WOLTER DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

SLAYER OF FIFTEEN YEAR OLD GIRL EXPiates HORRIBLE CRIME.

PROTESTS INNOCENCE

In Statement Given Out Following His Death He Declares He Is Victim of Circumstantial Evidence.

By Associated Press. Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Albert Wolter, convicted of the murder of fifteen-year-old Ruth Wheeler, New York City's noted girl, was electrocuted on March 24, 1910. She was killed by strangulation and her body was buried in Wolters' apartments where she had gone in answer to an advertisement for a stenographer. Wolter left a statement calling on God to witness that he was innocent.

His conviction was on circumstantial evidence. He admitted writing the postal card which led Ruth to visit his apartment on East Seventy-fifth street. In a book Wolters kept was found the girl's name and address entered in her handwriting. The hat pin and a ring which she had worn on the morning of her disappearance were found in the fire place. An examination of the body showed the girl apparently thrust into the fire while still alive, though she was probably strangled into unconsciousness first. The body was removed from the apartment in a bag, deposited on the fire escape for a time and finally thrown to the ground below.

Wolters' statement made public after his execution reads in part: "Now that I am departing from this earth to go into the presence of God, I wish to make this last statement. The world refused me justice, but our Father in heaven who knows our inmost thoughts, He will give me an unflinching justice. I wish to state I am innocent of the crime I was convicted of. I have been a victim of circumstantial evidence. I hope there may come a time when conscience of the perpetrator will overpower him and he will come to the front and acknowledge his guilt. It is my honest prayer to God that He may bring the persons guilty of the crime to justice, that my name may be cleared of this stain and that people may see the injustice they have done me and that they have killed an innocent boy."

Wolter Gray left Saturday night for Forney, Texas, where he will visit friends for a day or two.

WILL FILE INDICTMENTS IN BRIBERY CASES

By Associated Press. Los Angeles, Jan. 29.—It was announced by District Attorney Ford today that indictments would be filed this afternoon in the supreme court of California as a result of the grand jury investigation into the allegations of the bribery of jurors in the trial of James B. McNamara. Ford made this announcement just before Le Comptre Davis, associate of Clarence Darrow in this trial was called before the county grand jury.

Foes of Saloon Active in Ohio. Columbus, O., Jan. 29.—The Ohio Anti-Saloon League has made arrangements for a big mass convention to be held in Columbus tomorrow simultaneously with the visit of President Taft. The announced purpose of the demonstration is to impress upon the Ohio constitutional convention the importance of anti-liquor provision in the State constitution. Prominent prohibition speakers from several States will address the convention.

Telephone Operator Foils Bank Robbers. Cleveland, Texas, Jan. 29.—Four men attempting to rob the bank here last night by digging into the bricks of the vault were overheard by a telephone operator who notified Police Officer Radford. Single handed he attacked the robbers and though shot in the leg, he drove the robbers away without booty.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Jan. 27.—The constitutionality of the law prohibiting the operation of Sunday theatres in Texas will be tested in the court of criminal appeals in the case of ex parte O. P. Gould, from Dallas county, to be submitted Feb. 14. The appellant was agent of the Interstate Amusement Company and operated the Majestic Theatre. He was fined in the trial court on several occasions, until the fine now aggregate about $1500.

JUDGE MARTIN'S CHARGE TO JURY IN TRIAL OF FRANK HURSH

Gentlemen of the Jury:

In this case the defendant, Frank Hursh, stands charged by indictment with the offense for the murder of Mrs. Alta Hursh, in the county of Wichita, and State of Texas, on or about the 10th day of August A. D. 1911, to which charge the defendant has pleaded not guilty.

I give you in charge as the law applicable to this case the following:

I. Every person with sound memory and discretion who shall unlawfully kill any reasonable creature in being within this state with malice aforethought, either express or implied, shall be deemed guilty of murder.

II. Murder is distinguishable from every other species of homicide by the absence of circumstances which reduce the offense to negligent homicide or manslaughter, or which excuse or justify the homicide.

III. Malice is the condition of the mind which shows a heart regardless of social duty and fatally bent on mischief, the existence of which is inferred from acts committed or words spoken.

IV. Malice, which is absolutely essential to constitute the offense of murder, is either express or implied.

V. All murder committed with express malice is murder of the first degree.

VI. Express malice which is absolutely essential to constitute murder in the first degree, is where one of sedate deliberate mind and formed design unlawfully kills another.

VII. When an unlawful killing is established, the condition of the mind of the party killing, at the time, just before and just after the killing, is an important consideration in determining the grade of the homicide, and in determining whether murder has been committed with express malice or not, the important questions for a jury to consider are: Do the facts and circumstances in the case at the time of the killing and before and after that time, having connection with or relation to it, furnish satisfactory evidence of a separate and deliberate mind or the part of the person killing, at the time he does the act? And do these facts and circumstances show a formed design to take the life of the person slain, or to inflict on her some serious bodily harm, which, in its necessary and probable consequences may result in her death? Or, do the facts and circumstances in the case show such a general reckless disregard of human life as necessarily include the formed design against the life of the person slain? If they do, the killing will be upon express malice.

VIII. In order to warrant a verdict of murder in the first degree, malice must be shown by the evidence to have existed; that is, the jury must be satisfied from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that the killing was the consummation of a previously formed design to that of the life of the person killed, and that the design to kill was formed deliberately with a sedate mind, that is, at the time when the mind of the person killing was self-possessed and capable of contemplating the consequences of the act proposed to be done. There is, however, no definite space of time necessary to intervene between the formed design to kill and the actual killing; a single moment of time may be sufficient. All that is required is that the mind be cool and deliberate in forming its purpose and that the design to kill is formed.

IX. When the evidence satisfies the mind of the jury, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the killing was the result of a previously formed design by the defendant to kill the deceased, and that the design was formed when the mind was sound and sedate and capable of contemplating the consequences of the act proposed to be done by him, and such killing is further shown to have been unlawful and done with malice, then the homicide is murder in the first degree and your verdict should be rendered accordingly.

X. To warrant a conviction of murder in the first degree, the jury must be satisfied by the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant before the act, deliberately formed the design with a calm and sedate mind to kill the deceased; that he selected and used the weapon or instrument reasonably sufficient to accomplish the death by the mode

MILLS ARE OPENED AGAIN

Lines Are Shortened, Many Workers Having Been Frightened Away By Rioting.

By Associated Press. Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 29.—Rioting was renewed among the textile workers here today. A mob mostly of foreigners containing some women held up the electric street cars going to the textile plant hauling bottles and ice through the windows. Several were hurt. The passengers were forced from the cars and frequently brutally assaulted on suspicion that they were strike-breakers. Several were seriously injured. The militia prevented the mob from reaching the streets bordering the mills.

SOCIALISTS WOULD TURN PRISONERS INTO SCHOOLS

By United Press. Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—"If I am elected Governor I will turn the penal institutions of the State into schools," said Stephen M. Reynolds of Terre Haute, nominated for Governor of Indiana by the State Socialist convention here late this afternoon. He will put the prisoners in parole at public work, but not under contract and I will have them taught until they are ready to take their place in society then I will pardon them." Two women were given places on the State ticket. Miss Florence Warble was nominated for State superintendent of public instruction, and Miss Carl Ott was nominated for State treasurer.

LIKENE TO PEASANTRY OF FRENCH REVOLUTION.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 27.—Liken- ing the conditions of the mill operatives here to the peasantry of the French revolution, Strike Leader J. E. Pettor, said tonight that the strikers are fully aroused and will remain firm. The strike leaders say they will not even talk arbitration unless the mill owners come to them.

ATCHISON'S TRIAL SET FOR MONDAY

Hillsboro, Texas, Jan. 27.—Homer Atchison, charged with the murder of A. Y. Redman, a reclusive farmer, will have a habeas corpus hearing before Judge Smithfield Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Redman was found dead near his farm home one day last October. There was no arrest until Atchison was indicted two weeks ago. Redman's head was crushed in and his pockets turned wrong side out. He was known to be in the habit of carrying large sums of money with him.

FELL INTO ELEVATOR SHAFT AND WAS KILLED.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 27.—Falling head long thirty feet through the elevator shaft of the Metropolitan hotel, Charles Colvin aged 22, bell hop, met instant death early tonight. He attempted to alight from the elevator at the third floor before it came to stand still, lost his balance and fell backward into the shaft.

