Big Spring boy dies

A 7-year-old Big Spring boy died Sunday afternoon when he was hit by a car while riding his bicycle.

Justin David Anderson of Rt. 1, Big Spring, died after he was struck by a car driven by Paul Cooper Martinez of Coahoma, according to DPS Trooper Mike Dawson. The boy apparently was riding out of the driveway of his home on his bicycle when he pulled into the path of the car, Dawson said.

According to police records, the 1978 Chevrolet pickup was registered to Martinez. No charges have been filed against him.

Anderson was transported to Scenic Mountain Medical Center, but was pronounced dead.

According to DPS reports, the Chevrolet was westbound on the north service road of Interstate 20 and the child was traveling south out of the driveway. Reports show, the boy "darted in front of Vehicle 1 (the pickup driven by Martinez)."

NEW STATUE

BEIJING — A PLA sentry stands guard in Tiananmen Square Sunday in front of a statue erected in preparation for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China Oct. 1. The statue occupies the same position as the "Goddess of Democracy" erected in May by protesting students.

Deaf awareness week

BIG SPRING — Observance of Deaf Awareness Week began today with Big Spring Mayor Max Green issuing a proclamation formally declaring the week in Big Spring.

Green presented the proclamation to SouthWest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf officials this morning.

Deaf Awareness Week runs from Sunday through Saturday. Officials have used the week in past years to increase public awareness to the problems and the heritage of the deaf community.

The proclamation read, in part: "Whereas there exists a need for increased visibility and understanding of deafness in order to expand the public knowledge of the unique problems facing deaf and hearing impaired citizens; ... I, Maxwell D. Green, do hereby declare the week of Sept. 24-30 as Deaf Awareness Week."

Dog obedience classes

The Big Spring Kennel Club's annual obedience classes for dogs will begin Oct. 7.

Sessions will meet Saturdays from 10 a.m. until about noon in the covered parking area of State National Bank, 901 Main. Janna Jones, Snyder, an experienced obedience instructor who competes with her own dogs in AKC obedience trials, will teach the classes.

Cost for the nine-week series is $55 for each dog/handler team. Payment is due on or before the first class. Dogs should be at least six months old, but need not be AKC registered to participate.

To pre-register or obtain more information, call Carole Owen, Big Spring Kennel Club secretary, 263-3404. Owners who have not pre-registered their dogs for the classes should come to the first session Oct. 7 by 9:30 a.m.

County approves 911 call contract

By BRADLEY WORRELL
Staff Writer

BIG SPRING — Howard County Commissioners today approved an intergovernmental agreement between the county and the cities of Big Spring, Coahoma and Forsan needed to make the 911 Emergency system a reality.

"I'm happy with the prospects. I feel it will all work out now," said Tim Yeats, chairman of the 911 board, after the meeting with commissioners.

Carl Dorton, 911 administrator, said it's necessary for a majority of the four governmental agencies to approve the intergovernmental agreement for those involved with the project to proceed with the program.

Under terms of the agreement, negotiations concerning 911 dispatching will be left open to Howard County Sheriff A.N. Standard and Big Spring Police Chief Joe Cook. Commissioner David Barr was appointed by the commissioners court to work with the sheriff in reaching an agreement with the city.

The 911 system is expected to dispatch calls for the Texas Department of Public Safety, the county volunteer fire department and Rural Metro Ambulance Service. Plans also tentatively call for all of the 911 dispatching to be done by the city and possibly for 911 to do some of the night dispatching for the sheriff's department.

Standard, who appeared before commissioners, said he agrees with the concept of 911 but thinks the cost is too high. "I think I've expressed my opinion on this previously," he said. Standard said he is especially concerned that to implement the plan it will be necessary for him to lose one of his dispatchers.

"Giving up a dispatcher would be cutting my throat," he said. Barr said, "I think that's the way we left it, to leave the sheriff's department the way it is."

Dorton projected next year's ex-

New laws require truck inspections

By BRADLEY WORRELL
Staff Writer

BIG SPRING — A new law regarding the operation of heavy trucking vehicles will be sweeping in its impact — adding several provisions for trucks and their drivers, a Department of Public Safety official said Friday.

"The changes in the law are great and drastic," said Marvin Keenan, Trooper III with the license and weights service.

New regulations will require vehicles not exempted from the law to carry emergency equipment like flares, safety kits, fire extinguishers and will require post-trip inspections. The regulations will also put new provisions on the loading and equipment checking of the vehicle.

DPS license and weights officers will be required to do more thorough vehicle inspections, checking such items as a truck's coupling devices, tires, exhaust systems, bumpers and brake linings. In order to do the more thorough inspections, the officers will now be required to get under the vehicles.

The use of a building at the Big Spring McMahon/Wrinkle Airpark should help the local officers in their inspections, Keenan said.

The DPS license and weights officers will also develop more of a policing role, compiling records of compliance and non-compliance of individual vehicles and monitoring whether the trucking companies are in compliance with the new laws, Keenan said.

