OPEC sets new price structure

Cartel's policing program may aid Permian Basin oil

Staff and wire reports
An agreement reached by the 13 OPEC oil ministers today on a policing mechanism they hope will help prop up slumping oil prices may be a boon to West Texas producers as well, according to Ed Thompson of the Permian Basin Petroleum Association.

Referring to the effort to aid slumping prices, Thompson said, "Hooray for the Arabs!"

Prices for West Texas Intermediate oil, the benchmark for the United States, were listed at $26.40 a barrel today. Should OPEC be able to support the new policy, that price should rise, which is good news for local producers, Thompson said.

Thompson said, "This should shore up the whole operation. This will keep it from floundering around. It's good news. We just hope they can hold to it."

The official news agency of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, OPECNA, reported that Nigeria had joined the cartel's other members in supporting the monitoring project, which was designed to ensure output restraint and discourage price cheating.

OPEC ministers are meeting in Geneva, Switzerland.

Venezuela's oil minister, Arturo Hernandez Grisanti, told reporters during a lunch break of the OPEC meeting that Nigeria, a major producer, accepted the project "without reservations." Indonesia oil minister, Subroto, who presides over the conference as OPEC's current president, also confirmed the Nigerian acceptance.

OPECNA said Nigeria's oil minister, Tam David-West, dropped his reservations after "long, drawn-out consultations" at the top level.

Although details of the proposed enforcement plan have not been disclosed, the proposal is believed to call for independent monitoring of each country's production, exports and prices of crude oil and refined petroleum products, such as gasoline and heating oil.

Subroto said the project would be implemented "as soon as possible" after a committee had taken special considerations into account. He said a final accord probably would not emerge during the current conference.

Time runs out on happy hour

Staff and wire reports
The state Alcoholic Beverage Commission, trying to curb Texans from gulping cut-rate drinks, has banned two-for-one "happy hours."

"Some retailers of alcoholic beverages were getting carried away," said TABC Administrator W.S. McBeath. "The practices we are banning tend to encourage very rapid consumption."

The rules, announced Thursday and effective immediately, bar two-for-one happy hours, but do not prohibit selling doubles for the price of singles or offering half-price drinks.

An Abilene lawmaker on Thursday filed a bill that would ban all happy hours and contests involving drinking. Rep. Gary Thompson said his bill is patterned after a recently approved Massachusetts law. "This legislation is aimed squarely at one of the major causes of traffic accidents — overindulgence encouraged by restaurants and bars," he said.

Linda Arsiaga, an owner of Amigo's private club at 205 S. Runnels in Big Spring said, "they can ban all the happy hours they want because it will not eliminate anything."

Ms. Arsiaga said that for her happy hour time of 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. had two regular customers — people Ms. Arsiaga said would be there, happy hour or no happy hour.

"I've talked to quite a few club owners here in Big Spring and they felt nothing about the new ruling," Ms. Arsiaga said.

Weather turns bizarre

Muggy mess brings 70-degree temperatures

Staff and wire reports
Gulf moisture carried aloft by strong southerly winds brought high humidity and unseasonably warm temperatures to the Permian Basin Thursday.

The mercury Friday was forecast to reach 75 degrees, and humidity levels exceeding 90 percent were expected to precede showers and light rainfall Friday night.

The record high for Dec. 28 is 79 degrees, recorded in 1928. The National Weather Service said there is a 20 percent chance of precipitation for the area Friday night.

Muggy air sucked from the Gulf of Mexico swept over West Texas accompanied by low, fast-moving dark clouds. The bizarre weather system was attributed to the convergence of a storm forming over the Rockies and a high-pressure dome hovering over the Mississippi River delta.

Travelers' warnings were in effect for eastern Utah. The Uinta Basin had up to a foot of snow since Thursday morning and more was expected in the southern and eastern mountains.

A heavy snow warning was in effect for the southern Colorado mountains through tonight.

Heavy rain led to a flash flood watch for the central basins and western desert of Arizona. High water also threatened parts of southern New Mexico.

The Rocky Mountain storm should restore seasonable weather in the Crossroads Country by Saturday, the National Weather Service said. Highs this weekend are not expected to exceed the lows 60s. Overnight temperatures will dip into the 40s.

