The city of Big Spring will shut off water in parts of the city Thursday for valve repair. Water will be shut off from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. from 18th to 23rd Streets and from Scurry to Rannels Streets.

Baby kidnapping

HOUSTON (AP) — A man released from jail three weeks ago is being sought by police today after the shooting death of his common-law wife and the disappearance of the couple's infant daughter. Lidia Quintanilla, 29, was found shot to death in her southeast Houston garage apartment Monday evening. Police said she had been shot in the chest, side and shoulder. It wasn't until several hours after Ms. Quintanilla's body was found that police learned her 14-month old daughter, Il-an, was missing. "We believe this (husband) may have the baby," Sgt. Toby Hernandez said. "The only reason we're concerned is he just got released from jail, and, to our knowledge, we don't know if he's got any means of supporting that baby or if he even has a place to live."

New prison will get inmates June 21

By BRADLEY WORRELL
Staff Writer

The Big Spring Correctional Facility will begin receiving inmates June 21, after the federal government approved a contract with the city for almost $3.8 million, City Manager Hal Boyd said today.

"I'm happy to announce we have signed a contract with the government to house inmates (at the Mid-Tex facility)," Boyd said.

The final contract between the city and the federal government is for $3,790,687.09. Boyd said he expects the contract to increase the city's revenue funds by $100,000.

The city contract with the government to house inmates at the facility is for $33.75 a day per inmate. That amount is down from the $36 the city initially requested, but Boyd said he is still happy with the arrangement.

"The government is always going to underbid you... You do some horse trading," he said after the meeting.

The former Homestead Inn was converted to a detention center and is now known as the Big Spring Correctional Facility.

The former Homestead Inn, now the Big Spring Correctional Facility, will begin receiving inmates later this month.

The city will receive a first contingency of approximately 40-50 inmates in about two weeks and will continue to receive them until the facility reaches the 250 inmate mark, Mid-Tex Chief Executive Officer Perry Lyson said.

Lyson said his job as the CEO of the detention center will be to "run the facility from top to bottom." He told reporters he has 25 years experience in the corrections field, including a position as CEO of the Metropolitan Correctional Facility in San Diego.

Although the facility has a contract to house 250 inmates, the Lyson said the prison would not just be a holding facility, but also a correctional facility. After spending time in the facility inmates may decide, "It sure doesn't beat picking beets," he said.

A contingency plan has been developed at the facility, Lyson said. "Yes, we have an emergency plan of what we'll do if there's any kind of disturbance."

A peaceful sit-down protest recently occurred in a similar prison facility in Edens, which houses the same type of inmates as the Big Spring facility.

Four management positions and 31 staff positions with the prison have been filled. Openings for other staff positions are expected in the future, Boyd said. Employees will work for the city; the management staff work for Mid-Tex.

Many of employees at the facility, used largely to hold illegal aliens, will be bilingual. Lyson said 82 percent of the staff of is currently bilingual.

"Down the road we could put in a prison industry... the first year we'll just work at shaking the bugs out (of the system)," he said.

Gregg Street engineer: I appreciate their patience

By BRADLEY WORRELL
Staff Writer

The hassles of driving on Gregg Street will continue until the roadwork is finished at the end of September, the resident engineer for the state highway department in Big Spring said Thursday.

"It's under construction; we're just interested in getting the project finished," resident engineer Mike Chetty said.

Chetty said for the most part people have been very understanding about the construction. "People understand what we have to do to get it done. I appreciate their patience."

Drivers will get a break from construction work on the weekends. "We discourage them from working on Saturday. We will not allow work on Sunday. You just don't do business of Sunday. It's just a condition," he said.

The highway department's role in the project is to do the engineering and inspecting, Chetty said. "All we do is tell the contractor what has to be done," he said.

The actual road construction is being done by Strickland and Knight, a Big Spring company.

One of the most noticeable construction features has been the stripping of the pavement off of the road, leaving a graded concrete surface. Chetty said the process is known as milling and that it is done because the old pavement is not compatible with new asphalt that will be laid down. New asphalt will be laid on top after the widening is complete, he said.

Another noticeable construction feature is the steel pilings in front of Hunan's Restaurant. Chetty said the pilings are for structural rather than aesthetic purposes.

"It's a retaining wall, to keep the soil under the building from (eroding) away... To keep Hunan's from having a branch out in Gregg Street," he said.

The pilings in front of the restaurant will not be a permanent

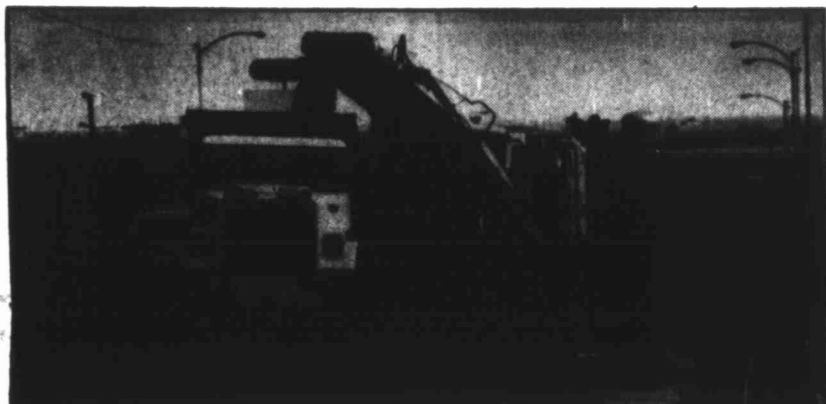

Despite recent stormy weather in the Big Spring area, work has continued as planned on the Gregg Street widening project. Workers smooth a recently poured strip of concrete along the east side of the street in the left photo. A large machine removes the asphalt from feature. "They're the structural part of it," he said. The pilings will eventually be cut down in size so that they are only as high as the edge of the patio and concrete will be poured over them," he said.

"It will look a lot better than it does now," he added.

one of the northbound lanes and shoots the rubble into a dump truck in the upper right photo. A crane pounds a steel beam into the side of a hill to keep it from eroding in the lower right photo.

No other businesses along Gregg Street will require the same kind of construction work the Chinese restaurant has required, Chetty said. "That section there is going to be the only one. No (other businesses) will need pilings," he said.

Mom killed as storm destroys trailer house

By STEVE RAY

MIDKIFF — A pregnant mother of five was killed after winds ranging up to 90 miles per hour destroyed the trailer house where she was living Tuesday afternoon.

Magedela Contreras, approximately 30, was killed between 5 and 5:30 p.m. when the trailer collapsed under pressure from the storm, according to Glasscock County sheriff's deputy Mike Pinkard. The trailer was located in the St. Lawrence-Midkiff area.

"The house was picked up by the wind and flipped like a pancake over on its top," said Pinkard. "We had to use a hoist type truck to pick up the chassis of the trailer house — which was pointed skyward — high enough so that the searchers could get into the rubble." Contreras was in the house with her five children when the storm hit, law enforcement officials said, but the children somehow managed to escape.

"The kids apparently got out somehow," said Pinkard. "But no one seems to know how. One 11-year-old daughter had a broken leg and was taken to Midland Memorial by St. Lawrence ambulance.

"She (the mother) probably died instantly," Pinkard said. "The kids probably just scrambled out the best they could."

"The farmer that the family worked for lost the whole top of his house and then ran down to check on his employees."

The farmer, Coke Barton of the Midkiff community, could not be reached for comment today.