Drivers also face stricter regulations. Provisions of the law:

Cowboy brand of writing

By KAREN MCCARTHY
Staff Writer

BIG SPRING — City slickers got an opportunity to see some real cowboys do a little branding at the Howard County Fair.

"This is just a way of writing your name on your cows," explained Rancher Tom Koger to hundreds of schoolchildren during the week. "However, the simpler the better. If you wrote your whole name and address and phone number, the cow would be well done before you even got started."

"That's why you use these brands. You can use any kind of mark you want to as long as no one else is using that mark."

Koger explained that all brands in Texas are recorded in a book at the county clerk's office in the county where the cattle are run. Brands are also recorded by the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association.

Where the brand goes is as significant as what the brand looks like, he said. "Brands can go on any part of the body, usually on the shoulder, the ribs or the hip. But I know one cattleman who branded dead set on the rear end because he said when his cows saw him, they always turned and ran. With the brand on the rear, he could easily spot which ones were his."

"At one time there weren't any fences," Koger explained to the children. "They just ran all the cattle together on the same land."

Tom Koger shows off his branding skills during an educational program at the Howard County Fair. Koger, who's also a fair director, showed "city after another on a piece of board. "We've gone through the whole bed of an old trailer I tore up," said Koger.

Tammie Fuller, 8, and Delosho Payne, 10, were two of the youngsters who were eager to have a branded board. "I'm going to take it to school to show everybody," said Delosho.

"That's what I'm going to do with mine, too," Tammie agreed. Although neither one had given a great deal of thought to the subject of branding before, "it's pretty in-

Donors drained by giving

By PATRICK DRISCOLL
Staff Writer

Thirty-five pints of blood were drained from the arms of willing donors during a health fair in Borden County Friday afternoon.

That is five more than the goal of 30 but one less than last year's total of 36, said Nelva Jones, president of the county Emergency Medical Service.

"This is pretty good for a county that has approximately 800 people in it," she said.

The 2nd annual Borden County Health Fair and Blood Drive was sponsored by the EMS, the Extension Program Council and the Extension Home Economics Council. It was held at Borden County High School. Included was a feast of cookies, fudge and beverages.

Jones said there were 41 people who came to give blood, although six were not allowed to donate. "In my case and a couple more, they were anemic," she explained. "Some other people were on medication."

Besides blood donors, another 56 people had their cholesterol level checked and 40 had their glucose levels diagnosed, Jones said.

A new addition to this year's fair was children's fingerprinting, she said. Twenty-four children had their prints taken.

Buddy Wallace, an emergency medical technician with EMS, said the fingerprinting is "for I.D. purposes as far as children being abducted."

HC Fair deemed success

HERALD STAFF REPORT

The 1989 edition of the Howard County Fair was an unqualified success, according to fair officials, who said attendance was huge.

"It was very successful, in the number of people that attended," said Skip Driver, president of the Howard County Fair Association.

Probably the Clyde Foley Cummins Show, singer and musician, Friday and Saturday, presented over the last two days of the fair, was the liked best, Driver said.

The Annual Battle of the Cheerleaders was an extreme success, he said, and Saturday's livestock shows had record numbers of entries, as well as good attendance.

And those were just the highlights, Driver said. The rest of the event fared just as well, he said.

"All of our events were well attended, and all of the booth space was sold and we kept a waiting list throughout the fair," he said. "All day yesterday was spent cleaning up the fairgrounds and putting everything up."

"I would attribute the total success — from the preparation of the work — to the directors. It was quite evident that their planning was a success. Everything went smooth and the people seemed to enjoy it."

Driver said the people of Big Spring and Howard County were the reason the fair was such a success.

teresting," they decided.

When asked if branding hurt the cow, Koger replied, "Well, I'm not going to lie to you. Sure it hurts. But so does getting your ear pierced and people do that all the time."

Other methods of branding are less efficient than a burned brand, he said. Chemical burns are slower and you can't see what you're doing. And freeze burns, which kill the part of the hair follicle that gives color, works fine on red or black cows but doesn't do a thing

Offers that sound too good to be true generally are

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — Have you ever gotten a postcard offering a bargain-priced travel package? Or a phone call hawking a low-priced vacation? These might be legitimate, but be wary. Many are run by scam operators who each year bilk victims of hundreds of millions of dollars.

As a rule of thumb, if an offer sounds too good to be true, it is. Too often there is a catch and the innocent victim doesn't figure it out until it's too late. The scams take many forms but here some of the most common identified by the Federal Trade Commission and the American Society of Travel Agents.

You receive a phone call from a special operator, who is prepared to offer you what sounds like an unbelievably low-priced travel deal. You are told this is a very limited offer and you must make a decision, or at least make a deposit by credit card, during that initial phone conversation.

You receive a postcard or brochure in the mail offering a dream vacation at a bargain price. It may read something like this: "You have been specially selected to receive a free trip..." For more details, you must call a special number, usually toll-free. Once they've got you on the phone you will get the familiar high-pressure pitch. The object is to get you on the phone and then get you to reveal your credit-card number.

You are urged to pay a "travel club" membership fee of $50 to $400 to get a travel package that includes round-trip air transportation for one person and lodging for two. The catch? You must buy a high-priced, round-trip ticket for the second person; you can end up paying two to three times what it would have cost if you bought your own tickets in advance through a reputable travel agency.

