Study: High taxes stunt growth

AUSTIN (AP) -- Low taxes tend to spark economic growth in states, while high taxes generally slow it down, a new study concludes.

"High-growth states have had dramatically lower income and property taxes than low-growth states," said Melvin Greenhut, a Texas A&M University economics professor and author of the study. Greenhut said income taxes destroy incentives for people to work harder and save money, thus reducing investment and a state's productive capacity.

The results of his study were released Wednesday by the privately funded Center for Education and Research in Free Enterprise.

The study comes at a time when some Texas politicians have said the state may need to enact a corporate or individual income tax to offset losses in tax revenue from oil and gas. Texas never has had an income tax.

Greenhut said his study shows that when state governments find it necessary to raise revenue, the best results generally come from taxes on consumption.

Such taxes "do not carry incentive-destroying effects on production," he said. Besides raising more money for the state, sales and luxury taxes also encourage savings as a way of avoiding additional taxes, Greenhut said.

"Savings, in turn, permit more investment to occur," he said. "Simply put, sales taxes do not appear to have the same debilitating effect on growth that income and property taxes have."

In the long term, higher income taxes produce lower tax receipts for government than could otherwise be obtained, Greenhut said.

According to his study, only three of 37 states with "high" income taxes had above-average growth between 1969 and 1976.

Best, worst polluters on TWC list

AUSTIN (AP) -- The Texas Water Commission today announced its second "best and worst" list, and added a new category for the most improved.

Big Spring's wastewater treatment plant, which made the commission's "rest of the worst" list Nov. 15, was not on any of today's lists.

Six commission permit holders were cited for making changes that have made a difference.

"These are people whose facilities have gone from being a problem for our inspectors to facilities that we are pleased to point out as the way things can be done when there is enough determination," said Larry Soward, the commission's executive director.

Bonura chosen to state panel

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau
AUSTIN -- Dominick V. Bonura, dean of students at Southwest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf in Big Spring, has been appointed to the Texas Commission for the Deaf.

Gov. Mark White's office announced the appointment Wednesday, noting that Bonura's term would extend to Jan. 31, 1987. The 49-year-old Bonura replaces George R. Bean of Pasadena, who resigned.

Area center aids battered women

By SPENCER SANDOW
Staff writer

The FBI estimates half of all women in Texas will be physically abused by a man they live with, said Cheryl Franklin, executive director of a Midland clinic for battered women. Furthermore, 30 percent of female homicide victims are killed by their partners, she said.

In response to the growing problem of abuse, the Permian Basin Center for Battered Women and their Children in Midland is mounting a public awareness campaign to encourage battered women to seek help.

Franklin was in Big Spring Wednesday morning speaking to representatives of local law enforcement agencies and several social service organizations, including the Big Spring State Hospital and the Salvation Army.

In its first year last year, only 16 women from Big Spring sought help at the center, Franklin said. So the center plans to advertise in a rather unorthodox media outlet — women's public restrooms.

Although Big Spring offers a shelter for abused children — the Rainbow Project — the Midland center is the only shelter that serves battered women in the area, Franklin said.

Small cards with the slogan "you are not alone" and the center's 24-hour hotline will be placed on the walls of women's restrooms in the city.

Restrooms are a good place to reach family violence victims because some women are embarrassed to copy the center's phone number off a public bulletin board, she said.

The center's objective is to break the pattern of abuse passed down through generations. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, 73 percent of male abusers were abused as children, Franklin said.

Women in Big Spring can call the hotline collect, 683-1300 or 563-0800, 24 hours a day. If transportation to the center is needed, it will be provided, Franklin said. Women may stay at the center for up to three months, she said.

The center provides free food and shelter for women and their children. In return, it asks the women to undergo counseling while they are at the center, Franklin said.

In addition to counseling, it provides legal advice, help for children of battered women and counseling on "what to do if they go back home," she said. The center also helps women get jobs, open checking accounts and find places to live, she said.

It has a program called "Helping Kids Cope," to help children deal with problems like battering, alcohol and drug abuse in the family. That program is also being taken to schools and day care centers, she said.

"We are writing a proposal (of a plan) where parents are taught to teach their children to stop the battering pattern," Franklin said. Parents Anonymous also works with the center to help parents "who feel like they are going to be abusive," she said.

Cargo bay wreckage retrieved

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) -- While officials reported little progress in an underwater search for Challenger's boosters, a Navy salvage ship brought a load of wreckage to port that appeared to contain parts of the booster from a communications satellite carried in the shuttle's cargo bay.

The NASA vessel Independence used a "deep drone" robot sub Wednesday to try to locate Challenger's right booster rocket in an area about 20 miles east of Cape Canaveral, the space agency said.

Two other NASA ships, Liberty and Freedom, were using sonar and remote-control scanning devices in searches for parts of the crew cabin and other shuttle wreckage believed to be scattered on the ocean bottom by the explosion that killed the shuttle's crew.

Pieces of wreckage that appeared to contain parts of the 16-ton, two-motor rocket booster from the satellite were brought to port Wednesday by the Navy salvage ship Preserver.

One of the pieces unloaded at Port Canaveral was described by dock observers, including a NASA official who asked not to be identified, as the aluminum-like, ribbed casing connecting the upper-stage motors to each other.

NASA spokesman Hugh Harris would only say it was "very likely" that the Preserver's divers had

Firms cut oil posting

NEW YORK (AP) -- Oil companies are rushing to cut the amount they'll pay for crude oil as petroleum prices slide on the world market, and the decline even caused Atlantic Richfield Co. to cut back its 1986 capital spending.

Following the lead of competitors, Union Oil Co. of California, Conoco Inc., Shell Oil Co. and Standard Oil Co. of Ohio announced Wednesday they had lowered their postings, the contract prices paid to suppliers of crude oil.

