AIDS progress made

SAN ANTONIO — Two kinds of protection against the AIDS virus have been generated in chimpanzees inoculated with preliminary forms of a vaccine, recent laboratory tests show.

However, researchers who reported the apparent progress in San Antonio and Atlanta said further work will be needed to determine whether the vaccines can actually eliminate AIDS.

That research could begin later this month and would involve injecting the chimps with a serum containing the AIDS virus.

"The question is whether this will protect against actual direct infection with the virus," said Dr. George Todaro, scientific director of Oncogen, a Seattle-based firm that developed two varieties of a possible AIDS vaccine.

Daughters sue father

COLLEYVILLE — The daughters of Sam and Mary McClendon are suing their father for $15 million and want his name taken off their mother's tombstone.

Sharon McClendon Whisenant and her oldest sister, Sandra McClendon Rogers, filed a wrongful death suit on June 18 against their father, who is still alive, and stepmother, Karin Filiastrau McClendon.

Mrs. Whisenant said she and her sister believe McClendon shot and killed their mother on June 20, 1984, because he was having an affair and was in danger of losing the McClendon estate.

Mega-airline created

LOS ANGELES — Directors of Western and Delta Air Lines have approved an $860 million merger that would create the nation's fourth largest scheduled air carrier.

Delta plans to acquire Western for an estimated $12.50 per share, half in cash and half in Delta stock, the companies announced Tuesday.

"This merger represents an ideal culmination of all of our efforts in recent years," said Gerald Grinstein, Western's chairman.

Cougar attacks boy

VIVIAN, La. — The police chief and a neighbor said they had asked the owner of a pet cougar to get rid of it before it attacked the man's 7-year-old son, tearing away much of his face.

The 140-pound cougar pounced on James Michael Swearingin after getting loose Monday night from its backyard chain, said Police Chief Donice Jones.

The boy remained in stable but guarded condition at Schumpert Medical Center in Shreveport.

Families file suit

LOS ANGELES — Relatives of six passengers killed when an Aeromexico jetliner crashed after an airborne collision are seeking millions of dollars in damages in lawsuits and in claims against the Federal Aviation Administration.

The suits, filed Tuesday, are the first in connection with the Aug. 31 disaster.

Glendale auto dealer Evan Mecham lets out a yell late Tuesday night after finding out he took Maricopa county, giving him a victory against Arizona house majority leader, Burton Barr, for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Campaign '86

Women take primary nominations

Democratic Rep. Barbara Mikulski and Republican Linda Chavez swept past their male rivals Tuesday night to win competing Senate nominations in Maryland. Liberal activist Mark Green grabbed the Democratic spot on the ballot in New York against Sen. Alfonse D'Amato.

On the busiest primary night of the season — and one in which voters treated women candidates kindly — Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, the daughter of the late Robert F. Kennedy, won a Democratic nomination to the House from Maryland.

Connecticut lawmaker Julie Belaga won the Republican nomination to face Gov. William O'Neill in November. And former Rep. Bella Abzug held a narrow lead in a multi-candidate Democratic primary in a suburban New York district, with the vote count suspended until morning. Mrs. Abzug, who represented Manhattan for six years in the House, led Oren Teicher 36 percent to 34 percent with 97 percent of the votes tallied and claimed victory.

The Mikulski-Chavez Senate race in Maryland will mark only the second time two women have held the national party nominations in a Senate race, according to officials in the Senate historian's office. Former Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a Maine Republican, defeated Democratic rival Lucia Cormier in 1960.

In other results from balloting in nine states and the District of Columbia, Minnesota Gov. Rudy Perpich led St. Paul Mayor George Latimer and three other opponents in a Democratic primary. Former state Rep. Cal Ludeman won the GOP nomination.

Former Massachusetts Gov. Endicott Peabody, running for the Senate in next-door New Hampshire, won the Democratic nomination to oppose GOP Sen. Warren Rudman.

Former Vermont Gov. Richard Snelling earned the GOP spot on the fall ballot against Democratic Sen. Patrick Leahy, who was unopposed for nomination to a third term. Snelling, coaxed out of retirement by national GOP officials, was garnering over 70 percent of the vote.

Maryland aside, the only other open Senate seat on the ballot was in Arizona, where Barry Goldwater is ending a 37-year career in politics. Rep. John S. McCain III was without opposition for the GOP nomination. Former Corporation Commission Chairman Richard Kimball was unopposed for the Democratic nomination. McCain, who served time as a prisoner of war during Vietnam, enters the fall campaign rated the favorite.

In Arizona, where Democratic Gov. Bruce Babbitt is stepping down, auto dealer Evan Mecham led Burton S. Barr, a 68-year-old state lawmaker, in the first GOP returns. The early Democratic lead belonged to Carolyn Warner, 56, the state superintendent of public instruction.

In another Arizona race, veteran Democratic Rep. Morris Udall took a large, early lead.

Three leftists killed

SANTIAGO, Chile — Three men linked to the Marxist left were abducted and killed in what a civil rights activist called apparent death squad vengeance for an assassination attempt against President Augusto Pinochet.

The fatal shootings of a well-known journalist, a schoolteacher and a machinist were reported Tuesday as tens of thousands of marchers roared their approval for the 70-year-old Gen. Pinochet and for his vow of tougher laws against terrorism.

Relatives said gunmen dragged all three victims from their homes within hours of the Sunday evening grenade and rocket ambush that killed five bodyguards in Pinochet's motorcade. None was considered a suspect in the attack.

