Briefs

•Trash for cash: KBST Radio, Rip Griffin's Truck Terminal and Big Spring Mall are helping organize Cash for Trash Clean Day 94. Civic clubs and non-profit organizations can help collect cash for trash from different areas of the city. The trash must meet the criteria as defined and weighed at the truck scales. A meeting May 2, 7:30 p.m. at the Dora Roberts Civic Center will be conducted with the organizers and those interested in participating including garden clubs, civic clubs and other volunteers.

-Assistance needed: A Christmas in April meeting is scheduled for April 25 at noon at the Lions Club Building, 1607 E. Fourth St. Project supervisors for participating organizations are encouraged to attend to go over project needs and material lists. Volunteers are needed for the scheduled April 30 fix up of 30 senior citizen's homes.

Crime in Texas declined substantially in 1993, according to the Department of Public Safety. However, the numbers in Big Spring show that locally that is not the case.

The number of reported "Index Crimes" in Texas declined 6.8 percent, while in Big Spring, the number of reported crimes went up 19 percent.

"For several years in a row, during the late 80s and even in early 90s, we had a drastic reduction in our crime rate," said Big Spring Police Department Public Information Officer Sgt. Scott Griffin. "So much so, that we were written up in the Houston Chronicle. But now, economics and lack of manpower have caught up with us and the crime rate is rising. We don't have the effective tools anymore."

In January 1993, there was a restructuring of the department to put an emphasis more on the patrol aspect of policing. The number of plain clothes detectives was cut in half and three detectives now have a caseload that was once handled by twice as many people.

"There is too much crime for the number of officers in the department," Griffin said. "Their caseload is maxed out. Normally, a detective has 50 open cases at one time that they are working on. Now, because of demands, each of them has 90 to 100 open cases. We need more officers but it is not in the budget.

In order to compensate for the staff reduction, Griffin said, detectives must prioritize their cases. The department puts the cases in a rank priority and puts the violent crimes at the top of the list and at the second level is property crimes and misdemeanors.

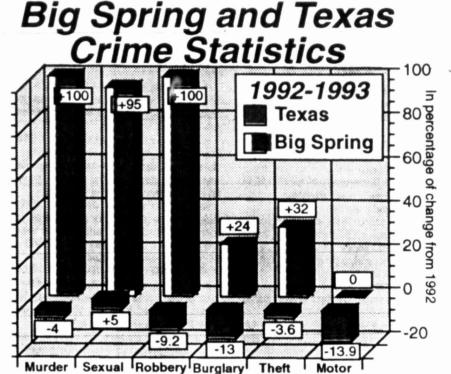

"Everyone who is a victim of a crime feels that their case is the most important and we know that but we can't specialize like before and have to handle them in order of importance," Griffin acknowledged. "We have a very high clearance rate of cases."

In 1993, the department was able to clear 70 percent of the property crimes which is way above the national average of a 19 percent clearance rate.

"The detectives are aggressive and work many hours for free because they want the job done," Griffin said. "They treat every case as an important one. This can sometimes cause fatigue and stress.

They were ticketed for speeding and fighting in school and faced being punished by their teenage peers. This is the first time in the history of Big Spring that a Teen Court has been set up for teenagers to have their punishment accessed by people their own age.

Teen Court met for the first time Monday evening with four cases to be heard before the jury.

Teen Court offers offenders an opportunity to make restitution for their offenses through community service or other appropriate punishment. The teen avoids having to pay fines and sentences being handed down by an adult criminal justice system.

The four defendants had attorneys representing them who were also teenagers. Attorney Don Richard served as presiding judge over the first court. Teens serve as bailiffs, clerks and prosecutors as well.

The first case involved a teenage boy who was ticketed for driving 60 mph in a 45 mph zone. The jury heard from his attorney who discussed the options of punishment which ranged from four to 10 hours of community service and the defendant must serve on one to three jury duties within 90 days.

The jury deliberated for a few minutes and sentenced him to serve on one jury and perform four hours of community service.

The second case also involved a male defendant who had been ticketed for going 10 miles over the posted speed limit. He was given a sentence of seven hours of community service and must serve three times as a juror.

