Spring Cosden gears up production

By KEELY COGHLAN

Staff Writer Production of diesel fuel resumed this week at the Cosden Oil & Chemical Co., which had been shut down since March 26 when a spectacular fire destroyed portions of the crude oil processing unit.

The refinery is producing about 18,000 barrels of diesel fuel daily, according to American Petrofina public relations assistant Mark Palmer of Dallas. Cosden is a subsidiary of Fina.

"By the end of the week, we hope to have third of our capacity. That's about where we wanted to be this week," Palmer said.

The control room of the crude processing unit and the crude inlet system were damaged by a spectacular fire March 26 when a hose ruptured during tests of a meter at the crude oil processing unit.

"We have progressed rather smoothly through the first stage," he said. "We're optimistic at this stage." timistic at this stage.

"We are trying to bring the units on-line in sequence. We're hopeful that in six to eight weeks we can get it back up to 80 or 85 percent capacity," which the refinery was operating at before the fire, he said.

Barber, DPS feud renewed

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau

AUSTIN — Testimony on legislation to extend the state's wiretapping bill took a sidetrack this week when a former Colorado City county attorney and the Texas Department of Public Safety director renewed a dispute over the removal of two DPS troopers.

Sen. Kent Caperton, D-Bryan, committee chairman, delayed a vote on the wiretap legislation until next week. The bill, sponsored in the Senate by Sen. Ed Howard, D-Texarkana, already has passed the Director James Adams Tuesday appeared before the Senate Criminal Justice Committee to ment's ability to conduct courtapproved wiretaps in drug cases.

Adams said wiretapping is needed in the fight against the "majorfunded conglomerates" of the illegal drug trade.

Such wiretaps were approved by the Texas Legislature four years ago, but with a "sunset" measure that brought the legislation back for review in 1985. The current proposal would extend the law without further reviews.

The law has produced 57 convictions and resulted in $15 million in seized contraband without any abuses, Adams said. "We will continue to use this authority in the proper manner."

But Colorado City attorney Pat Barber opposed the wiretap extension, saying the current DPS leadership is not worthy of trust. He said he was county attorney of Mitchell County when he became involved in a dispute with Adams over two troopers Barber wanted removed from his county.

He said he told Adams he wouldn't prosecute any more cases that rely on the testimony of those two troopers because he couldn't trust them. Adams' reply, he said, was to threaten to take all cases directly to the grand jury.

All cases ultimately would have come under the county attorney's jurisdiction, Barber said, so Adams' "only reason was political in nature to embarrass me." That sort of conduct, he charged, shows Barber page 2-A Ironically, the education reform act, House Bill 72, included paperwork reduction meansures.

But teachers say their paperwork tasks now include everything from detailed lesson plans to ongoing student evalua-tions and regular progress reports to parents. That's in addition to the daily jungle of tests, grade reports and grading papers. Who's to blame for the onslaught? Teachers blame principals. Principals fault administrators. Administrators point the finger at the Texas Education Agency. And everyone biames House Bill 72.

State Senate approves bill to lower SWCID tuition costs

A bill by Sen. John Montford which would lower tuition at the SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf was approved by the Senate today, said school executive director Sam Hill.

Hill said that there was no opposition to the bill which lowers tuition at SWCID by almost 50 percent for out of state students. Because of wording in the original SWCID bill, tuition for out of state students shot up 2,000 percent in 1983. Out of state students were faced with a yearly tuition rate of close to $9,000.

If the SWCID tuition bill passes the House, students will pay tuition rates in line with students at other state colleges and universities. A bill pending before the Legislature now would raise out of state tuition rates to $180 an hour, which is about haif what SWCID students

Hill said he feels the bill will now go before the House Higher Education Committee, chaired by Wilhelmina Delco. Delco has indicated support for SWCID in the past and has given local educators tips on wording of the bill, Hill said.

Rep. Larry Don Shaw is carrying the proposal in the House. According to a Higher Education Committee spokesman, the bill probably will be set for committee hearing April 29.

Hill verified that the bill had passed through the Senate by calling the administration committee clerk this morning. The administration committee handled a number of items on the local and uncontested calendar this morning and the SWCID tuition bill was one of the items cleared by the Senate committee.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — University of California faculty members have organized in support of thousands of students who railied against apartheid in a show of activism unseen since the campus was a political hotbed in the 1960s.

