

Woman executed

Grandmother, 52, says she's sorry

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Expressing sorrow "for all the hurt that I have caused," a pink pajama-clad Velma Barfield became the first woman executed in the United States in 22 years when she was put to death today for killing her boyfriend with ant poison.

Mrs. Barfield, 52, who passed up a special last meal and snacked on Coca-Cola and Cheez Doodles, was declared dead of a lethal injection at 2:15 a.m. She had offered her organs for transplant, and a team of doctors rushed her body to an unidentified local hospital.

Mrs. Barfield was the third person executed in the United States this week and the 29th since the Supreme Court restored the death penalty in 1976. The last woman executed was Elizabeth Duncan, 54, who died in California's gas chamber in 1962 for arranging the death of her daughter-in-law.

Clad in her own pink cotton pajamas with embroidered collar, Mrs. Barfield was wheeled on a gurney into the death chamber.

"I want to say that I am sorry for all the hurt that I have caused," she said in a final statement. Convicted of one murder, she confessed to killing three other people — her mother and two elderly people who employed her as a live-in housekeeper.

Mexico to cut oil production

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico, the largest oil exporter to the United States, said Thursday has reduced its production of crude oil by 100,000 barrels a day but that it is leaving its oil prices unchanged through November.

"The measure to reduce exportations is not an end in itself, it's an instrument to defend the price of the principal resource of our country," a government statement said.

Pemex, the state-run oil monopoly, said the production cut would lower Mexico's income from oil exports by $81 million in November, or by an annual rate of 6 percent — what it said was equivalent to a $2-a-barrel cut in the price of oil.

Mexican light-type Isthmus crude has been selling for $29 a barrel for the past 21 months and the heavier Maya type for $25.50 a barrel for the past seven months.

City rocks to reggae

Staff reports

Six Big Spring United Way organizations are sponsoring a Jamaica Gala Day — featuring reggae music and break dancing — on downtown Main Street from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday in conjunction with the downtown merchants association.

Traffic will be blocked on Main between Third and Fourth streets, where food and games booths will be set up to benefit the United Way fund drive, according to Bert Andries, the division chairman of special events for the United Way.

Andries is also director of the Boys Club in Big Spring, one of the local United Way organizations.

The other agencies are the American Red Cross, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the YMCA, the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, the West Side Community Center and the West Side Day Care Center.

"This is the first time we've ever done anything like this," Andries said. "We're keeping our fingers crossed to see if this is a good fundraising event. We're running behind on our campaign."

Andries said he got the idea for

Voting breaks record

Staff reports

Absentee voters in Howard County this year set a new record as 1,970 persons cast ballots as of Friday morning, according to Howard County Clerk Margaret Ray.

Clerk's office figures show that 1,415 absentee votes were cast in the office by Friday morning.

In addition, the clerk's office has mailed out 813 ballots, of which 555 have been returned, figures show.

Farmers oppose pesticide codes

Claim regulations are unfair

By KEELY COGHLAN
Staff Writer

Local farmer's groups, including the Howard County Farm Bureau and the Plains Cotton Growers Inc., are opposing the enactment of proposed pesticide regulations by the Texas Department of Agriculture, representatives said.

According to Howard County Farm Bureau President Mike Moates, the state office of the Farm Bureau is opposing the implementation of the new state regulations "because they would be the toughest in the United States."

He and other farm leaders, including the Plains Cotton Growers Board, are claiming that farmers already take enough precautions to protect themselves, their laborers and their neighbors from harmful pesticide contamination.

However, spokesmen from local federal agricultural agency offices — the Howard County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office and the Soil Conservation Service — said they could not comment on the proposed state regulations.

"It's not our bailiwick," a spokesman from the SCS office said. "We aren't taking a position."

Moates also said the state office disagreed with Hightower's office on the number of persons injured in Texas because of pesticide use.

State Farm Bureau figures show only eight such incidents were reported in 1983, Moates said. In contrast, the Texas agriculture department claimed in a hearing Thursday that injuries caused by pesticide contamination were twice as high in Texas as in any other state.

The local Farm Bureau office and other farmer's groups are trying to mobilize opposition to the new regulations, which farmers say are too costly, for a public hearing scheduled in Lubbock. The date of the hearing will be set later by the agriculture department, Moates said.

Hearings are also scheduled for Austin and San Juan, Texas.

"The regulations could go in effect as early as Nov. 23," Moates said. "And they still haven't set a hearing date in Lubbock."

The proposed regulations were printed in the Texas Register on Oct. 23, Moates said. According to the agriculture department, people have 30 days — until Nov. 23 — to make an official comment on the regulations.

"County farm leaders say the proposals are unnecessary, unreasonable and in many cases, unworkable," according to Moates. The proposals would make it difficult to use the pesticides, or sometimes force producers to use a more expensive chemical, he said.

According to the Farm Bureau, the new regulations, if enacted,

Unemployment rate remains 7.4%

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civilian unemployment stood still at 7.4 percent in October as economic growth created nearly 350,000 new jobs — just enough to keep pace with a strong demand, the government said today.

In the last major economic indicator before Tuesday's presidential election, the Labor Department said the stagnant civilian jobless rate left more than 8.4 million people unemployed, as the ranks of those officially categorized as jobless shrank by 29,000.

The total number of employed rose by 347,000, from 105,239,000 to 105,586,000.

The new rate was 0.1 percentage point below that when President Reagan took office in January 1981. The October rate was 0.3

State level edges up

DALLAS (AP) — The Bureau of Labor Statistics today reported a slight increase in Texas' unemployment for the month of October, but the change is not significant and the economy continues stable, officials said.

The state unemployment figure rose from 5.6 percent in September to 5.7 percent in October.

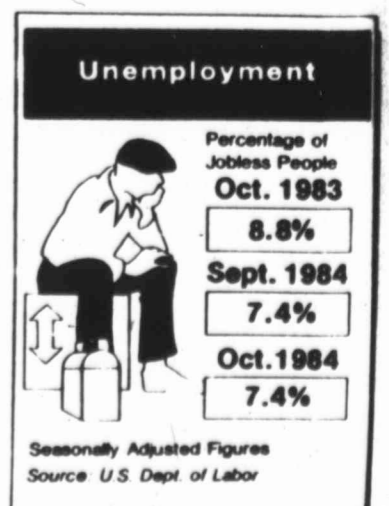

percentage point higher the June rate, the best of Reagan's tenure.

An alternate unemployment rate, which includes the 1.7 million members of the armed forces stationed in the United States, was also unchanged.

Even though the number of Americans with jobs since Reagan was inaugurated has risen by more than 6 million, the president has said repeatedly that, while he was pleased at that, he won't be satisfied until "everyone who wants a job can find one."

In advance of today's report, the Democratic Policy Committee, headed by Senate Minority Leader Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, issued a statement saying that "today there are nearly 8.5 million people out of work. The administration cannot hide that."

Weather

State feels winter lash

By The Associated Press
A dome of polar air plunged deep into Texas today, lowering temperatures to wintery levels and depositing appreciable amounts of rain.
A large storm system preceded the outbreak of cold air, with some cities getting more than an inch of rain.
Texas residents north of a line from Junction to Paris awoke today to temperatures in the 30s and lower 40s. Elsewhere in the state, readings were generally in the upper 50s to middle 60s, with the Rio Grande Valley still enjoying temperatures in the 70s.
Amarillo was the state's coolest spot overnight, with a 4 a.m. reading only one degree above freezing. At the same time, it was 72 at Brownsville and McAllen.
Winds of 15 to 25 mph whistled the dry, chilly air through the state and cleared skies from the Red River Valley through the Panhandle. A light southeasterly wind continued in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

