Embezzlement lawsuit filed

HERALD STAFF REPORT

An insurance company has filed a lawsuit against a Big Spring Federal Prison Camp inmate who embezzled more than $633,000 while working as a loan officer at a Beaumont bank.

Worldwide Underwriters Insurance Co. filed the lawsuit this week in 118th District Court against David Wayne LeBlanc.

Blanc is serving a five year sentence and five years probation to run consecutively upon release from prison. He was ordered to pay $430,403, in restitution to Allied Bank of Beaumont.

Worldwide had issued a bond to Allied Bank that included coverage for losses resulting from the dishonest or fraudulent acts of Allied's employees.

Worldwide is subrogated to Allied's claims against LeBlanc to the extent of $327,031.

Worldwide is seeking repayment of the money, prejudgment interest, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of court and post-judgment interest.

Emergency medical personnel place Jarrod Dewayne Spears, 9, of 1202 Runnels St., on a stretcher after he was hit by a car while crossing the street in a crosswalk. The accident was one of several yesterday. See page 2-A for a related photo.

Child crossing street hit by car

HERALD STAFF REPORT

A 9-year-old Big Spring boy sustained minor injuries when struck by a car on South Birdwell Lane south of South Montecillo Street Thursday, according to police reports.

Jarrod Dewayne Spears, 1202 Runnels

St., was treated and released from Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital emergency room, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Spears was crossing the street in a school zone crosswalk when he was struck by a car driven by Dealva Watkins Richard, 62, 1604 Kentucky Way, according to police reports.

The accident occurred at 3:17 p.m.

Richard was cited for passing a vehicle stopped for a pedestrian.

Two other Big Spring residents also were injured in traffic accidents Thursday.

Lynna Fern Patterson, 35, 1008 E. 15th St., was injured when the 1987 Nissan she was driving collided with a 1986 Oldsmobile Cutlass driven by Dianne G. Franco, 33, 1309 S. Scurry St., police reports said.

The accident occurred at the intersection of East Eighth and Goliad streets at 11:33 p.m.

Patterson refused treatment, according to police reports.

Franco was cited for not having automobile liability insurance and failure to yield right-of-way.

Tanna Diane Britto, 24, Route 1 Big Spring, Box 146A, was injured when the 1974 Pontiac Le Mans she was driving collided with a 1984 Lincoln Town Car driven by Ross Hale Boykin, 73, 613 Highland St.

The accident occurred at the intersection of South Benton and East Second Streets at 8:55 a.m.

Britto refused treatment, police reports said.

Boykin was cited for disregarding a stop sign, and Britto was cited for not having automobile liability insurance.

Political parties turn numbers into delegates

AUSTIN (AP) — Add one more difference to the traditional divisions between Texas Democrats and Republicans — the way they choose their national convention delegates.

Those delegates are Super Tuesday's grand prize. For each party, Texas will choose more delegates than any other state taking part in the March 8 super primary.

But the two parties handle this important business differently. They will dole out different numbers of delegates to their presidential candidates through different systems. And Democrats won't finish the job until June.

Texas Republicans will send 111 delegates to the GOP National Convention in New Orleans this summer. Democrats will send 197 delegates to their party's convention in Atlanta.

For Republicans, results of the primary election will determine how many delegates each presidential candidate wins.

Democrats will use a complicated two-track system relying on both the Super Tuesday primary results and their traditional chain of precinct caucuses, county and state conventions.

"We are the only state in the nation that has the dual track," said Jim Boynton, primary director for the Texas Democratic Party.

The primary election results will determine the allocation to candidates of 119 of the state's 197 Democratic delegates. Another 14 delegate spots automatically go to such party officials as Texas members of the Democratic National Committee.

The remaining one-third of the Texas delegates — totaling 64 — won't be awarded to candidates until June.

That division will be roughly proportional to the support each candidate turns out in the more than 6,000 precinct caucuses to be held after the polls close on the night of March 8, officials said.

Those attending precinct caucuses elect delegates to county conventions, scheduled for later in March. The county conventions choose delegates to the state convention, where the last 64 delegates then will be allocated. One catch: the rules require a candidate to get above a threshold of 15 percent support at each level.

There's a method to this madness, Boynton said.

First, Texas Democrats tradi-

Local Democratic club not actively campaigning

By BILL FOSTER
Staff Writer

Organized campaign activity for the six major Democratic presidential candidates appears to be almost non-existent in Howard County as the March 8 Super Tuesday primary election nears.

Volunteers are not manning telephone banks on behalf of the candidate of their choice, according to party officials.

Nor are workers walking door-to-door to deliver pamphlets exalting their favorite candidate's experience, qualifications and stance on the issues.

The only visible support for any of the candidates thus far has been limited to informal conversations between friends and party members, according to Howard County Democratic Party Chairman M.H. Boatler.

"There is no organized activity for any of the candidates that I've heard about," Boatler said.

Although county Democrats aren't lining up to actively campaign for the presidential candidates, members of the party are combining efforts to ensure that the post-election precinct conventions run smoothly.

Child's accident prompts lawsuit

HERALD STAFF REPORT

A Big Spring woman whose son fell from a second story balcony at Sandra Gale Apartments has filed a lawsuit against the owner of the complex.

Pama Lee Fox's 5-year-old son, Stanley, fell about 15 feet Nov. 15 and hit his head on the pavement below after falling against a wire restraining screen that allegedly wasn't secured properly, the suit states.

Fox was living at the Sandra Gale Apartment complex, 2911 West Highway 80 Apt. 47, at the time of incident. Fox filed the suit against the apartment complex owner, Randall R. Merrill, 1606 Nolan St.

Merrill could not be reached for comment. The boy was playing on the second floor balcony above the apartment where he resided and slipped, falling against the wire screen on the balcony rail, the suit states.

The suit alleges the screen was damaged and wasn't secured to the rail.

As a result of the fall, the boy sustained serious and disabling head injuries and has incurred medical expenses of at least $2,000 and is likely to have additional expenses, the suit said, alleging the plaintiff suffered severe permanent damage to the head, neck and whole body.

Plaintiffs allege the defendant failed to ensure the apartment complex was safe, and failed to inspect the premises and correct any dangerous conditions.

The defendant also failed to ensure there was a restraining wire on the second floor balcony and didn't warn residents of the conditions, the suit alleges.

Prison inmate dies of AIDS

HERALD STAFF REPORT

Big Spring prison officials confirmed Thursday that a prison camp inmate died over the weekend of complications related to AIDS.

Paul Forand, 62, of Florida, died at 10:39 p.m. Sunday at Midland Memorial Hospital after being admitted about four days earlier.

Direct cause of death was pneumocystis complicated by Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, Rudy Franco, Big Spring public information officer, said.

AIDS is an affliction in which a virus attacks the body's immune system, leaving its victim vulnerable to a wide variety of serious infections and cancers.

Pneumocystis is the most common opportunistic infection associated with AIDS in the United States, according to a report by the American Council on Science and Health.

Forand was not diagnosed as having the AIDS virus until being admitted to the hospital, Franco said.

The Federal Bureau of Prisons tests inmates for the AIDS virus before they enter the community for any reason, including inmates participating on work crews, he said.

The prison system randomly tests inmates entering the bureau of prisons, said Franco, who reported that all are tested before being discharged.

Forand, serving a sentence for bank fraud, was to be released in 1989.

Franco said he is forbidden by a privacy act from disclosing whether other inmates at the Big Spring facility had tested positive for the AIDS virus.

Helicopter crash

10 soldiers die in tragedy

Army soldier takes notes on a victim at the crash site in Chico where a twin-rotor Army helicopter caught fire in flight and smashed into a North Texas pasture killing 10 soldiers.

CHICO (AP) — An Army helicopter nosedived into a cow pasture and skidded about 75 feet before it broke apart in a sheet of fire, killing 10 men and seriously burning eight others, authorities and witnesses said.

Two soldiers leaped about 35 feet to the ground from the burning twin-rotor CH-47D Chinook before it crashed about 50 miles from Fort Worth on Thursday, said state Department of Public Safety Sgt. Robert Rankin. One of the soldiers died.

The other soldier said that a fire had broken out at the back of the helicopter based at Fort Sill, Okla., and that those aboard had tried to move to the front to get away from the flames, Rankin said.

Residents raced to the scene, pulling casualties away from the raging grass fire sparked by the crash.

"Some of them were just sitting there screaming," said 17-year-old Dale Christopher, a Chico High School student who was among the first on the scene. "And they kept asking us 'Help us. Help us.' And then we'd say 'Help is on the way.' That's all we could do for them."

A three-person team of investigators from the Army Safety Center at Fort Rucker, Ala., was investigating the crash today.

The Chinook CH-47D has a history of problems and the Army grounded its entire fleet of 63 of the big transport helicopters for 1 1/2 months in 1985 after an accident in Honduras injured eight soldiers.

Witnesses said the helicopter was tilted forward at a 45-degree angle, puffing smoke and descending rapidly when it crashed about 3:29 p.m., slicing through a power line.

"All of a sudden a little thin streak of smoke came out of it and there was a small explosion on the right side underneath it," said Joe Haworth, who was working at a nearby plant. "Then it put out a little more smoke and it flew straight for a ways, then parts went to coming out of it."

The craft skidded about 75 feet before breaking apart in a sheet of fire, said Wendell Berry Sr., 53, who watched the accident from his home a half-mile away.

Berry cut the seat belt away from a crewman strapped to the remains of the cockpit.

"There was only one guy still in the helicopter who was either the pilot or the co-pilot, and he was conscious," Berry said. "He was so conscious that when I cut his seatbelt he said, 'That feels better — thanks.'"

