118-day strike ends

BURBANK, Calif. — A bitter 118-day strike against NBC ended Saturday when two holdout units representing about 50 members of a broadcaster workers' union voted to accept the network's final contract offer.

Picket lines around the nation were pulled about 3 p.m. EDT after members of the units approved the contract on a second vote, said Carrie Biggs-Adams, president of Local 53 of the National Association of Broadcast Employees.

However, it was unclear when the union's 2,800 employees would return to work at NBC, which has 10 days to notify workers of when they will be needed, she said.

Iran ban considered

WASHINGTON — President Reagan is nearing a decision on whether to order an outright ban on U.S. trade with Iran, administration officials said Saturday.

Although no final decision has been made yet, one official said Saturday, Reagan is believed ready to sign an executive order, perhaps as early as Monday, carrying out the recommendation of advisers that imports and exports between the United States and Iran be stopped.

A list of options for bringing economic sanctions to bear against the revolutionary government of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini was given to Reagan last week by a team of advisers, including those in the national security and economic areas of specialty.

AIDS found in '69 death

CHICAGO — Doctors believe a St. Louis teen-ager who died in 1969 was infected with the same virus that causes AIDS, 10 years before the first AIDS cases appeared in male homosexuals in New York City, a newspaper reports.

Doctors were so perplexed by the death of a 15-year-old patient identified only as Robert R. that some of them saved samples of his body fluids and tissues for nearly two decades, hoping to find the reasons for his death. The Chicago Tribune reported in a copyright story in its Sunday editions.

Siamese twins better

BALTIMORE — Benjamin Binder began breathing on his own Friday, and doctors reported that both he and his Siamese twin brother, Patrick, were gaining weight rapidly as they recovered from surgery that separated them.

The German twins, joined at the back of the head until doctors completed a 22-hour operation on Sept. 6, were in critical but stable condition Friday with no major problems.

Kuwait

Explosion hits Pan Am office

KUWAIT (AP) — An explosion wrecked a Pan Am sales office Saturday, two days after pro-Iranian Shiite Moslems in Lebanon vowed to strike at U.S. and European interests worldwide with thousands of suicide bombers.

No one was injured in the blast at 2:15 p.m. at Al-Gharbally Travel, which handles sales for U.S.-based Pan American World Airways. It came hours after Kuwait's emir, Sheik Jaber al-Ahmed al-Sabah, presided over a full Cabinet meeting in the nearby Sief Palace.

An Iranian speedboat meanwhile attacked a Greek-owned tanker in the Persian Gulf and set it ablaze. Iranian warships seized a Norwegian car carrier in the Strait of Hormuz, the gateway to the gulf, and searched it for Iraqi-bound cargo.

No one immediately claimed responsibility for bombing the Pan Am office. The office, which had a large Pan Am sign in front, had been closed for the afternoon.

The state-controlled Kuwait News Agency quoted an Interior Ministry source as saying the blast was caused by an "explosive charge" that had been placed outside the building.

It followed three Iranian missile attacks on Kuwaiti oil facilities in eight days and a U.S. attack on Iranian oil platforms. In May, a bomb at the Kuwait office of Trans World Airlines killed a Yemeni employee.

After the Cabinet meeting, the government issued a statement condemning Iran's "irresponsible acts of aggression" against the small, oil-rich nation on the northern end of the gulf.

In Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, foreign ministers of the Gulf Cooperation Council, which includes Kuwait and five other Arab Gulf states, discussed a unified stand in support of Kuwait against Iranian attacks.

Rashed Abdullah, United Arab Emirates minister of state for foreign affairs and conference chairman, condemned the Iranian attacks as a "vile aggression" against a country that was not party to the seven-year Iran-Iraq war.

In the southern gulf, the Greek-owned, 38,000-ton Prosperventure 1 was anchored off the port of Dubai with six holes along its starboard side, witnesses said.

A crew member of the petroleum products carrier, the Panamanian-registered Prosperventure L., examines one of the shell holes in the ships' superstructure. Iranian speedboats attacked the ship in the early hours of Saturday morning. In related news, the inset shows the location of Kuwait where an explosion ripped through the building housing Pan American World Airways offices downtown Saturday.

Police fight students

TAEGU, South Korea — Protesters hurled rocks, firebombs and tear gas grenades Saturday at government presidential candidate Roh Tae-woo, and riot police fought students trying to disrupt his campaign rally.

One firebomb burst into yellow flames on the ground about 10 feet from Roh's car in Taegu, 140 miles southeast of Seoul. Police charged into the crowd and seized some of the attackers.

Protesters threw more tear gas grenades at Roh a few minutes later as he entered a gymnasium to address a rally, but he was able to slip inside.

Shultz ready to sign

BRUSSELS, Belgium — The United States will sign a treaty with the Soviet Union to ban intermediate-range nuclear weapons even without a superpower summit, Secretary of State George P. Shultz said Saturday.

"I think it would be good to have it at a summit, but if there isn't a summit to do it in a timely fashion, we'll look for some other way to do it," Shultz told a news conference after briefing NATO foreign ministers on his talks Thursday and Friday with Soviet leaders in Moscow.

Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev on Friday unexpectedly refused to set a date for a summit meeting with President Reagan at which the leaders had planned to sign a nuclear missile accord.

Children die in fire

HIGHBRIDGE, England — Fire apparently set off by a gas explosion killed four of five children alone in a house while their parents were out for the night, police said.

A 12-year-old girl, who was baby-sitting the younger children, survived the blaze, which broke out late Friday night in a row house in this western England village.

Police said the 12-year-old had fallen asleep while her parents were out and was awakened by an explosion in the kitchen. She saw flames coming from the area of a gas-fueled boiler and ran next door for help.

Peace talks failing

CARACAS, Venezuela — Talks aimed at achieving a cease-fire in El Salvador's 8-year-old civil war broke down amid bitter accusations, dealing another setback to the new Central American peace plan.

Government and rebel representatives on Friday ended three days of talks by agreeing to meet again next week in Mexico. But each delegation also held a separate news conference to accuse the other of sabotaging the talks.

Actor begins phobia society

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Actor Elliott Gould, star of a new film about a man who fears leaving his Manhattan apartment, helped open a meeting Friday of the 7,000-member Phobia Society of America.

"Everybody's got the same problem," Gould said, "learning to live with life, with oneself ... learning to accept the conditions that came with the package."

Gould's movie, "Inside Out," deals with a man whose ailment in real life — agoraphobia — tortures thousands of people. They share a class of disorders known as phobias that comprise "the number one mental health problem" in America, according to the society.

The 49-year-old actor confided to a crowded news conference that he is an only child who was touched by fear, "because I didn't know how to deal with the reality of lack of harmony in this world, the lack of respect."

Gould said he was able to conquer his fear by learning to understand himself through the characters he played on the screen, adding, "there are a lot of answers, and we have to learn the questions together."

Truckdrivers give opinion of new road safety law

By SARAH LUMAN
Staff Writer

A new federal law regulating commercial drivers sparked sharp comments from truckdrivers surveyed at the Rip Griffin truckstop here Tuesday.

The Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 went into effect July 1 this year.

