Tops on TV: Football

The Houston Oilers and the Dallas Cowboys will face each other at 8 p.m. on channel 7.

Outside: Hot

Highs should reach the lower 90s today. Winds will be southeasterly, 10 to 15 miles per hour. Tonight, lows are forecast to fall into the upper 60s.

Off the wall:

Sow soiree

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — Mrs. Bacon, Miss Hogg and 98 others with barnyard-like monikers found their piggyish names an asset for once, after years of ribbing at the hands of pork pundits.

The Pork Industry Board put on a bacon and champagne breakfast recently Monday for 100 people with names like the Hogg, the Trotters, Rhinds and Piggins.

Board chairman Denis Lepper said sow soiree was a "small compensation for pranks and humor they may have suffered over the years."

Phil Gramm at Chamber on Monday

U.S. Rep. Phil Gramm, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, will be at the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce Monday at 10:45 a.m.

Gramm of College Station will face state Sen. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin, in the November general election to fill the position vacated by GOP Sen. John Tower, who is retiring.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. (AP) — A commuter plane that had just taken off and a private plane on a training flight collided Friday, killing 17 people and scattering flaming wreckage over 20 acres, authorities said.

The collision occurred at 11:34 a.m. midway between Los Angeles and San Francisco in "excellent" weather, according to an air traffic controller.

Some of the bodies were decapitated, an ambulance attendant said.

"There was wreckage on top of hillsides and wreckage strewn over a real wide area," said the attendant, who spoke only on condition he not be identified, for fear of losing his job. "Both planes were in pieces."

"All the bodies were in such bad shape there was no chance at all of resuscitating anybody," he said.

The crash site was a grazing land of rolling hills called Soze Ranch. The burning debris sparked a 20-acre brush fire, which was quickly controlled.

The remains were taken to funeral homes, said San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Lt. John Hastie.

"We've asked for the assistance of the FBI disaster response team" to help identify the victims, he said. "We want to make sure the identification is positive." None of the remains had yet been identified, he said.

A team of 25 to 30 rescue workers formed a line and walked across the pasture Friday afternoon.

Bill Machado, 60, who lives in a mobile home one-half mile from the crash site, said he was hosing down his dog when he spotted the two aircraft heading toward each other.

"I watched those planes and then I heard a blast. I looked and saw this plane spiraling down," Machado said. "The little one disappeared so fast. The big two-engine job was coming down slow, spiraling, spiraling down."

Moments later, he said, he saw a ball of flame shoot up over a hill.

"He (the Wings West pilot) was trying to work that throttle and pull out of it. I was hoping he'd bring it down," Machado said.

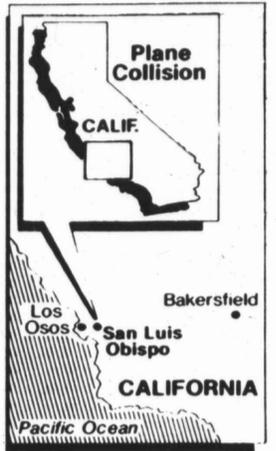

Wings West Flight 628 originated in Santa Maria, and stopped in San Luis Obispo to pick up additional passengers, said Wings West spokeswoman Carol Kronin. Six people boarded the twin-engine jet-prop Beechcraft C-99 in Santa Maria and seven in San Luis Obispo, she said.

She identified the pilot as Capt. Paul Nebolon, 27, of Rolling Hills, and the co-pilot as Deverl Johnson, 45, of Merced. Johnson had just retired from the Air Force, and had been stationed at Castle Air Force Base near Merced, Ms. Kronin said.

The other plane was a single engine Rockwell Commander that had left Paso Robles Airport at 10:55 a.m. on a training flight with an instructor and student aboard, said a Federal Aviation Administration controller at Paso

A look back at Dallas

- Political protests leave many jailed

DALLAS — Unlike convention delegates, protesters at the Republican National Convention which concluded Thursday were not welcomed with open arms or "adopt a protester" programs.

Instead, the heat — 100 degrees plus daily — drove the majority of the protesters back home. Churches and community groups agreed to house others when they abandoned the Tent City on the dry riverbed of the Trinity River.

Left behind in Dallas are about 100 self-described "hardcore" protesters: punks, anarchists and aged hippies, most now in custody at the Lew Sterrett Justice Center.

Protesters were arrested late Wednesday afternoon after a Warchest Tour of Dallas businesses that ended after a flag burning ceremony in front of city hall.

Many have not been able to post bonds of $133 and are expected to remain in jail until Tuesday.

Demonstrators staged die-ins, spray-painted walls and insulted employees, according to Fred Douglass, one of the Tour organizers.

More than 100 Dallas police in full riot gear arrested the protesters at the last stop of their tour of downtown businesses that they claimed are tied to nuclear armaments, nuclear energy and companies in South Africa.

Most demonstrators boarded the buses peacefully. Others, like a New Mexico man who calls himself Mario, told the police and Dallas County Sheriff's deputies who arrested him that they were "acting in contempt of a federal judge's order."

The day before their arrest, protester Bill Weinberg of the San Francisco Rainbow People said Dallas police were treating protesters with respect.

Weinberg and Dave Whitaker, 47, both of Berkeley, Calif., said they were arrested in San Francisco at the Democratic National Convention for walking the sidewalk. They said they and almost 500 other people were charged with conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor, a felony charge in California that was later dropped. The arrest took place on a similar tour.

Whitaker and Weinberg had complained about the low turnout. Only a handful of people have been demonstrating in front of the Convention Center since Tuesday. Most were punks or middle-aged college dropouts.

Whitaker, the emotional and spiritual father of the group, said college youth were unwilling to become involved in the protest movement.

"Their philosophy is 'get a diploma, get a job and make money,'" Whitaker said. "SDS (Students for a Democratic Society) is gone. And Young Socialists is a joke."

Whitaker and Weinberg point toward the punks as their successors, claiming they have been disaffected and alienated by President Reagan and the Establishment.

DALLAS — Blacks made significant gains in representation for the 1988 Republican National Convention, according to McKinley Shepherd of Lubbock, the president of the Texas Black Republican caucus.

Party leaders agreed to increase minority representation of delegates from individual state caucuses as well as black representation on national convention committees, Shephard said.

Among those changes is membership on the Reublican national executive committee.

Shepherd, the only black delegate from the 17th Congressional district, which includes Big Spring, in a non-voting member of the committee. He is seeking election next month as a voting member, he said.

The election is, "Looking real good," Shepherd said. "I have 60 votes and I need 75 to win." The election takes place at the state convention in late September.

Republican blacks accomplished much more at their party's convention that their counterparts at the Democratic meeting in San Francisco, Shepherd said.

"The black delegates in San Francisco came away with nothing. Andrew Young, the mayor of Atlanta, and Jesse Jackson came away with nothing, and they had four times the number," he said.

Among the gains is at least 10 percent representation on each convention committee, Shepherd said. He said the Republican leaders' willingness to revise delegate selection rules have indicated a desire to reach out to blacks who might not otherwise be interested in the Republican party.

"Republicans need to work more actively to attract black members," Shepherd said. "They have to reach all blacks, not just black leaders. Many blacks who are not community leaders would be interested in the Republican message."

Blacks ion the Republican party sometimes have perception problems with the rest of the black community, he said.

"Many blacks, when they reach a certain status and economic level, move into the right part of town. They become separated from the black community," he said.

Shepherd, Lubbock county justice of the peace, says he still lives on the black side of town, yet this has not hurt him politically because he carried the majority of the white vote in his precinct in the 1982 election, he said.

"We are a minority in a minority party," he said.

Assistant DA feels at home

By LUIS RIOS
Staff Writer

Jeanene Walker, new 118th District assistant district attorney, said she already feels at home in Big Spring after being here only one week since her move from Lubbock.

"I moved in Saturday and by Saturday evening I was feeling at home," said the Texas Tech University Law School graduate. "I have not had the opportunity to meet many people. But I like the small town atmosphere — I like it traffic-wise. I feel comfortable here."

Coming from Lubbock to a smaller city should not be a change for Ms. Walker, 32, who was born in Morton, grew up in Abernathy and attended school at County Line, a community of 25 people, she said.

Ms. Walker, who graduated in 1984 and passed her bar exam in July, worked with the law firm of Chappel, Lanehart and Alridge in Lubbock where she specialized in criminal defense work.

District Attorney Rick Hamby said Ms. Walker's duties will include areas of case intake, research and appellate work.

Cases involving sexual offenses and children will also be directed by Ms. Walker, who said she has worked with various organizations dealing with battered women and family problems.

She said she was looking for an opportunity to get involved in such organizations in the community.

"I am anxious to find out what is available in Big Spring," Ms. Walker said.

She has worked with the CONTACT Lubbock Crisis Hotline and the Lubbock Women's Network on a voluntary basis, she said. She also was involved in other groups during her undergraduate work at Texas Tech.