Jack Souther, 54, used a small fire extinguisher from his pickup truck to douse burning bodies. "The only thing I could do was put the fires out on the bodies. I went from body to body trying to put them out," he said.

The copter, carrying 13 passengers and five crew members, was returning to Fort Sill from Fort Hood in central Texas, Fort Sill spokesman Rick Brink said.

Academia

Local teachers Gloria Arroyo, Rebecca Dorton and Cynthia Schaffer were among 800 who attended the annual State Convention of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association in Fort Worth Feb. 19-21.

Arroyo teaches third grade at Washington Elementary; Dorton teaches second grade at Washington Elementary; and Schaffer teaches at Anderson Kindergarten Center.

Mrs. George Bush spoke to the teachers about adult literacy. Mini-conferences on paperwork reduction, career ladder and the teacher appraisal system also were provided.

TCTA represents 25,000

teachers and has its headquarters in Austin. Its annual convention provides delegates with an opportunity to become better informed regarding current education issues and to make policy decision for the association.

The group presented its annual Friend of Education Awards to Sen. Carl Parker and Will Davis. Sen. Parker, chairman of the Senate education committee, was honored for his efforts in the Legislature. Davis was honored for his contributions as a former member of the state Board of Education and as chairman of the School Finance Symposium.

Mr. Waldheim should resign

Austrian President Kurt Waldheim publicly proclaims his innocence. He was there, he says, but he did not do anything. He was aware, he says, but knowledge of a crime is no sin.

Wrong. In the wake of a report by an international panel of historians, Kurt Waldheim stands before the world condemned.

He is condemned for lying. He asserted after World War II that he was in law school during the war, though the report confirms he really joined the Nazi "Brownshirt" Stormtroopers in 1938 and spent the war hunting Jews and partisans in the Balkans, Italy and Yugoslavia.

He is condemned for being morally bankrupt. He claims there was nothing he could do about the atrocities indulged in by German Army Group E, in which he served as the third-highest-ranking officer under Gen. Alexander Lohr, who was hanged after the war for war crimes.

Group E's function was pacification, which entailed destroying entire villages in areas where there was partisan resistance to the Nazis, rounding up thousands of Jews for dispatch to the concentration camps and sending thousands of civilians to slave labor camps.

The record shows that other Group E officers objected to some of the atrocities committed by that group. The record shows that not once did young Lt. Waldheim's conscience move him to act. Now he excuses his silence by saying, "I wanted to survive."

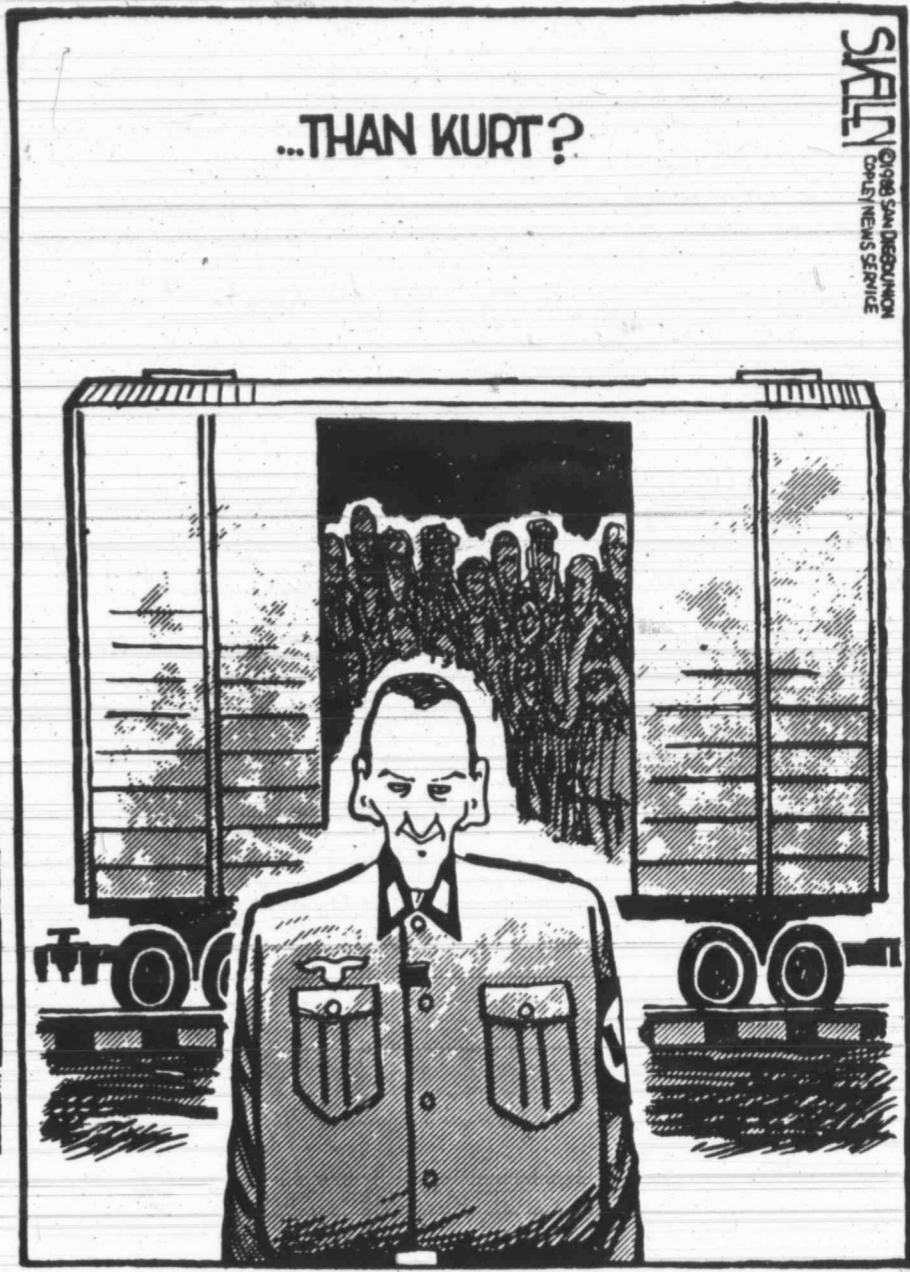

So did the victims.

While Mr. Waldheim may strut on the stage of his unrepentant homeland, he is a pariah representing the worst in mankind. He should resign immediately.

No more fighting tooth and nail over paste Striving for excellence

By LEWIS GRIZZARD

Normally, I'm against most anything that is supposed to be new and make my life easier.

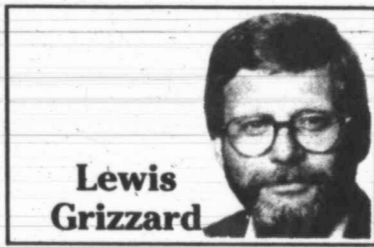

Call waiting was new and I came to hate it. People call me on the phone and then say, "Can you hold a minute? I've got another call."

No, I can't wait while you talk to somebody else. You called me, remember?

And who messed with the shower knobs? There used to be two knobs in the shower. One was marked "C" and the other was marked "H."

You turned on a little "C" and a little "H" and you had yourself a nice shower. Now, however, there's something new.

There's only one knob in most

Lewis Grizzard

showers you run into day and Thomas Edison couldn't figure out how to keep from being scalded trying to find a comfortable water temperature in which to shower.

But I must admit I have finally found something that is new, and will, in fact, improve all our lives. I'm talking about toothpaste that now is available in a "new, neat and easy spout."

I bought some the other day. You don't squeeze the tube to make the toothpaste come out, as we have been doing as long as there has been toothpaste, I suppose.

There's a little spout at the top of the tube and all you do is press a button and out comes the toothpaste.

You can press just long enough to get a small amount of paste or you can press and get gobs.

This should help men and women get along better, as well as making brushing your teeth an entirely new experience.

One of the basic differences between men and women is that men squeeze a tube of toothpaste in a random manner. It's not a big deal to us.

Women, however, squeeze from the bottom of the tube of toothpaste first. As the bottom of the tube becomes empty, they roll that part neatly toward the top.

There are reasons for this. One, it says clearly on the tube, "For best results, squeeze from the bottom."

Women think reading a tube of toothpaste is like reading the Bible. If you don't follow the instructions on the tube, you will go to hell.

Women also think squeezing from the bottom is practicing sound economics. Squeeze from the bottom, they have been led to believe, and you get more toothpaste for your buck.

So what if you save three cents worth of toothpaste every three months? That's 12 cents a year, which will make a nice down payment on a new condo.

Women have been complaining to men about their toothpaste habits for years, causing much friction.

But that's all in the past now. With the "new, neat and easy spout," toothpaste tubes will no longer be an issue in male and female relationships.

Now, men and women can fight and break up over more important reasons. Like leaving empty beer cans on the carpet and hanging panty hose to dry in the shower.

By ALISHA GOLDMAN

Excellence is a virtue for which we all can strive.

That is a conclusion I reached watching the Olympics the past few weeks. I just happened to catch the figure skating performance of our American couple that won the bronze.

Of course, skating is one of the most entrancing of sports so it was easy to watch for hours. But I have been enthralled with the skiing and even hockey games.

It is obvious that the people involved are the best in the world at what they do.

And it is equally obvious that they do it with the best of their ability.

We may not all excel in a particular area of concentration to the degree of qualifying for the Olympics, much less taking home a bronze, silver or gold medal, but we can all attempt to excel in at least one area of our lives. And with that attempt we may become better people.

Why not? Why not try doing the best we can every day in at least one area of our lives?

It might be a lot to ask to excel in every area of our lives — but why not one?

It could be in a hobby or in our role as a family member or in our work or religious lives. We might even be rewarded one day by others — but we will most definitely be rewarded by our own sense of accomplishment.