"We cover 100,000 miles a year, or more like 150,000," commercial driver Robert Raborn said. He drives for Thrasher Trucking. "For my part, the new law is doing a lot of good on some things. But the DOT's (Department of Transportation) pushing the bull—, really. So much of it's uncalled for."

"Like in Tennessee," Raborn said. "You might get inspected when you cross the border, then they may inspect you four or five more times before you get across the state. That's two hours or more, if they want to hold you. And that cuts into my part (of the money)."

"I'm one of the first to agree that they need to get the drugs off the road," he said.

"A lot of the law will do things they need to do, get people off the road who shouldn't be driving and stop the drugs," he continued. "I just think they're letting the inspections overrun everything else that's more important."

"People need to get their rest," Raborn said, "and get off dope ... then there's the logbook — everybody knows a logbook is a lie. A logbook is a lie from the time you get up in the morning until the time you go to bed at night."

Houston-based driver Mike Olen resents the law's cutting into driver earnings. "It's unconstitutional," he said. "We drive 100,000 miles a year, and we're supposed to do everything these clowns who drive maybe 5,000 miles a year do."

Olen, who owns his own truck, also objects to the single-license provision. "It's not right. I've always had a few (different state licenses). You've got to, because every state varies. Like in some states you have a 50-mph speed limit for trucks, in some states it's 55 in the daytime and 50 at night, and in some it's 65 on the Interstates and 55 everywhere else.

"When you make your money by the mile," he said, "you can't make a living if they're going to pull your license on the second ticket."

"If they can't get enough drivers now," Olen said, "What's going to happen in two years? I haven't heard a lot of talk about it yet, because I don't think people believe it yet."

Other features of the law appealed to some drivers.

"I think it's a good idea, if they're going to enforce it," said El Paso-based driver Mike Sanders. "Especially the hazardous materials. I've heard talk around home that they're going to crack down on that and I think it's great.

"Even in El Paso we've had some pretty good spills (of hazardous material)," Sanders, who drives for Kessler Transportation, said. "On that single-license thing, I think that's a great idea too. That's going to get a lot of them off the road that don't need to be out here, no way."

Truckdriver Eddie Shapiro, whose license is from New Jersey, agreed. "That's OK. If their license is suspended in another state, like in Rhode Island, for something — say driving under the influence or whatever — then suspending the license everywhere's got merit. That will stop some of the hopping around from state to state with different licenses."

Drivers agree with Texas Department of Public Safety Inspector Johnny M. Cowan that uniform standards and enforcement are badly needed.

Cowan said Texas Department of Public Safety officers are not enforcing the law yet because while it is a federal law, it is not yet part of the state's law. Cowan said the law does not define important terms as written.

He expects changes in the law before Texas adopts it, he said, citing possible exemptions for agricultural (such as grain or seed hauling) operations and recreational vehicle drivers.

Only federal officers are authorized to enforce the law in Texas now, Cowan said.

Current concerns among surveyed drivers center mainly on transportation department inspectors, who can interpret the regulations according to their own judgment, the drivers say.

"It's a bunch of bullcrap, if you ask me," said Norman Whittenburg, a driver from Athens. "They're just making it so rough on the truckers that we ain't going to be able to run anymore."

Whittenburg said he would like to see a truckers' strike in response to the new regulations. "I hope every truck in the United States shuts down," he said, "and people start to starve to death."

"Now, as far as the thing of getting these people off the road for driving on dope and that kind of stuff, sure, I'm all for that," Whittenburg said. "I think they ought to shake down every truck in the country. They can shake mine down right now."

James Miller, a driver from Jackson, Miss., agreed. "It'll be a good thing if they'll get the dope off the road," he said. "It's a hard way to make a living, you work 24 hours a day seven days a week and get everybody rich but yourself. But there's some bad drivers in trucks, just like there are some bad drivers in the four-wheelers."

"It's just like a coin, there's two sides to it," he said. "I think it'll be a good thing if they just allow one license, it'll cut down on the speeding if they can't use three or four licenses. That, and if they can get the dope off the road, it'll be the best thing they've ever done."

New law

an accident in a truck," he said.

"Now, because of this new law, when I get my second ticket my license is suspended," he said. "I lose my job. I lose my way of making a living for my wife and boys."

Wanner referred to the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986. According to Texas Department of Public Safety Inspector Johnny M. Cowan, the new federal law has not yet been adopted by the Texas state legislature.

"We (DPS officers) are not enforcing it as yet," Cowan said Tuesday. "It is a federal law, and the federal highway division is administering and enforcing it."

That bothers David Wanner, who said the law is being enforced differently in every state and is too open to interpretation by individual inspectors.

"In Texas," Wanner says, "they may let me get by with this (second) ticket now. But up in Pocatello, Idaho, one weekend I drove 27 trucks from the scale house to the truckstop for drivers because the DOT inspectors had ticketed them for suspended licenses, and they couldn't move their trucks."

Wanner also complained that he could not find out what kinds of tickets would be counted toward the suspension. He said he could not find out whether his wife, who retains a Class A driver's license from driving with him as a team but no longer drives a truck, would be affected.

Cowan explained the difference in enforcement between Texas and Idaho. "Other states may already have adopted the new federal law as part of their state law," he said. "But in Texas we haven't. It will probably be adopted by the next legislature in '89. Then we'll be enforcing it too, but as of now it's just the federal highway men who have the authority."

"It's going to shut some of them (the drivers) down," Cowan said. "Of course, we still don't have the federal government's definition of a serious traffic offense. But at some point, yes, it will include speeding."

"Ten miles in excess of the speed limit or 15 miles in excess, we don't know yet. But that will be one of the federal definitions; we (in Texas) are waiting for them to clarify so many of these undefined terms before it becomes part of the state law."

Cowan added that until the legislature formally adopts the measure, enforcement in Texas can be done only on a federal officer's order. Federal inspectors sometimes are present at DPS weigh stations, he said, and the DPS welcomes the federal officers and assists them when needed.

Wanner claims suspension of a commercial license for two tickets within three years is unrealistic, considering the mileage he must drive every year.

"You probably don't drive more than 10,000 miles in a year, if you're like the average person. Yet you have what, three or four tickets before you could lose your license," Wanner said, "and you don't depend on your driving for your living."

"I called (Rep. Charles) Stenholm's office in Washington Monday, and even they'd never even heard of this law. I think people ought to know more about what's going on. I'd like to see the word get out so the professional drivers can know what they're up against."

Wanner said although he thought the law had merit in some areas, such as getting drivers off the road for drug infractions, he did not agree with its stringency.

"I want to see the dope off the road as much as anybody," Wanner said. "I drive on the road, my wife and kids drive down the road; I don't want them to be hurt; I don't want to see anybody hurt."

"I'm just trying to save my driver's license," he said. "It's going to cost me $1,000 to go to California and fight this (ticket). My lawyer says I should make a court appearance, so I'll have to fly out there and fly back."

Steers power by Eagles, 28-15

Big Spring Steers running back Charles White (22) struggles to get away from a Pecos defender in second half action Friday night in 2-4A action at Memorial Stadium. White led all rushers with 134 yards in 29 carries.

