How's that? Death row

Q. If someone is sentenced to death row, and then has their sentence commuted to life in prison, can they ever get out of prison?

A. Yes. If a person gets a life sentence, he is eligible for parole after serving 20 years, said Assistant District Attorney Robert Morris. According to Texas law, no one serves a life sentence in prison without being eligible for parole, he added.

Calendar Elbow

TODAY
• Pre-registration for Elbow Elementary School kindergarten students will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the school. Parents may meet teachers and tour the school between 2:40 and 3 p.m. To enroll, a child must be at least 5 years old by Sept. 1, 1987. Birth certificates and shot records will be required. For more information, contact principal W.R. Cregar at 398-5444 or 398-5455.

THURSDAY
• There will be a Hee-Haw Western Special at the Kentwood Older Adult Center at 7 p.m. Guests are welcome. Every one is urged to wear old-time clothing.
• The Humane Society will meet at 7 p.m. at the Howard County Library. The circus in March will be discussed.

FRIDAY
• The Senior Citizens will have a dance at Industrial Park Building 487 beginning at 8 p.m. The Country Jammers Band will play. Guests are welcome.

SUNDAY
• Meadowlark Lemon, star basketball player formerly of the Harlem Globetrotters, will speak at Christ Fellowship Church at 10 a.m. Sunday. The public is invited, and a nursery will be provided.

Items for the Spring board calendar must be community-wide events to be included and will be listed no more than one week in advance. Send notices to: Spring board, Big Spring Herald, Box 1431, Big Spring. Club notices will be printed in the "Bulletin Board" section of the Sunday Herald.

Income tax help is on the way

The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program, or VITA, will begin helping people with their tax returns on Monday, and will continue the program until April 14.

The VITA volunteers have been trained by the Internal Revenue Service and are now ready to assist in the preparation of income tax returns. There is no charge for the service.

The service is primarily for: retired persons who need to determine if their social security income is taxable; senior citizens; lower income persons; handicapped persons; and Spanish speaking persons and others who have difficulty understanding English.

Beginning Monday, those who need assistance may come by one of the following locations or call one of the numbers listed for further information or to make an appointment.

On every Monday until April 14, assistance will be provided at the First Presbyterian Church on 8th and Rannels streets between 1-4 p.m.; or call 263-4211.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, go to the Citizens Federal Credit Union on FM 700 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.; or call 267-6373.

On Fridays from 1-4 p.m., go to the Senior Citizens Center at Building 487 at the Industrial Park; or call 267-1628.

Noontime blaze

Traffic goes on as firefighters begin to battle smoke and flames at Lester's Automotive, 101 S. Gregg St., at noon Tuesday. The fire, started by a butane heater, caused $20,000 damage to the auto repair shop, according to Assistant Fire Chief Burr Lea Settles. Used to heat a residence in the west part of the building, the heater was apparently connected to a butane tank by a faulty hose, Settles said. A butane leak occurred, and the heater ignited the liquid. Owned by the State National Bank, the property was occupied by Toni Lester. No one was reported injured.

Council OKs money for dam repairs

By SPENCER SANDOW
Staff Writer

Dam repairs, extended alcohol sales hours and wastewater treatment facilities received City Council attention Tuesday night.

The City Council approved funds to go toward repair of Comanche Lake Dam, passed on first reading an ordinance extending the hours during which alcoholic beverages can be sold, and decided to purchase a bar screen for the city wastewater treatment plant.

The Council, meeting at the Airpark, designated $112,642 for the repair of Comanche Lake Dam, if the money is needed. The funds had been budgeted for a softball park.

In order for the city to receive a $650,000 Texas Department of Community Affairs grant for repair of the dam, the city must show it's willing to spend some of its own money for the project, City Manager Mack Wofford has said.

If the project can be accomplished with the $650,000 grant, the TDCA will not require city money to be spent, he said. However, he believes the city money will be necessary.

The Council also granted permission to advertise for engineering services for the dam. Interested firms will be reviewed and a recommendation provided to the Council Feb. 12, Public Works Director Tom Decell indicated.

The Council passed a third piece of legislation relating to the dam's repair, authorizing Mayor Cotton Mize to execute an application to the TDCA for the grant.

Wofford said the resolution is "legislation passed locally that will enable us to accept the dollars" the TDCA supplies.

City clubs with a mixed beverage permit will be allowed to sell alcoholic beverages, including mixed drinks, beer and wine, until 2 a.m. under a new ordinance the Council passed unanimously on first reading Tuesday.

In order to take advantage of the extra time, establishments must receive a permit from the state.

The Councilmen previously had considered limiting the hours to midnight that alcoholic beverages can be sold in both private and public clubs. However, that idea drew opposition from citizens and business owners.

Councilmen indicated at a work session earlier this month to favor the current ordinance instead, which they said reflects the wishes of their constituency.

Gary Don Carey, who originally supported the curtailment of sale hours, made the motion.

The Council decided to purchase a new bar screen for the wastewater treatment plant when Public Works Director Tom Decell and engineer Richard Dormier, vice president of GSW & Associates engineering firm, indicated that operator safety will be greatly increased with the new screen.

Using the current system, operators are exposed

Pleas resolve 31 area burglaries

By SCOTT FITZGERALD
Staff Writer

Two county men, "caught in the vice grip of drugs," were handed prison sentences today and Tuesday after both pleaded guilty to burglary charges.

Ramon Gonzales, 35, 303 S. Adams St., Coahoma, was sentenced to an eight-year prison term. He also must serve an additional six years on an identical charge because his probation was revoked, said Robert Morris, assistant district attorney.

Jesse Martinez, 18, Route 1-Box 300, Big Spring, pleaded guilty Tuesday and received a five-year prison sentence from 118th District Judge James Gregg.

"These were crimes against property committed by rational people who we became acquainted with after their withdrawals" from drugs, Sheriff A.N. Standard said.

Both men were "caught in the vice grip of drugs" at the time of their arrests, the sheriff said. The two men confessed to 31 burglaries during a three-year period, Standard said. He added that additional charges of two forgeries and two theft-by-check were dismissed.

Martinez and Gonzales were heroin addicts who provided authorities with information about local drug trafficking, Standard said.

City Detective Tony Chavez confirmed that an underlying motive to the burglaries was drug trafficking. Both men were stealing household items, such as video cassette recorders, in order to buy drugs, Chavez said.

"Most of the drugs were bought in Midland," Chavez said, adding that information on the drug trafficking has been given to officials in Midland and Ector Counties.

The arrests of the two resulted from a combined, week-long investigation by

Big Spring police and Howard County sheriff's deputies, the sheriff said.

"It was very profitable to have the spirit of cooperation from the city in pulling the information and evidence together," Standard added.

According to a sheriff's department news release, the case resolved 18 home burglaries in the county and 13 more in the city.

Approximately $3,000 in stolen property was recovered, the release said.

Three or four of the homes involved are in the southeast corner of the city, and the remaining city homes are in the north-side, Chavez said.

Both police and sheriff's deputies staked out residences during the investigation, Standard said.

They were aided by information provided by Crimestoppers and Neighborhood Watch programs, he added.

New district clerk to stay on course

By SCOTT FITZGERALD
Staff Writer

The course of a ship that's been navigated in smooth waters shouldn't be altered.

That's the philosophy of Glenda Brasel who was sworn in Monday as District Clerk of the 118th Judicial Court in Howard County.

She fulfills the vacancy of Peggy Crittenden who died Friday morning after a long illness.

"I don't plan to change anything. Everything we've been doing has worked," Brasel said. She has worked in the district clerk's office since October 1968.

Her first priority, however, will be filling the position she held prior to the change. A deadline has not been set.

"I don't want to rush into it. I will try to be selective about my choice," Brasel said. Interested applicants should be able to type, be proficient in using an adding machine and have some bookkeeping experience. She has interviewed five applicants since Tuesday afternoon.

The Runnels County native, who moved to Big Spring when she was 10 years old, has seen trends in case filings during her career.

"I don't know what causes trends. We have 'money cases' now, as I like to call them," she said about numerous recent civil petitions from people and agencies trying to collect money.

"We have more and more child support cases now. Many people didn't care if someone was unable to pay child support, but that has changed because of the economic situation," Brasel said.

She will maintain the procedure established by Crittenden of recording child support payment receipts and forwarding checks directly to the parties involved. Prior to this, the county formerly collected child support payments, up to a $1-million per year, and

Loan regulations

Bruce Magnees, an attorney from Lubbock, talks about farming loan regulations in the district courtroom of the County Courthouse Tuesday evening. Magnees participated in Operation Bootstrap, an association of attorneys and loan counselors to help farmers better understand loans. Magnees will be in Snyder tonight, and in Gail Feb. 5. For those farmers who cannot attend, a videotape, Operation Bootstrap II, is available at the Howard County Library.

Nine students to perform at state contest

The Big Spring High School choir and band will be represented by nine performers at the State Solo and Ensemble Contest, as a result of last Saturday's competition in Odessa.

Nineteen members of the Big Spring choir and band participated in the University Interscholastic League Solo and Ensemble Contest at the Jack Rodgers Fine Arts Center on the Odessa College campus, choral director Kristy Jasek reported.

Of the 23 entries, the students returned with 18 medals for Division I (Superior) performances, and 9 students qualified for the State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

The following students earned a Division I (Superior) rating on a Class I solo, and have qualified for the Texas State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

Mike Carroll (vocal), Medina Corwin (vocal), Kathryn Dawes (piano and vocal), Malinda Ellison (vocal), Joanna Hamilton (piano), Cary Lewis (piano), Rebecca Thompson (piano and vocal), and Kristie West (vocal).

Christy Alexander, Kathryn Dawes, and Malinda Ellison earned a Division I rating on a Class I ensemble, and have qualified for the Texas State Solo Ensemble Contest.

