

TESTIMONY IS SUBMITTED FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

MANY SAY NORRIS CANNOT GET A FAIR TRIAL

ENTIRE SESSION THIS MORNING TAKEN UP WITH TESTIMONY ON MOTION OF DEFENSE.

EVENTS REVIEWED

State Brings Out Fact That Tent Removal Order Emanated from State Fire Marshal.

Special to The Times.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Dr. William Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, George Birchfield, a real estate dealer and George Steere, secretary of the Law Enforcement League, testified this morning that they did not think Dr. J. Frank Norris could get a fair trial in Tarrant county, the entire session being taken up with evidence on the change of venue motion.

Additional witnesses were brought in and sworn at various times during the proceedings and the change of venue testimony promises to occupy a day or more.

So far it has been a review of the recent events in Fort Worth in which Dr. Norris has taken a prominent part dating back to the removal of the First Baptist Church tent during the prohibition campaign, the disorderly house campaign, the Sunday picture shows opening campaign, publication by the X-Ray, of Mayor Davis' speech at the city hall, charging the authors of the X-Ray statements as liars, the resolutions of that meeting demanding that the church ascertain if Dr. Norris wrote a certain X-Ray article and a statement of Charles L. Dickinson, real estate dealer, to Sidney Webb of Bellevue, that he knew Dr. Norris wrote the article which attacked a deceased friend of Dickinson's and that he was going to run Norris out of town.

Cross examining the witnesses offered by the defense on these points the State brought out that the tent removal was by order of the State Fire Marshal, that a big meeting had been held at Byers' Opera House endorsing Dr. Norris and that the witnesses knew little of the feeling throughout the county at large.

The attitude of the newspapers was one of the things taken up. Dr. Caldwell said that of the many notices of Dr. Norris in the papers previous to the indictment seemed favorable. He cited the publication of the indictments, as the only statements derogatory to Dr. Norris appearing in the press of the city. Those he explained he considered news.

An inquiry as to prominent citizens subscribing to a fund for the prosecution of Dr. Norris was the occasion of the State relying by asking if A. E. Want, W. E. O'Connell and G. H. Connell, deacons of Dr. Norris' church were not contributors. Dr. Caldwell had no direct information regarding this alleged fund.

Yesterday afternoon's proceedings When court reconvened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon attorneys for the State introduced a controverting affidavit signed by County Attorney John W. Haskin, and the judge withdrew his ruling overruling the motion for change of venue, in order that witnesses might be heard on the motion.

The defense asked until Wednesday morning to consider the controverting affidavit and to prepare for the fight over the motion, and this called forth a somewhat strong and stinging lecture from the judge on the amount of "floundering around" that was being done.

After considerable discussion the defense was allowed until 4 o'clock to consider the affidavit and to prepare another motion for presentation.

When court reconvened at 4 o'clock the defense's bill of exceptions was presented and read by Senator Lattimore, and after Attorney A. J. Clendenen had said that the State had no motion to file, court was adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

As soon as Judge Simmons received a copy of the state's controverting affidavit after 2 o'clock he announced withdrawal of his ruling on the motion of the defense for a change of venue. The text of the controverting affidavit was as follows:

The State of Texas vs. J. F. Norris. In the district court of Tarrant county, Texas. Sixty-seventh judicial district.

Comes now the state, by the county attorney of Tarrant county, Texas, and denies all and singular the allegations in defendant's motion for a change of venue, and says there is not so great a prejudice existing against the defendant, J. F. Norris, in Tarrant county, Texas, as to prevent him from getting a fair and impartial trial in Tarrant county, and he denies that there is any combination of influential persons in said county seeking his conviction, such as to prevent him from receiving a fair and impartial trial, and states affirmatively that no such combination exists, and that there is no such prejudice as alleged, and that the defendant can get a fair and impartial trial in said Tarrant county.

The state would further show unto the court that J. P. Wallace and L. H. Du Bose both reside in the city of Fort Worth, and that the said two compurgators are without sufficient means of knowledge of the facts set forth in said application.

That said two persons possess only a limited acquaintance with the qualified jurors of Tarrant county, Texas, that there are 17,536 qualified jurors in said county, that the two compurgators are acquainted with only a small fraction of the number.

That no combination of influential persons, or any other persons exists in said county, for the purpose of preventing a fair and impartial trial of the defendant, and that the said two compurgators are without knowledge, or means of knowledge, of the existence of any such combination.

And that on the contrary there exists in the county large numbers of persons who are banded together for the purpose of securing his acquittal, and have passed and had published in the press exonerating him in advance of the trial, and are seeking by all methods in their power to secure his acquittal.

Subscribed and sworn to this the 2nd day of April, A. D. 1912.

JOHN W. BASKIN, County Attorney, Tarrant County, Texas.

When it became apparent that the defense would sit for another week, Judge Simmons started speaking. He declared that practically all that had been done in the case, "at least by myself," he interjected, "I don't know what you've done," was to flounder about.

"Now, gentlemen," he said, "I'm not going to take up all this week. I'm going to give you until 2:30 to be ready to go on."

At 2:36 Senator Odell came back into the room, and though his voice could hardly be heard five feet away, made clear to the judge the desire of the defense for a little more time.

"We are anxious to make all the headway possible in this case, your honor," he said, "but there are many of our witnesses we have not consulted. True we had practically four hours between the time of adjournment and the time court convened this afternoon, but our time this morning necessarily was devoted to other matters."

"Owing especially to one allegation they make, it would be a waste of time for us to attempt to go on with the case this afternoon."

"It is going to be necessary for us to lay a predicate for the introduction of testimony to show some of the matters that brought about the conflict (from our standpoint) between the citizenship of this town."

"We hope that your honor will give us a little time to proceed about this matter in a logical manner. It will be necessary for us to go over the files of the papers, see what they have published and arrange them chronologically, and also to ascertain the circulation of the papers, not only in Fort Worth, but in other communities."

"We desire also to show that a petition has been circulated for contributions to employ counsel and we want an opportunity to prepare to show this."

Special Prosecutor Clendenen next spoke.

"They knew, your honor," he said, "what the reply to their motion would be. Any lawyer would know. Before noon they asked for a continuance with the understanding that after court reconvened they would be ready for trial."

"The issue is now joined under all the forms prescribed by law."

Attorney Gillespie then arose and declared that the state had caused all the witnesses to be sworn during the morning session. This statement was denied by the county attorney, who said it was Mr. Cummings.

"Somebody—I don't know who was responsible—jumped up and had all the witnesses sworn," resumed Mr. Gillespie. "I insist that it will be an economy of time for us to take time

Rebels Claim Roberts Took Money Belonging to Rebel General in El Paso.

By Associated Press.
El Paso, Texas, April 3.—The message from Mayor Kelly to Orozco demanding the release of Powell Roberts, arrested in Juarez yesterday, has not reached Orozco at Jimenez because the wires are down. Roberts was taken to Chihuahua last night. Governor Colquitt and the State Department at Washington have been appealed to. Kelly says Roberts was not on the El Paso police force at the time it is charged he took money when the effects of a rebel general were searched here. Roberts was decoyed to Juarez by a telephone message.

Austin, Texas, April 3.—A telegram from Sheriff Edwards at El Paso says the rebels seem to be holding Powell Roberts in an effort to get the Texas officers who searched the rebel's house in El Paso, Texas, to come to Juarez and then to hold them. He says the searchers did only their duty and that the rebels have refused their affidavits.

Investigation Ordered.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—American Consul Edwards at Juarez today was ordered to determine on what authority Powell Roberts is held. DEFEAT FOR SOCIALISTS

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—Defeat for the Socialists was the result of yesterday's city election, Mayor Emil Seidel losing to Gerhard A. Bading by 1,000 votes out of a total of about 30,000 cast. Seidel carried the other Socialist candidates with him to defeat.

Forestalling whatever opportunity might be afforded the Socialists to "come back" a special session of the Wisconsin Legislature is expected to be held in the near future.

The result here is considered important by reason of the fact that Milwaukee was the first large city in the country to elect a Socialist mayor. Since Seidel was elected, a number of smaller towns and cities throughout the country have installed Socialists in office.

The annual meeting of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association will be held in Fort Worth, May 23rd and 24th.

AVIATION MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

MOISANT AVIATORS COMING FOR EXHIBITIONS ON THREE DAYS AT LAKE WICHITA.

YOUNG WOMAN WILL FLY

Mathilde Moisant Will Make Number of Flights—Other Prominent Airmen in Party.

It is practically assured that Wichita Falls will have an aviation meet next week. Lieutenant Jim Anderson, manager of the Moisant International Aviators, Incorporated, has made an offer to bring the aviators to this city provided a guarantee of one thousand dollars can be secured to them; they to receive one-half of the money taken in over that sum. Frank Kell on behalf of himself and J. A. Kemp has agreed to furnish $500 of the guarantee money, and the balance is being raised by popular subscription. J. B. Marlow and Harold Carpenter are on the committee to solicit subscriptions, which fact alone is enough to insure the money will be raised, and the meet held.