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Editor

The name-of-the-football game was ball control and the Big Spring Steers did it well. The Steers controlled the ball and the Pecos Eagles while rolling to a 28-15 win Friday night at Memorial Stadium.

The Steers took control of the game in the second half and simply outmuscled the feisty Eagles. Trailing 15-6 at the half, Big Spring pulled to within 15-14 going into the final quarter, and then ground out two final period TD's to secure the win.

It was power football at its best. Time after time, Steer runners Charles White, Bruce Jones and Kenneth Banks banged away at the Pecos defense, until it finally crumbled. The Big Spring defense, led by defensive tackle Steve Raines, and hard-hitting linebackers Banks and Matt Burrow, completely stifled Pecos and its slippery quarterback Bobby Ray Smith.

Smith and Co. gave the Steers a few problems in the first half, but the second half belonged to a stingy Steers defense and Big Spring's power power offensive game. After holding a 155-132 halftime lead in total yards, the Pecos offense gained only 20 yards the second half and didn't manage a first down.

In the first half Pecos ran 32 offensive plays to Big Spring's 24. In the second half, the Steers' offense had the ball for 18 of the 24 minutes, and ran 37 plays to Pecos' 18.

Just as important, Big Spring fumbled three times, and lost only one, that coming in the kicking game. A far cry from the 25 fumbles in the previous three games.

"It was power football," said a happy Steers' coach Quinn Eudy after the game. "We didn't run many options. We had decided early in the week that we were going to run right at them."

"I can't say enough about our defensive effort. In the first half we were playing the quarterback too soft, giving him too much room. At halftime our coaches made a good adjustment. We forced him and played him hard. They didn't get a first down in the half, and that speaks for itself."

In its opening drive of the game, Big Spring gave a preview of what to expect the remainder of the game.

St. Louis Cardinal runner Willie McGee watches Minnesota Twins first baseman Kent Hrbek scoop up a ball to put him out at first on a close play in World Series action in Game Six. The Twins defeated the Cardinals 11-5, forcing game seven Sunday night in Minnesota. The winner of that game will be the World Series champion.

Twins force game seven

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — It was blast of a homecoming for the Minnesota Twins and a blast from the past for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Kent Hrbek's grand slam highlighted a 15-hit barrage as the Twins came in from the cold and pounded St. Louis 11-5 Saturday, forcing the World Series to a seventh game.

The Twins, dead on five runs and 18 hits while losing three straight at chilly St. Louis, came alive inside the Metrodome, where they scored 18 runs on 21 hits in winning the first two games.

"I have no idea what it is. If I knew what it was, I'd take it on the road," Twins Manager Tom Kelly said.

Minnesota, with the best home record in baseball at 61-25 — including a 5-0 mark in postseason — will start ace Frank Viola in Game 7 Sunday night. The Cardinals, the top road team in the majors, will start rookie Joe Magrane.

This is the fifth time in Series history the home team has won each of the first six games. Never has the home team then won Game 7.

"The ballpark didn't beat us today. We had a 5-2 lead." Cardinals Manager Whitey Herzog said. "We couldn't keep the ball in the ballpark. That was the problem."

John Tudor and the Cardinals took a three-run lead into the bottom of the fifth before Don Baylor's two-run homer made it 5-5.

"It happened so quick. Bang-bang, it was tied," Herzog said.

The Twins went ahead later in the fifth and Hrbek hit his slam in the sixth.

"I wish I could've run around the bases twice instead of once," said Hrbek, who had gone 3-for-20 in the American League playoffs and was just 4-for-20 in the Series before connecting.

Tom Brunansky's RBI grounder in the eighth completed the comeback, and brought back the demons that haunted the Cardinals two years ago. In 1985, St. Louis lost Game 6 of the World Series on umpire Don Denkinger's bad call in the ninth inning at Kansas City and then Tudor was shelled in losing Game 7.

Now, the Cardinals need to win where they have been crushed three times. Not an easy task. "We haven't played here that much," Herzog said. "But I'm sure there are other clubs who feel that way."

The Cardinals have taken a 3-2 lead seven times in their Series history, but only once did they win Game 6. Four times, they went on to win the seventh game.

With an 8-2 record, St. Louis is the best Game 7 team in baseball history. The New York Yankees and Pittsburgh each have won five Game 7s.

The Cardinals made the mistake of getting into a slugfest with Minnesota. The Twins' lineup, bolstered with Baylor as the designated hitter, was overpowering.

"We got runs today, but we couldn't get them out," Herzog said.

Nor could the Cardinals get out of the Metrodome.

"The only difference is we were at home," said Kirby Puckett, who took extra batting practice and went 4-for-4 with a walk and stolen base.

Later in the quarter, Sweetwater drew to within 7-6 on a three-yard run by Larry Healer.

Sweetwater took the lead on a 45-yard field goal by Louis Rose at the start of the fourth quarter. The final two Sweetwater TD's came on a 19-yard run by Kenneth Norman, and a 22-yard run by Ernie Munoz.

Norman and Munoz rushed for 156 and 108 yards respectively.

Charles Thompson led Monahans with 86 yards in 16 carries.

The Mustangs improve to 6-1 overall and 5-1 in district play. Monahans falls to 6-1, 5-1.

SAN ANGELO — The previously winless Snyder Tigers came away with an upset victory over the San Angelo Lake View Chiefs Friday night.

It was too much Randy Morris for the Chiefs. The Snyder defensive back picked up two blocked punts and returns them

The Tornados, now 1-4 in league play and 3-4 overall, took a 14-0 halftime lead, and held off the 18-point favorites. Lamesa's Jim Horton caught touchdown passes of 14 and 26 yards from Santos Moreno, and running backs Tim Demerson and Gerry Woodberry busted two long runs to key the victory. Woodberry scored from 73 yards out, and Demerson scored from 81 yards.

Fort Stockton wide receiver Joe Parks caught TD passes of 44 and 34 yards. Mike Nix scored on runs of eight and three yards.

Fort Stockton falls to 4-2 in district play and 6-2 overall.

Andrews sweeps dual swim meet

The Andrews High School swim teams bested the Big Spring High School swim teams in dual swim action Saturday afternoon at the Big Spring YMCA.

The Andrews boys took a commanding 66-12 point victory over Big Spring. The girls competition was a closer, with Andrews coming out on top 36-27.

Mark Lynch led the Big Spring boys with two second place finishes. Lynch was second in the 200 freestyle and 100 yard breaststroke. Johnny Webb placed second in the 500 yard freestyle. Webb also finished third in the 160 individual medley.

Amber Thompson and Janie Gonzales were first place winners for the Lady Steer girls. Thompson won the 100 yard butterfly and Gonzales won the 100 breaststroke. Thompson also finished second in the 60 freestyle and Gonzales was second in the 160 individual

Forsan takes care of Stanton, 22-12

Staff Writer

STANTON — The District 6-2A Buffalo battle here Friday night didn't really open up until the second half. Forsan scored first and last in its two-touchdown victory, with Stanton's lone score coming in the third quarter. The final score: Forsan 22, Stanton 12.

