including induction into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame, recognition by the Oklahoma City United Fund and the Big Brothers Organization.

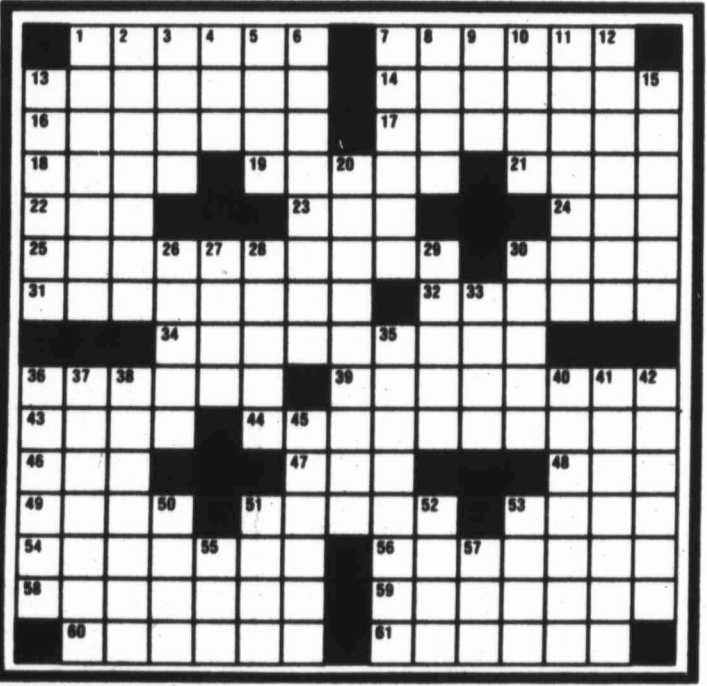

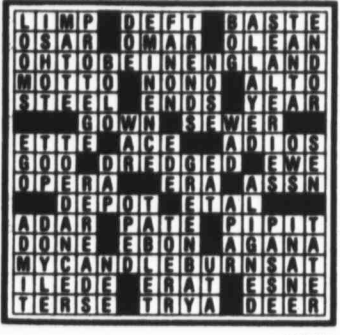

In 1963, he was presented the Horatio Alger award, given each year to Americans who overcome humble beginnings and adversity to achieve unusual successes in their fields.

Anthony died June 16, 1976, at 91. The Anthony chain has more than 7,000 employees and some 300 stores in 21 states.

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

SUNDAY, AUGUST 12, 1984
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The daytime is excellent to become inspired with your highest aspirations, both of a worldly and a personal nature, and to let others know how they can aid you to most easily obtain them.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You have fine creative ideas and good pals can assist you to make them work satisfactorily and profitably.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You can make your home more harmonious today. Entertain during the daytime but not tonight.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Fine day for delving into the highest concepts you can find and improving your lot in life.
MOON CHILDREN (Jun 22 to July 21) Do whatever will please the one you love; then tonight be with good friends. Be active and happy.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Have the discussions with associates that can lead to better working conditions in the new week. Listen carefully with profit from such.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Study that work you have planned in the new week and schedule it wisely so that all goes smoothly.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan amusements with your mate and congenial pals but consider the cost well before you get into them. Add to happiness.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Spend as much time as you can with kin and do pretymuch what they like and make home life happier.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Gad about hither and you today and fine benefits can be yours. Be most careful in motion, however, and save yourself trouble.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have hit on a policy for the future that is infinitely better, so put it in practice now.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Think of your own desires and wishes and how you can best attain them and start the wheels rolling in the right direction.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) A new plan of action you have in mind is fine provided you first iron out the wrinkles in it. Be kind and thoughtful.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one who will definitely be attuned to whatever is modern in nature and should have the education slanted along up-to-date lines. One who could easily pioneer in some new field and make a success of it.

 "The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

MONDAY, AUGUST 13, 1984
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day when you have a considerable amount of cleverness and resourcefulness to handle whatever problems arise and to reduce the plan of action you considered over the weekend.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Private activities can be handled very well today, provided you get the assistance of a bigwig who has your interests at heart.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You have fine friends who can assist you to gain your aims, provided you ask them, and tonight you can be together for fun.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Handle the problematical affairs of a public nature that can arise today, but tonight your home is your best bet.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You get fine ideas today and should try them down so that later you do not forget them.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Your hunches are good and you can plan your business more intelligently now, so get busy during the daytime. Be subtle.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Be sure you know how partners feel about being associated with you, and if there are any complaints, rectify them.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A good day to improve your environment so that it becomes more functional and pleasant to be in as well.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Know what it is that the one you love expects of you and you can increase happiness of both in the days ahead.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Try to get at the root of that tension at home and clear up the matter. Do some entertaining at home.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can comprehend the needs of allies so you can now communicate well with them. Keep your accounts straight.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Getting into financial and other practical affairs is most important, and you can add appreciably to assets.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You understand what will make you happy so do something about it, and stop delaying. Take it easy tonight.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she can easily comprehend psychic or visionary ideas and then make them workable and practical, so slant the education along lines that require such a capability. A fine underlying humor in this chart.

