Reagan declines bailout

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Reagan is declining, at least for now, to go along with a proposed federal bailout of the ailing Farm Credit System, demanding that Congress first show willingness to provide tougher regulation of the nation's largest farm lender.

White House spokesman Bill Hart said Thursday night that Reagan had accepted most of the recommendations of a Cabinet group that had been studying the farm credit problem.

But Reagan apparently declined to go along with the group's proposal for some guarantee of federal financial aid, which administration sources had said would be helpful in restoring the confidence of investors in Farm Credit bonds.

The group's recommendations accepted by Reagan, Hart said, call for legislation that would permit the system to use its $5.5 billion in reserve funds to shore up member banks, and grant the Farm Credit Administration greater regulatory powers, including the authority to manage bad loans.

"We are assessing the need for federal financial assistance but only if Congress is willing to legislate the accompanying restructuring," Hart said.

Frank Naylor, undersecretary of agriculture for credit matters, brought incredulous reactions from House Agriculture Committee members earlier when he contended the system is "one of the strongest financial institutions in the country."

Naylor's remark came just a day after committee members had heard pleas for a federal bailout of up to $6 billion for the cooperatively owned, 37-bank system.

Agriculture Secretary John Block emphasized to reporters that "the president hasn't closed the door on anything. ... We're not going to leave them high and Naylor characterized the bailout money request as "a cushion" to hedge against possible errors in the system's financial projections.

Burglary ring round-up to end in more arrests

By SPENCER SANDOW Staff Writer

At least three more people have been implicated and more arrests are expected in connection with a city-wide burglary ring, Big Spring police Lt. Jerry Edwards said this morning.

Three adults and one juvenile arrested Wednesday as suspects have given statements clearing between 38 and 45 business burglaries over the last six months to a year, according to a written statement issued by police.

Another adult and at least two more juveniles have been implicated in the burglaries, Edwards said.

The burglaries occurred mostly at night, and entry was gained through open doors or unsecured windows, he said.

Arrested Wednesday were Joy Diane Anderson, 22, and Troy Yules Barrett, 19, both of 1503 State; Richard Charles Clayton, 17, of 3912 Parkway; and a 16-year-old

The adults were being held this morning on $35,000 bond each on burglary charges. Anderson was being held on an additional $2,500 bond on theft charges.

The 16-year-old has been released on an order by County Judge Milton Kirby, Edwards said.

The amount of money stelen by the ring may be well over $20,000. Edwards said.

Reagan made the request for a week-long extension public on Thursday, when he announced basic outlines of the new U.S. arms control proposal. The president said the plan, a counterproposal to one offered earlier by Gorbachev, also calls for "no cheating" or arms accords and would permit research on defensive systems.

The chief U.S. chief negotiator, Max M. Kampelman, said as he entered the session at the Soviet mission that he would begin presenting the U.S. proposal today. Today's plenary session was attended by the three chief negotiators for each side in the talks dealing with strategic weaponry, medium-range arms and space and defensive systems. Chief Soviet negotiator Viktor P.

The mandatory seat belt law, passed by the 1985 Legislature, became effective Sept. 1 and fines will be levied for violators after Dec. 1. All front seat occupants of passenger cars and most pickup trucks must wear a lap belt while the vehicle is moving.

Insurance Board Chairman Lyndon Olson made the motion for a 5.1 percent reduction, based on an Sept. 19 a 1.3 percent premium decrease while the industry wanted a 10.6 percent increase.

"This decrease in premiums will be a real incentive for compliance estimated 65 percent compliance with the law," Olson said

Chemical found in wine

WASHINGTON - Consumers are being advised to return to retailers several brands of imported Reunite wine in which traces of the chemical diethylene glycol have been found.

The chemical, commonly used for industrial purposes and as an anti-freeze, can be harmful if consumed in sufficient amounts, Stephen E. Higgins, director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, said Thursday.

ATLANTA - Millions of Americans could be exposed to high levels of radon, a radioactive material shown to increase the risk of lung cancer, federal researchers say.