About 5,000 protesters railied outside Sproul Hall here Wednesday demanding the university sell $1.7 billion in South African investments and supporting a boycott of classes. About 300 people rallied at the Santa Barbara campus and another 500 at Santa Cruz, of-

Anti-apartheid protests also continued at Columbia University in New York City, where demonstrators have camped outside Hamilton Hall for two weeks, and at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J.

"It is so important for you to know that you are not alone in the struggle," Assemblywoman Maxine Waters told the crowd at Berkeley. "We're going to look at the budget, and we're going to bring pressure on the regents." Ken Simmons, an architecture professor, said, "We have a moral obligation, and the faculty has the highest moral obligation of all. We must support this About 100 faculty members met Wednesday to form

UC Faculty for Full Divestment, supporting the pension funds.

Since attendance is not taken, university officials said they could not determine the boycott's effectiveness. A visit to several of the 4.300 cla ed Wednesday indicated that some students were honoring it. Protest leaders said that up to 80 percent of students may be taking the day off. In the largest single arrest of Berkeley demonstrators in 20 years, 150 people were arrested Tuesday for investigation of trespassing and illegal lodging. All those arrested were released by Wednesday.

From 1964 until U.S. combat troops left Vietnam in 1973, Berkeley was one of the most politically active campuses in the nation and was the birthplace of the Free Speech Movement, a pioneering effort for

At Columbia on Wednesday, cheering demonstrators called on community residents to join in a march on the campus set for 5:30 p.m. today. Marchers will walk south from Harlem and north from the Upper West Protesters also accepted $1,000 from Teamsters Union Local 237, which represents about 18,000 city employees. Columbia alumni offered their support to the demonstrators, who have blocked a classroom and administration building.

The demonstrators want Columbia to divest itself within three years of $32.5 million in South African investments. The university is standing behind its policy of holding such investments to less than $39 million and making sure companies adhere to the "Sullivan Principles," under which American they agree to treat black workers in South Africa equally whites.

Anti-apartheid demonstrators staged a sit-in at Rutgers and said Wednesday they will continue their protest "for as long as necessary" to convince the school to stop investing in companies that do business in South Africa

Rutgers has $9.4 million in stock of companies doing business in South Africa after the trustees on Feb. 8 voted to sell $3.67 million of stock in seven companies the board decided were not promoting reform.

The already alarming use of drugs in this country could be expanded geometrically by man-made, synthetic drugs

Manufactured in crude laboratories - even hotel bathtubs - by persons needing only a high school chemistry background, synthetic or "designer" drugs are easier to produce and distribute than cocaine and marijuana. Methamphetamine or "speed" is the chief synthetic drug and its ingredients - ephedrin, red phospshorus, hydriodic acid - are legally and easily purchased in bulk from chemical retailers. Synthesizing LSD, PCP and a heroin surrogate, fentanyl, requires more sophisticated knowledge and equipment.

Nearly everything about synthetic drug manufacturing is dangerous. Not only are the drug laboratories highly combustile, the finished product is truly hazardous. There have been 85 deaths in California alone traced to lethal fentanyl. The enhanced menace of designer drugs comes from their relatively cheap availability. The overhead on drug synthesis is low, the profits high and the process relatively simple. Ironically, some synthetic drugs are not even illegal. For example, the molecular structure of fentanyl can be altered so as to escape drug laws that currently encompass only a cer-

Three crucial questions are posed by the appearance of synthetic drugs. Will drug users alter their drug habits and provide an expanding market for cheap, available and potent

Will these drugs increase experimentation? The National Institute on Drug Abuse reports that amphetamine use doubled between 1974 and 1982.

Finally, do successful U.S. drug enforcement efforts abroad aid doemstic drug manufacturers? The appearance of fentanyl is partially linked to a fluctuating heroin market.

Because synthetic drug manufcturing is a relatively new phenomenon, questions about their usage cannot be known for some time. Meanwhile, drug enforcement officials face a growing challenge from the new synthetic culture.

What to do? Certainly the manpower needs of the DEA and local agencies should be met immediately and punishment for this new threat should be spelled out clearly in new laws. But the only hope ultimately is for a broad educational program to get across to potential users how dangerous these chemicals are. The solution is to educate Americans in all age groups about the dangers of drug use.

'Come on. How are people going to make money on prisons?

'Good management and tax breaks," Simon said. "There's an unbelievable demand for new prisons in every state in the union. The public wants criminals locked up, but they refuse to pay for the jailhouses. So they are giving out franchises to privatge entrepreneurs who have figured out a way of making money on the penal system.'

"I don't get it. If the government is running in the red putting people away, how can the private sector get the system in the black?"

