How's that?

Denied bail

Q. Why are some people denied bail when they are arrested?

A. Under Texas law, a person is entitled to bail except under special circumstances, said Robert Morris, assistant district attorney. He may be denied bail on a revocation of probation arrest, on a capitol offense where proof is evident, or if he is a repeat offender, Morris said. Repeat offender cases include being arrested for a felony while you are out on bail awaiting trial for another felony, and committing a felony with a deadly weapon after having been already convicted of another felony in a separate incident, he said.

None injured in house fire

By HANK MURPHY
Staff Writer

Extensive damage was done to a two-story wood-frame house at the corner of E. Eighth and Johnson Streets when fire broke out shortly after 8 this morning.

No damage estimate was available late this morning as firefighters were still at the scene, but owner Keith Stone, a teacher at Runnels Junior High School, said the house was insured.

Firemen arrived in three units while Stone was at school to find thick grey smoke pouring from the upstairs windows.

Soon flames began shooting from the roof as firemen on ladders battled the blaze for several hours with waterhoses and axes.

Firefighters were unaware at first that the house was unoccupied, and several men entered the burning structure equipped with special breathing devices through upstairs windows.

Stone, who said he lived alone in the house, said he did not know how the fire could have started. But Police Lt. Jerry Edwards, who was one of the first to notice the fire, said he saw the first puffs of smoke coming from an upstairs window close to furnace chimney.

Firm to study change in sewage handling

By HANK MURPHY
Staff Writer

The City Council Monday night authorized a $12,000 feasibility study for converting the present method of handling wastewater to a more efficient and cost effective system.

The study will be conducted by GS&W of Dallas and Big Spring, designers of $3.2 million plant modification in 1980-81. The designers will examine changing the current trickling filter areated lagoon system to a trickling filter activated sludge facility.

Public Works Director Tom Decell told the council that plants operating with the activated sludge system consistently produce better effluent than those using the areated lagoon method.

In addition, pond dredging that now costs between $50,000 and $100,000 every three or four years would be eliminated with the alternate system, Decell said.

GS&W estimates that actual construction of such a system would cost the city about $184,000.

City fathers also decided last night to execute a contract with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for the purpose of curbing litter on state roads.

Briefly, the program would reimburse the city $20 for every litter citation issued by the Big Spring Police Department along Highways 87 and 80 and Farm Road 700. The city will be paid $20 for each citation regardless of whether a conviction is obtained. Also, a contract limit of $5,000, or 250 tickets, is placed on the city.

In other business, the council: Granted a request by Main Street Director Teri Quinones to close Main Street between Third and Fourth Streets on March 29 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. for "Rain Aid," a downtown promotion supporting local farmers.

Sales tax rebates slightly up from last year

By SCOTT FITZGERALD
Staff Writer

Sales tax rebates paid to Big Spring this year show a slight increase over the same period in 1985, according to figures released from the State Comptroller's office.

Big Spring so far this year has received $407,125.21, which is 0.17 percent more than the $406,443.39 the city received at the same time last year.

However, this month's rebate check of $76,738.56 is a 33 percent decrease over the same month in 1985, when the city received $114,175.75.

The March checks represent taxes collected on sales made in January and reported Feb. 20 by cities that levy the 1 percent city tax, according to a news release from the comptroller's office.

City Secretary Tom Ferguson said Tuesday afternoon the difference in monthly rebate payments was not a reliable indicator of sales activity because businesses have different payment schedules that are mandated by the state. Some businesses pay quarterly, for example, while other businesses pay monthly or semi-annually, he said.

Midland and Abilene have received less money so far in 1986 compared to last year, while San Angelo had an increase.

In 1986 payments to date, Midland has collected $2,209,872.82, an 8.89 percent decrease from last year; Abilene has collected $2,145,814.86, a 1.99 percent decrease; and San Angelo collected $1,442,619.37, a 5.46 percent increase.

A yearly comparison of surrounding counties shows Howard County with a 0.49 percent increase for rebate taxes collected in 1986 over the same period last year.

Coahoma has received $7,835.52 so far in 1986, a 10.81 percent increase over 1985; and Forsan has received $3,929.95, an 18.22 percent increase. Mitchell County shows a 12.25 percent increase this year over 1985.

Colorado City has received $70,960.91 to date, a 10.46 percent increase over last year; Lorraine has received $2,075.03, an 83.87 percent increase; and Westbrook has received $4,293.09, a 21.82 percent increase.

Martin County had a 39.35 percent increase in year-to-date rebate taxes over 1985. Stanton has received $16,702.64, a 39.35 percent increase over last year.

Fort Worth blast injures 5 people

FORT WORTH (AP) — A large explosion rocked a downtown building today, injuring at least five people and shattering windows at a nearby hotel, officials said.

The force of the blast at the site of a closed car dealership was felt at the Fort Worth Fire Department about 12 blocks away, an investigator said.

Capt. Bill Pierce said people at the Fort Worth Hilton hotel across Interstate 30 were injured by flying glass from the 10:11 a.m. blast at the closed Frank Kent Cadillac dealership. The number of injuries had not been determined, he said.

Five people were taken to John Peter Smith Hospital, said hospital spokeswoman Ruth Eason.

"It sounds like major damage to the building," said Pierce. "There was damage across I-30 at the Hilton hotel. There were broken windows, and some people were injured with broken glass.

"We are probably 10 to 12 blocks from it and it shook the building here," he said.

Police said the building was empty and street repair work could have been underway in the immediate area of the explosion.

"We need people to stay away from the area at the present time," said officer A.T. Herrera. "We are trying to get emergency equipment inside."

He said the building was being demolished.

Herrera said that many other windows were broken in buildings downtown.

Cosby remains People's Choice

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Entertainer Bill Cosby stole the heart of the public for the second year in a row, taking multiple honors in the People's Choice Awards for his portrayal of a wise, funny television father.

Oscar-winning actress Meryl Streep, nominated for another Academy Award this year for her performance in "Out of Africa," was the public's favorite motion picture actress and favorite all-around female entertainer.

Cosby was chosen as the public's favorite all-around male entertainer and favorite male television performer. His television series, "The Cosby Show" took top honors as favorite television comedy for the second year in a row.

Accepting the award in New York, Cosby appeared humble and even slightly embarrassed at the attention lavished on him.

"I just want to retire from all this," Cosby said, apparently referring to his repeat win. Speaking to his fans, he said: "I love you for loving what I do. This is enough."

For the television actor honor, Cosby edged "Miami Vice" star Don Johnson and Tom Selleck of "Magnum P.I." But Johnson got sustained cheers before presenting an award to Miss Streep.

Miss Streep shared the all-around female entertainer honor with singer Barbara Mandrell, who won eight previous People's Choice awards. Miss Mandrell, seriously injured in an automobile accident 1 1/2 years ago, recently returned to the stage. Barbra Streisand also was nominated for all-around female entertainer.

"I'm totally flabbergasted," Miss Streep said. "I don't know how much entertaining I've done. I haven't had anyone over for coffee in 18 months," she quipped.

The People's Choice Awards are billed as the only awards covering films, television and music in which the public votes. Winners were determined by a sampling of more than 5,000 people nationwide polled by the Princeton, N.J.-based Gallup Organization.

Sylvester Stallone, on a roll from his "Rocky" and "Rambo" sequels, scored another knockout with the public, taking honors for favorite motion picture actor. In accepting his award, he called the audience his "life's blood."

Rival nominees in the favorite film actor category were Clint Eastwood, currently running for mayor of Carmel in northern California, and Michael J. Fox, star of television's "Family Ties" and the film "Back to the Future," which was voted the public's favorite movie. Other nominees for favorite film actress were Sally Field, who won last year's Oscar as best actress and stars with James Garner in "Murphy's Romance," and Kathleen Turner of "Prizzi's Honor."

Linda Evans of "Dynasty," was the people's choice for favorite female television performer for the second year in a row. Also nominated were "Dynasty" co-star Joan Collins and Phylcia Ayers-Allyn Rashad of "The Cosby Show."

"Dynasty" tied for honors with "Miami Vice" for favorite television drama series. A spinoff of "Dynasty" called "Dynasty II: The Colbys," was voted favorite new dramatic series.

"The Golden Girls" was voted the favorite new television comedy.

Cybill Shepherd and Bruce Willis, stars of "Moonlighting," were named favorite male and female performers in a new television program for their portrayals of a pair of wise-cracking private detectives.

Emmanuel Lewis, the puckish star of "Webster," was the public's favorite young television performer.