The securing of the aviation meet was merely an accident. Harold Carpenter made a trip to Dallas last week and while there witnessed a number of successful flights made in that city. He also formed the acquaintance of Lieutenant Jim Anderson, who formerly was a member of the U. S. Signal Corps. Carpenter pictured to Anderson the advantages of an aviation meet in Wichita Falls in such glowing colors that the lieutenant decided to make a trip to this city and to see for himself. He arrived here two or three days ago, and since that time has been making a quiet investigation of the situation and possibilities of a successful aviation meet here. He was not long in arriving at the conclusion that Wichita Falls is one of the best cities in Texas, and he says that he is looking forward to one of the most successful aviation meets here which have yet been held in the State.

The dates for the meet have been set for Thursday, Friday, and Sunday of next week, and excursion trains will be operated on these days on probably every railroad entering this city.

It is expected the Moisants, who have gained for themselves a national reputation, will attract to this city thousands of people. They will bring three of their best machines, and among the most noted aviators who will make flights here are Andre Houper, the Frenchman, and Signor Francisco Alvarez, the Spanish aviator. Miss Mathilde Moisant, sister of John B. Moisant, who was killed in such a dramatic manner at New Orleans last December, will make several flights in this city and will possibly carry a passenger. Miss Moisant is one of the only two women in the United States who holds an air-pilot's license from the Aero Club of America. She narrowly escaped death a few days ago in Dallas, and has had so many hairbreadth escapes that they have become every day occurrences with her.

Although all of the details of the meet have not yet been worked out, it is probable that the affair will be held at Lake Wichita, and an admission of fifty cents will be charged. In front of the grand stand, spiral slides will be made, and other difficult aerial maneuvers executed to keep the spectators thrilled continually. It is planned to make the meet an unusually successful one in view of the fact that alrph flights in this city in the past have not proven the success which they were intended to be, mainly due to the fact that aviators of sufficient experience were not secured.

WICHITA FALLS MUST MAKE GOOD

PROPERTY OWNERS CANNOT AFFORD TO ALLOW OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE GLASS FACTORY TO PASS.

MONEY MUST BE RAISED

Only Few Hundred Dollars Remains to Be Subscribed to Bring Big Industry.

With about $6050 required to complete the bonus to be raised for the bottle glass factory, two committees are at work this afternoon and it is expected that the entire amount will have been raised by tonight or by noon tomorrow. The committee hope to be able to wire tonight that the fund has been completed, as the time is growing short.

At the conclusion of last night's mass meeting $9750 had been secured. The results of the mass meeting were not what they might have been, the short notice and the election preventing as large an attendance as usual.

Another meeting was held this morning at the Chamber of Commerce rooms to make arrangements to complete the bonus. The two committees consist of M. A. Brin, Marvin Smith and G. D. Anderson, who will visit the merchants and T. B. Noble, Butler Moore, J. B. Marlow, Myles O'Reilly and J. S. Bridwell, who will call upon the property owners. Mr. Noble is chairman of the committee.

Last Night's Meeting.

M. A. Brin, who was appointed a committee of one yesterday morning by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to get together a crowd for the mass meeting at the city hall last night in order to raise the balance of the $15,000 required to secure a glass factory for this city, demonstrated his hustling ability and before the meeting had been dismissed, $9750 of the required bonus had been subscribed by those present at the meeting.

By 8 o'clock last night most of the crowd had assembled and R. E. Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce, called the house to order, and in a short address explained the object of the gathering. He pointed out that this city has at present the opportunity of securing a glass factory employing 125 men at the start, and which according to the plans of those behind the proposition, will increase the number to more than 200 in less than two years after the plant begins operation. The plant is valued at more than $100,000, he said, and all that is required to secure it for this city was for the citizens to raise $15,000 as a bonus, and to furnish a suitable site for the factory.

Mr. Kemp has agreed to furnish the site, Kemp and Kell have subscribed for $5000 of the bonus, the Fairview Heights Realty Company has subscribed to $2500 and it remained for $7500 to be raised by popular subscription, concluded Mr. Huff.

At this juncture it was proposed that before proceeding further a chairman and secretary be elected, and accordingly, R. E. Huff was elected chairman of the meeting and J. W. Forrester, secretary.

Frank Kell addressed the assembled crowd, and in a short speech, explained the object of the assembly, pointed out that Kemp and Kell had put down their names for $5000, that the Fairview Heights Realty Company had signed for $2500, showed that young man drawing an annual salary of $6000 has already resigned his position to assume charge of the glass plant here, and stated that everything is now ready and waiting for the money to be subscribed. The rates on soda ash, a product used extensively in the manufacture of glass, have been suitably adjusted, favorable rates on the manufactured

1149 BALLOTS CAST IN CITY ELECTION

CONTEST FOR CITY ATTORNEY WAS THE MOST SPIRITED AND THE CLOSEST.

BONNER IS WINNER

Gwinn Re-elected City Marshal and McCarthy Defeats Sken for Secretary.

At 1:30 this morning the count of the votes in yesterday's election was completed, with results as above set forth. While the polls closed at 7 o'clock yesterday evening, it was agreed that all who were in line at that time should be allowed to vote and it was nearly 8 o'clock before all the ballots were in.

It is believed that between 50 and 100 citizens failed to vote because of the crowded conditions around the voting box. All yesterday afternoon there was a long line of voters standing in front of the polling place awaiting their turns to vote and when 7 o'clock came there were a number still lined up. By agreement, all who were in line at 7 o'clock were allowed to vote.

According to estimates, there were a number of spoiled ballots, due to the failure of a number of voters falling to scratch out the socialist names after expressing their preference in the independent column. There were 1149 ballots cast, while the largest number recorded in any one race was 1068, in the city marshal's contest.

Until long after midnight a large crowd of citizens waited at the city hall for definite news. The count of the first 500 votes gave an indication of the outcome which was not changed with the final figures. The principal interest centered in the city attorney's race. W. M. Bonner's plurality over J. M. Blankenship was 15 votes. P. W. Householder the present incumbent being third.

While R. L. Hendricks, the socialist candidate for mayor, polled 294 votes, the average socialist strength is estimated slightly in excess of 100 votes. Several socialist candidates received more than that, but their additional strength is attributed more to their personal followings than it is to the number of socialist voting.

The vote was considerably larger than had been anticipated and if it had been believed that there would be as many as a thousand ballots, there would have been two polling places instead of one. The need of additional accommodations for the voters was very strongly emphasized all day long and those who waited until yesterday afternoon to vote were obliged to wait in line, in some cases, for nearly an hour before voting.

The number of "spoiled ballots" was sufficient to have changed the result in some of the races. Many voters marked their ballots on the independent side and failed to scratch out the socialist names, with the result that the ballots showed them voting for two candidates, necessitating the throwing out of the tickets.

The new officers will probably be sworn in next Monday morning.

Hogg Education Day to Be Observed April 26th

The Hogg Education Day will be observed in the public schools of Texas on Friday, April 26. The educational campaign committee of the Hogg Organization has issued a letter concerning the observance of this day, as follows:

It is hereby recommended to superintendents, teachers, and boards of school trustees that Friday, April 26, 1912, be set apart and observed as Hogg Education Day in Texas Public Schools. The purposes to be accomplished in observing the Day are twofold: First, the dedication of this day throughout the State in a uniform effort to stimulate active, genuine, and aggressive interest of every community in behalf of its public school; second, the sympathetic enlargement of public interest through the State in the improvement of all phases of education in Texas. These purposes are in keeping with the idea suggested by the illustrious character whose name is given to this day of educational endeavor, a suggestive program for which is given above.

As an encouragement and as a stimulus in legitimate effort and rivalry the Educational Campaign Committee of the Hogg Organization offers to the pupil who prepares the best essay on "The Financial Value of Education" a prize of $100 in cash, and also to the pupil who prepares the best essay on "The Cultural Value of Education" a prize of $100 in cash; provided, this contest shall be limited to the pupils of such school observing the Day and executing this program. For information governing the contest, see the city or county superintendent of schools, to each of whom full information will be furnished. With little effort, county and city superintendents should supplement the prizes here offered by this committee by inducing merchants, lawyers, and other public spirited citizens to offer local prizes.

for the best essay on each of the subjects mentioned.

Appropriate music or readings should be interspersed in the program, care being taken to devote the exercises to the main objects for which the day is set apart. Above all, teachers should see that the day or half day, as may be the case, is made one of special interest to parents, extending to them urgent invitations to be present. Where convenient, schoolrooms should be decorated and the Texas flag or the United States flag, or both, should be displayed upon the public school building or used in decorating the interior of the schoolhouse; and an exhibit of school work should be arranged in each school observing the Day for the inspection of parents and visitors. A proper observance of the Day will bring the school and the home into closer sympathy and better understanding, and will create a State-wide interest in our educational system, extending from the common public schools up to and including the institutions of higher learning. In small schools, where the local authorities think it desirable, two or more of such schools should unite in appropriately observing the Day. It is believed that this day can and will be made an eventful one for the promotion of the cause of education in Texas.