"It's the way prisons are financed. When the government builds a prison complex it has to borrow money from the public. If a private company builds it, then it becomes a tax shelter."

"They're going to lock up prisoners in tax shelters?" 'We're not going to put prisoners in tax shelters, we're putting investors in them. "Okay, so I'm in a prison tax

In order to make money they have to count on word-ofmouth. If former inmates start bad-mouthing Big House in the underworld, offenders will ask to be sent to the competition's prisons after they're caught.

"What about conflict of interest? Suppose a person is up for parole, and Big House doesn't want to give it to him because they'll be stuck with an empty bed. I would hate to deprive a man of his freedom just because I'm afraid of losing his business.

"You have nothing to worry about on that score. There's a waiting list for every prison in America. Most states are guaranteeing private prison corporations 105 percent occupancy for the next 20 years.'

Won't prisoners be resentful that people are trying to make money on them?'

"Not when they realize private companies have a lot more to offer than public institutions. Big House is putting in the best security equipment money can buy, so no one can break into a prison that doesn't belong there. We're also installing the latest athletic facilities, cable TV, workshops and leisure activities. Their guards have been instructed to wish every prisoner a nice day. They have put How Did We do?' questionnaires in all the cells asking inmates to compare them with other prisons they've been in. Our business is to make the consumer, in this case the inmate, consider Big House a home away from home. That's the only way you get repeat business.

Pesticides harming 3rd World

WASHINGTON - Each year American chemical companies export nearly a billion dollars' worth of pesticides that are unregistered, restricted or banned outright in the United States.

When these deadly chemicals are used by Third World farmers ignorant of the dangers, the result can be catastrophic. For example:

• In Brazil, 13 children who lived on the same village street became mysteriously, violently ill. They sweated, foamed at the mouth, vomited and went into convulsions. Most died within a few days, and the only survivor, an 8-year-old girl, was fatally stricken with the same symptoms a few weeks later. An autopsys showed unusually high levels of Aldrin and its breakdown product, Dieldrin, in her blood and liver. These U.S.-manufactured pesticides were banned in the United States the year before.

• In Tijuana, Mexico, 17 people died and more than 300 got sick after eating sugar contaminated with Parathion, a pesticide whose use is restricted in the United States, but whose manufacture is not.

• In a single province of Thailand, out of a population of 3,789, 24 died and 320 more became ill from pesticides used on local crops. A government study found dangerous levels of pesticide residues in 75 percent of rice and flour samples, in more than 40 percent of vegetables and in milk, cooking oil and

 In Egypt, exposure to the pesticide Phosvel killed more than 1,000 water buffalo and an undisclosed number of people. Rural families suffered convulsions, speech difficulties, loss of bladder control and other symptoms. Phosvel is manufactured in the United States solely for export; its use has never been permitted in this country because of the danger

These horror stories, which occurred over the past two decades, were compiled by Julian Epstein, an aide to Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich., from internal government documents and other sources.

The chemical industry defends its export of pesticides that are banned or restricted here, arguing that they are a necessary evil in the battle against famine and disease in the Third World.

But Epstein challenges the effectiveness of the pesticides in achieving these laudable goals, and notes that at least half of the pesticides imported by the Third World countries are used on crops that will be exported to Western Europe and the United

What strikes environmentalists as unconscionable about the pesticide exports - which amount to some $2.8 billion a year — is that the dangers are so widely misunderstood by the farmers who use them. Even the officials responsible for distributing them are often uniformed.

When warnings are written in the native language and can be read by the users, the chemicals are often mislabeled. A recent spot check in Mexico, for example, showed that more than half the pesticides being sold were mislabeled, according to Epstein's

The United States is the only country that voted against a U.N. resolution that would make a list of hazardous exports available. After initially supporting the U.N. effort, the Environmental Protection Agency cautioned in an internal document seen by our associate Vicki Warren that "we think it is also in the U.S. interest to refine such a listing in a way that would minimize any unwarranted disruptions to international trade

The Food and Drug Administration actually prepared a list of 30 drugs that have been withdrawn from the U.S. market as unsafe, but the State Department refused to forward it to the U.N. group preparing the list.

FEUD OF THE WEEK: A federal judge has stepped in on the side of Congress in its feud with budget director David Stockman over federal contracts that have been challenged by losing bidders. The battle began when Congress passed - and President Reagan signed — a law that allows the General Accounting Office to delay the award of a defense contract if a losing bidder files a legitimate protest. n an astonishing move for a former congressman, Stockman ordered all government agencies to ignore the law, much to the indignation of Rep. Jack Brooks, D-Texas, chairman of the Government Operations Committee. The constitutional controversy has since moved into the courts - and Stockman is taking a drubbing.

