Howard County Milton Kirby cast a tie-breaking vote in favor of allocating a three-percent increase across-the-board for county employees effective Jan. 1.

Commissioners Louis Brown and David Barr voted in favor of Brown's motion to put into effect the increase, budgeted last September on the provision that the county had enough money for the raise.

Commissioners Bill Crooker and Paul Allen opposed the salary increase 118th District Court Clerk Peggy Crittenden again submitted a request, tabled by commissioners last week, to allocate a law librarian's salary of $135 per month to Colleen Barton. Mrs. Barton is a district clerk's deputy who will assume the law librarian's duties Jan. 1.

The barge, which had been carrying oil, was docked near the town of Hopedale, southeast of New Orleans, when it exploded at about 9:30 'p.m., said Coast Guard officials.

There may have been enough residual oil on the barge to cause more explosions, said Coast Guard Petty Officer Michael Mullen and a St. Bernard Parish Fire Depart-ment operator, who identified

"It's a two-compartment barge. Mullen. "One of the compartments has not been gotten to yet, it may have some small amounts, we're not sure how much yet ...

Mullen and Baumgartner said heavy fog was affecting rescue and firefighting efforts. "Its well socked in," said Mullen.

Fog delayed a fire boat from reaching the scene, according to the fire department operator. All but two crew members had been accounted for Sunday night, Mullen said. The two who were unaccounted for were believed to have been cleaning a compartment on the barge when the explosion occurred.

Both crew members are feared dead, said Mullen.

The Mississippi River Gulf Outlet is a man-made channel cut through St. Bernard Parish in Southeast Louisiana, linking a section of the Mississippi River to Breton Sound in the Guil of Mexico.

tral part of the Persian Gulf today, south of the Iraq-Iran war zone, shipping sources reported.

The new attack came as another Greek ship, the 240,830-ton supertanker Ninemia, was being towed to Dubai for repairs after an Iraqi missile punched a hole into its crippled side on Sunday in the second Iraqi attack in two days on the tanker. Two crew were reported killed in the first Iragi attack on the Ninemia on Saturday.

The shipping sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity, identified the vessel attacked today as the 20,000-ton bulk carrier Aegis Cosmic and said the attack location strongly indicated that the raid was carried out by Iranian planes. They said the ship's captain radioed that the vessel had been "bombed," but reported that there were no casualties and that he re-

Shipping sources said the Aegis Cosmic was managed by the Aegis shipping line of Piraeus, Greece, and regularly visited gulf ports. They said it was carrying a load of cement and fertilizer when attacked. No further details were available

The sources said Iraq was responsible for three of the five attacks on commercial shipping since Dec. 3, and Iran was responsible for an earlier attack on a small Kuwaiti supply boat on Dec.

Iraq, whose land war with Iran widened this year to include the strategic oil transport water route, claimed earlier that its jet fighters attacked one tanker on Saturday and another on Sunday.

But executives of marine salvage companies said the two strikes were actually against the same vessel, the Ninemia.

A military spokesman in Baghdad claimed Sunday that Iraq warplanes had crippled another "large naval target" besides the vessel attacked on Saturday, but marine shipping and salvage company radio monitors said they received no distress signals from any ship in the gulf during the day.

"It seems the Iraqis are under the impression they hit a new vessel, when in fact their warplanes have fired an Exocet (missile) into the same ship that they had raided Saturday," said the salvage company executive.

He said Iranian air force helicopters rescued the 25 survivors among the 27 crewmen.

"Firefighters had hardly managed to extinguish the blaze when the Iraqis came back and unleashed another Exocet into the Ninemia, he said. "The second attack ignited another fire, which was later put

Brazilian action to return gas stuns pollution control officer

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) -The planned return of 13 tons of methyl isocyanate to the Union Carbide Corp. plant that made it "astounded" a state air pollution control official, who said Gov. Jay Rockefeller will be "far from happy."

However, Air Pollution Control Director Carl Beard said Sunday there's nothing in state law to prevent the gas that was loaded on a ship in Brazil for return to the plant in Institute, the only one in the United States that produces the gas

"I'm sure the governor is going to be far from happy," Beard said. "I'm astounded. We will be on it tomorrow." There was no word when the shipment would leave Rio de Janeiro.

Brazilian authorities banned methyl isocyanate on Dec. 6 after a deadly cloud of the gas was released in at a Union Carbide plant in Bhopal, India, killing more than 2,000 people.

The company has worked to dispose of stocks of the gas by converting it into pesticide, and has said no more methyl isocyanate would be produced until the cause of the Dec. 3 leak in Bhopal was determined.

Meanwhile, Rep. Henry A. Waxman, D-Calif., on Sunday linked Another shipment of methyl iso- emissions from the Institute plant

Search for killer continues

GERONIMO, UKIa. (AP) - Lawmen said they noped for a break in their search for the man who killed four people in a robbery at a Geronimo bank as the small southwest Oklahoma town of 800 people prepared to begin burying the victims.

The FBI said two men arrested in Oklahoma and Texas matched the general description of the gunman and were being questioned about their whereabouts at the time of the robbery. But an agent said there was "nothing solid" to report yet.

The four were killed and three others wounded Friday when a lone gunman forced them and an infant into a back room of the First Bank of Chatanooga and began shooting. The 1-year-old girl escaped injury.

On Sunday, authorities took to the air in helicopters and an airplane as they searched for a car the gunman may have abandoned.

Tony Daniels, FBI special agent in charge of Oklahoma, said, "Hopefully we'll have a break." Daniels said the air searches would continue today if necessary.

Daniels said Sunday that two men matching the description of the gunman had been picked up for questioning, one in Oklahoma and one in Texas

"We have a couple detained on other charges, but nothing solid right now." he said

FBI spokesman Gene Pogue said law enforcement officers were trying to determine if the two men being held were near Geronimo when the murders occurred.

He said they were detained because they matched the general description and the composite drawing obtained from those who survived the slaughter. "We have not been able to completely eliminate all the suspects so far. We have no identity, no idea where he might be." he said.

Meanwhile, Geronimo residents prepared for the four funerals today

Funerals for farmer Eddie Zeller, 33, and 19-year-old bank employee Jeri Bowles were scheduled for today in the Geronimo High School gym. Services for bank manager Kay Bruno, 42, were scheduled at First Baptist Church of Lawton.

The funeral for Joyce Mullenix, 25, a bank teller, will be Tuesday in the high school gym.

On Sunday, more than 100 officers concentrated their search in three southwest Oklahoma counties

"We presume that he is still probably in the area," said FBI spokesman Dan Vogel. "We don't have any information to lead us to believe he's left, and that's why we've got so many officers down in that part of the state.

