How's that? Snow holiday

Q. Do school employees still get paid for the day of work they missed Monday due to snow?

A. Bill McQueary, assistant superintendent of personnel and instruction, said school employees must make up the missed day on Memorial Day, previously scheduled as a school holiday.

Salaried employees, such as teachers, are contracted to work a certain number of days, he said, and pay will be the same regardless of which days they work. Those paid on an hourly basis will lose a day's pay on the next paycheck, but will make up the money when they work Memorial Day, he said.

LULAC planning to sue city

By HANK MURPHY
Staff Writer

Local LULAC chapter President Pat Deanda said Thursday night the organization will file a suit against the city of Big Spring on behalf of former firefighter Rudy Rubio who was fired by Fire Chief Carl Dorton Jan. 14.

Deanda would not name attorneys handling the suit but said the League of Latin American Citizens has contacted a San Antonio law office. "They feel it's a very good case," she said. The suit is expected to be filed within several weeks, she said.

Rubio was hired by the fire department Jan. 6 before it was known that his cousin, Sammy Rodriguez, was already with the department. Rubio's hiring was in apparent violation of the city's nepotism policy.

City officials explained that city staff erred by not asking Rubio if he had relatives already in the department. Meanwhile, Rubio had quit his previous job at Western Container.

City Manager Don Davis said there was some thought about keeping Rubio on with the department because of the city's mistake. However, he said, complaints within the department over the hiring was instrumental in causing the city to renege on the job offer.

Chapter secretary Linda Arsiaga said Rubio was offered a job with the city's wastewater treatment plant at sizable cut in pay. The starting salary for a fireman is $1,272 a month while a new wastewater plant operator makes $1,010, according to the city personnel office.

Rubio turned the job down and instead appealed his dismissal to Dorton and later to Davis, both of whom rejected it.

Whether the suit will question the legality of the city's nepotism policy remains to be seen, said Deanda, who has gone on record as opposing the rule. "The attorneys will find out the facts," she said.

Deanda said LULAC has believed all along that "we had a case."

"All the members of the organization are smart enough to know the implications of what the city did," she said.

When asked what type of damages Rubio will seek, she said that will be for the attorneys to recommend.

Arsiaga and Deanda said legal fees for the suit will be paid by Rubio with the possible help of LULAC fund raising.

Official vote count places Marcos far ahead of opponent

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos took an unbeatable lead Friday in the official, government-controlled vote count of an election the nation's Roman Catholic bishops denounced as "unparalleled in fraudulence."

Marcos responded by saying in an American television interview that the bishops "used the priests and nuns not only to help the opposition but to destroy the electoral process."

Despite Marcos' overall lead of nearly 1.5 million votes, his challenger, Corazon Aquino, outpolled him by nearly 350,000 votes in Manila, according to the official National Assembly count.

Only 2.5 million ballots were cast in Manila in the Feb. 7 presidential election, according to the official tally. The city has 4.3 million registered voters. Critics claimed the names of more than 1 million Aquino supporters were improperly struck from the rolls in the capital.

In the statement issued Friday, the bishops said a government that "assumes or retains power through fraudulent means has no moral basis" and urged Filipinos to mount a "non-violent struggle for justice."

Mrs. Aquino, who accuses Marcos of stealing the election, said: "The bishops have spoken. It will be our turn Sunday," when a rally is planned at which she will announce a campaign of non-violent protest.

Marcos responded to the bishops' allegation in an interview Friday

Electricity refund may be doubled

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Utilities Electric Co. has asked permission to double a proposed refund that would give the average residential ratepayer a $25 credit on March bills, company officials say.

TUEC Vice President Tom Baker said the company is asking the state Public Utility Commission to endorse a $140.4 million refund instead of the $78 million reimbursement it had requested in January.

The company decided to double its refund request when it realized declining gas prices would force it to continue to overcharge customers for fuel used to generate electricity, TUEC officials said.

Electric customers pay a fixed charge for the oil, gas or coal used in generating plants. The rate is set by the PUC and is based on how much it will cost the company to purchase those fuels in the coming year.

Although fuel prices may drop below the yearly estimates, the company must continue to charge at the same rate until a new one is set by the PUC.

"We're charging the same fixed factor each month and the gas price continues to go down," Baker said.

The PUC is expected to rule on the company's request to credit customers' bills and lower the fuel charge in the next several weeks.

Social worker joins school board race

Dock Voorhies, a clinical social worker at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, filed Friday for election to the Big Spring Independent School District board of trustees.

Three at-large positions are up for election on the board. The election will be April 5.

"Insuring a quality education for every child is my major concern," he said. "We have a good school system but we shouldn't get complacent and not try to improve upon it."

Voorhies said House Bill 72 will be a major influence on the election.

