How's that? Violation

Q. Recently I was ticketed for having lapsed license tags on my vehicle. I didn't realize that the tags were outdated because I never received a renewal notice from Austin? Why doesn't Austin consider it a requirement instead of a "courtesy" to send out renewal notices?

A. Don Luna of the Midland-Odessa office of the Motor Vehicles Division of the Texas Highway Department told the Herald that it is not a requirement because the department must annually contact owners of 14 million vehicles and "it's going to happen" that someone is occasionally overlooked.

Howard County tax assessor-collector Dorothy Moore said the Motor Vehicle Department "tries to reach everyone but that doesn't mean they will. But that is their intention."

However, owners are liable for their own vehicles and "they have a responsibility" to be aware of expiration dates for their tags, Mrs. Moore said.

Luna said, "If the tags are expired, (vehicle owners) are in violation of the law." Vehicle owners are given a five-day grace period at the beginning of each month before being ticketed.

Justice named

AUSTIN (AP) — Raul A. Gonzalez, a one-time migrant worker who currently is an associate justice on the 13th Court of Appeals, today was named to the Texas Supreme Court.

Gov. Mark White said Gonzalez, a Corpus Christi jurist, is the first Hispanic to serve on the high court bench.

Gonzalez, 44, will fill the unexpired term of Justice Charles Barrow, who resigned from the Supreme Court last month to become dean of the Baylor University Law School. The term extends until Dec. 31, 1988.

Nation's capital 'shuts down'

Federal workers told to go home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government, its till empty, told about 500,000 employees to go home today, even as Congress appeared to be closing in on legislation to keep the bureaucracy solvent.

The notice, issued by the Office of Management and Budget at 9 a.m. CDT, told non-essential workers they had three hours to "secure their desks and otherwise prepare for shutdown."

Earlier, the agency had said it would temporarily furlough most of the federal workforce if the White House determined that the emerging spending compromise between the House and the Senate was unlikely to meet with President Reagan's approval.

Not affected by the shutdown order are federal workers dealing with air traffic control, border guards, medical institution personnel, and prison and other law enforcement personnel.

The Postal Service, which has its own budget, was not affected. Government processing of Social Security and other government checks would also proceed.

Also unaffected were the departments of Justice, Commerce, State and Housing and Urban Development, plus the Veterans Administration, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Environmental Protection Agency. Appropriations bills for those agencies had been passed earlier.

Nonetheless, the administration estimated that about two-thirds of the non-defense workforce would be affected by a temporary furlough, the first in four years.

On Capitol Hill, meanwhile,

Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill told reporters that the House was prepared to pass another short-term extension to keep federal workers from being sent home.

"If it's absolutely necessary, we'll get it out of here as quickly as possible" and send it to the House, O'Neill said.

With the Senate in recess until mid-afternoon, however, there was no way Congress could pass the short-term measure before employees were told to go home.

TAX TIPS — A sign on a local 7-Eleven store window reminds customers that the new state taxes on newspapers and tobacco, passed to help pay for state education reforms and highway improvement, are now in effect.

Autumn rainfall leaves 1 inch

Early morning rains that fell on much of Howard County today left between a half-inch to 1½ inch of moisture, according to area reports.

The official rainfall count at the U.S. Big Spring Field Station north of the city was .46 of an inch of rain, bringing the year's official total to 7.47 inches. The normal amount is 15.34.

Kelly Gaskins, a Knott farmer, said this morning he received 1½ inches of rain on his land several miles outside of Big Spring.

Residents on the city's east side and southwest side were reporting about a half-inch of rain. Red Thomas of 107 E. 13th, reported a half-inch also.

The forecast calls for a 30 percent chance of continued rain today. Highs were expected to reach the mid 70s by this afternoon with calm southerly winds.

The chance of rain lessens considerably by Friday, when highs near 80 degrees are forecast and winds will be south to southwesterly, 5 to 15 miles per hour.

Chrysler appoints UAW boss

DETROIT (AP) — Directors of Chrysler Corp. today elected United Auto Workers union President Owen Bieber to the automaker's board, making him only the second national union leader in U.S. history to have a seat on the board of a major corporation.

Bieber was elected on the recommendation of company Chairman Lee Iacocca.

Iacocca's blessing was considered tantamount to a getting the seat. The board, meeting in New

Every day Department of Public Safety Sgt. Frank Woodall goes to work, he and his men face the possibility of danger. The memorial picture of Trooper Jimmie Parks, killed by a motorist in 1975, attests to the danger in law enforcement.

It's a danger Woodall, the new DPS sergeant stationed in Big Spring, shrugs off, much in the manner of his hero, John Wayne.

"Every time you put on a gun and go to work, you're in danger. It's one of the inherent characteristics of this line of work," Woodall said. "If you let your mind dwell on it, you never would go to work. You have to take it (the danger) as part of the job."

Woodall's office walls are decorated with certificates he's earned and old highway patrol pictures he has collected — including a 1942 or 1944 shot of two troopers in the division's old "Smokey Bear" hats, so named because they resembled the hat worn by Smokey Bear.

But dominating the office, alone on the wall, is a large picture of John Wayne in a Green Beret taken from his movie, "The Green Berets." "Everyone's got to have a hero and he's mine," Woodall said. Woodall joined the highway patrol after he graduated from what was then Tarleton State College in Stephenville with a bachelor of science degree in agricultural education and had a brief stint as a vocational education teacher. "Teaching," he says, "was obviously not for me." In contrast, Woodall said, "The highway patrol is something that's always interested me." While he was in college, a highway

Rain soaks West Texas

By The Associated Press
 Much of West Texas was under a shroud of heavy rain as a low pressure system clashed with an upper level disturbance moving northeast across the state weather officials said today.

The National Weather Service said radar and satellite data over the last six hours showed 1/2-to-1 1/2 inches of rain had fallen over the southern two thirds of the thirsty Panhandle.

Clear skies, meanwhile, persisted in northeast and southern regions. The remainder of the state reported mostly cloudy skies as moist tropical air streamed northward from the Gulf of Mexico.

Southerly winds of 5 to 15 mph breezed across most of the state as pre-dawn temperatures generally hovered in the 50s and 60s.

At 4 a.m., temperature extremes ranged from 57 degrees at Amarillo and Lufkin to a milder 72 degrees at Galveston.

The forecast today called for mostly cloudy to partly cloudy skies with scattered thunderstorms and showers statewide. Highs will climb mostly to the 70s and rise to the 80s in extreme southern areas.

Showers moved across the southern half of the Rockies today into the western edge of the Plains while light snow continued over the Colorado mountains. Fair skies and cool temperatures prevailed over the eastern states.

Temperatures dropped into the lower 30s over northern sections of Michigan during the night. Mild temperatures and partly cloudy skies covered the West Coast.

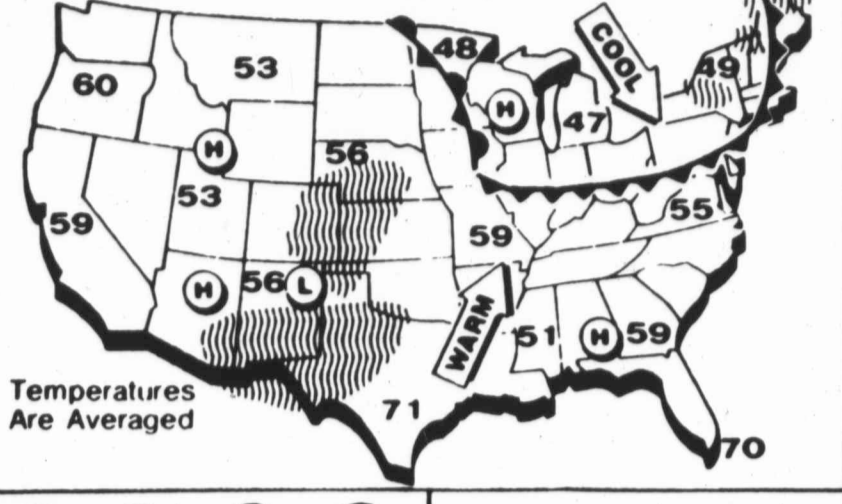

Today's forecast called for thunderstorms over the southern half of the Rockies into the Plains and light snow in the higher elevations of the Colorado mountains. Some showers were expected through the Pacific Northwest and over northern New England. Mostly sunny skies were predicted from the Great Lakes to the Gulf Coast and Florida. Cool weather was expected over the northeastern states and the central Rockies, with highs in the 50s. Temperatures were to be in the 80s on the Gulf Coast and in the desert Southwest; and in the 60s and 70s for the rest of the nation.

Temperatures at 3 a.m. EDT ranged from 30 at Marquette, Mich., to 75 at Fort Lauderdale and Key West, Fla.

Man stable after collision

A Big Spring man remained in stable condition this morning in an Odessa hospital after the motorcycle he was driving collided with a car Wednesday morning near the intersection of Highway 87 and Driver Road.

Danny Priest, 25, of 4112 Dixon was admitted to the Intensive Care Unit at Odessa Medical Center Hospital at about noon yesterday after he received emergency room treatment at Malone-Hogan Hospital in Big Spring.

According to Shaffer Ambulance personnel, who transported the man to both hospitals, Priest suffered head injuries as a result of the accident.