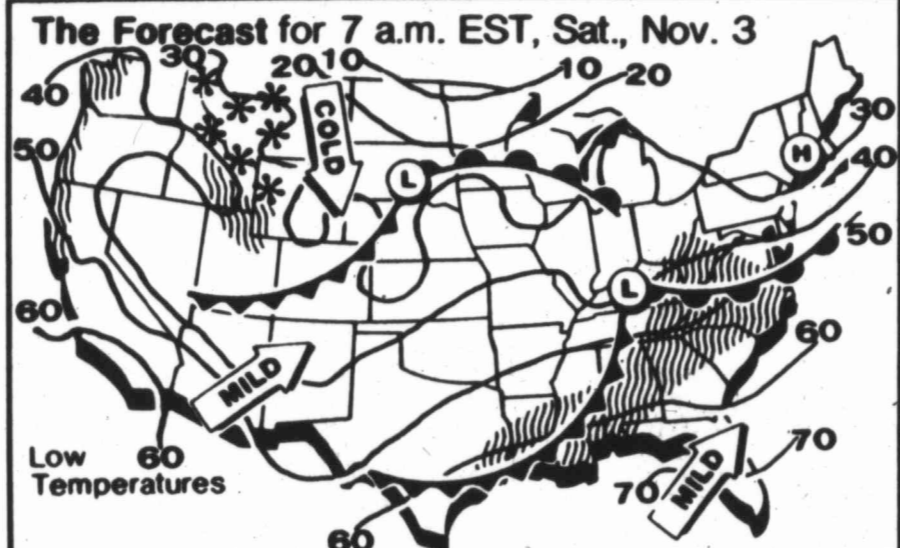

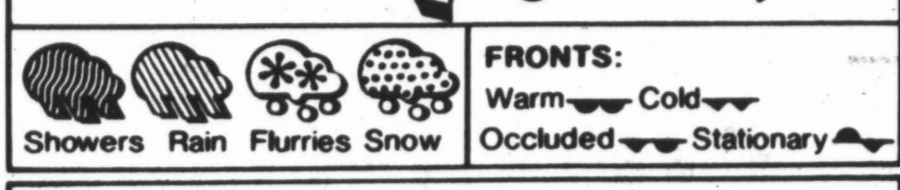

The National Weather Service said prospects were for a clearing trend from the west, with afternoon highs in the 60s likely for the northwestern half of the state and readings in the 70s elsewhere.
Winter storms were building in the Northwest today and thunderstorms drenched much of the nation's mid-section.
Heavy rain and thunderstorms struck from the lower Mississippi Valley and central Gulf states to the Tennessee and Ohio valleys.

Northern Louisiana was under a flash flood watch and gale-force winds were predicted for the upper Great Lakes.
To the west, rain extended over the northern Pacific Coast into northern California, and snow reached from eastern Washington across northwest Montana.

High-wind warnings were in effect for much of the Pacific Coast, Oregon's Columbia Gorge and the eastern slopes of the Montana Rockies.
Winter storm warnings for snow and strong winds were posted for northwest Montana, Idaho's panhandle and north central mountains and the Cascade Mountains and the northeastern section of Washington.

Today's forecast called for rain and thundershowers across much of the nation, from New England through the Gulf Coast states and the north and central plateau to the northern Pacific Coast. Snow was predicted from northern Minnesota across North Dakota to the northern Rockies.

Highs were expected to be in the 20s to 30s over the upper Great Lakes.
WEST TEXAS: Fair and warmer tonight and Saturday. Lows tonight upper 30s Panhandle to low 60s extreme south. Highs Saturday 70s east of the mountains to mid 80s Big Bend.

Development company administers SBA loans

By LUIS RIOS
Staff Writer
The U.S. Small Business Administration said Thursday it had certified the Big Spring Area Development Co. on Aug. 1 to administer the SBA's 503 loan program in Howard County.

The company will help promote and bring industry to Big Spring, said Hal Boyd, secretary of the group. John Currie is president of the company.

The formal announcement was made at a noon luncheon Wednesday at the Big Spring Airpark. Phillip O'Jibway, district director of Lubbock's SBA office, made the presentation of the certificate to officials of the Big Spring development company.

Calling it a tool for expansion, Boyd said the company was hoping the loan program will create more business opportunities in the community.

"The 503 program encourages private sector involvement in job creation and economic recovery within a community," said O'Jibway in a news release.

The SBA 503 program was implemented in October 1980, and the Big Spring company and its shareholders applied for certification Aug. 1, 1983, said Boyd.

The company is a non-profit organization and is composed of 25 members and nine directors, he added.

The Big Spring Area Certified Development Co. will loan between $50,000 and $500,000 per project, according to the SBA guidelines. Sufficient funds are currently available for all feasible projects.

The funds can only be used for the expansion of an existing business or land acquisition, building construction and renovation or equipment.

The development group will put up 10 percent of the small business financing. Typically, private lenders put up 50 percent and the development company sells a debenture for the other 40 percent.

The total amount of the debenture is guaranteed by the SBA. The interest rate on the SBA guaranteed portion generally runs less than private market rates.

However, the amount of the debenture guaranteed by the SBA cannot exceed half the cost of the project under consideration.

The Certified Development Co. program offers development companies financing and enables the development companies to extend long-term financing to small businesses. Financing can be set up to 25 years.

For more information call Hal Boyd at the Big Spring Area Development Co., Box 391, Building 1106, Big Spring or call (915) 263-3894.

Wild horses up for adoption

Wild horses, both mares and foals, will be brought into the Bureau of Land Management Collinsville Distribution Center for adoption in conjunction with a chili cookoff Saturday.

The adoption is part of the Bureau's Wild Horse and Burro Program that places excess animals from the public range with qualified individuals. The chili cookoff is an added bonus this weekend.

Anyone interested in adopting a wild horse should write the Collinsville Distribution Center, Route 1, Collinsville, Texas 76235 or the Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 1449, Santa Fe, N.M. 87504.

Animals are available throughout the year at the Collinsville Center.

Woman injured in collision

A 21-year-old woman was injured Thursday afternoon in a three-car accident at the intersection of S. Gregg and W. 10th streets, according to police reports.

Katrina Marie Pittman of 605 Washington was injured but was not taken to the hospital after the incident, according to police reports.

Ms. Pittman's car was traveling south on Gregg at 4:30 p.m. Thursday when her 1984 Dodge Daytona collided with a 1972 Oldsmobile Vista Cruiser station wagon driven by Reynaldo Gonzalez, 79, of 508 N.E. Eighth, police reports show. Gonzalez had been traveling east on 10th.

The collision sent Ms. Pittman's car spinning into a 1982 Buick Century driven by Raymond Dale Pittman, 23, of 1802 Hearn, police reports state.

Gonzalez was cited for failure to maintain financial responsibility, according to the police report.

Deaths

Ardis McCasland

Ardis McCasland Sr., 82, died Thursday afternoon. Services are pending at Nalley-Pickle and Welch Funeral Home.

Herbert Keaton

Herbert G. Keaton, 81, a noted cotton gin owner and merchandiser, died Wednesday evening at his home following a sudden illness. Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church with burial at Trinity Memorial Park.

Bishop Alsie Carlton of Albuquerque, N.M., Dr. Jordon Grooms of Amarillo and Rev. Keith Wiseman, pastor of First United Methodist Church, will officiate.

Keaton was born Dec. 1, 1902, in Tennessee. He married Martha Morton on March 13, 1925, in Weatherford. They moved to Big Spring in 1927.

In 1938, Keaton bought part-interest in a cotton gin in Martin County, creating the Keaton-Acuff Gin Co. He eventually operated a total of 14 cotton gins in West Texas.

Keaton was in the cotton merchandising business for many years and was partners with J.O. McCrary in the Keaton-McCrary Cotton Co. He owned farmland and farmed for more than 20 years, and continued to work in the cotton business until one month before his 77th birthday, in 1979.

He was a member of the International Cotton Association of Liverpool, England. He had been in the implement business, owning the International Harvester dealership in Big Spring during the 1940s. He was also in the oil and investment business with K.H. McGibbon.

Funeral services for Ardis McCasland Sr. will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church with interment at Trinity Memorial Park.

Equipment taken in burglary

More than $1,500 in stereo and television equipment was stolen earlier this week from a house on Westover, according to police reports.

Lupe Villapando, a gardener, told police Thursday morning that someone took a 25-inch color television valued at $1,200, a stereo valued at $150, two speakers valued at $70 and 10 cassettes valued at $80 from the house at 405 Westover.

According to the report, the burglary occurred between 7 p.m. Sunday and noon Monday. A window also was broken in the incident.

Someone took a $300 microwave oven from the Coca-Cola office at 3400 W. Highway 80 in a burglary, according to police reports. A door also was damaged in the burglary, reports show.

Someone stole a trombone worth $350 from the Big Spring High School band hall between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Barbara Hall told police.

Someone caused about $400 of damage to a blue 1984 Chevrolet between 10:30 p.m. Wednesday and 5:15 p.m. Thursday, Sylvia Rodriguez of 1804 Hamilton told police.

Police reports show someone took a 118-gallon trash can, valued at $80, from 911 E. Second.

Sharon Abbott of 1321 Utah told police someone broke a wooden window and two screens at her house, causing an unknown amount of damage. The incident took place between 4:15 and 11:29 p.m. Thursday.

Police arrested Luciano Rodriguez, 35, of Route 1 at 11 p.m. Thursday in the 2400 block of W. Highway 80 on suspicion of driving while intoxicated and driving while license suspended.

Police also arrested Randolph Jowers, 39, of 3205 11th Place at 2 a.m. Thursday at his house on suspicion of assault.

Billy Henkel, the manager of the Super Save No. 1 at 1610 Gregg, told police Thursday that the store cashed a check on Oct. 20 that was later returned from the bank as a forgery.

Sheriff's Log

Man held for forgery charge

A Dallas man was held in custody by the Howard County Sheriff's Department Friday morning on a forgery by passing charge and three Eastland County traffic warrants.