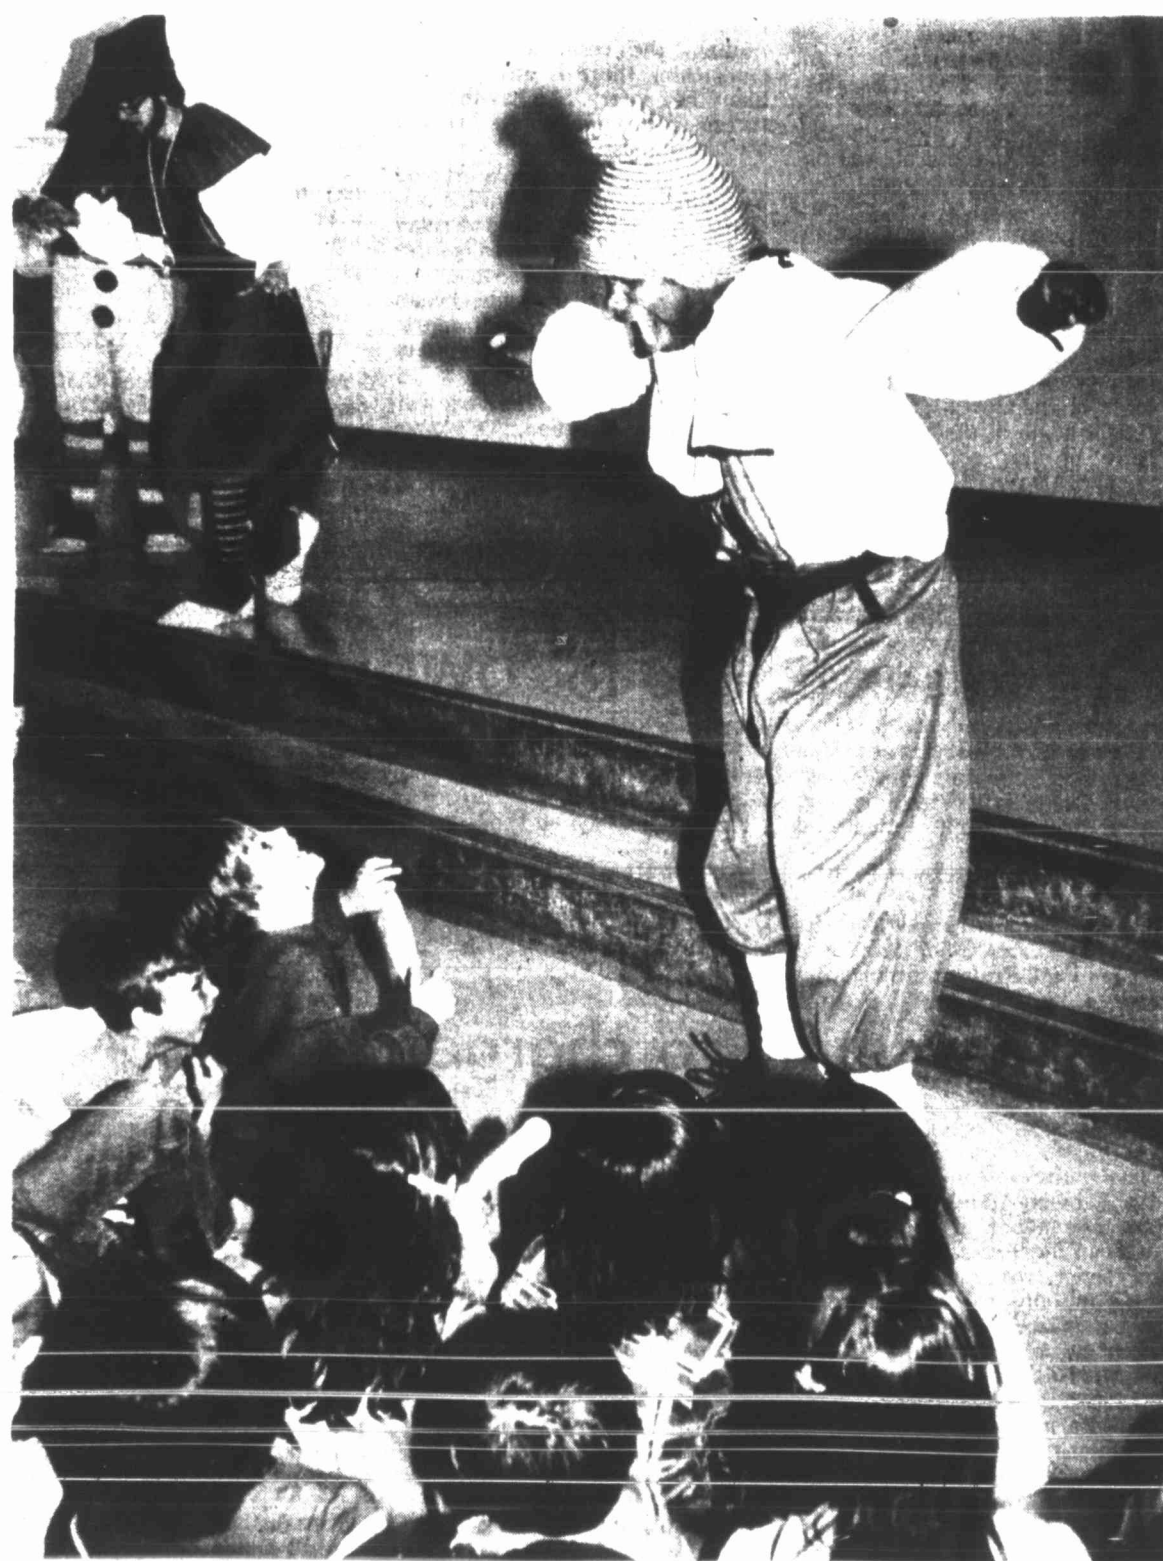

"I'd like to see some research in terms of how it's going to impact education: Is it really doing what it's intended to — improve the quality of education?" he asked.

One of his goals is to improve communication between parents, school administration and children.

"Many times misinformation is a problem," he said. Voorhies and his wife, Charlene, have a 14-month-old son, Dock "Trey" Voorhies III.

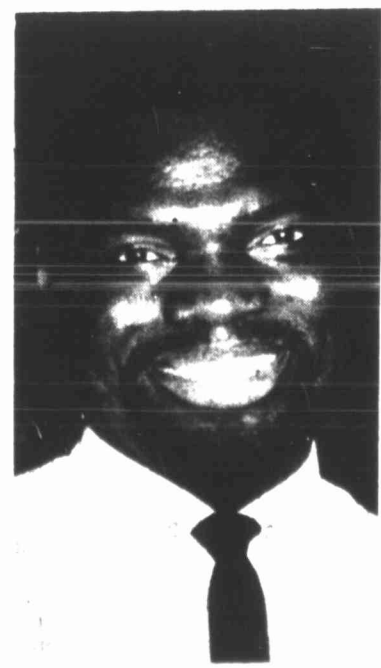

Voorhies has lived in Big Spring for 5½ years, having transferred here with the VA from Alexandria, La. He earned his master's degree

Firefighters support candidate Overman

By HANK MURPHY
Staff Writer

The Big Spring firefighters union endorsed former water utility superintendent D.W. Overman's bid to be elected District 2 councilman, union president John Branham said Friday.

Branham said more than 20 members of the Big Spring Professional Firefighters Association Local 2922 voted unanimously to back Overman.

