How's that? EMP

Last week, the Herald reported Ralph Christensen, a Howard College physics instructor said he could find no connection between electromagnetic pulse, or EMP, and nuclear explosions. Since then, he has engaged in further research. An article in the January/February edition of Science '83 said "EMP is an intense burst of electromagnetic energy that can travel halfway across a continent at the speed of light and still pack enough punch to burn out electrical systems." It went on to say that "A single Soviet warhead detonated 250 miles or so above Nebraska would blanket the nation with EMP having peak fields on the order of 50,000 volts — almost certainly strong enough to shut down all power and communications" in the U.S.

U.S. vows to strike at Libya

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department, in the clearest indication yet that plans are being studied for a military strike against Libya, has canceled the departure of one of its aircraft carriers from the Mediterranean Sea to home, sources said today. The Navy has also been told to drop plans for a liberty call for the second carrier in the region, the sources said.

The officials, speaking on condition of anonymity, stressed the Navy had yet to receive any orders to reform a naval battle group in the central Mediterranean off Libya's coast.

But one source added, "It has become clear over the past 24 hours that we're going to keep our options open for the moment by keeping two carriers over there."

Meanwhile, President Reagan will hold his 35th formal news conference as president tonight. The session, his first since Feb. 11, will be nationally televised at 7 p.m. in the East Room of the White House.

At the same time, Reagan was telling newspaper editors that the United States is "not going to just sit here and hold still" in the wake of renewed terrorist attacks against Americans in Europe. He said Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy is "definitely a suspect" in the latest fatal bombings aboard a TWA jetliner over Greece and in an West Berlin nightclub.

The president refused to say what he plans to do, other than continue to gather evidence about the incidents and seek the support of

No motive found in man's murder

By HANK MURPHY Staff Writer

Police have a suspect but no motive in the beating death of 66-year-old northside man Tuesday night.

William H. Jewell of 907 N. Gregg St. was bludgeoned to death with a baseball bat at his home shortly before 10 p.m., according to police.

He died at 3:35 this morning at Dallas Veterans Administration Medical Center, after he was transferred there by air ambulance from the Big Spring VA hospital, said police Sgt. Ray Meek.

Meek said a 67-year-old man is suspected of the murder, but police have uncovered no motive "that makes any sense."

Police would not release the

Two men arrested in C-City robbery

COLORADO CITY — Police arrested two men Tuesday afternoon in connection with a grocery store robbery in which the store owner was struck, stabbed and shot.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks identified the pair as 19-year-old Dorsey Johnson and 30-year-old George Edward Miles, both of Colorado City. They were arrested at 2 p.m., about two hours after the robbery.

The victim, Don Burrus, 61, owner of Burrus Grocery on Sweetwater Highway, was listed in stable condition this morning at Mitchell County Hospital.

Johnson, along with a Colorado City woman, also has been charged with capital murder in the March 23 aggravated robbery of a convenience store in Snyder, Sgt. Jerry Morgan of the Snyder Police

Council turns down fee waiver request

By HANK MURPHY Staff Writer

The City Council took a hard-nosed fiscal posture at Tuesday night's meeting and struck down by a 5-1 vote a request to waive park pavilion reservation fees for two area charitable organizations.

The Big Spring Humane Society and the March of Dimes had asked the council to waive the $12 rental fee for the Old Settler's Pavilion and Shadow Retreat for a tick prevention program and the March of Dimes Walk America, respectively.

Led by councilmen Gary Don Carey and Russ McEwen, the council shot down the request and drew a firm line against waiving fees in the future.

McEwen lauded the community efforts of the many organizations that ask for fee waivers, but said he was concerned about "setting a bad precedent" in allowing free use of city facilities.

His rationale was bolstered by Carey who said waiving fees is costly to the city.

The council's lone dissent came from Councilman Johnny Rutherford. Rutherford said he opposed waiving fees, but said he'd prefer taking that stance when the new user fee package, now being fine-tuned by city administration, is brought before the council for formal action. He said at that time, the council should inform citizens of its more stringent policy.

The council also heard a presentation by Hayes Stripling Jr. of the Chamber of Commerce Beautification Committee challenging the council to combat the problem of broken glass and plastic bottles littering the city.

Stripling told the council that broken glass scattered throughout the city was both unsightly and a health hazard.

He said he spoke with State Rep. Larry Don Shaw about legislation toward a bottle law and came away with the impression that such a law will be on the books within a few years.

"Let's make Big Spring a leader," he said. "Let's recognize the problem and do something about it."

Stripling said the plastic used in beverage containers is worth 20 to 40 cents a pound.

"We can't afford to throw away resources," he said.

Stripling said a deposit could be charged on each beverage bottle or a tax imposed on non-returnables. He noted that such measures would create a burden on retailers, but said such programs have proven successful in a number of states.

The council also was told by acting City Manager Hal Boyd that 11 emergency warning devices have been placed throughout the city. Boyd said the sirens can warn 80 percent of the city's people of approaching storms or other emergencies.

In other business, the council:

- Saw administration of the oath of office to newly elected Mayor Cotton Mize and District 2 Councilman D.W. Overman. Mize cited former Mayor Clyde Angel and former councilman Larry Miller for their years of service to the city.

- Instructed the administration to continue using the present container truck while at the same time looking for a better, used vehicle. The truck, used for trash removal service for industrial customers, could need as much as $18,000 in repairs.

- Passed on first reading an ordinance revising this year's budget. McEwen, who said he had concerns about the budget at the last regular council meeting, said those concerns are still there but voted nonetheless to pass the measure on a first reading basis.

- Passed on first reading an ordinance regarding a new contract with Energas. Under the new contract, Energas will take over from the city the job of reading meters. Also, the franchise tax the company pays the city on gross

Pact may benefit Coahoma

By SPENCER SANDOW Staff Writer

COAHOMA — The city of Coahoma may get an extra $17,000 a year from Energas under terms of a new contract the City Council reviewed at its meeting Tuesday night.

Two more readings of the proposed contract must be made before the council can take any action.

The current 50-year contract with Energas for its right to operate in Coahoma ends May 13.

The new contract calls for raising the revenues Energas pays the city from 2 percent to 3 percent of gross receipts. Payments will be quarterly instead of monthly, and Energas will read its own meters "for closer supervision," said company representative Dearl Pittman. The contract will be for 25 years.

All the changes are standard on new contracts, he said. The Big Spring City Council approved a similar contract at its meeting Tuesday, calling for payment of 3½ percent of gross revenues.

In other business, the Coahoma council:

- Voted unanimously to seek bids on a new fire truck for the volunteer fire department. Brian Jensen of the department said the city doesn't have adequate fire protection because the department is having serious mechanical problems with both its fire trucks.

- "The equipment is getting old," he said. The trucks are 1961 and 1967 models.

- Councilman Billy Sullivan, a member of the volunteer department, said the council has enough money to make a down payment on a new truck.

- Voted unanimously to sell its IBM-PC computer. Bids are being accepted and will be opened July 8. The council recently bought a new computer after having problems with the old one.

- Heard a request for fire hydrants by Richard Sanders on behalf of the Valverde Street residents. Mayor Eleanor Garrett said fire hydrants on the street can't be installed within the city limits because the water pipes are too small. The hydrants could be installed just outside the limits, but such a request must go before Howard County officials, Garrett said.

- Unanimously tabled until further notice a discussion on curbing streets.

- Unanimously voted to use city employees to mow and clean up the park.

- Voted unanimously to send city employee Shorty Hernandez to a pump and motor school in Big Spring April 22.

- All council members were present at the meeting.

Youth Achievement Award nomination deadline near

Thursday is the deadline to nominate a Howard County high school senior for the 20th annual Youth Achievement Awards, sponsored by the Big Spring Herald, Zales and the Big Spring Rotary Club.

An application form is printed on page 2B of today's Herald. It should be mailed to the Herald at P.O. Box 1431, Big Spring, 79720. A black and white photograph of the nominee should be included.

Anyone can nominate a student for the award, and information is verified through the schools, said Herald publisher Tom Watson. The Rotary Club will provide the judges, he said.

Four finalists will be named from each of the four county high schools, and one winner from each school will be chosen from the group. Judging should be done by April 14, Watson said. Finalists will be notified by mail.

Winners will be announced at a dinner May 6 at the Big Spring Country Club. Finalists, parents, principals and school superintendents will be invited to the dinner.

Weather

Local

West Texas: Cloudy and cool through tonight but partly cloudy Thursday. Warmer north Thursday. Scattered showers or thunderstorms east of the mountains through Thursday. Lows tonight mid 40s Panhandle and mountains to upper 50s valleys of southwest. Highs Thursday mid 60s Panhandle to near 90 along the Rio Grande.

State

A weak cold front moved into extreme South Texas today, triggering scattered showers in the middle Rio Grande plains and thunderstorms over parts of the Hill Country and eastern sections, where trees were blown down.

The National Weather Service said other showers and light rain were scattered over the eastern Panhandle, northern South Plains and the Red River valley around Wichita Falls.

The front triggered strong thunderstorms over parts of South Texas Tuesday night. Winds and large hail toppled trees and interrupted utility services in some counties in Southeast Texas.

A Polk County sheriff's officer removed a tree from one road near Livingston, where three-quarter inch hail was reported from one of the stronger thunderstorms, a Livingston police dispatcher said.

A high-pressure system building southward across the state kept skies partly cloudy to cloudy elsewhere in the state as drier, cooler air continued to filter into North and West Texas.

Winds were light and variable over extreme South Texas today and north to northeast elsewhere in the state at 10 to 15 mph. Winds were gusty in excess of 25 mph at Austin and San Antonio.

Early-morning temperatures dipped into the 40s over the Panhandle and South Plains and the 70s dotted the Coastal Plains and extreme South Texas.

Readings were in the 50s and 60s across the rest of the state. Extremes were 47 degrees at Amarillo in the Panhandle to 74 degrees at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi.

Department said this morning.

Burrus told police two men forced him to lie on the floor, then hit him over the head with a wooden instrument, stabbed him in the back, and shot him twice in the face. The men took $300 from the cash register and fled, said Sparks.

The pistol and knife believed to have been used in the incident have been recovered, Sparks said.

After the two men left the store, Burrus managed to get next door where he lives with his mother, who called police and an ambulance.

Sparks, who investigated the case with police Sgts. Pat Taylor and Tim Atkins, said both suspects have given statements about the shooting.

In the Snyder robbery, Jack Huddleston, 54, attendant at an Allsup's store, was shot to death, said Morgan.

Bond for Amanda Miles was set at $25,000 for aggravated robbery and no bond for the capital murder charge, Morgan said.

All three suspects are being held in Mitchell County jail, said Morgan, but action is being taken to have Johnson and Amanda Miles transferred to Snyder.

Hit-and-run suspect ID'ed

Sheriff A.N. Standard said this morning a suspect has been identified in the hit-and-run accident that killed a Sand Springs boy Feb. 8.

Armando Jesus Soto, 13, died after being struck by a vehicle about 9 p.m. while riding his bicycle on the south service road of Interstate 20 near the Moss Creek Road.

Standard said the suspect, identified with cooperation of the Department of Public Safety office in Big Spring, would undergo a polygraph examination sometime next week at the DPS regional office in Midland.

The sheriff said an investigation into the hit-and-run incident had turned into a "process of elimination" of suspected drivers and vehicles.

The investigation has been difficult because no one witnessed the accident, Standard said, and because DPS laboratory tests of Soto's bicycle uncovered no evidence.

Standard said officers had followed up numerous leads provided by Crimestoppers, which is posting a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the driver.

Officers also had been gathering information on suspected vehicles involved, he said.

Deaths

Elmo Dunn

SNYDER — Services for Elmo Dunn, 72, of Colorado City will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Vincent Baptist Church with the Rev. James Green, a Baptist minister from New Mexico, officiating. He will be assisted by Greg Jensen, pastor of the Snyder church. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Garden, directed by Bell-Cypret Seale Funeral Home.

Dunn died this morning, April 9, at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock after a brief illness. He was born Aug. 16, 1913, in Pioneer. He was a retired farmer and rancher. He married Christine Robison Dec. 23, 1937, in Snyder. They moved to Scurry County in 1926 from Brown County. He is a longtime member and a deacon at the Vincent Baptist Church. He was also a member of the Ira Masonic lodge. He was preceded in death by two brothers, M.C. (Buck) Dunn and Lewis Dunn.