"Obviously, if the guy has a place he can go and hide out or something like that, it doesn't really matter how many people you have out there

The search was for a man about 5 feet 10 inches tall with shoulderlength hair and suffering from severe acne, authorities said. He was believed to be about 20 years old, with a thin mustache and green eyes. The FBI said a composite sketch of the suspect has been a great boost to the search.

Venus soaring out of orbit

Residents fight to persevere in a lost Texas town burned-out high school, no police department, and only one city employee.

VENUS (AP) - Postmaster James Tipps leaned on the counter and pondered the question. "Why do we Texas like living in

2-A

Venus?" he said, Topic, repeating the query. "It's hard to explain unless you live in it," Tipps, 53, said after a while. "We've seen stores close, businesses close....We can look at the city and see that it's crippled, even backward in a way. But it's ours.'

What the 414 residents Venus residents have is a city that is near bankruptcy, a school district the state wants to close, a burned-out high school, no police department and only one city employee, little industry and little hope of attracting any.

Their rural way of life is threatened by an invasion of urban refugees from Dallas and Fort Worth who have settled in dozens of trailer parks surrounding the 620-acre town of Venus.

These former city-dwellers may live in Venus - and their children may attend the town's schools but most them earn and spend their paychecks in Dallas and Fort Worth.

"It's awful hard to keep a town like this going," Mayor James Flatt said with a shrug. "With no industry, it's rugged.'

But the residents persevere.

The 80-year-old buildings that line the city square are vacant. But the post office stays busy, and longtime Venusians — as residents call themselves - still hang out at Martin's Service Station, chewing the fat and the Red Man.

They are determined that Venus will conquer its problems. They also intend to see to it that the Johnson county town — which sits along U.S. Highway 67 about 35 miles southwest of Dallas and 20 miles due south of Fort Worth does not become another faceless bedroom community.

In 1898, the town founding fathers named Venus after the Roman goddess of love and beauty, amateur

Then came the Depression. As the nation's banks faltered, President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered them closed to prevent a run.

"When Roosevelt declared the moratorium on banks, all the banks closed. both of the banks here were weak, so they never did open back up," said Jack Roten, 72, a retired history teacher who was reared in Venus but now lives in Dallas.

Without banks to help fund the town's businesses, Roten said, Venus slowly became a ghost town. By 1970, the newspapers had shut down, the trains didn't stop anymore, and the Chevy dealership, the movie theater, the col-lege, the hospital and the hotel had closed their doors forever.

World War II sealed the to fate, Roten said. Cotton harves

Youths injured in accident

Two teenage boys remain in a local hospital after an accident Sunday evening in which their motorcycle collided with a car in the 1300 block of Madison.

Both Patrick Rios, 13, of 3206 W. Eighth and Gilbert Gamboa Jr., 14, of 1207 Mobile remain in stable condition in Malone-Hogan Hospital, according to a hospital spokeswoman.

Both suffered injuries to their knees, the spokeswoman said.

The driver of the car, Jose Hernandez, 38, of 1308 Madison, was uninjured in the accident.

According to police reports of the accident, Hernandez had stopped his 1982 Ford in the 3900 block of Airport, preparing to turn left onto Madison, when the accident occurred.

Rios, who was driving the offroad 1985 Yamaha motorcycle, attempted to pass both Hernandez' car and another car behind Hernandez' that also was turning left.

As Hernandez turned left, the motorcycle collided with and slid underneath Hernandez' car.

• A 58-year-old man was injured slightly Saturday in a three-car accident.

Cagers' airplane crashes

JASPER, Ala. - East Tennessee State University basketball Coach Barry Dowd says it was "a miracle" there were no serious injuries when the team's plane crash-landed and burned.

The Tennessee Airlines Convair 440, carrying 33 players, coaches, reporters and alumni, reported its right engine was on fire before it landed Sunday. Airport manager Bill Starnes said the tires blew out and the twin-engine plane skidded off the runway before it was gutted by flames.

Twelve passengers were treated for minor injuries at Walker County Medical Center, but none required hospitalization.

Dowd said the team had been flying to Oxford, Miss., for a game with the University of Mississippi, but planned to return to Johnson City, Tenn., today.

1 jailed in Santa incident

BURLINGTON, Vt. - A man arrested on charges he harassed a shopping center Santa Claus remained in jail for refusing to promise that he would not return to the mall and bother Santa again, police said.

Brian Pearl, 25, who also allegedly told children in line Wednesday to see Santa that there was "no such thing," remained in jail Sunday, police said. He pleaded innocent to a trespassing charge.

District Judge Linda Levitt said Pearl told her that "if any men in red suits spoke to him he would speak back." She said she thought Pearl, a fundamentalist Christian, "was acting out of religious principles.'

A $200 billion deficit?

NEW YORK - The federal budget deficit will exceed $200 billion by 1986 despite continued economic growth, according to a group of economists who also predict that inflation will rise only slightly next year.

The Economic Forum of the Conference Board said Sunday that the deficit would jump from $175 billion to $195 billion in fiscal 1985 and to $210 billion in 1986.

The panel forecast a 3 percent growth rate for the economy next year and said "neither recession nor an outbreak of inflation are on the horizon." It said the inflation rate would rise from 3.8 percent to 4.5 percent.

Blast prompts new design

NORFOLK, Va. - Testing equipment that may have caused a torpedo to explode, sink ing the submarine USS Scorpion with 99 men aboard, has been redesigned, says the head of the investigation of the tragedy.

The submarine's crew probably was at tempting to disarm the torpedo, which could have been activated by malfunctioning equip ment, when the warhead detonated, said John P. Craven, a University of Hawaii professor. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot and the Ledger Star reported Craven's comments Sunday after obtaining documents under the Freedom of Information Act and interviewing experts involved in the investigation of the May 1968 sinking

SCHOOL'S IN - Students line up outside Lincoln Park High School Monday on Chicago's North Side as the school's doors opened for the first time in two weeks and marking the end of a teachers and other school workers strike.

Back to school Chicago teachers approve one-year contract

CHICAGO (AP) - Tentative approval of one-year contracts for 35,000 teachers and other workers in the nation's third-largest school district paved the way for classes to resume today for 430,000 students idled by a two-week strike.

'We are pleased to tell the parents and citizens of Chicago that the strike is suspended and classes can start. Chicago Teachers Union President Jacqueline Vaughn said Sunday after the union's House of Delegates voted 605-59 to accept the agreement worked out during an all-night bargaining session.

"I am pleased we will have our employees back on the job," school Superintendent Ruth Love said in a statement.

The agreement calls for an immediate 4.5-percent salary increase and a one-time 2.5-percent bonus to be paid March 1 to the teachers and members of 17 nonteaching unions that walked out together Dec. 3. Teachers salaries now range from $15,471 to $30,759.