The following students earned a Division I rating on Class II solos: Christy Alexander (vocal), Daniel Andrews (piano and vocal), and John Vidlak (vocal).

The following students earned a Division I rating on Class III solos: Mark Barber (vocal), Marilyn Corwin (piano), and Torbin McEwen (piano).

The following students earned a Division II (Excellent) rating on their solos: Nicole Bash (vocal), John Hernandez (vocal), and Mar-Jayne Lehman (vocal).

Other students participating in the contest included Tina Atkins and Bryan Bailey.

Choir and band members are required to prepare specified solos and/or ensembles in order to participate, she said. All participants must be eligible under the current "no-pass, no-play" rule.

Solos and ensembles are divided into three categories — Class III (easy), Class II (moderately difficult), and Class I (difficult). Each student performs before a judge, and each judge rates the performance, from a Division I (Superior) to Division V (Poor), Jasek explained.

Students earning a Division I rating on a Class I solo are eligible to perform at the Texas State Solo and Ensemble Contest in June at the University of Texas in Austin.

Analyst says Texas to begin recovery

HOUSTON (AP) — Texas' economy will begin to recover from an oil-related recession in the first quarter of 1987, although Houston will still experience difficulties, a Baylor University economics professor is predicting.

Overall growth of the state is expected at 1.6 percent per annum over the first two years of this cyclical upswing, says Ray Perryman in a forecast released Tuesday.

Texas' oil-related recession ended late last year, he says.

"The recovery is led primarily by service-oriented industries, with manufacturing, construction, and mineral extraction remaining very sluggish," according to Perryman's report.

The professor presented a report on his Texas Economic Forecast at an annual meeting of the Texas Bankers Association.

The report says the Houston area is likely to experience difficulty in the next two years, although other major Texas cities will fare better.

Of the Dallas-Fort Worth area, the report says, "Because of its concentration of defense, electronics, information, and service industries, the Metroplex offers a diversified complex of business activity which should perform quite well during the transitional phase of the state economy."

The report also offers some forecasts for the Austin-San Antonio area.

"While neither area can expect to duplicate the performance patterns of early 1980s, both should enjoy a modest period of prosperity. Both of these cities already enjoy substantial diversification in their industrial base and, hence, should consistently grow..."

Perryman also said the floor in the number of oil rigs currently operating in the state occurred in the third quarter of 1986, as modest increases in drilling activity are presently being observed.

"Nevertheless, oil exploration is projected to be quite limited, with the peak level of 1988 being only approximately two-thirds of the already sluggish pace that was prevalent at the end of 1985," Perryman's report says.

Norman Huron checks his specially equipped car that was stolen during a burglary at his home. Huron, a paraplegic, was bound and robbed over the weekend. Police returned his car and neighbors have been helping him.

Citizens help victim of robbery

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Neighbors have brought Norman Huron food, cleaned his house and a locksmith has replaced locks on the doors of his house and car.

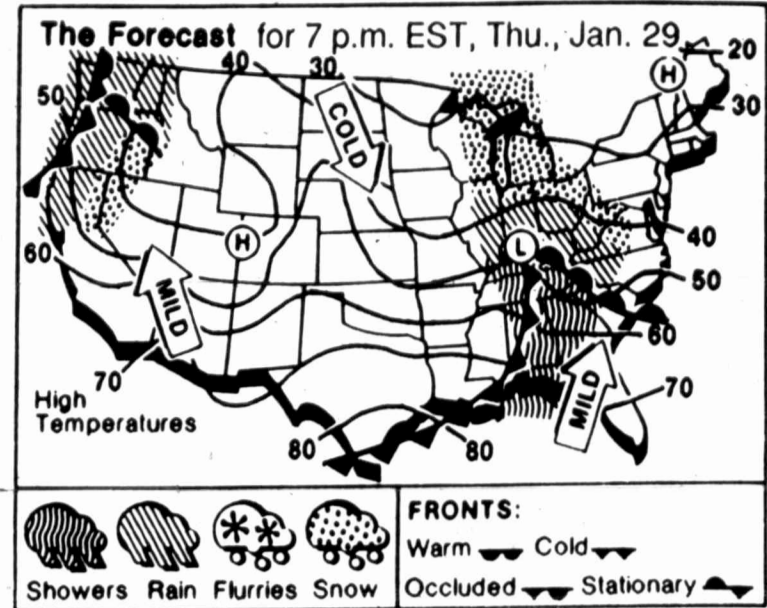

But Huron, a paraplegic, was the victim of a burglary. Thieves took a stereo, television and video recorder and his specially equipped car.

Huron has his car back and now hopes he can get his other valuables.

"Everything's going good. They replaced the locks and my neighbors are still coming by looking in on me, bringing me food, but they've got their own lives to lead," Huron said Tuesday. "I wish I had my TV or something. I'm just sitting here doing nothing," he said.

Huron said he has lived in the same house 24 years and doesn't want to move despite the robbery.

Weather

Forecast

WEST TEXAS: Mostly fair tonight. Partly cloudy in the Panhandle Thursday but fair skies elsewhere. Lows tonight will be in the mid 30s in the north and southwest mountains to near 40 in the far west and south to the mid 40s in the southeast. Highs Thursday will be in the low 60s in the north and southwest mountains to the mid 60s in the far west and the 70s elsewhere.

State

Heavy fog dropped visibility to virtually zero in Houston, Beeville and Victoria today, and the National Weather Service said traffic could be hazardous until mid-morning along the upper and middle Texas coast.

made the payments.

"We don't take any cash nor have a bank account. We just forward the checks or money orders through the mail," Brasel said.

She said divorce filings have remained steady throughout the years although there has been a slight increase recently.

Early in her career, Brasel said there were more personal injury suits and workman's compensation filings.

As a result of assuming the vacancy, she plans to be a Democratic candidate in the 1988 general election for the remaining two years of the clerk's term.

Brasel's hobbies include "watching a lot of ball games. I'm a big sports fanatic," she said.

She and her husband Bob are the parents of three children: Bobby, 23, a student at North Texas State University where he is majoring in radio, television and mass communications; Shelly, 19, a student at San Angelo State University where she is majoring in the performing arts; and Shana 17, a

"This is an interesting office," she says about her workplace.

Each case is different, she added.

"I've heard a lot of different stories up here," Brasel said.

Police beat

Man arrested on theft charge

Ricky Ray White, 24, of Garden City, was arrested at 2601 S. Gregg St. Tuesday for theft under $20.

• Jamie Juarez, 17, 2537 Gunter St., was arrested at 2500 S. Gregg St. for theft under $20.

• Jeana Leree King, 23, 1408 Nolan St., was arrested at 900 W. Fourth St. on suspicion of driving while intoxicated and failure to maintain financial responsibility, second offense.

She was transferred to county jail and released on bonds totalling $2,000.

• Don Adams, 24, 1905 Wasson Road, was arrested on North Highway 87 Tuesday on traffic warrants.

Sheriff's log

Arrest made for unpaid fine

Howard County sheriff's deputies arrested Terry Shawn Terry, 26, 1012 W. Third St. Tuesday afternoon on a warrant for outstanding fines she owes the county for a possession of marijuana judgment. She remained in county jail this morning in lieu of bond.

• Deputies arrested Jerry R. Martinez, 20, of Coahoma Tuesday afternoon on warrants for disorderly conduct and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He remained in county jail this morning in lieu of bonds totalling $5,000.

• Police transferred David W. Fritzler, 23, 4010 Vicky St., to county jail Tuesday morning after he was arrested on possession of marijuana and driving while license suspended. He was released on bonds totalling $1,500.

Mixed drink taxes received

Howard County and the City of Big Spring recently received checks from the state comptroller's office that was collected from mixed drink taxes.

The city received $2,614.37 from $20,914.93 it reported in revenues and the county received $4,468.72 from $35,749.73 it reported.

Texas cities and counties now each receive a 12.5 percent share of the tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries under the law that legalized the sale of mixed drinks in the state. Cities and counties received 15 percent rebates until the rate was changed in 1984.

Mitchell County received $368.32 from $2,946.54 it reported in revenues and Colorado City received $321.03 from $2,568.27 it reported in revenues.

Credit Union observes 50th year on Thursday

Board of directors members will be elected and Texas speaker Bob Murphey will address participants at the 50th annual meeting of the Cosden Employees Federal Credit Union Thursday.

The meeting will be conducted at 6 p.m. at Big Spring High School. Supper is to be served in the cafeteria at 6 p.m., and the meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m.

The credit union was organized at 3:30 p.m. Nov. 23, 1936, in Fort Worth, when C.T. Bergeron was appointed temporary chairman by employees interested in the organization.

J.W. Lane, W.F. Juliff, E.W. Richardson, E.W. Potter, D.L. Orme, C.D. Brown and J.W. Burrell were selected to serve on the first board of directors until the first regular meeting to be conducted the third Friday in January, 1937.

Loans were made at 12 percent, and 6 percent dividends were paid on share accounts when the credit union was first organized. During the 50 years, the dividend rate has never fallen below 6 percent, according to information prepared by the union.

The credit union's first meeting in Big Spring was conducted Jan. 28, 1938, although an office was still maintained in Fort Worth to make deposits and prepare loans. An unappropriated surplus of $199.49 existed after dividend requirements and expenses.

Some of the organization's history was lost in an explosion in 1970, according to Virginia Davidson, who worked in the credit union for about 18 years.

Davidson said she was sitting at the posting machine when she heard "an awful rumble." The explosion occurred at the Alky Unit, but also destroyed a building where records were kept.

Three men have served as treasurer in the credit union's 50 years: V.A. Whittington until May, 1949; Otto Peters until July, 1975; and George Hudson from August, 1975 to the present.

to sewer gasses during maintenance, and they must wear air tanks and a safety harness, Decell said.