IMPERIAL ARMY DEFEATED AT KU CHAN

By Associated Press. San Francisco, Jan. 29.—The Imperial army of ten thousand men was decisively defeated by the Republican army of Canton near Ku Chan yesterday, according to a cablegram today to a Chinese paper here. Four hundred Manchus were killed. The Republicans numbered eight thousand.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH TO BE ORGANIZED HERE

Rev. W. L. Daniel, missionary for the Wichita County Baptist Association, preached yesterday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., at the Fourth Street Baptist Mission in this city and at the morning service it was agreed among the Baptists present (principally members of the First Baptist Church) that a second church would be organized the Second Sunday in February. At that time Rev. Daniel will preach at 11 a. m. and the church will be organized at a special service to be held at 3 p. m. The first service under the auspices of the new church will be held at 7:30 p. m.

The building was erected last summer at the corner of Fourth street and Travis avenue and since that time a Sunday school and a young people's meeting have been conducted each Sunday with occasional preaching service. All members of the Missionary Baptist church who live in the vicinity of the building are cordially invited to join with those who have agreed to undertake the organization and as soon as the church is organized an opportunity will be given for any who wish to unite with the new church, in any other manner than by letter. Already several have expressed a desire to join by baptism and it is possible that a baptismal service will be held at the river shortly after the organization is completed.

A meeting of at least one a week is also planned following the organization. Judge Swayne after listening to the arguments all the morning adjourned court until afternoon. He announced that a search would be made for arms before each session of the court.

MANCHUS APPEAL TO JAPAN TO SAVE DYNASTY.

By United Press. Peking, Jan. 27.—It was learned tonight from reliable sources that the terrorist who fatally injured Gen. Chang Jui with a bomb yesterday made his escape and the story that he had been killed was false. He was reported to be unconscious tonight and it was believed that his death was only a matter of but a few hours. The policeman had received information that several bomb factories were being operated in Peking and it was believed that the revolutionists had agreed on a terrorism campaign. A number of suspects were arrested. Several clashes between the revolutionists and Imperialists were reported from the south today. The revolutionists were said to be moving northward in anticipation of a resumption of the war on Monday, when the armistice expires. Chinese newspapers today continued to assert that the Manchus were frantically appealing to Japan to step in and save the dynasty.

DEATH ENDS TROUBLES OF HUNTED MAN

Aged Man On Deathbed Saturday Night Told of Killing Two Men in Kentucky Thirty Years Ago.

Death finds hunted man. Had killed two men at Bowling Green, Ky. Escaped from scene of double tragedy thirty-five years ago. Had roamed over many states, successfully concealing his identity. Death finds destitute man at early hour Sunday morning on hotel cot and claims him after human sleuths had given up chase.

These and other facts obtainable mark the history of Foster Williamson, proud colon of a Blue Grass State family.

Ten months ago a man giving his name as John Foster came to Wichita Falls and took employment in a wagon yard.

Notwithstanding his age, 70 years, he was quite robust, tall and angular and not afraid of work and there he toiled until about two weeks ago, when he was stricken with pneumonia. Then suffering with the malady and racked with pain, he sought more comfortable quarters than his own camp and went to the St. Charles Hotel where though absolutely penniless, he was given shelter without cost.

When his dangerous condition was discovered the hotel management called a physician who gave the unfortunate man medical attention, at the same time holding out no hope of his recovery. Here it was that Foster Williamson revealed his identity to an attendant and sent for a citizen whom he had known in former years and who knew and related the facts in his old friend's history, the details of which were painful even to those having no interest in the sad story that meant a wrecked life and a death among strangers.

When Foster Williamson had revealed his identity and the place of his nativity and threw his last breath County Judge Felder wired the facts to the Kentucky relatives.

JURISDICTION OF COURT ATTACKED

DEFENSE IN SNEED CASE ALLEGES TRIAL COURT IS WITHOUT JURISDICTION.

CASE IS BEING ARGUED

Judge Orders All Persons Entering Court Room Searched for Arms.

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Jan. 29.—The trial of J. B. Sneed charged with the murder of Capt. A. G. Boyce, Sr., was called this morning in the Seventeenth District Court. Every person entering the court room was searched for weapons. A clash between the Sneeds and Boyces was feared. The defense immediately attacked the jurisdiction of the court on a technicality, alleging that as the indictment against Sneed was returned in Sixty-seventh District Court it was not legally filed in the Seventeenth District Court. The defense said the case might be transferred to the Seventeenth District Court after being filed in Sixty-seventh District but not before. The prosecution made a general denial of these assertions. If defense is successful the result will be a postponement of the case until after the morning adjourned court until afternoon. He announced that a search would be made for arms before each session of the court.

The defense pointed out that the judges of the three district courts may transfer their cases from one court to another, but maintained that there is no legal provision whereby the cases may be filed in courts other than the one where the indictment was returned. They contend that if the Seventeenth court should try the case, Sneed would be deprived "of his constitutional right to be tried by due process of law."

Judge Simmons of the Sixty-seventh Court which returned the indictment and who presided over Sneed's habeas corpus hearing, was summoned to appear as a witness on the technicality point, probably late today.

CHRONOLOGY OF SNEED CASE.

Saturday, Jan. 13, Sneed shot Captain Boyce, who died at St. Joseph's infirmary at 9:30 p. m., an hour after being wounded.

Saturday, Jan. 13, 8:30 p. m., Sneed captured and he fled from scene and was later taken out of city jail to jail.

Sunday, Jan. 14, Sneed spent the Sabbath in county jail and is visited by minister.

Monday, Jan. 15, Sneed presented before Justice Mahen, who refused request of attorneys for release of prisoner on bond.

Tuesday, Jan. 16, Mrs. Lena Sneed told her story to the grand jury.

Wednesday, Jan. 17, Sneed indicted for killing Captain A. G. Boyce.

Thursday, Jan. 18, habeas corpus proceedings instituted for release of Mrs. Lena Sneed from sanitarium and other proceedings brought for release of Sneed from county jail.

Friday, Jan. 19, Mrs. Lena Sneed released from sanitarium by order of court.

Saturday, Jan. 20, Sneed presented in Sixty-seventh district court in habeas corpus proceedings and case continued until Monday, Jan. 22.

Sunday, Jan. 21, Sneed is visited by father and relatives in jail.

Monday, Jan. 22, habeas corpus proceedings begun and witnesses describe story of shooting. Judge Atwell told out of supper party.

Tuesday, Jan. 23, Thomas Snyder, father of Mrs. Lena Sneed, placed on stand and told bare family history. Bowman followed and was unapologetically quizzed by Attorney Haner.

Wednesday, Jan. 24, Judge Simmons released Sneed on bond of $25,000, signed by prominent business associates of family. Guarded by detectives, he left for Plano.

Thursday, Jan. 25, Sneed remained with children in Plano at home of his relative, Bowman.

GENERAL COMMITTEE HAS BEEN APPOINTED

Preliminary Steps Taken in Organization of Men and Religion Forward Movement Here.

FIND HIM NOW INSANE

Defendant Will Probably Ask That Verdict Be Set Aside.

Sunday was Men and Religion Forward Movement day in the Protestant churches in Wichita Falls and the Ft. Worth laymen who spoke from several of the pulpits were heard by large and interested crowds.

S. J. Brien, secretary of the Fort Worth Y. M. C. A. spoke from the pulpit of the First Baptist church in the morning and at the First Presbyterian church at night. Hon. Q. T. Moreland spoke at the Christian church in the morning and at the First M. E. church in the evening.

Former Congressman Gillespie was unable to come here and his place was taken by Mr. Getz, also from Ft. Worth, who spoke at the First M. E. Church, South in the evening.

A mass meeting was held at the auditorium in the afternoon which was attended by many men. At this meeting a committee of three from each church was appointed to have general direction of the organization of the movement in this city. This committee will meet next Sunday afternoon.

The members of the committee are: P. C. Maricle, J. E. Frank, E. Mitchell, C. C. Huff, W. J. Bullock, J. W. Bradley, H. A. Fairchild, W. R. Robertson, T. E. Barr, H. J. Bachman, R. O' Carey, E. G. Cook, A. F. Kerr, J. C. Presley, J. C. Hunt, C. W. Beavers, Mark Walker.