Judge Lewis Heflin set bond at $10,000 on forgery for Gary Don Neason, 24. Traffic warrant bonds have been set at $200 each.

A person reported to the sheriff's department Thursday that his vehicle, 1970 Oldsmobile, had been stolen from Birdwell's Trucking between 7:15 to 7:30 p.m.

Sheriff's deputies located the stolen vehicle 1/2 mile north of a rest area on N.87. The owner was notified and he retained possession of the automobile. Sheriff's records said that no charges had been filed or suspects held.

District Judge Jim Gregg and Probation Peace Officer Frank Martinez recalled a warrant for revocation of probation and dropped bond charges for Alejandro Arzola Torres, 44, 500 N.W. Seventh.

Torres was released from custody of the county jail.

the fundraiser came from the downtown merchants' association's Heart of the City Fair. He said he hoped the fundraiser would draw a larger, but different, crowd.

"There's no merchandising going on. It's just fun and games," he said.

Featured will be a breakdance contest. The Boys Club will sponsor a baseball throw and a turkey shoot as well as sell balloons and wooden toys that were handmade by the boys.

The YMCA will sponsor a soccer kick and a basketball shoot, the Boy Scouts will have a football throw, and the West Side Day Care Center will sponsor a wheel of fortune and a fish pond, Andries said.

The Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center will have a booth for face-painting, he said.

The West Side Center will have a food booth, selling burritos. Other types of food also will be available at the fair, including hot dogs, chili, cotton candy and popcorn, Andries said.

A white elephant booth and a country store also will be open at the downtown gala, he said.

would establish rules for:

- Notifying persons who might be affected by pesticides;
- Posting notices at fields that have been sprayed with pesticides and providing them with specific details on chemical safety;
- Providing oral warnings to persons who might enter a field treated with pesticides;
- Determining illegal applications of pesticide and clarifying growers' liability for injuries caused if the pesticide drifts;
- Establishing re-entry intervals into fields that have been treated with pesticides;

• And establishing technical advisory committee on pesticide use and liability in the state agriculture department.

Farmers who are opposed to the regulations say the department has not made a convincing case for the proposed "stringent" regulations.

"Farmers and ranchers have more reason than most people to be careful with farm chemicals," Moates said. "They live on the land. They don't want to hurt the environment or those who work for them."

Voting

Nov. 6 general election is 5 p.m. today. Written requests for mail-in ballots must be postmarked and mailed before 5 p.m. Friday.

The Big Spring Herald incorrectly stated Thursday that absentee voters had until 7 p.m. Tuesday to cast their votes. Mrs. Ray's office will accept mailed absentee ballots until 7 p.m. Thursday, but absentee voting in the office will end today.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. election day, Tuesday, and will close at 7 p.m.

WT postmasters set meeting

Over 90 postmasters from across West Texas are expected here Saturday for a branch meeting of the National League of Postmasters.

The conference, starting at 10 a.m. at the Holiday Inn, will include seminars on finance, mail classification, job promotion and insurance, according to Frank Hardesty, Big Spring postmaster.

Speaking at the 7 p.m. banquet will be Charles Lasasso of Dallas, North Texas district manager; Vernon Greggerson of El Paso, section center manager; and Jack Drye of Winters, Texas, representing the postmasters league.

Student not disciplined

HANOVER, N.H. — A Dartmouth College student who secretly tape-recorded a Gay Students Association meeting and published excerpts in an unofficial campus newspaper will not be disciplined, Dean Edward Shanahan says.

The decision was based on authorities' refusal to prosecute Teresa Polenz and the lack of a "clear and precise enough regulation under which to judge conduct of this kind," he said Oct. 28 in a letter to the academic community.

UC rejects cyanide plan

BOULDER, Colo. — University of Colorado students have rejected a proposal to stockpile cyanide capsules for mass suicides in a nuclear war, a plan approved by a wide margin last month at Brown University in Rhode Island.

The issue, put to a vote by Colorado student government, was turned down by a 58 percent to 42 percent margin Wednesday. University officials had said there would be no stockpiling of suicide pills regardless of the outcome.

Tornado reason for crash

CARBONDALE, Kan. — Three members of a Topeka engineering firm died in a plane crash apparently caused by a tornado that also raked a Carbondale trailer park, killing a man and a woman in two trailers, police said.

Federal investigators searching through debris Thursday found the bodies of Doug Wallace, 49, Bob Miller, 57, and John Burge, 22, all of Topeka, said the Osage County Sheriff's Department.

Cops go neutral in strike

SAN FRANCISCO — Police are "not taking sides" in a three-month restaurant workers strike, despite the union's claim in an $8 million lawsuit that workers were beaten while officers looked the other way, an official said.

"We're impartially enforcing the law," police Capt. William Scheffler said Thursday. "We're not taking sides" in the strike against 72 restaurants.

Leukemia patient dies

DELHI, La. — A 29-year-old leukemia victim has died after losing a court battle to contact a potential bone marrow donor hospital officials said had previously refused to become a donor, his relatives said.

William T. Head, whose leukemia had been in remission for almost a year, suffered a relapse last month and died Wednesday, said Mrs. Lewis A. Wiginton, his mother-in-law.

Convict gets work project

MILWAUKEE — A motorist convicted of leaving the scene of an accident that killed a 9-year-old girl has been sentenced to six months in a work-release program, despite public pressure for a long jail term.

Judge Ralph Gorenstein said Thursday he rejected a petition by 2,800 people demanding a jail term for Michael Minske.

Hungry and homeless

WAITING FOR AID — Hundreds of famine victims gathered in one of the huge relief camps in northern parts of Ethiopia waiting for food supply and medical aid. They have left their homesteads to escape famine after years of severe drought.

Ethiopian famine may claim 900,000 by 1985

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — An emergency airlift of food and supplies large enough to strain the capacity of Ethiopia's airports began Thursday in a worldwide effort to stave off a famine that one Western diplomat predicted will claim 900,000 lives in 1984.

The airlift began with the arrival in Addis Ababa, the capital, of a British Airways TriStar jet carrying 30 tons of food, medicine and relief equipment.

Diplomats and representatives of relief agencies said about 50 planes from both Western and Communist countries would arrive during the airlift. "There's a new group of planes almost every hour being offered," said one official, who spoke on condition he not be named.

Among countries that have offered aircraft for the airlift, sources said, were Britain, West Germany, Italy, South Yemen, the Soviet Union, East Germany and Bulgaria. A consortium of European aid agencies was chartering a Hercules transport, they said.

So many planes have been offered that there will be a problem accommodating them at Ethiopian airports, they said.

Ethiopia's Relief and Rehabilitation Commission estimates that a decade-long drought in this country on the Horn of Africa nation has pushed more than 6 million people to the brink of starvation.

The commission has given no estimate of the number of deaths but the Western diplomat, who refused to be identified by name or nationality, said: "Approximately 900,000 people will have died in this calendar year in Ethiopia."

He stressed that the estimate was a personal view based on his knowledge of conditions in famine-stricken areas and data from field studies on the number of deaths caused by starvation in selected populations.

The envoy said as many as 1.8 million Ethiopians could starve in 1985, but that some 600,000 tons of food supplies from outside sources expected over the next year would reduce that figure.

The World Food Program said as part of an appeal for Ethiopian famine relief in September that between 300,000 and 900,000 people could die.

Ethiopia's Relief and Rehabilitation Commissioner, Dawit Walde Giorgis, was in Washington on Thursday to seek more aid. He met with M. Peter McPherson, administrator of the Agency for International Development and Julian Becton, head of an inter-agency task force on African hunger.

President Reagan approved $45.1 million in emergency food aid for three other drought-plagued African countries — Kenya, Mozambique and Mali.

Thursday's British relief was organized by London's Mirror Newspaper Group. British Airways provided the plane free of charge and British companies donated the supplies.

At least two Hercules transport planes of Britain's Royal Air Force were expected to arrive in Ethiopia on Saturday. They are to airlift British, American and Canadian foodstuffs piled up at the Red Sea port of Assab to a famine relief center at Mekelle in northern Ethiopia.

Ethiopian relief officials said a Soviet effort is due to start Nov. 6 with the arrival of 12 Antonov-12 transports and 24 helicopters. The helicopters are to be based at the northern Ethiopian town of Axum, Mekelle, Kembolcha and Gondar and to be used for short shuttle flights.

2 convicted for murder

LOD, Israel — An Israeli military court has convicted two young Arab men — a Lebanese and a Palestinian — of murder in an attack that killed one Israeli and wounded 58 other people in Jerusalem this spring.

The prosecutor is seeking life sentences for Amjad Mustafa Ahmed Rabiya, 21, a Palestinian from Lebanon, and Wafiq Yussuf Salaha, 21, a Lebanese Druse. No sentencing date was set after the convictions Thursday.

