Spring Board

How's that? Agriculture

Q. Who was the father of agriculture in Howard County?
A. According to Joe Pickle's book, "Getting Started," it was the county surveyor, J.B.D. Boydston, because he established an experimental agriculture farm for the Texas and Pacific Railroad in what is now the Earle addition in Big Spring.

Oil price cuts shock industry

Staff and wire reports
An announcement by Norway and Britain that they will cut the price of oil has sent shock waves through the Permian Basin, according to Ed Thompson of the Permian Basin Petroleum Association.

Thompson, reached at his Midland office today, said that the cuts will "probably will affect our prices" in the area and may mean increased hardships on oil and gas professionals.

The United States is already importing much of its finished oil and gas products and many refineries have been shut down because of a lessening demand for products and fluctuating prices on the national market.
Manufacturers have found it cheaper to refine products abroad because they send the products into the states tax free.
"Our economy depends on the oil and gas industry," Thompson said. Cutting the price of oil means "the margin for profit is reduced." Industry professionals will have to look closely at operations "to decide whether or not to drill and whether or not to complete a lease," Thompson explained.

In a statement read over the telephone to the Associated Press, Gonzalo Plaza, a spokesman for the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, said, "any downward spiral of oil prices would have far-reaching adverse effects not only on OPEC countries and their development requirements but also on the world economy at large since any such price deterioration would disturb the longterm world energy balance and world trade."

According to the spokesman, "maintaining the price structure will, therefore, be considered a joint responsibility of all parties concerned."

Thompson said cuts in oil prices may also affect the windfall profits tax, and when the excise tax comes down, "it might balance out."

Thompson was encouraged that OPEC said today it will hold a special oil ministers' meeting Oct. 29 in Geneva to plan a defense of the cartel's oil prices in the wake of the price cuts.

The cartel's decision to meet was

Hotel blaze kills 13

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — A fire that authorities said was started by a disgruntled employee swept through an eight-story residence hotel early today, trapping some residents and forcing others to jump from windows. At least 13 people were killed and 60 injured.

A part-time employee who Mayor Frank X. Graves Jr. said had argued with the night manager of the 60-year-old Hotel Alexander Hamilton was arrested and charged with arson and murder.

Russell William Conklin, 44, was being held without bail at the Passaic County Jail following his arraignment on one charge of aggravated arson and one of murder, the only charges initially filed.

Conklin entered no pleas during the arraignment which was held before Municipal Judge Ronald Fava hours before courts would normally be open.

"We didn't want a circus atmosphere and we didn't want to take any chances on angry relatives and friends," said Assistant Passaic County Prosecutor Martin Kayne.

Fire Capt. Domenick Cotroneo said 15 people had died in the blaze, but the mayor, police and the prosecutor's office said they could only confirm 13 deaths.

The blaze broke out about 12:15 a.m. in the 150-room downtown hotel occupied by about 300 permanent residents and transients, many of them clients of "various agencies of government," Graves said. The fire was under control at 3:40 a.m.

"There are deaths and there are injuries and there are still people in there," the mayor said. Most of the dead were elderly, and at least 55 people were taken to hospitals, he said. Hospital officials said 60 people had been injured.

Some residents jumped from windows, some climbed to safety on firefighters' ladders and others were rescued from the roof, authorities said. The injuries included smoke inhalation, broken bones and burns.

"People were screaming, trying to tie sheets and blankets together to get out the windows," said Lusylvia Rivera, 33, who fled with her three children from a first-floor room. "The ones who were more scared just went ahead and jumped."

Flames were shooting from fourth-floor windows when firefighters arrived at the scene.

Hahn to head Chamber board

GRANVILLE HAHN

By CAROL BALDWIN
Staff Writer

Granville Hahn will become president of the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce in January following elections Wednesday at a directors' board meeting.

Other officers are John Arrick, vice president, and Max Green, treasurer. Paul Shaffer is outgoing president.

Hahn was unanimously elected to the position. He told the board: "This is really an honor, and I'll endeavor to do a good job."

He told the board he will be busy during the coming year with his new business, Permian Research, and that he is expecting shipment of $3 million in equipment and will be hiring new employees during the coming weeks.

But despite his schedule, "I'm happy to be of service if I can be," he said.

Johnnie Lou Avery, outgoing president of the women's division of the chamber, The Blue Blazers, told directors that Shirley Shroyer will take over as president of that organization in January.

In other action, Chamber officials endorsed a major fall cleanup campaign slated Oct. 27 in the city.

Johnny Rutherford told board members that recent rains had triggered the growth of numerous weeds along major thoroughfares. He asked chamber members to join the campaign Oct. 27 and to encourage friends to come out to clear weeds and pick up debris. Rutherford said civic clubs will be encouraged to join the effort.

Rutherford estimated that between 125 and 150 people would be needed from 8 a.m. to noon to get major thoroughfares cleaned up. He asked participants to bring any equipment they might have such as mowers, tools and gloves.

Rutherford stressed the importance of cleaning up the city and said he felt that littered streets "are one of the main obstacles to industrial growth."

In other business, Greg Brooks of Blum's Jewelers was introduced as a new board member, replacing Dick Helms, who resigned due to other commitments.

Personal income, spending up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans' personal income rose a strong 0.9 percent in September while consumer spending, after showing no gains for two months, shot up by 1.4 percent, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department said the rise in consumer spending was the strongest since a 1.6 percent gain in April. Since that time, spending has been on a downward slide, posting no gains at all in July and August.

Economists have cited the drop in consumer buying as one of the key reasons for the dramatic slowdown in overall economic growth since June.

Total economic output, after surging ahead at rates of 10.1 percent and 7.1 percent in the first and second quarters this year, slowed to a 3.6 percent pace from July through September, according to a preliminary estimate last month.

The government will revise that estimate on Friday and today's figures could signal that the revision will show the economy slowed less than originally thought. However, some economists have predicted that other signs of sluggish growth will translate into an even lower figure than the original 3.6 percent estimate.

The report on income and outlays showed personal income rising by 0.9 percent following gains of 0.6 percent in August and 0.7 percent in July. It was the strongest gain since a similar 0.9 percent rise in June.

Americans' wages and salaries were up $11.7 billion in September, compared to a $3.8 billion August gain.

Settles owners plan housing project

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

The same San Antonio family-owned development company that bought the Settles Hotel announced Wednesday that it is involved in converting a mobile home park on the south side of Big Spring into a planned development.

Gil Cuadra, representing MPG Management Inc., said the company will sell "pre-manufactured housing" permanently anchored to foundations in lots at the Crestwood Subdivision. The development, currently the Crestwood Mobile Home Park, is located on the south side of Hearn and state Highway 87.

The development company purchased the mobile home park from John Davidson of Big Spring, "who lived there until today (Wednesday)," Cuadra said.

The new development, where residents will purchase manufactured housing permanently anchored to a lot complete with landscaping, is a growing trend in the Sunbelt, Cuadra said, citing communities in Arizona and Southern California.

"It will provide the majority of people in Big Spring with the opportunity to buy something that they could not afford before — a new home," Cuadra said.