At a meeting of the Pastors' Association this morning each of the pastors was assigned some phase of the movement for discussion at the regular meetings of the association.

SUBSTITUTION OF TONNAGE UP

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today began a series of sessions in this city today with a view to arriving at a satisfactory settlement of the long-standing and difficult problem of transit privileges. The question at issue is that of substitution of tonnage in transit. As a result of privileges obtained some time ago millers have been able to bring in grain from producing regions, mill it into flour and ship the flour to market on the balance of the through rate from farm to market. Following the granting of this concession to milling interests other industries obtained the privilege, and various abuses. It is charged, in the form of substitution of tonnage soon appeared.

YOUNG MEN BUY MILLER DRUG STORE

Harry Thornberry and G. W. Shaw have purchased the Miller Drug Store at the corner of Eighth and Ohio, and entered into possession of it yesterday morning. The young men are both graduate pharmacists and have been identified with the drug business here for some time, and each has a large number of friends who will be glad to give the new firm a share of patronage.

The store will always probably be known as the Miller drug store, by which name it has gained a high standard among the people of the city. It is understood Dr. Miller will devote his entire time in the future to his medical practice.

SHOT HIMSELF IN FOOT.

Nacodoches, Texas, Jan. 27.—Hal Tucker shot himself in the foot late this evening while hunting. The young man fell and the contents of one barrel entered the foot. He is resting easily late tonight and the amputation it is believed will not be necessary.

AT COST STORE QUICKLY DISPOSED OF ITS STOCK

By United Press. New York, Jan. 27.—It took exactly two hours for the first "at cost" store established in this city to run out of supplies today. The store, the first of a string which Rev. Madison Peters hopes to start to give the "poor a square deal and eliminate the middle man in the necessities of life," had only a small stock because its promoter did not anticipate the rush. He stated afterward that most of the goods sold went to people who showed by their clothing that they needed "bargains in food." Supplies were limited today to vegetables and apples. Potatoes were sold at two and a half cents per pound, and beets, carrots, cabbage and turnips two cents a pound.

Judge George E. Miller, formerly a resident of this city, but now living in Fort Worth, is in the city on business connected with courts.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE

JURY FINDS FRANK HURSH GUILTY OF MURDER IN KILLING OF WIFE.

FIND HIM NOW INSANE

Defendant Will Probably Ask That Verdict Be Set Aside.

"We the jury find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree and assess his punishment, a term of twenty-five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. We, the jury find the defendant is insane at the time of this trial."

The foregoing verdict was returned by the jury in the trial of Frank Hursh, charged with the murder of his wife, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, after having been out thirty-eight hours.

The case was given to the jury at about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning, after one of the hardest fought trials in the history of Wichita county. It is reported that the jury on its first ballot stood five for murder in the first degree and seven for murder in the second degree.

The defendant did not exhibit any emotion or interest when brought into the court room to hear the verdict, but was possibly a little paler than during the trial. The friends of the defendant evidently were not surprised at the verdict.

Judge Scury, who defended Hursh was called to Fort Worth today and Attorney J. T. Montgomery appeared in the courtroom as his representative. It is believed by many lawyers that the fact that the jury found the defendant insane at the time of the trial will prevent sentence being pronounced until he shall be declared sane, if he ever is declared so. It is expected that upon the return of Judge Scury he will ask that the verdict be set aside on account of the insanity of the defendant and will ask for a new trial.

After the reading of the verdict this afternoon the defendant was taken back to jail and it is probable that there will be no other proceedings until the return of Judge Scury.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH KANSAS

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 29.—In recognition of the fact that today marked the fifty-first anniversary of admission of Kansas to the Union and with a further view to call public attention to the growth and prosperity of this section, the zens of the Sunflower State started one million souvenir cards on their journey in the States and to every civilized corner of the world. Probably no movement so widespread in its scope was ever planned for advertisement of the State. The Kansas post card is a picture of a woman sitting in a throne with her left arm encircling a bunch of sunflowers. The right hand holds a mirror face outward, and either side are pictured a ear of grain and the industries which dominate in Kansas. Beneath the throne is the State seal.

ATCHISON'S TRIAL SET FOR MONDAY

United Press. Hillsboro, Texas, Jan. 27.—Homer Atchison, charged with the murder of A. Y. Redman, a reclusive farmer, will have a habeas corpus hearing before Judge Smith Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Redman was found dead near his farm home one day last October. There was no arrest until Atchison was indicted two weeks ago. Redman's head was crushed in and his pockets turned wrong side out. He was known to be in the habit of carrying large sums of money with him.

FELL INTO ELEVATOR SHAFT AND WAS KILLED.

United Press. Waco, Tex., Jan. 27.—Falling headlong thirty feet through the elevator shaft of the Metropolitan hotel, Charles Colvin aged 22, fell, but not instant death early tonight. He attempted to alight from the elevator at the third floor before it came to a standstill, lost his balance and fell backward into the shaft.

IMPERIAL ARMY DEFEATED AT KU CHAN

Associated Press. San Francisco, Jan. 29.—The Imperial army of ten thousand men was decisively defeated by the Republican army of Canton near Ku Chan yesterday, according to a cablegram today in a Chinese paper here. Four hundred Manchus were killed. The Republicans numbered eight thousand.

TO TEST SUNDAY THEATRE LAW

United Press. Austin, Texas, Jan. 27.—The constitutionality of the law prohibiting the operation of Sunday theatres in Texas will be tested in the court of criminal appeals in the case of ex-partner O. P. Gould, from Dallas county, to be submitted Feb. 14. The appellant was agent of the Interstate Amusement Company and operated the Majestic Theatre. He was fined in the trial court on several occasions, until the fines now aggregate about $1500.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH TO BE ORGANIZED HERE

Rev. W. L. Daniel, missionary for the Wichita County Baptist Association, preached yesterday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., at the Fourth Street Baptist Mission in this city and at the morning service it was agreed among the Baptists present (principally members of the First Baptist Church) that a second church would be organized in February. At that time Rev. Daniel will preach at 11 a. m. and the church will be organized at a special service to be held at 3 p. m. The first service under the auspices of the new church will be held at 7:30 p. m.

The building was erected last summer at the corner of Fourth street and Travis avenue and since that time a Sunday school and a young people's meeting have been conducted each Sunday with occasional preaching service.

All members of the Missionary Baptist church who live in the vicinity of the building are cordially invited to join with those who have agreed to undertake the organization and as soon as the church is organized an opportunity will be given for any who may desire to unite with the new church in any manner than by letter. Already several have expressed a desire to join by baptism and it is possible that a baptismal service will be held at the river shortly after the organization is completed.

A meeting of at least one week is also planned following the organization.

MANCHUS APPEAL TO JAPAN TO SAVE DYNASTY.

United Press. Peking, Jan. 27.—It was learned to-day from reliable sources that the terrorist who fatally injured Gen. Liang with a bomb today made his escape and the story that he had been killed was false, circulated by the Manchus. General Liang was reported to be unconscious tonight and it was believed that his death was only a matter of but a few hours. The policemen had received information that several bomb factories were being operated in Peking and it was believed that the revolutionists had agreed on a terrorism campaign. A number of suspects were arrested. Several claimed to be members of the revolutionists and Imperials were reported from the south today. The Republicans were said to be moving northward in anticipation of a resumption of the war on Monday, when the armistice expires. Chinese newspapers today continued to assert that the Manchus were frantically appealing to Japan to step in and save the dynasty.

DEATH ENDS TROUBLES OF HUNTED MAN

Aged Man On Deathbed Saturday Night Told of Killing Two Men in Kentucky Thirty Years Ago.