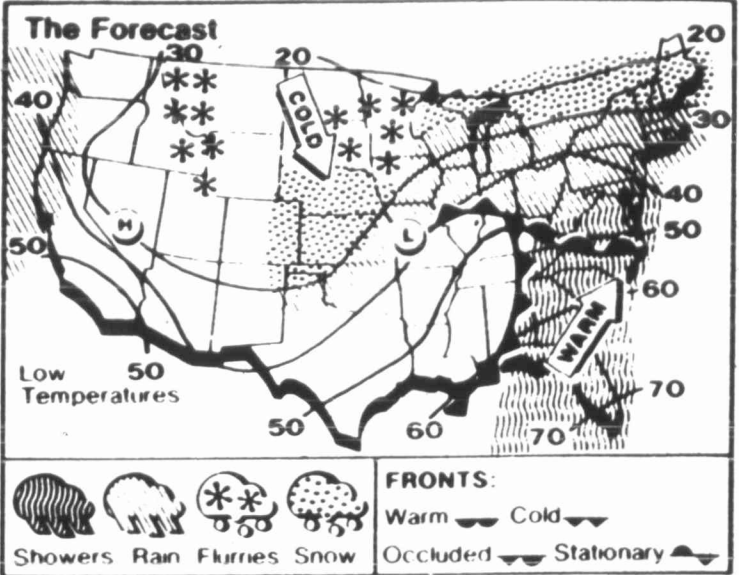

In a new category, opera singer Luciano Pavarotti won the public's vote as favorite classical music performer. New York Mayor Edward Koch presented the award in New York.

In other musical categories, Bruce Springsteen was voted favorite male musical performer and Madonna won the award for favorite female musical performer. Kenny Rogers was the nation's favorite country music performer.

"We Are The World," the Michael Jackson-Lionel Richie song that brought in millions of dollars for famine victims in Africa, won the public's approval as favorite new song.

The two-hour 12th annual awards ceremony was broadcast Tuesday night from the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium on CBS-TV.

Man to be tried for murdering wife

By SCOTT FITZGERALD Staff Writer

A Knott man charged with murdering his estranged wife is scheduled to stand jury trial next Tuesday in 118th District Court.

Also announced ready to stand trial next week is a Big Spring man charged with two counts of burglary of a habitation.

District Judge James Gregg said this morning jurors will begin hearing testimony Tuesday in the case Felisiano Zamora, 37, of Knott, who has been charged with murdering Maria Isabel Zamora Nov. 16 at the Latin Quarters on Highway 350.

A translator will be required for the trial because Zamora does not speak English, Gregg said.

Zamora was arrested by Howard County sheriff's deputies Nov. 18 at a local bus station after a two-day manhunt. Howard County grand jurors indicted him in January.

A witness at the murder scene that night said Zamora and his wife had an argument stemming from the victim's refusal to dance with her husband. Zamora then left the tavern and returned about a half-hour later when he allegedly shot his wife, the witness said.

According to sheriff's reports, the suspect fled the scene after the shooting. Zamora has remained in county jail since his November arrest.

Ricky Dale Payne, 22, of 509 S. Johnson is charged with a May 30 burglary with the intent to commit sexual assault and an Aug. 1 burglary with the intent to commit retaliation.

Payne also was indicted by a Howard County grand jury last August for a separate charge of retaliation that occurred Aug. 1.

Payne was transferred to county jail on Feb. 11 from Rusk State Mental Hospital.

Payne underwent a mental competency hearing last October before a panel of jurors, who ordered him to undergo psychiatric treatment at the hospital.

Robert Morris, assistant district attorney, said this morning the prosecution received a report from Rusk saying Payne was competent to stand trial.

Both the prosecution and the defense have agreed to accept the report and proceed with court proceedings, Morris said.

Stock market surges

NEW YORK (AP) — Potential oil price stability and a continuing drop in interest rates fueled the biggest stock market gain in more than three years, pushing the Dow Jones industrial average to a record high.

The average of 30 industrials, one of the market's best known gauges, rose 43.10 to 1,746.06 on Tuesday, its second biggest one-day gain ever, coming on the New York Stock Exchange's fifth-busiest trading day in history. It was the biggest surge since the record daily gain of 43.41 points Nov. 3, 1982, and pushed the Dow above its previous high of 1,713.99 set Feb. 27.

Soviets aid Nicaragua

WASHINGTON — As the Reagan administration and Congress debate the future of American aid for the Nicaraguan rebels, U.S. intelligence officials say the Soviet Union is providing Nicaragua with $260 million in economic assistance this year.

This figure, which can't be independently confirmed, is larger than what the United States provides any of its allies in the region.

President Reagan has asked Congress to authorize $100 million for military and economic aid to the Nicaraguan Contras. The United States is nearing the end of the $27 million Contra aid program begun last September.

Shuttle cost estimated

WASHINGTON — Construction of a new shuttle and other aggressive steps to restore the space program to full speed could confront a deficit-weary Congress with a $5 billion bill over five years, a congressional study shows.

The Congressional Budget Office report — an initial attempt to total up the budgetary impact of the Jan. 28 Challenger accident that killed seven crew members — said that as an alternative to the multibillion-dollar outlay, lawmakers could accept "a slower rate of progress in all aspects of space policy."

Neglected girl saved

BAY CITY — A mentally retarded 16-year-old girl was found lying on a sofa in her own waste where she was left virtually unattended for nearly three months before social workers found her, officials said.

The girl told investigators she injured her knee and ankle during a fight with neighborhood children Nov. 15 and lay on the sofa until social workers found her Feb. 6. She had developed severe bedsores and had asked her family to take her to a doctor, according to welfare officials.

"To me it's the worst case of medical neglect I've seen in 28 years," said Betty Luco, supervisor of Wharton-Matagorda County Child Welfare.

Lawman killer executed

HUNTSVILLE — Charles Bass, whose criminal career began as a juvenile delinquent and culminated with the slaying of a Houston lawman, was put to death early today by injection.

"Don't feel bad, Mama, I deserve this," Bass told his mother, Rose England, who was sobbing in the death chamber. "Tell everybody bye."

"God's going to take care of you," she replied. "I love you, sweetheart."

New course

Aquino panel to recommend reform

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — President Corazon Aquino today named a commission to consider whether she should proclaim a revolutionary government with power to dismantle the autocratic system set up during Ferdinand E. Marcos' 20-year rule.

The commission was picked at Mrs. Aquino's first Cabinet meeting and the panel is to report back in a week.

Other Cabinet groups were assigned to tackle reorganization of local government and to chart new directions for the economy, which faces a budget shortfall of $250 million for the first quarter of 1986, said government spokesman Rene Saguisag.

In other developments, the Philippine Constabulary announced the surrender of Assemblyman Orlando Dulay, one of two prominent Marcos supporters whose arrest was ordered by the defense ministry Tuesday in connection with the deaths of Aquino supporters before and after the Feb. 7 election. The other assemblyman, Arturo Pacificador, is at large.

After the nearly two-hour Cabinet meeting, Mrs. Aquino met with the nation's top military commanders who pledged their allegiance.

She and armed forces chief Gen. Fidel V. Ramos declined to say what was discussed during the 75-minute meeting. The country's 61 top generals and regional commanders attended.

Military spokesman Brig. Gen. Eduardo Ermita said Ramos introduced each of the officers to Mrs. Aquino and "everybody pledged our support and loyalty to the commander-in-chief."

Among the 19 Cabinet officials joining Mrs. Aquino in the conference room of the Malacanang presidential palace was former Sen. Jovito Salonga, who is scheduled to fly to the United States later today.

Salonga heads a special commission to ferret out the immense wealth allegedly funneled out of the Philippines by Marcos and will spend two weeks in New York and Washington, a spokesman for his office said.

The new government hopes it will be able to shore up its treasury and pare a $26 billion foreign debt by regaining some of the $5 billion to $10 billion Salonga estimates Marcos and his associates plundered during Marcos' 20 years in office.

Salonga also attributes the $250 million shortfall in part to heavy election spending by Marcos' party, the New Society Movement.

Mrs. Aquino has been under pressure from some advisers to proclaim her administration a revolutionary government to make it easier to reform the autocratic system left by Marcos, who fled to Hawaii on Feb. 26 after being toppled in a military- and church-backed rebellion.

Such a proclamation would free Mrs. Aquino from Marcos' 1973 constitution, enabling her to abolish the National Assembly which is dominated by Marcos' New Society Movement, and allow her to make any other desired changes in the government.

Other Aquino advisers say proclamation of a revolutionary government is superfluous because there has been only minor resistance to her actions. They say she might be able to continue rule through persuasion until a new constitution is written.

Justice Minister Neptali Gonzales, who was named to head the task force studying the revolutionary government issue, said the group would have a recommendation for Mrs. Aquino within a week.

