Murder trial set

BIG SPRING - Robert 'Roberto'' Flores, charged with murder in the April 1988 bludgeoning death of an Odessa parolee, is set to go to trial Monday.

Flores, 31, is charged with murder in connection with the death of 53-year-old Manuel Garcia, whose body was recovered in a westside city sandpit under a bed mattress and other items. A medical examiner's report later determined Garcia died from trauma to the head.

The murder trial was established as the lead case during 118th District Court docket call Tuesday, District Attorney Rick Hamby said. Five civil cases were also on the docket, but those cases will most likely be delayed now, he said.

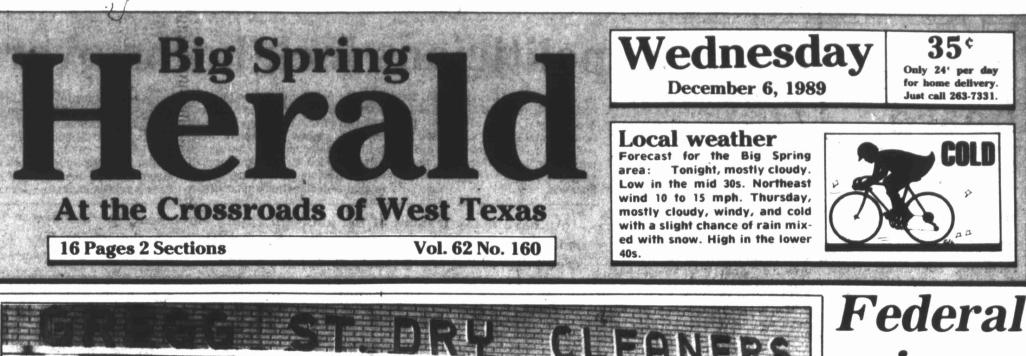

Murder trials are also pending in connection with Garcia's slaying for Flores' brother, Ricardo Flores, and Leroy Alaniz. Hamby said he is not yet sure when trial for Ricardo Flores and Alaniz will be, but said the Robert Flores case will be the last criminal case tried this year.

Robert Flores is currently free on $50,000 bond; Ricardo Flores is currently in the Howard County jail for revocation of parole in June stemming from an arrest in Lamesa for resisting arrest. Alaniz's status is unclear, Hamby said.

Hamby said he hopes to have a better idea of when Ricardo Flores and Alaniz face trial after prioritizing the criminal docket for next year. "A lot of variables now make 1990 a little less ironclad than I like things to be," he said.

BIG SPRING — The Big Spring Federal Prison Camp could be chosen as a site for a prison complex that would include three or four facilities, officials said today.

A spokesperson with the local federal prison camp said one federal prison in Texas may be designated as a prison complex. The complex would include three or four different security level facilities operating in the same general area, said Joe Aguirre, executive assistant to the warden.

'We hope it is Big Spring, we certainly have the room for it to be Big Spring," he said. Aguirre cautioned that nothing has been finalized. "They (the U.S. Federal Bureau of Prisons) are going to do some expansion in corrections. It will mean some added facilities in Texas," said Larry Neal, press secretary for Sen. Phil Gramm, R-Texas. Neal said the expansion in the number of federal prisons will increase as the result of a drug package signed into law by Presi dent Bush.

The president's approval of the anti-drug measure will mean more money for prosecutors, police – more money "up and down the system as whole" – including prisons, he said.

"In Texas, a number of communities have made it known they are interested in being host to a new facility," Neal added. "The cities and communities actively seeking a prison view it uniformly as a boon to their area."

County Judge John Coffee said he's talked with people in Gramm's office, and they have indicated Big Spring might be considered for a

County given funds

BIG SRING - Howard County has been chosen to receive $21,959 in federal funds, officials announced, to supplement emergency food and shelter programs in the area.

Selections of agencies to receive these funds will be at 5:30 p.m. Monday in the county judge's chambers.

The selection was made by a national board comprised of affiliates of national voluntary organizations and chaired by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), said John Coffee, Howard County judge. United Way of America will provide the administrative staff and function as fiscal agent, he said.

Coffee said the board was charged to distribute funds appropriated by Congress to help expand the capacity of food and shelter programs in high-need areas in the country.

A local board consisting of the county judge, United Way officials and others will determine how the funds awarded to Howard County are to be distributed, Coffee said. The money will be divided among the emergency food and shelter programs run by local service organizations in the area, Coffee said.

The local board is responsible for recommending agencies to receive these funds and any additional funds available under this phase of of the program, he said.

Under the terms of the grant from the national board, local governmental or private voluntary organizations chosen to receive funds must: be nonprofit; have an accounting system and conduct and annual audit: practice nondiscrimination.

prison complex. Coffee said he was told if Big Spring is interested in obtaining a prison complex, it is up to local officials to "put forward some entort, show them what we have to offer.

The bureau of prisons would want free land for the facilities and utilities to the site, but would expect other incentives as did the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Coffee said. The TDCJ sought extra incentives when it considered Howard County as a possible site for a state prison, he said.

Bush ignores Panama's nominee to canal post

By CHRISTOPHER CONNELL Associated Press Writer

Herald photos by Tim Appel

WASHINGTON – Panamanian opposition leaders are criticizing President Bush for ignoring the government's nominee for acting administrator of the Panama Canal, choosing instead to name a longtime Panamanian canal official to the post.

The Panama Canal Treaties of 1977 stipulated a Panamanian national must become administrator of the Panama Canal Commission on Jan. 1, for the first time in the 75-year-history of the canal.

The treaties specify that it was up to the government of Panama to nominate the canal administrator and the U.S. president to appoint him, subject to Senate confirmation.

But Bush is circumventing that process because the United States does not recognize the government installed by Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega after the results of last May's elections in Panama were nullified

Instead, Bush announced he has ministrator, Fernando Manfredo, to take over as acting administrator.

"I have accepted because I consider it the only responsible option under the circumstances," Manfredo said in a written statement in Panama.

Opposition leaders warned that Bush's action "creates an irregular situation not foreseen in the treaties."

"We warn the United States that because of its irregularity this asked the canal's deputy ad- situation disrupts the orderly process of nationalization of the canal that we Panamanians claim as an irreversible process," said the statement from former opposition presidential candidate Guillermo Endara and his vice presidential running mates Ricardo Arias and Guillermo Ford.