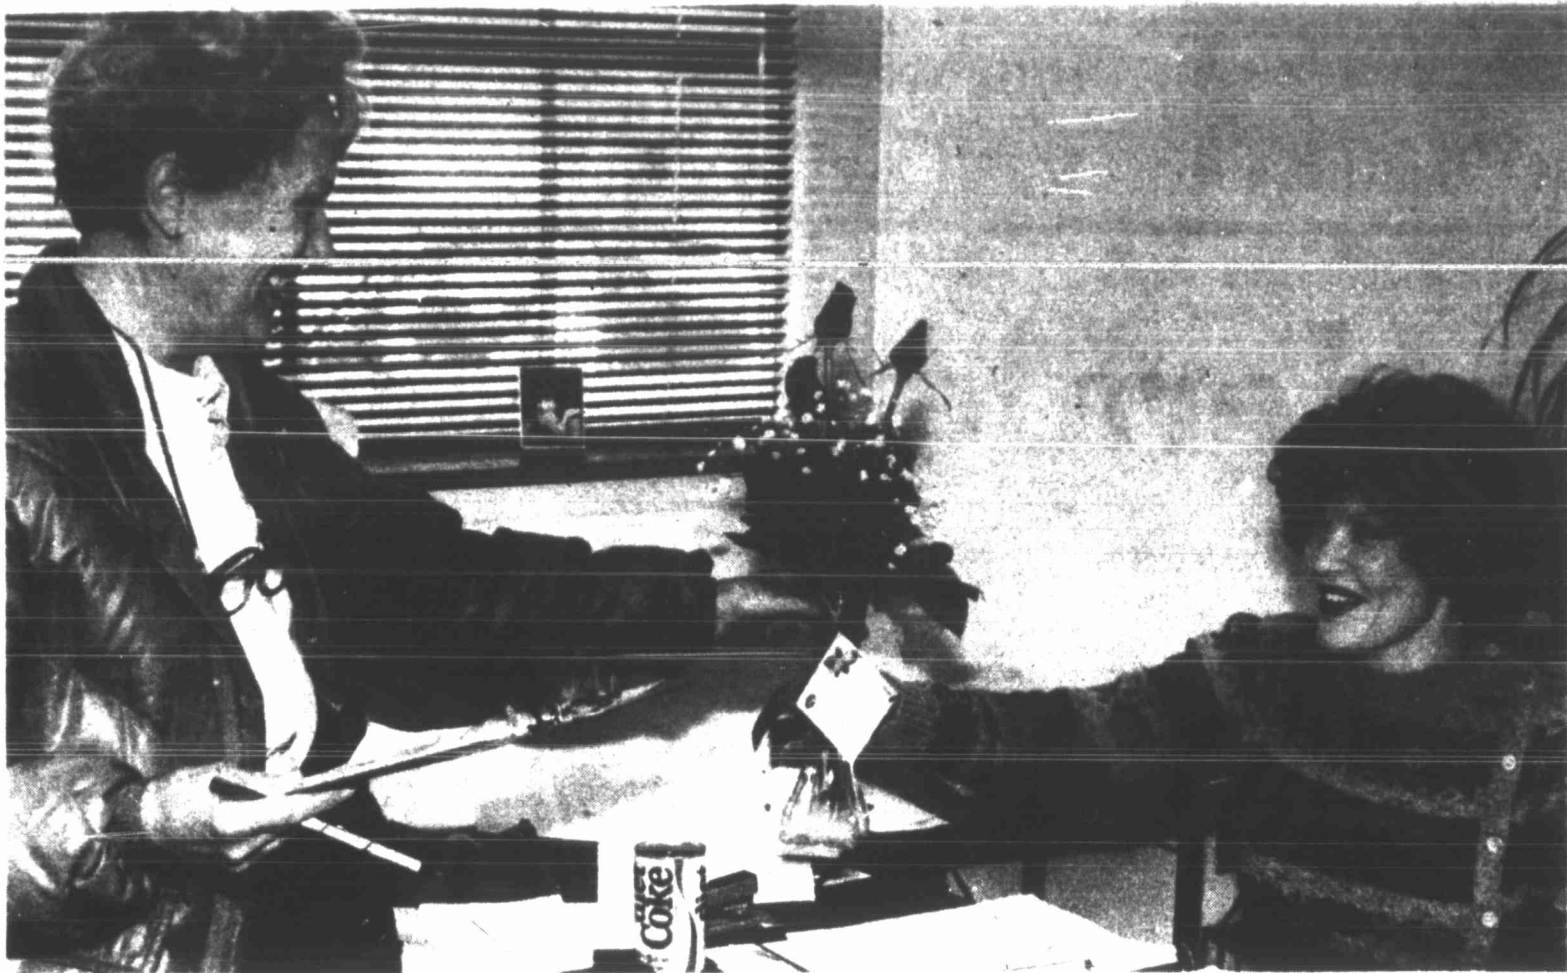

"Overman's firm approach to stopping tax dollars waste is commendable," Branham said in fire association statement. "As city employees, we see the problems firsthand and the waste that occurs within the city. Overman, with his 20 years service to the city, will have firsthand experience with the problems the city deals with."

Overman announced his intention to run for council Friday morning along with a stinging attack on the top echelons of city management.

Overman called for City Manager Don Davis and Director of Public Works Tom Decell to be issued "their walking papers" charging them with mismanagement of the city and suspicious conduct in the authorization of a $17,835 lump sum payment to former city employee William Windham for retroactive overtime not documented by the city.

 night with CBS News anchorman Dan Rather.
 Marcos was asked about the bishops' claim there was fraud and replied: "My reaction to this is now they've finally bared their real position and that was that they were for the opposition all the time, that they were campaigning. They used the priests and nuns not only to help the opposition but to destroy the electoral process."
 Rather asked, "Are you accusing Roman Catholic priests and nuns of election fraud?"
 Marcos said, "Oh yes, they are facing charges in court. We caught some of them with guns and we caught some of them in the company of the communist New Peoples Army."
 "They're talking about nonviolence and they're engaged in violence," Marcos added.

 When Rather asked Marcos if he could "assure the safety of Mrs. Aquino," the president said, "Oh, I don't think there is any problem about her safety. She has the protection of the New Peoples Army of the Communist Party."
 Rival groups that have erected tents and camped outside the National Assembly clashed Friday and witnesses said seven people were wounded.
 They said the trouble began when about 400 supporters of Mrs. Aquino marched past the camp of Marcos' backers.
 He then was asked if a civil war is possible and replied, "Of course not. Civil war? We can handle anything that they will throw at us."

Man to serve time for DWI

Howard County sheriff's deputies arrested Roy Lee Myrick, 33, of 1104 W. Sixth Friday morning on a driving while intoxicated judgment.
 He was to serve 72 hours in county jail.
 Police transferred Eriberto Loya Hernandez, 25, of 1205 Young to county jail Friday morning after he was arrested for failure to maintain financial responsibility and criminal mischief.

 He was released on bonds totaling $1,500.
 Deputies arrested Raul Flores, 28, of 304 N.E. Eighth on a DWI judgment.
 He was to serve 72 hours in county jail.

3 plead guilty to charges

Three men pleaded guilty to felonies Friday before 118th District Judge James Gregg.
 Mitchell Alan Harris, 25, of 1 Courtney Place will serve five years in the Texas Department of Corrections for credit card abuse.
 He initially received 10 years probation from Gregg in December when he pleaded guilty to the charge. He also was ordered to pay $23,350.82 in restitution.
 But Harris violated his probation conditions on Dec. 30 when he wrote a check made out to Dairy Queens of West Texas in the amount of $150 on a closed account, according to district court criminal files.
 District Attorney Rick Hamby filed a motion Jan. 15 to revoke Harris' probation.
 Mark Daniel Murphree, 23, of Route 3 Box 89 pleaded guilty to burglarizing a building on July 29. He was indicted by the Howard County grand jury in October.