He is survived by his wife, Christine of the home; a daughter, Patricia Hogg of Big Spring; a son, H.F. (Skeet) Dunn of Colorado City; two sisters, Cora Larimore DeQueen of Arkansas and Lottie Williams of Colorado City; two brothers, Jack Dunn of Colorado City and Robert Dunn of Lamesa; and four grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials go to a favorite charity.

Building costs slip in March

Year-to-date permit figures still up over 1982

Building costs in the Spring City slid again in March, down $121,000 from February and almost $525,000 from January.

A total of 16 permits were issued in March with construction costs reaching $108,388, down $287,205 from the $395,593 spent on building in the city last March.

Still, fiscal year-to-date construction spending stands at more than $1.7 million, a 162 percent surge over the $661,000 spent through March of last year.

The biggest chunk of March spending stems from a $77,000 renovation of the Western Container building at the city industrial park. Suspended ceilings and outer partitions were added to the structure with J.W. Little Construction Co. serving as contractor.

Permits through the first week of April include a $15,000 alteration and addition for a convenience store and service station at 2512 Wasson Road for McCutcheson Oil Co. and a $10,200 sign at Whataburger on S. Gregg Street.

Other March permits were issued for:

- A $1,000 wooden deck at the home of Charles Purcell, 4403 Connally St.
- A $1,000 storage building at 3602 Calvin St. for Gregg

Brooks.

- A well dug for Mrs. Edward McCormick, 1518 E. 17th St., to cost $1,170.
- A $1,000 stone and metal sign at the Southwest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf.
- A new roof costing $1,400 at the home of Riley Faulkner of 415 Edwards St.
- A cinder block and redwood fence and a redwood gazebo costing $4,000 at the residence of Dr. John Fish, 606 Hillside Drive.
- A $3,500 sign at Bill Pollard Chevrolet, 1501 E. Fourth St.
- A $5,000 addition to the home of Vera Lockey, 1808 Runnels St.

- A storage building valued at $2,500 at the Golden Corral Steak House, 503 Farm Road 700.
- A $2,000 addition to the home of Jack Jewett, 1908 Monticello St.
- A new roof and masonite siding, costing $1,800, to the home of Travis Bracken, 1807 Lancaster.
- Fences costing $1,000 for Jimmy Johnson of 710 W. Fourth St.
- A $1,200 addition to the home of Mrs. Leo Gonzales of 1406 Young St.
- A $7,000 addition to the home of John Wilson, 2806 Crestline Road.

Police Beat

Bondsman reports ad scam

Bob Smith of A-Bob's Bail Bond, 3911 W. Highway 80, told police Tuesday afternoon that he lost $95 in an advertising scam.

Sgt. Ray Meek said this morning that a man posing as an agent for Hester Sports Advertising Ltd. sold Smith advertising space on the Big Spring High School sports on the football posters. The posters, Smith told police, were never endorsed by the high school.

James Dow of 1506 Donley St. told police Tuesday night that someone stole a $150 television, a $535 VCR, a $15 cable converter, a $225 microwave oven and four VHS tapes from his home between 6 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Sue Moran of Big Spring Trailer Park Lot 33 told police Tuesday morning that someone stole a $300 motorcycle from the residence between 6 p.m. Friday and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Carla Smith of the Safeway store at the College Park Shopping Center told police Tuesday afternoon that on March 26 someone wrote a $200 unauthorized check at the business.

Richard Atkins of 101 Lincoln St. told police Tuesday morning that someone stole a red 10-speed bicycle from his backyard between 6 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday.

Danny Heckler of Red Barn Auto Sales told police Tuesday afternoon that someone stole a $145 carburetor from a motor boat at the business between 4 p.m. Saturday and 3:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Ronnie Chester of 1202 Ridge Road told police Tuesday afternoon that someone threw a rock through the rear door window of his car causing $50 damage. The incident happened Monday at 1011 Howell St.

Joseph Storto, 21, of 805 W. 17th St. was arrested Tuesday afternoon on suspicion of a second offense of driving without insurance.

John Lynn Sanders, 28, of 1520 Tucson Road was arrested Tuesday on suspicion of driving while intoxicated.

Two damage lawsuits filed

Two lawsuits have been filed in 118th District Court following separate accidents which resulted in injuries.

Olga Lopez and her husband Habacue Lopez, both of Big Spring, names Ramon Galindo & Sons Construction Co. of Odessa and James Thompson, doing business as Thompson Electric of Big Spring, as defendants in a civil suit involving an accident that took place at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Big Spring on May 7, 1984.

According to the lawsuit, Olga Lopez was working laundry assigned duties at the hospital on that date. She claims she attempted to turn off the electrical power when leaving the laundry room and received an electrical shock that resulted in her suffering permanent injuries.

The petition contends the electrical switches "constituted unreasonably dangerous condition."

Lopez is suing for $100,000 in damages.

A lawsuit filed in 1983 in Bell

County has been transferred to the 118th District on a change of venue.

Jose Martinez is seeking damages of at least $1,374.23 as a result of a two-car accident that occurred on Oct. 5, 1981, at the intersection of Sixth and Nolan streets.

Bobby C. Winters is named as defendant in the suit.

According to the suit's petition, Martinez was driving a car west-bound on Sixth when it and a vehicle driven by Winters collided.

Martinez contends Winters was negligent in failing to maintain a proper lookout, failure to use his brakes to avoid a collision, failure to obey a stop sign and failure to yield right of way.

In his answer to the lawsuit, filed by attorney Wayne Basden of Big Spring on June 19, 1984, Winters denies all the allegations. The answer also requested change of venue which was granted by Judge J.H. Russell of Bell County on March 31. The suit was initially filed in Bell County on Oct. 5, 1983, and transferred to 118th District Court earlier this month.

He said the suspect was in the Big Spring VA hospital this morning. Police are coordinating handling of the case with the district attorney's office, he said.

An autopsy has been ordered by a physician at the Dallas hospital, Meek said.

He said he was unaware of any witnesses to the killing.

European allies.

"We are investigating and trying to gather all the information we can so that we can actually, with solid evidence, point a finger at who is responsible," Reagan said.

Asked if he that evidence now points to Khadafy, Reagan replied, "Let me say he is definitely a suspect."

"We're continuing to try and get more support now for action that would be appropriate in view of the greater threats that are being uttered," Reagan said, but added, "I can't get specific with you" about what that action might be.

Pentagon sources had said Tuesday the carrier Coral Sea was leaving port at Malaga, Spain, to conduct some routine operations in the western Mediterranean.

After a brief period of operations, the sources said, the Coral

Sea was supposed to set sail for the United States, having completed its normal six-month deployment.

The carrier left its home port of Norfolk, Va., on Oct. 2.

Instead of departing from Malaga, however, the Coral Sea was unexpectedly ordered to remain in port and at least temporarily to scrap its plans for a return home.

The carrier America, meantime, left the port of Livorno, Italy, as scheduled today. But that ship has been told to remain underway at sea instead of heading toward a second port call in France, the sources said.

One administration official said late this morning the Coral Sea might be told to get underway from Spain on Thursday.

"But whenever she moves out, it doesn't look like she'll be heading westward (to the U.S.) right away," the official added.

Sheriff's Log

2 men arrested in car theft

Howard County sheriff's deputy Carl Thurman arrested two Midland men early Wednesday morning on Interstate 20, about 10 miles west of Big Spring. They are suspected of stealing a motor vehicle from Midland.

Arrested were Gabino Rodriguez Soto, 25, and Eliseo Garcia Suarez, 24.

Sheriff A.N. Standard said this morning that Thurman stopped the car during patrol duty, and after he ran a check on the license plate number, the deputy found the car had been reported stolen.

Both suspects were in custody Wednesday morning, and Standard said an arraignment before a justice of the peace was scheduled sometime today.

Police transferred Joseph James Storto, 21, of 805 W. 17th St. to county jail Tuesday afternoon after he was arrested for a second offense of failure to maintain financial responsibility. He was released on $500 bond.

Gun bill set for vote

WASHINGTON — The gun lobby's 18-year campaign to ease federal firearms controls is set for a crucial vote, as House members face "a test of courage" on an issue that may decide their political futures.

Two rival bills — one supported by police and handgun control groups, the other by sportsmen and gun dealer organizations — are pitted against each other today in what amounts to the survival of the fittest.

Summit prospects soar

WASHINGTON — The United States and the Soviet Union are ready to start planning for a second summit even though the high hopes engendered by the first such meeting have given way to an extended period of mutual recrimination.

The breakthrough occurred during a White House meeting Tuesday between President Reagan and outgoing Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin. Secretary of State George Shultz said Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze will come to Washington in mid-May to discuss summit preparations.

Voters make his day

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, Calif. — Clint Eastwood, hero of detective films and spaghetti westerns, proved to be as big a draw at the polling place as the box office as voters turned out in record numbers to make him mayor.

Smiling broadly, Eastwood said the triumph "ranks solidly" with his successes as a director and star. "It's a hit movie at the moment," he said.

Workers get damages

HOUSTON — More than 700 former asbestos workers will share an estimated $145 million as part of a settlement of a class-action federal lawsuit in which workers blamed manufacturers for their asbestos-related diseases, attorneys say.

The settlement ended the first class-action asbestos trial in the nation. "I was very pleased with the amount — very much so," said Port Arthur attorney Walter Umphrey, who represents 539 of the 741 plaintiffs. "It is two or three times the national average (in such cases)."

Oil prices decline

NEW YORK — Word that the Soviet Union is back in the oil market after suspending sales over the winter has dampened the price climb that followed the shutdown of Norway's strikebound North Sea oil rigs.

On the New York Mercantile Exchange, contracts for May delivery of West Texas Intermediate, the main U.S. crude grade, plunged nearly $2 on Tuesday to close at $12.47 a barrel, down from Monday's $14.33.

Groups narrow focus on NATO bases

EDITOR'S NOTE — "The key is revolutionary war ... as a strategy for Western Europe," terrorist Brigitte Mohnhaupt declared at her 1984 sentencing in West Germany. A new wave of home-grown terror is rolling over Europe. This is the third of a five-part series on international terrorism.

By CHARLES J. HANLEY
Associated Press Writer

WIESBADEN, West Germany (AP) — The "armies" of Western Europe's terrorist left are rising up again in a lethal new generation, waging an anti-NATO campaign that may enlist more and more dissident youth, say police and other security experts.

A decade of police successes, tough anti-terrorist laws and damaging defections has not stopped — let alone crushed — the continent's urban guerrilla movement.

"Time and again, they have come back," acknowledged Heinz Doehla, an anti-terrorist specialist with the West German federal police.

And this time West Germany's Red Army Faction and other European terrorist groups are coming back together, in an "anti-imperialist" brotherhood of bombers and assassins that some authorities now trace to a 1981 terrorist gathering in Paris.

In a barrage of attacks over the past 14 months, West German, French and Belgian radicals have assassinated prominent members of Europe's defense establishment and set off bombs at a U.S. air base, military pipelines and other North Atlantic Treaty Organization installations.

Anonymous telephone callers claimed last Saturday's bombing of a West Berlin nightclub filled with American GIs was the work of German terrorists, although West German officials said Arabs were also suspected. Two people were killed and almost 200 injured in that blast.

By narrowing their focus to NATO, the extremists may actually broaden their appeal, since they are aligning themselves with millions of young West Europeans who have demonstrated against U.S.-NATO missile deployment plans.

"From the Red Army Faction point of view, the only opportunity to fight NATO suppression around the world is to organize a kind of illegal guerrilla war and get in contact with more and more people," said a source close to the German underground group, speaking with a reporter on condition of anonymity.

Unlike such nationalist movements as the Irish Republican Army and Spain's Basque separatists, the "ideological" terror groups born in the late 1960s —

Target Terror

notably West Germany's Baader-Meinhof band and successor Red Army Faction, and Italy's Red Brigades — were driven by a far-left creed that drew little popular support.

By the late 1970s, these groups were under heavy pressure.

In Italy, where the Red Brigades assassinated judges, police officials and former Premier Aldo Moro, authorities say their key tools were new laws allowing plea bargaining for "repentant" terrorists who informed against comrades. About 1,250 Red Brigades members and other leftist terrorists are now in jail.

