On cross examination Mr. Hawkins stated that he arrested Parker; that he met him on the sidewalk in front of the Haynes home, and took him to tended to install a separate meter so the county jail and locked him up, after which he again returned to the Haynes' home and was present when the deceased made a statement on REV, CAHLL DIES Haynes that he was badly hurt, and that if he had any statement to make o do so now, or before they removed him to the sanitarium. He also stated that Parker did not give him any trou ble: in fact, was looking for an officer to surrender when he met him on the sidewalk. Said Haynes was a very large man, weighing perhaps 225 or 230 pounds.

F. J. Seeley, another State witness after telling his name, where or what part of the city he resided, stated that he heard the screams of a woman, or of women, which attracted his attention, and that within two or three minites he was on the scene; found sev eral others there; that he telephoned for a doctor or doctors, and that Dr. Walker was the first to respond to the call; was present when Haynes, at the suggestion of Dr. Walker, made a statement as to how the trouble occurred, which corroborated the testimony on that point as given by Deputy Sheriff Hawkins; sald that Dr. Walker had requested him to hear Haynes' statement; said Haynes appeared to be suffering greatly at the time he made the statement.

On cross examination and in reply to a question asked by Attorney L. H. Mathis for the defendant, the witness testified that Mr. Haynes did not make any statement to the effect that he had told his wife to go back into the house; that he would settle the matter. Said he was not in the room when County Attorney Dan Boone was getting a statement from Haynes, and did not know what deceased had told Boone. Said he saw Mr. Boone in the Haynes home.

At the conclusion of the examination of Mr. Seeley, court took a recess until 1:30.

Denver Trains Snow Bound North of Childress-Passengers Sheltered in Depot.

Another good rain, aggregating learly half an inch fell over the Wichita country Sunday morning, extending into Southwestern Oklahoma, and the Panhandle.

Following the rain a fierce gale swept the entire section, which kept up until a late hour Sunday night. During this gale a plate glass window in the Searchlight office on Seventh street, and another in the Wichita State Bank was blown in, and a number of signs and wires were torn down Reports from the railroad offices indicate that some damage was done many other cities, although no mater ial property loss is reported. The bad weather is again causing delay on the new work of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern road in Oklahoma.

All train service since through pas also decided to change the name of senger train number two Saturday afternoon has been suspended on the Ft Worth and Denver railroad North of Childress, on account of the depth of the snow in the Panhandle. Snow began falling late Saturday night, and continued until after traffic was completely blocked, and the ground was covered to a depth of several feet. It is reported that cattle are suffering severely, and that unless a thaw comes soon, losses will be heavy.

Passenger train number one which left here Sunday afternoon about two o'clock, upon arriving in Childress last night was turned around and started back South, as passenger-train number eight, arriving here at 3:15 o'clock this morning. Passengers on the Fort Worth and Denver trains which reached Childress and were unable to proceed on North, were housed in the depot there last night, and will be cared for at the expense of the company until trains can be operated.

At the meeting Sunday, it was decided to take up in connection with the study of the Bible, anything that will uplift and make better citizens of the boys of this city. In this connection, J. C. Hunt and C. W. Beavers were appointed a committee of two to confer with District Judge P. A. The jury reported to Judge Swayne vesterday morning that they were unable to agree.

The first inkling of an impending eport yesterday morning came shortly after 9 o'clock, when telephone messages summoning Judge Swayne, John Beal Sneed, the defendant, and attorneys for both sides, were rumor-

The rumor spread quickly, and by 10 o'clock a small crowd about the door of the court room, within which they were not allowed, was beginning to be swelled.

At 11:19 o'clock John B. Sneed entered the court room through the district clerk's office. As he entered the outside door he was knocking the ashes from his pipe, which by now has become famous, and when he stepped into the court room he was taking off his hat with one hand while the other was thrust into his trousers' pocket. He seemed serene-almost happy, and it would have been hard for one who did not know him to pick out from the little group of people of which he was a member, the man who was expecting within a few minutes to hear a jury's decision on the question of whether or not he was a criminal.

When he entered the room he was preceded by several relatives, among them his father, and followed A. Pace, sisters of his wife.

