ARMS FOR AMERICAN CITIZENS IN THE CITY OF MEXICO

REV. NORRIS SAYS HE IS INNOCENT

HIS ATTORNEYS SAY THEY WILL BE ABLE TO SHOW DAMNABLE CONSPIRACY TO CON-VICT HIM.

ARSON IS NOW CHARGED

Another indictment Thursday Charge Minister With Burning of First Baptist Church.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 29.—Rev. Frank Norris returned here this morning from Hubbard City to face the arson indictment which was returned against him last night. He declared he is an innocent man and will have no trouble in proving it. Norris's bond was fixed at one thousand dollars and immediately signed by numerous persons. The indictment charges Norris with causing the first fire in his church, when the damage was only eight thousand dollars.

The indictment charges Mr. Norris with causing the burning of the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth. Mr. Norris was pastor of the church at the time of the fire, and offered his resignation from that position on Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Norris also is charged with perjury in an indictment returned by a different grand jury in the Sixty-seventh district court.

A capias was issued by the district clerk as soon as the indictment had been turned over to him. The capias was placed in the hands of the sheriff, but was not served yesterday because of the fact that Mr. Norris was in Hubbard City, Texas, where he went Thursday with his wife and two children. He left Hubbard City for Fort Worth last night to arrive here at 5:10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Norris had expected to return Sunday morning. When he left Fort Worth it was his intention to hold services in the Byers opera house Sunday night.

The mysterious fire which destroyed the church was discovered about 2:10 o'clock in the morning of Feb. 4 and since that time rewards totaling more than $5,000 have been offered for the arrest and conviction of the man who started the fire.

Arrests of suspects have been plentiful, but in every case heretofore the suspects have been released because of insufficient evidence against them.

On the night of the church fire, the home of Rev. Mr. Norris also was discovered to be on fire and firemen found a heap of oil-soaked rags on the back porch of his home. Both fires were pronounced of incendiary origin by Fire Chief Blideker.

On the night of Feb. 27 Mr. Norris and George E. White, with whom he was walking, were attacked from the rear by a man armed with a pistol. The man was frightened away by Mr. White, who turned to fight him or stop him. This was the second attempt on the life of Mr. Norris that had been reported, the first occurring on the night of Jan. 14, when two shots were fired through the window of his study in the First Baptist church building. This attempt on his life came four days after a fire in the church which did damage estimated at $9,000.

On March 1 Mr. Norris was indicted on a charge of perjury in connection with his statements before a grand jury in the Sixty-seventh district court, which since has been discharged, relating to certain anonymous letters which he and G. H. Connel had received through the mails. Late that same night—or rather at 3:17 o'clock the next morning, Mr. Norris's home was discovered to be on fire. The fire in his home, according to the fire marshal, originated under the stairs of the house, in a place that made it impossible for Mr. Norris and his family to escape without jumping from the second floor of using a ladder.

The charge of perjury against Mr. Norris is set for trial on April 1. George E. White, one of the deacons of the First Baptist Church, and a friend of Mr. Norris, issued the following statement: "In a way I am glad the indictment was returned. I am glad of it for the reason that this perjury indictment has been returned, and in addition to that everybody in Fort Worth and in the country has been talking about the thing and this will give him a chance to clear away all charges."

The following statement was given on Thursday night by Attorneys Lattimore, Cummings, Doyle & Bould.

Crocker Urges Harmony.

By Associated Press. New York, March 29.—Richard Crocker here today said of the presidential situation: "Get together. Unless the Democrats work together President Taft will defeat them. Something may happen in a day that may ruin all." He added that the Democratic outlook depends much on whether the leaders adopt an harmonious policy.

BRYAN TELLS WHY HE SHUNS HARMON

Nebraskan Cites Reasons for Saying Wall Street Backs Ohio—Candidate Must Be Judged By His Supporters.

Lincoln, Neb., March 29.—William J. Bryan persists in his declaration that Governor Harmon is the chosen candidate of Pierpont Morgan, "Jim" Hill and Wall street. Mr. Bryan today dispatched a personal letter to E. H. Moore, manager of the Harmon campaign, responding to a recent communication from the latter and saying in part:

"You demand proof that Mr. Harmon is a reactionary and a tool of Wall street. I have not charged him with being a tool of Wall street, but I have charged that he is a reactionary and the choice of Wall street.

"You demand proof that Wall street is back of Governor Harmon. You know enough about politics to know that Wall street acts in secret and that it is difficult to furnish written proof of the movements and endorsements of those who control the financial affairs of our business centers. Circumstantial evidence is good enough to furnish a ground for a conviction even for the crime of murder, and it ought to be sufficient to guide public opinion in the nomination of presidential candidates.

"You are the manager of Governor Harmon's campaign in Ohio. Are you not aware of the fact that he has, for years been attorney for corporations in which Mr. Morgan was interested? Do you not know that the fees collected for such legal services amount to considerable? Do you not know that Mr. Morgan is favorable to the nomination of Mr. Harmon? And do you believe that at such a time as this the Democratic party can afford to let its presidential candidate be selected by Mr. Morgan when the public attention is focused upon the fact that Mr. Morgan collected $9 million dollars as his compensation for organizing the steel trust conspiracy against 90 millions of people? Do you think that Mr. Morgan (Continued on page four)

WESTERN UNION BEGINS PENSION PLAN

Benefits Will Be Figured on Basis of Number of Years in Service.

New York, March 28.—A pension plan for the benefit of the Western Union Telegraph Company's 30,000 employees was announced today by President Theodore N. Vall.