Although many of the Olympic skaters returned to their seats with a less than perfect performance, their faces glowed with the energy and joy of having attempted to earn a perfect score.

If we see our lives as our own olympics and set our goals to be the best we can — not necessarily better than everyone else — we will carry in our own hearts the bronze, silver or gold that we earn.

Congress includes our most intrepid explorers

By JACK ANDERSON and DALE VAN ATTA

WASHINGTON — There were plenty of congressional junketeers traveling on the taxpayers' dollar during the January recess, but the "Most Intrepid" award goes to the merry band with the mission to watch a Coast Guard cutter smash through ice near Antarctica.

But hold your admiration for these fearless travelers. You can't get there from here without passing through Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii.

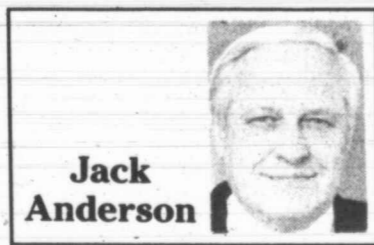

As we reported earlier, the January congressional recess brought a bumper crop of urgent business down south where summertime is in bloom.

The Antarctica delegation was led by Rep. Earl Hutto, D-Fla., chairman of the subcommittee on Coast Guard and Navigation. Apparently, it was vital for seven representatives, six staffers and four military escorts to see firsthand the Coast Guard's Polar Star ice breaker thud its way into McMurdo Sound.

A spokesman for Hutto said the committee members needed to witness the annual ice-breaking event so they could assess the Coast Guard's needs. This is a national security issue, he added. The ice-breaking fleet has shrunk to just two of the 398-foot vessels, and the committee needs to decide whether to push for the purchase of another ship.

In light of a $100 million cut in the Coast Guard's budget, the likelihood of Congress buying another $300-million ice breaker any time soon is absurd, a Coast Guard spokesman told our associate Jim Lynch.

A subcommittee staffer confirmed that the visit to the ice breaker was the major, if not the lone reason, for the 13-day trip for the 24-member delegation, which included five wives of Congress members. Apparently, Congress hasn't heard of video tape.

Unfortunately, the U.S. Navy base in Antarctica was not equipped to host the entire delegation. Two representatives, two staffers, two military escorts and the five wives had to cool their heels in New Zealand while the others went to Antarctica.

After the men returned from the show, the delegation flew to Sidney, Australia, and spent another four days. In both New Zealand and Australia, the group met with members of parliament and maritime officials.

From Sidney, the group flew to Honolulu for two nights. They had spent two nights there on the way down, also, but not strictly as tourists — they spent three hours touring a U.S. Coast Guard base.

It's not clear what the taxpayers back home gained from the trip, but it is fairly certain what they lost. The private C-137 jet used by the delegation costs $7,445 an hour to fly, for a total aircraft cost of $369,272.

The delegation spent $11,600 for accommodations and personnel provided by the Navy. And the representatives and their staffs were entitled to $125 a day each for expenses.

Joining Hutto on the trip were Howard Coble, R-N.C.; Norman Shumway, R-Calif.; Owen Pickett, D-Va.; William Lipinski, D-Ill.; and W.J. "Billy" Tauzin, D-La.

The Hutto group was just one of three congressional delegations that passed through Australia and New Zealand on "official business" in January.

Do we really need 16 state holidays?

By MONTY FOWLER

The Galveston Daily News GALVESTON (AP) — Talk about your silly situations.

While perusing some school board documents the other day, I came across a discussion of the proposed 1988-89 school calendar.

Included in that was a list of Texas state holidays.

I couldn't believe it. There were 16 of them.

That's right. Sixteen!

Plus every day on which there is a statewide election.

• New Year's Day. I have no quarrel with this. Most people are either too hung over or too tired from waiting for the big apple to come down in Times Square to get much work done anyway.

• Only cops, nurses and a few unlucky reporters have to work on New Year's Day.

• Confederate Heroes Day. Really, this is a little silly don't you think?

The war has been over for 125 years or so now, and I think it's time to forgive and forget. Besides, we lost.

• Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Overdue, in my estimation.

He did a lot of good things for all people, not just blacks. We should treat it as a holiday for everyone, not just a select group.

• George Washington's Birthday. Three cheers for the father of our country, or at least for the guy that pulled together a ragtag group of colonialists into a fighting force.

George wasn't perfect — who is? — but he did good with what he had.

• Texas Independence Day. Most states celebrate the day they joined the United States. Texas, as always, marches to its own drummer. A worthwhile holiday. Keep it.

• San Jacinto Day. Coming just seven weeks after Texas Independence Day, this seems like overkill to me.

Yes, we won the battle, but is it that noteworthy a day? I doubt it.

• Memorial Day. A must holiday. And for all those who take advantage of the three-day weekend to go to the beach or on vacation, take a minute, or two, and think about all the men and women who died so we could continue to enjoy the life we do.

• Emancipation Day. Also known as Juneteenth, for the 19th of June when the slaves in Texas finally learned they were free.

Communications being what they were in those days, it took the word awhile to filter down this far. But as a holiday? Do we really need to be reminded of this? I think not.

• Independence Day. Every nation needs at least one good birthday bash every year, to keep the fireworks dealers in business if nothing else.

• Lyndon B. Johnson's Birthday. Even though LBJ was born in the same month I was, I don't feel it is appropriate that we get a freebie on his account.

Yes, he was a president of the United States, and he happened to be from Texas, but I think this is a little too much horn blowing on our part.

• Labor Day. Time-honored tradition of having a last fling at summer before returning to school.

• Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur. These do not really fall under the heading of holidays, being rather important religious events, but it is nice that the state lets those who observe the two have the day off.

• Columbus Day. Generally falls on any day but Oct. 12, the day Columbus inadvertently discovered the New World.

Unnecessary in the grand scheme of things, in my estimation. Columbus Day groups may see it differently.

• Veteran's Day. See Memorial Day above.

• Thanksgiving Day. Try getting any work done today anyway, so what the heck, let everybody off. Except, of course, the unlucky cops, nurses and reporters.

• Christmas Day. Of course, we need to keep this important holiday, not only on religious grounds, but for the emotional well-being of millions of American children.

Yes, a little holiday trimming is in order.

Attorney files motion

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Gov. Evan Mecham's attorney, while preparing to argue his case in an impeachment trial beginning Monday, filed a motion asking the state Senate to dismiss the case.

"This impeachment article should be dismissed and the governor should be permitted to govern this state as mandated by the will of the people in the last election," said the motion filed Thursday by Mecham attorney Murray Miller.

Senators were preparing for the possibility that the governor would go to state or federal court today in an effort to delay the Senate trial. Senate counsel John Lundin told lawmakers he expected any challenge by Miller to be filed in the state Supreme Court.

Prices rise slightly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer prices rose 0.3 percent in January as the year began with a moderate dose of inflation, the government reported today. Higher grocery prices partially offset declines in energy costs.

The increase in the Labor Department's Consumer Price Index was equivalent to an annual rate of inflation of 4.2 percent, compared to the 4.4 percent rise for all of 1987.

Last month's increase was larger than the 0.2 percent rise in December and matched November's 0.3 percent rise. December's increase was revised from the previously reported 0.1 percent.

Pacing the January increase were widespread gains across a range of goods and services. Energy prices, however, supplied a major dampening on the overall rate by plunging 0.7 percent after a 0.8 percent drop in the preceding month.

Drug use widespread

WASHINGTON (AP) — Boredom, peer pressure and bad management create a climate for widespread drug and alcohol use by the nation's railroad workers, two crewmen involved in last year's fatal Amtrak crash say.

The former Conrail workers told the Senate Commerce Committee on Thursday of co-workers who consumed as much as a case of beer a day, brought bottles of liquor to work, or used marijuana, cocaine, amphetamines and other drugs.

"Overall, drinking was encouraged on the job, especially when I was hired on," said Ricky L. Gates, who was the engineer of the three connected Conrail locomotives that on Jan. 4, 1987, collided with a crowded Amtrak passenger train.

Sixteen people were killed and 175 injured in the accident, the worst in Amtrak history, which occurred in Chase, Md.

ANTONIO NORIEGA

Noriega supporters oust president

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) — The National Assembly convened an emergency session early today and ousted President Eric Arturo Delvalle after he tried to fire Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega as the nation's military leader.

Acting in a 10-minute session, 38 legislators who supported Noriega voted Delvalle out of office. The legislators accused Delvalle of promoting U.S. interference in domestic affairs by attempting to force Noriega to step down.

Following Delvalle's ouster, the Cabinet immediately named a new chief of state, Education Minister Manuel Solis Palma, who was sworn in before dawn. The streets were quiet and there was no immediate public reaction.

Noriega, who controls the army and police and is the most powerful man in Panama, is under indictment in the United States on drug trafficking charges.

Delvalle's attempt to reassert civilian control in Panama received immediate backing from the United States when he announced the move against Noriega in a nationwide broadcast Thursday night. The White House, which had called for Noriega's removal, issued an immediate statement of support for "civilian constitutional rule in Panama."

But Noriega and his supporters moved quickly to counter Delvalle's action.

The National Assembly was called into session although opposition lawmakers in the 67-member legislature boycotted the extraordinary early morning meeting.

The decisive action of Noriega forces appeared to shatter Delvalle's attempt to assert control.

Noriega is the de facto leader of Panama, headquarters for U.S. military operations in Latin America. The U.S. Southern Command has 10,000 troops and 20,000 dependents in Panama. The U.S. garrison was on alert and told Americans to keep a low profile during any unrest.

Noriega, who has said he is innocent of all charges, did not comment publicly on Delvalle's removal or the president's order that he step down.

The White House called for Noriega's resignation after his indictments in Florida on Feb. 5.