The man recommended by the Panamanian government for the job, Tomas Altamirano-Duque, director-president of Panama's biggest newspaper and a former lawmaker for the Democratic Revolutionary Party, published a letter in his newspaper last month saying Manfredo would be guilty of treason if he accepted the position.

Manfredo, commerce minister under the late Panamanian leader Oman Torrijos, said in his statement, "I am confident that when emotions are cooled down all will agree that I did the right thing."

There was no official government comment.

Liquor election vote strong in B-County

By PATRICK DRISCOLL Staff Writer

GAIL – A record 129 absentee votes have been cast in Borden County's election for the legal sale of alcoholic beverages, said County Clerk Dorothy Browne.

There are 555 registered voters in the county and 163 of those have signed a petition to force the Dec. 9 election, Browne said. Only 138 signatures, 35 percent of the voters who voted in the last governor's election, were needed on the petition.

Browne said the 129 absentee votes, which were cast from Nov. 20 through Dec. 5, are "the most that have ever been cast here."

Only 15 absentee votes were cast in November's constitutional amendment election, she said. There were 85 absentee ballots in the November 1988 general election.

"I think that was a record at that time," she said of the general election absentee total.

Meanwhile, county officials have said they do not want liquor to be sold within the county limits because it will not benefit the economy and it may be a bad influence on youth.

Browne said the for and against tally in the liquor election will not be made until after the polls close at 7 p.m. Saturday. Polls will open at 7 a.m. that day.

County Judge Van York said the record number of absentee voters may be a forecast of things to come

"I think it just shows we might have a good turnout," Van York said, although he declined to com-

A California legislator banned from Communion for advocating abortion rights held a narrow lead in a special election Tuesday. But Catholic politicians everywhere are feeling the heat of an aggressive church hierarchy that has banned dissent on abortion among its 53-million members.

"I'm not as interested in getting re-elected as I am getting into heaven," said state 'Sen. John Amari of Birmingham, Ala. Some Catholic lawmakers, noting the struggles of their predecessors such as Al Smith and John F. Kennedy against historical prejudices that they were surrogates for the Vatican, say the bishops are out of line.

"Construction will concentrate efforts on West and East coasts and the Southeast - Florida and Louisiana - where studies indicate growth will take place," he said. Bogdan said the bureau has not selected specific cities.

Aguirre said the local federal prison camp recently received information from its regional office in Dallas that a site in Texas was being considered for a prison complex. It is possible the information is so new Bogdan might not be aware of the possibility of a Texas prison site, he said.

Officials with the regional office could not be reached for comment as of presstime today.

In the fast lane

LONDON (AP) — Ah, the fast-paced modern age.

Traffic in central London in the 1980s moves only 3 mph faster than in 1912 when most of it was horse-drawn, according to the Department of Transport.

The department reported Wednesday that average speeds in 1986 were 10 mph, almost identical to those in 1936. Average speeds were 7 mph in 1912.

The highest average speeds were recorded just after World War II, when traffic moved at around 11.5 mph in 1947.

Traffic congestion has had one positive effect, the report said.

London's traffic tripled since 1912, whereas nationally it multiplied eight times.

Lawmakers urge early school finance session

AUSTIN (AP) - Gov. Bill this issue," added Sen. Carlos Clements says he will call a special session of the Legislature in March to overhaul public school finances, but several lawmakers say that's too long to wait.

"I'd like to address the issue right now. I think we've waited long enough," said Sen. Hector Uribe, D-Brownsville, a co-sponsor of a three-year, $5.6 billion school finance proposal introduced Tuesday

Uribe said school districts need to know soon how much money they will be receiving so they can plan for the 1990-91 school year. He noted that lawmakers have failed in more than 11 months to reform workers' compensation, Clements' top legislative priority.

"If this Legislature takes as long to deal with public school finance as it has with workers' comp, we will certainly be in a chaotic situation," the senator said.

The Texas Supreme Court, voting 9-0, in October ruled the state system of funding public schools unconstitutional and gave the Legislature a May 1 deadline to write a new plan.

"The fact is, we have researched this thing long enough. It is time to act. We've heard from every expert imaginable. We need to act," said Rep. Gregory Luna, D-San Antonio, House sponsor of the new plan.

"Nothing has been more damaging than Gov. Clements' delay on Truan, D-Corpus Christi. Truan said Clements' record on school finance, including his previous support for a constitutional amendment to legalize the current system, has been damaging.

"That is a horrible record which I predict will forever condemn the legacy of the Clements administration to the dustbin of history, just as the existing system of school finance has condemned so many hundreds of thousands of Texas school students to an inferior education," Truan said.

Clements said Tuesday he has decided to call lawmakers into session "in March, probably the early part of March.

He said he wants to wait on the recommendations of a new task force that began looking at school finance late last month.

Clements also said the state may have to consider consolidation of its 1,100 public school districts. 'We're going to go right back to what the Supreme Court said, which is that we have an inefficient system. So we're going start talking about efficiency and we're going to start talking about consolidation," Clements said.

Consolidation, the governor said, is "a bad word, it's a contentious word and a lot of people don't like the idea. But if there's anything inefficient about our system, it's 1.100 school districts.

Herald opinion Drifting toward catastrophe

Every night, an estimated 1,200 fishing trawlers from Japan, Taiwan and South Korea ply the Pacific with enormous nets 30 miles long that are left to drift, sweeping up all the sea life that blunders into them. The evidence of the resulting devastation - not only the destruction of commercial fisheries but also the thousands of marine mammals and millions of sea birds killed every year - is now so overwhelming that nothing less than a complete international ban on the use of drift nets will do.

Halfway measures and efforts by individual countries to stop the killing have not been effective. Most of the major fishing nations of the Pacific already prohibit the nets in their own territorial waters. Some, like New Zealand, go further and refuse to allow the trawlers to refuel or unload their cargoes. In response, the trawlers have simply moved their operations into international waters and brought in cargo ships to take off their catches and oil tankers to keep the killing well-fueled.

At first the trawlers concentrated on taking salmon and steelhead trout, but lately they have shifted their attention to 2-year-old tuna. At this time of year they station themselves along the narrow feeding routed the young tuna follow during their annual migration from the north. The apparent impact has been swift and dramatic. The American and Canadian tuna fishing industries report that their catch this year is lower than any on record, down to 2,500 tons as compared to an average of more than 17,000 tons in the early 1980s. And because tuna don't begin to reproduce until their fifth year, marine scientists warn, the drift net fishermen are destroying the ability of the entire tuna fishery to sustain itself.