In West Germany, advanced police work paid off. The Federal Criminal Office, which has headquarters in this gray Rhine River city, put special anti-terrorist detectives into the field and developed impressive computer files tying together incidents, people, weapons and methods.

Two diplomats expelled

BONN, West Germany — West Germany today ordered two Libyan diplomats to leave the country on the basis of evidence emerging from the weekend bombing of a West Berlin nightclub, a Foreign Ministry spokesman said.

Two people, a U.S. Army sergeant and a Turkish woman, were killed in the blast.

Frenchman kidnapped

BEIRUT, Lebanon — A French teacher at a school in Moslem west Beirut disappeared today and was feared kidnapped, a French Embassy spokesman said.

The man was identified as Michel Brian, a teacher at the College Protestant Francais.

Embassy sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said gunmen kidnapped Brian as he walked from his apartment in west Beirut's Hamra commercial district to the school in Koraitem neighborhood about five blocks away.

Bush arrives in Oman

MUSCAT, Oman — Vice President George Bush, after raising prospects of a new American initiative for Middle East peace, arrived today for a visit that coincides with one by Jordan's King Hussein, a key figure in Arab-Israeli negotiations.

Hussein flew to Oman on Monday in advance of Bush's arrival to brief Sultan Qaboos bin Said about Jordan's position on strategies for Middle East talks, according to Arab diplomats.

Soviet letter delivered

MOSOW — The official news agency said today that a Soviet official met with Libyan leader Col. Moammar Khadafy in Tripoli and gave him a message from Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev.

It was the first report of such a contact since the U.S.-Libyan clash in the Gulf of Sidra last month.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said the head of the Soviet Union's state committee for foreign economic relations, Konstantin Katushev, was in Libya on a visit. It did not say when he arrived, when he met Khadafy, or reveal the contents of Gorbachev's message.

Bomb kills one man

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — A bomb exploded in a public toilet near a Johannesburg railway station today, killing one man and injuring four other people, police said.

Maj. Steve Von Rooyen at police headquarters in Pretoria said an explosive device went off at 1:04 p.m. (6:04 a.m. EST) in a municipal toilet at a bus stop near the Verdedorp railway station in downtown Johannesburg.

Waldheim repeatedly denies charges of Nazi past

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Former U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim today was quoted as saying that allegations he is hiding a Nazi past would not force him out of the presidential campaign.

Waldheim, who is running against socialist-supported candidate Kurt Steyrer in the May 4 election, has said the World Jewish Congress' allegations were designed to hurt his chances.

In an interview with the West

German newspaper Bild, Waldheim was asked if he planned to bow out of the race.

"No! I will not do them that favor," Bild quoted Waldheim as saying.

Waldheim was quoted as repeating denials that he ever was a Nazi and said he had been beaten as a youth for distributing anti-Nazi leaflets.

Waldheim has acknowledged serving with the German army in the Balkans as a translator, but has denied any links with Hitler's Nazi organizations or their crimes.

The Washington Post today quoted Waldheim's son, Gerhard Waldheim, as saying his father wrote a detailed denial of allegations that he had taken part in atrocities or interrogated prisoners.

The newspaper said Gerhard Waldheim gave it a 13-page memo in which the former U.N. secretary-general said the claims about his past arose from misinterpretation of the titles and duties ascribed to him in German war records.

In the memo, The Washington Post reported, Kurt Waldheim said he did not accompany his unit on two missions during which it killed partisans or burned villages.

A tax exemption that is dubious

That guy in the Nuveen and who says, "For me, April 15 is just another day" can relax a little. The Senate Finance Committee has scotched the bad idea of applying its minimum tax to the interest on existing municipal bonds, which are now tax-free — though they may apply it to bonds issued after this year. Fortunately for our non-taxpayer, the committee hasn't really addressed the more deserving problem, which is the promiscuous use of tax-exempt bonds for unjustified purposes.

This tax break, originally provided when the federal income tax was established, is dubious in the best of circumstances. The point was to buttress federalism by making it comparatively easy for states and municipalities to raise money for capital projects — roads, schools, sewers and the like. The exemption gave them an advantage over other borrowers by lowering the rate they had to pay to sell their bonds.

In economic terms, this amounts to a federal subsidy to lower units of government, since it requires Washington to sacrifice some tax revenue. Unfortunately, it also subsidizes bondholders, most of whom are wealthy. This defect makes it an expensive way to assist states and cities. But it probably ought to be kept, just to avoid the uncertainty, red tape, aggravation and loss of independence that would result from making them rely on direct federal appropriations.

That's no excuse, though, for allowing states and cities to use their tax exemption to raise money for projects that have nothing to do with its original purpose. In 1984, only about 25 percent of the money borrowed through tax-exempt bonds went to finance public goods like roads, schools and sewers. The rest was used for private purposes like business investment, hospitals, home mortgages and student loans.

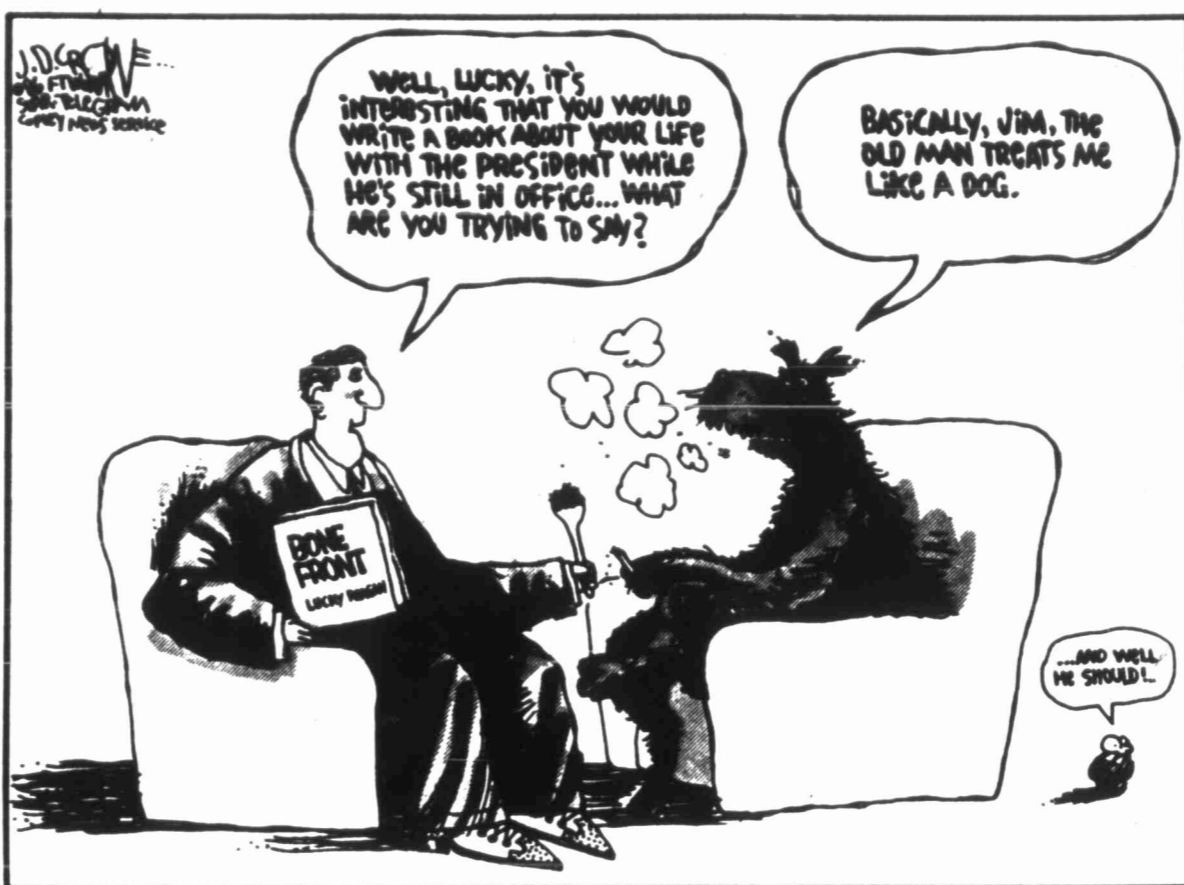

These are perfectly good uses for borrowed money. The question is why their recipients deserve the advantage conferred by the tax exemption, which has to be made up by other taxpayers. Why should some corporations get cheap loans to make money for their shareholders? Why should some people get discount mortgages and others not? Why should people who have the chance to go to college, a generally lucrative investment, get their education paid for partly by those less fortunate?

Pollution controls are a perfect example. No one doubts the need to protect the environment. But this doesn't justify granting a tax exemption to such investments. A better approach is to make the polluter pay for the controls. Ultimately, the company's customers, whose purchases make the controls necessary, would bear the cost. Letting corporations borrow money at tax-free rates only shifts part of the cost to taxpayers at large.

The process can also be self-defeating. Cities competing to attract business are under pressure to offer tax-exempt financing as a lure. But if they all offer it, none gets an advantage. Only the favored companies profit — at the expense of taxpayers, who have to make up the lost receipts. Local and state governments also suffer, because a higher volume of bonds tends to raise the interest rates they have to pay.

Even if it made sense to subsidize activities like these, this tax exemption is a poor way to provide the subsidy. The Treasury Department figures that for every $1 of benefits received by the borrower, the federal government loses up to $1.50. It would be cheaper to revoke the exemption and simply give the favored groups the money.

Nations bolster efforts to outdo U.S. in space

By JACK ANDERSON and JOSEPH SPEAR
WASHINGTON — While Washington's second-guessers and handwringers anguish over the Challenger tragedy, other nations are scrambling to overtake the United States in space. Here's what has happened since the shuttle explosion immobilized the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

• The Soviet Union launched a space station, which will become the core of a huge space complex, with laboratories, manufacturing facilities and living quarters. By contrast, there are mutterings in Washington about canceling the U.S. space station project — which couldn't be deployed, in any event, until the mid-1990s.

The Soviets have offered the use of their Proton rockets, at a launching price of $24 million, which customers may use if they get tired of waiting for the U.S. shuttles to take off again. The Soviet price per customer is less, incidentally, than it costs for a shuttle-launched satellite.

• The European Space Agency has launched two satellites into orbit since the shuttle disaster. Shuttle customers, left stranded by NASA, have been invited to sign up with the European agency. It has offered to add four more Ariane rocket launchings to its 1987-88 schedule.

• Britain, France and the Soviet Union have intensified work on manned spacecraft. The Soviets have already tested a small spaceplane that would ride into space atop a booster rocket, spring into orbit and then return to Earth. The Japanese are also rushing ahead with plans to operate in space. Even the Chinese have let out word that their Long March rockets are available to commercial customers.

All the while, the investigation of the Challenger explosion, fanned into a national scandal by an aggressive press corps, has demoralized NASA and bogged down the U.S. space program.

Reporters have jumped on NASA for ignoring warnings that should have been heeded and taking risks that may have been unwise. But NASA's files are full of self-serving memos routinely written by cautious officials to absolve themselves from blame. If a launch is successful, they can bask in the acclaim. If it should fail, they can cite their I-told-you-so memos.

NASA would never have landed men on the moon if the managers had heeded all the negative memos. Some of the warnings now being cited were written by these chronic objectors. Since they object to every launch, the managers don't know when to take them seriously.

The top people at NASA have always been risk-takers. They have understood that space pioneering has its risks, that risks go with exploration, that progress has a price. They have been careful to give top priority to safeguarding human life. Their safety record is impressive; by many measurements, they have actually made space exploration safer than airplane or automobile travel. But accidents will be inevitable on the space frontier.

If NASA must guarantee safety, it will simply have to stop all space flights. If NASA officials are subjected to finger-pointing after every mishap, they will start playing it even safer. Engineers will protect themselves by citing all the things that could go wrong and warning against every launch. Officials will be afraid to ignore the warnings and will no longer take risks, knowing there are memos in the file that could come back to haunt them.

Such a play-it-safe atmosphere would likely drive out of NASA the most resourceful people who have kept the United States on the cutting edge of space technology. About 40 percent of the top people are eligible to retire, most of them on full pension. If they can no longer explore space without risking personal ruin, they may simply walk out.

Then NASA would become blighted with the bureaucratic curse it has so far avoided — the curse of inertia and passivity — and become another Washington structure more interested in sustaining itself than promoting the national welfare.