Girl's murderer dies in electric chair

ANGOLA, La. (AP) — With a final wink to the nun who helped him through his last hours, a cocky Robert Lee Willie went to his death in the electric chair today for raping and murdering an 18-year-old woman on the night before she was to join the Army.

Elizabeth and Vernon Harvey, the mother and stepfather of the victim, watched intently but showed no emotion as Willie was strapped into the electric chair and was jolted by four alternating surges of 2,000 and 500 volts.

Willie, 26, winked at Sister Helen Prejean, his spiritual adviser and a death penalty opponent, but avoided eye contact with the seven other witnesses in the death chamber, the Harveys.

He was pronounced dead at 12:15 a.m. by Dr. Alfred Gould, said C. Paul Phelps, Secretary of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections.

"I would just like to say Mr. and Mrs. Harvey that I hope you get some relief from my death," Willie said in a statement 12 minutes before his death. "Killing people is wrong. That's why you've put me to death. It makes no difference whether it's citizens, countries or governments. Killing is wrong."

During trials and interviews Willie had expressed no remorse and said he had "lived a good life."

When Gould, coroner for West Feliciana Parish, pulled back

Willie's white sweat shirt to check his pulse, he revealed tattoos of a woman and of the Grim Reaper carrying a knife and a burning hourglass.

"I'm sorry every victim doesn't have the opportunity I had to see the perpetrator's sentence carried out," Harvey said after leaving the Louisiana State Penitentiary. "I wish everyone could have the same satisfaction."

Faith Hathaway, 18, was kidnapped, tortured, raped and then stabbed 17 times in 1980 after Willie and another man picked her up as she celebrated her last night before leaving to join the Army.

"I think that justice is finally going to be served," said Lizabeth

Harvey, Miss Hathaway's 14-year-old sister, who was at the prison but barred from watching the execution because of her age.

Lizabeth Harvey joined a group of pro-death penalty demonstrators at the prison gates, where a group of seven nuns also had gathered to protest the execution.

Harvey and his friends were laughing after the execution. Asked if he were happy that it was over, he responded, "You want to dance?"

Sister Helen said, "He died sorry for what happened."

Willie dined on a last meal of fried fish, oysters, shrimp, french fried potatoes and a salad, said

Warden Frank Blackburn.

He was the 32nd person executed in the United States and the sixth in Louisiana since the Supreme Court allowed states to reinstate the death penalty in 1976.

Willie and Joseph J. Vaccaro testified during the trial that they were "loaded" when they saw Miss Hathaway walking on the side of a road and picked her up. She was walking home from a farewell party at a Mandeville disco.

They said they blindfolded her, raped her in the back seat of the car and drove to a remote area. Willie and Vaccaro each blamed the other for inflicting the 17 stab wounds that killed her.

ROBERT LEE WILLIE executed.

Racial violence reported up

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's "worst outbreak" of racial violence in a decade included a 300 percent increase of attacks by whites on blacks' homes, says the publisher of a newsletter released today analyzing the escalation.

Racial incidents overall increased 23 percent in 1984 over the previous year, while those linked to housing in the city and suburbs tripled.

Dr. Donohue

Thoracic problem causes night pain

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My doctor says I have the thoracic outlet problem — pain and a numbness from my neck down to my fingertips. It is worst when I try to lie down and sleep. I am doing exercises and using traction to correct the problem. The doctor says that if this doesn't help soon he may want to do surgery. I would like to know more about this condition before I consider surgery. Could you elaborate. — D.E.P.

To visualize what is going on, try to picture what the skeleton of the upper body looks like. If you looked closely at it you would describe it as dome-like. At the very top of the dome there is a little window. Through that window pass various nerves and blood vessels, large vessels from the heart. Normally, the window is large enough to accommodate all these structures. But when the window becomes too small, the nerves and vessels are squeezed. Then the person gets the symptoms you describe — pain in the arm and hands. There may be peculiar sensations, a weakness, and sometimes a swelling and loss of pulse.

Many times the narrowing of the outlet is from scar tissue at the outlet point, or there may be a misplaced muscle there, or even be an extra upper rib, which some people are born with in the neck area.

More often than not the thoracic outlet syndrome, the official name for this, can be sufficiently relieved with simple steps, such as traction to ease the pressure or exercise therapy. Special exercises are used. Sometimes an alteration of accustomed posture helps. For example, a drooping posture can contribute to the pressure on the outlet.