In a loser's suit challenging the award of a contract for Navy fighter-plane fuel tanks, U.S. District Court Judge David V. Kenyon wrote: "This court disapproves of the defendant government's manipulation of a national emergency situation to force (favorable) judicial determination."

In another case, a judge ruled that the Army Engineers had in fact violated the Competition in Stockman says the president should have vetoed the law as an illegal interference by Congress into the executive branch's contracting authority. Brooks vows that Congress will fight all the way to the Supreme Court, if necessary, for its right to hold up government contracts that may have been improperly awarded.

Jack Anderson's investigative report from Washington is distributed by United Feature Syndicate.

Billy Graham

Man is responsible for evil

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: My husband does not want to believe in God. He says all the evil in the world proves that God does not exist, because if He did exist. He would do something about the evils around us. - Mrs. T.L.J.

DEAR MR. T.L.J.: The question of evil is not an easy one to answer in a few sentences; that may be one reason your husband brings it up whenever the topic of religion arises, because he knows you cannot answer it.

However, the Bible clearly stresses that man, and not God, is ultimately responsible for the evil in the world. God created the first humans, Adam and Eve, with a perfectly free will. Why did He create them that way? Because He wanted them to love Him freely, which they could not do if they had no choice about it. But with that freedom came a risk - the risk that they would turn against God. And that is exactly what happened, when they chose to believe the lies of Satan instead of the truth of God. The Bible says, "Sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned" (Romans 5:12).

But God is doing something about the evil in the world. He sent His only Son into the world to save us from sin and its penalty of eternal death. And even now when we turn to Christ the Holy Spirit comes to dwell within us and helps us fight against evil in our hearts. Only Christ can change our hearts - and He will, if we let Him.

I suspect your husband's real problem is not this question about evil, but his desire to live his life apart from God. Pray for him, and be an example to him about the difference that Christ can make when we turn to Him. He cannot argue with a changed life. His problem is pride — and Christ can do something about the evil that is in his heart if he will turn in faith to Him.

Around The Rim

Un dicho para todos

Por LUIS RIOS

El que escupe para arriba a la

Ese es el dicho de los siglos. Es verdad que el sino no olvida nomas espera. Y cuando se llega ese tiempo desventurado uno se acuerda de que le dijo o hizo a otra persona. En ingles se dice que es mejor hablar de las buenas cualidades de una persona porque va haber bastantes personas que van a hablar de las malas.

Pero es mas facil hablar y leer de las cosas malas de una persona. Es mucho mas interesante, verdad? Pero casi nunca es mejor. La prensa tambien es culpable de escribir de las desgracias de un persona. Y hay dias que uno piensa, "Que no paso algo bueno en él mundo este dia?"

Si no es un temblor de tierra en california es un huracan en la costa de florida. Si no son un bonton de asesinatos en nicaragua es la muerte de un cristiano en Odessa.

Pero fijese, nos gusta leer de cosas asi. Cuando miramos un articulo asi en la prensa lo compramos antes que se acaben todas

No es verdad que somos una gente mala, pero nuestro conducto hay cambiado. El conducto es algo mucho mas diferente de lo verdaderamente pensamos. La actitud de nosotros es algo mas diferente que nuestro conducto.

Es como la gente del sur de los estados unidos. Ellos en anos atras pensaban muy malo de los negros. Pero el gobierno de los estados y tambien federal paso muchas leyes prohibiendo discriminación contra los negros y mexicanos

Y entre los anos el conducto de esta gente cambio. Si uno estra dun restaurante de un blanco (en el sur); el bianco le va a preguntar que si como esta y que le gustaria

Pero lo hace por que tiene que Su conducto fue cambiado por la ley. Pero la actitud de ese blanco puede ser mucho mas diferente.

Por eso digo, piense antes que hable y fijese si lo que dice es la accion de su conducto o de su actitudes. Y fijese si es lo mismo cuando uno leye de la degracia de un persona en la prensa.

Acuerdese, no es bueno hablar nomas asi de alguien. Porque el que escupe para arriba a la cara le Opiniones expresadas en este articulo son ideas del autor y no reflectan las ideas de la administra-cion de esta prensa.