New Speaker promises better conduct

By STEVEN KOMAROW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — New Speaker Thomas S. Foley is promising an "environment of respect" to a House torn by the resignation of Jim Wright, but his vow is being tested by Republican attacks aimed at portraying him and all Democrats as corrupt.
"We cannot tolerate the continuance of the current distrust and suspicion and expect to fulfill the public's expectation," the Washington Democrat said Tuesday upon taking the speaker's gavel.
"Politics involves the clash of ideas, and we will inevitably have disagreements," he said. "But we must be able to conduct our political battles in an environment of respect for ourselves, for our opponents and for the House."
Foley's soothing words were sent to a House shaken by an extraordinary upheaval in the Democratic ranks, with two of the three top party officers exiting because of questions about their personal finances.
Wright, D-Texas, resigned after the House ethics committee charged him with violating House rules on outside income, and the No. 3 Democrat, Majority Whip Tony Coelho of California, is stepping down to avoid inquiry into a junk bond deal.
The Democrats plan to meet next week to fill Foley's old post of majority leader and the whip's job.
Republicans have moved quickly to take advantage of the Democratic turmoil, attacking Foley and warning the Democrats they can't run away from the ethics issue.
House Minority Leader Bob Michel, R-Ill., turned the usually good-willed gesture of introducing the new speaker to the House into a strongly-worded reminder that Republicans are seething after 35 years under the ruling Democrats.
"Thirty five years of uninterrupted power can act like a corrosive acid upon the restraints of civility and comity," he said. "I am all in favor of putting our House in order — but we don't do so by sweeping things under the rug."
Many Democrats considered Michel's remarks a slap at the olive branch Foley was extending. "I think they could have been a little more conciliatory, a little more healing," said Rep. Dale Kildee, D-Mich.

A more personal shot at Foley from the Republican National Committee was brushed aside by the new speaker, but it drew ire from a Democratic lawmaker whose name was used in the attack.
The RNC issued a paper comparing Foley's voting record with that of Rep. Barney Frank, D-Mass., an acknowledged homosexual. The paper was headlined, "Tom Foley, Out of the Liberal Closet."
Frank called the document "despicable" and said he might expose gay Republican lawmakers if the GOP continues making "scurrilous" attacks.
He noted that Republicans have not been immune from ethics problems, citing the May 26 conviction of Rep. Donald Lukens, R-Ohio, on charges of having sex with a 16-year-old girl.
Foley himself said he hadn't read the Republican paper and didn't intend to. "I'm not concerned about political action committees. I want to work with the president, work with the leadership of the Congress," he said.

months pregnant.
County Judge Wilburn Bednar pronounced her dead at the scene at 6:36 p.m.
The injured girl, 11-year-old Sandra, was treated and released from Midland Memorial Hospital with a possible leg fracture. The rest of the children were not injured, reports said.
The weather bureau reported winds up to 90 miles-per-hour, Pinkard said, and some area residents reported a tornado "but I don't think anyone actually saw one."
Several trailer houses were damaged and some power lines were down on the roads, Pinkard said.
Glasscock County Judge Wilburn Bednar said that "lots of cotton was hailed out and roofs, garages and carports blown around."
"All that cotton had been replanted (from a May 14 storm) and was up doing pretty good. Now it's been hailed out again."
The storm hit 20 miles southwest of Garden City in the St. Lawrence-Midkiff communities.

Study: Mental problems widespread in youth

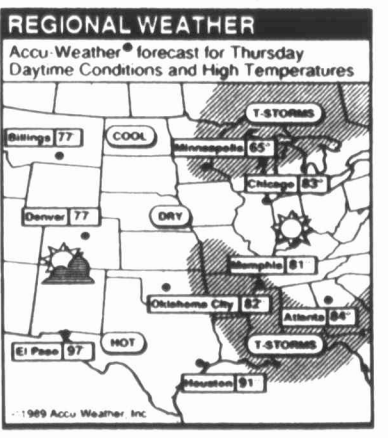

WASHINGTON (AP) — Between 12 and 22 percent of America's children — as many as 14 million of those under age 18 — are suffering from some type of mental disorder, but only about a third are receiving any treatment, a study released today reported.
A committee of the Institute of Medicine said in the study that though millions of childhood mental disorders are not treated, the situation has improved in the last 20 years and there is "demonstrable progress" toward understanding, preventing and correcting many of the mental diseases of youngsters.
"There is increasing reason for optimism that many of the major childhood mental disorders are responsive to treatment," the committee said.
But in far too many cases, no treatment at all is being offered to troubled youngsters, the committee said.
At a news conference today, committee chairman James F. Leckman of Yale University said that of the mentally ill children "a third or less are treated," often because their problems go undetected or because resources for care are not available.
"We have a long way to go," said

At a news conference today, committee chairman James F. Leckman of Yale University said that of the mentally ill children "a third or less are treated," often because their problems go undetected or because resources for care are not available.

Problems identified in the report included mood disorders such as depression, behavior disorders such as hyperactivity, developmental disorders such as autism, as well as chronic drug use, sexual problems and eating disorders including anorexia.
"Approximately 2.5 million children in this country received treatment in 1985 for a mental disorder," the committee reported. "This means that at least another 5 million other children needed some type of intervention, but did not receive any treatment."
Poverty and ghetto life contribute heavily to the nation's troubled youth, the study said.
Youngsters with mental and behavioral problems "may exceed 20 percent in some populations, such as inner-city children, who are exposed to severe psychological adversity," the study said.
The total cost to the nation has not been measured, but the committee said the figure would probably run into the billions of dollars a year.
In addition to the costs of treatment, the committee said there are substantial indirect costs from the need for social services, criminal justice and special education.

Weather

Warm, humid air streaming northward from the Gulf of Mexico clashed with high altitude winds today to create the potential for violent thunderstorms in parts of Oklahoma and Texas.
There were reports of 16 tornadoes Tuesday afternoon and evening over the central and southern Plains.
Six people were injured after a tornado touched down near Odessa, Texas, twisting poles and signs and overturning a tractor trailer. The severe thunderstorms also spawned tornadoes near Cheyenne, Okla., Lipscomb, Texas, and Elk City, Okla.
In Texas, a severe thunderstorm at Noodle brought hail the size of baseballs and high winds that damaged fences. High winds in Jones County caused extensive damage to mobile homes, barns, and power lines.
Thunderstorm winds gusted to 70 mph at Dickson, Okla., and to 63 mph at Abilene, Texas.
In Texas, softball-size hail pelted Glen Cove and Lipscomb. Hail as big as baseballs broke car windshields near Rotan.

Severe thunderstorm watches were in effect this morning for portions of southern and western Oklahoma, central Texas and northern and eastern portions of the Texas Panhandle.
Today's forecast called for showers and thunderstorms from Maine to the southern Atlantic Coast, along the Gulf Coast, over the Mississippi Valley, and much of the central and southern Plains; and severe thunderstorms across north central and northeast Texas and much of Oklahoma.

Marcos prognosis remains poor

HONOLULU (AP) — Former Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos was said to be resting comfortably after emergency surgery for an abdominal infection, but his prognosis for recovery remains poor, a hospital spokesman said.

During Tuesday's three-hour operation at St. Francis Medical Center, surgeons drained a pancreatic abscess, the suspected source of the persistent infection, said Eugene Tiwanak, the hospital's assistant administrator.

Following surgery, Marcos, 71, remained in very critical condition as he has been since May 18 when he was readmitted to the intensive care unit with a variety of serious ailments, Tiwanak said.

An infection had plagued Marcos for the past few weeks. Doctors believed it was centered in his abdomen but were not sure of its exact location, Tiwanak said.

"They felt his condition was worsening and they needed to do the exploratory surgery," he said, adding they were not certain if there are other sources of infection.

Feds investigate weapons plant

DENVER (AP) — Scores of federal agents seized records at the Rocky Flats nuclear weapons plant as the government announced a criminal investigation of possible environmental violations at the facility.

Investigators were checking allegations that employees treated, stored and disposed of hazardous wastes without permits, falsely certified federal environmental reports and concealed environmental contamination, said U.S. Attorney Mike Norton in Denver.

Norton said 75 agents from the FBI and the Environmental Protection Agency's office of criminal investigations began searching the plant Tuesday morning. The probe is expected to last six months to a year.

Federal officials declined to say what prompted the search at the plant, identified last year by the Department of Energy as the most environmentally hazardous site in the nuclear weapons industry because of contamination of an underground reservoir.

Contras plan to remain in U.S.

MIAMI (AP) — Contra leaders said they will remain in the United States and organize exiles until they are convinced the Sandinista leadership plans to hold fair elections.