Gregg handed down three years probation for Murphree.
 Eusebio Morales, 37, of Coahoma pleaded guilty to felony driving while intoxicated and also was found guilty of violating his probation received from another DWI conviction in November 1983.
 He was arrested by sheriff's deputies in October for probation violation and has remained in county jail in lieu of bond.
 Morales earlier was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in August 1975 for the death of Department of Public Safety patrolman Jimmie W. Parks of Big Spring.
 He received a 10-year prison sentence and was released from the TDC on parole in March 1980.
 According to the sheriff's log, Morales was released after Friday's plea on bonds totaling $6,000.
 He will return to district court at a later date for sentencing.

City seeks building facade

The Texas Antiquities Committee is seeking a "suitable" new home for a terra cotta facade from Austin's A.C. Baldwin building, and local downtown coordinator

Teri Quinones would like Big Spring to be selected.
 The committee requests the "architecturally significant" facade be used in an urban area, preferably on Main Street or nearby. It will decide in two weeks who gets the facade.
 The Baldwin building, located at 209 W. Eighth in Austin, will be demolished within two weeks, said Quinones. The preserved facade measures approximately 22 feet wide by 20 feet high. It will be sent free of charge to the approved applicant.
 The recipient will be responsible for all reconstruction costs and will be asked to inform the committee of all activity pertaining to it.
 Anyone interested in acquiring the facade should call Quinones at 263-8311, Ext. 632 as soon as possible.

Tylenol manufacturer offers $100,000 reward

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — Potassium cyanide found in two bottles of Extra-Strength Tylenol capsules apparently came from the same source, authorities said Friday, and the manufacturer offered a $100,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the poisoner.
 "This is an act of terrorism, pure and simple," said James E. Burke, chairman of Johnson & Johnson.
 Scientists determined that a second bottle of Tylenol contained the same poison that had killed a 23-year-old woman last weekend — an indication, authorities said, that the same hands were involved in both tamperings.

when the cyanide was put into the capsule ... in the plant," said Westchester County District Attorney Carl Vergari.
 But he said tampering at the plant was "one avenue we are exploring, but not the only one."

The first bottle was produced in May in Fort Washington, Pa., Burke said, while the second was made in July at a plant in Puerto Rico. It was not known whether the two lots might have been stored together somewhere in the distribution chain.

Although the manufacturer and the Food and Drug Administration warned consumers nationwide not to use Tylenol capsules for now and at least 10 states banned sales of the capsules, no poisoned Tylenol had been found outside Westchester County in the northern suburbs of New York City.

"The reports we're getting indicate that there was no tampering afterwards. So this would lend support to the theory that somewhere during the manufacturing process is

 In response to Overman's remarks, mayoral candidate Cotton Mize said Friday it was his opinion that any hours worked overtime should be verified by the city or not paid.

Mize further said he had nothing against Davis or Decell as administrators but was concerned about their credibility with the city's people.

 When asked if he would call for their ouster if elected mayor, he said: "No, I wouldn't say that until I get some more facts."

But, Mize said if any wrongdoing by city officials is uncovered, as mayor he would not hesitate to take such matters to a grand jury.

Two jail escapees nabbed

MULESHOE (AP) — A Texas jail inmate who escaped last month with a fellow inmate was captured in South Carolina Friday after landing in a stolen plane, police said.

Randy Mack Lackey, 35, who escaped from the Bailey County Jail Jan. 14, was nabbed in Spartanburg, S.C., after landing in the airplane a few hours earlier near Greenville, S.C., police said.

Bailey County Sheriff Bob Henderson said authorities would seek to extradite Lackey to Muleshoe. Lackey was being held without bond Friday in the Spartanburg County Jail on charges of misdemeanor disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

Lackey and Jose Joe Carrion, 18, both of Muleshoe, escaped from the county jail after taking keys from jailer Connie Bynum, officials said.
 Mrs. Bynum, who was taking breakfast to the inmates, was locked in a cell with four prisoners while Carrion and Lackey then fled.
 Lt. Tommy Smith of the Greenville, S.C., Sheriff's office said Lackey landed a Cessna 210 turboprop airplane late Thursday at Donaldson Center, an industrial park and former Air Force Base site about five miles south of Greenville.

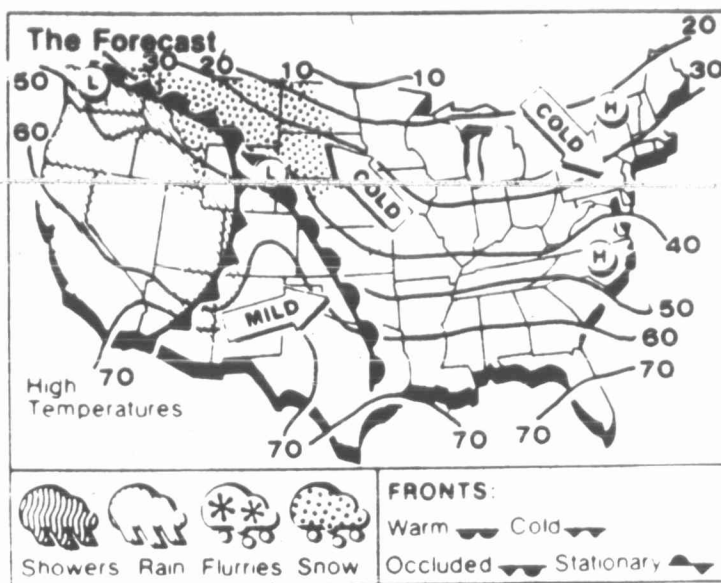

Deputies questioned Lackey about the landing but released him because they lacked evidence to charge him with a crime, Smith said. Lackey had identification indicating he was from Raleigh, N.C.

Deputies later learned that the plane had been stolen from Clovis, N.M., a fact that didn't turn up during a check on the plane immediately after it landed, Smith said.

Smith said a deputy gave Lackey a ride to a restaurant in Greenville, and Lackey said he was in town to meet a woman and described her car.

The deputy alerted fellow officers to the car's make and the vehicle was stopped by authorities at a grocery store near the restaurant.

Pizza shop opens

By SPENCER SANDOW
Staff Writer

Pizza Your Way, recently opened at 1101 Gregg, is a pizza shop with a twist — the customer bakes the pizza at home.

"We make it, you bake it," said co-owner Frank Gainus. "It's a fairly new concept. We can make it any way you want it."

The pizzas bake in about 10 minutes.

Customers can choose a variety of ingredients, including pineapple and fresh tomatoes in addition to the usual toppings.

Some examples appear on the menu, such as the Garden Delight and the Evening Luau, with ham and pineapple. The Spring City Special has Canadian bacon, sausage, hamburger, pepperoni, green and black olives, mushrooms, onions, bell peppers, fresh tomatoes and optional jalapenos and anchovies.

"We try to put plenty of everything," Gainus said. "If you order a meat pizza, you don't have to eat for 30 minutes before you find a piece of meat."

In the little more than two weeks since the shop opened, and only a few days since the sign went up, customers have started returning for more pizza, he said.

"We have repeats already. That tells you you're doing well," he said.

