Friona student is national FCCLA Student of the Year

Marissa Lozoya, a junior at Friona High School, and captain of the national Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) team, was selected as the 2012 Student of the Year at the National Championship in Philadelphia.

Nominated by her coach as a leader on her team, in her FCCLA organization, and at her school, Lozoya was credited with organizing team practices, gathering research and study materials, and helping to spread the word about LifeSmarts to new audiences including her local school board and via workshops at an FCCLA leadership conference.

Lozoya says her three years participating in LifeSmarts has made her into the student she is today. Her determination and commitment to being successful in the competition has pushed her team towards success. "We decided as freshmen that we wanted to make it to Nationals. We finished second last year at the state contest and we were the runner-up in the FCCLA challenge," said Lozoya. "We trained from the day school started until the day before we left for Philadelphia. We were happy that we qualified in the challenge."

"Marissa stood out to judges as highly deserving of the 2012 Student of the Year award," said Lisa Hertzberg, LifeSmarts Program Director. "She is a leader on her team, going above and beyond the role of captain. She has also been invited to join the LifeSmarts Student Advisory Board for the upcoming year, and we look forward to working with her and her coach Gayle Murdock, the FCCLA advisor in Friona, in that capacity."

Athletic director/head coach hired

Superintendent Kenny Austin said former Texico and Farwell head coach Mike Prokop has been hired as the FISD Athletic Director and Head Coach. Prokop was officially hired Wednesday just before our Friona Star deadline. We will publish more information about Coach Prokop at a later date.

Mr. Austin also told us that Ben Kirton, assistant high school principal, will move over as the Friona elementary school principal. Kim Smiley, a 25-year kindergarten teacher, will move into the Talented and Gifted position replacing Lori Austin, who resigned at the end of the school year. Mrs. Smiley will be in charge of the Talented and Gifted student program for the primary and elementary.

Chieftain baseball camp announced

Friona Chieftain baseball coach Styler Haddock and assistant Kamron Lingor have announced June 4-6 as the dates for the annual baseball camp. It will be for incoming 3rd graders to incoming 9th graders. The cost of the camp is $45. Registration can be done the first day of camp.

Burn ban lifted At Monday's county

commissioners meeting, the burn ban in Parmer County was lifted indefinitely. The ban had been lifted previously until June 11 but commissioners approved an indefinite lifting. The ban can be reinstated by commissioners depending on future drought conditions. Any questions about the burn ban call the County Judge's office at 806-481-3383 or the Sheriff's office at 806-481-3303.

Roswell man dies in rollover

(This is from a story in the Monday May 28 Amarillo Globe News.)

A Roswell, N.M. man died Sunday morning (May 27) after an SUV rollover in Parmer County, DPS officials said.

About 6:30 a.m. April Acosta of Roswell was driving a 2006 Ford Escape west on Highway 60 about a half-mile east of County Road 5, with two passengers when she drove the vehicle off the north shoulder of the roadway into a ditch, officials said.

Acosta overcorrected to the left, causing the vehicle to skid before she overcorrected again to the right, driving back into the north ditch and causing the SUV to roll several times, officials said.

Manuel Avelar, Jr., 34, a rear passenger, was ejected from the SUV and was taken to Plains Regional Medical Center in Clovis (by Bovina EMS), where he was pronounced dead at 8:38 a.m. Acosta and the other passenger were not injured in the rollover. Avelar was not wearing his seat belt, officials said.

Hospital announces scholarship recipients

BY HEIDI EICHENAUER

Parmer Medical Center is pleased to announce the recipients of the third annual Parmer Medical Center Community Scholarship Program. The purpose of the scholarships is to promote service excellence in health care for Parmer County by assisting capable and qualified students interested in pursuing healthcare related professions. There were fifteen applicants competing for the four scholarships.

Applicants were from three Parmer County high schools and a home school. The selection committee was comprised of school staff, hospital staff and the public at large. They selected four deserving students to each receive a $2,500 award. Hortencia Montana, a Friona High School graduate, is planning on attending University of the Incarnate Word and has chosen Optometry as her profession. The next FHS recipient was Weston Wily. Weston has chosen a career as a Missionary MD and will be attending Lubbock Christian University.

There were two recipients this year from Bovina. The first, Taylor Prather, was home schooled and plans to also attend Lubbock Christian University. She plans to enter the field of occupational therapy. And our fourth scholar, Jake Brozek, from Bovina High School, plans to attend South Plains College. He also plans to become a physician.