Police reports said Priest, driving a 1974 Honda 550 cc motorcycle, was attempting a left turn onto Driver Road when he collided with a 1977 Buick Limited driven by Mary Hefley, 67, of 801 FM 700.

Ms. Hefley, who was driving north on Highway 87 at the time of the accident, was ticketed for failure to yield right of way by Big Spring Police, reports said.

In other police reports:

- Lonnie McDowell of 1500 Wood was treated and released at Malone-Hogan Hospital with a broken jaw early Thursday morning after filing an assault report with Big Spring Police.

McDowell told police someone he knows assaulted him at about 12:30 a.m. Thursday outside a residence near the intersection of Union and Sixth.

Police at about 7:30 p.m. Wednesday arrested a Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. woman on suspicion of solicitation of prostitution. Rosemary Clancy, 20, was arrested at Rip Griffin's Truck Stop at the intersection of Highway 87 and Interstate 20.

A Wednesday night fight at the Players private club at 3202 Interstate 20 east resulted in the arrest of two persons on suspicion of assault on a police officer and public intoxication.

Steven O'Brien, 22, of Farmington, N.M. and Lee Roy O'Brien, 36, of Sand Springs were arrested at the club at about 12:50 a.m. Thursday.

A third person, Cynthia Minslow, 31, of 1500 Stadium was arrested for disobeying a police officer and public intoxication after the incident.

A Honda dirt motorcycle and motorcycle accessories valued at a total of $1,750 were reported stolen at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday by J.R. McMurray of the Honda A-1 Cycle Shop at 904 E. Fourth. McMurray told police the incident happened at about 11 p.m. Tuesday, reports said.

Deputies nab Coahoma man

Howard County sheriff's deputies Wednesday arrested a 23-year-old Coahoma man on two driving violations.

Matthew Derrick Soles was released on two $200 bonds for charges of driving with an expired driver's license and driving with no headlights. Bond was set by Justice of the Peace Lewis Heflin.

William Charles Melton Jr., 18, of Forsan was released from county jail on the authority of the 118th District Probation Office. He had been jailed on a warrant for revocation of probation.

Melvin Simmons Jr., 22, of 601 Bluebird was transferred Wednesday to the sheriff's office from the Department of Public Safety on suspicion of six traffic warrants. He was released on a total of $1,200 bonds set by Heflin and peace justice Bobby West.

Mary Ellen Wallace, 44, of 405 1/2 Seventh was transferred Wednesday to the sheriff's office on suspicion of driving while intoxicated and impersonating a police officer. She was released on $1,000 bond for the DWI charge and $2,500 bond for the impersonation charge. Bond was set by Municipal Judge Melvin Daratt.

Terry Parson Terry, 24, of Gail Route was transferred Wednesday to the sheriff's office from the police department on suspicion of DWI. He was released on $1,000 bond set by Daratt.

Sergeant

has been working in the highway patrol division ever since his graduation from their academy.

Before his arrival in Big Spring at the beginning of September, Woodall, 36, has been stationed in Fort Worth, Denton, Pecos and San Antonio.

"I haven't been disappointed with my career at any time. Anytime you assist anyone in any way, you have to get some personal satisfaction," he said.

Public reaction to the department has always been fairly favorable, Woodall said.

"You have people who like the highway patrol; you have people who dislike you, no matter what field you're in. The department has always had a fairly good reputation," he said. "You have to be fair and impartial to all of the people you come in contact with."

Woodall said he has no changes in operations planned for the local office. As the first sergeant for the newly created sergeant district headquartered in Big Spring, he said he will wait to see what the area's needs are before making any changes.

He oversees a four-county area, including Martin, Glasscock and Reagan Counties, previously administered by the Midland sergeant district. Howard County, the fourth county, was formerly under the jurisdiction of the Lamesa office, he said.

The district will have 10 troopers, Woodall said, but at the moment has only nine.

Although Woodall said he is unsure of the specific problems of his new district — its statistics are difficult to obtain because the counties were split into two other districts — statewide statistics indicate the major problems are speeding and intoxicated driving, he said. "Both contribute heavily to accidents," he said.

He said he has no new methods to prevent drivers from speeding or driving while intoxicated.

"I can't think of anything else that we are not already doing. We have a public relations campaign aimed at DWIs, a safety education program for people, and the Ad Council is running ads against DWIs and speeding," Woodall said. He also cited the department's media blitz on Operation Motorcade prior to holidays and its present enforcement efforts as deterrent factors.

What he hopes to accomplish at his new post, Woodall said, is a sense of cohesiveness. "There are so many areas we are working toward, it's hard to tie everything together. My main goal is taking manpower and stations to form a cohesive group," he said.

He said he plans to start a program he has been involved in his other stations: safety talks to elementary school children. "I especially enjoy the work I've done in school systems. It's a way to win adults over through their children," he said.

Woodall and his wife, Raylene, have three kids, aged 3, 6 and 10.

He is also a certified police instructor and a certified National Rifle Association police firearms instructor.

Chrysler

York, made it official late in the morning.

"Obviously what's good for the Chrysler workers is good for the corporation," Beiber said after the announcement.

He said he views the seat as a union position, not a personal one, and said he would not participate in board discussions of collective bargaining.

Iacocca posed with Bieber for photographers but did not comment on the appointment.

The union had been pressing for the place at the board table since former UAW president Douglas Fraser announced he would give up the seat he was granted in 1980, when Chrysler was in the midst of its brush with bankruptcy.

The union's pressure stepped up at Chrysler's annual stockholders' meeting on June 7 when Fraser formally gave up the seat and asked that it go to Bieber.

Energas to consider rate hike

AMARILLO — Energas Company announced today that 63 communities on the company's West Texas City Plant system are considering a 4.3 percent general service rate increase for domestic and commercial type customers.

The increase was recommended by a steering committee formed by the communities to study a 7.7 percent Energas rate increase requested July 6. If approved by communities, the increase would be effective with bills rendered on and after Nov. 1.

Based on historic gas sales to that system, the recommended increase would result in an increase of about $5 million to annual revenues of the gas distribution company.

Approximately 186,000 domestic and commercial type customers would be affected by the proposed increase in an area extending from Pampa, Hereford and Lubbock to Midland and Odessa.

The average increase would be about 20 cents per thousand cubic feet. A domestic customer using 10 thousand cubic feet of natural gas would receive an increase of $2.01.

Local Demos to open office

State Rep. Larry Don Shaw of Big Spring and his fellow Democratic candidate, County Commissioner Precinct 3 hopeful Jonell Smallwood, will be present Sunday at the formal opening ceremonies of the Howard County Democratic party campaign headquarters.

The party office will open its doors at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Prager Building on Third Street near the old Zales store.

The party will have a fundraiser and reception in conjunction with the presidential debates, which begin at 8 p.m. Sunday. All Democrats or anyone interested in the party or its candidates are invited to watch the televised debates at the office, according to party member Kay Burns.

Shaw is unopposed in his bid for re-election. Smallwood faces Republican incumbent Bill Crocker in the only contested local race in the general election.

National 4-H Week kicks off

National 4-H Week is slated Oct. 7-13. The theme is "4-H: Building on Experience."

Almost 5 million youths between the ages of 9 and 19 are members of 4-H clubs across the nation. Of that number, 2,000,000 are in Texas.

The Texas 4-H program reaches boys and girls through more than 2,000 community based clubs and another 900 short-term project groups.

The 4-H program is conducted in each county through the cooperative Extension Service and is backed by the state's land-grant university, Texas A&M, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

More than 17,000 adult and teenage 4-H leaders shoulder much of the responsibility for the Texas program.

'Barbershoppers' to perform

The Permian Basin Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., also known as the "Barbershoppers," will take to the stage in Midland's Yucca Theatre at 8 p.m. Saturday to present a fall concert.

"The Standing Room Only" quartet from San Antonio will headline the show. Other quartets will be featured from San Angelo and Lubbock. From Midland will be the "Sun Country Gentlemen Chorus."

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children.

The Permian Basin chapter, founded earlier this year, has a membership of 43 men from Midland, Stanton, Odessa, Andrews and Big Spring.

Meeting are held each Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Theatre Midland, 2100 W. Wadley. For more information, contact Jerry Scott at 267-6604 in Big Spring.

Club hears clean-up update

A recent Chamber of Commerce sponsored-project helped clean up downtown city streets, particularly Third and Fourth Streets, Clean project director Johnny Rutherford told Downtown Lions Club members Wednesday.

The project tackled two of the most commonly mentioned problems — beautification and jobs for young people, Rutherford said.

Although the original 25-member youth work force had to be cut to 12 because of the project's cash flow, CLEAN paid its workers a total of almost $16,000 for their labor, Rutherford said.

"It was a free-enterprise project," Rutherford said. "Some of the youngsters learned early on if you don't work, you get fired. Some others worked well but showed little initiative. And then there were a number who demonstrated real industry and leadership. I think we made a real impact on the thoroughfares — particularly Third and Fourth Streets."

City becomes drug center

COLOMBO, Sri Lanka — A senior police official says Colombo has become a major drug trafficking center and more than 75 percent of the Asians arrested in Europe last year for drug smuggling and related offenses were Sri Lankans.