The third case was a female who had been ticketed for fighting in Court, you can contact Cunningham school. She took the stand in her at 264-2532.

own defense and claimed the reason she fought was because a girl kept bothering her sister and wanted it to stop. The defendant was sentenced to seven hours of community service and three jury duties.

The final case involved a male defendant who had been ticketed for driving 28 mph in a 20 mph school zone. His lawyer argued that her client was given the ticket at 4:30 p.m. and it was only 15 minutes until the school zone time had ended. The defendant also testified that he saw no one around the school and was worried about giving his employer a short notice that he could not work there anymore. He was sentenced to two jury duties and only three hours of community service. The jury gave him less than the minimum amount of service because of the good argument his lawyer presented.

*One of the lawyers did really well and the others will improve from learning and watching others. I hope it will catch on with the kids. The peer review aspect will hopefully keep these kids from committing more serious offenses," said Richard.

"I think it went real well. We worked the bugs out and it seemed to have flowed smoothly," said Teen Court Coordinator Barbara Cunning-

Teen Court is in session the second Tuesday of every month and a person can have his or her Class C misdemeanor or traffic violation referred there once in a two-year period. The defendants have 90 days to perform their community service and serve on the jury. If they do not, then the case is referred back to the Municipal Court and they must pay their fines.

him to jail. Barrientos broke down on the stand and began weeping. He said he was sorry for what had happened and accepted the jury's guilty verdict. The court had lunch brought in for the jurors and they came back with a verdict at 1:30 p.m. They sentenced Barrientos to five years in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice but did not assess a fine.

Council members OK myriad matters

By TIM JONES Staff Writer

The Big Spring City Council took the following action Tuesday:

•A resolution of recognition and a key to the city was presented to Corinna Rios for performing CPR on a two-year-old boy, saving his life. Rios learned those skills in a babysitting training course at Howard Col-

 Newman Outdoor Advertising of Midland was awarded a bid to erect a 12 by 25 foot outdoor sign in the 1400 block of Gregg. On a 10 year lease, at $800 a year, the city and Newman have equal right to cancel the lease with 60 days notice. Newman agrees to maintain the entire property there in compliance to the weedy lot ordinance.

•Bid awards for seal coat materials were approved. Price Construction will provide the aggregate at $19.80 per cubic yard and crushed gravel for $12.20 a cubic yard. Fina Oil and Chemical of Dallas will provide the asphalt cement at 47 cents a gallon. The seal coating this year will not be "dry and dusty" as it was last year, but will be more "wet and Approval was given to advertise for bids for the maintenance of Mt. Olive Memorial Park Cemetery.

 Air Park farming operation speci-fications were tabled again; the county agents want to wait to allow the grasses to grow more in order to better identify them, as it does not appear to be native grass. An expense from the capitol revolving fund to purchase a $14.840 automobile for the Fire Department was authorized; the loan is to be repaid over a five-year period at five percent interest. •The council approved a plat for the Cowper subdivision; a 0.3857 acre tract located in the SE/4 of Section 1, Block 33, T-1-S, T. & P. RR Co. Survey, Howard County, Texas.

•Cinco De Mayo received unanimous approval to use Building 44 on the Air Park, an old WWII hangar located closest to the old O.I.L. location, for the May 6-8 festivities. There is electricity available on location, and plenty of room to accommodate the event.

·A waiver of the cost of permit fees and phased inspections was approved to facilitate this year's Christmas in April project activities.

• Eloise Sweeney presented a request to reconsider an ordinance to require unfenced swimming pools to be fenced. Sweeney cited there is an unfenced pool in her neighborhood, and the natural curiosity of the children and the fact, she says, of a well-worn path to the pool, indicates a risk to small lives of "little children who depend on us." The council will bring the old ordinance "back" and restudy the issue.

•The council considered a standing committee comprised of council representatives as well as directors of the Moore Development For Big Spring Inc. Mayor Tim Blackshear will speak with Jim Purcell, leader of Moore's directors, about the committee, and to allow Moore's directors time to meet and then the matter will return for more discussion and possible action at a future council meeting.