Israel jets bomb Sidon

SIDON, Lebanon — Israeli jets attacked Palestinian guerrilla positions on the outskirts of this southern port city at daybreak today, and three women were reported killed and 13 other civilians wounded.

No guerrillas were reported killed or injured in the raid, which Palestinian sources said followed a sea battle between Palestinian guerrilla infiltrators and an Israeli gunboat south of Sidon overnight.

The sources said one guerrilla was killed in the offshore clash.

Police contended that only nine civilians, all residents of the nearby Ein el-Helwah Palestinian refugee camp, were hospitalized as a result of the Israeli air raid. But Sidon's three hospitals reported three Palestinian women killed, including two sisters.

Hijackers given help

KARACHI, Pakistan — Four Palestinians held in the hijack of a Pan Am jumbo jet had detailed knowledge of the security system at Karachi airport, indicating they were assisted by Pakistanis, security officials said.

The death toll in Friday's hijacking, meanwhile, rose to 20 today after 18-year-old Imram Ali Rizvi of Pakistan died of his injuries. Rizvi had been lying brain-dead at a Karachi hospital. More than 100 people were injured.

Authorities are looking for Pakistanis who provided hijackers with weapons, uniforms and detailed information on Karachi airport and its security, said security officials who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Dissident takes refuge

WASHINGTON — The head of Cuba's only independent human rights organization has taken refuge in the French Embassy in Havana following an extended period of harassment by Cuban authorities, according to U.S. government and private sources.

It was the second time in three years that Ricardo Bofill, a former vice dean at the University of Havana, has fled to safety at the French Embassy.

Bofill entered the embassy Aug. 27 after two colleagues on his Committee for Human Rights in Cuba were arrested, according to a U.S. official speaking only on condition he not be identified. Bofill has served three prison terms for his dissenting views, dating back to 1967.

U.S.-Soviet relations to be put on hold

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration, rejecting "business as usual" with Moscow while American reporter Nicholas Daniloff remains in a Soviet jail, says it is prepared to take steps if he is not released soon, but will not say what the steps might be.

A decision was expected today on whether administration officials will attend a conference in the Soviet Union next week that is being sponsored by the Chautauqua Institution, a private cultural center near Buffalo, N.Y. Daniloff's wife has said their attendance would be "very inappropriate."

Strobe Talbott, Washington bureau chief of Time Magazine, said Tuesday he will cancel his participation unless Daniloff is freed.

"I am not going to the Soviet Union to take part in an event that is supposed to advance and increase communications between the American and Soviet people while a journalistic colleague is in jail for pursuing legitimate professional obligations," Talbott said.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes said the question of whether U.S. officials will attend the conference, being held in Riga, the capital of Latvia, was still under consideration.

Winning recipes for marshmallow desserts

By CARLEEN EVERETT
Lifestyle Editor

Ever wonder what makes a recipe a contest winner?

Great taste is only the beginning. A prize winning recipe is a creative combination of everyday ingredients that looks as good as it tastes, is always an original and is essentially easy to prepare, according to a release from Kraft Marshmallow Creme.

In this week's recipe exchange, I have included a special recipe collection that have won top honors in the annual Kraft Marshmallow Creme "Easy Secret Ingredient" recipe contest from 1980-1985.

Recipe exchange

State Hospital to present Preston E. Harrison award

The first annual Preston E. Harrison Award will be presented at Big Spring State Hospital on Sept. 17 at 3:30 p.m. in the Allred Building.

"Preston E. Harrison, M.D. served as hospital superintendent at Big Spring State Hospital from 1958 until his death in 1975," said A.K. Smith, hospital superintendent. "During his life time and since his death, Dr. Harrison serves as a role model for all mental health workers. He has been known variously as a gentle pioneer, a contributor, a facilitator and an innovator. Many of his plans and programs are still used throughout the world of mental health."

Dr. Harrison's many innovations in the mental health field included use of the treatment team, the 'open door' policy, the education and resocialization program, the treatment of alcoholism as an illness, the use of volunteers and the creation of a staff position to coordinate the volunteer activities. Later he also created the Circuit Riders and the geographic system.

Winner of the award is Leonard D. Svien of Abilene.

Award finalists are Pauline O. Allen of San Antonio, Dwight Cook of Amarillo, Ollie Jean Holub of Beaumont, Jerry McLemore of Rusk, Robert von Rosenberg of Big Spring, Luther W. Ross of Kerrville, Dr. Stephen R. Saklad of San Antonio, James E. Walker of Brenham and Helen D. Wall of Wichita Falls.

Guests from throughout the state, led by Dr. Gary E. Miller, commissioner of TDMHMR, will be in Big Spring for the presentation. Dr. Frankie E. Williams, deputy commissioner for TDMHMR, who worked with Dr. Harrison during his tenure at the Big Spring State Hospital will pay tribute to his life and work during the ceremony. His widow Mrs. Preston E. Harrison will assist Dr. Miller in the presentation of the award to the recipient.

In recognizing the finalist in the selection of the award, Dr. Miller will be assisted by Preston E. Harrison Jr., M.D. and Robert L. Harrison, M.D., sons of the late Preston E. Harrison.

"We feel that it is a great honor for Big Spring State Hospital to be chosen for the site for this presentation. Even though Dr. Harrison dedicated many years of his service at the hospital, his work is recognized state-wide. For an award of this magnitude in the MHMR field, the presentation could easily have been made at central office in Austin," Smith said.

Performance site changed

The performance site of the "Esteem Machine," a teen theatre troupe that deals with adolescent problems using drama, has been changed from Comanche Trail Park Amphitheatre to the First Christian Church, 911 Goliad.