A clever twist is the offer of a free or nearly free vacation as an inducement to visit a time-share condominium resort. Hidden costs, which you learn about only when you arrive, tend to add up quickly. You can be herded into a high-pressure sales pitch, with lengthy in-person sales sessions calculated to break down your resistance.

When the offer of a trip seems to be too good to be true, ask a travel agent about it. Agents can help you spot phony offers. You also may want to check with your local Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce, or with the Consumer Affairs Department of the American Society of Travel Agents. These organizations keep records of complaints about fraudulent operations.

Even while you're talking to a telephone salesperson, there are ways to protect yourself. Ask detailed questions to make certain what the price covers and what is not covered. Ask if there will be additional charges later. Find out the names of the airports, airlines, hotels and restaurants your package includes. You may wish to contact these places yourself to double-check the arrangements. Ask about cancellation policies and refunds. If the salesperson can't give you detailed answers, this is probably not the deal for you.

The most important precaution you can take is never to give your credit card number over the phone. The easiest way for a scam operator to succeed is to get your card number, then charge your account. Sometimes these operators will bluff by telling you they need the number for verification purposes only.

Make sure you get all information in writing before you agree to buy anything. No legitimate business should expect you to make an instant decision over the phone. Once you have all the information in front of you, you can read the fine print and investigate the company. Bear in mind that many fraudulent firms change their names frequently.

When in doubt about an offer, either say no or demand full details by mail. There is an endless array of exciting travel opportunities available to all, so you have nothing to lose by making sure you're getting what you pay for.

Planning Commission gives awards

MIDLAND — Two Big Spring residents picked up awards for their support of senior citizens from the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission last week.

Naomi Hunt, County Extension Agent received an award for her weekly nutritional classes taught as a service to the senior citizens at the Senior Citizen Center; and for her continuing educational and informational services to assist senior citizens and their families.

Robert Wernsman, publisher of the Big Spring Herald also received an award for the Herald, which publishes a listing of senior citizen activities and information, and for the Herald's donation of papers to the Senior Citizen Center, and "for a multitude of other activities promoted through the Herald to assist the life of senior citizens".

Seniors recruited for temporary census jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau and the National Council on the Aging are joining forces to recruit older Americans for some of the 480,000 temporary jobs that will be created by next year's national head count.

Most of the workers will be out "calling on people, knocking on doors and finding out why they didn't return their census forms," said Census Deputy Director C. Louis Kincannon. Others will have supervisory and office jobs.

Most jobs will run six to eight weeks, paying $5 to $8 an hour depending on location. People with management experience will be key recruits for the office manager jobs, which may pay more and last longer than door-to-door positions.

"Older people who are retired and have additional needs may find this an avenue that may give them a new sense of confidence and also demonstrate to a subsequent employer that they've got it in them," Kincannon said.

Older people would be ideal local census-takers because many have "a lifetime attachment to their neighborhood, which will help particularly in areas through the country where you've had undercounts, for instance in rural areas," said Donald L. Davis, vice president of the NCOA.

Most of the door-to-door jobs will be available next April and May, while office positions could start earlier and last eight months to a year.

Those interested should contact state employment offices.

Greyhound says lifts too costly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Greyhound Lines Inc. says thousands of rural communities would lose their only source of public transportation if Congress decides the Dallas-based transit company must equip every bus with a wheelchair lift.

Advocates for the handicapped, however, say Greyhound is exaggerating the costs of compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act to shift attention away from the real issue — that the handicapped are largely denied access to public transportation.

Under the Senate-approved legislation, Greyhound, the only national intercity bus company, would have six years from enactment before it would be required to make its buses accessible to the handicapped, including those in wheelchairs.

Greyhound interprets that as a mandate for a lift in every bus, although the legislation is not that specific.

Hearings are under way in the House on a version of the bill, which could pass before the end of the year.

Greyhound estimates the minimal annual costs of compliance at $30 million to $40 million — a "bullet to the heart" of a company that lost $17 million last year and expects to make $5 million to $10 million this year, says Fred G. Currey, chairman and chief executive officer.

"At the present time, approximately 32 percent of Greyhound lines are unprofitable," says Currey, who two years ago bought Greyhound and Trailways Lines and has been in the process of rebuilding the two badly deteriorated companies.

"Utilizing the lower $30 million figure, that would mean that 51 percent of our routes would be unprofitable, and that would trigger a massive withdrawal from small cities and towns across the country," Currey said in an interview last week.

Greyhound spokesman George Gravley said the company would have to pull out of half of the 10,000 communities it serves, and all but 500 of those towns have no other public transportation.

Currey argues the lifts, coupled with bathrooms accessible to the handicapped, would remove six revenue-producing seats from each bus.

The lifts also would take away valuable cargo space used for shipping freight to thousands of rural communities, he said. Freight shipments account for 10 percent of Greyhound's overall revenues, but as much as 60 percent on some routes.