For the lying down disturbance you are experiencing, I'd suggest use of a pillow under the shoulder or the side that seems most affected. You'll have to experiment with this.

If all these measures fail to bring improvement, then it's time for the doctor to take a look deep inside to evaluate the situation anew. Then, depending on just what is creating the pressure — a scar band, the extra rib, or whatever — that can be removed surgically. One way or another, thoracic outlet syndrome can be eased.

Headaches — you can beat them! Write to Dr. Donohue, P.O. Box 11210, Chicago, IL 60611, for a copy of his booklet, "How to Tame Headaches." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to and $1.00.

Dr. Donohue welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Dear Abby

Grown children share support at home

DEAR ABBY: Please say something in your column about grown children who choose to live at home. I am a widow with a large house and three grown children who live with me because their jobs are in this area, and so are their friends, their church and a university where they take advanced courses to enhance their careers.

Every day some busybody (usually a woman my age whose children have all left home) asks, "Why are your children still living at home?" Such astonishment is expressed that one would think there was something wrong with adult children living at home. My children tell me they often find themselves trying to justify their living at home, as though it were some kind of abnormal lifestyle.

We hope that one day they will all have homes of their own, but in the meantime, living together offers each of us financial and emotional support. Besides, there are four of us to share all the household chores, and that ain't bad.

A MOTHER WHO LIKES HER KIDS

DEAR MOTHER: When grown children want to live at home, and their mother wants them to, I would say it's an ideal arrangement.

Three cheers for you, Mother. (Make that four.)

Dermatologists believe no link binds acne, diet

NEW YORK (AP) — Chocolate is often blamed for skin blemishes, but many dermatologists think there is no link between acne and diet, according to Chocolatier magazine.

It says pimples that characterize acne are the result of overactive glands in the skin which are especially active during the teen years. In addition, factors such as sleeplessness, stress and anxiety can trigger flare-ups of acne.

Women negotiate better than men

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Women are better business negotiators than men, according to a team of psychologists.

In simulated negotiations, women were found to be more flexible, more willing to compromise, less deceptive and more likely to view the negotiations as part of a long-term relationship. This "win-win" strategy contrasted to the "win-lose" sports strategy adopted by most of the men as part of a tougher bargaining stance.

The psychologists say a tough negotiating position may be useful in a one-time deal, but such deals are rare. More typically, decision making involves bargaining among people who see each other on a regular basis.

Hillcrest becoming fountain of youth

By KIM KIRKHAM
Religion Editor

Hillcrest Baptist Church is becoming a fountain of youth. The youth department has increased its average of 30 youth to 70 youth on Sunday during the past 10 months.

"One reason is that we began working toward a full youth program," said Gene Gage, youth minister. "We have our own Wednesday night service just for youth and some type of major event every four months.

"What we're doing at Hillcrest is trying to have a total youth program that deepens a young person spiritually and teaches them how to reach out to others," he said.

"I've really seen in these 10 months a lot of youth grow spiritually and become more open toward reaching out to others," said Gage, who moved to Big Spring in March of 1984.

"I'm probably the only full-time youth director in this area with 90 percent of my duties strictly with the youth," he said. "And we've tripled our budget for youth this year.

"Our pastor is 24 and our music director is 28, so we have a real young staff that is sensitive to the needs of the youth," said Gage, 35.

Young people from Coahoma, Forsan, Stanton and Big Spring participate in the program. And "we have youth from all economic levels and backgrounds," he said.

"If a person can sing, we provide voice lessons and opportunities to use that talent. We will make use of any talents the Lord has given a person both spiritually and physically."

The youth group recently returned from a weekend retreat to sas City Royal baseball game," said Gage. The group will take a trip to Estes Park in Colorado for a four-day youth retreat rally. Thousands of other youth from across the United States will attend.

"This spring we're including parents more through a special newsletter for them and through special events planned with youth and parents together," said Gage. "Also this spring, we're going to begin instituting a mission type graded program for the youth." In the program, junior high age youth will get to take a trip within Texas. High school freshmen and sophomores will take a trip to a neighboring state. And juniors and seniors in high school will get to take a mission trip several states away.

"We average around 35 in youth choir, and we have a full Sunday School program," Gage said. A lounge has been set aside in the church for the youth. In the spring a television will be put in the room, he said.

"Our church, we feel, has one of the strongest programs in the area now — musically all the way through education."