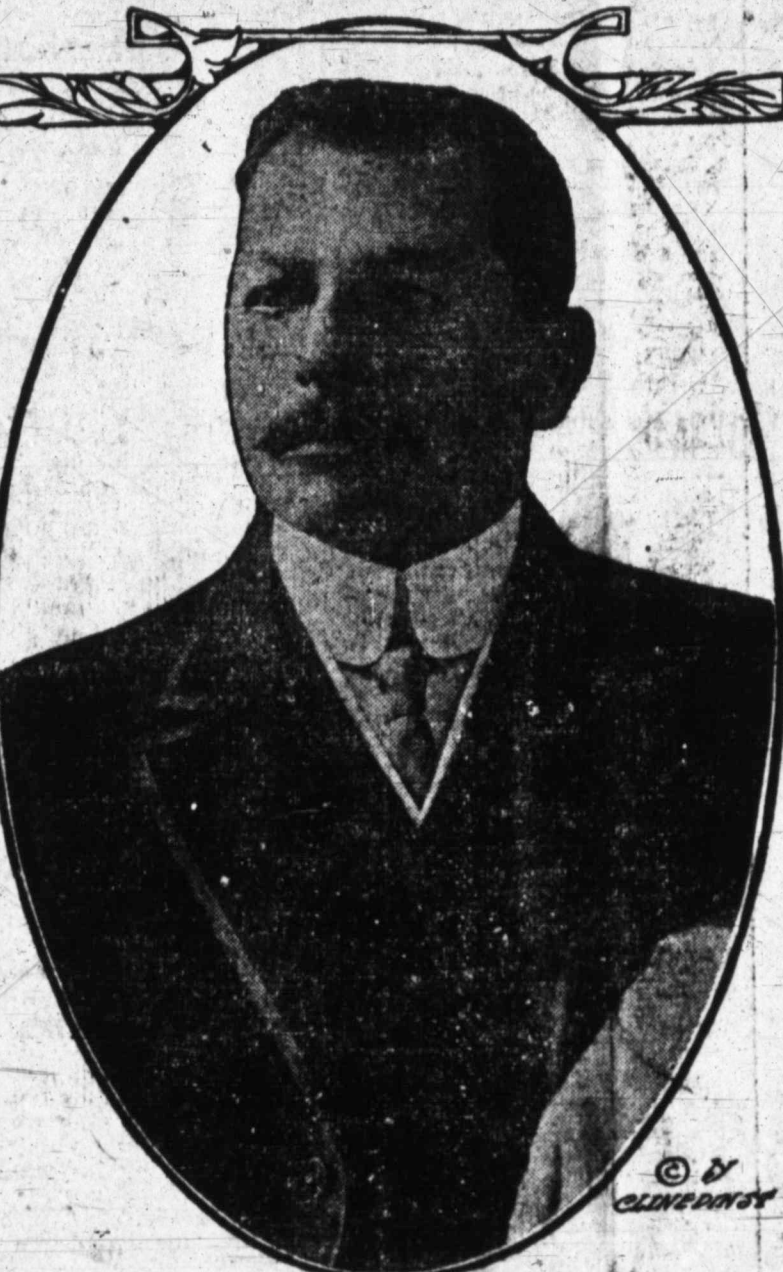

President Vall said: "A pension committee has been compiling statistics and analyzing pension plans for many months. While the plan which we are inaugurating does not go as far as we would like to have it, still it is a beginning and we believe will materially assist in caring for those employees, qualified through length of service, who, because of incapacity or disability, are compelled to discontinue active work.

"The solution of the problem has not been an easy one, in view of the large number of employees, their widely diversified occupations and the large territory over which the system extends, together with the heavy expense to the company incident to the inauguration of the pension.

"However, it is my firm belief that all employees, identified by years of faithful service, are entitled to some financial protection against the necessity of retirement, and it is in the hope of the company that this beginning will extend to a further protection of employees. Meanwhile, the inauguration of a pension plan marks an expression of appreciation on the part of the company of the loyal and efficient service rendered by its employees."

Pensions are to be figured on a percentage based on the number of years of service, the minimum allowance in any case to be $25 a month unless otherwise directed.

DEATH VALLEY SCOTTY IS BACK IN SPOT LIGHT

Los Angeles, March 27.—Walter "Scotty" is at last to reveal the hiding place of his bonanza.

At least he said so today, adding that he would start on Monday for the mine, with Harry Brogan, representative of a San Francisco syndicate, which is to pay $500,000 for a half interest in the property, if it proves to be what "Scotty" claims it to be.

It was some six years ago that "Scotty" blew into the center of the stage in his great act of money rearing. With his pockets filled with rolls of bills, realized from sacks of rich ore packed in from Death Valley on the backs of burros, "Scotty" kept the country excited in his sensational exploits of loose finance. One of his feats was the hiring of a Santa Fe special train with which he reduced the cross-continental record from Los Angeles.

According to "Scotty," the mine is located on the south rim of Death Valley and is a very high grade free milling gold property.

35 FEET OF SAND IN FULDA WELL

A report reached here from Seymour this afternoon that the drill had passed through thirty-five feet of oil sand in the well on the Sid Webb ranch near Fulda at a depth of 1815 feet. The sand carried little oil, according to the information received here but the prospects are said to be excellent for finding some real oil.

Drilling had been suspended in this well for some time but was resumed this week and splendid progress is reported.

Promising formations have been found in the Murphy well being drilled southeast of Seymour near the Baylor county line.

To Hold Fleet in Readiness to Transport Troops

By Associated Press. New York, March 29.—Reports are rife here this afternoon that the United States Government has requested the Morgan Line Steamship Co. to hold its entire fleet in readiness for the transportation of troops and provisions of war supplies to the Texas and Mexican borders at a moment's notice.

Washington, March 29.—All dependable American citizens in Mexico City are to be armed for their own defense. Citizens of other governments have already taken similar action. Ambassador Wilson will distribute fire arms to Americans. The Mexican government gives its consent to this.

This action by the Americans has been expected for some time, but has only just received the government's sanction. Yesterday a shipment of arms for the Mexican capital left New York under a waiver of the neutrality proclamation. It consisted of Krag-Jorgensen magazine guns no longer used by the army and loaned by the army ordnance department to the State department for use in Mexico City. The rifles will be sold at six dollars each. One million rounds of ammunition accompanies the shipment of rifles.