The following program is suggested:
1. Invocation.
2. Song—"America," by School.
3. Origin and Purpose of the Hogg Movement for Education in Texas; Superintendent or Principal of School.
4. The Financial Value of Education; Selected Pupil of School.
5. The Cultural Value of Education; Selected Pupil of School.
6. Relation of the Property Owner to Public Education; President or Secretary of School Board.
7. How Parents May Help Improve the School; Short Talks by Visitors.

To Promote Education in the South

Nashville, Tenn., April 3.—The thirteenth conference for education in the South opened its three-day session here today with a record-breaking attendance of leading educators, statesmen, editors, lawyers, physicians, farmers, preachers, merchants, manufacturers and public-spirited and thoughtful men and women of all professions and from all walks of life. These conferences, of which, for more than ten years, Robert C. Ogden, the great benefactor for the promotion of education in general and of education in the South in particular. No other agency has had so large an influence on the educational development of the South. No phase of the educational, economic and civic life of the southern states has failed to be helped by these conferences, the influence of which has even been felt in the remotest sections of the North, East and West.

The program of the conference is comprehensive and the subjects to be considered and discussed embrace practically every phase and problem of an educational, economic or civic nature of importance to the development of the South. The various subjects will be considered not alone in the general conference, but at special conferences for which round-table discussions have been arranged. The list of speakers contains the names of many noted men, among them Hon. Walter L. Fisher, secretary of the Interior; Hon. Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war; Hon. Ben. W. Hooper, Governor of Tennessee; Right Rev. Thomas F. Gallor, bishop of Tennessee; Dr. St. Clair McKelway, editor of the Brooklyn Eagle; Hon. Job P. Hedges, the noted journalist and lawyer, of New York; Dr. Walter L. Fiske, editor of the World's Work; Dr. Charles W. Dabney, president of the University of Cincinnati; Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia; Count J. H. von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States; Jonkheer J. Louton, Minister from the Netherlands to Washington; Dr. David F. Queer Stories in a Few Words

Harvard Boys Busy Trying To Get Into "770 Club."
There is a lot of fun about Cambridge because of the initiation stunts of Harvard students for the Institute of 1770 Club. Hunter McGuire of New York rolled a peanut with a needle an eighth of a mile while clad in a hobbie skirt, picture hat and high-heeled shoes.

Another candidate had to measure a given distance with a live eel, while still another rolled a boiled egg up a hill.

Wins Strange Bets Because He Refuses to Take a Dare.
Benjamin Kauffer of Stamford, Conn., has the reputation of never taking a dare when anybody wants to make a bet on the results.

Some of his friends dared him to eat eight eggs right after a hearty dinner, and breaking the shells he had them down in two minutes. Then they dared him to have his head shaved, and now Benny hasn't a hair on his head. He collected bets both times.

Hungry Hound Dog Steals $5000 Worth of Stamps.
A messenger boy ate a sandwich as he walked toward the Greendale distillery in Lawrenceburg, Ind., with $5000 worth of revenue stamps and followed by a hound.

The dog saw the sandwich disappearing and made a jump for the last bite. Instead he grabbed the package of stamps and darted off into an alley. It was the last seen of him or the stamps.

Wolf, Marooned on Ice, Floats Opposite Chicago.
Search is being made by Chicago police for a wolf that is marooned on a cake of ice two miles east of the foot of Chicago avenue.

The animal is supposed to have been caught napping in the wilds of the North and carried down to Chicago. The men in shore were unable to get out to him because of the rough water.

Chicken Dinners Missing; Bishop Rebukes Women.
Bishop Quayle from the pulpit at the St. Louis Methodist Episcopal conference at Kansas City announced that the good women who were feeding the preacher delegates "forgot the traditional food of the Methodist minister and failed to provide yellow-legged chickens."

The women were thrown into a panic, but since the rebuke chicken has been served at every meal.

WITHERSPOON GOES TO FORT WORTH

Wichita Falls fans will be interested in the following, clipped from the Dallas Times-Herald:

Walter Morris has bought "Stopper" Witherspoon of Denton, the hard-hitting shortstop who was with Wichita Falls last year. This Witherspoon is "some" player, and is well known in Dallas. He hit well above the 400 mark last year, and fans in every portion of the state watched eagerly the accounts of the games in which Wichita Falls figured, in order to see what the Denton county man had done. Morris is elated. Bob Hedges tried to get Witherspoon for his Browns aggregation last season but Witherspoon would not agree to a baseball career. Now he says he's in the game to stay. He talked over business with Morris Saturday and then left for Chickasha, Okla., his present home. He reports to the Panther club next Thursday.

Edna Goodrich has finally decided to go into vaudeville, the fancy salary offered her, being the inducement.

FORT SMITH OFFICERS ARE GIVEN DISCHARGE

City Council Takes Action as Result of Lynching There Two Weeks Ago.

Fort Smith, Ark., April 2.—As a result of the lynching here, a week ago last Saturday night of Sanford Lewis, a nineteen year old negro boy, son of a minister at Moffit, Okla., the city council Monday discharged Bryant L. Barry, chief of police, Sam Smart, night captain, Cathy Pitcock, chief of detectives and eight patrolmen abolished the detective bureau. This action was taken after a committee of councilmen investigated the conduct of the police on the night of the lynching. Witnesses told the committee several officers left the city jail and returned to their beats while the mob was battering down a window to lynch Andy Carr, deputy constable, who fled in his injuries today. Prosecutor Paul Little claims he has evidence showing that Lewis was unarmed and did not shoot Carr. A special grand jury is investigating the lynching and arrests have been made. The grand jury will reconvene Wednesday and possibly adjourn sine die Friday and its final report is expected to tee with sensational.

Idaho delegates to the Democratic national convention are to be selected at a State convention to meet at "ouer d' Alene, June 3.

Congressman H. H. Bingham, who has just died at his home in Philadelphia, represented the First Pennsylvania district in the House for 33 years.

The Republican State convention of Wyoming to select delegates to the national convention at Chicago has been called to meet in Cheyenne on May 13.

The socialists believe the first State they will carry will be Nevada where a great effort is to be made to elect a socialist governor and legislature this fall.

Champ Clark is to be the chief speaker and guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the Jefferson County Democratic Club in Louisville on the night of April 6.

Herman Ridder, who was treasurer of the Democratic national campaign committee four years ago, is now mentioned as a possible candidate or governor of New York.

The States that are yet to hold residential preference primaries as provided for by law, and the dates, are as follows: Oregon and Illinois, April 9; Nebraska, April 17; Massachusetts, April 30; California, May 8 and New Jersey, May 8.

William J. Bryan, Governor Dix, favor Gaynor, Senator O'Gorman, Governor Woodrow Wilson and Champ Clark are to be the speakers at the Jefferson birthday banquet to be given in New York city on the night of April 13, under the auspices of the National Democratic Club.

Ormsby McHarg, former Assistant secretary of Commerce and Labor, who organized the Southern States and President Taft four years ago, and carried the contested delegations away through the national committee meeting at Chicago, has been placed in charge of Colonel Roosevelt's contests in the South.

Since the presidential election of 1908 the States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maine, Indiana and Ohio have elected Democratic governors. Since the otes of these States are considered so vital to the success of the Republican national party in the approaching campaign, the politicians are asking one another whether the States named will vote the Republican presidential ticket this year, as they have one in all campaigns beginning with 1896 or follow the Democratic tendency as evidenced in the results of the last State elections.

Make Your Store-Advertising as Much a Fixed Feature of Every Issue of This Newspaper as is Our Editorial Page

A "feature," or department, of a newspaper wins its readers a few at a time.

Out of thousands who "scan" and "glance at" a store's advertising in this issue, a few hundred will read ALL OF THAT STORE'S ADVERTISEMENT IN THE NEXT ISSUE. But, if that store's advertisement does not APPEAR IN THE NEXT ISSUE, this process of winning regular readers is broken up.

It would be so with our Editorial Page. If it did not appear REGULARLY, it would forfeit the interest and attention of MOST OF ITS READERS. And the same would be true of our Sporting Page, of our Woman's Page, and of other features of the paper, which build up their circles of readers surely and steadily, issue by issue.

A store's advertising gets to be MOST EFFECTIVE after it has become a REGULAR FEATURE of the paper—gaining with EVERY ISSUE, new "regular readers," AND HOLDING THOSE GAINED by making the store news really important to them.

This is the law and the "secret" of store-advertising success—ALL OF IT.

RATIONS FOR FARM HORSES AND MULES

There are many inquiries made at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas for rations of various kinds of animals. John C. Burns, professor of animal husbandry has prepared the following for farm horses and mules doing from medium to hard work, each ration being the amount fed per 1000 pounds live weight per day.

Ration No. 1.—15 lbs. ear corn or 12 lbs. corn (shelled or chops) 7 lbs. alfalfa hay, 7 lbs. prairie hay.

Ration No. 2.—12 1/2 lbs. ear corn, or 10 lbs. corn (shelled or chops), 2 lbs. cottonseed meal or cake, 14 lbs. prairie hay.

Ration No. 3.—10 lbs. kafir corn or milo maize, 2 lbs. cottonseed meal, 14 lbs. sorghum hay.

Ration No. 4.—8 lbs. rice bran, 4 lbs. blackstrap molasses, 2 lbs. cottonseed meal, 14 lbs. prairie hay.