The equipment hampers the operators' ability to do the work, yet without it, they risk loss of life, he said.

Councilman Harold Hall remarked that "I think what the engineer is saying is we have a lot of liability and we could very easily get somebody killed" with the present system.

Because the proposed new system doesn't have bearings and shaft assemblies underwater, the danger will be reduced and preventative maintenance will be easier, Decell said. That should allow for less deterioration and a longer system life, he explained.

The new bar screen will cost $218,000. Dormier said the present system is irreparable.

To install a new unit of the type now in use would cost $150,000, Decell said.

In other business, the Council:

• Passed on second and final reading ordinances authorizing Mize to execute agreements with the Rainbow Project for lease of a building, and with Parkhill, Smith & Cooper for engineering services to support construction of an airport runway.

• Granted a request from the Howard County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 to tap into the proposed 12-inch Cosden water line.

• Granted a mobile home temporary permit renewal to a resident, providing he repairs his mobile home to meet required standards; and tabled a similar permit request after a neighbor complained. Decell said he would discuss the meeting of aesthetic requirements with the applicants.

• Approved specifications and gave permission to advertise for bids for a city insurance program. The Council decided at a previous work session to seek a lower insurance premium when Finance Director Tom Ferguson revealed that the city's current insurance agents, Texas Municipal League, is raising the premium by $100,000 this year.

• Again tabled a request for police portable radios and vehicles. Councilmen indicated that they will discuss the matter again when the state of future funds is known.

Wofford explained to the Council last year that he believes the city will receive less tax money this year because of the decline in the economy.

• Tabled an ordinance authorizing Mize to execute an agreement with Howard County for continued lease of the Senior Citizens Center, Industrial Park Building 487.

Wofford said clarification of certain aspects of the agreement needs to be made.

• Authorized negotiations to begin with GSW & Associates engineering firm for an engineering services contract for street improvements.

• Authorized right-of-way negotiations for a water storage facility and booster pump station to be located on South Mountain.

• Announced that the recently-appointed ambulance advisory committee will meet for the first time at 5 p.m. Thursday at City Hall for organizational purposes. Wofford said a description of duties is being prepared.

Carriers stay in East

WASHINGTON — A wave of hostage-taking in the Middle East has prompted the Reagan administration to hold the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy in the Mediterranean Sea, keeping two carrier battle groups in the region indefinitely, Pentagon sources say.

The Pentagon announced the decision without giving a reason Tuesday, and the sources, who demanded anonymity, said the cancellation of the Kennedy's scheduled move from the area was a "precaution" prompted by terrorist kidnappings in Lebanon.

The action is expected to be followed by orders that the carriers move farther eastward toward the Middle East, said one source.

In another move, the Navy has issued orders to a group of smaller warships to move deeper into the Persian Gulf, sources disclosed. That move was described as a sign of U.S. support for the Organization of Islamic Conference that got underway Tuesday in Kuwait.

Boy, girl save siblings

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — A 7-year-old girl helped save four of her siblings by tossing them out a window of their burning house to her 9-year-old brother, authorities said.

The 9-year-old, Louzon Davis, was awakened by the fire about 10:15 p.m. Monday, and woke his siblings before escaping through the first-floor window, said fire department spokesman Wendell Smith.

His sister, Dalisha Taylor, dropped four other children to her brother, Smith said. A 6-year-old brother climbed through the window on his own. The children ranged in age from the 9-year-old to 6 months old and all escaped injury.

Officials said the fire began in a leaking propane tank used with a small cooking stove to provide heat on the second floor.

Pope to visit Detroit

DETROIT — Pope John Paul II will make a 24-hour stop in Detroit at the end of a 10-day, 10-city trip to the United States in September, a newspaper reported, quoting a National Council of Catholic Bishops statement scheduled to be released Wednesday.

The pope is to arrive in Detroit from San Francisco the evening of Sept. 18 and leave for Rome about 9 p.m. Sept. 19, the Detroit Free Press said in Wednesday's editions, quoting a council story carried by its official wire service.

Stations disrupt address

DAVENPORT, Iowa — Local television stations got mixed reviews when they interrupted President Reagan's State of the Union Address to broadcast news of a tentative settlement in a marathon labor dispute at Deere & Co.

Two of the three local stations got calls from irate viewers Tuesday night when Reagan's speech was interrupted. But the other station said viewers supported the action.

President Reagan shakes hands with new House Speaker Jim Wright of Texas as Vice President George Bush applauds before the State of the Union address on Capitol Hill Tuesday night.

Reagan's address

Texas lawmakers give opinions

By PHILLIP SWANN
Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Texas Democrats Tuesday night found President Reagan's State of the Union address to be a mixed bag while Republicans called it one of his finest performances.

Reagan, whose presidency has been under fire since the revelation of the Iranian arms sale, told a joint session of the Democratic-controlled Congress that "serious mistakes" were made.

"I took a risk with regard to our action in Iran. It did not work and for that I assume full responsibility," Reagan said.

But he said America should not be "obsessed with failure" and urged lawmakers to work with him to balance the budget and increase funding for defense, "Star Wars," and the Nicaraguan rebels.

Texas Republicans praised the president's speech, saying he recaptured the confidence of the American people.

"I feel the president has shown that he has taken charge, that he has restored America's confidence in himself and the presidency," said Rep. Lamar Smith, R-San Antonio.

"I think it should go a long way" to improving his standing in the polls, added Rep. Beau Boulter, R-Amarillo. "It was great."

But Texas Democrats, while applauding parts of the address, had harsh words for some of the president's proposed cuts in domestic programs.

"I do support a very strong national defense, but we have seen an increase in poverty," said Rep. Solomon Ortiz, D-Corpus Christi. "I'm for a strong defense but I care for those who are unemployed."

"I think the president was wrong to attempt to tell the nation that all is well economically when in fact today our nation is the largest debtor nation in the world," said Rep. John Bryant, D-Dallas.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, applauded the president's announcement that he will propose several legal and regulatory reforms designed to open foreign markets to U.S. goods.

"I don't think he's talking about as tough a bill as we will see come out of Congress, but I think we will see Congress and the administration continue to work towards each other," said Bentsen, who is chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

House Speaker Jim Wright, D-Texas, criticized the administration's call for reduced funding for drug education in elementary schools.

"President Reagan called the war on drugs our first line of defense. Now, just three months later, he wants to cut in half the commitment we made for anti-drug training in elementary schools," Wright said. "This is the kind of gap between rhetoric and reality that we just can't tolerate."

Military fires tear gas

MANILA, Philippines — Government troops fired tear gas today at about 200 rebels holding a broadcast center in suburban Manila after they ignored an ultimatum to surrender.

The station was the last position held by rebels linked to deposed President Ferdinand E. Marcos who attempted a pre-dawn coup Tuesday, the most serious challenge by right-wing military members since President Corason Aquino came to power 11 months ago.

The commander of the 1,000 government troops surrounding the studios of Channel 7 and DZBB radio station in Quezon City had told the rebels to surrender within 30 minutes.

Heavily armed troops wearing gas masks moved toward the station in a five-truck convoy. Marines in civilian clothes and wearing yellow armbands — the color of Mrs. Aquino's "people power revolution" against Marcos — were on standby to move in on a second wave.

Four tear gas canisters were fired at the compound after the deadline passed in what an officer at the scene described as a warning.

Sandinistas free Hall

MANAGUA, Nicaragua — Sam Nesley Hall, a self-styled American soldier of fortune accused of spying in Nicaragua, was freed from custody today and allowed to leave the country for home.

The Sandinistas say Hall, the brother of U.S. Rep. Tony Hall, D-Ohio, was released because he is mentally unstable.

Hall, who was arrested Dec. 12, was brought to Sandino International Airport and put aboard an Aeronica national airlines flight for San Jose, Costa Rica.

Dressed in a pink shirt and brown trousers, Hall was taken to the airport by Sandinista security agents and turned over to U.S. Vice Consul Luis Moreno. The two men embraced briefly and Hall boarded the plane for a flight accompanied by family lawyer Gary Froelich of Dayton, Ohio, who arrived in Managua on Monday night.

Hall's travel plans from San Jose were not immediately known, but there are several daily flights from the Costa Rican capital to Miami.

Soviets oust Kunaev

MOSCOW — The Communist Party today removed Dinmukhamed A. Kunaev, the ousted leader of the Kazakhstan party apparatus and one of the last of the Brezhnev-era old guard, from the ruling Politburo.

The action came on the second day of the Communist Party Central Committee meeting and followed a call by Kremlin leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev for replacement of aging party leaders.

The removal of the 74-year-old Kunaev was widely predicted following his ouster Dec. 16 as party chief in the republic of Kazakhstan. He was replaced by an ethnic Russian, Genady Kolbin, sparking nationalist student riots in the Kazakhstan capital, Alma Ata.

Texas-sized

Three-year-old Dallas Austin Morgan is the size of a six or seven year-old, said his mother Mical Morgan, Old West Highway 80. He's always been a big boy. When he was born, he weighed 12 pounds 4 ounces and was 22-inches long. At three months, he was standing. He is now 40 pounds and is "a head taller than most kids his age." His mother said he gets his size from his father, Richard, who is a native Texan. When asked what Dallas' favorite thing to eat is, he replied, "food."

Bride-elect honored with parties

Joni Lyn Avery, bride-elect of Stephen Eugene Withrow, has been honored with a series of parties in Big Spring and Midland.

An afternoon tea and display shower was hosted Jan. 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Martin, 2517 Larry. Hostesses were Virginia Martin, Betty Birdwell, Shirley Burgess, Jackie Henry, Freda Hoover, Undine Kernode, Jan Keyes, Margaret Lloyd, Janice Rosson, Carolyn Schroder, Dene Sheppard, Shirley Seynger, Jackie Simpson and Jane Smith. Sixty-five attended the come-and-go affair.