TRYING TO SAVE WOMAN'S LIFE

Special to The Times. Boston, Mass., March 29.—A determined effort is being made to have the death sentence of Mrs. Lena Cusumano, convicted of murdering her husband and sentenced to be electrocuted in the State Prison at Charlestown the first of June, commuted to life imprisonment. No attempt is being made as yet to secure a commutation of the sentence of Enrico Mascioli, who was convicted of the same crime as Mrs. Cusumano and sentenced to be electrocuted on the same date.

Mrs. Cusumano and Mascioli were convicted of the murder of the woman's husband. The crime was committed in Hull in September, 1910. A few weeks after the disappearance of Cusumano's body was found on the shore and an autopsy disclosed that he was murdered. The trial took place in the historic town of Plymouth. A number of witnesses testified, the most important of whom was the seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Cusumano, who identified the quilt in which Cusumano's body was wrapped, as one that was on her father's bed. Other witnesses were Mrs. Cusumano's sisters, who testified against her.

Both defendants testified, denying the crime, but the evidence, such as the finding of a blood-stained ax, a hole in the ground near the Cusumano house and a bundle of blood-stained clothing belonging to Mrs. Cusumano, was so strong that the jury found the pair guilty after short deliberation.

Washington, D. C., March 29.—By a vote of 5 to 9 the House Committee on Judiciary today refused to consider Representative Randell's so-called "anti graft" bill, which would prohibit legislative, judicial and executive officers of the Federal Government from accepting compensation, gifts, loans, etc., from public service and certain other corporations.

Those who voted in favor of considering the bill were Representatives Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the committee; Henry of Texas, Rucker of Missouri, McGillicuddy of Maine and Dupree of Louisiana.

Those who opposed the bill, were Representatives Littleton of New York, Davis of West Virginia, Floyd of Arkansas, McCoy of New Jersey and Graham of Illinois, and four Republicans, Sterling, Moon, Higgins and Howland.

DEAL CLOSED FOR GLASS PLANT

J. A. KEMP Wires That Bottle Factory People Are Ready to Post Certified Check.

NOW UP TO CITIZENS

Meeting Will Be Called for Monday to Raise Remainder of Bonus Required.

"St. Louis, Mo., March 28, 12, R. E. Huff.

"Have closed deal with parties for bottle factory. They are ready to put up $2500, an evidence of good faith. Better call mass meeting for Saturday to arrange bonus in accordance with understanding.

"J. A. KEMP." The foregoing telegram received by Mr. Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce last night is self-explanatory. All that remains for Wichita Falls to do to clinch a big industry employing at the start more than 100 men is to raise $7500 to complete the bonus of $15,000. Half of the amount has already been subscribed and a site provided.

Mr. Huff will delay the calling of the mass meeting to raise the remaining $7500 until Monday as Saturday is a busy day for the business men.

A call for this meeting will appear in Sunday morning's paper. The plant in question is one owned and operated by the O'Baro and Lister corporation of St. Louis and Kansas City, manufacturers of bottles of various kinds.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday the company submitted a proposition offering to move a hundred thousand dollar plant here employing not less than 100 workers, in consideration of a site and a $15,000 cash bonus. Mr. Kemp offered a site that was accepted by the representative of the company and also subscribed $5,000 to the bonus fund. J. B. Marlow, representing the Fairview Park addition, subscribed an additional $2500 in behalf of his company.

Mr. Kemp was delegated to go to St. Louis to secure a definite proposition from the company in writing with the understanding that as soon as this was done the remainder of the bonus would be subscribed.

The O'Baro and Lister Company is one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country. When here Mr. O'Baro said that the plant would employ between four and five hundred if it proved as successful as the company hoped.

At the most conservative estimate it is believed the bottle plant will add five hundred population to the city. Seventy-five of the workers will be men earning from $4 to $10 per day.

Mr. Huff's telegram was the second that brought good news for Wichita Falls. The first was a telegram to Jack Culbertson from the owner of an oil field tool shop in Oklahoma saying that he had definitely decided to locate in this city.

Further landings of large boats at President's island will be impossible until the water recedes. Few residents remaining there probably will be taken off today in launches.

CHARLES N. HYDE AT THE BAR

Former New York City Officials Charged With Embezzlement.

New York, March 29.—Unless some new delay intervenes former City Chamberlain Charles H. Hyde will be arraigned next Monday in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court to stand trial for the part he is alleged to have played in the banking scandal that has involved the heads of the defunct Carnegie Trust Company, the Joseph G. Robin banking enterprises and the New York political machine. In the indictment returned against him the former City Chamberlain is charged with bribery in connection with the $300,000 larceny from the Carnegie Trust Company.

Hyde will be the fourth man of a coterie of prominent politicians, bankers and promoters to face a jury of charges growing out of the failure of the Carnegie Trust Company and the collapse of the Robin banks.

The former City Chamberlain was indicted chiefly on the testimony of Joseph G. Robin, owner of a string of banks and industrial enterprises who alleged that Hyde, himself and William J. Cummins, convicted on a charge of embezzling $140,000 from the Carnegie Trust Company, met in Hyde's office in 1910, while Hyde was City Chamberlain. Here they conferred with Joseph B. Reichman, former president of the Carnegie Trust Company, convicted later of making a false report to the State banking examiners and, according to Robin, Hyde told him that if he would come through with a loan to the then tottering Carnegie Trust Company, he, Hyde, would see that the municipal deposits were increased in Robin's Northern Bank if Robin had refused, according to his story, he was threatened with having the city money then in his bank withdrawn. The bank was in no condition to stand such withdrawals and had to accept to Hyde's demands, Robin avers.

Sentences in the cases of both Robin and Cummins have been held up, and it is rumored that they are likely to turn State's evidence against Hyde hoping in this way to escape serving terms in prison. It is understood the Justice Vernon M. Davis, who presided over the trials of Cummins and Reichman, will preside over the Hyde trial.