The PMC Board of Directors and staff all wish a hearty congratulations to each of the initial scholarship recipients. An additional thank you goes to each of the other eleven students who also plan a medical career and took the time to apply. Parmer County can be proud of the young people in our area.

These energetic Cub Scouts and their leaders volunteered to place Memorial Day veteran flags at Friona Cemetery Saturday evening. With a handful of flags and lots of energy it took them about 15 minutes to complete the mission, placing flags on over 300 veteran graves. American Legion veterans Gene Zachary and Joe Bob Mann were present to coordinate the effort and thanked the scouts and leaders for their service to the community.

The President of the United States has not been telling you the truth. Last week in a campaign stop he said his administration has the lowest spending increase percentage of any president for the last 60 years. If the debt and deficit numbers we get are accurate then he is blowing smoke again. This article was published in the Washington Post (D.C., not state) which is not exactly a conservative newspaper. Read it and make your own judgment on who to vote for in November!

Forget Bain – Obama's public-equity record is the real scandal

By Marc A. Thiessen, Published: May 24

Despite a growing backlash from his fellow Democrats, President Obama has doubled down on his attacks on Mitt Romney's tenure at Bain Capital. But the strategy could backfire in ways Obama did not anticipate. After all, if Romney's record in private equity is fair game, then so is Obama's record in public equity — and that record is not pretty.

Since taking office, Obama has invested billions of taxpayer dollars in private businesses, including as part of his stimulus spending bill. Many of those investments have turned out to be unmitigated disasters — leaving in their wake bankruptcies, layoffs, criminal investigations and taxpayers on the hook for billions. Consider just a few examples of Obama's public equity failures:

- Raser Technologies. In 2010, the Obama administration gave Raser a $33 million taxpayer-funded grant to build a power plant in Beaver Creek, Utah. According to the Wall Street Journal, after burning through our tax dollars, the company filed for bankruptcy protection in 2012. The plant now has fewer than 10 employees, and Raser owes $1.5 million in back taxes.

- ECOTality. The Obama administration gave ECOTality $126.2 million in taxpayer money in 2009 for, among other things, the installation of 14,000 electric car chargers in five states. Obama even hosted the company's president, Don Karner, in the first lady's box during the 2010 State of the Union address as an example of a stimulus success story. According to ECOTality's own SEC filings, the company has since incurred more than $45 million in losses and has told the federal government, "We may not achieve or sustain profitability on a quarterly or annual basis in the future."

Worse, according to CBS News the company is "under investigation for insider trading," and Karner has been subpoenaed "for any and all documentation surrounding the public announcement of the first Department of Energy grant to the company."

- Nevada Geothermal Power (NGP). The Obama administration gave NGP a $98.5 million taxpayer loan guarantee in 2010. The New York Times reported last October that the company is in "financial turmoil" and that "[a]fter a series of technical missteps that are draining Nevada Geothermal's cash reserves, its own auditor concluded in a filing released last week that there was 'significant doubt about the company's ability to continue as a going concern.'"

- First Solar. The Obama administration provided First Solar with more than $3 billion in loan guarantees for power plants in Arizona and California. According to a Bloomberg Businessweek report last week, the company "fell to a record low in Nasdaq Stock Market trading May 4 after reporting $401 million in restructuring costs tied to firing 30 percent of its workforce."

- Abound Solar, Inc. The Obama administration gave Abound Solar a $400 million loan guarantee to build photovoltaic panel factories. According to Forbes, in February the company halted production and laid off 180 employees.

- Beacon Power. The Obama administration gave Beacon — a green-energy storage company — a $43 million loan guarantee. According to CBS News, at the time of the loan, "Standard and Poor's had confidentially given the project a dismal outlook of 'CCC-plus.'" In the fall of 2011, Beacon received a delisting notice from Nasdaq and filed for bankruptcy.

This is just the tip of the iceberg. A company called SunPower got a $1.2 billion loan guarantee from the Obama administration, and as of January, the company owed more than it was worth. Brightsource got a $1.6 billion loan guarantee and posted a string of net losses totaling $177 million. And, of course, let's not forget Solyndra — the solar panel manufacturer that received $535 million in taxpayer-funded loan guarantees and went bankrupt, leaving taxpayers on the hook.