Last July, 15 island nations of the South Pacific joined in signing the Tarawa Declaration calling for a worldwide ban on drift nets. That demand has now been joined by the International Fisheries Conference representing the Northern Pacific. And last week the Bush administration introduced a proposed resolution in the United Nations to implement such a ban by 1992.

The three nations that use the nets still refuse to give them up. Spokesmen for Japan have been particularly vociferous in insisting that it won't accept any new restrictions until it has more evidence of the damage the nets are doing. But as one representative for the island of Tonga pointed out, by the time Japan completes its research, all the fish may be gone.

Insurance industry feels the heat

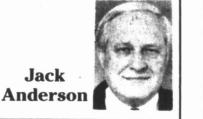

By JACK ANDERSON and DALE VAN ATTA

WASHINGTON - Consumer advocates are taking scissors to the veil of mystery and complexity that shrouds the insurance industry, and the industry is in a panic.

That panic surfaced at a recent insurance convention that turned into a vicious pro-industry rally when John Crosby, vice president of the National Association of Independent Insurers, took the podium. In a carefully crafted analogy, he suggested that propaganda espoused by consumer groups "parallels Hitler" and the deception of the Third Reich.

Crosby jumped on the consumer advocates who criticize the insurance industry for taking big profits. "Ralph Nader wants our Persian rugs off our floors, he wants to cut insurance executives salaries, he wants to cut your commissions as agents and brokers, Crosby said. "Like Hitler, there is no appeasement, they want it all."

The speech received thundering applause, but later Nader and consolation is that the main other insurance reformers receiv- crusader for insurance reform in ed letters of apology from Lowell R. I took Coke in the Cola War for a couple of reasons. One, I live in Atlanta and resent the way it was portrayed, and, two, I have always strongly preferred Coke over Pepsi as my soft drink.

When I take a side, I take a side. I've decided never to drink Pepsi again, never to allow it in my house, and when it is forced upon me in a restaurant, to get up and leave and go find a civilized place that does serve Coke.

I've also made a sign to put in the window of my car that says, "Coke Fan on Board," and I have vowed occasionally to scream out, "How 'bout them Cokes," in public places and to throw rocks at Pepsi delivery trucks.

So, here's a little tip for Pepsi: Never incur the wrath of a Coke fan We bad.

Republicans trying to isolate abortion issue

By WALTER R. MEARS AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) - In simpler times, a politician, a president, could tailor his message to fit his audience, and chances were the adjustments would go unnoticed.

In the era of instant communications that doesn't work very well; television makes all audiences into one. But President Bush and some other Republican leaders are trying to deal with the abortion issue as though the old way might still work.

The objective seems to be to deal with abortion separately, apart from other issues. That's understandable as abortion becomes an increasingly worrisome topic for Republicans, who saw it work against their 1989 candidates. The trouble is that isolating issues is as difficult as fine-tuning speeches.

For example, Republicans pride themselves on a philosophy that seeks to keep government from intruding on private decisionmaking. Gov. James R. Thompson of Illinois, who favors abortion rights, suggested that GOP tenet could be cast into doubt by a candidate opposed to abortion, since that would involve the poverament in one of the most sensitive of private decisions.

He raised the question at a conference of Republican governors earlier this month. It already had been answered in one election: Virginia Democrats made effective use of that theme in narrowly

Bush had said in advance there was no evidence that single-issue voters would make abortion a decisive issue. But in the hairbreadth Virginia verdict, it almost certainly influenced enough votes to shape the outcome.

winning the contest for governor.

That points to the Democratic course in dealing with abortion in the 1990 campaign. Their 1989 candidates succeeded in claiming the center on the issue. Strategists for both parties agree that is where the majority of the voters are, pro and anti-abortion zealotry notwithstanding. "My sense on this issue is that the American people are in the middle," said William Bennett, the drug policy chief, offering the governors' conference some unsolicited advice

But the Republicans have had more trouble getting there.

Bush's own position has come all the way from support for the 1973 Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion to ardent, active opposition. He vetoed four appropriations bills this fall because they would have permitted the use of tax dollars to pay for abortions for needy women who were victims of rape or incest. Bush would permit abortion in those cases, but not with public funds.

The Republican Party platform advocates a constitutional amendment to bar abortions. That doesn't bind anybody; as GOP leaders hasten to point out, party platforms usually are ignored. But it does set a starting point

The national party position that counts is the one anti-abortion course President Bush is setting.

The Bush administration has been urging the Supreme Court to overturn its original abortion decision. That call is repeated in administration briefs on two cases that are to be argued before the court tomorrow, on Ohio and Min-performed on their teen-age though it didn't exist. daughters

On a narrowed issue such as parental advice or consent for teenage abortions, the opinion surveys and the political strategists agree that a candidate probably could find majority backing. When it is broadened and simplified into a flat yes or no on abortion rights, it's hard to handle.

in the Republican Party for differing opinions on abortion, and among Democrats, too.

On Nov. 14, Bush met with four Republican women House members who support abortion rights, listened to their arguments, but said his own views are not subject to change. His spokesman then said that agreement on abortion was not a test of support; that Bush would back all Eepublican candidates, without regard to positions differing from his own.

Two of the four House women want to move to the Senate in the 1990 elections, and Bush campaignnesota laws requiring that parents ed for them last week. He avoided be notified before abortions are the abortion issue, speaking as At a Chicago fundraising reception for Rep. Lynn Martin of Illinois, Bush said the congresswoman has been "right on issue after issue. She thinks like I do, like you do.

Then he went to Providence in behalf of Rep. Claudine Schneider of Rhode Island, and praised her independence. "I always know ex-Bush said there is plenty of room actly where she stands," the president said. Flying home on Air Force One, he vetoed another bill because of abortion funding. Rep. Schneider, a presidential passenger, said she was disappointed.

The surgically implanted tube could keep her alive for 30 years or more, doctors say. Without it, she would soon die of starvation or dehydration.

BOGOTA, Colombia — A car bomb exploded in downtown Bogota this morning killing or injuring more than 1,000 people and causing heavy damage to surrounding buildings.

Truck bomb kills 23, injures 1,000 in Bogota

hour today in downtown Bogota, killing at least 23 people and injuring about 1,000 near a building housing Colombia's federal police force, reports said.

Several stores were destroyed, and police appealed for anyone in the area with picks and shovels to help search through rubble for survivors. Cries for help could be heard beneath some of the ruins, according to radio reports.