Unocal cut postings by $1-$1.50 a barrel effective Tuesday for various grades of U.S. crude; Conoco lowered postings $1-$1.50 effective Monday; Shell lowered postings $1.25-$1.50 effective Wednesday; and Sohio lowered postings $1.50-$2.50 effective last Saturday.

The posting prices of most U.S. blends are now in the range of $19 to $23 a barrel, compared with $27-$29 at the beginning of this year. Retail gasoline prices have dropped by more than 3 cents a gallon this year.

The declining market compelled Atlantic Richfield to announce it would slash planned 1986 capital spending by a third to $2 billion, cutting deeply into its allocations for oil and gas exploration and production. Arco said it might increase the budget if the market improved.

Cheryl Franklin, executive director of the Permian Basin Center for Battered Women and their Children, talks about the center Wednesday in Big Spring.

Drug pipeline unearthed

WASHINGTON — Pending indictments against up to 50 Eastern Airlines baggage handlers for allegedly smuggling Colombian cocaine into Miami underscores the need for better internal security by the nation's major airlines, federal law enforcement sources say.

The sources, who spoke Wednesday only on condition that they not be identified, said the baggage handlers, working at the Miami airport, are part of a drug pipeline whose leaders are in Bogota, Colombia.

The Drug Enforcement Administration launched an investigation late last summer using undercover agents.

Fire kills seven kids

EL CAMPO — Fire swept through a one-bedroom house early today, killing seven children, aged 2 months to 8 years, who apparently had been left alone, authorities said.

The wood-frame house was fully ablaze when firefighters responded to the 12:27 a.m. fire, said El Campo Fire Department photographer and spokesman Elmer Cavender. Officials were trying to locate the children's parents, he said.

Five children were found in the front room of the house and two were found in the back room, Cavender said. Authorities believed the children were from two families, and there were no survivors, he said.

July summit expected

BOSTON — Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev is considering coming to the United States in July for another summit with President Reagan, but only if it appears significant progress can be reached on arms control, The Boston Globe said today.

If an agreement does not seem within reach, the next summit could be delayed until next year, the newspaper quoted an unidentified Soviet bloc diplomat as saying.

Ringleader in custody

LOS ANGELES — Only one suspect remains at large in a $1.6 million armored car robbery that left a Brink's guard and two police officers dead, the FBI said after New York detectives capped a three-year, nationwide manhunt by arresting the alleged ringleader.

Mutulu Shakur, 35, who had been on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted List since 1982, was arrested on a street corner Tuesday night when he tried to flee two New York City officers who "stopped him with a flying tackle," said Richard Bretzing, head of the FBI's Los Angeles office.

Cyanide death refuted

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. — Investigators have ruled out any link between the death of a woman who swallowed cyanide-laced Extra-Strength Tylenol to those of seven people in 1982 in Illinois, but are not near solving the latest case.

Tampering at the factory has not been ruled out, officials said, despite the Westchester County medical examiner's contention that the cyanide found in the painkiller would have eaten through the capsules in eight to 10 days. The suspected batch was manufactured last summer.

Interior Secretary Donald Hodel fired Chrysler Corporation Chairman Lee Iacocca as head of the government's advisory commission on the restoration of the Statue of Liberty Wednesday. Iacocca later called Hodel's action "off the wall." The Chrysler chairman is seen in this April 27, 1984 file photo standing atop the scaffolding around the Statue.

Conflict at top

Iacocca fired as head of statue panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lee Iacocca, one of America's best-known businessmen, has been fired for only the second time in his life, and the man who did it says it was because Iacocca had a conflict-of-interest problem while heading a commission to restore the Statue of Liberty.

Iacocca is still chairman of Chrysler Corp., the company he rescued after being bounced as president of Ford Motor Co. in 1978. It's his unpaid job as chairman of the government's chief advisory committee on the Statue of Liberty restoration that he lost.

Secretary of Interior Donald P. Hodel said Wednesday he fired Iacocca because the budding author and television celebrity would not resign from the commission to concentrate on his more important, better-known and conflicting job as chief of the restoration project's fund-raising foundation.

"The secretary's statement was off the wall and in clear contradiction of the facts," Iacocca said in a statement issued in Detroit.

"I resent any inference on his part of conflict of interest. The truth is that the secretary is in conflict with his own charter. This is a grab for four years worth of contributions by the American people," Iacocca said.

He deferred further comment until a news conference today in Detroit.

Informed of the "grab" accusation, Hodel said: "It is truly incredible and suggests that perhaps Mr. Iacocca does not understand that it is the foundation of which he is chairman and chief executive officer that controls the money. ... It is obviously an agitated remark, or a remark intended to mislead others."

As head of the private Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, Iacocca has raised $231 million for the restoration of the statue and immigrant landing grounds in New York harbor.

His dismissal from the advisory commission has no effect on Iacocca's position as head of the foundation, and Hodel told reporters at a news conference he hoped Iacocca would stay there.

Iacocca was replaced as commission chairman by Armen Avedisian, a 59-year-old retired construction executive from Hinsdale, Ill. Avedisian and former Interior Undersecretary Jake Simmons were the only two other people with dual membership and both have resigned from the foundation board.

Earlier, Hodel praised Iacocca several times, saying at one point: "I know it's going to get lost on the cutting-room floor, but the fact is Mr. Iacocca has done an extraordinary job bringing to fruition one of the largest, if not the largest, public volunteer efforts in the history of this country."

"I really hoped that Mr. Iacocca would see the concerns that I had ... and would gracefully say, 'I may not like what you're doing, but I understand and we'll go forward.'"

The concerns, Hodel said, arose from the fact that Iacocca as chairman of the review commission would be in a position of great influence reviewing plans for the Ellis Island restoration that Iacocca as chairman of the private foundation would be proposing.

Dissident hopes reunion

JERUSALEM — Anatoly Shcharansky says he expects his 77-year-old mother to join him in Israel within a month, and U.S. officials say the Soviet Union will allow other relatives of the Jewish human rights activist to emigrate as well.