Rabiya and Salaha were captured April 2 as they tried to flee the scene of the attack on a crowded market street. A third man was shot to death as he hurled hand grenades into the street.

Germans make new rifle

KOBLENZ, West Germany — West Germany has developed a combat rifle that is lighter, shorter and more accurate than current NATO infantry weapons because of a new type of ammunition, a military spokesman says.

The new G11 rifle is "eventually foreseen" for use by NATO troops once testing is completed and soldiers might be carrying it before 1990, according to Lt. Col Peter Bolte.

The new rifle, together with 614 rounds of ammunition, weighs 16.17 pounds and is 30 inches long. It has cartridges of 4.7 millimeter.

The bigger NATO G3 rifle with 100 cartridges of 7.62 millimeter and the U.S. M16 rifle with 344 cartridges of 5.56 millimeter weigh the same amount — 16.17 pounds, the manufacturers said.

Murder trial postponed

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada — Chief Justice Archibald Nedd has postponed until Nov. 20 the trial of 19 people charged in the killing of Prime Minister Maurice Bishop.

The judge ruled Thursday when no defense attorneys showed up to defend the 19, among them former Deputy Prime Minister Bernard Coard, his wife Phyllis, and army Gen. Hudson Austin.

All 19 were arrested and charged after the U.S.-led invasion of Oct. 25, 1983, that deposed a leftist military regime that overthrew and killed Bishop six days before.

Chinese leaders senile

PEKING — Communist Party General Secretary Hu Yaobang says senility has become a problem within China's aging leadership.

Hu commented Thursday during a meeting with visiting Burmese President San Yu in Jiangsu province, where they were on an inspection tour. The meeting was reported by the official news agency Xinhua.

"We are trying to solve the problem of senility among our cadres and quite a number of young people have been promoted to leading posts at various levels since 1982," Hu said.

He did not identify any senile officials.

Most of China's senior leaders are in their 60s, 70s or 80s, including Deng Xiaoping, China's most authoritative figure.

Defector returns to Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — Josef Stalin's daughter, Svetlana, has returned to Moscow and her Soviet citizenship has been restored, the official news agency Tass said today. She defected 17 years ago.

"The presidium of the U.S.S.R. Supreme Soviet, in accordance with articles 19 and 21 of the U.S.S.R. law on citizenship, has considered and complied with a request made by S.I. Alliluyeva, who has returned to Moscow, for restoring her to the citizenship of the U.S.S.R. as well as for granting Soviet citizenship to Alliluyeva's daughter Olga," the Tass announcement said.

The brief dispatch did not say when Stalin's 59-year-old daughter returned to the Soviet Union nor where she planned to live. Olga is her daughter by her third husband, an American, William Peters.

Alliluyeva was Svetlana's mother's last name. Although she later used other names, she was once known as Svetlana Alliluyeva.

Svetlana defected in 1967 during a trip to New Delhi, India, and went to live in the United States. There, she married Peters, but they were divorced in 1973. Last year she moved from Princeton, N.J., to Cambridge, England.

Constitutional amendments

Proposition 1

The constitutional amendment to provide state banks the same rights and privileges as national banks.

Amendment one will give state banks equal footing with nationally chartered banks operating in Texas. The amendment is needed because federal law outweighs state law in every instance except state rules against branch banking.

Right now, federal law says state prohibitions against branch banking cannot be overruled. But since Texas is the only state with a constitutional prohibition against branches, there is good reason to believe the federal government may scrap this restriction.

If that happens, federal banks in Texas will have an unfair advantage over state banks — unless voters adopt amendment one in the general election Tuesday.

Proposition 2

The constitutional amendment to create from general revenue a special higher education assistance fund for construction and related activities, to restructure the Permanent University Fund, and to increase the number of institutions eligible to benefit from the Permanent University Fund.

This amendment is a move toward equality of funding for all universities in Texas.

Mainstay institutions in the University of Texas and Texas A&M University systems receive money from state oil and gas royalties under the Permanent University Fund program. If approved in Tuesday's election, amendment two will expand the umbrella to include all UT and TAMU schools.

Further, it will establish a permanent funding program for non-PUF schools — such as Texas Tech — adding certainty and equity to higher education financing across the state.

Proposition 8

The constitutional amendment to provide a per diem for members of the legislature equal to the maximum daily amount allowed by federal law as a deduction for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred by a state legislator.

Texas legislators are paid $7,200 a year. Granted, the work is supposed to be parttime, and performed in part as a civic duty. Amendment eight does not seek to raise legislators' pay, but it will set a realistic reimbursement for the expenses of doing the work of government.

A constitutional provision in 1975 set $30 as a maximum allowance. That amount is hopelessly inadequate in 1984 — after adjusting for inflation it's worth about $16. Amendment eight would tie the daily allowance to the federal daily allotment, currently $75.

The $30 limit puts legislators in a position of losing money to do their jobs. Unless amendment eight is approved Tuesday, the privilege of holding legislative office will be limited to those who are wealthy enough to afford to do it. We don't want an elitist legislature; amendment eight will help keep state office-holding open to all qualified individuals.

Today

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, Nov. 2, the 307th day of 1984. There are 59 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On Nov. 2, 1948, to the surprise of the experts, President Harry S. Truman held onto his office with a narrow election-night victory over Republican Thomas E. Dewey.

On this date:
In 1783, Gen. George Washington issued his "Farewell Address to the Army" near Princeton, N.J.

In 1795, the 11th U.S. president, James Knox Polk, was born in Mecklenburg County, N.C.

In 1865, the 29th U.S. president, Warren Gamaliel Harding, was born near Corsica, Ohio.

In 1889, North Dakota and South Dakota became the 39th and 40th states admitted to the union.

In 1920, radio station KDKA in Pittsburgh began the first regular broadcasting schedule, reporting returns from the Harding-Cox presidential election. (Harding won with just over 60 percent of the popular vote.)

In 1930, Haile Selassie was crowned emperor of Ethiopia.

In 1947, the "Spruce Goose" — the 200-ton, eight-engine wooden flying boat built by Howard Hughes — went on its first and last flight. Hughes was at the controls as the plane flew for about a minute over Long Beach Harbor in California.

In 1950, playwright George Bernard Shaw died at age 94.

In 1954, South Carolina Republican Strom Thurmond became the first person ever elected to the U.S. Senate as a write-in candidate.

In 1959, quiz-show contestant Charles Van Doren admitted to a House subcommittee that he had been given questions and answers in advance when he appeared on an NBC-TV quiz show, "21."

In 1976, former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter defeated President Gerald R. Ford in their race for the White House. (Although Ford won more states, Carter received more electoral votes.)

Ten years ago: The Shah of Iran and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger met in Tehran. They agreed the oil-producing countries and consuming nations must cooperate to prevent world disorder stemming from inflation.

Reagan blocks voter registration

WASHINGTON — In past columns, I have reported on the Reagan administration's attempts to throw up roadblocks to voter registration — particularly if the registrants are considered unlikely to vote for the Reagan-Bush ticket.

By threatening to cut off federal aid, officials in Washington have tried to bully state and local agencies into denying space in their buildings for registration booths. They have also tried to keep federal employees from volunteering in voter sign-up efforts.

Though the administration's questionable tactics often violate the agencies' own regulations, and have repeatedly been overturned by the courts, they have succeeded in squelching many well-intentioned efforts to broaden the electorate. By the time the cases were thrashed out in court, it was too late to register voters for this election.

I reported earlier how the Labor Department ignored the Constitution and its own rules by threatening a cutoff of federal funds to state unemployment offices that allowed registration booths on their premises.

Welfare offices are another place the administration doesn't want to encourage voter registration. In Cincinnati, an official of Project Vote — a non-partisan group that tries to register poor Americans — was handcuffed, strip-searched and thrown in jail for trying to sign up voters at a county welfare office.

Here is the evidence to date of the "vote-chill" effort, gathered by my associate Donald Goldberg:

- Postmaster General William Bolger late last year issued an unprecedented order prohibiting Postal Service employees from taking part in voter registration efforts at work — even on lunch breaks and in non-work areas.

Bolger justified his fiat on grounds that the postal unions have endorsed a presidential candidate (Walter Mondale), and therefore the public might think the employees' sign-up efforts were partisan. A federal court injunction against Bolger's ban was issued — but not until Oct. 1, when most of the damage had been done.

- William O'Connor, special counsel of the Merit Systems Protection Board, issued an advisory opinion that government employees whose union has endorsed a candidate may not engage in voter registration. The American Federation of Government Employees challenged the opinion in court; it is still under appeal.

- Office of Personnel Management Director Donald Devine warned at least four governors that registration drives conducted in state buildings could jeopardize their states' federal funds. His unique interpretation of the law barring state employees from "interfering" with an election was challenged even by the Republican-controlled Senate.