Hema Weerasinghe, who heads the National Drug Control Board, told a news conference Wednesday that Sri Lanka was both a consumer area and a transit point supplying heroin to Western Europe.

Weerasinghe said there had been 500 arrests here for drug related offenses in the first half of this year, with 66 pounds of heroin seized compared with 13.2 pounds seized all of last year.

He said most heroin smuggled into the country came from India and Pakistan.

Alcohol usage up in GB

LONDON — Alcohol consumption has increased sharply in Britain in the past two decades, a consumer-affairs magazine says.

In a survey published today, Which? magazine said consumption of wine has risen by 240 percent since 1962, liquor 95 percent, and beer 22 percent.

The magazine said it is estimated that alcohol abuse in England and Wales costs $1.25 billion a year, taking into account the burden on health services, police and prisons, loss of industrial output and road accidents.

It said there are at least 750,000 alcoholics or people with serious drinking problems in Britain, which has a population of 56 million.

Court sentences 6 to die

YAOUNDE, Cameroon — A provincial court sentenced six men to death for the murder of a bishop and one of his priests in 1983, the official Cameroon news agency reports.

The Roman Catholic bishop, Monsignor Jean Kounou, and the Rev. Materne Bikoa were killed Nov. 29, 1983, after a diocesan festival. The court said robbery was the motive and the ringleader, Etoa Amougou, was a cook at the bishop's residence.

The news report Wednesday said the six men, ranging in age from 20 to 40, were sentenced Monday in Mbalmayo, a farming community 25 miles south of the capital. The men also were ordered to pay a total of $22,200 to the victims' families and $11,100 to the Mbalmayo diocese.

No date for the executions was fixed.

Officers find five bodies

ASUNCION, Paraguay — The bodies of five people, three of whom apparently were tortured, have been found in a small city along the Brazilian border, an Asuncion newspaper reports.

The daily Hoy said Wednesday the remains were found in Pedro Juan Caballero, about 250 miles northwest of the capital.

USSR honored at party

PEKING — Despite their continuing rivalry, China and the Soviet Union celebrated the 35th anniversary of their diplomatic relations at a cocktail party in Peking.

The event Wednesday was given by the Chinese People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries and the Sino-Soviet Friendship Association.

Priest suspends 200 students

CHICAGO (AP) — A priest enforcing a show-up-or-get-out order has suspended 200 students at a Roman Catholic school because their parents — whether Catholic or non-Catholic — did not attend Mass on Sunday.

The suspensions at Holy Angels Elementary School were imposed to reaffirm an agreement parents signed to attend church each Sunday, said the Rev. George Clements, pastor of Holy Angels Church.

"If parents don't attend Mass, their children cannot stay in this school," he said Wednesday.

Re-admission for the children would depend on their parents' meeting with him and promising again to attend Mass regularly, said Clements.

AGENT'S HOME — San Diego County deputy sheriff J. Christiansen tells members of the media to leave former FBI agent Richard Miller's home in Valley Center Tuesday. Miller was arrested Wednesday on espionage charges.

Soviet spy

Agent offered USSR information for $65,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 20-year FBI veteran offered the Soviet Union a "very detailed" picture of U.S. intelligence activities for $50,000 in gold and $15,000 cash, authorities said after the first-ever spy charge against an FBI agent.

Special Agent Richard W. Miller was held without bail after his arrest Wednesday because "flight is a real strong risk," said Assistant U.S. Attorney Ray Edwards.

Authorities also arrested and detained without bail two Soviet emigres accused of conspiring with Miller.

Miller, 47, was a counterintelligence agent in the FBI's Los Angeles Office and was supposed to prevent foreign infiltration of American intelligence activities. He was charged with conspiring to gather defense information to aid a foreign government, which carries a maximum penalty of life in prison, and fired on Tuesday.

FBI Director William H. Webster, appearing glum at a Washington press conference, said the damage to U.S. security is not irreparable. The FBI still is conducting a "damage assessment" in the case and "a great deal more work is still to be done," he said.

According to an FBI affidavit, Miller admitted he was in financial trouble and demanded the gold and cash for supplying Svetlana Ogorodnikov, 34, an alleged KGB major, and her estranged husband, Nikolay Ogorodnikov, 51, with classified FBI documents.

Government sources in Washington, speaking only on the condition that they not be identified, said that Miller and Mrs. Ogorodnikov may also have been having a sexual relationship.

The affidavit said Miller detailed "personal, professional and financial problems" and "she seemed sympathetic."

Miller, arrested at his home in the rural San Diego County community of Bonsall, was to return to federal court in San Diego today for arraignment. At his appearance before a magistrate Wednesday, he and his wife Paula conversed in sign language.

The Ogorodnikovs, arrested at their Fairfax apartment, were arraigned in a packed Los Angeles courtroom. Soviet natives who emigrated here in 1941 the Ogorodnikovs claimed to be destitute. The FBI said they were receiving welfare benefits.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard Kendall said bail should not be allowed because the Ogorodnikovs are still Russian citizens and could be snatched from the country by other Soviet agents.

"There is a strong KGB motivation to get them out of the United States," Kendall said.

A preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 15. A grand jury is expected to begin hearing the case next week.

The FBI affidavit said that around Aug. 12, Mrs. Ogorodnikov identified herself for the first time as a major in the Soviet intelligence agency and asked Miller if he would be willing to work for the KGB.

FBI officials said the data outlined information U.S. agents seek when they question communist bloc emigres and what they listen for on foreign surveillance wiretaps.

Town seeking to secede

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Gov. Dick Riey will have to set a date for another referendum on whether a predominantly white town may secede from a heavily black county.

The state Supreme Court, ruling Wednesday that ballots were not kept confidential, nullified the results of a July referendum that prevented Hemingway from seceding from Williamsburg County, and ordered a new election.

Secessionists say Hemingway would enjoy better schools if part of Florence County. Opponents say the move is racially motivated.

2 awarded $1.8 million

MINNEAPOLIS — A couple who sold their prize dairy herd and gave the proceeds and all their other assets to a religious ranch they had joined in Arkansas were defrauded, according to a jury that awarded them $1.8 million.

Carl and Diane Bredberg, of Dunnell, Minn., successfully sued the Realife Ranch of Rogers, Ark., and operators Dean and Nelda Long in U.S. District Court, where a jury ordered the award Tuesday.

The Bredbergs, who felt "they were giving their property to the work of God," claimed the Longs misrepresented what life on the ranch would be like, said their attorney, Elton Kuderer.

Workers fly first class

RACINE, Wis. — It cost Johnson Wax about $500,000 to fly some 500 employees of a British subsidiary here for a party, but the boost in morale makes it worthwhile, says the head of the company.

The workers from the Frimley Green unit of S.C. Johnson & Son Inc., about 40 miles from London, flew in for three days of hospitality including a tour of company headquarters Wednesday and a trip to New York City Friday and Saturday.

"The reaction in England was instantly positive," said Samuel Johnson, 56, chief executive officer. "I didn't believe it would have such an electrifying effect on the people there."

Officials investigate fire

BLAIRSVILLE, Ind. — Investigators say they'll check whether a new wood-burning stove that sparked a fire that killed a woman and her five children was properly installed.

David Carwile, 33, who returned home after the fire broke out early Wednesday, suffered minor burns from plunging into the house in an attempt to rescue his wife and children, said Fire Chief Mike Tenberge.

The wood stove, installed last week, "just melted down through the floor," said Tenberge. "I've never seen one do that before."

1,000 protest city ordinance

NORMAL, Ill. (AP) — Police clad in riot gear fired tear gas today from atop City Hall into a crowd of about 1,000 young people protesting an ordinance restricting large gatherings, authorities said.

Crowds of rock-throwing youths, most from Illinois State University, were dispersed by 2:30 a.m. after seven hours of demonstrations during which protesters' numbers ranged from 500 to 2,000, said state police Sgt. John Manning.

Three injuries were reported. There were no reported arrests.

Windows were broken in City Hall and at one or two stores in the downtown area, where signs were torn down and phone booths were smashed, Manning said.

ISU President Lloyd Watkins appealed to students after midnight to stop demonstrating.

Heckling won't help candidate

There is no question that officials of the Reagan-Bush campaign have been involved in the demonstrations and heckling directed against Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro; the only question is to what extent and at what level. Although Reagan campaign officials encouraged and organized the demonstrators against Mondale at the University of Southern California, and positioned them where they could be most effective, both the White House and other leaders of the campaign denied that they've orchestrated or coordinated larger efforts to shout down the Democratic candidates. NBC, however, quotes "high Republican sources involved in the campaign" as saying that Reagan-Bush officials have been encouraging the organization of anti-abortion demonstrations against the Democratic candidates.

A lot of people are pointing out that such activities would be counterproductive — indeed, abysmally stupid — for a campaign whose candidate is as far in front as Ronald Reagan is at the moment. But so was Richard Nixon in 1972, when his dirty tricks squads were at their busiest, attacking an all-but-defeated opponent. Given the fact that some people now involved in the Reagan campaign were proposing dirty tricks back then doesn't reduce the suspicion about their involvement now or increase the credibility of the denials.

Nor does the president's casual attitude. "I wish people wouldn't do it," he said the other day. "But I suppose if the speaker has a right to be heard, they've got a right to be heard."