Women discuss spacial improvements in homes

"Making the Most of Space in room is needed Your Home" was the program Almost any presented by Nadine Hodnett and Jean Cantrell at the City Extension Homemakers Club meeting April 12 in the home of Marie Daniels.

Three methods help add space in most homes - to extend out, go up or add a new wing. Members related various ways that space had been added to their homes.

Many points were given on how to use unused space, especially as the family increases and more in the home of Opal Wooten.

Almost any house built on an average-size lot can accommodate at least one additional room, said Hodnett and Cantrell. This will require the assistance of a reputable builder, contractor or architect in planning an exterior addition. They will know local codes and zoning regulations and will help in developing a plan that is appropriate to the existing structure.

The next meeting will be April 26

Laminectomy fixes spine disc bulge

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My leg straight. How important is numbness was diagnosed as a herniated disc. A laminectomy is the answer, according to my doctors. They very carefully have told me what that is, but dumb me cannot grasp it. What is actually going to be cut so that the spine can be corrected? Should that correct the leg problem? — O.T.N.

Once the cause has been identified as a spinal disc bulging and pressing on nerves serving the leg area, then removing that bulge should correct the problem.

The term, laminectomy, can be confusing. The lamina is a flat platelike structure that overlies the central spinal column. Cutting a tiny portion of that (laminectomy) exposes the problem area, the disc that has herniated.

I had better also explain that each section of spinal column is separated by discs, whose center is a jelly-like material. They are surrounded by tough rims of fibers. If the fibers weaken or become disturbed, the jelly oozes out, pressing against nerves. That's the

So your laminectomy is a surgical procedure to open a part of your spinal cord to get at the disc and remove it. I hope it is going to end your leg misery.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My husband has Parkinson's and is against taking medicine because he has seen in print how physical therapy is best. Please set him possible.

physical therapy? — K.D.

I had to telescope your much longer letter, but I certainly hope I saved enough to point up your problem and the need to get the medicine. It is needed, quite simply, to help make up for the lack of the brain chemical, dopamine, a deficiency of which causes the muscle problem.

But he is correct in feeling that physical therapy is important. Affected muscles can often be retrained, and muscle areas not affected can be taught to take over some of the functions of others. In this sense it is like therapy for the stroke victim.

Mom thinks grandparents failed their duty

DEAR ABBY: My problem? I feel slighted because neither my parents nor my husband's have ever offered to watch our children so we could get away for an evening or a weekend. In the four years that "Gary" and I have been parents, my folks have taken our kids for a grand total of two hours! And Gary's parents have had them overnight five times.

Both sets of parents live an hour away, and all four grandparents are healthy, able to drive, semiretired and fairly well-to-do.

I realize our parents don't owe us anything, but when our friends tell us how often their parents ask to keep their grandkids (sometimes four and five days at a time!), I resent the fact that Gary and I get help from our parents once in a blue moon - and then only when

Police intensify search for reputed Neo-Nazi

BRANSON, Mo. (AP) — Police intensified their search of the rugged Ozark Mountains for a reputed neo-Nazi Wednesday, and said he abandoned an arsenal of automatic weapons after he fatally shot a state trooper and wounded

A van driven by the suspect, David Tate, contained six machine guns, three handguns, a sniper rifle, two assault rifles, dynamite, hand grenades, a pint whiskey bottle filled with nitrogylcerine, boxes of silencers and tools for making gun parts, authorities said.

"This was an arsenal. I don't know any way to describe it other than that," Highway Patrol Lt. Ralph Biele said at a news conference.

Many of the items, which also included thousands of rounds of ammunition, police scanners, knives, camping equipment, ski masks and four birth certificates for Tate aliases, were hidden beneath a false floor in the van, Biele said. Tate, 22, of Athol, Idaho, has not been sighted since he fled into the wooded area near the Missouri-Arkansas border after the fatal shooting Monday of Trooper Jimmie Linegar, 31, and the wounding of Trooper Allen Hines, 35, with a silencer-equipped, automatic pistol during a routine traffic check.

Senators criticize Reagan's visit ## to German military cemetery

WASHINGTON (AP) - Fiftythree senators Wednesday criticized President Reagan's plan to visit a German military cemetery where some Nazi soldiers are buried and urged him to find "a more appropriate gesture of reconciliation.

Reagan, however, said he saw nothing wrong with his plan to visit the cemetery and added that the furor over his initial decision not to go to a concentration camp site trip was "based on speculation and

Sen. Howard M. Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, released a copy of a letter to Reagan signed by the senators from both parties. The letter, dated April 15, said the president "should not honor soldiers who fell in defense of the Third Reich and its many atrocities.'