The explosion left a crater 15 feet deep and 30 feet across, and it damaged or dstroyed 60 cars. A car located 10 feet from the bomb's crater had the roof flattened, and a body was hanging from a window.

No one claimed responsibility for the attack, but suspicion fell on drug traffickers who have repeatedly bombed the nation's cities in an effort to stop the government from extraditing suspected traffickers to the United States.

The explosion occurred less than 24 hours after the government said a bomb placed aboard a Colombian airliner had caused it to crash

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) - A shortly after takeoff from Bogota truck bomb exploded during rush last month, killing all 107 people aboard. Authorities believe the drug traffickers also may have been responsibile for that bomb. The truck, which was rigged with dynamite, exploded in front of the headquarters of the Department of Administrative Security, Colombia's federal investigations police, the radio reports said.

The government of President Virgilio Barco declared war on the nation's cocaine cartels after Sen. Luis Carlos Galan, a leading presidential candidate and antidrug crusader, was assassinated on Aug. 18. As part of the crackdown, the government has been extraditing drug suspects wanted on charges in the United

The drug traffickers have responded with a nationwide bombing campaign. More than 200 attacks have killed 29 people and wounded 238.

Taiwanese promised reforms

TAIPEI, Taiwan (AP) - President Lee Teng-hui today promised more democratic reforms after the ruling Nationalist Party's setback in Taiwan's first multiparty elections, acknowledging a decline in his party's credibility.

The Nationalists suffered their worst losses in 40 years in power in Saturday's balloting. The party lost several key local county executive posts and garnered 58 percent of the total vote, down from 70 percent in 1986.

"The decision made by the voters was not a coincidence," Lee told the party's decision-making Central Standing Committee, "It indicates the various reform measures undertaken by the government in recent years had failed to meet the public's expectations."

Lee said the government had failed to solve such problems as worsening crime, social morale and "the authorities' declining credibility.'

'We must learn our lesson from the setback. We must not hesitate any more," Lee said. "We are more sure of our way and will take faster and more positive steps" toward various political and other reforms.

Aquino appeals for public support

REBEL SOLDIER

MANILA, Philippines (AP) President Corazon Aquino declared a state of national emergency today and pleaded with fellow Filipinos to defy the hundreds of mutinous soldiers 'who want to kill me.'

"You, my beloved countrymen, I depend on you," said the obviously strained and fatigued leader, appealing for a show of "people power" in the streets Friday like the 1986 demonstrations that helped put her into office. Later, she declared the emergency although it was unclear what additional powers her government would wield. Press secretary Adolfo Azcuna said the government planned to take over utilities and transportation but not the media.

Five days after the coup attempt was launched, an estimated 400 rebel soldiers continued to hold Manila's financial district today and another 400 held a military base on Cebu Island.

Honecker lost his job in a major power reshuffle on Oct. 18 and on Sunday he was ousted from the party he had led for 18 years. He was replaced as party leader by Egon Krenz, who resigned under pressure on Sunday.

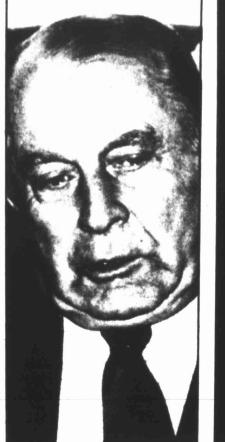

The former general-secretary and president Erich Honecker is mong those who are not allowed to leave their houses in the elegant compound," ADN reported. Wandlitz, near Berlin, has 23 houses once lived in by Politburo members and their families.

Honecker and his inner circle are under investigation for suspected corruption; three former Politburo members are already in prison pending investigation. It was not immediately clear when he was arrested.

Soviets warn W. Germany about pace of reunification

Union has warned West Germany not to take advantage of the political upheaval in the East bloc by pushing too quickly for reunification with East Germany. Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher of West Germany met with Mikhail S. Gorbachev and with his Soviet counterpart, Eduard Shevardnadze, on Tuesday o discuss a topic that was once considered taboo between East and West Afterward, the official Tass news agency quoted Shevardnadze as recalling the Soviets' experience with a strong Germany during World War II. It said he told Genscher that "propaganda about a federation of the two Germanys can only exacerbate turmoil in the corrent circumstances.

An attempt to use difficulties in the reconstruction process in socialist countries for one-sided. selfish goals, without taking into account the long-term general European interests, can threaten the accumulated positive developments, stability and peace on the continent."

MOSCOW (AP) - The Soviet mit in Malta, Gorbachev cautioned President Bush that a swift push toward reunification could create tensions > Genscher told a news conference he assured Gorbachev that both Germanys "will keep in mind their responsibility for the security of the whole of Europe.

> Shevardnadze told Genscher, 'The current developments touch on deep-rooted interests of the Soviet Union, the countries of the Warsaw Pact and finally all Europeans.

Good ol' red beans and Tex-Mex corn bread

How to open an egg

By PAPA JOE REED

Thanksgiving is past, and Christmas is drawing nigh. We have been stuffed with rich foods and will be stuffed once again with rich foods, so now is the time to get down to some good old every day country cooking and eating.

At this time of the year, I can't think of nothing better than good old red beans, but not just old ordinary red beans. I'm talking about red beans that have been gussied up a little bit. I'm talking about:

PAPA JOE'S TEXAS HODGE PODGE Pinto beans (1 lb.) Hamburger meat (1 lb.) Salt pork (enough to season the beans)

Tomatoes (1, 16 oz. can) Onion (1, about size of golf ball) Chili powder (2 tbs.)

Salt and pepper to taste Cook the beans according to package directions (several hours) with the salt pork until tender. Now fry your hamburger meat. Pour off the excess grease and add the chili powder, pepper and salt and chopped onion. After onion is tender and hamburger meat is well browned. pour this mixture into the beans and add the can of tomatoes. Let all this simmer for about twenty minutes and then serve.

This is a warm filling meal that will become a family favorite, if vou serve it with corn bread. Once again, not just any old corn bread. but corn bread that is a natural for the "hodge podge." This is a corn bread recipe that is called:

PAPA JOE'S TEX-MEX CORNBREAD Yellow cornmeal (1 cup) Flour (12 cup)

Salt (1 tsp.) Mix this thoroughly, and in a large mixing bowl, bring together the following ingredients: Buttermilk (1 cup) Sweet milk (12 cup) Egg (1, lightly beaten) Baking powder (1 tbs.) Baking soda (1/2 tsp.) Shortening (1/4 cup)

SAN ANGELO - The Big Spring Steers basketball team found the going rough Tuesday night, losing to San Angelo Central, 99-47.