Add to that the costs of buying lifts that have not been widely used or tested, maintenance and insurance, and the total annual expense per lift reaches at least $10,000 for a company with a fleet of approximately 4,000 buses, Currey says.

"A bill designed to reduce discrimination itself discriminates against our users, the poor," Currey says. "This bill won't mean mobility, it will mean lessened mobility for all Americans, including Americans with disabilities, and including the rural poor and the urban poor, and the young and the old."

But Ellen Daly, a legislative analyst with the President's Committee on Employment of People With Disabilities, said that when transit companies are asked to accommodate the disabled, "there has always been an inflation on costs."

She also believes the lifts would be used by many more people than just those in wheelchairs — the arthritic, cardiac patients, the blind, parents carrying children in heavy braces.

According to the President's Committee, 70 percent of all Americans will at sometime in their lives be so disabled they cannot climb a flight of stairs.

A report by the Senate subcommittee on the handicapped said intercity coach transportation is "crucial for people with disabilities, particularly those in rural areas."

Approximately 27 percent of disabled Americans live in rural areas, compared with 23 percent of other Americans, the subcommittee said.

The report also noted that people with disabilities have drastically lower incomes than other Americans, and the low-income are more likely to use less-expensive intercity buses and trains than airplanes.

Jitters hamper HC pokes

PORTALES, N.M. — First rodeo jitters hit the freshman-dominated Howard College Hawks at this weekend's Eastern New Mexico University college rodeo.

Howard coach Bobby Scott said plenty of team members made the finals of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association regional opener, but stiff competition made the going rough.

"Everybody had a tough time in the finals," Scott said. "Real tough competition in the finals."

"I'm not at all down about it. The first time everybody tries so hard that they actually try themselves out of it sometimes."

Although the Portales rodeo counts toward the team's standing in the Southern Region, Scott said there's still plenty of time to make up ground.

"We're looking for a better rodeo at Sul Ross," Oct. 5-8, he said. "It's not going to hurt anything."

The Hawks also have rodeos at Vernon Regional Junior College and Texas Tech University this semester.

In Portales, three HC cowboys placed in the long-go. San Antonio freshman Kaid New won second in the calf roping. Freshmen Billy Mac Callahan of Fredonia and Glenn Overby of Aspermont took third in the team roping.

A large group of Hawks qualified for the finals Sunday, but didn't place. New and Juan Flores of Iran qualified in calf roping, and Robyn Wardlaw of Del Rio and Jana Pierce of Crane both came back in the break away roping. Pierce also qualified in barrel racing.

Randall Thornton of Madisonville made the saddle bronc finals, and Callahan and Corey Ross of Sonora qualified for the steer wrestling.

Western Texas College won the men's title with 310 points, and Vernon Regional Junior College won the women's title with 180 points.

Showdown set between top horses

BOSSIER CITY, La. (AP) — Round four of the Sunday Silence-Easy Goer battles will be for even bigger stakes.

Sunday Silence, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, made sure of that by romping to a six-length victory Sunday in the Super Derby X at Louisiana Downs.

The top two 3-year-olds are now pointed for the $3 million Breeders' Cup Classic on Nov. 4 at Gulfstream Park.

And it likely will be a winner-take-all matchup for much more than the $1.35 million first prize.

"He's as good a horse as I've had — maybe the best," said trainer and co-owner Charlie Whittingham after Sunday Silence's impressive return in Sunday's $1 million Grade I race.

"He's the only one that I've had that has won the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Super Derby. This will set up a horse-of-the-year-meeting with Easy Goer. If we win the Breeders' Classic the choice will be hard. Easy Goer has the Eastern vote."

Losing trainer Shug McGaughey III of third-place Awe Inspiring, who also trains Easy Goer, was asked what Sunday Silence's return means.

"He (Easy Goer) better be ready (in November)," McGaughey said.

Sunday Silence was all business in the 1 1/4-mile test — the colt's first race since disappointing losses to Easy Goer in the Belmont — a defeat that denied him a Triple Crown — and to Prized in the Swaps Stakes.

"We been looking for this kind of an effort all year," said jockey Pat Valenzuela after the victory in 2:03 1/5th. "He ran a straight race and he came from behind on the inside which he never had to do before."

Local favorite Big Earl, purchased for $5,500 and went off 21-1.

Bills win track meet over Oilers

HOUSTON (AP) — Jim Kelly threw five touchdown passes, including a 28-yard game-winner to Andre Reed with 6:18 left in overtime, climaxing an exhausting game of big plays and rallying Buffalo to a 47-41 victory over the Houston Oilers on Sunday.

Kelly threw for touchdowns of 6, 63, 78 and 26 yards, giving the Bills (2-1) a 41-38 lead with 1:52 to play, but with three seconds left in regulation, Tony Zendejas kicked a 52-yard field goal for Houston, his longest of the season, sending the game into overtime.

Houston won the toss and drove to the Buffalo 25. Zendejas, who missed three field goals a week ago, had a 43-yarder blocked by Ray Bentley, but the Bills were off-sides. Zendejas then was wide to the left on a 37-yard try, giving Buffalo possession.

