Spring Board

How's that?

News show

Q. Why doesn't Big Spring Cable carry WFAA's weekday 11:30 a.m. news program?
A. The program began on Big Spring Cable Tuesday and will continue to run, said manager Paul Thoman. Thoman said the company wasn't aware that it was a different program from Channel 2. Law requires that local affiliate stations be broadcast rather than the same program on another station further away. Thus, country music videos are run on WFAA when its ABC programs coincide with Midland's ABC programs.

Calendar

Liberty

- TODAY
- The "Move to Freedom" Statue of Liberty exhibit will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Second and Main Streets.
- THURSDAY
- Ricardo Salvador of the Mexican consulate and chancellor Fidel Alvarez will speak at the LULAC meeting at 7 p.m. in the courthouse.
  - The Big Spring Humane Society will meet at 7 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce office.
  - Downtown merchants will have a festival from 8:45 a.m. to 3:20 p.m. at Goliad Middle School to raise funds to restore the Statue of Liberty. Visitors can contribute by purchasing a variety of Liberty items such as T-shirts, hats and buttons.
- FRIDAY
- The National Little League will have a parents' meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Elbow Elementary School cafeteria. Any interested parents are invited.
  - The senior citizens dance will be at 8 p.m. in Industrial Park Building No. 487. The Country Jammers band will play and guests are welcome.
- SATURDAY
- The Big Spring Symphony Orchestra with guest conductor James Cunningham will perform at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. A reception will follow at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. Tickets, available at the door, are $7.50 for adults and $4 for students and senior citizens.
  - The Heritage Museum will have a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. for the opening of the Kids' Corner exhibits. Admission is free.

Outside

Record-breaking

Temperatures reached 85 Tuesday, breaking the 1929 record of 80, and another record may be broken today. Skies are partly cloudy and temperatures continue warm with a record high in the upper 80s predicted and gusty southwest winds at 10 to 20 miles per hour. Tonight, skies should be partly cloudy with a low near 50. Thursday, look for warm weather to continue with a high near 80.

DON DAVIS
...turns in resignation

Davis resigns city post

By HANK MURPHY
Staff Writer
City Manager Don Davis resigned Tuesday, just five days after it was revealed that he authorized a $17,835 overtime payment to former utilities superintendent W.W. Windham when Windham resigned in September 1984.
Davis' resignation, effective March 1, was announced in a written statement distributed at a Tuesday afternoon news conference.

Davis was not present at the meeting.
Davis said in the news release, "I no longer feel that I can be effective in serving the community."
He said, "After considering the recent turn of events and a long discussion with Mayor Clyde Angel and Mayor Pro Tem Harold Hall, I want to announce my resignation from the city of Big Spring effective March 1."
"I want to thank the City Council members, both past and present, the staff, and all my friends for the support I have received the last seven years. Hopefully, we have accomplished something."

"Also, I hope by my resigning, the community will be able to unite and go forward to meet the challenges that lie ahead."
Davis could not be reached Tuesday or this morning for comment on his resignation.
Mayor Angel said the council will decide in Tuesday's meeting what steps will be taken to replace Davis. A member of the city staff may be appointed to act as manager until another one is found, he said.

Angel had little comment on the resignation but said, "I feel that Don's management ability was excellent."
Those sentiments were echoed by Councilman Russ McEwen who

Governor orders 13% spending cut to offset shortfall

By JANET WARREN
Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau
AUSTIN — Gov. Mark White ordered state agencies and universities Tuesday to cut spending by 13 percent, but he said state employees and essential services will not be axed.
Speaking at a news conference, White said savings must offset an estimated $1.3 billion shortfall primarily in state energy-tax money for the two-year budget period ending Aug. 31, 1987.
The income drop is caused by a severe decline in oil prices.
Agency and university heads will have flexibility in reducing general revenue spending by 13 percent, White said. He called for hiring, promotion and merit pay freezes and other savings in administration, consultant contracts, travel, equipment, supplies and utilities.
"I do not want to see across-the-board 13 percent cuts in all areas of an agency's program. We are not going to lay off workers and cut out essential services. And this in no way jeopardizes the 3 percent pay raise for state employees authorized by the Legislature," White said.

But Gary Hughes, spokesman for the Texas Public Employees Association, said spending cannot be trimmed 13 percent without state employees losing their jobs. White should call the Legislature into session this year for consultation and a tax bill may be needed, he said.
House Speaker Gib Lewis and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby issued letters giving White their support, which the governor said will be significant in influencing state agencies to cooperate. A special legislative session won't be needed with the team effort, White said.
"I think we agree on an important condition — that the cuts be directed at less essential programs
Lewis said he consulted major committee chairmen and a majority of the House about the problem. There is, Lewis said, "a strong sentiment and an urgent public necessity to take decisive actions."

Defendant's gun linked to robbery

By SCOTT FITZGERALD
Staff Writer
A pistol identified by state witnesses as the weapon used in an armed robbery at Big Mike's Liquor Store last month belonged to defendant Jimmy McBroom, said game warden Wayne Armstrong during testimony this morning.
McBroom, 22, of Snyder is standing trial in 118th District Court for aggravated robbery after his arrest Jan. 10.
Two others arrested for the robbery, Robert Lee Baker, 28, and Craig Sherman Bailey, 17, both of Snyder pleaded guilty to the charges last month and received prison sentences from Judge

James Gregg.
Armstrong, the third witness summoned by the state to testify, said he was "sitting on a hill, watching activity on a ranch," when he received a radio call from sheriff's deputies saying a robbery had taken place.
He said the dispatch message gave descriptions of the car that left the scene of the robbery and of the suspects.
The game warden said he began traveling south on FM 669 when he noticed a car matching the description traveling north at about 65 to 70 miles per hour.
Armstrong said he stopped the TRIAL page 2-A

South Mountain plan unveiled

By SPENCER SANDOW
Staff Writer
A master plan for the development of South Mountain was unveiled Tuesday afternoon by local businessman Chris Christopher, who owns the 670-acre site.
The proposed development will include single family dwellings, office, recreational and retail sites, and a game preserve, said Christopher.

Plans include a northern addition to the existing development of Highland South at the mountain's base. Although a few Highland South residents have complained about the mountain development, "I haven't had a lot of complaints," Christopher said.
The complaints focused on disappointment "that there had to be a road there" and concern about water that washes down the mountain during a rain, he said. The road will solve the water problem, he added, because it is built on a slant to direct water not down the mountain, as it had been flowing, but down the road and into the Big Spring draw.

