SEC. STIMSON DEFENDS TAFT

PRESIDENT IN CARRYING OUT PLEDGES NOT DOMINATED ATTENTION WITH DRAMATIC DISPLAY

HIS SELF ABNEGATION

In His Work He Has Left Out All Thought of His Own Aggrandizement

Why Secretary Stimson is For Taft.

Secretary of War Stimson in announcing his decision as between Taft and Roosevelt, said:

"I am for the re-nomination of President Taft.

"I am now and always have been a Progressive.

"Mr. Taft has faithfully carried out the progressive faith.

"I entered public life under the inspiration of Theodore Roosevelt.

"I am a firm believer in his great national policies.

"I now remain his sincere friend.

"But I believe those who are forcing him against his original intention, into the arena against Mr. Taft are jeopardizing instead of helping real progress.

"Mr. Taft has faithfully carried out his pledges of four years ago.

"Mr. Taft has been most falsely vilified and abused.

"The recall of judges would bring the courts down into the welter of politics."

Chicago, Ill., March 6.—Henry J. Stimson of New York, Secretary of War, and the Roosevelt-candidate for Governor of New York in 1910 last night declared himself for President Taft, and said that while he remained the "sincere friend" of Mr. Roosevelt, he could not support him for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Stimson entered President Taft's cabinet last year, after consultation with Mr. Roosevelt and with the distinct understanding that he would be bound in no way to take part in the political activities of the administration. In a speech before the Taft club of Illinois, last night he declared his belief that President-Taft's administration represented the highest expression of progressive Republican policy.

"I am here tonight to speak for the re-nomination of President Taft," said Mr. Stimson. "I am now and always have been a progressive.

"I am for Mr. Taft because I believe he has faithfully carried out the progressive faith of the Republican party; that his administration stands for orderly, permanent progress in our national government; and that to refuse him the nomination or the assertions that have been made against him, would be a blow to that progress and would put a premium upon hasty and unfounded criticism.

"I entered into public life under the inspiration of Theodore Roosevelt. I am a firm believer in the great national policies for which he has fought, and I now remain his sincere friend. But I believe that those who are forcing him, contrary to his original intention, into the arena against Mr. Taft, are jeopardizing instead of helping the real cause of progress in the nation.

"The introduction of such a contest at this time, dragging in, as it necessarily will, new and personal issues which are quite foreign to the great progressive policies for which the Republican party stands, can not fail to weaken which ever candidate is eventually nominated in June if, as a result, that candidate is defeated in November, the government may be thrown into the hands of a truly reactionary party for years to come."

Mr. Stimson said that President Taft had devoted himself unceasingly to the carrying out of constructive work along progressive lines. The administration was begun, he said upon a plan that had the "thorough approval and deliberate endorsement" of Mr. Roosevelt, and to that plan President Taft had adhered rigidly.

"Is it fair now to criticize him," asked Mr. Stimson, "because, in faithfully carrying out this pledge of four years ago, in performing this vitally useful though inconspicuous work, he has not dominated the public attention with dramatic display?"

President Taft pledged himself said Mr. Stimson, to a "progressive development" of the work that President Roosevelt had inaugurated, and the "completion and perfection of the machinery by which the moral standards set by President Roosevelt may be maintained."

"To this work Mr. Taft has devoted himself," said Mr. Stimson, "He thus deliberately renounced more striking methods of reform, and set himself to the unobtrusive and inconspicuous public service which leaves but all thought of a man's own aggrandizement.

"He has repeatedly, for example, urged upon Congress to place upon the classified civil service virtually all of the presidential offices; a measure which would at one blow strike out most of the enormous political power of the president.

"The results of this deliberate self-abnegation are shown in the great legislative and constructive accomplishments of his term. Mr. Taft's standards of administration, like those of Mr. Roosevelt, have been constantly toward purity and elevation in our public service and our public life.

"With great patience, with unswerving courage, with absolute disinterestedness, in these excitable times when men's minds are full of a readiness for criticism and a desire for experiment, he has carried on the burden of administration and has carried it forward. It will be a reflecting upon our own power of fair-minded and candid judgment if we do not recognize the merit as well as the difficulty of that achievement now."