The President will be in the Quaker City only a few hours and it is understood that no political significance is to be attached to his visit. In the early evening he will address the members of the Chamber of Commerce on the benefits that will follow the creation of a new commercial organization to take the place of the present National Board of Trade. After delivering this address the President will be the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Ohio Society.

We invite the children to bring their parents to see this fairy story, "Jack and the Bean Stalk." 274-40 Lydia Margaret Theatre.

45 YEARS OLD AND STILL PITCHING

Boston, Mass., March 29.—Forty-five years old and still able to pitch ball up to the big league standard is the remarkable record of "Cy" Young, who is training in the South with the Boston Nationals in preparation for his twenty-second season as a professional player. Young was born in the town of Gilmore, O., forty-five years ago today. After a season or two with the clubs in cities near his home town he went to Cleveland, where he played from 1890 to 1899. After leaving Cleveland he was with St. Louis two years, and went to Boston in 1900; when the American league placed a club in that city. He helped Boston to win the American league and world's championships and remained there until 1909, when he was disposed of to the Cleveland club. In the latter part of last season Young returned to Boston to play with the National league club in that city and has been signed with the same organization for this year.

Important Letter to All Who Suffer.

"I suffered from indigestion for a long time. Last May I almost died. The doctor told me it was acute indigestion and I could not be cured. Since that time I have suffered very much, as some days everything I ate, even light food, as soft boiled eggs, would distress me. I lost fifteen pounds. Sometimes I felt that I could not live another day. A month ago I got a box of MIONA tablets. Before I had used them a week I was better. I have used two boxes and I feel as well as I ever did. Eunice A. Peters, Jackson, Ga. Use MIONA stomach tablets for quick relief from sour stomach, heaviness, heartburn, belching of gas and distress after eating. They are guaranteed. Large box 50 cents at Foosehee & Lynch and druggists everywhere.

is highly recommended by physicians and patrons who have tested its merits for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, kidney and bladder trouble. This water stimulates the secretion of the stomach, increases digestion and favors a more complete absorption of the food and prevents the action of germs that cause typhoid and other infectious diseases.

This water can be purchased at the wells or delivered in jugs or cases. This well is located one mile south of Alamo school building in Floral Heights, two deliveries daily morning and afternoon. G. J. Rohatch, Owner. Phone 1001—4 long—4 shorts.

Fads and Fashions

New York, March 29.—The coming season will, undoubtedly, be noted for the unusual vogue of taffeta. The shops are full of models showing taffetas of every description employed as the principal material of the frocks. Unfortunately taffeta is difficult to manage in such a way as to avoid fussiness. Ninety out of ten of the taffeta frocks shown in the shops are ungraceful and freakish. The tenth is undeniably charming, but the charm usually goes hand in hand with a high price, for it means material of beautiful quality and very skillful making.

Some of the new taffetas are really lovely, supple though never attaining the flowing suppleness of the crepes and satins, wonderfully light and lustrous, exquisite of line. The Jouy taffetas, which are quaint in the best sense of that word, are winning favorable attention, though champagne effects still hold first place. Toile de Jouy or antique cretonne designs have invaded many classes of materials, and whether in cottons, chiffons, crepes, radiums or taffetas have a distinct charm, though they must be handled knowingly to give satisfactory results and are quite hopeless if made-up-along lines unsuited to their peculiar character.

This is especially true of the Jouy taffetas. Many of the prettiest have a ground of white checked or striped by hair lines of black, and over this surface quaint sprig designs in odd soft colors are scattered. Admirably piquant little summer frocks these will make for a certain type of wearer, provided the frocks are made with artistic skill.

The same is true of the Jouy radiums, chiffons, etc., but in a less degree, for here at least no hint of crispness complicated the problem. Jouy designs in comparatively dark tones have appeared this season even in the finest of chiffons and are effectively combined with white or plain one-tone chiffon. Often there is a deep border of this Jouy design on a delicate one tone chiffon, with perhaps a bordering band of black or one of the dominant colors in the Jouy design.

Among the taffetas attractive striped effects may be found, usually in white and color—soft rose, dull old blue, violet, cherry, etc. These striped taffetas are successfully made up alone, but the French designers like to combine them with plain taffetas, usually though not invariably in the color of the stripe and sometimes with changeable taffeta in the stripe color shot with whites and perhaps one other tone.

There are two sorts of "lingerie" fabrics in the market now—the heavier linens, crases, piques and bedford cords of which tailored costumes are fashioned and the clinging soft as chifon stuffs like batiste, mull, voile, marquisette and crepe which go into the making of diaphanous frocks. There is a fancy for garnishing even the tailored costumes with quantities of lace this season, and yards of broad insertions of filet, Cluny and other heavy laces make simply cut linen suits very dressy affairs, indeed.

The lines of such costumes follow the lines prescribed for tailored suits of worsted, silk and mohair, and coats are short and gay, in cut-away effect, over straight, narrow skirts short enough to reveal the feet. Of course, with all such summer costumes, white footwear is the requirement, and this season, very trim boots of white buckskin with all tops buttoned with pearl buttons, are considered particularly chic. These white buckskin boots are much prettier than the white canvas styles, for the soft buckskin fits instep and ankle like a glove, and the leather conforms in more supple fashion to the lines of daintily shaped sole and heel than does the stiff canvas. There are also pale tan suede boots and creamy satin boots for wear with lingerie costumes in the new champagne and ecru colorings which are particularly fashionable this season.

With the very fashionable ones lingerie materials just off clear white—in other words, in tones of cream champagne and ecru—are more in favor than white stuffs, which seem to suggest the ministrations of a laundress. These creamy tan shades are very subtle and very smart, but somehow they lack the freshness and purity of clear white which is at its best against a background of summer sea. One or two scrub batiste costumes on a clubhouse veranda would be distinguished and charming, but a whole veranda full of ecru garbed women would be depressing indeed, whereas white costumes in like number would suggest only summery daintiness and freshness.