Two killed in protest

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli soldiers killed two Palestinians and wounded five today during protests on the Moslem Sabbath. Israeli officials cautioned U.S. Secretary of State George P. Shultz to move slowly on proposals for Arab self-rule in the occupied territories.

One Palestinian was killed in the refugee camp of Jabalya in the occupied Gaza Strip and a second was shot dead in Hebron in the occupied West Bank south of Jerusalem, an army official said. Four other Arabs were wounded in Hebron, he said.

An Associated Press reporter saw a fifth wounded Palestinian in Nablus' Al Ittihad Hospital.

Tae-woo OKs amnesty

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — President Roh Tae-woo approved a sweeping amnesty today for 1,731 political dissidents and labor activists to demonstrate his determination to build a democratic government.

A time bomb was found today in a U.S. government building in the southern city of Kwangju and police said radical students planted the device.

The bomb was found in the public library of the U.S. Information Service and people in the building were evacuated while army bomb experts were brought in to defuse the device, U.S. diplomats said. Police said the device was faulty.

Five students armed with homemade bombs and knives briefly seized the service's library in Seoul on Wednesday and detonated two of the devices before being overpowered by police. Nobody was hurt in the attack.

Armenian protests grow

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev today made an unprecedented public appeal for calm in the protest-plagued republic of Armenia, but thousands ignored him and took to the streets in a "sea of banners," witnesses said.

For the past five days, protesters have jammed the center of Yerevan, Armenia's capital, to demand that a region of the neighboring republic of Azerbaizhan, Nagorno-Karabakh, whose population is more than three-quarters Armenian, be made part of Armenia.

The Soviet Communist Party Central Committee, over which Gorbachev presides over as general secretary, rejected the call earlier this month. That sparked street protests in Yerevan in numbers without precedent in the 70 years of Soviet history.

Sergei Grigoryants, an Armenian dissident, said a speech from Gorbachev was read over Armenian state-run radio at 11 a.m. by Vladimir I. Dolgikh, a non-voting member of the ruling Politburo.

Family income gains uneven

WASHINGTON (AP) — Average family income rose 20 percent from 1970 to 1986, but the gains were uneven and families with children fared worse than other groups such as the elderly, according to a congressional study released Thursday.

The mixed news came from the non-partisan Congressional Budget Office in an analysis that contradicts a widespread impression, based on other studies, that family income has stopped growing.

Sen. Pete Domenici, R-N.M., one of those who sought the CBO report, said it suggests positive general trends in family income. But Rep. George Miller, D-Calif., who made a separate request for the analysis, said it contained plenty of bad news as well.

"Even among those families for whom incomes rose, CBO found that the principal reason among the non-elderly was the increased number of workers per family. In many families, both parents must now work to maintain the standard of living," said Miller, who released the report at a hearing of the House Select Committee on Children, Youth and Families, which he chairs.

Miller also cited CBO findings that young families, low-income families with children and poor single-parent families in 1986 were much poorer than their counterparts in 1970.

THE LORD BLESSED US ALL WITH THE EXTRA DAY IN LEAP YEAR

Our calendar's composed of days:
Three hundred sixty-five;
A schedule that the earth obeys
In order to arrive
Where it was always meant to go;
But somehow on the way,
We found that it was running slow,
A quarter of a day.
Thus each four years this day we add,
That soon will be in sight,
Becomes the only way we had
To make it come out right.
So thank the Lord each time you pray,
For all His love divine;
And also for this extra day,
That's number twenty-nine!

Johnson to host program

F.R. Johnson, outreach representative of the Spirit of Freedom Ministries, New Orleans, La., will present a special program on family alcoholism and drugs March 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the New Life Chapel Pentecostal Church, 100 Washington St.

Johnson states that of the two-thirds of Americans that drink, one in 10 becomes an alcoholic, and that 40 percent of all teenagers are heavy drinkers, according to a news release.

The Spirit of Freedom will introduce a new approach to family alcoholism and drugs. The tape titled, "Raised From the Ruins, along with other material, will be made available during the meeting.

Johnson also will present true accounts of men and women who have been delivered from alcoholism and drugs.

This program should be of interest to those who would like to help someone with alcohol or drug problems.

The public is invited and there is no obligation or charge.

Canon to be guest speaker

Rev. Canon David L. Veal will be the speaker for the Lenten series at St. Mary's Episcopal Church March 2.

He is a graduate of the University of Alabama and served three years of active duty with the United States Army in Germany. He taught Latin and history at Northwestern Military and Naval Academy in Wisconsin before going into ministry.

Veal became Canon to the Ordinary of West Texas in 1975, serving until 1980. He served as rector of the Church of the Resurrection, San Antonio, from 1980 to 1987.

He is currently Canon to the Ordinary of Northwest Texas.

The series will begin with a service of evening prayer at 6 p.m., followed by supper at 6:30 p.m. and the speaker at 7:15.

The public is invited.

The Masters V Gospel group to perform

First Baptist Church, 705 W. Marcy Dr., will present gospel music's super group "The Masters V" March 2 at 7 p.m.

The Masters V played their first date Oct. 13, 1980. The show was so successful, it was decided that they would become a full-time group. Their self-titled debut album won a Grammy Award, according to a news release.

Hovie Lister, an ordained Southern Baptist minister, is manager, pianist and emcee for the group. He is perhaps one of the best known gospel singers of all time, the release stated. Lister formed the Statesmen Quartet in 1948, disbanding in 1981 to join The Masters V full time. He was awarded the Mary Tallent Award, was inducted into the Georgia Music Hall of Fame in 1986, and was inducted into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame in 1984.

J.D. Sumner, bass singer for the group, is arguably the man with the lowest bass voice in all of recorded music, according to the release. He worked with the Sunny South Quartet, The Sunshine Boys, and The Blackwood Brothers before forming his own group, The Stamps Quartet. Sumner toured, recorded and made numerous films with Elvis Presley, and has sung on numerous recordings, including gospel, pop and country.

Jack Toney, lead singer for the group, has one of the most pleasant yet forceful voices in gospel music, the release stated.

Toney, a Christian gentleman who has been singing professionally for more than 30 years, is a former member of The Statesmen Quartet. His style and voice combined with his stage presence, makes him truly a master of gospel music.

Ed Hill, baritone singer, has one of the greatest baritone voices of all time and his ability to blend with the other voices is often compared to the late great Doy Ott, according to the release.

Hill has spent his entire adult life in gospel music. He was manager and emcee of the Prophets Quartet for many years. He later joined J.D. Sumner and the Stamps Quartet, and for a brief time in 1980 he was a member of The Statesmen Quartet. In 1981, he became manager and spokesman for the Singing Americans, where he remained until joining The Masters V in 1987.

Shaun Nielsen, tenor singer, made his first solo recording at the age of 16, which is still being sold today. He has a beautiful Irish tenor voice, and while in the service, he was the official soloist at the Air Force Academy, the release stated.

Nielsen was the original tenor singer for The Imperials Quartet and later sang with the Statesmen Quartet. He also was recognized by Elvis Presley and performed solos at Presley's concerts and television programs.

Cabezas to be local church guest

Dr. Arturo Cabezas, M.D., San Jose, Costa Rica, will be the guest at First Presbyterian Church, 701 Runnels, at a conversational meeting March 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Cabezas is chief of staff at Biblical Hospital, San Jose, and chairman of the board of Alfalit International at Alajuela, Costa Rica. He also is one of the founders of Alfalit, an organization involved in literacy programs and community development projects in many countries.

He is addressing several Presbyterian groups in this area during his visit to the United States.

Big Spring residents who have been involved in projects in Costa Rica are Tom Koger, Francis Armstrong and Philip Koger.

The public is invited to attend.

Bible course offered

St. Paul Lutheran Church, 810 Scurry St., will offer a refresher Bible course study every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church library. The free course is open to the public. The Bible is the only text that will be used, said Elfa Cantrell, member.

"It is an informal way of providing opportunities for the participants to ask questions they have wanted to ask," she said.

A wide range of elective courses will be offered they are:

• Through the Bible — a study from Genesis to Revelation in one year.

• Issues and the Bible — a study and discussion of issues and daily situations that affect us.

• The Master's Plan — a discipleship and soul-winning class to help introduce others to Christ. (March 6-May 29)

• Aldersgate Study — a planned study of Scripture.

• Growth and Development Study — consisting of "Christian Financial Counseling" March 6-May 29, study by Dr. Larry Burkett; "Relationship Bonding"

June 5-Aug. 28, study by Dr. Donald Joy; "Turn Your Hearts Toward Home" Sept. 18-Nov. 27, study by Dr. James Dobson; and "Love-Life" Dec. 4-Feb. 26, 1989, study by Dr. Ed Wheat.

Everyone is welcome to attend the elective of their choice. Spiritual Growth Hour begins every Sunday at 9:45 a.m., with morning worship service at 10:45 a.m.

University Singers to present concert March 4

The UT Permian Basin's University Singers will present a concert March 4 at 8 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, 400 Scurry.

The group will perform Faure's

"Cantique De Jean Racine," Randall Thompson's "Fros-tiana," a set of seven pieces based on poems of Robert Frost, and Ralph Vaughn William's "The Pilgrim's Journey," a cantata based on his opera of "The Pilgrim's Progress," the story of one man's attempt to enter heaven.

Howard County NAACP to host gospel musical

The Howard County NAACP will host a free gospel musical tonight at the Lakeview Elementary School gym, 1107 N.W.

Seventh St.

"Youth Spiritual Enlightenment," a 175-member children's choir from the Permian Basin will begin singing at 7:30 p.m., said Johnnie Randall, member of the Howard County NAACP.

Church to host World Day of Prayer March 4

First Christian Church invites the public to attend World Day of Prayer March 4 at 10 a.m.