Forsan put the first points on the board with just over two minutes left in the half. Brant Nichols passed to Tracy Hudgins in the right flat for four yards and the touchdown. Steven East added the point after.

Forsan quarterback Brant Nichols (10) cuts upfield against the Stanton defense during first half action Friday night in Stanton. Defending on the play for Stanton are Skip Hopkins (20), Rusty White (84) and Robert Schoolcraft (52).

Stanton's final score came with 6:10 left in the game. Quarterback Skip Hopkins kept the ball on third and goal from the three. Jerry Sutton and Mike Self combined to sack Hopkins during the extra point attempt, shutting down Stanton scoring.

Stanton's first TD came in the third quarter, a 29-yard pass from Hopkins to Carlos Ortiz.

Forsan added touchdowns on runs by Nichols and halfback Stacy Munoz in the second half. East kicked an extra point and tight end Ruben Holguin caught a pass for two more to give Forsan 22 total points.

After winning the toss, Stanton started decently enough at its own 36. Quarterback Hopkins handed off to halfback Steve Scurlark for a quick five yards — then the bottom fell out. Hopkins' first pass, meant for tight end Rusty White, went incomplete.

He tried again, only to have Forsan's Charles Newton intercept. The sophomore halfback's steal gave the Buffaloes a first and ten at Stanton's 40-yard line.

But the Buff defense held its ground, and three plays later Forsan's Brant Nichols had to punt. The ball went out of bounds at Stanton's three.

Two handoffs to Robert Jones gave Stanton third and three. Hopkins kept the ball for a first down, running into Shay Howard and Bandy Bryan at the 17. A penalty stalled the drive by negating a pass to Carlos Ortiz. Set back to their own 10, the Buffaloes suffered a loss on the next play, then saw a pass broken up. Randy Esparza punted from his 12.

Nichols tried the middle with Munoz from just inside Stanton territory. Kevin Barnes put a stop to that. On the next play Hector Ramirez and Reggie Franklin shut down Hudgins; an incomplete pass later, Nichols had to punt again.

Hopkins handed off to Jones, who gained a yard before Chris Marquez, Shay Howard and Mike Averette walled him in at the 21-yard line.

An incomplete pass later, Marquez and Billy Massengill sacked Hopkins, forcing a punt from the 15. Holguin caught it at midfield, bringing it back to the 46 before Lance Jenkins brought him down.

Forsan ran to fourth and inches on carries from Nichols, Stephen East and Munoz. Nichols sneaked the first down before Robert Schoolcraft stopped him at the Stanton 34.

The first quarter ended with the defense still strong. Forsan needed less than a yard on third down from the 26, and on the first play of the second period Nichols ran to the 21.

On fourth down and four from the 14, though, Nichols' pass to Holguin was caught out of bounds, giving the ball back to Stanton. Two plays later a clipping penalty stunned the Buffaloes, setting them back to their own eight. Holguin, Clanton and Massengill combined to stop Jones on third and 17, forcing a punt. Bryan ran back 11 yards to give Forsan a first and ten on the Stanton 29.

With 7:38 left in the half, Nichols passed to Newton. George Reyna and Rusty White stopped him on the 27. Munoz earned four yards; Jeff Hall trapped Hudgins in the backfield. On fourth and seven, Jones intercepted Nichols' pass at the 20.

Hopkins had two passes caught. On third and two from the 38, a throw to White went out of bounds and on the next play Jones caught a pass but fell just short of the first down, giving Forsan excellent position at the 39.

Jones broke up Nichols' pass for Bryan; Munoz gained four tough yards. A pass meant for Holguin bounced off Ramirez' fingertips instead, leaving fourth and seven. Nichols punted again.

After the half, the ball came back to Forsan — and stayed with them. The Buffs took the opening kick from Kevin Barnes and hung onto the football for 11 plays before Nichols eased across from the three to open Forsan's lead.

Stanton used only six plays to answer with a touchdown.

Forsan, however, still had a show to put on. With 3:32 left in the third period, the Buffaloes took Barnes' kick at their own 40. Nineteen plays followed, culminating in Munoz's touchdown over the left side. Forsan added a pass for the final two points.

Forsan improves its record to 6-2 and 2-1 in District 6-AA play. Stanton falls to 3-5 and 1-2.

Loop lassoes Klondike

LOOP — The Klondike Cougars continued to have tough times in District 4-A Six-Man West Zone football, dropping a 61-39 decision to the Loop Longhorns Friday night.

It was Klondike's second straight big loss in zone play. Last week the Cougars dropped a 55-22 decision to the Sands Mustangs.

Loop scored 24 first quarter points, and never looked back after that. The Longhorns held a commanding 40-6 halftime lead.

ed 87 yards in 14 plays. White did most of the damage with dives up the middle. Big Spring added a new wrinkle to its offense by running wingbacks Chris Cole and Banks on a few counter plays.

Like it was all night, White was the workhorse in the drive. The 198-pound senior carried 10 times for 64 yards in the drive. He finished as the game's leading rusher with 134 yards in 29 carries. It would have been much more, but he had two runs over 25 yards called back because of penalties.

Yellow flags hampered Big Spring throughout the first half. The Steers were penalized six times for 59 yards in the half.

White scored the first of his three touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. Teddy Molina's extra point attempt was no good and Big Spring led 6-0 with 2:45 left in the first quarter. Fortunately for Pecos, it would be the last time Big Spring would score in the half.

Big Spring's only lost fumble of the night set up Pecos' first score. Returner Buddy Everett mishandled a punt and Pecos recovered at the Big Spring 38-yard line.

From there it took Smith three plays to get his team into the end zone. Smith capped off the drive by rolling out and hitting running back Oscar Solis, who had slipped behind the Big Spring cornerback, for a 38-yard scoring pass.

Jim Workman's PAT gave Pecos a 7-6 lead with 26 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Pecos substained its only real drive in the second quarter. Smith drove the Eagles 65 yards in 14 plays. The drive was kept alive by personal foul and roughing the quarterback penalties against Big Spring.

Fullback Lee Payan scored from the one. Robbie Paz threw to Danny Gonzales for the two-point conversion, giving Pecos a 15-6 lead with 2:30 left in the half, and that's the way the half ended.

Big Spring started the second half like it did the first half. Starting from their own 37, The Steers moved the ball to the Pecos 13 in 14 plays. The drive ended when quarterback Steve Gill's pass attempt to Everett fell incomplete.

Late in the quarter, Big Spring's Chris Mason and Brad Garrison combined for the defensive play of the game.

Mason roared through from the right side of the Steer defense and blocked Workman's punt at the Pecos eight. A hustling Garrison pounced on the ball in the end zone for the score.

Jones scored the two-point conversion on an option pitch from Gill, and the Pecos lead was cut to 15-14 going into the fourth quarter.

"That was the big momentum changer," said Eudy of the blocked punt. "We were trying to block it all night. Those two (Garrison and Mason) are line kamikaze pilots. They really went after 'em in practice this week."

The blocked punt did ignite the team.

In the fourth quarter, Big Spring's kicking game played a major role again. After exchanging punts, Big Spring's Johnny Landers nailed a 58-yarder with the wind; and Workman only managed a 11-yarder against the wind.