•The council approved the annual budget to fund the county's tax assessor/collector to collect city taxes; the budget is slight lower than last year, at $84,351.

 The council approved a request by the Howard County Appraisal District to use a budget surplus of $19.951 to retain as a surplus for our liability on employees.

 The council approved paying $500 to Gary R. Taylor And Associates inc., to prepare a grant application to the State Parks and Wildlife Department for improvements to the city's Northside Park. Stephanie Horton had plans drawn to fill in the old swimming pool for use as a sports area and to build a basketball court with covered picnic-type tables and a landscaping theme.

"The $500 preparation fee," Mark Sheedy, councilman said, "Is a good gamble to get a $150,000 grant.

From Jan. 1, 1994, to April 14, 1994, there have been 418 reported cases of theft compared to 333 during the same time frame in 1993. "Fifty percent of the thefts are reported by convenience stores. People are stealing cigarettes, beer and gas," Griffin noted.

The number of motor vehicle thefts is also up this year. There have been 19 vehicles stolen, compared to 12 stolen during the first four months of 1993.

There is some good news. The number of burglaries during the two time frames shows that they are down. During the first four and a half months of 1994, there were 122 incidents compared to 197 in 1993. The number of reported robberies remained the same and there were two less sexual assaults but three more cases of indecency with a child reported to the department.

There is a correlation between a city's economic situation and unemployment with the amount of crime seen during the year," Griffin concluded. "Ideally, we would like to expand in our investigative and narcotics division. You can also never have too many patrol officers on the streets. WASHINGTON — As the Senate weighs whether the Tailhook scandal will dog the Navy's top admiral in retirement, Texas Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison is training her sights on the service's internal investigations system.

Defense Secretary William Pay and other top Pentagon officials have acknowledged the Navy's probe of the rampant sexual misconduct at Tailhook '91 by naval aviators was badly flawed.

Mrs. Hutchison is considering whether that investigation and other "mishandled" probes should factor into the debate over retirement pay for Adm Frank R Kelso II The Senate Armed Services Com-

Mrs. Hutchison, who is the only female member of the Armed Services Committee, said in an interview Wednesday that Kelso is not directly to blame for Tailhook. But she said he must bear some responsibility because the incident and subsequent investigation occurred on his watch.

At an Armed Services Committee hearing Tuesday, Mrs. Hutchison expressed concern that the Navy botched its investigations in two other controversies: the 1992 Naval Academy cheating scandal probe and the investigation of the 1989 explosion aboard the USS lowa.

While noting that Kelso wasn't at the Navy's helm during the USS lows investigation, she said he should have known of that probe's failure and ensured future investigations were handled properly.

At the hearing, Perry and Navy Secretary John Dalton said that although Kelso failed to lead the Navy adequately through the scan-

Drug-dealing granny sentenced to prison

HOUSTON (AP) — An 82-year-old great-grandmother, who authorities say ran a "major league" prescription drug operation, has been sentenced to two years in prison.

Sally Evans Hubbard, also known as "Big Mama," leaned forward on her walker Wednesday as she stood before state District Judge Mike Wilkinson and pleaded guilty to possession and delivery of controlled substances.

Prosecutor Bill Hawkins said Ms. Hubbard was accused of selling marijuana and anti-anxiety tablets to an undercover officer last July. A subsequent search of her northwest Houston home unveiled 30 pounds of marijuana and more than 2,000 tablets of painkillers, anti-depressants and muscle relaxants.

Ms. Hubbard, who has more than 70 grandchildren and great-grandchildren, operated a "major league candy store when it comes to drugs," Hawkins said.

In 1985, Ms. Hubbard pleaded guilty to drug charges and was put on probation. Her probation was revoked and she was sentenced to two five-year jail terms to be serve concurrently in 1988 after selling a "downer" to an undercover officer. She was released after three

Three killed, 2 hurt in high-speed chase

HOUSTON (AP) — A van being pursued by police collided with another vehicle, killing its three occupants and causing two bystanders to be pinned in their front yard, police say.

A total of seven people, including a police officer, have been killed in Houston this year while police were in pursuit.