Saguisag said the president was inclined to disqualify local officials appointed as officers-in-charge of city and provincial governments from running in the next local elections. Local elections were scheduled in May, but she has postponed them, meanwhile replacing pro-Marcos mayors and governors throughout the country with people from groups supporting her.

The presidential spokesman also said a ruling on whether to reduce prices of certain commodities, including oil, would be announced at next week's Cabinet meeting.

Ecuador standoff ends

QUITO, Ecuador — The air force commander peacefully ended a five-day standoff at a military base and met with President Leon Febres Cordero, who fired him for insubordination, before flying to Quito where he will be held for military trial.

The government announced that the defense minister, army Gen. Luis Pineiros, submitted his resignation as part of the settlement Tuesday, but Febres Cordero had not decided whether to accept it.

Febres Cordero fired air force commander Gen. Frank Vargas Pazos after he accused Pineiros and army commander Gen. Luis Aalbuja of misuse of public funds.

Palme successor elected

STOCKHOLM, Sweden — Parliament elected Social Democrat Ingvar Carlsson to succeed assassinated Prime Minister Olof Palme today without any opposing votes.

Non-socialist parties, which form a minority in the Riksdag, or parliament, abstained from the vote, making a gesture of support for Carlsson's succession while declining to endorse his party's politics.

Carlsson, 51, was approved with 178 supporting votes and 159 abstentions. After a brief round of handshakes, the Riksdag moved directly into a partisan budget debate.

Spain votes referendum

MADRID, Spain — Thousands of police and soldiers stood guard throughout the country today as Spaniards voted in a referendum on whether to continue Spain's 4-year-old membership in NATO.

Public opinion polls published last week indicated that despite the pleas of Prime Minister Felipe Gonzalez, the voters would turn down continued membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by a margin of between 4 percent and 7 percent.

The polls had indicated at least 65 percent of Spain's 28.8 million registered voters planned to vote today. Election-day weather was reported fair throughout most of the country.

Guerrillas claim raid

BANGKOK, Thailand — Communist Cambodian guerrillas today said they raided a provincial capital and killed 215 Vietnamese soldiers, including a division commander and 33 other officers.

Khmer Rouge radio claimed the attack was made last Saturday in the area of Kompongthom provincial capital. It said large amounts of heavy weapons also were destroyed.

It was the latest in a series of claims that guerrillas have struck at Hanoi's forces deep inside Cambodia. Khmer Rouge claims are widely regarded as exaggerated, although some have been partially confirmed.

Rally demands reforms

SEOUL, South Korea — Thousands of politicians and dissidents, some denouncing the government as a military dictatorship, held the largest rally in six years Tuesday to demand direct presidential elections and democratic reform.

Students battled riot police on two university campuses.

Long ranks of policemen stood watch over the demonstration and march in downtown Seoul, but did not interfere.

Comet forms tails of hot gas, fine dust

LA SILLA OBSERVATORY, Chile (AP) — When Halley's comet rounded the sun and sped into Earth's view, it spewed out hot gas and fine dust that formed an unexpected array of tails, astronomers here said.

To the telescopic eyes at one of the world's largest observatories, the comet last month offered its most spectacular show, two weeks after starting another 76-year, 7-billion-mile journey beyond Neptune and back.

Aiming an ultra-sensitive camera over the Andes Mountains into a moonless predawn sky, Danish astronomers Richard M. West and Holger Pedersen say they produced a computer image Feb. 19 of four distinct tails, two more than ever before detected.

The next day, they said, there were seven tails and, two days later, eight tails that radiated from a 150-degree arc, nearly halfway around Halley's nucleus, and as far as 37 million miles behind it.

"These are enormous tails," West said. "Most comets have tails up to 90 degrees, but this is just marvelous. It could mean Halley's is more active this time around, or that its tail structure is far more complicated than we thought."

But not all the scientists on the International Halley Watch project are prepared to accept the Danes' definition of separate tails.

Rare books lure English scholar

WACO (AP)—Colin Franklin has new ideas about old books. He's a well-known bookseller and scholar from Oxford, England, who has been in this country for the past year studying rare books, including the various collections at Baylor University.

Colin Franklin, a well-known book seller and scholar from Oxford, England, has been in the United States for the past year studying rare books. Most recently, Franklin has been studying the collection at Baylor University in Waco.

Franklin believes books should be seen often — and occasionally touched.

"I am afraid I have a real bee in my bonnet about rare books," Franklin said. "Many universities have spectacular collections of old books — Baylor included — but never show them. There is a potent magic about holding an original book of importance and all the world of difference between an original and a reproduction."

"Most universities say, 'We've got these wonderful books hidden away. Maybe one day we will do something with them.' But in the meantime, generations of students pass through never knowing historic works are nearby. It would be nice to have some kind of ever-changing, lively, well-captioned exhibition of such books here at Baylor."

The Oxford graduate spent 20 years in publishing before turning to the buying and selling of rare and valuable books. He's written a number of books on private presses, antique books and special collections — including his personal favorite, Japanese books and scrolls.

He spent last month at Baylor at the invitation of Dr. Jonathan Lindsey, director of the Baylor libraries, to talk with the university about its special collections and rare books.

Franklin said, "It was nice because it gave me an opportunity to work on a little project of my own as well — the many editions of Elizabeth Browning's 'Sonnets from the Portuguese,' of which the Armstrong-Browning Library has many.

In addition to the Armstrong Browning collections, Franklin studied the special "alpha" collection of books at Moody Library, the law school's collections of rare law books and Baylor's other, smaller, book collections.

A highlight of his trip, Franklin said, was the time he spent with Dr. Robert Collmer's (dean of graduate studies) bibliography class. One of Franklin's suggestions was to have the members of this class be in charge of any exhibits of Baylor's rare book collections.

"Why does a university need rare books anyway, if not to help students make the jump in imagination from reading about a historic book, to actually touching that book?" he asked.

A number of Franklin's publications have dealt with private presses, especially those that were established to combat the decay in publishing standards that followed mass production.

He has spent most of the past year studying and writing about the Ashendene Press, which is now in the Southern Methodist University library system. Franklin's book on the press, which was in operation from 1894 to 1935, will appear next fall.

And while he makes his living selling rare books, Franklin says they've never lost their appeal.

Judge gives JPs tough fight

HOUSTON (AP) — Two justices of the peace performing marriages for $25 each are getting some competition from a district judge, who started marrying couples on St. Valentine's Day.

"Who'd want to be married by a JP when they can be married by a district judge?" said Judge Woody Densen.

"The JPs have a monopoly, a built-in system. Marriages are being funneled to them here. People have a perception only JPs can perform marriages, and that's not the case," he said. Justices of the Peace Laurence H. Wayne and Kenneth Pacetti may earn $100,000 or more a year, largely from money they receive for performing thousands of weddings.

"Isn't it interesting that he's the only one of (Harris County's) 50 or 60 district judges who's vigorously trying to marry people," Wayne said. "I'm not saying he can't marry people. I'm saying couples come here looking for a JP because of the tradition of things."

Agency declares war on 'gypsy' fire ants

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Department of Agriculture plans to begin chemical warfare Wednesday against "gypsy" fire ants that survived what scientists said the ants could not endure — winter in Lubbock.

"This colony has significantly changed our thinking on how far north the ants can naturally progress. We had originally believed that 10- to 20-degree minimum temperature line — which is about 100 miles south of Lubbock — would stop them," said Dr. A. Ann Sorensen, an agriculture department pest specialist.

"That may not be the case," she said. "This is definitely not good news."

The gypsy ants arrived in Lubbock on a shipment of oak trees from East Texas, a heavily infested region. Lubbock is about 200 miles from the nearest infested area.

The gypsies were discovered after about two years in a residential part of Lubbock, according to the agriculture department. Instead of killing them at the time, TDA and Texas Tech researchers decided to see if the ants could survive winter.

The insects did.

"The ants were aided by being in a residential area with underground sprinklers for moisture, a network of foundations which served as natural heaters for the mounds and extensive landscaping which served as a wind-break," said TDA spokesman Roger Mulder.

Dear Abby

Abroad travelers must mind their table manners

DEAR ABBY: My English husband and I howled with laughter when we read the letter from the Americans who had returned from England, Scotland and Wales and noticed the "strange" manner of eating. They said, "After cutting meat, they do not set the knife down and change the fork from the left hand to the right; they eat left-handed, which looks rather awkward."

Worse yet, these visiting Americans were not content to merely observe the "foreign" manner of eating, they attempted to instruct an Englishman in the "correct" way — theirs. What nerve! I'll bet you get a ton of mail on this.