The national Centers for Disease Control said Thursday that hundreds of houses in southeastern Pennsylvania near natural uranium deposits contained excessive radon levels, which "may indicate a much broader national problem."

Radon is a gas formed by the breakdown of uranium-238. When inhaled along with dust, radon byproducts can settle in the lungs and damage tissue.

House vote on budget

WASHINGTON - The House was poised to vote on competing versions of a balancedbudget plan in hopes of heading off a White House threat to refill the Treasury's empty coffers with Social Security trust funds.

The House showdown could climax weeks of wrangling over whether Congress should force itself to eliminate deficits by 1991 - and give the president the power to do it if the lawmakers fail.

A House-Senate conference committee broke up Thursday night hopelessly deadlocked in its quest for a compromise balancedbudget plan that also would raise the government's borrowing authority. As a result, House leaders planned votes today on Republican and Democratic alternatives, with the winner to be sent back to the Senate.

Pilots settle strike

HOUSTON — Continental Airlines has settled a bitter, two-year pilots' strike, emerging from the fray with 40 percent more flights, record profits and a plan to pay off massive debts that drove it into reorganization.

Continental and the Air Line Pilots Association announced Thursday that they had settled their dispute in an agreement approved by U.S. Bankruptcy Judge T. Glover Roberts.

The Union of Flight Attendants and the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers ended walkouts against the airline in April.

RETIRED GEN. William Westmoreland, as he spoke to a group of Vietnam veterans at a rally in front of the Texas Capitol Thursday. The veterans are staging a march from Dallas to San Antonio, which they call "A Journey to Remember- The Last Patrol."

Stand proudly

Westmoreland acclaims Vietnam vets

AUSTIN (AP) - They donned faded uniforms. Many wore their medals. Some carried flags. A few came in wheelchairs. All heard their former commander, Gen. William Westmoreland, tell them to stand proudly.

"You men are stouthearted men. I'm glad to be among you," Westmoreland told Texas Vietnam veterans Thursday as their march from Dallas to San Antonio reached the state Capitol.

Westmoreland joined the marchers Wednesday night and walked several miles in what organizers call, "A Journey to Remember — The Last Patrol." Standing on the Capitol steps with former first lady Lady Bird Johnson, Westmoreland won cheers from a crowd of about 200, some 60 wearing uniforms, when he said it wasn't the veterans' fault the war was lost. Vietnam. You did what the country asked you to do,

'You men did a magnificent job on the battlefield in and you did it well," he said.

"That's right," they replied.

"The war was not lost on the battlefield by the military. It was lost by virtue of public opinion here in the United States," he said.

"All right," they said.

'And as you realize - but I must say many Americans do not realize - when the North Vietnamese militarily took over South Vietnam, there were no American fighting troops on the battlefield,"

"You tell 'em, General," they shouted.

The march, which began Oct. 19, was organized by Michael Martin of Dallas and Tim Holiday of Hawkins, veterans and songwriters who said they wanted to call attention to both veterans and the plight of the missing. They also hope the 300-mile walk will raise money for a Texas Vietnam veterans memorial.

Arson victims scramble for shelter

DETROIT (AP) - City residents made homeless in the annual orgy of arson known as Devil's Night, collected their belongings and scrambled for shelter as officials tried to assess the destruction.

Almost 220 fires were set and 24 people were arrested in connection with Devil's Night incidents, police said. Three of them, including a suburban real estate agent, were charged with arson Thursday. Last year, 559 fires were set on Devil's Night and

This year, the city deployed more than 4,000 police, firefighters, citizen volunteers and political appointees Wednesday night and early Thursday in a bid to curb

Deputy Police Chief James Bannon said it would take several days before authorities determined the number of fires deliberately set for profit.

"Arson investigators have already begun checking insurance on some fires, ownership checks on others and background checks on still others," he said.