The group will perform on Sept. 11 at 8 p.m.

Their original skits cover topics such as teen drug and alcohol abuse, sexuality and parent/teen communication.

"We've heard many rumours and received personal visits from members of the community who are concerned about the dramatic content of the performance," said Pam Black, director of community relations for Planned Parenthood of the Permian Basin.

"I certainly encourage them to attend the performance and find out first hand what the performance is all about. Each skit is approved by a board of directors that must adhere to community, medical and educational standards," Black added.

The "Esteem Machine" has performed for PUSH, an anti-drug conference; for the Texas Family Planning Association, a state-wide conference on adolescence; and for many churches, said Rene Chambers, director of "Esteem Machine."

"We do most of our performances in churches. They help support us. After the performance the church introduces their own doctrine and has a question and answer period. We don't slant the performance toward one religious bias, it's not Planned Parenthood's job," Chambers said.

"We just want the kids to think before they drink and drive and think before they make an action that will affect their lives," she added.

What role do 'pre-engagement' rings play?

DEAR ABBY: Recently, several young girls I work with have come to work wearing rings with tiny diamonds — they call them "pre-engagement rings."

Abby, just what is a "pre-engagement ring?" Rather than risk hurting their feelings, I thought I'd ask you. Does this mean she's a "pre-bride?" Or does it mean she's a "post-virgin?" Or is it a precommitment on the boy's part? (Meaning, "I'll marry you, if no one better comes along.") I would feel insulted to receive a "pre-engagement ring." You're either engaged, or you're not. If you're engaged, call it an "engagement ring." If you're not, call it a "friendship ring."

TOO OLD TO UNDERSTAND
DEAR TOO OLD: What you (or I) perceive the ring to mean is unimportant. Its meaning to the giver and receiver is all that matters. Obviously it signifies some degree of special commitment. Don't concern yourself with the size of the diamond, or the question of virginity; just wish the ring-bearer well and pull in your claws.

DEAR ABBY: I have noticed several letters in your column lately containing valuable tips on how to keep small children safe from death traps. Who ever would have dreamed that a toddler could wander off during a family outing and lose his life by climbing into an ice chest containing just enough melted ice to drown in! Or that a child could slip down in his high chair and strangle to death by catching his throat on the tray!

I have another tragic story to tell that may save the lives of other children. About 20 years ago my

Dear Abby

... aunt put her twin boys in their playpen because she had a lot of work to do. They were about 14 months old at the time. When she returned about half an hour later to check on them, she found one of the twins dead! She had thoughtlessly placed the playpen near a window where the child could reach the cord from the blinds. He was probably playing with the cord, became entangled in it, and hung himself.

VIRGINIA READER

DEAR READER: Thank you for alerting my readers to a danger that may not have occurred to them. You may have saved a life today.

DEAR ABBY: I was moved to write when I read the young girl's complaint about her mother's secondhand smoke.

I want to tell you how proud I am of my own mother. She used to smoke, though I have no memories of it — only photographs of a pretty young mother holding a baby (me) in one hand and a cigarette in the other. She was 32 years old at the time.

When the reports first came out stating that smoking was unhealthy, she quit — cold turkey. Others have told me she climbed the walls for a couple of months, and it was years before the craving left her.

She did it for me and my sisters. She didn't want us to follow her poor example and become smokers who would find it as hard to quit as it was for her.

What have I (and my sisters) gained? We have never smoked. Or wanted to. I grew up in a home free of burn marks, smelly draperies and nasty ashtrays. And when Mom baby-sat for my children, I didn't have to worry that they might find matches or a lighter in her purse. Mom is still around, though we live thousands of miles apart. Her letters have no scorch marks on them, and when we talk on the phone, I don't have to listen to a hacking cigarette cough.

Thank you, Mom, for having quit the habit when I was a baby. It took guts, courage and caring.

Astros lead by 10 games

By The Associated Press
The rest of the National League East long ago conceded the New York Mets the division title. Their counterparts in the West may soon be doing the same for the Houston Astros.

"I'm worried about my team collapsing," Cincinnati Manager Pete Rose said Tuesday after a 9-2 loss at Houston dropped the Reds 10 games behind the division-leading Astros. "We're still in second but I can't worry about catching Houston. I'm worried about catching (last-place) San Diego the way we're playing."

Houston's victory completed a two-game sweep of Cincinnati and left the Reds in their biggest hole of the season.

"It puts us in a double-figures lead when they could have walked out of here six games back and thinking they could still win," Astros third baseman Denny Walling said. "I don't think they look as forward now to the series next week."

The Reds host the Astros in a three-game series beginning Tuesday.

The Mets, meanwhile, had their magic number for clinching the East reduced to four when second-place Philadelphia lost to Chicago 8-6 in 10 innings. The Mets were beaten 9-7 by Montreal but still maintained a mountainous 21-game lead.

Mike Scott pitched a five-hitter over eight innings and Glenn Davis' double keyed a four-run sixth inning as Houston beat Cincinnati. Scott, 16-9, who leads the major leagues in strikeouts, fanned seven to increase his total to 260.

The Astros broke a scoreless tie in the sixth when Davis drove in two runs with a double. Houston added two runs in the seventh and three in the eighth.

Eric Davis' 23rd homer of the season in the eighth inning accounted for both of the Reds' runs.

Expos 9, Mets 7
Andre Dawson's two-run homer with none out in the top of the ninth inning lifted Montreal over New York.