As for the other complaints, MOUNTAIN page 2-A

Analyst: Saudi cutback may hike crude prices

By WILLIAM GARLAND
Harte-Hanks Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — Saudi Arabia is likely to drive up oil prices at almost any time by cutting back on excess crude oil production due to political pressures in the Arab world, according to a leading OPEC analyst in Washington.
Saudi Arabia in December sparked the drop in crude prices by announcing that it would step up oil production to maintain its share of the crude oil market and force other members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries to go along with production quotas.
G. Henry M. Schuler, director of energy security studies at Georgetown University in Washington, said that prices could rise as high as $30 per barrel virtually as soon as Saudi Arabia cut back on production.

Schuler's analysis comes even as some crude oil prices dipped below $15 a barrel for the first time since 1979. Kuwait's oil minister warned today in Bahrain that prices could dip as low as $5 a barrel if unrestrained.
Sheik Ali Khalifa Al-Sabah, the Kuwaiti oil minister, said a plunge to $5 a barrel could occur if OPEC and non-OPEC oil producers "continued to defend only individual interests."
Since November, the price of oil on spot and futures markets has dropped by about half.

Reward offered for missing girl

A reward fund account has been set up at First National Bank in the name of Christie Dianne Proctor, 9, who disappeared Saturday near her residence in Dallas, her uncle Greg Brooks of Big Spring said today.
Brooks said posters with Christie's picture and notice of a $5,000 reward being offered by her grandparents, Ralph and Lynette Brooks of Big Spring, are being posted in Dallas today and will be put up in Big Spring Thursday.
Christie, a Big Spring native, moved with her mother and 5-year-old brother Adam to Dallas last November. The brown-haired, blue-eyed fourth-grader attended Hillcrest Baptist School and Marcy Elementary School while in Big Spring.

Police questioned one man Tuesday but released him when he passed a lie detector test, Brooks said today. Police have had a number of telephone tips but none have produced a solid lead in finding the missing girl, he said.
Christie was last seen walking to her apartment complex from a friend's house a few blocks away. A search for her has covered several square miles near LBJ Freeway and North Central Expressway.

Armored car robbed

ABILENE — The robbery of an armored car guard by two gun-wielding handits outside a bank's entrance could have netted as much as $100,000 in cash, police say.

The gunmen on Tuesday took six zippered canvas bags a Loomis guard was loading onto a handcart at the alley entrance of First National Bank. Police said it was the first armored car heist in this West Texas city's history.

Elusive convict arrested

KATY — A former convict who eluded state and federal officers for more than two months was arrested after he tripped a silent burglar alarm at his house, police say.

Gary A. Huggard, 38, an unemployed electrician, was arrested Tuesday evening at his home in Katy, about 20 miles east of Houston, according to Police Chief Pat Adams.

Huggard, armed with a 12-gauge shotgun, was found hiding in an air conditioning duct, Adams said.

Tylenol hotline busy

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. — More than 67,000 Tylenol capsule users called a toll-free hotline in the first 24 hours of its operation and most asked for a coupon for capsule-shaped tablets instead of a refund, Johnson & Johnson announced.

Johnson & Johnson opened the hotline on Monday after it announced that it would no longer offer over-the-counter capsules. It took the action after a New York woman died 10 days ago from a cyanide-contaminated Tylenol capsule. Another tainted capsule was found in a store a few blocks away.

Tax increase proposed

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. — The ALF-CIO blamed trade and budget deficits for high unemployment and called for a tax increase and a defense spending freeze as "the only alternative to unacceptable budget cuts" in domestic programs.

"Massive trade and budget deficits put the nation's future in doubt," the 13-million-member federation of 94 labor unions said Tuesday.

In a series of policy statements adopted by its 35-member executive council, the AFL-CIO also called for sweeping changes in the nation's trade laws, including a 25 percent surcharge on imports from countries with large trade surpluses against the United States.

First deficit reported

NEW YORK — The Farm Credit System's 1985 loss of $2.69 billion, its first annual deficit since the Depression, reflects the continuing slump in a farm economy battered by low commodity and land prices and foreign competition, officials say.

Prince honors philanthropist billionaire

DALLAS (AP) — An "ordinary man" who had stepped into Cinderella's glass slipper shook the hand of a prince and wiggled under the embrace of America's first lady as more than 1,600 people cheered his deeds that are far from mundane.

Insisting he is more a grain of sand than worthy of such a high honor, billionaire H. Ross Perot accepted the Winston Churchill Award from Britain's Prince Charles Tuesday night in a banquet that attracted the elite in a city that is as assuming as Perot isn't.

And today, that drained but exhilarated city bade farewell to the Prince of Wales as he concluded a whirlwind two-day tour and headed off to Houston for more Texas Sesquicentennial celebrations.

Vowing to return soon with Princess Diana in tow, Prince Charles raced through a crowded agenda of high-tech tours, brass bands, a City Hall luncheon and a black-tie gala showcasing the Churchill award for Perot.

His royal highness said he didn't know what to expect when he accepted the invitation to present the award, "but I should have known that if it was in Texas it would be bigger than anything else."

Where else, he wanted to know, would he be treated to such a spectacular banquet that featured an entire symphony orchestra, a performance by opera star Leontyne Price and a serenade by the U.S. Naval Academy Glee Club?

Perot, the 55-year-old founder of Electronic Data Systems, is the third person and the first businessman to receive the Churchill Award, which was begun in 1981 and is given those who best epitomize the British statesman's spirit.

Perot — who said he felt like "Cinderella" but quickly assured the prince that didn't require a royal waltz between them — claimed to be completely stumped when his wife, Margot, asked him why the Churchill Foundation of America chose him for the award.

And with first lady Nancy Reagan, Gov. Mark White and Churchill's daughter looking on Tuesday night, Perot said the foundation's board will "bear a special burden over the years explaining why you gave this to me."

He added that "Winston Churchill was an extraordinary man. I am an ordinary man; I'm not in that league."

Yet, besides founding EDS, one of the nation's most successful electronics firms, Perot is known for such ventures as his thwarted attempt in 1969 to fly into Hanoi to give American prisoners of war medical supplies and Christmas dinners.

The well-known philanthropist also financed a successful 1979 mission to rescue two of his employees from an Iranian prison. The rescue became the subject of a best-selling book, "On Wings of Eagles."

In presenting the award, Prince Charles praised Perot as a man of "bold imagination, pioneering spirit and dynamic leadership," attributes which he said were exemplified by the man in whose name the award was presented.

The lavish banquet at the Loews Anatole Hotel — which included caviar and crabmeat, veal and vegetables, wine and champagne — raised $1.5 million for the Churchill Foundation.

Car bomb explodes

LISBON, Portugal — A bomb planted in the trunk of a Marine's car exploded in flames just inside the modern, newly-protected U.S. Embassy compound, but quick action by Portuguese guards prevented casualties, embassy officials said.