Homes at the park will start at $29,950 for a two-bedroom, one bathroom building, and will cost up to $46,950 for a three-bedroom, two-bathroom home, Cuadra said. The development will include 105 lots, he said.

All housing at the development will be built by U.S. Homes-Brigadier Inc. of Waco because the company offers the 30-year financing at 9 percent interest, Cuadra said.

The developers' subsidiary,

Hunter slays killer tiger

NEW DELHI, India — A nine-foot Royal Bengal tiger believed to have killed 40 people in recent months was slain by a hunter in eastern India, the United News of India reports.

The news agency said Wednesday that S.B. Minaralu shot the tiger last weekend while it was feeding on its latest victim.

Officer named USSR hero

MOSCOW — Gen. Vladimir L. Govorov, who reportedly gave the orders to shoot down a South Korean airliner last year, has been named a Hero of the Soviet Union to mark his 60th birthday today.

The honor is the highest Soviet award. The official Soviet news agency Tass said Govorov, who was promoted earlier this year to be one of 12 deputy defense ministers, was distinguished for his "contribution to increasing military preparedness" and for leadership during World War II.

Bombed hotel get rebuilt

BRIGHTON, England — The Grand Hotel, devastated in an IRA bomb attack aimed at Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and her Cabinet last week, will be rebuilt, according to its owners.

A spokesman for the Greenall Whitley group said Wednesday that the hotel and brewery chain hopes to reopen the 122-year-old hotel on Brighton's promenade by late next year.

The explosion tore a hole in the front of the building, and the spokesman said repairs were estimated to cost about $6 million. He said the hotel was insured for $12 million.

Bolivia appoints officials

LA PAZ, Bolivia — President Hernan Siles Zuazo completed a Cabinet reorganization by naming three members of his party and an independent to key posts.

Gualberto Mercado was sworn in Wednesday as finance minister, replacing Oscar Bonifaz, who had favored tougher austerity measures to control an inflation rate of 1,600 percent this year. Bonifaz' Christian Democrats quit the government last week in a policy dispute.

Court denies leftist's plea

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil — The supreme court has rejected a plea to stop the extradition of Argentine leftist guerrilla leader Mario Firmenich.

The ruling Wednesday means Firmenich, 35, former head of the Montonero guerrilla group, could be sent back to Argentina at any time, a court official said.

Firmenich was arrested in Rio in February after Argentina asked for his extradition for terrorist crimes committed during the so-called "dirty war" between leftists and the right-wing military regime that ran Argentina from 1976-1983.

Soviets condemn activist

MOSCOW — The Soviet media has condemned the arrest of antiwar activist Benjamin Spock in Washington this week as a violation of human rights and repression of the peace movement.

The official news agency Tass issued six articles Wednesday on Spock's arrest. Stories denouncing the action were also published by the government daily Izvestia and Komsomolskaya Pravda, official newspaper of the Soviet youth organization.

Judge tells florists this bud's for you

CLEVELAND (AP) — Budweiser beer can't stop a local florists association from using the slogan "This Bud's for You," a federal judge has ruled.

"If there is anybody in this country that can use the word bud in connection with their product line without interfering with Anheuser Busch, it's got to be florists," Christopher B. Fagan, attorney for the Florists Association of Greater Cleveland, said Wednesday. "We're happy the court agreed with us on that point."

Anheuser Busch Cos. Inc. had asked for a preliminary injunction.

PRE-DAWN RAID — Police and FBI agents remove evidence from a Brooklyn house Thursday morning following a raid which was one of a series conducted by some 300 men. Officials said nine radicals, said to be part of New Afrikan Freedom Fighters, were arrested.

Radical raid

300 FBI agents, police arrest radicals in raid

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 300 FBI agents and police carried out pre-dawn raids today and rounded up nine radicals associated with defendants convicted in the bungled Brink's armored car robbery that left three people dead, the FBI said.

The nine arrested were said by authorities to be part of the New Afrikan Freedom Fighters, the FBI said. The report said the massive show of force was used to discourage resistance by those arrested.

FBI spokesman Joe Valiquette said this morning outside the federal building in lower Manhattan that the suspects were "along the same lines" as those involved in the Brink's heist.

The timing of the raid, which involved officers from a variety of city and federal offices, was prompted to prevent a recurrence of any terrorist activity, Valiquette said.

"We knew they were going to do something soon," the spokesman said. "We had to act to interdict that."

Authorities said some weapons were recovered, but Valiquette refused to comment on a report that dynamite was found during the raid.

NBC News reported the suspects had been overheard on FBI wiretaps planning a robbery of an armored truck cash shipment and had "scouted sites" in the New York area.

One raid was made at a high-rise apartment complex on the site of Ebbetts Field, the former home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The $1.6 million Brink's robbery, in which two Nyack, N.Y., police officers and a security guard were killed, occurred on Oct. 20, 1981, in Rockland County, north of New York City.

Five people convicted in the robbery are serving prison terms. Police said the five were members of the radical Weather Underground organization and the Black Liberation Army.

The city's Joint Terrorist Task Force scheduled a morning news conference to release further details of the raids.

The New Afrikan Freedom Fighters is a group that advocates establishing a separate black nation in the United States, by force if necessary.

Members of the group were vocal supporters of the defendants at the Brink's trials.

In a 1982 news conference, Ahmed Obafemi, chairman of the New Afrikan Freedom Fighters defense committee, called the holdup "a revolutionary act just to get back a small part of money expropriated from blacks and oppressed people throughout the world."

Kennedy papers released

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — No more documents from the investigation of David Kennedy's drug-related death will be released until at least Monday, said a judge who planned to meet with prosecutors to review the information.

Caroline Kennedy, the 26-year-old daughter of President John F. Kennedy, on Wednesday denied reports that she might have entered her cousin's room at the Brazilian Court Hotel shortly before he was found dead of an overdose.

Parents remain in jail

HOUSTON — A couple jailed for refusing to testify against their son in a grand jury investigation of the murder of a mail carrier must stay behind bars even though the youth has been indicted, a federal judge ruled.

Bernard and Odette Port, jailed Sept. 12, are "assuming that the scope of the grand jury inquiry is complete and extends no further than a single indictment," U.S. District Judge Norman Black said Wednesday.

David Port, 17, is free on $20,000 bail on a charge he murdered Debora Sue Schatz, whose body was found June 9, two days after her death. Prosecutors have said they may seek a capital murder charge in the case.

California oil bids down

LOS ANGELES — A congressional moratorium that excluded the most lucrative sites from this week's Southern California oil-lease sale resulted in fewer bids and lower prices than usual, industry officials say.

Only 25 of 657 tracts — and 108,020 out of 3 million acres — were bid upon Wednesday for a total of $66.2 million. Bids for 29 of 140 parcels offered in a similar lease sale two years ago drew $117.9 million.

Sect leader indicted

WARSAW, Ind. — The founder of a fundamentalist faith-healing sect has been indicted for the first time in connection with the deaths of members who allegedly died because they prayed rather than seek medical attention.

Hobart E. Freeman, who founded the Faith Assembly in the early 1960s, was indicted Wednesday along with James and Ione Menne of Warsaw, whose 15-year-old daughter Pamela died Sept. 16 of chronic kidney failure.