Ration No. 5.—7 lbs. ear corn or 6 lbs. corn (shelled or chops), 4 lbs. oats, 2 lbs. wheat bran, 14 lbs. bermuda hay or prairie hay.

Ration No. 6.—9 lbs. kafir corn, 2 lbs. cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. wheat bran, 14 lbs. kafir corn stover.

Ration No. 7.—7 lbs. kafir corn (threshed) or 8 lbs. kafir corn heads, 2 lbs. cottonseed meal or cake, 18 lbs. kafir corn in bundles.

Ration No. 8.—12 1/2 lbs. ear corn or 10 lbs. corn (shelled or chops), 3 lbs. wheat bran, 7 lbs. alfalfa hay, 7 lbs. sorghum hay.

Ration No. 9.—10 lbs. rice bran, 2 lbs. cottonseed meal, 14 lbs. prairie hay, sorghum hay or bermuda hay.

Ration No. 10.—12 lbs. kafir corn or milo maize heads, 8 lbs. alfalfa hay, 6 lbs. sorghum hay, prairie hay or kafir corn stover.

These rations are not absolute as to the quantity an animal should receive. They are intended to meet the average requirements of horses and mules doing medium to hard work and fed entirely under dry lot conditions.

The feeder, by studying the needs of his animals and noting their condition, can soon regulate the quantity. The proportion of each feed, however, should be approximately as suggested.

The ration which proves to be cheapest in any given locality should be the one to use.

It makes the keep of the horse or mule much cheaper and prolongs his life and period of usefulness, if at night, and at other times when not at work, he has access to pasture. With good pasture, the roughage of hay than recommended will be needed.

In using cottonseed meal, or cottonseed cake, it will not be well to feed over 2 lbs. per 1000 lbs. live weight per day. Care should be taken to get animals up to this amount of cake or meal gradually.

The Danger After Grip. Lies often in a run down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. The traveling list on the big ship will have 600 names on its first class roll, in addition to 500 second class and 2,000 third cabin passengers. To this will be added the crew of 800, making a total floating population of nearly 4,000.

Call to Inspect Victoria Lands. San Francisco, Cal., April 3.—About two hundred farmers, mostly from California and other States of the Pacific Coast, sailed from this port today on the steamship Tahiti for Australia, to make a thorough inspection of the available irrigated lands of Victoria. The excursionist are in charge of Mr. William C. Smith, a member of the Irrigation Commission of Victoria, who came to the United States a few months ago to promote the trade relations between Victoria, the United States and Canada and to induce competent agriculturists to settle upon the reclaimed and irrigated lands of Victoria. According to his statements there are in Victoria about 1,000,000 acres of land which can be reclaimed for agricultural purposes and of these 150,000 acres are already under irrigation. The climatic conditions are almost the same as those of lower California and the land is said to be especially well suited to the raising of fruit and vegetables and for dairying.

PRESIDENT SCHAFF IS COMING SOON

New Head of Katy Expected Here Some Time This Month on First Inspection Trip.

Special to the Times.

San Antonio, Tex., April 3.—In the coming of C. N. Whitehead, secretary and treasurer of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas System, to the State, Katy officials and representatives see the advance guard of representatives of their company that will make the anticipated inspection trips following the retirement of President A. A. Allen and the succession of C. E. Schaff. Mr. Whitehead reached Dallas Sunday morning and came South Sunday night in the private car of General Superintendent A. D. Bethard. He is expected to go over all the lines in Texas before returning to New York.

Mr. Bethard said that, while not officially advised as to the exact date of the coming of President Schaff, he was looking for him to arrive in the State before the middle of the current month. The new president, it is confidently thought, will make a thorough inspection of practically every mile of the road in this State. He has never been in Texas, officially, at least before, and there are many things for him to learn about the property. It may be that he will spend at least a week in Texas.

Mr. Schaff's first stop is likely to be made at Denison. He will want to go over the Wichita Falls division and incidentally, take a peep at the "Wichita Falls Route," generally believed to be under Katy control. He will, of course, make a stop at general offices in Dallas and, very probably, will want to take a ride over the Texas Central between Waco and Rotan. He will be escorted to Austin for presentation to the members of the railroad commission and other State officials and will then, according to the tentative program, come to San Antonio, going from there to Houston and Galveston. It is believed he will desire to see the Tripp and Colmsen division and the Shreveport division, as well.

Of course, Mr. Bethard will accompany his new chief. General Attorney Alexander Coke will also be of the party, which is likely to include several of the Katy directors and, possibly, Chairman Trumbull himself. Of the journey to be made during the next fortnight will depend, in a large measure, the result of the recommendations Mr. Schaff will make to the board. The matter of the use of the International and Great Northern tracks out of Austin to San Marcos the renewal of that contract or the building of a distinct Katy line, is no the smallest of the issues that Mr. Schaff's negotiations between the Katy and the International are still pending. He frankly admits he has little idea yet what view of the whole proposition will be taken by the new president.

RALPH MATNIS WON MILE RACE

Freshman From Wichita Falls Makes Excellent Showing in State University Track Meet.

At the yearly inter-class track meet held last Saturday afternoon on Clark field at the University of Texas in Austin, the Freshmen captured practically every event of the meet for the first time in years, and some of the best material in the State was discovered for future inter-collegiate meets. Among those who comprise this material is Ralph Matnis of this city, who easily won the mile run, the having covered the entire distance in the remarkable time of five and one-fifth minutes.

Last Saturday's issue of the Texas, the semi-weekly student publication at the University, contained the following: "Freshman Matnis is one of the best young milers who ever struck a spike in Clark field cinders. He handles himself like a veteran, and has plenty of stamina." This is Ralph Matnis's third year of track experience, the first meet in which he participated being held near Iowa Park in 1910, in which meet he easily proved the winner. Last year he was a member of the Bingham, North Carolina Military School Track squad and showed up unusually well there. This year he is a candidate for the track team squad at the University and stands a good chance of winning a letter.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Wichita Falls the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. G. A. Swope, carpenter, 612 Burnett street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "Some years ago I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I now confirm all I then said. I had pains across the small of my back and in my sides and besides this here was difficulty with the kidney secretions. My ankles became swollen and I had terrible pains in my neck and sides. The contents of a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills entirely cured me. I seldom have occasion to use a kidney remedy, but when I do, Doan's Kidney Pills always give me excellent results. It gives me pleasure to recommend this excellent remedy."

New Type of Destroyer. Quincy, Mass., April 3.—The destroyer Henley, representing a type of torpedo boat destroyer new to the American navy, was successfully launched today at the yard of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company.

The Henley will be the first of the destroyers fitted with both turbine and reciprocating engines. The reciprocating engines will be used for cruising at from ten to sixteen knots speed. When the vessel is to be run at a higher rate of speed the reciprocating engines will be cut out and the turbines operated. The contract speed of the Henley is set at twenty-nine knots an hour, but it is expected that she will be able to make at least thirty-one knots.

The Henley is named to commemorate the deeds of two brothers, John and George Henley and Robert Henley. They were nephews of Martha Washington and both were distinguished officers in the early days of the American navy. John Henley commanded the Carolina, the vessel which so aided Andrew Jackson at New Orleans in breaking the force of the advance of the British army. Robert Henley served in the navy during the war of 1812 and particularly distinguished himself at the battle of Lake Champlain.

Charles Frohman is bringing the extraordinary Russian actor, Paul Orloff, into his Garrick Theatre, New York, for an indefinite season in Russian plays. Some of these have been carried from performances in Russia. Orloff's repertoire includes "Caroodor," "Car Paul I.," "Ghosts" and an unusual "Hamlet."

303 UNION LABEL 303

 This Date in History.
 April 3.
 1755—Gen. Simon Kenton, noted western pioneer, born in Fauquier county, Va. Died in Logan county, O., April 29, 1836.
 1783—Washington Irving, famous writer, born in New York City. Died in Irvington, N. Y., Nov. 28, 1850.
 1798—Mississippi territory organized by act of Congress.
 1862—United States senate passed the bill abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia.
 1863—The Knights of the Golden Circle were arrested at Reading, Pa.
 1911—Federal court at Little Rock decided against the Government in $100,000,000 Alaska coal land suits.

The political line-up of the next city council will stand about as follows: Mayor, democrat; council, two democrats, two republicans, one independent.

The meat packers were probably disappointed in that they were not fined heavily in order that they might have an excuse for advancing the price. They were not fined, however, but that does not seem to have prevented them from putting on a raise of 5c per pound on choice cuts. The government might just as well have stuck them for a few million, as the consumer is going to be forced to pay the penalty.

Wichita county Democrats should see to it that a solid Wilson for president delegation is sent to the State convention. And again, the delegation that is sent from Wichita county should be instructed to vote for a member of the State executive committee to represent this senatorial district who will vote for, endorse and favor a proposition to provide primary elections to be held for the selection of all candidates for office from president down.