Tuesday's explosion came shortly after the guards spotted a suspicious-looking parcel in the car trunk during a routine security check, said the sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Military aid pushed

WASHINGTON — The White House is packaging a request for $100 million in aid to Nicaraguan rebels with charges that the Marxist government in Managua is using massive amounts of sophisticated weapons from the Soviet Union and Cuba to inflict heavy casualties on an out-gunned opposition.

President Reagan, dismissing $27 million in U.S. aid to Nicaraguan rebels as mere "Band-Aids and mosquito nets," began to press Congress on Tuesday for $100 million in rebel assistance and an end to the ban on military aid.

Captors free 3 workers

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Three Spanish Embassy employees kidnapped in west Beirut more than a month ago were freed unharmed by their captors at Justice Minister Nabih Berri's office today.

Reporters called to a hastily arranged news conference saw the three men brought to Berri's office by senior officials of his Shiite Moslem Amal militia.

The freed hostages were identified as Pedro Sanchez, Assad Abdo and Gaspar Abdo.

Rambo banned in India

BOMBAY, India — India has banned the U.S. box-office hit "Rambo" because of what it says is the movie's anti-Soviet and anti-Vietnamese content, an official said today.

"The film was seen last week by the examination committee of the Censor Board and banned outright," Anna Dani, regional officer of the Censor Board, told The Associated Press.

"It could lead to straining of friendly relations with a foreign state," Mrs. Dani said, quoting from the rules of India's Central Board of Film Certification.

Fireball sighted in sky

VANCOUVER, British Columbia — A fireball as bright as the moon streaked across the nighttime sky and exploded above southwestern British Columbia and northern Washington state, an astronomer here said.

The Washington State Patrol office in the Bellingham-Everett area received a few telephone calls from people who believed they had seen a UFO after the fireball appeared around 9 p.m. Tuesday.

The Future of ERA looks uninspiring

In an age when American women enjoy expanding freedom and growing equality, the demise of the Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution is an anomaly. When approved by Congress in 1972, the proposal was hardly controversial. When time ran out on ratification 11 years later, it was the subject of bitter disputes. A 1983 attempt to revive it failed, and its future looks exceedingly bleak.

What doomed it? Gilbert Steiner, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution who clearly supports the ERA, examines the question in his new book, "Constitutional Inequality." Several obstacles arose, but one was critical: abortion.

In its early months, the ERA rolled along like the Wabash Cannonball. The first three states to ratify it did so without a single vote opposed. It took less than two years to win passage in 33 states.

But while all that was happening, the Supreme Court placed a log across the track. In January 1973, in the historic Roe vs. Wade decision, it established a constitutional right to abortion. The implications for the ERA only gradually became clear, as opponents recognized that it would probably reinforce abortion rights. If the public wasn't inclined to outlaw abortion, neither was it prepared to do anything to expand its availability. After February 1974, only three states passed the amendment.

Another blow came in 1980, when the Supreme Court upheld the Hyde Amendment forbidding the use of Medicaid funds for abortions. Had the court struck it down, the matter would have been settled and the ERA would have been irrelevant. But this ruling raised the prospect that the amendment would create a new entitlement to abortion. It was, says Steiner, "a disaster for ERA's prospects."

Those prospects are no better now, because the amendment's proponents refuse to separate the ERA from the abortion question. "An ERA can almost surely move through Congress again and would have brighter prospects for ratification," says Steiner, "if its sponsors agreed to almost any proviso limiting access to abortion."

But they refuse. When the House voted on reviving the ERA in 1983, the Democratic leadership blocked consideration of any amendments, including one related to abortion. The ERA was rejected.

Damaging as the abortion issue was, however, it wasn't the only big obstacle. Equally critical was that the need for the amendment became less clear with each passing year.

Michael McConnell, a constitutional law professor at the University of Chicago, points out that when Congress approved the ERA, there were still plenty of laws mandating gross discrimination by sex. But in the ensuing years, the courts systematically struck them down. The Supreme Court has ruled that the government can mandate differential treatment by sex only if it has a powerful justification.

With that, the ERA came to be one of two things — either a merely symbolic gesture or, as McConnell puts it, "a delegation of enormous power to the courts to do things we may not like." It didn't help that supporters didn't seem to agree what the effects would be, or even to care. The attitude was: Pass it first, find out the meaning later.

But the public wasn't comfortable with many of the possible court actions that would be stimulated by the ERA — such as subjecting women to the draft and banning tax exemptions for single-sex schools, neither of which was popular or obviously beneficial to women. The truly offensive types of discrimination that gave rise to the amendment had, by the late 1970s, been largely eradicated either by the courts or by the 1964 Civil Rights Act. When they vanished, they took with them the most persuasive rationale for the ERA.

The desirable gains from passage, by the time the amendment was pronounced dead, were few and unimportant, while the risks were many and grave. It is true, as Steiner says, that the "expansion of abortion rights is a heavier weight than the ERA seems able to carry." But with all the burdens that weigh down the amendment, even tossing abortion over the side probably wouldn't be enough to keep it afloat.

Mussavi clan root cause of terrorism in Mideast

By JACK ANDERSON and DALE VAN ATTA
WASHINGTON — Among the assorted terrorist groups and individual assassins carrying out Iran's undeclared war on the United States, one murderous family bears a disproportionate share of responsibility.

The Mussavi clan, currently based in Lebanon, deserves to be treated with the same barbaric inhumanity its members have shown toward the Americans they have killed. We can't do that, but we can put their depredations on record, against the day when they will finally be brought to justice.

One point about the Mussavi clan should be made clear at the start: Its motives for terrorizing Americans have less to do with Shiite Moslem fundamentalism than with plain, old-fashioned greed. The so-called Islamic revolution merely gives the Mussavis the protective coloration of religious fervor as they shoot and bomb their way to ever greater power.

In fact, intelligence assessments of the Mussavis' rapid accumulation of wealth and influence suggest that they are closer to the Corleone family of "The Godfather" than to the dedicated followers of Mohammed.

In only three years, from their base in the Bekaa Valley of eastern Lebanon, the Mussavis have murdered and kidnapped Americans, leaving at least 264 dead as a result of their operations. They still hold four almost-forgotten American citizens as hostages. Another American, CIA agent William Buckley, was brutalized for a year after his kidnapping and eventually died of heart failure brought on by torture.

The Mussavis were responsible for the October 1983 bombing of the U.S. Marine barracks at Beirut Airport in which 241 died. Then in December of that year they were peripherally involved in a series of bombings in Kuwait, which resulted in the arrest and conviction of 17 conspirators.