Striking workers set vote

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. — About 2,600 maintenance workers at Walt Disney World vote today and Friday on a contract proposal reached after a deadline was extended twice, union officials said.

Meanwhile, about 1,800 ride operators, ticket sellers, restaurant workers and janitors at Disneyland in Anaheim, Calif., returned to work Wednesday after accepting a two-year wage freeze and some job security guarantees.

Food aid project a spirited winner

A heartening story of humanity comes from Pittsburgh this week, where an alliance of business, conservationists and plain old neighbors put their backs into a food program for the needy. It was a food-growing project, but not your typical garden variety. This garden yielded about 35 tons of vegetables for the poor and unemployed.

The 500 volunteer workers picked the last major harvest of the season last weekend — about 10,000 pounds of produce. Organizers said if they had been more sophisticated in farming skills, they could have done better.

Clearinghouse for the vegetables was Pittsburgh Community Food Bank, which in turn distributed to 750 non-profit agencies in 22 counties, including 300 groups in the Pittsburgh area.

The community achievement was made possible because Allegheny County's parks department loaned eight acres of land north of Pittsburgh, Mellon Bank and the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy donated seeds and supplies, and volunteers provided the labor.

This is an inspiring feat, one that rewards both those in need with immediate, no-strings-attached relief and the city-bred farmers with a strong sense of accomplishment. It is an example of how a relatively small-scale idea can make a difference. The city slickers promise to be back next year, better than ever, using professional farming techniques to produce more food. "If we're going to be involved, we might as well do it like the big timers," one volunteer said.

Church dropouts

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: A neighbor of mine, who used to be very active in his church, retired about a year ago. Now he and his wife have quit going to church and just watch a church service on television. What do you think of this? — Mrs. B.L.

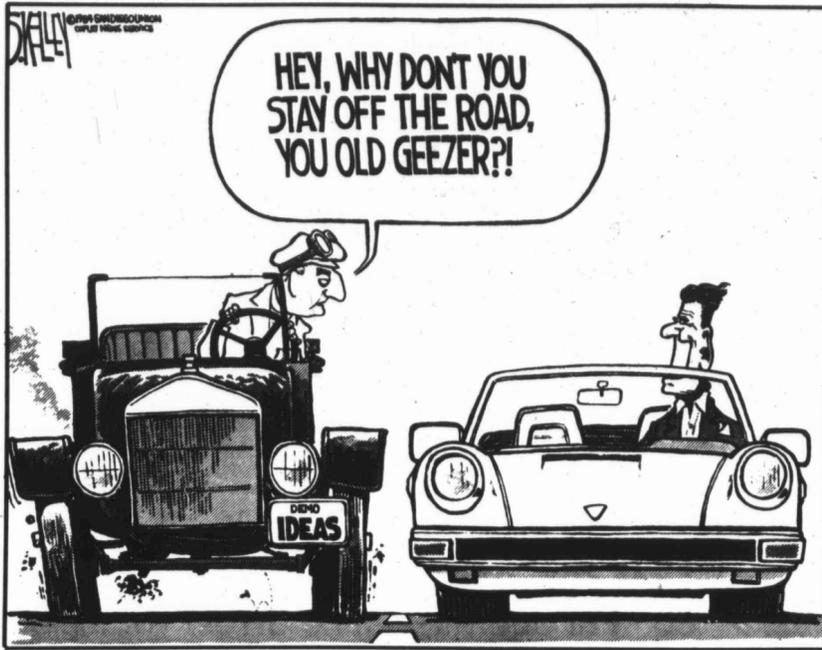

DEAR MRS. B.L.: Assuming that he has no health problem that would keep him at home, he is wrong in substituting an hour in front of the television set for church. That is not to say church services on television don't have their place — they certainly do. But they should not be a replacement for the fellowship of the church. The Bible says, "Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another" (Hebrews 10:25).

The problem, you see, is that we have come to think of church as a "spectator sport," which we watch and enjoy, but which demands nothing of us in return. But there are several reasons it is good for us to come together. First of all, that was the practice of both Jesus and the early Christians. "He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom" (Luke 4:16). In addition, true Christian fellowship is more than just listening to a sermon — although we grow spiritually when we hear the Word of God. We need each other, and through personal contact with other believers we can encourage each other and pray intelligently for each other. When we go to church we also are taking our public stand for Christ.

Pray that God will give you an opportunity to speak with your neighbor and discover — without appearing to be nosy or judgmental — why they have seemingly become dropouts from their church. It may be that churchgoing has just been a habit all these years, and that they have never really put their faith and trust in Christ. If so, they need not only to get active in a church once again — they need to turn to Christ and commit their lives to Him. Pray that God will help you be a witness to them.

The CIA hides a swindle

WASHINGTON — At least one CIA agent was fired and several others disciplined when it was revealed that they were part of a Honolulu-based investment scheme that bilked private investors of millions.

The agency at first denied involvement, but has now admitted at least some connection to the swindle in confidential affidavits filed in federal court.

Intelligence sources told my associates Indy Badhwar and Dale Van Atta that the CIA's inspector general investigated the investment operation and found the agents guilty of "poor trade practices," but concluded that they did not act illegally.

But the sources suggested that the internal investigation, which left a handful of agents hanging out to dry, may be just the tip of the iceberg. Still submerged, they say, is a massive scandal — a story of deception and betrayal that has the intelligence community watching nervously to see where the trail leads.

Congressional investigators and attorneys on the case have already heard testimony that Vice President Bush had some knowledge of, and some contact with, the investment house, which was a CIA front operating with the full knowledge of agency officials.

The CIA declined to comment on grounds that the matter is now in litigation. I'll reveal the bizarre twists and turns in future columns. Here's the bare-bones outline, drawn from interviews and confidential documents.

At center stage is Ronald Ray Rewald, currently facing federal and state criminal charges stemming from his operation of a Honolulu investment firm called Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham and Wong. Rewald claims he was a covert agent for five years, running the firm for the CIA.

More than a month ago, a federal grand jury handed up a 120-count indictment charging that Rewald diverted to his own use some of the $22 million in investors' money "by means of false and fraudulent pretenses ... and omissions of material facts."

A year earlier, in response to complaints from investors and the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as a bankruptcy petition lodged against BBRD&W, a federal judge froze the firm's assets and placed it in trusteeship.

Rewald was arrested and jailed by Hawaiian police. When the agency disowned him he filed a confidential, 40-page affidavit with 95 exhibits giving details of the BBRD&W operation — as well as of several other CIA activities in the Orient.

Here are some of the charges he made in the affidavit:

• Rewald, who had worked as a CIA informer on anti-war demonstrators during his school days in Wisconsin, said he was introduced by CIA operatives in 1978 to Honolulu station chief Eugene Welch. Rewald said it was Welch who suggested setting up BBRD&W as a CIA front; and it was Welch who arranged a phony pedigree and $150 million net worth for the company and fake credentials for Rewald.

Rewald stated that Welch OK'd the hiring of a former National Security Agency employee to work full time for BBRD&W, and that at least 10 CIA agents worked for the company, including Welch's successor as station chief, John C. Kindschi.