The president has said he plans to visit the cemetery at Bitburg as a gesture of solidarity with the West German government, a key U.S. ally.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective May 6, 1985, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Public Utility Commission of Texas has received the application as Docket 6200.

While proposals as to specific rates vary, it is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 10.5 percent increase in the Company's unadjusted test year intrastate revenues or a 9.7% increase in test year revenues as adjusted for test year customer growth and annualization of test year rate increases. The rate application seeks an annual increase of $323.9 million in revenues. All customers and classes of customers of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company within

Most rates proposed for increase would increase by about 18.5 percent, including local exchange rates. However, there are some exceptions. For example, those customers residing in cities that will be reclassified into larger rate groups will experience local exchange rate increases greater than 18.5 percent. Also, the rate increases proposed for private line services in El Paso, due to a proposal to restructure such rates, are greater

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas and with each affected incorporated municipality served by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's rate application. This filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for local exchange service, intraLATA long distance, intra-LATA interexchange private line service (which includes foreign exchange service) and to decrease certain access service rates.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

This filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for intraLATA long distance and for intraLATA, interexchange private line service (which includes foreign exchange service) and to decrease certain access service rates. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide certain services in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's tariffs.

Notice to All Customers Concerning Access Charges and Certain New Service Charges Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, as a part of this filing, is also proposing to reduce certain access rates charged such customers as AT&T Communications, Inc., MCI and other carriers. The resulting reduction in revenues is proposed to be offset by revenues from two new service charges, late payment charges applicable to business customers only and for certain operator services such as busy line verification, plus stimulation of access service charge revenues. Since this portion of the filing, if granted, would have essentially a zero net revenue effect on Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is proposing that this portion of the filing be expeditiously handled by the Commission and not await Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Aviso Público

En conformidad con las disposiciones de la Comisión de Servicios Públicos de Texas, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company anuncia mediante el presente aviso su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel de tarifas telefónicas en Texas, con vigencia a partir del 6 de mayo de 1985, salvo disposición en contrario de la Comisión. La Comisión de Servicios Públicos de Texas a registrado esta solicitud baio el Docket 6200.

Si bien existe variación entre las propuestas en cuanto a las tarifas precisas, se anticipa que el arancel tarifario solicitado aumentará en un 10.5% los ingresos intraestatales no ajustados de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company durante el año de prueba, o sea, un aumento del 9.7 por ciento en los ingresos del año de prueba, después de realizar el ajuste por la expanción de los usuarios y por la anualización del aumento de tarifas para el año de prueba. El objeto de esta solicitud de tarifas es lograr un aumento anual en los ingresos de $323.9 milliones. Los cambios propuestos de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company en el estado

La mayoría de las tarifas que resultarían afectadas por el propuesto aumento aumentarían aproximadamente en un 18.5 por ciento, incluyendo las tarifas de centrales locales. Sin embargo, existen algunas excepciones. Por ejemplo, los usuarios que residen en ciudades que se reclasificarán para formar parte de grupos tarifarios mayores experimentarán aumentos mas elevados del 18.5 por ciento. Por otra parte, los aumentos de las tarifas propuestas para servicios de línea privada en El Paso aumentarían en más de 18.5 por ciento, como resultado de una propuesta para reestructurar tales tarifas.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel de tarifas se halla archivada en las oficinas de la Comisión de Servicios Públicos en Austin, Texas, así como en cada municipalidad incorporada afectada que tenga servicio de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa se ha sujeta a cambio toda vez que Southwestern Bell Telephone Company solicite nuevas tarifas. El registro de esta tarifa incluye, pero no en forma limitativa, las propuestas de aumentar las tarifas por servicios de centrales locales, de larga distancia intraLATA y por servicios de línea privada interLATA entre centrales (incluyendo servicios de centrales externas) así como las propuestas de reducir ciertas tarifas de servicio Aviso a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono El registro de esta tarifa incluye, pero no en forma limitativa, las propuestas de aumentar las tarifas por servicios de larga distancia intraLATA y por servicios de línea privada intraLATA entre centrales (incluyendo servicios de centrales externas) así como las propuestas de reducir ciertas tarifas de servicio de acceso. Los cambios en dichas tarifas también afectarían a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono, puesto que dichas compañías proporcionan ciertos servicios de acuerdo con las tarifas especificadas en los aranceles tarifarios de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Aviso a todos los clientes con respecto a los cargos de acceso y a determinados cargos nuevos Al registrar esta tarifa, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company también propone reducir ciertas tarifas de acceso que se les cobran a clientes como AT&T Communications, Inc., MCI y otras compañías de larga distancia. La consecuente reducción de ingresos se piensa compensar por medio de dos cargos nuevos de servicio (cargos por pago atrasado que se aplicarían solamente a usuarios comerciales, y cargos por ciertos servicios de operadora, tales como verificación de línea ocupada) además de la estimulación de los ingresos por cargos por servicios de acceso. En vista de que, en caso de otorgarse esta parte del arancel tarifario registrado, su efecto real en los ingresos de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company seria igual a cero, ésta pro-pone que la Comisión tramite dicha parte de la tarifa en rma expeditiva sin esperar la Orden Definitiva.