Two of the 17 were Lebanese Shiites — both from the Mussavi clan, according to intelligence sources. A Mussavi terrorist gang, calling itself Hezbollah (Party of God), emerged at about the time and began a wave of kidnapping and hijacking with one principal goal: release of the 17 prisoners in Kuwait.

For example, the key demand for release of the hijacked TWA plane last June and a Kuwaiti airliner six months earlier was release of the 17 terrorists. The demands were not met, and the hijackings ended, but three Americans were killed in the two incidents.

More significantly, last September the Hezbollah reportedly made a tentative offer of a prisoner swap: The four American hostages for two of the 17 terrorists being held in Kuwait. The two were the Mussavi clansmen.

The ultimate aim of the Mussavi family seems to be the creation of an Islamic Republic of Lebanon, run by pro-Iranian Shiites, of which the Mussavis would be the most powerful. In a secret meeting with top Iranian officials, Hussein Mussavi (code-named Mirhashem) gave a rousing speech laying out his objectives:

"The reactionary forces of the region," he said, "either out of fear or for reasons of dependence on the superpowers, are arming themselves to the teeth, which is not to the advantage of the Islamic Republic of Iran. And there is no way that we can bring them to their knees unless we are able to inflict relentless blows on them from within. That is, to neutralize them at every step."

Unfortunately, the Mussavis have demonstrated an awful ability to live up to their bloodthirsty rhetoric.

CONFIDENTIAL FILE: Consumption of alcoholic drinks is strictly prohibited in the Ayatollah Khomeini's fundamentalist Iran, but that hasn't dried up a brisk export trade in beer. State Department sources say the beer being produced sub rosa in Iran is shipped across the border to the Turks. The arrangement is secret for fear of offending the more conservative mullahs. Incidentally, clandestine chug-a-luggers report that the Iranian beer, while not up to German standards, isn't bad at all.

More women seek top elective offices

By SANDY JOHNSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — It has the look of a classic political matchup: On the Democratic side, a five-term U.S. representative whose liberal roots run deep in state and local politics.

On the Republican side, a top White House aide whose conservative credentials include a combative stint on the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

Both are candidates for the U.S. Senate in Maryland.

And both are women. If Barbara Mikulski, Democrat, and Linda Chavez, Republican, win their respective primaries on Sept. 9 — and both are considered front-runners — it would mark the first U.S. Senate race in which voters choose between women.

The prospect is exciting to the women's groups that have fought long and hard to put women in the nation's top elective offices. Although 15 women have served as senators since 1922, it was not until 1978 that a woman — Nancy Landon Kassebaum of Kansas — was elected in her own right without following a spouse into office.

Today, Mrs. Kassebaum and Sen. Paula Hawkins of Florida are the only two women U.S. senators.

This year, 10 women are running for the 34 Senate seats at stake — still not a large number, but a better show than in years past.

Political observers believe that several of the 10 women seeking Senate seats can win in November. "None of these are sacrificial lambs," said Rosalie Whelan, executive director of the National Women's Education Fund.

Added Celinda Lake of the Women's Campaign Fund, an independent bipartisan committee devoted to electing women: Of the 10, two are consistently mentioned as having excellent chances of victory: Ms. Mikulski and Democratic Lt. Gov. Harriett Woods of Missouri.

Ms. Mikulski and Miss Chavez are seeking the Senate seat being vacated by Republican incumbent Charles Mathias.

Ms. Mikulski served as a city councilwoman in Baltimore for five years before challenging Mathias in an ill-fated 1974 race. She then served 10 years in the House.

The GOP's Narsavage said women have been reluctant to take on Senate races because they don't want "to put up with that kind of psychological harassment that a woman is subjected to when running for office. Anyone who runs for office is going to be subjected to intense public scrutiny, but the spotlight shines harshest on a woman when they run."

In Maryland, if Ms. Mikulski wins the Democratic primary — and polls give her a 2-to-1 edge over Gov. Harry Hughes, who has not announced his candidacy, and Rep. Michael Barnes, who has — chances are her general election opposition will be Miss Chavez, a former Democrat who resigned as the highest-ranking woman in the White House to take on the Senate race with President Reagan's blessings.

The two-woman showdown, if it comes about, would be a first. Ms. Lake said it would offer voters "two women with distinct contrasts in ideological positions."

Mrs. Woods is expected to make a second bid for the Senate, after losing in 1982 to incumbent Sen. John Danforth after her campaign ran out of money in the crucial closing weeks before the election. In 1984 she rebounded to win the lieutenant governor's office, the only Democrat to win statewide office in a Republican sweep.

This year her competition for the seat being vacated by Democrat Thomas Eagleton pro-

Plague, epidemics ...Gramm-Rudman

To the editor:

How's that! An epidemic of head lice in some of the Permian Basin schools (Midland)? When I think back on my school days in Tennessee in the 1930s, this seems to me to be a sure sign of an economic national depression.

I realize that there are other indicators in regard to our national economy that is frightening to say the least but if our schools start having epidemics of whooping cough, seven year itch and pink eye then we had better look out.

In my youth I had all the above, not to mention mumps, measles and chicken pox. So I should know how these afflictions run in conjunction with national panics.

I have had my head combed out with a fine tooth comb over a newspaper to see if I had them and then had my hair shampooed with PEAR'S PINE TAR SOAP. I have been put to bed in a darkened room, had my body coated with BLUE STAR OINTMENT and I have been sent to school with a flannel rag liberally soaked in VICK'S SALVE plastered to my chest.

P.S. Do you think that the legends told about Halley's Comet by the old folks in regard to the things mentioned above could contain some truth? Such things as these plagues, indicators and Gramm-Rudman?

Cattle in flood waters south of Sacramento wait as ranchers Pete Saunders, left, and John Grover cut a wire fence so they can be driven to higher ground Tuesday as heavy rains drenched the northern California area.

Storms pummel California

By The Associated Press
The fifth powerful Pacific storm in an eight-day barrage that has left at least 10 people dead pounded the West today as more than 10,000 people remained out of homes invaded by floodwaters, landslides and avalanches.
"There's no town left," said Guerneville, Calif., resident Beatrice Wood, who was evacuated by helicopter. The Navy helped rescue evacuees stranded in a church there.
People in western Nevada along the Truckee and Carson rivers and across much of northern and central California, where sporadic looting was reported Tuesday, were told to brace for possible flash floods today. Up to a foot of new snow was expected by this afternoon in the Sierra Nevadas and Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

States of emergency have been declared in three California counties, four in Nevada and one in Utah. The National Guard was mobilized in Nevada and California to help in evacuations and sandbagging.
At least 10 people were killed and four missing since the waves of Pacific storms began pummeling the region Feb. 11.
After a brief respite, the latest storm struck Tuesday night and northern California again was hit hardest.
"We're getting some pretty good downpours out of it, (but) it doesn't compare with Friday's, which was the worst of the bunch," said Bob Diaz of the National Weather Service in Redwood City, Calif.