After the short punt, Big Spring began a drive from the Pecos 33. It took the Steers seven plays to score. Banks, playing wingback for the first time this season, started it off with a 17-yard run. White finished it with a two-yard dive.

The try for two failed, but Big Spring had regained the lead 20-15 with 3:08 left in the contest.

Following the score, the Steer defense forced a turnover.

Smith was sacked for the fourth time of the game, and fumbled. It was recovered by lineman Burr Settles at the Pecos 10. Two plays later White leaped over from two yards out. The try for two failed, but Big Spring has secured its third district win in five tries. The Steers are now 4-3 overall while Pecos falls to 1-6-1 and 1-4-1.

The wins keeps Big Spring's hopes of a return trip to the state playoffs. It looked even better when Sweetwater defeated Monahans 23-7 and Lamesa upset Fort Stockton 27-26.

Sweetwater is leading the district with a 5-0 record. Monahans is next with a 4-1 slate. Fort Stockton has a 4-2 record and Big Spring is 3-2.

Big Spring Steers quarterback Steven Gill (12) tries to get around a Pecos defender during third quarter action Friday night at Memorial Stadium. In his first start of the season, Gill led the Steers to a 28-15 victory.

COLORADO CITY - Colorado City remained in the hunt for a playoff berth by defeating the Clyde Bulldogs, 28-6 in a District 5-3A game here Friday night at Wolf Stadium.

The Wolves are 4-1 in district and 6-2 for the season. Clyde falls to 3-5, 1-4.

Colorado City remains tied for first place with Ballinger and Abilene Wylie. The Wolves play Wylie Friday and close the season against Sonora. Both games are on the road.

The visitors took the opening kickoff and chewed up 7:01 of the first quarter on 16 plays to take a 6-0 lead and leaving the host fans silent.

Colorado City received the ensuing kickoff and fumbled on their own 33-yard line and Clyde's Shawn Moreland recovered the loose ball. The Bulldogs fell short when the Wolves defense, led by Bill Dossey stopped the penetrating 'Dogs on their own one-foot line.

Colorado City struck for their first play just before the half ended.

The Wolves' k for their first play just before the half ended. The Wolves' main explosion was Mark Russell with a 43-yard bomb from Ismael Silva with no time left on the clock. Ricky Arispe kicked the first of his four extra points to give the home team a 7-6 lead at halftime.

The second half started with C-City punting to Clyde after an unsuccessful series of downs.

The Bulldogs were unable to capitalize as well and were forced to punt to the dangerous Russell. The speedy junior fielded the ball at the Colorado City 33, went to his left, reversed his field and raced for 67 yards to give the jubilant Wolves a 14-6 lead with 5:20 to go in the third-quarter.

In the fourth quarter, C-City scored twice on a 14-yard run by Beau Rees and then two minutes later on a 13-yard run by Pat Tillis.

The game's leading rusher was Rees with 159 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown. C-City defensive tackle Eduardo Melendez sacked Clydè's quarterback three crucial times to eliminate any comeback from the canines.

Water Valley goal line stand spells defeat for Garden City

GARDEN CITY — The Water Valley Wildcats made a goal line stand in the fourth quarter, and prevailed with a 14-12 upset win over the Garden City Bearkats Friday night in District 6-A action. Midway through the final quarter, Garden City had a fourth and goal from Water Valley one-yard line. The Bearkats couldn't score and Water Valley came away with a win.

Garden City struck first in the game, scoring on a one-yard run by Weldon Hillger. The PAT failed. Water Valley came back with two TD's in the second quarter. Wes Counts connected with Scott Bunnell with a 49-yard scoring pass. Callen Hight kicked the point after touchdown.

Garden City fell to 2-6 overall and 1-5 in league play. The Bearkats have an open week this Friday. Water Valley improves to 3-4 overall and 1-4 in league play.

The final WV score came on a 41-yard by Counts. Again Hight added the conversion kick.

Garden City's final score came with 1:04 remaining in the third quarter. Mike Kenyon scored on a two-yard run. Again the PAT failed.

Bulldogs chew Coahoma

BRADY — It was no contest in this "Battle of the Bulldogs" as Brady slaughtered Coahoma 55-19 Friday night in District 5-3A football play. In spite of playing on a wet field, which caused 11 fumbles, Brady still dominated the game. Brady really won the game in two quarters. The Bulldogs scored 29 points in the opening quarter and 20 more in the third quarter. That was more than enough to whip Coahoma.

Coahoma scored in the first quarter on a 70-yard run by Carlos Cervantes. Anthony Hernandez kicked the point after touchdown. Coahoma wouldn't score again until the fourth quarter. Senior running back Matt Rowell scored on a 28-yard run and caught a 14-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Curtis Hudson.

Coahoma falls to 0-5 in district play and 2-6 overall. Brady is now 2-3 in league play and 4-4 overall.

Mustangs hand Midland Christian first loss of season by 51-38 count

ACKERLY — As expected, Friday's non-district six-man clash boiled down to a duel between Sands' Jay Fryar and Midland Christian's Tony Corona. The two senior running backs put on quite a show for the fans, but in the end, it was Fryar and the Mustangs who got the last laugh, as Sands defeated previously undefeated Midland Christian 51-38.

Midland Christian's star runner carried 16 times for 152 yards and scored four TD's. He scored on runs of 50, 25 and 30 yards. He also caught a 50-yard TD reception.

Fryar's second interception of the game. Corona had a good night also. We've played all year," said Sands assistant coach Wes Overton. "We didn't have any special plans to stop Corona. We just tried to have a crowd around him because he's a pretty hard guy to tackle one-on-one."

Sands' wide receiver Paul Martin burned the Midland Christian defense for two scores. He caught a 17-yard TD pass from Sam Rodriguez for the first score of the game, and caught a nine-yard pass from Damien Zarate. Zarate also intercepted a pass in the game. Sands is now 7-1 overall and 4-0 in league play. The Mustangs can clinch the 4-A West Zone championship next week with a win over Loop. Midland Christian falls to 7-1 for the season.

ond quarter score was a 45-yard pass from Brian Bond to Jimmy Rios. The Coyotes iced the game in the third quarter, scoring twice.

Running back Patrick Herridge scored both TD's on one-yard runs. Hollis kicked a extra point, and Bond passed to Kerry Fryar for a conversion.

Rios led the Borden County rushing attack with 75 yards in 12 carries. Kilmer added 62 yards in eight carries, and Herridge carried 12 times for 39 yards.

Bond completed 11 of 18 passes for 122 yards. Besides Rios' 45-yard TD reception, Herridge was his leading receiver, catching four passes for 29 yards. Fryar caught three airdrops for 27 yards.

Wellman bops Grady

GRADY — The Wellman Wildcats got 125 yards rushing from Jay Rowden to help trounce the Grady Wildcats 72-40 in 4-A Six Man West Zone play Friday night.

Rowden's four-yard touchdown run with 5:43 left in the opening quarter got the ball rolling for Wellman. Wellman amassed 456 yards total offense, including 300 on the ground.