Toda persona que desee intervenir o participar en el presente proceso debe notificar a la Comisión lo antes posible. Las solicitudes de intervención, participación o información deben dirigirse a: Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Para obtener mayor información debe llamar a Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division, (512) 458-0223, o (512) 458-0227, o al (512) 458-0221 si requiere teletipo para personas con

76ers go one up on Bullets

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Moses Malone scored 26 points and Julius Erving added 24 for the Philadelphia 76ers, who rallied late in the final period to beat the Washington Bullets 104-97 Wednesday night in the opening game of their best-of-five first-round National Basketball Association playoff series.

Cliff Robinson collected 24 points and Jeff Ruland, who missed 43 of the Bullets' last 44 games with a shoulder injury, scored 20 points for Washington.

The second game of the series will be played at the Spectrum here Sunday and the third game Wednesday on the Bullets' home court in Landover, Md. The fourth game, if needed, will be played at andover the following Sunday.

Philadelphia tied the score at 92-92 on a follow-up shot by Erving with 4:37 remaining in the game. Gus Williams sent the Bullets ahead 93-92 with a free throw 16 seconds later. The 76ers then scored seven con-

Area tracksters ready for district

By STEVE BELVIN Staff Writer

Area tracksters can put all their past performances behind them because they don't mean a thing. What counts is the district meets which boys and girls all over Texas will be taking part in them weekend in hope of a berth in regionals.

Crossrads Country athletes will be vying in district meets this Friday and Saturday. The first two finishers in each event advance to the regional meet.

Colorado City, Coahoma, Klondike and Borden County will head to their district meets Friday, while the District 6-A meet in Forsan will last Friday and Saturday. Colorado City and Coahoma will journey to Sonora for the meet that begins at 1 p.m., starting with field events. Other schools entered in the 7-3A meet is Sonora, Ballinger, Ozona and Crane.

The boys battle will come down between Colorado City and Sonora. C-City has the top 1600 and 400 relay times and the top sprinter in Conner and pole vaulter Armando Rivera are other top performers. Both the Coahoma and C-City girls have outside chances to challenge for the title.

C-City is led by sprinter-jumper Sandra Williams, who is nursing a pulled muscle. Colorado City also has the top times in the 400 and 800 relays. Sheri Fite in the 400 meters and Stacy Free in the 200 should also fare well. Coahoma has the best 1600 relay time by nine seconds and has a good shot to gain a regional berth in the 400 relay. They are led by freshman sprinter Nancy Har-Gina Hudson is a top hopeful along and Shona Drewery in the 800. Running prelims get underway at 3:30 p.m. and finals start at 6:30 with Leslie Kirkpatrick in the 400

Klondike and Borden County will try their luck at the District 10-A meet in Klondike that begins with field events at 9:30 and running prelims at 9:30 a.m. Finals get started at 2:30 p.m.

The Klondike boys will go into the meet with top marks in the 400 and 1600 relays. Scott Runge is a hopeful in the 300 hurdles. Borden County's top hope is Chris Cooley in the sprints.

The District 6-A meet will be held in Forsan with field events and running prelims starting at 5 p.m. Running finals will start at 2 p.m.

Teams entered are Forsan. Garden City, Roscoe, Highland, Ira, Loraine, Sands, Sterling City, Westbrook, Grady and Hermleigh.