S AND S IN MENLO PARK
DEAR S AND S: I did. Some samples:

DEAR ABBY: I married a man from Finland who always thought that European table manners were superior to ours because they never touch their food with their fingers as Americans so often do. However, after living in Indiana for six years, my husband has become slightly Americanized. Instead of using a knife and fork to eat a Big Mac or a piece of Kentucky Fried Chicken, he eats with his fingers. I'm so glad. It was getting a little embarrassing with company. And you should see him tackle an Ortego taco!

SUSAN M., CLARKSVILLE, IND.

DEAR ABBY: Now I know where the phrase "Ugly American" originated. It was partly from people like your reader who had the nerve to visit a foreign country and criticize age-old eating habits.

When I dined in England during World War II, my hosts were very charming; they must have been vastly amused as they watched me switch my fork from one hand to the other, but no one had the bad taste to call it to my attention.

It's like the American who asked the British sergeant why his stripes were upside down. Or Americans who ask foreigners, in their own country, why they drive on the "wrong" side of the street.

JACK CORZETTE, HOUSTON

DEAR ABBY: I was born in England and now live in the United States. While dining in an American restaurant, imagine my horror when I was asked to keep my fork from the main course to use for my dessert. This disgusted me no end.

At least we use clean utensils for each course.

DOREEN IN PINE BLUFF, ARK.

DEAR ABBY: Who do those Americans think they are to criticize the way the English use their eating utensils? I'm English, and one thing we do not do is struggle with the side of a fork to cut our meat. We use a knife. And we do not use our fingers to eat bacon regardless of how crisp it is, as I've seen countless Americans do.

Have you ever chased the last few peas around your plate, trying to get them on a fork? Well, that's where the knife comes in, to "rake" them, as you say, onto your fork.

I offer this little rhyme — a favorite with my countrymen: I eat my peas with honey

I've done it all my life It may sound awfully funny But it keeps them on my knife.

BORN IN ENGLAND

Dr. Donohue

Hepatitis recovery can be a lengthy process

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I am a 42-year-old man who was diagnosed as having non-A, non-B-type hepatitis. After eight weeks, the liver enzyme test was negative and my doctor said I should be feeling well. I am still weak and tired. Another doctor said it was not unusual for a person with non-A, non-B hepatitis to feel bad for six months to a year afterward. A liver scan showed normal. But it's been four months now and I still feel exhausted and have to go to bed by 8 o'clock at night. Am I unusual? How did I get this form of hepatitis? What of the future? — G.W.P.

I have to clear up the non-A, non-B hepatitis business first for other readers.

There are three viral causes of hepatitis. The A type, we know, is acquired from contaminated food or drink. The B type is most commonly caught from use of unsterile needles. The non-A, non-B type remains a mystery. All we know is that the virus is a different one from the other two.

How it is caught remains the source of speculation, except that the best established source is blood transfusion. That does not rule out other routes of transmission, however. This answers one of G.P.'s questions. No one can say for sure just how he picked up his non-A, non-B hepatitis.

Now to the recovery period. In any hepatitis, this depends on the seriousness of the viral assault on liver cells. For some, recovery can be as simple as that from the flu. For others, it can take a year or longer. So your case is not unusual.

Signs appear good for you, though. The negative enzyme test indicates liver damage is not continuing. In some cases of hepatitis, such tests can remain positive for more than a year after the attack. The negative liver scan is another good sign. As severe as your attack was, it does not seem to have produced permanent liver disruption.

What of the future? I'm sure you will begin feeling well again pretty soon. In the meantime, you have to see your doctor periodically to confirm that all vestiges of the virus have left your body.

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My doctor is pleased with my blood pressure and wants me soon to try lessening and maybe stopping my medicine (Lopressor), which I've been on for a year and a half. My brother read that this is a beta blocker and that once on it, you can't stop all of a sudden or you'll get a heart attack. First of all, is this true? Secondly, if so, how does stopping cause a heart attack? — Mrs. M.E.

Beta blocker drugs act on the person's heart muscle. They block the nerve receptor points that tell the muscle to contract. With these receptor points blocked, the heartbeat slows and the heart gets a rest.

But for every action, there is a reaction of one kind or another. While the receptor blocking is going on in the heart muscle, the heart tries to compensate by increasing its number of receptor points, and at the same time increasing the amount of muscle-stimulating nerve chemicals.

So often, when beta blocker medicine is stopped abruptly, there may be a sudden surge of heart muscle contraction and the potential for inordinate acceleration of the heartbeat. For this reason, the advice is for a gradual reduction of beta blocker drug dosage when a patient is taken off it. I am sure your doctor will take this into consideration when and if he decides to make a trial discontinuation.

Dr. Donohue welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters.

Ramona Harris elected Boss of the Year 1986

Boss night for the Scenic Chapter of American Business Women's Association was held February 4.

Ramona Harris, director of nursing at Howard College was elected Boss of the Year for 1986-'87. The trophy was presented by last year's boss of the year, Jim Neary of the Big Spring Herald. Neary read the letter of recommendation for Ramona Harris, written by Shirley White. He also spoke of the meaning of being boss of the year.

Guest speaker for the evening event was Anthony Belaski, warden of the Big Spring Federal Prison Camp. Belaski presented a program on "What citizenship means to me."

Sarah Salisbury received the "Pat-on-the-Back" award for February.

Dr. Farquhar is elected chairman of Red Cross

The Howard Glasscock Chapter of the American Red Cross met February 18 in the Parish Hall of St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Dr. John Farquhar MD has been chosen as the new chairman of the board of directors. Other members of the board are John Webb, vice chairman; Edith Gay, secretary; Elizabeth Childres, treasurer; and Marianne Brown, executive director.

Appreciation was expressed to St. Mary's Church and to George von Hassell for the arrangement of the new meeting place.

New board members include Jack Y. Smith, John Rodrigues, Paula Farquhar, Jessie Salazar and Dr. Robert Meahan.

A discussion focused on the need for specialty training and services commonly offered by Red Cross chapters. The chapter feels there is hope that the specialty training needed can be recruited locally.

Farquhar presented a back ground sketch of the history of the American Red Cross and its services.

The next meeting will be March 18 at 7 p.m. at St. Mary's Episcopal church.

In this week's recipe exchange, I have included some chicken recipes that you may enjoy.

If you're looking for a special recipe or have one to share, please write to the Herald Recipe Exchange, Box 1431, Big Spring, Texas, 79720.

POLLO RAPIDO

1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1/2 cup picante sauce
1 tsp. ground cumin
1/2 tsp. garlic salt
1/2 tsp. oregano, crushed
2 whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned and split
Salt and pepper, as desired
2 medium onions, cut into 1/2-inch wedges
2 tbsp. vegetable oil
2 cups zucchini, cut into 1/2-inch cubes

Combine tomato sauce, picante sauce, cumin, garlic salt and oregano; mix well. Cut chicken into 1-inch pieces; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cook chicken and onions in oil in large skillet over medium heat, stirring frequently, until chicken is lightly browned and almost cooked through, about 5 to 7 minutes. Stir tomato sauce mixture into skillet; mix well. Stir zucchini. Cover and simmer 5 minutes. Uncover; cook and stir about 1 minute to thicken sauce, if necessary. Serve with additional picante sauce. Makes 4 servings.

QUICK CHICKEN PEPPERS

3 whole chicken breasts, split, boned and skinned
Salt and pepper
2 tbsp. butter or margarine
1 can (14 1/2 ounces) stewed tomatoes
1 green bell pepper, coarsely chopped
1/2 cup picante sauce
1 garlic clove, minced
1/2 tsp. oregano, crushed
1/2 tsp. ground cumin
1 tsp. cornstarch
1 tsp. water

Cut chicken into pieces of 1/2-inch thickness. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Brown in butter in 12-inch skillet about 2 to 3 minutes on each side or until almost cooked through; drain. Combine tomatoes, green pepper, picante sauce, garlic, oregano and cumin; mix well. Pour over chicken. Bring to a boil; reduce heat. Simmer 5 minutes. Remove chicken to serving platter; keep warm. Dissolve cornstarch in water; stir into skillet. Cook and stir until sauce is thickened, about 1 minute. Serve sauce over chicken. Serve with rice, if desired, and additional picante sauce. Makes 6 servings.

GINGER CITRUS CHICKEN

1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in parts, skin removed
1 tsp. olive oil
1 tsp. grated fresh ginger root
1 tsp. finely chopped cilantro
2 tbsp. finely grated onion
1/3 cup fresh orange juice
1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
1 tsp. grated fresh orange peel
1 tsp. grated fresh lemon peel
1/2 tsp. pepper

In large shallow baking pan, place olive oil. Add chicken and roll parts to coat with oil; arrange chicken in single layer in pan. Sprinkle with ginger root and rub gently on chicken; sprinkle with cilantro. Sprinkle onion evenly over chicken. Mix together orange and lemon juices and peels; spoon over chicken and sprinkle with pepper. Place in oven and bake at 375 degrees for about 30 minutes. Turn chicken and cook about 30 minutes more or until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease. Makes 4 servings.