Shcharansky, convicted in 1978 of spying for the CIA, told Israel radio on Wednesday that he dreamed about arriving in Israel during the nine years he spent in Soviet jails and labor camps. He arrived Tuesday after being freed in Berlin in a prisoner exchange between East and West.

Iran claims oil port

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Iran claimed its soldiers pushed to within sight of Kuwait and Saudi Arabia in the third day of a bloody offensive in southeastern Iraq, and the leaders of Iraq's Arab supporters called for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council.

Iran, in dispatches monitored Wednesday in Nicosia, said that since its offensive began late Sunday it had captured Iraq's Persian Gulf oil port of Faw, surrounded an Iraqi naval base and cut off Iraq's access to the gulf.

Japan imposes ceiling

TOKYO — Japan's top trade official announced today that his country would extend for a sixth year quotas on auto shipments to the United States to prevent "torrential exports" that would increase demands for protectionist laws in the United States.

Japanese automakers opposed the decision but acknowledged that it probably was inevitable. U.S. automakers and the United Auto Workers applauded the decision.

Michio Watanabe, the international trade and industry minister, told a news conference that the ceiling on exports to the United States in the fiscal year beginning April 1 would be 2.3 million cars, same as the current fiscal year.

Cracks found on jets

LONDON — Officials for British Airways say its inspectors will carry out detailed examinations on its entire fleet of 28 Boeing 747 jumbo jets after cracks were found in the front internal frames of three of the older aircraft.

The inspections of the front structural frames will take about six weeks and will involve stripping the interior of the first-class cabins, a company spokesman said Wednesday.

One of the three 747s was found to have cracks during routine maintenance recently, and with three reports of similar problems from other world airlines, the U.S. Federal Aviation Administration issued an order Feb. 3 directing close inspections of the jumbo jets.

Protest broken up

SEOUL, South Korea — Witnesses said police scuffled with supporters of opposition leader Kim Young-sam in front of his political office today, broke up his protest and forced him into a car to drive him home.

On Wednesday, the opposition began a campaign to collect as many as 10 million signatures in support of revisions in the South Korean constitution's articles on presidential elections.

Dear Abby

Mom worries gun won't defend kids against fear

DEAR ABBY: We live in a nice middle-class area of Los Angeles. Our neighborhood would not be considered dangerous by anyone's definition. Whenever our doorbell rings after nightfall, my husband gets his gun before going to answer it. The front door has a peephole so we can see who's at the door. We also have a dead-bolt securely locking the door so it can't be forced open. I contend that with the peephole and dead-bolt, there is no reason for taking a gun to the door. If my husband feels uncomfortable opening the door to strangers, which is understandable, he should simply not open it.

What are your thoughts concerning this, Abby? I am especially concerned about the message this sends to our children who are 8, 6 and 3. I want them to be cautious, but not to feel that this world is such a dangerous, threatening place.

OMIT NAME, PLEASE

DEAR OMIT: I agree with you. But I am less concerned about the "message" this sends to your children than I am about their physical safety with a gun in the house. All guns should be locked in a cupboard or drawer where children cannot get to them. As an added safety measure, a gun in the house should never be loaded. And the bullets should be kept in a separate place.

If I were to tell you how many children had found a gun in the house, "played" with it, then accidentally killed themselves or a playmate, it would spoil your day.

DEAR READERS: Tomorrow is St. Valentine's Day, so be a sweetheart and call someone you love and say, "I love you." (Make two or three calls. Who says you can't love more than one person — in different ways, of course?)

Go through your closets and give all those clothes you've been saving until you lose 10 pounds to your favorite charity. Call someone who's lonely and say, "I'm thinking of you." Or better yet, say, "I'll be over tomorrow to take you to lunch... or run some errands... or give you a ride."

Visit a sick friend. Say a prayer. Donate some blood. Adopt a pet. Will your eyes, your kidneys and all your usable organs to someone who can use them after you're gone. Forgive an enemy. Hug your teenager. Write a fan letter. Listen to a bore. Pay your doctor. Tell your parents you think they're wonderful. Spray your dog. Neuter your cat. Quit smoking. Drive carefully. If you're walking, watch where you're going.

And don't wait until next year to be a sweetheart again. Love,

ABBY

The refreshment table was draped with a red checkered table cloth centered with a plant terrarium containing red valentines. Punch was served from a lemonade bucket in half-pint jars.

Red checkered string ties were presented to Robinson; Lloyd Robinson, father of the prospective bridegroom; Rob Ethridge, father of the bride-elect; and Lance and Kent Robinson, brothers of the prospective bridegroom.

Special guests were Mrs. Lloyd Robinson, mother of the prospective bridegroom; Mrs. Rob Ethridge, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Ima Robinson, grandmother of the prospective bridegroom; and Mrs. Dorothy Fowler, grandmother of the bride-elect.

Red Cross broadens services

The American Red Cross met at the Veterans Administration Medical Center on Jan. 21 to plan a volunteer program to broaden the services and activities of the local chapter.

The volunteers are currently assisting with a special program in helping retarded citizens with shopping trips to Big Spring. Dr. Farquhar attended the meeting and explained the need for the development of various programs and offered his assistance.

The next meeting of the Big Spring Red Cross will be at St. Mary's Episcopal Church on Feb. 18 at 7 p.m.

Slate speaks to members of local Desk and Derrick Club

The Big Spring Desk and Derrick Club met at Alberto's Cafe Monday.

Mark Slate, owner of Mark Slate Land Services, spoke on oil and land leases. During a question and answer period, Slate said the economic situation in West Texas is not as bad as it seems. He also conveyed that oil and its related industries will still have a vital thrust in this area. He stated it's just a matter of time and the situation will be better, according to a release by the Big Spring Desk and Derrick Club.

Margaret Wise and Mamie Roberts were elected as delegate and alternate to the ADDC Region V meeting held April 25-27 in Amarillo. Charlotte Sheedy will serve on the Regional Tally Committee in Amarillo. Barbara Edens was welcomed as a new member.