That's when Kelly took over. He quickly completed passes of 12 yards to Reed and 21 to Pete Metzelaars, and the game-winner came when Kelly found Reed in the left flat. Reed, who caught 13 passes last week, ran for the sideline and into the end zone.

Kelly finished with 363 yards passing, completing 17 of 29 passes, while Houston quarterback Warren Moon completed 28 of 46 for 338 yards.

Kelly's fourth touchdown pass — a 26-yarder to Thurman Thomas with 1:52 to play — gave Buffalo a 41-38 lead. Sacked three times during the game, Moon drove the Oilers to Buffalo's 34-yard line with pinpoint sideline passes, including 13 yards to Leonard Harris and 12 yards to Curtis Duncan, setting up Zendejas' kick.

In Houston's victory over San Diego last week, Zendejas missed attempts of 47, 44 and 24 yards, but this kick was perfect.

Kelly threw touchdown passes of 6, 63 and 78 yards before the Oilers (1-2) rallied for a 38-34 lead in the fourth quarter on Moon's 26-yard touchdown pass to Ernest Givins and a 1-yard dive by Lorenzo White.

But on the next play after he was sacked for a 6-yard loss, Kelly double pumped in the pocket and hit

Thomas, who was left uncovered in the flat on the 26-yard game winner with 1:52 to play.

Cornerback Steve Brown, whose 41-yard interception return set up White's touchdown, was blitzing when Kelly threw to Thomas.

Kelly, who passed for 78 yards in the first half, finished regulation with 296 yards.

The Bills took a 20-10 halftime lead on a 76-yard touchdown run by Mark Kelso with a blocked punt as time ran out in the half.

Kelly struck in the third quarter with a 63-yard touchdown pass to rookie Don Beebe of Chadron State, who made his first NFL catch a touchdown.

The Oilers retaliated back with touchdowns on a 4-yard run by Alonzo Highsmith and a 7-yard run with a blocked punt by cornerback Cris Dishman.

Rookie kicker McDowell, who had a school record nine blocked punts at Miami, blocked John Kidd's punt, and Dishman scooped it up and ran into the end zone with 27 seconds left in the third quarter.

That narrowed Buffalo's lead to 27-24, but on the second play of the next drive, Kelly hit Reed down the sidelines on a 78-yard touchdown with 10 seconds gone in the fourth quarter.

Moon came back with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Givins that ended spectacularly when Givins somersaulted into the end zone with 9:32 to play.

The Oilers had lined up for a 47-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left in half, but linebacker Darryl Talley partially blocked the kick and Kelso grabbed the ball and took off for the right sidelines.

Oilers holder Greg Montgomery had the final angle on Talley, but he was pushed aside by safety Leonard Smith, leaving Kelso clear for the goal line.

Kelso earlier intercepted a pass by Moon and returned it 43 yards to the Houston 31 to set up a 26-yard field goal by Scott Norwood with 3:47 gone in the second quarter.

The Bills also capitalized on a 22-yard interception return by Smith, who picked off a Moon pass and returned it to Houston's 23.

That set up Kelly's 6-yard touchdown pass to Thomas, who escaped coverage in the flat and went into the end zone for his first pro touchdown catch with 10 seconds left in the first quarter.

Moon capped Houston's first drive of the game with a 1-yard touchdown dive, and Zendejas kicked a 26-yard field goal with 14:03 gone in the second quarter.

49ers pluck Eagles

By The Associated Press

Joe Montana, sacked eight times in the first 3 1/2 quarters, threw four touchdown passes in the final quarter as the 49ers overcame an 11-point deficit in the last eight minutes to beat Philadelphia.

Montana completed 25 of 34 passes for 428 yards, including 237 in the second half, keeping San Francisco unbeaten.

After throwing a 68-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Rice in the first quarter, he connected in the fourth quarter with John Taylor for 70 yards, Brent Jones for 8 yards, Tom Rathman for 25 yards and completed his show with a 33-yarder to Rice with 2:02 left in the game.

The Eagles are 2-1.

Broncos 31, Raiders 21

John Elway threw two touchdown passes to Mark Jackson and scrambled 29 yards for another score, helping build a 28-0 halftime lead that Denver made stand up over the Raiders.

The Broncos (3-0) converted three fumbles by Raiders quarterback Jay Schroeder into touchdowns and also intercepted him three times. But the Broncos let the Raiders (1-2) back in contention with an interception and a fumble, both converted into touchdowns.

The rally ended, however, when free safety Steve Atwater made a leaping interception of Schroeder at the Raiders 36 with 3:23 remaining and David Treadwell kicked a clinching 38-yard field goal with 27 seconds to go.

Colts 13, Falcons 9

Dean Biasucci kicked two field goals, and Jack Trudeau ran for one touchdown as a second-string backfield rallied the ailing Indianapolis Colts over Atlanta.

With Atlanta leading 9-0 late in the third quarter and Indianapolis quarterback Chris Chandler and running back Eric Dickerson out with injuries, Trudeau and backup tailback Albert Bentley led the comeback as the Colts won their first game.

Atlanta (1-2) has not beaten the Colts in 10 games.