- The Health and Human Services Department has allowed the states to decide whether to allow voter registration drives at food lines. At least two states, Tennessee and Missouri, have forbidden it.

- In Illinois, Labor Department funds for summer jobs were cut off because teen-agers would be working on voter registration. A number of workers had to be fired for lack of money.

Has the president stopped abortions?

To the editor:
I would like to respond to the letter of 10-29-84 from Ms. Creighton.

I can't help but wonder how many abortions President Reagan has prevented since he has been in office. I wonder how many he will prevent should he be re-elected. I think he has prevented none and will prevent none. I feel I am just as strongly against abortions as any one; however, I do not care for Mr. Reagan or any government member getting involved 'his intimately into personal business. No law will prevent abortions. Laws can make it available to the wealthy without risk and the rest can go back to the old tried and proven coat hanger.

Thankfully we have a choice, in the matter of presidential politics and in our personal beliefs. Future President Mondale will protect our rights in this and many other areas.

MARCELLOUS (BOOSIE) WEAVER

P.S. I hope, before I get too much older, that we take a close look at euthanasia, or mercy killing.

The eyes have it

To the editor:
I am very disappointed in the quality of the Phil Gramm-Lloyd Doggett campaign for the United States Senate, and I have been concerned that the mudslinging by both sides has been eclipsing the real issues facing Texas.

Recently, my faith in the voters of Texas was renewed. While waiting in line at an area business establishment, I overheard two middle aged persons commenting on the lack of substance in the Texas campaign; however, one was able to cut through to the most basic issue of all. With all the convolutions in the world, he pointed to a campaign pamphlet (which I couldn't see) and stated, "I'm voting against this guy. He's a crook! You can tell by his dark eyes!"

After four years of college, three years of law school, and one half a year of graduate law school, I considered myself privileged to finally learn how to cast an intelligent ballot. Even though I had already voted absentee, I hurried home to ascertain whether I had cast a proper ballot. Unfortunately, Congressman Gramm and Senator Doggett both have rather dark eyes, and the test was inconclusive; however, I did draw some satisfaction from discovering that I had voted for the presidential candidate with "Bette Davis eyes!"

Voter rich

Tuesday — come rain or shine, we Americans and citizens of Howard County will march to the polls and vote for the candidates of our choice in the 1984 November General Election.

We will march and vote despite our confusions, ambivalences and waning patience.

During evening hours, when networks kill election hoopla with their projected winners and exhaustive analysis — we will be nodding off and wondering whether that march to the polls to cast one single vote really made a difference.

Believe it or not, it will have made a difference.

The real winners in this year's results will be us — the voters — and in particular the voters of Howard County.

Ever since the 1980 General Elections, voter apathy and turnout has become a discernible issue kicked around on the national level.

Leonard H. Goldenson, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of ABC Inc., said in a 1982 address to the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University that the national voter turnout in 1980 was 53 percent. The most recent peak for national voter turnout he said, was 1960 when we rushed the polls to record an astonishing 63 percent turnout.

Goldenson explains that perhaps, "we have somehow become a nation rich in information, yet poor in political passion. We live in the most successful experiment in democracy of modern history, yet we have just about the lowest percentage of voter turnout among the democracies of the world."

Howard County turnout statistics refute Mr. Goldenson's image of us as voters.

According to County Clerk Margaret Ray, Howard County's turnout in the 1980 election was a whopping 72 percent. Out of 15,846 eligible voters, 11,449 cast their votes.

What's even more appealing is that this year's Howard County absentee votes are piling in. On Thursday, Mrs. Ray said, "It looks like we're going to set a record." It was an accurate prediction. By 10 a.m. today, the absentee vote topped 1,900 to set a new record.

Goldenson says in his address that one way to eliminate voter apathy is for our school systems to make knowledge of the voting process part of our school's curriculum in much the same way math or history is.

Margaret Ray told me that she makes frequent trips to local school classes at the request of teachers and talks about the voting process. This week, for instance, she went to Coahoma on her lunch hour and talked to a group of fifth graders about voting procedures.

Anytime a government teacher wants Mrs. Ray to teach voting procedures, she makes herself available.

Much of Goldenson's address implores the Kennedy School of Government to look further into the situation of low voter turnout and apathy.

Goldenson should look into Howard County and Mrs. Margaret Ray's example.

We've defied the national concern.

An unusual pair: A Texan and Mrs. Gandhi

PORT ARTHUR (AP) — The assassination of India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi this week ended a correspondence for Port Arthur artist and author George Hampton.

Between May 1977 and January 1981, Hampton received eight letters from Mrs. Gandhi, including one handwritten note in November 1981.

"She obviously was a person who liked receiving letters from foreign countries and so forth," Hampton said, agreeing to share those letters with the Port Arthur News.

"The fact that I was an artist interested her."

Over the years, Hampton sent letters, newspaper and magazine clippings and even some original Hampton watercolors to Mrs. Gandhi. When she lost the election for prime minister in 1977, he urged her to leave the country.

"I wrote to her and said, 'You ought to get out of India. You could go to Paris or Buenos Aires, or somewhere, because those people are going to put you in jail.' She had 1,800 of her opposition in jail at one time," Hampton said.

His advice, however, could not be accepted.

On Oct. 27, 1977, Mrs. Gandhi wrote the following hand-signed letter:

"Thank you for your letter of the 28th May, 1977. The water color cards are attractive.

"I am touched by your concern. It is not always possible to go away nor it is good to do so. At present I am not allowed to leave the country. This government is more interested in hounding people who it imagines to be against it, than in governing the country. Yours sincerely, Indira Gandhi"

Hampton says he started writing Mrs. Gandhi because of his fascination with female political leaders. At one time he tried to call Golda Meir, prime minister of Israel from 1969 to 1974. But that call never went through.

"They told me, 'You give us Richard Nixon's phone number, and we'll give you Golda Meir's,'" he says, laughing.

Hampton says he regarded Mrs. Gandhi as one of India's greatest rulers. What she was up against — all of those people would like to chisel out a little niche of their own," he said.

"If she had let everyone do what they wanted, there'd be no more India."

In a letter to Hampton of Aug. 28, 1979, Mrs. Gandhi went into detail explaining why an article in an American newspaper was wrong:

"Thank you for your letter of the 22nd August and for all the cuttings. The ones about you and your work are interesting but the one on Indian affairs is, as usual, incorrect.

"My party and I wanted the Janata Party Government to go, for it was ruining our country and everything, except the prices and unemployment, was going downhill at a tremendous rate. To remove the Government, we had to offer support to a breakaway group of the same name — Janata Party (S) — but we emphasized that it was only for the formation of the Government. This support was unconditional and acknowledged as such by Mr. Charan Singh, the Prime Minister, himself as late as the 19th August. However, he and his colleagues missed no opportunity to try and humiliate us and to shout from the housetops that our support was not needed and that it would affect his prestige if he came to see me. This irritated our MPs. Also, it was clear that his posture would be even more vindictive towards us than was the previous Government's. These were the reasons why my MPs refused to support him further.

"With good wishes, Yours sincerely, Indira Gandhi"

Mrs. Gandhi was re-elected prime minister in January 1980. The years of her correspondence with Hampton catalog her rise, fall and second rise to power. Last June, she sent Indian troops to the Golden Temple to quell uprisings among the Sikhs, a religious minority in India. Somewhere between 600 and 1,200 Sikhs were killed.

"You haven't heard much of her in the last six months," Hampton said, adding that she was being closely guarded for fear of reprisals from the Sikhs. In the end, two of her own bodyguards — themselves members of the Sikh religion — shot Mrs. Gandhi to death.

Berea Baptist to raise the roof Sunday

By KIM KIRKHAM
Lifestyle Writer
Berea Baptist Church will raise the roof Sunday when the congregation celebrates the end of a 22-year debt.

At the end of Sunday's 9:30 a.m. church service, Berea will burn its note. Former members and two former pastors will be returning to the church for the homecoming and note burning. A dinner will be at 1 p.m.

"This was the first time in the history of the church they've been out of debt," said Eddie Tingle, pastor.

Berea Baptist began as a mission of Hillcrest Baptist Church of Big Spring in the basement of William Banks' home, 2109 Carl. In October, 1961, a census was taken and plans for a church in southwest Big Spring began.

On Dec. 10, 1961, the general officers and nominating committee were elected. The Rev. J. F. Fields was called out of retirement to be the first pastor. Forty-nine persons representing 10 families attended the first service of the Hillcrest Baptist Mission in January of 1962. On Feb. 21, 1962, the mission accepted blue-prints for a church building. Pastor-builder E. O. Hartwell came to serve the church. It was then voted to sell $30,000 in A.B. Culbertson Trust Co. bonds to finance construction of a building.