Next meeting will be March 3 at Alberto's Crystal Cafe at 6 p.m. Mary Randle will speak. Women who are employed in the petroleum and allied industries are invited to attend.

Seat belt safety is discussed

The TEHA committee of Extension Homemakers presented a program on seat belt safety and child restraint on Feb. 10 at the First Methodist youth hall.

Naomi Hunt, county agent, showed a film called "Get it on." The film depicted the importance of wearing seat belts and highlighted test results compiled by the Texas Safety Association.

Many who attended the meeting signed pledges to buckle up in effort to save their lives and the lives of their passengers.

Bridal shower held for Gilbert

A bridal shower was held on February 4 for Kelli Gilbert, bride-elect of David Brosig, at the home of Mrs. Orena Henderson, grandmother of the bride-elect.

The guests were served from a table draped with a navy blue cloth and a peach overlay. A centerpiece designed with peach and navy blue silk flowers in a wicker basket with wooden accessories decorated the table.

Hostesses were Delores Henderson, Mrs. Emma Douglas, Mrs.

Gloria Bain and Mrs. Jean Smith.

The hostesses gift was a navy ceramic canister set and a peach and navy blue silk flower arrangement.

Special guests were Billie Gilbert, mother of the bride-elect, Anita Bosig, mother of the prospective bridegroom and Orena Henderson, grandmother of the bride-elect.

The wedding date is tentatively planned for sometime in February.

Cotton is topic for meeting

At a meeting of the National Cotton Council, representatives stressed the importance of the 1985 farm law and its impact on the leadership position of the U.S. in world markets.

Charles Bragg, vice president of producer affairs spoke to area cotton leaders Feb. 10 at the Howard County Fair Barn to discuss the local implications of the farm law.

Bragg said attempts to change the new farm bill in a year or so, and maybe even this year, are almost certain.

"With the job we'll have in helping the secretary make the right decisions about the cotton program each year as well as the struggle to meet the Gramm-Rudman deficit-reduction goals, we certainly have our work cut out for us in Washington," he concluded.

Area cotton leaders also heard an economic report that gave an optimistic outlook for cotton over the long term.

Dr. Donohue

Other drug may alter insulin needs

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: Please let me know about Reglan, a drug that is given for digestive problems. Specifically, would it cause insulin to act at the wrong times, bringing low sugar reactions? — Mrs. D.M.

Reglan (metoclopramide) stimulates stomach muscles to contract and propel food into the small intestine. It doesn't affect insulin action directly, but there can be an indirect effect leading to problems with insulin use.

Some diabetics develop an acceleration of food moving from the stomach. The diabetes has impaired the muscles and nerves involved. If the diabetic has this problem, and if his insulin dosage is based on this slower passage, then use of the medicine you mention would have to be taken into account. If the medicine causes a noticeable acceleration in food passage, there might be more rapid fluctuations up and down in blood sugar.

It is well for the diabetic taking any new medicine to check out any potential effect on his insulin use and his blood sugar.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I certainly hope you can help me. I am at the end of my rope. I have a noise in my ears that sounds like a sizzling skillet or crickets. Can you tell me of anyone who specializes in this kind of problem? Can you send me his name? — N.M.

The specialist in ear problems is an otolaryngologist. I can't refer you to a specific person in your area, but any doctor of this kind practicing there would be able to help you track down the causes of your tinnitus. Many medicines can cause ear noises, so when you go in for your appointment be sure you have the list of those you are taking, prescribed or over-the-counter. The booklet "Ear Noises: Their Causes and Cures" may give you some hints about various aspects of this very common condition. Other readers may order a copy by writing me in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50 cents.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I have a painful swelling in my right testicle. I am to go in to the doctor to have it looked at. I will face the worst if that is what it has to be. Is cancer here common in young men? — W.M.

Testicular cancer is a concern in young men. However, this painful swelling of a testicle is more likely to represent inflammation rather than a tumor. A tumor is more likely to be painless. An acute urinary tract infection often leads to pain and swelling of this area. You do need an examination for either condition.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My teenage daughter (18) now wears corrective glasses, about which she is very sensitive. She is pestering us for contacts. Is it OK to let her wear them? — U.V.

Many millions now wear contacts, and a growing number are opting for the extended-wear kind. For any kind, your daughter's age is no bar, if that's what you mean. But she has to understand the responsibility involved. Lack of hygiene is behind most of the problems encountered with contacts.

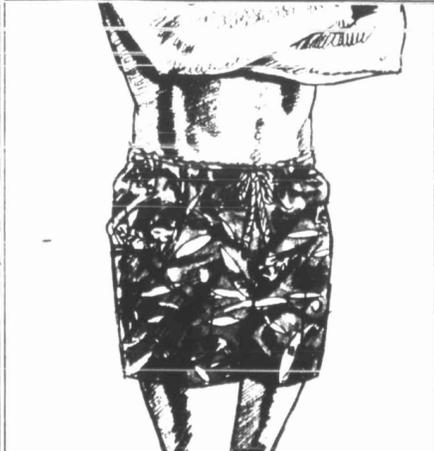

So this is critical, especially if she is considering the extended-wear type. All contacts need proper cleaning and storage. She should establish a routine for periodic removal. Extended-wear contacts should be removed at least every couple of weeks. And she should be warned to report the first signs of trouble — eye redness, vision disturbance, or light sensitivity, for example.

FmHA sends letters to overdue borrowers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Farmers Home Administration this week began sending letters to 65,303 delinquent borrowers, most of whom will get "a friendly reminder" to contact local officials about their overdue loans, the head of the agency said Wednesday.

But Vance L. Clark, FmHA administrator, said much tougher letters serving notice of "intent to take adverse action" are going to about 27,000 borrowers who are three years or more behind in payments, including 3,000 who may have fraudulently dodged their debts.

able things to be happening across the nation because of those mailings, Clark said. "There will be foreclosures, sure, and I think we have to prepare for some of those, but it's not the end of the world."