Bears 47, Lions 27

The Bears remained unbeaten, led by a career-high 302 passing yards to Mike Tomczak in their rout of winless Detroit. Tomczak, who had completed only 40 percent of his passes this season, completed 17 of 25 against the Lions.

Tomczak is 19-3 as a starter for the Bears, 18-3 in regular-season games.

tack, carried 16 times for 116 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown, and Kevin Butler kicked four field goals. Rookie Barry Sanders ran for 126 yards for Detroit.

Steelers 27, Vikings 14

Merrill Hoge scored the go-ahead touchdown, and Pittsburgh's defense, ranked last in the NFL after two blowout losses, shut out Minnesota in the second half.

The Steelers, outscored 92-10 in their first two games, withstood a 27-yard fumble return for a touchdown by the Vikings' Henry Thomas to improve to 1-2. Minnesota (1-2) has lost two in a row.

Hoge scored from the 2 with 1:10 left in the first half, giving Pittsburgh a 21-14 lead after Thomas' fumble return.

Bucs 20, Saints 10

Vinny Testaverde passed for 227 yards, and Tampa Bay intercepted New Orleans' banged-up quarterbacks twice. Testaverde threw an 11-yard TD pass to Ron Hall in the second period, and Lars Tate scored on a 5-yard run that broke a 10-10 tie midway through the third quarter.

Donald Igwebuike also kicked field goals of 34 and 37 yards for the Bucs (2-1). The Saints (1-2) hadn't lost to Tampa Bay since 1982 and led 7-0 after their first possession.

Redskins run wild; scalp Cowboys, 30-7

IRVING (AP) — The Washington Redskins proved on Sunday that the Dallas Cowboys are so bad defensively you can beat them with your second- and third-string running backs.

With Gerald Riggs, the NFL's leading rusher, sitting out the second half with a bruised chest, Earnest Byner and Jamie Morris ground down the Cowboys in a 30-7 victory.

Byner scored on his first run as a Redskin, a 12-yarder, and Morris scored a touchdown and gained 100 yards on 26 carries to spoil Coach Jimmy Johnson's regular-season home debut.

Washington coach Joe Gibbs said he was a little worried when Riggs couldn't play.

"It was a big win for us, finally," he said. "I'm just tickled about it. We've been taking a lot of heat after losing two at home."

"We went from having the biggest back in the NFL (Riggs at 232) to Morris (188) and he does the job. It was great to get Byner going, too. We had a good 1-2 punch in there."

Morris said "I had the holes but it felt good to get a touchdown. Real good. You don't get many chances playing behind Byner and Riggs."

Byner said he figured Riggs wouldn't play any more and he said his first carry was like hitting a homer in your first at-bat with a new club.

"You want every carry to be like my first one," Byner said. "It felt good to be a bigger part of the offense. I got me a Redskins' touchdown on my first carry. That's something."

Johnson was livid after the game and gave his team a dressing down.

"We're not a very good football team, as anybody who saw us play can see, and it's not a good feeling," Johnson said. "I told my players I will not accept us being a poor football team."

"I told them that anyone of them not willing to work to let me know and I'll find somebody who is willing to work."

Johnson said the Cowboys, 0-3, their worst start since 1963, will start working harder, beginning Monday.

"We'll spend more time on the field and in meetings and running more after practice," he said. "We'll do anything we have to do to turn this thing around. I want this team to remember how awful they are so they'll work to get better. The only way you move to a new level is by working."

"I can't live with this and I can't let them live with it."

Dallas rookie quarterbacks Troy Aikman and Steve Walsh each were intercepted twice.

"We just stunk up the field," said Aikman.

Johnson said Aikman would start next week, although Walsh replaced him in the second half.

"There's no controversy," Johnson said. "Walsh is still on the second team."

The Redskins' go-ahead touchdown came on Byner's first carry of the year as he dashed untouched into the end zone to give Washington a 14-7 first-period lead.

Morris put the game away with a 12-yard run in the fourth period.

Washington kept Dallas' offense bottled up, sacking Aikman four times. Walsh made his NFL debut but was intercepted by Daryl Grant on the second pass he threw at the Dallas 36. Four plays later, Morris scored.

Linebacker Wilbur Marshall intercepted Walsh a second time with less than two minutes to play.

Washington and Dallas exchanged defensive touchdowns in the first period.

Alvin Walton returned an interception 29 yards to give Washington a 7-0 lead. Dallas retaliated when defensive end Jim Jeffcoat lumbered 77 yards with Mark Rypien's fumble. Safety Roy Horton delivered the hit that jarred the ball loose.

Fund-raiser a success

The benefit softball game between the Big Spring Herald and National Guard went as planned Sunday afternoon.

The game was to benefit the medical expenses of Wendy Mayes, 12-year-old daughter of Jimmy and Twila Mayes, whose hospitalization for a reported benign brain tumor has exceeded $20,000.

The game raised $160 for Wendy.

The Herald won the game 18-11.

Waltrip wins race

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) — Rusty Wallace's hunger for his first Winston Cup championship translated into another feast for Darrell Waltrip at Martinsville Speedway.