NO SALT BAKED CHICKEN

4 broiler-fryer chicken quarters, skin removed
3 tbsp. maple syrup
2 tsp. low sodium prepared mustard
1 tsp. grated onion
1/4 tsp. curry powder
1 clove garlic, split
1/2 tsp. pepper

In small bowl, mix together maple syrup, mustard, onion and curry powder. Rub each chicken quarter with garlic; arrange in baking pan. Brush syrup-mustard sauce on chicken, then sprinkle with pepper. Place chicken in oven at 350 degrees and bake for 30 minutes. Remove from oven, turn chicken and brush with remaining syrup-mustard sauce. Return chicken to oven and continue cooking until brown and crisp and fork can be inserted with ease, about 30 minutes more. Makes 4 servings.

QUICK SAUCY CHICKEN STIR-FRY

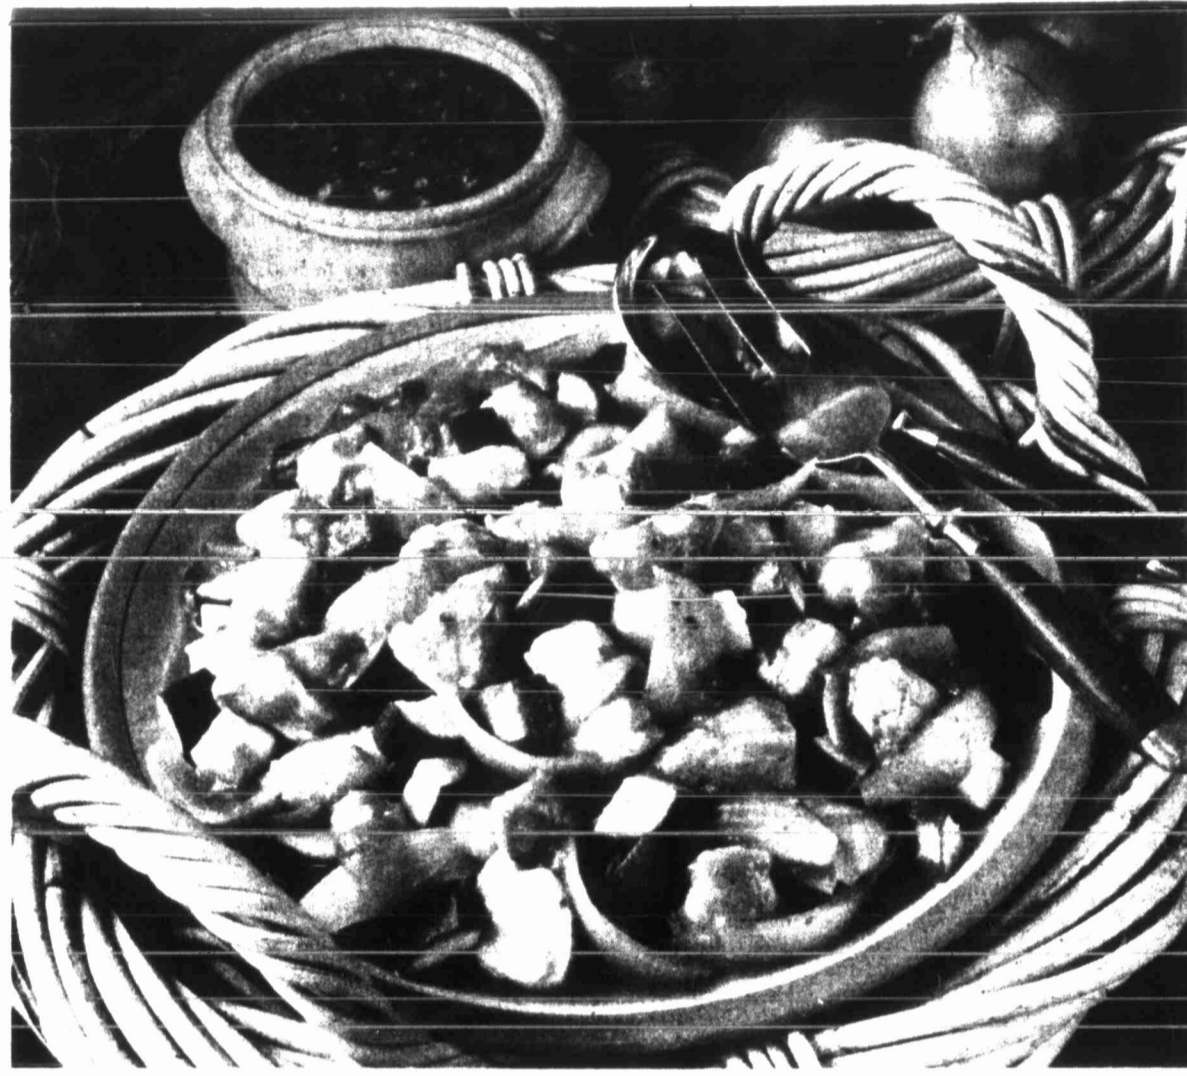

2 tbsp. oil
1 cup broccoli flowerets
1 cup cauliflowerets
3/4 cup 2-inch julienne cut carrots
1/4 cup green onion slices
1 garlic clove, minced
3 chicken breast halves, skinned, boned, and cut into 1-inch pieces
1/2 cup salad dressing
1 tsp. soy sauce
1/2 tsp. ground ginger
2 cups hot cooked rice

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in wok or large skillet over medium-high heat. Add vegetables and garlic; stir fry 4 to 5 minutes or until crisp-tender. Remove vegetables from pan. Add remaining oil and chicken to pan; stir fry 4 minutes or until tender. Stir in vegetables, salad dressing, soy sauce and ginger; simmer 1 minute, stirring occasionally. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

CHICKEN-VEGETABLE SALAD

1/2 cup lowfat cottage cheese
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 tsp. curry powder
1/4 tsp. salt
Pepper to taste
2 cups cooked cubed chicken
1 1/2 cups cooked broccoli flowerettes
1/2 cup each: sliced water chestnuts, chopped celery, shredded raw carrot and cabbage leaves

Beat cottage cheese in small mixer bowl on high speed until almost smooth, about 5 minutes. Stir in sour cream and spices. Combine chicken, broccoli, water chestnuts, celery and carrot. Fold in cottage cheese mixture. Chill, covered, 1 to 2 hours to allow flavors to blend.

When time is short but dinner must be special, serve spicy Pollo Rapido. Made with chunks of tender chicken breast, onion and zucchini, the speedy skillet meal takes its south-of-the border cue from picante sauce. With garden-fresh flavor and just the desired amount of jalapeno pepper heat, it adds lively Tex-Mex taste appeal and just 4 calories per tablespoon.

New clot busting drug may save heart patients

ATLANTA (AP) — Combining a powerful new form of a drug to dissolve blood clots with tiny "balloons" that squeeze open clogged arteries may save the lives of many heart attack victims, a preliminary new study suggests.

"This is one of the hottest subjects in cardiology today, because we're dealing with something that affects over half a million patients a year," said Dr. Eugene Braunwald of Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston.

Braunwald said a major new study will begin within a few days to determine whether every heart attack victim should get the new drug, undergo a diagnostic procedure called angiography and — possibly — receive therapy using a tiny balloon to open up clogged arteries as well.

"I think this is a very, very important study in terms of potential health benefits to the country and the world," he said.

Braunwald outlined the results of the latest experiments, conducted over the past year on 200 patients, Monday at the annual scientific meeting of the American College of Cardiology.

Many heart specialists are enthusiastic about the potential of clot-busting drugs to prevent the damage that occurs during a heart attack.

"The approach to heart attacks will be very much different in the future," predicted Dr. Spencer B. King of Emory University. "There will be an attempt to interrupt the heart attack."

When a heart attack occurs, a blood clot forms in one of the arteries that feed the heart muscle. The muscle is deprived of oxygen, and in a few hours a section of it dies.

The goal is to find a drug that can be safely injected into a vein at the first sign of a heart attack and dissolve the clot without causing uncontrollable bleeding.

Braunwald is chairman of a $31-million, federally-funded experiment on breaking up blood clots during heart attacks. Last year, the group reported the results of a comparison of two clot-dissolving medicines — streptokinase, which has been available for several years, and an experimental drug called tissue plasminogen activator, or TPA.