The mailings began Monday and are to be completed by Feb. 21, Clark said in two telephone news conferences.

Clark also disclosed that the FmHA, often called the government's farm lender of last resort, soon will issue regulations to carry out an "interest buydown" program ordered by Congress in last year's farm bill.

die farm loans guaranteed by the FmHA will be able to reduce interest rates charged farmers by up to four percentage points, with the FmHA subsidizing the bank for half of the reduction.

In other words, Clark said, a bank would absorb an interest cut of up to two percentage points and have the FmHA match its reduction. The net effect to the borrower would be an interest reduction of four percentage points.

Clark said Congress earmarked $490 million for a three-year interest buydown program, which "will be more than adequate" to buydown will be limited to FmHA borrowers as an inducement for banks to participate in the agency's guaranteed loans, he said.

The FmHA has an outstanding farm loan portfolio of about $28.3 billion, representing more than 13 percent of the nation's total farm debt of $212 billion. There are approximately 270,000 farm borrowers, including the 65,303 delinquents, about one-fourth of the total.

Clark said all FmHA borrowers who receive the notices should contact local offices of the agency — days or lose their rights to appeal future action taken against them.

Clark said about 3,000 of the delinquent borrowers are those who have committed or are suspected of fraud, including the illegal sale of mortgaged property, and cases of people leaving the farm, taking equipment with them and selling it later. In some instances, farmers have not reported proceeds of crop and livestock sales.

"We've got to talk to every one of those 65,000 borrowers to determine which ones are not going to make it," he said.

As other Agriculture Department officials have often said, Clark discounted the possibility of wholesale foreclosures by FmHA.

Help to fight crime offered free

The Big Spring Police Department offers several crime prevention services to citizens, said Sgt. Fred Pace, crime prevention officer.

- The following services are available at no charge:
- The crime prevention unit will make home security inspections and make recommendations on how to improve a home's security.
- The unit will inspect homes and assist in completing the necessary paper work if the home qualifies for a reduction of 5 percent in home owners insurance premiums.

• Business inspections also will be conducted by the prevention unit with recommendations made for improving security.

- The unit will help organize neighborhood watch programs in an effort to reduce neighborhood crime. Programs, films and talks are presented to interested homeowners.
- Operation I.D. is sponsored by prevention personnel who assist with marking personal items for police identification.
- The police department will check on homes while people are vacationing or out of town.

• A program sponsored by the unit called "Blue Badge Child Safety" designates homes available to children who are lost or in trouble.

• Films are available to civic clubs, schools and other organizations that deal with shoplifting, child abuse, child molestation, family violence, drug abuse and crime prevention.

Information on these programs is available by calling Pace at 263-8311 Ext. 434.

NAACP to host city celebration

Residents of Big Spring and Howard County have a chance to become involved in a nationwide celebration of Black History Month, whose theme this year is "The Afro-American Experience: The International Connection."

The Howard County Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will host festivities commemorating Black history beginning at noon Saturday at the Howard County fairbarns. The festival will feature a variety of ethnic food, cultural displays, youth games, a read-a-thon and a special presentation by State Rep. Larry Don Shaw.

Admission to the festival is free. Also, local students in grades 9-12 are eligible to compete in the Afro-Academic, Cultural, Technological & Scientific Olympics competition, which will be judged at 1 p.m. Students may compete in up to three of the four categories, which are visual arts, humanities, performing arts and sciences.

Three winners will receive all-expense paid trips to compete in the national competition, which will be held at the National NAACP Convention in Baltimore this summer.

Your IRS Refund Check Has A Brand New Look.

This year the familiar green punched-card check will be replaced by the new IRS tax refund check.

The design is all new. You'll see a full-length engraving of the Statue of Liberty, as well as a faint close-up of her face, over a multicolored background ranging from pale blue to pale peach. A pattern of the letters "USA" is printed in pale blue on the reverse side.

The technology is state-of-the-art.

These new checks are more difficult to alter or counterfeit. And since they're printed on lightweight paper—that costs less to buy and store—they save the government $6 million a year.

They're easy to cash. The folks who cash your IRS refund checks know about these new checks—so you should have no cashing problems.

If you're expecting an IRS refund, watch for the new U.S. Government check.

Students win state awards

Students from Howard College and the SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf won honors in the Phi Rho Pi state junior college speech tournament last week near Houston.

Mike Walker, a Howard College student, placed as a finalist in the poetry and dramatic interpretation categories.

This entitles him to participate in the national tournament to be held in April in Omaha, Neb.

Students from both colleges were awarded third place in the interpretive theater contest for their joint production of "Cinderella."

It was the first time deaf students participated in the contest, said SWCID drama instructor Liz Wolter. The students were Gina D'Amore, Rina D'Amore, Mary Southworth and Ricky Gum from SWCID and Dawn Gardner, Phyllis Hardemann, Theresa DeFlicht and J. Thomas Box from Howard College.

State competency test set

Educators who are not presently employed in a Texas public school must take the state competency exam April 12 to continue their certification, according to a news release.

708 11th Place before the March 1 deadline.

Educators employed in a Texas public school are already registered for the Texas Examination of Current Administrative Skills and Teachers to be given March 10. They are not eligible for the April 12 test, according to the release.

Thursday Notes

By Steve Belvin

One final word to all you football fanatics out there. The Second Annual ALSA Flag Football Tournament will be held this weekend, February 15-16. Entry fee is $100 and deadline to enter is today. There is a 15-man team roster. To enter call Arthur Palomino at 267-4334 or Larry Lara at 263-6328. Meadowlark Lemon, the "Clown Prince of Basketball", will be appearing at Steer Gym with his traveling team; the Shooting Stars. The group will be here Tuesday, March 11 to benefit the Big Spring All-Sports Booster Club. Tickets are now on sale at Big Spring Athletics, The Candle Shop or the Big Spring High School front office. Admission for advanced tickets are $5.50 for students and $6.50 for adults. General admission is $7.50 for adults and $6.50 for students. Hurry now before tickets run out. For more information call Guy Burrows at 263-8952.