"We got the most we could get under the cir-cumstances," Ms. Vaughn said. "We feel we deserve much, much more," but pushing for more would be like pushing "on a stone wall," she said in a news conference.

Timothy Bresnahan, co-chairman of the union coalition, said Sunday night he was relieved the strike was over, but "was disappointed because it was a strike that should never have been."

'The coalition is satisfied,'' Bresnahan said. "We didn't get everything that we wanted, but that is the nature of negotiations.

The coalition of non-teaching unions, with the exception of the engineers' union, did not have to formally ratify the new contract, said Bresnahan, because it got the seal of approval when he agreed to it.

Technically, the strike does not end until the agreement is ratified by rank-and-file teachers union members, who have 10 days to vote.

Local 143 of the International Union of Operating Engineers, the last holdout in the negotiations, unanimously ratified the contract agreement Sunday afternoon, said union president Carl DeStefano.

DeStefano said members were pleased with the board's decision to administer examinations to allow engineers to be promoted by merit rather than by affirmative action. The engineers were back on the job Sunday night getting the schools ready for class today, he said. Delegate Bruce LaForce complained that the increase was "totally inadequate ... 30 to 50 percent lower" than what teachers are paid in many areas near Chicago.

LaForce also complained about a union concession that forces teachers to pay the first $200 of any medical bill and 10 percent of the remainder, unless they are treated by a low-cost hospital or doctor. "If I were facing a catastrophic illness, I would want the best help possible, he said.

The strike, the seventh by Chicago teachers in the past 16 years, was sparked by payroll deductions for medical insurance premiums previously paid by the school system. A strike in October 1983 lasted three weeks.

Ms. Vaughn called for "multiyear" contracts so "we will not be forced to go through this agony year after year.

The board paid for part of the salary increase by cutting 250 vacant positions from its budget, said President George Munoz. Another 100 employees, possibly in-cluding some teachers, might be laid off in January, he said.

Board member Clark Burrus said the state's tax amnesty program provided the lion's share of the money needed

Police break up rally

SAN JUAN IXHUATEPEC, Mexico Government agents broke up a rally where residents were demanding compensation for victims of the fiery blast that killed 452 people in this township on the outskirts of Mexico City.

Several hundred residents of San Juan Ixhuatepec gathered Sunday to hear a leftist politican urge them to organize to demand compensation for damages caused by the catastrophe Nov. 19 at a liquid petroleum gas storage facility run by Pemex, the government monopoly.

Party endorses platform

MADRID, Spain - Delegates to the Socialist Party convention endorsed a foreign policy platform calling for Spain to stay in NATO and proposing that the contingent of 12,000 U.S. military personnel in Spain be reduced.

The platform, adopted by a 412-126 vote Sunday, also said Spain should remain free of nuclear weapons, advocated the country's entry into the European Common Market and demanded an end to the colonial status of British-ruled Gibraltar, a peninsula jutting from southwest Spain into the Mediterranean.

15 Torah scrolls buried

JERUSALEM - Charred remnants of 15 sacred Torah scrolls, destroyed in a fire that authorities believe was set by an arsonist, were buried at a funeral service attended by prominent rabbis and thousands of orthodox Jews.

The scrolls, rolls of parchment handinscribed with the five books of Moses, were burned to cinders in one of two synagogues that were set ablaze early Friday. Holy books in the second synagogue escaped damage.

China denies accusations

PEKING - China today denied Vietnamese accusations that Chinese border forces bombarded two northern provinces with 48,000 rounds of ammunition this month, killing 12 civilians and wrecking many buildings.

The Foreign Ministry, in a statement telephoned to The Associated Press, also denied Vietnam's claims that Vietnamese gunners repulsed an incursion, killing 130 Chinese troops and capturing an unspecified number of others.

Vietnam's state radio made the claims Sunday, the latest accusation in a six-year conflict between the former Communist allies. The claims could not be confirmed independently because both countries restrict access to the border region.

Chinese-Vietnamese relations deteriorated in December 1978 when Vietnam's armed forces invaded Cambodia. China and Vietnam fought a six-week border war in early 1979, and sporadic clashes have persisted since then.

PARIS (AP) - President Francois Mitterrand said Sunday that Libyan troops remain in northern Chad despite a withdrawal agreement, but France could intervene again "in two or three hours" if necessary.

Mitterrand made the comments in an hour-long television interview following his return from a summit meeting last week in Burundi between France and its African allies. The interview covered East-West relations, the Middle East, and New Caledonia, but 25 minutes were devoted to Chad, the former French colony in northern Africa that has been torn by a civil war.

Mitterrand sent 3,500 French troopers into Chad in August 1983 to halt the southern advance by rebels loyal to former Chadian President Goukouni Oueddei and about 5,000 Libyan soldiers.

The French army units organized a defense line across the middle of Chad to protect the government of President Hissene Habre, but in September France and Libya announced a mutual withdrawal agreement.

France complied, removing its troops last month, but Libya did not, and Mitterrand was criticized by some black African leaders. They said France had bowed to Libyan leader Col. Moammar Khadafy and accepted the occupation of nortern Chad by Libyan forces.

In the interview, Mitterrand said, "In the north, there is a permanance of dispersed Libyan elements," but Khadafy's units there "have no offensive forces which can move south in the present state of things."

If the situation should change, French army units based in the Central African Republic and other locations could intervene "in two or three hours with aviation and in the space of a day for ground forces," Mitterrand said.

But he added, "I am not the gendarme of Africa."

France intervened last year "to stop the Libyan invasion of Chad in a way that would provide protection and security for black Africa," the president said. He noted France has "eight or 10 military defense agreements" with blackruled nations in Africa and added. These countries expect France to play a special role in their defense and their development."

Although France could act if the Libyans renewed their offensive against Habre's forces in southern Chad, it will not intervene in northern Chad, Mitterrand said. "The French army has nothing to do there," he said. "There are only a few oases.'

But he also said, "France will

Mitterrand made these comments on other topics:

- Questioned about East-West relations he said he was "against the militarization of space." He called President Reagan's "star wars" proposal on defensive space weapons "a sort of shield along the United States preventing rockets from crossing, I consider it over-armament. It is not in that direction that we must go, but, on the contrary, toward disarmament."

- He has no plans to meet with Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasser Arafat. "That would not facilitate things. That would not advance the cause of peace. There are other ways to proceed," he said. The "PLO is a movement. It is a clandestine ar-

The island nation has been torn by violence in recent months between the minority Melanesian population, known as Kanaks, and a combination of white settlers. Asians and Polynesians. Many Kanaks are demanding independence, but they are opposed by the majority that wants to remain linked to France.

Mitterrand said the question of a form of autonomy or independence must be defined by the island's 142,000 people.

"The Kanaks have arrived at a state of exasperation," he said, "and now are not interested in reforms, but independence.'