But Mayor Coleman Young said Thursday, "I'm more and more convinced, as 1 look at the figures, that we might wind up having cut incidents of fire, over the three-day period, in half:"

The Dutch were expected to go ahead with deployment of 48 missiles in 1986, bringing the Netherlands into line with four other NATO nations - Britain, West Germany, Belgium and Italy - which already have begun siting the medium-range rockets.

NATO voted in 1979 to deploy 572 mediumrange cruise and Pershing 2 missiles in the five European countries to counter what it said was a buildup of Soviet SS-20s that could reach targets in Western Europe.

Explosion kills 39

NEW DELHI, India - A gasoline tanker truck exploded into flames in a southern Indian village today, killing at least 39 people and injuring more than 80 others, a news

The United News of India, a private news agency, said the explosion occurred in Padaval village in Karnataka state, about 775 miles south of New Delhi.

Shiites stick to gun

BAALBEK, Lebanon - A radical Shiite Moslem leader says freedom for Americans kidnapped in Lebanon depends on whether Kuwait releases a group of extremists convicted of bombing the U.S. and French embassies there.

Hussein Musawi, leader of the pro-Iranian Islamic Amal, said Islamic Jihad, the shadowy Shiite group believed to hold the U.S. hostages along with four missing Frenchman, will not release them until the 17 people held prisoner in Kuwait are freed.'

Sewage clogs bayous

HOUSTON - Officials of the newly reorganized Texas Water Commission, which has just begun an inspection tour of the Houston area, say they are shocked at the amount of raw sewage that is pouring in Houston's bayous.

Almost 25 million gallons of raw sewage flow into the city's bayous on a rainy day, carrying enough pollutants to infect anyone who ventures into the water, water specialists say.

Tighten the rules against terrorists

Swift and precise extradition procedures can aid Western nations in the fight against terrorism. That's why the Senate should ratify the United States-United Kingdom Supplementary Extradition Treaty.

The present treaty, signed in 1972, allows fugitives to escape extradition on the grounds that their offenses were 'political." Since 1979, four members of the Provisional Irish Republican Army convicted of murder or attempted murder have entered and remained in the United States, shielded by this political protection clause.

The most dramatic of these cases involves Joseph Patrick Thomas Doherty, who killed a British soldier in 1981 and fled to the United States two days before his conviction. A U.S. District judge in New York City ruled that, because the victim was a soldier, the murder was a politically motivated act.

Murder, however, is a criminal act, regardless of the motive behind it or the occupation of the victim. As British Consul General Donald Ballentyne remarks, "The only way to promote one's political views is by peaceful and constitutional means: the ballot, not the bullet.'

The Supplementary Treaty unmasks terrorists posing as political refugees and is retroactive. The treaty also closes the political offense clause for those involved in crimes such as skyjacking, bombing, sabotage, and the seizure of hostages.

Yet, the revised treaty doesn't abrogate the lawful safeguards extended to accused citizens. It extends only to major crimes and doesn't diminish the requirement that there must be a substantive case against the fugitive.

Assistant Attorney General Stephen Trott correctly warns, "Right now, one of the most important things a terrorist can possess is an airline ticket to another country.

The Senate could make escape much more difficult for terrorists for ratifying the Supplementary Extradition Treaty.

Juvenile problems "Not really. There wouldn't be a democratic process if we special deserve answers interests didn't fund it. Every elected official I get out of the hole swears to uphold the Constitution

To the editor:

A young man named Bill Elder passed through our town. While here he wrote for the Herald. In April 1982 he did a series of articles on juvenile delinquency in Howard County. The articles were wellresearched and comprehensive.

After the series of articles, an editorial appeared entitled "Let's Help our Juveniles." The editorial made an impression on us. We had copies printed and distributed them in the community. Today, three years later, the thoughts contained in it are still important.

We feel the need for creative concern directed toward solutions suggested by the young man who ex-plored our local delinquency situation. If possible, we would like to see the editorial appear again in the Herald.

Currently, our County Commissioners are being asked to take definite steps to bring our county into alignment with the federal mandate which requires that by December 8, Howard County will provide separate housing for juvenile offenders. They need our interest and support in this decision. Our district and county judges need to know that we care about youth who break the law.