BAKSHESH & BUREAUCRATS: The Arab word "bakshesh" pretty accurately sums up the sordid facts of life in the business world of the Middle East. On the mundane level, it means simply a tip, as paid to a cab driver or vendor in return for special service. But on the higher level of government contracts, it means corruption on a grand scale. "A number of lower-level officials, we are told, obtain three or four times as much bakshesh as their regular salary," the American embassy in Cairo recently reported to Foggy Bottom. The embassy bemoaned the fact that U.S. businessmen must pay bribes to officials or lose contracts.

MINI-EDITORIAL: A top official in one of the federal government's biggest bureaucracies has actually written to thank J. Peter Grace and his cost-cutting commission for their efforts at his agency.

Jack Anderson's investigative report from Washington is distributed by United Feature Syndicate.

History repeats 'pagan' education

To the editor:

It has been said history repeats itself. In the 3rd century, Julian the Apostate, Emperor of Rome, wanted to restore paganism to Rome in place of Christianity. He issued three decrees that were essentially these:

(1) A Christian may teach in Roman schools. (Sounds reasonable)

(2) He would have final approval on all teachers. (He certainly wouldn't want "unqualified" teachers, so why not approve, "certify," each one)

(3) Teachers must teach views favorable to his pagan desires. (You teach what I say you teach).

Today we are witnessing a direct attempt by state officials for total control or elimination of all private and parochial schools. Proposed amendments submitted by W.N. Kirby, Commissioner of Education, to Senator Jack Strong, Chairman, State Board of Education on March 8 would accomplish this.

The cover letter by Mr. Kirby sounds like Decree No. 1. "This rule does not restrict what additional subjects or courses may be taught in addition to the basic curriculum...."

Rule C-5 requires adherence to state laws on length of school day and school year.

Rule C-6 mandates "instructional time requirements and essential elements..." These "time requirements and essential elements" are not just the three "R's" but comprise H.B. 246 Chap. 75 which dictates minute-by-minute plans for teachers to follow. Sure, teach whatever else you want after what we dictate for you to teach, but, of course you're already out of time on the official school day, so....

Decree No. 2 is covered under Rules C-2 and C-3. The state must certify all staff members and no others but these may teach these children.

Decree No. 3 is the "essential elements" above.

Rule D requires "an institution" — "meeting the criteria of Section C" (Rules 1-7). Whoops, there goes all home schooling. What about "correspondence courses, workbooks or other (The Bible?) instructional materials." OK, but only under "the direct, regular and personal supervision of a qualified professional ("certified") staff member."

What would Texas parents do without Senator Jack Strong trying to ram this through or "Caesar" Kirby or "Caesar" Mark White trying to keep us straight? Let us find out this November.

Able young men wait in the wings

To the editor:

My candidate for Mayor was defeated but I would like to publicly acknowledge how nice it was to work on his committee.

It was great to know young men of ability, enthusiasm, vision, and desire to see their community improve. Young men who will take time from their businesses, families, and friends to concern themselves with the welfare of their local government. And young men who take time to meet the people they are asking to vote for them, stand in the hot sun, make countless speeches, shake hundreds of hands, and genuinely enjoy it.

It is of great encouragement to know young men of his ability are waiting in the wings.

Reagan gets a boost for Contra aid plan

By REID G. MILLER
PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) — The breakdown in Central American peace talks probably dealt a crippling blow to hopes by congressional opponents to defeat President Reagan's plan to send $100 million in aid to the Contra rebels.

Negotiations among 13 Latin American foreign ministers collapsed Monday as Nicaragua's three neighboring countries accused the leftist Sandinista government of blocking all attempts to reach an accord.

But Nicaragua's foreign minister blamed the United States for pressuring Costa Rica, Honduras and El Salvador to back away from an earlier agreement containing a sharp renunciation of Reagan administration policies.

Nicaragua has previously accused the Reagan administration of trying to sabotage the Contadora peace process, begun in January 1983 by Colombia, Mexico, Panama and Venezuela to negotiate a regional non-aggression pact.

The meeting, which began Saturday and ran an extra day, brought together the foreign ministers of Argentina, Brazil, Peru and Uruguay, who support the Contadora effort, and the five Central American nations, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua.

Whoever was to blame for the stormy breakdown, one thing was clear: the latest round of talks had failed, and with them almost any lingering hope of congressional opponents for defeating Reagan's bid to help the Nicaraguan rebels, known as Contras.

The mostly Democratic House last month narrowly rejected the president's plan to give $100 million in military hardware and other aid to the Contras, but will reconsider the matter April 15. The Republican-dominated Senate approved the proposal on March 27.

Rep. Bill Richardson of New Mexico, one of three Democrats in Panama City to observe the negotiations, said the breakdown in the talks was a strong setback.

"Realistically, if these talks break down, the vote on Contra aid is lost" to supporters of the Reagan proposal, Richardson said.

Richardson spoke as he and colleagues Michael Barnes of Maryland and Jim Slattery of Kansas prepared to return to Washington. A few hours later, the talks broke off.

The congressmen had come to Panama at the request of House Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill, who led the earlier, successful fight against Reagan's plan. They arrived Saturday night full of hope.

"I'm much more pessimistic," Richardson said on departing. His colleagues nodded agreement.

All three insisted that the regional peace talks were still the best hope of avoiding a wider war in Central America.

Richardson, referring to Nicaragua's negotiating position, put it this way: "Just because one sourpuss doesn't go along doesn't mean we should give up our attempt to reach a negotiated settlement."

Nicaragua's foreign minister, Miguel d'Escoto, later said his country was indeed willing to go along, but not down the path chosen by Costa Rica, El Salvador and Honduras.

Billy Graham

Faith feeds eternal life

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I am a trained scientist, and I would like to ask your opinion about the possibility of life after death. I know you favor it, but I wonder if there is any evidence for it or is it just wishful thinking? — D.D.Y.

DEAR D.D.Y.: No, it is not wishful thinking, and once we grasp the truth that there is life beyond the grave it will make all the difference in how we live today. I invite you, therefore, to examine the evidence — and then to have that hope in your heart.

I know there is life after death for one crucial reason: Jesus Christ rose from the dead. Christ's resurrection is important for many reasons; it demonstrates that He was, in fact, who He said He was — the divine Son of God who was sent from Heaven to reconcile us to God. But it also is important because it demonstrates there is life after death. "Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him ... And so we will be with the Lord forever" (1 Thessalonians 4:14, 17).

Many years ago Frank Morison, a brilliant British lawyer, decided to disprove the resurrection of Jesus Christ. He was a strong unbeliever and knew if he could prove Jesus Christ never rose from the dead then people would not be "misled" (in his view) into having a false hope of eternal life. So, he set out to study the New Testament historical record. But before long he realized there was overwhelming evidence for the resurrection of Jesus Christ — and he committed his life to Christ. His book "Who Moved the Stone?" is still widely read.

I invite you to examine the evidence for Jesus Christ and His resurrection. When you do, you will realize the glorious truth that you, too, can have eternal life in Heaven through faith in Christ.

Today

By The Associated Press
Today is Wednesday, April 9, the 99th day of 1986. There are 266 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On April 9, 1865, the Civil War was at a virtual end as Confederate General Robert E. Lee surrendered his army to Union General Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House in Virginia. On this date: In 1682, the French explorer La Salle reached the Mississippi River.

At issue in the talks was a new proposal to set June 6 as the deadline for signing a Contadora peace treaty.

The new proposal called for a non-aggression pact among the five Central American countries, which also include Guatemala; denounced foreign interference or aid to "irregular forces or insurrectional movements that operate in any of the countries of the region;" and urged national reconciliation in the two countries beset by civil war, Nicaragua and El Salvador.

A stumbling block was that in reconciliation, the Sandinistas have repeatedly said they will not hold talks with armed Contras. The foreign ministers of Costa Rica, Honduras and El Salvador said only Nicaragua among the 13 nations participating in the talks had refused to sign the document.

But Nicaragua's d'Escoto said the new proposal varied sharply from an earlier agreement known as the Document of Caraballeda, signed Jan. 12 by the foreign ministers of the Contadora and support groups. That document was later ratified by all five Central American nations in Guatemala.

"The document of Caraballeda is the central document," d'Escoto told reporters after the Panama City meeting.

"That document says that it is absolutely indispensable ... for the United States to stop providing assistance for irregular forces in the region," d'Escoto said.

Reid G. Miller, an AP correspondent based in San Jose, Costa Rica, has been reporting on Central American developments since 1982.

Court hearing delayed on property forfeiture

District Attorney Rick Hamby said this morning a Thursday forfeiture hearing in 118th District Court regarding items and proceeds seized during the recent arrest of two Shreveport, La., men in Big Spring has been postponed two to three weeks.

"One of the defendants wants to fight the forfeiture and we want to give him a chance to respond," Hamby said.

Dean B. Patterson, 26, and Samuel R. Maxey, 27, both of Shreveport, La., were arrested by police on March 14 shortly after they were suspected of burglarizing a coin operated machine at the Exxon Service Station at Fourth and Nolan streets.

Both defendants were transferred to county jail on March 20 and released on $30,000 bonds. Hamby said each defendant has been charged with a third-degree felony and could face maximum 10-year sentences if they are convicted for the offense.

According to a written affidavit by Texas Ranger Charles Brune filed with the petition, during the arrest and seizure process of the defendants, police confiscated items that indicate the defendants traveled across the United States and unlawfully entered coin-operated machines to steal money.

Brune requests the court order property seized by police during the arrest be held by that law enforcement agency until the "rightful and lawful owner be ascertained."

According to an inventory of stolen property contained within the petition, items such as keys, bolt cutters, money wrappers, notebooks containing writings of alleged criminal activities pertaining to the suspects and a touring guide map containing route markings believed to be used by the suspects were seized by police during the arrest.

Approximately $3,500 in cash was also listed as further inventory, according to the petition.

College picks new men's basketball coach

Bryan High School coach Larry Brown was hired Tuesday as men's basketball coach at Howard College during a special meeting of the Howard County Junior College District board of trustees.

Brown replaces Ed Sparling, who held the position for two years. Board members unanimously approved Brown's hiring.

In other business, board members elected Curtis Mullins as new chairman, Don McKinney as vice chairman and Dr. P.W. Malone as secretary of the board.

Members also canvassed Saturday's election at the meeting and administered the oath of office to incumbents Mullins and David Gomez, who were re-elected Saturday.

The board also:
 • Unanimously approved changes to the staff handbook to bring the college into compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act. The change will take place April 15, said Howard College President Bob Riley.

• Unanimously approved a request by the SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf student government to name the newly remodeled dormitory after Dr. Doug Burke, who was instrumental in starting SWCID.

NOBODY BECOMES AN ALCOHOLIC ALONE.

It takes a protector who always comes to the rescue in a crisis. A boss who'll see that the work gets done and the job saved. Someone who'll straighten out anything that goes wrong at home. When the painful consequences of drinking and dependency on drugs are suffered by others, drinking and abuse of drugs becomes a problem-solving device for the abuser — they continue to drink, knowing their immediate needs will be met by others as long as they remain helpless.

If you're playing the victim, call Crossroads Recovery Program. We treat these diseases with an effective, reasonably priced program that deals with the realities of alcoholism, including its four victims.

Our Program isn't easy. But it works.

Late JP West honored

The late Bobby J. West, a former law enforcement official in Howard County, recently received a state senate proclamation honoring his life achievements.

Sen. John Montford of Lubbock submitted the proclamation.

West, a 1947 graduate of Coahoma High School who worked as a sheriff's deputy, criminal investigator, adult probation officer and justice of the peace in Howard County, died last January. He is survived by his wife Rosemary Bustamante West.

The proclamation said West "loyally and faithfully served the people of his community" and "participated generously in all civic, religious and charitable enterprises."

Hearings to decide fate of parolees

Parole hearings scheduled next month for two Big Spring men will determine whether they will be sent back to the Texas Department of Corrections to resume serving time for felony convictions.

Al Ray Lang, 33, of 2627 Hunter was transferred by police to county jail Monday morning after his arrest on a parole violation warrant.

He had earlier been arrested by police March 26 on suspicion of assault.

"He is accused of striking his 15-year-old daughter in the face," said Big Spring parole officer David Harman.

Lang had been on parole from the Texas Department of Corrections since July 10, 1984. He was sentenced to eight years in prison in May 1981 from Midland County for carrying a weapon on licensed premises.

He had served three years prior to being released on parole.