A declaration Tuesday by all but one of the seven Contra directors said they would resist U.S. pressure to return to Nicaragua at least until anti-Sandinista groups pick a single presidential candidate for elections scheduled for February.

"With a unified opposition, the candidate should take the initiative to call all Nicaraguans back to support them," director Aristides Sanchez said at the Contras' Miami headquarters. "Returning before that would be premature."

Bhutto jokes about Bush's charm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto joked that her visit to the White House exposed her to something she had never seen before: a Yale man with charm.

Both President Bush and the leader of Pakistan made light of their old school ties during a state dinner in Mrs. Bhutto's honor Tuesday night.

Bush, Yale class of 1948, quipped in his toast that Mrs. Bhutto, a 1973 graduate of Harvard's Radcliffe College, had "refused my latest offer. She's not going double or nothing on this year's Harvard-Yale game."

Keeping up the Ivy League banter, Mrs. Bhutto responded: "Ladies and gentlemen, I studied at Harvard and believe me, I didn't know until tonight that Yale ever produced charming men. I'm glad I met the only one."

Six killed; violence rocks Chinese cities

BEIJING (AP) — People in more than a dozen provincial cities have taken to the streets to protest the military massacre in Beijing, blocking major roads and railways with barricades in anticipation of military assaults.

Six people were killed when they run over by a train while manning a barricade in Shanghai and tens of thousands set up roadblocks in Xian.

Official Xian Radio claimed crowds had "wrecked communications facilities, blocked buses, trolleybuses and cars, and forced passing vehicles to halt."

It said the demonstrations had "seriously wrecked the city's life." The Scottish student, speaking on condition of anonymity, said he had seen no evidence of violence or looting.

A Chinese source in Shanghai said besides the six dead, six other people were injured Tuesday night when a train, unable to stop, struck them as they were gathered by a barricade on tracks near Shanghai station.

He said foreigners in the city were planning to leave for Canton, which also has had demonstrations, although smaller in scale.

Radio broadcasts from Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan province, said "a handful of thugs" on Tuesday continued to "smash cars, loot shops, rob pedestrians and throw petrol bombs at bookshops."

Shanghai Radio said angry crowds set fire to the train engine and 21 railway security officials were beaten and injured by crowds who tried to prevent them from putting out the blaze.

A Scottish student in the ancient capital of Xian said huge crowds were holding anti-government demonstrations today in front of city offices.

He said barricades had been set up on roads leading to city as rumors spread the military would be called in.

World

Amnesty granted to guerrillas

WINDHOEK, Namibia (AP) — South Africa has agreed to a general amnesty that is to allow 41,000 Namibian black nationalist guerrillas and refugees to return home to the territory from camps in neighboring Angola and Zambia.

The move is part of an independence plan for Namibia, which South Africa has ruled for 74 years in defiance of the United Nations and a 23-year fight for black majority rule.

Some Namibians will be coming home for the first time in 20 years.

U.N. officials said they would be airlifting the Namibian refugees at a rate of 1,000 to 1,400 a day through July.

President P.W. Botha of South Africa signed the amnesty Tuesday, paving the way for the repatriation to begin Monday.

In conjunction with the amnesty, Namibia's South African-installed administrator repealed security laws, including those allowing detention without trial and empowering Botha to halt court proceedings against security force members.

The repeal is a prelude to independence elections in November.

After permitting more than an hour of debate, during which deputies spoke on behalf of either Yeltsin or Kolbin, the president moved to cut off further discussion and forced a vote that resulted in overwhelming confirmation of Kolbin.

Maverick Soviet rejected for post

MOSCOW (AP) — President Mikhail S. Gorbachev rejected an attempt by lawmakers today to name maverick Communist leader Boris Yeltsin as head of a government watchdog agency.

Gorbachev proposed Gennady Kolbin, party chief of the Central Asian republic of Kazakhstan, to head the People's Control Committee, which oversees government planning and spending. But a parade of Supreme Soviet deputies took the floor to promote Yeltsin for the job.

They praised Yeltsin's reputation for independence and battling corruption, which they said made him better suited for the post. Gorbachev, however, insisted it was his constitutional right to name his own choice, subject only to the legislature's consent.

Widespread AIDS tests predicted

MONTREAL (AP) — A top U.S. health official says the time is coming when doctors will report the names of people testing positive for the AIDS virus and try to trace victims' sexual contacts. But activists criticized the proposal.

Dr. James Mason, U.S. Assistant Secretary for Health, said he didn't know when such a system would be in place, but when it happens "we will have normalized HIV and will handle it like syphilis."

HIV, or human immunodeficiency virus, causes AIDS.

Mason's remarks Tuesday at the Fifth International Conference on AIDS drew immediate criticism.

France plans nuclear test cuts

PARIS (AP) — France will cut back its nuclear test program in a move to limit rising defense costs, Premier Michel Rocard told a parliamentary committee.

In a written statement released Tuesday, Rocard told the National Assembly's Defense Committee of the reduction plan but no details were given. France conducts nuclear tests at its Pacific center at Mururoa Atoll.

New Zealand reported that France "exploded" a 20-kiloton nuclear device Sunday at an underground site in French Polynesia believed to be Mururoa. It was the third French nuclear test this year and the 106th in France's underground series.

The government's policy is to neither confirm nor deny reports of its nuclear tests. Rocard's statement did not say how many tests the French had planned to carry out or how great the reduction would be.

Child-care attracting attention

FREMONT, Calif. (AP) — A landmark measure to create a direct tax on households and businesses to support child care was overwhelmingly rejecting Tuesday.

With 46 of 64 precincts reporting, the vote was 9,388 against to 2,727 in favor.

The measure, which needed to be approved by a two-thirds majority, would have raised $1.8 million a year from residents, businesses, developers and the city's own coffers to open care centers at 30 elementary schools. Cities and child-care advocates nationwide had been watching for the outcome.

The program in this city of 165,000 on the east side of San Francisco Bay also would have helped sick kids and subsidized poor parents for baby-sitting costs.

"Cities around the country are looking to the Fremont example to see whether taxpayers are willing to pay for child care," said John Kyle, director of the Children and Families and Cities Project of the National League of Cities in Washington.

"People in 80 percent of all cities are saying child care is the most pressing need for children from birth to 9 years old," he said. "Cities are looking for ways to handle that need, and resources are the biggest barrier to providing good services."

No eating in Chevys

PORTAGE, Mich. (AP) — The owner of Chevy's Cafe plans one last bash before changing the eatery's name, under a threat of a trademark infringement lawsuit by General Motors Corp.

To commemorate the name change to Flip's Cafe, employees and patrons will destroy a battered 1967 Chevy in the restaurant's parking lot tonight with a sledgehammer.

Owner Dennis Richards contends the name Chevy's was chosen simply to convey a 1950s image. Portage is about 135 miles west of Detroit.

"They sent us a letter the first week in April indicating that they were going to sue us if the name wasn't changed," Richards said of GM.

Chevrolet spokeswoman Mary McElyea said the company wants to get more protective of its name as a trademark. She said GM also has contacted about 15 to 20 other restaurants nationwide that use company trademark names.

"We got letters from stockholders and chapters of Mothers Against Drunk Driving asking GM why they'd support establishments that serve alcohol," McElyea said.

Quick bucks for city

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The city said it wasn't a conspiracy, but a witness said he saw street workers changing one-way road signs near the federal courthouse and meter maids writing tickets right behind them.

The violation: parking the wrong way against traffic, a $15 fine, $30 if it becomes delinquent.

"They gave a whole bunch of tickets out there," said Johnny Miller, a security officer at the federal courts building.

Miller said that before workers finished changing the signs on both ends of two streets on April 19, parking officers started issuing citations.

Ida Daniel, head of the city parking division, said the streets department did not tell her department there would be a change of directions for the streets.

Potty parity

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Sixty-nine years after women won the right to vote, they are on their way to winning potty parity, thanks to lawmakers in the state's Senate.

The Republican-controlled Senate on Tuesday approved a bill that requires buildings constructed after June 1, 1990, to have the same number of toilets for women as men.