Report reveals illegal U.S. missions

DETROIT (AP) - A U.S. Armyhelicopter unit has flown missions into Nicaragua and other hostile Central American zones, despite U.S. laws forbidding such military activity, according to a published report.

At least 17 members of the unit were killed in 1983, a number of them after telling relatives that the Army would lie to conceal the circumstances of their deaths, the Detroit Free Press reported in Sunday editions.

However, the story also said the deaths do not appear to be linked with clandestine missions in Central America.

Members of the unit - believed to number between 400 and 800 soldiers - wore civilian clothes during their missions and were told to expect the U.S. government to disavow them if captured or killed, the newspaper said in a report

The unit, which the newspaper identified as the 160th Task Force of the 101st Airborne Division based at Fort Campbell, Ky., flew repeated missions into hostile territory in Central America during 1982 and 1983 in support of pro-U.S. forces, the paper said.

The newspaper report said nothing was known about the unit's activities in 1984. It also did not report the death total from 1982, but said the 17 deaths in 1983 were nearly half of the Army's 35 reported aircraft deaths in those years.

"We just don't talk about that unit," Michael Burch, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, was quoted as saying in the article. "To my knowledge the unit has never been deployed in Central America." On Saturday night, a Pentagon press duty officer, Army Lt. Col. John Shields, had no comment on the report.

But according to relatives of unit members, the task force was active in Central America during 1982 and 1983, the newspaper said.

AMA dons gloves in boxing battle

The House of Delegates of the American Medical Association has voted overwhelmingly to call for the abolition of boxing. This means that doctors throughout the country will be urged to campaign for state and local anti-boxing laws.

The doctors are in for a fight. Boxing has defenders who are willing to go as many rounds as it takes to defend their favorite sport. But the AMA will not be without allies. Cases of brain injury and death among prizefighters regularly raise the issue of whether boxing is worthy of being called a sport at all

Boxing goes back to ancient times, but so does throwing Christians to the lions. Through history, boxing enthusiasts have tried to devise rules and other safety measures to make fisticuffs less brutal and more sporting.

Dr. Joseph R. Boyle, president of the AMA, believes there is no way to modify the physical harm of boxing to an extent that would make the sport safe. Head guards may be causing more harm than good, he says, because they allow boxers to absorb all the more pummeling which is harmful to the brain. More padding in boxing gloves would not help, either. Dr. Boyle would prefer bare fists, because fighters would then "break their fists before they do as much damage as they do with gloves."

The AMA position is that boxing is dangerous to the health of the people who engage in it. Doctors have been saying the same thing about cigarette smoking for a long time, and many persons will always insist on the right to smoke. It may be just as hard to keep fighters out of the ring and fans out of their ringside seats.

Use of force isn't topic for debate

WASHINGTON - Assume a mon sense. The U.S. is a supermore tragic outcome for the hijacking of the Kuwaiti plane to Tehran. Suppose the terrorists had killed the last batch of passengers, blown up the plane and then been allowed to escape by the Iranian authorities.

In that case the U.S. would have wanted to hit back at the Iranian government. But what options were available? Well, the Tehran airport could have been wiped out in a bombing raid. The naval base on the Persian Gulf, Bandar Abbas, could also have been hit from the air.

Penny-pinching on pests

WASHINGTON - Capitol Hill is overrun with pests - and they're not all lobbyists, nosy reporters or demanding constituents.

Cockroaches infest the Capitol and the House and Senate office buildings - even the newer ones.

It's not that Congress has ignored the problem. It has contracted with exterminators for years. But in the peculiar, penny-pinching way of people with billions to spend, the honorable members are too cheap to pay for a proper job

The current contract, with Entech Inc., pays $2,000 a month for supposedly keeping roaches out of the hundreds of offices, suites and hideaways in the nine buildings and surrounding grounds that comprise the steadily growing Capitol complex

Gene Budowski, president of Entech, told my reporter Scott Barrett that a more realistic figure would be $5,000 to $6,250 a month, and other exterminators familiar with the job agree.

Like Abe Lindoln's legendary hero being ridden out of town on a rail, Budowski indicated that if it wegen't for the honor of the thing, he'd just as soon skip it. Though acknowledging that the Capitol job was a "prestige account," he said he wouldn't bid on it again - not at Congress' prices, anyway.

There are other problems besides congressional stinginess that are peculiar to the job. For one thing, Budowski, like his predecessors, has found that many members of Congress and their staffs are uncooperative. Maybe they realize how little Entech is og naid and figure that any company that gets only about $15 a hour can't have much clout.

he saw slithering around the office he's using temporarily in the 51-year-old Longworth Building. There were no roaches in the Texas Capitol," he said.

Before he learned the financial realities of life as a congressional exterminator, DeLay cracked to a reporter, "I could make a fortune here if it wasn't a conflict of interest." But when told what the job pays, he hedged: "I'd have to survey the situation before I would do it for "$2,000 (a month)."

Will he, then, try to remedy the roach problem by raising the ante? No doubt remembering the conservative constituents who sent him to Washington, DeLay said, "I can't say I'm going to work for more (appropriations) money." That, he explained, is "a typical government solution: Throw money at the problem.

THE CHEMICAL CLUB: Chemical-warfare capability, with all the horror it implies, is spreading among the nations, according to a secret CIA report.

The report notes that Syria, for example, has been supplied with chemical agents, delivery systems and trailing by Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union. In Israel, the existence of chemical-weapons test areas has been known to the CIA since the early 1970s, and possible tests were detected in January 1976. In late 1982, a suspected nerve-gas production plant and a storage facility were identified in the Negev desert.

And finally, the CIA reports, Burma has been acquiring the capability to produce mustard gas since

Depression afflicts reader

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: Something is wrong with me. I don't want to do anything but lie in bed. I'm not sick or anything, but I seem to have lost interest in everything - even my family. I just don't care about life any more. It was all I could do to force myself to write you a letter. - Mrs. H.L.

DEAR MRS. H.L.: It is encouraging that you did write because it shows you still care and want help to solve your problem. Furthermore, it is very important that you seek the help you really need - not just for your sake, but for the sake of your family.

You are clearly depressed this is more common perhaps than vou realize. Depression can come from many different causes. Sometimes a person who is depressed can pinpoint the reasons for it - a great disappointment in life, for example, or a fear about something that may happen in the future. However, often a person may not be able to detect a cause for his (or her) depression especially if it is chronic. Especially in such a case (as yours seems to be), it is wise to get professional help. As a starting point, see your family doctor and share your feelings and situation with him as fully as possible. Many cases of depression actually have a medical cause (such as a chemical imbalance in the body) and can be corrected with the proper medication. Also realize that God is with you in the midst of this situation. You may not sense His presence right now, but He is still with you because He loves you. If you have never accepted Christ into your heart, ask Him to come in right now by faith. And then concentrate on the fact of His love for you. Memorize some passages of Scrip-ture that stress God's presence and love (such as some passages in the Psalms or First John). God has promised, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you" (Hebrews 13:5).