Harman said Lang's parole hearing is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. May 8 in the grand jury room of the county courthouse.

Scheduled for a parole hearing at 10:30 a.m. is Lee Jimenez, 26, of 1303 Michael, who was arrested March 18 on an emergency warrant issued by the state Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Jimenez was arrested by Howard County sheriff's deputies March 16 in connection with a burglary reported at the residence of Jovita Jimenez of Route 2 Box 147. She reported that someone entered her residence and stole a television valued at $500.

The defendant also is suspected of entering the same residence March 1 and stealing three guns valued at $285.

Jimenez was sentenced to the TDC in March 1985 to serve three years for a felony driving while intoxicated conviction. He had served 6½ months before being released on parole in October 1985.

Easter day shooting victim stable

Raymond Calderon, 40, the victim of an Easter day shooting in Comanche Trail Park, has been moved out of intensive care and is in stable condition at Odessa Medical Center, a spokeswoman there said this morning.

Calderon was hit in the face by a blast from a 12-gauge shotgun.

Calderon and his brother, 32-year-old Enrique Calderon, were shot near the swimming pool by a man in a passing truck, according to police.

Enrique Calderon has been released from Malone-Hogan Hospital where he underwent surgery for a wound to his upper right leg. A suspect in the shooting, 38-year-old Pedro Cantu of Big Spring, was released from custody on $25,000 bond last week.

A third Easter shooting victim, Miles Anguiano, 20, has also been discharged from Malone-Hogan, said a hospital spokeswoman.

Police say Anguiano was struck in the abdomen with a bullet after the gun he was carrying fell while he was running, hit the pavement, and discharged.

Anguiano told police the night of the incident that he was shot by a passing car while jogging near Farm Road 700 and Cedar Road, but later admitted he was shot with his own gun.

Court upholds murderer's death sentence

Employee reunion set

COLORADO CITY — The 10th annual Col-Tex reunion will be held April 26 at 6 p.m. in the C.C. Thompson Room here. Organizer Mildred Free said the organization will honor Lee Lavendera, a long-time employee and foreman of the old refinery.

Free said she has a list of all the employees who ever worked for Col-Tex and is expecting more than 100 people to attend the reunion. Many will be from out of town, including Big Spring, she said.

The program will include a memorial to former employees who have died during the past year, Free said.

Board to meet

The Big Spring Independent School District board of trustees will have a special meeting at noon Thursday in the high school board room to canvass the election returns.

The board also will elect a new chairman and other officials, and will consider requests for a Steer Band spring tour and a high school choir trip.

Disposable Contact Lenses

At last! The news you (and I) have been waiting for — disposable contact lenses. Our office has been selected as one of the few Texas locations for a new innovative program called the Fresh Lens Pro-Care System. This long-awaited pilot program is a simple, affordable program of phased lens replacement (a new pair of soft contact lenses every three months) and periodic exams. Your contact lenses will keep performing like new because every three months they are new.

In recent months there has been considerable national publicity concerning eye infections as related to soft contact lenses. The primary cause of the trouble has been from the continued wearing of dirty contact lenses and the lack of proper follow-up exams. The Fresh Lens Program is ideal in addressing this problem. The program is affordable and, in most cases, no more expensive than regular yearly costs. In my opinion, this is an excellent plan. If you would like more information, just call or come by our office.

Dear Abby

Shower invitation is tasteless

DEAR ABBY: My 7-year-old daughter (I'll call her Jessica) received a mailed invitation to a bridal shower. The bride-to-be is "Thelma" — a young woman who is marrying Jessica's father, whom I divorced when I learned that he and Thelma were having an affair.

Since Jessica doesn't drive yet, or do her own shopping, am I expected to purchase a shower gift for the bride and take Jessica to this event?

A little background: My husband met and fell in love with Thelma while he was commuting to work for his latest job change from Los Angeles to Newport Beach. Since I was not aware of the affair, I put our home on the market so we could relocate in Newport Beach. It sold in a few months, and we moved.

In less than a week, I learned about Thelma. I immediately moved back to Los Angeles, where my family, friends and career have always been. I also filed for divorce. I'll admit, I was burned up about selling our home and disrupting Jessica's school, plus bearing the expense of moving — both ways, since I wouldn't have moved in the first place had I known the score.

I need to know how to handle Jessica's invitation to the bridal shower. It seems thoughtless and in poor taste, but I want to do the right thing.

JESSICA'S DISGUSTED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I have never recommended ignoring an invitation, but considering the tastelessness of this one, I am making an exception.

DEAR ABBY: We have seen letters in your column praising Worldwide Marriage Encounter; it offers weekend retreats for married couples who want to strengthen their marriages. Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekends are offered to couples though their churches and synagogues.

Please be fair, Abby, and acknowledge the existence of National Marriage Encounter. We are not affiliated with any specific church or faith, and will accept any married couple whether they are churchgoers, into second marriages, or whatever.

We do not discriminate against mixed marriages, ethnic groups or anything else.

Father Gabriel Calvo, the founder of our movement, believes that all married couples should have the marriage encounter weekend experience, and so do we.

Anyone wanting information about National Marriage Encounter may write to: Chuck and Sandy Ogg, 4704 Jameson Place, Orlando, Fla. 32807, or Father Bob Lexa, St. Joseph Church, Appleton, Wis. 54911.

THE LOPACKIS, FOUNTAIN VALLEY, CALIF.

DEAR LOPACKIS: Thanks for the information about National Marriage Encounter. It was news to me, and should be good news to couples who have no religious affiliations but who want the marriage encounter experience.

Readers, please send a self-addressed, stamped envelope, as this is a non-profit organization.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 27-year-old security guard. I live with my parents. (I'm not married.)

I have a seizure disorder, which is kept under control with medication, but that's not my problem. This is: In my work, I have to carry a pistol. I have a release from my doctor to be a security guard and to carry a pistol, but my father won't let me carry a pistol. He is afraid I might hurt myself. I explained that I had an OK from my doctor, and if I don't carry a pistol, I could lose my job. Please tell me how to handle this problem.

LIKES MY JOB

DEAR LIKES: Explain to your father that your job requires you to carry a pistol, that you are competent to handle it and are very careful, so there's no need to worry.

(Do you hate to write letters because you don't know what to say? Thank you notes, sympathy letters, congratulations, how to decline and accept invitations and how to write an interesting letter, are included in Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Send your name and address clearly printed with a check or money order for $2.50 and a long, stamped (38 cents) self-addressed envelope to: Dear Abby, Letter Booklet, P.O. Box 38823, Hollywood, Calif. 90038.)

Lupus/vitiligo

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: In a recent column you wrote that there was no connection between lupus and vitiligo. I have had experience with the illness and had vitiligo with it. I am attaching a reference from a medical text that also says vitiligo can occur with lupus. Your column is a good public service. Would you mind devoting some space to lupus? — M.T.

You got me on that one, even though my reference was to vitiligo (skin depigmentation) as a consequence of lupus and not as an indicator of it. Almost invariably the illness is recognized before the depigmentation occurs. Think of it more as a result of the lupus process.

I'll synopsise lupus, which is not as rare as some think. Joint pain and swelling are prominent features, so it can be mistaken for rheumatoid arthritis. But other characteristic signs point unmistakably to lupus. There is the peculiar rash on the bridge of the nose, which is reddish and either flat or raised from the skin surface. Hair loss may begin and there is the pain of pleurisy, also overwhelming fatigue. Many organs can become involved, including the kidneys, even the brain.

We're still trying to pinpoint a cause for all these widespread and various signs and symptoms. The cause still eludes us, but we are tempted to place it among that long list of ailments referred to as autoimmune. Those are illnesses whose common factor is of the body's immune system mistakenly turning against us. The finding of strange antibodies in the blood of lupus patients fortifies this suspicion as to cause. Such antibodies usually do indicate a misdirected immune system.

As ominous as the lupus symptoms seem, most cases are well-controlled. The overall prognosis has improved dramatically in the last decade with the use of corticosteroids.

Although cholesterol has been implicated in heart attacks and other circulatory troubles, it is at the same time vital to human life. For a copy of his booklet, "Control Your Cholesterol Sensibly," write to Dr. Donohue in care of the Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 11210, Chicago, IL 60611, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50 cents.

Stolen cars linked to 'chop shops'

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Every 29 seconds an automobile is stolen in the United States, according to National Car Rental, which adds that only about 50 percent of these are ever recovered.

Stolen vehicles are often taken by thieves directly to illegal operations called "chop shops," where they are stripped and reduced to untraceable parts. The parts are then sold individually for sums considerably greater than could be gotten for a whole and unaltered stolen vehicle.

National, which has a fleet of about 110,000 cars, says it has now begun marking its cars in many cities with vehicle identification numbers, both to prevent their theft and to facilitate their recovery.

'Cooking for Two'

Cooking for two can be a difficult task. It seems one always cooks too much and ends up eating the same dish for days on end; or the leftover food gets thrown out because it spoils. In this week's recipe exchange, I have included some "special" dishes for two. Each dish is specifically designed for the enjoyment of two or four people. You can freeze half for later, cook once to eat twice or share meals with a neighbor.

Shop carefully, selecting a variety of foods, including choices from the milk, meat, fruit-vegetable and grain groups in sizes to fit your needs.

If you need a recipe or have one to share write to the Herald Recipe Exchange, in care of the Herald P.O. Box 1431, Big Spring, Texas 79720.

EASY TURKEY PIE

4 servings
1 cup buttermilk baking mix
2 tsp. sliced green onion
1/4 tsp. poultry seasoning
1 1/2 cups 2% lowfat milk (divided)
1/2 cup (2 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese
2 tsp. butter
3 tsp. chopped celery
2 tsp. EACH: chopped green pepper, flour
1/2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
1/4 tsp. EACH: salt and pepper
1 cup EACH: diced cooked turkey (or chicken), cooked mixed green vegetables

Preheat oven to 400 F. Combine buttermilk baking mix, onion, and poultry seasoning in a small mixing bowl. Stir in 1/2 cup milk until all ingredients are just moistened. Pat dough into buttered 8-inch pie plate. Bake 18-20 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle with cheese. Return to oven to melt cheese, about 3 minutes. Meanwhile, melt butter in small saucepan. Sauté celery and green pepper until tender-crisp, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in flour and seasonings until smooth. Gradually stir in 1 cup milk. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Stir in turkey and vegetables. To serve, cut biscuit into quarters; top with sauce.

NOTE: Wrap remaining half of biscuit in plastic wrap. Remaining half of sauce will keep, covered, in refrigerator up to 3 days. Serving size: 1/2 of recipe. Calories per serving: 385. Protein 21 g, fat 18 g, carbohydrate 35 g

SINGLE PAN SPAGHETTI

2 servings
1/2 pound ground round steak
1 tsp. instant minced onion
1 jar (15 1/2 ounces) spaghetti sauce with mushrooms
1 1/4 cups water
2 ounces uncooked spaghetti
1/2 cup (2 ounces) shredded Provolone or Mozzarella cheese
Grated Romano cheese

Combine ground round and minced onion; cook until meat is brown and crumbly. Stir in spaghetti sauce and water. Bring to boiling. Add spaghetti. Cover and simmer 25-30 minutes or until pasta is al dente. Remove from heat and stir in Provolone cheese. Sprinkle each serving with Romano. Serve immediately.

Serving size: 1/2 of recipe. Calories per serving: 490. Protein 30 g, fat 16 g, carbohydrate 54 g

CHEESE STRATA

4 servings
2 tsp. butter
1/2 tsp. Dijon-style prepared mustard
4 slices EACH: day-old white bread, Colby cheese (1 ounce each)
2 tsp. sliced green onion, if desired
2 eggs beaten
1 cup 2% lowfat milk
1/2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 tsp. seasoned salt
1/8 tsp. pepper

2 tsp. grated Romano cheese

Combine butter and mustard. Spread one side of each slice of bread with butter mixture. Place 2 slices of cheese on buttered side of 2 slices of bread. Top with remaining 2 slices, buttered side facing cheese. Trim crusts; cut into cubes. Place crusts in bottom of 1-quart baking dish. Cut sandwiches into 4 triangles each. Arrange triangles over crusts. Sprinkle green onions over all. Combine eggs, milk and seasonings; pour over sandwiches. Sprinkle with Romano cheese. Cover with plastic wrap. Refrigerate several hours or overnight. Preheat oven to 325 F. Bake 50 to 55 minutes or until knife inserted near center comes out clean. Let stand 10 minutes before serving.