Three acres of land were selected for the site. Each member was then requested to submit suggestions for a name. On May 2, 1962, the name "Berea Baptist Church" was selected. The name comes from a church in the New Testament named Berea found in Acts 17:11.

In June of 1962, the land was cleared for the building, and on July 8, 1962 the land was dedicated and ground was broken for the building. The first services to be held in the building, 4204 Wasson Rd, were Sept. 23, 1962. The Rev. Hartwell resigned as pastor and the Rev. Fields was again pastor.

After a two-week revival, on Jan. 7, 1963, the mission was constituted into a Southern Baptist Church known as Berea Baptist Church. The congregation grew in number until there were 88 members recorded as charter members.

The church voted to double its building size in April of 1963. Another $25,000 in bonds were sold. The second unit opened in August 1963. On Jan. 6, 1964, a kindergarten school was begun.

In March of 1964, plans began to build a new auditorium seating up to 700 persons. First services in the new building were July 5, 1964.

The church now has three educational buildings and is the site of the Baptist Student Union for the Deaf.

Other former pastors include Darrell Robinson, William O'Dell, Gary Higgs, Freddie Martin and D. R. Philley.

BURNING THE NOTE — Berea Baptist Church will have a note burning and homecoming Sunday. Pictured are (left to right) Eddie Tingle, pastor, and Roland King, Vaughn Martin and Bill Banks, trustees. This is the first time the church has been out of debt since it was organized 22 years ago as a mission of Hillcrest Baptist Church.

Fishers to be featured at Foursquare Church

Harry and Jo Fisher will be featured at the Foursquare Gospel "Lighthouse" Church, 19th and Settles, Nov. 16, 17 and 18. Services will begin at 7 p.m. nightly.

The husband and wife team has worked in the area between New York and Arizona for 21 years, operating from their home base in Wichita Falls, Texas. Fisher was ordained a Baptist minister in 1959. For three years the couple served as Assembly of God evangelists then later became independent evangelists to expand their outreach.

They have ministered in many churches — denominational and interdenominational as well as home meetings and most recently into prisons.

The seminar's cost is $10. Nursery and babysitting facilities are available for children up to age 11. Those attending may bring a sack lunch or eat at one of the nearby restaurants.

To register or obtain more information, contact Tim Talley at the Broadway Church of Christ, (806) 763-0464.

Christians needed to march in parade

Wanted — 1,000 Christians to march in the Christmas Parade Dec. 1. All churches are invited to march together under one banner. The march's theme will be "Christ is the Answer," with the theme song "There is Power in the Blood and Victory in Jesus."

A concert will be held at the end of the parade at the Howard County Courthouse on Main Street. It will last as long as interest is shown.

Banners and show cards will be furnished to walkers in the parade. Anyone wanting a card with the name of their church group must call Sig Rogers, 267-6970, or the Chamber of Commerce, 263-7641. Pastors also must let Rogers know how many of their members will participate and if they have any special music or singers for the concert.

Rogers expects to have two buses and a long float for the parade. Anyone with other parade business is to contact parade officials.

Holbert to lead preaching series

John Holbert will lead a preaching series titled "The Bible Lives" at First United Methodist Church Sunday through Tuesday.

On Sunday, a sermon "Gimme That Prime-Time Religion" will begin at 10:50 a.m. At 7 p.m. the sermon will be "Ruth's Risky Resolve."

At 12 p.m. Monday "Fast Faith Comes Slow" will be presented. At 7 p.m. the sermon will be "Reluctant Savior."

At 12 p.m. Tuesday, "Just When You Thought You Knew..." will be presented. A sermon titled

JOHN HOLBERT
"Surprising Choices" will begin at 7 p.m.

Sunday concludes Nazarene revival

Fall revival services at the First Church of the Nazarene will conclude Sunday evening. Serving as evangelist and singer is Dr. Wade Powers of Gallatin, Tenn.

Powers is an ordained minister who served in the pastorate for 10 years. He has spent the last 20 years in education and currently serves as Dean at Volunteer State Community College in Gallatin.

Services will be at 7 p.m. tonight and Saturday night, and at 10:50 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday. Special music provided by Powers, local talent and the Sanctuary Choir is featured each night. Nursery service is provided. Sunday School classes begin at 9:45 a.m. Cotton Mize, board of Christian Life chairman, said the average Sunday School attendance for October made an 18 percent increase over last year's average.

First Church of God plans family day

Sunday is Family Harvest Day at First Church of God, 2009 Main St. All families are urged to bring their relatives to church.

An award will be given to the family present with the largest number of members living in one household. The largest extended family present, including all relatives, also will receive an award. Adults without children may "adopt" a child from Children's Church who is without a parent.

Following the morning service, a family harvest feast — fellowship meal — will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Instant photographs will be taken of each family and placed on a bulletin board for display.

Children of Divorce seminar planned

The Broadway Church of Christ, Lubbock, will host a Help Seminar titled "Children and Divorce," Nov. 10. It will be in Room 222 of the Broadway Education Center, 1924 Broadway, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The seminar is sponsored by Thingles Ministry and the Family Care Ministry of the Broadway Church of Christ.

David Lewis, director of the Institute of Adolescent Studies, will conduct the day-long seminar. Lewis, a marriage and family therapist, specializes in adolescent development and counseling of children of divorce. Lewis also served as director of Youth and Family Ministry of a large church in Abilene for over 10 years.

Topics to be discussed include: "How Divorce Affects Children in Different Stages of Development," "How to Recognize and Handle Depression," and "How Parents Handle Their Own Anger, Guilt and Resentment."

Dandruff

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: What can really be done to curb dandruff? Is it hereditary? Is there danger or problems with dandruff? — C.R.

We can't say that dandruff is hereditary, but we do know that it can run in families, and I can't answer the question as to why that happens. I wish I had better answers for your other questions — about control. Treatment varies with the degree of severity. Dandruff is seborrheic dermatitis. And that translates as oversecretion of oil glands causing some skin inflammation. We know that certain factors influence dandruff besides the family history alluded to earlier. There may be seasonal factors, for example. Dandruff often becomes worse in winter months. Many investigators have tried to pin the blame on a variety of skin organisms, but no single one has been identified as the universal culprit.

Treatments? With oily, scaly type of dandruff, shampooing with preparations containing selenium, sulfur and salicylic acid or tar helps. For more resistant cases, certain hydrocortisone liquid or spray application following shampoos reduces any skin inflammation.

If the scalp is dry, that indicates a lesser degree of skin oil production and the approach is to reduce the frequency of shampooing, perhaps limiting it to twice a week as opposed to daily.

If you're unable to control dandruff in these ways you should see a dermatologist, who will be able to help with closer examination of the scalp and appropriate prescription. Dandruff becomes a problem when itching gets so severe that constant scratching sets up lesions. This can lead to infection. So a serious case of dandruff requires medical attention for more than cosmetic reasons.

Dr. Donohue welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Dear Abby

A mistress by another name is either a Mrs., Miss or Ms.

DEAR ABBY: Margaret, an older widow who hates to be called "Mrs.," wants to know how "missus" could be abbreviated to "Mrs." since there is no "r" in "missus." For goodness sakes, there is no such word as "missus" — it's simply the sloppy pronunciation of "mistress," which is what they called the married lady of the house in the early days. "Mrs." is the abbreviation of "mistress" — which does contain an "r."

Since Margaret doesn't approve of titles, she would surely approve of the custom of the Society of Friends (Quakers) who address no one — not man, woman, doctor, king, general or mistress — by any title whatsoever.

When I was the director of a Quaker school, I was respectfully addressed by everyone — including the youngest child — as Dorothy Russell (who at 86 will answer to anything that feels comfortable to the addresser).

DOROTHY RUSSELL

DEAR DOROTHY RUSSELL: Read on for more about how — and how not — to address a person:

DEAR ABBY: A male child is addressed as "master" until he reaches his teens, then he automatically becomes "mister." A female child is a "miss" until she marries; but if she remains unwed, she carries the juvenile form of address to her grave. That wrinkles my wrinkle! If a man can assume an adult title based solely on age, why shouldn't a woman do the same?

Since I am a woman with a name that can be either a man's or a woman's — and since it's been a while since I was either juvenile or married — there are times when that absurd "Ms." doesn't seem so absurd after all.

Thursday Notes

By STEVE BELVIN
Staff Writer

Live, from the sports section of the Big Spring Herald, comes Friday's special edition of Thursday Notes.

Several changes have been made for Memorial Stadium's seating arrangement for this Friday's (Nov. 2) Homecoming football game between the Big Spring Steers and Abilene Eagles.

The BSHS band and student body will sit on the West side of the stadium. The band will be located in the northern one-half of Section E. High School students will be located in the remaining one-half of Section E and the northern one-half of section D.