At any rate, few congressional employees are willing or able to authorize the exterminators to move books and papers so they can spray the cracks and crannies where the little six-legged rascals lurk. 'It's very frustrating because it's so simple,' Budowski said.

Furthermore, Budowski claims - and this may shock some of you who've read about fancy, three-Campari lunches in Washington - that many congressional staffers eat lunch at their desks and keep snacks in their desk drawers for emergencies. Crumbs and forgotten leftovers are the meat and potatoes of the cockroach community.

Another headache stems from the fact that the buildings' cafeterias and kitchens are in the jurisdiction of another exterminating firm, and there's no coordination between the two assault teams. As one former contractor explained, food carts being wheeled through the corridors to catered events pick up roaches in the kitchens, and the nervy little hitchhikers peel off along the way in search of new fields to conquer.

It's barely possible that help will arrive with the new Congress next month. Rep.-elect Tom DeLay, R-Texas, is an exterminator by trade, and was understandably appalled at the number of roaches CLARIFICATION: Last September I reported that a number of conservative groups - including one called Friends of the Americas Foundation - had been sending supplies to the anti-Sandinista guerrillas in Nicaragua.

When the column was translated into Spanish for my Latin American clients, the name became, correctly, "Amigos de las Americas." Unfortunately, this happens to be the name of a highly respectable, 20-year-old, privately funded, non-profit, youthservice organization based in Houston.

Amigos has sent more than 10,000 young Americans to perform public-health services in 13 Latin American countries over the years. In 1984, more than 500 Amigos volunteers served in Mexico, Venezuela, Ecuador, Panama, Costa Rica, Paraguay and the Dominican Republic.

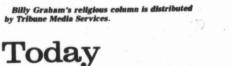

The Houston-based Amigos de las Americas is most definitely NOT the organization that has been intervening in the Nicaraguan mess by sending provisions to the CIA-backed contra forces.

THIS CAR OFFERS — James Dunne informs a customer about a car's features. He discusses the customers' needs first, then shows them something that could fit their transportation requirements.

Dunne sells customer service before cars

By TINA STEFFEN Lifestyle Editor

James Dunne dislikes "the negative connotation some people have of the 'car salesman' as a shaky, dishonest character." He sells cars, but most of all he sells customer service.

"I work very hard to earn the respect of people who come in, and I hope I never project an air of dishonesty," he says. Dunne, 37, worked for Safeway as head clerk before he gave up that security to try a new line of work - the car business. "I had been working for Safeway 15 years and was working very late at night. I was asked if I would like to work down here (Highland Pontiac, Datson, Inc.) by Mr. (Bill) Laster. It presented a challenge to me and I wanted to see if I could meet that challenge.

Dunne has been a sales representative at Highland for three years. There is not much he dislikes about his work, except for the negative stereotype mentioned above. "I have a good boss, and the freedom and time to do community service activities. a member of the choir. He also As a sales representative, enjoys tennis and is a member Dunne is responsible for presenthe Big Spring Tennis of ting a good public image of his Association. within their budget.

"I really feel responsible to the people who put their trust in me that I owe them a service. I will do everything I can to earn their business," Dunne said. "I like meeting the public and sitting down to discuss with them what their needs are and to help them." His reward is when he intellegently discusses a major purchase of an automobile with someone and they leave feeling happy and knowing they've made the right decision without feeling pressured.

"I'm in the business of service. I'm here to be of service to the public, not to force something on the public but to help them." He recently returned from a trip to Phoenix, Ariz., which he won for being sales representative of the year last year.

When Dunne isn't working, he is often involved with his church. He is active at First Christian Church as an elder, sponsor of the Christian Youth Fellowship, chairman of the worship committee, president of Christian Men's Fellowship, and

Newlyweds' family ties pull in two directions

DEAR ABBY: I recently married a woman who was married before. She has two children, 8 and 11. My new wife and her children have always spent Christmas with her former in-laws. It's become a family tradition - one the kids enjoy and look forward to. So naturalthey plan to spend Christmas with Grandma and Grandpa.

Now the problem: I would like to spend Christmas at home with my new family and create our own holiday tradition. I was not invited to Grandma and Grandpa's, but even if I had been, I wouldn't feel comfortable there. They live in another city and expect their guests to stay with them.

I don't want to spend Christmas should be together at alone. My own family lives on the Christmastime, providing it doesn't start a nuclear war. East Coast, and I don't want to fish for invitations from my friends.

DEAR ABBY: "Loves to Ski" froze his toes and now considers amputation as a way to keep his feet warm. I'm glad you said, "Don't do it."

I walked out of North Korea in 1950 on two frozen feet. I lost some toes, among them a large one at the first joint. Doctors smiled at my distress, saying, "Ladies love this operation - they can wear smaller shoes.

Well, the loss of one big toe throws me off balance, causing calluses on both feet. It's difficult finding shoes to fit because one foot is smaller than the other, and it's not true that amputating the offending digit will eliminate the pain. My feet still freeze when it's cold.

so I usually stay indoors. But if I'm determined to go out, I've learned to grin and bear it.

Endometriosis: a 'working woman's disease'

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I am writing concerning the female disorder, endometriosis. I never heard of it until I got it. In the past few months I've talked to at least 25 women who have the same thing. I think it would be helpful to all women if you explained this "working woman's disease." which seems to hit women in their late 20s and 30s who are waiting for later in life to have families. Just because there is no cure for it is no reason they should not know about it. - K.G.

Endometriosis does seem to affect women who have put off pregnancy until they have pursued careers. The career, however, doesn't cause it, and you shouldn't be so negative about the cure for it, which I'll discuss later. What is endometriosis? It is the appearance of inner uterine lining tissue in places other than the uterus - on the ovaries, ligaments of the pelvis, the bladder, rectum and elsewhere. As you know this tissue is normally sloughed off each month in response to hormones

Soviet leader calls for space weapon ban

leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev, in his first comment on the upcoming superpower nuclear arms talks, stressed today that they should aim to ban weapons in space.

In a statement distributed to news organizations in London by the official Soviet news agency Tass, Gorbachev said he emphasized the concern about space weapons in "frank" talks Sunday with Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

Both sides said the dialogue, which continued today with Gorbachev meeting Foreign Secretary Sir Geoffrey Howe, had produced agreement on the need to curb the nuclear arms race and stop it from reaching space.

"I would like to stress that during the meeting we stated the position of the Soviet Union on such questions as the prevention of the threat of nuclear war, restraining the arms race," Gorbachev said.