Tim Raines opened the inning with a single off relief pitcher Jesse Orosco, 6-6, and Dawson followed with his homer on the first pitch. Randy Hunt added an RBI single to give the Expos a two-run lead.

Cubs 8, Phillies 6
Leon Durham's two-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning boosted Chicago over Philadelphia.

Keith Moreland, who earlier had hit two home runs, singled with one out in the 10th before Durham hit his 18th home run of the year.

Lee Smith, 9-9, was the winner and Steve Bedrosian, 8-5, the loser.

Cardinals 3, Pirates 1

Andy Van Slyke had three hits and one RBI and Clint Hurdle hit a solo homer to lead St. Louis over host Pittsburgh.

Houston Astros Billy Hatcher beats the throw to Cincinnati Reds shortstop Barry Larkin to steal second in the seventh inning Tuesday afternoon in the Astrodome. The Astros defeated the Reds 9-2, pushing their lead to 10 games in the National League West.

Van Slyke singled home Vince Coleman in the third inning after Coleman had singled and stolen his 92nd base. Hurdle led off the fourth with his third home run of the year and second against Rick Reuschel, 8-16, giving the Cardinals their eventual winning run.

Giants 7, Padres 0
Mike LaCoss pitched a seven-hitter, ending a personal eight-game losing streak, and San Francisco got home runs from Candy Maldonado and Bob Brenly to beat visiting San Diego.

LaCoss, 10-11, had not won since

July 13 and his losing streak was the longest in the NL this season. He had four strikeouts and walked none in his first shutout since 1984, when he pitched one for Houston.

Dodgers 9, Braves 5
Bill Madlock hit a two-run homer and Alex Trevino and Enos Cabell each contributed two-run singles to lead Los Angeles over Atlanta.

Rick Honeycutt, 11-9, got the victory despite allowing five runs, nine hits and four walks over five innings.

Forsan LB, Sands RB head honor roll

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Editor

The first week of Crossroads Country football was a very exciting one as area teams finished with a 4-1 record. All-in-all, there were some sterling performances turned in for the initial week of the Crossroads Honor Roll.

A senior and junior garnered top honors this week on the Honor Roll. Forsan senior linebacker Wayne Wright gets the Defensive Player of the Week award while Sands junior running back Jay Fryar receives the Offensive Player of the Week award.

Wright, a 190-pounder, had a remarkable game in the Forsan Buffaloes 20-6 win over the Roscoe Plowboys. "He was all over the field," said Forsan coach Jan East.

That statement holds true, indicated by Wright's stats against the Plowboys. The Forsan middle linebacker made nine unassisted and 11 assisted tackles. He was also credited with one quarterback sack, four tackles behind the line of scrimmage and two blocked passes. He also broke up two more attempted passes.

Fryar, a 175-pounder playing in his first ever six-man contest, was one of the main reasons the Sands Mustangs played the No. 1 Jayton Jaybirds a very tough game.

In the Mustangs 50-33 loss to Jayton, Fryar did it all. He carried 20 times for 145 yards, passed for touchdowns passes of 31 and 1 yard and caught a 45-yard touchdown pass. In all, he accounted for 222 of his team's 350 yards total offense.

Fryar beat out some pretty good performances to gain top offensive honors. A good example is the 23 carries for 218 yards performance by Klondike running back Cisco Arrendondo. Arrendondo led the Cougars offense to a whopping 465 total yards.

Klondike quarterback Kirk Tidwell also had a good game in the Cougars 52-30 win over Amherst, completing 6 of 8 passes for 160 yards.

Another quarterback that had a good opening week was Colorado City's Cary Ritchey. In the Wolves 13-13 tie with the Slaton Tigers, Ritchey completed 6 of 10 passes for 78 yards and carried the ball 9 times for 64 yards.

Ritchey got lots of help from running back Terry Jackson, who carried 17 times for 108 yards and one touchdown. Leading the way for Jackson and Ritchey was center Derrick Taylor and guard Derrick Pamey.

Borden County running back Brice Key had a big game in Borden County's 27-13 win over McCaulley. Key gained 110 yards in 10 carries and scored one touchdown. He also had a 21-yard touchdown reception.

Stanton had a pair of offense stars in its 26-6 win over Seagraves. Halfback Greg Barnhill gained 86 yards on 16 carries and fullback Derek Sorley added 65 yards on 13 carries. Sorley rushed for two TD's and caught a 14-yard scoring pass from Barnhill.

Sands wide receiver Paul Martin made it a long night for the Jayton secondary. The 160-pound junior caught four passes for 75 yards. He caught touchdown passes of 15 and 30 yards.

And the ever-present Wright also turned in a strong offensive game. He led the Forsan offense by rushing for 114 yards in 10 carries while scoring on runs of 2 and 56.

Wright beat out some super performances while winning the top defensive honor. One such performance was the 18 tackle effort by Borden County linebacker Brice Key. Borden County got great play from both linebackers. Mickey Burkett, the other linebacker, was in on 16 tackles.

Three defensive ends also made strong showings. Colorado City's Danny Salazar made 14 tackles. Sands' Martin made six tackles and intercepted one pass for 25 yards, and Nicky Hill of Klondike made 14 tackles.

Sands' Fryar also made his presence known on the other side of the ball, collecting 13 tackles from his linebacker spot. Forsan linebacker John Roman made 14 tackles and recovered a fumble, and Coahoma noseguard Robby Self made 13 tackles.

Coahoma safety James White was in on 10 tackles and intercepted a pass.

Spikers fall Steers noseguard an intimidating force to Pecos

By EDDIE CURRAN
Staff Writer

PECOS — The Big Spring Lady Steers dropped their second consecutive District 2-4A match to the Pecos Eagles here Tuesday night.