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

The New Year is greeted by most of us with plans to do more and better things, yet our resolutions are seldom carried out. Two writers of old left words of warning for those of us who constantly plan but seldom act:

"Hell is full of good meanings and wishes" — George Herbert
"Hell is paved with good intentions" — Samuel Johnson

If you've meant to change, intended to start to church, and even wished you were a Christian, take these words to heart. God wants you to believe and obey Today!

Fiorenza appointed diocesan bishop

Pope John Paul II has appointed Bishop Joseph A. Fiorenza of San Angelo to be diocesan bishop of the Diocese of Galveston-Houston announced Archbishop Pio Laghi, the papal envoy to the United States.

Bishop Fiorenza, 53, has served as the Bishop of the San Angelo Diocese since Oct. 25, 1979. Before going to San Angelo, he was a priest of the diocese that he will now head as the bishop.

A ceremony of installation will be in Houston Feb. 18, 1985. Archbishop Patrick Flores of San Antonio and Archbishop Laghi will conduct the installation. Until he is installed, Fiorenza will be Apostolic Administrator of the San Angelo Diocese.

The Diocese of Galveston-Houston was established in 1847 which at that time included all of the state of Texas. Fiorenza will be its seventh bishop.

The diocese has 141 parishes and 16 mission churches served by 450 priests, 130 permanent deacons and 650 nuns and a Catholic population of about 650,000. It has one Catholic University, a diocesan seminary, nine high schools, 50 elementary schools, four hospitals, two clinics and two homes for the elderly. It is one of the largest and fastest growing Catholic dioceses in the United States. Today there are 13 dioceses in Texas that minister to 3 million Catholics.

Church law impels Vatican letter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The general secretary of the National Conference of Catholic bishops says church law impelled the recent Vatican letter asking several priests and nuns to renounce their views allowing abortion or face dismissal.

Msgr. Daniel Hoyer says canons 696, 697 and 698 specify that "spreading doctrines condemned" by the church is "cause for dismissal from religious life." He noted the canons also provide for due process and right of defense.

He said the Vatican's Congregation for Religious and Secular Institute, in contacting superiors of 26 nuns and priests, had acted on the basis of those canons and the church's "constant teaching" of the "immorality of abortion."

The priests and nuns had been among 97 signers of a full-page ad, sponsored by Catholics for a Free Choice and placed in the New York Times last Oct. 7, claiming the church over the centuries has held varying views about some abortions, as do some contemporary Catholic theologians.

Director claims policy is appeasement

LONDON (AP) — The director of a British center that monitors difficulties of Soviet believers says the keynote of the World Council of Churches' policy toward Soviet churches "has been appeasement" and it has failed to help.

The Rev. Michael Bourdeaux told a meeting of council leaders that if it spoke openly about abuses of Soviet churches, it might cause them to quit the council, but it would strengthen their hand in standing up to the government.

In Geneva, Switzerland, a council spokesman described its aims and that of Bourdeaux's center as "two approaches to the same dilemma," and added that recent meetings indicated "good will on both sides to listen to each other."

Attorney says amendment impossible

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — An attorney for the National Association of Evangelicals says it is unlikely that the new U.S. Congress will approve a human life amendment against abortion.

Forest Montgomery, counsel for the association's public affairs office, told a seminar that such action does not appear "politically possible." He said congressional action for voluntary prayers in public schools or for tuition tax credits for non-public schooling also appears dim.

Houston church names Wright youth minister

David Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wright, 2715 Ann, is the new minister to youth at River Oaks Baptist Church in Houston.

Wright was previously at Clear Lake Baptist Church in Houston. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and Boylar and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Feds won't give aid to victims of Dallas tornado

DALLAS (AP) — The federal government has denied Gov. Mark White's request to declare Dallas and Ellis counties major disaster areas, thus making victims of the Dec. 13 tornado ineligible for most relief aid, officials said.

The request was turned down because a majority of homes suffered only minor damage and most homeowners had inurance, officials said Thursday. The tornadoes, which swept through Dallas and Ellis counties, damaged more than 600 homes and businesses and caused approximately $27 million in damage, according to local estimates.

White House officials said President Reagan acted on the recommendation of the Federal Emergency Management Administration in denying the request for eligibility to three major federal aid programs.

The action means that about 260 tornado victims who might have qualified for special assistance must find other forms of aid, said Lauren Chernow, spokeswoman for the governor's Division of Emergency Management.