That's to correct an age-old inequity when it comes to bathrooms, according to the bill's sponsor, state Sen. Guy Velella.

Current New York state law allows men to have more toilets than women, and that's a "gender-based inconvenience" and a potential health hazard, Velella said.

Signed videos on childbearing await funding solution

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — The sound of her baby's first cry will never reach Susan Deaver. But the most current information on delivering a baby will.

Susan and her husband, Barry, are deaf and are expecting their first baby in August. That child may be among the several Wichitans to star in a nationally distributed eight-part film series for the hearing impaired.

The films will help the hearing impaired through the child-bearing process, including everything from Lamaze training to dealing with problem births.

The idea for the videos was born at a Lamaze training course at Midwestern State University four years ago. Mark Lukert, a former teacher of the hearing impaired, and MSU Associate Professor Betty Bowles met at a break in the Lamaze training and decided a video could help millions of deaf parents if it could be distributed nationwide.

Lukert was communicating for a deaf couple taking the Lamaze class when Bowles first met him. (Lamaze is a natural method of childbirth that used breathing and relaxation techniques to control pain.)

"I was so fascinated with what Mark was doing that I didn't pay that much attention to the rest of the class," Bowles said. To take the class now, a couple must have an interpreter.

The videos would eliminate that need.

Bowles and Lukert are applying for grants to help fund the project. They learned last week that an application through MSU to the federal Department of Education for $121,000 was narrowly disapproved on technical grounds. But they say they are not discouraged.

"We're still going to do it," said Bowles. "It's just going to take a little longer. I sent in four other applications for four other grants."

Bowles said they hope to hire Bobbie Beth Scoggins, a deaf actress who starred in the Broadway production of "Children of a Lesser God." Scoggins would guide deaf couples, using sign language, through the eight videos, each lasting about an hour.

KFDX Channel 3 has volunteered the use of its facilities to complete the production. Topics include pregnancy, labor, delivery, baby care, breast feeding, Lamaze, problems in giving birth and caring for the mother after birth.

Leslie Mayo Schaffner, Bethania General Hospital publicist, and Channel 3 Chief Photographer David Brott have shot portions of the videos and are continuing work while awaiting news on the grants.

Bowles has written the script, and Lukert is simplifying it for sign language.

Bowles said 5 million deaf adults of childbearing age could benefit directly from the videos. Without a series, couples will continue to rely on interpreters for information on birth and child-rearing.

Barry and Susan are lucky enough to have Lukert as an interpreter. Lukert, Kate Haynes Elementary School principal, is Barry's former teacher. With his help, the couple described with hand signals some of their feelings about having a baby.

"We're excited," Susan signed. "This is our first baby, so we don't know what to expect."

They are enrolled in the Lamaze class in July. They signed that they want to learn as much about the birthing process as they can.

The reason was simple enough. The more they learn, the less there is to fear.

Wives more likely to file for divorce

WASHINGTON (AP) — When American marriages end in divorce, the wife is nearly twice as likely as the husband to initiate the process, the National Center for Health Statistics said Tuesday.

It said wives filed 61.5 percent of the divorce petitions acted on in 1986, compared with 32.6 percent filed by husbands. The remaining petitions were filed jointly.

The presence of children apparently didn't encourage wives to remain in unhappy marriages.

In the breakup of marriages where children were present, wives filed 65.7 percent of the divorce petitions, while women initiated 56.9 percent of the divorces of childless couples.

The report did not include an explanation for the disparity between the sexes.

Statistician Barbara Foley Wilson of the center said that traditionally women have predominated in filing divorce petitions.

In past years, it was often considered gentlemanly for the husband to allow the wife to file the papers, she said in a telephone interview.

What's surprising in this era of no-fault divorce is that the joint petitions haven't become more common, she said. Joint petitions made up only about 6 percent of divorce cases, the report said.

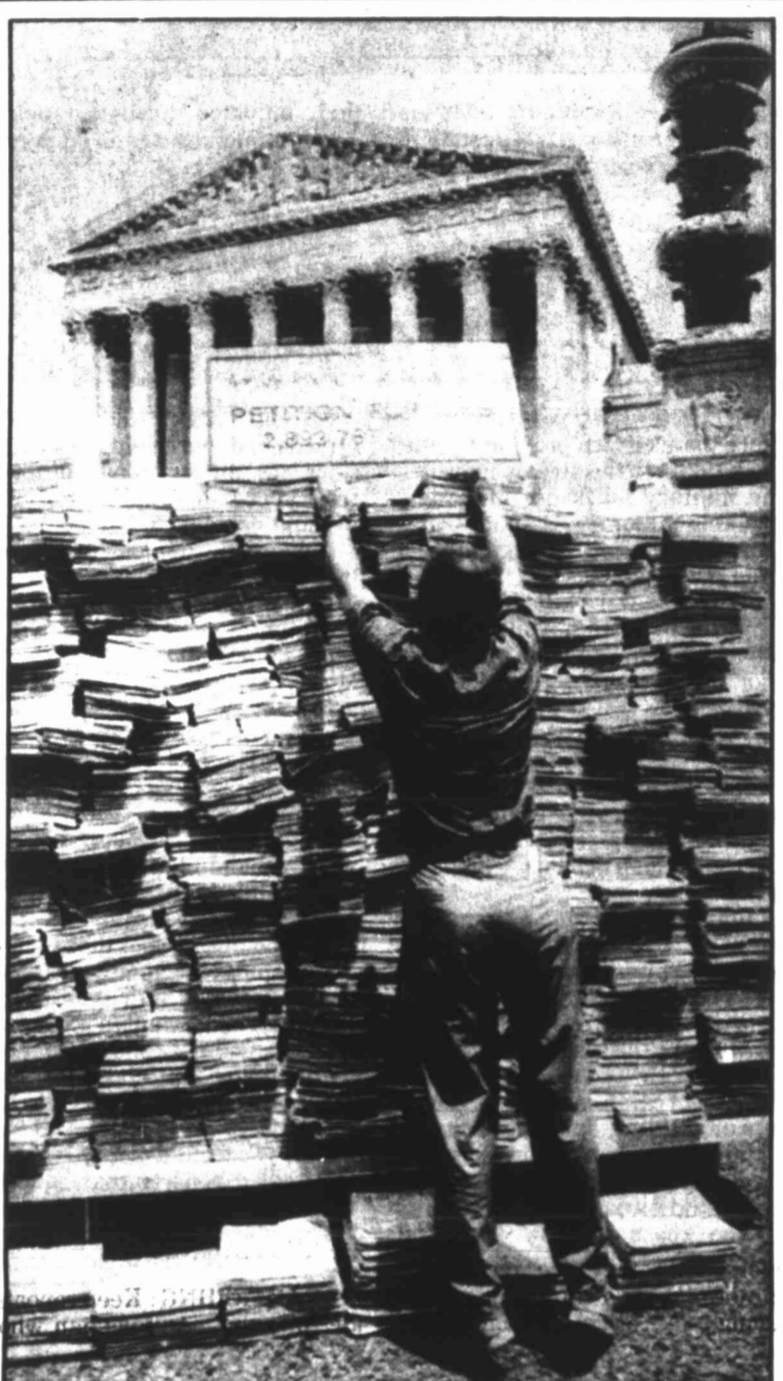

Various studies of divorcing partners, she added, have showed that it is more often the woman who is dissatisfied with the marriage than the man.

This was the first time the Center for Health Statistics, a division of the Department of Health and Human Services, has reported on who initiated divorces.

The figures were included in its detailed final report on divorce statistics for 1986, a year that saw 1,178,000 marriages break up in the country.

Preliminary reports show that divorces fell to 1,157,000 in 1987 and then climbed to 1,183,000 last year. But the reports for 1987 and 1988 have not been completed in the detail which is included in the 1986 report.

While the 1986 report was the first to include figures on who initiated the proceeding, it did cover the period back to 1975, indicating that women are becoming somewhat less likely to be the one filing the papers than in the past.