A related issue is adequate funding for the Big Spring Boy's Club and West Side Community Center. These organizations work with children and youth before they become delinquent. They, also, provide warmth and a caring situation for youngsters with wayward tendencies. Many of our troubled youth are experiencing internal conflicts. Our community desperately needs the services which these two United Way agen-

I recently read an article by John Rice on seat belts and I wholeheartedly concur. The auto is the most dangerous weapon ever made by man and seat belts won't make them safe. Only the driver can make them safe.

If the powers in being want to save my life then I suggest they go to the source of the problem, (drivers) and educate them better with stricter driving requirements such as tests, demonstrated ability, etc. and do this on a yearly

Yes, Virginia, it was divine

When Virginia was a little girl, members of our profession reassured her that yes indeed there was a Santa Claus.

Now Virginia is a woman and she's asking us if there really is a God who performs miracles.

Yes Virginia - he performed one in El Paso's Sun Bowl Stadium last Saturday as the University of Texas at El Paso Miner football team defeated the seventh-ranked and defending NCAA champions Brigham Young Cougars, 23-16.

'It was indeed a miracle," said radio play-by-play man Jon Teicher of KHEY-AM in El Paso. Teicher, who's been covering Miner games the last five years, was confirming earlier media observations and quotes alluding to the game's final outcome as "a miracle.

"I think several of the Miners played the games of their lives but "it was indeed genuine," Teicher said.

An Associated Press writer in his examination by a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force weekly sports roundup referred to Reserve who had served as commander of an aeromedical evacuation squadron for six years. The UTEP's stunning upset as ranking psychiatrist found Sumrall "as well or better suited right up there with the miracle New York Mets of 1969 and the U.S. for an Air Force career as the majority of the ofhockey team in the 1980 Winter Olympics. Sumrall also obtained a statement from the doctor

The writer said oddsmakers, aware that the previously winless Miners had a horrid 14-107 record over the past 11 seasons, didn't even bother to issue a point spread on the game.

Well sir — the record is 15-107

"At this time, I feel that the psychiatric evaluation I performed 13 February 1981 — while a psychiatric Miner coach Bill Yung said after the game that he's "been praying resident in training - was unduly biased by evidence which has since been proven to be incorand beating the drum for so long... the Lord must have sore rect, to my satisfaction. "Perhaps it was a miracle," Yung later said, "but you know that I believe in miracles.'

So you see Virginia - during this confusing time when most Americans are delinquent in their credit card payments or undecided as to which cable television station to subscribe to # there is a God justment Disorder" instead of "Schizoid Personality upstairs performing miracles.

He appeared last Saturday in El Paso wearing a helmet and toting a pick and shovel.

He struck a vein of gold in the mountains surrounding the Sun Bowl Stadium which resurrected the UTEP football program.

Beware false Bible claims ancestors is less important than what will happen to DEAR DR. GRAHAM: My uncle belongs to a small religious group that believes it alone understands the Bible correctly. He says the churches have misunderstood the Bible for centuries and have also misunderstood who Jesus was. Do you think this is right? - G.S.

> DEAR G.S.: No, it is not right. Of course, that does not mean Christians have always understood every part of the Bible's message correctly. For example, at one time some people tried to use the Bible to defend slavery; at other times, some Christians have failed to see clearly the Bible's command to spread the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

But I gather this is not what your uncle is talking about. The group to which he belongs claims every part of the Bible's messsage has been misunderstood until now. But that is not the case.

In spite of their differences (many of which are very superficial), Christians have always agreed on such essential truths from the Bible as the sinful nature of humanity, the divinity of Jesus, and the necessity for us to be committed to Jesus Christ for our salvation. You are right to be suspicious of any group which claims it alone has the key to understand the Scriptures.

Raineesh's followers demonstrate

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — About 500 red-robed disciples of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, jailed on federal charges in the United States, demonstrated in two Indian cities today to demand the release of the guru they called a "delicate flower."