His oldest daughter, Leonra, reached the court house some time before her father did, and waited for a long time in the office of District Judge Swayne. She entered the court room about ten minutes before her father

When the jury was seated, Judge Swayne asked:

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you arrived at a verdict?" W. C. Strong, foreman, arose and answered:

"We have not"

The foreman then handed to Deputy Sheriff B. T. Johnson a message which Johnson carried to the bench, This message was as follows: To the Honorable James W

Swayne, Judge: The diversity of opinion entertained by the jurors in this case is such that a further consideration of it cannot result in any change in the mind of a single juror. The division amongst us is so great that a verdict can never be reached. To send us back for further deliberation upon the case in the hone that we might reach a verdict, would be a useless waste of time. We can never agree, and ask that your honor discharge us.

Judge Swayne, after showing the communication to attorneys for both sides, read it aloud, and then denied their request.

SEAT INDIAN DELEGATES

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.—A viscotton gin at San Benito. This is ion of big Indian chiefs, in paint and feathers, sitting in the House of Representatives, is seen by some of the silk-tiled and frock-coated Beau Brummels of Congress in a petition now in the hands of President Taft.

The Brotherhood of North American Indians, organized here last December, is demanding of the Great White Father that he urge Congress to seat Indian delegates, of full blood to manage affairs affecting the thousands of Indians in the country.

Senator Curtis (Representative of Kansas), has introduced a bill in the Senate to incorporate the Brotherhood and has announced the federal or ganization asked by the Indians will be pressed vigorously. Forty redskin chieftains, presenting 40,000 Indians, met here December 6 to form the Brotherhood-representatives of every large tribe from the wigwams of New York state to the mountain camps of the Pacific northwest.

Here are the demands of the Brotherhood, before Congress and the President

1. The right to have Indian dele gates on the floor of Congress, of Indian blood, and to be chosen exclusively by recognized Indian tribal vote, one delegate for each 60,000 Indian population, with the same powers and compensation as delegates from the present territories.

2. The right to ratify or reject by vote of the tribe or tribes affected. after sixty days' notice, any legislation by Congress affecting or relat ing to the sale, allotment or other disposition of ndian land, in all cases where there has not been an agreement with the Indians scantioning the lands' disposition. 3. Liberal appropriations for the Indian service.

4. An advisory board of Indians for each Indian school or agency, con-sisting of three or more members, to be chosen by Indian tribes whose judgment shall have equal weight with the recommendations of the sup erintendent or agent in all matters af fecting the tribes.

5. Greater industrial assistance and development in Indian agricultur al communities.

6. Greater co-operation between the federal government and state governments in all matters of education of Indian vonths, with opportunity to attend state public schools. whenever these are preferred by the Indians.

Dallas to vote on the issuance of Indian office in allowing the Indians

The right of petition and assembly without restriction or restraint, and the right to come and ko without the premission of any superintendent or agent.

9. Qualifications being equal. Indians by blood be given preference in the Indian service as superintendents and employes.

10. Protection, as persons, under the Constitution, for all Indians, whether as tribes or individuals, of life, liberty and property, and the right to enforce such protection in

The Brotherhood backs up its requests with the covert statement that it represents 50,000 Indian votes. It also pointed out in the Indians' petition that the total value of all Indian property is $1,001,182,000. This sum includes, tribal lands and funds of $291,022,000; individual lands and Dallas refinery, connecting with a property of $387,542,000; a governfuel oil station to be constructed on ment plant worth $22,018,000 and property of 40,000 Indians not undrer

GOOD PROGRESS

Dr. Everett Jones was the first wit ness to take the stand at the after noon session of the court. He testied that he was called to the Haynes' home on the night of the tragedy and found Mr. Haynes lying on a bed when he got there; said he located three distinct wounds on the body two in the left side just above the hip joint, and one in the center of the body, near the lower part of the breast bone. (Here the doctor made use of technical terms to describe the location of the wounds on the body). The wound in the center was the one that caused death. The two wounds in the left side were flesh wounds, neither penetrating the abdominal cavity. The bullet which made the wound in the center had struck the lower part of the breast bone, deflected and penetrated the right lung, which caused a hemor rhage from which Haynes died. Said that he found blood in Haynes' nose and on his upper lip and that this bleeding of the nose was not caused from the bullet wounds in the body; that the blood from the nose could have been caused by a blow on that organ; that he noticed no other wounds or bruises on Haynes; that Haynes clothes and his body were powder burned, and his clothes showed signs of having been on fire. The flesh was severely powder-burn-

On cross examination Dr. Jones testified that the wound that caused leath seemed to have gone straight in, and instead of going into the stomach as would have been natural. t struck the lower part of the breast one, deflecting its course and pene trated the right lung. The blood in the nose was not caused from the bullet wounds.