The break earlier Tuesday enabled rivers that had reached their highest levels in 31 years to recede slightly, but forecasters said showers were likely with locally heavy downpours into the weekend.
"Thursday, we'll have a pretty good lull from what we've had in the past week, but Friday we'll get more. It could very well end Sunday," Diaz said.
Northern and central California are caught in a vise between a southwesterly flow of warm, moist air from the Hawaiian Islands and cold air from the north, said Rick Orres of the weather service's San Francisco office, "and it's just been dropping rain on us day after day."

Weather study sessions set

The National Weather Service in Midland will offer severe weather spotter training sessions Thursday at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. in the conference room of Big Spring Airport Building No. 1106, in cooperation with the Big Spring/Howard County Emergency Management Office.
Topics to be discussed are the service's warning system, identifying tornadoes and other forms of severe weather, procedures for reporting severe weather, and safety tips. The sessions will last about two hours, and each will include a question and answer period.
The sessions are free, and anyone interested may attend.

Incumbents file for re-election

FORSAN — Incumbents Jim Alexander and Jack Howard have filed for re-election to the Forsan Independent School District board of trustees.
Two positions are open for election April 5. The filing deadline is March 5.
Elbow Elementary School will have an open house March 6 at 7 p.m. to allow voters to meet the candidates.
Also, teachers will be available to visit with parents or set appointments for a more in-depth conference. Parents of students who are having difficulties are especially encouraged to make an appointment.

Dr. Donohue

Diet problems of the PKU child

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: Please write about PKU. The baby of a young friend has this. In a protein-oriented society, the problem of diet restriction for such a youngster is troubling. The child will be a year old soon, and will have to associate with people outside the home. I fear someone will inadvertently give him some "goodie" he must not have. Please help educate the public about this.

— E.L.H.
PKU is phenylketonuria. It's an inherited metabolism problem in which the child lacks an enzyme needed for breakdown of a certain amino acid, phenylalanine, which is part of many proteins. Levels of the amino acid may build up in the blood and threaten brain damage. Infants are routinely checked for this condition at birth in many states. If it is detected early, brain damage is averted by strict enforcement of a diet low in the substance.

Parental adherence to such a restrictive diet can be a chore, and it is, as you say, always subject to disruption by well-meaning, but unaware neighbors and visitors. But the child must follow it. Some even need special milk without the phenylalanine. Periodic blood and urine testing keeps the doctor abreast of the progress of the PKU problem.

Parents of the child have to find ways to inform the neighborhood of the danger inadvertent dietary slip-ups threaten. It is probably best to impose a total no-treat restriction. Sometimes a single slip can encourage the child to cheat on his own.

I'd like to educate the public about PKU restrictions, which involve protein food that includes the specific amino acid no-no. Instead of going into specifics, let me just say that people, as a general rule, should not offer treats or snacks to youngsters without first checking to see if there are any diet restrictions in force, PKU or other. That would solve the problem for your friend's child and others.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I have suffered from migraines for years.

They haven't been too frequent, but the unpredictability is what troubles me. Do you think it would really be worthwhile to check into food as an allergy trigger? My doctor isn't too familiar with allergy.

— Mrs. J.F.
Attention to diet has helped some; it might help you. Let me suggest that you begin in a small way by looking for the common offenders — eggs, milk, wheat, tyramine-containing foods (certain cheeses, for example). I am sure your doctor can help you get started on a program. If not, an allergist most certainly can.

Headaches — you can beat them! Write to Dr. Donohue, P.O. Box 11210, Chicago, IL 60611.

Enjoy

Winning pie recipes

By CADLEEN EVERETT

Lifestyle Editor

This week's recipes are from winners of the Cherry Pie Contest sponsored by the Big Spring Mall Saturday.

A youth division made up of 4-H members and an adult division competed in the cherry pie contest for the coveted blue ribbon.

The pies were judged on texture, flavor, crust, color, filling and over-all appearance.

First place winner of the youth division is Kelly Newton, 14, of Gay Hill 4-H Club. Her recipe is:

Work together and pack in bottom of pie pan.

1/4 lb. butter

1 1/2 cup crushed graham crackers

1/2 cup sugar

Bake at 325 F for 8 minutes.

Cream together and place over crust.

1 cup sifted confectioners sugar

8 oz. softened cream cheese

Layer a can of ready-to-use cherries over cream cheese. Top with cool whip (8 or 9 ounces). Refrigerate.

Second place winner of the youth division is Courtney Fryar, 9, of Knott 4-H Club. Her recipe is:

Two 9" pie crusts

1 can cherry pie filling

1 cup sugar

cinnamon

Mix together pie filling and sugar. Pour into pie crust. Cut the second crust in strips and criss-cross across the top. Dust with cinnamon and sugar. Bake at 350 F for 30 minutes

Third place of winner of the youth division is Raemi Fryar, 11, of Knott 4-H Club. Her recipe is:

Four 3 oz. packages cream cheese

3/4 cup of sugar

3 eggs

1/2 tsp. vanilla

Combine soft cream cheese and sugar and beat until smooth. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each. Add vanilla then pour into a graham cracker crust. Bake for 30 minutes at 350 F. Mix 1/2 pint sour cream, 1/2 cup sugar, and a 1/2 teaspoon of vanilla. Pour over cheese cake. Bake 15 more minutes and let it cool.

Cherry topping:

16 ounce can of cherries

2 tbsp. of cornstarch

1 cup sugar

Boil cherries, cornstarch and sugar until thickened. Pour over the pie.

First place winner of the adult division is Mel Prather of Big Spring. His recipe is:

PIE CRUST:

1 cup chopped pecans

1 1/2 sticks butter, softened

1 1/2 cups flour

2 tbsp. sugar

Mix ingredients together. Pat into pie pan and bake at 325 F for 20 minutes.

Yield: 1 pastry shell

PIE FILLING:

1 can cherry pie filling

1 cup chopped pecans

1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon

1/2 cup sugar

juice of 1/2 lemon

Mix in saucepan over medium heat. Cook until all dry ingredients cook into the cherry pie filling, about 20 minutes.

PIE TOPPING:

2 cups sugar

1 cup boiling water

1 tbsp. Karo syrup, light

1/2 tsp. vinegar

In mixing bowl, beat 5 or 6 egg whites until very stiff. Combine above ingredients into saucepan. Bring to boil on medium heat, stirring only until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking until mixture reaches soft-ball stage (238 degrees on candy thermometer). Pour slowly into egg whites with mixer stirring. Add 1 tsp. vanilla. Spread mixture on cooled pie filling once place in pecan shell.