Addressing the court
 WASHINGTON — Wayne Dillard of Lindale, Texas, adds a message to the top of a stack of petitions in front of the U.S. Supreme Court in Washington Monday. Several pro-life groups gathered and delivered the petitions, which urge an end to legalizing abortion.

Paige named best loser

The regular Tuesday night meeting of TOPS TX 21 was called to order by leader Shirley Jenkins. Roll was called by weight recorder Edith Roberts. Seventeen members answered with total club loss of 9 1/4 pounds.

Tammie Paige was best loser for the week with a 3 1/2-pound loss. Gladys England was the best monthly loser with a loss of 11 1/2 pounds in May. Paige received a best loser certificate and $1. England also received a best loser certificate plus $5.70 from the gainers fines collected during May.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. It was announced that our net loss so far in the contest with the Snyder TOPS club is 63 pounds. The best losing club will be treated to a salad supper by the biggest gainer club.

Incentive gifts were opened by members showing a loss since the last meeting in April. Secret Pal gifts and cards were passed to members. Visitor Elaine Mattison was welcomed. During the month, the club welcomed three new members: Jana Smith, Tammie Paige and Ellen Miller.

Shirley Jenkins presented a program of TOPS fun songs and concluded with a game quiz. Nathan and Olnee Menges won the prizes.

For additional information, please call Shirley Jenkins at 263-0391, or Virginia Collins at 263-1340.

Study Club hosts final meeting

The GFWC Forsan Study Club held its final meeting of the year May 13.

Eunice Thixton, club president, presented the program "No, Not Me," based on a crime prevention workshop developed by Du Pont Company. The program dealt with personal safety awareness and strategies and guidelines for care and support of victims.

Several hand-outs from the local Rape Crisis/Victim Services were distributed. Lisa Brooks, director, was quoted several times in these hand-outs.

Thixton presided over the business meeting. Business for the end of the club year was discussed, and preparations for the new year beginning in October were made.

Members enjoyed lunch at the Red Mesa Grill.

Fortenberry family reunites

The Fortenberry family reunion was hosted Sunday at Kentwood Older Adults Activity Center.

The oldest family member in attendance was Mrs. Willie Fortenberry, 92, Big Spring. Youngest present was Shana Lynn Fortenberry, 2, daughter of Jimmy and Judy Fortenberry, Big Spring.

Family members attended from Weatherford, Colorado City, Odessa, and El Dorado, Ark.

Military

Cadet John A. Meyer, son of Mrs. Joan Meyer, Big Spring, graduated from Marion Military Institute May 13. Cadet Meyer received an associates degree in science. In later ceremonies, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve. Marion Military Institute is one of only six Military Junior Colleges in the United States that host the Army ROTC two-year commissioning program. Marion commissions an average of 65 Army Second Lieutenants each year and is one of the largest ROTC programs in the United States Army. MMI is an independent, non-profit institution.

Man's hearing loss muffles pleasure of visit

DEAR ABBY: My father-in-law may be coming to stay with my family and me for a visit this summer, and before he comes, I need some advice from you or your readers who have had to deal with this problem.

Dad is very hard of hearing. He sometimes jokes about getting a hearing aid, but he doesn't realize that his hearing problem is a hardship on others. Last summer when he visited us, I was glad to see him, but I couldn't wait for him to leave.

Several times when my children were talking to either him or me, he would start talking — completely unaware that someone was talking. The children couldn't understand why Grandpa was so "rude." He enjoyed watching TV at night, but because he couldn't hear, he turned the volume up so loud it disturbed everybody in the house and gave me a constant headache.

My husband refused to say anything because he didn't want to hurt his father's feelings, and I would not feel comfortable saying anything to him about it.

Is there a way to let this dear man know that his hearing loss is hard on all of us? I can't understand why some older people are too proud to wear hearing aids, yet they wear glasses.

Dear Abby

Maybe if you print it (no name or location, please) he will see it and take the hint. — ANNY-MOUSE

DEAR MOUSE: Squeak up! Tell your husband that HE must address this problem. To fear "hurting the feelings" of someone who is upsetting your entire household is foolish.

If he sometimes "jokes" about getting a hearing aid, he must be aware that he needs one. Insist that your husband handle this family problem. And if he refuses, then you handle it as gently and kindly as possible. But do handle it. You will be doing everyone — especially your father-in-law — a favor.

DEAR ABBY: I know I'm not alone. There's one in every family. I take my camera to all the family gatherings. I often hear, "Oh, Lord, there she is again with that camera!"

My relatives think I am a pain because I'm always taking pictures. Don't they understand that I'm not just taking pictures for the fun of it; I'm recording memories we can all look back on with fondness.

Please print this for some of those sourpusses who run away or cover their faces with their hands every time they see me with a camera. What's the harm in capturing some priceless moments on film? — DALLAS CAMERA NUT

DEAR CAMERA NUT: The "harm" in capturing some "priceless moments on film" lies in how the subjects feel about being "captured."

Do you ask permission before taking a picture? Or do you just click away, invading the privacy of your subjects?

Not everyone wants a "fond memory" of himself yawning, snoring or eating corn on the cob while a few kernels cling to his nose and butter drips from his chin. Please ask first.

DEAR ABBY: I am single and very much in love with a married woman. She loves me, too, and is planning to leave her husband. However, while I am waiting, I am consumed by jealousy. We are truly right for each other and know that we will live happily ever after — but how do I survive until then? — ACHING IN PENNSYLVANIA

DEAR ACHING: Keep repeating the following: Any woman who is capable of cheating on her husband, is capable of cheating on her husband — regardless of WHO he is.

Everything you'll need to know about planning a wedding can be found in Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding."

Committee selects students

The Advisory Committee of the Scenic Mountain Medical Center School of Radiologic Technology met May 17th to select its class that is scheduled begin training Aug. 21.

Class members are: Tere Barrier, Sandra Hatfield, Linsia Rodriguez, Misty Turner and John Vidlak. "We are all very excited about our new students and look forward to their first day of classes," said to Vivian Gordon, program director.

The program celebrated its second annual Student Appreciation Day May 19. The day is set aside to honor students for their dedication and service to patients.

Students honored on this occasion were: Caroline Clifton, Dennis Duff, and Mickie Harris (senior students); Lynn Brockman, Frank Garfias and Melinda Hernandez (junior students).

They were presented with carnation corsages and treated to a barbecue luncheon sponsored by Dupont (local representative, James McCutchan) and Siemens (representative, Jim Weir). Shirleen Brown, director of nursing, who represented the hospital administration, thanked students for their many hours of hard work and presented them with a token of the hospital's appreciation.

The second annual Radco award, donated by Radco, Inc. of Midland, was presented to Melinda Hernandez for being the outstanding first-year student. Carlos Gonzalez, director of radiology, presented the award that represents academic and clinical excellence and good attendance.

The Scenic Mountain Medical Center School of Radiologic Technology has been training qualified, professional radiologic technologists for the Big Spring area since 1974. "We are extremely proud of our students — they are an asset to our institution and the community", said David Wiley, hospital executive director.

Summer salads

Easy-to-prepare dishes with spicy, tongue-tingling taste

Spicy-hot foods with cool, crispy crunch are just about perfect for warm-weather meals. Chock-full of bright vegetables bursting with tongue-tingling taste, they're a sure-fire cure for wilting appetites.

For all of this summer's too-hot-to-eat days, Pace Foods home economists have created a collection of cooling salads with zesty, spicy-hot flavors. As easy as summer cooking should be, they bypass tedious chile preparation and specialty spice blending by relying on versatile picante sauce for garden-fresh flavor and lively jalapeno pepper "punch."

Chicken-Blue Cheese-Bacon Salad is a new variation of chicken salad that is sure to become a summer standby. And Aztec Tuna Salad, with its lively south-of-the-border flavors and bright colors will add an ole to any sultry day.