What pious hypocrisy. Of course they've a right to be heard, but not by drowning out or shouting down a speaker. It's hard to imagine that President Reagan doesn't understand that, or that he doesn't understand the fact that if Mondale and Ferraro are shouted down with impunity, no speaker is safe from the boosers. Fifteen years ago, we got that sort of glib rationalization from Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin and the Weathermen; it's hard to believe we're now getting it from the president of the United States.

Even if there were no suspicion that the Reagan campaign were involved, any president who regarded himself as a genuine leader — a voice of optimism and decency — would be expected to speak out against the shabby tactics now directed against Ferraro and Mondale. One unequivocal order, one expression of repugnance from the man in the White House would almost certainly end it. But so far there's been not a word from Ronald Reagan. Nothing. If that's leadership, it's hard to imagine the alternative.

Heckling helps

Heckling has become a major campaign issue. Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro have both been victims of heckling by Reagan supporters in the crowds. The big question is does heckling help or hurt a political ticket? Lawrence Depththroat, who runs the Political School of Heckling at the University of Southern California, believes that hecklers enhance a politician's campaign. He told me, "As much as Mondale fumes against hecklers, they've done more than anything to live up his rallies." "In what respect?" "Well, everyone knows when the candidate is out on the campaign trail — the only reason he is giving a speech is to get on the evening news. A surefire way of doing this is to have a bunch of hecklers try to prevent the candidate from speaking. It not only makes great TV pictures, but it also gives him or her an opportunity to respond to the hecklers. It's the best way to win the sympathy vote." "Are you trying to tell me that Mondale is putting on an act when he accuses the Republicans of sending out kids to heckle him?" "No, it is quite possible that he really objects to them. But his staff is rather pleased with the heckling. First, because Mondale gets mad when he's being heckled and shows some emotion. Secondly, they can accuse the Republicans of resorting to dirty tricks, hoping to bring back memories of Nixon supporters' tactics in 1972. It is my personal belief that heckling has fired up the Democrats, and the Mondale-Ferraro ticket has gained more by being heckled than they have lost." "The Republicans must know this," I said. "Why are they sending out hecklers if it can only help the opposition?" "I don't think they are. In fact, the smart GOP pols would just as soon stop the heckling as they know it's counterproductive. But they're not in control of the far-out pro-Reagan factions. In Mondale's case the college kids are doing the heckling. Ferraro's hecklers come mostly from the Right to Life groups. "Why don't they heckle President Reagan as well?" "For one thing, Reagan's campaign staffers are much more selective as to the type of audiences the president addresses. They keep tight control of the tickets to make sure the audience is made up of only Reagan supporters. The police and Secret Service see to it that Reagan hecklers are kept at least one block away from where he's speaking." "Wouldn't hecklers help Reagan as much as they're helping Mondale?" "At the moment the Reagan camp doesn't need them because the polls are so much in the president's favor. I haven't seen their game plan, but they might be waiting for the last few weeks of the campaign before they allow Reagan to be heckled." "And the president doesn't mind being heckled?" "He loves it. He has a list of great one-liners against hecklers that can guarantee him a standing ovation." "Then it is your opinion that heckling a presidential candidate is not such a bad thing, and Mondale shouldn't make a big deal of it." "He has to make a big deal of it. Otherwise the heckling might die down and he'll have to go back to discussing his economic reforms. What TV news executive in his right mind would put that on the air?"

High crimes and whistle-blowing

WASHINGTON — When a government whistle blower is treated like a criminal, it's time to recall Adm. Hyman Rickover's wry advice to conscientious federal employees: "If you must sin, sin against God, not against the bureaucracy. God may forgive you, but the bureaucracy never will."

John Hnatio was a security specialist in the Energy Department. His big mistake was talking to an investigator for Rep. John Dingell, D-Mich. He told the investigator last year that top Energy officials had lied to Congress about the security situation at government nuclear weapons plants and had done nothing to correct the problems.

When word of Hnatio's honesty reached his bosses, they hit the ceiling. He was given an official reprimand and was threatened with the loss of his security clearance — which would have destroyed his career as a security specialist.

Dingell has noted the irony that an employee of the Oak Ridge, Tenn., weapons plant retained his security clearance for six months after his conviction for burglary, while Hnatio's clearance was in danger because he told the truth to a congressional investigator.

When his bosses began to persecute him, Hnatio asked for an investigation by the department's inspector general. The IG cleared him of any impropriety, and Hnatio got an apology from a top Energy official. That should have ended it.

But the bureaucrats weren't through with Hnatio. The latest weapon was a "warning letter" placed in Hnatio's personnel security file — and an incredible memo explaining what the warning letter was intended to convey to Hnatio. The letter was written by one superior Hnatio criticized; the memo was written by another.

My associates John Dillon and Indy Badhwar obtained a copy of the memo. Written by Robert Morgan, a deputy assistant Energy secretary, it states:

"The use of a 'warning letter' parallels the long-established policy of using a 'drug certification letter' that, in essence, warns the individual that continued use or involvement with illegal drugs could have an effect on his/her clearance."

So while a burglar can keep his security clearance, an honest whistle blower is classed in the same category as a junkie and warned that his addiction to the truth could get his clearance revoked.

Hnatio's bureaucratic tormentors apparently were a little uncertain about the warning-letter ploy. So they asked the department's general counsel if it was OK to unleash the weapon on a targeted employee.

The counsel responded that while the warning letter didn't violate any statute or regulation, the Energy Department "has promulgated no regulatory guidelines for such practices."

The agency's lawyer then concluded that, to be fair, the bureaucrats would have to blaze a proper paper trail. "In our view," the counsel's memo stated, "if you decide to continue with this practice, the procedure should be set out in a department order or regulation."

What the general counsel failed to address — and what no one at the Energy Department seems to care about — is the fact that John Hnatio's bosses had no business warning him to stop telling the truth. The warning letter may make the lawyers feel better, but it won't solve the problem of bureaucratic vendettas against employees who try to do their jobs.

Footnote: Morgan, one of the officials Hnatio criticized for shoddy performance, received a $10,000 cash award from the department in 1983 for "outstanding accomplishments."

WATCH ON THE KREMLIN: Soviet leaders seem to think that occasional public acknowledgment of the grinding inefficiency of their system will act as a safety valve on their subjects' long-suffering resentment.

For example, one recent story pointed out that the Soviet Union is the only developed country that suffers from widespread paper shortages — despite having more trees than the United States, Sweden and Finland combined. Another story estimated that the average Russian spends more than 130 hours a year standing in line for basic commodities.

The effective blackout of solid news on the condition of Andrei Sakharov illustrates the disintegration of the dissident movement in the Soviet Union. A few years ago, Western reporters would have been given details about his situation, and probably statements from other dissidents. But the KGB's crackdown on dissidents has imprisoned most of them and cowed the rest.

APOLOGY RECEIVED: A sheepish Farm Credit Administration official has finally admitted that his description of one of my reporters as a deadbeat was "inaccurate."

When my reporter Joel Bernstein began inquiring about the luxurious buildings the FCA is constructing, while farmers are going broke by the thousands, an agency flack named Jeffrey Oates sent a memo identifying Bernstein as "a delinquent Farm Credit borrower."

Bernstein has never been on a farm in his life, much less applied for a farm loan.

Oates has now told those on his memo list that his reference to Bernstein "is inaccurate."

El poder viene en numeros, nomas preguntele a cualquier politico.

En Noviembre se llegara el tiempo de elegir el hombre que va hacer el presidente de los Estados Unidos para cuatro mas anos.

Nosotros sabemos que el Presidente Ronald Reagan y George Bush representan a los republicanos y el Walter Mondale y Geraldine Ferraro son los candidatos de los democraticos.

Los dos lados dicen que cada uno puede hacer mucho por las condiciones economicas y sociales de este pias. Siempre ha dicho la gente que los republicanos es la faccion que hace por los ricos y los democraticos por los trabajadores.

Cada cuatro anos los candidatos hacen promesas a varios grupos. A veces hacen tantas que se les olvidan. Pero asi es la mayoria de los politicos, nomas conocen a uno cuando mas les conviene.

La prensa y los politicos han dicho y tambien se ha oido por otras partes que los 1980s van hacer la era de los mexicanos. Ese hablar comenzo al fin de los 1970s.

Pero donde esta grupo tan poderoso? Ya se ha llegado el tiempo de los mexicanos, pero la raza no ha respondido en los lugares de votacion.

Esta semana, la campana del Reagan viajo por el Valle de Texas donde mas de 90 por ciento de la gente es mexicana. Todos saben el poder de los mexicanos. El hombre mas poderoso en los Estados Unidos sab esto.

Los politicos miran a la raza y les da temor del poder potencial de los mexicanos. Ellos saben que poder vienen en numeros.

Pero el mexicano, el grupo que tiene mas que ganar, no parece que le importa lo que tienen que decir los candidatos.

Hace mas que un ano que una senora de San Angelo dijo que los candidatos no entiende a la gente mexicana. Ella dijo que nosotros no queremos que nos diga un blanco ni un negro que necesitamos nosotros de mexicanos. Dijo que necesitamos aun candidato de nuestra raza que nos represente.