• From 1980 to 1982, the CIA used BBRD&W to gather intelligence on Japan, Indonesia and the Philippines; as a conduit for funds used in covert operations; and as a shelter for well-connected foreign diplomats and businessmen who wanted to export cash to the United States, Rewald stated.

The crucial operation, of course, is whether Rewald is telling the truth in his affidavit. Confidential documents and transcripts of secret taped conversations appear to bear out parts of Rewald's story.

For example, the CIA fired Richard B. Cavanaugh, who also used the alias, James D. Bishop — the first name in the investment firm. In a recent confidential affidavit, the agency also admitted it invested about $2,000 in BBRD&W, that some CIA agents had invested in the firm, and that Kindschi's successor as station chief, Jack Radin, sent reports on his meetings with Rewald back to CIA headquarters.

With his affidavit, Rewald submitted checks that show Kindschi reimbursed the investment company for telephone bills.

Interestingly, the Justice Department's chief prosecutor in the Rewald case is John F. Peyton, former CIA chief of litigation.

Footnote: The federal indictment against Rewald acknowledges that Welch was the CIA's Honolulu station chief, but accuses Rewald of having perjured himself when he claimed that Welch helped establish BBRD&W and its phony history.

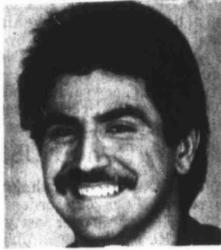

STRICTLY PERSONAL: Where is a security problem not a security problem?

At the Los Alamos National Laboratory, when the boss says it's not.

Donald Kerr, head of the New Mexico facility, told a local newspaper that a laboratory test site was not shut down because of constant security problems — as I reported — but because "it's impossible to devise a security system that's immune to every hypothetical incident." He added: "So rather than try to outwit the scenario writers, we said "To heck with it, we'll move it."

Rep. John Dingell, D-Mich., whose Energy and Commerce Committee exposed the security weaknesses that led Energy Secretary Donald Hodel to close the test lab, wasn't as sympathetic as the local reporter.

Around The Rim

La venta del candidato

Por LUIS RIOS

Escritor

No pasa ni un solo día en que alguien no hace un gran esfuerzo de vendernos alguna cosa o otra.

Cada día cuando ponemos la radio o televisión, sale un hombre o mujer diciéndonos que su producto es mas mejor que el de la competencia.

Estos actores hacen todo lo que pueden para que uno les crea. Y por que no creerles? — los actores son tan bien parecidos y las actrices todas son bellas. Lo que hacen es venderse al publico; y por eso nosotros vendemos los productos que ellos representan. Verdad?

Lo que hacen es un forma de anuncio comercial manoso. Y muchas veces compramos nomas porque creemos lo que los anuncios enseñan.

Quien puede decir que la salsa de tomate es mas mejor si es mas espesa? A mi ni me gusta mucho la salsa de tomate y menos si esta muy espesa. Pero los anuncios lo hacen creer lo que ellos quieren.

Las cervezas que anuncian dia tras dia, tambien me ponen a pensar. Por ejemplo, si uno toma una marca de cerveza, tendra mucho exito con las muchachas. Uno puede ganar en cualquier deporte y lo presentan con otra marca de cerveza, y si hace un trabajo en su casa se puede refrescar con otra.

Parece que los anuncios para las diferentes marcas de cervezas incluyen a todos.

Todos los anuncios fortalezen lo que ya pensamos o nos hacen cambiar nuestros pensamientos de lo que ya creemos.

Los debates entre los candidatos Ronald Reagan y Walter Mondale para la presidencia de los Estados Unidos son como un anuncio comercial. Les importa mas a ellos como se presentan al publico de que las cuestiones de que se deben de tratar.

Los candidatos en esencia se estan vendiendo al publico. No es verdad que ellos nos pueden decir todo lo que quieren en dos horas. Y por esa razon, un debate es un gran anuncio comercial.

A la mayoria de la gente se le olvida lo que discuten los candidatos el dia despues del debate. Pero algo que no se les olvida es como los candidatos se presentaron al publico.

Muchos de los comentarios que salieron en la prensa despues del primer debate no explicaron y discutieron tanto las cuestiones como los candidatos.

La pregunta que sale en cualquier debate es "Quien gana?". Pues quien sabe y diga, es tan importante quien gana el debate?

Lo que importa es, que si el debate cambio su modo de pensar y tambien de votar.

Y no se le olvide, no vaya a comprar algo que verdaderamente no quiere.

Art show offers rare opportunity

To the editor:

This weekend, the citizens of Big Spring and Howard County will have the rare opportunity to review the works of more than 182 artists and craftsmen from throughout the country as they participate in the Big Spring Arts and Crafts Festival. The exhibits, which will feature many of the top-named artists and craftsmen in the Southwest, will also include close to fifty exhibitors from the local area. So, you'll have the opportunity to see what your neighbors and friends are doing, as well as others from distant locations.

The festival, now in its eighth year, is a self-supporting event. As a result, no merchants, businesses or individuals are asked to donate funds to the festival. And, since the Big Spring Arts and Crafts Festival is self-supporting, there are no admission charges to the general public ... it's free to you, the citizens of Howard County.

Lighter side

NEW YORK (AP) — Pattycake and Bendera are expecting, and as it goes with celebrities, the pregnancy is the talk of their circle.

Pattycake is the first gorilla ever born in New York City and probably ranks behind only King Kong as its most famous ape.

The Bronx Zoo announced

Tuesday that she and Bendera, 19, are expecting a little ape in January.

The newborn should weigh between four and six pounds, the zoo said, but if it's a male can grow to 600 pounds.

Pattycake, a Lowland gorilla, became an overnight sensation when she was born 12 years ago in the Central Park Zoo.

Kathryn Thomas to speak at ceremony

Kathryn Thomas of Big Spring, president of the state American Gold Star Mothers Association, will speak Sunday in Tyler during ceremonies to honor Gold Star Mothers whose sons or daughters died in the Vietnam War.

The event will be held during Tyler's Annual Rose Festival, which began Monday and will continue through Sunday. Also speaking Sunday will be Congressman Ralph M. Hall of the Texas Fourth District, Col. James W. Evatt, Barksdale Air Force Base's Second Bombardment Wing commander and a Vietnam combat veteran, and State AmVets commander Bill Manning and Brig. Gen. Robie Risner (retired), an ex-POW of Vietnam. The Barksdale AFB Band will perform at the occasion.

Tyler is the nation's first site for displaying the half-scale Vietnam Veterans National Memorial Replica. The $100,000 plexiglas replica was built in San Jose, Calif. by a group of dedicated Vietnam combat veterans from the original plans of Washington, D.C.'s most visited memorial. The 250 foot portable unit is making its premier unveiling in its completed form on the first leg of a national tour. It contains all 58,012 names of Americans who died in the Vietnam War.

"Forgotten Warriors" AmVets, a congressionally chartered veterans organization, Post 68, will host the unveiling event. The Post's members have arranged for the replica to be shown free of charge to the public at Tyler's Bergfeld Park for the entire week.

The ceremonies are expected to attract visitors from more than 12 states. Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, American Legion and other veterans organizations and local civic leaders will be on hand. Many Vietnam veterans are honoring the occasion with a reunion at the site, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas is the wife of Truett Thomas of Big Spring and the mother of the late Coy Thomas, who was killed in Vietnam April 14, 1966.