World Day of Prayer is a worldwide expression of mutual prayer and Christian unity. It began 101 years ago in the United States as a day of prayer for mission.

Church Women United, since its founding in 1941, has been the official sponsor of World Day of Prayer in the United States.

Religion roundup

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A noted church growth specialist says the "prognosis for the Sunday school in America is not good," with enrollment falling from 40.5 million in 1970 to 26.6 million in 1986.

Win Arn, head of the Institute for American Church Growth, says that in 1970, only 10 percent of the adult population said they received no religious training as a child, while in 1986, the proportion had climbed to 27 percent.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mother Teresa, founder of the Missionaries of Charity and winner of the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize, is to receive Greek Orthodoxy's third Athenagoras Human Rights Award at a banquet here Saturday, Feb. 27.

The award, named for the late Eastern Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras, is made by the Archons of the Order of St. Andrew, an organization of Greek Orthodox laymen.

Former President Jimmy Carter, a Southern Baptist, received the award last year.

VOTE FOR Ability ROBERT D. "BOB" MILLER Howard County Attorney

Subject to Democratic Primary March 8th Bob Miller (a 5 year member) and James W. Gregg are the only 2 qualified members of the College of the State Bar of Texas in Howard County. The College of the State Bar is a voluntary continuing legal education program designed to recognize attorneys who "go the extra step". The College requires 27 hours of legal education credit annually. There are approximately 55,000 licensed attorneys in Texas and less than 3% are in the College of the State Bar. Bob is one of them.

Knowledge gives teen-agers power to make right choices

DEAR ABBY: As medical professionals who have worked with children for more than 24 years, we truly appreciate current, informative material presented in a non-judgmental fashion with a dash of humor, and seasoned thoroughly with honesty, love, warmth and concern for our children of today.

Dear Abby

Don't we all as parents wish we could protect and shield our children from adversities and pressures of living in the fast lane of the '80s?

children in protective plastic bubbles, the realities and pressures of life and living will eventually touch them.

As much as we want to protect our children and their innocence, it may be to our advantage and theirs to "arm" them with some concrete informative ammunition with which to deal with the pitfalls of the '80s.

With the information contained in your booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know," a young adult may come to realize that there are always consequences to pay for one's actions.

On the last page of your booklet is "A Letter to Parents." I think those words are so important they should be engraved on a plaque and positioned where parents can read them often to remind us how to achieve a healthy relationship with our children. Will you please print it in your column?

Abby, you are to be commended. You did a fantastic job.

BOBBIE ELDRIDGE, R.N., J.M. TARLE, M.D., SANTA MONICA PEDIATRIC MEDICAL GROUP

DEAR NURSE ELDRIDGE AND DR. TARLE: Thank you for your kind letter. Here's "A Letter to Parents":

Dear Parents: I know this is a booklet for teen-agers, but there's something that needs to be said, and I'm going to say it.

Sociologists and psychologists have interviewed teenagers on the subject of what's bugging them. Here is what our youngsters have said they wanted:

• LOVE. We want parents who will love us no matter what happens or what we do. We want our dad around more often. We want him home in time for dinner, so we can discuss the day's happenings with him.

• UNDERSTANDING. Maybe we don't even understand ourselves. But we want parents who do, who will listen and at least let us explain.

• TRUST. We want to be put on our own. We want our parents to expect the best of us ... not fear the worst.

• JOINT PLANNING. We want parents who will stand beside us, not over us. We appreciate guidance in important matters, but after we're proven ourselves to have fairly mature judgment, we don't want to be nagged about every little thing.

Names in the news

HUGH HEFNER AND CARRIE LEIGH

LIONEL HAMPTON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hugh Hefner's former live-in girlfriend upped the ante in her "palimony" suit against the Playboy magazine publisher, saying she now wants $35 million to prevent him from ruining other young lives.

Celebrity divorce lawyer Marvin Mitchelson filed an amended complaint Wednesday for Carrie Leigh adding fraud and deceit to her previous accusations that Hefner abandoned promises to support and father her child.

Hefner attorney Anthony Michael Glassman said the fraud and deceit claims were unfounded. He called the lawsuit revision a publicity stunt.

Miss Leigh's suit now seeks $20 million in punitive damages "to dissuade him from maintaining his long-enjoyed practice of seducing teen-age girls, supporting them for a few years and then discarding them."

The initial complaint filed Feb. 11 in Superior Court sought an estimated $5 million-plus, but the amendment adds the punitive amount and says lost career earnings and benefits amount to $15 million. Miss Leigh, 24, claims she gave up a modeling career in 1983 to serve as a companion at the Playboy Mansion to Hefner, 61.

Mitchelson said the relationship ended with the arrival at the mansion of Jessica Hahn, whose sexual encounter with PTL minister Jim Bakker led to the evangelist's fall from grace.

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Jazz legend Lionel Hampton announced that a $20,000 grant the National Endowment for the Arts is giving to a foundation under his control will be channeled to a music school named in his honor.

Hampton spoke Wednesday to the Moscow Chamber of Commerce while visiting the Panhandle college town to headline the University of Idaho's jazz festival and receive an honorary degree.

"I always enjoy coming out here because this is a place where high school students, college students, professional people and educators and jazz musicians can come together in a common cause to listen and improve the great art we foster," Hampton said.

Dozens of the world's top jazz performers have come out of Hampton's bands. But he said he has gotten the most pleasure from having the university's Lionel Hampton School of Music named after him, which he said is "like going to heaven."

Hampton started his career in the 1920s. When he joined Benny Goodman's quartet in 1936, he broke a color barrier that had kept black musicians out of American entertainment's front ranks.

NEW YORK (AP) — "Wheel of Fortune" host Pat Sajak says that just because CBS is giving him a talk show opposite NBC's "Tonight Show" doesn't mean he's taking on Johnny Carson.

"If you're going to do a late-night show, that's a fact of life, that Mr. Carson is going to be there. We can't worry about that. We have to worry about doing the best show we can," Sajak said at a news conference Wednesday.

CBS Entertainment President Kim LeMasters confirmed plans for the show, which he said would be 90 minutes compared with Carson's hour and would debut next January.

"There is no attempt on our part here to compete with Johnny Carson," LeMasters said. "Mr. Carson is a tradition, he is much-beloved and a brilliant performer in what he does, and that's not our aim. Our aim is that the environment in late night can stand more than just one talk-show format."

Sajak will continue indefinitely as host of the nighttime version of "Wheel of Fortune," the nation's No. 1 syndicated show. His contract for the NBC daytime version of the show expires in December.

Lifestyle guidelines

We will be pleased to announce the news of your engagement, wedding, silver or golden anniversary in the Lifestyle section of the Big Spring Herald. We try to use the story on the date you request, but sometimes space does not permit this.

The information must be submitted to us on a form available at the Herald no later than Wednesday noon before the Sunday it is to be published. The form must include a name and telephone number of a person whom we can reach during the day for more information.

We will use a picture of the couple in the announcement. Or in the case of engagement announcements where a picture of the couple is not available, we will use one of the bride-elect. The picture must be a professional quality studio photograph. We prefer a 5 x 7 glossy black and white print. We ask for this kind of photograph so that it will reproduce well in the newspaper. Following the picture's publication, it may be picked up at the Lifestyle department.

The information for the story may be brought to the Lifestyle department of the Herald, which is located at 710 Scurry. Or it may be mailed to Lifestyle Department, Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 141, Big Spring, Texas 79720. Call us at (915) 263-7331 if we can help with more information or clarification of our policies.

ENGAGEMENTS
Information of engagement announcements must be submitted to the Lifestyle department of the Herald anytime after the engagement is a reality until at least three weeks prior to the wedding. Anything closer than three weeks will not be published. The engagement form must be submitted no later than Wednesday noon prior to the Sunday it is to be published.

If the bride-elect, prospective bridegroom or their parents do not now or have never lived in our area, we need to know why you are submitting your engagement to the Herald.

MONAHANS — Marfa's Larry Serano dropped a bomb on the Stanton Buffalos Thursday night in Monahans gym. Serano's torpedo at the buzzer gave the Shorthorns a 56-53 win over the Buffalos in Class AA bi-district basketball action.

Serano, a 5-9 guard, launched an off-balance shot from the corner, which found nothing but the bottom of the net, capping off a masterful Marfa rally.

Marfa overcame a cold-shooting third quarter, which saw them trailing 47-40.

Stanton took a 33-32 halftime lead on a shot at the buzzer by Val Flores.

In the third quarter Marfa missed its first seven shots and trailed 39-34 at the 4:40 mark when John Fellows scored the first Shorthorn basket of the period.

Then Stanton surged to its biggest lead of the game when forwards Reggie Franklin and Greg Avery scored baskets. Stanton led 43-34 with 3:40 left in the third quarter.

Franklin and Avery were most of Stanton offense. Franklin utilized his big, compact body to score 11 points.

Avery, averaging 23 points per game, went five better than that. The 6-4 senior dominated the boards against a Marfa team that didn't have a player more than six feet tall. Avery grabbed 16 rebounds, but suffered a rough shooting night.

He was 13 of 34 from the floor, ending his high school career with 28 points.

Though Stanton had a nine-point lead, Marfa coach Dick Hibbits had his team remain in its zone. After the nine-point lead, it was then the Buffalos who couldn't find the basket. During the last 12 minutes of the game, Stanton scored 10 points, and went the last four minutes of the contest without scoring.

Meanwhile the scrappy Shorthorns slowly battled their way back into the game. Avery's jumper gave Stanton a seemingly comfortable 53-47 lead.

With Avery's four fouls forcing him to play conservatively in the back of the zone, the Shorthorns battled back with inside scoring.