Second place winner of the adult division is Helen Smith of Big Spring. Her recipe is:

9-inch pie crust mix (or your own)

2 cans pie cherries (in water)

1 cup sugar or 12 pkg. sweet-n-low

2 1/2 tsp. minute tapioca

1/4 tsp. salt

1/2 cup cherry juice

5 drops red food coloring

Drain cherries 3 cups. Mix 1/2 cup cherry juice with tapioca, salt, sugar (sweet-n-low) and food coloring. Mix well. Let stand for about 10 minutes. Mix again and pour into pie crust. Dot with butter and put top crust on. Put 3 or 4 slits on top. Bake at 425 F for 50 minutes. You may put a scoop of vanilla ice-cream on top.

Marmalade: it's origin and history

Marmalade is one of America's favorite breakfast foods, but its origin goes way back in English and Scottish history — perhaps even to the Duke of Wellington or Mary, Queen of Scots.

There are various kinds of marmalade, including lime, three fruits and grapefruit varieties, according to an article in the February issue of Town & Country, but in Britain and the U.S. when someone says just plain marmalade, they mean orange.

In England and Scotland, marmalade is a preserve made from the bigarade or bitter Seville orange, while in the United States the sweet or China orange is used.

The bitter orange has been known in England since the 12th century, when Crusaders brought orange trees from the Holy Land to Italy and Provence.

The name marmalade actually comes from "marmelo," the Portuguese name for quince. How it came to mean an orange preserve is a matter of legend. In one version, Arthur Wesley, later to become the Duke of Wellington, was in Portugal during the Peninsula Wars of the early 19th century.

He sent home quince and orange jams, but an aide mistakenly labeled both of them "marmalata," from "marmelada," the Portuguese word for quince jam. The name stuck to the orange jam.

College board extends Riley's term by 3 years

The Howard County Junior College District board of trustees on Tuesday voted to extend Howard College president Bob Riley's contract for another three years.

The decision was made in an executive session at the board's regular meeting, Riley said.

In other business, the board: Accepted the resignation of Carl Johansen, coordinator/instructor of the ornamental horticulture program at the Big Spring Federal Prison Camp. Gary Tabor was hired as a replacement.

Voted to buy two microcomputers for the drafting department from Computer Creations of Lubbock for $3,485 each.

Voted to buy 27 microcomputer printers for the San Angelo center from Computer Creations for $265 each, a total of $4,505.

Heard a report from Riley about an electrical energy conservation program that would entail replacing light bulbs with high efficiency bulbs. Riley said he will present a proposal to the board at its next meeting.

Riley told board members the program would save $20,000 per year in energy costs. The board would have to approve $25,000 to buy the high efficiency bulbs, but "they would pay for themselves after little over a year," Riley said.

Six enter race for four seats on school board

COAHOMA — Six persons have filed for candidacy for four open seats on the Coahoma Independent School District board of trustees, said Superintendent Jerry Doyle.

Three of the positions are up for election this year, and the fourth position was vacated by Warren Jeter with two years left in the term, said Doyle.

Incumbent Jim Wright, owner of Universal Construction Co., is running for one of two at-large positions, as are Jimmy Sterling, a Vincent rancher; Marty Brooks, a Coahoma farmer; and Nick Nichols, a signal maintainer at Union Pacific Railroad, Doyle said.

Incumbents Kirby Brown and Donny Reid have not filed for reelection, he said.

Marvin Keenan of the Department of Public Safety and Bill Gressett, who works for Southwestern Bell in Big Spring, have filed for the seat vacated by Jeter.

March 5 is the deadline to file for the election, which will be April 5.

Coleman request to be studied

The Colorado River Municipal Water District will consider a request by the city of Coleman for 2,000 acre feet of water in the Stacy reservoir at its meeting Feb. 27.

Other agenda items include a report from general manager O.H. Ivie on the district's application of an environmental impact permit from the U.S. Corps of Engineers for constructing Stacy dam; possible authorization to execute agreements if and when reached; consideration of land, mineral rights and rights-of-way agreements; appropriation of up to $4,000 for a new water flow meter on the Snyder pipeline; and a resolution to replace a lost or misplaced bond.

Museum to hold reception

The Heritage Museum will have a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday to open the Kids' Corner exhibits.

Included in the exhibits are hands-on activities dealing with agriculture, archaeology and dinosaurs. Refreshments will be served. Admission is free.

Taking it to the hoop

Basketball season has ended for most Crossroads teams with the exception of a few. It was not quite the season the Crossroads experienced last year. Yet still, it had its bright spots.

The Big Spring High School varsity teams did not have what you would call banner seasons, but there is reason for hope, especially for the Lady Steers.

First year coach C. E. Carmichael transformed a very unpredictable squad into a very competitive one. This hard-luck team lost five district ballgames by four points or less. That's the bad news. The good news is Carmichael is losing just one senior off the team, although it's leading scorer and rebounder Monique Jones.

Next season look for Katrina Thompson and Teresa Pruitt to have very productive seasons.

The Steers and coach Mike Randle had troubled times for the third consecutive year. One small consolation is they won three district games. Three more than the two seasons before.

The big joy was watching Brian Mayfield in action. The 6-5 sophomore is destined for stardom. He's already the most dominating big man in District 4-5A. He's more than a scorer, he plays all aspects of the game well.

I was saddened by the news that Howard College was terminating the contract of Ed Sparling. Personally I think Sparling was a fine coach and individual. He deserved more than one year to put together a winning team at HC.

Maybe Howard officials can get John Wooden out of retirement?

Not enough that can be said about Hawk-Queens coach Don Stevens.

If there's one thing I've learned, it's never to count one of his teams out. At the start of conference play I didn't give his team of young freshmen much of a chance of finishing in the top four and reaching the region playoffs.

But they are currently tied for fourth place in the conference. Stevens has shown a young, timid team that it has what it takes to win.

Sophomore Lorri French has provided the leadership. Post players Carolyn Willand and Sophia Ish have provided the brawn and guard Terri Powell has provided the fireworks.

I wouldn't bet against the Queens reaching the playoffs.

The boys middle schools teams had the best year of all local teams. The A and B teams from Goidad and Runnels lost a combined total only five games all season.

I'd like to see the day when these talented youngsters team with sophomore Steers Brian Mayfield and Shawn Shellman on the hardcourt. It'll be jamming time in the Spring City.

The area prep season wasn't quite as good as last year because there's not a team in the caliber of last season's Klondike boys or Borden County girls.

Three boys and girls team each made the playoffs this season. Stanton and Sands were the top two boys team while Coahoma and Garden City headed the girls' competition.