Death finds hunted man. Had killed two men at Bowling Green, Ky. Escaped from scene of double tragedy thirty-five years ago. Had roomed over many states, successfully concealing his identity. Death finds destitute man at early hour Sunday morning on hotel cot and claims him after human sleuths had given up chase. These and other facts obtainable mark the history of Foster Williamson, proud colon of a Blue Grass State family. Ten months ago a man giving his name as John Foster came to Wichita Falls and took employment in a wagon yard. Notwithstanding his age, 70 years, he was quite robust, tall and angular and not afraid of work and there he toiled until about two weeks ago, when he was stricken with pneumonia. Then suffering with the malady and racked with pain, he sought more comfortable quarters than he was occupying and went to the St. Charles Hotel where though absolutely penniless, he was given shelter without cost. When his dangerous condition was discovered the hotel management called a physician who gave the unfortunate man medical attention, at the same time holding out no hope of his recovery. Here it was that Foster Williamson revealed his identity to an attendant and sent for a citizen whom he had known in former years and who knew and related the facts in his old friend's history, the details of which were painful even to those having no interest in the sad story that meant a wrecked life and a death among strangers. When Foster Williamson had revealed his identity and the place of his nativity and drew his last breath County Judge Felder wired the facts to the Kentucky relatives.

JURISDICTION OF COURT ATTACKED

DEFENSE IN SNEED CASE ALLEGES TRIAL COURT IS WITHOUT JURISDICTION.

Judge Orders All Persons Entering Court Room Searched for Arms.

Associated Press. Fort Worth, Jan. 29.—The trial of J. B. Sneed charged with the murder of Capt. A. G. Boyce, Sr., was called this morning in the Seventeenth District Court. Every person entering the court room was searched for weapons. A clash between the Snees and Boyces was feared. The defense immediately attacked the jurisdiction of the court on a technicality, alleging that as the indictment against Sneed was returned in Sixty-seventh District Court it was not legally filed in the Seventeenth District Court. The defense said the case might be transferred to the Seventeenth District Court after being filed in Sixty-seventh District but not before. The prosecution made a general denial of these assertions. If defense is successful the result will be a postponement of the trial. Judge Swayne after listening to the arguments all the morning adjourned court until afternoon. He announced that a search would be made for arms before each session of the court. The defense pointed out that the judges of the three district courts may transfer their cases from one court to another, but maintained that there is no legal provision whereby the cases may be filed in courts other than the one where the indictment was returned. They contend that if the Seventeenth court should try the case, Sneed would be deprived "of his constitutional right to be tried by due process of law."

"Judge Simmons of the Sixty-seventh Court which returned the indictment and who presided over Sneed's habeas corpus hearing, was summoned to appear as a witness on the technicality point, probably late today.

Chronology of Sneed Case.

- Saturday, Jan. 13, Sneed shot Capt. Boyce, who died at St. Joseph's infirmary at 9:30 p. m., an hour after being wounded.
Saturday, Jan. 13, 8:30 p. m., Sneed captured as he fled from scene and was later taken out of city hall to jail.
Sunday, Jan. 14, Sneed spent the Sabbath in county jail and is visited by minister.
Monday, Jan. 15, Sneed presented before Justice Mahen, who refused request of attorneys for release of prisoner on bond.
Tuesday, Jan. 16, Mrs. Lena Sneed told her story to the grand jury.
Wednesday, Jan. 17, Sneed indicted for killing Captain A. G. Boyce.
Thursday, Jan. 18, habeas corpus proceedings instituted for release of Mrs. Lena Sneed from sanitarium and other proceedings brought for release of Sneed from county jail.
Friday, Jan. 19, Mrs. Lena Sneed released from sanitarium by order of court.
Saturday, Jan. 20, Sneed presented in Sixty-seventh district court in habeas corpus proceedings and case continued until Monday, Jan. 22.
Sunday, Jan. 21, Sneed is visited by father and relatives in jail.
Monday, Jan. 22, habeas corpus proceedings begun and witnesses describe story of shooting. Judge Atwell told of supper party.
Tuesday, Jan. 23, Thomas Snyder, father of Mrs. Lena Sneed, placed on stand and laid bare family history. Bowman followed and was unsparringly quizzed by Attorney Hanger.
Wednesday, Jan. 24, Judge Simmons released Sneed on bond of $35,000, signed by prominent business associates of family. Guarded by detectives, left for Plano.
Thursday, Jan. 25, Sneed remained with children in Plano at home of his relative, Bowman.

GENERAL COMMITTEE HAS BEEN APPOINTED

Preliminary Steps Taken in Organization of Men and Religion Forward Movement Here.

Sunday was Men and Religion Forward Movement day in the Protestant churches in Wichita Falls and the Ft. Worth laymen who spoke from several of the pulpits were heard by large and interested crowds.

S. J. Brien, secretary of the Fort Worth Y. M. C. A. spoke from the pulpit of the First Baptist church in the morning and at the First Presbyterian church at night. Hon. Q. T. Moreland spoke at the Christian church in the morning and at the First M. E. church in the evening.

Former Congressman Gillespie was unable to come here and his place was taken by Mr. Getz, also from Ft. Worth, who spoke at the First M. E. Church, South in the evening. A mass meeting was held at the auditorium in the afternoon which was attended by many men. At this meeting a committee of three from each church was appointed to have general direction of the organization of the movement in this city. This committee will meet next Sunday afternoon.

The members of the committee are: P. C. Maricle, J. E. Frank, E. Mitchell, C. C. Huff, W. J. Bullock, J. W. Bradley, H. A. Fairchild, W. R. Robertson, T. E. Barr, H. J. Bachman, R. O. Carey, E. G. Cook, A. F. Kerr, J. C. Dresley, J. C. Hunt, C. W. Beavers, Mark Walker. At a meeting of the Pastors' Association this morning each of the pastors was assigned some phase of the movement for discussion at the regular meetings of the association.

Substitution of Tonnage Up.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today began a series of sessions in this city today with a view to arriving at a satisfactory settlement of the long-standing and difficult problem of transit privileges. The question at issue is that of substitution of tonnage in transit. As a result of privileges obtained some time ago millers have been able to bring in grain from producing regions, mill it into flour and ship the flour to market on the balance of the through rate from farm to market. Following the granting of this concession to milling interests other industries obtained the privilege, and various abuses. It is charged, in the form of substitution of tonnage soon appeared.

YOUNG MEN BUY MILLER DRUG STORE

Harry Thornberry and G. W. Shaw have purchased the Miller Drug Store at the corner of Eighth and Ohio, and entered into possession of it yesterday morning. The young men are both graduate pharmacists and have been identified with the drug business here for some time, and each has a large number of friends who will be glad to give the new firm a share of patronage. The store will always probably be known as the Miller drug store, by which name it has gained a high standard among the people of the county. It is understood Dr. Miller will devote his entire time in the future to his medical practice.

Shot Himself in Foot.

Nacogdoches, Texas, Jan. 27.—Hal Tucker shot himself in the foot late this evening while hunting. The young man fell and the contents of one barrel entered the foot. He is resting easily late tonight and the amputation it is believed will not be necessary.

AT COST STORE QUICKLY DISPOSED OF ITS STOCK

United Press. New York, Jan. 27.—It took exactly two hours for the first "at cost" store established in this city to run out of supplies today. The store, the first of a string which Rev. Madison Peters hopes to start to give the "poor a square deal and eliminate the middle man in the necessities of life," had only a small stock because the promoter did not anticipate the rush. He stated afterward that most of the goods sold went to people who showed by their clothing that they needed "bargains in food." Supplies were limited today to vegetables and apples. Potatoes were sold at two and a half cents per pound, and beets, carrots, cabbage and turnips two cents a pound.

Judge George E. Miller, formerly a resident of this city, but now living in Fort Worth, is in the city on business connected with courts.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE

JURY FINDS FRANK HURSH GUILTY OF MURDER IN KILLING OF WIFE.

FIND HIM NOW INSANE

Defendant Will Probably Ask That Verdict Be Set Aside.

"We the jury find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree and assess his punishment, a term of twenty-five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. We, the jury find the defendant is insane at the time of this trial."

The foregoing verdict was returned by the jury in the trial of Frank Hursh, charged with the murder of his wife, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, after having been out thirty-eight hours.

The case was given to the jury at about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning, after one of the hardest fought trials in the history of Wichita county. It is reported that the jury on its first ballot stood five for murder in the first degree and seven for murder in the second degree.

The defendant did not exhibit any emotion or interest when brought in to the court room to hear the verdict, but was possibly a little paler than during the trial. The friends of the defendant evidently were not surprised at the verdict.