Eligibility was denied for the Individual and Family Grant Program, which could authorize up to $5,000 in aid; the FEMA Temporary Housing Program; and the Disaster Unemployment Assistance program.

White had asked the president on Dec. 20 to declare the counties disaster areas.

Meningitis cases alarm area hospital

Harte-Hanks News Service
 ABILENE — Two cases of meningitis — one of which resulted in the death of a 7-month-old boy on Christmas Eve — among children attending a child care facility here has put hospital officials in a state of alert.

Hendrick Medical Center officials have contacted the parents of 114 of 126 children who have been at Hendrick Child Care Center during the past 2 1/2 weeks to notify them of the situation. Both children diagnosed as having the disease contracted Type-B meningitis, officially called haemophilus influenzae.

Dr. Paul Maslanka, the family's pediatrician, said the boy became ill and died almost within 24 hours.

He said the type germ is unique because it usually hits children 2 years old or younger. He said the Schmidt baby had an ear infection, which may have brought on the meningitis.

Haemophilus meningitis is the inflammation of the membranes of the spinal cord or brain. General symptoms include fever, irritability, loss of appetite, constipation, intense headache and intolerance to light and sound.

James Daniel Schmidt, 7-month-old son of Albert and Louann Schmidt, died at 11:10 p.m. Monday after contracting the infectious disease. His mother, Louann, is a nurse at the hospital.

Chris Robinson, 2, son of Lucille McGee of Route 8, cafeteria manager at Hendrick, was diagnosed Dec. 13 as having the disease. Hospital officials said he has since recovered.

Liberty Bowl win slips by Arkansas, 21-15

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The big play — only a fingertip away for Arkansas — became reality for Auburn and halfback Bo Jackson, whose 40-yard, fourth-quarter touchdown run gave the 16th-ranked Tigers a 21-15 Liberty Bowl victory.

Despite four pass interceptions by the Auburn secondary — one turned into a 35-yard TD run by cornerback Kevin Porter — Arkansas, 7-4-1, came within a whisker of capping its 1984 season with an upset victory Thursday night at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

After seeing an early 3-0 lead turned into a 14-3 first-quarter deficit on a 2-yard run by Jackson and Porter's TD return, the Southwest Conference Razorbacks gave Auburn and Coach Pat Dye everything they expected and a little more before becoming the Tigers' ninth victim in 13 starts.

"They did exactly what we thought they'd do, and they did it well," Dye said. "The only thing that beat Arkansas is four turnovers."

The Razorbacks put on a determined rally in the fourth quarter, scoring on a 2-yard run by fullback Marshall Foreman with 11:56 remaining to cut the Southeastern Conference Tigers' lead to 14-9. Then they came within one play of possibly taking home the trophy.

That play, on fourth-and-one from the Tiger 46, saw Arkansas halfback Bobby Joe Edmonds drop a sure touchdown pass from quarterback Brad Taylor in the open at the Tiger 15.

Five plays later, Jackson, who gained 88 yards on 18 carries and was named the game's MVP, slithered through the hands of the Razorback defense at the Arkansas 38 and raced into the end zone with the deciding touchdown.

"We went for it all on fourth-and-one," said first-year Arkansas Coach Ken Hatfield. "We felt the play would be open. If we scored, it would put us ahead and would force them to throw the ball late in the game when they were tired."

Edmonds said it was a case of "being too open."

"It was a lack of concentration. It looked like the pass would be long, then I thought I'd have to dive for it. Then the ball was there and I knew I was in trouble when I felt it go off my hands and into the air," said Edmonds, who set a Liberty Bowl record for pass receptions with 10, covering 68 yards.

After Jackson's scoring run, the Razorbacks got a 25-yard TD pass from Taylor to split end James Shibest with 3:10 remaining, but could not move past their own 45 as the clock ran out on their final possession.

"I told our team they would have to fight and scratch the whole game if they were to beat Arkansas, and that's exactly what they did," Dye said.

Monahans nips Steers, 77-76

BENARD WILLIAMS ...13 points

MONAHANS — The Big Spring Steers lost a squeaker to the Monahans Lobos, 77-76, in non-district holiday action Thursday night in Monahans Gymnasium.

