revenue in 1961. When the lawmakers arrive in January, they will have a hard time finding a road to new money that hasn't been land-mined and strewn with barbed wire by some group that opposes that course. Advance studies indicate the need for as much as $100,000-000 a year in new taxes. Business groups, who have been holding meetings over the state, have come out flatly for a retail sales tax. They contend that to meet its needs, present and future, Texas must have a broad-based, spread-thin tax that will grow with the economy. The state contend withe economy. The state