Junior high and elementary students will be located in Section A. All of Sections B and C and one-half of Section D will be held for sale as reserve seats. Anyone from Big Spring who wishes to sit on the East side of the stadium will have to buy a ticket in Section G or H.

Tickets for Sections G and H will be on sale at the middle ticket booth on the East side of the stadium or can be picked up at the BSISD Administration Building between 8:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Wednesday through Friday.

The Howard County Youth Horsemen Club will sponsor an open horse show Saturday, Nov. 3 at the Youth Horsemen Arena located on the Garden City highway just off South highway 87.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. with judging to get underway at 10 a.m.

Grand and reserve champions will be awarded to mares, stallions and geldings in all halter classes.

A high point award will be given in divisions for ages 13 and under and ages 14 to 18. High point adult honors will be presented to competitors ages 19 and over.

The Big Spring Northside Boxing Club will sponsor an eight team amateur boxing tournament Saturday, Nov. 3.

The first matches of the day get started at 2 p.m. in the event being held at 1000 NW 4th St.

There is no admission to watch the matches involving boxing clubs from Big Spring, Colorado City, Odessa, Midland, Snyder, Del Rio, San Antonio and Olton.

Donations will be accepted to benefit the Big Spring Boys Club.

Hawks fly past Lobos 128-45

By BILLY NABOURS
Sports Editor

It was an execution, pure and simple, and there was no one around to hand out a last minute stay.

That is about the only way to term the Howard College Hawks' 128-45 slaughter of the Sul Ross State University JV Thursday night at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

The game, the season opener for the Hawks, was a laugher after the first three minutes. Sul Ross never led and made things close only twice at 3-2 and 5-4 on buckets from Britt Cooper. Cooper was Sul Ross' leading scorer with 12 points.

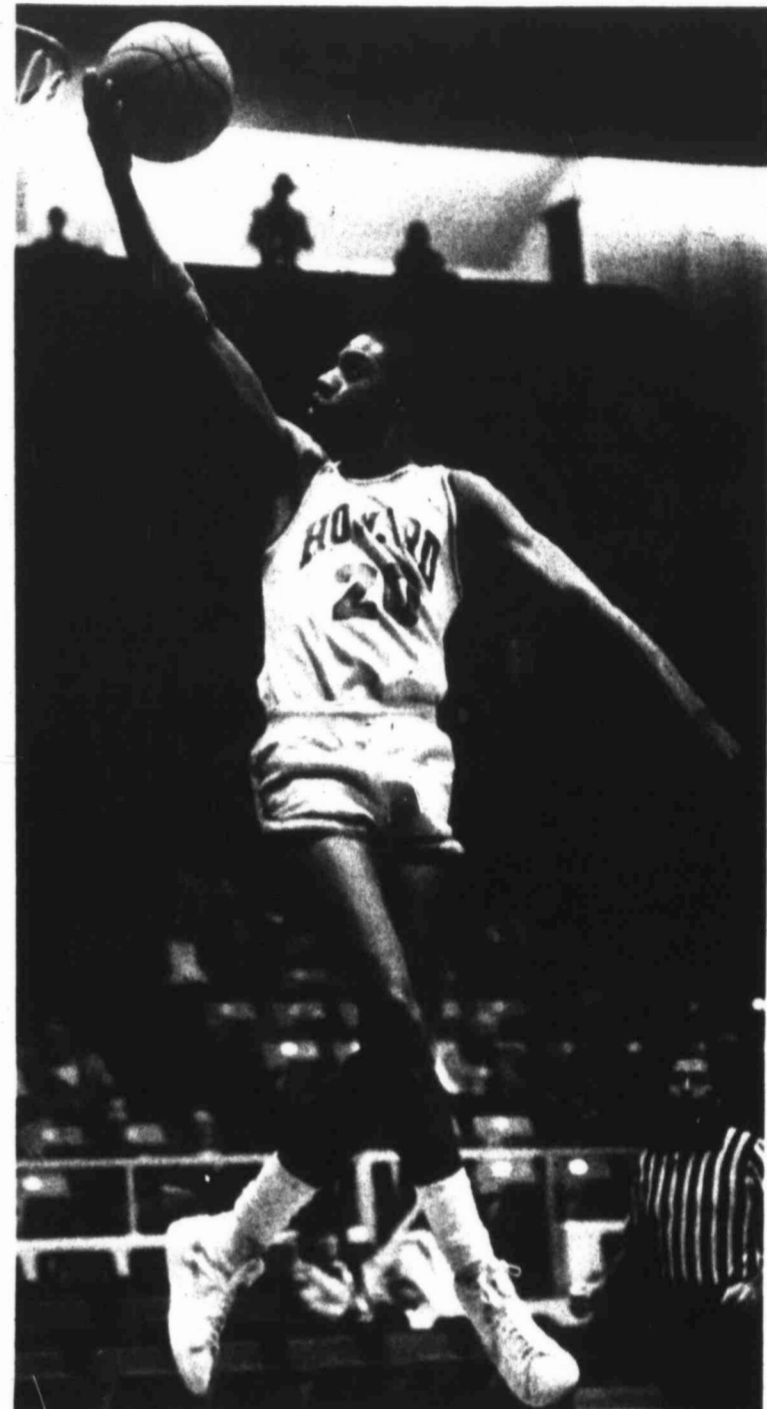

After the 17:34 mark in the first half it would be seven long minutes before the Lobos found the field goal touch again. A lot of the credit went, however to the tenacious defense played by the Hawks — that, plus the board play of Walt Reynold and Greg Jones. Reynolds hauled down 12 rebounds and Jones had 11.

The night belonged to the Hawks only returning starter, however. Michael Porter was a leader on the floor for the six freshmen and personally pulled the switch that fried the Lobos in the first half when HC built a 63-19 lead.

Porter, who averaged 12.6 points a game last year, hit 12 of 15 field goals (nine of 11 in the first half) and chipped in five free throws for 29 points. He rested most of the second half as new HC coach Ed Sparling got a good look at his six freshmen.

See Hawks, pg. 2B

HIGH FLYING HAWK — Freshmen Bruce Kimble (20) goes up for two of his 21 points in Howard College's 128-45 thrashing of Sul Ross' JV last night in the season opener for the Hawks. Kimble was one of five Hawks in double figures, led by Will Rogers' 33 and te 12 of 15 field goal shooting of lone returning starter Michael Porter. The Hawks will host Lubbock Christian Saturday night at 8.

Queens give Stevens his 200th coaching win 93-70

WACO — Joyce Boudreaux continued to pound the boards here for the Howard College Hawk Queens in the McLennan Community College Highlassie Classic.

For the second time in as many games Boudreaux had 14 rebounds and 20 plus points as the Queens rolled past the Temple Junior College Leopardettes, 93-70 Thursday evening. The win gives the Queens a 2-0 mark and gave Don Stevens his 200th victory as coach of the Queens. Stevens has coached the Queens to a 200-65 record since taking over the program in 1977.

Their tourney mark also leaves the Queens and WJAC member South Plains as the only unbeaten in the tourney. The Queens were slated to finish their part of the action today at 4 p.m. against winless San Jacinto.

Boudreaux chipped in 24 points in the game that Queens coach Don Stevens described as, "our best game from wire-to-wire."

Behind a "very explosive," offensive showing the Queens built a 47-34 halftime lead that they stretched to 20 points on several occasions in the second half.

Sue Van Hooser had her, "best game of the year," Stevens added. Van Hooser scored 21 points — 19 in the second half to help take up the slack for Boudreaux who was in foul trouble.

SUE VAN HOOSER

DON STEVENS

Debbie Hall rounded out double digit Queens with 17 points. Alex Provencio, trying to make the transition from inside to playing out front, had a much better game than the opener against Panola (81-68 win for HC). Stevens said Provencio turned the ball over only once after suffering through 11 errors on Wednesday.

Stevens was also impressed with the play of freshman Tammy Winsmann. The Woodlands native scored four points, but according to Stevens, "Tammy seems to be gaining more confidence. She is steady and very consistent. She will begin playing more for us."

QUEENS (83) — Barry 1-0-2; Provencio 4-0-8; Joyce Boudreaux 10-4-24; Sue Van Hooser 8-5-21; French 4-0-3; Winsmann 2-0-4; Debbie Hall 7-3-17; Wade 4-1-9; Totals 40-13-93.
TJC (70) — Metoyer 2-2-6; Michelle Powell 7-2-16; Sodloek 2-0-4; Jackson 1-7-9; Marcy 4-0-8; Brantley 0-1-1; Thomas 4-0-8; Angie Williams 6-4-16; Andrews 0-2-2; Totals 26-19-70.
Halftime: Queens 47, TJC 34.
Records: Queens (2-0).

BSHS frosh whip Snyder 52-32

It was the Danny Williams and Charles White show Thursday night at Memorial Stadium as the duo combined for six touchdowns in leading the Steers freshmen to a 52-32 trouncing of Snyder.