Reform methods of government advocated by many of the progressives, and in part by Mr. Roosevelt, were severely criticized by Mr. Stimson. He denounced the recall of judges as destined to bring the courts "down into the welter of politics," and said that it was no test of a Republican's progressiveness to require his support to systems that had been successful in certain states.

"It is mere narrowness and intolerance to insist upon a remedy which has proved effective in one place, as the necessary test of sincere and intelligent reform in another," he said.

"It is even more erroneous to make fidelity to one of these schemes of local government in one of the commonwealths a test for what is proper and appropriate in the government of the nation at large."

Mr. Stimson said that the referendum had apparently worked well in Oregon, but that in a 50-year's trial in New York, as applied to constitutional questions, it had been a failure.

"Should the national republican who lives in New York be read out of this party," he asked, "because he declines to accept the referendum as the best remedy to cure the abuses of popular government in his own state?"

"It only confuses and distracts to drag into a national campaign the prejudices and shibboleths which have arisen in the contests of the different states. Mr. Taft's administration must be judged by the attitude with which he has approached and the success he has attained in dealing with these national problems and not according to the views which any of us may hold upon these local questions of state machinery."

The secretary of war drew attention to the investigations that have been made under President Taft, into problems that had been the subject of serious controversy for years. The work of the tariff board, the Hadley railway securities commission, and the Hughes commission on second class mail matter, were typical, he said, of the methods sought by Mr. Taft to ascertain facts.

"I doubt if there has ever been an administration where so many vital questions of progress were under careful, scientific investigation and scrutiny by commissions of competent experts," he said.

"There is nothing dramatic about a method; but a reform accomplished in the light of such carefully accredited facts is more likely to be permanent. This is the very essence of Mr. Taft's method as a reformer."

"President Taft has been 'most falsely vilified and abused' in connection with the tariff, said Mr. Stimson, and has, in fact, taken the Republican party out of the grasp of the special interests benefited by the tariff and has made a part of the republican progressive policy—the downward revision of the tariff law schedule by schedule.

"Is not this a tremendous achievement in the direction of national progress," asked Mr. Stimson, "to completely rescue his party from the methods and influences which, if uncontrolled would inevitably turn it into a party of special interests and reaction? Is he not right in standing to the uttermost, even to the exercise of all of the executive powers of veto against the old privilege-breeding methods of tariff revision employed by the Democratic House of Representatives? Is he not right in insisting, even against popular clamor that we shall make a clean break with the past and that no tariff revision shall take place except upon these conditions and after a scientific study by a non-partisan board of experts."

Secretary Stimson reviewed the administration and its achievements. He said that the president had outlined the system of trust reform which if adopted would put the country in a fair way of solving our trust problem and solving it right, that in the corporation tax the president had "turned the flank of one of the most stubborn fortresses of reaction." His interest in human welfare was evidenced by his devotion to the progress of the Philippines, said Mr. Stimson, through his activity in behalf of the arbitration treaties, his efforts for adequate workmen's compensation, and effective employers liability laws and his suggestions for an industrial commission.

TEN DON'TS FOR BASEBALL PLAYERS

- 1.—Don't put your cap on top of your bat, a la Ty Cobb, after striking out. Cobb still holds a receipt from Ban Johnson for this stunt.
- 2.—Don't tramp on the feet of the umpires. Hell hath no fury like umpires "corned."
- 3.—Don't get caught flatfooted off first base. This is the age of moving, not living, pictures.
- 4.—Don't strike out with the bases filled. The deadheads as well as the payers feel it just as badly as you feel it.
- 5.—Don't attempt to snub the bleachers. See Jimmy Callahan's views on this subject.
- 6.—Don't throw your glove on the ground after what you think is a poor decision by the umpire. Bill Dahlgren was the only man who could do this and escape a fine.
- 7.—Don't guy the minor leaguer on your way North in the spring. He may have your job when spring comes around again.
- 8.—Don't approach the plate swinging three bats in imitation of Ty Cobb, unless you can hit like him.
- 9.—Don't try to push Wagner off second. It is much easier and safer to go through his legs.
- 10.—Don't become discouraged if you are not a Baker at third. Willie Keeler once led the left-handed third sackers.

LABOR NOTES.