Mrs. Mabel Reed, a domestic in he Parker home at the time of the ragedy, said on the night of Feb. 14. it the supper table she had heard Mr. Parker say that he had talked to Mrs. Haynes roughly-rougher than he had ever talked to a lady before ind was sorry that he had done so but said that Mrs. Haynes had talked to him in such a way as to cause him to lose his temper. That he had told her (referring to the fact that the water had been cut off from the Parker home), that it was a dfirty trick to play on a man while he was away from home. The water. she said, had been cut off on Saturlay. Parker came in from his run Sunday night and on Sunday morning the water was turned on again.

On cross examination the witness testified that she had been in the Parker home since the early part of January, or about the time a baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Parker. While the water was cut off I got wa-1,178,432 barrels. Petrolia's 1911 pro ter for the Parker home from Mrs.

T. R. T. Orth, superintendent of the water and light plant, testified that Parker had came to his office on Sunday morning and told him that be had turned on the water; that he had paid his water and house rent to Feb. 23, but that the water had been cut off while he was away. The witness said that Mr. Haynes had been paying two minimum water rentals for the two houses, his own and he one in which Parker resided, which is next door, and the separate connection was made at my sugges

Cross examination-the water com pany had no account against Parker. Said that when he inqured of Haynes where or how the Parker house was to be supplied with water, that Haynes said that Parker could pay his own d-n water bill for awhile.

The State rested here, and the de fense introduced as its first witness, Howard Hinds, who testified that he had known Parker, the defendant for four or five years: that he and Parker were first cousins, and that Parker's reputation as a peace able, law-abjding citizen was good. That he had not known defendant as a boy. That defendant was a rakeman and conductor on the Fort Worth & Denver, and that he was narried and had a wife and haby. be forfeited in case they did not play. J. W. RAINS WORTH A CENT A SQUARE FOOT

It has been estimated by E. F. Mittman, the United States Weather Bureau Observation man for this section, that rainfall amounting to a cash value of one cent per square foot of soil has fallen in this county since the 12th day of this month, making a total worth thousands of dollars to the people of this section and almost insuring that better crops than for the last three years will be raised here this year.

During the month of January, according to the rain guage furnished to Mr. Mittman by the government only five one-hundredths of an inch of rain fell in this county, and during the time from the first of February until the 12th of February, no rain at all fell. However, from the 12th of February until the present time, two and thirty one-hundredths inches has been the total precipita-

A man giving his name as B. M Woodruff came to this city on or about February 6th, and was married to Miss Della Bell Denson, daughter o a photographer.

He had told his bride after the wedding that he was wealthy and had a nice home in Mississippi, to which he intended to take her; also that he had a bank account of something like This was more than the bride had expected, and she began to make prep arations to go with her husband to Minneapolis, but was shocked and surprised this morning to learn that he had deserted her, leaving without telling her where he was going.

Before leaving, however, he gave parties in this city checks on banks in which he had no funds, and they were returned unpaid. The matter was reported to the of ficers by the father of the bride of less than one month, and they are making efforts to locate Woodruff by tele graph and have him apprehended and cought back to this city on the harge of deserting his wife. Mr. Denson says that that is the charge he will make against Woodruff, and it is possible that other charges will be us lose the good we oft might win by preferred against him by the parties who are holding the worthless checks.

Oil Field Operations

ing now seems to be that Electra will makes it appear that there may be be a larger field than the dopesters even better territory immediately have heretofore figured out. A month ago attention was directed to the development toward the southeast and it was confidently predicted that the next important extension would be in that direction. Neither the Reed well on the Jennings nor the Fisher well was then down to the first sands. Everybody was exptectant and looking for something to hapen in the Jennings well in particular so the news that a good showing had been effect of causing the leasers to cast their eyes to the southeast for available territory. This little excitement proved to be short-lived, as a thorough test demonstrated that there was not enough oil in the sand to is shut down at about 1120 feet and will probably be deepened. The Fisher test now looks like salt water well at about 1140 feet. They have had one or two light showings but nothing worthy of being the field. tested. At the present wriing both these wells have been a disappointment although there is yet a chance for them to redeem themseves in deeper sands.