Leslie Kirkpatrick and Shana Fowler of Coahoma were two of the two post players in the area. Jana Hunter of Garden City and Forsan's Trish Devore were two that could light it up from the outside.

Stanton had a good pair of guards in Kevin Glaspie and Mark Gonzales. With his smooth outside shot, Leland Borden of Sands was the premier point scorer in the area and big Brent Staggs improved considerably to become a dominating force in the middle for the Mustangs.

Kudos also go to four first-year coaches who took their teams to the playoffs; Ken Kelso of Coahoma, Jimmy Fine of Garden City, John Blair of Sands and C.L. Coates of Forsan.

Veteran coach Eric Looney of Stanton also deserves rich credit for the job he has done with the Buffs in the extremely competitive District 8-2A.

Bulldogettes season ends

Lady Bearkats prevail, 33-31

IMPERIAL — The Garden City Lady Bearkats got a bit of revenge as they took a 33-31 win over the Fort Davis Indians last night in state area playoff action.

Last year the Indians, of District 14-A, defeated the Lady Bearkats 55-51 in the area game.

But it was not to be on this night as coach Jimmy Fine's team held on to the win with clutch free throw shooting and good ball handling.

As expected the game was a nip-and-tuck affair all the way. Neither team held more than a four-point lead. Ironically, the game was tied after the end of the first three quarters, 10-10, 19-19 and 26-26.

Garden City took the lead in the final quarter when forward Jana Hunter, who led all scorers with 21 points, made a basket.

Still holding a two point lead, Garden City went into a stall at the 4:35 mark. "We went into a stall but we wanted to score," explained Fine. Our ball handlers, Gena Schaefer, Jan Hunter and Carol Hoelscher did a fine job.

The Lady Bearkats ran two-and-a-half minutes of the clock before Hunter hit a basket from the top of the key, giving the Lady Bearkats a 30-26 lead.

Ft. Davis came back and cut the lead to 30-29 with 16 seconds left. Garden City's Jacque Jost was fouled. She missed the front end of the one-and-one but teammate Windi Hilger rebounded and was fouled on the play. Hilger made the most of her only points of the game, nailing both attempts, giving her team a 32-29 lead.

Ft. Davis added a basket, cutting the lead back down to one. But Hunter iced the game with nine seconds left when she made a free throw, giving Garden City its 17th win in 24 games.

GARDEN CITY (33) — Danette Holdampf 4 2 10; Jana Hunter 8 5 21; Windi Hilger 0 2 2; totals 12 9 33.

FT. DAVIS (31) — Mathis 1 1 3; Harnette 2 1 5; Medley 6 0 12; Lane 3 0 6; Lara 0 1 1; Moore 2 0 4; totals 14 3 31.

Comanche 51

Coahoma 41

CLYDE — The Coahoma Bulldogettes picked the wrong team to have a bad shooting night against. Coach Ken Kelso's squad shot an uncharacteristic 25 percent from the floor while falling to the undefeated Comanche Maidens 51-41 last night in a AAA area playoff game.

"What can I say," said Kelso after the loss. "The kids played as hard as they could. But it's hard to win when you make 17 of 68 from the floor."

Even the Bulldogettes free throw shooting wasn't up to par. Normally a 70 percent shooting team from the line, they hit just 7 of 15 attempts.

The game threatened to be a blowout in the first quarter as cold shooting saw Coahoma fall behind 32-17 at the half. But Coahoma game out strong in the second half, utilizing its full-court press. They narrowed the margin to 38-28 going into the final quarter, and cut the lead to single figures a couple of times. But time ran out on the Bulldogettes.

"We were forcing turnovers and getting steals off our press," said Kelso. I really think if we had five more minutes we would have caught them. Nancy Cunningham, Teri Tucker, Nancy Hardison and Shelly Dorn handled the ball well. We had only five turnovers the entire game."

Senior post players Leslie Kirkpatrick and Brandi Kloss led Coahoma with 12 and 11 points respectively.

Comanche, ranked No. 5 in the state, pushes its record to 30-0.

Reagan Co. 64, Haskell 55

The undefeated Reagan County girls basketball team rolled by Haskell 64-55 Tuesday at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum in a Class-2A area playoff game.

The Owls, 26-0 this season, were led by senior guard Leslie Gooch with 20 points and Rachel Vargas' 10 points. Reagan County outscored Haskell 14-9 in the opening period and padded their lead in all but the second quarter. The win advances Reagan County into the regional tournament being held Friday and Saturday at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

Howard College women's basketball coach Don Stevens has been recruiting the highly sought after Gooch, along with several other local junior colleges and four year schools.

Evert-Lloyd romps in Lipton tennis

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — Chris Evert Lloyd isn't satisfied with straight-set victories. She wants devastation.

That's what she got Tuesday night when she routed Terry Phelps 6-2, 6-0 in the quarterfinals of the $1.8 million Lipton International Players Championships. The match took just 50 minutes and Lloyd won the last 11 games.

The result sent a message to the other three players remaining in the women's draw — Lloyd is primed to win this two-week, Grand Slam-like event.

Her next opponent is ninth-seeded Kathy Rinaldi. The other semifinal Thursday will pit second-seeded Steffi Graf of West Germany against seventh-seeded Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia.

The men's quarterfinals began today with top-seeded Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia against 10th-seeded Joakim Nystrom of Sweden, third-seeded Jimmy Connors played sixth-seeded Yannick Noah of France, and fifth-seeded Stefan Edberg of Sweden played unheralded Milan Srejber of Czechoslovakia in the afternoon matches.

The night match pits unseeded Guy Forget of France against second-seeded Mats Wilander of Sweden.

Lloyd said she was disappointed with her play in the first week of the tournament at Boca West. She never lost a set, but several of her opponents played her tough, which is more than could be said for Phelps.

Rinaldi, who never has won a set off Lloyd in three previous meetings, was locked in a battle with Bassett until the Canadian made an error at a crucial time. With Rinaldi up 6-5 in a first-set tiebreaker, Bassett set up for an easy overhead at the net and hit the ball long to lose the set. She never recovered and lost the match 7-6, 6-2.

West German Steffi Graf returns to Zina Garrison of Houston, during their match in the Lipton International Players Championship yesterday. Graf won the match 6-2, 6-7, 6-3.

"It was so easy," Bassett said drawing out the "so" for emphasis. "I got lucky on that point."

Rinaldi admitted, "But the point before I missed a forehand that almost went over the fence. It's just too bad that she missed on set point."

Rinaldi said she is looking forward to playing Lloyd, though with a little trepidation.

"The last few times I've played her, I never really have been in the match," said Rinaldi, who at 18 is 13 years younger than Lloyd. "I start off well but can't keep it up. Hopefully, I can be more consistent this time."