In the most recent incident, a man, woman and child were killed Wednesday night when the van collided with their small import car about 8 p.m. in southeast Houston. The victims' identities were unknown late Wednesday, the Houston Chronicle reported.

The Toyota overturned and pinned a man and his 3-year-old son in their yard. They were taken to Ben Taub Hospital.

Houston police spokesman Rick Hartley said investigators in an unmarked car had tried earlier to arrest the van's driver on an unspecified felony charge about 4 1/2 miles from the accident spene and sound

Krueger nominated as Burundi ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP) - Former Texas Sen. Bob Krueger soon may be trading his life in New Braunfels for a challenging diplomatic career in a troubled, tiny Central African President Clinton on Wednesday announced he is nominating Krueger as ambassador to Burundi. The appointment requires Senate confirmation. The news ended months of rumors that the Democrat, who served briefly in the Senate last year before being ousted by Republican Kay Bailey Hutchison, would receive the job.

Krueger's Senate tenure was distinguished by his break from Clinton on several high-profile votes in which the administration was scrambling for Democratic support. The posting is sure to be a difficult one. Wracked by ethnic violence for decades, Burundi's bloodletting was especially fierce last year after a failed coup.

Court reverses decision on East Texas oil field

AUSTIN (AP) — A state appeals court says oil production limits set by the Railroad Commission in the huge East Texas Field are invalid.

In a Wednesday decision, the 3rd Court of Appeals in Austin affirmed a lower court decision against a rule restricting production in what is the nation's second-largest producing oil

The state rule limits wells in the East Texas Field to 36 percent of ordinary production.

The appeals court last year had upheld the rule, but issued a new opinion Wednesday in the case.

'I think it's a victory for the schools and the taxpayers of the state," said Greg Hardin, operations manager for OXY USA Inc. in Longview and spokesman for the East Texas Equity Alliance, of the

Emergency jail bed plan now under fire

AUSTIN (AP) — State officials are hoping the emergency construction of lockups will remove the fuse from an explosive situation in overcrowded county jails.

But some members of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards said Wednesday the plan to make room for 7,500 inmates is too little, too Kenneth Anderson of Dallas said the $25 million was "like putting a Band-Aid on a compound fracture.

Watch him on the mound. He throws a pitch, takes the return throw from his catcher, and fires to the plate again. The batter has to step out of the batter's box just to catch a breath. Major doesn't use the pitcher's traditional eight allotted warm-up tosses between innings either. Don't be surprised if he throws two or three warm-up pitches, then nods to the umpire to say he's ready

"I figure I need to save myself for the game," Major said.

Major's rise to prominence in the Major. WJCAC has been nearly as fast as his mound routine.

In his freshman season, Major turned in an 8-2 record and earned All-WJCAC honors. His ERA was 4.40 last year, making his freshman statistics pale in comparison to this Major is 8-0 with a 2.59 ERA. While Major is not the only undefeated pitcher on the staff (sophomore Kelly Jones is 6-0 with a 4.33 ERA), his statistics clearly stand out. Howard is 38-5 and ranked ninth in the junior college polls.

The numbers are strong, but they are made more impressive when you consider Major doesn't really have what you'd call a fastball.

"On the JUGS radar gun, he is about 82 or 83, and that's on a good day," said Howard College coach Brian Roper. "He doesn't have a lot of arm strength, but what he's got going for him is that he's left-hander, he drops down about three-quarters and he's got a big, sweeping breaking ball. ## Stanton, Coahoma vie for district medals

By STEVE REAGAN Sportswriter

There are two purposes to a district track meet:

1. Naturally, try to win the district title.

2. Try to qualify as many as you can for the regional meet.

For the Stanton and Coahoma track teams, option one may be out the question, but option two is a distinct possibility when they participate in the District 6-2A track meet in Stanton Friday.

The only area team with even an outside shot at winning a district title is the Stanton girls, but even their coach concedes that may be just wishful thinking.

"We don't have enough depth to beat Wall," Stanton girls' coach Frank Riney said. "They're going to outdo us on the basis of sheer numbers, but we should finish in the top three, like we usually do.'