NOTE: Remaining half of casserole may be refrigerated, covered, up to 3 days. Reheat, covered, with aluminum foil, in 325 F. oven 25-30 minutes, or until heated through.

Serving size: 1/4 of recipe. Calories per serving: 320. Protein 15 g, fat 21 g, carbohydrate 18 g

SOUP STOCK

Place 3 smoked pork hocks (about 3 pounds) in a covered 4-quart saucepot. Add 8 cups water. Bring to boil; cover and simmer 2 to 3 hours or until meat is tender and pulls away from bone. Cool; remove meat from bone; cut into medium-sized pieces and return to cooking liquid. Chill; skim off fat layer. Add sufficient water to make 8 cups. Divide into 8 1/2-pint containers and freeze. To thaw, place unopened container in refrigerator for 24 hours.

PEANUT BUTTER SOUP

Yield: 2 cups
1 1/2 tsp. butter
2 tsp. EACH: chopped celery, chopped onion
4 1/2 tsp. flour

Dash salt
1/2 cup milk
2 tsp. smooth peanut butter
1 cup soup stock (above recipe), thawed

Melt butter in a 1-quart saucepan; add celery and onion and sauté 5 minutes. Blend in flour and salt. Remove from heat; gradually add milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cook 2 additional minutes. Add peanut butter and stir until blended. Stir in stock. Heat to serving temperature. Do not boil.

Serving size: 1 cup. Calories per serving: 257. Protein 11 g, fat 20 g, carbohydrate 12 g

CHEESE SOUP

Yield 2 1/2 cups
1 1/2 tsp. butter
1/4 cup EACH: chopped onion, chopped celery
4 1/2 tsp. flour
3/4 cup milk
1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese
Dash pepper
Chopped parsley

Melt butter in a 1-quart saucepan; add onion and celery and sauté 5 minutes. Blend in flour. Remove from heat; gradually add milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cook 2 additional minutes. Add Cheddar cheese and stir until melted. Stir in stock and pepper. Heat to serving temperature. Do not boil. Serve garnished with parsley.

Serving size: 1 cup. Calories per serving: 333

Protein 17 g, fat 25 g, carbohydrate 10 g

CREAM OF VEGETABLE SOUP

6 servings
1 cup soup stock, thawed
1/2 cup diced raw potato
1/4 cup EACH: sliced celery, chopped onion, shredded carrot
1/2 cup coarsely shredded cabbage
1 tsp. butter
4 1/2 tsp. flour
3/4 cup milk
Salt
Pepper

Combine stock, potato, celery, onion and carrot in a 1-quart saucepan. Bring to boil; cover and simmer 10-15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Add cabbage and simmer an additional 5 minutes. Melt butter in a small sauce pan; blend in flour. Remove from heat; gradually add milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cook 2 additional minutes. Add white sauce to cooked vegetables. Heat to serving temperature. Do not boil. Season with salt and pepper.

Serving size: 1 cup. Calories per serving: 132. Protein 6 g, fat 7 g, carbohydrate 13 g

INDIVIDUAL SOUFFLES

5 servings
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
1/4 cup all-purpose flour

1/4 tsp. salt
Dash cayenne pepper
1 cup EACH: milk, Cheddar cheese (4 ounces)
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
6 eggs, separated
1/4 tsp. cream of tartar

Melt butter over low heat. Stir in flour, salt, and cayenne. Cook until smooth, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in milk. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Remove from heat and stir in cheeses until melted. If necessary, return to low heat to finish melting cheeses. (Do not boil.) Blend a little hot mixture into slightly beaten egg yolks; return all to saucepan and blend thoroughly. Beat egg whites with cream of tartar until stiff but not dry. Fold cheese sauce into egg whites. Turn mixture into 5 individual souffle dishes, filling 3/4 full. For immediate service, bake one or more souffles in preheated 350 F. oven 30 minutes. Serve immediately. Carefully wrap remaining unbaked souffles in freezer wrap and freeze up to one month. To bake frozen souffle, unwrap and place directly from freezer into preheated 300 F. oven for about 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Serving size: 1 souffle. Calories per serving: 345. Protein 17 g, fat 27 g, carbohydrate 8 g

Top ten beauty foods for your diet

By REDBOOK

A Hearst Magazine Beauty is an inside job — it has a lot to do with what you eat.

There are foods high in the vitamins and minerals needed for beautiful hair, skin and eyes and the April issue of Redbook offers a list of 10 top beauty foods, compiled with the help of Cheryl Rock, senior dietitian at the UCLA School of Medicine, and Isobel Contento, associate professor of nutrition at Columbia University Teachers College in New York City.

Here are the 10 top beauty foods, along with alternatives to add variety to your diet.

— Turkey is high in protein that benefits skin, hair and nails, and has more iron and less fat than chicken. It also offers potassium for good muscle tone. Alternative: chicken.

— Strawberries are high in vitamin C, which helps form collagen, the supportive tissue needed to keep skin firm and smooth. They are also high in vitamin A, for healthy hair and skin, and potassium. And strawberries are only 55 calories per cup. Alternative: oranges or cantaloupe.

— Whole grain breads provide protein, iron, fiber and B vitamins for clear, smooth skin. Deficiencies can show up as dry, peeling skin, especially around the lips; cracks at the corners of the mouth; and bloodshot eyes. Check labels to be sure whole grain flour is first on the ingredients list. Alternative: brown rice, wheat germ, whole wheat pasta.

— Fish offers high-quality protein without the fat and calories of beef. If you don't get enough protein your hair may become dull and lackluster and even thin out, while skin becomes dry, scaly and subject to rashes. Alternative: none.

— Tofu has a high-protein, low-fat ratio and brims with calcium, iron and B vitamins. The protein in tofu can be best utilized by the body if tofu is eaten with brown rice or whole grain bread, or with a complete protein such as skim milk. Alternative: eggs.

— Broccoli provides vitamins A and C, and B vitamins, iron, potassium and calcium, and fiber that keeps the system running smoothly — essential for clear, sparkling skin. Alternative: carrots, sweet potatoes, yellow and dark green vegetables.

— Skim milk is the best source of calcium without the calories and fat of whole milk — important for healthy teeth and posture-perfect bones. It also offers vitamin A and, in the case of fortified milk, vitamin D. Alternative: yogurt and hard cheese.

— Legumes, including lentils, split peas, pinto beans and chickpeas, are high in protein, B vitamins and iron. Boost protein absorption by combining with whole grain or cheese. Alternative: none.

— Liver is very high in iron, used to build red blood cells that carry oxygen through the body. Deficiency can mean a pale complexion, lackluster hair. In extreme cases, hair may thin and nails soften and turn up at the ends. Liver also has vitamins A, C, protein and B vitamins. Alternative: red meat.

— Spinach is loaded with iron to keep your color fresh, as well as vitamins A and C for skin and teeth. Alternative: parsley.

Foods to cut down on or to cut out include sweets, salty snacks such as chips and pretzels, soft drinks and caffeine-high coffee and tea.

Steve's stuff

By Steve Belvin

Spring sports frenzy

As far as sports is concerned, I'm enjoying this season. The main reason I'm enjoying myself so much is because Big Spring High school is excelling in spring sports. You know the sports that come after football. Events such as tennis, track and golf, that most of the time play second fiddle to football and basketball.

In recent years Spring sports were activities for which the Black and Gold fielded a squad but as for success — that's a different story.

But Big Spring is breaking out of its Spring sports inferiority. Two sports that were down so long are on the rise — tennis and track. Big Spring isn't ready to win any state championships just yet in either, but the tennis and boys track programs have made a dramatic turnaround.

Coach John Strahl's tennis team has made the most of hard work and patience. The third-year mentor has a good philosophy: work hard and build confidence. "I don't tear them down when they make mistakes," said Strahl. "My first year here I didn't chew them out because they lost," he said of the young team he inherited. In fact he has only three seniors on the boys team and the girls squad is composed of mainly sophomores.

"The first year I didn't even talk about winning. I just wanted to work on the techniques of the game and build the kids' confidence. The second year we continued the technique work and the confidence building. They saw a little success.

"This year we have really defined the word win. They want to be successful and they have had some success."

The success Strahl is talking about is a second place finish in the Carlsbad, N.M., tourney in mid-March, backed by a third place finish in the Snyder tourney. A rare feat in BSHS tennis.

"The kids see that hard work is finally paying off and they are willing to do what it takes to win. At the first of the year I had to make them listen to some self-motivational tapes. Now the tapes are replacing rock and roll on road trips.

"We've talked about it and the kids agree they all want that peace of mind," knowledge that "you've given it your best shot."

Coach Randy Britton's boys track team is another group that has been giving its best shot.

The Steers, who have been known to produce a few good people but not enough to make them a force, have been pretty forceful lately.

A bit of history was made last week in Carlsbad, N.M. The Steers won the track meet, out-distancing mostly New Mexico Schools. In fact they outpointed defending state champion Albuquerque High.

It marked the first time in at least eight years that the BSHS boys have won a meet title. Some say it's been two decades since the Black and Gold has copped a title.

Regardless of the last time, the championship is the perfect shot-in-the-arm for Britton's bunch. "I never saw anything like it in my days here," said Britton of the Steers surge to victory last week. "The kids knew they had a chance to win the meet and everyone was pumped up. There were kids spread all around the track, hollering, urging their teammates on."

It was a sweet taste of the victory juice for the Steers, who have turned in respectable performances in all their outings this season, but were never quite able to get over the hump.

Britton, who has a legitimate chance to coach both the 400 and 1600 meter relays out of district, says the difference between this year's team and those in the past is work habits. "These kids are just working very hard because they see they can compete. We have some talent. This is the first time I've had eight people who are capable of running on the 1600 relay. In the past I've had some very talented individuals but overall this is the best team I've had in my eight years here."

So with the district meets fast approaching, the tennis team and boys track team are getting ready for the ultimate task. When it's all over, there may be some people in competing schools who will be glad Big Spring is dropping down a class.

Five in-a-row dooms Mojo

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Writer

The baseball gods keep smiling down on the Big Spring Steers.

For the second consecutive game the Steers got a stroke of good fortune as they upended the first place Odessa Permian Panthers 4-2 Tuesday afternoon at Steer Field.

Last week Big Spring's good luck occurred in the seventh inning against the Midland High Bulldogs. A passed third strike with two outs and a runner on third helped the Steers tie the game and go on to win in extra innings.

Yesterday another chapter of "good fortune" unfolded for the Steers. With the score deadlocked at 2-2 in the bottom of the sixth, Permian starting pitcher Larry Hill's errant throw on a possible double play ball allowed the final two Steer runs to score, icing Big Spring's fifth consecutive district win.

The outburst came just after Permian had tied the score in the top of the sixth by scoring two runs.

Hill started off the sixth inning by fanning Randy Hayworth. Mike Dodd, who had two hits in the game, followed with an infield hit. Left fielder Felix Olivias followed suit with a single to right field.

This brought up catcher Charlie Ogle. Ogle bunted the ball which went directly back to Hill. Sensing a double play Hill fired the ball to the third baseman to get Dodd. Unfortunately for Permian the ball sailed far over the third sacker's head into the left field corner. By the time the left fielder had retrieved the ball, both Dodd and Olivias had scored with the winning runs.

Aaron Allen, the Steers third pitcher in the game, set Mojo down in the top of the seventh to preserve the win for Big Spring.

"We had some good luck in the game," said Steers coach John Velasquez. "But the thing is we're coming back after we have some bad luck. We came back and made something happen and it paid off."

Senior Carey Fraser started the contest for Big Spring and went five strong innings. The curveballer allowed two runs while giving up five hits and walking one. He was replaced by Mike Dodd who suffered control problems. He faced four batters before turning it over to Allen sixth.

Big Spring Steers second baseman Chad Wash gets ready to take the throw from catcher Charlie Ogle as Odessa Permian's Scott Erwin attempts to steal. Ogle's throw was on the money and Wash tagged Erwin out on the play.

After Big Spring took a 2-0 lead in the first inning, Fraser and Hill dueling for the next four innings. The hard-throwing Hill allowed 7 hits in six-and-a-third innings. He whiffed 9 Steers and walked only one. His big downfall was the errant throw to third.