Judge Scurry, who defended Hursh was called to Fort Worth today and Attorney J. T. Montgomery appeared in the courtroom as his representative. It is believed by many lawyers that the fact that the jury found the defendant insane at the time of the trial will prevent sentence being pronounced until he shall be declared sane, if he ever is declared so. It is expected that upon the return of Judge Scurry he will ask that the verdict be set aside on account of the insanity of the defendant and ask for a new trial.

After the reading of the verdict this afternoon the defendant was led back to jail and it is probable there will be no other proceedings until the return of Judge Scurry.

What's the Matter With Kansas?

Topeka, Kansas, Jan. 29.—In recognition of the fact that today marked the fifty-first anniversary of the admission of Kansas to the Union and with a further view to call public attention to the growth of prosperity of this section, theizens of the Sunflower State today started one million souvenir cards to every community in the United States and to every civilized country if the world. Probably no other movement so widespread in its scope was ever planned for advertisement. The Kansas post card carries a picture of a woman sitting in a throne with her left arm embracing a bunch of sunflowers. The right hand holds a mirror facing outward. On either side are pictured fields of grain and the industries which predominate in Kansas. Between the throne is the State seal.

HOUSE PASSES STEEL BULLETIN—The House passed the steel revision bill reducing duties thirty-five to fifty per cent.

Express Companies Probe. New York, Jan. 29.—The Federal investigation begun last fall into the express companies, their revenues, rates and methods of doing business, was resumed in this city today before Commissioner Lane of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The best picture of the year is Arath-No-Pogue, a real specialty taken in Ireland.

Six Governors Support Theodore Roosevelt.

Associated Press. New York, Jan. 29.—Six Republican Governors are now a self-appointed committee advocating Roosevelt's nomination, according to Governor Stubbs of Kansas who is here. They are Stubbs, Bass of New Hampshire, Aldrich of Nebraska, Hadley of Missouri; Glasscock, of West Virginia; Osborn, of Michigan. Stubbs maintains that Roosevelt's sentiment is strong among Southern leaders.

Just a Gentle Hint

About this season most men need an extra pair of trousers or a second suit to finish out the winter in good style. We've plenty of separate striped trousers at $3.00 or more—and extra values now in business suits, $12.50 and $15.00 especially at.....

Mrs. Wiley Blair and Mrs. S. Maxwell Foster will be at home to a number of friends to meet Mrs. J. Frank Blair, and Mrs. Montana Stanforth Wednesday afternoon January 31st, from 3 to 5 o'clock, 1500 Tenth street.

An Evening at Home
On last Tuesday night the boarders at Mrs. Bulloch's enjoyed a pleasant "evening at home." They were received at Mrs. Little's in the new home Mrs. Bulloch has just had completed and were shown through the building. Everything inside is new and modern.

They were conducted from there to Mrs. Bulloch's where she had prepared tables for games.

Everybody was in good spirits and the games were kept at a lively rate until 10:30, when the hostess brought in a two-course luncheon, which consisted of chicken salad with marsh-mallow pudding, pickles, olives and hot tea. After the luncheon over one was given an opportunity to enter for the prizes, which were a set of collar pins for the lady and a cigar lighter for the gentleman. Mrs.

Whitaker and Mr. Roach were the fortunate ones and, of course they were off broad smiles.

Mrs. Whitehurst and Mr. McKlean furnished excellent music which every one enjoyed. All declared the evening a decided success and concluded that they could have as good a time "at home" if not better than anywhere else.

Those invited were Dr. Morrison, Messrs. Brock, Roach, Wilson, Thomas, John Morris, J. A. Griffin, Hyatt, Presley, Hendricks, E. S. Morris, Baker, Holcomb, Wood, Buck, Burke, Wynn, Nabel, F. W. Griffin, Smith, Shaffer, Blair, Verne CLOPTON, Houser, Cowley, Stout, Lanar, Fahn, Allen, McKlean, Misses Grace Nolan, Campbell, Montgomery, Stonephill, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. McKlean, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Bluford, Mr. and Mrs. Ronny, Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. May, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst.

Mrs. T. H. Davis, from Dallas, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P. Long, 1409 Bluff street.

Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club.
The Tuesday afternoon Bridge Club met last Tuesday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock with Mrs. A. E. Myles, on Travis street, who was assisted in the entertainment of the club members and guests present by her sisters, Mrs. J. O. Smith and Mrs. N. Sherman. There were six tables around which the club game of Bridge was played, and eight guests attended the meeting.

At the conclusion of the games of bridge, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated in them, Mrs. W. N. Maer, in a culet won the club prize for the afternoon, which was a souvenir silver bridge spoon, of a very beautiful design. The guest prize went to Mrs. H. A. Allen. A delicious salad course was served to the ladies, after which the time having passed swiftly away, all departed for their homes to meet again next week with Mrs. Harry May, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Little on Lanare avenue.

Those present including club members and guests at the meeting with Mrs. Myles last Tuesday afternoon were the Mesdames Wald-Hampton, Everett Jones, M. M. Walker, J. O. Smith, N. Sherman, W. N. Maer, H. A. Allen, W. M. McGregor, O. F. Marchman, W. B. Shepperd, Claud Woods, R. G. Scruggs, E. N. Coats, T. T. Reece, Ben Sherrod, E. F. Terry, A. R. Duke, Eugene Sherrod, T. W. Roberts, W. W. Little and Mrs. Harry May, in addition to the hostess, Mrs. A. E. Myles.

Civic League
The ladies of the Civic League held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Frank Kell. Tree planting in the City Park was discussed with much concern. It was decided that the citizens who felt interested in the matter would be given an opportunity to make suggestions, in regard to the kinds of trees that should be planted there. However, the lady berry trees seem to have met with the favor of those present at the meeting more than any other variety of tree suggested.

Civic improvements and sanitary conditions were also considered. A committee was appointed to inquire of the officers why the ordinance forbidding expectorating on sidewalks, stairways and the corners of business houses had not been enforced. The owners of vacant lots near the business district will be called upon and asked to have all plums, trash, lumber, etc., removed so that the lots will present a clean appearance, especially on the block known as "The Seven Sister," block, around the City Hall, opposite the Methodist Church, as well as a number of other unsightly locations at present existing in the city.

The annual Civic Rally given by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, with the members of the city council as invited guests, will not be held this year. Instead, a big mass meeting will be held in the opera house or high school auditorium, at which meeting all of the property owners in the city will be given the opportunity to meet with the members of the Civic League, all of whom are earnest in their desire to cooperate with them in some practical way to attain the beautification of the city.

Educational subjects, which concern present day conditions along the lines of civic work will be presented for discussion at the next meeting and the ladies of the Civic League expect to accomplish much for this city during the present year.

The New Century Club met on the afternoon of last Wednesday, January 24th, with Mrs. T. T. Reece, on Burnett street, from 3 until 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. M. L. Reid, mother of Mrs. Reece, assisted in the entertainment and a most interesting session was held.

Owing to the meningitis situation throughout the state and the possibility of this malady invading this city, the carrying out of the regular program of the club was postponed until some time in the future, and a large part of the discussion at the meeting concerned diseases and the best way to prevent the spread of them.

Mrs. Minnie Mae Addicks was leader for the afternoon, and those present answered to the roll call with short talks on the question "Is Hospitality on the Wane?" Miss Coons began the program for the afternoon by reading a paper entitled "Care of and Cooking for the Sick." A discussion in which all of the members of the club who were present participated then took place, the subject of the discussion being "The Home Nurse." Mrs. J. C. A. Guest next read a paper relative to the meningitis situation as it is at present at the state of Texas, and Mrs. T. J. Toland followed with a talk on "Measles." Mrs. S. H. Burnside concluded the program with a short talk on "Diphtheria."

At the conclusion of the program for the afternoon refreshments consisting of oyster soup, sherbet cake, and a number of other dainties were served and the ladies departed for their homes to meet again with Mrs. Addicks on Tenth street, during the afternoon of January 31st.

Five Hundred Party
Mrs. C. B. Toney, assisted by Mrs. Eugene Sherrod, entertained a few friends with a Five Hundred Party Monday afternoon, at her home on Burnett street. At the conclusion of the games, a delicious two-course luncheon was served to the following ladies: The Mesdames Ben Sherrod, B. F. Terry, T. W. Roberts, W. M. McGregor, A. E. Myles, H. A. Allen and Miss Lucile Sherrod and a number of others whose names could not be learned.