That study showed that TPA opened up 62 percent of clogged arteries and worked twice as well as streptokinase.

Streptokinase disrupts the body's ability to make new clots when they are needed to stop bleeding. But TPA is more selective. It attacks only existing clots, researchers found.

"TPA is clot specific," said Braunwald. "It's like a magic bullet."

TPA is a natural body chemical that's made in large quantities by gene splicing. Its developers at Genentech, the California biotechnology company, recently found a way to reformulate it so that it aims even more directly at clots. As a result, it can be given safely in bigger doses.

The researchers found that instead of smashing 62 percent of heart clots, they can now wipe out 75 percent of them.

However, TPA treatment has a major drawback. Once freed of clots, arteries often close up again, especially when they are already clogged by hardening of the arteries.

So the doctors examined the patients with angiography, a procedure in which a catheter is inserted into the heart so that X-ray movies can be made of the arteries.

Expert says Soviets plan space orbit feat

SPACE CENTER (AP) — The Soviet Union may be preparing as early as this week to link up three large craft already in orbit and then launch three cosmonauts to inspect and activate a space station, an American expert said Tuesday.

James Oberg, a space engineer and author who closely monitors the Soviet space program, said three unmanned Russian craft launched earlier have moved to within four miles of each other and he expects that they soon will be linked to form one large station.

Oberg said the Salyut 7 space station, which was launched in 1962 and has been manned for long periods of time, is already linked to a craft called Cosmos 1686 which was launched last fall.

The dual craft, he said, have drifted into a closely parallel orbit with the Mir, a large Salyut-type craft that the Soviets have said will form the core of a new space station. The Mir was launched Feb. 20.

Oberg said the Salyut-Cosmos combination is in an orbit 213 miles from Earth and the Mir is orbiting at 209 miles. The craft have orbital periods that differ by only a few seconds.

Three cosmonauts experienced in space walking are prepared to fly in the Soyuz T-15 spacecraft, said Oberg, and could be launched as early as Thursday.

Based on orbital calculations and the techniques usually used by the Soviets, Oberg said the cosmonauts could be launched at 3:35 p.m. Moscow time and then effect a rendezvous and docking with the space station combination the next day. He said a window for the manned launch opens every other day for the rest of the week, with launch time slipping 48 minutes later each day.

The Soviets will have more launch opportunities for a few days every other month, said Oberg, but this week would seem a likely time because the space station components are now orbiting so close to each other.

Oberg said the Mir has five ports that could be used to link the Salyut and the Soyuz and the Russians have announced that the Mir has a manipulator that could move the craft from one port to another.

"It has an arm, or maybe a movable frame work that could put the craft into a side port of the Mir," said Oberg.

Attaching the craft to the side port of the Mir would create an L-shaped vehicle that would be "dynamically shaky," and Oberg believes the three T-15 cosmonauts will install braces to strengthen the station.

All three cosmonauts, he said, have extended experience in making space-walking repairs on Soviet craft.

U.S. may sell Saudis anti-missile weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration, after assuring American Jewish leaders it would do nothing to endanger the security of Israel, said Tuesday it wants to sell Saudi Arabia $354 million worth of sophisticated anti-missile weaponry.

Word of the administration's intentions, highly publicized in recent weeks, was to be sent to Congress by the Defense Department later in the day in a classified "pre-notification."

That step was to be followed 20 days later by a formal, public notification. Congress will have 30 days after that to approve or veto the sale.

The proposal seemed certain to trigger a political fight with Israel's supporters on Capitol Hill, despite administration efforts to minimize congressional resistance by trimming an even larger request that would have included advanced electronic gear for the Saudis' U.S.-built F-15 fighters.

Israeli officials voiced lukewarm opposition to Reagan's decision.

"Israel objects to the sale of weapons to countries that are at a state of war with Israel," and its objections are "well known to the American administration," said a spokesman for Prime Minister Shimon Peres.

Spokesman Uri Savir, reached by telephone, denied a report in the daily Haaretz on Sunday that Peres has indicated he would not campaign actively against the sale. But Savir declined to say what steps Israel would take. Israel "will make clear its position," he said, declining to elaborate.

The Clown Prince of Stage comedy basketb against the California Shooting Stars defeat

Steve's stuff

By Steve Belvin

"Fun for the whole family" best describes the show Meadowlark Lemon and his Shooting Stars put on for locals last night at Steer Gym.

It was good clean fun. No vulgar acts or lewd words. The end of show where grandparents and their grandchildren have a grand ole time. I mean, how many entertainers invite the public to prayer services before the game?

It was good seeing some of the old Harlem Globetrotters performing together again, up to their old flamboyant tricks. A lot of the tricks were the ones passed down from the famed vaudeville hoop team that started 60 years ago. But the gags still get the same results — lots of laughs.

And how fitting that two old Globetrotter stars, Lemon and Larry "Gator" Rivers stole the show this night in the Stars 121-96 victory over the California Lasers. Lemon, with his ball handling and constant jabber; and Rivers with his long range bombs and fancy dribbling.

Lemon did everything from hitting his patented hook shot, directing the weave in a spectator's cowboy hat. Rivers was just as active. If he wasn't putting on a sliding, dribbling exhibition, he was attempting to boot in baskets from sidcourt.

This team also features another ex-Trotter of 15 years. Perry "Love Bug" Venable can still glide his 6-5, 265-pound frame up and down the court.

Those experienced characters mixed with the new talents of ex-Midlander Brent Johnson, Lee Stephens, Cliff Pruitt and Ernest Aughburns made the Shooting Stars a big hit in front of 1,500 local fans.

The Lasers were no slouches themselves. Players like 6-5 Charles J. Johnson, who thrilled the crowd with several mahawk jams; and Steve "CrackerJack" Flint, who hit 15 of 15 outside shots, are no ordinary ball players. In fact, eight Laser members were top notch college players and some played European ball.

Last but not least was the halftime show which featured a five minute game between the local media team and the Stars. The play of the locals was about as lewd as the show got.

The Stars won it in a rout, 18-4. Baskets by Steve Evans and Kent Carruthers kept the local team from being whitewashed. The Herald was represented by sports writer Charlie Alcorn, who started the game at forward. Charlie shot one airball, grabbed one rebound and was on the receiving end of several Shooting Star slams. Not exactly the kind of performance he'll be writing home about.

KBST news anchor and team captain Jeff Nicholson was an example to us all, with three-for-four shooting from the floor. Four shots, three airballs and a little iron on the last footer. Better stick to broadcasting Jeff.

All of this helped to make the Shooting Stars visit to the Spring City a roaring success which says a lot for Guy Burrow, director of this event. Burrows put in a great deal of hard work to make the event a success. He did it to bring some fun to Big Spring and to raise money for the Big Spring Sports Booster Club.

I tip my hat to Mr. Burrow and the Booster Club and everyone involved in bringing good, clean fun to Big Spring.

TCU bombs Montana, 76-69

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Texas Christian guard Carl Lott was expected to give the University of Montana problems in the opening round of the 49th annual National Invitation Tournament.

But it was the way the slick 6-foot-4 junior got the job done in a 76-69 TCU victory Tuesday night that befuddled the Grizzlies, and even surprised Lott himself.

Lott, a sturdy 205-pounder who says he prefers to push the ball inside, became "Mr. Outside" against the Big Sky Conference regular-season co-champions by nailing 12 of 14 shots, most of them mid- to long-range jump shots.

The result was that the Horned Frogs, who tied for the Southwest Conference regular season title, led from start-to-finish as the NIT opened play at regional sites. The TCU-Montana game opened NIT action, with first-round games continuing tonight.

"They (Montana) played a real tight zone, so I just had to take the shots they gave me," said Lott, the Southwest Conference "Newcomer of the Year," who had a career-high 27 points. "Usually, I try to penetrate."

Lott's steal and layup, one of the few short shots he took, gave TCU an early 6-0 lead.

Lott then got hot from the outside, and the Horned Frogs, now 22-8, expanded their margin to 40-28 with 1:39 remaining in the half.

Montana stormed back with three quick baskets, the final one a buzzer-beating layup by John Bates, and trailed only 40-34 at the half.

Larry Krystkowiak, who paced Montana with 26 points and 10 rebounds, brought the Grizzlies within four with the first basket of the second half. But that's as close as they came, as TCU scored nine of the next 11 points.

TCU Coach Jim Killingsworth wasn't very happy with the play of the Horned Frogs in the first half, especially a 12-point lead that was cut to six.

"We finally settled down in the second half," he said. "We played good defense, but they (Montana) played a good offense. They do as good a job as any team we've played at getting the ball down low."

Montana Coach Mike Montgomery said he didn't expect Lott, who leads TCU with a 15-point average, to shoot so well from the outside. "He made a lot of tough shots we didn't expect him to," said Montgomery.