Leadoff hitter Matt Garrett got the Steers started in the first with a double into the left center gap. Hill then struck out Eli Torres, who had two hits in the game, and Allen.

Cleanup hitter Hayworth then hit a long triple to right field, scoring Garrett with the first run of the game. Hayworth scored when Dodd looped a Texas leaguer to right, giving Big Spring a 2-0 lead.

Permian had a little luck in the sixth inning which led to their two runs. Scott Erwin walked, bringing up Darren Allman. Fraser got Allman to hit a pop fly in foul territory. But a sure out turned into new life when Fraser dropped the fly.

Allman made the most of his chance as he promptly ripped a double, moving Erwin to third and prompting Velasquez to insert Dodd.

Dodd walked the first batter Mike Adams, loading up the bases for first baseman Jeff Mudd. Mudd banded out a single, scoring Erwin and Allman to tie the game. Adams was thrown out on the play trying to reach third. Dodd then walked Richard Fletcher and ran the count to 2-0 on Nolan Watson before Velasquez made his second pitching change by putting in Allen.

Watson hit a grounder to second, forcing out Fletcher at second for the second out. Allen got out of the inning by cleanly fielding Woody Bryant's bunt attempt.

After Big Spring scored its two runs in the bottom of the sixth, it ended the inning quickly by getting their second double play of the game, a second baseman-to-shortstop-to-first combination.

"We came out and played good defense and shut them out for five innings," said Velasquez. "But we still went back to some early season mistakes by striking out with too many men on base. If we are going to get into the playoffs, then we must play playoff caliber ball all the time."

The win evens Big Spring's season record to 8-8. The Steers are now 5-4 in district play, two games behind leader Abilene Cooper.

Permian falls out of first with a 6-2 record. The Panthers are 13-6 overall.

The Steers travel to Abilene Saturday to battle first place Cooper at 2 p.m.

Former Bryan High School coach Larry Brown will immediately over head coach duties of the Howard Hawks basketball team. In seven seasons Brown turned Bryan into a Class AAAAA powerhouse.

HC names coach

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Writer

As expected former Bryan High School coach Larry Brown was named as the new men's basketball coach at Howard College.

The announcement was officially made at a news conference at the college Tuesday afternoon. Brown replaces Ed Sparling, whose contract was terminated after two seasons.

The Wisconsin native brings a very impressive 319-159 coaching record to Howard. This includes two AAAAA state championships at Bryan.

His hiring ended a six week search by Howard officials. Over 80 applicants applied for the job. School president Bob Riley said that he is sure Brown is the man for the job. "I'm very impressed with coach Brown. He has coached many successful teams. Several Southwest Conference coaches highly recommended Coach Brown saying that in their opinion he is one of the best coaches available on any level. One coach also commented that he is potentially an NCAA Division I coach."

Brown said he and his family are excited about his new coaching job. "My family and I have been talking about it and we feel it's a golden opportunity for me. I feel Howard has a good solid program but it can stand some improvements."

"My main job is to put some marks in the 'W' column and get to Hutch", (Hutchinson, Kansas site of the National JC tournament).

Brown says he's glad to be in the tough Western Junior Athletic Conference. "I want to be in a tough conference. You might as well play some of the best teams in the nation because you'll have to beat them to get to the top."

Offensively, Brown says he likes to run the passing game and play an up tempo brand of ball. "Some of it depends on the personnel, if we have two 6-10's we'll work the ball inside more. We'll run fast breaks and presses. And one thing I always emphasize is defense. We will work hard on playing good defense."

Brown says that switching from high school to college ball won't affect his coaching style. "I found out a long time ago that I've got to be me and coach my way no matter what. The kids will respond to what I'm trying to do. Make them do it right and they'll get it right."

Unlike in the past, Brown will also have the services of an assistant coach to help him with his duties.

"I know we'll have an assistant coach. We'll just have to see what we can offer him and go from there."

"I'm really glad that I've got this job at a school where they have such great facilities. I think it will be a great place to work and I'm looking forward to it."

Nevada irked at Holmes' comments

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The chairman of the Nevada State Athletic Commission, irked at accusations leveled against the panel by Larry Holmes, said the former heavyweight champion may be refused a boxing license unless he publicly apologizes.

Sig Rogich, chairman of the body that holds licensing authority in Nevada, said Holmes should make the apology today during a news conference that had been scheduled to promote an April 19 rematch with Michael Spinks.

Rogich said Holmes "not only questioned the competency of our officials but the honesty and integrity of the commission as a whole" in televised comments last Thursday.

If no apology is made, Rogich said the commission has notified Holmes it will hold a hearing in Reno on Thursday to discuss his licensing.

"We're saying either apologize or come before us," Rogich said on Tuesday.

Holmes was unavailable for comment and his spokesman, Dick Lovell, didn't answer calls to his hotel room.

Holmes, whose remarks during training have been restricted to interviews with local television stations, said last week that he had to win the rematch with Spinks by knockout because Nevada judges would not give him a decision.

He also said that judges worked fights while intoxicated and were paid off.

Holmes lost the International Boxing Federation version of the heavyweight title when Spinks won a unanimous decision last September in Las Vegas. It was the only loss of Holmes' 49-fight professional career.

"He's probably had more than a dozen title defenses here and I've never heard him talk like this," an angry Rogich said. "But now he loses the title and we have to hear him whining to the media that our judges are not honest."

Rogich said the Nevada commission "has always taken the extra step when it comes to the issue of integrity in boxing and Larry Holmes knows that better than anyone."

A letter from Rogich and commissioner Duane Ford was sent to Holmes on Tuesday, demanding an apology. Rogich said Holmes tried to call Tuesday after receiving the letter, but Rogich wasn't in.

Hawks sweep Lubbock Christian

The Howard College Hawks got back on the winning track as they swept a double-header from Lubbock Christian College Tuesday afternoon at Jack Barber Field.

The games were makeup contests that got rained out earlier this season. The wins gives Howard a 22-18-1 overall record. The Hawks will take their 2-12-1 Region V record to Ranger this Saturday and Sunday when they take on the second place Ranger Rangers.

Howard 11, LCC 5
Frank Medina got the Hawks off on the right foot in the first inning of the game by belting a grand slam off LCC starter Trey Wright.

Medina's blow scored Joe Cuellar and Steven Keller, who had singled, and Bruce Smith, who had walked.

Medina also drove in another run with a triple in the fifth.

Robert Rodriguez started the game for Howard and pitched three innings while giving up 5 runs. Reliever Greg Landry got the win for Howard by hurling four scoreless innings of ball.

Roland Gonzales had three RBIs in the game for Howard.

Hits — Howard: 10, LCC 8, Errors Howard 4; LCC: 3B — Howard: Gonzales (2), 3B — Medina, HR — Medina, WP — Landry (2-2), LP — Wright (2-2).

Howard 10, LCC 1

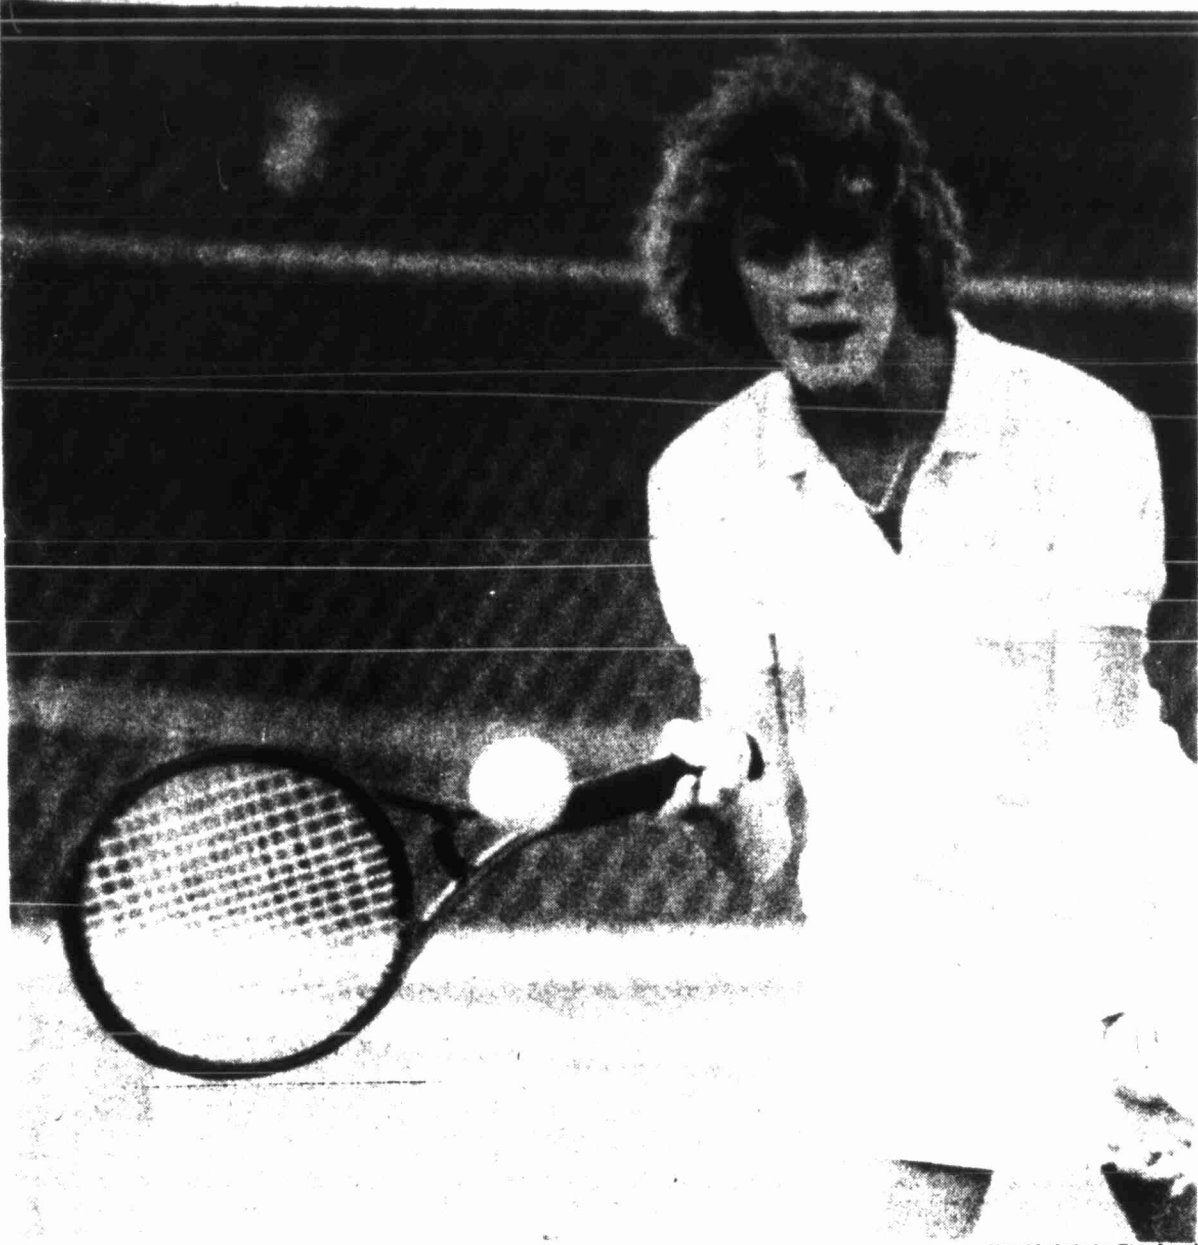

In the second game Howard got a strong pitching performance from Chad Webber and rode the hot bat of Medina to complete the sweep.

Webber went the distance while scattering four hits, walking six and striking out six. Medina rounded out a good day's work by driving in four more runs, giving him 9 RBIs in the twin-bill.

LCC took a 1-0 lead going into fourth inning. But coach Bill Griffin's Hawks exploded for 6 runs in the fourth to put the game out of reach.

Chad Baker had a good game at the plate for Howard with two hits. Ramces Guerrero had a two-run scoring single in the fourth inning.

Hits — Howard 8, LCC 4; Errors — Howard: 3, LCC 2; 2B — Howard: Messer, Baker, B. Smith, Medina, LP — Green (1-1), WP — Webber (5-3).