The Socialist vote in yesterday's election was not as strong as was expected. Their candidate for mayor, who is a popular railroad engineer, polled 204. Their candidate for aldermen 180 and 157 respectively, and for the office of city secretary, marshal and assessor and collector their candidates polled 119, 171 and 115 respectively. Presuming that all the candidates on the Socialist ticket polled the full strength of the party, and that none were scratched, it would then show the Socialist vote in the city, polled at yesterday's election was but 115 votes. The other candidates on the ticket were stronger than their party.

The result of last night's mass meeting was perhaps the most disappointing gathering of that nature ever held in Wichita Falls. It was for the purpose of raising the pitiful sum of $7500 as the remaining half of a subsidy to secure for this city an enterprise that will give regular employment the year round at high wages more than one hundred men, and a little less than $2000 of the necessary amount was subscribed at that meeting. This is not "the Wichita Way" of doing things, and if we fall down on this proposition it will be the first time in years that the people of this city have let go by default an opportunity of securing an enterprise of such great importance. A committee has been appointed to make another effort to raise the necessary amount, and the Times hopes by tomorrow to be able to give a more encouraging report. This is an enterprise that can but help to benefit all, in that it will increase our population, and give employment to at least one hundred people. The faster the population of Wichita grows, the greater will be the property values. We should by all means, secure this enterprise, and this can be done if those who have always heretofore done their full share, will do so again.

At yesterday's city election it is estimated that more than one hundred qualified voters who desired to vote in that election did not do so for the reason that after making their way to the city hall found that it would be necessary to stand in line for from fifteen to thirty minutes before being admitted to the polling place. Had all who desired to exercise the privilege of voting it might not have changed the result, but the fact is plainly apparent that had two or more voting places been provided all would have had an opportunity to vote without so much inconvenience. At no time during the day, from the time of the opening of the polls until they were closed was it possible to cast a ballot without being forced to stand in line. The Times trusts that this matter will not be overlooked at the next election. Had a full vote been cast the total would have been near 1500, instead of only about 1149.

SENATOR BOB TAYLOR
 (By Homer T. Wilson)
 Bob Taylor has gone home and our country is sad. "Love, laughter and song" has been changed into sorrow. The "Fiddler and the Bow" has thrilled the human heart for the last time. A great soul has passed from earth to a rich reward, and sorrowful multitudes now suffer unutterable grief. His intimate friends know so well the love of his great soul. Sacrifice for a friend was his greatest pleasure. The criticism of a political enemy did not deter him from helping a poor fellow, even behind prison bars. I once heard him say: "Gratitude is the first step to manhood, and ingratitude is the basest principle of the human heart." To me this is the grandest utterance I ever heard. Senator Taylor exemplified this noble principle through his whole life.

On a recent visit in Washington he said: "You have just come in time, I want you to go with me to see a dying friend, an old Confederate soldier who was responsible for my nomination the first time for Governor of Tennessee." I accompanied him to the bedside of his lifelong friend. He asked me to talk to him about "the home beyond." I did so. We bowed at his bedside and prayed. I will never forget that scene. I afterward learned that for many years Bob Taylor had cared for his friend as tenderly as a fond mother would her babe. And at last laid him to rest and covered his grave with flowers of sweetest memory that will never fade.

On the threshold of that unknown sea, I sometimes wonder why must such prized souls be called away when there are so many hearts hungering for such love and friendship. Some day we may understand, just now the shadows are deep.

It would seem that every good citizen tried on yesterday to do his duty by going to the polls, but some in who were not in the habit of standing in line for a half hour in order to exercise the privilege of voting were content to go on about their own business and let the fellow who had time to burn to do the voting.

In an address to the people of Texas, Col. Jake Wolters says that if elected to the United States senate he will practice law for the corporations while in the service of the people. The reader will note that it was Col. Wolters who dared to make such a statement, and there is not much danger that it will be construed as a reflection on anyone else.

EVIDENCE IS SUBMITTED FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

To determine what witnesses shall be introduced and how they shall be introduced, Mr. Clendennen, "that if there is to be additional pleading like the motion they have presented, setting up a lot of shams, we ask that they submit it here and now." Attorneys for the defense objected to this suggestion, declaring that they could not present something that was not prepared. "Gentlemen," said Judge Simmons, "that's the trouble with this case, I'm not going to try it that way. If you want time to get your witnesses ready all right. If you have any other motions to file—file them." The judge flatly refused to adjourn until Wednesday morning except with the distinct understanding that witnesses would be introduced.

"There's no use writing a history of this case in the pleading," he continued. "We can't take up a week pleading this case." Attorney Cummings here explained that all the witnesses asked was until Wednesday morning, and Judge Simmons resumed: "Gentlemen, I'm going to get this case on an issue this evening, and drive a peg down so it can't get away. I'll give you until 4 o'clock to file your motion, and if it is not in by midnight I'll pass on it tonight, so we can get to the testimony tomorrow morning." About 4:17 o'clock the court was reconvened and Attorney Lattimore presented and read a bill of exceptions prepared by the defense. Attorney Clendennen said the state had no motion to file and court was adjourned at 4:40.

The wording of the defense's bill of exceptions was as follows: State of Texas vs. J. F. Norris—In the district court of Tarrant county, Texas, Sixty-seventh judicial district: I. Comes now the defendant herein, and, replying to the affidavit of the state controverting defendant's motion for a change of venue and with respect to the court, demurs to the same and says the same is not in compliance with the statutes of the state of Texas and is wholly insufficient to controvert and deny the issue set up in the defendant's said motion and of this he prays the judgment of the court. And for further and special exception to said answer this defendant would show to the court that said answer is insufficient upon its face and shows in and of its own allegations that there does exist in Tarrant county such combinations, conspiracies and circumstances as to render it impossible for the defendant herein to have and obtain a fair trial.

3. And defendant further specially excepts to said controverting affidavit and motion filed by the state in this case and says the same is not in compliance with the statutes of the state of Texas and is wholly insufficient to controvert and deny the issue set up in the defendant's said motion and of this he prays the judgment of the court. And for further and special exception to said answer this defendant would show to the court that said answer is insufficient upon its face and shows in and of its own allegations that there does exist in Tarrant county such combinations, conspiracies and circumstances as to render it impossible for the defendant herein to have and obtain a fair trial. And the matters and facts contained in their affidavits, the affiant giving as a reason only the fact that both of said jurors reside in the city of Fort Worth, Texas, and inasmuch as it is not insisted that they are not credible witnesses and persons and that they do not reside outside the limits of Tarrant county, Texas, the fact of the particular place of their residence in Tarrant county is no reason at all as to why they should not be fully cognizant of each and every matter or fact and thing to which they have sworn.

The statement contained in said controverting affidavit that said combinations, conspiracies and circumstances with the qualified jurors of Tarrant county, Texas, and that they are acquainted with only a small fraction of the total number, alleged to be 17,536, is not such fact as controverts their means of knowledge or information concerning the things and matters about which they have testified, for the reason that their acquaintance might be limited as aforesaid and yet they have sufficient knowledge of the sentiment and public opinion and alleged combination as would fully justify the defendant in making the affidavit in support of the defendant's motion for a change of venue.

4. Defendant further specially excepts to said controverting affidavit and motion for the reason that it does not affirmatively appear therein or therefrom that the affiant has a personal acquaintance or any acquaintance whatsoever with the defendant's compurgators, or that he has any means or information as to what they know about the matter set forth in their supporting affidavit to defendant's motion for a change of venue.

5. Further specially excepting to the controverting affidavit filed herein, by the state, this defendant says that said controverting affidavit nowhere traverses or denies that there is a dangerous combination against this defendant, instigated by influential persons, by reason of which he cannot expect a fair trial in said county of Tarrant.

resolutions, declaring confidence in him and the belief in his innocence, and that a number of his friends have been assisting him in the prosecution of his defense, but only to the end of securing for him a fair trial of the issues involved and seeking by no other means and methods other than legitimate and honorable ones to bring this case to a just conclusion. While Attorney A. J. Clendennen, special prosecutor in the perjury case against Rev. J. Frank Norris, was in the court room yesterday afternoon waiting for court to convene he was served with a subpoena to appear as a witness for the defense in the case against Mr. Norris. Mr. Clendennen joined in the plea that followed served by Deputy Sheriff Alderman.

"I guess I'll be here," he said. "Think they'll put you under the rule, Mr. Clendennen?" someone asked. "Well, hardly," was his answer. Many ministers of the city are attending upon the Norris trial. Alonzo Monk, Jr., city missionary for the Methodist Churches, Monday afternoon occupied a post at Judge Simmons' desk while the arguments to quash the indictment were being argued by the attorneys for Dr. Norris. Rev. William Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Jerome Duncan, presiding elder of the Methodist Church for the Fort Worth district, and Rev. J. P. Hicks, pastor of Hemphill Presbyterian Church, were also present at the Monday afternoon session. Rev. W. Caldwell, pastor of the Taylor street Presbyterian Church, was present Tuesday morning. None of the other Baptist pastors have been in attendance so far.

Dr. Norris chatted gaily without reference to the case when he came to the courthouse Tuesday morning and did not seem disappointed that his attorneys had lost the first skirmish in their motion to quash the indictment. Friends of Dr. Norris declare he is pleased at this—that the step was taken only over his protest but that, like arguing with a physician over an operation for appendicitis, the physician has his way or threatens to drop out of the case.