Talk about the Stanton girls' team begins with the relays. Stanton's quartet of Lupe Chapa, Sande Bundas, Laura Herm and Kristen Wyckoff are prohibitive favorites to qualify for regionals in each of the three relays: the 400-, 800- and 1,600-meter events.

Their times of 50.76 seconds in the 400, 1:47.16 in the 800 and 4:10.0 in the 1,600 are among the best in the state 2A rankings, but the team is hurting a bit heading into Friday's meet. Chapa strained a leg muscle in last week's Big Spring Relays, while Herm has been fighting an Achilles tendon problem the past few weeks.

"We've been hampered a lot by iniuries." Riney said. "But we have some important meets to come. We hope to have everyone ready for Individually, Stanton's best hopes for points come from sophomore Jennifer Adkins, who will bring a personal-best time of 2:31 into the 800, and Bundas in the high jump.

If Stanton does not have enough depth to compete for the district title, Coahoma's girls are definitely hurting. The Bulldogettes have only 13 girls in the program, "and every single one of them is in another spring sport, so we're stretched pretty thin,' Coahoma coach Mike Conley said.

The Bulldogettes' main hopes for points at the district meet seem to rest with senior Angela Crippen in the discus and junior Shaundra Walker in the 200 dash. Lack of depth is also plaguing the Coahoma boys' team. Coach R.L. Coates said Eldorado and Ozona are both too deep and fast for his Bulldogs to overtake.

But Coahoma does have some legitimate medal threats, starting with Mario Martinez, whose toss of 42 feet, 6 inches in the shot put is the second-best in district this season.

Hank Aaron and his wife Billye enjoy ceremonies honoring the 20th anniversary of his breaking Babe Ruth's home run record in Atlanta Wednesday.

Kosar inks two-year contract with Miami

By The Associated Press

DAVIE, Fla. — To Bernie Kosar, sitting on the bench for a Super Bowl contender has more allure than playing for a poor team.

The veteran quarterback signed a two-year, $1.65 million contract Wednesday to become Dan Marino's backup with the Miami Dolphins.

An unrestricted free agent after the world champion Dallas Cowboys, Kosar also reportedly negotiated with Dallas, Kansas City and Washington. He may have passed up a chance to start for the Redskins.

"I had some other options over the last week or so," the 30-year-old Kosar said at a news conference. "I had opportunities to play more regularly with other teams. But I didn't really think the teams were as talented as the Miami Dolphins.

Until last year, backup quarterback for the Dolphins was one of the most obscure jobs in the NFL. Marino started 145 consecutive nonstrike games before he was sidelined for the season by a torn Achilles' tendon last October.

The injury was the first in a series that caused the Dolphins to unravel after a 9-2 start. They finished 9-7 and missed the playoffs.

Kosar said he received a $900,000 signing bonus from the Dolphins. The contract includes incentives that could increase its value to $3 million, he said. The second year of the deal is at the Dolphins' option.

Ten years ago, Kosar led the Miami Hurricanes to their first national championship. He bought a house last year 15 minutes from the Dolphins' training camp.

WEEKLY FISHING REPORT

It was pretty much the same last weekend at Lake O.H. Ivie - warming water, good to excellent large-mouth bass fishing and fair to good results

Lake E.V. Spence reported black bass making a showing against the striped bass, with most of the latter running in the small category.

Surface temperature of clear water in Lake Ivie climbed to 61.5 degrees surface and 55.9 bottom.

Most notable change at Ivie was improvement in yellow catfishing, with several good sized specimen being taken on live baits up-river and in creeks and draws. Channel catfishing was fair with minnows the most popular bait. There was a fair amount of white bass caught mostly by trollers in 10-20 ft. of water on rattle-traps and live bait.

Most keeper-sized black bass were moving to warmer water for spawn, but small fish were in 4 to 20 ft. of water and taking spinners, cranks, and worms. A few hit top-water lures. Small mouth bass were mostly along rock ledges and off points in 10-20 ft. of water.