"In this connection we emphasized the significance of the forthcoming talks with the U.S.A. on the whole complex of space and inuclear weapons, prevention of "militarization of outer space."

Gorbachev's repeated mention of the space weapons issue indicated this is the Kremlin's main concern

LONDON (AP) — Senior Soviet at talks between Secretary of State George P. Shultz and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in Geneva Jan. 7-8.

Gorbachev, considered the No. 2 man in the Soviet leadership hierarchy, said more than four hours of talks with Mrs. Thatcher at her weekend residence Chequers were "business-like and constructive" and called for improved British-Soviet relations.

"In the prevailing international situation, the need to establish mutual understanding between our two countries is especially great," Gorbachev said.

Both Gorbachev and Mrs. Thatcher realized "that what the other wants is security at a much lower level of armaments," a British source said.

Briefing reporters on condition he not be further identified, the source added that the Soviets "quite clearly were concerned as we are to prevent an arms race in space

Strict security was imposed for today's talks between Gorbachev and Howe at Hampton Court, the red-brick Tudor palace once occupied by King Henry VIII.

Gorbachev arrived in the black Rolls-Royce - adorned with the red Soviet hammer-and-sickle flag

- that has conveyed him everywhere in Britain so far.

In Moscow, the Soviet Communist Party daily Pravda said today the talks revealed "an increase in realistic tendencies" in the British government headed by Mrs. Thatcher, who once earned the sobriquet "Iron Lady" for her tough stance toward the Soviet Union.

Pravda reported "a growing conviction" in West European capitals that the arms race is senseless and that there was awareness in Britain "of the hopelessness and danger of the intensifying military and political confrontation between East and West.'

The agreeable tone struck by Gorbachev with his smiling public appearances was well received by British media today. Most newspapers placed reports of the Chequers meeting on their front pages. His conduct seem designed to project a friendlier Soviet image after months of chilly East-West relations.

"There's not the slightest doubt that the Soviet Union wants better relations with the West," opposition Labor Party foreign affairs spokesman Denis Healey said in an interview with the British Broad-

Country back to normal after historic elections

BELIZE CITY, Belize (AP) -With its first parliamentary elections since independence now history, tiny Belize is returning to its role as a mellow, little-noticed haven in a region wracked by political hatreds and guerrilla wars

"It's no big thing, man," said a supporter of Prime Minister George Price after Price's defeat this weekend, his first loss in a 30-year political career.

That attitude characterizes the easy-going people of this tiny, English-speaking nation tucked into a nook of the Yucatan Peninsula's Caribbean coastline.

The Conservative United Democratic Party defeated Price's center-left People's United Party and won 21 of 28 seats in the House of Representatives in Friday's elections - the first since British rule ended on Sept. 21, 1981.

Manuel Esquivel, opposition leader and prime ministerdesignate, held a victory rally Sunday evening at a park overlooking the Caribbean, while youthful supporters danced through the streets

Belize City, a raucous seaport, has long been a center of opposition to Price, a 65-year-old bachelor who once studied for the priesthood. His strait-laced ways didn't go over well with many of the town's inhabitants.

Says local writer Emory King:"In the north we raise sugar cane. In the south we raise citrus and bananas and rice. In the west we raise cattle and pigs and corn. In Belize City we raise hell."

The elections only briefly disrupted the tranquil pace of this rickety, shack-littered port, which with 45,000 people is the country's largest city.

The handful of foreign correspondents who showed up for the elections - in contrast to the hundreds who flooded into El Salvador and Nicaragua for similar events - moved on quickly.

Belize, known as British Honduras until 1973, is so far off the beaten track that sometimes years go by without visits from foreign journalists.

"If the world had any ends, British Honduras would

Polish security battles marchers

GDANSK, Poland (AP) — In the most violent clash between Polish security forces and protesters this year, riot police used clubs and tear gas to disperse thousands of marchers commemorating workers slain during antigovernment protests in 1970.

During the confrontation, which triggered running street battles Sunday afternoon, Solidarity founder Lech Walesa laid a wreath at the feet of police officers when they blocked his way to a monument for the dead workers. Walesa was shoved by police but not injured.

Meanwhile, sccres of students who were protesting the removal of crucifixes from classrooms left the vocational school they had occupied for two weeks in a town south of Warsaw, the governmentrun PAP news agency reported.

Dallas Cowboys

Do or die

couple of weekend developments transformed what could have been a humdrum National Football League game between the Dallas Cowboys and the Miami Dolphins into a matchup full of drama.

First, the San Francisco 49ers tripped the Los Angeles Rams 19-16 on Friday night, giving the 9-6 Cowboys a chance to slip into the final NFC wild-card playoff berth.

Then, Denver ripped Seattle 31-14 Saturday, granting the Broncos a 13-3 record and forcing the 13-2 Dolphins to win their final game to earn the home-field advantage throughout the AFC playoffs.

Obviously, both teams have plenty of incentive in tonight's game at the Orange Bowl - the NFL regular season finale. A Dallas loss, however, will leave the Cowboys out of the playoffs for the first time since 1974 and only the second time in 18 years.

"It's been one of those years with a lot of ups and down," said Cowboys running back Tony Dorsett. "We are still determined to make the playoffs. We are going to fight like the devil not to be on the first (Dallas) team in this decade not to make the playoffs.'

Dorsett, who has gained 1,131 yards on 283 carries in what he considers "down year," may hold the key to that quest. Opposing teams have been bludgeoning the Dolphins defense in the past few weeks, keeping the ball on the ground and thereby out of the hands of Marino and Co. The Dolphins know what to expect.

'Tony Dorsett is one of the greatest running backs ever,'' said Miami nose tackle Bob Baumhower. "He cuts back well and all he needs is a little room and he's gone. We are looking at this as a big test for us."

The Dolphins, after generally breezing through their first nine games, have been in battles each of the past six weeks. They trailed the In-dianapolis Colts 17-7 at halftime last week before rebounding behind Marino's four second-half touchdown passes.

That improved the second-year pro's NFL record for TD passes to 44. Marino, who was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl team for the second time last week, also increased his passing yardage total to 4,744 to move within 59 of Dan Fouts' league mark of 4,802.

The Cowboys counter with Danny White, who will start at quarterback ahead of Gary Hogeboom. White has thrown for 1,334 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Walter Abercrombie rushed for 111 yards and set up Pitt-sburgh's only touchdown, while the Steelers' defense shut down the Raiders.

Gary Anderson kicked two field goals and Frank Pollard scored on a one-yard plunge for Pittsburgh's points. Donnie Shell's se-cond interception of the game with 2:24 left snuffed out a final Los Angeles threat.

'We don't have any excuses," said Raiders Coach Tom Flores, whose team had a four-game winning streak snapped. "They came after us."