Sixteen people attended an afternoon rice bag party on Jan. 17. Mrs. Mark Withrow, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, hosted the event in Midland. After assembling the rice bags, recipes were exchanged.

Kay Hendon, Vicki Groves and Marge Holland hosted a miscellaneous display shower on Jan. 20. Seventy-five people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Withrow of Midland, parents of the prospective bridegroom will host a rehearsal dinner at the Midland Hilton Inn on Jan. 30 to honor the couple. Forty-eight people are expected to attend.

A brunch for the bridesmaids will be hosted on Jan. 31 by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Avery, 4 Bennett Circle.

The couple will exchange wedding vows Jan. 31 at Midland Memorial Christian Church.

Engagement party hosted Jan. 24

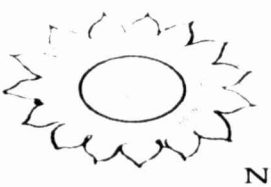

Anita Butler, bride-elect of Kelly Johnson, was honored with an engagement party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Vaughn of Midland on Jan. 24.

After a traditional champagne toast, a buffet dinner was served to thirty guests.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson Jr. of Luling, parents of the prospective bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Weaver of Houston, sister of the prospective bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. James Butler, parents of the bride-elect; and Mr. and Mrs. John Yater, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Davidson and Robin Butler, sisters of the bride-elect.

The couple will exchange wedding vows June 13 at the First Baptist Church Chapel with Dr. Kenneth Patrick, officiating.

Going Bald? Try This, At No Risk

Pd. Adv.

HOUSTON, Texas—if you are gradually going bald, obviously, something is causing your hair loss to be greater than the growth. It stands to reason that if you can reduce your hair loss to where it is less than the growth... you can stop the balding process... and gradually thicken your hair.

It is a known fact that "sebum" which is discharged through the sebaceous glands in the scalp, can cause excessive hair loss. The symptoms of a sebum problem are: greasy forehead; dandruff; dry or oily; itchy scalp; and if your hair pulls out easily on top of your head. If you have one or more of these symptoms, sebum could be the cause of your problem.

A firm of laboratory consultants has developed a scientifically advanced formula and regimen to remove and control the continuous discharge of toxic sebum, so the scalp can function normally and effectively. This, in turn, greatly reduces excessive hair loss... and, helps promote natural cell production.

Extensive research with this regimen shows that some people stopped the balding process and thickened their hair, and some just reduced their hair loss. However, the average of all cases shows that this regimen stops or reduces excessive hair loss, whereby, it takes 8 times longer to become bald. If it usually takes about 10 years to become bald, it would take the average person 80 years if they used this regimen.

This scientific regimen has proven so successful the firm invites you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself.

Experts believe that the majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if your hair loss is caused or affected by sebum, here is help.

Everyone has a full head of hair until some time after puberty. In the case of hair loss caused by "sebum" the problem starts when the male hormone production reaches its peak. This causes an excessive discharge of toxic sebum, which if not properly controlled, will gradually destroy the hair producing cells on top of the head.

Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair producing cells are destroyed, you are beyond help.

So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop or delay the balding process for up to 80 years... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days... at their risk... if you have the sebum symptoms and are not already slick bald. Just send them the information below. Or, call them toll-free at 1-800-231-7157 (in Texas 1-800-833-8387) 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday thru Thursday, and they will send complete information. HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR

By CARLEEN EVERETT
Lifestyle Editor

Chinese New Year, the biggest holiday on the Chinese calendar, will begin tomorrow.

The Chinese celebrate holidays according to a calendar based on the moon, so the New Year always comes on the second new moon after the winter solstice, sometime between Jan. 21 and Feb. 19.

Like the Chinese, you'll want to celebrate the New Year with a feast. Since Americans like spicy foods, La Choy home economists recommend a Hunan-influenced menu. The cuisine of this western Chinese province provides the "kick" many of us are looking for. Enjoy the savory dishes and the Chinese New Year.

Recipe exchange

1 1/2 tbsp. soy sauce
1 1/2 tbsps. cornstarch
1 tsp. sugar
Chicken and Vegetables:
1 1/2 lbs. boneless, skinless chicken breast, cut in 2-inch strips
1 tsp. soy sauce
1 tsp. cornstarch
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 tsp. each: minced garlic and minced ginger root
2 cups flowerettes
1 (8-oz.) can sliced water chestnuts, drained
1 green onion, diagonally sliced
1 (11-oz.) can mandarin orange slices, syrup drained and reserved
1 cup unsalted cashews

chestnuts, drained
In small bowl, combine sauce ingredients; set aside. In medium bowl, combine beef, cornstarch, soy sauce and sherry. In large, non-stick skillet, heat 2 tbsp. oil. Cook chilies over medium heat until they begin to blacken. Stir in peanuts and cook, stirring constantly, 30 seconds longer; remove and set aside. Heat remaining oil on high and stir-fry beef in 2 batches; remove and set aside. Sauté garlic, ginger and carrots 1 minute. Stir sauce ingredients and add to pan with green onions and water chestnuts. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and bubbling. Add beef, chilies and peanuts back to pan; toss to coat and heat through.
Makes 4 to 6 servings.

MANDARIN CASHEW CHICKEN

Sauce:
1/2 cup syrup, reserved from mandarin oranges
1/4 cup chicken broth

In small bowl, combine sauce ingredients; set aside. In medium bowl, combine chicken, soy sauce and cornstarch. In large, non-stick skillet, heat 3 tbsp. oil until it begins to smoke. Cook chicken in 2 batches; remove and set aside. Heat remaining oil, stir-fry garlic, ginger and broccoli 2 minutes. Stir sauce ingredients, add to pan with water chestnuts and green onions. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and bubbling. Stir in chicken, orange slices and cashews. Toss gently to coat and heat through.
Makes 6 servings.

GENERAL TANG'S CHICKEN

Sauce:
1 cup each: chicken broth and oyster sauce
2 tbsps. dry sherry
1 1/2 tbsps. soy sauce
1 1/2 tbsps. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. red pepper flakes
Chicken and

Vegetables:
1 lb. boneless skinless chicken breast, cut in 2-inch strips
1 tsp. dry sherry
1 tsp. cornstarch
1 1/2 tbsps. soy sauce
1 (1-oz.) pkg. dries forest or shiitake mushrooms
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 tsp. each: minced garlic and minced ginger root
1 cup diagonally sliced celery
1 (8-oz.) can sliced water chestnuts, drained
1 (6-oz.) pkg. frozen Chinese pea pods, thawed
1/2 cup chopped green onions

In small bowl, cover mushrooms with warm water; let soak 30 minutes to soften. Drain water, remove stems and slice mushrooms into 1/4-inch strips, set aside. In small bowl, combine sauce ingredients; set aside. In medium bowl, combine chicken, sherry, cornstarch and soy sauce. In large, non-stick skillet, heat 3 tbsp. oil on high and stir-fry chicken in 2 batches; remove and set aside. Heat remaining oil; sauté garlic, ginger and celery 1 minute. Stir sauce ingredients and add to pan with mushroom strips, water chestnuts and pea pods. Cook, stirring constantly until thick and bubbling. Add chicken back to pan; toss to coat and heat through. Top with green onions and serve.
Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHINESE SEAFOOD SALAD

1/2 lb. medium shrimp in shells
Peanut oil or salad oil for stir-frying
1 (4-oz.) pkg. Chinese long beans

1/2 cup sliced waterchestnuts, or drained, canned waterchestnuts
1 red or green bell pepper, cut into bite-sized strips
1/4 cup shredded black radish
2 cups shredded Chinese or Napa cabbage
1/4 lb. flaked cooked crabmeat (optional)
1/4 cup red wine vinegar
2 tbsps. sesame or peanut oil
2 tbsps. soy sauce
1 tsp. water
1 clove garlic, minced

Cook shrimp by boiling in water about 3 minutes until pink. Remove shells and veins; rinse in cold water. Trim ends of Chinese long beans; cut into 2-inch lengths. Heat 1 to 2 tbsps. oil in wok or large skillet; add beans, waterchestnuts and bell pepper; stir-fry for 3 minutes. Add black radish, cabbage and crab and shrimp to wok; toss 1 minute. Cover. Meanwhile, combine the remaining dressing ingredients; toss with salad. Serve at once.

Makes 3 servings.