La paciencia de los mexicanos es increible. Cuando los negros andaban demostrando por sus derechos en los '60s, los mexicanos no eran tan vocal. Pero la mayoria de la raza es asi — piensa mas diferente que los negros y blancos. Y por eso es imperativo que una persona que verdaderamente conoce la cultura y necesidades de los mexicanos nos represente.

Hay varios hombres, como Enrique Cisneros el mayor de San Antonio, Antonio Pena el mayor de Denver, Colo, y Toney Anaya el gobernador de Nuevo Mexico, que en el futuro van a ser candidatos para oficios muy altos en el gobierno.

Ellos nos van a necesitar y mas importante nosotros vamos a necesitar a ellos.

El tiempo ya se llevo de hacer algo. El dia no es manana ni el dia despues de manana pero ahora. Ahora tenemos que juntarnos y discutir lo que necesitamos para el futuro de nuestra raza y tambien nuestro pais.

'Dallas' puts CBS on top of TV ratings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — CBS grabbed the top two spots of the Nielsen ratings for the first week of the fall season as millions of viewers tuned in "Dallas" and "Falcon Crest" to end a summer of suspense and find out who shot who and who survived.

"Dallas" was first and "Falcon Crest" was second for the week ended Sept. 30 as the nighttime soap operas returned with solutions to the summer-long suspense engendered by their cliffhanger plots.

CBS — last year's top network — thus was first at the official start of the season after a summer in which it frequently fell behind ABC and NBC. Last week it was third, behind first-place ABC. ABC dropped to third this week and NBC remained in second place. NBC was out of the cellar during the premiere week for the first time since 1980, but ABC made its worst showing since 1962.

NBC's "The Cosby Show," first the week before with its premiere show, was third. Situation comedy may be making a comeback after last year's dismal showing in the ratings — NBC's "Cheers" and "Family Ties" also made the Top 10. Another NBC comedy, "Night Court," was 15th.

In fourth place was ABC's "Dynasty," returning with cliffhanger solutions of its own. It was ABC's only showing in the Top 10.

The first week's ratings appear to back what the experts were saying all summer: that this could be the tightest three-network ratings race in years. ABC was strong all summer, and now NBC is showing ratings strength. NBC placed five shows in the Top 10, to CBS' four. ABC's only entry was "Dynasty."

CBS was first in the A.C. Nielsen Co. survey with a network average of 17.5. NBC was second with 16.1 and ABC was third with 14.5. The networks say this means that in an average prime-time minute 17.5 percent of the nation's homes with television homes were tuned to CBS.

Here is the Top 10: "Dallas," CBS, first; "Falcon Crest," CBS, second; "The Cosby Show," NBC, third; "Dynasty," ABC, fourth; "The A-Team," NBC, fifth; "60 Minutes," CBS, sixth; "Cheers," NBC, seventh; "Family Ties," NBC, eighth; "Murder She Wrote," CBS, and "Knight Rider," NBC, tied for ninth.

CBS' "Murder She Wrote" was the only new show to make its premiere in the Top 10 this week. CBS' "E.R.," which had a special sneak preview several weeks ago, made its "official" debut in 48th place. ABC's "Three's a Crowd," making its first appearance after the changeover from "Three's Company," was in 29th place.

The CBS miniseries "Mistral's Daughter," adapted from Judith Krantz' romantic best-seller, placed only one chapter near the top. The second part tied for 11th place. The opening chapter tied for 16th and the third part was No. 25. The lowest-rated show of the week was a paid political telecast, "LaRouche for President." All the other shows in the "Bottom Five" were ABC's, including three of its new series. Here are the five lowest-rated shows in descending order: ABC's "Who's the Boss?," ABC's "Hawaiian Heat," ABC's "People Do the Craziest Things," ABC's "Ripley's Believe It or Not," and "LaRouche for President."

"The CBS Evening News" was on top again for the week. ABC's "World News Tonight" was second and NBC's "Nightly News" was third. The ratings: CBS 11.7, ABC 10.5, NBC 8.7.

Here are the top 2 shows for the week:
1. "Dallas," CBS, a rating of 26.4 or 22.4 million households.
2. "Falcon Crest," CBS, 23.4 or 19.8 million.

Illegal alien cannot wait for U.S. justice

DALLAS (AP) — Gregorio Segovia says he doesn't have time to wait for federal officials to build a case against the man who allegedly demanded a higher smuggling fee from him at gunpoint.

"I need to know if I can work right away," Segovia said. "I can't afford to be idle. I have too many mouths to feed."

Segovia was one of 10 undocumented aliens that a "coyote" — an alien smuggler — allegedly brought into Texas earlier this week. He says that he, five other adults and four children agreed to pay $450 each to be brought to the Dallas area in a 550-mile trek.

But in an unusual twist to smuggling sagas, the aliens actually ended up calling the police on their coyote after he allegedly held them at gunpoint and demanded $200 more from each.

Police have charged 46-year-old Salvador Barragan with eight counts of false imprisonment and one count of carrying a concealed weapon. Bond has been set at $200 on each of the misdemeanor counts.

Police on Tuesday also arrested a 36-year-old Dallas woman accompanying Barragan, but she was not charged.

Segovia told The Dallas Morning News Tuesday that he still hopes to get a job and earn money to feed and clothe his 14 brothers and sisters in Mexico.

But in the meantime, he says the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service has asked him to remain in the United States while they develop the case against Barragan.

Segovia said that in exchange for his cooperation, he and two other adults may get temporary permits allowing them to remain in the country for six months.

When the aliens first arrived in Dallas, they say the coyote demanded $650 from each of them.

"He wouldn't let us out of the van, and he pulled a gun out and put it in his shirt," said Rosa Rodriguez, who was traveling with her three children aged 13 months to 4 years.

She said relatives in Richardson, a Dallas suburb, called police after the group tried unsuccessfully to bargain with the smuggler.

Police arrested Barragan in a convenience store parking lot after Mrs. Rodriguez' brother-in-law, Armando Saavedra, told the man to meet him there so he could pay the extra money.

Segovia and Mrs. Rodriguez said the journey was their second attempt to use smugglers to enter the United States.

"There is no work for me or my husband in Coahuila," said Mrs. Rodriguez. Her husband stayed in Mexico because he could not afford to pay his way.

Segovia said the wages he made

'I need to know if I can work right away. I can't afford to be idle. I have too many mouths to feed.'

— Gregorio Segovia

in his home town of San Luis Potosi weren't enough to put food on the table for his family.

"They pay us 300 pesos a day (about $1.50)," Segovia said. "For 14 brothers and sisters that's barely enough for a piece of bread."

He said he was among 23 Mexicans who waded the Rio Grande to Laredo with the help of a smuggler. In Laredo they contacted another coyote and paid 5,000 pesos (about $25) as a down payment to arrange their journey to other areas of Texas.

They also agreed to pay a total of $450 for each adult and each child in the group, he said.

They traveled by van to Austin and from there were transported to Houston in the back of a tractor trailer rig. Segovia said they were unable to stand and were forced to lie on top of the regular freight in total darkness.

He said the passengers received their only meal, which included a slice of bread and sausage and a drink, in Houston.

Most of the group stayed in Houston while the other 10 continued on to Dallas in a van where relatives waited.

Bust to stop trafficking

LUFKIN (AP) — A large predawn raid targeted at suspected drug pushers should help stem the flow of narcotics traffic in East Texas, prosecutors say.

"Anytime you have 95 indictments and 80 or so defendants, you are obviously going to make a dent in the drug trafficking business," said Angelina County District Attorney Gerald Goodwin after Wednesday's raid.

"The dope peddlers may still sell it, but they will wonder about it for a while now," Goodwin said.

A sheriff's dispatcher said late Wednesday that almost all of the 81 people named in sealed indictments have been rounded up by sheriff's officers, Lufkin and Diboll police and the Texas Department of Public Safety.

About 20 more suspects were booked into the county jail during daylight hours Wednesday after the raid, said Sandy Rains, dispatcher. Another 61 people had been taken into custody before 8 a.m.

Dear Abby

Fire prevention makes sense all year long

DEAR READERS: Last year in the United States, 6,137 people died in fires. The total loss in property alone came to $6.43 billion.

In Canada there were 675 fire-related deaths. The property damage was $998.89 million.

This is Fire Prevention Week, and although fires occur throughout the year, each season has its own special fire hazards. Here are some tips for all seasons:

FALL: If you enjoy camping, select a tent made of flame-resistant fabric. Pack a reliable flashlight with plenty of extra batteries to light the inside of your tent — never use matches or candles. When building a campfire, place it downwind of your tent. And never try to hasten the burning by using liquid starters.

If you use your fireplace, have your chimney professionally cleaned in the fall to make sure it's in good condition for the coming season.

WINTER: More fires occur during winter than in any other season. The reasons: home heating and the holiday season.

If you use a portable heater, be sure it is placed away from combustibles — draperies, furniture, paper, etc. Remember, the surface heat of some portable heaters may reach 500 degrees, so keep a careful watch on your children and warn them to keep away from heaters. Hospitals are treating an increasing number of patients with burns resulting from contact with the outside surface of some portable heaters.