Now switching to the water. Things were getting back to normal at lake E.V. Spence during the past week, which is to say striped bass were biting. Most were in the intermediate range with one weighing in at 20 pounds. One change of pace was a 27-pound catfish. A few crappie and white bass were reported. Eddie Isbell of Sterling City reeled in a 18-pound striper. Big Spring residents Bill Willis and Wyoneta Elliot are beaming with pride these days. It seems that Bill's son and Wyoneta's grandson, Billy Willis, is a booming success in the tennis world. The 17-year-old, who now resides in Roswell, N.M., has qualified for an eight-week tennis tour Europe this summer. Willis qualified for the event by competing at the John Newcombe tennis camp in New Braunfels in December. Young Willis won all seven of his matches at the camp.

A rarity occurred at the Big Spring Lady Steer-Odesa High game last Friday at Steer Gym. Two brothers officiated one of their alma mater's games. Herman and Sam Evans did the duties. Sam, a 1965 graduate of Big Spring High School, now resides in Midland. Herman, a '70 grad of BSHS, lives in the Spring City. Keep on calling 'em refs.

Howard College Hawk-Queens guard Lorri French is the fourth leading scorer in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference with a 13.9 average. No. 1 ranked Odessa College's Dee Conwell leads the league in scoring and rebounding with 27.7 and 17.0 averages respectively. French is also fifth in assists (5.7) while Sophia Ish ranks fourth in rebounds (8.7) and Carolyn Willand ranks 10th (7.2).

Pam Franklin is fifth in steals (56) and Trina Allen ranks 9th in free throw percentage (.688). Walt Reynolds continues to lead the Hawks in scoring with a 11.6 average. Reynolds ranks sixth in rebounding with a 7.8 average. He's also fourth in blocked shots (39).

Big Spring has some budding stars in the basketball world. Christopher Lewis, David Park, Megan Honea and Kerry Jo Burnett will be representing the Big Spring Elks Lodge 1386 at the state finals in Temple March 1. The foursome won the right to advance to state at a District Hoop Shoot in Pecos earlier this month. Winners will advance to the regional competition in Lawton, Oklahoma on March 16.

Some local softball enthusiasts are looking to establish a new fast-pitch softball league this year in Big Spring. Anyone interested in playing can contact Bobby Doe at 263-4810 or Mike Ritchey at 263-8867 between 6 and 8 p.m. for more information on the fledgling league. Teams or individuals will be accepted.

Two Big Spring High School football players signed college scholarships Wednesday night on the first day of signing national letters of intent according to Big Spring head coach Quinn Eudy. Tight end David Shortes and offensive tackle Luis Puga signed Wednesday night with Eastern New Mexico University of Portales, New Mexico. Greyhound head coach Don Charthel, who recruited the pair, presided over the signings last night.

Shortes was the leading tight end in West Texas during the 1985 season catching 31 passes for 459 yards and two touchdowns for the Steers. He selected first-team 4-5A All-District and was named to the Big Spring Herald All-Crossroads team and the San Angelo Standard-Times West Texas Super team. Shortes is expected to play at either tight end or a linebacker position for the Greyhounds. Puga was a two-year starter for the Steers and was one of the most consistent blockers in District 4-5A. He is expected to play on the offensive line for the Greyhounds.

Houston Yates bluechip linebacker Mevin Foster was still the top unclaimed prize today in the high school football recruitings wars in which the Cotton Bowl champion Texas Aggies sacked the most talent. Foster, the most sought after player in Texas, was expected to decide on Friday whether to go to Oklahoma State or Oklahoma or stay at home and go to Baylor or perhaps longshot Texas. The Aggies collected three bluechippers Wednesday, including a quarterback Coach Jackie Sherrill says reminds him of Joe Namath.

Retain SWC lead

TCU avenges loss to A&M

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs' basketball fans in Daniel Meyer Coliseum kept chanting "Onside Kick, Onside Kick." They hadn't forgotten a 53-6 rout of their football team by the Texas Aggies last fall in which the winners tried an onside kick late in the game.

TCU's 73-50 mashing of the Aggies Wednesday night not only kept the Horned Frogs in a tie for the Southwest Conference basketball leadership, it gave both their football and basketball programs a measure of revenge. A&M had beaten TCU 64-60 in College Station earlier in the year.

In other games Wednesday night, Texas beat Baylor 55-50, Arkansas upset Texas Tech 79-72 in overtime, and Houston nudged Rice 71-69.

TCU Coach Jim Killingsworth said it was the Frogs' biggest victory of the year.

"It has to be," he said. "It was our first sellout, and they had beaten us earlier. I thought we did a great defensive job."

Killingsworth said the strain of the season was starting to tell on him.

"I told my assistant coaches I'm too old to coach and too broke to quit," he said.

"We're still not in the driver's seat. SMU is just laying over there waiting for us. SMU Coach Dave Bliss has been poor mouthed himself all season, and they're just laying there in the woods waiting to crack us over the head."

SMU, 8-3 in the SWC, hosts TCU Saturday while the Aggies are at Texas.

Aggie Coach Shelby Metcalf said "We just didn't play well at all. We shot very poorly. TCU just packed in their zone and we couldn't hit."

Don Marbury, who had a game high 23 points for the Aggies, said A&M got the raw side of the officiating.

"The refs cheated us real bad," said Marbury. "It was a joke."

Metcalf said "We've got a rough road now with Texas in Austin."

Rice lost to Houston despite having the ball and a 68-67 lead with only three seconds to play.

Houston's Greg Anderson was whistled for a flagrant technical foul and ejected for throwing a punch at Rice's Richard Holmes. However, Holmes swung back, and officials called an identical penalty against him. The result was a pair of free throws for each team. Houston's Alvin Franklin made both of his, while Rice's Ivan Pettit made only one.