John DeVitt of San Jose, Calif. is the curator-originator of the half-scale memorial replica. He is a combat veteran of Vietnam.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: When my young son was bitten on the arm by a dog, we took him to the emergency room where he got splendid treatment and was promptly given attention. One thing surprised us, though. The attending doctor did not sew up the wound. Why not? — D.N.

Unless the bite is on the face, usually such wounds are not sutured. The reason for that is the great potential for such wounds to become infected. If you sew up such a wound the infection gets much worse, and there is always the chance that the bite is infected. As an alternative, the doctor usually will lightly join the wound edges with tape strips if he decides not to leave it entirely open.

You were wise to get immediate help, for such wounds require attention within 12 hours at most, the earlier the better. The doctor, after examining the patient, usually applies a bulky dressing and advises elevation of the arm.

In another (edited) part of your letter you ask about tetanus shots. That usually depends on how bad the bite is and how long ago the person had his most recent shot. The decision about rabies shots hinges on a number of factors, perhaps the most important one being the availability of the biting animal for observation.

D. DR. DONOHUE: I just found out I have herpes zoster, shingles. My doctor says it is a virus. I was really upset, as I have no idea where I've picked it up. I am a clean person who lives in a clean house. Isn't this virus something you pick up from someone else? Could you please make it a little easier for me by explaining how one gets the shingles by a virus? — Name withheld.

We are simply going to have to find another name for shingles other than herpes zoster or find another name for genital herpes, the virus infection that is passed from person to person.

You don't get shingles that way. Shingles, as I've noted before in this space, is the childhood chicken pox virus come back to haunt us in later years. It has nothing to do with your personal hygiene or sex or anything like that. The most meticulous, fastidious, ultra-clean and virtuous of people get it. When the virus decides to awaken from its dormancy you get the rash, the blebs, and the itch. The herpes virus that causes the other infections is a different form. This is explained in the booklet "The Facts About Shingles." Other readers may obtain a copy by writing me care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50 cents for printing and handling.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I have often heard it said that if you want to become pregnant, adopt a baby. I wonder if there is any proven medical reasoning behind this. — Mrs. P.P.

Would you believe that researchers have addressed this very question to see if there possibly might be something to it? Not surprisingly, they found there wasn't. They found that pregnancies occur "out of the blue" just as frequently in supposedly infertile couples who don't adopt. The notion may have gained credence from the fact that adoptive parents who subsequently conceive get more attention than those who don't.

Dear Abby

Mother wants money not toys

DEAR ABBY: The holiday season is approaching, and with it approaches a five-year-old problem. Ever since my first child was born, I have been asking my in-laws to refrain from buying him toys for Christmas. Every year my request has been ignored. Now we have two children, so the problem has doubled.

The in-laws say, "If we didn't buy toys for our grandchildren, it would take all the fun out of Christmas for us!" (What a selfish attitude!)

Abby, these people are in their early 50s and they have had fun for a lot of years. I've suggested that they give savings bonds plus one token toy. (We could use the money for the children's education.) I gave up a lucrative career to stay home and raise our children. My husband and I get by, but we worry about our children's college education, etc.

We live in an upper flat and have no room to store so many toys. When I see the amount of money tied up in this junk, I could cry. I'm not talking peanuts here — every year each child gets a minimum of $200 worth of toys! My husband is non-committal because he doesn't want to hurt his parents' feelings. How do I reach these people? I have told them firmly but nicely. I have pleaded with them. Nothing works. What now?

DREADING THE HOLIDAYS

DEAR DREADING: You've told your in-laws how you feel, and they have told you how they feel.

I agree, it would be more practical for them to invest in your children's education, but that decision is not yours — it's theirs, so try to be a gracious loser.

(Every teen-ager should know the truth about drugs, sex and how to be happy. For Abby's booklet, send your name and address clearly printed with a check or money order for $2.50 (this includes postage) to: Abby, Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 38923, Hollywood, Calif. 90038.)

SW Bell claims complaint off base

AUSTIN (AP) — A complaint filed by Attorney General Jim Mattox and consumers' groups is off base, a Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. official says.

Mattox and the consumers' groups Wednesday asked for an investigation of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. to determine whether money paid by telephone customers is being funneled to Bell's other business interests.

"We suspect that Southwestern Bell is using revenues from its regulated services to finance its unregulated businesses, such as telephones, mobile phones and the Yellow Pages publications," Mattox said.

"What we're seeking in this complaint is the information that would show us if our suspicion is correct," he said.

Southwestern Bell officials denied the allegations, saying that no mixing of funds is taking place.

"We have nothing to hide," said Richard Harris, a Bell vice president.

He said the companies are set up as separate subsidiaries and the books and records are "clear."

"There can be no intermixing because they are stand-alone corporations," Harris said.

Mattox and the consumers' groups — the Consumers Union, Public Citizen, the Gray Panthers and the Texas Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now — filed the complaint with the Public Utility Commission.

"Ratepayers are, have been and will continue funding of the new Southwestern Bell subsidiaries from which they receive no profits. Commission action is needed to stop this victimization of Texas consumers," said Carol Barger, regional director of the Consumers Union.

While Bell has been saying it needs more money to maintain high-quality basic phone service, Ms. Barger said, "the record shows that the telephone company has embarked on building a multi-billion-dollar system that will have no appreciable effect on the quality or reliability of basic telephone communications."

"But Bell, its holding company and all of their subsidiaries will then be in a very favorable market position to sell all of their services, gadgets and whistles which have nothing to do with basic phone service," she said.

Ms. Barger said that costs to consumers could be reduced 20 percent to 40 percent if the complaint proves accurate.

The complaint asks the PUC to investigate several issues, including:

— How much of the company's construction program being funded by Texas ratepayers will benefit unregulated businesses.

— How much of Bell's assets have been transferred to subsidiaries and the holding company without adequate compensation to Southwestern Bell.

— Whether phone customers are being asked to pay an unfair portion of advertising costs and charitable contributions made by the company.

— Whether revenue from Yellow Pages advertising is being diverted from the telephone company into another business interest.

NOTICE

Energas Company hereby gives notice of its intent to implement new rates for domestic and commercial type customer classes residing in the unincorporated areas of its West Texas System. It is anticipated that the new rates will result in approximately a two tenths of one percent (.2%) increase in Energas Company's gross revenues, which increase is not a "major change" as defined in Section 43 (b) of Article 1446c, V.A.T.C.S.

A Statement of Intent to change said rates was filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas on or about September 21, 1984, and is available for inspection at the Company's Amarillo office, 301 S. Taylor Street. Further information may be obtained from the Railroad Commission of Texas, Gas Utilities Division, P.O. Drawer 12967, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

The proposed increase will not become effective until or except to the extent that the same rates are approved for service within the municipalities on the West Texas System.

Got the news from Comanche Trail pro Al Patterson late yesterday on the winners in this year's City Championship and Seniors golf tournaments held over the weekend at Comanche Trail:

Ronnie Broadrick won the City Championship with a one over par 143, 36-hole total. Jimmy Newsom, Jr. was second at 144 and Bruce Carroll came in at 147.