Turned up brims, bent into any shape most becoming to the wearer, sometimes slanted in front, sometimes doubled, are a distinctive detail on the new hats. One model is caught back at the side front with one of the new black willow-shaped ostrich plumes. Among the most expensive of the new straws is a tagal with crepe like surface and in a silver gray shade, with black inside. One shown in a shop had for its trimming wide loops of shot gray and purple ribbon bent backward, a spray of white crepe roses falling over the brim on the right side.

Brush cockades of nondescript feathers are seen as the sole ornament on fine white tagal straw hats with black upturned brims faced with satin, and the floral clump of either roses, fuchsias or copper colored dahlias is much favored for large hats of pedal straw with graduated up-turned brims.

Very pretty and comfortable are the new two-ounce hats made of taffeta silk. The crown, brim and trimming are usually of the same fabric and with something like eighty-two shades of silk to choose from and with which to form attractive combinations there is little likelihood of these dainty and practical hats showing a sameness. The possibilities for achieving novel effects are greater now than ever before, and so the temptation to increase the number of spring and summer hats in one's wardrobe has grown correspondingly.

The brims of these taffeta hats are faced with silk of a bright and becoming shade, and the same color is

TO TRY CHINESE FOR TRUNK MURDER

Portland, Ore., March 29.—Strange tales of Chinese feuds, intermingled with the romance of love-making, are expected to be unfolded in the circuit court here next week, when Wong Si Sam and Len Soon are placed on trial on the charge of killing Seld Bing and shipping his body in a trunk to Seattle.

The alleged principals in the tragedy represented widely separated classes of the local Chinese colony. Seld Bing, the victim, was an Americanized Chinaman of good family, with an inclination to be something of a "sport." He was a nephew of Seld Back, one of the best known Chinese in Portland and reputed to be a millionaire. In addition to being wealthy themselves the members of the Sid family are Chinese Free Masons and are allied with the powerful Hop Sing tong.

Len Soon, one of the pair accused of the murder, has occupied a place of considerable prominence and influence among his fellow countrymen. He is president of the Hop Sing tong in this city and is a former president of the Hop Sing tong in San Francisco. Wong Si Sam, who is to stand trial with Len Soon for the alleged murder, is a Chinese of low grade, one of a numerous class who scrape out their living in any manner that comes to hand. When arrested Wong Si Sam was employed as a cook on a river steamer.

Little Oi Sen, "the most beautiful Chinese woman on the coast," is alleged to have been the fourth of the leading characters in the tragedy and is counted upon by the prosecution to lend assistance in untangling the web of romance, jealousy and deadly warfare that reached its climax in the slaying of young Seld Bing in the woman's apartments. Oi Sen is the alleged runaway wife of Ng Goul, a respected merchant of Pendleton, Ore. It is said that the bewitching young woman of the almond eyes found life too slow in the eastern Oregon city. However, this may be, it is certain that she deserted her husband and came to Portland, where she soon became a conspicuous figure in the gay life of the Chinese colony.

The authorities are believed to be in possession of all the details of the murder, as the result of a confession said to have been made by Oi Sen after her arrest. The story has not been given out to the public. Whether the killing resulted from a jealous quarrel over Seld Bing's attention to the attractive Oi Sen, or whether the motive for the crime lies in the deadly feud between the rival tongs, with Oi Sen used merely as a bait to lure the victim to his death, can only be conjectured.

The facts as known are that Seld Bing was butchered in Oi Sen's apartments on December 20 last and his dismembered body shipped to Seattle, where it was found several days later in an unclaimed trunk. It was evident that there had been no haste in placing the body in the trunk. It had been cut into pieces by one accustomed to surgery or dressing meat. Salt had been applied to hinder decay and check bleeding. The body must have been placed in the trunk soon after Seld was killed. The victim had been dressed in the height of American fashion, with a soft brown hat, gray suit of good quality and fashionable cut and a light brown cravat. His undergarments was of silk and he wore silk socks. In dismembering the body one of the clothing had been removed except the trousers. In a pocket of the coat were found several letters written to Seld by American women and girls in different cities.

Oi Sen's beauty, which had probably led to the slaying of Seld Bing, was likewise responsible for her capture after the young woman had fled the city. Friends of the slain man and his family among the local Chinese furnished ample funds to be employed in a search for the fugitives. The beauty of Oi Sen made her a marked woman and it was but a question of a short time before she was located and arrested at Billings, Mont. She was returned to Portland to be held as an accessory in the murder. Upon her arrival here she is glad to have made a full confession to the police. As a result of what she told, Len Soon and Wong Si Sam were immediately locked up and a charge of having murdered Seld Bing was made against them. Eminent counsel has been engaged to defend the accused and it is evident that a hard fight will be made to prevent their conviction.

Its Growing! What Does It Mean?

the old practice of hanging criminals by the neck until dead, has perhaps had some effect in moderating the sentimental opposition to capital punishment.

THAT TRAGIC STORY.

In that tragic story from San Antonio the Galveston News finds one comforting line, "and that is the one which reports it to be the preponderant belief that the explosion of the Southern Pacific locomotive was due to an accident and not a crime."

With the recollection of the Los Angeles crime still fresh in the mind, it was natural and inevitable that the first news of the San Antonio tragedy should arouse the suspicion that it had been caused by misguided zealots. That suspicion may yet be verified, but as for ourselves we shall cling to the contrary belief until facts are adduced to bereave us of it.

Even the most inveterate enemies of unionism could hardly get pleasure out of the belief that men who are capable of wholesale murder as a means of winning a strike are common rather than rare in the ranks of organized labor, and it should be shown that this, too, was such a crime one would have reason to fear that the McNamara's of unionism were not so exceptional as has been imagined.

Furthermore the disavowing of responsibility for the disorders which often accompany labor troubles would be made increasingly difficult for the promoters of those troubles.