AZTEC TUNA SALAD
 3/4 cup picante sauce
 1/2 cup Italian dressing
 3 tbs. minced cilantro
 1 tsp. ground cumin
 1 can (about 14 ounces) water packed tuna, drained
 4 cups shredded spinach leaves
 1 can (16-oz.) dark red kidney beans, rinsed and drained

1 small yellow or red bell pepper, cut into short, thin strips (1 cup)
 1 large or 2 small tomatoes, cut into wedges

1/2 cup chopped red onion
 Combine picante sauce, dressing, cilantro and cumin in medium bowl. Break tuna into large chunks; toss with picante sauce mixture. Line large serving platter with spinach leaves. Transfer tuna to center of spinach with slotted spoon. Arrange beans, yellow pepper, tomato and red onion attractively around tuna. Drizzle with remaining picante sauce mixture. Serve with additional picante sauce. Makes 6 servings.

SPICY THAI-STYLE CHICKEN SALAD

2 whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned and cut into thin strips
 1 large garlic clove, minced
 1 tbs. peanut or vegetable oil
 3/4 cup picante sauce
 1 tbs. soy sauce
 2 tsp. finely shredded fresh ginger
 2 cups shredded romaine leaves
 2 cups shredded spinach leaves
 1 small cucumber, halved lengthwise, seeded and sliced (1 1/2 cups)
 1/4 cup coarsely chopped cilantro
 2 tbs. creamy peanut butter
 1 small red bell pepper, cut into

Add sizzle to summer meals with the spicy-hot flavors of delicious summer salads.
 short, thin strips (1 cup) 10-inch skillet over medium heat until chicken is no longer pink. Add 1/4 cup picante sauce, soy 1/4 cup peanut halves (optional) Cook chicken and garlic in oil in sauce and ginger; continue cooking 3 minutes or until chicken is cooked through. Chill mixture until cold, at least 2 hours. To serve, combine romaine and spinach; arrange on serving platter. Combine chicken mixture, cucumber and cilantro. Whisk together remaining 1/2 cup picante sauce and peanut butter. Toss with chicken mixture; arrange over lettuce mixture. Sprinkle red pepper around edges of chicken mixture; sprinkle center with peanuts, if desired. Serve with additional picante sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHICKEN-BLUE CHEESE-BACON SALAD

3 cups cubed cooked chicken salad
 1 cup sliced celery
 1/2 cup sliced green onions with tops
 1/2 cup coarsely chopped toasted walnuts
 1/2 cup finely crumbled blue cheese
 1/2 cup picante sauce
 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 1/4 tsp. salt
 Boston lettuce leaves
 2 slices crisply-cooked bacon, crumbled

Combine chicken, celery, green onions, nuts and cheese in large bowl. Combine picante sauce, mayonnaise and salt; mix well. Toss with chicken mixture; chill. Spoon onto lettuce; sprinkle with bacon. Serve with additional picante sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings, about 5 cups salad.

WAGON WHEEL TURKEY SALAD

4 cups cooked wagon wheel or spiral pasta (about 2 cups uncooked)
 2 cups short, thin turkey strips (about 8 ounces)
 1 large tomato, cut into 1/2-inch chunks
 1 small red bell pepper, cut into 1/2-inch chunks (1 cup)
 1 large zucchini, cut into 1/2-inch slices, each slice quartered
 1 can (8-oz.) whole kernel corn, drained, or 1 cup frozen corn kernels, thawed
 1/4 cup chopped cilantro or parsley
 3/4 cup creamy garlic or creamy Italian dressing
 1/4 tsp. salt

Combine pasta, turkey, tomato, red pepper, zucchini, corn and cilantro in large bowl. Combine picante sauce, dressing and salt; mix well. Toss gently with turkey mixture; chill. Serve with additional picante sauce. Makes 6 servings, about 8 cups salad.

Food

Fix two dishes at once

By PAPA JOE REED

Let's face the facts. You are now beginning to be equal with any woman in the kitchen, but being able to cook a few dishes does not a lifetime make. Complete equality takes time. It takes patience. You cannot cast off the shackles of centuries in a week, a month or even a year. For many it will be a lifetime struggle. There will be those who fall by the wayside. That should give us a greater incentive to press onward. We men must demand full equality in the home. With this in mind, today we will fix two dishes instead of just one. To start, we will have a Hamburger Bake. Some people call it a pie. Either way, it's delicious. You will need the following ingredients:

Onion (one medium)
 Hamburger meat (1-lb.)
 Salt and pepper
 Green beans (one can)
 Potatoes (five medium, cooked)
 Tomato soup (one can)
 Egg (one beaten)
 Milk (1/4 cup)
 Butter (2 tbs.)

Chop onion and cook in butter until golden brown. Now you add the meat and seasoning cook until meat is brown and crumbly. Next add the green beans and tomato soup. Next, you mash the potatoes and add the milk and egg. Season to suit taste. Spoon this mixture in mounds over the meat. Place in oven and bake for about 30 to 35 minutes.

With this dish, you have a complete meal. Now you need a dessert. To be an accomplished cook, you will have to cook more than one dish at a time. The secret is in the timing. Everything has to come out about the same time. Some never learn. Stick with Papa Joe and I'll have you cooking not only two dishes at a time, but three and four dishes at a time.

For our dessert tonight, we will have Quick Cobbler. I guess peach cobbler is probably the most favored dessert in the Southwest. For our cobbler you will need the following ingredients:

How to open an egg

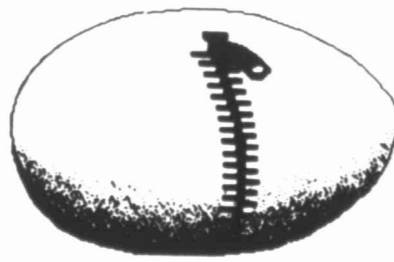

Sugar (1 cup)
 Salt (1/4 tsp.)
 Flour (1 cup)
 Milk (1/2 cup)
 Baking powder (2 tsp.)
 Oleo (one stick)
 Peaches (one can)

To start the cobbler, melt the oleo in a baking dish. Now blend all the dry ingredients together, add the milk and stir until smooth. Pour into the baking dish. Now dump in the peaches, but do not stir. Bake for about 45 minutes. Now you have a complete meal with dessert. If you fix both at the same time, they will come out of the oven within minutes of each other. As I said, it's all in the timing.

Many of you readers have expressed your puzzlement when to use certain herbs and spices. The main purpose of herbs and spices is to enhance the flavor of the dish you're fixing. They give zest to a bland and sometimes unappetizing vegetable or meat dish you are fixing. So starting this week we will have kitchen tips.

Papa Joe's Kitchen Tip: Marjoram — An herb of the mint family, has a minty sweet flavor and is used in beverages, jellies and also used to flavor soups, stews, fish and sauces. Also delicious to sprinkle over lamb while roasting.

DOVER, England (AP) — Queen Mother Elizabeth was honored Monday on the 10th anniversary of her installation as Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, an ancient but no longer arduous post.

She has the dubious privilege as royal beachcomber of claiming any flotsam or jetsam washed up on England's southeast coast. She is also obliged to pay for the burial of stranded whales.

Cinque Ports, from the French for five ports, is the title given to five coastal towns in southeast England that formerly had special privileges as ports. The Confederation of the Cinque Ports, which honored the mother of Queen Elizabeth II on the anniversary, was formed during the 11th century to furnish ships and sailors for the monarch.

The queen mother is the 160th Lord Warden and the first woman to hold the appointment.

DETROIT (AP) — Sparky Anderson, manager of the Detroit Tigers, has returned to Motor City after a two-week rest to recover from exhaustion, the team said Monday.

Anderson, 55, left the team May 19 and returned Sunday night to Detroit from his home in Thousand Oaks, Calif. The team's physician, Dr. Clarence Livingood, said

Anderson needed a break from a hectic schedule of appearances, endorsements and other non-baseball activities.

EVERGREEN, Ala. (AP) — Two years after the courts declared her the illegitimate daughter of the late country legend Hank Williams, Jett Williams made her professional debut as a country singer.

Ms. Williams, 36, was given a standing ovation Sunday at the 16th annual Hank Williams Memorial Celebration when she opened her 20-minute performance with her father's "Your Cheatin' Heart."