Pecos won the match in two straight games 15-2, 15-9, against an ailing Lady Steers team. According to Lady Steers coach Elaine Stone, four of her starters are battling a "flu bug". "We just wasn't up to full par, we had two girls quit the squad, (Michelle Husted and Priscilla Banks) now we're down to eight players. The junior varsity kids are working hard, but none of them are quite ready for varsity competition just yet. Right now I'll play with what I have," Stone said.

Senior setter Lisa Hale led Big Spring in the second match with six service points.

The Lady Steers are now 4-8 overall and 0-2 in district play. The junior varsity Lady Steers were defeated 2-15, 6-15, dropping their record to 4-6 overall and 0-2 in league play.

Big Spring will play Ft. Stockton Saturday in Steer Gym. Junior varsity begins at 1 p.m., varsity action follows at 2.

In Coach Quinn Eudy's defense, the noseguard position is crucial.

"Any time you play an odd-man front like we do, you need a noseguard who can really play. That's the start of a good defense — a good noseguard," Eudy said.

In senior Todd Coker, Eudy has that start, and then some. Last year, the honorable mention all-district noseguard led the team with 83 tackles. This season he believes he can do better.

"I've come a long way since last year — I read a lot better than I did. This year my main goal is to make 100 tackles, and to make all-state," Coker said.

The 6-1, 211-pound Coker lifted weights over the summer, and though he's been bothered by a nagging wrist injury, he says he's in "good shape." The big lineman, who can bench press almost 400 pounds, is being modest. This guy's in great shape, and any center who wants to keep his head on, and Coker out of the backfield better eat his Wheaties — for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Steers defensive line coach Allen Bolling has coached Coker for three years, and doesn't hesitate in calling his star noseguard "the best kid, ability wise, I've ever coached."

"I coached for a college in Oregon, and we had an NAIA (small college) all-american ...

Todd's a lot stronger, quicker, more enthusiastic, and reads better than he did," Bolling said.

The coach said he was recently in Austin, and the University of Texas defensive line coach asked him, "How's Coker?"

"If he has a good year, Todd could go major college. Ability wise, there's no problem," Bolling said. "He's not your 6-7 type, but he can play. He's improved almost 200 pounds on the bench in three years, and in college, they'll be able to really put the weight on him."

Coker said he's excited about his senior season, and it's obvious he believes Steer fans will have more to cheer for than in past years.

"We would have been competitive in either district this season. A lot of players are ready to show what they can do. Everybody's more together — more fired up. We don't want to let people run over us like last year. We hit a lot harder. We let them know we're there," Coker said.

Much is riding on Coker's senior season, both from a personal and team standpoint. The team needs a steady, fierce anchor at noseguard who can make the big play, stop up the middle, and pursue the ball aggressively. Personally, Coker needs the kind of year that will attract the colleges and secure his future.

"Todd's a veteran football player, and a big play football player. He's good because he can run to the football. He's the starting point of a good defense," Eudy said.

This Friday, against a blazing fast Lubbock Estacado team, the Steers will need an almost perfect game from the defense if they are to beat the top ranked Matadors. That perfect game must start with a great game from Coker.

He must, as he said, "play aggressive and intimidating."

How do you intimidate?
"By hitting."

Angels, Red Sox increase leads

By The Associated Press

Neither California or Boston wants anything to do with a penant race. So, both teams took advantage of losses by their pursuers Tuesday night to open up seemingly insurmountable leads in their respective American League divisions.

With Kirk McCaskill pitching an 8-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians, the Angels took an 8 1/2-game lead over the Texas Rangers, who lost 3-1 to Seattle. The Red Sox, meanwhile, got two homers by Dwight Evans to beat Baltimore 7-5 and move eight games ahead of Toronto, which lost 3-1 to New York.

In the rest of the AL, Kansas City clobbered Minnesota 11-3, Milwaukee beat Detroit 3-1 and Chicago defeated Oakland 4-1.

Angels 3, Indians 1
McCaskill, 16-7, pitched his 10th complete game of the season, striking out seven and walking two, and lost his shutout bid in the sixth when Julio Franco hit a sacrifice fly. "You hear everybody talk about how important the stretch drive is," McCaskill said. "All you hear is, 'Stretch drive, stretch drive.' But I try to keep away from that. I try to pitch the same in September as I do in April."

The Angels scored twice in the first inning without a hit, and they went up 4-0 in the second when Wally Joyner drove in a run and scored on a hit by Reggie Jackson.

Cleveland knuckleballer Tom Candiotti, 13-11, allowed seven runs, five earned, on six hits and seven walks.

Red Sox 7, Orioles 5
Evans hit two solo homers and Marty Barrett drove in two runs with a double in Boston's three-run seventh as the Red Sox rallied to extend their winning streak to 10. Evans now has 17 of his 22 homers and 54 of his 88 RBI on the road.

"To me, this is the best hitting ballpark," Evans said of Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. "It's the best maintained, the lights are good and the background is good. It's fun to play here."

The Orioles were playing for the first time since Manager Earl Weaver's retirement became official. Weaver will quit at the season's end.

Evans homered in the seventh to begin a rally that erased a 4-2 Baltimore lead, and hit another in the eighth inning. Don Baylor also homered for the Red Sox, his 28th, as Al Nipper evened his record at 9-9.