Adult children of alcoholics aid each other in help group

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Ellen, 37, had an excessive need to please others. She felt guilty if any one was dissatisfied with her. Brian, 32, inflated his accomplishments so people would like him. Patty, 32, always took the blame for anything that went wrong. Ellen, Brian and Patty were well into adulthood before they pinpointed the root of their problems. Each had grown up with an alcoholic parent. Only in the last five years has attention been turned to the grown children of alcoholics. Adult Children of Alcoholics (ACOA) self-help groups have sprung up to help people overcome the problems caused by growing up in alcoholic homes. Before, adult children of alcoholics often spent years in therapy with negligible results because the role of alcohol in their problems was overlooked. "He never focused on alcohol," Patty says of the therapist she saw for five years. "He thought we should focus on the emotional problems and the symptoms would go away. It was a falsehood." Patty was not able to progress until she understood the cause of her problems. Today, there is an awareness that children in alcoholic homes tend to take on the emotional symptoms of the disease. They tend to feel isolated and uneasy with other people, mistrust and repress their feelings and have trouble being intimate. Keeping a secret about a parent taught them to pretend and deceive. They fear abandonment, seek approval, blame themselves for everything that goes wrong and feel guilty if they stand up for themselves. They may be overly responsible. Often they become "oh-ohs." "My father's drinking gave me disabilities as an adult," says Patty. Patty's father drank a fifth a day. But since he never seemed drunk, Patty did not have anything to blame for his coldness and disapproval except herself. Her mother's frequent admonition to "leave daddy alone" made Patty feel at fault if her father seemed angry. Her mother always acted happy when the father was there and unhappy when he left. "I always interpreted that as she wasn't happy being alone with me, instead of she could only stop pretending when he wasn't there," Patty says. Her mother started drinking heavily, too, and the parents neglected Patty and forbade her from bringing companions home. She felt lonely and isolated, but from her mother's example had learned to hide her feelings. By high school, she was drinking herself. She "acted out" in other ways also — sex, drugs, running away, a suicide attempt. Finally, after therapy was unsuccessful, she confided in a priest, who referred her to Alcoholics Anonymous. Thanks to AA's 12-step recovery program, Patty is sober and able to see how her father's alcoholism not only contributed to her own, but also to her emotional disabilities. Ellen did not become an alcoholic, but she married one — a course not unusual for a daughter of an alcoholic seeking the perverse security of continuing the kind of home life she knows. When Ellen's husband confronted his own problem and went to AA, he wanted her to go to AA, too. Ellen had trouble relating to some of the wives' stories, but when she heard testimonies from children of alcoholics, a light came on in her head. "Suddenly I saw the effects on me of my mother's drinking," she says. Brian, whose father is an alcoholic, also had trouble with relationships. "I had real problems with trust and intimacy," Brian says. "I get my father's approval as a child. As an adult I tried to create a facade of being more accomplished than I am in order to impress people. We all have issues of self-image that are caused by a lot of things, but in my case the link was an alcoholic parent." Both Ellen and Brian have been helped by their ACOA groups. "I don't think I'll ever get rid of it (the alcohol-caused problems), but I'm doing a lot better," says Ellen.

Young man wants to go West, fiance doesn't

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with me? I'm engaged to a wonderful man and I should be the happiest woman in the world, but I'm not. I'm depressed because of this one problem: I was born in West Virginia and have lived here all my life. "Buddy," my fiance, moved here seven years ago from Oregon. He says it's an opportunity of a lifetime, so he took it, so that is where we'll be living after we're married. Buddy has already relocated there, and I visited him for three weeks to see what it was like. I suppose most people would say California has more to offer than West Virginia. Not for me, it hasn't. I don't care for the California climate, the people, the distances or their way of life. I guess it boils down to the fact that I don't want to move to California, raise a family there, grow old there and die there. It breaks my heart to think of leaving my family, friends and the state that I love. I'm not a career-type woman. All I want to do is be a good wife and mother. I truly love Buddy. He would make a wonderful husband. But while I'm making wedding plans, I'm dreading the day. Please help me. TEARS ON MY PILLOW DEAR TEARS: Obviously Buddy doesn't know how you feel, so TELL him at once. Let him know that you are dreading your wedding day because you don't want to leave your family and the state you love. Perhaps he will consider returning to West Virginia for your sake. (Maybe not.) In any case, put your wedding on hold until you can replace your tearful sadness with genuine joy. You may not be ready to marry Buddy or anybody else yet.

DEAR ABBY: On the issue of signed vs. unsigned credit cards, I am one of the "unsigneds." The reason: I work in a prison and have heard many inmates talk about how they became experts on forging signatures of stolen credit cards. I can prove who I am by simply showing my driver's license or ID from work, both of which have my picture and signature. If anybody gives me an argument, I leave the merchandise at a checkout station. Last Christmas season I used three major credit cards for a total of 40 times. Not once did anybody even look at my signature. Sign me... UNSIGNED IN GEORGIA DEAR UNSIGNED: My mail is running 10-to-1 AGAINST signing credit cards. Read on for a letter from a sharp reader: DEAR ABBY: An item in your column touched me where my credit cards are: in my wallet. I flatly refuse to sign my credit cards, and I'll tell you why: If I should lose a signed credit card and a crook gets a hold of it, he could copy my signature and run up more bills all over town than I could pay off in two lifetimes. I carry my I.D. and picture, and any clerk who gives me any trouble will lose a sale. Guaranteed! V.G. SHARP, GRANTS PASS, ORE. DEAR ABBY: Today coming home from work, there was a woman tailgating me. We were going about 55 mph. I touched my brakes as a signal for her to back off. As soon as the left lane was clear, she got to my side and started merging into my lane, laughing. I slowed down, and then she cut in front of me and braked fast. I almost hit her. She made me angry, but I just let her go. I got her license number. My question: If I call the police department, will they do anything about it? I'm sure there are plenty of people who have the same thing happen to them. Please help us all. Is it worth our time to complain? BOULDER-DENVER DRIVER DEAR DRIVER: Call your local police and see what they think about it. I think it's a public service to alert the authorities to a potentially dangerous driver.

Dr. Donohue

Problems with bone marrow cause anemia

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I wrote to you a while back, but have not seen anything about my problem — myelodysplasia syndrome. I understand it is pre-leukemia. I've had this now for a year and a half. I would like all the information you can give me. I've been told there is no treatment. I do get blood transfusions regularly. Please answer. — C.B. I do recall your earlier note. I probably neglected to answer, quite simply, because it does defy meaningful response. And it is one of those illnesses about which we have only poor understanding. Myelo stands for bone marrow. Plasia refers to production of blood cells, which occurs in the marrow, and dys is the all-purpose medical term meaning "something wrong." In this case, something amiss in bone marrow cells production. syndrome refers to the array of signs and symptoms that stem from this condition. The number of red blood cells are diminished, and that is anemia. In addition, white blood cells are often low in number, and blood platelets, part of the blood-clotting picture, are not produced in adequate quantities. All these factors pose serious threat to health. The anemia does not respond well to treatment. One of the symptoms of this syndrome is that associated with any anemia: weakness and fatigue. You are getting transfusions in attempts to bring up the blood count. You refer to this as a pre-leukemic condition. Leukemia may develop in some who have this syndrome, but not all by any means. Continue cooperating with your doctors. I hope these few words have helped you understand, at least to some degree, your problem. And I hope, too, that your present treatment proves successful.

A true Hall-Of-Famer

I wish I had Don Maynard's understanding. The legendary football great has a heart of gold and the complacency of a tireless warrior.

I mean, if it were me, my attitude would be real nasty towards the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Selection Committee. This 30-member board of selectors, which includes one representative from each National Football League city, has snubbed Maynard from the Hall time after time.

I mean, this man played 15 seasons in the NFL and, until this season, held the career record for receiving yards. Maynard, who played from 1960-1975, caught 668 passes for 11,834 yards and 88 touchdowns. That comes to almost seven miles worth of pass catching.

Ex-San Diego Chargers wide receiver Charlie Joiner just broke Maynard's record this season. Joiner ends his career with 750 catches for 12,146 yards and 70 touchdowns.

What's even more amazing is that Maynard, who ranks in the top five in all-time receptions, averaged a whopping 18-yards per catch. That's an unbelievable average over a 15-year period of time.

But he's been snubbed seven times by the Hall selection committee. He's up for selection again. At the time this column was written, it was not known if he received enough votes to be inducted, but Maynard really doesn't care.

He's a good ole West Texas boy and he can do without the "extras" in life. "It's the necessities — like loving your family, helping people and being happy, that make a man's life worthwhile," said Maynard Monday night in an interview after the Big Spring High School sports banquet.

"It doesn't bother me at all that I haven't been selected to the Hall of Fame. I've got better things to worry about. Just like anything else, it's a lot of politics involved in getting into the Hall of Fame. The guys in the NFL cities are going to vote for who they want to anyway. I won't run out and get Wednesday's morning paper to see if I made it."

Well, you can't convince this sports editor that Maynard doesn't deserve a place in the Hall. I can still see wry number 13 streaking down the sidelines to pull in one of Joe Willie's long aeriels. Maynard was turning secondaries inside out during an era when the defensive back was allowed to play bump-and-run all over the field. That's a change from today's rules, which allow the defensive back to bump the receiver only once, and then only within five yards of the line of scrimmage.

It makes a big difference — just ask any receiver or defensive back.

"Back in my day they let them hit us all over the field. The refs hardly ever called it," Maynard said. "I would have at them up with today's rules," he confidently said.

Maynard, who now lives in El Paso where he and his wife Ana have an annuity business, says the New York Jets of the mid-60's were 10 years ahead of everyone else. "We had a great quarterback in Namath so we had a great passing attack. We were doing what teams are doing now days, passing first, running second."

"What many people don't realize though is that we had a great running game also. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer were great running backs. A lot of people don't realize that in his first three seasons, Matt Snell was in the top 10 in receiving and rushing. Not many backs have ever done that."

One season Emerson Boozer led the league in touchdowns with 14. But he missed eight games that season.

Then there was the 1968 Super Bowl when the Jets upset the Baltimore Colts 16-7. Maynard calls that his greatest game. But wait a minute Don, the Colts shut you out.

"No, I didn't catch a pass that game. I beat them deep one time down the sidelines but Joe overthrew me. But I did spread out their secondary and Joe picked them apart over the middle. That's what I was supposed to do and I did my job."

And so the slick receiver did his job, just like he did for 15 glorious years in the NFL. And for that reason Don Maynard, you were a Hall-of-Famer in my eyes from the day you retired.

Seven finalists voted into Pro Football Hall of Fame

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All seven members voted into the 1987 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame called their selection an honor. But Larry Csonka also called it a reprieve from the past tense.

"For the last five years, it seems that I've been talking about what was," Csonka said. "Like all old pros, the 'was' fades. To suddenly be cast into the 'is' again — to be inducted into the Hall of Fame — is like living forever."

Csonka, the prototypical fullback of the 1970s while with the Miami Dolphins, was joined by teammate Jim Langer, defensive tackle Joe Greene, quarterback Len Dawson, fullback John Henry Johnson, wide receiver Don Maynard and guard Gene Upshaw.