"I feel she would have a reassuring rapport with the victims of these types of crimes," Hamby said considering Ms. Walker's background work with social groups.

Thunderstorms logged

By The Associated Press

Partly cloudy skies were the rule Friday as a high pressure system stretched over the state producing scattered thunderstorms over the Panhandle, the south plains and Central Texas.

Temperatures remained near the 100-degree mark over a good portion of the state despite the rains.

The National Weather Service said temperatures ranged from the upper 90s over Central and South Texas to the low and middle 80s in northwestern sections.

The high for the state was 102 degrees recorded at Bergstrom Air Force Base in Austin, while the low reading was 75 degrees at Houston's Hobby Airport, reported after a thunderstorm.

The weather service called for continued showers and thunderstorms over the Panhandle, Central, Southeast and coastal areas of the state Saturday.

Partly cloudy skies will continue over most of the state during the weekend, with overnight lows from the middle 60s to middle 70s.

Afternoon highs will range from the 90s over most sections of the state, with 100 degree-plus readings across the Big Bend National Park in extreme southern portions of the state and sections of North and Central Texas.

On Saturday, showers are expected in the mountains of West Texas and over southeast areas of the state and the coast.

Thunderstorms straddled the nation's midsection Friday, with storms across western Montana and Idaho and along the Gulf of Mexico into Florida, while several days of rain left parts of southern New Mexico flooded.

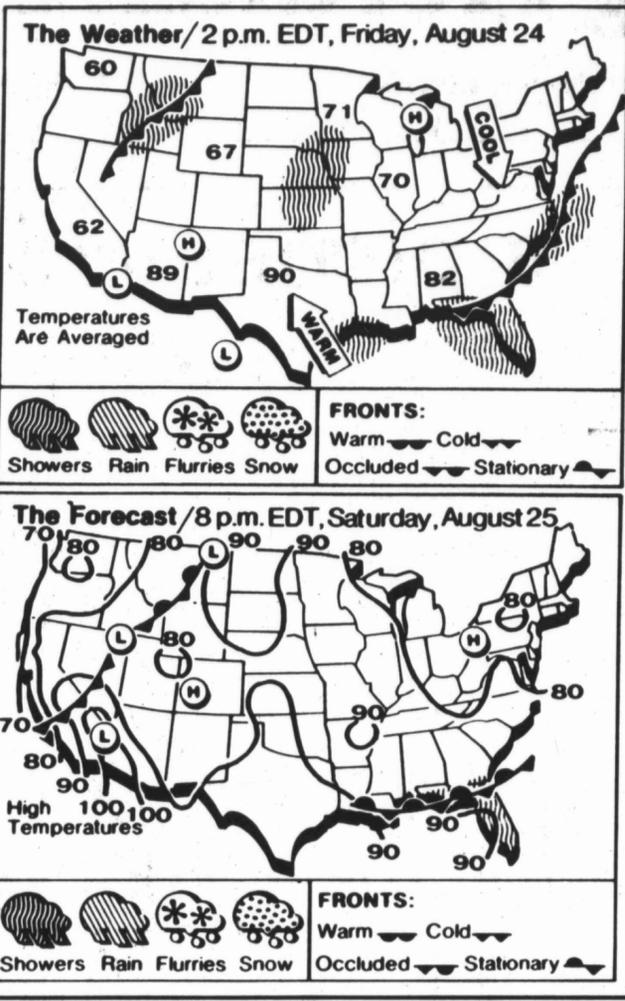

Police in Las Cruces, N.M., reported power out in some sections of the city, where some streets were under water. A highway between Las Cruces and Organ, about 19 miles to the east, was closed by flooding, and high water washed out a 150-foot bridge north of Alamogordo.

State officials declared Otero County east of Las Cruces a disaster area and said they will apply for federal aid to help offset an estimated $8.5 million in damages from the high water.

Showers also were reported along the coast of the Carolinas and over northern New England. Skies were sunny over much of the rest of the nation and temperatures were seasonably mild.

Temperatures at 3 p.m. EDT ranged from 59 degrees at Limestone, Maine, to 102 degrees at Palm Springs, Calif.

WEST TEXAS — Saturday fair morning and partly cloudy afternoon with highs mid 90s. Southeast and south wind 5 to 15 mph. Saturday night and Sunday fair late night and morning, otherwise partly cloudy with lows mid 60s and highs mid 90s.

Collection headed for HC

Howard College has announced "The Art of Chivalry" collection from the Metropolitan Museum of Art will appear at the Anthony Hunt Library beginning Aug. 27.

Created by the Texas Humanities Resource Center at the University of Texas at Arlington Library, the collection includes 65 photographs of arms, armor and major figures from the world of chivalry.

The exhibit was produced under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, in collaboration with The American Federation of Arts and the Witte Museum in San Antonio.

The exhibit is being displayed by Howard College at no charge. The display will be available Monday through Thursday in the library from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m., Friday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Sunday from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Specially guided tours for groups of 10-20 viewers may be arranged by calling Linda Woodley at 267-6311.

Luncheon policy changes

The Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce must change the policy in connection with tickets for the quarterly community luncheons, LeRoy Tillery, executive vice president of the Chamber, said.

The next quarterly luncheon will be at 11:45 a.m. Friday, Aug. 31, in the East Room of the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

Advanced reservations are $5, and reservations received after 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 28, will be $7.50. Those who make reservations but who do not appear at the luncheon will be billed.

Tillery explained he must make arrangements with the Howard College food services facility and needs to know how many people to prepare for in advance of the luncheon.

The quarterly luncheon will be sponsored by the Security State Bank. The host is the Civic Club, Greater Big Spring Rotary Club.

The luncheon will serve as the kick off for the United Way campaign.

Summer lunch program ends

The summer feeding program sponsored by the Salvation Army in conjunction with the Westside Community Center is now over, according to members of the Salvation Army board.

Captain Carroll Braun reported that a total of 1517 meals were served by the Salvation Army during the three-month period. A daily average of 35 local children participated in the program.

Capt. Braun said the Salvation Army is planning to sponsor the program again next summer.

'Dancin' USA' episodes to air

Several episodes of "Dancin' USA," filmed in July by the Nashville Network at Water Wonderland, will be aired next month.

The episodes will be aired at 1:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Sept. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 on the Nashville Network, according to Randy Rogers, manager of Big Spring Cable TV.

Deaths

Ethel Robertson
 Mrs. Marvin (Ethel) Robertson, 72, of Big Spring, formerly of Abilene, died at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday at Malone-Hogan hospital after a long illness. Services were at 10 a.m. Thursday at North's Funeral Home in Abilene.

The Rev. Elbert Peak, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was at the Tye Cemetery.

She was born April 13, 1912, in Scurry County. She grew up in Mitchell County and married Marvin Robertson there Aug. 20, 1932. She moved to Abilene in 1964 and to Big Spring in 1982. She was a member of Faith Baptist Church in Abilene.

Her husband preceded her in death March 15, 1981.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Dewey (Alma Louise) Bolton of Bay City, Vida Ruth Gonzilas and Mrs. Walter (Shirley) Brumley, both of Big Spring, and Mrs. Hershel (Marvie Joe) Thigpen of Merkel; two sons, Richard D. of Big Spring and Milton E. of Gulf Port, Miss.; seven brothers, Rusty Prescott of Colorado City, Walter Prescott of Lindale, Leon Prescott of Big Spring, Lee Prescott of Midland, Vernie Prescott of Amarillo, Earl Prescott of Oregon and Charlie Prescott of Boyd; three sisters, Ida Chitsey of Hermleigh, Ruby Knox of Big Spring and Nellie Basco of Kool; 21 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Eva Welch
 Services for Eva Welch, 79, of Seymour and mother of a Big Spring man, will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Red Springs Baptist Church with the Rev. Bob Harper officiating.

She died Friday at a Wichita Falls Hospital.

Burial will be in the Seymour Masonic Cemetery under the direction of the Seymore Memorial Funeral Home.

She was born Oct. 6, 1904 in Lamar County. She moved to Baylor County as a child. She married Ernest Welch on Dec. 25, 1923 in Baylor County. He died July 19, 1978.

She was a former employee of Ferguson Drug Store in Seymour.

She was a longtime resident of the Red Springs Community and had lived in Seymour for the last six years. She was a member of the Red Springs Baptist Church.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. John (Pat) Nichols of Dallas, Mrs. Doug (Winnie) Peters of Austin, Mrs. Carol (Juanita) Hudson of Lubbock and Mrs. Bud (Anita) Montgomery of Olney; three sons, Ernest Welch of Big Spring, Morris Welch of Forney and James Welch of Hobbs, N.M.; two brothers, Emmett Dodd of Beaumont and Woody Dodd of Archer City; and 18 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by four brothers and one sister.

Palbearers will be Phillip Welch, Tommy Welch and Steve Welch, Ray Montgomery, Kendall Montgomery, Blake Welch and Jamey Montgomery.