"They are torturing our master in jail. The inhumane conditions there deeply hurt our feelings,' said Swami Anand Swambhava, spokesman for the 200 people who took part in the 90-minute demonstration.

Rajneesh, 53, was arrested Mon-day in Charlotte, N.C. U.S. authorities said he was attempting to flee the country to avoid prosecution.

The demonstrations in New Delhi and the western port city of Bombay were peaceful and held near United States diplomatic missions.

Rajneesh was indicated by a federal grand jury on charges he and his followers covered up sham marriages between his American disciples and foreigners who came with him to the United States.

Rajneesh, now held in the Mecklenburg County Jail in North Carolina, is also charged with attempting to flee the country to avoid prosecution and lying to the Immigration and Naturalization Service to conceal his intent to remain permanently in the United

"AIDS victims are people in need, and the New Testament clearly teaches ministering to people in need," says James M. Efird. "The issue is simply a person or a group of persons in need.'

Efird, who also is editor of a series of books on contemporary Christian concerns for the United Methodist Abingdon Press, suggests the church community assume a constructive role of educator, disseminating factual information that could contribute to a decline in panic and prejudice.

AIDS, a fatal disease that criples the body's immune system mainly has affected homosexuals.

WINCOTE, Pa. (AP) - The Rev. James E. Wagner, who played a key role in the merger in 1957 of the Evangelical Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches into the United Church of Christ, died Oct. 19 in the Wincote Church Home: He was 85. He had been president of the Evangelical Reformed Church and later served as co-president of the United Church until 1961.

DURHAM, N. C. (AP) - A Duk Pa., told participants in a "Jesus Day" weekend that the church should return to Christ's view of women, reports the archdiocesan weekly, Chicago Catholic.

> NEW YORK (AP) - Rather than being charged with "crimes of passion," the 11 sanctuary movement workers on trial in Tucson, Ariz., are charged with "alleged crimes of compassion," says the general secretary of the National Council of Churches.

They are not "being prosecuted because they are a threat to their neighbors and their society," the Rev. Arie Brouwer told a news conference, but "for attempting to live out the love of God. Their crime is to have helped refugees from Central America to avoid being sent back to the nightmare of violence and death from which they fled."

WACO, Texas (AP) — A Baptist layman says Southern Baptists are in danger of losing their cherished principle of liberty in a drive by a fundamentalist wing against alleged liberals in Baptist institutions.

"They claim we must abolish freedom to guard against heresy" Norman Cavender, a Georgia farmer, told a laity conference at Baylor University. "They say, "we must do away with doctrinal freedom to protect the Bible."

He said that "cheap scare tactic has been the stock and trade of dictators since the beginning of history, used to frighten people into surrendering liberty." He said the process can be seen clearly "in the onslaught against our teaching institutions and publications.'

Dear Abby

Trail leads into littered past

DEAR ABBY: I have been living with a man for two years. I'm 20 and he's 29. We both know we want to get married eventually. He was my first and only lover. He told me that I was the first girl he ever loved and he was a virgin before he met me. I found that hard to believe, but I did believe him.

Recently, while home alone, I accidentally came across some letters he had received from various women. I read them and learned that he had lived with at least two other women and had love relationships with a third. This would not have bothered me so much if he had not told me otherwise.

When I would ask him about his past, he said he didn't have any that I was his first love.

I feel so hurt and betrayed. I feel the need to do something, but I future with him.

What is your advice?

BETRAYED DEAR BETRAYED: You may have accidentally come across some personal correspondence, but you deliberately read it. (That you ould not have done.) You owe him an apology for violating his privacy, and he owes you an explanation of why he felt it necessary to present himself as a virginal lover.