The game was close throughout and Big Spring had an opportunity to pull away from Monahans late in the fourth quarter when the Steers assumed a three point lead. The Lobos regained the lead with about a minute remaining which set the stage for a last second attempt by the Steers to pull out the win. The Steers were never able to get a shot away due to a costly turnover in the face of an aggressive Monahans press and the Lobos ran out the clock to preserve the victory.

Both teams featured balanced scoring attacks. The Steers had three players in double figures, led by freshman Brian Mayfield's 19 points. Mike Leuschner chipped in 16 and Benard Williams had 13 points to round out the scoring for Big Spring. The Steers record now stands at 6-12.

Gamecocks, OSU in Gator Bowl classic

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Oklahoma State has prospered under Rusty Hilger's leadership, but the senior quarterback isn't one to rest on past laurels.

"In playing the game of football, you have to have a short memory," says Hilger, who'll lead the ninth-ranked Cowboys against No. 7 South Carolina in the 40th annual Gator Bowl tonight. "We can't expect what's happened in the past to help us... We've got to be mentally and physically prepared."

Hilger, the Cowboys' all-time passing leader, is the first quarterback to guide Oklahoma State to three straight post-season appearances and the Big Eight school has compiled a 19-8 record with him as a starter.

On Thursday night, Bo Jackson rushed for two touchdowns to lead No. 16 Auburn past Arkansas 21-15 in the 26th annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The triumph left Auburn, which was ranked No. 1 in the preseason poll, at 9-4 while Arkansas ended 7-4-1. Jackson scored on a 2-yard run in the first quarter and then galloped 40 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown that gave the Tigers a 21-9 lead.

A victory over South Carolina would give the 9-2 Cowboys their first 10-victory campaign in history and relieve a bit of the pain lingering from a 24-14 loss to Oklahoma that cost the team the Big Eight championship and an Orange Bowl berth.

South Carolina hopes to end its most successful season ever with the school's first bowl victory.

"We want to make history... win it for the people back home in Columbia," said All-American linebacker James Seawright, leader of the Gamecocks' Fire Ants defense. "It's very important to us."

South Carolina, which cracked the Top Twenty four weeks into the season and eventually climbed to No. 2, will carry a 10-1 record into the 8 p.m. EST contest, which will be shown on ABC-TV.

No. 20 Wisconsin and Kentucky meet Saturday in the Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. (8 p.m., WTBS).

Wisconsin went 7-3-1, led by quarterback Mike Howard. Kentucky, 8-3, has a strong defense anchored by linebacker Cam Jacobs.

Howard completed 163 of 285 passes for 1,924 yards and 10 touchdowns this season.

Says Jacobs: "A lot of teams have come out throwing against us, but no one has ruled the skies."

ASU linemen All-American

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Wegher, a 5-foot-7 running back from South Dakota State who wound up the season with a great performance against a Division I-A team, was named today to The Associated Press Little All-America college football team for 1984.

Wegher set 11 school records this season and finished second nationally in the NCAA's Division II with an average of 119.7 yards a game. That broke the school record of 112 yards a game set in 1952 by Pete Retzlaff, who went on to become an All-Pro receiver with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Joining Wegher in the Little All-America backfield are running back Joe Dudek of Plymouth State and quarterback Scott Barry of Cal-Davis. Dudek rushed for 1,378 yards on 199 carries and led Division II in scoring with 21 touchdowns. Barry finished second in Division II passing efficiency, completing 189 of 293 passes for 2,365 yards and 17 touchdowns.

The wide receivers are Gregg Brenner of Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Steve Hansley of Northwest Missouri State. Brenner caught 45 passes for a whopping 1,008 yards and 10 touchdowns while Hansley caught 57 passes for 1,123 yards and 11 TDs. The tight end is Jim Jones of San Francisco State, who had 59 receptions for 836 yards and five touchdowns.

The offensive line consists of tackles Ron Petersen of Nebraska-Omaha (6-10, 287) and 280-pound Dan Remsburg of Abilene Christian, the only Lone Star Conference first-teamer; guards Terry Brooks of Towson State and Mitch Geier of Troy State, with Greg Hagfors of North Dakota State at center.

The placekicker is Herve Roussel of Wayne State in Nebraska, a Frenchman who kicked 30 of 33 extra points and 22 of 31 field goals.