Police Beat

Released prison inmate

Oscar Martinez, 23, was arrested at 12:03 p.m. Friday after he was discharged from the Big Spring Prison Camp, police reports said.

Martinez was arrested in connection with an outstanding warrant from Laredo, police reports said.

Sheriff's Log

DWI suspect released

Joanne Cerda, 30, of 1512 Wood was released from county jail at 9:30 a.m. Friday on two personal recognizance bonds authorized by Judge Milton Kirby, reports said.

Ms. Cerda had been charged in connection with driving while intoxicated and having no insurance, reports said.

Rain falls in sections of city

A less than 20 percent chance of rain Friday left up to .2 of an inch of rain in parts of the city, according to area residents.

Residents on the city's east side reported .2 of an inch of rain by 8 p.m. Friday. In other parts of the city, residents reported gentle but steady rainfall during the early part of the evening.

A heavy bank of clouds, streaks of lightning and rumbles of thunder preceded the rainfall.

Today's forecast calls for fair to partly cloudy skies and highs in the mid 90s. Lows tonight are forecast to fall into the upper 60s.

Task force plans seminar

The Parents Support Task Force is sponsoring a seminar for parents with children in grades six through 12 Tuesday at the Goliad Middle School Library.

Lynn Hise, superintendent of the Big Spring Independent School District; Bill McQuay, principal of Big Spring High School; Tom Henry, principal of Rannels High School; and Jim Holmes, principal of Goliad High School, will be speakers.

Parents will be allowed to choose topics of discussion during the evening, which will include two sessions.

The topics consist of school regulations at Goliad, school regulations at Rannels, school regulations and the new curriculum format at high school, and the new legislation and how it will affect Big Spring students.

U.S. money supply falls

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's basic money supply has hit the Federal Reserve Board's anti-inflation target nearly dead center, falling $1.2 billion to a seasonally adjusted $546.1 billion in the week ended Aug. 13.

The basic supply — called M1 and representing funds readily available for spending — fell from $547.3 billion the previous week when it rose $5.2 billion, the Federal Reserve said Thursday.

Maury Harris, senior financial economist at PaineWebber Inc. in New York, said that with the latest decline, M1 stands $7.1 billion

Robles who spoke on condition his name not be used.

The controller said the pilot of the single-engine, four seat aircraft took off into weather he described as "excellent."

No plan was filed for the training flight, according to Don Llorente of the National Transportation Safety Board. NTSB investigators from Los Angeles immediately flew to the scene, 175 miles northwest of Los Angeles, he said.

The Commander was owned Aesthetech Corp., a flight instruction school in Paso Robles, according to the Air Force Rescue Control Center in Belleville, Ill.

A woman who answered the telephone at Aesthetech's offices Friday said only, "We have no statement."

The Los Angeles Air Traffic Control Center in Palmdale had just made contact with the commuter plane at about 11:34 a.m., when both radio and radar contact were lost, said FAA spokeswoman Barbara Abels.

Visibility was good for 15 miles, she said.

Wings West spokeswoman Joanne Dowty said the crash occurred north of the airport and west of Laguna Lake in a hilly, rural area inside the San Luis Obispo city limits.

She said it was a regularly scheduled flight by the San Luis Obispo-based airline, which flies about 150 flights a day and 34,000 passengers a month to 10 other cities — San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Maria, Oxnard, Merced, Visalia, Monterey, Sacramento, San Jose and Redding. The airline has been in business five years and has 15 planes, she said.

"We have never had a fatal accident of any kind involving flights," Ms. Dowty said.

Border economy improves

BROWNSVILLE (AP) — For the first time since the devaluation of the peso wrecked the region's economy two years ago, downtown merchants in cities along the Texas-Mexico border are optimistic, officials say.

Retail sales are up, Mexican shoppers are back and border cities have begun to appeal to more diversified markets.

A survey by Laredo State University of downtown border businesses, which compared the week of July 21 with the same week last year, found business was up 54 percent in Laredo, 34 percent in Brownsville, 26 percent in McAllen and El Paso and 10 percent in Del Rio.

Phil Lane, who heads the border business research team, said the weekly reports compiled by his staff indicate a "general upward trend in business performance." But Lane added that sales have still not returned to their pre-peso devaluation level.

Most border businessmen don't need a survey to tell them sales are picking up. Mexican shoppers started crowding downtown streets last spring.

"The (international) bridges are beginning to clog up again, there's more traffic on the street and there are more pedestrians from both sides of the river downtown," said Stephen Bosio, executive vice president of the Brownsville Chamber of Commerce.

"The attitude of the business community here is much different than last year, it is much more positive," Bosio said.

Brownsville, like every Texas city along the 882-mile border, pinned its economy on Mexican trade before 1982. Then two devaluations caused the peso to plunge from 27 to 150 to the dollar and put American goods out of reach for many Mexican shoppers.

The impact was felt as far north as Houston's Galleria and San Antonio's North Star Mall which had formerly enjoyed soaring revenue selling to Mexicans flying in with suitcases full of money.

In Laredo, businesses reported sales drops of up to 95 percent after the devaluations. More than 600 businesses closed, causing one city official to compare the economic disaster with a physical disaster such as an earthquake.

But two years after the last devaluation, Mexicans have adopted "a psychology of devaluation," Lane said.

"Mexican people are more accustomed to the 200-to-1 exchange rate now, it's not so frightening, so they're tending to spend more," Lane said.

Mexico's double-digit inflation rate has also contributed to the border's retail rebound, he said.

With an inflation rate of 80 percent in 1983 and 55 to 60 percent expected this year, the price of some Mexican goods now nearly equals that of U.S. items.

"They figure they may as well buy now, because it will just cost more later," Lane said.

Mexico's economy "has stabilized quite a bit" and there is a sense among Mexicans that the worst of the nation's crisis is over, Lane said.

"They feel if they haven't lost their jobs by now, they're not going to," he said.

Conrado Cruz, executive director of the Laredo Chamber of Commerce, said merchants there began to notice an upswing in sales last March.

"It has been going up little by little each month since the spring," he said.

At first, Mexican shoppers were buying necessities like food and American-made clothes, Cruz said. But now, they are buying a few luxury items such as jewelry, he said.

After the devaluations, the Chamber of Commerce was forced to direct marketing efforts away from Mexico and toward San Antonio, Houston, Austin, Corpus Christi and points north, Cruz said.

Brownsville's Bosio said downtown merchants did the same and focused more on attracting local trade.

Party of the rich

SPRINGFIELD — Campaigning in the land of Abraham Lincoln, Walter F. Mondale said Friday the just-ended Republican National Convention demonstrated that President Reagan represents the party of the rich. The Democratic presidential candidate pledged that in the remaining days of the 1984 campaign he will "smoke Mr. Reagan out" on issues such as arms control and the federal deficit. Mondale told a cheering crowd of about 3,000 persons, "let the campaign begin." He said television ratings for the GOP convention were low and added, "the reason is the American people know a summer rerun when they see it." Mondale spoke against the backdrop of the old Illinois state capitol building across the street from where Lincoln, the Republican Civil War president, worked as an attorney in the 1850s. Mondale used the opportunity to remind his audience of the most famous series of debates in American history, between Lincoln and his U.S. Senate opponent, Stephen Douglas, in 1858.

Power outage over

BOSTON — Electricity was restored to most of Boston's Chinatown section Friday evening after a power shutdown that began a day earlier left unrefrigerated food spoiling in restaurants, many of which were closed by health inspectors. The blackout affecting 1,600 homes and businesses in Chinatown continued until about 6 p.m. Friday, although power was restored to the rest of a 20-block downtown section shortly before midnight Thursday. An underground cable fire that sent smoke seeping out of manholes prompted Boston Edison Co. to cut electricity to the area at about 3:30 p.m. Thursday. Only about two dozen Chinatown customers were still without power at 6 p.m. Friday, said Walter Salvi, a Boston Edison spokesman. Teams of city health inspectors took to Chinatown's sidewalks on Friday, ordering dozens of restaurants to stop serving food, turn customers away and lock their doors. Restaurants were warned Thursday evening to pack food in ice and not to open their doors until health inspectors could check for spoiled food, said Frank Frattaroli, health department supervisor.

Woman loses arm

SAN FRANCISCO — A woman lost her artificial arm when thieves yanked her purse and the $9,000 custom-made limb from her shoulder. Three men and a woman attacked Rosa Visser, 33, an immigrant from El Salvador, and stole $600 worth of jewelry and $60 cash Tuesday night, police said Thursday. But the theft of her artificial right arm left her shocked and puzzled that even muggers could be so cruel. "It's a horrendous thing," said Inspector Armond Pelisetti of the police robbery unit. "They just grabbed the purse and took her arm with it. They never stopped. It was a no-class operation." Ms. Visser had been walking to the home of friends Tuesday night when the muggers suddenly appeared. One of the men grabbed the purse, she said, and "he tugged so hard that he pulled the artificial arm away from the stump. I guess he was pretty startled and he took off running." A brief struggle ensued, and the other men grabbed a pair of silver-and-turquoise earrings and a gold chain, Ms. Visser said.