Mariners 3, Rangers 1
Seattle's Jim Presley hit a two-run homer, and Edwin Nunez won his first game as a starter since Sept. 19, 1982 by pitching five scoreless innings. The homer was the first on the road for Presley in 91 at-bats, while Nunez was making his first major league start since 1983. His last victory as a starter also came against Texas.

Seattle added an insurance run on a double by Mickey Brantley and Alvin Davis' RBI single in the eighth. The only Texas run came on Larry Parrish's home run off Mike Trujillo in the seventh inning.

"We hit some balls hard tonight and they didn't fall," Rangers Manager Bobby Valentine said. "They hit some balls hard and got three runs out of it."

Yankees 3, Blue Jays 1
New York's Mike Easler drove in a tie-breaking run in the eighth inning iwth a single, and Willie Randolph drove in an insurance run in the ninth with a sacrifice fly, backing Ron Guidry to his first victory since Aug. 6.

Guidry, 7-10, held Toronto scoreless through five innings, allowing five hits in his seven-inning outing. He retired the first nine hitters he faced.

Don Mattingly started the eighth against reliever Mark Eichhorn, 12-5, with a single, his third hit of the game, and moved to third on a walk and a fielder's choice. Easler's one-out liner to right-center scored Mattingly to give the Yankees a 2-1 lead.

Dave Righetti earned the save, his 36th, setting a club record.

Royals 11, Twins 3
Jamie Quirk hit a two-run homer and had his second three-hit game in two nights, pacing Kansas City to its third straight victory. Minnesota has lost five in a row.

Mark Gubicza, with relief help from Steve Farr, won for the ninth time in his last 11 decisions.

Quirk's two-run homer in the fourth broke a 1-1 tie and was his fifth hit in five at-bats. The Royals scored five more runs in the eighth inning, two on Rudy Law's pinch-hit double.

Brewers 3, Tigers 1
Milwaukee's Paul Molitor hit a double in the eighth inning that broke a 1-1 tie, and Ted Higuera worked seven innings to pace Milwaukee over Detroit. Jim Gantner started the winning rally with a single and was sacrificed to second. Molitor drove him in with a double to right.

Higuera, 18-9, allowed just six hits and three walks while striking out seven. Frank Tanana was the loser, going 7-2-3 in wins.

White Sox 4, A's 1
Ron Hassey had three hits, including only his third triple since 1980, and scored three runs for the White Sox. Joe Cowley, 9-9, allowed seven hits over seven scoreless innings for Chicago, while A's pitcher Dave Stewart, 9-2, saw his five-game winning streak end.

The only Oakland run came on Mark McQuire's leadoff homer in the ninth.

Hassey tripled with one out in the fourth inning. He hit the ball into the left-field corner, and Oakland's Jose Canseco overran it as Hassey puffed into third base.

NCAA gives Nebraska players eligibility back

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)— A member of the NCAA committee that restored full eligibility to 60 University of Nebraska football players says any future violations "will be dealt with much more harshly."

Will Bailey of Auburn, a member of the NCAA Council's Subcommittee on Eligibility Appeals, also predicted his group's decision will trigger a storm of criticism.

"There's no question but that some will feel we didn't have the backbone to stand up to Nebraska," Bailey told the Associated Press in an interview. "Others will say the Association is paying too much attention to nit-picking regulations and not enough attention to the major violations."

"But we feel the penalty that has been imposed is a more appropriate penalty and in many respects as severe or more severe than the initial penalty of sitting out one or two games."

The Nebraska case is the first test of a rule aimed at stopping players from selling their game tickets. Adopted in January, 1985, it specifies that only relatives or fellow students can receive a player's free pass.

Fifty-three Nebraska players were given one-game suspensions last week by the Eligibility Committee and seven were suspended for two games after admitting they provided false information to let unauthorized persons use their passes. The NCAA, which stayed the suspensions pending Tuesday's appeal, said there was no evidence of the players receiving money.

Instead of losing eligibility, the sub-committee decided Tuesday, Nebraska players will have their complimentary game pass privileges revoked. In addition, the sub-committee will ask the NCAA to require internal audits of all Division I men's and women's basketball programs as well as all Division I football programs. The schools will be asked to review their pass list records for the 1985-86 academic year and report all discrepancies.

"If there is evidence of an exchange of money, that's a far more serious matter and would go to the Infractions Committee," Bailey said. "But if there's been no exchange of money and we're dealing simply with dishonesty, then we feel the appropriate penalty is the reduction in complimentary tickets."

"To remove one complimentary admission privilege for an entire season for each one single game violation last year is a pretty severe penalty that should communicate a message to student-athletes and the public generally that we're serious about this. And if there are violations in the future, they're going to be dealt with much more harshly."

Bailey, who is also secretary-treasurer of the NCAA, said schools would be ill-advised to conceal ticket violations in their self-audit.

"If violations do turn up later at an institution ... they can expect to be dealt with with a more severe penalty," he said.

The subcommittee, reduced to four members after one person excused herself because she is a Nebraska graduate, spent several hours discussing the case.

"It's very complex," Bailey said. "But we take very seriously the responsibility for ethical behavior and honesty. We hope that given what appears to be the widespread nature of this problem, our action will send a very clear message to student-athletes that if they falsify information, if they're dishonest in the information they give their institutions, the NCAA or their conference, they're going to have to pay a penalty."

UIL says no to fem glider

AUSTIN (AP) — Tina Trejo thought she earned a Bobcat uniform on the Bedichek Junior High football team.

"During the month of August, I worked out every day, running a mile and lifting weights. I sweated it out, and I made this team fair and square," said the 5-foot-2, 164-pound 13-year-old.

She finished tryouts last week and made the team as a defensive lineman.