Gainus owns the shop with his wife, Bettye, and his daughter and son-in-law, Byron and Frances Gressett, all of Big Spring.

Peters Hire a dreamer

By TOM PETERS

If you are at all traditional in your approach to management, my commentary this week probably will make you cringe. After all, I am about to suggest that the only way to achieve constant innovation — and, therefore, the only way to ensure your organization will survive — is to turn your back on excessive planning and hire madmen and madwomen who will pursue irrational dreams.

To my mind, James Brian Quinn is the most brilliant student of innovation in America. The soft-spoken, 57-year-old Dartmouth business professor soberly reflects on 30 years of research on such stalwarts as Bell Labs, Xerox, General Electric and IBM.

He concludes decisively, "Few, if any, major innovations result from highly-structured planning systems."

"Fanaticism is crucial," he asserts.

He then warns that the essential people (whom I call "champions") are likely to be "obnoxious, impatient, egotistic, disruptive, and perhaps a bit irrational."

I am not proposing anarchy, nor demanding you drop your plans and shoot from the hip. Thoughtfulness, analysis and high research spending are imperative. But I don't believe an expensive plan alone will allow us to find the right needle in the haystack. I do believe the system, within bounds, must tolerate some sizeable numbers of "monomaniacs with missions" to search beyond the haystack.

To induce innovation at a rate that ensures survival, both the wee companies and giant firms must challenge their cherished assumptions. An honest analysis of the sources of past innovation in your organization is likely to be painful. But the alternative will cause you to fall into the trap of believing you can plan your way around the pain to success.

Business briefs

- The Homestead Inn is under new ownership and management. Verne Johnson of Florida and Charleen Johnson of Dallas, former owners of the hotel, then called the Ramada Inn, have repurchased the business, Charleen Johnson said. The two owned the Ramada Inn during the 1970s and sold the hotel in 1979, she said.
- Johnson said the inn will be remodeled and new carpeting put in the restaurant area. New Homestead manager Bill Jasinski began the position in July, she said.
- Creations by Audrey has moved to 106 W. Marcy, near Pat Walker's Figure Salon. "We just grew," said owner Audrey Bays. The new location is larger than the former shop in the Ventura Building on 11th Place, she said.
- The craft shop opened in December.
- Blum's Jewelers will move to Highland Mall March 15. The move will "greatly increase our foot traffic," said owner Ralph Brooks.
- Plans are to discontinue its line of tablewear and to concentrate more on jewelry, watches, silver and fine crystal, he said.
- "We will be expanding our diamond line and watch line significantly," Brooks said.
- There were 86 rigs actually making holes in District 8, far West Texas, including Howard County, as of Feb. 10, according to Hughes Tool Co. This continues a downward trend, with 93 rigs Feb. 3, 116 Jan. 13 and 130 Feb. 11, 1985.

BoSa doughnut company takes over Winchell's

BoSa International Inc. has taken over Big Spring's Winchell's doughnuts shop.

The store, now called BoSa doughnuts, was bought in late November, but "we just got our sign up" Feb. 7, said manager Lewis Kidd. Kidd also was the manager of Winchell's.

BoSa has added a large variety of doughnuts, he said, including bear claws, honey and wheat doughnuts, tarts, turnovers, buttermilk bars, butterflies and bowties. It will also be adding a convection oven and a microwave, he said.

In the future, the shop will have cookies, pies, soups and sandwiches, he said.

Money and managing it

By NAOMI HUNT
Howard County Extension Agent

If the month lasts longer than your money, a money management system could help reverse your situation. You are not alone in needing to plan more carefully. Gone are the days when income increases enough each year to allow most budgets to balance automatically.

To start, let us look at what is predicted for the economy. Some economists predict that the 80's will produce an overall inflation rate of six percent. While this rate is three points lower than the average for the 70's, it is still significant. With a six percent inflation rate, prices will double every 12 years. The problem of reaching your financial goals could well be related to inflation.

If you are being squeezed by inflation and you have little time to keep track of your financial affairs, it is no wonder the money runs out!

To begin, gather the members of your household together. While you are together, have an open, non-critical discussion about money — feelings problems, needs and wants to reveal trends in the way everyone feels and thinks about money. Use a sheet of paper to make two columns: Needs and Wants — family members may have some disagreement and discussion in deciding between needs and wants. Your current money management system probably just happened. You can now start putting together a new system in a more organized manner.

Next, think about what you want to achieve. These are your goals — your destination. Make a list and include the anticipated time frame. This is your road map. Indicate the order in which your goals will be attained — your itinerary.

Once goals are ordered, you will have completed the first step in improving your money management system. Goals direct your spending and your saving.

When you have finished this task, you have a good start. You will probably be aware that getting control of your money takes time and effort. Do not forget that it also took time and effort to earn that money, and if you can make it go further, you will, in a sense, be creating more income.

For your gardens

Save energy-landscape

By DON RICHARDSON
Howard County Extension Agent

Although it is not possible to control temperature, wind, and other weather elements, certain landscape practices can modify the climate in and around homes significantly. By placing trees, shrubs, vines, and landscape structures properly, the homeowner can reduce the energy required to keep homes and surrounding areas comfortable during winter and summer. If the landscaping is well done, one receives the added benefits of beauty and increased real estate values. A well-planned landscape is one of the best investments a homeowner can make.

TREES

Studies have shown that trees planted on the south and west sides of a house can reduce inside temperatures up to eight degrees. Needless to say, this can significantly reduce energy use for summer air conditioning or with non-air conditioned homes, make them much more livable during our long summer season. Trees placed about twenty feet or more from the house on the south and west sides not only shield out the sun's rays but also contribute refreshing humidity.

During late fall and winter our deciduous trees drop their leaves and let the warming rays of sunshine in, making our homes warmer and saving heating energy.

VINES

Vines can have a tremendous effect in cooling house walls during the summer. For masonry walls such species as Boston Ivy and Virginia Creeper are excellent. Their leaves are borne in an orderly shingle pattern on four to six inch petioles. The leaf blades intercept and absorb the rays of the sun while behind them convection current carries the warm air up and away from the wall.

Deciduous vines such as Boston Ivy and Virginia Creeper are most effective on southern and western masonry walls which receive a great deal of direct sun. Evergreen species such as English Ivy are effective on sunless walls where their persistent foliage deflects winter winds and their stems provide an insulating effect.

All the vines mentioned are climbing types and are not good for wooden walls since their stems and tendrils hold moisture and can cause wood to deteriorate. The same cooling effect can, however, be achieved by training twining vines such as wisteria, carolina jessamine, and muscadine grapes on trellises placed near these walls and even overhead structures over terraces.

Fast growing vines such as morning glories can be trained to grow on such structures and provide relief from the heat the same season in which things are planted.

Whether planting grees, or vines, living plants can indeed be an energy saving gift from nature.