Medical gains made

PITTSBURGH — Improvements in microsurgery could increase the number of organs available for transplant, and could even lead to the obsolescence of transplants, medical experts said Friday. "Microsurgery could help to bring 5 percent more organs, and we could make the organs even better," said Dr. Gottfried H. Muller of the University of Tubingen, West Germany.

No cake walk Reagan says election not over yet

DALLAS (AP) — President Reagan, after accepting his party's nomination to seek a renewal of his 1980 mandate, warned Republican Party leaders Friday that the 1984 election "isn't going to be a cake walk" just because he's ahead in the polls. "This is no time to sit on our laurels," Reagan told the post-convention meeting of the Republican National Committee. Then, referring to the cheers and applause that interrupted his acceptance speech the night before, Reagan said that for awhile he thought "I was going to have to do that speech one word at a time." Campaign director Edward Rollins told the state party leaders: "We are not going to sit on our lead. We don't think we have a lead. We are going to run as if we are 10 points behind." One of the targets, Rollins said, is the Northeast, the traditional Democratic base. Reagan will visit that area after the Labor Day weekend, Rollins said. "We are going to go into his (Walter Mondale's) turf and take him on," Rollins said. "We are just going to be very aggressive." Another campaign official, Sen. Paul Laxalt, the general chairman, noted that most voters don't make up their minds until mid-October. But Reagan, showing that he didn't want to waste time, set off for Chicago to campaign before the Veterans of Foreign Wars before returning east for a weekend in the comfort of his Camp David retreat atop Maryland's Catoctin Mountain. In remarks prepared for the veterans, Reagan rejected critics' suggestions that his decision to send American troops into Grenada showed he couldn't be trusted with the nation's nuclear arsenal. "Because we were willing to take decisive action, our students today are safe, Grenada is free, and that region of the Caribbean is more peaceful and secure than before," Reagan said. "But let no one confuse that situation with an inescapable reality of the modern age. "When it comes to our nuclear forces, I've said it before, and I'll say it again: A nuclear war cannot be won and must never be fought." Recalling his campaign speech to the VFW convention four years ago, in which he attacked Jimmy Carter's leadership, Reagan said, "Well, I think we've come a long way together ... Gone are the days when we abandoned principle and common sense. Gone are the days when we meekly tolerated obvious threats to our peace and security. Gone are the days when we either sought to achieve overnight grandiose arms control agreements that were bound to fail or when we set our sights so low that the agreements permitted the numbers and categories of weapons to soar." In accepting his convention's renomination, Reagan dismissed his Democratic opponents' "New Realism," saying, "Their new realism is just the old liberalism." Rejecting Walter F. Mondale's attacks on his administration's record budget deficits, Reagan said Mondale — whose name he never used — "has only recently found budget deficits alarming. Nearly ten years ago he insisted ... we sometimes 'need a deficit in order to stimulate the economy.'" Reagan said Democrats "should be experts on budget deficits. They've spent most of their political careers creating deficits." For nearly 50 years, Reagan said, "deficit spending has been their deliberate policy." In a speech interrupted every sentence or two by chanting, cheering, howling delegates, one of Reagan's best-loved lines dealt with Democrats' spending habits. "We could say they spend money like drunken sailors," Reagan said, "but that would be unfair to drunken sailors." When the crowd finally let him continue, he added, "I was going to say, it would be unfair to drunken sailors because the sailors are spending their own money." The president said the 1984 election presents "the clearest political choice of half a century." He called it a choice "between two different visions of the future, two fundamentally different ways of governing — their government of pessimism, fear and limits or ours of hope, confidence and growth." Recalling his acceptance speech four years ago, Reagan said, "We proclaimed a dream of an America that would be 'a shining city on a hill.' Now it's all coming together. With our beloved nation at peace, we are in the midst of a springtime of hope for America. Greatness lies ahead of us."

Plane heads for Gulf

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan — Sikh militants demanding to go to the United States seized an Indian jetliner with 93 people aboard Friday and forced it down in Pakistan, then took off again — apparently bound for the Persian Gulf. The sky pirates, who threatened to starve the passengers, kill them one by one and blow up the Indian Airlines Boeing 737, freed five people in Lahore and two more in Karachi before setting out again in the early morning darkness. Reports indicated there were six hijackers. Radio Pakistan said they were armed with a bomb or grenade and kirpans — the daggers traditionally worn by members of the Sikh religious minority. The weapons are exempted from Indian laws against carrying arms on aircraft. The two women released in Karachi told authorities here were six "young and jittery" hijackers armed with two pistols and carrying four packages wrapped in newspaper — said to be explosives. They did not mention the daggers.

Government committed

TEHRAN — Despite new peace efforts, Iran's revolutionary government remains firmly committed to ignoring all diplomatic initiatives to end the four-year-old war against Iraq without the "elimination" of Iraqi President Saddam Hussein's government, a high-ranking Iranian official says. In an interview Thursday, Deputy Foreign Minister Hossein Sheikholeslam also said negotiations were under way for the visit of two Western European foreign ministers to Iran, following last month's trip by West German Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher. These are the first such Western moves since Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini came into power in 1979. "The key (for peace) is in our hands and the world knows it. They (peace negotiators) should come to us and get the key. And the only way we will give it is when they accept our conditions," said Sheikholeslam, the deputy for political affairs.

Planes hit tanker

MANAMA — A Cypriot tanker laden with 50,000 tons of Iranian crude oil was hit by a missile — apparently fired by Iraqi warplanes — and was reported sinking in flames in the Persian Gulf on Friday. Iranian air force helicopters hoisted 33 crewmen from the water, but one man was missing. "It is still burning furiously," one Bahrain shipping source said, hours after sea-going tugs rushed to combat several fires aboard the 31,280-ton tanker Amethyst. "One part of it is low in the water." He and other shipping sources spoke on condition they were not identified. The sources said the Iranian helicopters lifted 33 Greek and Filipino crew members who dived into the water after failing to control the fires. But one Filipino seaman was not found. The sources, monitoring traffic in the gulf, said the Greek captain of the Amethyst radioed distress signals at about 9:45 a.m. (2:45 a.m. EDT), saying the ship had been hit by a missile. One source said the captain reported, "The bridge is on fire, burning fiercely. She is sinking."

Military moves in LIMA — President Fernando Belaunde Terry placed the capital under military control Friday to block a planned opposition rally protesting the disappearance of hundreds of people in Peru's guerrilla war zone. Troops were ordered into the streets after Interior Minister Luis Percovich announced a Cabinet decree giving the military control of the city. Three hours after the presidential order, the office of Marxist Mayor Alfonso Barrantes, who had planned to participate in the rally, announced it that had been canceled.

Company says there's a new Cat in town

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — There's a new "big yellow Cat" in town — a leaner, more aggressive Caterpillar Tractor Co., looking to get back on track after a trying two years that saw losses in the millions, layoffs in the thousands and a lengthy strike. The company's evolving new image will be underscored next week when union leaders are invited for the first time ever to attend Caterpillar's first worldwide dealers conference in seven years. "It's a good idea on the company's part to have us there," Tony Green, president of the United Auto Workers local for more than 11,000 Peoria-area Caterpillar workers, said Thursday. "It's beneficial." About 500 people from 231 dealerships in 140 nations will attend one of three three-day sessions here. The first session ended Wednesday, the second is next week and the final one starts Sept. 10, said Brian Gareau, a company spokesman. The conventions had come at five-year intervals since the mid-1960s. But Caterpillar canceled the meeting in 1982, the year the company was beset by a 204-day strike by UAW employees and the worldwide recession, and a substantial drop in sales of heavy construction machinery forced it to post its first loss in 50 years. Now, after posting a second-quarter profit that followed $634 million of red ink over nine previous quarters, Caterpillar says it is ready to get back on track. But it's a leaner company than in such flush years as 1981, when Cat posted a $579 million profit on sales of $9.1 billion. In 1979, Cat had more than 90,000 employees, 36,000 in the Peoria area alone. Six weeks ago, there were 62,000, with 22,000 at the Peoria headquarters and five area plants. The dealers conference, and the invitation to union members, is one sign of a robust, new Caterpillar, Gareau said. Others include: Last month's purchase of one-fifth of a leading Ohio manufacturer of industrial robots, Cat's first partial ownership. Previously, Caterpillar bought entire companies or acquired technology through contracts.

"You're not going to change overnight what's built up over 30 to 40 years," Green said.

front of the salad bar at the restaurant. Goines said the salad bar is one of the "drawing cards" of the new restaurant.

Salad bar is 'drawing card' for new family steakhouse

Bill Goines, manager of the Western Choice Family Steakhouse at 700 E. FM 700, believes the "drawing card" to the new restaurant is a 45-item salad bar which features items not usually found in traditional salad bars.