"When you're second in points like Rusty was, he knew he had to get by Dale. He was trying to have the best of both worlds," Waltrip said after he took advantage of a late-race confrontation between Wallace and Dale Earnhardt to win the Goody's 500.

U.S. boxer falls

MOSCOW (AP) — Frank Pena of the United States was the latest to fall to a North Korean onslaught at the World Amateur Championships on Sunday.

Pena forced Ha Hwa-Tae to take a standing 8-count in the third round of a 125-pound bout, but still lost a 32-21 decision.

Seven Americans advanced to the quarterfinals, leaving the 12-member team with a 10-5 record.

Five of the six-man North Korean team are in the quarterfinals. The North Koreans' record is 9-1. The Soviet Union is 10-1, East Germany is 12-2 and Cuba is 11-1.

Bruce all-around champ

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Wendy Bruce won the all-around title Sunday at the U.S. World Championship Team Trials, earning one of eight spots on a squad that will compete in the women's world gymnastics championships next month in West Germany.

Bruce, 16, of North Lauderdale, Fla., won the floor exercise and placed second on the balance beam to finish with a 75.539 score in the two-day trials.

Brandy Johnson, ranked fourth in the world among female gymnasts and the reigning American champion, missed the trials with a viral infection, but her 77.020 score at the U.S. Championships in July qualified her for the squad.

Joining Johnson and Bruce on the U.S. team are Christy Henrich, Sandy Woolsey, Chelle Stack, and Kim Kelly. Jenny Ester and Sheryl Dundas are the alternates.

Jockey suspended

NEW YORK (AP) — Belmont Park stewards have indefinitely suspended Chris Antley, and his agent, Drew Mollica, says he has severed all ties with the troubled but talented jockey.

Stewards ordered Antley off his mounts on Saturday, the day he was supposed to return to racing from a minor knee injury sustained a month ago at Saratoga. Stewards did not disclose their reasons for the suspension, but said it would continue until further notice.

Antley, 23, the leading rider at Aqueduct's winter and spring meetings, was suspended last November after he was found to have been using cocaine. The suspension was lifted in January after Antley underwent rehabilitation, and shortly afterward Antley rode winners on 64 consecutive days that he raced.

Europeans keep Ryder Cup

SUTTON COLDFIELD, England (AP) — The pond at the 18th hole of The Belfry is an unpleasant place. Bees swarm around the footbridge that connects the fairway with the green, and the meandering water is dyed a vile greenish-blue. Even the ducks don't stay there long.

Because shots kept plopping in this smaller, more brackish body of water, the U.S. Ryder Cup team is crossing the Atlantic Ocean today empty-handed, while Europe keeps the cup without a victory.

And the question the three-day tournament was supposed to answer — who plays better golf, the Americans or the Europeans — remains open.

"I think a draw was a fair result," European captain Tony Jacklin said.

With old-timers Christy O'Connor Jr., of Ireland and Jose-Maria Canizares of Spain leading the way, the Europeans retained the golden trophy with a 14-14 tie, losing Sunday's matchplay singles 7-5 and missing its own shot at a third consecutive victory. A drive into the water at 18 by Nick Faldo helped deprive the Europeans of the half-point they needed to win.

Cancer claims Colorado quarterback

DENVER (AP) — Coaches, administrators, players and students expressed sorrow Sunday over the loss of Colorado quarterback Sal Aunese, who died following a six-month battle with inoperable stomach cancer.

"Sal Aunese was a special young man who fought a brave battle," Colorado chancellor Jim Corbridge said after hearing of Aunese's death Saturday night. "We're all very proud that he was one of our students."

Buffaloes defensive co-captain Michael Jones said: "He meant a lot to us. God, it hurts, just to see him go like this ... I just can't imagine him being gone."

Aunese, 21, the honorary Colorado football captain whose struggle with cancer inspired his teammates to three straight victories this season, was admitted to University Hospital in Denver a week ago with breathing problems.

He died shortly after 9 p.m. Saturday.

"He had a peaceful death without suffering or pain," team physician Wayne Gersoff said. "The family has asked me to thank everyone on behalf of Sal for their prayers, support and the love people have shown."

A memorial service was scheduled for Monday at the campus.

Coach Bill McCartney said he would speak after the ceremony. "I have nothing to say at this point," he said Saturday night. "I think you can understand that."

McCartney told the team at practice Saturday that Aunese had taken a turn for the worse and might not make it through the weekend, school spokesman Dave Plati said.

"Many of them (Aunese's teammates) were weeping right there," Plati said. "It was the first time they heard his death was so imminent."

Athletic Director Bill Marolt, choking back emotion, said: "He had a special willingness to fight, an ability to lead. When we reflect on this young man of 21 years fighting for his life, I hope we can measure up to his standard of influence."

Gersoff visited Aunese early Saturday and said Aunese's last words to him were, "I'm hanging touchdown pass and ran 32 yards for another score, and the Chargers (1-2) intercepted Steve DeBerg five times in their victory over Kansas City (1-2). The victory was the first for Dan Henning as Chargers coach and for Jim McMahon as San Diego's starting quarterback.