Amazingly, Obama has declared that all the projects received funding "based solely on their merits." But as Hoover Institution scholar Peter Schweizer reported in his book, "Throw Them All Out," fully 71 percent of the Obama Energy Department's grants and loans went to "individuals who were bundlers, members of Obama's National Finance Committee, or large donors to the Democratic Party." Collectively, these Obama cronies raised $457,834 for his campaign, and they were in turn approved for grants or loans of nearly $11.35 billion. Obama said this week it's not the president's job "to make a lot of money for investors." Well, he sure seems to have made a lot of (taxpayer) money for investors in his political machine.

All that cronyism and corruption is catching up with the administration. According to Politico, "The Energy Department's inspector general has launched more than 100 criminal investigations" related to the department's green-energy programs.

Now the man who made Solyndra a household name says Mitt Romney's record at Bain Capital "is what this campaign is going to be about." Good luck with that, Mr. President. If Obama wants to attack Romney's alleged private equity failures as chief executive of Bain, he'd better be ready to defend his own massive public equity failures as chief executive of the United States.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Here are a few photos of the continuing cleanup and restoration work being done at the Mt. Olivet Cemetery south of Farwell. Work is progressing slowly but much has already been accomplished. Flags were placed on the graves of the military veterans to honor them for Memorial Day.

Work has begun on searching for the original survey markers for the cemetery and many have already been found. Finding these markers will allow us to restore the cemetery roads, parks and plots as close as possible to the 1918 survey map. The small single marker in one of the photos was discovered by me by accident. It appears to be either ceramic or porcelain and it may be some type of a survey marker. It has nothing inscribed on it other than a printed number on the top.

If you could also mention a reminder that monetary donations for the restoration are accepted at Security State Bank in Farwell, we would appreciate that. Persons interested in helping with the restoration or needing more information can call me at 575-760-7888. Please let me know if you need anything further.

Thank you,
David Kube

Hope you all enjoyed our giant graduation edition last week. Thanks to all of the advertisers for the support and special thanks to the Class of 2012 for all of the memories. Good luck and all the best.

The summer reading club at the Friona Public "Liberry" runs June 1-29. Wednesday June 6 is the first program at the junior high auditorium at 10:30 a.m. Presentation will be by the Friona Police Department. See the library ad in this Star for the schedule. And you can call the "liberry" at 250-3200 for more details. (Like to tease librarian Brenda about the "liberry").

Anniversaries. John and Lavonne Renner celebrated their 67th anniversary May 15. Doyce and Mary Joyce Barnett celebrated their 59th on May 22. Congratulations to both and many more. If you have an anniversary to report let us know.

The Noon Lions Club would like to thank Geneva Braillif of Headquarters Restaurant for donating the potatoes for the French fries the Lions cooked for last Thursday's blood drive. The Lions cooked fries and corn dogs for the donors. Thanks to the 55 donors and the volunteers and Coffee Blood Center staff for another successful blood drive.

Frank Gonzalez was elected mayor of Bovina succeeding incumbent Stan Miller. Mike Olvera was newly elected to the Bovina city council and David Curtis was re-elected.

A report in the Perryton Herald newspaper said former Friona Squaw basketball coach Richard North is retiring from Perryton ISD where he coached cross country and was a teacher. Also noted former Friona city manager Terri Johnson is retiring and will move to Granbury from the Houston area.

I spotted Bobby Thompson and his son Collin Monday dismantling the marquee sign at the junior high school. The school will put up a new digital computerized sign at the Euclid and Hwy 60 corner, which principal Mark Sundre and staff can post signs from the comfort of the school office. I'm guessing principal Sundre will rely on students for programming the messages.

Emergency volunteers at work. Bovina EMS answered a call Sunday morning about 7 a.m. to a rollover accident west of Bovina near CR 5. They transported a Roswell N.M man to Clovis Regional Hospital where he died from the injuries. See story on front page. Friona EMS transferred a patient to Amarillo Sunday. Friona firefighters and EMS were dispatched to an accident at Hwy 60 and Euclid Monday about 1:15 p.m. A Portales lady ran into the back of a semi-causing minor damage. The truck kept going, probably unaware of the accident firemen said.