Now that you know he is capable of deception and he knows that you are capable of snooping, chalk it up to a good learning experience, and don't turn your back on each other.

want your input before I do DEAR ARBY: Thanks to "In something rash. I love him very Love in Oregon" — the Romeo who much and don't want to ruin my wrote to say he had a "fabulous" wrote to say he had a "fabulous" weekend at Harris Beach with a nice girl from Grants Pass, but he didn't catch her last name — now I know where my wife went last weekend. She's a Dear Abby fan, so after she reads this, she might want "In Love" to come back and help her PETE IN

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I've without anybody finding out. never discussed this problem with H.D. anyone. I have an undescended testicle and read your reference to it in a column recently. Because you feel this way, I've given you new initials. That's not because an undescended testicle is such a rare occurrence. It's seen on numerous occasions. Doctors are quite used to dealing with it. It's inconceivable that a physician would ridicule a patient with the

The fact, plain and simple, is that a testicle did not descend into the scrotal sac during development as it should have. There is a higher risk of cancer developing here than in a normally descended one. That's another fact.

And there is a chance that another problem, inguinal hernia, taken care of. I would like to have a may be present, and the doctor prosthesis put into the scrotum would check for that. It happens in nine out of 10 cases. All you need say to your friends is that you are going in for a hernia exploration.

You are not a freak. You will not be written up in medical journals and you will receive no ridicule. And yes, a prosthetic testicle can be implanted. My reaction to your story is a mixture of sympathy and a bit of astonishment that you would delay much-needed attention for such reasons.

Do you often have a "stomach ache"? If so, your stomach may not be the real trouble spot. The booklet, "Stomach and Other Abdominal Pains: A Checklist," tells you why. Big Spring (2-6) at Abilene (4-3-1)

This game pits Big Spring's high powered offense against the stingy defense of Abilene High in a battle that is hard to predict. The Steers should be sky high after beating Odessa High, No. 15 in the state, last week. The Eagles took themselves out of the district race with a pair of osses to OHS and Midland Lee the past two games.

The Eagles have been rough on opposing running backs but the Steers will counter with 4-5A's best passing attack against a talented but untested AHS secondary. The Eagles could suprise Big Spring with some passing of their own.

If the Steer defense, which has improved immensly in the past two games, can keep from giving up the big play, the Steers could pull

Big Spring 24, Abilene High 21

Coahoma (2-6) at Ozona (1-7)

Coahoma is still suffering from lingering injuries to their backfield personnel and have had little or no offensive production the past two games. Ozona has only won a single ball game, but they've played nearly everyone tough.

If the Bulldog quarterback Brian Calaway can return to early season form and new tailback Gary Vaughn continues his tough running, Coahoma might reverse their woeful five game losing streak. The Bulldogs will snap back this week, but it won't be easy.

Coahoma 14, Ozona 13

This game will play a big role in determining who makes the playoffs behind first place Ballinger. Both these teams have shown signs of brilliance at times during the season, but inconsistentcy has kept both Colorado City's Sammy Rivera is a dominating running back but the Wolves must get some additional yardage from quarterback Mike Ligon on the ground or by passing.

Stanton (3-5) at Wall (0-8)

Usually powerful Wall is having its worst season in a long time, but they have played even the good teams tough. Stanton will not have an easy chore against a wall team that is down to its last chance to win a game this season.

Kevin Glaspie has been throwing the ball well in the late season but the Buffs need a ground game to compliment the passing.

Stanton will keep it's remote playoff hopes and the Wall losing streak alive, but not without a battle.

Stanton 14, Wall 10

Sands (3-5) at Roby (1-7)

The Sands Mustangs need this game desperately to snap a five-game losing streak. Meanwhile this might be the last legitimate chance for the Lions from Roby to win a district game.

Sands is coming off a heartbreaking 28-6 loss to Garden City, a game ands coaches and players felt they should have won. Meanwhile Roby was drummed by district powerhouse Roscoe. Roby is a better team than its record indicates, afterall they are the only district team to score on Roscoe. The Lions will play the Mustangs hard in front of the home crowd.

Sands expects running back-linebacker Jay Fryar to be in better shape for this contest, which means alot to the team. The Sands offense won't turn the ball over like last week and penalities won't kill poien-

The Mustangs will have to earn this win and it won't come easy. Sands 18, Roby 12

Klondike (0-8) at Meadow (5-2-1)

One thing about the Klondike Cougars, you have to admire their courage. They get beat up on every week but they still come back, which says alot for a squad full of 120-130 pound underclassmen.