Big hats already have begun to cause trouble in the courtroom and it is likely that the Sneed trial rule for removal of hats will soon be invoked. One large hat worn by a pretty girl Monday afternoon kept four men busy trying to look around it. Some woman who will start the fashion of wearing one of the little net theatre caps to the trial will earn the gratitude of all the men.

 commodity have been arranged, and the glass factory men are ready and willing to come to this city and to put their money and their brains into the factory to make it a success. Mr. Kell ended by saying that in view of the splendid opportunity which this city has of securing a factory of the proportions of the one under discussion, that he as an individual, would feel discouraged if the citizens failed to respond to the proposition, and allowed it not to form against the progressive reputation already possessed by Wichita Falls.
 Following Mr. Kell's address, the new secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, J. W. Forrester, formerly of Fort Scott, Kansas, was introduced and opened a short talk by saying that he was proud to make his first appearance before the people of this city under such circumstances. "You are going about the matter in the proper way," he remarked, and he proceeded to contrast the history of the development of a number of the most progressive cities in the country with the history of a number of others with the view of showing that it is the city which possesses the progressive citizens which wins its way to the front. In other words, it is the progressive spirit which in a great measure is responsible for the growth of cities. Mr. Forrester said that he intended to discover this spirit in Wichita Falls.
 R. E. Huff, as chairman of the meeting, then took up the business of the evening, first explaining that an arrangement had been completed by means of which those who subscribed to the bonus could pay 25 per cent down, 25 per cent in three months, 25 per cent in nine months and 25 per cent when the factory begins operation. W. M. McGregor, T. C. Thatcher and P. P. Langford were appointed a committee to receive and look after the subscriptions when they have been collected. Volunteers were then called for and the following responded:

Card of Thanks.
 As I review the campaign of the past six days which culminated on April 2nd in my election to the office of city attorney of Wichita Falls, I am reminded more and more forcibly how much I am indebted to my friends for my victory.
 To those who stood in line, to the neglect of their own affairs, to those three hundred and eighty-six men who at the polls expressed their confidence in me, and to those loyal ones who worked for me so faithfully, I convey at this, the earliest opportunity, my undying gratitude and appreciation. I wanted the office—it is mine, and to my friends alone the credit is due. The night will never become so dark or so stormy that, if one calls, I will fail to respond to the extent of my ability.
 Allow me to also thank my two opponents for the gentlemanly manner in which they conducted their campaign against me and to also thank their lieutenants for the cleanliness of their efforts to forward the candidacy of the men whom they deemed most worthy of support.
 Respectfully,
WM. N. BONNER.
 Steve Otto, a prominent land man of Scotland, was in the city Tuesday and informed the News man that an oil derrick was being erected on W. M. Coleman's ranch, one mile north of Scotland, and on the north bank of Little Wichita river. This land is under lease to J. E. Head, of Tulsa, Okla. They will probably be ready to commence drilling next week and the lease calls for 2,000 feet. This well is located 12 miles northeast of Archer City—Archer County News.
 Chris Young this week leased for oil purposes his 305-acre tract of land adjoining the incorporation of this city on the south to E. S. Foster at one dollar per acre cash, drilling to commence inside twelve months—Archer County News.

Several days ago we advertised that we would make loans. To say that we have been doing some business in this respect, since that notice appeared, would state it mildly. We will loan out $100,000 additional without delay on approved security.

We prefer to make loans in small amounts, about the size required by farmers. In doing so we believe the greatest good can be accomplished. We have faith and predict this year's crop will be a good one.

Value of Land. Austin, Texas, April 3.—A comparison of the valuation of land by counties as shown by the reports in the Comptroller's office with that just announced by the Federal Census Bureau, shows a wide variation between the assessed value and the true value of farm property. The Census Reports show the average value of land in the state at $14.53 per acre and the land is assessed at $6.53 per acre. The comparison shows that land is assessed at 45 per cent of its true value, accepting the Census Bureau's Report as the true value of the property. In Wichita county the census enumerators value the land at $28.76 per acre and the tax assessors at $12.54

CARL MORRIS BACK IN AN ENGINE CAB

Oklahoma's "White Hope" Decides Prize Fighting is Too Brutal.

Sapulpa, Okla., April 1.—Carl Morris Saturday resumed his position at the throttle of a Frisco switch engine in the yards here, the place vacated the night of July 4, 1910, when after the defeat of Jim Jeffries by Jack Johnson, Morris declared he would quit engineering to recover the championship for the white race.

But after twenty months of the fighting game Carl has quit temporarily at least because of the "brutality of the game and the fact that it is filled with thugs and degenerates," according to his statement.

In his ring career Morris won eleven battles and lost two, one to Jim Flynn and the other to Jim Stewart. He declares he will return to the ring, and yet will defeat Johnson, but does not know when he will don the gloves again.

APRIL FOOL JOKE; WOMEN FAINT
Dummy of Man Thrown from New York Skyscraper Not Funny to Ambulance Doctor.

New York, April 1.—Hundreds of pedestrians crowded in Narrow Nassau street, in the financial district, shrank back in terror this evening when the form of a man came hurtling down from the twenty-fourth story of the Liberty Tower building. Several stenographers in windows on the opposite side of the street fainted, and some one turned in an ambulance call. Police officers rushed to the spot where the figure fell and found it to be a dummy stuffed with hay, with a broomstick for a backbone and a false face to make it realistic. The ambulance surgeon did not appreciate the April Fools' Day comedy and drove away, leaving a street cleaner to gather up the debris.

BIG GAINS MADE BY RELIGIOUS DENOMINATION

Disciples of Christ, Better Known As Christians Jump From Eighth to Sixth Place

The current issue of the official Year Book of the Disciples of Christ contains some very interesting information relative to the growth and activities of this particular religious denomination.

Official figures from all sources show that on Dec. 31, 1911, this body had 11,250 active churches, with an aggregate membership of 1,375,000, making it rank fourth among the Protestant bodies of the Anglo-Saxon race in America and sixth among all the Christian bodies.

In comparing the growth of the Disciples with that of the ten other leading religious bodies, the compilers of the Year Book have graded the list according to the numerical strength and gain of each denomination: Roman Catholic, Methodist Episcopal, Regular—Baptist South, Regular Baptist Colored, Methodist Episcopal South, Disciples of Christ, Presbyterian North, Regular Baptist North, Protestant Episcopal, Lutheran Synodical Conference, Congregationalist.

It also shows that in moving up from the eighth to the sixth place they passed the Presbyterians and Regular Baptists, the largest gain for the year being 110,000 made by the Catholic bodies; the Methodist coming next.

But, if taken in single religious bodies, they would stand in gains in the following order: Roman Catholic, 110,000; Disciples of Christ, 89,759; Regular Baptist South, 49,749; African Methodist Episcopal, 47,874; Cumberland Presbyterian, 40,000; Lutheran Synodical Conference, 39,755; Regular Baptist Colored, 34,589; Methodist Episcopal South, 32,000; Greek Orthodox Church, 30,000; Methodist Episcopal Church, 26,949.

Within the official year, closing Sept. 30, 1911, the Christian Missionary Society alone assisted in the support of 491 missionaries, organized 110 new churches and added 18,247 to the membership of the denomination.

With the increased forces placed in the field since that time, the Disciples hope to show in all departments at their International Convention in Louisville, Oct. 15-22, the greatest gain made by them or any other denomination in a single year. The Louisville Armory, with seating capacity of 20,000, has been engaged for the event and urgent requests sent to every church and mission point to prepare at once for sending delegates which, with the "home coming" sentiment directed to former Kentuckians of the faith, will probably swell the attendance to something like 25,000 to 30,000.

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Texas, was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 312 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results. It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Governor O. B. Colquitt of Texas is preparing to begin his speech making campaign for re-election about the middle of April.

Charles R. Crisp, parliamentary clerk of the House of Representatives and son of the late Speaker Crisp, has announced his candidacy for Congress from the new Third district of Georgia.

Stray Topics From Little Old New York

New York, March 29.—If New York is not yet one of the greatest art centers of the world, it is in a fair way of becoming one. The collection of master paintings in the Metropolitan Art Museum is growing rapidly and every year scores of important, often even world famous pictures by some of the greatest masters of the world has ever known are added to the magnificent private collections of the city's art loving multi-millionaires. J. Pierpont Morgan's wonderful collection of art treasures, a large part of which had adorned the gallery of Mr. Morgan's London mansion or had been loaned to some of the great public galleries of the English metropolis, will soon be gathered together in New York and will form one of the finest private collections in the world.

Besides Mr. Morgan there are quite a number other collectors of paintings and other works of art in this city. Their collections are not as large as that of Mr. Morgan and do not contain such a large variety of art treasures, but the best of the old and the modern masters are represented in them and the collections are constantly increased by the addition of choice canvases. One of the most important additions to a private collection was made the other day, when Mr. Benjamin Altman, the wealthy dry goods merchant, purchased for his gallery two noted paintings by Velasquez, portraits of King Philip IV. of Spain and his Minister, the Duke of Olivares, which had formerly been in the gallery of the Villa Hermosa Palace. It is stated upon reliable authority that Mr. Altman paid more than $1,000,000 for the two paintings. So many famous paintings have been purchased by Americans in recent years that the art lovers in Europe are becoming alarmed, fearing that in the course of time all the remaining masterpieces in the possession of European collectors will find their way to America.