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1989

CELEBRITIES BORN ON THIS DATE: first lady Barbara Bush, comedian Joan Rivers, legendary architect Frank Lloyd Wright, actor-singer Robert Preston, Supreme Court Justice Byron White, actress Alexis Smith, comedian Jerry Stiller, country star Boyz Scaggs, impressionist George Kirby.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Today's events could revive a ticklish situation. Check those impetuous urges! Ponder a romantic proposal when you have a chance to relax and think things through. Refuse to be rushed off your feet.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Financial worries are diminishing. You could be embarking on a new road in your life. Travel brings special pleasure if it gives you a chance to read good books. Do some writing of your own.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Keep a closer watch on spending. Anything to do with business matters a lot now. Deals must be finalized. Be sure to operate within your budget. Overruns will irritate influential person.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): A new relationship seems too good to be true. Your attitude is one of uncritical adoration. A period of contentment lies ahead. Do not let your love blind you to partner's quirks.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): A fly-by-night individual could cause you heartache unless you are careful. Avoid acting on impulse. You will get a chance to make some extra money. See what strings are attached.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): New attachments should be investigated and watched. A young person is about to embark on an exciting adventure. Advise caution, but do not focus on the negative.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Be sure to keep both feet firmly on the ground today. You can move at top speed if need be. If feeling deflated at day's end, give yourself a special treat or outing.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Avoid gambling, even on "a sure thing." You generate fresh vitality in others now. Spending time outdoors together brings extra pleasure to a relationship. Do not try to cover too much ground.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You find valuable items in the most unexpected places. Ask direct questions. You feel more and more responsible for a child or parent. Meet your family obligations with good grace. Love conquers all.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Keep your eyes peeled! A garage sale could produce a gem at a bargain price. Your deep concern for youngsters can help give them a better life. Encourage others to join a community campaign.

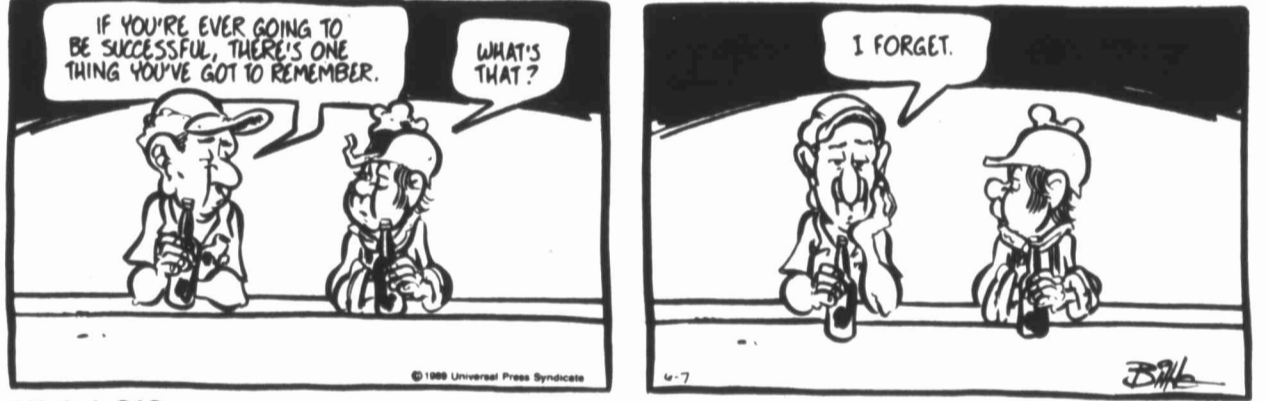

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): A good time to concentrate on budgets and filing important papers. Fall in with the arrangements someone else has made. Better organization spells quicker progress. Discard outdated methods and procedures.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Do not expect your business associates to make the same sacrifices you are willing to embrace. Their agenda may be very different! This is no time to purchase luxury items.

GOODYEAR

CERTIFIED AUTO SERVICE

408 Rannels 267-6337

CAN YOU PUT A PRICE ON SAFETY?

We couldn't. So you get a free Safety Check at a Goodyear Certified Auto Service Center when you have an oil and filter change and chassis lube.

OIL FILTER, OIL CHANGE, CHASSIS LUBE

Our Goodyear-trained, ASE-Certified auto technicians drain your old oil and replace it with up to five quarts of premium grade motor oil. We'll put in a fresh new oil filter and professionally lubricate your vehicle to manufacturer's specifications. (Special diesel oil and filter type may cost extra.)

Then we'll check and top off the fluid levels for your transmission, coolant, power steering, battery and window washer. We also check your radiator cap, air and breather filters, shocks and struts, steering and suspension parts, master cylinder, wiper blades, headlights and bulbs, tire air levels, tire wear pattern and tread depth.

If a problem is discovered, you'll be advised, and work recommended is accompanied by a written estimate. No unauthorized work is ever done on a vehicle without our customer's consent.

Safety Checks often identify problems that, left uncorrected, could result in big trouble and bigger expenses down the road. The best news is that if a problem exists, Goodyear has the tires, parts, equipment and technicians to correct it on the spot. Our work is guaranteed in writing and covered by a Nationwide Warranty honored by participating Goodyear Certified Auto Service Centers throughout the country.

So bring your vehicle in today for a $15 oil and filter change and chassis lube, and get our Safety Check and the confidence in your car's running condition that's worth a whole lot more!

By LEA WHITEHEAD Staff Writer

Pull out your flowery dress with picture hat — or your Palm Beach suit — and head for the American Cancer Society's benefit "Garden Party" Tuesday at the home of Rudy and Maureen Haddad.

Invitations are in the mail to the Society's friends, says Katie Grimes, but if you didn't get one and would like to attend, contact Katie at 267-3613, Jane Thomas at 267-6272 or Lynda Elrod at 267-8491.

For a donation of $10.00 — or more — guests can enjoy wine or lemonade, fresh fruit and hors d'oeuvres (prepared by the Society's board members!) in a formal garden setting while musicians serenade.

In the event of rain, Tommy Welch will provide an awning, assures Katy.

Other Society members busy with this event include Paula Talbot, Cinda Stanley and Roberta Shive.

Friends gathered at two parties to bid Teri Quinones a fond adieu. Teri has moved to Arizona.

Mayor Max Green proclaimed "Teri Quinones Day" at a soiree at the Sparenburg Building. Gale Pittman designed a huge cake, iced with the design of the downtown area, including the Railroad Plaza and Tubb Pocket Park which Teri helped bring to fruition.

This party was put together by Pat Porter, Shirley Shroyer, Betty Schoenfeld and Gail Earls, among others.

The second gathering was a surprise dinner at La Posada.

Charles Bell — on a vacation to the Orient — left a taped message which was played to the crowd praising Teri's contributions to the downtown renovation.

The honoree's mother, Pat Quinones, El Paso, attended both celebrations.

Suzie Wegner and son, Billy Dan, have left for Nuremburg, Germany, to join husband-father Pvt. Ronnie Wegner on an overseas Army assignment.

Suzie is the daughter of Charlene Brasher and the late Dan Brasher, Ackerly. Ronnie is the son of Bob and Sherry Wegner.

A recent student of bio-chemistry at Texas Tech in Lubbock, Suzie was offered a lucrative scholarship — but she opted to join her husband abroad and continue her studies at a university in Nuremburg.

Suzie reports that there are quite a few Texas families stationed at Nuremburg. The younger Wegners are planning a trip to Switzerland soon, according to Charlene.

Emilee Beckham's recent vacation took her to Garland and Amarillo.

In Garland Emilee joined her cousin Maranell Thompson, who with husband Larry had flown in from their home in Honolulu to visit Maranell's father, R.L. Terry. (The Terrys are formerly from Westbrook.) The Thompsons will spend the summer in Canada where they are documenting the language of that area's Indians, a project Larry began at the University of Hawaii.

While in Garland Emilee also visited the Reyford Beckhams; Rick and Martha Mann with young Sarah Elizabeth (Martha is a former Big Spring resident); the Charles Vessels (he's a former resident); and Charles' father Fred Stitzell, also a former resident, now living in Garland.