One version of the stock show

By LEE COLEMAN
Coahoma 4-H Club

Hi. It's me, Lee Coleman, again. As you might know we have just finished the Howard County stock show. Let me give you my version of the stock show.

My father's sister and I took our four sheep to the stockbarns on Thursday, Jan. 24. We weighed them in order to put them in their cages and left. We came back late that evening to feed. We fed and went home.

The next morning we went to feed. That day was show day. When we went to the pen, we couldn't find one of our sheep. We looked for it. It was in the next pen over. We got it and put it in our pen. We looked at it and it was hurt. Its leg was broken.

My sister and I stayed and fed. My mom, with the help of Mr. Walker, took the lamb to the vet. They brought it back and we had to wash it so we put a plastic bag over the cast. We washed and dried them. Then, Mr. Mike Bragg sheared our sheep a second time for us. We clipped and worked and covered the lambs. Then we put them in the pen.

We showed them. We didn't place well, but we did the best we could. I learned when things go wrong, you can't stop. You finish what you start. Next year we hope to do better.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR SUNDAY, FEB. 16, 1986
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Until evening make sure that you do not force issues or take up practical matters, for they could turn out to be disappointing. Watch out for unexpected expenses.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Forget property and financial affairs today, and be more concerned with finding greater peace of mind.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Make sure that your motives are good in going after your aims today, and keep out of trouble.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): You can accomplish very little today if you keep plugging up little worries in your mind, so let go of them.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21): Although you may act in a positive way to gain your aims, stumbling blocks may be set on the path of your progress.
LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21): Not a good day to handle any important civic matters, so wait a better time for such. A bigwig may not be as helpful as you'd like.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Adding to present interests is not wise today, but make present ones work more efficiently for you.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Your hunches may not be so good today, so use only your good nature, judgment, and come to right decisions.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Don't go out in public today since others are apt to be in a testy mood today, due to the planets.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Don't let household tasks bore you now, so read a good book. Put more music into your life.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Be content with less expensive fun and really enjoy whatever is wholesome.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Forget all your worries and take it easy today and avoid sickness of some sort, especially the nervous kind.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Don't permit others to upset you who are the unfeeling kind, and avoid them. Make sure that those you do see are charming.
IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY:...he or she will have a strong willpower and will want the own way, which is fine, provided it is not misguided, so give spiritual training early in life so that this fine trait will be used for good. There is much ability at business here, but also a desire to help others who are down trodden.

Hawks end drought with overtime win

By CHARLIE ALCORN
Sports Writer

The drought finally ended for the Howard College Hawks. After going winless in Western Junior College Athletic Conference play for over two months, the Hawks long awaited drink of water came in the form of a Mike McCall tip-in with two seconds left giving Howard a come-from-behind, 58-56, overtime victory Friday night in Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

The win broke a nine-game losing streak for the Hawks who still suffered from poor shooting, but stayed in the game, and eventually won it, with superb full court defense.

"I got them in a full court press to pick the tempo up in the second half," explained Hawk head coach Ed Sparling. "We had to do something to get the juices flowing and it worked this time."

In fact, the Hawk pressure worked to perfection in the decisive overtime period, causing four crucial turnovers that helped them build a 56-50 lead behind McCall's six points.

One of the Hawks season long weak spots nearly cost them the game when Vernard Goode missed the front end of two one-and-one opportunities late in the overtime period.

Military forward Eric Adams took advantage of the missed free throws, hitting three straight jumpers to tie the game at 56-56 with 10 seconds remaining.

But Goode redeemed himself on the final play of the game, taking the inbound pass and racing the length of the court for a layup that rolled off the rim, but was tapped in by the ever-present McCall with two ticks left on the clock.

In a very low scoring first half both teams struggled with poor outside shooting and tight defense that rarely saw the chance for a second shot. The Hawks trailed by one, 23-22 at halftime despite shooting in the low thirties from the field.

Military post Tyrone Howard dominated the early action in the second half, while Hawk post Walter Reynolds sat on the bench with four fouls. The 6'6 freshman scored seven consecutive points putting the Broncos up 35-29 with 13:06 left in the contest.

Fortunately for the Hawks, Howard fouled out of the game with two quick fouls with 12:19 to go.

The Hawks continued to shoot tentatively from the outside and could not work the ball inside the stingy Bronco zone. Hawk forward Mike Duran and Goode each picked up their fourth fouls midway through final period forcing Howard to play with all small forwards and guards.

Reynolds came back in with six minutes remaining and helped cut the Bronco lead to six before fouling out at the 3:01 mark with the score 46-40.

After calling a time out, Sparling installed a 1-2-1 trapping press that proved to be the difference in the Hawk's final comeback.

In the span of two minutes, the Hawks converted on three Bronco turnovers, and tied the game with 36 seconds left on a beautiful penetrating drive by Goode.

The Broncos called time out and set up for a final shot but the Hawk man-to-man was so tight that Military forward Forest Barnes ended up shooting 25-foot air ball to end regulation with the score 48-48.

McCall led the Hawks with a team-high 18 points and 10 rebounds. Duran and Reynolds each tallied nine points for the Hawks, who raised their WJAC record to 3-9 and 9-16 with the victory.

Adams led the Broncos with 18 points while Howard scored 13 and pulled in a game-high 11 rebounds. New Mexico Military Institute dropped to 2-10 in the WJAC and to 11-13 overall with the loss.

Millrose track features upsets

NEW YORK (AP) — Marcus O'Sullivan, unbeaten during the indoor track and field season, handed fellow Irishman Eamonn Coghlan his first defeat in seven Wanamaker Mile races in the Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

O'Sullivan, the former Villanova standout who is having the finest season of his career, held off Coghlan's bid for victory with a strong stretch run to win in 3 minutes, 56.05 seconds.

Coghlan, the winner in 1977, 1979-81, 1983 and 1985 — he did not compete in 1982 and 1984 because of injuries — finished second in 3:56.34.

The loss prevented Coghlan from gaining an unprecedented seventh triumph in the Wanamaker Mile. He shares the record of six with Glenn Cunningham, the winner in 1933-35 and 1937-39. Cunningham finished third in 1936 and second in 1940, his final race.

Friday night, Mark Fricker set a fast early pace and held the lead for the first nine laps of the 11-lap race.