Litigation has successfully prevented anything being done on the Bell & Benson lease. This well came in with good prospects, but soon dwindled down to a small pumper from a sand at 970 feet. The Corsicana Petroleum Company, just north across the line, had a light pumper in the same sand, which was deepened to 1075 feet, developing a 20-foot sand, good for at least a 50-barrel

Several wells in this immediate locality are getting pretty deep and are looking none too good. The Beer baum well east of the Benson well is over 2100 feet deep, as is also the Petroleum Company's Woodruff No. 2, block 223. Offsetting the Woodruff well, the Culberson well is 1960 feet and shut down.

The Ninety-Nine Pumping Company No. 1 Dale is testing at 1950 feet, in a sand which now looks good for a fair pumper. The hole shows salt water, and having gone deeper before catching a pay sand, it can not be expected to make much of a well. The Corsicana No. 1 Woodruff, block 223, is over 1200 feet and has missed the 1000 foot sand, as has also No. 5, on the Producers-Wood lease. Going north another location on this lease, the 1000 foot sand picks up and the wells are all good pro-Producers Oil Co. Gets Wells On the Bickley and McBurney One very important well recently brought in was Producers No. 1 Bick ey, about three-quarters of a mile due north of the Corsicana Petroleum Company's Honaker well. The depth is thought to be considerably less than 1000 feet-probably it is in the 800 foot sand in-which light wells have been finished on the Sheldon land one mile west. The Bickley well is good for about 60 barrelsnot a heavy well, but it serves to prove up the Corsicana Allen lease and adds a large body of apparently good undrilled land to the field.

Going west from this point across the north side of production, the next point of interest is the McBride well, about which rumors have been circulating for the past three weeks. A good showing was gotten at 1720 feet. which was tested out and found good for only about 10 barrels. The hole was deepened to 1735 feet, and the report is that it has just made several good flows. The showing justifies the estimate that it will make a 100 barrel well.

Continuing west to the northwest corner of the Cross & Brown lease, in the southeast corner of the Mc-

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.-In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well..... 250 barrels. passed through at 912 feet had the Oil is at Shallower Depth to the North

The points of interest brought out in recent developments are that toward the north the sand gets much shallower, or, at least, the oil is found at a shallower depth. This make even a light pumper. The well sand may or may not be the 1000 foot sand of the leases farther south. Apparently it is a different sand. This would be the natural supposition, taking into consideration the broken character of the sands elsewhere in

The old firmly established dope of the field having a northwest and southeast trend still prevails, but at present, instead of extending toward the southeast, it appears to be going in the other direction. It can not go more than a mile in this direction without striking the Sol Williams and Mathews wells, the former being over 1700 feet deep, the latter about 1000, and both dry.

Sixteen New Producing Wells. Sixteen producing wells were comoleted at Electra, Texas, in the perod from January 15 to February 12, their combined initial output being estimated at 2570 barrels. The list follows:

Electra is laid to within sight of prising if that road should be looking with longing eyes at the freight on which the Denver line now has a monopoly Since taking over the Powers land, the Producers Oil Company has made in the midst of the Corsicana Petroleum Company holdings. It is quite evident from this that the Producers Company intends to get its share of the oil.

The Five Rivers Oil Company of Birmingham, Ala., has acquired some holdings in Woodruff Heights, and has let contract and has rig up ready to drill north of Wilson's well. The business of the company is handled by W. W. Silk, who has recently moved his family to Wichita Falls and will make that city headquarters. The Magnolia Petroleum Company on February 1 advanced the price of Electra oil 5 cents a barrel making it 60 cents. Petrolia oil and Corsicana light crude were also advanced 5 cents to the same figure, 60 cents, by the Magnolia Company on Febru-No. 1 Sheldon, block 221, testing at ary 1. No other company posts a price on either Electra, Petrolia or Corsicana oil.