It was a windy graduation Friday night at Chieftain Field. Tassels were blowing in the breeze. Lots of friends and relatives in attendance as the stands were packed. The ceremonies started at 8 p.m. and I was home by 9 p.m. even after hanging around for a few post-graduation photos. Check out our graduation photos in the 2012 Graduation album at frionaonline.com.

Very nice attendance at the Memorial Day service Monday at the Friona Cemetery. Upwards of 100 people gathered to honor our veterans. American Legion commander Bill Dannheim of Farwell led the program. Students from Farwell sang the National Anthem and played Taps. A couple of Bovina teens read the poem Flanders Fields. It was the first time in my 17 years here I can remember there being an official Memorial Day service but it will probably not be the last. Thanks to everyone for their support and participation.

Received a new subscription this week from Gary Coker in Orlando, Florida. Don't know the Coker connection to Friona but some of you might. Now we will be sending our little "Mickey Mouse" newspaper to the land of the real Mickey. Thank you Cokers. Hope you enjoy the Friona news.

According to the Parmer County Clerk's office, there were only 871 votes cast in Tuesday's primary election. In the only contested county race, Kenny White won the Precinct 3 County Commissioner race. White got 219 votes, Ronald Byrd 122, Michael Haseloff 40, and Harrold Redwine 18. There appears to be a state runoff with Dewhurst and Cruz for U.S. Senate. County Clerk Colleen Stover said the state runoff date is July 31.

Clara Trowbridge of Hereford sent a note with her renewal. Recent visitors in her home included her daughter Teena Zavattieri of Powder Springs, Tennessee; son Murl May of Del Valle, Texas; and son David May and wife Sandy of Amarillo. The occasion was Clara's 89th birthday and Mother's Day. Clara has lived in the same house since it was built in 1963 and her sons did some repair work during the visit.

She and Teena visited the Friona Cemetery to put flowers on her parents Foister and Olive Rector's graves. They visited Lauretta Brookfield at Prairie Acres and her sister-in-law Betty Rector and family. Clara is a 1942 Friona graduate.