The exposure of the McNamara's plan of fighting labor's battles has made an exceedingly bad impression upon the minds of the great mass of law-abiding citizens who compose the bulk of this Nation, and a repetition of the exploits that marked the activities of those condemned agitators might lead to unpleasant preemptory action in the direction of forcing the unions to purge themselves of members of that character.

On the other hand, if it should develop that the explosion of the Southern Pacific engine at San Antonio was the result of negligence on the part of some incompetent employe, it is up to the state, or the public, or someone to call upon the company to account for what happened and insist that it cease to handle it with safety.—Beaumont Enterprise.

is the proper person to pick out a candidate at this time when the Democratic party is championing the cause of little children who have been mistreated by protected employers, charged five cents a week for the water they drank while at work?

"Do you not know that almost without exception the members of the plunderbund favor Mr. Harmon as against any progressive who can be named? Are these men mistaken in their man? Do you not know that the Wall street controlled papers are almost without exception presenting Mr. Harmon and urging his nomination as against any progressive? Are these men mistaken in their man? May we not judge a man by his supporters when we find him supported by those who want to convert the government into a private asset? Can the people take the chance involved in putting such a man in supreme control of the party and the administration of the government when men can be found more justly competent and who have the merit of being opposed by Wall street?"

"In conclusion allow me to say that I am glad that you are coming to Nebraska. You will find no more real Harmon sentiment in Nebraska than there was in Oklahoma and Kansas. Do you know of any reason why there should be? You will find that Governor Harmon's support in this state is confined, first, to reactionaries, and, second, to those who favor him, not because they believe he is a progressive, but because he incurred their hostility by opposing them in 1910 on a local issue. You will find that the supporters of Governor Harmon do not expect to secure a majority of the Democratic votes even with the support that auxiliary organizations are giving him on local grounds. The best that Governor Harmon's supporters hope for is to defeat the progressive forces, divided between two candidates, and thus enable a minority to triumph over a majority.

The commercial organizations of Vernon have been criticized at times by a few thoughtless persons for the active campaign made herein attempt to secure additional railroads for this place. They have not stopped to consider that there has always been more or less agitation and preliminary work preceding the establishment of all great enterprises, and that big things cannot be done in a single day or week.

For more than four years, Vernon has been doing her very best to secure additional transportation facilities and it seems that her most sanguine hopes are to be realized in the extension of the Frisco from this place to San Antonio by way of Brownwood.

Should Vernon fall heir to all the good things in sight at this time, there is no good reason why the 1920 census should not give us a population of at least 12,000. One amusing thing about the announcement this week that the Brownwood-San Antonio line was to extend to Vernon was that the Wichita Times came out in a front page item giving its city credit for the northern terminus. Not this time, Brother Howard. We will have to admit that Wichita Falls has been getting everything in sight these past few years, but from this moment on, we propose that you bear in mind that Vernon is on the map in bold letters. At any rate, the Times, which by the way is a fine paper, should not take all the roads we need a few more here. Watch Vernon grow.—Vernon Record.

Of course, Wichita Falls can't get all the good things, but all roads are pointing this way now. Vernon stands perhaps as good if not some better chance of being the northern terminus of this new branch of the Frisco than Wichita, for the reason the Frisco is already at Vernon, and it would not require a great deal more trackage to extend from Wichita via Electric on to Vernon. At any rate, that is about the way we laid out on paper, and a good many plans of "paper railroads" that have been drawn in the past have been constructed on the ground.

AMERICANS WILL ARM THEMSELVES

Aubert's retreat this morning was in line with the judgment he has shown since he arrived at Hacienda Dolores Monday morning. Had he not retreated when he did he would certainly have been surrounded sooner. It is doubtful if Huerta will make another attempt to advance on the rebels, preferring to stay at Torreon and give them battle there. Gen. Tellez is reported to be on his way north. He has not been sighted any where along the line of the railroad, and from which it is inferred that he is marching in a northerly direction. This would bring him to Atotonilco.

Aubert's second attack on this city which was made yesterday after he had fooled the rebels into believing he had retreated, was made with the intention of cutting the railroad north of the city and thus compelling Orozco to fall back in the direction of Chihuahua. The rebels discovered him this morning in time, however. Shells had already been thrown into Aubert's camp this morning when word was received that he had retreated. Gen. Orozco stated last night that he will advance with his full strength on Torreon. He makes no secret of the fact that much valuable time has been lost and that he will not take the city with the ease that he would have taken it had Aubert not prevented his following up his advantage after the battle at Corralitos Sunday.

The Liberal chiefs have nothing but praise for Aubert's bravery and military skill. His arrival here Monday was only after a long march overland, during which he had to pass through almost impenetrable country with only such supplies as he could carry along with him. In spite of this his men fought steadily for two days and nights and evaded every effort made to surround them; nearly 3,000 of the enemy in front of them and 3,000 behind them under Gen. Campa.

Deny "Anti-Wilson" Combine. Washington, D. C., March 29.—Vigorous denials of the statement of the Wilson campaign managers yesterday that rival Democratic candidates for the Presidency were in a combination against the New Jersey Governor were made today at various Democratic headquarters in Washington. The Underwood managers, as an answer to the charge that Underwood represented the so-called combination against Wilson in the approaching Florida primary, gave out a portion of a previous statement by Senator Bankhead, in which he made a general denial of the "charges of trades and combinations."

Developments in the Tillman county oil field have been retarded during the past week by accidents. At the Campbell well trouble with the casing has put the operators back, the Big Pasture derrick at Loveland has been obliged to wait on new machinery to overcome a cave in, and necessity for recasing, while the derrick at Cabela's well was blown down by the equinoctial storm. The Big Pasture crew, however, has received the machinery needed, has completed the work of casing, and is now drilling again, in an effort to get down to "pay dirt" at the earliest possible date. The company is figuring on the erection of three more derricks.—Frederick Leader.

J. W. Kennedy and his force of men went out Wednesday to begin erection of the oil derrick for the well on L. Craddock's land, four miles north of town. Lige Adkins hailed out the timber last week. Drilling will probably not begin until the Stevens well, as the same tools will be used. Looks like good business to see oil derricks going up right here at our door.—Seymour Banner.