It was the Steers' first game against their former coach, Boyce Paxton. Paxton left Big Spring for Central after the end of last season.

Lady Hawks face OC Wranglers next to open league action for unbeaten HC

By STEVE REAGAN Staff Writer

BIG SPRING - The Howard College Lady Hawks, having ran up an impressive 14-1 record in nonconference play, open conference play Thursday against perhaps their biggest rival - the Odessa College Lady Wranglers.

The Lady Hawks-Odessa game, set for 6 p.m. Thursday in Dorothy Garrett Coliseum, is a major one for Howard, coach Royce Chadwick said.

"Conference is a new season for us," he said. "All that other stuff just gets you ready. This is a game of major proportions for us. Odessa is picked to win the conference, and we're picked to finish fifth. We've got to be ready for this game."

The 13-2 Lady Wranglers will be

Chicago native, and Angela Medough, from Los Angeles, Chadwick said.

"Dumas is a tremendous player and a great rebounder. She can score from anywhere on the floor," he said. "Medough can post you up, or shoot from the perimeter. She's just a well-rounded athlete and a great basketball player. The Lady Hawks will counter with a sophomore-laden team that has three players averaging in double figures scoring-wise. Kim Robinson, a freshman from Slaton, is the leading scorer with a 14.6 average, followed by sophomore Linda Water, who's averaging 14.1 a game. Post player Shannon

Lawson is averaging 11.7 points a game. "Our sophomores are the reason led by post player Lisa Dumas, a we're winning," Chadwick said. Odessa. We've got to be readv.

"If not for their leadership, I don't think there'd be any question that we wouldn't be 14-1.

Along with Robinson, Waters and Lawson, point guard Monique Cook and small forward Ana Carroll will round out the starting lineup for Howard.

Chadwick also expects the Lady Hawks' bench to provide muchneeded help. Reserves Lisa Moore and Cindy Williams have really provided scoring and rebounding punch off the bench, Chadwick said.

Although it is only the beginning of the conference schedule, Chadwick said it is important for the Lady Hawks to win.

"It's Odessa," he said. "It wouldn't matter if it was the first or last game of the year, it's still

BIG SPRING — The only thing between the Hawks and an undefeated record and a top-10 national ranking is the Odessa Wranglers.

Howard College, 15-0 after whipping Midland College Monday night, is ranked 8th in the nation behind number one Southern Idaho. The Hawks want to keep their streak intact, as well as head into the Christmas break with a 2-0 record in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference.

The only obstacle is Odessa College, 13-1 on the season and 0-1 in league play after a loss to New Mexico Junior College. The Hawks play Odessa at 8 p.m. Thursday in Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

Although the Wranglers are playing without All-Everything Larry Johnson, who is playing for UNLV, Odessa is still a team to be reckoned with.

Howard coach Steve Green said the Wranglers will present a different problem than the run and run some more Midland team that Howard beat by 22.

They play a little more deliberate than Midland," Green said of the Wranglers. "They're a little more deliberate than ourselves too. Their scores are usually in the 80s."

The Hawks have been averaging more than 110 points in each of their 15 wins, so the contrasting styles will force the Hawks to play hard against Odessa. HAWKS page 3-B

Forsan sweeps Tuesday night games

BIG SPRING HERALD, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1989

By STEVE REAGAN Staff Writer

GARDEN CITY - The Forsan Buffalo Queens broke open a tight game in the third quarter to down the Garden City Lady Bearkats, 34-23, in Bearkat Gym Tuesday night.

Girls' game

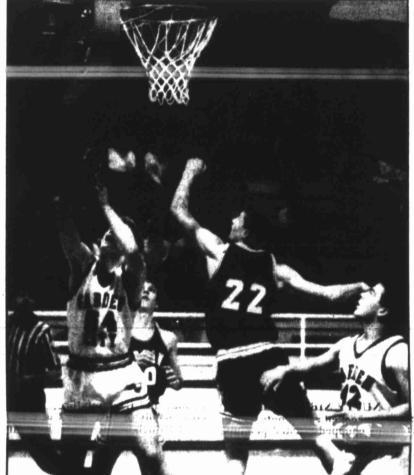

The Queens, now 5-3 for the season, were led by Tera Sims, who scored 11 points, and Kara Evans and Becky Gerstenberger, who tallied six apiece.

The Lady Bearkats, who fell to 2-4 with the loss, were paced by Becky Pinkard and Kelli Stringer, who scored six points each.

Forsan's full-court press, which Garden City handled fairly well in the first half, began taking its toll in the third quarter.

Leading 19-13 with less than three minutes left in the stanza, the Queens took advantage of three Lady 'Kat turnovers in a minute to expand their lead to 27-15.

Sime started things off with a short jumper an unter struger responded and the starter of G-City, Gerstenberger hit consecutive jumpers and Amy Stockwell added a basket to give the Queens com-

Forsan was led by Stephen East and Charlie Newton, who scored 15 and 12 points, respectively. Chad Soles scored 10 points and Eric Seidenberger nine for the Bearkats.

"It was a real rough first game," G-City coach Ted Epley said after the contest. "We've only practiced for eight hours, then we had to play Forsan. Boy, that's tough.'

Forsan coach Kurt White diplomatically conceded that the result may be misleading.

"They just got out of football. They're going to be all right in a few weeks." White said. "We played pretty good defense. It gave the kids a chance to play."

The Buffalos gained control of the contest early. Leading 6-3 three COAHOMA - With a combination of Kelly Williams and good defensive maneuvers, the Coahoma Bulldogettes improved to their record to 6-2 downing the Klondike Lady Cougars 65-36 Tuesday.

Williams scored ten points in the opening quarter and grabbed six rebounds to pace Coahoma to a 13-4 first quarter lead. Unable to break the Bulldogette defense, the Lady Cougars settled for four points.

Cold-shooting from the floor contributed for Klondike's low scoring. Kris Foster and Pam Brooks led the way for the visiting team.

Junior Tiffani Ward came off the Bulldogette bench to add to the home team's lead. Mandi Walling and Williams also scored to help give Coahoma a 33-17 halftime lead. M'lyn Turner turned in a good first half also as she connected for seven points, all in the second minutes into the game, Forsan led by the inside duo of Joey Henkel and Joey Conaway - went on an 8-2 run to fashion its first-quarter lead.