On the defensive unit are ends Brian Cox of Union, N.Y., and Fred Manley of Case Western Reserve, tackles David Burnette of Central Arkansas and Ed Lively of Hayward State, middle guard Ike Headon of Hampton Institute, linebackers John Greene of Virginia State, Gerry Quinlivan of the State University of New York at Buffalo and Frank Sheptock of Bloomsburg — the only repeater from the 1983 first team — and backs Nick Frost of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, Chris McMahon of Catholic University and Daryl Smith of North Alabama. The punter is Jeff Guy of Western State (Colo.).

Kings rally past Rockets

BY The Associated Press Kansas City Kings Coach Phil Johnson didn't let a little thing like being outscored by 20 points in the third quarter get him down.

"I knew they were going to have a run," Johnson said after the Kings rallied to defeat the Houston Rockets 96-92 in a National Basketball Association game Thursday night. "But I just told the guys that we had to be patient and play our game."

After Houston's 37-17 third quarter, which included two 9-0 spurts, gave the Rockets a 73-66 lead going into the fourth period, the Kings outscored Houston 30-19 in the final 2 minutes to win the sixth game in their last seven outings. They are now 10-9 since Johnson took over as coach for Jack McKinney.

"We turned the ball over," Houston Coach Bill Fitch said after his team's record fell to 17-13 despite 26 points and 17 rebounds from Akeem Olajuwon. "We didn't make any baskets. It wasn't any one thing. If it had been just one thing we could have zeroed in on it."

Elsewhere in the NBA, it was Chicago 112, Cleveland 108; San Antonio 141, Portland 120; Boston 118, Los Angeles Clippers 103 and Golden State 101, Seattle 98.

Bulls 112, Cavaliers 108 ... Rookie Michael Jordan matched his season high with 45 points as Chicago held off Cleveland.

The Bulls had a comfortable lead until the final minute when the Cavaliers, who got 30 points from World B. Free, outscored Chicago 8-1 to make the final score close.

Celtics 118, Clippers 103 ... Kevin McHale scored 18 of his 27 points in the fourth quarter, helping Boston break up a close game at Los Angeles.

The Clippers, playing before a sellout crowd for the first time since moving from San Diego during the off-season, trailed only 101-95 midway through the final period. But the Celtics outscored Los Angeles 17-8 the rest of the game to pull away, with McHale scoring 10 straight Boston points in one stretch.

Suns 141, Trail Blazers 120 ... San Antonio won its sixth straight home game and handed Portland its eighth loss in its last nine outings as George Gervin scored 31 points.

Mike Mitchell added 24 points. Mychal Thompson led the Trail Blazers with 22.

NBA

Warriors 101, SuperSonics 96. Golden State captured only its second road game in 14 tries this season, winning at Seattle behind the scoring of Purvis Short and Mickey Johnson.

Short scored 23 points and Johnson had eight of his total of 17 during a 12-0 run by the Warriors early in the fourth period. The surge turned a 77-72 Seattle advantage into an 84-77 Golden State margin.

Sonics center Jack Sikma led all scorers with 26 points.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, DEC. 29, 1984

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The day is good for getting rid of whatever unfinished tasks face you in a calm and unperturbed fashion or you can get irritable and annoyed. Put your plans into motion.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Forget those secret anxieties and go ahead with plans you have in mind but don't confide in others.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Quietly handle whatever tasks are ahead of you and get much done during the daytime and handle restrictions wisely.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get activities handled well but don't be so concerned about getting credit right now. Be it in business or personal affairs.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Some new condition seems hard to handle or understand during the daytime and tonight an expert is not helpful.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Don't relegate tasks to others but handle them yourself, and be reasonable about a bill you think is too big.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Although an associate may not seem to be living up to an agreement, don't raise Cain but be sure to handle your part.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Organize that work ahead of you and don't expect assistance from others and you can handle it very well.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Try not to argue when you are out with another for a good time, otherwise it will spoil the fun.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Gad about doing shopping, paying visits, etc., during the daytime, but tonight is best spent at home.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Handling outside duties is important today, but use extreme care while driving. Smile and be cheerful.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Steer clear of borrowing or buying anything that will require steady payments to be made. Stay within your budget.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Hide any discontent you may feel or you could lose a valuable friend, and do whatever will improve your health and appearance.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she has to be organized to solve problems so not to get nervous with others around. Slant education along lines of investigation and your progeny will be very successful at such. Teach to be more objective throughout the lifetime. Possibly an impatient person here.