Ricky Lujan scored a basket, cutting the Stanton lead to 53-51 with 2:50 left. Bobby Gonzales scored over Avery, tying the score at 53-all with 1:30 left.

Stanton then milked the clock until there were 47 seconds remaining. Stanton coach Eric Looney called time out and instructed his troops to play for the last shot unless they got a "good shot."

Avery shot, missed, got the rebound, and missed again. Marfa rebounded with 20 seconds left. The Shorthorns came down and got off two attempts, one of which Avery blocked. Serrano got the rebound on the second missed shot, and unleashed his winning three-point shot at the buzzer, giving the Shorthorns a 56-53 victory.

Both coaches said their teams didn't handle last-minute play as instructed.

"We wanted to take the last shot unless we got a good shot," said

MONAHANS — Stanton forward Val Flores plays defense against Marfa guard John Fellows during second half action of AA bi-district basketball play Thursday night at Monahans gym. Marfa defeated Stanton 56-53 on a last second shot by Larry Serano.

Stanton coach Eric Looney. "We took two shots from about three-point range.

"We didn't play good tonight. I think we were flat after coming off that hard struggle with Ozona (district playoff game) Tuesday night. I probably never should have agreed to playing here tonight. I did this once before and it ended up about like this."

Marfa coach Hibbits' instructions didn't get carried out either.

"At end we went to a 3-2 zone and they (Stanton) took some bad shots. I told my kids we would stay in the zone until they beat us. I wanted us to take the last shot," said Hibbits. "I started to call time out when we crossed the halfcourt line with 17 seconds left. But I thought I might get my players' attention too late."

Marfa was led by Fellows' 15 points, and Serano, who added 13.

Serrano and Bobby Gonzales grabbed nine rebounds each.

Stanton, runner-up in 6-2A, ends the season with a 23-8 record, Marfa, 5-2A district champ, advances with a 16-9 slate.

Tankers in district meet

By STEVE BELVIN
Sports Editor

Though few in numbers, Coach Harlan Smith is hoping his Big Spring tankers will make a big splash in the district meet on Friday and Saturday.

Smith has only eight members on his team, but is confident his troops will all make it to regionals. The first six finishers qualify for the regional meet.

"I'm sure everyone has a chance to qualify for regional in an individual event or relay. But our main goal is to improve our times and get some higher places," said Smith.

Smith labels Andrews the favorite in the boys' division and Monahans the favorite in the girls' division. "Both teams have so much depth," said Smith.

Leading the Big Spring boys will be sophomore Johnny Webb in the 200- and 500-yard freestyles. Webb set school records in both events this season.

"Nobody will touch Johnny in the 500, but Jay Treadway of Monahans will push him in the 200," said Smith.

Another swimmer that could push for the gold is senior Mark Lynch, who will be competing in the 500 freestyle. "He hasn't swam in the event since early in the year, but I think that's where his strength lies," Smith said.

JOHNNY WEBB

Lynch will join Shane Anderson, Tommy Juarez and Webb in the 400 freestyle relay. In the 200 individual medley relay, Doug Logan, Juarez, Lynch and Anderson will compete.

"In the relays we might finish as high as third," said Smith. "Andrews is tops. We've been real close to Fort Stockton, Pecos and Monahans. If we put things together at the right time, we could finish second."

In other individual events, Anderson will compete in the 200 individual medley and 100 breaststroke while Juarez will compete in the 50 freestyle. Logan will compete in the 100 butterfly.

The female tankers will be led by senior Janie Gonzales in the 200 individual medley and 500 freestyle. Ericka Clarkson will swim in the 200 and 100 freestyles and Sally Lopez will participate in the 50 freestyle and 100 butterfly.

Warmups will begin at 11:30 a.m. on Friday and prelims begin at 1 p.m.

Diving gets underway at 9 a.m. Saturday and swimming finals are scheduled for 1 p.m.

Three tied for LA Open lead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jay Haas, currently playing some of the best golf of his 12-year tour career, shot a 6-under-par 65 Thursday to tie three others for the first-round lead in the $750,000 Los Angeles Open.

Haas' opening round at Riviera Country Club gave him a share of the lead with Chip Beck, Dan Pohl and Jumbo Ozaki of Japan.

A group of five, including Corey Pavin and Ed Fiori, were just a shot back of the lead at 66, as first-day conditions were virtually ideal and scores were generally low.

Haas won the Bob Hope Classic in January, then finished second to Steve Pate in the Andy Williams Open last weekend.

Haas tops the 1988 earnings list with $261,331, only some $10,000 shy of his best previous full year on the tour.

Pate, winner of two of the six tournaments played so far this year, is second on the earnings list with $229,888. But he shot a first-round 73 at Riviera Thursday to immediately drop eight strokes off the pace.

Haas' round was a model of consistency. He had six birdies and no bogeys, and clipped three shots off par on the front nine and three more on the back.

He said he thought it would take a very low score to win the tournament.

"I've played since 1977 and I don't know if the players are getting better or what, but the scores are going down here and everywhere," he said.

"I think it (the LA Open) will start stretching out from here, with the leader maybe going to 10-under. If the weather stays like this (sunny and warm), it may take a 15-under to win it, and that's a very low score for Riviera."

Ozaki, who has 52 victories in Japan but is still winless on the PGA tour, had one of the day's more erratic rounds, with an eagle, eight birdies and four bogeys.

The 41-year-old Ozaki, who played in his first American tour event 18 years ago, made four straight birdies on the seventh through 10th holes, then went to 6-under-par with an eagle three on the par-5 No. 11.

Pohl, like Haas, had a steady round that was bogey-free, but he missed a 6-foot birdie putt on No. 18 that would have put him alone in the lead.

Beck, looking for the first victory of his nine years on the tour, had four birdies on the final seven holes to pull into a tie for the lead.

Also in the group with Pavin and Fiori at 66 were Steve Lowery, Donnie Hammond and Scott Verplank.

Tom Kite was in another group at 67.

T.C. Chen, who won the 1987 LA Open when he beat Ben Crenshaw on the first playoff hole, shot an opening 72 to begin defense of his title.

Mac O'Grady was among a large group at 69, and another logjam at 70 included Tom Watson, Seve Ballesteros of Spain was in the group with Pate at 73.

The final two rounds of the tournament, which has a $135,000 winner's prize, will be nationally televised by CBS. The tournament is sponsored by Nissan.

Sports Briefs

Region I-AA girls tourney on tap

Four teams will be vying for a berth in the state tournament where Dorothy Garrett Coliseum is the site of the Region I-AA Girls Regional Basketball Tournament today and Saturday.

Friday at 6 p.m., the Shallower Fillies (28-5) will play the Reagan County Owls (23-5). At 8 the Morton Maidens (27-6) will play the Wall Hawks (30-2).

The winners will play Saturday at 1 p.m. for the regional championship.

Cost of admission is $3 for adults and $2 for students.

Steers play Lee in home opener

The Big Spring Steers baseball team will have their home-opener Saturday at noon when they host Midland Lee in a doubleheader at Steer Field.

Tuesday the Steers lost their season-opener to Odessa Permian, 7-4.

Timmy Gutierrez went the distance while taking the loss for the Steers. He allowed 13 hits, walked four and struck out four.

Center fielder Felix Rodriguez was the only Big Spring player to get two hits.

Hawks start Region V play

The Howard College Hawks will begin Region V play this weekend at Jack Barber Field when they host Hill Junior College for three games.

The Hawks, 7-1 for the season, will play Hill in a single game at 2 p.m. Saturday. Sunday, the two teams play a doubleheader starting at one.

Sports Booster Club meeting

The Big Spring Sports Booster Club will have a meeting Monday at 7 p.m. in the Big Spring High School library.

The public will get a chance to meet freshmen, sophomore and junior varsity boys and girls basketball teams. Refreshments will be served.

All parents and club members are urged to attend.

Lamesa drums Estacado 93-68

BROWNFIELD — The Lamesa Toreros won their bi-district contest Thursday night, defeating the Lubbock Estacado Matadors 93-68.

The Toros outscored Estacado 31-5 early in the game, and were never threatened after that.

Lamesa is now 26-7 for the season.

Snyder plays Levelland tonight in Plainview.

Triple Crown meeting set

The Big Spring Softball Association has set an organizational meeting for Monday at 8 p.m. in the Highland Lanes bowling alley's Meeting Room 2.

Noel Hull, who is coordinating the National Triple Crown Softball Tournament scheduled for Memorial Day weekend in Big Spring, said the association's members will discuss the tournament as well as other business during the Monday meeting.

Church softball league representatives are urged to attend also, Hull said. "We're going to be talking about the season and having an organizational meeting, and we will be talking about the National Triple Crown Tournament."

"We're urging the church leagues to be there too," he said. "When we first started working on the (Triple Crown) tournament, I was thinking it would bring in about 60 teams, but now they're looking at the upper range of more than 80."

Teams wishing to enter the tournament must submit their entry fees and forms to the national offices of Triple Crown, Hull said, and places in the tournament are being reserved already.

Howard riders sixth

The Howard College rodeo team is ranked sixth in the Southwest Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

The fall season consisted of rodeos at Eastern New Mexico University, Sul Ross State University, Vernon Regional Junior College, and Texas Tech University. Leading the Region are Odessa College and Tarleton State University.

The Howard College men's team has several members ranking high in regional standings individually.

Ken Berry, a sophomore from Carlsbad, N.M., is third for all-around cowboy, third in calf roping and seventh in bareback riding.

Casey Strange, a sophomore from Buna, is fifth in bareback riding and Tommy Yeater, a freshman from San Antonio, is third in bullriding.

Joey Hubbard, a freshman from Charlotte, is fifth in bullriding and Vance Eggemeyer, a freshman from Port Lavaca, ranks ninth in saddle bronc riding.