UT investigation continues

DALLAS (AP) — A former University of Texas player has confirmed that an NCAA investigator and a lawyer hired by the school to investigate allegations concerning its football program have interviewed several dozen current and former players. Tony Degrate, a defensive tackle who played in 1982-84, told The

Dallas Morning News that NCAA investigator James G. Worley and Houston lawyer Knox Nunnally met with him, former All-America Jeff Leiding and all 1985 senior football lettermen. "They asked a lot of personal questions," said Degrate, who added he was interviewed three hours last week. "If they want to interview me again, I'll be glad to do that." Nunnally said Friday that he and Worley are conducting a "joint investigation," the details of which will be released either by the NCAA or UT vice president for student affairs Ronald Brown.

Can We Talk?

But this time we want to hear your side of the story! What are your concerns and questions about buying or selling a home in the Big Spring market? If you'll tell us what you need and want, the payment or area you'd like to have, our staff of professional Realtors will enthusiastically work toward matching your family with the home of your dreams.

We have over 100 listings in all price ranges and locations and can show anything listed with the Big Spring Board of Realtors. Space does not permit us to tell you everything about each listing. That's why we want you to tell us. We also have up-to-date financing and re-location information. Won't you let us help you?

Lloyd advances in FC tennis

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Chris Evert Lloyd survived a strong first-set challenge from Sylvia Hanika before posting a 7-6, 6-1 victory in the second round of the Family Circle Magazine Cup women's tennis tournament.

Lloyd, an eight-time winner of the tournament and the defending champion, trailed the West German player 3-1 and 5-3 in the first set Tuesday before rallying to force a tiebreaker, which Lloyd won 12-10.

"I was pretty sluggish in the first set," Lloyd said. "The conditions were very heavy, and her game's tough on clay anyway. You have to be very patient and hang in there."

Wet conditions delayed the start of play for two hours and briefly interrupted the match.

Also advancing without difficulty on Tuesday was U.S. Open champion Hana Mandlikova of Czechoslovakia, who brushed aside qualifier Isabella Cueto of West Germany 6-2, 6-0.

Gabriela Sabatini, runnerup in the Family Circle Cup last year, breezed past Regina Marikova of Czechoslovakia 6-1, 6-0, and Manuela Maleeva of Bulgaria blanked Iva Budarova of Czechoslovakia 6-0, 6-0.

Heavy afternoon rain forced the suspension of other matches.

Football players take it to the canvas

ROSEMONT, Ill. (AP) — The Fridge got most of the cheers from the Wrestlemania II fans, but when it came down to the last headlock and finger in the eye, Andre the Giant emerged as champion of the ballyhooed Battle Royal.

William "The Refrigerator" Perry of the Super Bowl Champion Chicago Bears was one of a half dozen pro football players mixed together in the ring at the same time Monday night with 13 wrestlers, including Andre the Giant, whose 500-pound bulk outweighed the Fridge by 200 pounds.

"I definitely rooted for the Fridge," said Mike Drake of Arlington Heights, who admitted he was a new wrestling fan. "Andre shouldn't have won. He was getting beat up in there."

Yet, the crowd of more than 10,000 at the Rosemont Horizon in this Chicago suburb was happy that the "bad-guy" wrestlers, including Big John Stud and The Iron Sheik, didn't come out on top.

Lynnda Kleiner of Arlington Heights, a wrestling fan for 10 years, rooted for the "good guy" wrestlers, including The Killer Bees, Bruno Sammartino and Hillbilly Jim.

And, she booted the football players.

"What are those football players doing in there, anyway? They're just there for the money and promotion," she said.

Under the rules for the free-for-all, anyone thrown over the ropes was eliminated and the last man in the ring won.

Perry was thrown out of the ring by Big John Stud, with Stud and four other beefcakes still in the ring, but the rookie Bears lineman got his revenge by tricking Stud out of the ring.

The Bears' management had worried about Perry and teammate Jim Covert getting injured, and the players had to sign waivers releasing the National Football League team from responsibility for their contracts if they were injured.

Perry actually exited through the ropes and no one appeared hurt after the free-for-all.

Other NFL players on hand were Ed "Too Tall" Jones of the Dallas Cowboys, Russ Francis of the San Francisco 49ers and Bill Fralic of the Atlanta Falcons.

It was part of a whacky mixture of sports, entertainment and third-rate acting that made up the three-city Wrestlemania II extravaganza, a World Wrestling Federation sequel to their first Wrestlemania event last year in New York.

In Los Angeles on Monday night, wrestling fans watched Hulk Hogan successfully defend his WWF championship against King Kong Bundy in a steel cage.

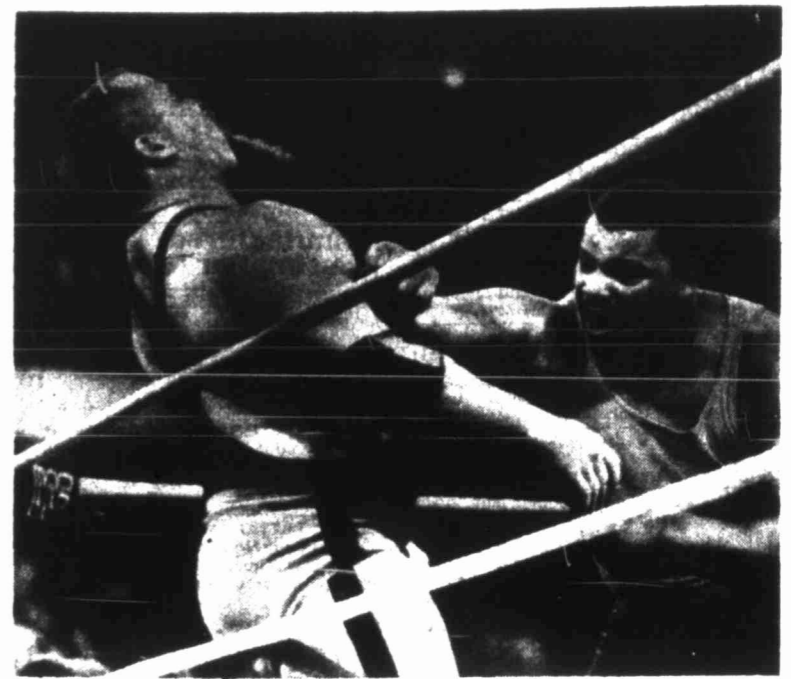

"Good always triumphs over evil," said Peter Weintraub, 42, a stock broker from Santa Monica who was among the 16,000 West Coast fans on hand.

At Nassau Veterans Coliseum outside New York, the top attraction was a boxing match between wrestler Rowdy Roddy Piper and the actor, Mr. T, who won by disqualification after four rounds.

The crowd roared its approval when George "The Animal" Steele ripped stuffing out of cushions protecting the wrestlers from the steel poles holding up the ring.

Wrestlemania was sprinkled with celebrities. TV talk show host Joan Rivers was a ring announcer in New York, former Chicago Bear Dick Butkus was a referee for the Rosemont free-for-all match, and even Watergate figure G. Gordon Liddy was a boxing judge in the Piper-Mr. T bout.

Perry reportedly was to make between $150,000 and $350,000 for his 15-minute appearance in the "Battle Royal."

Chicago Bears William Perry (right) lands a forearm on pro wrestler Jim "Anvil" Neidhart during the over-the-rope battle royal Monday.

Tickets for the Rosemont show ranged from $15 for balcony seats to $100 for ringside seats. With closed-circuit theater and pay-

Braves' Mahler continues opening day mastery

By The Associated Press

Give Rick Mahler the baseball on Opening Day — and then just get out of his way.

"I don't know what it is about opening night, maybe the pitchers are ahead of the hitters," the Atlanta pitcher said Tuesday night after he continued his string of Opening Day jems with a 6-0 victory over the Montreal Expos.

Three of Mahler's five career shutouts have been pitched on Opening Day assignments.

performance by Chicago's Rick Sutcliffe, who lasted seven innings.

The Cardinals scored their winning runs in the fourth on a two-run single by Andy Van Slyke. Chicago had only two baserunners through the first five innings against Tudor before finally breaking through in the seventh when Keith Moreland hit into a forceout, advanced to third on a single by Leon Durham and scored on a sacrifice fly by Jody Davis.

St. Louis Manager Whitey Herzog thought Tudor's outing was his best so far this spring.

Mets 4, Pirates 2

Dwight Gooden, the major league's Cy Young Award winner last year when he was 24-4, wasn't overpowering, striking out six while walking one. But he checked the Pirates on just one run and five hits after giving up a first-inning home run by leadoff batter R.J. Reynolds. It was the first homer Gooden had allowed in 75 innings.

The Mets, meanwhile, took advantage of unusual wildness by Pittsburgh right-hander Rick Reuschel, who walked five in six innings. Keith Hernandez drove in two runs for the Mets.

Giants 8, Astros 3

Pinch-hitter Candy Maldonado

hit a three-run triple in the seventh inning and rookie Will Clark homered in his first big league at-bat to lead the Giants over the Astros.

Maldonado hit the second pitch by reliever Jeff Calhoun to score Chris Brown, Bob Brenly and Brad Gudden, who were put aboard by Houston starter Nolan Ryan. Maldonado's hit snapped a 3-3 tie.

Mariners 8, Angels 4

If the Seattle Mariners played every game the way they perform on Opening Night, they'd be a smash hit throughout the baseball season.

The Mariners won their fifth straight opener Tuesday night in dramatic fashion. Trailing 4-2 in the ninth, Seattle rallied on two home runs by Jim Presley — a two-run shot off California relief ace Donnie Moore in the ninth and a grand slam against Ken Forsch in the 10th — to stun the Angels 8-4.

Presley hit 28 homers for the Mariners last season. But he rarely has been in a position to provide such dramatic fireworks.

The Seattle third baseman got his chance to win it after Forsch walked Phil Bradley, gave up a single to Ivan Calderon and walked Gorman Thomas. Barry Bonnell fouled out, but then Presley hit the ball into the seats.

Many of the crowd of 42,121 had headed home when Presley hit his second home run of the game.

Rangers 6, Blue Jays 3

Jose Guzman became the first rookie to win a major-league opener since Fernando Valenzuela did it for Los Angeles in 1981. The right-hander from Puerto Rico, who got his chance because veteran Charlie Hough broke a finger shaking hands in training camp, allowed eight hits in eight innings before Greg Harris closed out the victory.

"This is my present to my fans in Puerto Rico," Guzman said. "I wasn't nervous because I had pitched with the Rangers last year."

He was 3-2 in a late-season trial with Texas.

"Jose was just outstanding under the circumstances," Manager Bobby Valentine said. "He had great control and probably could have gone nine innings but we didn't want to take any chances."

Don Slaught hit a two-run homer and Larry Parrish drilled a three-run opposite field home run for the Rangers off Dave Stieb.

Yankees 4, Royals 2

New York posted its first Opening Day victory in five years as Butch Wynegar hit a three-run homer. Wynegar homered to left in the second off Bud Black after Dave Winfield walked and Dale Berra singled.

The Yankees got their fourth run in the fifth on Willie Randolph's bloop RBI single. Rod Scurry worked 2 1-3 innings in relief of Ron Guidry, who retired after five innings with a slightly strained right calf. Dave Righetti pitched out of a couple of late jams to preserve Lou Piniella's first win as Yankees manager and Guidry's first opening day victory.

Hal McRae had a two-run home run for the Royals.

Twins 3, A's 2

Reliever Ron Davis got Dusty Baker to hit into a game-ending double play with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to preserve the victory for Frank Viola, who has won six straight starts dating back to last season.

Minnesota scored three unearned runs off A's starter Chris Codiroli, including two in the first inning following an error by first baseman Dave Kingman.

Baseball

Padres 1, Dodgers 0

Dave Dravecky pitched the sixth shutout of his career, yielding only singles to Reggie Williams in the third inning, Bill Madlock in the fourth and Mariano Duncan in the ninth. Dravecky retired 17 of the last 18 batters he faced, finishing with two strikeouts and a walk.

Cardinals 2, Cubs 1

John Tudor took up where he left off a year ago as he helped the Cardinals beat the Cubs. Tudor's triumph was his 22nd in his last 23 pitching decisions for the defending NL champions dating to May 29, 1985. Tudor overcame a two-hit performance by Chicago's Rick Sutcliffe, who lasted seven innings.

The Cardinals scored their winning runs in the fourth on a two-run single by Andy Van Slyke.