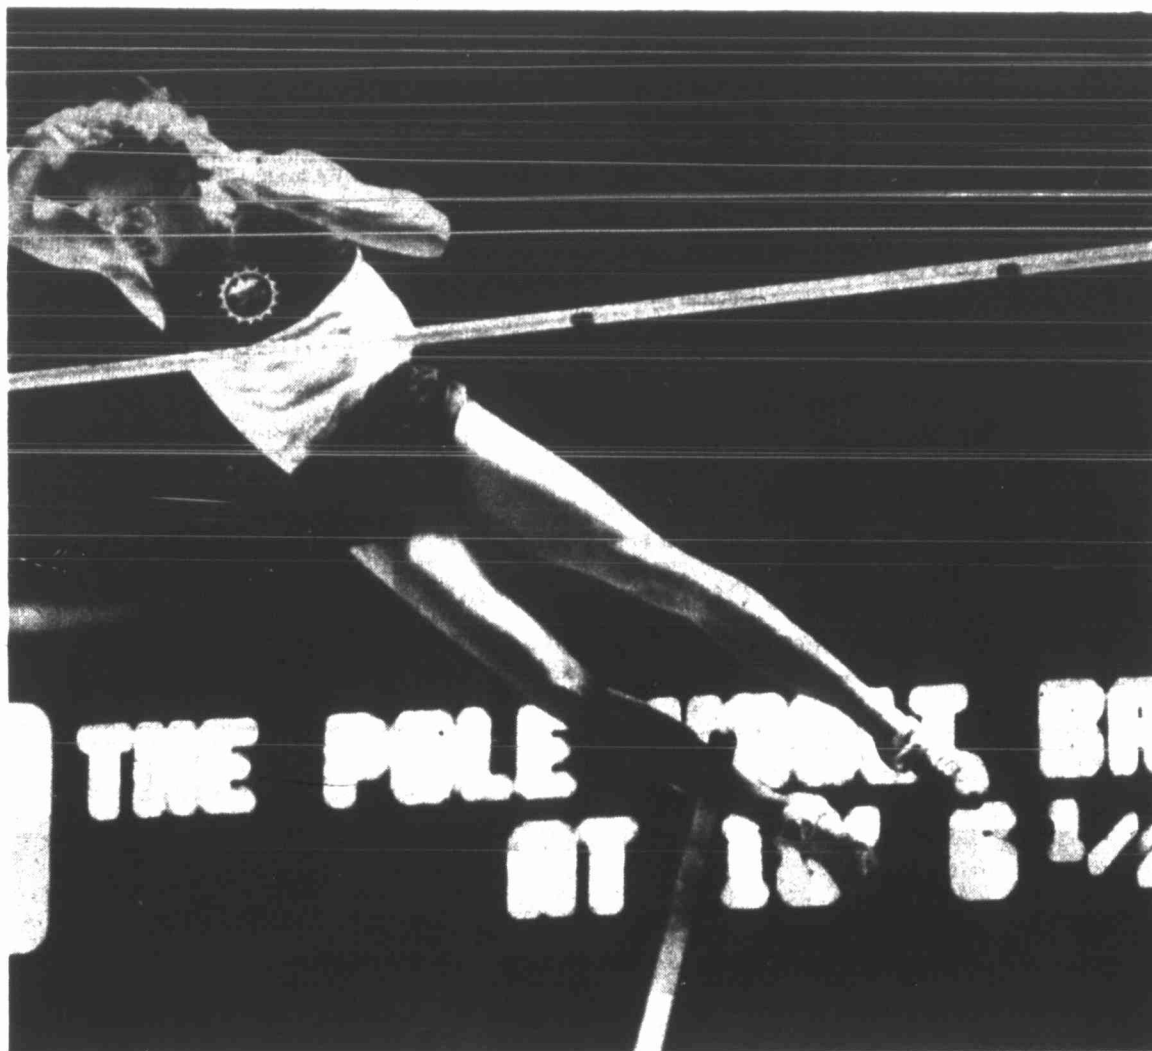

Then O'Sullivan, who had ended Coghlan's 15-race indoor mile winning streak last month, kicked past Fricker with two laps left. And O'Sullivan held the advantage for his fourth victory of the year.

The loss was the fourth straight — three at one mile and the other at two miles — for the 33-year-old Coghlan, who has been bothered by an intestinal virus this season.

Another Irishman, Ray Flynn, finished third in 3:58.10.

Three other runners also broke

Pistons down Mavericks

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Backup guard Vinnie Johnson scored 22 points and Earl Cureton added 18 more off the bench Friday night as the Detroit Pistons cruised to a 119-110 NBA victory over the Dallas Mavericks.

The Pistons opened the game with an 18-6 scoring spurt and coasted to a 65-50 halftime lead.

Detroit led 99-76 at the end of three quarters and a Johnson layup gave the Pistons their largest lead at 109-80 with 9:27 remaining in the final period.

But the Mavericks outscored the Pistons 21-4 in the final 6½ minutes and outrebounced Detroit 17-4 in the fourth quarter to account for the final margin. Rookie Deuer Schrempf scored nine points in the Mavericks' closing rally.

Mark Aquirre led all scorers with 27 points for Dallas, and Sam Perkins added 19 for the Mavericks, who lost for only the second time in 10 outings.

Starters Kelly Tripucka and Bill Laimbeer scored 16 points each and Joe Dumars 15 for the Pistons.

Garden City romps Rankin

BIG LAKE — The Garden City Lady Bearkats advanced to the area round of the state playoffs as they took a 56-40 win over the Rankin Red Devils here last night.

The Lady Bearkats got strong performances from Danette Holdamph, Carol Hoelscher and Jana Hunter in the win. Hunter had a hot first half, leading Garden City to a 32-20 halftime lead. Hunter scored 19 of her game-high 25 points in the period. She also pulled down 13 rebounds.

Holdamph also turned in a fine scoring performance, accounting for 16 points. Hoelscher helped Hunter on the boards with 10 rebounds.

Maria Hernandez, Rankin's 5-11 post, led her team with 22 points. "I think we did a pretty good job on her" (Hernandez) said Garden City coach Jimmy Fine after the game. "We sagged back on her and it gave her a few problems. We're just real happy to get the win."

It marked the third time Garden City had defeated Rankin this season. Garden City will meet the winner of the Ft. Davis-Dell City game in a area contest next week.

Coahoma headed to area play

BROWNWOOD — The Coahoma Bulldogettes reached the area state playoffs by virtue of their 53-45 win over the Burnett Lady Bulldogs last night in AAA bi-district playoff action.

The Bulldogettes put together a strong first half performance, led by post players Leslie Kirkpatrick and Shana Fowler, and then coasted to the win.

Coahoma led 15-12 after one quarter of play and then stretched it out to 31-18 at the half. It led 42-23 midway through the third period. Fowler had an outstanding game, scoring 19 points and grabbing 20 rebounds, including 11 offensive rebounds.

Kirkpatrick, who is coming off a knee injury, responded with 16 points. Forward Brandi Kloss and guard Jancy Cunningham added 9 points each for Coahoma.

"We played a very good first half," said Bulldogettes coach Ken Kelso after the win. "We got them then quick. We were hot from the field, got on the boards and didn't commit turnovers. Their press did give us a few problems late in the game though." Kelso also signaled out the fine all-around play of Kloss and Teri Tucker.