In Amarillo Emilee visited her son James Beckham, and wife Pamela, and grandchildren, Jamie and Sarah. A special treat was attending Jamie and Sarah's dance recital.

The 12th Annual Cannibal Draw Reunion is set for Saturday at LaPosada with "visitation, handshaking and hugging beginning at 6 p. m.", according to Mack Underwood. This year's event is dedicated to Dr. Clyde Thomas, who has missed only one reunion since the gatherings began.

At Saturday's homecoming (which Mack says will be the biggest ever) some lucky Cannibal Draw Ex will receive a handmade quilt, donated by member Ernestine (Tiny) Gully Styber.

If you are a member and haven't made your reservation, you're out of luck til next year, says Mack. "It's standing room only."

Catfish Ruby's no-stink bait

By TUMBLEWEED SMITH

On the square in Sweetwater there's a combination bait bond and catfish bait business. Catfish Ruby is in charge of the bait. Her husband takes care of the bait bonds.

Now when I first heard the name Catfish Ruby I thought of an older lady about 5 feet wide wearing a flower sack dress, brogans and a sunbonnet. I was surprised to discover Catfish Ruby looks like a movie star.

Ruby Turner is her real name. She loves to fish. She lives on Lake Sweetwater. She loses all track of time when she goes fishing.

Before starting her bait business, she didn't work.

"I would get up in the morning, get my husband off to work and put my son on the school bus," says Ruby. "Then I'd look out the back door and see the lake. It looks like a mirror. It's gorgeous out there."

Ruby would look around the house and see all the chores she had to do. She would say to herself, "I think I could run out there and fish for a few minutes and get back in the house and get my work done before everybody gets back home."

So she would get her rod and reel and her bait and go fishing.

But Ruby loses all track of time when she's fishing.

"I look up and here comes the school bus. I realize the beds are not made, the breakfast dishes are still on the table. Nothing has been done."

She would run in the house, drag the vacuum cleaner out to the middle of the floor, throw the dishes in the sink, and put a frozen piece of chicken out on the counter.

Then her husband would come home. First question: "Did you catch any fish?"

When Ruby asked how he knew she had been fishing, he replied, "When I walked in the door I could smell Catfish Charlie all over you."

Ruby decided there had to be a better way. She threw away the

MEET YOUR MERCHANT

MARILYN WEAVER

QUICK PROFILE:

Marilyn Weaver has owned and operated Country Store Antiques on the Lamesa Highway 12 years. The business is an outgrowth of her longtime love of antiques.

WHAT ARE YOUR HOBBIES?

Marilyn says her hobby is "looking for antiques." She looks at estate sales, garage sales and auctions. Although her husband, Boosie, doesn't work at the shop, he accompanies her on antique-buying trips out-of-town.

WHAT DO YOU DO TO KEEP IN SHAPE?

"I load furniture," Marilyn says with a laugh. "I climb up and down ladders hanging pictures, and walk a million miles a day around the store."

WHO IS A PERSON YOU ADMIRE?

"I admire the volunteers at the Big Spring Humane Society," says Marilyn. "They work very hard."

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE TELEVISION SHOW?

Marilyn likes shows that are relaxing, like "The Cosby Show" and "Golden Girls."

DO YOU HAVE ANY PETS?

Marilyn has two pets, who come to the store with her each day: Pearl, a border terrier (on the border of being a terrier, she explains), and Budweiser, the cat.

WHAT MAGAZINES DO YOU SUBSCRIBE TO?

Marilyn reads Country Living and Reader's Digest.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE LEISURE THING TO DO IN BIG SPRING?

"I guess it would have to be going to garage sales," says Marilyn.

WHAT DID YOU DO ON YOUR LAST VACATION?

The Weavers flew to Boston, rented a car and drove through New England and to Quebec. They went to antique shops, of course. "I saw so many things I wanted to buy and had no way to bring them back home. I was just sick!"

WHAT ARE YOUR FUTURE GOALS?

Marilyn and Boosie want to travel in the U.S. and abroad. "I've been to England, and I'd like to be able to go back and spend a long time."

BUSINESS & INDUSTRY REVIEW

Edited by Lea Whitehead

A loan for all reasons — that's the philosophy of City Finance, which has been in business in Big Spring for 30 years. The firm specializes in loans loans from $10 to $330. The friendly staff consists of Pat Cypert (left) and Debbie Walling.

Need vacation money? Check City Finance Co.

Vacation loans are the most popular request now, says Debbie Walling, manager of City Finance, 206 1/2 Main Street.

"Our business has been pretty steady," Debbie reports. "We've also been making loans recently to pay income taxes and to finance graduation-related expenses such as class rings or prom parties."

"But there is really no 'slow season' in the finance business, Debbie says. "For those sudden unexpected cash shortages, we fill a real community need."

City Finance serves borrowers with loans which are smaller than those that banks can handle profitably.

The loan limit set by the State of Texas is $330, Debbie says. All that is required is for the customer to fill out an application, have a permanent job and pass credit approval.

The business is state regulated, with the state setting the interest rate and payment schedule. The state specifies that the borrower must have the means to pay back the loan. State auditors check the firm's books annually.

Borrowing is simply another alternative in personal or family finances, Debbie maintains. "Almost everybody needs a little extra cash once in awhile."

Another important use of a small loan is to establish credit. For example, a customer will bring in a son or daughter and co-sign a loan. The borrower then makes regular payments and thus establishes a credit rating.

Confidentiality is closely guarded at City Finance. The firm's customers come from all walks of life, and many have been clients for more than 20 years, the staff says.

Debbie and her associate, Pat Cypert, try to provide a friendly, comfortable atmosphere that puts customers at their ease. To improve services to customers, City Finance is continuously refurbishing, and has recently added new customer service counter and newly furnished waiting area.

City Finance has been in business in Big Spring more than 30 years. Debbie has been with the firm 10 years, with Pat on the staff five years.

Doing business in the downtown area, both Pat and Debbie are supporters of the downtown renovation now underway. "We feel that more people will be coming down and getting acquainted with us," Debbie says.

Business hours are 8:30 to 5:30 Monday through Friday (including the lunch hour) and 8:30 to noon Saturday.

Vacationing with kids

By NAOMI HUNT
County Extension Agent

Summer means vacations and travel for many children and families.

As families have become more mobile and as more and more children travel alone to visit a non-custodial parent, summer days often find them "on the road".

Advance planning can make travel and vacation days less stressful for both children and parents.

The following tips may help to ease the stress of summer travel:

1. Arrive at the airport, train or bus station early. Allow plenty of time to park the car, check the baggage and board the plane, train or bus. Allowing extra time will help to reduce the stress that both parents and children experience.
2. Very young children and their parents often find travel difficult. It is difficult for children to sit still for long periods of time, and they tire easily. Bring along toys and snacks that will help to ease the wait for the child — and for the parents. Pack a totebag with paper and crayons, small toys and games. Include something new that will catch the child's attention as well as old favorites which can provide the child with a sense of security.

3. Crackers, nuts, cheese, dried fruit and individual packs of juice make good snacks for traveling. Be sure to include chewing gum if you are traveling by air as it may help to relieve the pressure which can build up in the child's ears during take-off and landing.

4. Taking a camera on a vacation can help capture family activities and trip memories. The school-age child is old enough to take photographs of his own and will enjoy this opportunity. A Polaroid camera is especially nice because the pictures can be seen immediately.

Focus on family

4. When traveling with children, an emergency kit is a necessity! Include band aids, medicines, a flashlight and tissues.

5. Avoid planning trips that are too long and too involved for children. The novelty of being away from home and their usual environment can take its toll quickly with children. Keep in mind the child's developmental level and attention span when planning vacation activities. Theme parks can be great fun for older children but may be exhausting and frightening to young children. Short, simple trips may be more fun, less expensive and more restful for the whole family.

6. If the child will be traveling alone, prepare the youngster well in advance. Airlines will assist children who are traveling alone to assure their safety.

Vacations are supposed to be fun-filled times. With a little advance planning and preparation, they can be.