Bridge Party.
Mrs. Eugene Sherrod, assisted by Mrs. C. B. Toney, entertained a few of her friends at Bridge Friday afternoon at her home, 1204 Burnett street, the affair lasting from 3 until 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Everett Jones, in a cut, won the favor of the afternoon, which was a hand painted cup and saucer. Mrs. Ben Sherrod won the highest score during this Bridge games. Refreshments consisting of a salad course, and grape juice was served, after which the ladies departed for their homes, each declaring that she had spent a delightful afternoon.

Those present were the Mesdames Ben Sherrod, T. W. Roberts, W. B.

Lumber Offers the Homeless a Chance to start a home on a smaller investment than any other material inasmuch as a frame house can be enlarged with additions from time to time as demands require without materially detracting from the original unit. Windows and doors can be easily cut and exterior walls extended, and when painted such changes defy detection. Two or three rooms can be started first and the rest money saved will do wonders to your bank account. There are a lot of things in favor of frame construction that you probably have never considered, which would put a new aspect on this home building question if you knew about them. Suppose you come in and talk it over with us and take a look at the "quality" lumber we handle and learn our prices first hand. Our time and advice are at your service. "There's No Place Like Home"

L. S. to B. of L. F. O. E. of L. E's Entertain

Friday night, January 26th the L. S. to B. of L. F. O. E. entertained the B. of L. F. O. E. and their families also, the B. of L. E. and families were invited. Quite an interesting program was rendered. The main feature was a drill given by ten ladies from the ladies of the society, who were all dressed in white. They formed the letters L S to B of L F O E.

Short but interesting talks on the welfare, growth and prosperity of the two orders were given by M. H. Barwise and Mr. Mandie, a visiting brother.

Last but not least were refreshments consisting of ham, turkey, cake, punch and other eatables too numerous to mention. These refreshments were furnished by the B. of L. F. O. E. the B. of L. E's.

All remained until a late hour. A general good time was enjoyed by all the memory of which will not be easily erased from their minds. Oh, for more of these pleasant events. These are the orders that do things. Failure in any thing they undertake is not known in their vocabulary.

Echoed down the corridors of time from the noble brothers and sisters who first organized these grand orders, comes the cry "Stand in Unity."

Loyalty and confidence let us take up this battle cry, never wavering in our determinations, never faultless in any until we have gained the giddy heights where farris proud banners floats afar, and let us ever be ready to say "Long stand our noble fraternal ties."

News From Oil Fields

John W. Arters, of Pittsburg, F. W. Crittenden and L. E. Malory of Bradford, Pa., and I. H. Brown of Pittsburg, all prominent independent oil operators, are new arrivals here to look over the oil field.

The Wichita Falls Oil and Gas Company encountered a rock formation within a few inches of the surface and have drilled forty-three feet in solid rock in their test on the Avis ranch, about nine miles east of town. They have been drilling several days, the rock in a few days and then expect to go down much faster.

Thomas Chestnutt has filed releases on the lands of W. P. Billingsley, J. B. Sisk, L. B. Duckett, C. W. Baldwin and other farms in the Allendale neighborhood. It is said that other parties are seeking to lease these lands and that a well will be sunk in that section.

W. G. Long, who has been taking leases in Throckmorton and Shackelford counties came in Friday night sick with the grip.

O'Byrne and Wilson brought in a well in Woodruff Heights addition to the town of Electra south of the graveyard there Saturday whose production is variously estimated from forty to six hundred barrels. Conservative opinion places the production at about 150 barrels. This well was brought in at 1064 feet and the drill was put down in fifteen feet of sand. This well opens up new territory for 1050 foot sand being the farthest south in which this sand has been found. The well was drilled on a subdivision laid out by W. G. Skelley and sold by Ed. H. List. Mr. O'Byrne bought some of the lots and contracted with Mr. Wilson to drill for a share in the production. If the well is one half as good as is now indicated Mr. O'Byrne and Mr. Wilson have made a big thing and the other purchasers of these tracts will be able to realize handsome profits.

Drilling was started on the Hill well, six miles north of Devo, Tuesday morning. This well is being sunk on the Cabelka farm, and Mr. Hill expects soon to start a second well between Grandfield and Devo. If there is any oil in the Big Pasture it will be located this summer, as it is indicated that a thorough test of the field is to be made.—Grandfield Enterprise.

What gives promise of being the richest shallow well oil strike yet made in Brownwood is in a well being sunk at Selvidge's laundry on the north side of town not far from the fall. Selvidge is not hunting oil, but is after water, although he has become much interested in the developments there. Oil of an extra good quality was found at a depth of eighteen feet, and the drill is now down some fifty feet and is in the same kind of oil bearing sand. The Bulletin has not learned how much oil has been found, no efforts having been made as yet to determine the quality of oil. The oil is what oil men call "live" oil, in that it is bright, bubbling and sparkling in contrast with the heavier and duller oil found elsewhere. It is a lighter green than most of the shallow oil wells in the Brownwood territory and is also thinner, and in the bottle it easily bubbles. Experts say that all these things indicate that the oil comes from close to the pool or body of oil, that it does not have to seep far but is "alive" and sparkling with the oil gasses when it comes from the ground. The fact that the oil bearing sand strata is so thick so close to the surface also indicates that there must be a large pool of extra fine oil somewhere close in that neighborhood, and it may be that Mr. Selvidge has his well right over it. The discovery has started oil talk of all kinds on the streets today, and is reviving interest in oil matters. The Bulletin, common with other Brownwood people, who have given some study to the question, and who have observed the oil discoveries made here, believes that there is a large and exceedingly rich oil field right here in Brownwood awaiting development.—Brownwood Bulletin.

News From Lawton.

Probably more interest centers on the well of the Comanche County Oil and Gas Company than does on some of the others, due to the fact that its promoters are principally Lawton men, and also to the fact that it is the first company to enter this field with a rotary drilling-outfit. While most people of this section of Oklahoma are familiar and have witnessed the standard drills in operation, a large per cent of the people have never had opportunity to see the rotary in action. While this machine is best adapted for what is known as soft digging—earth, shale, gravel, etc.—the local company is well satisfied up to date with the accounting the drill has given in what is known as the red rock, quite a strata of which has already been encountered.

The local company put on a night shift last evening and from this on will push the first well to rapid completion. The hole is now sunk to a depth of 200 feet and, at this point, the earth strata indicate that a deposit of gas or oil is in close proximity. In fact, members of the company confidently predict that "something" will be struck within the next few days.—Lawton Constitution.

Oil Traces in Three Wells.

For the third time within the past week, heavy oil-bearing sand has bobbed up in prospecting wells being sunk in Comanche county and, as a result, prospectors throughout the country are jubilant over the promise of discovering, within a few short weeks in months, one of the biggest producing oil pools in the whole southwest country.

Monday of this week, the Constitution reported the discovery of an oil pocket five miles east of the city which is flowing five barrels a day. It was the discovery of the Epstein Oil Company and came when the drills were at a depth of 122 feet.

Now comes simultaneous reports from two different sources of similar discoveries but at different depths.

The Comanche Oil and Gas Company, a local concern, reports the finding of an 8-inch oil-bearing stratum at a depth of 175 feet and, from Chattanooga, comes the additional report that drillers there struck a somewhat heavier stratum of oil sand at a depth of 1200 feet.

While none of the discoveries furnish oil in quantities sufficient to warrant its pumping, they give sufficient indication of oil in greater quantities at greater depths to encourage more hopeful effort and each one of the three companies has plunged on through the oil-bearing sand in the hope that real developments may come within the next few weeks.—Lawton Constitution.

MILLION DOLLARS FOR STOMACH

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Pooshen & Lynch Drug Store.

503 ORIGINAL DESIGN 503

Wichita Falls, Texas, January 26, 1912.

"The American Press," says Mr. Rockefeller, "could very much improve itself if it would deal more with loftier ideals." Perhaps that is true. It might also improve itself if it gave up less of its space to such fellows as Mr. Rockefeller.