Coahoma will face the winner of the Comanche-Bowie contest in their area match.

COAHOMA (53) — Jancy Cunningham 3-3-9; Shana Fowler 7-5-19; Brandi Kloss 4-1-9; Leslie Kirkpatrick 7-2-16; Totals 21-11-53.

Utah upsets UTEP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Kelvin Ushaw scored 19 of his 21 points in the second half as Utah opened a 16-point lead against 15th-ranked Texas-El Paso and held on to defeat the Miners 71-67 in Western Athletic Conference basketball Friday night.

Former Howard College standout Jerry Stroman finished with 18 points and Mitch Smith had 12 for the Utes, now 7-4 in conference play and 15-8 for the season.

Dave Feitl led Texas-El Paso with 25 and Juden Smith added 20 for the Miners, who are now 9-3 in WAC play and 21-4 for the year. Utah led 63-47 with just 6:14 left, but Feitl and Smith led the Miners on a 12-1 run that closed the deficit to 64-59 with 2:30 remaining.

After a Mitch Smith basket for Utah, Feitl and Juden Smith each scored again and the lead was down to 66-63.

Utah missed the front end of two 1-and-1 free-throw opportunities in the final minute but Ushaw clinched the outcome with three foul shots in the final 30 seconds.

Elliot has field spooked in NASCAR Daytona 500

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bill Elliott has got most of his competitors spooked going into the $1.4 million Daytona 500 NASCAR stock car race on Sunday.

They don't know if Elliott, who was dominant on the superspeedways a year ago, has been holding back his Ford Thunderbird this week, or whether his pole-winning lap of 205.039 mph and his last-lap victory in one of Thursday's 125-mile twin qualifying races were all-out efforts.

Everyone will find out shortly after the green flag drops for the 28th Daytona classic at 12:15 p.m. EST. The race will be telecast live by CBS.

Even the guys who say they believe they can beat him are spending most of their time talking about him and how they'll have to do it.

Elliott, a 30-year-old who won 11 races and an auto-racing record $2.4 million in 1985, is staying low key. "It's gonna be a tougher race for us," he said. "I'll just try to keep the car in the race and be there at the finish. The competition is getting stronger and stronger."

When asked if he was going full out in the Clash and in the qualifier, Elliott smiled and drawled, "I was going as fast as I could stand it."

Not everyone believes him. Bobby Allison, a two-time Daytona 500 winner, was the man Elliott passed on the last lap of the 125-miler after stalking him for several trips around the 2.5-mile tri-oval.

"He was toying with us," said Allison, who drives a Buick LeSabre. "He could have done whatever he wanted, whenever he wanted to."

Seven-time Daytona 500 winner Richard Petty, who will start 11th in a Pontiac Grand Prix 2+2, said, "I think he's got everybody covered. But there's one thing you have to remember. He still has to drive 500 miles."

Darrell Waltrip, the defending Winston Cup champion, will start sixth in the 42-car lineup, is not expecting a repeat of last year's Daytona 500 walkway by Elliott.

"I think he realizes he can't stand still," Waltrip said hopefully. "He has to find some new things and, sometimes, going through that stage of development can be quite costly on the track."

Dale Earnhardt, who won the Busch Clash here last Sunday by holding off Elliott over the final laps, then won the other qualifying race on Thursday, is certain that Elliott can be had.

"I don't think anyone has a definite advantage, not like Bill had last year," said Earnhardt, who drives a Chevrolet Monte Carlo SS. "I know now I'm capable of racing right with him."

The closest driver to Elliott in time trials was Geoff Bodine, whose Chevrolet earned the outside spot on the front row with a lap of 204.545.

Bodine said, "He certainly has a lot of horsepower and a lot of handling. I think he's gonna go out front and make us pass him."

"What he's got, we won't know for sure until the last lap."

A year ago, the result was hardly in doubt. Elliott's Ford left most of his challengers strewn behind him with broken, smoking engines.

This time, it will be a new generation of General Motors cars which will be chasing him, along with the other Ford drivers in the lineup. NASCAR has okayed four new, more aerodynamic GM models for 1986 competition, all of them with sloping rear windows to aid stability in the turns.

"All the GM cars will have to worry about dependability," said Waltrip, who also drives a Chevrolet. "If Bill does like last year, he'll suck the guts out of 'em. Every one of them (the GM cars) blew up on restarts (after caution periods) last year after trying to wind up the engines real tight to be able to stay with Elliott."

Other former Daytona winners in the field are four-time winner Cale Yarborough, whose Ford will go from the 14th starting spot; 1980 winner Buddy Baker, who will start 18th in an Oldsmobile Delta 88; A. J. Foyt, the 51-year-old four-time Indianapolis 500 champion who won here in 1972 and will start 21st in an Olds, and 1975 winner Benny Parsons, starting 32nd in a Delta 88.

Baker's Daytona race record of 177.602 mph from 1980 appears to be in jeopardy Sunday. Elliott fell short at 172.265 a year ago because of five caution flags for 18 laps.

Part of Sunday's field qualified by virtue of the 125-milers, but taking all their fastest qualifying laps prior to those races, the 42 cars average 200.652 mph. A record 26 cars were over 200 and the overall average breaks the previous stock car mark of 199.921 set in qualifying for the Winston 500 at Talladega, Ala., last May.

The slowest qualifier this week was Indy-car veteran Pancho Carter, who holds the Indianapolis Motor Speedway four-lap qualifying record at more than 212 mph. He had a fast lap of 195.805 but managed to earn the 30th starting spot with a strong finish in his qualifier Thursday.

Allison and Earnhardt will start from the second row, followed by Terry Labonte and Waltrip.

Kyle Petty and Morgan Shepherd make up the fourth row and Sterlin Marlin and Rusty Wallace round out the top 10.

Sydney Maree, the American, was second in 3:58.18, followed by American record holder Steve Scott at 3:59.13 and Jim Spivey at 3:59.79.

Maree, 2,000 meters and 5,000 meters, was last in the field of eight. He has been slowed by a hamstring injury and a calf problem this season.

Earlier, Canada's Ben Johnson matched the second-fastest time ever in the men's 60-yard dash and Gwen Torrance scored a stunning upset over Evelyn Ashford in the women's 60.

Johnson, unbeaten on the indoor track and field Grand Prix circuit this season, streaked to victory in 6.04 seconds. The time matched the Garden record set by quadruple Olympic champion Carl Lewis in 1983 and was only two-hundredths of a second off the world indoor best of 6.02 established by Lewis two years ago at Dallas.

In posting his fifth triumph of the Grand Prix season, Johnson, the 1985 World Cup 100-meter champion and Olympic 100-meter bronze medalist, beat a standout field.

Sam Graddy, the Olympic silver medalist in the 100, finished second in 6.08, with University of Pitt-