SAID TO BE AGAINST WILSON. Col. Guffey of Pennsylvania Said to Be Working Against Indorsement of New Jersey Man.

New York, March 29.—Following a conference last night at the Holland House of Col. James M. Guffey of Pennsylvania and several members of the Pennsylvania State Senate came a report that Col. Guffey is aiding an effort to prevent the indorsement of Gov. Woodrow Wilson by the Keystone delegates to the Democratic National convention. He is National committeeman from Pennsylvania, and is pledged to support Gov. Wilson, although at heart it is known that he favors Gov. Harmon of Ohio. Both factions of the Pennsylvania State organization have virtually indorsed the candidacy of Gov. Wilson, and the Wilson managers have been counting the seventy-six delegates from that State as one of their chief assets.

Frequent rumors have reached them that Col. Guffey would use all of his influence to prevent the sending of an instructed delegation to the convention, and the conference here greatly disturbed them.

According to the report in political circles, Col. Guffey, Roger C. Sullivan, National Committeeman from Illinois; James Dahlan of Nebraska, chief foe of William J. Bryan; Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall, and all of the powerful leaders who have always been arrayed against Mr. Bryan have combined to prevent the nomination of Gov. Wilson and if possible, to nominate a combination.

Among the men who saw Col. Guffey yesterday at the Holland House were State Senators Ritter, Muchler and Hall of Pennsylvania. Col. Guffey would not discuss politics.

BELIEVES WIVES SHOULD BE PAID

One Third Husband's Salary Due His Mate, Mrs. Wiley Asserts—Wives Only Unpaid Class.

Washington, D. C., March 29.—"I do not think the time is far away when laws will be passed giving the wife and mother who toils long hours in the home without the recompense of a single penny, a salary, based on her husband's income." That statement was made by Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, wife of the former chief of the United States Bureau of Chemistry.

Mrs. Wiley was speaking of the radical plan suggested by Prof. Nathaniel Schmidt of Cornell. She believes that the wife's wage should, when possible, be one-third of the husband's salary and never less than one-fourth.

"It might be that some of that salary might have come back to the home again to procure comforts and pay some of the expenses, but then the joy of giving from her earned money would be hers," Mrs. Wiley explained.

"Right now the wife is the only hard working human who gets nothing for her ten, twelve, sometimes, hours of hard labor a day. Perhaps she is given board and lodging, but even servants get more than that."

"I have known women in Washington society who go from week to week with never a penny of their own for spending money. They are industrial slaves, dependent for every necessity of life upon the whims and good nature of their husbands. Even the smallest pleasure is unobtainable if it costs a cent unless their husband is approached. This is a most fertile source of marital unhappiness."

"It is the duty of every woman to learn a profession or trade to support herself and aid the family purse if necessary. Nevertheless the husband should be responsible for the wages of the busy mother or the sickly wife."

in, representing the Rev. Mr. Norris: "Dr. Norris will be here on the first train, and we will have no trouble in arranging bond for him. His friends and attorneys are confident of his innocence, and will be able to establish a most damnable conspiracy and combination to convict an innocent man. (Signed) "Lattimore, Cummings, Doyl & Bouldin."

Told of indictment in Hubbard City, Hubbard City, Texas, March 29.—The Rev. J. Frank Norris, who was indicted by a Fort Worth grand jury yesterday afternoon on a charge of arson, arrived here at 7:45 o'clock last night, and apparently he was seriously ill. He left to return to Fort Worth after having been here less than two hours.

As Rev. Mr. Norris stepped from the train a number of friends, of whom he has many here, stepped up to shake him by the hand. Some of these knew of the indictment returned yesterday against the minister, but none mentioned it to him. It is believed that the first knowledge he had of the charge was when he reached the sanitarium of Drs. Wood & Wood, a private sanitarium, at which he was going to take special treatment for the illness that has been slowly pulling him down physically.

Rev. Mr. Norris was accompanied only by his wife. The couple left their two children, a boy and a girl, with relatives in Ennis. Rev. Mr. Norris was driven directly to the sanitarium and before he had been there more than fifteen minutes a nurse announced that he would return last night to Fort Worth to appear in court and answer to the charge against him.

Nurses at the sanitarium, who answered the telephone, said that Rev. Mr. Norris's condition was such that it would be inadvisable for him to try to talk over the telephone, and he had no statement to give out to the press.

Dr. Wood, head of the sanitarium, saw him only for a few of the minutes of his stay, and heard him make no expression of his feelings in regard to the matter.

Rev. Mr. Norris left here on the Houston & Texas Central train, which left at 9:30 o'clock last night. It is thought that he will go to Corsicana and stay there until 5:00 o'clock this morning, leaving then on a train that will arrive at Fort Worth at 8:10 o'clock this morning.

News of the indictment has caused a great deal of excitement here as well as some indignation. Many of the citizens express their confidence in Rev. Mr. Norris's innocence and have offered to aid him in any way possible.

The indictment returned yesterday is in connection with the fire in the church the first time the edifice was in danger. The grand jury which returned the indictment was impaneled March 11 by Judge R. H. Buck of the Forty-Eighth district court and given special instructions to investigate the mysterious fires. It has been in session practically ever since that date and has, it is said, gathered much evidence. Detectives have been at work and dozens of witnesses have been examined. Judge Buck being absent from the city on account of the death of his father, the indictment was reported yesterday to Judge Simmons. The grand jurors are B. F. Diggins, Elmer Renfro, K. C. McKee (foreman), Walter Watts, James Daniel, A. H. Copeland, James Sidebottom, Judd Allen, James Childress, T. P. Hoffman, H. C. Cantrell and A. M. Scott.

Although official announcement was made that the indictment against Rev. Mr. Norris charging arson had been returned by the grand jury, no one was permitted by the district clerk to see the copy thereof, as no arrest had been made. The county attorney said the indictment was based only on the attempted burning of the church on the night of Jan. 11, and had no connection with the destruction of the edifice by fire on the morning of Feb. 4.