The only other TCU player in double figures was junior reserve guard Jamie Dixon with 12 points, including six free throws in the final two minutes.

Junior guard Scott Zanon chipped in with 16 points for Montana, which finished the season at 21-11 and had its 28-game home-court victory streak ended.

Krystkowiak's dunk shot at the final buzzer gave him 2,017 career points — two short of the Big Sky record set by Bruce Collins of Weber State from 1976-80.

TCU, which was upset in the Southwest Conference tournament by eventual champion Texas Tech and then snubbed by the NCAA selection committee, now advances to a second-round NIT game against an as-yet-undetermined opponent.

Meanwhile, three NIT games are on tap tonight, including one in which Providence, coached by Rick Pitino, entertains Boston University, which used to be coached by Pitino. Three players he recruited — center Tom Ivey, forward Paul Hendricks, guard Dwayne Vinson — still play key roles for BU.

"Knowing those guys shouldn't help him at all," said Mike Jarvis, the Terriers' present coach. "It shouldn't be a factor. The only thing it should do is possibly supply a little extra meaning or incentive for both. I think there's a lot of pride at stake and I think the kids basically want to show him they're every bit as good or better than when he recruited them."

Pitino and Jarvis have done well in their first seasons at their respective schools.

The last time Boston University, 21-9 to equal its best mark in 27 years, played in a postseason tournament was 1983, Pitino's last year as coach. The Terriers lost to La

Midland blows by Big Spring, 11-4

MIDLAND — Midland pitcher Kenny DeLaGarza withstood the howling winds Tuesday afternoon to record a five hit, 11 strikeout 11-4 victory over the Big Spring Steers in boys' District 4-5A baseball.

The Steers were very much in the game with the score 5-4 going into the final inning, but Midland struck for six runs in the bottom half of the inning. Big Spring starter Mike Dodd picked up the loss after giving up eight runs (three earned) on six hits and three errors. Dodd also struck out seven. Aaron Allen had two RBI's on the day and an inside-the-park home run off a line drive double that got past the Bulldog left fielder.

Randy Hayworth recorded the other Steer extra base hit with a leadoff triple in the top of the third. Hayworth scored from third to give the Steers a short lived 2-1 lead.

Jamie Salazar picked up three RBI's and a triple and Ricky Castenada added two RBI's for the Bulldogs who raised their record to 5-5 on the year. Big Spring dropped to 2-5-1 on the year with the loss.

Big Spring evened its record at 2-2 in 4-5A play with the victory and 4-2 overall.

NFL owners adopt instant TV replay

RANCHO MIRAGE, Calif. (AP) — The NFL has finally found a way to give its officials the same view of a controversial play that a fan gets on his television set.

In a move the league had resisted for more than a decade, NFL owners voted Tuesday to use instant replays for the 1986 season to oversee its officials and overrule them if necessary.

The change applies for the most part to less controversial plays — pass receptions, fumbles and out-of-bounds calls. It does not apply to most penalties, including calls like pass interference that have caused some of the most memorable officiating flaps.

Nonetheless, the move was a revolutionary one for a league that has always moved cautiously. It was made primarily because NFL rulesmakers became aware that improved video technology was allowing viewers at home to get a better view of some calls than the officials on the field.

"We felt instant replay had become such a fixture that we should give the officials a chance to see what the public was seeing," said Tex Schramm, president of the Dallas Cowboys and chairman of the rules-making Competition Committee.

Only four teams — the New York Giants, Denver Broncos, Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals — voted against the instant replay rule and the Pittsburgh Steelers abstained during what Schramm described as "probably the best discussion we've had in a league meeting for years."

Eight other changes were also approved, the most noteworthy of which was aimed directly at Jim McMahon, the flamboyant, iconoclastic quarterback of the Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears.

That change strengthens the sanction against players who wear logo-bearing headbands or other equipment, allowing ejection from a game or suspension for a game for violation. It applies to all unsanctioned writing, from the "adidas" and "Rozelle" headbands McMahon wore during the playoffs to the different bands he wore in the Super Bowl backing various charitable causes.

The other more notable changes included:

— Allow officials more discretion when a player intercepting a pass is carried by momentum in his own end zone. In the past, if the pass was picked off outside the 5, it was ruled a safety, as it was against Cincinnati's Louis Breeden this year in a play against the New York Jets that precipitated the change.

— Require that a ball fumbled forward out of bounds be brought back to the spot of the fumble. In the past, it was spotted where it went out of bounds.

The other changes involved modifications on kicking shoes; allowing a player who muffs the ball after a fair catch to catch the ball in the air free from interference; restarting the clock on certain penalties in the last two minutes and two modifications in the rules on blocking below the waist.

The owners also rejected a proposal to give the receiving team the ball at its own 35-yard-line on out-of-bounds kicks and changing from a two-inch tee to a one-inch on kicks to encourage longer returns.

Hagler, Hearn to fight again

LAS VEGAS, Ne. (AP) — Marvelous Marvin Hagler, the undisputed middleweight champion, says he doesn't want to commit himself to anything right now.

But he apparently is committed to a rematch with Thomas Hearn, the World Boxing Council super welterweight champion, whom he knocked him out in the third round of exciting fight here last April 15.

"He will fight again," Hagler's co-manager Pat Petronelli said Tuesday at a news conference.

"He will fight in November, late November. It looks like Thomas Hearn. In fact, it is Thomas Hearn."

Hagler and Hearn set up the rematch with victories on a wet, windy Monday night before a sellout crowd of 15,000 at an outdoor arena at Caesars Palace.

In his 12th title defense, Hagler knocked out previously unbeaten John "The Beast" Mugabi in the 11th round of a scheduled 12-round bout.

Hearn knocked out previously unbeaten James Shuler at 1:13 of the first round of a scheduled 12-rounder and won the North American Boxing Federation middleweight title.

After running his unbeaten streak to 36 fights dating back to March 9, 1976, Hagler said he would consider retiring.

"Marvin's been quiet since Scypion," Petronelli said. Hagler has had five fights since knocking out Wilford Scypion on May 27, 1983.

Hagler, whose right eye was almost closed by Mugabi, stayed up after his victory to appear on network television at 4 a.m. and did not appear at the news conference.

Simmons' car lease cleared

AUSTIN (AP) — The University of Texas said Tuesday a car purchased by Longhorn running back Edwin Simmons was the result of a transaction in which Simmons "received no preferential treatment from the seller."

Dr. Ronald Brown, vice president of student affairs, said the Houston law firm of Vinson & Elkins had investigated Simmons' use of the car at the request of the university.

Brown said the law firm had been asked to share its findings with the NCAA and UT "stands ready to assist the NCAA staff with any additional information they may need to conduct their own investigations."

Brown said, however, "As of this date, the university has not been informed of an 'official inquiry' into the matter by the NCAA Committee on Infractions."

The Austin American-Statesman reported that Simmons had leased a 1984 BMW in April 1985 from Austin accountant Tee Bowman and had paid more than $4,210 on a down payment, three monthly payments and insurance.

Simmons said, "The university has all of the information concerning my car. I think the statement pretty well covers it. The car was repossessed. I tried to buy something I couldn't afford. I made a mistake. It was a hard lesson, and I'd like to think I have learned from it."

Hawks stay hot; whip Nuggets

By The Associated Press
Denver's strategy of stopping Dominique Wilkins succeeded only in finding another Atlanta hero in Kevin Willis.

The 7-foot Willis had a career-high 39 points and 21 rebounds, 14 on the offensive end, as the Hawks beat the Nuggets 128-116 Tuesday night. Atlanta, which missed the NBA playoffs last season, clinched a postseason berth with 17 games still on its schedule.

Wilkins scored 21 points, but made only six of 22 shots as the Nuggets double-teamed him every time he had the ball. But that strategy freed Willis inside.

Willis, who hit 16 of 23 field-goal attempts, said the work of 5-7 Spud Webb, Doc Rivers and John Battle made his job easier. "This was by far my best performance," Willis said. "But I was not alone. 'Spud, Doc and John penetrated well and got the ball to me down low.'"

Alex English, who led Denver with 38 points and nine rebounds, agreed with Moe's assessment.

The Hawks took the lead for good with 5:39 to play in the third quarter at 82-61 on a dunk by Willis.

The Hawks led 98-92 after three quarters and the Nuggets never moved closer than four points in the final period, the last time at 118-114 when English hit a layup with 3:31 to play.

Lakers 129, Clippers 108
The Lakers won their sixth straight and sent the Clippers to their fourth consecutive loss as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored 19 points and Earvin "Magic" Johnson added 15 points and 16 assists.