The spring season of six rodeos begins March 24 at Tarleton State University. The Howard College Rodeo is March 31 and April 1-3 at the Howard County Rodeo Bowl.

The Southwest Region of N.I.R.A. consists of 20 colleges and universities in western Texas and eastern New Mexico.

Suns, Cavs make deal

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Phoenix Suns, in danger of suffering a fourth straight losing season and third consecutive year out of the NBA playoffs, decided it was time for drastic measures.

Making the largest single transaction in their 20-year history, the Suns traded veteran forwards Larry Nance and Mike Sanders to Cleveland for Cavaliers' center Mark West, guard Kevin Johnson and forward Tyrone Corbin in a multi-player deal Thursday night and then dealt guard Jay Humphries to Milwaukee for Bucks' guard Craig Hodges.

In addition, Phoenix and Cleveland flip-flopped first-round picks in the 1988 draft with the Suns also getting the Cavaliers' second-round selection in both the 1988 and 1989 college drafts.

The Suns will get the higher of the two first-round picks this June except if the Cavaliers' pick turns out to be a lottery selection. In that case, Cleveland would retain it and Phoenix would get a first-round pick in 1989 with no contingencies.

Witt closes gap on Thomas

CALGARY, Alberta (AP) — Katarina Witt of East Germany used a showgirl routine to show up Debi Thomas Thursday night, cutting away at her lead in their duel on ice at the Winter Olympics.

Alberto Tomba of Italy won his duel on the mountain with Swiss ace Pirmin Zurbriggen and Swedish veteran Ingemar Stenmark, capturing the giant slalom.

Witt won the short program portion of the figure skating, tapping and twirling in her rhinestones and sequins to show music that included "Hello, Dolly." Thomas, unhappy with her marks for artistic impression, was second, skating to upbeat music that bordered on rock'n'roll.

Winter Games

However, with her lead after the school figures, Thomas moved into first place going into Saturday's freestyle, while the world champion Witt was second. Elizabeth Manley of Canada was third overall.

"I skated a good program, and I hoped to have higher marks," Thomas said. While Witt received mostly 5.8s and 5.9s for artistic impression, Thomas got 5.7s and 5.8s and one 5.6 from the Czechoslovakian judge.

It was a day of short sleeves, short skirts and short programs in Calgary, and the rivalry between Witt and Thomas was heating up.

When Thomas finished her routine, skating after Witt, the East German lowered her eyebrows and frowned in disapproval.

When Thomas' marks for artistic impression went on the board, Thomas' coach, Alex McGowan, said, "No way, no way. It stinks." Then he held his nose.

"I skated a good program," Thomas said. "Of course, I hoped to have higher" marks.

On Mount Allan, Tomba was the man. Stenmark was just another old man. And Zurbriggen was an also-ran.

"Oh, my God, I did it!" Tomba said. "I am the strongest in the world."

Zurbriggen was third, behind silver medalist Hubert Strolz of Austria, the Alpine combined champion. And now Tomba goes for another gold in the slalom Saturday and the prize his father promised him.

"Yes, I will get a Ferrari from my father," Tomba said. "I want it red."

After their first day at the Games without a medal, the Soviets swept the women's 20-kilometer cross-country race. Raisa Smetanina won the bronze, and in her four Olympics, she now has won nine medals, more than any other woman ever.

The Soviets' cross-country sweep gave them a leading 25 medals, including nine golds, to 17 for East Germany, which has seven golds. The Soviets have won 13 of the 21 cross-country medals offered at the Games, including five gold and five silver.

The 35-year-old Smetanina finished third to Tamara Tikhonova's gold, and she now has three golds, five silvers and one bronze in an Olympic career that began in 1976 at Innsbruck, Austria. Her ninth medal put her ahead of countrywoman Galina Kulakova, who also was a cross-country skier.

"She was my idol," Smetanina said. "I wanted to have one more medal than Kulakova. These are my last Olympics."

The United States, with only four medals overall, beat Switzerland 8-4 for seventh place in a hockey tournament so distressingly predictable that it drew the personal critique of International Olympic Committee President Juan Antonio Samaranch.

"It is a pity the Americans are so weak," Samaranch said in an interview. "They are good players, but they have no cohesion. They have no coordination between them."

"Everyone is playing his own game," Samaranch said. "When they have the puck, never, never, never do they hit the puck to one another. They run and shoot, run and shoot.

"And the Russians are playing another way."

With their victory, the Americans finished the same place they did in 1984. After Switzerland scored the first goal of the game, America scored five in a row, including two on power plays. Kevin Miller's goal gave America a 5-1 lead after two periods.

Thursday night, the Soviets beat Canada 5-0, eliminating the host nation and birthplace of the game from any chance to win a gold or silver medal.

The day's Alpine gold belonged to Tomba, who arrived in Calgary this week with the admonition: "I am very cool."

He completed the two runs in 2 minutes, 6.37 seconds, 1.04 seconds ahead of Strolz and 2.02 ahead of two-time World Cup champion Zurbriggen, whose dream of an unprecedented five Alpine golds has produced only one, in the downhill. The 31-year-old Stenmark was 30th after the first run and didn't bother to finish the second.

The 21-year-old Tomba has won seven of 15 World Cup races he entered this season and trails Zurbriggen by just six points in the World Cup overall standings at the Olympic break.

He has dominated like no skier since Stenmark won 45 giant slalom races — four times more than any other skier in history — and three World Cup championships in the 1970s.

Stenmark was a double gold medalist in 1980 but ineligible because of professionalism in 1984. So, how did it feel to get back to the Olympics?

"Right now, it doesn't feel so good," Stenmark said.

On Thursday, Tomba looked the way Stenmark used to — his legs so powerful, very little movement in his upper body, his skis carving graceful arcs around the gates, edges seldom biting. And moving so swiftly.

He led by more than a second after the first run, then coasted home.

He called his second run "very intelligent. With my lead, I took no risks."

Tiger Shaw of Stowe, Vt., was 12th, and Felix McGrath of Norwich, Vt., was 13th. All four Canadians were among 14 skiers disqualified from the second run because their ski suits were not approved by the International Ski Federation. None was a factor in the race.

Virtually eliminated before competition begins is the U.S. four-man bobsled team, and alternate pusher Willie Gault has a suggestion: Hire a guy like his boss with the Chicago Bears.

The sweep by the Soviet women was the first for any country in Nordic events here. Tikhonova won in 55:53.6, giving her three medals but her first gold.

Night baseball at Wrigley Field?

CHICAGO (AP) — For 72 seasons, the only baseball at Wrigley Field was day baseball. But the City Council on Thursday was considering lifting the ban on night games within the friendly confines.

The Chicago Cubs' owners have asked to play a handful of night games each year at Wrigley, the only major league ballpark without lights. And after years of trying to diminish political and community opposition, they may finally get the chance.

The council Thursday began debating a proposal, endorsed by Mayor Eugene Sawyer, that would allow eight night games this season and 18 each of the following years until 2002 at the venerable ballpark.

There was no indication how long debate would continue, but a move to postpone consideration of the proposal was rejected.

Wrigley Field, a neighborhood landmark since 1914 with its ivy-covered walls, is bordered by small apartment houses where resident fans can sit on the roof and watch the action for free. But many residents of "Wrigleyville" are vehemently opposed to night games, anticipating rowdy crowds and parking problems.

Tribune Co., owner of the Cubs, has threatened to take the National League team out of Chicago if lights aren't allowed at the field.

League owners voted earlier Thursday to play the 1990 All-Star game in Wrigley Field — but only if the city lifts the ban on night games.

By only playing during the day, club executives say, the team misses out on lucrative revenue from TV networks interested in airing evening baseball.

And if the Cubs make the playoffs while the night-game ban is in force, the team would probably have to play elsewhere, they say, because games are scheduled to accommodate network requests for prime-time exposure.

The Cubs finished last in the National League East last year.

But what's good for the club is not necessarily good for the neighborhood, opponents say.

"I have no objection to people having a good time, but they just don't respect the neighborhood," said Dwight Guyer, who can hear the roar of the crowd from his home a few blocks away.

Opponents like Guyer say night games in Wrigleyville, as the area is called, will mean boisterous fans pouring out of bars in the wee hours, limited parking residents returning home from work, and littered lawns and streets.

"I don't like people urinating in my yard. I don't like to wake up to trash," Guyer said Thursday. "It's a festive atmosphere and people get out of hand."

Despite the threats, taunts and tantrums, there are a few folks who won't protest if the Cubs swing the bat at night.

"Night baseball is exciting," said Joanne Budka. "The Cubs need that."

The Chicago Tribune, also owned by Tribune Co., entered the fray last week with a lively editorial that said aldermen opposed to lights at Wrigley Field were "boneheads" and "political lightweights."

WTSU officials fire back at ex-coach

AMARILLO (AP) — Allegations by West Texas State officials that fired head football coach Bill Kelly withheld information about the death of a WTSU football player are unfounded, Kelly's attorney said Thursday.

Jim Bob Brown said Kelly fully disclosed to WTSU athletic director Bruce Grimes the circumstances surrounding the March 1987 death of Curtis Johnson, who collapsed during a practice and later died.

Several players and coaches have recently alleged that Kelly, fired Jan. 29, altered a practice drill on March 9, university officials said in a statement Wednesday.

"There were no changes made in the drill on the playing field," said Brown. "The coach and the staff discussed the drill that morning at 11 o'clock before practice that afternoon."

WTSU said it wants to rescind Kelly's contract based on the allegations and has forwarded its information to the state Attorney General's office.

In its statement, the university said assistant coach Butch Boegler gave Grimes previously undisclosed information about circumstances surrounding Johnson's death.