 "The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

AWAY WE GO! — The United States Carl Lewis takes the handoff from teammate Calvin Smith during the qualifications Friday of the 400 meter relay in the 1984 Games. The USA team qualified with a time of 38.92.

Bad luck calls on Decker in her bid for gold in 3,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — American Mary Decker, denied an Olympic gold medal in the past by injuries and politics, had her hopes shattered again Friday night when Zola Budd cut her off midway through the women's 3,000-meter race. Decker went down in pain and tears with an injured left leg and was helped off the field.

"Zola tripped me," Decker said, sobbing. "She cut in front of me and it was a matter of pushing her or me falling. When I went down, I felt something in my left hip. I tried to get up but I couldn't."

The race went to Maricica Puica of Romania, who sped away from the field, overtaking Budd and the others, who was clocked in 8 minutes, 35.96 seconds. The silver went to Britain's Wendy Sly, with the bronze going to Lynn Williams of Canada.

Boos went to Budd, the barefoot South African teen-ager running for Britain, who finished far back and was disqualified.

Decker's woes took some luster off a generally good day for the United States, which won a gold medal in women's hurdles and two medals in women's diving.

The United States even gained a gold medal in boxing, where the finals won't be held until Saturday. Yet another fighter's appeal for a gold medal bout was turned down.

There was some disappointment in the discus where 1976 Olympic champion Mac Wilkins had been expected to lead an American sweep. He missed the gold by a foot, with a West German winning.

Decker had been a favorite in the 3,000 along with Puica, but the spotlight focused on Decker and the tiny Budd, 18, who had little experience in international track competition.

Decker had waited a long time for a chance to win an Olympic medal. Injuries kept her off the 1976 Olympic team. She was thwarted by the U.S. boycott from entering the 1980 Games. And fear of injury kept her from running more than one race at the 1984 Olympics.

She had just recovered from an Achilles heel injury and decided to concentrate on the 3,000-meters, foregoing the 1,500 women's race.

She had never before raced against Budd, who had left her homeland in South Africa, barred from the Olympics for its apartheid practices. She moved to England for a chance to participate in the Games. She was eligible for citizenship because her father and grandfather were both British citizens.

After the race, a male spectator wearing a grass skirt and carrying a flag that said, "Zola," ran onto the field and kissed the teenager. Security guards whisked him away.

While Decker's gold-medal chase ended on the infield of the Coliseum, Carl Lewis kept working toward his own goal — four track-and-field golds in one Games.

And as far as former decathlon champion Bob Mathias is concerned, Lewis needs work on his attitude. Mathias called him "cold and calculating."

In boxing, the disqualification of American light-heavyweight Evander Holyfield was upheld, but it also was ruled that Holyfield will receive a bronze medal.

Meanwhile another U.S. boxer, Paul Gonzales, had the way cleared for a gold medal, with his championship-bout opponent sidelined by a broken thumb.

Benita Fitzgerald-Brown of the United States won the women's 100-meter hurdles, nipping Britain's Shirley Strong at the tape. Kim Turner of the United States took the bronze.

China, winless for several days, won the gold medal in the women's 10-meter platform diving, where Zhou Jihong scored 435.51 points. Americans Michelle Mitchell, with 431.19, and Wendy Wyland, 422.07, took the silver and bronze.

Lewis and three teammates led the qualifying in their heat of the 400-meter relay. Their time was 39.90 seconds, more than two seconds slower than the world record 37.86.

Lewis anchored the team, bringing him ever closer to his goal of four gold medals that would duplicate the feat of Jesse Owens in the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

The U.S. men's 1,600-meter relay team — Sunder Smith, Walter McCoy, Willie Smith and Antonio McKay — led their qualifier with a time of 3 minutes, 00.19 seconds.

Mark and Dave Shultz, the American brothers who had each injured opponent in their first freestyle wrestling matches, easily won their matches, with Dave advancing to the final in his division.