It was the highest scoring output this season for coach Terry Benner's troops as they upped their record to 5-3 for the season.

Williams and White simply destroyed the Snyder defense and offense as the Steers racked up 350 yards rushing and had a commanding 30-16 lead at halftime.

Williams was a thorn in Snyder's side both offensively and defensively. Defensively from his cornerback position he picked off two passes, returning both for scores.

The first was a 96-yarder while the second interception return covered 65 yards. He also burned the Tigers defense for a 90-yard kickoff return and a 59-yard scoring run.

White also had a busy night scoring two TD's and four two-point conversions. His scoring runs covered 56 and 58 yards.

Shawn Shellman got into the act when he scored on a 40-yard run and added a two-point conversion.

Benner credited the high scoring output to good offensive line play by Sonny DeLacry, Teddy Molina, Brad Smith, Steve Rains and Matt Burrow. Other top linemen were Kyle Carrol, Jason Foust, Barney Dodd and Rocky Ramirez.

The freshmen will close out the season next Thursday at Memorial when they battle Sweetwater.

Crossroads Country football players are making good showings in the Lone Star Conference.

Ex-Colorado City star Victor Jackson, a junior cornerback for Howard Payne University was named the Lone Star Conference Defensive Player of the Week in his team's 20-13 win over highly-touted Eastern New Mexico University.

Jackson made six tackles, recovered one fumble and broke up two passes to earn the honor.

For the season Jackson has broken up eight passes and been in on 32 tackles.

The week before in Howard Payne's loss to Abilene Christian University, ex-C-City linebacker Randy Uselton recorded a blocked punt, the first of his college career.

Ex-Big Spring star Richard Evans, now a sophomore cornerback at Angelo State University is also doing well with the Rams, who are leading the LSC with a 2-0 slate.

Evans has seen considerable action in his backup role has intercepted one pass, made 18 tackles and broken up three passes.

And up at Texas Tech, Danny Arista has made the Raiders as a walk-on and is listed as a defensive end.

Arista was a second team All-State choice as an offensive lineman last year.

Goliad sweeps two; Runnels wins one

It was a good night for Big Spring Junior High and Middle School gridders as Goliad won two games over Snyder while Runnels won one and lost two against the Tigers.

Both the Goliad A and B teams continued to play awesome defense as both teams collected their fifth shutouts out the season.

The A squad downed Snyder 8-0 raising their record to 7-1 for the season. Coach E.C. Roberson's troops have allowed just 12 points this season.

The contest's lone touchdown came in the third quarter when Chris Cole rambled 25 yards for the score. Quarterback Junior Lopez ran in the two point conversion.

Terry Sanders led Goliad rushers with 60 yards. Roberson singled out the fine offensive line play of Peter Buske, Juan Samora, Joe Downey, Sammy Carrillo and Eddie Cervantes. Defensively Jason Davis, Johnny Ochoa and Edgar Barraza were credited with having good games.

GOLIAD B SLAMS DOOR
The Goliad B team, behind an equally impressive effort, downed Snyder 16-0.

Coach David Drake credited his entire defense for a great effort, as they didn't allow Snyder a single first down the whole contest.

Goliad struck first in the second quarter when Mike Hillario found Lupe Rodriguez for a 21-yard scoring pass. Gilbert Gamboa ran in the two point conversion.

Pat Rios scored the final TD on a 31-yard run in the fourth period. Hillario passed to Raymond Alvarez for the conversion.

Offensive leaders were Jean

Paulette, Chris Newton, Gary Watkins, Dusty Davis and Danny Alonzo.

Goliad B's record is now 6-0-1 for the season. The Mavericks have allowed just 14 points this season.

Goliad will conclude its season next Thursday when both teams travel to Sweetwater to tangle with the Mustangs.

RUNNELS B WINS
The Runnels B team took a 14-6 win over Snyder, raising their record to 3-4 for the season.

Kiley Jones scored both TD's on runs of 40 and 35 yards in the first and third quarters respectively.

Danny Jowers had a good game at defensive end and punting.

Meanwhile the Runnels A team fell by a count of 14-6. The lone Runnels scoring play was a 15-yard run by Jason Phillips. Atura Topaz, Kneel Stallings, Margroito Yanez and Kevin Pirkle had good games.

Runnels A is now 3-5 for the season. The Runnels C team also fell to Snyder 30-8, ending their season at 0-3-1. Tony Lewis scored the lone TD on a 15-yard run.

Runnels A and B end the season next Thursday in Big Spring when they battle Sweetwater.

Hawks

Will Rogers led the group of first year Hawks with 33 points that broke down to 14 in the first half and 19 in the second. Joe Burney tallied 27, Bruce Kimble 21 and Jones added 15 to give the Hawks five players in double figures. Team totals showed the Hawks hitting on 47 of 88 field goals compared to the 16 of 66 showing by Sul Ross. The Hawks outrebounded the Alpine school 27-8 and hit 34 of 49 free throws. Sul Ross made 13 of 24.

Sparling said afterward that the game was a good one for his young team to start with. "There was a lot of pressure on these young men before the game, but they did well. Things don't get easier from here, so I had to be pleased with the way they responded."

HAWKS (128) — Bruce Kimble 8-5-21; Greg Jones 3-9-15; Reynolds 1-1-3; Joe Burney 10-7-27; Michael Porter 12-5-29; Will Rogers 14-5-33; Totals 47-34-128
SUL ROSS JV (45) — Welsh 0-3-3; Bell 1-1-3; Greene 3-2-8; Britt Cooper 5-2-12; Banda 2-0-4; Washington 1-0-2; Wallace 1-1-3; Cooper 2-0-4; Tomlin 0-2-2; Miller 0-2-2; Totals 16-13-45.
Halftime: Hawks 63, Sul Ross 19.
Records: Hawks (1-0); Sul Ross (0-1).

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR SAT., NOVEMBER 3, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Except for romance and entertainment, you now have a very good day to get into whatever various tasks and duties face you and to work them out in a very satisfactory fashion.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) It would be well to list all the personal tasks you need to perform and then get at them and polish them off quickly.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be thoughtful with those you want to know better in the coming weeks and get into their good graces.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Fine day for handling any public duties for which you are well equipped or have to do. Guard your reputation.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Plan how to expand your interests so that you have greater happiness and contentment.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Follow your hunches and you will be able to get closer to the one you really love. Take to some romantic place where the atmosphere is lovely.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Situations arise that will give you an opportunity to come to a better understanding with your partners today.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Early plan how to make your surroundings more charming and then get to work on them. Feel satisfied and content this evening.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A good day to make some special talent work far more efficiently so that you can gain greater benefits with it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You need to fix little things around the house and this is a good day to do them.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get an early start on shopping and making visits that you have been putting aside for some time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) A good day to handle practical affairs and be very wise where money is concerned. Hit on a good plan that will bring money in.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have had a long-time desire and this is a good day to gain it. Show that you have ingenuity.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be very much interested in anything of an artistic or mystical nature and should have the education slanted along some such lines, but be sure to give good moral and religious training early so as to avoid human pitfalls. Let the discipline be gentle so as to prevent a martyr complex to manifest itself.

SWCD selling windbreak trees

The Howard Soil and Water Conservation District is taking orders now for windbreak trees to be used around houses and fields. Windbreaks can provide up to 15 percent savings in heating and cooling bills by preventing the wind from sapping energy from the outside walls of a home, according to the Soil Conservation Service office.

District trees are 12- to 14-inches tall and need to be protected from the elements until they have grown enough to fend for themselves, according to district personnel. Many people provide protection to the trees by placing buckets or old roofing shingles in the window or by placing the trees on the south side of a fence or building until they are large enough to transplant to the windbreak area.

3-vehicle crash claims six lives

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - A cement truck, a recreational vehicle and a compact car collided early today in Northeast San Antonio, killing six people and injuring three others, police said. The accident occurred about 8:20 a.m. on Judson and Lookout roads. Names of the victims were not immediately released. There was no immediate word on the condition of the injured victims. Investigators said the cement truck and the small car collided first, and then crashed head-on into the recreational vehicle. The three vehicles skidded more than 200 feet before coming to a rest in a drainage ditch, police said.

Demolitions to be delayed

No action was taken Thursday night on the status of six burned buildings that the City of Big Spring wants to demolish, according to the chief inspector for the city's engineering office, Dewey Byers. The Board of Appeals and Adjustments, which was scheduled to hear appeals to prevent the buildings' demolition at a 5:15 p.m. Thursday meeting, was unable to obtain a quorum for the meeting, Byers said. The board is required to have five members. However, two members have moved out of town and the city council has not appointed any replacements, he said. The remaining members would have had to attend the meeting to establish a quorum, Byers said.