The Lakers were never threatened after a 17-0 streak gave them a 28-13 lead in the first period. They extended the margin to 25 in the third quarter before the Clippers narrowed the gap to 13 in the final period.

Celtics 116, Rockets 104
Larry Bird scored 31 points and Dennis Johnson and Kevin McHale 25 each as Boston snapped a rare two-game losing streak by beating Houston.

The Celtics led by 14 points late in the first half, but a 12-2 Rockets rally cut the deficit to 81-77 midway through the third quarter. Boston rebuilt its advantage to 10 later in the period and won easily by holding Houston to 17 points in the fourth quarter.

76ers 101, Pacers 91
Bobby Jones, starting against Indiana in place of the injured Julius Erving, scored only 14 points, but sparked two Philadelphia rallies.

Jones and Moses Malone, who led the 76ers with 27 points, scored six each during a 15-2 spurt that gave Philadelphia a 72-51 lead with 4:42 left in the third quarter.

Kings 132, Spurs 120
Reggie Theus had 22 of his 33 points and 10 of his 18 assists in the first 14 minutes of the game as Sacramento handed San Antonio its ninth loss in 10 games.

Cavaliers 112, Knicks 107
Cleveland won only its third road game in 17 tries as Mel Turpin scored a career-high 32 points at New York.

Turpin also scored his previous high of 29 points at Madison Square Garden against the Knicks, but on that occasion he was playing against New York rookie Patrick Ewing, who is now sidelined with an injured knee. With the Knicks having no starter taller than 6-foot-9, the 6-11 Turpin went inside for easy baskets and also made 14 of 15 free throws.

Bulls 113, Nets 100
Stan Albeck won his 300th game as an NBA coach as Gene Banks scored 26 points and Orlando Woolridge 22 for Chicago.

Banks and Woolridge combined for 35 points in the second half for Chicago.

Hurlers look good in comeback tries

By The Associated Press
The comeback trail is beginning to look like a primrose path for Pascual Perez and Bruce Sutter.

Perez (1-13, 6.14 earned run average) and Sutter (7-7, 4.48) contributed mightily to the Atlanta Braves' fifth-place finish in the National League West, a whopping 29 games behind the division-winning Los Angeles Dodgers.

Perez pitched two scoreless innings, striking out four, and Sutter, heralded as the team's bullpen savior, hurled one perfect inning as the Braves won a 4-1 exhibition victory over the world champion Kansas City Royals.

In three spring appearances, including an intrasquad game, Perez has allowed one hit and struck out five in seven innings.

Bob Horner's two-run homer off Danny Jackson gave Atlanta a 2-1 lead in the fourth inning.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Mets 5, Phillies 3
Len Dykstra and Tim Teufel hit RBI singles in the eighth inning and Ron Darling pitched three scoreless innings for New York. Von Hayes had a bases-loaded triple for the Philadelphia.

Cardinals 9, Astros 1
John Morris drove in four runs with a double and a homer and Terry Pendleton added a two-run homer for St. Louis. The Cards battered Mike Scott for six runs and five hits in the first two innings.

Padres 8, Cubs 4
Terry Kennedy hit a fifth-inning homer and San Diego added five unearned runs.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Yankees 4, Blue Jays 0
Phil Niekro, who will turn 47 on April 1, allowed one hit in three innings for New York. Marty Bystrom and Dennis Rasmussen, also trying to secure spots in the starting rotation, worked two innings apiece.

Indians 7, Mariners 3
Brook Jacoby hit a three-run homer and Andre Thornton doubled and singled for Cleveland. Jacoby's homer off Matt Young was his second of the spring.

INTER-LEAGUE

Giants 8, Athletics 5
San Francisco may have come up with another slugger named Clark to replace Jack, who was traded to St. Louis last year. Will Clark, who was playing for Mississippi State University last spring, hit his second home run of the exhibition season, a two-run shot, and doubled as the underdog Giants won their fifth victory in a row.

Rangers 6, Expos 2
Texas also remained unbeaten, winning their third in a row by downing the Expos as Gary Ward and Geno Petralli hit solo homers and Curtis Wilkerson delivered a two-run single.

White Sox 4, Pirates 2
Forty-one-year-old Tom Seaver, who was hammered for six runs in his first outing against the Mets last Friday, pitched four scoreless innings allowing only one hit.

Bears may shuffle to England

LONDON (AP) — The Chicago Bears may bring their "Super Bowl Shuffle" to England this summer.

Talks are under way for a National Football League exhibition game to be played in 75,000-seat Wembley Stadium, more accustomed to soccer and rugby league than the American game.

The most likely date, officials said Tuesday, is Aug. 3, the first full weekend of NFL preseason games.

Today, a national tabloid, said Monday that the Bears and the Dallas Cowboys were likely foes, and that matchup would be very attractive in this nation where the sport — known as gridiron football — is rapidly making converts.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle came to Britain to help set up the game, the paper said. It gave no date for that visit.

"It is an exciting opportunity for both our organization and the people of Britain," the newspaper quoted Ken Valdiseri, the Bears' public relations director, as saying.

In Chicago, the Bears' front office said that a game in England this summer has been discussed but that it must be approved by the NFL Players Association.

In New York, the NFL said that a game in Britain is in the works but that nothing has been signed and it could involve teams other than the Bears and the Cowboys. An announcement is expected next month, the league said.

Martin Corrie, a spokesman for Wembley, said no NFL exhibitions were on the stadium's schedule, but added, "We're obviously talking to various people about various events."

Asked if the Bears and Cowboys would be involved in any game that might be played here, Corrie replied: "Should a game be held at Wembley, then we would like to see the best in American football."

The Bears' 46-10 victory over the New England Patriots in the Super Bowl last January was televised live here to cheering crowds in pubs, restaurants and living rooms. An estimated 10 million Britons watched at least part of the game, officials said.

Each week during the regular season, Britain's Channel 4 telecasts more than an hour of highlights from the top NFL games of the previous Sunday.

Curry may get new manager

FORT WORTH (AP) — A power play for managerial control of undisputed welterweight champion Donald Curry's boxing career has been launched with an announcement by Akbar Muhammad that he is resigning as executive vice president of Top Rank, Inc., to become Curry's manager.

Curry's current two-year managerial contract with Fort Worth's David Gorman, under whom Curry originally turned pro on Oct. 31, 1980, runs out on Sept. 30.

Muhammad's announcement was released Tuesday evening by Top Rank spokesman Lee Samuels in New Jersey.

Muhammad, a one-time body guard for heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali, has been employed by Top Rank for six years.

Reading from a statement, Samuels said Muhammad had resigned from the Top Rank, the New York City-based promotional firm that has handled Curry's pro career from its outset, effective April 1.

Quoting Muhammad, Samuels said, "We wish to have David Gorman and Paul Reyes to remain as an integral part of the Curry team."

Reyes, Curry's trainer, has been involved with Curry as a boxer and confidant for 16 years.

However, Gorman told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram he would not accept a position as co-manager and that Curry would not work out of his gym if he were not his manager.

"There's no problem at all between me and Don, far as I know of," Gorman said.

"I've been expecting it. I've been expecting a play by Akbar. He made a move on him when our contract was up last time," Gorman said.

"Akbar's been in the middle of things for a long time.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

FORECAST FOR THURS., MARCH 13, 1986

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Startling and dramatic events can occur early in the day that require some changes in your plans, but be sure you know exactly what you want and have studied all the factors.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A person or a situation from far away can be intriguing early in the day. After lunch, something odd happens in business.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Consider that unexpected situation well, but don't go off on any tangent. Your mate can be most agreeable to your ideas.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A partner may have a clever idea which should be listened to carefully, but you do not know how to utilize it until evening.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Don't limit your activities too much or you accomplish very little today. Steer clear of a newcomer who is discontent.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Get into new interests that can expand your mentality, and stop concentrating on some small debt to a so-called friend.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) An associate may be depressing today so go after bigger business and you will do well. Use your energies wisely.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Sit down with a clever associate and plan the future course of action wisely. Ignore an upset co-worker.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you are more enthusiastic about your work, you can accomplish a great deal, but forget pleasure for now.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Study how best to utilize your finest talents. Don't interfere with the harmony at home.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You feel inadequate at handling home affairs because you have some secret problem. Take care of it and don't turn off on a tangent.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Try to do a better job at work. Don't involve friends in your plans; see them only in the evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Concentrate on practical ideas, but don't bring them to the attention of a bigwig until you have studied them further.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will have some fascinating ideas but needs considerable training before he or she can make them work successfully, so be sure to give as thorough an education as you can since bigwigs will want everything done perfectly. The latter part of life will be much easier than the former.