Dwight Stones, the U.S. record holder in the high jump, and two other Americans sailed through qualifying for the men's high jump

Braves drill Padres in twinbill opener, 3-1

ATLANTA (AP) — Claudell Washington and Dale Murphy hit consecutive home runs in the third inning, leading the Atlanta Braves to a 3-1 victory over the San Diego Padres in the first game of a twin-night doubleheader Friday.

Washington hit a 420-foot homer to center with one out in the third, his 14th, the Braves' first homer in eight games in their current home stand. Murphy followed with his National League-leading 27th home run.

The Braves made it 3-0 in the fourth on Rafael Ramirez's sacrifice fly.

Yankees 6, Indians 4

CLEVELAND (AP) — Don Baylor hit a two-run homer and Tim Lincecum cranked a pair of run-scoring doubles as the New York Yankees defeated Cleveland 6-4 in the opener of Friday's twin-night double-header and remained unbeaten in nine games with the Indians this season.

Joe Cowley, 3-1, yielded all four Cleveland runs on eight hits in 6 1-3 innings. Jay Howell pitched two-hit ball over the final 2 2-3 innings for his fifth save.

Major Leagues

Steve Bedrosian, 8-6, making his third start of the season and only the eighth of his big league career, outdueled the Padres' Dave Dravecky, 8-6. He allowed six hits, walked two and struck out four in 8 1-3 innings before needing help from Donnie Moore, who posted his 14th save.

Texas seeking revenge in Oil Bowl

WICHITA FALLS, Texas (AP) — If Texas needs any incentive coming into Saturday night's Oil Bowl football game, all it has to do is take a peek back at what happened a year ago.

Last year Oklahoma embarrassed the proud Texans 27-3, the worst beating Texas has ever taken in this game and only the eighth win for Oklahoma in 38 tries.

It was also the first Oil Bowl that Texas could not score a touchdown.

The Oil Bowl annually matches high school all-stars from Texas against their counterparts from Oklahoma in a game sponsored by the Maskat Shrine Temple and benefiting crippled children charities.

This year Texas is loaded offensively, although some of the bigger names won't be in the starting lineup. Head coach Leo Brittain of Vernon has given the starting tailback nod to Post's Milton Williams ahead of the more-heralded Chris Pryor of Converse Judson.

Pryor set a state Class 5A single-season rushing record last year by running for more than 2,800 yards in leading the San Antonio school to a state championship.

Williams, just 5-6 and 150 pounds, ran for 5,053 yards and scored 86 touchdowns in three years at Post.

"Milton has just looked exceptional all week," Brittain said. "And Chris was sick and missed one day of practice, so I believe we owe it to Milton to let him start for us at running back."

WE WON'T BE FOOLED AGAIN

Saturday, August 11, is an important day for the City of Big Spring. On that day voters will make their way to the polls to decide the question: Shall Big Spring elect its Chief of Police or continue to have this powerful position filled by an appointee of the City Manager? This referendum election was brought about by a petition signed by over 1100 citizens, who felt an elected police chief could and would serve the community in an efficient, professional manner; out from under the thumb of City Hall. After an aborted attempt at a tactical delay, the City Council, as prescribed by law, called for the referendum election to be held on August 11.

From the moment the announcement of an election was made, sides were taken and battle lines were drawn. We have not witnessed such a clamor since 1972. Citizens For a Change, proponents for an elected chief, have tried desperately to maintain a dignified stance; wishing only to put forth an idea. However, it was not meant to be. Opponents of this proposition grabbed it by the throat, dressed it in some macabre costume and attempted to present it to the public as some hideous monster out to strip us all of our humanity.

You, the People of Big Spring, have been told, through advertisements and editorials, that the proposition for an elected police chief is a ploy devised by drug dealers to obtain control of the police department; a vendetta being carried out by a couple of malcontent bailbondsmen; an attempt by a small band of dissidents, motivated by self-interest, to destroy our system of City Government.

The Citizens For a Change Coalition is shocked by such irresponsible, immature tactics. We are confident that you, the People of Big Spring, are just as much offended by such blatant personal attacks and that your superior intelligence dismisses such innuendo as the trash it is.

You, the People of Big Spring, have been told that an elected police chief will more than likely be unqualified for the job. You have been told that an elected police chief will be unable to effectively perform his duties because he will have to cuddle up to voter special interests and will be unable to efficiently run the police department because he will constantly be campaigning for re-election.