Lake Spence water was 63 degrees surface. Out of Wildcat Marina, Chorisee Breetz, Stanton, caught 3 and 3-1/2-lb. stripers; Ta-dy Couch, Midland, a 20 1-1/2-in. striper weighing 2-1/2 lbs.; and Mike Peeples, Lubbock, a trio of stripers with two at 2 lbs. and one 3-1/2.

Paint Creek Marina reports included: Brandy Kemper, Lamesa, five stripers totaling 18-1/2 lbs.; Ralph Sides, Sterling City, a 9-lb., 14-oz. striper; Jeannie Nighten, Odessa, a 4-lb., 14-oz. black bass; Tommy Melton and Daniel Justis, Odessa, five black bass from 2-1/2 to 5 lbs. (released); Paul and Ansie Lane, San Angelo, 3-1/4, 5-1/4 and 7-1/2-lb. stripers, trolling.

Reports from the previous week at Paint Creek Marina included: Bob Edwards, Odessa, 5-1/2-lb. black bass; Dwayne Barnett, Midland, 3-1/2-lb. black; Mamie Wickliffe, Robert Lee, trio, at 2-1/2, 2-1/2 and 3-3/4-lb. baiting with minnows; Melvin Allison, Odessa, 3-lb, 5-oz. and 3-lb, 14-oz. Easterwood brothers, Odessa, quartet of blacks with two at 3 lbs, others at 2 and 5-3/4-lb; Jeff Brown, Sweetwater, 5-1/2-lb. black; Paul Land and Randy Murphy, San Angelo and Robert Lee, pair of keeper stripers; Melvin Arnold, Odessa, 12-1/4-lb. striper caught on green jig while trolling; Jonathan Schmidt, Big Spring 3-1/2-lb. striper on live shiners; J.R. Garza, Midland, 2-1/2 channel catfish and 3-lb.

Out of Patrick's Country Store. Mike Kirkpatrick, Robert Lee, used cut chad to catch a 14-1/2-lb. striper, and Pat and Shirley Locke, 4 and 5lb. stripers, using live shiners.

Jacqueline Bigar - Horoscope

Odessa

FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1994

ARIES (March 21-April 19): It is an easy day. Don't make problems where there are none. Follow through on communications and clear your desk. Use your quality time to complete leftover work. Make a key phone call in the afternoon. Tonight: Be with your favorite people. *****

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): It is important for you to count your pennies. Expenditures could be enormous. You might be subject to moments of anger and shortness of temper. You will spend money in ways that you normally wouldn't. Be careful with a potential offer. Tonight: Forget it. Go spring shopping. ****

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Playful moments naturally come your way. You are subject to many changes resulting from the way you look at a situation. Count on personality, vitality and energy to lead you in the proper direction. A male friend gives you strong, useful input. Tonight: Count on CANCER (June 21-July 22): It is important to keep someone's confidence; expect a long-term grudge if you don't. Messing up on this level could have far-reaching implications. Use your lunch break to reflect your options. Tonight: Keep the socializing minimal. ***

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Your positive side comes out. Others are drawn to you and want you to join them. Consider starting the weekend early, like now. Focus on success, making what you need happen and feeling greater fulfillment. Happiness surrounds you. Tonight: As you like it. **** VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You definitely make a strong impression on another. Tune in to your inner voice and what is going on with a boss. Now is the time to get moving to realize your desires. Your diligence pays off in a financial dealing. Tonight: Out late. **** LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): It's your moment to act.

ESPN broke away from the Braves-Giants game Wednesday night to bring us a little bit of history.

Instead, we saw an ugly sideshow. Yo, fellows in ESPN's control room - you shouldn't have flipped the switch to Montreal, especially just as Brave third baseman Terry Pendleton is firing a throw to first base in the seventh inning of a 1-1

If you missed it, Montreal pitcher Pedro Martinez threw 7 1/3 innings of perfect baseball at the Cincinnati Reds. ESPN broke away from its Braves-Giants affair to join the Montreal Expo network as Martinez started the eighth inning.

Martinez coaxed Kevin Mitchell into flying out, which made it 22 up and 22 down for the younger brother of Los Angeles Dodger pitcher Ramon Martinez. Reggie Sanders was the next batter, and Martinez quickly worked the count to 0 and 2.