While two South Floridians — Lloyd is from Fort Lauderdale and Rinaldi is from Martin Downs — fight it out in one semifinal, the other is a battle of Europeans.

Sukova defeated 14th-seeded Barbara Potter 6-1, 6-2 in 53 minutes Wednesday. "I played very well and she didn't serve very well," Sukova said. "I didn't let her do anything because I was serving well and returning well."

Graf had a much more difficult match. At first, she appeared to be cruising into the semifinals, taking a 6-2, 5-3 lead. But the spunky Garrison fought back to win the second set in a tie-breaker. She ran out of steam, however, and Graf rebounded to win 6-2, 6-7, 6-2.

Spur's Robertson records second 'quadruple double'

By the Associated Press
Alvin Robertson became only the second NBA player to post double figures in four statistical categories in one game, but the only history that was important to him was a one-point loss Phoenix handed San Antonio on Feb. 1.

Robertson had 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals Tuesday night in the Spurs' 120-111 victory over the Suns. It was the first time that double figures had been reached in those four categories.

Nate Thurmond had 22 points, 14 rebounds, 13 assists and 12 blocked shots on opening night in 1974-75 for the Chicago Bulls, the only other known "quadruple-double."

"I feel happy and excited about the stats, but winning the game is most important," Robertson said. "A win is the ultimate satisfaction I can get."

On Feb. 1, Robertson was outplayed by Walter Davis, who outscored him 28-13 in a 112-111 Phoenix victory in San Antonio. Davis had 22 points in Tuesday's game.

"What can you say about Alvin? He just battles for you the whole game," San Antonio Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons said.

Despite Robertson's efforts,

Phoenix almost won the Spurs game at the free throw line. Through three quarters, the Suns were 30-for-33 at the foul line, and had 21 more free throws in the fourth period, but missed 12.

"It looked like we were going to do the same thing we did last time," said Fitzsimmons, referring to the Feb. 1 loss. "In the second half, it seemed like the one way they could score was at the free throw line."

Phoenix forward Larry Nance said the Suns' upset victory over the Boston Celtics on Monday may have taken its toll.

"Our team expended ourselves last night in the Boston victory," said Nance, who had 17 points for the Suns. "And it might have had an effect on tonight's game. But that's life in the NBA."

The play of Robertson and Mike Mitchell, who led the Spurs with 27 points, enabled San Antonio to lead from start to finish.

The Spurs led by 18 points before the Suns rallied in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 112-111. A jumper by Mitchell gave San Antonio a three-point lead and Robertson followed with a steal that led to a basket by Artis Gilmore, making it 116-111.

"I just got a-lucky play," a smile-ing Robertson said after the game.

Nuggets 101, Bullets 90
Alex English sparked a 15-1 run in the fourth period with eight of his 38 points, irving Denver to its victory over Washington.

The Nuggets led 66-43 early in the second half before the Bullets closed the gap to 80-78 with 7:19 left in the game.

Kevin McKenna and Gus Williams each had three-point goals to highlight the rally, but English followed with five consecutive points as Denver pulled away again.

Cliff Robinson led Washington scoring with 17 points, while rookie Manute Bol had eight blocked shots.

Kings 115, Rockets 105
Reggie Theus scored 18 of his 22 points in the decisive third quarter of Sacramento's triumph over Houston, the Midwest Division leader.

Mike Woodson also had 22 points for the Kings, who outscored the Rockets 40-31 in the third period for an 88-79 advantage going into the fourth quarter.

Ralph Sampson, playing center for the second straight game because of Akeem Olatunji's knee injury, led the Rockets with 24 points, 13 of them in the final period.

Cavaliers 111, Knicks 105
Cleveland handed New York its seventh consecutive loss as Roy Hinson scored 21 of his game-high 34 points in the second half and John Bagley added 20 points and 10 assists.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

FORECAST FOR THURSDAY, FEB. 20, 1986

GENERAL TENDENCIES: An undercurrent of resentment could take away from the otherwise good influences which prevail where both creative and pleasurable activities are concerned.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Even though promises have been broken in the past, think and act kindly and improve the situation at home.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You may have difficulty in carrying on with confidential work if you get into arguments with others.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Do not get involved in an argument between an associate and a bigwig or you lose precious time in gaining personal wishes.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Plan your time carefully so that you can handle your job and can still squeeze in other interests.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Get your bills paid up and wait until you have more money to spend on the pleasures you like.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Arguments between a family tie and an outsider could cause you to lose much valuable time, if you permit.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Keep busy at your job and forget other activities otherwise you encounter much trouble.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you schedule your time wisely, you can handle your business and creative affairs very well today.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Plan how you can coordinate your wishes with family members and follow through. Don't be too extravagant.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Deciding whether to get into outside business affairs or get rid of some secret anxiety is difficult.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Pals who desire to be with you could cost a pretty penny, so think before you entertain them.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Be willing to listen to whatever partners have to suggest since this could prove very helpful to you. Be happy.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will need to be carefully reared and have fine ethical and moral ideals inculcated very early in life so that they become firmly embedded in the subconscious, and then a successful life can be assured. There is the tendency here to want to act too hastily.

"The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Interest rates are lower than they have been in the last 6 years. Prices of homes are lower than they have been in many years. The combination of low interest rates and low prices make this an excellent time to purchase a home. Our listers want to give you the added advantage of special reduced prices. Most of the properties have been reduced from the original list price. Please check our Sunday ad.

PUBLIC NOTICE
CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: F. W. LEONARD and wife, ROSANNE M. LEONARD and unknown heirs, if either be deceased.
You are commanded to appear before the 118th Judicial District Court of Howard County at the Courthouse thereof in Big Spring, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10:00 a.m. on the first Monday, next after the expiration of 45 days from the date of issuance of this citation, unless being the 6th day of March, 1986, to Plaintiff's petition filed in said Court on the 21 day of January, 1986, in Cause No. 31220 on docket of said Court, and styled "Davis Oil Company, Plaintiff vs. F. W. Leonard and wife, Rosanne M. Leonard and unknown heirs, if either be deceased, Defendants."
This suit is brought for the appointment of a receiver of the undivided 5/8ths interest in the mineral estate owned or record by F. W. Leonard, pursuant to Section 64.091, Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, in order to obtain from said receiver execution of an oil, gas and mineral lease covering the South half (S/2) of Section 30, Block 33, T-3-N, R-2P Ry. Co. Survey, Howard County, Texas, comprising 320 acres.
The nature of this suit is more fully shown by Plaintiff's petition on file in this cause.
If citation is not served within 90 days after the date of issuance, it shall be returned unserved.
The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to the requirements of law and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.
ISSUED AND GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF SAID COURT at Big Spring, Texas, this 21st day of January, 1986.