That tied the contest, 69-69, but more importantly gave Houston the ball out of bounds on the alternating possession rule. The Cougars' Ricky Jackson hit a long jumper at the buzzer to give Baylor's Michael Williams slams the ball through the hoop for two points during the Bears 55-50 loss to University of Texas Wednesday night in Waco. The Longhorns remained tied with TCU for first place in the Southwest Conference with the victory.

Houston an improbable two-point victory.

"Something's wrong with the rules that permit a guy to start a fight and win the game," Rice

Coach Tommy Suits said. "I think it was unfair for that to happen, but out of respect for Coach Lewis that's all I have to say about it."

Big Spring pair signs with E. New Mexico

From staff and wire reports

Two Big Spring High School football players signed college scholarships Wednesday night on the first day of signing national letters of intent according to Big Spring head coach Quinn Eudy.

Tight end David Shortes and offensive tackle Luis Puga signed Wednesday night with Eastern New Mexico University of Portales, New Mexico. Greyhound head coach Don Charthel, who recruited the pair, presided over the signings last night.

Shortes was the leading tight end in West Texas during the 1985 season catching 31 passes for 459 yards and two touchdowns for the Steers. He selected first-team 4-5A All-District and was named to the Big Spring Herald All-Crossroads team and the San Angelo Standard-Times West Texas Super team. Shortes is expected to play at either tight end or a linebacker position for the Greyhounds. Puga was a two-year starter for the Steers and was one of the most consistent blockers in District 4-5A. He is expected to play on the offensive line for the Greyhounds.

Houston Yates bluechip linebacker Mevin Foster was still the top unclaimed prize today in the high school football recruitings wars in which the Cotton Bowl champion Texas Aggies sacked the most talent.

Foster, the most sought after player in Texas, was expected to decide on Friday whether to go to Oklahoma State or Oklahoma or stay at home and go to Baylor or perhaps longshot Texas. The Aggies collected three bluechippers Wednesday, including a quarterback Coach Jackie Sherrill says reminds him of Joe Namath.

Sherrill played on the same team with the All-Pro Namath at Alabama and said Pavlas has Arkansas weren't far behind A&M in the mad scramble for schoolboy stars.

The Aggies weren't perfect, losing bluechip running back Harvey Williams of Hempstead to Louisiana State.

Williams, who surpassed All-Pro Eric Dickerson in Class 3A career rushing, turned the Aggies down at the last minute.

Dickerson's alma mater, Southern Methodist, wasn't allowed to give away scholarships this year because of NCAA probation.

"We would have liked to have him but I'm not going to jump off a bridge are anything," said Sherrill. "We got some good players, one of the best recruiting classes I've ever had."

Sherrill landed the best pitch-and-catch combination in the state in quarterback Lance Pavlas of Tomball and wide receiver Percy Waddle of Columbus.

Both were members of the Dallas Times Herald's blue chip list of the top 15 players in the state.

Sherrill played on the same team with the All-Pro Namath at Alabama and said Pavlas has

"quick hands and quick feet and reminds me of Namath."

The Aggies also got someone to snap the ball to Pavlas, center Mike Arthur, another bluechipper from Houston Spring Woods.

Pavlas was a Parade All-American and passed for 1,636 yards his senior year.

Waddle set a high school career record with 3,224 receiving yards. He caught 56 touchdown passes.

Sherrill said Waddle has yet to make 700 on the SAT exam but was confident he will so he can be eligible for next year.

"He has the tools, he's an intelligent kid," said Sherrill. "He's going to be a tremendous player."

Sherrill said the Aggies had to overcome negative recruiting by other schools, who were saying A&M will be investigated by the NCAA.

"Everybody tried to use it," Sherrill said. "We did have to explain what our position was."

Sherrill said "A&M is not being investigated. The NCAA has not been on this campus."

He said the school has asked the SWC and the NCAA to check into quarterback Kevin Murray's leasing of an automobile.

Sherrill said the Aggies' status as Cotton Bowl champs helped.

"It's a different thing when you can tell a recruit you were in Dallas for the Cotton Bowl, you were the best in the league," said Sherrill.

Texas Christian did well, landing bluechip lineman Mike Sullivan of New Braunfels among a large group of big linemen.

Baylor signed one of the top defensive backs in the state, bluechipper Mike Welch of Sweetwater, who intercepted three passes in his school's state title game.

The Bears also landed three excellent quarterback prospects including Brad Goebel of Cuero, Lance Saredich of Bay City, and Jay Mapps of Greenville. Goebel was the career passing record holder for Class 3A.

Baylor also signed Edmond wide receiver David Frost, a member of the AP Oklahoma Super Team.

Baylor Coach Grant Teaff said "We're pleased with the overall class. We are happy with the strength of our defensive signees and thrilled with our three outstanding quarterback prospects."

Houston signed Williams' teammate at Houston, quarterback Michael McDade and Coach Bill Yeoman said "He's the best quarterback prospect in the state."

The Texas Longhorns corralled Austin Westlake linebacker Duane Duncum, a member of the bluechip list and highly rated defensive back Gregory Eaglin of Houston Yates.

Arkansas sacked every top player in its state and raided Oklahoma for quarterback Quinn Grovey of Duncan, a member of the AP Super Team.

Lakers back on track against Suns

By The Associated Press
Coming off their most embarrassing moment of the season, a rout at the hands of the lowly Golden State Warriors, the Los Angeles Lakers weren't about to slip again versus another tailender.

So they turned to Mike McGee, who responded with 34 points in a 126-100 romp past the Phoenix Suns Wednesday night.

"The guys got me the ball a lot for the easy layups," McGee said. "I also had my jumper going early and got hot and they just kept giving me the ball. That's the way we always play — as a team."