Bob Hecker took the first flight in 156 while Ben Garcia, Jr., John Arrick, Bob Parks and Mike Murphy tied in the second flight at 165.

Amador Gonzales captured the third flight in 176.

Jerry Roach was first in the chase for the Seniors (age 50 and over) title. Roach fired a two day total of 151.

Jimmy Newsom was the winner of the first flight in 154, Lloyd Duncan took the second in 169 and Tommy Davidson was first in the third flight with a score of 179.

The Big Spring Running Club is being well represented these days.

In the Clovis, New Mexico Half-Marathon race last weekend, Sherrell Easterling Webb and husband Donald ran first in their respective divisions. Sherrell won the women's 30-39 age group and Donald took the men's over 50 race. Sherrell also finished second overall.

Bobby Fuller ran third in the men's 40-49, Vic Keyes was second in men's 30-39 competition and Steve Fraser took third in the men's 20-29. Big Spring City Manager Don Davis also made the trip and competed.

Several weekends earlier, Davis and his wife Linda and Fuller all ran in the Texas Tech 10-K road race held in Lubbock.

Linda ran first in the women's 40-49 division with a personal best of 41:45. Fuller was second in the men's 40-49 race with a personal best as well. Fuller managed a 38:32.

Big Spring's entries in the West Texas United Soccer League recently played against teams from San Angelo.

In 16 and under action, Big Spring's Blitz plated to a 3-3 tie against the Enforcers. The Enforcers entered the game unbeaten and averaging an 8-1 margin of victory. Scoring goals for Big Spring were Jeff Needles, Jignesh Bahtaka and Thane Russey.

In the 14 And under game the Silver Streaks lost to the San Angelo Rams, 3-0.

Big Spring's professional cowboy, Wacey Cathey, slipped from the number four spot among PRCA bullriders, but Cathey is still securely entrenched in the race for the NFR to be held in December.

Cathey is currently eighth in total earnings on the tour with almost $40,000.

Eudy: 'We'll do everything to win'

Steers braced for Rebel invasion

By BILLY NABOURS

What does a football team, that lost its last game 52-0 to a district also-ran, do when said team faces the prospect of hosting one of the state's best?

That's the chore facing the Big Spring Steers Friday at 8 p.m. when the Midland Lee Rebels, last year's state championship game participants, come calling at Memorial Stadium. And according to Steer head coach Quinn Eudy his team will be, "doing everything it knows to win."

"We've been a little more intense in workouts this week and the kids have reacted well. There hasn't been a lot of heads hanging down," Eudy added.

Lee brings a 5-1 overall slate and 2-1 District 4-5A mark into the game compared to the 2-4 and 0-3 records posted thus far by the Black and Gold. The seventh ranked Rebels went down to defeat, 28-13 against Permian last week. Lee led, 13-0 at one point.

Eudy pointed out that had Lee not fumbled the ball a whopping 10 times, there more than likely would be a new number one 5A team atop this week's polls. "The fumbles came mainly between quarterback and center. That, plus two deep passes by Permian, hurt Lee," Eudy said.

Eudy remarked that fumbles aside, "Lee will be the fastest team we face all year. I really think they're better at the halfbacks than last year (a 13-3 season)." Walter Jones (553 yards and six touchdowns) and Tyrone Thurman (475 yards and seven scores) are the keys which open Lee's wishbone. Turning that key is quarterback Dick Bergoon.

Bergoon runs the option well according to Big Spring scouting reports. And while Lee has not thrown much at all — only 21 times all year — Bergoon has connected on 11 for 222 yards. "Lee doesn't throw out of necessity either," Eudy emphasized. "They'll pound you up the middle and outside with the run and then pop one on you, they're very selective about when to pass. For Lee the pass is more an element of surprise."

That's not to say the Big Spring secondary doesn't have its work cut out for it, but it also doesn't face the prospect of another air raid like the one Cooper struck for (383 yards) last week. The last line of defense will have its work cut out for it, but the one part of the Black and Gold's defense facing a long night, if they are unable to contain Lee's ground attack, is the, "front nine," as Eudy refers to his line, backers and corners.

Derek Logback and Billy Russell at the ends, Doug Walker and Jerry Meyer at tackles, Eugene Vanderrbilt at noseguard, Jimmy Rodgers and Matt Garrett at cornerbacks and Jerry Anderson and Mike Cahill at linebackers have the big responsibility.

Lee did not lose much in the way of senior leadership either. Despite losing 50 seniors off last year's club, Eudy said this season's Rebels show 34 seniors and 20 juniors on the roster. "Lee's program is in good shape. They didn't lose much despite getting a new coach." Jack Tayrien took over for Spike Dykes left to take the defensive coordinator's job at Texas Tech. Tayrien served as defensive coordinator and assistant coach during the Rebels march to the state title game.

When the Steers have the ball Eudy said each individual on his offensive line will have to, "do a better job" if the Steers are to win. Big Spring has gained only 41 yards on the ground the last two games against Permian (-5) and Cooper (46).

That has forced quarterback Carl Speck upstairs more than Steer fans are used to. The junior signal caller has completed 26 of 66 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown in that time. Eudy admits he would like to put the ball up, but not 30 some odd times a game.

"We've got to establish our running game again," he said. Against Permian Eudy admitted the coaching staff may have given up on the ground too early. Against Cooper, "We were just forced out," after getting down 38-0 in the first half.

The Steers, despite some nagging minor bothers, appear in good shape for Friday's fight. Defensive back Brian Reid, bothered by a shoulder bruise early in the week, appears set. Tailback Tommy Gartman suffered a slight hamstring pull in practice Monday, but should be able to answer the call Friday night.

During the past 10 years Midland Lee owns a 9-1 record against the Big Spring Steers. The Rebels have blanked the Steers on four occasions during that time. Listed are scores for the past 10 meetings between the two teams.

Cubs' Frey is tops for best manager

CHICAGO (AP) — Jim Frey, named National League Manager of the Year after leading the Chicago Cubs to their first title in 39 years, says his only incentive is to keep his job.

Asked whether his contract — which runs through the 1985 season — contained incentive clauses that would reward him for such awards, Frey, in a joking mood, told reporters Wednesday, "I didn't have any. My incentive is to try and not get fired."

Frey, in his 35th year in baseball, took the Chicago Cubs to the National East Division title in his second job managing. He had led the Kansas City Royals to the 1980 World Series in his first year as a major league manager.

Frey was named on 23 of 24 ballots in voting by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, receiving 16 first-place votes and seven seconds for a total of 101 points. New York Mets Manager Dave Johnson was runner-up, followed by San Diego's Dick Williams, whose Padres won three straight from the Cubs to take the NL pennant.

"I'm honored and proud that people thought I did a good job, but it was the organization that went out and spent the money to get the ballplayers," Frey, 52, said. "A lot of the people deserve credit; I'm just the guy who happens to be standing here."

But, the soft-spoken Frey admitted he was less than surprised about the award.

"We won more games than anybody in the National League, and I guess that put me in contention," he said.

But Frey said the award doesn't wipe out the disappointment of the playoff loss.