"For the last five years, I've been sitting in buses or trains or planes ... talking about the Dolphins of 1972," Csonka said. "That was 15 years ago. This (Hall of Fame selection) is current. What it means is that you have escaped the hands of time."

Csonka and Langer were both integral parts of the Dolphins' undefeated season in 1972 that ended with a Super Bowl victory.

Csonka rushed for 8,081 yards and 64 touchdowns during an 11-year career, spent with the Dolphins, the New York Giants and for a year in the defunct World Football League.

Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins early in his career and went on to be named to the Pro Bowl six times.

Steers toy with Eagles

By EDDIE CURRAN
Staff Writer

If basketball games were paintings, then Tuesday night's game in Steer gym wouldn't have been a DaVinci. Rather, it would have been more like one of those Elvis paintings you see on a gas station wall.

Nevertheless, when the countings done, all that will matter is that the Big Spring Steers beat the Pecos Golden Eagles 95-82.

"It wasn't very pretty. There was a lot of sloppy play, but a win's a win," said Steers' coach Boyce Paxton afterwards.

The Steers opened the game just as they did in last Tuesday's win over Sweetwater. Brian Mayfield slapped the opening jump to Shawn Shellman, who passed to Chris Lopez for the layup. Lopez was starting in place of Charles Young, who sat on the bench recovering from bronchitis. Young said he would be ready for Friday's game against San Angelo Lakeview.

The teams played evenly in the first quarter, though Steers' fans had little to worry about. It was clear the home team was the better ballclub. But when Cedric Banks passed to Sidney Parker for a layup at the end of the first quarter, the teams were knotted at 20.

Lopez came out firing in the second quarter, and the slim guard with the smooth jumper canned the Steers' first eight points of the quarter. The Steers led 28-26 with 4:01 left in the half.

A minute later, Banks brought the crowd to its feet. Driving down the court on the break, Banks pretended to pass but held on for an easy layup. By the time Banks shot, the Eagle defender was guarding another man.

Late in the half Parker single-handedly turned a three-point game into an eight-point game. He hit a jumper at the 1:22 mark to give the Steers a 39-34 lead. The next time down the court, he rebounded a Banks' miss and put it back in and was fouled. After the free throw, the Steers led 42-34.

Parker also hit the Steers' last shot of the half, and Big Spring led 44-36 at the half. A busy Parker finished the half with 13 points, six rebounds, two steals and two assists.

The second half was the Cedric Banks show. Banks opened the half by pump faking and driving baseline on his man for an easy two and a ten-point Steer lead.

With Banks, Parker and Mayfield dominating the offensive boards, the Steers played their best ball of the night in the early going of the third quarter. At one point, Mayfield dunked, stole on the other end, and passed to a wide open Banks, who scored.

At the 3:21 mark, Mayfield grabbed another rebound, hit Banks on a slant pattern, and the senior forward hit the jumper to give the Steers a 17-point lead, their biggest of the night. The hustling Eagles, however, made a run at the end of the quarter and closed the margin to 66-56 going into the last stanza.

With 6:30 left in the game, Banks grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to give the Steers a 15-point lead at 76-61. At that point, the Steers started having fun, and maybe became more concerned with blocking shots and running and gunning than sticking with fundamentals.

But when the Eagles closed to 88-82 at the 1:05 mark, the Steers said "enough's enough." Parker made a good pass to Mayfield, who jammed home a two-handed slam. Seconds later Banks stole the ball and hit an easy layup. In that last 1:05, the Steers outscored the Eagles 7-0 for the final margin.

Banks scored 18 in the second half, and finished with 27 points to lead all scorers. He also pulled down 12 rebounds. Most of those points were hustle points — points gotten off offensive rebounds, steals, and being at the right place on the break.

"The reason I get a lot of rebounds is because they look at my size, and they worry about Sidney and Brian, and they didn't block me out," Banks said. "When we run the rotation, I get on the back side and get position."

"Coach tells me every day to keep hustling. Charles (Young) is natural with that 'J', but I've got to keep running to get mine," he said.

Banks wasn't the only Steer to have a big game. Parker finished with 22 points, 16 rebounds, five assists and three block shots. His 16 rebounds and five assists were team highs. Mayfield also blocked three shots, to go with his 26 points and 12 rebounds.

Lopez substituted well for Young. He scored 14 points and handled the ball well.

The lack of intensity in the game may have hurt the Steers' concentration at the foul line. They made

Lady Steers demolish Pecos

PECOS — The Big Spring Lady Steers continued their winning ways as they demolished the Pecos Lady Eagles 66-30 Tuesday night in Pecos gym.

After getting off to a slow start, leading 12-4 after the first quarter, the Lady Steers erupted to take a 30-15 halftime lead. Forward Teresa Pruitt led the charge in the first half, scoring 13 of her 27 points in the opening two minutes.

Guard Paige Clawson helped carry the scoring slack in the second half, scoring 14 of her 21 points in the stanza.

The win gives the Lady Steers a 10-1 district record and 20-4 overall slate.

Coach C.E. Carmichael was pleased with the win. "We played good last night. We beat them pretty bad last time and I was a little concerned about us being mentally prepared," he said. "Pecos got a couple of tall girls eligible after the break and was really a stronger team. We work hard on rebounding after the Sweetwater game and we rebounded well."

Pecos won the junior varsity game 38-28. Big Spring falls to 6-7 overall and 5-6 in district play.

Big Spring will be in action Friday when the Lady Steers travel to San Angelo to play Lake View at 7:30 p.m. Junior varsity action begins at 6.

Coahoma sweeps C-City

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Editor

Keyed by the play of its pressing defense, the Coahoma Bulldogs came away with a 59-43 District 7-AAA basketball win over the Colorado City Wolves Tuesday night.

Coach Kim Nichols' Bulldogs pressed the Wolves all over the court and it was the big difference in the game as the young, inexperienced Wolves simply couldn't contend with the pressure.

"I felt going into the game we could press them and give them trouble," said Nichols after the contest. "The press was definitely the key in the game."

The Coahoma coach was so right. The Bulldogs' press caused 27 Colorado City turnovers. It offset the much taller Colorado City's 50-36 rebounding advantage.

Colorado City coach Mike Hart has one of the youngest squads around. Of the 11 players on the varsity, Hart has two seniors, two juniors, six sophomores and one freshman. Their inexperienced showed against the Coahoma press.

Coahoma guards Dee Jon Douglass, Butch Woods, Anthony Hernandez and Maury Maddox did a number on the Wolves. Douglass, who scored 15 points, many on driving layups, also collected five steals. Woods, Hernandez and Maddox combined for eight more thefts.

When Coahoma wasn't scoring on layups off steals in the press, James White was hitting from the outside. The 6-0 sharpshooter connected on 9 of 16 field goals attempts for a game-high 19 points.

Coahoma City stayed close in the first half behind the play of junior forward Kennon Norman, who scored 12 of his team-high 14 points in the first half. Still the Wolves trailed 26-21 at intermission.

"Woods hurt us inside in the first half, but we did a good job of stopping him in the second half," said Nichols.

The Bulldogs stopped the Wolves cold in the third quarter as C-City only managed baskets by Woods and sophomore forward Darwin Jackson. For Coahoma, White scored six points in the period and Coahoma led 39-25 going into the final quarter.

The lead grew to 45-30 three minutes into the fourth quarter and it looked like a Coahoma blowout. But Colorado City battled back behind the scoring and rebounding of senior guard Terry Jackson and sophomore forward Paul Ausbie, cutting the lead to 49-39 with three minutes left in the game.

But Coahoma put the game away on a jumper by White and a driving layup by Woods. From then on, Coahoma cruised in for the win.

Jackson turned in a good game for the Wolves by scoring eight points, grabbing 10 rebounds and collecting three steals. Ausbie had a good second half, scoring eight points and grabbing eight rebounds.

Coahoma is now 11-13 overall and finishes the first half of district play with a 2-4 mark. Colorado City falls to 3-18 overall and 1-5 in league play.

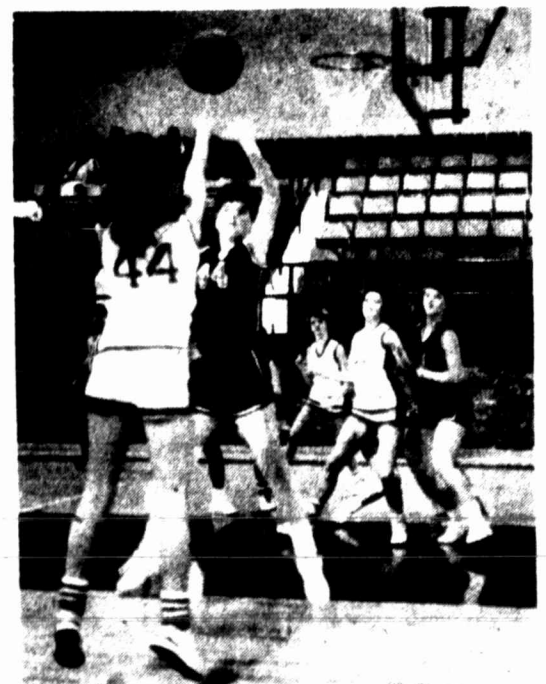

COAHOMA (59) — Dee Jon Douglass 6.3.15, Trey Gardner 1.0.2, James White 9.1.19, Anthony Hernandez 1.0.2, Butch Woods 2.2.6, Jimmy King 2.0.4, Lance Reid 0.2.2, Craig Wallace 4.0.8, Maury Maddox 0.1.1, C. Galliendo 0.2.2, totals 25.9.59

COLORADO CITY (43) — Marty Clecker 1.0.2, Terry Jackson 2.4.8, Kennon Norman 6.2.14, Pat Ridge 1.0.2, Paul Ausbie 3.2.8, Darwin Jackson 1.2.4, Larry Mays 2.0.4, Bubba Bailey 0.1.1, totals 16.11.43

The Coahoma Bulldoggettes had an easy time with the Lady Wolves, cruising to a 72-36 win.