McGee rarely is the hero for the star-studded Lakers, the defending NBA champions. And he had a lot of help from the usual cast: Kareem Abdul-Jabbar finished with 24 points while James Worthy had 20, rookie A.C. Green 12 and Michael Cooper 10. Earvin "Magic" Johnson handed out 11 assists.

"We came off a humiliating loss. We were highly motivated," Coach Pat Riley said. "We caught Phoenix down a bit and a little out of synch and we were just clicking."

The defeat dropped Phoenix to 20-30, 18 games back of the first-place Lakers in the Pacific Division.

Elsewhere, it was Detroit 113, Knicks 99; Philadelphia 106, Chicago 98; Dallas 117, Denver 110, and Milwaukee 103, Indiana 97.

Pistons 113, Knicks 99
The Pistons won their 11th in the last 15 games as center Bill Laimbeer scored 21 points and Kelly Tripucka added 19 against New York, which was without rookie center Patrick Ewing, out with a sore knee.

The Pistons went on a 24-8 run that gave them a 49-35 lead with 4:25 remaining in the second quarter and the visitors never got closer than nine points the rest of the game.

The Knicks were led by Gerald Wilkins' 20 points.

76ers 106, Bulls 98
Maurice Cheeks had 22 points, including nine in the final period to offset a Chicago rally. The visiting Bulls had trailed by as many as 15 points in the third quarter and were down 14 with 9:20 left in the game. But a 10-0 run brought them within 90-96 with 6:16 remaining.

Cheeks, who also handed out nine assists and made four steals, managed a field goal and four free throws to give the Sixers breathing room.

Moses Malone scored 22 points and grabbed 11 rebounds, with Charles Barkley adding 17 points and 13 rebounds for the Sixers. George Gervin collected 30 points for the Bulls, who lost their fourth straight and 12th in the last 14 games. The Bulls got more bad news Wednesday when they learned Michael Jordan would probably sit out the rest of the season, recovering from a broken ankle.

"We had the game pretty much under control," Cheeks said. "Then they made some shots, especially on second shots, and got back in the game."

"They match up well against us with the big guard (Gervin) and that gives us problems."

Mavericks 117, Nuggets 110
Sam Perkins sparked a 12-2 Dallas streak late in the fourth period with six of his 17 points and Rolando Blackman scored 25 points.

Dallas, trailing 100-96 with 6:33 remaining, got a three-point play from James Donaldson, a layup by Perkins, two free throws by Derek Harper and two more by Perkins to open a 105-100 lead. They never trailed again.

Dallas, winners of three straight and eight of nine, got 20 points from Jay Vincent and 18 from Mark Aguirre.

Denver lost center Wayne Cooper with a torn calf muscle early in the first period. Alex English, the league's scoring leader, was held to 19.

Bucks 103, Pacers 97
Milwaukee, playing without star guard Sidney Moncrief, got 20 points by Terry Cummings and rallied from an 18-point third-period deficit in Indianapolis. Moncrief was out with a sore left knee and the Bucks struggled early, falling behind 68-50 early in the third period.

But they chipped away with a 19-10 spurt and then a 14-0 run to jump ahead.

Nets Richardson passes latest drug test

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — The drug-related problems of Michael Ray Richardson have been a burden on the New Jersey Nets, but teammates were confident the troubled guard was not using drugs when he missed a team practice earlier this week.

Richardson rejoined the New Jersey Nets Wednesday after a urinalysis test on which his career hinged showed no trace of drugs in his system, the National Basketball Association said Wednesday.

"Just because of the amount of time drugs stay in the system I don't think he would have come back this soon if his problems were drug related," said center Mike Gminski. "There are a lot of maybes involved. Maybe his stay in the rehab center was too short, maybe he was rushed back too soon."

Richardson missed Tuesday's night game against Detroit after he was fined an undisclosed amount of money and suspended for skipping practice and failing to keep an appointment with Dr. Dennis Quinlan, the team physician.

Richardson said he missed the practice because of the flu.

The 30-year-old veteran, who career has been plagued by a cocaine dependency, was required to take a drug-screening test Tuesday at University Hospital in Newark to determine whether he had been using drugs.

If the test had come back positive, it would have been Richardson's third violation of the league's drug enforcement policy and would have carried a lifetime ban, with a possible re-instatement no sooner than two years from now, and then only with approval of the league and the union.

After passing the test, Richardson took an airplane flight to Cleveland to join the team for tonight's game against the Cavaliers.

Gminski said Richardson's woes have been a burden on the team, but he added that the players have a lot of compassion for him.

"You want to see him beat this thing, but that doesn't mean he is going to come right back and be a great player," said Gminski. "He is in a tough situation. If I miss practice and a doctor's appointment, I'd be fined. But I wouldn't be in the headlines. He is under a lot more scrutiny than the rest of us."

Lewis Schaffel, the Nets executive vice president, said the scrutiny is necessary considering Richardson's history with drugs.

"I am happy for him," said Schaffel. "I like him very much. He is an endearing person. The problem is professional."

Richardson apologized for the confusion he caused.

"I was sick, that's all there was," Richardson said in statement released by the club. "I know now I made a mistake by not going to the doctor. I guess every move I make will be scrutinized. I made my bed and I am going to have to lie in it."

The same preaching and message that produced obedient believers, Christians and the church in the 1st Century during the days of the Apostles will produce the same results today. All that is necessary is to hold fast the doctrine of Jesus Christ and the apostles of the 1st Century and the commands of the New Testament. Nothing new is necessary, nor will anything different save a soul from the punishment of sin. God's people of this age can not please God until they separate themselves from all the worldly combinations of man's inventions, until they come out from the unscriptural practices, and return to only what the New Testament commands. A knowledge and understanding of the New Testament is the only means that can set us right. When there is stagnation in religious thought which will not allow nor encourage free investigation of scripture, when people believe they know all they need to know of the New Testament, and have everything worked out with the additions of the commands of men, they are in a sad condition. To the Law and Testimony of God we plead. cf 2 Timothy 3:16,17.