"Is It Possible to Be a Saint on Earth?" was the recent subject upon which a New Jersey minister preached. Certainly, certainly. There are thousands of 'em." All you've got to do to be a saint is to quit sinning, and if we are to believe and accept as truth what we hear almost every day, one can barely travel more than a mile in any direction before he meets up with one of them. But our advice, all the same, nevertheless, and notwithstanding, is that if you want to get your ticket punched correctly for a trip through to the pearly gates and beyond, it is not to follow the example of these earthly saints. As a rule, they will bear watching.

The Wichita Falls Motor Co., booked an order last Saturday for 150 auto trucks, which is said to be the largest single order ever given to any auto truck factory. This would indicate, and in fact is the very best of evidence that the product of this new enterprise is already in demand. It also is evidence that it is producing a very superior article.

It does seem that the break Gov. Wilson has made with the two Colonels, or the break the two Colonels have made with Gov. Wilson is not having the right kind of effect that was intended by those who made it possible for the break to occur. Gov. Wilson so far has had little to say, and the more the two Colonels try to make-out of the incident the greater the Wilson boom for the Democratic presidential nomination grows. Indeed, it has reached that stage now when it not only looks as if Wilson will go into the Baltimore convention with a sufficient number of votes to give him the nomination on the first ballot, but that it will be made a unanimous affair, and that no other name will be presented. The next thing then to be done, is to elect him. The two Colonels may then get in their work, and doubtless will do their utmost to defeat the nominee. This is their record. In fact, few who have kept up with them have ever had any too much faith in their sincerity when they were supporting Wilson for the Democratic presidential nomination, and the withdrawal of their support was therefore not surprising or to be wondered at. It would be better that the Democrats should go down in defeat rather than gain a victory and be under obligations for that victory to an element of the party that, unless they can rule, will concoct and execute plans that they hope will result in defeat.

How men change. It has only been about two years since Col. Jake Wolters was opposing members of the legislature being bound by a majority of the votes of the people of the state and particularly of their respective districts on the submission question. Now he contends that if there are three or more candidates for an office, and that if not one of them succeeds in getting a majority of the votes of the people of the state, the members of the legislature should consider themselves bound to cast their votes for the man who gets the highest number of votes. Col. Jake is now a candidate for the U. S.

Senatorship, and is wise in his opposition to a double or eliminating primary—a primary that in the first election would eliminate from the race all but the two highest candidates and allow them to contest for the senatorship in the second primary, thereby making not only possible, but necessary for the candidate who secures the senatorial nomination to be the choice of a majority of all the people who participate in the primary election. In such a case he might win, of course, but he evidently does not believe in the plan strong enough to endorse it. Morris Shepperd, on the other hand, has endorsed the double or eliminating primary, which means that he is the kind of a man who does not want of office or honors unless he gets them by a majority vote of the people. In the humble judgment of this paper, that is the kind of a man the people should want to serve them. The mere fact that a candidate does not endorse a plan by which the will of the majority can be accurately determined is almost sufficient grounds of itself for opposition to such a holding public office.

MR. BULLOCK ASKS QUESTIONS.

Wichita Falls, Tex., Jan. 29, 1912. Mr. E. W. Napier, Electra, Texas.

Dear Sir:—As a prospective constituent of yours I would like to know your views on the following questions that will come before the next legislature; to which you are seeking election:

- 1st. Reform of judicial procedure so as to insure justice, avoid technicalities, and bring about a more speedy enforcement of laws.
- 2nd. Amendment of the election law so as to prevent the fraudulent payment of poll taxes, or illegal casting or counting of votes, and further protect the purity of the ballot box.
- 3rd. Resubmission of statewide prohibition to a vote of the people.
- 4th. Daylight closing of saloons and limiting sales of liquor to not less than a quart, and prohibiting drinking of same on premises where sold.
- 5th. Removing saloons from residence sections, and decreasing the number based on population.
- 6th. Limiting amount of money spent in campaign, requiring publicity of same before and after elections.
- 7th. Prohibiting saloons, breweries, or any selfish interests from contributing to campaign funds.
- 8th. Majority instead of plurality nominations for all offices in the primaries.
- 9th. A just employers' liability and compensation act; the appointment of a board of arbitration, and all just and reasonable laws for the protection of labor.
- 10th. More and larger experimental stations to advance the farming interests of the state.
- 11th. Will you vote for United States Senator for the candidate who carries your district in the primaries or for the one who receives the most votes in the state?

Believing the people of this district are entitled to know, at your earliest convenience, your position on all public questions, I am giving a copy of this letter to the press and ask that you make public your reply to same, and set forth your platform in its entirety. Very truly yours, W. J. BULLOCK.

JUDGE MARTIN'S CHARGE

(Continued from page 1) and manner of its use. The act must not result from a mere sudden, rash and immediate design, springing from an inconsiderate impulse, passion or excitement, however unjustifiable and unwarrantable it may be. XI. Now if you believe from the evidence before you, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant, Frank Hursh, did, as charged in the indictment, with express malice aforethought, with a deadly and deliberate mind and formed design to kill, did unlawfully shoot and thereby kill the said Alva Hursh, you will find him guilty of murder in the first degree and assess his punishment at death or confinement in the state penitentiary for life, as you may determine and state in your verdict. XII. The next lower grade of culpable homicide than murder in the first degree is murder in the second degree. Malice is also a necessary ingredient of the offense of murder in the second degree, the distinguishing feature, however, so far as the element of malice is concerned, is: That in murder in the first degree, malice must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt, as an existing fact, while in murder in the second degree, malice will be implied from the fact of an unlawful killing.

XIII. Implied malice is that which the law infers from or imputes to certain acts, however, suddenly done, thus when the fact of an unlawful killing is established, and the facts do not establish express malice beyond a reasonable doubt, nor tend to mitigate or excuse the act then the law implies malice and the murder is in the second degree; and the law does not further define murder in the second degree, than if the killing is shown to be unlawful, and there is nothing in evidence on the one hand showing express malice, and on the other hand there is nothing in evidence that will reduce the killing below the grade of murder, then the law implies malice, and the murder is murder in the second degree.

XIV. If you believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant, with a pistol, in a sudden transport of passion, with intent to kill, did shoot and thereby kill Alva Hursh, as charged in the indictment, you will find him guilty of murder in the second degree, and assess his punishment at confinement in the state penitentiary for any period that the jury may determine and state in their verdict, provided it be for not less than five years.

XV. If you find the defendant guilty of murder, but have a reasonable doubt as to whether the grade of murder is in the first or the second degree, you are charged to resolve said doubt in favor of the defendant and in such case your verdict should be for murder in the second degree.

XVI. No act done in a state of insanity can be punished as an offense. Every person charged with crime is presumed to be sane, that is, of sound memory and discretion, until the contrary is shown by proof. If under the law as herein given you in charge, and the testimony of the witnesses, the guilt of the defendant has been established beyond a reasonable doubt, it devolves upon the defendant to establish his insanity at the time of committing the act in order to excuse himself from legal responsibility; that is to say, the burden of proof to establish his plea of insanity devolves upon the defendant. If the state has as before explained, proved the facts which constitute the offense charged in the bill of indictment, your next inquiry will be, has the defendant established by proof his plea of insanity, or has it been established by proof from any source. If it has, the law excuses him from criminal liability, and you should acquit him. The question of the insanity of the defendant has exclusive reference to the act with which he is charged, and the time of the commission of the same. If he was sane at the time of the commission of the crime, he is amenable to the law. As to his mental condition at the time with reference to the crime charged, it is peculiarly a question of fact to be decided by you from all of the evidence in the case, before the act, at the time, and after.

A sane and reasonable test, in all cases—would be, that whenever it should appear from all of the evidence that at the time of doing the act, the defendant was not of sound mind, but was affected with insanity and such affection was the efficient cause of the act, and that he would not have permitted the act but for that affection, he ought to be acquitted. For in such a case, the reason would be at the time dethroned and the power to exercise judgment would be wanting. But this unsoundness of the mind or affection of insanity must be of such a degree, as to create an uncontrollable impulse to do the act charged, by overriding the reason and judgment and obliterating the sense of right and wrong, depriving the accused of the power of choosing between right and wrong as to the particular act done.