"We have soups, breads, cobbler, and other extra things not normally included on a salad bar," Goines said.

Goines believes families going out to eat will choose the restaurant because "we have a more responsible price structure for the average working man."

"Families want to go out to eat, but they can't always do what they want to do. Here, on Tuesday nights, kids eat free if accompanied by an adult." The limit is three children per adult, Goines said.

Other aspects of the restaurant which may draw diners in include "a dining room with more privacy. We have booths so people don't have to conduct business right out in the open." The facility also features banquet rooms.

Western Choice Family Steak House is opened from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Goines believes every restaurant develops its own following. "People will swear at certain places and swear by others. We all offer something for varying groups of people."

He believes Big Spring is capable of handling several steak houses.

"I come from a town on the east coast which is similar in size to Big Spring. There are 25 steak houses there. There are not as many steakhouses here as I've seen in other parts of the country."

Western Choice Family Steakhouse is a member of the Southern Cookin' Corporation, headquartered in Dallas. He explained that the restaurant division of Southern Cookin' Corp. has 35 restaurants similar to the one here and "we plan to open six more within the next six months."

Although the chain is not affiliated with the Bonanza Corp., Goines said the chain often buys out Bonanzas "in difficulty," remodels them and opens them under the new ownership.

"Basically, we do a lot of cleaning and repair work and create atmosphere," Goines said. Because the old Bonanza building here was only four years old, little work had to be done on the interior.

Goines said Western Choice has received "an excellent response" since opening Aug. 15.

"I've been here a month and a half and people are watching. We had a trial run, and invited guests of employees, but about 50 percent of the business were walk-ins."

Western Choice employees 35 local people and several management trainees, including Ron Gerhart, Ron Wales, and Bethany Everett.

Lunch prices at Western Choice run from about $2.49 to $3.99, and dinners are priced "a little higher," Goines said. The salad bar is separate from the dinner price, Goines said.

That the Big Spring Crimestoppers Program has paid out approximately $3,000 in rewards so far this year?

That the Symphony Association has adopted an annual budget of $32,875 which will allow three concerts with the first being by the Fort Worth Chamber Orchestra on Friday, Oct. 19?

That Royce Cox, while refereeing at the state basketball tournament, made a bid for the Class-2A spring competition game to be held in Big Spring — and it was approved?

That the next community luncheon is scheduled for Friday, Aug. 31, at the Coliseum. Advance reservations are $5 and tickets sold without reservations are $7.50? Reservations must be made by Tuesday.

That Paul Shaffer held a meeting with the ministers and lay leaders from the local churches to discuss community problems affecting the quality of life in Big Spring?

That plans are already being laid for the Christmas parade scheduled for Dec. 1?

That Permian Research Corporation purchased the former Highwood Building and adjoining property to establish a major research and development company?

A woman's conference is planned in Austin for Sept. 12-13 sponsored by the Governor's Commission for Women. This is in conjunction with Women in Texas Week Sept. 9-15. The purpose of the week is to increase public awareness of Texas women's achievements and to highlight positive female role models for young people in Texas.

Also a part of the week's activities, the Commission has initiated a Texas Women's Hall of Fame. For each of ten areas of achievement, one woman was chosen by a state selection committee. Those ten women and the runners-up will be honored at the Sept. 13 ceremony concluding the Women's Conference.

For more information about registering for the women's conference, call me. It looks as if we will have a nice-sized delegation going from Big Spring.

If you are commuting in any direction to college classes, call us with the following information and we will try to get some car pools worked out: college location, days attending, your name and phone number.

Don't forget the Big Spring Tennis Association Benefit today and tomorrow at the Tennis Center. Admission is free.

Our community really turned out to honor Rose Magers Monday. Here are some examples of the interest taken by citizens: Bill Lasater of Highland Pontiac not only volunteered an open top car to transport the honoree, but he made sure it was a silver car to match her silver Olympic medal.

One of his employees, Rocky Yandell, carried the Olympic torch part of the way across the United States before the Olympic opening. Therefore, when we had the ceremonies, Rocky appropriately led the procession, carrying the "real" torch.

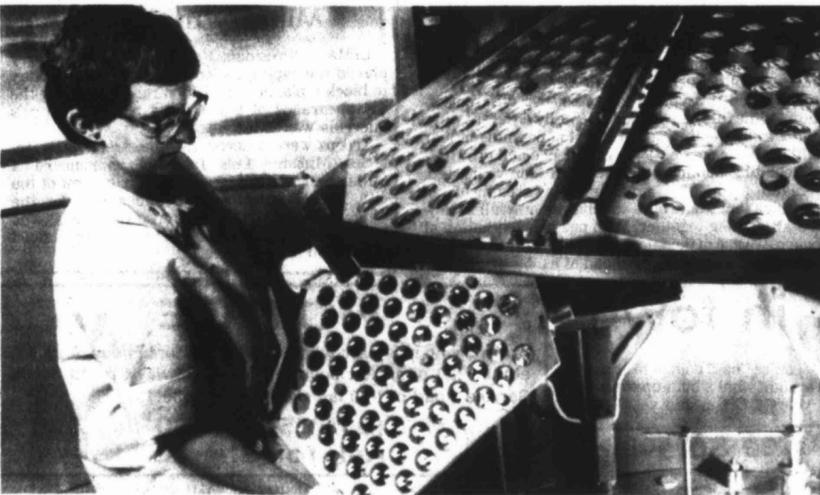

Grace Peters volunteered to provide the luncheon at her Rockfront Restaurant for Rose and the 1977 volleyball team/coach reunion. Then, as an additional gesture baked a big sheet cake for Rose to take home and enjoy with her family.

Paul Warren carved a special wooden plaque and donated it as part of the honors.

The Malone-Hogan staff and medical auxiliary provided an elegant public reception.

These are but a few of those who eagerly offered to help with this community affair. Rose was delighted with the day and humbled by the outpouring of affection.

Mid-August auto sales rise 32.1 percent

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. automakers say their mid-August sales rose a sharp 32.1 percent from a year earlier after spot shortages contributed to a 0.8 percent downturn in the previous 10-day selling period.

Among the Big Three domestic manufacturers, Ford Motor Co. said Thursday its sales for the Aug. 11-20 period climbed 41.2 percent from a year ago. General Motors Corp. reported a 30.6 percent gain and Chrysler Corp.'s sales rose 28.3 percent.

The latest period translated into an annual sales rate of 8.1 million units. That's a healthy rate and not too far below Detroit's capacity to turn out cars. But analysts cautioned that the big percentage gain partly reflected a comparison with a poor showing last year.

Small-car makers American Motors Corp. and American Honda

Motor Co. Inc. also did well in the latest period, with sales up 25.5 percent and 36.2 percent, respectively.

Only Volkswagen of America Inc. registered a decline, with sales of its discontinued Rabbit subcompact off 11 percent from last year's level.

Peach tree spores most numerous in late summer months

Peach tree borer is a very important pest of commercial and dooryard peach trees.

The adult moths are black. The females have a single orange band around the abdomen. The males are smaller than the females and have several narrow yellow bands around the abdomen.

The moths are generally most numerous in July, August and September. During these months the eggs are laid in the bark around the bases of the trees. The eggs hatch in about 10 days and the young larvae immediately begin to bore into the tree. They feed under the bark for about 11 months, then pupate and come out as an adult to start the process over again.

Some peach tree borer damage to the cambium can be tolerated without a problem. However, extensive cambium damage can cause twig and limb die back, and tree death.

Peach tree borers should be treated if more than one or two borer holes are present per mature tree. Young trees should be treated every year. The three chemicals recommended and the rates and dates of application are given below.

Chlorpyrifos (Lorsban) when mixed 7 1/2 Tbsp. to one gallon of water is one chemical recommended for peach tree borer control. Make one application at the end of August. Do not contaminate fruit and do not apply within 14 days of harvest.

Another recommended chemical is 1 1/2 level Tbsp. of endosulfan (thiodan) to one gallon of water. Apply this once in early June and repeat in mid-August. Do not use within 21 days of harvest.

Trees can be treated in the winter with mothball crystals (paradichlorobenzene). Place a circle of the material around an infested tree about 2 inches from its base and cover with 6 inches of soil. Use 1/4 ounce of material for each inch of tree diameter measured 1 foot above the ground. Never apply more than 1 ounce per tree.

From the data that I've seen and the tests I've done, Lorsban (or Dursban for yard trees) looks best.

WHITE GRUBS — Just a reminder that homeowners should make their second white grub application some time this month. Probably the best strategy is to water lightly, apply the chemical, then water again to wash the grub killer into the soil.

YELLOW PECAN APHID — will probably continue to increase in number from now until October. This time of year, it is getting too late to apply Di-Syston granules to the soil for aphid control. This should be done in June or July since there is a 90 day requirement between treatment and harvest for Di-Syston. Foliar applications of Pyridin or Zolone are best for commercial orchards and Zolone is suggested for homeowners (Pyridin costs over $100.00 per gallon and is not sold in containers smaller than 1 gallon).