The net production of the field on February 20 was divided about as follows: Producers Oil Company (including Wood lease), 3450 barrels; Corsicana Petroleum Company (including Red River Company), 6200 barrels; others (Benson, Wilson & Palmer Oil Company), 60 barrels; total, 9710 bar-

Before the sale of the Wood lease to the Producers Oil Company this production was run by the Pierce Fordyce Oil Association, but with the taking over of this property, the Producers took over the runs also, and the Pierce-Fordyce is handling no oil whatever from the field. The Texas Company is not shipping much oil, so the bulk of production is being run into storage by the Magnolia Petroleum Company. The steel storage of the field is being rapidly added to, chiefly by the Magnolia Company. On its Eckelkampf farm, there are fourteen 37,500 barrel tanks completed and one building. On its R. H. Cook land, block 17, there are seven 55,000 barrel tanks completed. one ready for the roof and the teams are grading for the foundation of still another. The Pierce-Fordyce Oil Association has two 55,000 barrel tanks completed southeast of Electra on the Jennings land, and the Texas Company has four 37,500 barrel tanks just west of town into which they are now running oil. With the one 37,500 barrel tank on the Red River lease, this completes the storage as it stands today.

Some Reasons Why the People of Wichita Falls, and Wichita County, Should Insure With the Wichita Southern Life Insurance Company

1st. It is safe, because it puts up the same percentage of reserve that all old line companies put up, and therefore, affords the same protection.

2nd. The laws of Texas make it impossible for a policy-holder to lose one cent in an old line life insurance company. 3rd. Our assets are all new and up to the highest standard; no worthless paper has accumulated, as could be the case with older companies. 4th. Our risks are all up to the highest standard, having recently passed a very careful examination. Our death rate will naturally be very low for a number of years. Have not had a single death since organization. 5th. Our Capital and Surplus is greater in proportion to business in force than nine tenths of the companies doing business in Texas or elsewhere; greater even than some of the largest companies in the world. 6th. There are approximately one hundred good citizens of this county interested in the Wichita Southern Life Insurance Company as Stockholders, many of whom are customers of yours

7th. Your money remains at home; is loaned and invested in this territory, and in the ordinary channels of trade, drifts back

8th. The Officers and Directors of the Wichita Southern Life Insurance Company, are men whom you know to possess honor, integrity and business ability. These men would not permit your dependent ones to suffer the loss of your insurance, even were it possible under the State laws.

9th. The Wichita Southern Life Insurance Company has on deposit with the State Treasurer of this State, gilt edge securities amounting to $120,000.00 for the protection of policy 10th. Our policles are as good as the best.

OBSERVATIONS.

If you are unpopular do not worry about it. The fools pester a popular man pretty nearly to death. After looking the men over carefully, the surprising thing to us is that women are ever jealous. New York has a population of nearly five millions, several thousand of whom were born in this country.

The women are all right, God bless em, but we have noticed very few landlords want them for roomers.

Women like to display their authority so well that we have always regretted they cannot be policemen.

The Main Thing. SMe was a maid the men all wooed, Each wished her for his own, And why, the other maidens sneered, A mystery was alone. She was cross-eyed, had brick-red hair, Her form no grace betrayed;

Her taste in dress was something fierce, But, oh, the pies she made! She couldn't for the life of her Talk in a lively strain, Nor had the power for one short hour Her guests to entertain. She nothing knew of world events,

Of books would no thought take, The theater got on her nerves— But she could broil a steak! She had no personality Of a magnetic kind:

No deep affections, mind devout, No charm did any find Which could make men thus mad for her, And yet the prize she took From girls with beauty, brains and style— She was a splendid cook!

The Rarest Time. again, Though the first be best; Second childhood comes to men, Though 'tis robbed of sest. Opportunity comes back, Only changing guise: Through the centuries return Comets in the skies.

History repeats itself. Rings again its chime; But the fairles only come Once upon a time.

-McLandburgh Wilson The Sting of Memory. If I had only thought when last we met In life we two might never meet again, would not new be suffering regret

That fills my heart and soul with bitter pain; For I had paused ere I had given voice To cruel words that ctu you to the heart, And with the gladsome thought would now rejoice.

In friendship not in anger did we part!

Endeavor not to laugh when you are drinking. Tea stains are not easily removed.

Make as little noise as possible while eating. It is inconsiderate to drown the conversation.

Never say, "What's this?" when you know perfectly well what it is. If you don't like it, give it to the cows.

Jam should never be spread with the fingers. It makes a bad impression when you shake hands with any one. Never speak when your mouth is

There has been a small demand for KRAUT this season. We have quite a fot of Five Gallon Kegs of Dry Packed Kraut. This is the kind (the best) that we have always sold for $2.25 per keg. Pure white, long cut, dry pack. We don't want to lose this and so not withstanding the fact that both cabbage and kraut have ad-

This is not a case of selling at cost, it's a case of getting what we can. Our loss your gain.