XVII. Whether the insanity be general or partial, whether continuous or periodical, the degree of it must have been sufficiently great to have controlled the will of the accused and to have taken from him the freedom of moral action at the time of the commission of the act. Where reason ceases to have dominion over the mind proven to be diseased, it then reaches a degree of insanity where criminal responsibility ceases and accountability to the law for the purpose of punishment, no longer exists. Whether that degree of insanity existed in the defendant at the time of the killing of Alva Hursh, is the important question on this issue. If it is true that the defendant took her life and at the time his mental faculties were beyond his control, or if some controlling mental or physical disease was in truth the acting power within him which he could not resist, and he was impelled without intent, reason or purpose, he would not be accountable to the law. If, on the other hand, his mind was sufficiently sound to be capable of reasoning and knowing—the act he was committing to be unlawful and wrong, and knowing the consequences of the act, and had the mental power to resist and refrain from its commission, his plea of insanity would not avail him as a defense.

It is an essential ingredient of the crime of murder that the person to be guilty of that crime must be one of "sound memory and discretion"—the meaning of which is that he must have capacity and reason sufficient to enable him to distinguish between right and wrong as to the particular act that he is then doing. Although a man may be laboring under partial insanity, if he still understands the nature and character of his acts, and its consequence; if he has a knowledge that it is wrong and criminal and mind sufficient to apply that knowledge to his own case, and to know that if he does the act he will do wrong and receive punishment, such partial insanity is not sufficient to exempt him from responsibility. JUDGE MARTIN'S CHARGE responsibility for his criminal act. But if the mind was in a diseased and unreasoning state, such a degree that for the time being it overweighs the reason, conscience and judgment, and the defendant in committing the crime acted from an irresistible and uncontrollable impulse, then it would be the act of the body, without the concurrence of the mind. In such case there would be wanting the necessary ingredient of every crime, to-wit: The intent and purpose to commit it.

XVIII. It is not necessary that the insanity of the defendant should be established beyond a reasonable doubt; it is sufficient if it be established to your satisfaction by the weight or preponderance of evidence, that is, such and so much proof as reasonably satisfies you of the existence of insanity at the time the act was committed. To ascertain the condition of the defendant's mind at the time of the killing, you should look to its condition before that time; his conduct, acts, and all other surroundings; ascertain, if possible, whether his mental condition was such as to enable him to know he was doing a wrongful and unlawful act. Look to his acts, conduct and movements before and on the occasion of the crime, his conduct, acts and movements after the crime, and all other facts in the case, to reach a correct conclusion as to whether the defendant was of sound mind or not.

You are further charged in this connection, however, that neither intoxication nor temporary insanity of mind produced by the voluntary use of ardent spirits constitute in this state any excuse for the commission of crime, nor does intoxication mitigate either the degree or penalty of crime, but evidence of temporary insanity produced by such recent use of ardent spirits, should be considered in mitigation of the penalty attached to the offense for which the defendant is on trial. However, to be considered at all, the use of ardent spirits must have been in the nature of a temporary insanity, which is that degree of insanity that deprives the person of the capacity and power to distinguish between right and wrong as to the particular act charged against him. In other words, temporary insanity caused by drunkenness, in that condition of the mind directly produced by the use of ardent spirits, and where the state of intoxication reaches such a degree as that the person becomes incapable of knowing that the acts that he is doing are wrong and criminal. Where such is the case, he is in condition of temporary insanity within the meaning of this charge.

Now, if you believe from the evidence in this case, that the defendant, at the time of the commission of the offense for which he is on trial, if you find him guilty of such offense, was laboring under temporary insanity as above defined, produced by the voluntary use of ardent spirits, you will take such temporary insanity into consideration only in mitigation of the penalty which you will attach to his offense, or in determining the degree of murder of which you may find him guilty.

In case the jury finds from the evidence that the defendant committed the act with which he is charged, but that at the time of the commission of the act he was in such a condition of mental insanity as above defined and that such condition was not the result of the recent voluntary use of ardent spirits, you will say by your verdict: "We, the jury, acquit the defendant on the ground of insanity."

XIX. Evidence has been introduced before you showing that in Sept. 1909, the defendant was found to be insane by a jury in the county court of Wichita County, Texas, and with reference to this judgment you are charged that said judgment may be considered by you as one of the circumstances in the case only; it is not conclusive as to his condition at any time after it was rendered, but any effect it raised a presumption of his insanity, which may or may not be overcome by other evidence in the case; the vital inquiry upon this question being the condition of defendant's mind at the very time of the killing.

XX. Evidence has been introduced before you showing that a short time after the homicide the defendant was tried by a jury in the county court of Wichita county upon a charge of lunacy and that he was found to be sane by such jury and by the judgment of the county court. You are instructed that you cannot consider such evidence of such judgment, or any purpose in this case except upon the issue of present sanity or insanity of the defendant, and then only as a fact taken in connection with all the other facts proven upon this issue. Such judgment pronounced upon this issue, raises the presumption that he is sane, but such presumption is not a conclusive one, and the question of his present sanity or insanity is for the determination of the jury from all the facts proven.

XXI. There is evidence in the record tending to show that at the present time the defendant is insane, and upon this subject you are charged by the court as follows:

If you should find and believe that the defendant is insane at the time of this trial, then you may consider such insanity as a circumstance to be taken in connection with all the other facts in the case in determining whether or not the defendant was in fact insane at the time of the killing. But his present insanity, if he be insane at this time, would be no defense in itself, unless you believe from the evidence before you that he was insane, as that term has been explained to you at the time of the killing.

XXII. If you should acquit the defendant upon his plea of insanity, you will return your verdict as directed heretofore in this charge, but if you should, under the facts before you and under the law as given you in this charge, find the defendant guilty of murder either in the first or second degree, you are then instructed to find in a separate verdict whether from all of the evidence in the case you find the defendant to be sane or insane at the time of this trial.

XXIII. The defendant had a right to be introduced as a witness before you, but his failure to testify as a witness should not be taken as a circumstance against him, and in your deliberations you must not refer to, comment upon or consider such failure to testify, or consider the same as a circumstance against him, and you must not refer to, comment upon or consider any other fact or circumstance not introduced in evidence before you.

XXIV. The defendant is presumed by law to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt of his guilt, you should therefore find him guilty only if you believe from the evidence in this case, that the defendant, at the time of the commission of the offense for which he is on trial, if you find him guilty of such offense, was laboring under temporary insanity as above defined, produced by the voluntary use of ardent spirits, you will take such temporary insanity into consideration only in mitigation of the penalty which you will attach to his offense, or in determining the degree of murder of which you may find him guilty.

P. H. PENNINGTON
OFF FOR THE EAST.

P. H. Pennington, the dry goods man, left today at noon for St. Louis, Chicago and New York, the three big dry goods markets, where he expects to spend the next thirty days in selecting his stock for the spring and summer trade.

Before leaving Mr. Pennington said it was his intention to put in the largest stock of ladies ready-to-wear garments ever opened in Wichita Falls. This does not mean that he will not buy largely in other lines, as he expects a larger trade for his store during the year 1912 than ever before, and of course that means that he will be compelled to buy larger in order to meet the increasing trade of his popular store.

If You Called Your Grocer

and asked him to send up some bacon, eggs and cheese and he took the liberty to send beef steak, oysters and macaroni, you would brush up your temper and let him hear from you, but if your druggist substitutes in your prescription to make more money out of you, you don't know it. The grocer's substitution would not hurt you but prescription substitution is a serious matter. If we can't fill them like the doctor ordered we will hand them back to you.

GASPED FOR BREATH.

Gastritis Nearly Ended Life of Wm. V. Mathews. Read His Letter.

"I was bothered for years with stomach trouble and gastritis. Food laid like lead in my stomach and fermented, forming gas. This caused a pressure on my heart, so that I choked and gasped for breath, and thought my time had come. MIONA cured me after I had doctored without success."—Wm. V. Mathews, Bloomington, Ind.

If you suffer from indigestion, headaches, dizziness, biliousness, constipation, inactive liver, nervousness, sleeplessness, bad dreams, foul breath, heartburn, shortness of breath, sour stomach or dependancy, be sure and get MIONA stomach tablets. They are guaranteed. Large box 50 cents at Fooseh & Lynch and druggists everywhere.