Grady was led by Julian Valle, who rushed for 100 yards in 12 carries. Grady falls to 2-6 overall and 1-3 in league play. Wellman is 6-2 and 3-1 in league play.

Hoop time!

Howard College teams gearing for season openers

HC Hawks will have new faces, more size

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Editor

The Howard College Hawks will have a new look this year. That's because the Hawks are almost a completely new team this basketball season.

Gone are head coach Larry Brown, assistant Scott Horstman, and 10 players. The new man in the driver's seat is Jerry Kassin, and he has a host of new players that will wear the Red and Grey this season.

Kassin comes to Howard from the University of Portland, where he served as assistant coach. His assistant, Tony Havior recently accepted a job with IBM in Seattle, so Kassin is searching for a new assistant.

The big difference from last year's team that finished with a 14-14 overall record and 7-9 conference mark, and this year's squad, will be size.

Last year Howard fielded a very small squad for tough Western Junior College Athletic Conference play. Howard's tallest player stood 6-4.

This season the Hawks have lots more size. Kassin will have seven players over 6-4, with the tallest standing 6-8.

But like last year's squad, the Hawks will rely on pressure defense and a up-tempo offense to win games. With only three sophomores, Kassin is working on getting the players adjusted to a new atmosphere.

"With so many freshmen, the players are in different workout and living situations. It's different from when you have a team of sophomores," said Kassin.

The elder statesmen on the squad are Myron Wright, a 6-4 forward, and only returning letterman from last year's squad; Chris Miller, a 6-3 redshirt point guard last year; and Jarvis Delaovc, a 6-8 center transfer from the University of Portland.

Kassin knows the start of the season could be slow for his young team. But he will get a chance to find out if all of his early season fundamental training has paid off Monday night at 7:30 at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum when the Hawks take on the U.S. Army basketball team in an exhibition game.

"We'll find out what we're made of Monday," said Kassin. "The U.S. Army is a veteran team. A lot of their players played college ball. They play major colleges, and they have been playing over in Europe. "With this team it could be a case of us showing up every night. Our early season goal is to perform consistently. We seem to have the potential, it depends on how fast we can come along."

Right away Kassin is trying to build a tradition at Howard. That building plan includes strong fundamentals, red-shirting players with lots of potential, and stressing academics.

Some of the possible redshirts include former Big Spring and Andrews guard Bernard Williams, Coahoma forward Jimmy King and Houston sophomore Tyrone Greer.

"I'm putting emphasis on the redshirt program. It gives a player a chance to take advantage of Howard's academic program and play basketball for three years. We also get together in the morning for academic supervision meetings," said Kassin.

Like last year, the Hawks will be exciting to watch. Kassin says his troops will rely on several presses, and pushing the ball up the court.

"We like to play pressure defense, not always fullcourt though. We hope our defense results in as many fast breaks as possible. We like to play the transition game. We have players that can shoot the three-point shot, dunk the basketball and rebound. We hope all of this will please the fans."

Of the three-point shooters, Kassin says Larry Pettigrew has stood out the most. The 6-1 guard from Tyler will be counted on for instant offense for the Hawks.

Others that have performed well in the early going are point guards Miller and Tony Smith. Kassin says both have shown the ability to run the offense and handle the ball well.

Howard College Hawks forward Myron Wright (44), shown here in this file photo, is the lone returning letterman on this year's Howard basketball team. The Hawks will play the U.S. Army in an exhibition game Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum. Admission will be charged.

Smith, a 6-2 former Garland high school player, is the brother of Midland College sophomore player Billy Smith.

Center Delaovc and Wright have risen as top players underneath. Kassin says both have shown the ability to crash the boards and good leadership.

Others that have been impressive so far have been forwards James Higgins, Jerrard Elliot, Troy James and Greer.

"We tried to get some size and some guys that can run the court," said Kassin. "But in this conference every team has good size. This is the ultimate of competition from top to bottom."

Queens have talent; but very few players

By SARAH LUMAN
Staff Writer

Coach Don Stevens and the Hawk-Queens basketball team face a fearsome challenge this year: two weeks before the season opener, Stevens lost seven players.

"We had some disciplinary problems," he said Thursday. "I had to send five of my players home. Then we had two more quit."

"I've activated my manager and I've brought in a member of the rodeo team," Stevens said. "We're going to have a good team this season, but to win in this league you have to have a great team. How good we are, we'll find out."

Despite the heavy casualties, he says his remaining players show promise.

"We have plenty of talent," Stevens said. "It's depth we have trouble with — we just don't have any depth."

Indeed, eight players are named on the active roster.

"We just had so much turmoil on the team," he said. "But what I can tell you is that the practices since (the departures) have been an absolute joy."

The Queens will depend heavily on returning sophomore Stefanie Massie. Last year she was named all-conference and all-region V. Stevens says she is expected to be a top player in the league again this year.

"She's improved tremendously," he said. "She's a highly recruited player by (NCAA) Division I schools nationwide."

The 5-11 sophomore comes from Houston. Stevens now expects to build the team around her play in the post position.

Sophomore Laura Reeger, the activated manager, comes to the team from Reagan County's district-winning team of two years ago. Listed on the roster at 5-4, Reeger brings the team some quickness, Stevens said.

"She played post on a district championship team at 5-3," Stevens said. "It's her first year to play college ball, but she's a real good athlete. She's having to adjust to an outside position, which she hasn't played before."

Kim Rankin, drafted from the rodeo team, is also a sophomore. "She's very intelligent on the floor and a good ballhandler," says Stevens. "We needed that."

"She played high school ball at Somersett," he continued. "I know she's very active and successful on the rodeo team, but I don't know what her specific events are."

Atop the freshman section of the roster is Renee Crooks. The 6-1 freshman from DeVille, La. is also the Queens' tallest player, Stevens said.

"She's an excellent player. She's a good shooter and a good rebounder," he said. "She was an all-state high school player in

...major college prospect

Louisiana. Terrie Tucker, a freshman from Coahoma, is a backup player Stevens has pressed into service. She is listed at 5-3.

Callie Cooley will play some point guard for the Queens, Stevens said. The 5-8 freshman from Musselshell, Mont. has an excellent high school record, he said.

Freshman Cindy Johnson, 5-7, comes from Midlothian. "She's an excellent outside shooter," Stevens said. "She's a good ballhandler and very intelligent on the floor. She will be doubling at point guard and shooting guard for us."

Karen Mitchell, a 5-9 freshman from Shreveport, La., rounds out the current roster. "We had her start play at post. She has moved to the outside position."

"She's extremely accurate from outside," he said. "She has three-point range."

Stevens said Odessa College is considered the favorite in this year's conference race. "They have eight sophomores back," he explained, "and four of those players are Division I talent."

But the Queens play four conference games before Christmas, and Stevens won't give up. "We're not folding the tent," he said. "I had (a similar situation) it happen in '85, and we still won 20 games."

The team opens its season against Cisco Junior College Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the McLellan College Tournament in Waco.

Following that game, Stevens' squad faces McLennan and finishes its tournament slate opposite Temple.

"All three are awful tough teams," Stevens said. "We're the only conference team in the tournament, though Cisco and McLennan are in our region. It's a real strong tournament."