A. J. Baskin, one of Rev. Mr. Norris' counsel, said he had not seen the indictment, but understood there were four counts. He said the attorneys for the defendant would endeavor to have him return from Hubbard City today and make bond. The pastor is already under bond to appear for trial April 1 on the indictment charging perjury.

SNAKES IN THE STORM CELLAR

About the time the storm broke on last Wednesday, March 20th, late in the evening, J. F. Boyd with his family attempted to enter their storm cellar and found lying on the steps a big rattlesnake. Mr. Boyd reached for a board and on making several strikes at it, he found there were four more snakes of the same kind, that had taken possession of the cave. He killed two of them, and the others escaped. He and his family were forced to seek

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY ABOUT "INTRODUCE ME"

The inclemency of the weather is blamed for the rather poor sized audience which witnessed the four-act comedy "Introduce Me" last night, much poorer audience than the merit of the production warranted. It is a comedy pure and simple, yet clear and wholesome and one to which mother, wife or sweetheart may be taken and, at the same time a man may enjoy it while she is laughing over the complex difficulties of the Nichol household. Della Clarke, the authoress who plays one of the leading roles, has shown a facile pen in describing the troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Nichol, both of them writers, and given an insight into the woes of some American households. It is something different and, both from being different, being excellently presented and having merit please.

The production will be repeated to night and, judging from the comments of those noting it last night, there will be a large attendance provided the axiom about satisfied customers being the best advertisement proves true.—Atlanta Constitution.

It is a great pity that "Introduce Me" cannot double back this way before the warm weather in order that Charlotte at large may have an opportunity to enjoy it unobstructed by driving sleet, two inches of slush and a dangerously slippery pavement. Intrinsically the play is interesting and it contains the brightest of promise with regard to what its gifted authoress may yet have in store for the public.

Folks interested in the stage might as well make up their minds to keep an eye upon Miss Clarke. In "The White Squaw" she demonstrated that she has imagination, the truest sensibility, and genuine constructive talent. But "Introduce Me" is leagues in advance of the earlier effort. The imagination is surer, the sensibility more appreciative, the constructive power stronger. The situations are evolved with delightful naturalness and the lines fit them to a T. It goes without saying that the offering is as pure and wholesome as a spring flower.—Charlotte Observer.

"Introduce Me," the side splitting four act comedy which was presented last evening at the Park Theatre, before a large assemblage was a delightful success, and kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. The family troubles of George Nichol, an unsuccessful author, are depicted in an unusually interesting and clever manner. The play was written by Della

Clarke, the clever author-actress, and she appears in the star role of the cast of characters. The play is written with a moral, which is plainly apparent to everyone, and the closest attention of the audience is held throughout the performance.—Bridgeport, Conn., Evening Post.

"Introduce Me," a comedy in four acts, was presented at the Lyceum Theatre last evening by the author herself who played the leading role. Miss Della Clarke who wrote the play is not a stranger to Rochester audiences. She has many friends in the city who were present at the production last evening and gave her a cordial reception.

Miss Clarke is a very pretty woman, wears her gowns well and plays the role of Frances Everett or Mrs. Geo. Nichol with much vivacity. The role of the husband, George Nichol, was well portrayed by Henry W. Pemberton, and Charles Weatherspoon, although having a small part as the friend of the family, played with excellent poise. Jessie Morris Sullivan in the quaint character of the old aunt was excellent in her comedy and pleased the audience. Clare Kral was satisfactory in the role of Eda Somers the actress, and A. C. Rivers made an excellent butler. Other roles were well played by Maurice Jones, Helen Everett and Fannie Block.

Miss Clark received gifts of flowers from her friends, and during the play received a number of congratulatory messages from friends out of town and in the city.—Rochester, N. Y., Evening News.

Gretna Green Records at Auction.

London, March 29.—Many celebrated romances that occurred during the reigns of the three Georges and William IV, and in the early Victorian era, were recalled by the sale at Sotheby's today of the original certificates of marriages at Gretna Green. The lot embraced more than one thousand runaway match certificates, upon some of which appeared the names of men and women of wide celebrity.

Gretna was the nearest and most accessible point in Scotland from the sister kingdom, and in its neighborhood fugitive marriages were long contracted. The practice is said to have been begun by a tobaccoist named John Paisley, who lived to a great age, and died in 1814. The general assembly, in 1828, vainly attempted to suppress the system of Gretna Green marriages, but an act passed in 1866 made such marriages illegal after that year, unless one of the persons married had lived in Scotland 21 days.

OIL WELL TOOL SHOP WILL LOCATE HERE

J. G. Culbertson of the Wichita Falls Motor Manufacturing Company, one of the committee recently appointed by the Chamber of Commerce in connection with the proposed removal here of an oil field tool shop from Ramona, Okla., received a telegram yesterday afternoon from the president of the company saying the shop saying that it had been definitely decided to remove the tool shop to this city, and that a representative of the company was en route to Wichita Falls at the present time and would probably arrive here today.

The Chamber of Commerce has been negotiating with two oil well tool shops one of which was located at Nowata and the other at Ramona, Oklahoma. The plant will be located near the Northwestern shops. It is said to be one of the best in Oklahoma and is equipped to do all kinds of work such as welding, signs, turning up joints and making fishing tools.

PASSENGERS RIDE IN ON BOX CAR

Passenger train No. 7 on the Wichita Falls & Southern, due in this city at 11:25 o'clock, was more than one and a half hours late today, caused by the derailment of two coal cars a short distance from Lake Wichita. Owing to the length of time which it took to put the cars back on the track, it was decided to give the passengers an opportunity of reaching this city, and accordingly the engine was attached to a box car, and the passengers climbed into the box car and were pulled into town. The derailment is thought to have been caused by the recent rains which rendered the road bed unusually soft.