That run proved only to be a warm-up, however. After Shea Scott scored to cut the 'Kats' deficit to 18-9 midway through the second, Newton hit a three-pointer that keyed an 11-0 spurt by the Buffs. That gave them a 20-point lead with 3:41 left in the half.

After cutting the lead to 18 at the quarter Foster also had a good second period as she found the hoop for four points. Celeste Rodriguez helped the Cougar cause, gathering three rebounds and a steal to keep Klondike within distance of Coahoma. The Lady Cougars outscored the Bulldogettes 13-10 in the third quarter, thanks to four three-pointers by Turner and Rodriguez. Coahoma only managed two from Kim Gee. BULLDOGETTES page 3-B

Ware, Thompson join forces on All-America team

By RICK WARNER AP Football Writer

Last week, they were rivals. Now Houston guarterback Andre Ware and Indiana running back Anthony Thompson are teammates.

Ware, who edged Thompson in voting for the Heisman Trophy, joined him Tuesday on The Associated Press 1989 All-America college football team

Ware broke 13 NCAA records and tied two others as the top gun in Houston's run-and-shoot offense. He capped a remarkable season last Saturday by setting season records for most completions (365) and passing yards (4,699). His 46 touchdown passes were one short of Jim McMahon's NCAA mark.

As Ware established passing standards, Thompson ran off with some marks of his own. The tailback set NCAA career marks for touchdowns and points, led the nation in rushing with 1,793 yards and broke the single-game rushing record with 377 against Wisconsin.

Ware and Thompson were unlikely candidates for stardom. Ware had virtually no preseason publicity and, because Houston was on probation, wasn't seen on television. Thompson played for a losing team at a school better known for basketball.

Yet they emerged as the top stars on an AP offensive team that includes Outland Trophy finalist Michael Tanks of Florida State and a trio of record-setting receivers -Clarkston Hines of Duke, Emmanuel Hazard of Houston and Terance Mathis of New Mexico. The defense features Butkus

After Brewer, what kind of encore for the Steers?

By STEVE BELVIN Sports Editor

Watching the Steers demolish Fort Worth Brewer Saturday was almost too good to be true. That was as close to a perfect game as the Steers have played this season.

The one game I can compare it to is the win over Sweetwater; and even that win wasn't as impressive as the one Saturday. The most impressive thing about the 36-15 win over Sweetwater was that it was at Mustang Bowl, a place where Sweetwater hardly ever loses.

The 39-6 win over Brewer was awesome to say the least. Very seldom vou see a team be so dominant in the third round of the state playoffs. That far in the game, you figure everyone is well-matched. How do the two games compare yardage-wise? The Sweetwater offense gained 239 yards against the Steer defense, 182 on the ground and 57 in the air. The Brewer offense managed just 119 yards against the Steers, 81 on the ground and 38 in the air

As remarkable as the Steer defense was, the play of free safety Freddy Rodriguez-was just amazing. Rodriguez, who has been a consistent performer all season, picked off three passes, broke up three more and made nine tackles. If Rodriguez was six-foot and be outlawed. Fortunately for opponents, he's 5-foot-eight and 134 pounds

The Steers face a stern test against the Monahans Loboes Saturday.

First of all, it's hard to beat a team twice in one season, especially a good team. Big Spring dominated Brewer because the Steers were just too physical. Monahans is the same physical type of team as Big Spring.

Regardles of the outcome, it's nice to know a team from 4-4A will be playing in the state semi-finals next weekend.

I'm told that Midland's Memorial Stadium seats about 11,000 fans. Saturday's game should be standing room only. Shotwell Stadium in Abilene holds 15,000, and 8,000 were at the game.

weighed 180 pounds, he'd have to Stadium officials estimated that 5,000 were on the Big Spring side. For the second straight week Big Spring will be the home team and sit on the west side. Incidentially, the winner of the Big Spring-Monahans game will be the Region I champion. They will play the winner of Region II, which will be either Chapel Hill (9-4) or Mt. Plesant (12-1). Chapel Hill is located approxmiately 75 miles east of Austin on Highway 290, and Mt. Plesant is 150 east of Dallas on I-20. If Big Spring wins, depending on the opponenet, the Steers could play in either Wichita Falls or Dallas.

Thank goodness the Steers aren't thinking like I am - pondering about the next game.

44444 Enough of this football playoff stuff, let's talk hoops.

How about those Hawks and Lady Hawks?

I officially dub thee the Lady Hawks. The Hawk-Queens are dead. Lady Hawks coach Royce Chadwick had told me I could refer to them as either the Hawk-Queens or Lady Hawks. But since the Howard College press guide uses Lady Hawks, the name change is official. Lady Hawks ye shall be.

Big Spring is a place where people can come to watch some pretty good basketball. The Hawks are flying along, undefeated with a 15-0 record. The Queens are one behind, sporting a 14-1 record, and the Big Spring Lady Steers are right in step, sporting a 6-2 mark.

The Hawks began conference play with an inpressive 102-80 win over Midland. Although this Midland team may be a bit weaker BELVIN page 3-B Coahoma was led by Rusty Ginnetti and Brent Elmore with 9 and 4 respectively. The Cougars were led by Brandi O'Brien, Cody Vogler and Ramiro Serrato all with four points.

Propp leads balloting

MONTREAL (AP) Philadelphia left winger Brian Propp held a slim lead of 667 votes over Michel Goulet of Quebec in the tightest race for the NHL's Wales Conference All-Star team.

Pittsburgh center Mario Lemieux remains the Wales' top vote-getter with 176,142, and his teammate Paul Coffey leads defensemen with 151,935.

Montreal goaltender Patrick Roy leads with 133,163 votes and Boston right winger Cam Neely is a leader with 105,941.

New training camp

DALLAS (AP) - Another Dallas Cowboys tradition is being set aside as team owner Jerry Jones says the team will hold training camp at Austin instead of Thousand Oaks, Calif. where the team had held the sessions for the past 27 years.

Jones notified George Oge, president of the Tyler Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday night that the team has decided to move training camp to Austin instead of Tyler. Both Texas cities had made strong bids.

Austin Mayor Lee Cooke and officials at St. Edward's University, which would be host to the camp, had not received official confirmation about the move Tuesday night.

Cooke said he would decline comment on the matter until he hears from Jones.

Jerry Miller, president of California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, said Jones has informed him the team will not return for the 1990 season.