"I'm not going to feel good until something comes along that puts this (disappointment over losing to the Padres) out of my mind," said Frey. "I'll be thinking about it until spring training."

Frey spent 14 years kicking around the minor leagues, but despite attending spring training with several teams and being named the Texas League's Most Valuable Player in 1967, Frey never earned the right to call himself a major leaguer.

His playing days ended in 1963. Frey briefly tried making a living selling real estate in his native Cincinnati.

"Look at this body," the 5-foot-9 Frey said in a recent interview. "This isn't the body of a pro athlete."

He returned to baseball, minor league managing, scouting and coaching for the Baltimore Orioles.

Frey joined Billy Hunter and George Bamberger on an Orioles staff headed by Manager Earl Weaver. After Hunter and Bamberger both were given shots at managing big league clubs, Frey told his wife, Joan, that he would leave baseball if his chance didn't come soon.

In 1980, his turn came after Kansas City replaced Whitey Herzog. Frey's Royals won the American League pennant but lost to Philadelphia. But then-Phillies Manager Dallas Green must have seen something he liked. Four years later, after taking over as general manager in Chicago, Green would tab Frey to run the ball club.

STACKED UP — Garden City defender Doug Schaefer (50) and several teammates stack up a Forsan ball carrier during last week's 7-A South Zone opener. Forsan is out to stay unbeaten and Garden City will be trying for its second win as the Crossroads Country football season enters its seventh week. For a glance at Friday's matchups see page 2B.

Stanton will test neighborhood's newest

GREENWOOD — A little bit of history will be made here Friday night when the Stanton Buffaloes take on the Greenwood Rangers.

Historical, not in the world scope of matters by any means, but historical in matters concerning District 8-2A.

District veteran Stanton will be the second test for Greenwood which is the new kid on the block after years of knocking around the Class A circuit.

And Stanton head coach Dale Ruth hopes his "Batling Buffs" don't become the new kid's first league victim.

"They're a good football team," said Ruth of the Rangers who enter the game with an impressive 5-1 slate, although they are undoubtedly still smarting from last week's district opening loss 25-14 loss to Wall.

The Rangers, under the direction of coach Joe Longley are in their first season competing in District

8-AA, after being in District 8-A last season. Longley finds the move to the new district a competitive one. "The district is so evenly balanced that anyone can beat anyone on a given night. I wouldn't be surprised to see a team with two losses make the playoffs." opening night was just that way. Pre-season favorite McCamey was upset, 15-14 by Big Lake in addition to Greenwood's perfect mark being blemished by a previously winless Wall squad. Stanton fell, 8-0 to what the Stanton coaching staff referred to as an average Eldorado football team. Stanton is 2-3-1 overall.

"I really think Eldorado will lose two, possibly three more games," said Stanton assistant Bill West. Ruth concurred that his group did not play badly. "Our biggest problem was penalties (100 yards worth)," said Ruth.

The Rangers bring a young team into the clash versus Stanton, returning only seven starters on both offense and defense, including two sophomores and a junior in the secondary that was burned for over 240 yards against Wall.

The truth of the matter is Greenwood didn't play poor defense. The Rangers just didn't stop the big plays. Wall scored touchdowns on pass plays covering 48 and 42 yards, and an 80-yarder led to another score.

The Rangers Wing-T offense is led by all purpose runner Roger Smith, a 175-pound senior. Last season Smith rushed for over 1,300 yards while leading Greenwood to the Class A playoffs. This season he has picked up right where he left off, leading the team with 800 yards.

Terry Osteen is Greenwood's 200-pound tailback and according to Ruth, "Osteen compliments Smith well in the backfield." Osteen has gained 400 yards himself. Longley's son, Chad, handles the signal-calling duties. He has connected on 21 of 42 passes for 379 yards. Longley is also a more than capable runner and Ruth notes, "They favor the bootleg a lot."

Defensively Greenwood is led by linebackers John Gilliam and Henry Ford, both averaging 10 tackles per contest. Ruth noted that the Rangers like to slant quite a lot.

Such techniques could cause problems for a Stanton offense that is already hurt with injuries and illness. Starting quarterback Kevin Glaspie suffered a badly bruised back against Eldorado and is very doubtful for Friday's game. Runningback Danny Koonce missed practice Monday with an illness, although he appears over a concussion he suffered several weeks ago.

If Glaspie is unable to play, Marty Mayberry will step in. While he is not the passer Glaspie is (40 of 92 for 553 yards) Mayberry is a capable ball handler and a good leader according to his coach. Mark Gonzales will fill Glaspie's role in the Buffs' secondary should he be required to do so. Derek Sorley (15 catches, 244 yards) becomes Mayberry's backup under center.

Coach Longley says the new era of district clashes with Stanton may turn into a real rivalry since both schools are located about 15 miles from each other.

"We are really expecting a good

Six-man teams are in football spotlight

The Crossroads Country football spotlight is on both of the area's six-man contests this week as Grady opens with McCaulley and Borden County hosts contending Ira in District 4-South Zone action.

IRA (3-1-1, 0-1) is at BORDEN COUNTY (5-0-1, 1-0) and this game should go a long way in deciding at least one of the two playoff spots in the South Zone of District 4.

"It'll be a good ball game," said BC coach Duke Frisbee. Last year IRA entered the game unbeaten, but left town with a 36-30 loss. BC was 2-3 at the time.

Frisbee would like to get the win in more ways than one. With defending state champion Highland waiting down the road for the Coyotes, Frisbee knows the won't get easier. "Beating Ira would sure take some pressure off," said Frisbee. "I'd hate to lose and be put in a must situation against the two time state champions." Ira's only loss was in last week's zone starter to Highland, 48-28.

The Coyotes have been hurt by injury problems with deep snapper and linebacker Eric Turner out for a while with a broken hand. Kirby Williams will move off the line and fill in at linebacker. Dennis Buchanan moves to center and will handle Williams' defensive end spot.

McCAULEY (1-4, 0-1) is at GRADY (2-4, 0-0) where the Wildcats will try and extend their winning ways to two games. Grady beat Sierra Blanca with a fourth quarter comeback last week to break a four game losing streak.

It could be tougher this time around because Grady coach Currie McWilliams said Wednesday that starting quarterback Michael Mitchell and starting center Stacy Stribling will both miss the game. Mitchell aggravated an injury to his right knee and Stribling twisted his right ankle in practice.

Luis Gonzales will fill in under center while either Brandon Stone or Wade Miller will be the man doing the snapping.

OZONA (1-4, 0-1) is at COLORADO CITY (6-0, 1-0) in 7-3A action and coach Tom Ramsey's Wolves are coming off a convincing 34-7 win over Coahoma while the Lions were drummed by tough Ballinger 68-0.

His counterpart Sammy Rivera, who had 131 yards versus Coahoma, is battling the flu while reserve backs Joey Ritchey (bruised hand) and Kevin Norman (bruised back) are trying to get well.

"We've had to make some adjustments in the backfield with the injury situation," said Ramsey. Last week we had to stay in the one back formation more than I wanted to. Ozona is bigger and faster than we are, there is no need to take them lightly. Our kids must be physically and mentally prepared.