Bears 30, Lions 13

Chicago's record-breaking defense came up with 12 sacks and veteran Greg Landry, playing his first NFL game in almost three years, led the NFC Central champs to victory.

Landry, signed as a free agent earlier this month, completed 11 of 20 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a score

The Bears' defense set a season record for sacks with 72, breaking the old mark of 67 by the then-Oakland Raiders in 1967. The 12 sacks equalled a single-game high set by two other teams.

Bengals 52, Bills 21

Making his first start since separating his left shoulder Nov. 11, quarterback Ken Anderson threw three first-half touchdown passes to lead Cincinnati over Buffalo.

Anderson connected on 16 of 20 passes for 206 yards in the first two periods as Buffalo finished with the NFL's worst record at 2-14

Patriots 16, Colts 10

Running back Craig James rushed for a career-high 138 yards and Tony Franklin booted three field goals before the smallest crowd in the history of New England's Sullivan Stadium, 22,363. "I'm really looking forward" to next season, said James, who spent two seasons in the United States Football League. "Maybe it's the bitter taste of walking up the tunnel and knowing we're not in the playoffs. We've learned a lot, maybe the hard way." It was Indianapolis' fifth straight loss.

Buccaneers 41, Jets 21

James Wilder ran for 103 yards and two touchdowns, and Steve DeBerg tossed three touchdown passes as Tampa Bay had the highest-scoring game in its nine-year history in the final game of the only coach the team has had, John McKay.

Wilder set an NFL record for carries in a season with 407 and nished the year with 1,544 yards rushing.

Quarterback Bill Kenney threw for 245 yards and three touchdowns in slightly more than one half of play to lead Kansas City over San Diego. It was the Chargers' seventh loss in their last 10 games. NFL page 2-B already assured of post-season action, clinched the NFC East. They eliminated St. Louis by edging the Cardinals 29-27. That gave the Los Angeles Rams a playoff berth.

'I hurt so bad I can't cry," said St. Louis fullback Ottis Anderson, who caught 12 passes for 124 yards and rushed 12 times for 24. "I think this game just wasn't meant to be.'

Washington's victory also kept the Giants in the chase. A Miami victory over Dallas tonight would put the Giants in the playoffs and eliminate the Cowboys. But if Redskin JOHN RIGGINS (44) rolls for yardage against St. Louis. Dallas wins, the Cowboys gain the wild-card berth.

Lady Steers enter district play with high hoop hopes

By STEVEN BELVIN Staff Writer

Although the road has been rocky for the Big Spring Lady Steers; there are greener pastures ahead for first-year coach Carol Niemeyer and her basketball team.

Niemeyer still has high hopes for her squad as it opens District 4-5A play against the Abilene High Eagles tonight in Steer Gym 8 p.m.

The Lady Steers' 2-7 record is not very impressive, but Niemeyer and her squad are going through a transition period in learning a new system. Also, considering there are only two returning letterwomen, and eight of the nine games have been on the road, it's easier to focus why Big Spring carries a 2-7 slate.

Niemeyer is still optimistic.

"It's happening. The improve-ment is showing, but it's coming around slow," she said of her squad, which includes six sophomores

The Class 5A title game will be at 12:45 p.m. Saturday in Texas Stadium in Irving.

Here's how the championship games in the other classifications shape up:

 Class 4A: Denison and Tomball clash at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Baylor Stadium at Waco.

• Class 3A: Defending state champ Daingerfield and Medina Valley meet at 8 p.m. Saturday in Baylor Stadium.

• Class 2A: Panhandle and Groveton play at 6 p.m. Satur-

Mojo in action against Big Spring.

day at Brownwood. Class 1A: Munday and Union Hill collide at 2 p.m. Saturday at Weatherford. The six-man state title was wrapped up this past weekend at

Cowboys

Abilene, where the Jayton Jaybirds and May Tigers paired off with identical 13-0 records. Jayton took the crown, rolling to a 44-0 halftime lead and holding on for a 44-28 victory. Trey Richey rushed for 208 yards and scored three times for Jayton.

In the other semifinal contests last weekend, Denison defeated Sweetwater 31-7 and Tomball overpowered Gregory-Portland 48-7 in 4A; Daingerfield outlasted Vernon 14-7 and Medina Valley crushed Sweeny 43-6 in 3A; Panhandle shut out Olney 35-0 and Groveton defeated East Bernard 21-14 in 2A; and Munday beat Wink 19-13 and Union Hill decisioned Flatonia 24-14 in 1A.

Permian coach John Wilkins said as his team prepared to take the field against Highland Park, "I told them what I've been telling them since the first week of the season - it's important to hang onto the football and go for that extra yard."

The Panthers got the message. They didn't lose a turnover and controlled the clock with a conservative running attack. Highland Park took an early 7-0 lead, but never mounted another serious threat.

Bullets bounce loss; NFL Shue feels like heel

By The Associated Press When Washington's Gen Shue won his 699th game as a coach Dec.

B, little did he NΒ know that he would reach the 700 mark as a loser instead of a winner.

The Bullets lost their fourth straight game, 109-101 to the Los Angeles Lakers on Sunday night, leaving Shue with 699 National Basketball Association coaching victories and making him the first coach to lose 700 times.

Shue said he was aware that he had 699 victories heading into the game, but didn't know he had an equal number of losses.

'I've been around .500 most of my career," he said. "I've been with rebuilding teams a lot."

James Worthy had 26 points and 11 rebounds and Earvin "Magic" Johnson added 17 points and an NBA season-high 18 assists to pace the Lakers, who lost to the Bullets halftime, outscored the Bullets 19-8 to start the second half and 31-21 in the third quarter to take control in the game.

101-98 on Dec. 8.

"I was happy with the change of pace, our trapping defense to start the second half," Lakers Coach Pat Riley said. "That turned the game around for us. We started to get them on the run in the second half.

But Johnson said he was not satisfied with the victory because the Lakers relied too much on Kareem Abdul-Jabbar in their half-court offense

"We've become too predictable; everybody knows we're going to go in to Kareer,," Johnson said. "I'm going to start scoring more and maybe that will open up our offense a little.

Jeff Ruland scored 24 points to lead the Bullets, and Jeff Malone and Darren Daye each added 20 in the losing effort.

Daye led a rally that pulled the Bullets to within 101-94 with 5:20 remaining, but a three-point play by Johnson put the Lakers up 108-99 and out of reach with 1:22 left. Bucks 115, Jazz 102 ... Terry Cummings scored 22 points in the first half to help boost Milwaukee into a 65-45 halftime lead over Utah, and the Bucks coasted to victory from there. Cummings, who finished with 29 points, had two baskets as Milwaukee scored nine consecutive points to increase a 10-point lead to 57-38 in the second quarter. Adrian Dantley led the Jazz with 42 points, hitting 15 of 19 field-goal attempts, while Rickey Green added 21 points for Utah and Paul Pressey 22 for the Bucks. Sonics 112, Nuggets 101 Seattle handed Midwest Division-leading Denver its second straight loss at home after the Nuggets posted a 10-0 start at McNichols Arena

Shue, who has been involved in more NBA games - 2,098 as a player and coach - than anyone else, is third in all-time coaching victories behind Jack Ramsev at 716 and Red Auerbach at 938. But he is No. 1 in losses.