Cygon and Malathion no longer works as well as they once did for yellow pecan aphid control in West Texas. To treat trees larger than 20 feet to 25 feet tall, a power sprayer will probably be required. On smaller trees homeowners can do a good job with the small sprayers, which attach to a garden hose.

ELM LEAF BEETLE — are really starting to play havoc with Siberian elm trees. Both the larvae and the adult elm leaf beetle eat elm leaves. With the three or more generations per year and 400 to 800 eggs produced by each female beetle it is not hard to understand how extensive damage to elm foliage is likely in late summer.

In a demonstration conducted on the Courthouse square last year it was determined that Di-Syston when applied to large trees at below 10 ounces per tree is not sufficient to prevent extensive damage. Ten ounces per tree was much more effective than 5 ounces, however.

Foliar sprays of Orthene, Sevin, Methoxychlor or diazinon will kill elm leaf beetles. Homeowners should watch sprayed trees to see that reinfestation does not occur from nearby unsprayed trees.

CICADAS — Summer in West Texas would not be complete without the singing of cicadas from the trees. These insects have long life cycles lasting from 1 to 13 years (depending on the species) in Texas. Most of this time is spent in the soil sucking sap from the roots. When the nymphs mature they dig out of the soil, often leaving numerous round holes under trees and shrubs, and climb onto nearby trees. They then attach themselves firmly to the bark, molt into the adult stage and fly away leaving behind the shell they emerged from. Adult emergence may begin as early as April and last until July. Adults then mate and females begin laying eggs.

The females damage the twigs and small limbs of many trees and shrubs as they lay their eggs. They are equipped with a curved saw-like egg laying apparatus with which they puncture the bark of twigs and make a small cavity into which 24 to 28 eggs are laid. Each female may make as many as 20 pockets and lay 400 to 600 eggs. The adults only live for 5 to 6 weeks after emerging.

The eggs hatch in 6 to 7 weeks and the nymphs then drop to the ground and burrow into the soil to find roots on which they will feed for the next 1 to 13 years.

Cicada control is very difficult. Some people are offended by the racket made by the males as they "sing" to attract their mates. It is almost impossible to kill the adults and prevent the singing. Weekly applications of Sevin however, are reported to prevent some of the damage done to trees and shrubs by the female laying eggs.

Stop wasting water by checking for leaks

If you have to jiggle the handle of a toilet to get it to stop making noise, that's a sign of a leaky toilet. Because 45 percent of water used in homes is used to flush toilets, a leaky toilet can be one of the biggest water wasters in the home, wasting over 200 gallons of water a day.

Although some leaking toilets may make a hissing sound after the bowl has filled with water, not all leaks give such obvious clues. There are a few simple tests you can perform which can help you determine if your toilet is wasting water.

First, make sure there are no wastes in the toilet bowl. Then remove the cover of the toilet tank and put a few drops of food coloring or a dye capsule into the tank to color the water. After waiting 15 minutes, check the water in the toilet bowl. If the color shows up in the bowl and the toilet has not been flushed in that time, you have a leak to repair.

There are several possible causes for the leak. Normally, the water level in a toilet tank should be between 1/2 inch and one inch below the top of the overflow pipe. However, if the water level is at or above the top of the pipe, water will pour into the toilet bowl and go down the drain. Carefully bending the float arm down slightly should correct this problem.

If that doesn't help, the problem may be that the flush ball is not fitting correctly in the valve seat. Lining the guide wires up better may stop the leak. If not, a new flush ball or flapper assembly can be purchased for only a few dollars.

Even if the water in the bowl doesn't change color in the previous test, you may have a leak.

To find out, flush the toilet and then wait about ten minutes. Then look in the tank to see if water is still flowing from the refill tube into the overflow pipe. This also indicates a leak.

Sometimes it is the float that is causing the leak. Unscrew the float and shake it. If you hear water inside, this indicates that the float needs to be replaced.

You might want to investigate some of the new flushing equipment on the market which eliminates the float and ball cock assembly. Because it is made of plastic, it is long-lasting. And some models are even useful in detecting leaks because they make a special sound indicating a leak.

While on annual leave last week, I visited the World's Fair in New Orleans. One of the exhibits is an energy saving model home which features all the newest resource conserving features. One item was a water saving bathroom commode which uses only 1 gallon of water per flush. This will be a great saving over present fixtures which use as much as 5 gallons each time.

The theme for the World's Fair is "Water" with emphasis on the importance of water in the history, present and future of our nation and the world. True to the theme, the bottom fell out of the sky while I was there. Concessionaires made a killing on plastic rain ponchos.

The fair was educational and fun. If you get the opportunity go see it. It will remain open until mid-November.

Dear Abby

Good health is great wealth

DEAR ABBY: Every now and then I find myself complaining because I'm too busy, don't have enough income, our married children live too far away, we have only one grandchild, etc.

I will soon be 84 and am fit as a fiddle. I still shovel snow with the biggest shovel I can find — like the one I used when I was a young man in South Dakota shoveling ear corn after a day of stooping over, hand-picking corn in the fields.

Recently I came upon a box of clippings I'd saved for years, and when I read this letter I had clipped from your column it made me ashamed for complaining. It's dated 1965.

I hope you think it's worth a rerun. I certainly do.

GERALD GIVING,

DEAR MR. GIVING: (What an appropriate name.) I agree, it's worth a rerun.

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading the "problems" sent to your column and I hope you print this because it might do a lot of people some good.

I'm in a charity hospital with arthritis, tuberculosis and heart trouble, and I am gradually losing my eyesight. I'm only 38, but I can't remember being free from pain in 22 years. If I could wake up one morning feeling good again, I wouldn't care if my wife (if I had one) flirted with another man.

What I am trying to say, Abby, is that if a person can get up in the morning and go to work on his own two legs, he should get down on his knees and thank God, for without health, you have nothing — even if you are rich.

WHERE THE RED FERN GROWS

McCall's "Movie of the Month." Where the Red Fern Grows deftly combines adventure, love, and suspense while portraying a young boy's introduction to tragedy and death. Set in a time when a man wasn't poor if he owned his own hounds, young Billy Colman's ambition was to have two of the best coon dogs in the county. Now available on video cassette, this acclaimed film classic restores faith in the word "heartwarming."

AGAINST A CROOKED SKY

Filmed in the stark natural beauty of the desert Southwest, Against a Crooked Sky is the gripping adventure story of a young boy who risks his life to save his sister from a secret tribe of savage Indians. A grizzly trapper, played by veteran actor Richard Boone, befriends the boy (Stewart Petersen) and aids him in his dangerous venture to rescue his sister. A popular family film, Against a Crooked Sky is a fast-paced western saga of determination, courage, and love.

SEVEN ALONE

A magnificent portrayal of one of the most incredible journeys in American history, Seven Alone is the true story of seven children who are orphaned and left to fight for survival on a 2,000-mile trek across untamed wilderness. An exciting G-rated adventure film, Seven Alone aims at inspiration in the virtues of family and the pioneer spirit" (Louisville Times) in portraying the hardships faced by these courageous young children on the Oregon Trail.

BAKER'S HAWK

Voted "Family Film of the Year" by the Motion Picture Association, Baker's Hawk is a perfect offering for adults and children alike. Filmed in the high mountain ranges of Utah, this movie shows the dangers of vigilantism in the Old West and the growth of a young boy. Starring Clint Walker, Burl Ives, and Lee Montgomery, Baker's Hawk captures the heart of a father-son relationship and the charm of a mountain hermit as he teaches a young boy respect for nature while they nurse a small red-tailed hawk into a proud hunting bird.