Chicago.—More than $3,000 was distributed by Henry C. Lytton, head of a department store, among the 600 employees as the annual dividend of the concern's profit-sharing plan. Each one, from scrubwoman to department heads, received either an envelope containing currency or a check for a substantial amount. The largest check, one for $500, went to Miss Clara Sehm. She is the first to benefit under Mr. Lytton's plan to add a $500 bonus to the salary of employees who have been at the store for 20 years or longer.

Boston.—John Campbell Cleave, a wealthy young man of Cresson, Pa., has dropped his studies at Harvard college and, as a full-fledged member of the Massachusetts Militia, is doing strike duty at Lawrence, with 18 other Harvard men. The college soldiers all are members of Troop B, which was formed about a year ago with the idea of making it a sort of gilt-edge Rough Rider organization. On its rosters appear the names of several prominent Boston—New York and Philadelphia families.

Boston.—Greater Boston Carpenters' District council, which represents the nearly 6,000 members of the 28 brotherhood carpenters' unions of the district, last week sent to a referendum vote of the membership a proposition that the employers be asked for a wage increase of five cents an hour, to take effect June 1. The present minimum rate is 50 cents an hour, secured by arbitration several years ago, when the rate was 47 1/2 cents an hour.

New York.—More than half a million skilled mechanics and laborers are idle and daily seeking employment in New York city, according to figures compiled by the manual labor bureau of the National Employment exchange. The labor market in this vicinity, says an officer of the bureau, never has been so stagnant and glutted as now, and never has there been such a small demand for labor of any class.

St. Louis.—An offer of all the Methodist Episcopal churches south, in St. Louis, for the use of the poor as places of lodging by night, has been formally made to Chief of Police Young through the presiding elder, Rev. Dr. C. M. Hawkins. Those in charge of the churches have expressed their willingness to have the buildings warmed each night so as to make

WALTER GANT DEAD FROM HEART TROUBLE

Special to The Times. Iowa Park, Texas, March 5.—Mr. Walter Gant of the Weeth neighborhood died last Saturday night of heart trouble after having been sick for some time. He was buried Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in the Iowa Park cemetery. Rev. H. B. Johnson conducted the services. He was a member of the Methodist Church. Miss Lola Munden was confined to her room several days last week by the la grippe. Rev. Blankenship returned Monday from his regular appointment at Tolbert. Frank Fox has been on the sick list for several days. Mrs. Picot who has been the guest of Mrs. H. B. Johnson for a few days, left for her home at Shamrock Sunday. Mr. McQue, who died at the Wichita county poor farm was buried in the Iowa Park cemetery this afternoon at two o'clock by the side of his wife. Mr. McQue was formerly a well-to-do resident of this place. Rev. McDaniels, of Wichita Falls, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Deakins one day last week. Mrs. Tuttle is back again from Dallas, where she went for her spring stock of millinery.

CONSTIPATION AND SLUGGISH LIVER GO

Banish constipation, wake up your lazy liver, clean up your disordered stomach and drive the poisonous gas and decomposed matter from your bowels.

It's easy with the wonderful Hot Springs Liver Buttons, and best of all they act gently. They are without doubt the most perfect, blissful, satisfying constipation remedy you ever used.

They're fine for men, too—for everybody; and for men who are tired of the slam-bang purgatives that tear the lining of the bowels and act violently, we say give Hot Springs Liver Buttons a trial—you'll never use the rough and tumble kind again. For sale by Stonecipher & Smith and all first class drug stores. Hot Springs Chemical Co., Hot Springs, Ark.

The Best Coffee We Know How to Roast is COLLONADE

It is composed of the very finest old, mild, Eastern growths and drinks rich and mellow: It's the best coffee we have ever known and during the past twenty five years we have handled nearly all, and drank all of the LEADING brands of coffees sold in this country. By leading brands, we mean those that have a National reputation. Now in order to induce YOU to try this brand we will, for a limited time, give a Phoenix Sanitary Duster with each pound of COLLONADE Coffee! This duster is a strictly sanitary duster, which absorbs instead of scattering the dust and is endorsed by boards of health everywhere. The retail price is twenty five cents. The price of Collonade is forty cents per pound and could not be better if we charged a dollar.