Three of the four consecutive Washington defeats have been on the road, but the Bullets will return home Tuesday against New Jersev

"It'll be nice to get home," Shue said. "We're going to be a good basketball team. We have good balance on this team. We have quickness outside, but we need to start rebounding underneath." The Lakers, leading 56-51 at Senior forward Trell Clemons has been the Lady Steers' leading scorer so far, averaging 10 points per game. Pruitt has been coming on lately as a scorer.

Niemeyer also singled out the fine play of Monique Jones and Sheri Myrick.

The Big Spring mentor also adds the key to defeating Abilene High or anybody else for that matter is rebounding.

"It really doesn't matter who we play, it comes down to the board play. We are not putting the kill on anybody, except in the two wins. If

The injury-depleted Cowboys offense hasn't scored more than 28 points in regulation time in any game this year. The Dolphins average 32.3 per game

But Coach Tom Landry's Dallas teams haven't won 249 regular-season encounters in 25 years by giving up before the game. This year's squad, despite the lackluster record, is one of the best when it come to never quitting, Landry said.

"We could have been out of (the playoff race) very easily," the veteran Cowboys coach said. "Credit this team that they've been able to pull themselves up when they were down.

"I think we're fortunate that we still have a chance. As long as the chance is there, we're going to take a shot at it.'

Miami Coach Don Shula said he is worried about the Cowboys' pass rush. Three sacks and constant pressure on Marino had a lot to do with the Dolphins' 45-34 loss to the L.A. Raiders two weeks ago.

Though the Cowboys have sputtered on offense, Shula noted last week that "defensively, they're playing real good. They give you that big pass rush with that big front four. They can do a lot of things that can hurt you.

And Shula noted that the Cowboys showed some new wrinkles on defense in last week's 30-28 loss to the Redskins.

"They were using five defensive backs on first down and sometimes coming with more," Shula said. "We have to prepare for their regular defense plus be prepared for the five, six, seven defensive backs.

GOLF MILNERTON, South Africa (AP) - South African Tony Johnstone shot a one-over-par 73 Saturday and scored a onestroke victory in the South African Masters golf tournament over countryman Fulton Allem.

Johnstone finished with a 72-hole total of 277, 11 under par. Allem's bogey on the final hole cost him a shot at the $8,500 first prize in the $55,000 tourney. SKIING

DAVOS, Switzerland (AP) Norway, racing without three of its star performers, won a 40-kilometer World Cup relay race Sunday, one day after sweeping the 30 kilometers in this last major Nordic test before next month's world championships at Seefeld, Austria.

The Norwegian quartet, consisting of Arild Monsen, Oddvar Braa, Geir Holte, and Marin Hole, was timed in 1 hour, 44 minutes, 22.7 seconds for the four laps over the Fluela circuit, featuring a total 313 meters in climbs.

The United States team, including Dan Simoneau, Audun Endestad, Joe Galanes and Bill Spencer, finished 10th in 1:47:04.7.

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) Austria's Andreas Felder rallied from third place after first round competition to capture the Subaru 90-meter World Cup Ski Jump Saturday, his third consecutive World Cup triumph.

On Sunday, Felder continued his domination of the international ski jumping circuit by easily capturing the Subaru 70-meter World Cup.

MADONNA DI CAMPIGLIO, Italy (AP) — West Germany's Marina Kiehl, who had an apparent downhill victory taken away earlier this season by a late starter, survived all challenges in capturing a World Cup women's giant slalom ski race Saturday.

Kiehl, 19, completed two runs down the icy Five Lakes course in 2 minutes, 49.65 seconds, then bided her time before allowing her teammates to offer congratulations. Bojan Krizaj o Yugoslavia skied two perfect heats Sunday despite an aching leg to lead a sweep by veteran skiers in . men's World Cup slalom race.

E SPECIALLY for families in crises, the unemployed, the alcoholic, the homeless, the elderly and others facing difficult times. Millions of these people will receive a helping hand from The Salvation Army this Christmas season.

Shut-ins in nursing homes and hospitals will be visited by its League of Mercy. Those who have no family celebration to attend will have holiday meals at Salvation Army centers. Families in need will receive baskets of food, clothing and toys for the children. Prison inmates will be able to send gifts to their children with the help of the Army's special Toy Lift Programs.

And throughout the year, The Salvation Army will meet the day-to-day needs of many with its corps community centers, day care centers, senior citizens residences, feeding programs, shelters, rehabilitation centers and other facilities which number more than 11,000 nationwide.

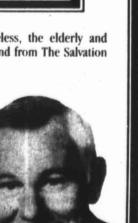

This wonderful ministry needs your support in order to flourish. Won't you help these Christian soldiers in their work by tossing a generous contribution into a Salvation Army kettle or sending a check to your local Salvation Army? Your gift to The Salvation Army will keep the Christmas spirit of sharing alive throughout the new year."

"I'm allowed to ask for anything as long as it's assembled."

should be on investigating and ferreting out information you can use to improve your present position as well as gain understanding of what is mysterious to you. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Face squarely any obliga-tions you have and get them handled effectively. Don't argue with one who wants to sell you something. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) An associate who is narrow-minded can try to spoil a plan you have but will become more reasonable later on. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A fellow worker may want own way today but use reason and show that cooperation is best. Find happiness at home. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) You want to have a good time but try not to spend too much money or get bored at something new.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) If you take up moot topics at home you can raise the tension there considerably, so keep silent and all is well.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Important you use much care in motion of all kinds since recklessness could get you into big trouble. Avoid hurt feelings.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Trying to assist another could bring much trouble to you since that person would not be appreciative.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make sure to use right methods in business today otherwise you could get into big trouble. Be happy at home.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Refrain from criticizing a friend for something you do not approve of or you could get into real trouble.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan, 20) Avoid a purposeful friend who could easily deter your own progress in life.

Steer clear of a group where arguments can occur. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be more careful in the outside world and don't jeopardize your reputation in any way. Not a good day to ask a favor. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You had better study that new plan more carefully before you put it in motion so that you do not meet with trouble at this time. IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she would do well at investigative work since there is the ability to ferret out the truth of any situation, but should be taught not to make critical statements that could alienate others and be destructive to the purpose in mind, and also to be more broad-minded and cooperative. * * *