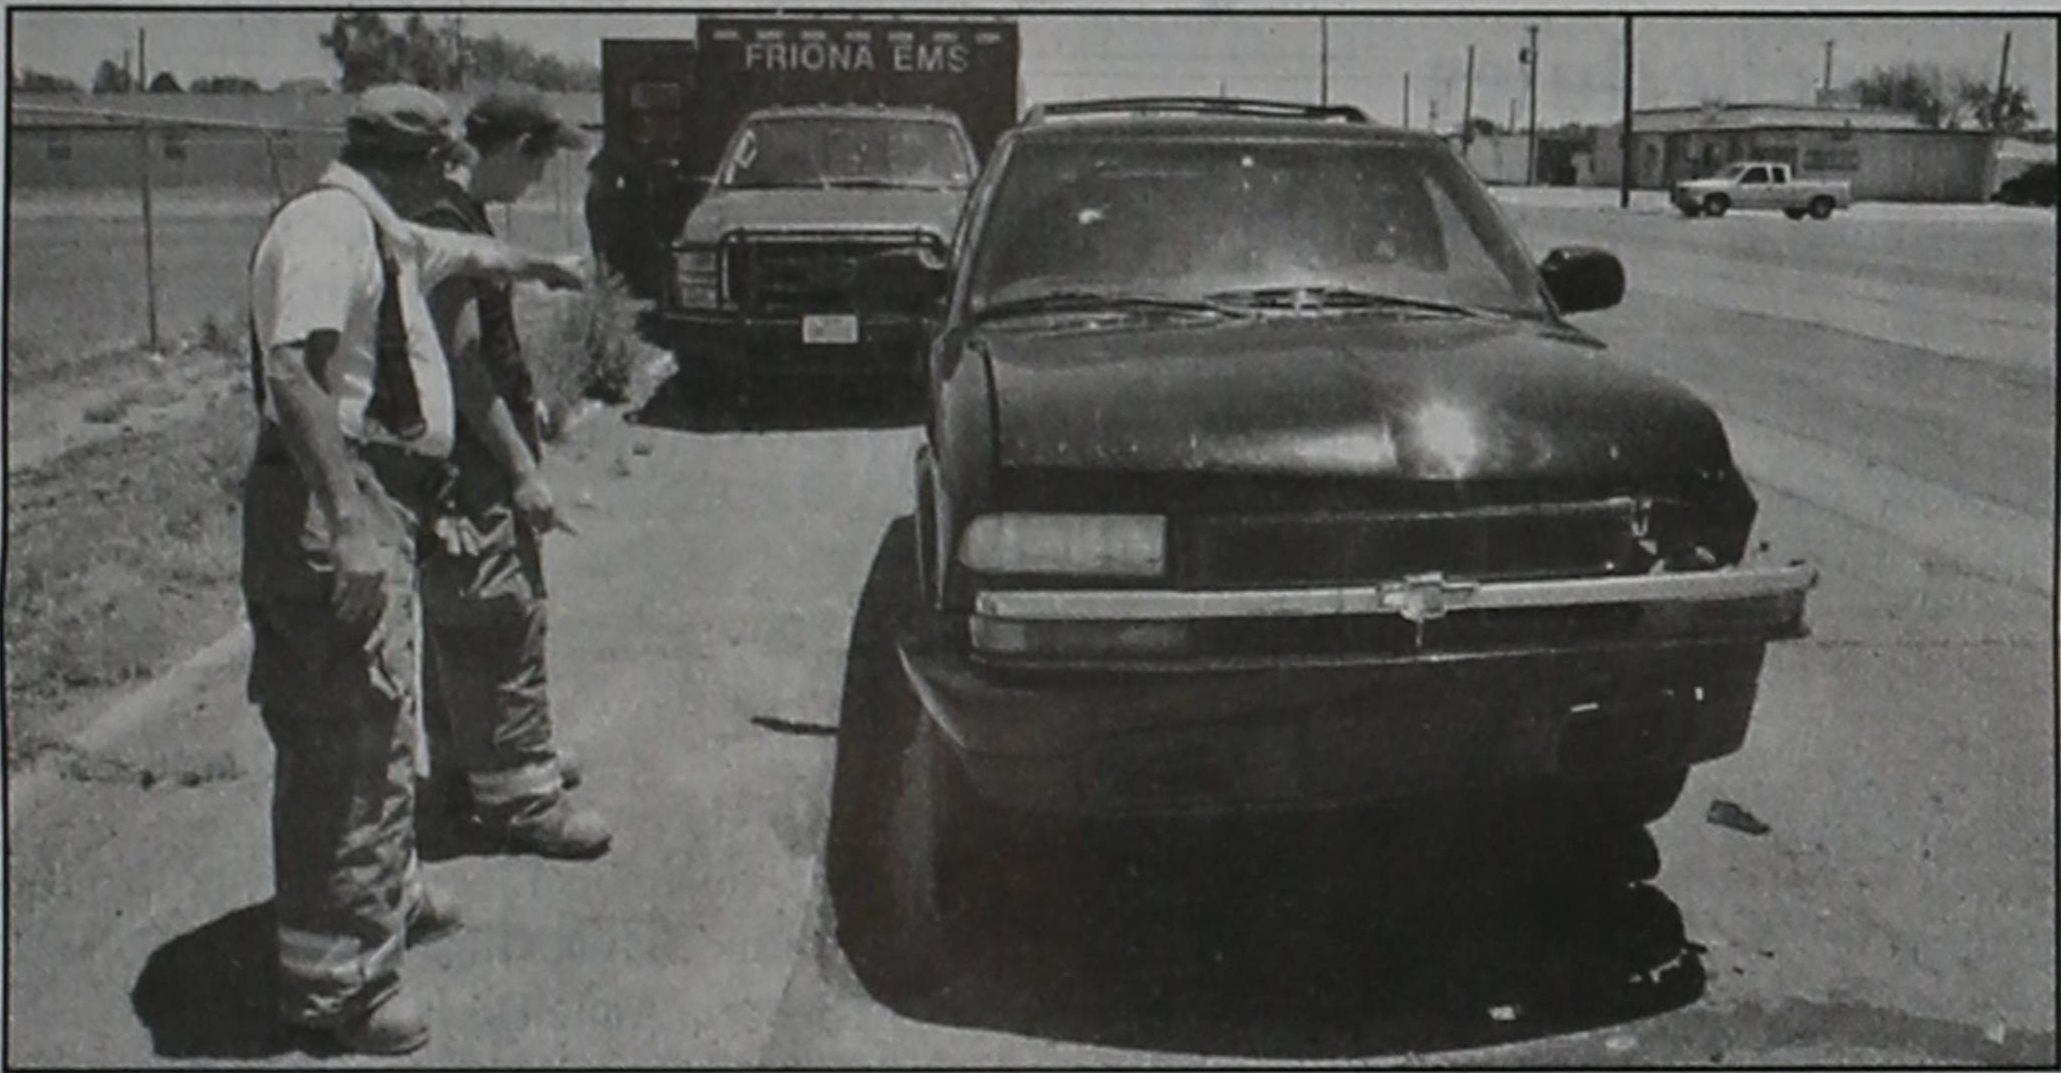

Short notice but don't forget the auction at 6 p.m. today (May 31) at the high school cafeteria to raise money for the varsity boys and girls basketball camps this summer. Auction items include Texas Tech-OU tickets, gas cards, golf clubs, haircuts, and craft items.

The city council held a special meeting Tuesday May 29 at 6:30 p.m. to approve the issuance of a $1 million certificate of obligation for improvements to the city's wastewater treatment plant. A public notice about the issuance is printed in this week's Star and will be repeated next week.

Summer is here. With vacations and no school, community newspapers like this one always welcome news to fill summer pages. We will be out and about covering the new gym/activity center construction at the high school. Will try to keep track of new hiring to fill the school district openings. If you have any news to share please send it in. Vacation photos welcome too. Thanks.

Noted this at Fast Stop on the box outside where they keep the bags of ice: "Clear cold premium ice." Always good to know the ice is going to be cold. Have a good week. See you soon. Until then!

OBITUARY

Douglas C. Whatley

Doug Whatley

Douglas C. Whatley, 74, of Amarillo, died Friday, May 18, 2012, after a brief illness.

Family and friends are invited to a Celebration of Life Reception from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, June 1, 2012 at the Hilton Garden Inn, 9000 Interstate 40 West in Amarillo. Arrangements are by Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors of Amarillo.

Doug was born on February 15, 1938, in Groom, to Walter "Buck" and Emma Sue Whatley. Doug grew up there, where he was active in FFA and played quarterback for the Groom Tigers. He maintained a passion for high school football, and all high school athletics, throughout his life. He graduated from Groom High School as valedictorian of his class in 1956.

Doug attended college at the University of Texas at Austin and graduated with B.S. degrees in both Chemistry and Pharmacy. He was an active member of the Oak Grove Co-op, an organization with an outstanding history of participation in UT Intramural sports. Doug developed a lifelong love of UT sports, especially football, and continued to attend Longhorn football games as often as he could.

While at UT, Doug met and married his wife, Sally Osborn Whatley. After graduating, Doug and Sally settled in Plainview, Texas, where they raised their family. Doug enjoyed his profession immensely as the owner and pharmacist at Blair Drug. An avid supporter of public education, Doug served on the School Board for the Plainview Independent School District from 1975 to 1987.