For a Merry Christmas, choose a Christmas tree that does not have shedding needles, and keep it standing in water while it is in the house. If you choose an artificial tree, choose one that is flame-resistant.

After holiday parties, before retiring, check your ashtrays for smoldering cigarette butts, and carefully examine all upholstered chairs and sofas to make sure that no "live" cigarette butts have fallen between the cushions. Remember, most house fires occur between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m., when people are sleeping.

SPRING: Take spring cleaning seriously — clean out your attic, basement, garage and workshop. Throw out trash, especially combustibles such as rags, newspapers, magazines, boxes and scraps of wood. Never smoke while fueling gas-powered lawn mowers or chain saws. If you must store gasoline, store it in a ventilated area in a can designed especially for that purpose. And store oily rags and paint in a cool place in tightly sealed metal containers.

SUMMER: When cooking out, never use flammable liquids near live coals. An explosion or flash fire could result. When you've finished cooking, soak the coals with water and make absolutely sure they're out when you leave. Smoldering coals that appear to be "dead" can reignite as much as a day later. If you use a propane gas grill, always have the lighted match in position before turning on the gas.

Some tips for all seasons:

- Never smoke in bed.
- Never leave invalids or small children alone in the house — not even for "a few minutes."
- Never use flammable liquids for dry cleaning indoors.
- Have periodic fire drills in your home to be sure everyone knows what to do in case of fire.
- Keep easy-to-use fire extinguishers in your kitchen, cottage, back bedrooms and on your boat. And if you can afford smoke detectors, install them and be sure that they are always dust-free and in working order.

• The phone number of your fire department should be taped to every telephone in your house. If it isn't, should a fire occur, don't waste time trying to find it; get out, and call from a neighbor's house.

And once you are out, stay out. No treasure is worth risking your life for.

Antibiotics for preventive maintenance

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: What is your opinion of the practice of taking antibiotics periodically as a preventive maintenance program? There is a gentleman in our office who does this, and he seems to come down with quite severe cases of flu when he does contract such an illness. I have heard that this kind of approach to antibiotics can set a person up for super infections. — C.M.B.

You can't take an antibiotic a day in hopes of preventing infections. There are only a very few situations where antibiotics are a part of preventive maintenance (a phrase I admire). Let me mention a few.

A person may be taking penicillin on a daily basis to prevent an attack of rheumatic fever if he has had that once. Or he may have a chronic lung ailment and take antibiotics for long periods to prevent lung infections. Or before an artificial hip replacement surgery, a person may take antibiotics to prevent infection of the artificial joint.

I'm not saying that the antibiotics won't cure an infection once it has started. They do that, certainly. But trying the kind of maintenance program your office friend has can be dangerous. He can be killing his body's own normal bacteria; that can allow growth of germs that do cause problems. He can be desensitizing himself to the antibiotic, making it worthless when it is really needed. He can be flirting with the possibility of allowing a bacterium to become resistant to that antibiotic, in effect, raising a super germ.

So all in all it's not a good idea. I don't know where it would be related to the virulence of a flu (virus) infection, however. Antibiotics are effective only against bacteria, not viruses.

And a related question:

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My nose runs when I eat, and it seems to do so even more when I eat out. — R.T.

You've explored the allergy possibilities, haven't you? If so, you can look to other factors, like nasal congestion brought on by heat or cold. You might ask your doctor if it is safe for you to use a medication to dry your nasal passages on those occasions when you must dine out. You don't use it all the time, just for special occasions.

Another thought: This happens to people sometimes if they have injured nerves of the nasal lining. Because of improper healing, the lining reacts to stimulations with production of nasal secretions. It happens sometimes after shingles (facial) or Bell's palsy. For this, the drug, glycoprolate brings relief for some. It blocks the nerve signals.

Dr. Donohue welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters.

Bodies recovered from Hell Gate

NEW YORK (AP) — Police divers returned Wednesday to search the rushing waters of Hell Gate, in the East River, where at least six sunken cars have been found, two with dead bodies in them.

Divers found a bone in one of four cars pulled from the water Wednesday, police said. However, it will not be known whether the bone is human until it is examined by forensic experts, said Officer Julius Dengler of the police department's harbor unit.

Two bodies were recovered Monday and Tuesday from two cars sunk in Hell Gate's treacherous waters, where the East River meets the Harlem River.

One body was identified as a state police investigator shot two weeks ago in Sullivan County. The other is that of a New Jersey dry cleaning store operator, reputedly slain five years ago.

Divers were to return to the river Thursday morning because "there are probably more cars down there," Dengler said.

Authorities believe both identified men were killed by Edward Esposito, 39, reportedly a nephew of the late underworld boss Joe Colombo. Esposito was found hanged in a tree, an apparent suicide, in Hopewell Township, N.J., on Sept. 23.

Officer John Holihan of the police harbor unit said Wednesday morning that a scuba team went back to the same spot in the river "because when they pulled up the car yesterday with the trooper, they found about four or five more cars down there."

"We're wondering now if it's some type of burial ground," he said.

Police did not know whether there was any connection between the four cars pulled to the surface Wednesday and the two cars retrieved earlier in the week, Dengler said.

The site is about 40 yards off the southeastern side of Wards Island, between the boroughs of Manhattan and Queens, in 25 feet of water. The Sanitation Department has a sludge treatment plant there.

After Esposito's body was found in New Jersey, an investigation brought searchers to Hell Gate on Monday in hopes of finding Richard Snyder, the state police detective missing since Sept. 20.

But the divers came up with a luxury sedan containing the bones of Robert Fratello of Randolph, N.J., who had been missing since January 1979.

Fratello, who was 53 when he died, ran four dry cleaning stores in Morris County, N.J. The prosecutor there, Lee Trumbull, identified him as an associate of slain Philadelphia mobster Angelo Bruno. Trumbull said he thought Esposito "was directly involved in the death of Fratello."

Thursday Notes

By BILLY NABOURS
Sports Editor

Let's hear it for the Lady Steers junior varsity volleyball team!

When is the last time one can remember any Big Spring team going through one round of district undefeated. Well this team consisting of eight sophomores, three freshmen and one junior blitzed the field with a perfect 7-0 record.

Coach Elaine Stone's crew is red hot. After getting off to a dismal 2-4 start they have comeback to win 14 of their last 17 games.

"Before district started the girls all talked about a dream," said Stone when discussing her team's success. "That dream was to win state on a varsity level. We decided the first step was to win district as junior varsity. We are holding on to that dream."

Big Spring's Wacey Cathey has been moving steadily up the ladder in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association bull riding standings.

Cathey has earned over $39,000 thus far in 1984 and is presently ranked fourth behind seven time world champion Don Gay of Mesquite, Ted Nuce of Manteca, CA., and former world champ Charles Sampson of Los Angeles, who just recently married Marilyn Casmon of Big Spring.

Despite several inches of rain the past few days, little if any runoff reached Lakes Thomas and Spence, thus the rises, if any, won't have much effect on fishing.

At Lake Spence during the past week, John Walker of Big Spring had the week's big catch with a 13-lb., 10-oz. yellow cat.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's desert bighorn sheep restoration program suffered a setback recently with the loss of six lambs and a ewe from disease, but the program still is on the upswing largely because of the efforts of sportsmen's organizations and individuals.

Charles Winkler, big game program director, said 11 lambs born during 1984 still are alive and have been inoculated against parainfluenza which felled five of the other six.

Winkler said the state's bighorn restoration program is centered around a 40-acre fenced brood facility at the Sierra Diablo Wildlife Management Area near Van Horn. "The facility was built by the Texas Bighorn Society, and it provided a secure place for the brood animals we have obtained from other states," he said.

The Texas Bighorn Society is a fundraising organization dedicated to restoring the rare native sheep to areas of the Trans-Pecos region where they had been extirpated. The society is comprised of several sportsmen's organizations, including the Texas and National Chapters of the Foundation For North American Wild Sheep, the Houston, Dallas and Paso del Norte Safari Clubs, Game Conservation International (GAMECOIN) and Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas (SCOT) and many individuals interested in restoring the desert bighorn to Texas.

"Individual sportsmen also have played a key role in the program," Winkler pointed out. He explained that Bill Leech of Arlington and Bill Ledford of Dallas were high bidders for ram hunting permits in Utah and Nevada, respectively, and they in turn asked the state game departments each to donate a sheep to the Texas program instead of harvesting a surplus ram as authorized by their permits. As a result, two rams and two ewes were added to the brood herd.

Area Game of the Week

Horserace on tap when Mustangs host Mustangs

By STEVE BELVIN
Staff Writer

ACKERLY — It will be the battle of the Mustangs here Friday night when Sands and Wilson hook up in the final non-district game for both Class A squads beginning at 8.

Both teams are similar in ways, the main similarity being that both teams are young and both have had problems getting their offenses going.

Coach Jim White's Sands Mustangs enter the contest with a 1-3 slate while Wilson, coached by Gary Lewis, is still seeking its first win in five tries.

Sands only win was a 40-0 thumping of Rochelle, but they had their problems last week as they were drummed by O'Donnell 34-8. Lewis is really crying the "no offense blues" as his team as yet to score a point, while rendering 16 points to Farwell, 29 to Spur, 47 to Sundown and 37 to Whiteface.