Both Forsan teams might figure in the team championships. The 1600 relays. The Buffaloes also started at 8:30 a.m., while finals get have a strong sprint field led by Mitch Hays, Bobby Headricks and

Howard College basketball standout Michael Porter signed a one year renewable scholarship to attend Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Porter, who was named to the first team All-WJCAC team this year, averaged 17.6 points, 6 rebounds and 4.7 assists a game for the Hawks during the 1984-85 season. The 6-4 guard is slated for the second guard position for the Deacons, who play in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Porter was courted by a number of colleges and universities around the country including, Wyoming, Indiana State, Ole Miss and Montana State. He narrowed the choice down to Wyoming and Wake Forest after visiting both campuses. He gave the nod to the Deacon's after learning that all of Wake Forest's guards would be graduating. Wyoming had a lot to offer, including some great travel opportunities," said Porter. "But I really got along well with the coaches and players at Wake, and the ACC gets as much exposure as any conference in the country, so I'm happy with my decision. Porter will don his Howard College uniform for the last time this Friday in Waco during the Hall of Fame All-Star game. The game features the best basketball players from Texas' Junior Colleges.

When asked about the transition he will have to make from junior college ball to a Division I powerhouse, Porter was confident. The conference Howard plays in (Western Junior College Athletic Conference) is considered to be the toughest in the country and that will definitely be in my favor, but it' still going to be tough. The ACC layers are bigger and stronger, so I'll have work hard in the offseason to make the starting lineup."

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thursday, April 18, 1985

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1985

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The earliest part of the day is best for you to get into the various means by which you can wind up the plans and arrangements which have already been in your mind.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) During the day, be sure to carry through with any plans made yesterday and be particularly careful. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Put some new plan in operation during the day and in the evening, go after personal matters that are pressing.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Pursue intimate aims in the morning, but tonight, concentrate on your most secret wish. Be thoughtful of friends.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) You can get much done in the business world during the day, but later concentrate on personal wishes.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Use your inventive ability, your ingenuity in handling new projects and get ahead faster. Plan how to gain greater prestige.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Handle your business affairs brilliantly during the day, but later gain data you need from an extender.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Discuss some new plan with your partners and then get into the minutiae of such. Show that you are ethical and reliable.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You can get much work done during the day that can bring fine benefits. Make right arrangements with your associates.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Early make appointment of the foreign and later.

pointments of a social nature for the future and later get into that workload and clear it up. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Concentrate upon home affairs in the morning, but reserve the evening for simple and wholesome pleasures.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get busy early at correspondence and other communications and later enjoy your family at home. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Plan how best to add to your present abundance during the day and confer with experts in the evening.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will easily go along with modern trends, so be sure to accord a fine education, since upon reaching adulthood, your progeny will want to make a great deal of money. Teach accepted principles and tenets early in life.

said that could include a long-term 267-5646.

Democratic Gov. John Evans of Idaho, representing the National Governors' Association, told the Senate Agriculture Committee on Monday that a new conservation reserve should "set aside land for at least 10 years" and that it could help reduce federal spending on crop price support operations. Some other groups, including the National Audubon Society and the Wildlife Management Institute, urged the committee to consider removing up to 30 million acres from crop production and putting it reserve for 20 years or longer.

One of the Agriculture Department reports - by Roy Gray of the department's Soil Conservation Service - said a 10-year conservation reserve program aimed at idling 20 million acres would cost about $9.6 billion over the entire decade, an average of slightly less than $1 billion a year.

'Over half the acres participating in the program would come from land presently planted to wheat," the report said. "The next highest participation would be soybeans, followed by corn and cotton."

The agency says there are about 421 million acres in the United States used for crops and hay. Water erosion causes a loss of about 1.8 billion tons of topsoil each year, with wind erosion adding another 1.2 billion tons.

According to a 1982 survey, about 923 million tons are lost on 41.2 million acres, which are eroding at the rate of more than 10 tons per

About one-half of the loss to water erosion occurs on 10 percent of the land, with the Corn Belt having the greatest concentration of losses. The soil lost to wind is mostly in the southern and northern Plains, including West Texas, and the mountain states.

If 20 million acres were taken from crops under the program, the average reduction in erosion would be about 19.5 tons per acre - more than 390 million tons of soil saved annually from both water and wind erosion, the report said.

Further, it said, if Congress does not include a "paid diversion" provision in the 1985 farm bill for paying farmers to take unneeded cropland from production, a 10-year conservation reserve would boost the farm price of wheat about 20 cents a bushel; corn, 10 cents a bushel; and cotton, 5 cents per pound.

The other report, written by Neill Schaller of the department's Economic Research Service, also gave high marks to the long-term conservation program.

"Retirement of surplus crop acres targeted to highly erodible land could be a cost-effective alternative for meeting both conservation and commodity program objectives," it said.