Stevens acknowledged scrapping virtually all his tactical and strategic plans in order to accommodate the personnel revisions. "We've basically had to start over from scratch," he said. "We can't play the pressure defenses (I had) planned, because we just don't have the depth."

G-City stays perfect

GARDEN CITY — The Garden City junior high footballers kept their record perfect by trouncing previously undefeated Water Valley 38-8 Thursday afternoon.

Mario Aguilar led the attack by scoring four times, including a 49-yard run on the opening play of the game. James Soles also scored for the junior Bearkats.

Garden City is now 6-0 for the season. The Bearkats' next game will be Thursday at 6 p.m. in Garden City versus Robert Lee.

Runnels gridders split

The Runnels gridders split wins with Snyder Thursday in football action.

Snyder won the B game 18-6, dropping Runnels to 4-2-1 for the season. Runnels' score was a 55-yard pass from Nick Roberson to Brian Ernest.

Playing strong defensive game were Augustine Hernandez, Jason Guinn, Charles Dominguez and Russell Gamba.

The Runnels A team raised its record to 6-1 by defeating Snyder 14-12.

Runnels scores came on a 63-yard pass from Gerald Cobos to Cort Petterson. The other score was a 46-yard punt return by pat Chavarria.

Top defensive players were Fernando Alvarez, Lance Reeves, Kevin Rodgers, Danny Cervantes and Joey Franco.

Robinson has pole spot

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — Chip Robinson drove a Porsche 962 Prototype sports car to the pole position for the inaugural IMSA Camel Grand Prix of Southern California, covering the tight Del Mar Fairgrounds circuit at 90.123 mph Saturday.

The top 10 spots for Sunday's two-hour Camel GT series finale were determined late Saturday in single-car qualifying. The final session was limited to the fastest cars from European-style time trials earlier in the day.

Robinson, who already has locked up his first GTP championship, took the top qualifying position on the second of two laps around the temporary 1.6-mile circuit that twists around the outside of the Del Mar horse track.

Where he stood at the end of the session was in front of Price Cobb's Porsche 962, which turned a fast lap averaging 89.752.

The second row positions for Sunday's 27-car race were taken by Geoff Brabham of Australia, who will co-drive a Nissan GTP ZX-T with Elliott Forbes-Robinson, at 88.956, and Indy-car champion Bobby Rahal, who averaged 88.614 in a 962.

Rahal's teammate, Jochen Mass of West Germany, was fifth at 88.564, followed by the Chevrolet Corvette GTP of South African Sarel van der Merwe at 88.420, the 962 of Bob Wollek of France and Darin Brassfield at 87.022; the Corvette GTP of Doc Bundy at 86.367, a 962 driven by Englishman Derek Bell at 85.896 and the Jaguar XJR-7 of Hurley Haywood and John Morton at 85.584.

First prize for Sunday's race is $85,000, including $60,000 from the Camel Pyramid, which pays $10,000 at each race to any team winning for the first time in a season.

There have been no new winners for the past five races and an additional $10,000 will be up for grabs Sunday. But Camel has designated the Del Mar event a "wild card" race and will pay the full amount to whoever wins.

"For $85,000, winning means everything here," Robinson said. "Second means nothing. Everybody's gonna be going very hard."

Oilers closer to RB

MIAMI (AP) — Alonzo Highsmith, the Houston Oilers No. 1 draft choice who is waging a legal fight to win his free agent status, has reached an agreement in principle with the NFL club, a lawyer for the team said today.

A hearing in the case was adjourned until Monday while contract talks continued with the running back's negotiators, another lawyer said.

"An agreement ... was reached in principle between the Houston Oilers and Highsmith," said Lauri Ross, an associate of Hugo Black Jr., one of the attorneys involved in the negotiations.

Ross said the tentative agreement was made by attorney Richard Caldwell, representing the Oilers, and Highsmith's attorney.

Zoeller leads by 3 strokes

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Fuzzy Zoeller overcame the effects of a chronic bad back to shoot five birdies on the back nine Saturday and take a two-shot lead after three rounds of the $600,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament.

Zoeller, troubled with back problems for much of his career, birdied the 10th through 13th holes and capped a round of 8-under-par 64 with a 10-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole.

Zoeller finished three rounds over the new TPC course at Star Pass in 197, 19 under par.

"But I'm playing well and putting well. I'll be tough to beat tomorrow. I won't roll over and play dead for him. I'll make him play," said Sutton who, like Zoeller, has not won this year.

Jay Haas, Chip Beck and Mike Reid shared third at 201, four strokes off the lead. Haas shot a 65, while Beck had 67 and Reid a 68.

Bill Sander, who hasn't finished higher than fourth in his 10-year PGA Tour career, was alone at 202 after a 70.

Canadian Dave Barr, South African David Frost, Mark Calcavecchia and Craig Stadler were next at 203. Calcavecchia had a 65, Stadler a 67 and Frost and Barr shot 68.

Zoeller played the front in 33, but remained one stroke back of Sutton at the turn.

Sutton birdied the next three holes, but so did Zoeller, who then moved into a tie for the lead with a 22-footer on the 13th that Sutton couldn't match.

What began as voluntary work in 1969 for Madeline Boadle and evolved into fulltime employment in 1981 has come to an end.

The executive director of the Westside Community Center for the past six years — and volunteer for a dozen years before that — is retiring.

Boadle said she hopes to spend more time with her husband Ben, who retired Aug. 1 after 35 years at Texas Electric.

"I want to keep active in community projects, and to learn how to help Hispanic and low income families. I don't want to leave community work," she said.

Boadle said she and her husband are commissioners to Waco Children's Home and want to spend time there volunteering their services.

They also plan to travel.

Many changes have occurred since she began volunteer work at the center, established by the Council of United Church Women. It was called Westside Recreation Center when it opened in the early 1940s, said Boadle.

Members of Park Methodist Church, which burned many years ago, had the original building moved to 1305 W. Fifth St., which is behind the current building. "It was an old Civilian Conservation Corps barracks moved from Scenic Mountain," she added.

The main function of the center was to provide supervised recreation with arts and crafts for children.

Nearly 200 children would wait to invade ABC City Park to collect colorful eggs at the annual Easter egg hunt, said Boadle.

Churches that were active in the center were Park Methodist, Wesley Methodist, First Methodist, St. Mary's Episcopal, First Christian and First Presbyterian.

The decision was made in early 1968 to close the recreation center, said Boadle.

Council of Church Women changed its name to Church Women United, and in 1970 the group formed a board of directors and decided to open Westside Community Center and officially incorporate it, she said.

The members purchased land at 1311 W. Fourth St., and contracted with the city of Big Spring and Webb Air Force Base to move what was a former hospital building to its new home, where Westside Community Center is presently located, she added.

"We all cleaned, painted and cleared debris. Carpenters, electricians and plumbers, skilled and unskilled, worked together," said Boadle.

The Westside Community Center was dedicated on July 1973 in the memory of Horace Garrett, whose family made this project possible, said Boadle.

"I don't doubt for a minute that the project would have been accomplished, but with the love given by the Garrett family it was accomplished on a greater scale and certainly quicker," she said.