PONY EXPRESS RIDER

An exciting story of "action, young love, betrayal, and revenge" (Feature Reviews), Pony Express Rider stars Stewart Petersen as Jimmy D., an angry young Texan who seeks revenge for his father's murder. Set in the pre-Civil War west, this G-rated feature follows Jimmy D's journey as a rider for the Pony Express as he carries the mail and a burning hatred for his father's killer through the dangers of outlaws, Indians, and hostile terrain.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

SUNDAY, AUGUST 26, 1984
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The morning is splendid for deciding how to go after the greatest ambitions that impel you forward, so put on your thinking cap and come to a decision.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19): In the morning, plan amusements for far into the future, but after lunch some obstacles may arise and later you gain benefits.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): Home conditions can be pleasant in the morning, but later some gloomy conditions could set in if you love to argue, so keep quiet.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Problematic affairs at home can be solved wisely by being more cooperative with others. Don't criticize others after lunch.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Do whatever you please in the morning, but after lunch you have to study your financial affairs.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Contact those friends you want to see later in the week and set up appointments. First gain some cherished wish.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Meditation is wise in the morning to rid negative thoughts, and then you can carry through with what you believe in.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Good morning to be out and about, adding to prestige, taking exercise you need, etc. You can gain a favor from a friend.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Go to some place that is inspiring to you and can bring something important your way. Improve your public standing.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Get into the silence for awhile in the morning and tune in intuitively to whatever is best for you to do today.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Get new week's monetary affairs well arranged in the morning. Then get out and make new and worthwhile acquaintances.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): A helpful partner gives you an opportunity to show your finest talent, so accept it graciously.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): Study your surroundings and see how to make them more charming and valuable. Repaying some social debt to an associate is wise.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be capable of comprehending very large projects and enterprises and be very precocious early in life. Give an academic education for best results and wonderful things can be done by your fine progeny. Be very encouraging and supportive.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1984
GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a day when you can get into the details of whatever plan of action you had planned for this week and start it right by an exact appraisal of the specifics that are to be performed.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Work should be on the agenda today, whether at home, office, shop or whatever and thereby getting much done.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): Early make the appointments necessary for entertainment you desire later. Being more thoughtful of your mate will bring appreciation.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Keep promises to kin that were made over the weekend or plan how to improve home conditions.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): You are able to do whatever is of a constructive nature today so get busy early shopping, etc.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Get the new week started wisely by handling monetary affairs extremely well and be sure to make collections and pay bills.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Be concerned with your own wishes and amiable personal ambitions today and get what you most desire.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Study all those small tasks ahead of you and then handle them quickly and efficiently. They will soon be out of the way.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): You have some wishes that need practical handling in order to attain them, so put forth energy and do so.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Important you handle your job in such a way that higher-ups will be satisfied and pleased.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Adopt a new attitude in starting the new week and you can get far better results. Then you will comprehend issues better.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Be sensible in handling any business affairs and get fine results. Also important that you keep all promises made on time.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): Have a long talk with partners with whom you want to get along better in the future, and get good results.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will have much ability at such work that is connected with building, designing, technology, adding machines, etc. Teach early to study the motives behind any enterprise so that your progeny will not get caught in any unsavory enterprise innocently.

Eudy pleased with Steers performance

Big Spring Steers head football coach Quinn Eudy and his staff got more than they bargained for by seeing good performances turned in by both the offensive and defensive squads during yesterday's first full-contact intrasquad scrimmage held at Blankenship Field.

"The kids played real well," Eudy said. "There was a lot of effort on everyone's part. There was a great defensive effort and the offensive line is much further along than last spring."

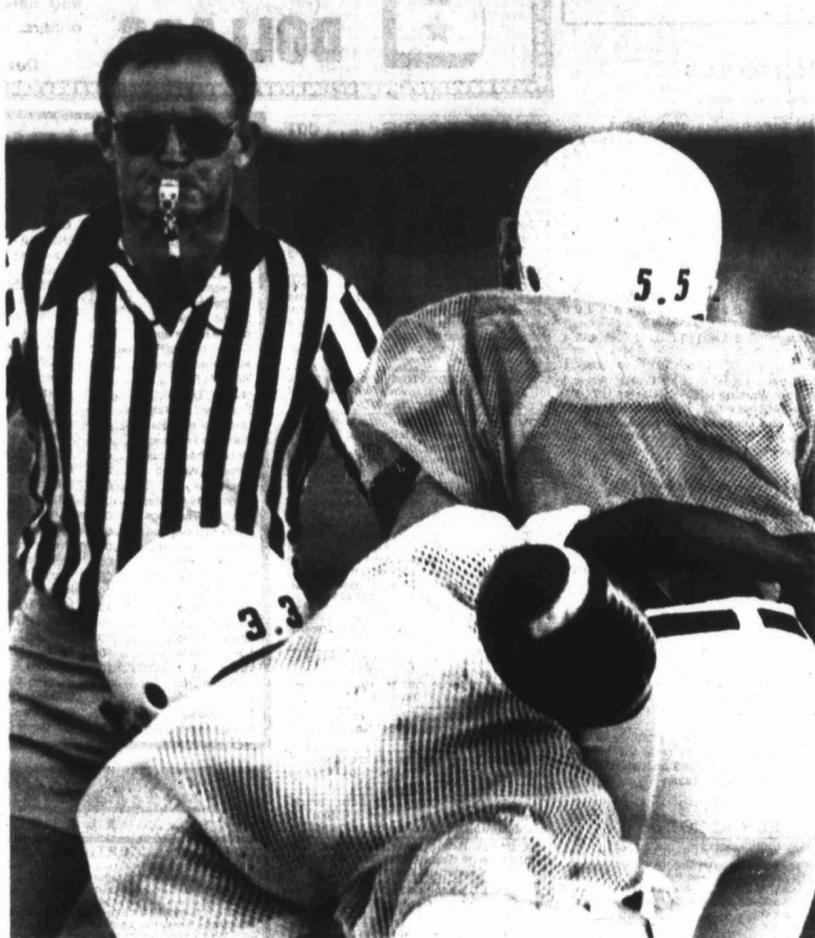

The extra conditioning program Eudy has instituted at Big Spring High School played a big factor in Friday's scrimmage. Eudy, who utilized 40 minutes of his regular workout for conditioning purposes, said the conditioning paid off in the heat and long two-hour, 100 play scrimmage.

The Steers concentrated mostly on running plays during the offensive segment of the scrimmage, Eudy said. The running game is one area Eudy said which has concerned him over the past few years. He said he had been unhappy with the cutback moves of the backs. However, the staff made some changes this fall which the backs have adjusted to real well, Eudy said.

Top quarterback prospect Carl Speck, a junior, also had an opportunity to work on his passing. Eudy said he was pleased with Speck's performance Friday. He also complimented receivers Billy Russel and Tommy Gartman for their efforts.

"Our offense is much, much better," Eudy said.

"The offensive line has improved greatly," Eudy said. "Luis Puga and Charles Ogle played real well in the line. (all-district performer) Doug Walker (defensive tackle), Jerry Anderson (linebacker), and two secondary people, Jay Pirkle and Matt Garrett, played well on defense. We made some mistakes, but they were speed mistakes."

No score was kept in the scrimmage, Eudy said. All the coaching staff wanted to do was look at as many potential varsity players as possible, he said.

"This is the first year in my coaching career where we did not have a bad workout," he said. "We are way ahead of last year's spring game."

The Steers coach was more than happy with the team's first full-contact scrimmage. He said the credit had to go to the coaching staff and the players.

"I was really pleased with the progress and effort (over last spring), Eudy said. "They really played with effort. At Big Spring you have to play with great effort to be successful."

Red Devils cage G-City Bearkats

By BILLY NABOURS
Sports Editor

GARDEN CITY — Bearkat coach Tony Stricklin said going into Friday's scrimmage against Rankin he was a little skeptical as to how his relatively young and banged up team would react against traditionally tough Rankin.

He found out, and according to Stricklin, "We're going to win some ball games."

Stricklin said he will rest easier now, however after watching his first Garden City edition stay within a score of the Red Devils, 2-1 here Friday night.

"I thought our runningbacks did well on the inside game," said Stricklin. "If our young linemen improve like I think they can and when some of our injuries heal up, we should be able to compete well. I thought we did an exceptional job of handling Rankin's quickness." Garden City was without the services of at least nine varsity tested players, either from injuries, illness or personal problems.

At the outset though it appeared the Red Devils were going to take no prisoners. On Rankin's first series Randy Fulton, who led Rankin with 45 yards, toted the mail most of the way. From their own 30, the Red Devils moved to Garden City's 25 only to give up the drive on downs when the Bearkats held.

After going to offense, Garden City started rather auspiciously with a pair of bad snaps between center and quarterback. In fact, on their first dozen plays the Bearkats gained only 12 yards.

On the 15th play of a 25 play series, quarterback Bryan Thompson scrambled for nine yards which seemed to ignite the Bearkats. Abelardo Madrid, a 145-pound junior runningback, fueled the drive with a 40-yard scamper to Rankin's 15. It then took 10 more plays, but Thompson and Madrid drew first blood in the scrimmage when Madrid hauled in a five yard toss from Thompson during a goalline situation. Madrid led the ground game for both teams by picking up 50 of Garden City's 77 yards. The completion was the only one of the scrimmage in eight attempts by Thompson, a senior, and David Montgomery, a junior.

It did not take Rankin long to answer back as the District 6A team used only two plays to score on a five yard pass as well when working at the goalline. On two more plays from the five, Garden City managed to halt Rankin just shy of the end zone.

After a short break, Rankin chalked up its second score when Fulton went over from four yards out, capping a 13 play, 70-yard march.

After that, Garden City never managed anything past its own 39. During his final 25 plays in the game simulated class Garden City quarterback Montomery was sacked twice for losses totaling 26 yards.

Garden City's next scrimmage action comes on Friday, Aug. 31 when the Bearkats of District 7A travel to Sterling City to face the Eagles of District 8A.