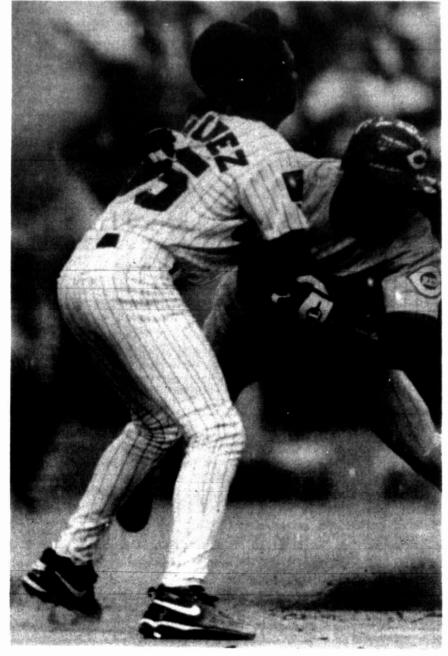

Martinez's 0-2 offering was a fastball that nailed the right-handed hitting Sanders near the left shoulder. Without hesitation, Sanders raced to the mound, jumped Martinez and started the usual free-for-all.

Fifty players and a dozen coaches switched to rugby and zoomed to the mound for a scrum. That's just what you want to see in the middle of a no-hitter, eh?

What in the name of Cy Young was Sanders thinking?

Reggie, listen up - do you really think Martinez was trying to hit you with a pitch when he's five outs away from a perfect game?

Amazingly, The Expo announcers defended Sanders, saying he was music is a part of baseball. Pitchers shouldn't throw at a batter, but they should be able to throw between the batter and the inside part of the Pitchers who don't move batters off the plate are down in the minors wondering why their outside-corner fastballs are lined over the right-field wall most of the time.

Maybe you're saying, 'Well, maybe Sanders was trying to break Martinez's rhythm, to break the nohit spell he had on the Reds.'

Maybe you're right, but it's doubtful. Sanders would be stupid to get himself thrown out and risk a possible suspension just on the chance that he could fluster Martinez.

Martinez could have become perhaps the first pitcher to enjoy a bench-clearing brawl and a no-hitter in the same game, but perfect endings are much too rare for Montreal's apocalyptic Olympic Stadium. Martinez managed to survive the enthralling eighth, but pinch-hitter Brian Dorsett singled off Martinez to start the ninth.

Martinez didn't even earn a victory he exited the game after Dorsett's hit and watched closer John Wetteland blow a 2-0 lead - but he did earn the support of Expo fans who thought little of him when he arrived in exchange for favorite son Delino DeShields

Yet with all of the stories that could have come from north of the border Wednesday, we received another rerun, another fistfight on Astroturf.

ESPN should think twice the next time it leaves one game and cuts in Maybe it should drop the pretense of baseball and ship us to the World Wrestling Federation instead.

ble waiting on him, they kind of lean out over the plate and try to put a little extra on their swing, and he gets a lot of groundouts that way.

Major attributes his improvement on last season to Howard's pitching

The biggest difference this season is more pitching," Major said. "Last season, we had to pitch during the week - we only had about four pitchers last season. This season, we just have three weekend starters, and the other pitchers pitch during the week.

So it's easier - I have six days rest in between each start, and it makes a difference in my arm. I'm getting a lot more rest than last year.

As for his efficient work habits on the mound, Major said he's just doing what his coach has stressed to everyone. Indeed, all of Howard's pitchers are relatively fast workers; Major's just the fastest of them all.

Major, 19, is from Claremont, Calif. Roper said Howard assistant coach Steve Ramharter discovered Major playing summer ball in South Dakota, Ramharter's home state.

Major said he loves Howard - the team, his teammates and catcher Chad Morford, who he called "the best catcher I've ever pitched to. He's awesome." In fact, Major may have only one complaint.

"I never have not hit, in my whole life, until I came here," Major said. "In high school, I didn't even pitch. I was the center fielder, and I was our arrive. offensive MVP in high school. It's a lot different just pitching, and not playing every day. The only thing I "When John leaves here, it's going pitch one day, and then you have to favorite kids.