The Lakers, meanwhile, posted a newspaper article about Casey's motivational maneuver in their dressing room before facing their crosstown rivals Tuesday, then went out and kept the goal unfulfilled, outscoring the Clippers 40-30 in the final guarter to claim a 111-103 victory.

STREAKS

- The Lakers' triumph was their 16th in a row over the Clippers since the teams became crosstown rivals when the San Diego franchise moved to LA for the 1984-85 season. The Clippers' last victory at The Forum came on Nov. 21, 1981, eight days after Pat Riley replaced Paul Westhead as the Lakers' head coach.

Sacramento's 118-103 victory over Milwaukee snapped the Kings' 13-game losing streak against the Bucks. The Kings last beat Milwaukee on Nov. 2, 1982, when the franchise was still located in Kansas City.

SHODDY TWOSOMES

Golden State point guards Tim Hardaway and Winston Garland combined to shoot just 5-for-26 from the field Tuesday in the Warriors' 107-88 loss at Dallas. Hardaway, the Warriors' first-round pick, was 2-for-14 while Garland, the starter until Hardaway came along, was 3-for-12 ... Mark Price and Craig Ehlo, starting together for the first time since Ron Harper was traded, were a combined 9-for-30 in the Cavaliers' 94-80 loss to Utah. Price, returning to the lineup after missing time with a recurring foot injury, was 4-for-15 while Ehlo was 5-for-15.

Kathleen is an artist. She loves to paint pictures of bird's nests. Her nest works usually have a butterfly instead of a bird flying around the nest. She also quilts. Her polished cotton jackets look they come from Neiman's. She sells those.

Owen and Kathleen spend a lot of time in their travel trailer going from one place to another. They are on Lake McKenzie several nights during the summer.

Kathleen says unusual things happen to her and she enjoys them all. For example: "My husband was gone to a ballgame one night and my daughter was at the show with some friends. I was at home alone. In the bathtub. The telephone rang. I jumped up and answered it. The person calling and needed to make a call to California.

"I asked him why did he pick my number to call and he said his name was Thornton and he didn't think I would mind his making a phone call and charging it to my number since we had the same name.

It was after midnight when the call came in and Mrs. Thornton was a little worried.

"He told me that he was leaving the money for the call in the telephone booth. He had charged the call to my number because he didn't have any change and couldn't find any place open." Kathleen didn't quite know what to do. She went next door to the neighbor's house for advice.

'My neighbor told me to call the police and have the police go to the phone booth with me. And that's what I did.

"The police came to the house. The ballgame ended about that time and there was a lot of traffic. In a small town, everybody knows when something exciting is happening.

When the police car got to my

"When we got to the telephone booth, there was a note there. The boy had written a beautiful letter thanking me and excusing himself for bothering me late at night like that. The money was inside the note.

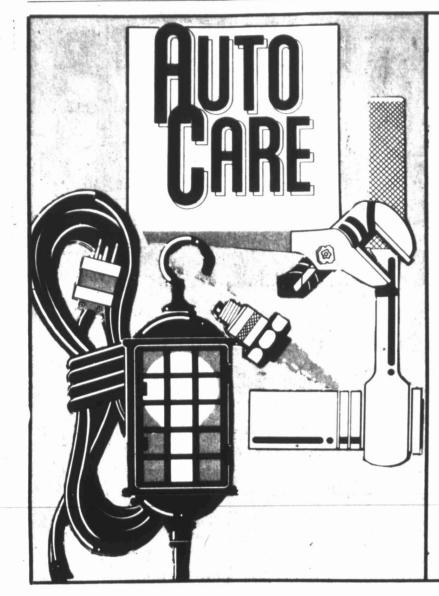

"I thought anyone that honest ought to be rewarded in some way. The note said he was going to catch a bus in Plainview within the next half hour.'

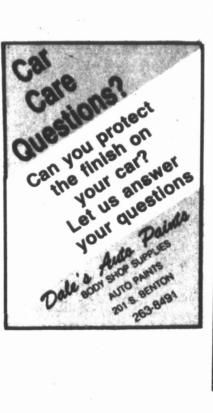

Kathleen and Owen got in the car at 1 a.m. and drove 15 miles to Plainview. Kathleen wanted to give that soldier boy back his money.

But they couldn't find him anywhere.

"I never heard another word from him. I've always wished that someday he would stop by.

Tilley's chili wins inaugural cookoff

BY ERIN BLAIR Special to the Herald

With the not-so-secret ingredients of spider legs, eye of newt, frog hair and aged road kill, Tommy Tilley won first place for his bowl of red in the Inaugural Mayor's Chili Cookoff Saturday.

Tilley modestly credited his success to the barbecue bribes he gave judges in the Harley Owners Chili Cookoff a couple of years ago.

He won a stunning gold trophy topped with a chili pot and the honor of joining the mayor's team as an official Big Spring representative in chili cookoffs across the state, announced Tumbleweed Smith, who awarded the prizes.

Lois Randall won second prize for her chili, which Smith said was made with ground loon bill. Dave Jones and Sherman Powers took third place with their recipe, which allegedly contained deer lip, ground hoof and antler powder.

Radio station KBST swept the specialty awards, winning both the hottest and the worst chili categories. Smith presented a fire extinguisher and a three-pack of Kaopectate for KBST's trophy room. David Wrinkle, owner of the station, was also invited to join the Big Spring chili team.

"Even the worst Texas chili can beat the pants off any Yankee or Californian chili," Smith said.

District Attorney Rick Hamby, County Judge John Coffee, City Attorney Jean Shotts and Herald reporter Lynn Hayes were the intrepid judges for the event.

They sat in the remains of the old Tap Room Cafe sampling 16 different chilies ranging from dark red to yellow, chunky to loose and mild to sear-the-roof-of-yourmouth-off hot. Bowls of sorbet and a bottle of Kaopectate stood on hand for emergencies.

The newly-formed Big Spring Texas Chili Commission sponsored the inaugural cookoff, which was held at the old Tap Room Cafe on Main Street.

The Yarbros have 16 grand- from 2 to 5 p.m., at an open house at their home.

The event will be hosted by their children: Jeff and Mavis Morton, David and Lee Morton, and Kaki Morton.

Morton was born in the Center Point community.

Mrs. Morton, the former Ella Ruth Thomas, was born in Baird. The couple met while he was dating her sister. They married Dec. 16, 1939 in Stanton, with W.C. Williams officiating.

The Mortons have six grandchildren.