Other than the 40 points versus Rochelle, Sands has scored only six points. So both coaches are looking for more offensive production from their team.

Wilson will start three freshmen and three sophomores on offense. Freshman quarterback Greg Spears will be making his second start. Timmy Riojas leads the Mustangs in rushing with 118 yards on 40 carries.

Wilson also has a young offensive line, but it is not lacking in size. The Mustangs average 190 pounds per man. "We'd like to be able to throw and run the football," said Lewis. "We just haven't moved the ball at all. We have a young backfield and line, inexperience is killing us."

"Sands is a young ballclub like us, they are struggling, but their offense is more productive and they have a good little defense. Their quarterback Johnny Willis has good quickness."

Meanwhile White is hoping for better things from his offense. Last week it sputtered for only 127 total yards, 80 coming on a TD run by Arnold Valasco. Valasco now has 387 yards on 85 carries. "Arnold is a good running back," said White. "He's kind of like Tony Dorsett, you might stop him for no gain, then you'll miss a tackle and he'll be gone."

"We need to get our other backs open more and have a more balanced offense. I'd like to pass 10-12 times a game because we want to, not because we have to." One change White has made is inserting freshman fullback Jay STONEWALLED — Big Spring tailback Tommy Gartman runs straight into Midland linebacker Darrell Davis during the fourth quarter of last week's District 4-5A opener, lost by the Steers 21-7.

Gartman contributed 28 rushing yards to the attack and scored the only Steers' touchdown. Big Spring will attempt to rebound Friday in an 8 p.m. kickoff against Odessa Permian at Memorial Stadium.

Bully of the block

Permian to challenge Steers

By BILLY NABOURS
Sports Editor

There's no denying the fact that Big Spring's Steers are caught between the proverbial rock and a hard place in light of beginning District 4-5A action last week with a loss.

Another loss would all but dismiss the Steers from any opportunity to claim the gold ring. With that weighing on their minds, however the Steers will face the bully of the block when they entertain the Odessa Permian Panthers Friday at 8 p.m. at Memorial Stadium.

The Panthers will roll into the game carrying the designation as the state's number one Class 5A team. Permian is a veteran outfit with 30 seniors and 24 juniors on its roster. Permian has rolled over El Paso Coronado and Hanks 26-0 and 39-0, shutdown Ft. Worth Eastern Hills 55-7 and clipped the Abilene Eagles 40-14 in the district opener.

Those kind of statistics have Permian averaging 40 points a game while yielding only 5.2. The Steers, in going 2-2, have played things closer to the vest. The Steers are scoring at a 13 points per game clip and giving up 16.7.

The yardage department Permian is tops among the district's teams at 440 yards a game. The defense is giving up only 128 pieces of real estate each outing.

The numbers are even more impressive through the years. Permian is 232-43-6 since opening its doors more than two decades ago. Of the last 15 district championships handed out in either old 5-5A or 4-5A, Permian owns 10. Permian is 47-3-2 the last four years.

Big Spring head coach Quinn Eudy said his team is impressed, but not awed by such lofty facts and figures.

"It's an honor and we're fortunate to be one of the 10 teams on Permian's schedule," he said. "We know we'll have our hands full, but we're ready to play. The atmosphere around our place has been good all week and we had an excellent Tuesday workout."

Much workout time has centered around the young offensive line of the Steers (the interior includes a pair of juniors and sophomores). That line made some mistakes not usually associated with veteran outfits in last week's 21-7 loss to Midland. Big Spring backs were held to a season low net total of 95 yards. "Our backs were running well and making the cuts they had to make, we just didn't block very well," said Eudy. For that reason the third year Steer boss added, "Our offensive linemen have worked real hard at coming off the ball this week. They have worked on their footwork and I expect them to be much better this game."

Something else Eudy expects is a decrease in turnovers. The Steers turned the ball over three times against Midland and Eudy said even once against Permian could be too much.

"Because of the type defense Permian plays (4-3 with the emphasis on a lot of slants) they try and force early mistakes and then sit back and play regular. Their defense is small, but sound and very quick," said Eudy.

"We'll have to play error free football, it's a must."

Offensively, Permian revolves around bread-and-butter fullback Dal Watson (310 yards and nine touchdowns). Other threats in the Panthers wing-T power attack are quarterback Alton Holloway (244 yards), tailback Rich Fletcher, wingback Brian Lauterbach, and split end Greg Anderson (14 catches, 247 yards). The Panthers use some misdirection and, "throw the ball more than most Permian teams of the past," said Eudy.

But the Panthers still take the grind-it-out and chew-the-other-team-up attitude. "Our defense will have to tackle better and contain Permian. We can't let them make the long drive on us. Our defense has played well and played well in last week's loss, but they were on the field too much," said Eudy. He noted that two years ago Permian used a pair of 20-play drives in the second half to use up most of the clock in a 31-7 victory.

As far as his own offense and defense goes, Eudy said he plans, "no major changes." He did mention though that he hopes to create a little more balance between the ball carriers.

To date only Colin Carroll, Jay Pirkle, Tommy Gartman and Carl Speck have carried the ball for the Steers. Carroll leads the team in rushing with 247 yards, both from the tailback and fullback position. Gartman, since switching from flanker to tailback three weeks ago, has rushed for over 150 yards. Speck enjoyed his best night of the year passing when he completed nine of 17 last week.

Of the foursome, Pirkle appears the most likely to get a rest in order for him to concentrate on his secondary chores and punting. Another senior, Terry Spears, has looked good in workouts and is Eudy's choice for some playing time in the backfield.

During the past 10 years Permian owns a 10-0 record against the Big Spring Steers.

The Panthers have blanked the Steers on four occasions during that time. Listed are scores for the past 10 meetings between the two teams.

Fryar (165) into the lineup for David Ybarra who is nursing a bruised hand.

Willis will again be looking for favorite receiver Mark McMullen who has been on the receiving end of six passes for 110 yards. Willis has connected on 13 of 30 passes for 200 yards.

Both White and Lewis figure the contest to be a tight one. "I think it will be a close game," said White. Wilson's defense is really not bad. Their offense and kicking game as led to a lot of scores. If their offense plays well, it will be a knock down, drag out.

On the other hand Lewis feels about the same. "It should be a good game, one young team versus another young team. Whoever makes the least mistakes will win."

Cubs, Tigers gain 2-0 advantages

Chicago shows baserunning talents in win over San Diego

CHICAGO (AP) — The San Diego Padres are locked in a precarious situation and the only way out will be a possible but improbable three-game sweep over the versatile Chicago Cubs. Noted for their power, the Cubs resorted to daredevil base running Wednesday for a 4-2 victory over the Padres and a 2-0 lead in their best-of-5 National League Championship series. Thus, the series could end tonight in San Diego, where the teams resume the competition after the flight west. If the Cubs don't get that one victory they need to get in their first World Series since 1945 tonight, they have chances again Saturday and Sunday in the Padres' park. "Anything can happen but we're hoping to close it out tomorrow night," said Bob Dernier, whose base-running figured in two of the Cubs' runs Wednesday. No team in the NL has ever come back from a two-game deficit to win a pennant although Milwaukee did it in 1982 to defeat California in the American League playoffs. "We know their backs are against the wall, but we still have to go out there and play with the same intensity we have had all season," said Dernier. "A 2-0 lead in a short series is a good feeling," said Keith Moreland, who scored all the way from first base on a double by Ron Cey to set up a two-run third and a 3-0 lead which left-hander Steve Trout never relinquished. Dernier, who started Tuesday's 13-0 romp with a leadoff homer, opened the Chicago first Wednesday with a single. Ryne Sandberg grounded to third baseman Luis Salazar and while Salazar was throwing Sandberg out at first, Dernier raced to third and then scored as Gary Matthews grounded out.

With one out in the third, Moreland singled. Cey followed with a double to leftcenter and Moreland, not noted for his speed, raced all the way home to score. The throw home also enabled Cey to take third from where he scored on Jody Davis' sacrifice fly. "When I was halfway to third, Don (Zimmer) waived me. I knew the play would be close and when the ball got by the catcher (Terry Kennedy) I was in. The big play was getting Cey to third." The Padres never recovered although they finally scored a run in the fourth when Tony Gwynn, the National League batting champion, doubled, went to third on a ground out and scored on Kevin McReynolds' sacrifice fly. The Cubs got this run back immediately. Trout singled but was forced by Dernier. Dernier stole second and scored on Sandberg's double. "We were trying to peck away," said Padres' Manager Dick Williams, "but that hit (Sandberg's) gave them a three-run lead again and that was important. Trout was throwing strikes and worked out of the little trouble he was in." Williams refused to use the breaks the Cubs have had as an excuse. "You make your own breaks," he said, "The Chicago club has played great. Our backs are against the wall but we'll be going to our own park and that'll be an advantage. We have to win the next three, that's all there's to it."

Tigers have to work overtime in gaining narrow 5-3 victory

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The home team stands 1-13 in games between Detroit and Kansas City this year, which is no comfort to the Royals and seems not to worry the Tigers one bit. The hard-to-figure home field disadvantage between the two American League division winners could go to 2-15 and still the American League pennant would fly from Tiger Stadium. The Tigers have two victories in the bank and need to win just one of the three weekend games in Detroit for their first World Series appearance since 1968. "It's a five-game series and that's the way we'll have to play it," said a smiling Aurelio Lopez, who tossed three innings of four-hit relief to get the victory in Detroit's 5-3 eleven-inning conquest Wednesday night. "But if we go less than five games, it's all the better for us."