The game was no contest from the start as Coahoma post player Shanna Fowler scored 18 of her game-high 24 points in the first half, as Coahoma held a 47-23 halftime lead. Jo Hudson and Paula Clanton took over scoring duties in the second half as Coahoma built its lead to 65-30 going into the final quarter.

Denise Lowrance led C-City with 13 points.

 in three Super Bowls and winning back-to-back championships in 1972 and 1973," Dolphins owner Joe Robbie said. "Larry is one of the greatest power runners of all time and Jim is as good as any pro
 center to have played the game."
 Greene was the enforcer on the defensive line that powered the Pittsburgh Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. "Mean Joe" was twice named the National Football League's Defensive Player of the Year and was chosen for the Pro
 Bowl 10 times in a 13-year career.
 "I didn't play pro football to make All-Pro or to make the Hall of Fame," Greene said. "I played to have fun and make a living. It would be a frail and weak existence
 if the purpose of playing was to achieve those goals. ... I'm just thankful that other people saw (my career) and that I was considered for this great honor."
 Steelers President Dan Rooney said, "He might have been the greatest leader I ever saw in the football business."
 Johnson, the recommended candidate of the Old-Timers Committee, rushed for 6,803 yards and 48
 touchdowns during a 13-year career with the San Francisco

49ers, Steelers and Houston Oilers.
 He rushed for more than 1,000 yards in both 1962 and 1964 with the Steelers, and was the leading rusher with the 1957 NFL champion Detroit Lions.
 "I really didn't give much thought to it when I was playing,"
 Johnson said of the Hall of Fame.
 "I began thinking about it more after I retired. When August (and induction ceremonies) comes around, I'm sure I'll be all pepped up about it. It's a nice thrill."
 Dawson became the third former Kansas City Chiefs player voted into the Hall, joining Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier. Dawson passed for 28,711 yards and 239 touchdowns during a 15-year career with the Steelers, Cleveland Browns, Dallas
 Texans and Chiefs. He led the Texans to the American Football League championship in 1962, winning league player of the year honors, then went on to be named the most valuable player in the 1970
 Super Bowl as the Chiefs upset the Minnesota Vikings 23-7.
 "It's terrific, it's the top. It doesn't get any better than making the Hall of Fame," said Dawson, who grew up in Alliance, Ohio, near Canton, where the Hall of Fame is located.

"I hope I don't have any trouble getting any tickets for the induction. I'm one of 11 children and I have a lot of relatives there."
 Upshaw, now the executive director of the National Football League Players Association, spent 15 years as a guard with the Oakland Raiders. The 6-5, 255-pound Upshaw played in three Super Bowls.
 Along with Jim Parker, Upshaw became one of only two guards from the modern era to be inducted. Upshaw was the fourth Raider — following George Blana-da, Jim Otto and Willie Brown — in the Hall.
 Maynard joins his old New York Jet battery-mate, Joe Namath, as the only former Jet players in the Hall of Fame. Maynard spent 15 seasons with the New York Giants,
 New York Titans, the Jets and the St. Louis Cardinals, catching 663 passes for 11,824 yards and 88
 touchdowns.
 "Sometimes I wonder why
 (former New York Giants) Charlie Connerly, Kyle Rote and some other great guys that haven't been named are not in there ahead of me," Maynard said. "It sometimes makes the person going in there feel a little bit embarrassed."

Hawks' nest

By LARRY BROWN
HC Hawks coach
 The second round of conference play begins at Odessa Thursday night. This will be our biggest game of the year thus far.
 We are fighting for a playoff spot and a loss to Odessa would hurt our chances, since they are the main other contender for that fourth spot. Our players will be well prepared and will play very hard.
 The team has progressed
 nicely since the season began.
 We want to improve every game
 so that we are playing our best at the crunch time. The tough non-conference schedule has helped to prepare us for now.
 Reflecting back on the Midland game — what an effort
 we had in the second half of that game! It was a remarkable fight to the end that has carried over into the Frank Phillips game and also gives us momentum into Odessa.
 I'm seeing a lot of improve-

LARRY BROWN

ment in the skills of our players.
 The addition of Walter Walker (grades) and Billy Giggins (injury) at semester has helped our team. Their play and leadership has really contributed. We will win or lose always as a TEAM. These guys can be as good as they want to be.
 I hope that we'll have a great show of support at Odessa, as it is so vital to our success. I'd like to thank the Hawk Club for all they have done for our players and Howard College.
 Best of luck to the Big Spring Steers and Coach Paxton in their quest for the playoffs.
 They have really got a team to be proud of. The Hawk-Queens and Lady Steers are destined for the playoffs. These teams all need fans in the stands to make it happen.
 Hawks' forward Billy Giggins
 says:
 "I would like to thank Coach
 Brown and the team for supporting me through my injury. I asked God to help me through the injury. I promised him that if he could give me a second chance to perform I would give all I've got every time I participate in anything. So in this semester of '87 that's my goal."

Charges may be dropped against Septien

DENTON (AP) — A 10-year-old girl who accused Dallas Cowboys kicker Rafael Septien of sexually assaulting her would like to drop the charges because
 "she is able to forgive and forget
 easily," the girl's mother said.
 However, Denton County
 District Attorney Jerry Cobb said Tuesday that the case has already gone through the grand jury and that his office will continue to pursue the charges,
 despite the mother's comments.
 Septien, 33, was indicted
 Thursday by a Denton County
 grand jury on a charge of aggravated sexual assault of a child. Officials said the assault was reported to have occurred Dec. 27 at a residence in The Colony where Septien was living.

The Colony is a residential area in Denton County about 25 miles north of Dallas.
 "She (the 10-year-old girl) is worried about the publicity about him because of who he is," the mother said. "She's just a kid.
 She is able to forgive and forget easily. She says we can still be friends with him, but it is hard for me, too. I don't want to be friends anymore."
 Septien and his attorneys have maintained that he is innocent.
 He surrendered to the Denton County sheriff's department the day of his indictment and was released on $10,000 bond.
 Septien, at a news conference
 on Friday at his attorneys' office, called the accusation a "total misunderstanding." He said he had met with the parents and thought they had agreed not to pursue the case.

 The mother said Tuesday that Septien visited their home two days before he was indicted.
 "He came and talked to us. He acted so sincere, and we wanted to put it away because of the publicity. We didn't want to mess up his whole life. We told him we would probably think about it,"
 she told The Dallas Morning News.
 She added, "But it is not just me and my family. I don't want no one else hurt."
 Cobb said Tuesday he is concerned about the attempts by reporters to interview the girl or her parents.
 Arraignment for Septien has tentatively been set for Feb. 6.

Steers

 19 of 34 foul shots for 56 percent, a drop from their recent performances.
 Paxton said he thought Pecos'
 last place standing and the loss of Young may have hurt the Steers' intensity, but he wasn't too upset.
 "It's one out of the way. Now we've got seven more to go. I'll take it any way we can get it," Paxton said.

He praised the play of Lopez and also of Tyrone Foster, who also saw action in place of Young.
 The Steers upped their record to 7-2 in district and 15-9 overall.
 Pecos is 1-9 and 6-13.
 In the J.V. game, Doug Young scored 13, Abner Shellman 14 and Tony Spears had 11 points to lead the Steers to a 68-39 whipping over the Eagles. The J.V. record is 4-5 in district and 7-14 overall.

Big Spring will host San Angelo Lake View Friday night at 7:30 in Steer Gym. JV action begins at 6.
BIG SPRING (95) — Mayfield 9-8-26,

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RIGNER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR THURSDAY, JAN. 29, 1987

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today's new moon brings you the chance to get out from under some confusing conditions. Progressive friends can be very helpful to you.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) First, get rid of that annoying responsibility. Later concentrate on how to gain your cherished wishes.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Soothe a demanding associate. Get into more modern activities at this time and make good progress.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get that annoying work behind you and then delve into new outlets. Listen to the ideas of new contacts.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Find a more modern system through which you can get your business interests improved.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) As soon as you complete a task at home, contact a prominent friend and join in some long-term activity.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you find it hard to answer a communication, get your surroundings in better order.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You can gain much happiness from a recreational activity you engage in with congenials today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Invite talented persons into your home after your personal duties are done. Add a streamlined look to your abode.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get rid of some worry and later you can get your ideas across to others in a most brilliant manner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Be certain to add new ideas to whatever you are thinking of doing regarding your home and assets.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Handle a worldly affair this morning and then go after what you desire in a most dynamic manner.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Use more modern methods and you can soon become more successful. Take your mate out for amusements.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those fascinating young people who is a product of the New Era and should be educated in the most modern schools. Don't try to change your progeny in any way or much of the fine promise here may be quickly eradicated.

Many volunteers are responsible for local Junior Livestock Show

By DON RICHARDSON
County Extension Agent
The Howard County Junior Livestock Show are just completed. Who is responsible for putting this event on?

A group of volunteer men and women from throughout the county who serve as a board of directors is responsible for the livestock show. The board selects superintendents of the various divisions who in turn select their own assistants and committeemen.

These directors develop show rules and regulations, set up for the show, assist during the show, seek community assistance for the premium auction and do the cleanup afterwards.

Officers for the organization are Ronnie Wood, president; Bob Nichols, vice president; Bruce Griffith, treasurer; and Don Richardson serves ex-officio as recording secretary. Vocational Agricultural Teachers, and County Extension Agents serve in an advisory capacity.

I have had bad luck with trying to grow tomatoes here in Big Spring. Are some varieties more tolerant to our harsh conditions than others?

They certainly are!! Tomatoes are by far the favorite garden vegetable local gardeners try to produce, but unfortunately they often have the most problems.