A wealthy California woman who arrived here recently from Europe was arrested the other day for attempting to smuggle jewels of considerable value into this country. She evidently had not yet learned of the new regime in the New York customs house or labored under the delusion that she could outwit the customs authorities of the port. She might have succeeded, perhaps, had she not been too hoggish. Not satisfied with trying to smuggle a number of fine gems outright, she grossly undervalued the few gems mentioned in her declaration of dutiable goods. This aroused the suspicion of the authorities and a careful investigation was made, which led to the discovery of much hidden and undeclared jewelry among her effects and to her arrest.

To oblige a few pious residents of their town the town council of Lodi, N. J., by a vote of four Republicans against three Democratic members recently decided to enforce the old "Blue Laws" which made New Jersey notorious at one time. The town officials being Democrats, found it very distasteful to be compelled to enforce the old law and they decided to shut up everything so tight that the citizens of Lodi would get their fill of "Blue Laws." So strictly did they adhere to their resolution that the town was as quiet as a cemetery on the Sunday following the passing of the ordinance. The few persons who tried to do business in defiance of the law were promptly arrested and among them was one of the councilmen who had voted for the ordinance. The magistrates very promptly dismissed the offenders and since then Lodi has been as wide open as ever in spite of the "Blue Law" ordinance.

Again the suffragists have failed in obtaining favorable action by the State legislature on the woman's suffrage measure, but they are not discouraged by their defeat. With everlasting faith in the theory that falling drops will hollow a stone, they are determined to continue their efforts until they succeed in obtaining what they want. During the last week or so the minds of the suffrage women were so occupied with the momentous problem of Easter millinery, that they had no time for other matters, but after Easter the battle for woman's suffrage will be resumed with renewed vigor. Among the suffrage advocates there are many who advocate the adoption of more militant tactics, after the example of the English suffragettes, but the more conservative element in the suffrage army is strongly opposed to such tactics—at least for the present.

A girl of Elmhurst, L. I., recently took a course in Jiu-Jitsu, the Japanese art of self defense. Many of her friends disapproved of her action as unwomanly, while others, less fastidious, merely could not understand of what benefit such training could be to a girl. The other day, however, the girl made the rounds of her friends and told them a most sensational and exciting story, which set the whole village agog. According to her account she was accosted by a strange man, about six foot tall, when she was on her way home on the evening before. The heroine of the story grabbed the young giant and by a Jiu-Jitsu trick threw him into the gutter. He picked himself up and again spoke to her. Using another trick, she again caused his downfall and this so disheartened him that he slunk away. There were no witnesses to the display of the young heroine's prowess, but the story sounded good and deeply impressed the heroine's friends with the advantages and possibilities of a course in Jiu Jitsu.

In some parts of the city, especially in the districts near the harbor front beggars have become so daring that they jump on street cars and solicit alms from benevolent-looking men who stand on the rear platforms to puff their cigars when the conductor is not looking. In most cases the beggars are husky men who pretend to be sailors "stranded on a lee shore." If the conductor who orders them off the car is a powerful man, the beggars jump off without delay, but if the conductor is a small man, they boldly defy him.

At the first sign of spring the officers connected with the De Lancey Street station, in the midst of the polyglot district of the lower East side, are kept busy picking up children from two to six years who strayed away from their homes and became lost. One fine day the past week twenty-four tots belonging to a dozen different nationalities, were brought to the station by the officers who had found the lost kiddies, crying for their respective mothers. The station looked like a Kindergarten all day and not until the last one of the children had been reclaimed by its frantic mother was there quiet in the station.

A YEAR IN WHICH THERE WAS NO SUMMER

Diary of 1816 Tells of Snow and Ice in July and August—No Crops.

The year 1816 was known throughout the United States and Europe as the coldest ever experienced by any person then living, says the Danbury (Ct.) News. There are persons in Northern New York who have been in the habit of keeping dairies for years, the news goes on to say, and it is from the pages of an old diary begun in 1810, and kept unbroken until 1840 that the following information regarding this year without a summer has been taken:

January was so mild that most persons allowed their fires to go out and did not burn wood except for cooking. There were a few cold days, but they were very few. Most of the time the air was warm and spring-like. February was not cold, some days were colder than any in January, but the weather was about the same. March, from the first to the sixth, was inclined to be windy and came like a small lion and went out like a very innocent sheep. April came in warm, but as the days grew longer, the air became colder and by the 1st of May there was a temperature like that of winter, with plenty of snow and ice. In May young birds were frozen dead, ice coming half an inch thick on ponds and rivers, corn was killed and the corn fields were planted again and gain until it became too late to raise a crop. By the last of May in his climate the trees are usually in leaf and birds and flowers are plentiful. When the last of May arrived a 1816 everything had been killed by the cold.

June was the coldest month of the season ever experienced in this latitude. Frost and ice were as common as buttercups usually are. Almost every green thing was killed; all fruit was destroyed. Snow fell for acres deep in Vermont. There was seven inch fall in the interior of New York state and the same in Massachusetts. There were only a few moderately warm days. Every body looked, longed and waited for warm weather, but warm weather did not come.

It was also dry; very little rain fell. All summer long the wind blew steadily from the north it blows laden with snow and ice. Mothers knit socks of double thickness for their children, and made thick mittens. Planting and shivering were done together, and the farmers who worked out their taxes on the country roads wore overcoats and mittens.

A farmer near Tewksbury, Vt., owned a large field of corn. He built fires. Nearly every night he and his men took turns in keeping up the fire and watching that the corn did not freeze. The farmer was rewarded for his tireless labor by having the only crop of corn in the region.

July came in with snow and ice. On the Fourth of July ice as thick as window glass former throughout New England, New York and in some parts of Pennsylvania. Indian corn, which, in some parts of the East, had struggled through May and June, gave up, and died. To the surprise of everybody, August proved the worst month of all. Almost every green thing in this country and Europe was blasted with frost. Snow fell at Barnet, thirty miles from London, England, on August 30. Newspapers received from England stated that 1816 would be remembered by the existing generation as the year in which there was no summer. There was great privation, and thousands of persons would have perished in this country had it not been for the abundance of fish and wild game.

HOW TO GET RID OF ANTS

The small ants which are a nuisance in the house can be gotten rid of according to Wilmon Newell, State Entomologist at the A. & M. College of Texas, by the following method. Have the druggist prepare a mixture as follows: White arsenic (poison) 2 gram, cane sugar 20 grams, water 100 cc. This will make about three ounces of ant poison. It is well to have the druggist add to it a little red confectioner's sugar so that its color will give warning to its poisonous nature. A small dish of his liquid should be placed under tables, refrigerators, etc., where the ants are in a habit of traveling. They will eat of it greedily for a while and then desert the neighborhood entirely. The solution should be kept in a safe place, away from children and pets and the usual precautions should be taken as in the handling and use of other poisons.

SHANKS OF INDIANA

Samuel Lewis Shank, who started out in life as an auctioneer and at present is the down-with-the-cost-of-living mayor of Indianapolis, told an audience, mostly women at the Berkeley lyceum yesterday, that he was a suffragette, an ardent one, and was sure a suffragette jury would have got a rise out of that beef trust over in Chicago. He said that the method he adopted in Indianapolis could be applied to solve New York's cost of living problem and then he happened on to Boston.