The original center had an apartment for the director, whose salary ranged from $1,500 to $1,800 per year. A fulltime director, program director and two teachers now work at the center.

When Boadle assumed her position as executive director there was much to be done, she said, developing new programs and with re-modeling the front half of the building.

Once again the Garrett family helped. "We were able to install basketball courts, a library, a TV room, kitchen and many other improvements," said Boadle.

The building is now air conditioned, she added.

The center offers adult programs, including cooking, sewing, nutrition, parenting seminars, child development. Programs for children include choir, hygiene, tutoring, 4-H, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Girl Scouts.

When the center first began only 40 children were involved — now there are over 1,000 children who use the facilities, said Boadle.

During the summer extra help is needed at the center. This summer was very rewarding to Boadle. Jessie Salgado, Johnny Vega and Sonny Baeza, who began coming to the center at a very young age, still wanted to participate in the center's activities.

The boys volunteered their time and, "Were the best help the center has ever had," said Boadle.

"I was so proud I just could have popped my buttons," she said with a smile.

The main goal of the center, she said, has always been, "Always the best for our kids and their families — and everything done in Christian love."

"I love this center," said Boadle.

"I remember when I first began this job I said 'okay Lord, if you think I can do it I will.' So here it is, 1987, and I will retire Nov. 1," she said.

"I can't help remembering the time I told the Lord I couldn't manage this job anymore. My shoulders are not big enough for all the problems of the people of this neighborhood. I spent all my waking hours, my small salary, and much of my husband's salary, to meet the needs that I saw, and I just couldn't take it anymore," said Boadle.

"I also told God if He wanted me in this job, He would have to let me know in a very definite way," she said.

After having coffee with a friend Boadle said she got into her car, and laying on the seat was a peso. "Okay Lord I hear you," she recalls saying.

"And after almost seven years as director, I am relinquishing my peso, and I feel the Lord's approval," she said.

Boadle's daughter, Jacque Mauch, program director at the center since July 1986, will assume the position of executive director.

"She's very qualified for the job — She just happens to be my daughter," Boadle said with a laugh.

Westside Board of Directors, United Church Women, co-workers and many friends will host a public retirement day Oct. 30 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the center. Everyone is invited to attend and wish her well on her new ventures.

It's a splash of panache for new line this season

NEW YORK (AP) — A splash of panache awaits women who discover the world of Je Suis, a couture-quality line that turns large sizes into a definite fashion plus.

Throughout the retail world, big women will find more choices next spring as even the famous designers gear up to suit their needs.

The clever-yet-classic creations of Je Suis are presented by Laura Douglas, who formed the company after years of struggling to find elegant clothing in size 24.

Now she delights in accentuating the attributes of others.

For spring, Je Suis offers a dashing, hourglass-shaped croquet skirt in grey, white and black horizontal stripes that's cut a tad longer in the back so it hangs straight over a full derrier. The matching black-accented wrap jacket features a blouson back.

There's also a beige print silk dress that touts eye-catching sleeves puffed from the mid-arm down, and ruffled elastic smocking

Plus sizes are big news for spring

NEW YORK (AP) — Big sizes are big news for spring.

Buoyed by industry estimates that half of all American women wear a size 14 or larger, designers are waking up to the potential goldmine of that untapped market, called "plus size."

"We expect it (the market) to grow 60 percent by the year 2000, based on just one factor — baby boomers aging," said Anne Allison, director of Allison Associates, a marketing consultant for the fashion industry.

Trudy Sullivan, founder of the Boston-based T. Deane retail chain, says that in 1986, plus-size women spent an estimated $10 billion on clothing.

Ms. Allison notes that in the past, large women have been "totally overlooked as a specific segment with special needs."

But now, "There's greater awareness of all types of segments of society. Consumers are, in terms of fashion, getting more demanding."

Ms. Allison said the plus-size trend began after clothing manufacturers noticed the success of specialized hosiery lines, such as L'Eggs and Hanes' Fitting Pretty.

Next spring, big women can pick from variety of labels: Bill Blass, Harve Bernard, Pierre Cardin, Oleg Cassini, Danskin, Gitano, Givenchy en Plus, Mary McFadden, Albert Nipon.

They can shop at Lahe Bryant's swank new store on Fifth Avenue, at Bloomingdale's flagship store, or on an entire floor of Macy's in Herald Square.

There also are catalogs from Spiegel and JCPenney, a "Vogue" magazine supplement called "Fashion Plus" and several special issues a year from Women's Wear Daily and Apparel News.

T. Deane, which sells designer clothing, belts and hosiery for women size 14 to 26, plans to open 100 stores by 1991, primarily along the East and West coasts, according to spokeswoman Betsy Higgins.

The stores, targeted at upscale women age 35 and over, will feature Ashanti, Nipon and Evan Picone, as well as T. Deane's own private-label line.

"It's amazing that retailers ignored this market for so long, considering that more than 35 million women wear large sizes," said Ms. Sullivan.

The back of Je Suis dresses are artfully draped from the top, then nipped toward the hem. That way, they don't ride up and the fullness "looks like fabric instead of fanny."

A lightly quilted, navy-and-white print long-sleeve dress with matching pirate vest and jacket features a curvy, low-cut "Queen Anne" neckline "to show off the pretty part" below the shoulders and neck.

Jackets are sized so they "don't pull across the back and make little creases that destroy the look."

Most garments span several sizes to accommodate weight fluctuations, and wool is lined in silk so it doesn't stick, scratch or retain heat.

Big women with good-looking legs can gather compliments in Je Suis' short, square, ruffled skirt swirled with pink roses. The matching top has a square ruffled collar.

Such savvy doesn't come cheap.

Je Suis, available through specialty stores, starts around $100 for the less-expensive "bridge" line, and up to $1,300 for a designer suit.

A number of established designers also are getting into plus sizes for spring.

Mary McFadden's new Signature collection has a snappy, black suit with a gently elasticized waist and just the right touch of white at the pockets, cuffs and buttons. Or choose McFadden's lean-looking, two-piece dress, white-on-white or black-on-black, with softly padded shoulders and skirts just below the knee.

For evening, the "Oleg Cassini Woman" might covet a glimmering, white evening gown, resplendent with white beads, a dropped waist and flouncy skirt, or a stunning, silver jacket, over a flowing long shimmering dress.

Many garments are jazzed up with nautical stripes, cartoon graphics and eye-catching geometric designs in cheery pink-and-blue or bold black-and-white.

Club discusses walking for fitness

City Extension Homemakers Club met Oct. 9 at the home of Jowili Etchison. Roll call was answered to "How much I weighed when I met my husband."

An announcement was made of the annual appropriate Christmas gifts to be given to the State Hospital patients. Gifts should be unwrapped with price tags left on. They should be taken to the hospital from Nov. 2-22.

Frances Zant presented the delegate report.

The program "Walking your way to fitness," was presented by Rozelle Dohoney.

Several important factors were discussed in relation to beneficial exercise while walking.

A pair of sturdy, properly fitting shoes are necessary. Warm up before walking. If you don't exercise at least three times a week, you will not experience as many benefits of regular physical activity as you could, or make as much progress.