The best-of-five series shifts to Detroit for Game 3 Friday night. The Tigers, whose 104 victories were the envy of every other major league club this year, battered their hosts 8-1 in Tuesday night's opener. They came back to beat the Royals' best in a nail-biter of a second game. John Grubb, hitting a pitch Dan Quisenberry said "might not have done what I wanted it to do," doubled home two runs in the eleventh. It was the ninth straight victory here for the Tigers, the first team to sweep a season series in Royals Stadium since the facility opened in 1973. And it was a bitter loss for the Royals, who won the West with an 84-victory record which many baseball purists sneered at. "When you lose like we did Tuesday night, you know there wasn't much you could do about it," said Manager Dick Howser, whose post-season record as a field boss has dropped to an embarrassing 0-8. "But tonight, a game like this, this takes something out of you. It's hard to feel confident after a game like this, but we'll regroup."

The Royals won five of six games at Tiger Stadium this year. The only time the home team prevailed between the two was in their first game of the year, April 17 in Detroit. But Tiger catcher Lance Parrish, who hit a home run in the series opener and had two hits and an RBI in Game 2, said he would not take the Royals lightly no matter how well they might have done in Detroit. "I'm never going to count them out," he said. "We're in a good position, but stranger things have happened." For the second straight time, the Tigers jumped on the Royals for two runs in the first inning. Bret Saberhagen, the 20-year-old rookie who became the youngest pitcher ever to start an ALCS game, looked like he was going to get knocked out early. Lou Whitaker reached on Onix Concepcion's error, the first of three miscues the Royals would make. Then Kirk Gibson and Parrish belted back-to-back doubles. But Saberhagen settled down and did not surrender another run until Gibson's one-out homer in the third. The Royals did not get a baserunner off Tiger starter Dan Petry until Pat Sheridan's one-out walk in the fourth. George Brett followed with a single, then Sheridan scored on Jorge Orta's infield grounder. In the seventh, the Royals got a run off Tiger bullpen ace Willie Hernandez on Steve Balboni's single, Frank White's fielder's choice, and singles by Don Slaught and Dane Iorg. In the eighth, the Royals knotted it at 3-3 against Hernandez, the second half of Detroit's bullpen duo. Lynn Jones singled leading off, then Hal McRae, making his first playoff appearance, lashed a run-scoring double to left. Quisenberry, who set a Major League record with 45 saves last season and led the league with 43 this year, started the ninth.

Challenges await Forsan, Coahoma

The Coahoma offense seem to be gaining momentum over the past two weeks with quarterback John Swinney leading the way. The senior has passed for over 300 yards in wins over Tahoka and Big Lake. For the season he has completed 36 of 77 passes for 408 yards. His favorite receiver has been quarterback-turned-receiver Brian Calaway who has caught 12 passes for 139 yards. The Bulldog backfield has undergone some changes with a shoulder seperation putting fullback Luke Yarbar out of action. Tailback Dale Hodnett now plays fullback while Jimmy Yanez and David Hutton share time at tailback. O'DONNELL (3-1) is at FORSAN (4-0) and Forsan mentor Jan East is calling this his team's biggest challenge against the team that drubbed Sands 34-8 last week. The Eagles' lone defeat came at the hands of AA power Seagraves 32-8. The Buffs had a productive rushing game from Mitch Hays in last week's 40-8 drubbing of Rankin, a game coach East said his team played near-perfect ball with the exception of seven minutes of the third quarter. Hays churned out 188 yards in 20 carries. He now has 595 yards on 55 carries for the season. Quarterback Todd East completed three of four passes for one TD in the contest. IRAAN (1-2-1) is at KLONDIKE (3-1) and Cougars coach Jimmy Thomas is breathing easier now that quarterback Scott Runge's knee injury suffered in last week's 10-6 victory over Garden City turned out to be only a bruise. Runge will be in the starting lineup and Tim Cope will be back at tailback. Garden City did a good job on Cope, containing him to 32 yards on 16 carries. He now has 482 yards on 71 carries. RULE (0-4) is at BORDEN COUNTY (4-0) where Coach Dick Frisbee and his Coyotes will be gunning for win number five, the best start in Frisbee's three years at the school. Last week Borden County had to march 52 yards in the final minute to defeat Wienert 26-20. Chris Cooley keyed the attack with 238 yards in 43 carries, raising his season total to 803 yards in 120 carries. "I couldn't be happier with our offensive line," said Frisbee. They just line up and come at you. People know what we're going to do, we like to line up and play football. It's a big advantage if we can go into district undefeated because we have played some good people," he added. STANTON (2-1-1) is at SEAGRAVES (3-1) where coach Dale Ruth's Buffaloes will be seeking a win after last week's 7-0 loss to Crane. The win won't come easy since Seagraves only lost once to state ranked AAA Kermit, 29-8. "This on one of the toughest teams we have faced," said Ruth. The Buffaloes defense has been playing well of late, allowing 13 points in the last two games. Offensively the Buffs running game improved last week as John Zugg led the attack with 64 yards in 19 carries. Glaspie connected on eight of 18 passes for 113 yards. DeLao and tight end Derek Sorley caught three passes each. Sorley leads Stanton in receiving with 14 catches for 244 yards and three TD's. GRADY (1-3) is at PAINT CREEK (3-1) and coach Currie

McWilliams' Wildcats will be seeking to end a three-game losing-streak in the non-district six man contest. The Wildcats are trying to get their defense in gear, losing 65-22 last week to Jayton. Williams was pleased with his team's pass defense though as the 'Cats limited Jayton to 39 yards in the air. Paint Creek will throw a wide open spread offense against Grady passing three of every four downs. To combat this problem McWilliams will change his defense and have five defensive backs and one lineman. Running back Fred Garza will also be back in full stride after recovering from a broken hand. He leads the team in rushing with 212 yards in 32 carries. Wade Miller has 184 yards in 23 carries. GARDEN CITY (0-3-1) travels to BUENA VISTA (1-3) and the Berkats will be attempting to halt their winless season that has seen them allow only 44 points. The sore spot has been offensively where Garden City has netted a dozen points. Head coach Tony Stricklin said the period of adjustment is not entirely complete, but he noted there won't be as many changes with the Berkats' lineup this week. "Bryan Thompson will be at quarterback (previously Thompson and David Montgomery were splitting time) and Frankie Ramirez will be at tailback," said Stricklin. Ramirez started the season at fullback. Doug Hoelscher, who got the only score last week in a 10-6 loss to Klondike and will be at that spot again.

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

"Will there be less homework if the Democrats win the election?"

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Your hopes and wishes are now more progressive and original while at the same time you want to get them to operate on very practical basis so be sure you look at both sides.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Some new idea is fascinating for you, but be sure you can fit it into your present set-up.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Come out with your aims and ambitions, but find more up-to-date ways of attaining them. Take no risks where money is concerned.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A new school of philosophy may seem ideal, but make sure it can be put to practical use. Take it easy tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Although your ideas are good in business affairs, it would be well to get advice from others, also.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Talk over needed changes in any contracts but remain steadfast to the original plan you have made, and be practical with associates.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Have a more up-to-date system where your work is concerned and get better results. Do not lose your temper with anyone.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan recreations you like in the morning, and be sure to include family in future ones. Be happy at home with kin in the evening.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Don't try to stop kin from doing what they please just because you may be unhappy. Cheer up.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't permit a secret worry to keep you from carrying through with the advice of a successful person in business.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) An older friend might try to con you in some way, if you permit, so keep busy at whatever is constructive, and avoid it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Don't permit one in high position to misdirect you in some financial affair. Get busy on what you personally want to do.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Study that new agreement well and be sure it has no holes in it and carry on with projects that are profitable.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be very dynamic and progressive-thinking. (It would be unwise to teach to do things in the old-fashioned way.) and should have a good education at modern schools. Good spiritual training is essential. A lover of music here.

Gunman kills professor
SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) - A gunman believed to belong to a right-wing death squad walked up to a professor who was holding his infant daughter and shot the father to death, witnesses said Wednesday.
Jose Reynaldo Echeverria, a literature professor at the University of Central America and one of El Salvador's leading intellectuals, was gunned down Tuesday night, police and witnesses said.
Witnesses said Echeverria, 35, was standing outside his home with his wife and daughter when a man got out of a car, walked up to him and shot him seven times. His wife and daughter were unhurt.
Friends and family members said he was not politically active. Intellectuals have been frequent targets of rightist death squads.
About 100 death squad assassinations per month were reported in the first five months of this year, but since President Jose Napoleon Duarte took office June 1, the number of killings - linked in the past to security forces - have dropped to about 20 a month, according to the Roman Catholic Church's Legal Aid Office.
In another development in El Salvador, a U.S.-built UH-1H Huey helicopter carrying soldiers and schoolchildren crashed Wednesday on the outskirts of the north central city of Chalatenango, witnesses said. They said seven troops and seven children were injured. Three of the children were hospitalized.
Soldiers said mechanical trouble caused the crash.