Varieties do make a difference. Tomato fruit set is very sensitive and West Texas growing conditions tomatoes quite difficult with extremes in temperature and humidity make the culture of

One variety that has consistently performed well in Howard County is the new hybrid, Celebrity. It matures in 70 days with strong plants that are resistant to Verticillium, Fusarium I and II wilts, tobacco mosaic virus and root-knot nematodes. It is a heavy fruit set of medium-sized, globe-shaped red fruits are crack-resistant averaging about 7 oz. It is an all-purpose variety with firm flesh and good flavor.

Going Bald? Try This, At No Risk

HOUSTON, Texas — if you are gradually going bald, obviously, something is causing your hair loss to be greater than the growth. It stands to reason that if you can reduce your hair loss to where it is less than the growth... you can stop the balding process... and gradually thicken your hair.

It is a known fact that "sebum" which is discharged through the sebaceous glands in the scalp can cause excessive hair loss. The symptoms of a sebum problem are: greasy forehead; dandruff; dry or oily; itchy scalp; and if your hair pulls out easily on top of your head. If you have one or more of these symptoms, sebum could be the cause of your problem.

A firm of laboratory consultants has developed a scientifically advanced formula and regimen to remove and control the continuous discharge of toxic sebum, so the scalp can function normally and effectively. This, in turn, greatly reduces excessive hair loss... and, helps promote natural cell production.

Extensive research with this regimen shows that some people stopped the balding process and thickened their hair, and, some just reduced their hair loss. However, the average of all cases shows that this regimen stops or reduces excessive hair loss, whereby, it takes 8 times longer to become bald. If it usually takes about 10 years to become bald, it would take the average person 80 years if they used this regimen.

This scientific regimen has proven so successful the firm invites you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself.

Experts believe that the majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if your hair loss is caused or affected by sebum, here is help.

Everyone has a full head of hair until some time after puberty. In the case of hair loss caused by "sebum" the problem starts when the male hormone production reaches its peak. This causes an excessive discharge of toxic sebum, which if not properly controlled, will gradually destroy the hair-producing cells on top of the head.

Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair-producing cells are destroyed, you are beyond help.

So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop or delay the balding process for up to 80 years... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days... at their risk... if you have the sebum symptoms and are not already slick bald. Just send them the information below. Or, call them toll-free at 1-800-231-7157 (in Texas 1-800-833-8387) 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday thru Thursday, and they will send complete information. Your reply places you under no obligation whatsoever. ADV.

White-tail deer and Minnesotans

By H. BOYCE HALE
Did you ever pay a large sum, hunt your heart out, and never see a deer?

Have you ever cursed your bad luck, and said, "I'll never hunt again."

Many years ago, I would hunt day after day and not kill a deer. I would come home and complain to my wife over and over. I would swear that I was wasting time and money, then vow, "never again."

But as time passed, the disappointment would fade, and I would get the urge to hunt again the next season.

Not wanting to be unsuccessful, I visited a hunter friend who said, "You just don't know how to hunt!"

"Me?" I shot back, "I've been hunting a long time."

"I know, but how many deer have you killed?" he asked.

"Well, I got one." Then I asked, "what can I do to help my hunting?"

"For one thing, you need to think like a deer," he said, and he began to tell me about his experiences. Further, he suggested that I get all the literature about white-tailed deer that I could find.

Through the University Extension Library in Austin, I obtained several articles on white-tailed hunting, plus the name of a book on the subject.

I ordered "The World of the White-Tailed Deer" by Leonard Lee Rue III from J.B. Lippincott Co. of Philadelphia, Pa. This book put details the habits of the white-tailed deer from its birth to its death, including information on their play, sleep and breeding as well as their preferences in food and bedding places.

Although the author talks primarily of deer in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, you will be delighted to know our deer have the same basic habits.

According to the January 1987 issue of the Texas Parks & Wildlife magazine, Texas has about 4 million white-tailed deer. Although that's a lot, your chances for success and for getting that trophy buck will be enhanced by knowing their habits.

Snowbirds come to Texas from a variety of places, including Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and Minneapolis.

Many are people who "fly" south each year in their motor homes or travel trailers to spend the winter in south Texas.

One such flock passed through Big Spring recently, and while they were having lunch at a local fast-food place, I was attracted by their Scandinavian accent. I introduced myself.

BOYCE HALE

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hargreaves from Clontarf, Minn., were on their way to Weslaco.

"How is the hunting and fishing up your way?" I asked. "I counted 40 deer in our hay meadow the morning we left," Clarence said with pride.

Mrs. Hargreaves added, "In the summer we catch walleye, perch, northern pike and smallmouth bass by the hundreds."

Before I could interrupt and tell them about our great striper fishing at Lake Spence, she asked if we had any deer down here.

"You bet," I shot back, "and we have a lot of them."

Looking straight into my eyes, Clarence said, "Sure doesn't look like deer could live in this desert."

"Desert," I almost shouted, "no way. But if I had to admit that it gets real dry at times."

Clarence knew he had hit a sore spot, so he asked, "Do you know how a person in the oil business can become a millionaire around Big Spring?"

"No, but I would like to know," I replied.

"Simple," he responded, "you start with a billion dollars."

I smiled, shook a goodbye and wished them a safe journey. I wonder why I didn't think of that.

A few days ago, I receive a letter from the Hargreaves and they are enjoying the winter at Weslaco. Enclosed in their letter was a dollar bill with a simple request.

If you write about Minnesota, would you please send us a copy. You bet I will.

Readers who have information to submit for use in this column may contact Hale by writing to Sterling City Rt. Box 1574, Big Spring, 79721 or calling 267-6957.

Don't move if you're in doubt

By NAOMI HUNT
County Extension Agent
With the current oversupply of rental housing in some areas of Texas, moving up to a larger apartment or a new neighborhood may seem like a good idea.

But before you commit yourself to renting a particular house or apartment, take some time to determine if you can really afford the rent.

Start by looking at your regular monthly take-home pay and estimating monthly expenses, including an amount for savings and irregular expenses.

Subtract your expenses from your take-home pay. Then reduce this amount by about 10%. This will give you an estimated housing allowance, or about what financial advisors recommend spending for housing expenses.

The next step is to compare what you can afford with some typical costs for the rental units you are considering. Be sure to figure in utilities, insurance and other fees that are not covered by rent.

If the monthly housing costs are higher than what you can afford, consider some alternatives. Can you reduce or eliminate some expenses to afford the housing you want?

Would you consider a roommate to share housing costs? Would the landlord reduce your rent in exchange for help with maintenance? Or do you need to reconsider your choice in favor of a less expensive option?

When the monthly housing costs are in line with what you can afford, there is still one more set of expenses to consider. What will it cost you to actually move in? These expenses could include utility deposits; security, cleaning, pet or damage deposits; or a month's rent in advance.

Unless you have savings or other income to cover these fees, you may still have difficulty affording the house or apartment.

If you are in doubt about supporting a "new place", postponing a move until you have more resources may be a sound financial decision.

RENTER'S INSURANCE IS IMPORTANT
Your landlord's insurance policy covers the structure only and not your personal belongings as a renter. That's why a tenants or renters policy is useful. It insures the contents of your rental unit and your personal possessions against perils such as fire and lightning, wind and hail, explosion, smoke, vandalism and theft. It may also provide for personal liability protection and medical payments to others.

Couple honored with showers

Shannon Mullen and Paul Nabors, to wed Jan. 31 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, have been honored on several occasions this week.

A "Come and Go" shower was hosted for the bride-elect at the home of Pat Leatherman on Jan. 20.

Hostesses for the shower, Pat Leatherman, Jacque Hendricks, Linda Rutledge, Gail Zilai, Agnes Rutledge and Debbie Gunn, gave Mullen a copper tea kettle.

Special guests were Dottie Mullen, mother of the bride-elect, and Bettye Nabors, mother of the prospective bridegroom. A barbeque at the Big Spring Country Club honored the couple on Jan. 22.

Hosts for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gossett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom South and Mrs. and Mrs. R.H. Weaver.

They presented the couple with a barbeque grill.

A miscellaneous shower was hosted for the bride-elect on Jan. 24 at the home of Linda Elrod.

BUSINESS & INDUSTRY REVIEW

Now's time to get to work on spring yard and garden

If you want to have a beautiful yard this spring and summer, now is the time to get busy.

1. Now is the time to set out winter bedding plants for color and decoration. Green Acres has a big shipment of pansies, that traditional flowering favorite. Their bright "faces" bloom profusely from now until hot weather. Green Acres also has a supply of Flowering Cabbage (or Ornamental Kale) to plant now.

2. January and February are perfect months to plant bare root fruit and shade trees while they are dormant. Green Acres has a good supply of the most popular trees for this area. Fertilize established trees and water in very deep.

3. In your spare time, work mulch into your beds or garden area. Then they'll be ready when it's time to put out seasonal seeds or bedding plants.

4. Now's the time to spray dormant plants with oil mixed with diazinon or a general purpose spray. Green Acres can help you with spraying supplies and advice on using them.

5. If your trees or shrubs have dead limbs or need shaping, this is the time to attend to these tasks while plants are dormant. Call Green Acres for a free estimate by experienced trimmers.

Green Acres has recently added a Country Gift niche filled with unique country decorative items, plus a new supply of silk flowers, attractively priced.

Remember to take advantage of Green Acres floral gift delivery service when you need to convey sympathy, "get well" wishes, congratulations or other sentiments. Phone 267-8932.

Green Acres Nursery is located at 700 East 17th. Debra says, "We're hard to find, but worth it."

IS YOUR YARD LOOKING "BLAH"? — Bright velvety pansies will add a touch of color (even in snow!) in your beds and pots from now until warm weather. Debra Lusk at Green Acres Nursery shows a planting of pansies in a large patio pot.