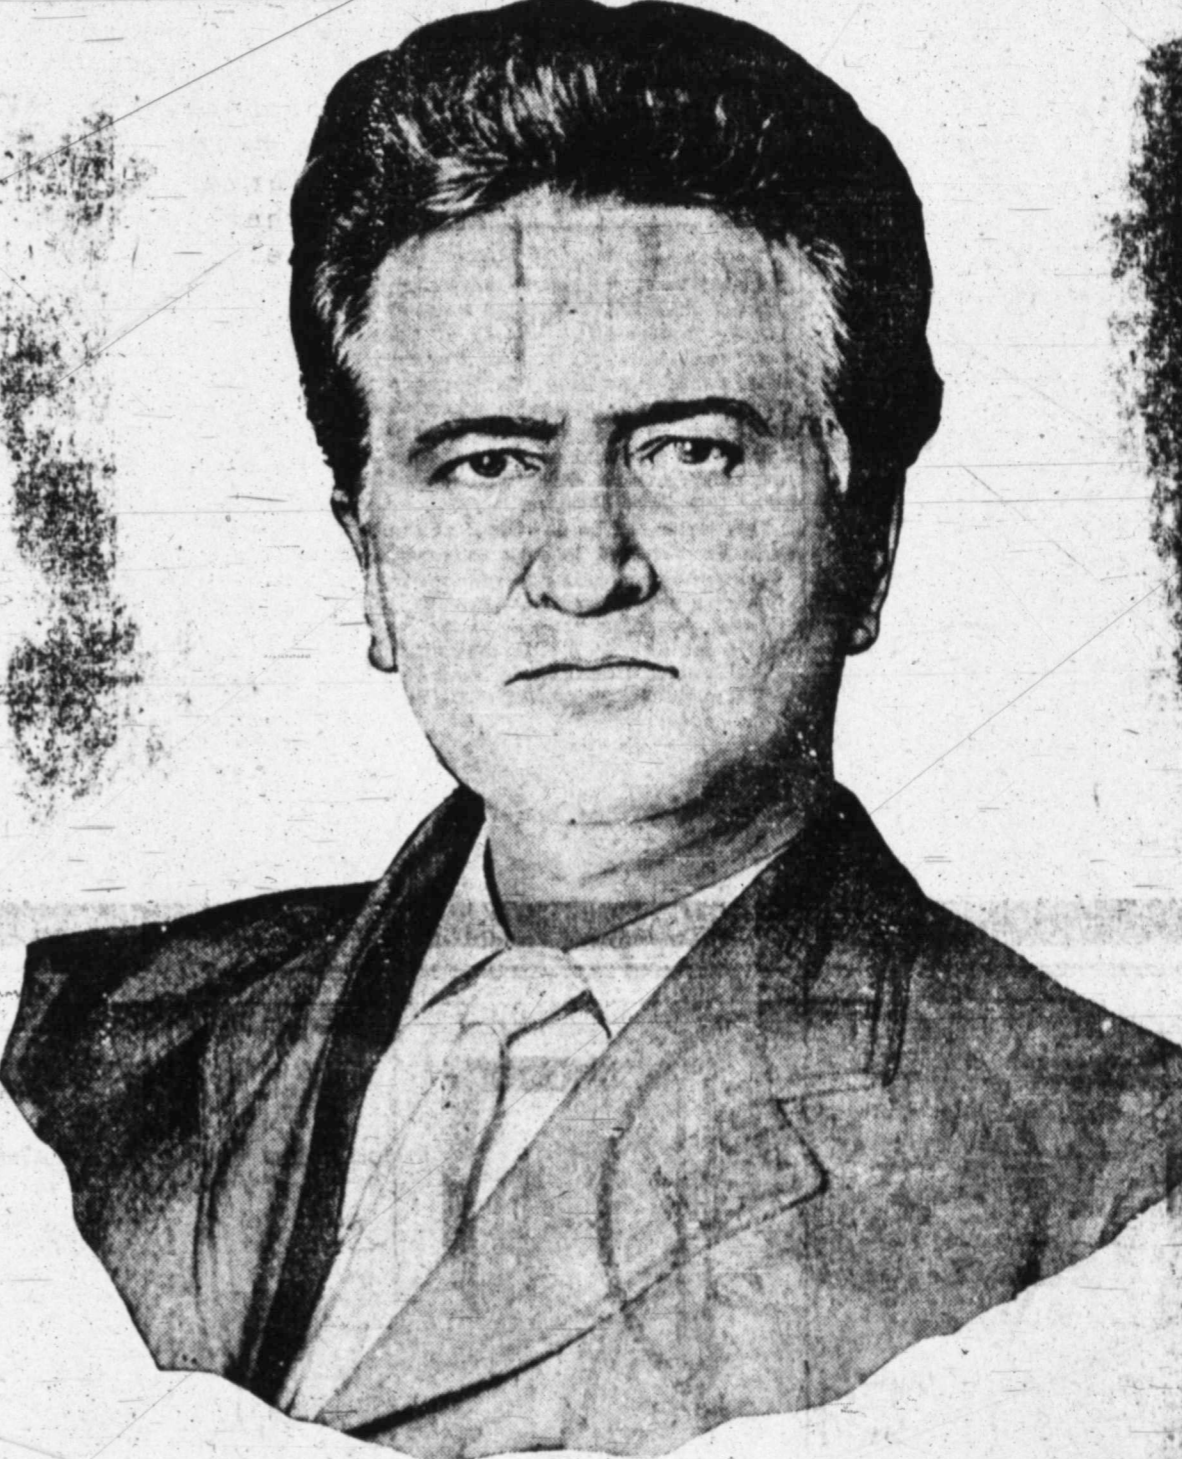

"I've been a learning thing since got into this market basket business," the mayor declared. "I want to tell you why it's a woman's job to tackle this cost-of-living problem. The men are all tied up and hitched together and can't act. They hardly have time to go to the polls, let alone get out on this job.

"Let the women know that if they can't get the price of the butter and eggs and the apples and the potatoes down to what the law of supply and demand ought to make them, they'll have more cash for bonnets and dresses and be a lot happier. Then they'll go to work.

"Why, it's absurd to pay more than 20 cents a pound for butter. Not a cent over that amount goes into the cost of production or distribution or the payment of dividends on honest capitalization. All they charge you over that goes into watering stock and dividends on stocks that were watered last year.

"Do you know what I'd do if I could make one big wish and have it come true? I'd wish all the women would answer a boycott order from some kind of a women's league and then I'd have this league announce a standing boycott against butter every time it goes over 30 cents. The women would act that way on can't get the price would stir up a notch. And if congress would get up on oleomargarine that too would fetch the price tumbling to its proper level.

Robert Marion La Follette, Candidate For the Republican Nomination For the Presidency.

Copyright by American Press Association.
Robert Marion La Follette was born at Primrose, Wis., on June 14, 1855, was graduated at the University of Wisconsin in 1879 and admitted to the bar the following year. He was district attorney of Dane county, Wis., from 1880 to 1884, when he was elected to congress, where he represented the Third Wisconsin district for six years. He was a delegate to the Republican national convention in 1888 and a delegate at large in 1904. He was elected governor of his state for the terms 1901-05, 1903-05 and 1905-07. Soon after his third election to the governorship he resigned to become United States senator and is now serving his second term as such. He received twenty-five votes for the presidential nomination in the Republican national convention of 1908.

wagons. More than that, he said, he was going to give street space free to the wagons of bona fide farmers so that they might come in with their market stuff.

A question as to women tollers in shops started the mayor on a regular outburst against men and his determination to work hereafter with the women.

"It has been a real education to me to be in this marketing business. I've found out we are probably a lot nearer to a big warring revolution in this country than I ever before dreamed we were. I have found out the people are mighty mad about the man that buzzes into his office at 11 o'clock and away at 3 o'clock and cleans up $50,000 a year, whereas they work from 7 o'clock till dark and hardly can keep carfare in their pockets. "I want to serve notice on the rich that they've got to tackle this problem of the poor, and give them a fair share, and do it quick; quicker than I ever would have suspected if I had not mingled among the women with market baskets on their arms and husbands earning from $6 to $10 a week."—New York Times.

Already a host of hungry imitators, in an effort to trade on the reputation the words "Steel-cut" have gained by their connection with Barrington Hall, are using these words for coffee without reference to quality or method of preparation.

If you are persuaded to try a so-called "Steel-cut" coffee, please do not judge our coffee by it, but let BARRINGTON HALL the Bakerized Coffee, the only genuine "Steel-cut" Coffee, speak for itself on your table.

WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE

as Old Sol begins his continuous performance and the feathered songsters of nature tell us that Winter is now a matter of history; while the streets are full of sunshine, Spring millinery, soft tar and dissatisfied paving blocks, that when your throat grabs you by the throat and your entire corporal system kicks like a flock of brown mules for something cold, it is time to do a swift hike to the only real raz ma fax foam factory in the city. We have the only real fizzy foam plant in Wichita Falls and, our service, well, we have all that Webster meant when he slipped that word into his thrilling story, the unbridged. Our ice cream will be the nearest sneak that has been made on perfection since cows were invented and we will feed it to you in dishes at the dime a throw or we own five thousand paper buckets that we will allow you to take it home in. Our terms at the fountain are cash as we do not want to get pinched for wearing out the sidewalks collecting accounts that won't pay for the lead pencils we use on them. Speed is the proper description for our free delivery service.

TARVER MAY FIGHT LOCAL BOXER

Anson White Hope Showed Splendid Form in Exhibition at That Place Monday Night.

Wichita Falls fight fans may soon be given an opportunity of seeing Cass Tarver, the Texas white hope, within the ropes with a local boxer for a real exhibition. It is reported that Tarver's manager is now ready to put his man against those who have expressed a desire to go into the ring with him. Included in this number are two local boxers. Negotiations, it is said, will be opened with Dr. Pratt, Tarver's manager at once.

The Texas laws permit exhibitions not exceeding ten rounds and a bout of this length will give an opportunity to Tarver to show what he has.

Dr. Pratt lately changed trainers for Tarver and Frank Mayo, the Chicago bruiser is now showing the Texas boy the points of the fighting game. Mayo is a fighter of considerable skill. He weighs 220 pounds against Tarver's 250.

On Monday night Mayo put on an exhibition with Tarver in the opera house at Anson. In this exhibition Tarver is reported to have showed splendid ability and fairly smothered Mayo with his left jabs, right crosses and upper cuts and hooks. In the fifth round the big Texas boy put the Chicago man to sleep with a right hook to the jaw. In this round Mayo is reported to have taken the count of eight seconds three times.

The attorney general recently approved road bonds to the amount of $84,000 for Leon county.