Ask yourself, Big Spring, would you vote for a sales clerk to be your chief of police? A Bailbondsmen? A pipe fitter? Of course not! Only qualified individuals with extensive law enforcement backgrounds could hope to gain sufficient support. Why do these people think we are too stupid to elect a qualified chief? As to the inefficiency of an elected chief; why is it that A.N. Standard, Howard County's "elected" sheriff is able to run one of the most efficient, professional law enforcement agencies in West Texas?

Citizens For a Change believe an elected police chief can effectively run the police department. Citizens For a Change believe an elected police chief can effectively enforce the laws. Citizens For a Change believe an elected police chief can effectively deal with the drug problem.

AN ELECTED POLICE CHIEF CAN BE QUALIFIED, PROFESSIONAL, & EFFECTIVE.

Citizens For a Change urge you to vote "for" the charter amendment, August 11.

Tee Time

By AL PATTERSON

Marcelo Torres eagled the 400-yard par four 17 at Comanche Trail this week. Marcelo holed his second shot with a five iron for his first eagle. Torres' feat was witnessed by Lonnie Anderson.

The second partnership of the season gets under way next weekend at the Comanche Trail Golf Course. The field will consist of 112 teams and is rapidly reaching the limit.

The event is a 36 hole low ball affair with teams being flighted after Saturday's first round. A barbecue is planned for Saturday night at the Amphitheatre. A hole-in-one prize of a new Dodge Ram Pickup Truck is being offered by Highland Dodge. Entry fee for the two-day tourney is $100 per team.

The Big Spring Golf Association will host a best three ball foursome this Sunday. All contestants should arrange their own foursome and call in for a starting time.

Prizes for the partnership at Comanche Trail next week will be Haig Ultra Woods, Irons and Bags. The Haig Clubs are named after golfing great the late Walter Hagen. The "Haig," as he was nicknamed, dominated golf in the 1920's and early 1930's.

His list of victories are too numerous to mention, but noteworthy is the fact he opened the public's golf in stroke play. He was also noted as being somewhat of a playboy. He once showed up for the finals of the British Open still wearing his tux from the all night party.

The "Haig" proceeded to waltz over the field and then, in his own Hagen style, hosted a press conference in the caddyshack. Noteworthy of the caddyshack is that back in those days professionals were not permitted in British clubhouses. After the caddyshack incident, the rules were changed. After all, the British Open is the oldest championship and why have the winner host a party in the house out back.

In 1929 when the depression hit, many great financiers went broke, committed suicide, spent time in prison or went into exile.

Also in 1929 Gene Sarazen won just about every championship. Sarazen is still alive today and quite solvent. The moral of this story is forget about finance and business and get out and play more golf.

Sports Briefs

Grid time approaching for Steers
 All Forsan High School male and female athletes who did not take a physical last week, can do so at Malone-Hogan Hospital in Big Spring Saturday, Aug. 11 at 9:30 a.m. There will be a $6 fee for the physical. Physicals are optional for Forsan Junior High athletes.

UIL advocates "super conference"
 All male and female athletes in grades 7-12 in the Coahoma Independent School District, who did not take their physicals last week, are scheduled for physicals Saturday, Aug. 11. Buses will be at the Coahoma Fieldhouse at 7:30 a.m. to transport athletes to Malone-Hogan for their physicals.

Forsan posts physical times
 All Big Spring High School football players will be issued shoes and socks throughout the day Wednesday Aug. 15 at BSHS. Monday, Aug. 20 will be the first day of Fall workouts for the Steers. Big Spring will conduct a varsity scrimmage against Sweetwater at Memorial Stadium, Thursday, Aug. 30 beginning at 7 p.m.

Coahoma schedules physicals
 AUSTIN (AP) — The Legislative Council of the University Interscholastic League will decide in October whether to submit to Class 5A schools a proposal that would set up a "super conference" state football playoff for larger schools. UIL Athletic Director Bill Farney said, "I want to emphasize that right now it is only a proposal and there is no way it could go into effect before 1986, if then." Under a plan approved by a UIL committee Monday, large schools — possibly with enrollments of 2,200 or more — would be channeled into a 32-team super conference playoff. The large schools, however, would continue to compete for 5A district titles against schools with enrollments of under 2,200. Class 5A includes 256 schools but only about 50 have enrollments over 2,200. "Basically, the super conference playoff representative would be the large school with the highest district finish," said Farney.

BSTA sets meeting
 The Big Spring Tennis Association will hold a meeting Sunday, Aug. 12 at 2 p.m. at the Figure 7 Tennis Center. All members are encouraged to attend because the finals of the club tournament will begin. Also, all players wishing to enter the Chemical People Tennis-thon can call Figure Seven at 915-267-7777.