Meanwhile, Boegler questioned the accuracy of some parts of the statement containing WTSU's allegations against Kelly.

According to the release, several players said Kelly had yelled obscenities, which were quoted in detail, at Johnson after he collapsed.

"Bill Kelly didn't say those words, I promise," Boegler told the Amarillo Globe-News. "He did run over and yell something like, 'Get up! God damn it, get up!' And when players went to help him, he did say, 'Leave him alone.' But in no way was Bill Kelly responsible for Curtis Johnson dying on the football field."

"Those just aren't the kind of words Coach Kelly would use," said senior Damon Hogan, on the Buffs' 1986-87 football team. "And I've seen him at his maddest."

Kelly also denies cursing the player.

"Coach Kelly adamantly denies the remarks that they (WTSU) say he made," said Brown. "I can't imagine who they're quoting and where they're getting the statements they're making."

After his firing with two years remaining on his contract, Kelly filed suit to block the hiring of a new coach until he could appeal his dismissal to the university.

A partial settlement was reached Feb. 8 under which Kelly would continue to receive his $4,000 monthly salary for the next two years and be allowed to teach at the school while seeking another job.

Mavericks deny Sleepy's dream of game-winner

HOUSTON (AP) — Sleepy Floyd thought he had the game-winner on the way to the basket for the Houston Rockets when Derek Harper of the Dallas Mavericks blocked it from behind with one second remaining.

The key block allowed the Mavericks to take a 108-106 victory in a key Midwest Division game Thursday night.

"Of course I was surprised Derek that got it," Floyd said. "It would have been a wide open shot."

Floyd was only 18 feet away when Harper blocked the shot.

Harper knew this was a special game and he had to make the block.

"This was an extremely big contest for us," Harper said. "I hadn't been shooting well, and I had to make some kind of contribution."

"It came at the biggest point in the game for us," he said.

Harper said the victory was very important for the Mavericks because it allowed them to open a bigger lead in the division.

"It's not that easy to sit here and talk about it," he said. "Of course it's better to be up four than by two. Hopefully we can build off this victory."

In the final 1:26 of the game, Houston scored six straight points and went ahead 106-105 on Floyd's layup with 35 seconds remaining.

Blackman hit the game's final three points.

Blackman's 20-foot jump shot with 26 seconds remaining provided the winning margin.

Mark Aguirre hit a 15-foot jump shot with 1:45 left, giving Dallas a 105-100 lead and then Purvis Short converted a Floyd assist into a 15-foot jumper and 20 seconds later Jim Petersen hit a driving layup to cut it to 105-104 Dallas lead before Blackman's and Harper's heroics.

Blackman scored 29 points to go with six assists and seven rebounds and Roy Tarpley chipped in with 18 points and 16 rebounds. Aguirre added 21 points while reserve guard Brad Davis had 17, including 11 points in the fourth quarter.

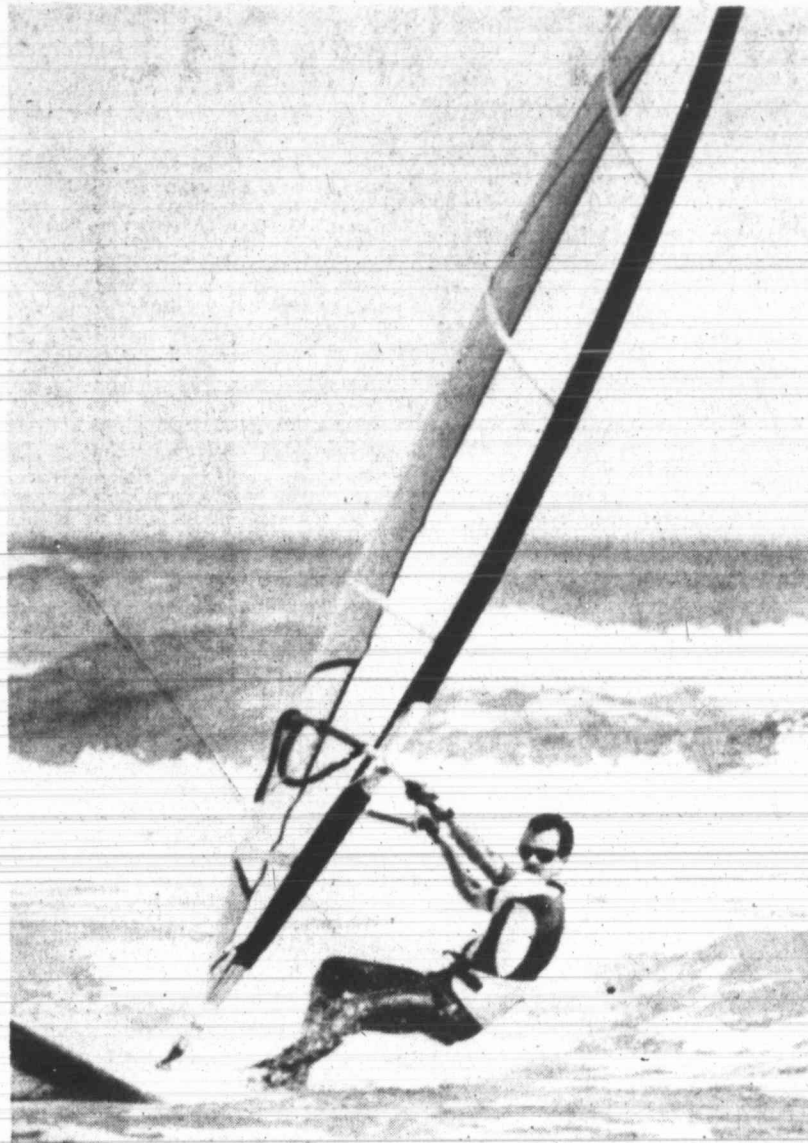

Dallas, 37-17, has now won seven straight games and is four games ahead of Houston, 31-20.

Houston was led by Floyd with 22 points and 11 assists and Olajuwon, who posted 20 points.

Earlier in the fourth period, the Mavericks established a 93-82 lead on four jump shots by Davis, one of them a three-pointer.

But Floyd and Olajuwon led a 14-4 assault narrowing the deficit to 97-96 with Floyd hitting six straight points and key three-points with 6:07 remaining in the game. Blackman scored nine of Dallas' last 13 points.

Dallas posted nine first half steals in establishing a 51-49 halftime score.

LA Open lead gives Japan's linkster thrill

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jumbo Ozaki, a very successful golfer in his native Japan, has never won a PGA tournament in the United States.

So he figures that his fine start in the Los Angeles Open will stir up some excitement in his home land, and maybe inspire him as well.

"People will be excited in Japan at my performance and that will pump me up," Ozaki said Thursday after his 6-under-par 65 gave him a share of the first-round lead in the Los Angeles Open.

"I trained for two weeks at Pebble Beach and Palm Springs and that helped me get ready for this tournament," he said, speaking through an interpreter. "I wanted to get used to U.S. courses and the practice helped me a lot."

"The courses in Japan are shorter and narrower than here," added the 41-year-old Ozaki, who has won 52 events in Japan and played in his first American tournament 18 years ago.

His opening round at Riviera Country Club tied him with Jay Haas, Chip Beck and Dan Pohl for the opening-day lead in the $750,000 LA Open.

Ozaki had one of the day's more erratic rounds, with an eagle, eight birdies and four bogeys.

He made four birdies in a row on the seventh through 10th holes, then went to 6-under-par with an eagle three on the par-5 No. 11.

By contrast, Haas, off to a fine start in 1988, had a round that was a model of consistency.

He had six birdies and no bogeys, and clipped three shots off par on the front nine and three more on the back.

The final two rounds on Saturday and Sunday will be televised nationally by CBS. The tournament, which has a $135,000 winner's purse, is sponsored by Nissan.

“Choose your dealer as carefully as you choose your deal!”

Comparing prices for various makes and models — that's what car shopping is all about. But there's more to a great deal than just bottom line pricing. Your long term satisfaction is our very sincere concern too.

That's why we place so much emphasis on maintaining a 1st rate service department. Our service professionals are all dedicated to delivering 100% satisfaction, and we give it a real team effort.

Quality vehicles, great prices and excellent services — that's what to look for in choosing a new car dealer.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Although the morning is good for communication and recognizing opportunities to advance your interests, later in the day you will tend to be too easily upset, so try to be impersonal and objective.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) The situation at home this morning may not be as ideal as you would like, but you can improve this quickly and make some rapid progress.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be extremely accurate when making out any reports or statements today, and don't waste any valuable time this afternoon.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You will have a fine idea on how to handle a financial difficulty, so go ahead with it, but be sure not to change boats in midstream.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to Jul. 21) Forget your resentment of a co-worker, as this will only hurt your position in the long run. Don't push your opinions on anyone.

LEO (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) You may not agree with the plans your mate has made, but it will do no good to argue about this. This is not a good time to make important decisions.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you must have any important discussions today, make them short and to-the-point. Set aside some time for relaxation tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Handle a long-standing problem quickly this morning so you can move on to more important matters. Your employer can help your progress.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have some fine ideas which could work to your benefit, so don't let anyone change your mind or distract you from your work.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Take care of any important matters early in the day so you can finish the dull chores you have been putting off for too long.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You could make an enemy quite easily today by saying the wrong thing, so be very cautious about how you word your thoughts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Some special thought for your mate would be wise this evening, as he or she may be feeling out of sorts. Get plenty of rest tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Try to organize your activities more efficiently. This will make your work easier and give you some needed time for recreation.

If Your Child Is Born Today He or she will be very methodical in the study and planning of any new enterprises, so unexpected difficulties will be a rarity. Your progeny may have a tendency to talk too much and give away valuable secrets, so reinforce the value of listening more and talking less.