But school officials said Tuesday they learned that University Interscholastic League rules prevent girls from playing football, so Tina won't be suiting up this fall after all.

Tina got the news about an hour before she was to suit up for practice Tuesday.

DENNIS THE MENACE

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR THURS., SEPT. 11, 1986

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day brings all sorts of upsets. The day will progress, however, and you find that a warm and benign influence can relieve those pressures.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Don't get depressed if troublesome matters develop at your work. Don't lose your temper.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Plan your time well. Relegate personal matters to the evening and handle them wisely at that time.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You can make big headway in the outside world, so don't permit home affairs to deter your progress.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Come to a better understanding with an associate. Try not to get excited. Take it easy.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Plan time to soothe a good friend who is having difficulties. Tonight take time for romance and happiness.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Study whatever is occurring at home. Straighten out these affairs. Later try and please your kin.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You may get news that is disturbing, but cooperation can make things better. Don't take risks today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) After a busy day, seek a delightful friend. You can gain long-term wishes with relative ease.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Try not to criticize one who is influential or you could run into trouble. Show your real ability.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Don't get into a new outlet that could cause you to lose out with a project you have been working on.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Don't try to force some personal pleasure. See important people you know and gain a favor.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Don't argue with superiors or you could lose out materially. A personal desire can be gained tonight.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will have a restless soul and will want to run around and not stick to anything for very long. It's important to teach this one that only perseverance can bring success and that being steadfast is important in life. The mind is fine, however, so educate well.

"The Stars impel; they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Evident danger signals of credit problems

Carrier Route Presort
Postal Customer

By NAOMI HUNT
County Extension Agent
Credit problems can occur if you lose income, become unemployed or go from two incomes to one in the family. Problems can also come from taking on too much credit at once.

To prevent problems, a general rule is to limit minimum monthly payments and installment payments to 20 percent of your monthly net income. Some advise having no more than 15 to 17 percent as your target maximum.

If you own several credit cards, it can be easy to charge more than you can handle. There are danger signals of too much credit. They include:

- Total monthly payments keep increasing.
- You are at or near your credit limit.
- You can only make minimum payments.
- You extend payments.
- You use savings to pay bills.
- You work overtime to make ends meet.

Before taking on new credit obligations, add up your current monthly payments to be sure that you do not overextend yourself. Consider how long you are committed to making these payments.

There may be times when you cannot meet your credit obligations. If this happens, contact the creditor, explain things and try to work out a new agreement. But don't ignore the problem.

Think through your use of credit. Control it and let it add to your financial lifestyle.

Credit is one of those good news/bad news items.

The good news is — you can have the VCR, furniture and car right now and pay later. The bad news is — you're legally obligated to pay even if your income goes down, misfortune comes your way, or you have overestimated how much you can afford.

Focus on family

Most credit agreements involve a signed contract. Before signing a contract ask yourself two questions: Do the payments fit into my budget? Can I make the payments for the length of time agreed upon?

If you agree to make large payments and money becomes tight, you could find yourself in a difficult situation.

If your income situation is not stable, it may be better to keep your monthly payments smaller for a longer period of time than pay out more money than you can afford each month. Although a longer term of payments costs more in interest, you can pay off the debt sooner if money is available.

What are the consequences if you default on the agreement? What will you lose? When an installment contract is not paid by the terms agreed, the creditor can repossess the collateral. You would lose not only the item but also any money that you have already paid. Read the fine print before you sign a contract to avoid situations you can't handle.

Credit is like food, clothes, appliances or any other product — you buy it. Therefore, you should "shop" for credit as you would any other product.

To find the best value, understand how much it costs, what you get for your money and compare different agreements.

For example, repayment terms can vary from creditor to creditor. The creditor determines these variables, but you can find credit to suit your needs and situation on terms you can live with — if you shop around.

COUNTRY STORE TO DEBUT AT FAIR

By CARLEEN EVERETT
Lifestyle Editor

A fair is no fair without a Country Store.

"When you go to a fair, you look for the homemade items. That's what a fair is all about," said Helen Larson, chairman of the Country Store.

This is the first year the Howard County Fair will feature a Country Store.

"We got the idea from other county fairs," said Zula Rhodes, head of women's division.

Handmade items to be sold include art work, paintings, ceramics, needlework, crafts, quilts, and knitted or crocheted afghans. Canned fruit and vegetables, baked goods and fresh produce from farms and gardens will be for sale, Rhodes explained.

Local participants will feature their specialties.

Mrs. Harvey (Opal) Whooten said she is going to sell pillows, quilts and Christmas tree skirts.

Deanna Foresyth will sell her handmade photo album covers, fabric frames, eggery (hand painted eggs) and inking on glass, she said.

"I'm going to sell Christmas tree ornaments, canned goods and a quilt," said Vaughnea White.

Montez Bunn says she will be selling candy, afghans and ceramics.

"I have some baby quilts and pillows I might sell," Helen Larson said.

"Quilt prices will range from $60-$250. When you put in a lot of work and have the quilts applied, they're more expensive,"

Larson explained.

To sell items at the Country Store, one must enter the competition in the women's division, the art show, garden show or the agriculture department, Rhodes said.

"When you enter an item in the women's division, you'll receive a recovery coupon with a number and that number is your ID number for the Country Store," she explained.

Rhodes says she has no idea how many women will participate in the country store, "but there are 160 classes in the women's division, so there could be a lot."

"Our motto is 'stack it high and kiss it good-bye,'" Larson said.