Last week versus Coahoma the Wolves again displayed a balanced attack, rushing for 169 yards and passing for 154. Tight end Don Randle caught four passes for 70 yards, raising his total to 27 catches for 400 yards. Rivera has rushed for 594 yards in 107 attempts.

Game time is 8 p.m.

COAHOAMA (2-3-1, 0-1) is at CRANE (1-5, 0-1) for another 7-3A matchup and Coahoma junior Brian Calaway will get his first start at quarterback.

Calaway was a starting wide receiver for the Bulldogs, but had to come in for starter John Swinney who suffered a broken thumb in the first quarter of last week's loss 34-7 to Colorado City.

Swinney will still play safety for the Bulldogs. He picked off his fifth pass last week and returned it 42 yards, killing one C-City scoring threat.

Calaway filled in admirably as he combined for almost 200 yards rushing and passing. The main downfall for the Coahoma offense was three missed scoring opportunities and three fumbles.

USFL slaps NFL with lawsuit

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States Football League charges in a $1.32 billion antitrust suit that the National Football League is conspiring to beat back a challenge to its "monopoly" on fall football.

The USFL, for two seasons a spring-summer "alternative" to the traditional fall football, filed the suit Wednesday in federal court. It accused the NFL of involvement in "a conspiracy" to destroy the USFL through a monopoly on players, stadium leases and television contracts.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle termed the suit "totally baseless. I think it is ridiculous to be suing on the basis of what they have done."

Last spring, Rozelle had hinted that legal action might signal the death throes of the USFL.

Donald Trump, owner of the USFL's New Jersey Generals, disagreed.

"I predict we'll be victorious on the basis that the NFL has totally placed itself in a monopoly position," Trump said. "The NFL has taken control of all three television networks, so there is little room for competition. Their draft practices, including a supplemental draft of USFL players, were designed to damage the USFL. They also have sought to damage us with other rules."

The USFL suit asks that NFL contracts with the three major television networks be voided and that the NFL's "monopoly" on player contracts and stadiums be broken.

ABC spokesman Irv Brodsky said the network would have no comment until it receives a copy of the suit. Attempts to reach CBS and NBC officials were unsuccessful.

Rozelle and the 28 NFL teams were named as defendants in the $440 million suit. Under antitrust law, the award would be tripled in the event of a favorable ruling.

The suit asks:

— That the NFL be "enjoined from negotiating with or making contractual offers with players currently under USFL contracts" before their contracts expire. Last year, the USFL signed a number of NFL players, including Cris Collinsworth of the Cincinnati Bengals.

quarterbacks. Brian is a better runner, he makes things happen in the pocket," said coach Bruce Mitchell.

Crane is coming off a 17-0 loss to Sonora, a game which was tied 0-0 at the half. The Golden Cranes have a young team that makes some young mistakes, according to Mitchell. "They are a lot like us, they have an inexperienced team.

For the second consecutive week the Coahoma defensive front of the Shawn Justiss, Scott Waranke and Barry Stafford turned in top defensive efforts. Sophomore linebacker Dee John Douglass also had a good game.

Game time is 8 p.m. ROPES (0-5, 0-1) is at KLONDIKE (3-2, 0-0) and Coach Jimmy Thomas' Klondike Cougars will be gearing up for their District 7-A North Zone opener versus the Ropes Eagles. Thomas is hoping his offense will get back into gear.

In their 27-7 loss to Iran last week, the Cougars offense sputtered miserably, coughing up the ball five times, two on interceptions, which is one thing that has plagued the Cougars throughout the season.

SANDS (2-4, 0-1) is at FORSAN (6-0, 1-0) where coach Jim White's Mustangs will face their second consecutive District 7-A South Zone toughie.

Last week the Mustangs faced eighth ranked Roscoe and mustered very little offense in a 36-0 loss. This week it doesn't get any better against the Buffaloes who have allowed just 39 points this season, including a 16-8 over Garden City last week.

The Mustang defense had let-downs in the second and third quarters as Roscoe scored two TD's each period.

ROBY (1-5, 0-1) is at GARDEN CITY (1-4-1, 0-1) and the Bearkats are favored in the game which is another 7-A South Zone affair.

Garden City has allowed only 66 points (11.0 per game). The trouble is that Garden City's offense is registering only five points per outing.

First year coach Tony Stricklin has more problems this week because two-way starter J.J. Caswell will miss the game with a sprained foot. Caswell held down tight and defensive end for the Bearkats.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day will find some delays or obstacles in the path of your desires, but by patience and objectivity you will be able to get them quickly out of the way.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) First solve that problematical affair and then start that new course toward greater success.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Some delay at home could prevent you from doing the important things you had planned in the morning.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You will have to complete some unfinished matter early and then you can go ahead with new plans you have in mind.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) You early find you have to give more attention to some monetary affair you thought was completed.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) You arise feeling as though you can't do much of anything, but soon find that this is not the case and can accomplish a great deal.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Even if you feel helpless in the morning, consult that good advisor and you soon know how best to proceed, and make the future brighter.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A friend could be disappointing in the morning, but later you can be with others who can be most helpful to you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A newcomer could criticize you in the morning, but take this in your stride and then later you get a great deal done.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) There may be a delay in getting off to some new interest but later you make up for lost time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) An obligation could prove depressive in the morning, but later you can handle this well, plus other problematical affairs.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You find it hard to convince one who is conservative to go along with your ideas in the morning, but later will do so gladly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You may get a late start at your work, but if you schedule duties wisely and do important work first, you get much done.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will find it hard to get going on any ambitions that appeal to him, or her, but with the right early training will then be able to do so and accomplish a great deal during the lifetime particularly in precision work and the creative fields.

"The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Fire destroys aircraft parts supply shop

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A four-alarm fire raged today through one of the nation's largest aircraft parts supply company, which last month was barred from doing business with the government, authorities said.
The blaze at the Alamo Aircraft Supply Inc. drew more than 100 firefighters to the scene after an alarm was sounded at 12:18 a.m. today, company officials said.
It took firefighters about two hours to get the fire under control. Two firefighters were treated at the scene for smoke inhalation, Assistant Fire Chief Jimmy Saldana said.
Saldana said damage was estimated at $200,000 for the building and $500,000 for the contents.
The fire engulfed part of the company's six-building complex which contained one of the largest military parts supply inventories in the United States, company vice president Leon Wulfe Jr. said.
Wulfe said the complex also was the site of two previous multi-alarm fires in the 1970s in which arson was ruled as the cause. In 1970, a four-alarm fire that was deliberately set resulted in $500,000 in damages, he said.
The cause of today's fire was under investigation, Wulfe said.
On Sept. 28, the Pentagon suspended the aircraft company from doing business with the government for three years.
A Defense Department spokesman told the San Antonio Light that the company, which sold $21 million in parts to the military last year, was suspended for allegedly giving "things of value" to federal employees in exchange for "proprietary drawings."
An attorney representing Alamo Aircraft had told The Light on Oct. 4 that the company sold a total of $23 million in parts in 1983, $21 million worth of which were sold to the government.
The ban, which does not effect contracts already in place, means company officials will not be able to sign any new pacts with the government as either prime contractor or subcontractor until May 11, 1987.