This week won't be any different. The Cougars will fight a tough battle but lose the war. Meadow has playoff hopes on its mind and just has too much firepower for undermanned Klondike.

One bright spot for the Coogs, the Bryan Kirkland to John Matthews passing combination will get their team on the scoreboard. Meadow 35, Klondike 7

Garden City (4-4) at Loraine (2-6)

The Bearkats are coming off an impressive win over Sands. Mean while Loraine took a good one the chin by powerful Forsan. Garden City is on a roll with as two-game winning streak. A win here will assure them of a successful district record. The Bearkat line will have to do a good job of opening up holes against a big Loraine front. If the offensive line comes through look for hard runners Abby Madrid and Trey Willey to put the Loraine defense through a stern

Garden City 20, Loraine 14

Grady (3-5) at Highland (4-3)

This is a game for all the marbles. Whoever wins this has a almostsure trip to the playoffs.

Unfortunately the Grady Wildcats are hurting with injuries and comng off 84-38 thrashing by Ira.

The Wildcats will make a strong bid in front of the home folks to reach the playoffs for the second consecutive year. But it's hard when you have a healthy quarterback and a hobbled supporting cast. Besides, Highland has one of the best, if not the best, defense in the zone. Luis Gonzales will try to lead his troops to the promised land, but Highland 45, Grady 38 = it won't be enough.

This is the game we've all been waiting for. Two prennial powers destined for a collision course. Now it's here. It will be a nasty Forsan defense against a highly explosive Roscoe Roscoe will find out just how nasty that Forsan defense is. Their Veer attack will have to work for every yard. Meanwhile Forsan's offensive game plan won't be spectacular but it will get the job done.

Hard running Wayne Wright and Bruce Strickland will eventually wear the Roscoe defense down. Forsan earns its undefeated regular season here tonight.

Rose signs $1 million contract

CINCINNATI (AP) - Cincinnati Reds player-manager Pete Rose clowned with a bottle of champagne before Reds owner Marge Schott announced she had signed Rose to a contract apparently worth $1 million next season.

Schott brought out champagne for Thursday's news conference to announce the new three-year deal for Rose, who managed the Reds to a second-place finish in the National League West and broke Ty Cobb's major-league career hit record of 4,191 in 1985.

Schott said Rose's contract was worth $1 million. She did not say whether that is Rose's annual pay or the overall amount of the contract, and Jim Ferguson, the Reds' vice president for publicity, said he did not know the contract amount.

But the Reds said that the new pact makes Rose the highest-paid manager in major league baseball, and it is known that Earl Weaver recently signed to manage the Baltimore Orioles for $600,000 a

The Cincinnati Enquirer, in an unattributed report, said today that Rose's contract would pay him $1 million a year in 1986 and 1987 and at least $750,000 in 1988.

USA Today said the contract was worth $1 million for '86, at least $800,000 for '87 and $640,000 for '88. In addition, the newspaper said, Rose signed a players contract, meaning that his salary cann't be cut by more than 20 percent a year.

Rose told reporters Thursday that he understood his salary would decrease somewhat in 1988 if he chose just to manage and no longer play that year.

Rose, 44, seized a bottle of champagne just prior to the news conference at Riverfront Stadium and pretended that he was going to empty it onto Schott. She smiled and said, "Next year," an apparent reference to her hopes of having a champagne-drenched championship celebration at the end of the 1986 season.

Rose's old $225,000 contract expired Thursday. He said he and Reds officials wore smiles as they wrapped up negotiations for his new contract last week at a fivehour session between Rose, his lawyer, Reuven Katz, and Reds officials Cincinnati Reds player-manager PETE ROSE jokingly pretends to pour a bottle of champagne on Reds owner MARGE SCHOTT during a press conference at Riverfront Stadium Thursday afternoon. ROSE announced that he had signed a new three year contract.