The Country Store will be located in the county fairbarns across from the Dora Roberts Barn in the locked room, where the antiques used to be displayed, Rhodes explained.

Proceeds from the store will be divided between the participants and the Howard County Fair Association. The exhibitors will receive 80 percent of the price, with the remainder going to the Association.

"We'll be doing a service to the people who make these pretty things without them having to rent a booth," she added.

Rhodes and Larson both warn the makers of the items to be careful about pricing.

"People have to think about how they price things, so they'll be able to sell their items. They can over-price themselves," Larson said.

For information about the Country Store, call Zula Rhodes, 398-5531 or Helen Larson, 263-3920.

Deanna Foresyth, left, Montez Bunn and Mrs. Harvey (Opal) Whooten look at some of the handmade items that will be featured at the Country Store at the Howard County Fair Sept. 15-20.

Select three directors

Three directors of Cap Rock Electric Cooperative, elected to a three-year term at its annual meeting Saturday night, are C. Ray Russell, District 3; Newell Tate, District 6; and Teddy Stewart, District 8.

The latter two defeated incumbents Sammy Yates and Bob Cox, while Russell was chosen to replace Edgar Phillips, retiring director.

Approximately 1,800 people attended the meeting at Stanton High School. A barbecue meal was served.

Phillips, District 3, was recognized for his dedicated service to Cap Rock since 1943, with a standing ovation.

President Bob Cox and General Manager Rodger Burch reported on cooperative operations. Jim Jole, also known as James P. Jolley, salesman and promoter for KBAT radio station in Midland, provided Cajun humor.

Local 4-Hers a shooting success

By EDDIE CURRAN
Staff Writer

For reasons not always clear, certain regions gain reputations for breeding great athletes in certain sports.

Sweden, for instance, has been producing great tennis players of late. For years, Washington D.C. has been renowned as the most fertile of basketball breeding grounds.

In Texas, one such region is becoming the state's hotbed of junior skeet and trap shooters. The region includes Borden, Martin and Midland counties. Those counties pale, however, in comparison to the truly dominant county in Texas — Howard County.

Dominance of the sport by local shooters has never been more obvious than in August. Last month, shooters from Howard County won overall championships in all three divisions at the state 4-H Trap and Skeet Tournament in Houston.

Never before had one county won all three divisions. In addition, the six Howard County shooters who competed in Houston won two of three two-man team overall trophies, while finishing third in the other.

In short, they blew away the other 200 competitors — in much the same way as they blasted clay pigeon after clay pigeon from the sky. They returned home with 25 trophies.

The six who shot in Houston were Amanda Anderson and Kyle Riddle in the sub-junior division (age nine to 12), Scott Farris and Brian Riddle in the junior division (13-14), and Todd Farris and Kelly Parks in the senior division (15-19).

Howard County sent two shooters in each of three divisions. Had a few more been able to make the trip, it's likely they would have won a couple of three-man team trophies as well.

Several Howard County shooters who fared well in the district tournament in July couldn't make the trip, thus giving other county teams opportunities in the three-man competition when they may not otherwise have had a chance.

But, why be greedy? As it was, Howard County shooters dominated.

Anderson was one of only about 20 girls in the competition, and she whipped the boys to win the overall title in the sub-junior division. Although forced into a shoot-off, she blasted 96 of 100 birds to take the championship.

She teamed with Kyle Riddle to win a three-foot trophy as the champions in the sub-junior two-man team competition.

Senior Todd Farris won the skeet with a perfect 100 out of 100. Combined with a second place finish in the trap, his effort was good enough to garner the overall title in the senior division. Farris was also awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy.

He teamed with Kelly Parks to finish third in the two-man team shooting in the senior division.

Todd's brother Scott blew away a perfect 75 of 75 birds to win the junior division trap, and the overall junior trophy as well. Scott teamed with Brandon Riddle to finish first in the junior two-man shoot, also bringing a three-foot trophy to Big Spring. Riddle had earlier finished fifth in the trap.

Assistant County Extension agent Mike Bragg, who accompanied the team to Houston, said the Howard County troupe put on quite a show.

"It's fun to watch somebody who can do that and turn 'em to dust every time they pull the trigger," he said.

The reason the Howard County 4-Hers did so well, Bragg said, is that they are proficient in both skeet and trap, while most of the other shooters specialize in one or the other.

"Trap and skeet are so different. Some kids shoot skeet well and can't shoot trap. You have to be able to acquire skills in both. You can't know how to shoot skeet and automatically shoot trap. To be able to do both is how you win the overall trophy."

Dolores Anderson, Amanda's mother and an accomplished shooter herself, said Howard County's success in the state tournament was no surprise. In July, Howard County similarly dominated the district shoot in Midland.

"Our district shoot is just as tough as the state, and we won all three divisions at the district," she said.

4-H TRAP & SKEET

Amanda Anderson, left, and Kyle Riddle display trophies won in the State 4-H Trap and Skeet Shoot in Houston last month. Anderson won the overall title in the sub-junior division, and teamed with Riddle to take the two-man team competition.

Scott Farris, left, and Brian Riddle hold trophies won in Houston. Farris won the overall title in the junior division, and teamed with Riddle for the team championship in that division.

Anderson also won the overall trophy at the district, with Riddle finishing third and Leslie Fryar finishing fourth. Scott Farris won the overall title at division as well, followed in fifth place by Riddle.

Kerry Fryar, who was unable to attend the state shoot, won the district overall championship. Had he shot at state, it's a good bet Howard County would have won the three-man team championship there.

As Dolores Anderson said, "We won the Big Daddy — the whole thing."