White seeking contract

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas (AP) — Dallas Cowboys All-Pro defensive tackle Randy White says he is physically and mentally ready to play, but will hold out until he gets a new contract.

"I won't play football until I get a new contract," White told The Dallas Morning News in a story for Saturday's editions.

White has been living and fishing in seclusion in Northeast Texas, since July 20, the day after he was due to report to the training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

Colorado City snaps Stanton 4-1 in controlled scrimmage

By STEVE BELVIN
Staff Writer

COLORADO CITY — The Colorado City Wolves issued a warning to opposing teams this year with their first scrimmage versus Stanton last night — be ready to defend against the pass.

Coach Tom Ramsey's Wolves put on a powerful passing display while dowing the Buffaloes 4-1. The Wolves potent passing attack gave Stanton mentor Dale Ruth and his troops problems. The Colorado City quarterbacking trio of Doug Chitsey, Mike Ligon and Armando Rivera, completed 10 of 14 passes for 220 yards.

The Wolves passing attack was so diversified, eight different receivers caught passes Friday night. The Wolves running attack was also at its best led by the rushing of Sammy Rivera and Bill Jackson.

Meanwhile, the Wolves defense was pretty good itself, allowing the Buffaloes only four first downs while C-City racked up 14.

In fact, Stanton's only score of the scrimmage came on the Wolves first offensive possession when Chitsey was blindsided by defensive end Benny Tarango and his pass was picked off by defensive tackle Jody Kelly who returned it 55 yards to the endzone.

Following the score, the Wolves went on to score four times in their next 16 plays. The first score came on a 36-yard pass from Chitsey to wide receiver Perry Conner. The second score came when Chitsey scampered 60 yards on a veer play, while the third score was a 35-yard scoring pass from Chitsey to tight end Don Randle.

The Wolves final score came when Jackson scooted 51 yards down to the Stanton 19-yard line. Sammy Rivera scored on the next play.

Stanton's Wing-T attack moved the ball better on its second possession behind the quarterbacking of John Zugg. Stanton moved the ball to the Colorado City 40-yard line.

Ramsey was happy with the way things went. "I am pleased with our defensive effort and we played well offensively. Our passing attack looked good. We did have a breakdown on backside blocking on the interception."

"Teams are going to have to play pass defense against us. We only use three to four passing and running plays each, but we will use the one-back offense sometime during the year."

Ruth said his team still had a lot of work to do.

"We need to work on our conditioning, blocking technique and timing in the backfield," he said. "I think we did fairly well for our first scrimmage. Colorado City looks like a team that will be in the playoffs this year."

FUND RAISER — Big Spring Herald publisher and Chemical People Task Force chairman Tom Watson and Big Spring Tennis Association vice president Karen McIntyre show off the trophy to be awarded at the Tennis-Thon at the Figure 7 Tennis Center, Comanche Trail Park Sunday. The tennis-thon is being sponsored by the tennis association to raise funds for the Chemical People Task Force. In the background is John McIntyre.

Chicago blanks Atlanta, 3-0

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO — Rick Sutcliffe allowed just five hits in winning his 10th consecutive game and Ryne Sandberg drove in two runs as the National League East-leading Chicago Cubs beat Atlanta 3-0 Friday.

Sutcliffe, 12-1 since joining the Cubs from Cleveland in June, struck out six and walked one in recording his second shutout. He also picked up two hits and scored a run.

Rick Camp, 6-6, gave up two runs in five innings to take the loss. Sandberg opened a two-run Cub first inning with a solo home run, his 16th of the season and first since Aug. 1. Gary Matthews followed with a triple and eventually scored on a wild pitch by Camp.

Chicago scored again in the seventh when Sutcliffe singled, went to second on a sacrifice bunt by Bob Dernier and came around on Sandberg's single.

Sutcliffe was in trouble in the first when Claudell Washington and Chris Chambliss singled, but Sutcliffe escaped when he picked Washington off second to end the inning.

Brad Komminsk opened the Atlanta fifth with a double and went to third when Ken Oberkfell grounded out. But Sutcliffe struck out Jerry Royster and then ended the threat by getting Bruce out of the sixth. But left fielder Mel Hall slipped and fell flat on his back, allowing the ball to roll to the warning path as three runners scored, breaking the tie.

With one out in the sixth, Mike Easler singled to right and took third on Bill Buckner's double.

Benedict to ground out to second. Dale Murphy opened the seventh with a double for Atlanta, but Sutcliffe protected the shutout with three straight ground ball outs.

Red Sox 7, Indians 6

BOSTON — Pinch-hitter Rick Miller broke a 4-4 tie with a fluke three-run double in the sixth inning, rallying the Boston Red Sox to a 7-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Miller lifted a routine 330-foot fly ball that appeared to be the final

Reds 2, Pirates 0

PITTSBURGH — Dave Parker bounced a run-scoring single up the middle in the seventh inning to break up Jose DeLeon's no-hit bid and the Cincinnati Reds, despite the lone hit, beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Jeff Russell.

Russell, 6-14, allowed just one hit after the second inning in outdueling DeLeon, who tossed a perfect game for six innings. Russell struck out six and allowed one walk.

Ruidoso Results

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. (AP) — Mr. Crimson Bug took control early and stayed in command all the way for a convincing win in Friday's $91,599 All-American Derby Second Consolation quarter horse race at Ruidoso Downs.

Despite intermittent rains earlier in the day, the track was still fast, and Mr. Crimson Bug covered the 440-yard distance in 21.55 seconds.

Sent off as the betting favorite and ridden by Alex Badillez Jr., Mr. Crimson Bug hit the wire 1 1/2 lengths in front of Miss Jordash. Daburn It ran third from start to finish.

Mr. Crimson Bug paid $3.60, $2.40 and $2.20 and earned $15,147 with the victory for owners Jerry Rheadaill and Wilbur Smith of Lewisville, Texas.

Ft. Stockton raided by Lady Steers in tourney

MONAHANS — The Big Spring Lady Steers beat Fort Stockton here Friday, 15-10, 15-7 to advance in the Monahans Invitational Volleyball Tournament.

Big Spring will now face host Monahans, defending District 2-4A champion, at 9 a.m. today.

The Lady Steers are 3-3 after getting good games from Tanya Ferguson and Debbie Holguin, each with eight service points and Tammi Green who chipped in seven. Trefl Clemons, Sheila Chatman and Monique Jones had two apiece.

"I was glad to get a win, but we played a little sloppy and were slow along the backline," said head coach Susan Sharp.

WIN IN SNYDER
 On Thursday the Lady Steers took it on the chin in Snyder by scores of 13-15, 9-15 during which Big Spring missed 13 serves.

"We just weren't concentrating," said Sharp.

Holguin was singled out for making several good saves which, "Kept us the games closer than maybe they should have been," according to Sharp.

Holguin led in service points with half a dozen. Clemons followed with four and Ferguson added three.

Big Spring will be at Steer Gym, Tuesday, Aug. 28 when the Lady Steers host San Angelo Lakeview beginning at 7 p.m.

Ruidoso Results

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. (AP) — Mr. Crimson Bug took control early and stayed in command all the way for a convincing win in Friday's $91,589 All-American Derby Second Consolation quarter horse race at Ruidoso Downs.

Despite intermittent rains earlier in the day, the track was still fast, and Mr. Crimson Bug covered the 440-yard distance in 21.55 seconds.

Sent off as the betting favorite and ridden by Alex Balidarez Jr., Mr. Crimson Bug hit the wire 1 1/2 lengths in front of Miss Jordash. Dabburn It ran third from start to finish.

Mr. Crimson Bug paid $3.60, $2.40 and $2.20 and earned $12,147 with the victory for owners Jerry Rheudasil and Wilbur Smith of Lewisville, Texas.

Ft. Stockton raided by Lady Steers in tourney

MONAHANS — The Big Spring Lady Steers beat Fort Stockton here Friday, 15-10, 15-7 to advance in the Monahans Invitational Volleyball Tournament.

Big Spring will now face host Monahans, defending District 2-4A champion, at 9 a.m. today.

The Lady Steers are 3-3 after getting good games from Tanya Ferguson and Debbie Holguin, each with eight service points and Tammi Green who chipped in seven. Trell Clemons, Sheila Chatman and Monique Jones had two a piece.

"I was glad to get a win, but we played a little sloppy and were slow along the backline," said head coach Susan Sharp.

WIN IN SNYDER
 On Thursday the Lady Steers took it on the chin in Snyder by scores of 13-15, 9-15 during which Big Spring missed 13 serves.

"We just weren't concentrating," said Sharp.

Holguin was singled out for making several good saves which, "kept us the games closer than maybe they should have been," according to Sharp.

Holguin led in service points with half a dozen. Clemons followed with four and Ferguson added three.

Big Spring will be at Steer Gym, Tuesday, Aug. 28 when the Lady Steers host San Angelo Lakeview beginning at 7 p.m.