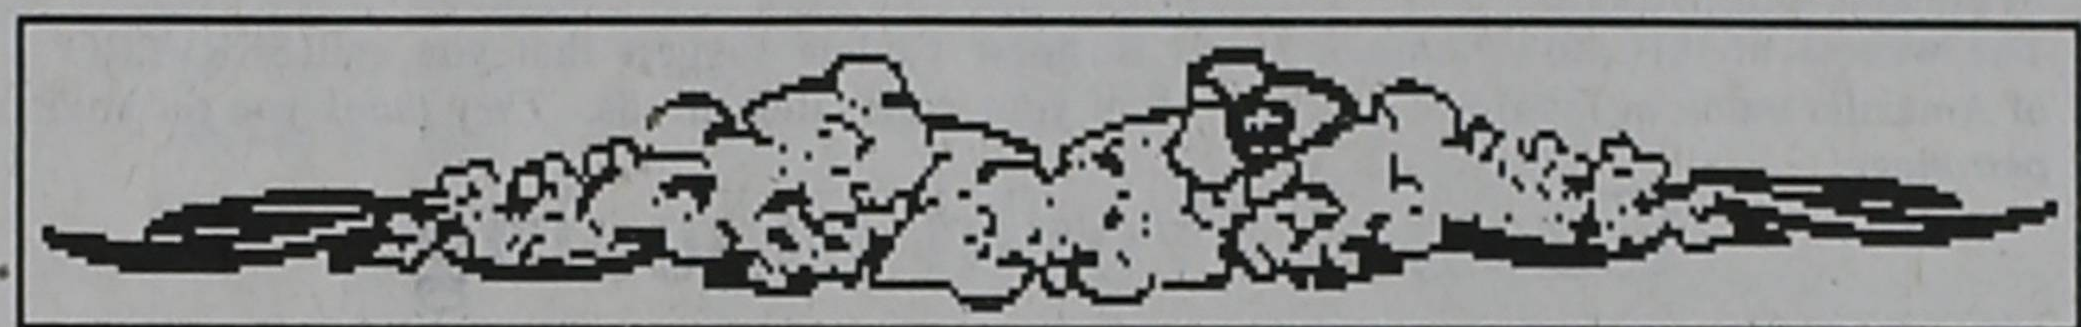

In 1988, he and Sally moved to Amarillo where he continued to work as a pharmacist until his retirement in 2002.

Doug was gregarious and made friends easily, especially with those who shared his love of fly-fishing and Longhorn football. We will miss him very much.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents, Buck and Emma Sue Whatley of Groom.

Survivors include his wife of over 50 years, Sally; his children, David Whatley and his wife Eby and their children Janemarie, Billy, John, Sarah and Sallie of Austin, and Holly Whatley and her spouse Stephanie Vassallo and their children Samuel and Joseph of Los Angeles.

The family suggests memorials be to Coffee Memorial Blood Center in Amarillo.

True stories of a changed heart

BRETT HOYLE, Pastor, First Baptist Church

Jesus Christ is our only hope in this life and the life eternal! Without a saving relationship with Jesus Christ you will spend an eternity in eternal separation from God and eternal punishment by God in hell.

I can remember when I gave my life to Jesus Christ as my Savior and Lord. I was in 3rd grade, and one Sunday at Oak Street Baptist Church, in Colorado City, Texas, God began to change my life. Toward the end of the church service I felt so guilty and heavy hearted, and knew I should give my life to Jesus. Sadly, though, I didn't. I was too embarrassed to visit with my pastor that day about what was going on, but thankfully, the Lord continued to convict my heart.

That week I told someone about my struggle, and they stated that it was the devil who was trying to convince me not to trust Jesus, and when I heard that I was bound and determined to trust Jesus to save me (looking back, I doubt it was the devil himself, but I am confident the legions of evil love nothing more than to hinder people from trusting Jesus).

Well, the next Sunday, I felt the conviction of the Holy Spirit again, and I gave my life to Jesus Christ. Even though it was many years ago, I can still remember the burden that Christ lifted off of me after I prayed to the Lord and He saved me. Although I am so undeserving to be forgiven of my guilt and sin before God, His grace and love manifested most brilliantly through Jesus Christ, has made all the difference in my life.

Panhandle Parables

Four inch smoky grub

BY JEFF PROCTER, Minister, Sixth St. Church of Christ

If you are a fisherman by profession or leisure, you probably know exactly what a 4" smoky grub really is. I, however, did not. To some this is the ultimate lure in bass fishing or so I have been told.

Until I visited the Bass Pro Shop in Springfield, Missouri, I had no idea about such things. There were lures of every size, color, and even smell! Some were in the shape of frogs, crawdads, crickets, minnows, worms and not the least, grubs. Yet each lure has pretty much the same general purpose, to catch fish!

The amateur fisherman is Bass Pro Shop's best friend, because they do not know what will work so they buy some salmon eggs, a little stink bait, live worms, grubs, spinners, and a whole host of other lures. The professional has a lot of lures, as well, but he knows which to use when and what time of day to go fishing.

Once you know fish, you know a lot about how to entice them.

Satan has a pretty large tackle box himself. He too is a professional! He has been casting and catching all the way back to his first catch in the Garden of Eden. He knows he needs a different lure to appeal to different folks, and more concerning is that he has all that he needs.

You and I both know that Satan is a fisher of men. Do you know what he does with the ones he catches? He leaves them on the bank close enough to see the water, but not able to get back in it. Some would call that hell, I would agree. What a waste.

Christ said, that he came to give life "more abundantly" (John 10:10). He cares about your life. Jesus wants to give you rest. The only way to distinguish between what Satan offers and what Christ offers is to look at the Truth. Let's go fishin'!

Jerry Teel retires after 21 years with USDA

By C.E. Hanna, Hereford Brand

After 21 years as a beef inspector for the United States Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service, Jerry Teel formally retired on Friday, May 25.