"Pete Rose - One in a Million." Rose said he intends to play as long as he feels he can contribute as a player.

"I'll play whenever I think I can help the ballclub," Rose said. "How long do I intend on playing? As long as I can do the job.

"The thing that helps me as a manager is my ability to get along with people, to communicate,' Rose said Schott said the contract amount is intended "not so much as salary, but to reward him for what he has done. Last season, Rose collected 107 hits to set a new major-league career total of 4,204. In his first full season as Reds player-manager, bearing red lettering that read, he directed the club to a 1985 season record of 89-72-1, good for second in the National League West. The 19-game improvement from the Reds' 1984 record of 70-92 was the best in the major leagues.

"I'm more excited about 1986 than I was about 1985, and you all know how exicted I was about 1985," Rose told reporters. "We got the thing going in the right direction, both on the field and off the field.

Rose said his old $225,000 contract expired Thursday. He said his new contract does not depend on the number of fans the Reds draw, and does not require him to play any certain number of games. Some critics, including a few Reds players, have suggested that and lacks power at the plate, he should bench himself in favor of using younger players regularly.

Rose noted Thursday, however, that the Reds were 64-46 in games he started. "It didn't seem like I was hurting the team," he said. Rose, a native of Cincinnati, said he and Katz did not try to negotiate with other clubs because Rose wanted to remain with the Reds. "Reuven and I know how important the Reds are to me," Rose Rose, who began his major league career with Cincinnati in 1963, batted .264 in 119 games in 1985. He platooned at first base with veteran Tony Perez and said he plans to continue that because Rose is comparatively old arrangement.

USFL undecided 1986 schedule

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) - The United States Football League will resume play in the fall of 1986, but franchise owners are at odds over how many teams will start the

"We want eight strong teams," said Myles Tanenbaum of the Baltimore Stars during a break in the league's owners meeting late Thursday. "Then we know we can go ahead and do it.'

"I think we'll probably play football with 10 teams," said the Memphis Showboats' William B. Duna-vant Jr. "It all depends." Other owners have said privately that the 15 teams now on the league's roster will be trimmed to 12 before the USFL ends its 15-month hiatus next fall. Dunavant said Thursday that money is the determining factor. The teams have to post three $500,000 letters of credit with the league before play resumes next the two documents that are now due, Dunavant said. "I think we'll have eight teams and maybe nine with their letter of credit up before we leave here, Dunavant said. The Showboats' owner said his team is one of those which will be playing next year. He would not speculate on which franchises will be canceled or placed on inactive

"I think I want to leave that until tomorrow," Dunavant said.

PORECAST FOR SATURDAY, NOV. 2, 1985

GENERAL TENDENCIES. A day to avoid allowing your feelings to get hurt by arguing with someone. Consider what your ambitions are and consider a course of action to make them a part of your life.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Fundamental affairs could be extended in the morning, but later you may wonder if you did right.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Come to a finer understanding with partners, and then handle routine affairs which could be a little difficult. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Try not to spend more than you can afford in the morning, but later you can make bigger plans for the days ahead MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) You may think you are being imposed upon, but cast that out of your mind, and then you will get what you want. LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) You have some private worries that could cause you to act irrationally, if you permit. Be objective and handle such matters well. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Don't overdo, but plan how to gain your ambitions wisely. Try not to be angry with good friends, you are just tired.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Do nothing that can eopardize your position. If a bigwig gives you a bad time, say nothing; blame it on the planets. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You are in the mood for expansion and can study ways and means for such. but don't take action as yet. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Not a good day to reach important decisions since you are relying only on your intuition. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have to use tact with a partner who is irate today or there can be real trouble between you. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Although you are not in the mood for work, you had better get at it efficiently and reap the benefits. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You had better be content with simple pleasures since the elaborate ones are beyond your means right now.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will need much encouragement in order to accomplish a great deal. One who will be fine at helping others out of dilemmas and have much compassion for fellow man. Teach to be more objective so as not to develop a martyr complex. One who needs good spiritual training.