During their marriage they have

23 years in Big Spring. Mrs. Morton is a rural letter carrier for the U.S. Postal Service. He is a member of East Fourth Street Baptist Church. She is active at Hillcrest Baptist Church.

Mrs. Morton is a member of the Elbow Extension Homemakers Club

When asked to comment about their marriage, they said "We are looking forward to the next 50 years.

Man charged in 'mattress murder' could face trial

By BRADLEY WORRELL Staff Writer

BIG SPRING - An April 1988 murder case is expected to be set for trial Tuesday in 118th District Court.

Robert Flores, 31, one of three men charged with murder in connection with the bludgeoning death of 53-year-old Manuel Garcia, could face trial Dec. 11 in district court

Dubbed "the mattress murder" by district court officials because Garcia's body was discovered in a west side city sand pit under a bed mattress and other items, the case also involves murder charges against Flores' older brother Ricardo Romero Flores, 32, and Leroy Flores Alaniz, 30.

Robert Flores testified May 20, 1988, in two parole revocation hearings for Alaniz that he struck Garcia in the head with a pipe April 2, 1988, because he believed Garcia had tried to molest his daughter. Flores said he didn't mean to kill Garcia, a parolee from Odessa, but just wanted to "beat him up."

Robert Flores is currently free on $50,000 bond; Ricardo Flores has been in the Howard County jail for the past six months on charges of revocation of parole stemming from an arrest in Lamesa for resisting arrest. Alaniz's status is unclear, although his parole was revoked after the hearings in May.

• Five civil cases have also been placed on the court docket for Tuesday, but Assistant District Attorney William Dupree said criminal cases generally have priority over civil cases and that the prosecution is preparing to try the case.

Extensiton agent

Entries will be accepted Monday for the County Pecan Show. Entries need to be received by the extension agent's office before 5 p.m. in preparation for the pecan show Tuesday at the Highland South Shopping Center, said Don Richardson, county agricultural extension agent.

entry, Richardson said. There is no end, still holding the string. entry charge, but all entries show, he said.

Entries will be judged by Sammy Helmers, extension specialist for horticulture for the district. Winning entries will be forwarded to Midland for the West Texas Regional Pecan Show, Richardson said • The Extension Homemakers will hold their county-wide Christmas meeting 11 a.m. Monday at the Youth Hall of First Methodist Church. The luncehon meeting is for extension homemakers and anyone else interested, County Extension Agent Naomi Hunt said. Those who attend are encouraged to bring a salad.

There will be a White Elephant gift exchange during the meeting, she said.

• 4-H will hold its county-wide Christmas party from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday at the Elbow Cafeteria. Members are encouraged to bring a canned good to be distributed to a needy organization.

• There was a beef and cattle seminar for 4-H leaders Friday and Saturday. The training program stressed fitting, grooming and showmanship, Richardson said.

The Jeffrey Cattle Company of McCalley was featured in the program, said Richardson, adding that the family has been involved in the show cattle program for 30 years.

Breakout

A prisoner in the Howard County jail apparently devised his own plan for personalized room service. The man lowered a string with a vial or small baggie tied to the end of it out a window and down to the ground level of the courthouse.

County Attorney Hardy Wilkerson said he was doing work in his office when he noticed something dangling outside one of his office windows. Wilkerson alerted Contestants are asked to submit sheriff's deputies, who entered the 40 pecans of a single variety for an jail and found the man at the other

The man told sheriff's deputies become property of the pecan he wanted his girlfriend to fill the bag with chewing tobacco, Wilkerson said. The man already had two full cans of tobacco on him when they discovered him with the string, a sheriff's deputy said.

> No charges were brought against the man, but he was removed from the trusty room and placed in a cell, the deputy said.

> • And two attorneys who found themselves in a bind when they discovered they were locked in the courthouse law library Wednesday evening chose a unique solution to their problem. The attorneys, who found both entrances to the library locked after business hours and unable to be opened from the inside, removed a smoke-glass window facing the 'inside of the courthouse window and crawled out. district court officials said.

No one was injured and the window was removed without damaging it, court officials said.

Drug education

A Howard County Sheriff's Deputy and an agent with the regional drug task force recently presented an anti-drug program to a freshman health class at Forsan High School.

'It's not an entirely new thing," Sheriff A.N. Standard said of the drug presentation, adding, "It doesn't mean there's any major drug problems in the schools."

The program was presented in an effort to strike a rapport with the students

Standard said the program covered the types of drugs prevelant in the area and the effects of drugs on the user. The program was presented by Deputy Jack Howard and Wayne Dial, an agent with the Permian Basin Drug Task Force.

Standard said any other groups that would like to have a drug prgram presented can request one by calling him

BUSINESS & INDUSTRY REVIEW

Edited by Lea Whitehead

Nichols family owns, operates heating/cooling service firm

When you want to get your money's worth, you can usually rely on family-owned and operated businesses. And if you're putting your money into heating and cooling systems, Nichols Air Conditioning & Heating Service Co. is the one to call.

The company is owned and operated by Willie and Joyce Nichols and their son, Allen. Willie and Joyce established their business in 1979 at a location on Dealy Road, south of Big Spring. Allen joined them eight years ago.

Nichols Air Conditioning & Heating Service Co. offers sales, service and installation of cooling and heating equipment for commercial and residential use. The firm is an authorized Trane dealer, backed by Fields & Co., Lubbock distributor.

Among local commercial service contracts handled by the Nichols are State National Bank — a 100-ton chilled water system — Dora Roberts Rehab Center, Permian Distributing ("very critical; this is in the warehouse where Coors is chilled"), Forsan Independent School District and Texas Employment Commission. To mention a few.

"On large jobs a Trane factory consultant is available to us," says Willie. "We have access to all types of equipment, and in most cases can arrange overnight delivery. And we service all makes and models."

The company provides fast, efficient service calls with two radio-equipped trucks, and they maintain an inventory of more than $5,000 worth of parts.

The elder Nichols is a 1963 graduate of the Commercial Trades Institute, Chicago. He was employed as a Carrier mechanic in Dallas, later joining civil service as an air conditioning and heating mechanic at Webb Air Force Base and Goodfellow Field in San Angelo.

Both Willie and Allen have undergone extensive specialized training, such as service training and field mechanical training for major equipment manufacturers. Both hold advanced certifications such as certified heat pump mechanics.

Joyce serves as dispatcher and bookkeeper. The combined total experience they can put to work for you is 46 years! Phone Nichols Air Conditioning & Heating Service Co. at 263-3705.