Don't expect a rousing round of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" though, because there will not be a reception to mark the occasion, according to his wife, Denise Teel.

There may not even be a family celebration even though the couple has a grown daughter, Sheila Wagner, and her children, Gatlin and Libby, here in Hereford.

A second daughter, Trisha White, lives in Burleson, Texas with two children of her own, Rachel and Brandon.

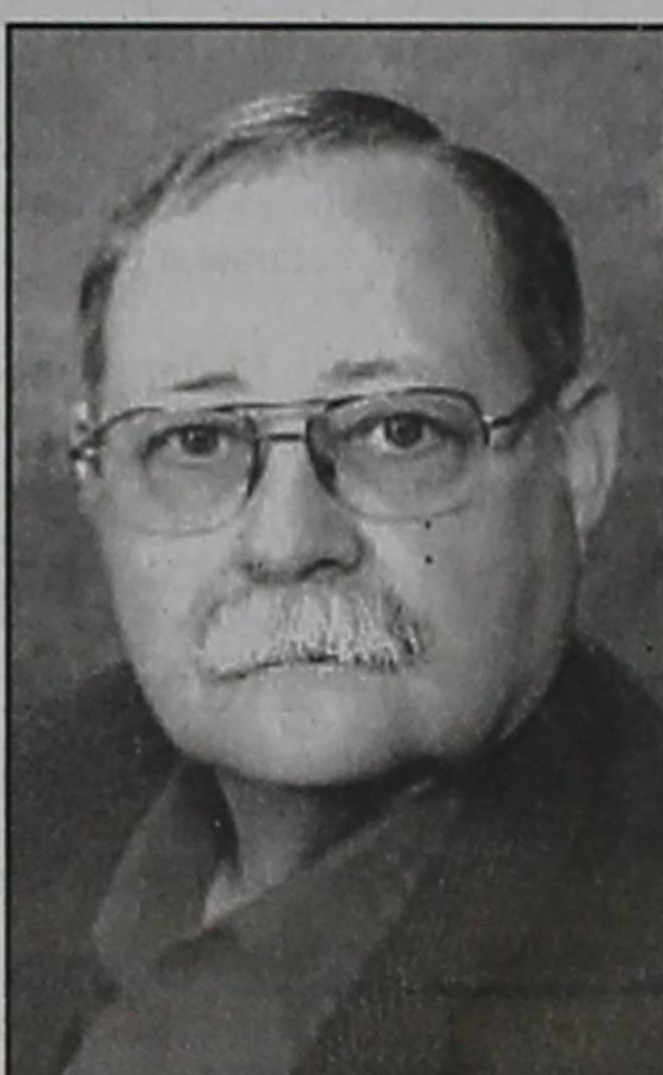

"I called Sheila and she told me not to," Denise laughed. "She said 'You know that he'll hate it' and I have to admit that she's right. He would hate it."

Jerry, a Friona native and 1970 graduate of Friona High School, briefly attended South Plains College where he took courses that concentrated on animal science.

After farming for several years in Northwestern Deaf Smith County, Jerry's agricultural background and knowledge of animal science led him to pursue a position with the USDA.

"He started out on the floor," Denise explained, "inspecting beef over at Cargill in Friona."

After a few years of service and continuing education courses in food safety, Jerry became a supervisor, but not until after a few pleasant detours.

For three years, the couple lived in Hilo, Hawaii on the big island, before spending two years in Boca Raton, Florida.

"The Hawaiians are wonderful people, as was the ocean," Denise admitted. "We spent a lot of time just enjoying the scenery."

"What was pretty ironic about our time there, at least for Jerry, was that a lot of the beef that he was inspecting in the middle of the Pacific was from Cargill."

"Jerry remembered the inspection number from Cargill and it would pop-up over there from time to time," she clarified.

Jerry's promotion to supervisor returned the family to the Texas Panhandle and Cargill.

Jerry Teel will not rest for too terribly long as it is out of the frying pan and into the fire when he assumes his new role as a real estate agent for 21st Century Gold Star Real Estate in Hereford next week.

Denise is his new boss and, in honor of his retirement, he will get Saturday off before jumping in with both feet and working full-time plus next week.

"He's taking it all in stride and he will do well in the real estate world," Denise noted. "He's even handling working with his wife." "I guess since it is Memorial Day this weekend, he can take Saturday off. Well that and it's his sixtieth birthday, too."