McMahon, acquired in a trade with Chicago in August, directed three scoring drives and threw for a touchdown. He finished with 96 yards, completing 11 of 18 attempts.

Jets 10, Dolphins 33

Ken O'Brien threw three scoring passes and directed the visiting New York Jets to touchdowns on all four of their second-half possessions as they rallied over Miami. O'Brien hit Roger Vick from 11 yards for the winning score with 1:29 left.

Miami receiver Mark Clayton dropped four passes, including two at the Jets' 13- and 20-yard lines in the final 20 seconds.

New York and Miami are both 1-2.

Rams 11, Packers 38

Greg Bell rushed for 221 yards and scored twice as the unbeaten Rams built a 38-7 halftime lead, then held off a Don Majkowski-led rally by Green Bay. Majkowski threw for 198 yards and two touchdowns in the second half, while the Rams were restricted to Mike Lansford's field goal.

A lost fumble may have kept the Packers from coming all the way back. After a pass interference call against Los Angeles' Clifford Hicks put the ball at the Rams' 1-yard line, Brent Fullwood fumbled on the next play and Doug Reed recovered in the end zone.

WHAT SITS OUT BACK, RUNS SUMMER AND WINTER, AND SAVES YOU MONEY?

A heat pump. And there are three good reasons you should get one.

A HEAT PUMP COOLS, HEATS AND SAVES.

Replace your old air conditioner with a new electric heat pump. It's a high efficiency air conditioner in summer. While, in the winter, it's the most energy efficient heating system you can own. On even the coldest days, a heat pump system operates efficiently and will provide all the warmth you need.

A HEAT PUMP CAN SAVE $130 A YEAR.

Compared to a gas furnace, a heat pump is more energy efficient. And TU Electric's low rates make heating and cooling your home with a heat pump an even better value. Tests have shown you can save $130 or more a year by installing a heat pump.*

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Former Police guitarist Andy Summers considers the band's tunes "banal" and "boring" and said he is no longer interested in rock 'n' roll.

"I don't follow it. Most of it is terrible," he said.

Summers begins a seven-city tour Sunday in Scottsdale to promote his new instrumental album, "The Golden Wire." The album combines jazz, blues, rock, classical, Indian and New Age music, Summers said Thursday.

"I would call it new fusion," he said. "It's closer to jazz, but more exotic with modern production sound."

Summers said the album's lack of lyrics reflects his new taste in music.

"Most lyrics are not interesting to listen to. They say things you've heard a million times before," he said. "Instrumental music leaves you free to imagine your own scene. It's purer."

The Police, including singer-bassist Sting, sold more than 40 million albums before members of the trio went their separate ways several years ago.

Japan to fly with them to Tokyo in October, the United States Organization announced.

The former president and first lady have chartered a TWA Boeing 747 jetliner for the Oct. 19 flight from Los Angeles, returning Oct. 28, USO spokesman Kevin McCarthy said Friday.

At the Reagan's suggestion, Fujisanki will provide the jumbo jetliner to ferry military families to Japan free of charge, said Reagan spokesman Mark Weinberg.

"Nancy and I promised ourselves that if we ever had a chance to bring families together, we would," Reagan said.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1989

CELEBRITIES BORN ON THIS DATE: poet T.S. Eliot, singer Olivia Newton-John, fitness expert Jack LaLanne, Ted Kennedy Jr., musician George Gershwin.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You can win points with an authority figure by suggesting ways to streamline work. Computer technology helps. A competitor's laziness works to your advantage. Romance could prove elusive.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): New business and career opportunities could result. A change of lifestyle could help. Weigh your options carefully before making a decision; the happiness of your family is at stake.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Follow through on a project that has been delayed. Your intuition is an accurate guide in business and romance. Be honest if you feel unable to live up to loved one's expectations.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Settle down to work during the early morning hours. Small investments can bring good returns. Study the latest financial trends and consult with experts. Friends shower you with invitations now.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Break away from old habits and haunts. Research sheds new light on an old problem. The domestic scene is tranquil after a candid chat with your mate. Stick to your budget.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Projects or people you thought beyond your reach are suddenly available. Make better use of the time you spend with key people. Answers to personal questions depend on quiet meditation.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): A co-worker could display jealousy over someone else's good fortune. Don't fan the flames! A lucky day for freelancers. Send off manuscripts. Say "no" to both hangers-on and complainers.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Problems with neighbors will increase if you need them. Partner motivates you to change your tactics. Delegating more duties will let you make better use of your time. Romance responds to gentle nurturing.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Postpone signing an agreement until more information is available. A friend who claims to be "in the know" could be bluffing. Investigate on your own. Romance is all fun and games.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Finalize business negotiations and tend to legal matters. Someone who often acts belligerent could be insecure. Give this person the benefit of the doubt.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Your courageous adherence to your beliefs begins to pay off. Influential person may offer you an opportunity to travel and learn. Find time to widen your social circle.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Put your business and social acquaintances at ease. A short, midweek business trip will provide a much-needed change of scenery. A close friend may be unable to give objective advice.
