CYCLONE SWEEPS SMALL MINING TOWN IN VICINITY OF BIRMINGHAM.

OTHER STORM REPORTS

Killed in Illinois and Indiana—List of Houses Destroyed at Alford, Other Reports.

Birmingham, Ala., April 22.—It is reported that twenty were killed in a tornado at Adamsville, Pinckney, Brookside and other mining towns in this vicinity this morning. Wires are down and no details can be learned.

17 Killed in Illinois and Indiana. Chicago, Ill., April 22.—Seventeen people are believed to have been killed in a series of tornadoes which swept across parts of Illinois and Indiana just before midnight yesterday. Twelve deaths have been confirmed and five are reported on authority which appears reliable.

A hundred other people were injured, at least eight of them so severely they may die. Damage done to property will amount to thousands of dollars.

The storm swept through the northern part of Murphysboro, Ill., seriously injuring Mrs. George King and two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wilderback. No deaths were reported. Houses were demolished at Murphysboro.

At Reddick, Ill., many buildings were destroyed and Nelson Hulise, his wife and daughter were killed and two other children probably fatally injured when their house fell in on them. Several others were hurt.

Scores of town buildings and farm houses were razed in the vicinity of Coal City, Alleen, Dwight, Odell and Masou City and a number of people injured.

Two sections reported tornadoes at the same time. Most damage apparently was done by that which appeared from Coal County, Ill., and swept eastward, the other being active in and near Murphysboro.

At Kenilworth, Ind., the dead are: Mrs. CHARLES MORRIS, Morocco Ind. Four young children of Mrs. FRANK RICE, a son.

MR. FRANK RICE, his wife MISS CASSIE SMART, Morocco.

Infant sister of Miss Smart.

Those who may die are Charles Smith, Charles Rice, Bruce Hanger, Medda Hammel and Miss Conn.

Others were less severely hurt. Twenty houses were blown down in and near Morocco and fully forty habitations in Newton county were destroyed.

As near as can be judged here the tornado started in Iroquois County, Illinois and swept eastward. Stock was killed when farm buildings went down.

Twelve dead were found at Bush, Ill., and it is expected that more will be found when the debris is cleared away.

Five were killed at Willowville and sixteen houses were demolished.

Four Killed Near Weatherford. Weatherford, Tex., April 22.—Four lives were lost in a severe windstorm which raged about twenty-five miles north of here yesterday afternoon between Agnes and Booneville.

Mrs. Carey Richards and three of her children were killed. Their home was demolished. Mrs. Richards and her twin children aged about 18 months, were killed immediately and the other child a boy about 5 years old, died during the night from his injuries. Relatives living here were notified of the disaster and some of them left for the scene of the storm early this morning.

It is reported that others were injured in the storm, but the wires are down and further information is not now obtainable.

Decatur Hears of Three Deaths. Decatur, Tex., April 21.—The extent of the cyclone's work in this county yesterday afternoon will be in the neighborhood of $40,000. Owing to the telephone wires being out of commission last night it was impossible to get definite news from the scene of the cyclone's visit.

This morning word came that the damage in the Dan community, northeast of this place, is much greater than rumors reported last night.

The Greenwood section suffered in like manner, something like fifteen farm houses being damaged and a great number of horses and cattle being killed. No lives are reported lost in this section.

From the Salt Creek country, southwest of Decatur, comes the news that three members of the Richardson family were killed by the cyclone yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. The damage to houses and stock in that community is reported heavy.

A very heavy hailstorm visited the Rhome country, south of here. Most of the telephone wires in the communities where the storm occurred are down and it will probably be a day before the full extent of the damage is known. The lines are being repaired today.

Property Losses at Alford. Alford, Texas, April 22.—In Saturday's storm the fact of no lives being lost was due to the people seeking safety in storm cellars, they seeing the danger in time to protect Redwine, George Walker, Rev. C. Hines, W. H. Wright, Taylor-Gault, Lines' Telephone Company, Independent Telephone Company.

Almost all of the business houses were more or less wrecked, but none destroyed. The main street where the storm struck, being constructed principally of stone, concrete and brick, were stripped of awnings, glass broken from fronts and tin rods ripped off.

Those sustaining the greater losses are as follows: Frankon Hicks, two buildings; G. H. Redwine, one building; Terrill Collins, two buildings; Masonic Hall, the Alford State Bank, L. E. Pillars, eight buildings; J. L. Norris, two buildings.

The storm struck the southwest side of town and traveled in a north-east direction. All of the houses are cared for, those more fortunate opening their homes to them with a hearty welcome and stand ready to render assistance in the way of reconstructing homes for those who suffered the loss of their homes, and household effects, in many instances the occupants losing all they had and are now destitute.

15 MILLION VOTES IN 1912 ELECTION

Per Capita of Wealth Has Grown to $34 Per Capita.

That more than 15 million persons in the United States will record their votes for President in the campaign of the present year is evident from the official statistics of presidential vote published in the Statistical Abstract of the United States, which has just been issued by the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor. Prior to 1888 no governmental official record of the votes cast for President existed, but an Act passed by Congress on February 3, 1887, made it the duty of the Executive of each State to report to the Secretary of State the names of the electors and the number of votes given for each person voted for, and these reports, made to the Secretary of State in 1888 and in each subsequent presidential election, form the basis of the official record of presidential elections in the United States. This record, which has been published for several years in the Statistical Abstract of the United States, suggests that the total number of votes cast in the presidential election of this year will for the first time exceed 15 millions. The total number of votes cast in 1908, 12,965,000; in 1892, 12,044,000; and in 1888, 11,381,000. Dividing the vote thus officially recorded into the population named by official counts or estimates for the years in question, this shows the average population for each vote cast, as follows: In 1908, 3.98 persons for each vote cast; in 1904, 4.10; in 1910, 5.44; in 1896, 5.10; in 1892, 5.40; and in 1888, 5.27. The statements published in the Abstract, show the vote cast in each State for the various candidates in each presidential election from 1888 to 1908, and the electoral vote by principal political parties, State by State, during the same period.

The above statement, showing the official record of presidential elections during the last quarter of a century, illustrates the variety of interesting and official information presented by the Statistical Abstract issued annually by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its Bureau of Statistics, the thirty-fourth number of which has just made its appearance. It shows, for example, that the average per capita wealth of the country has grown from $307 in 1850 to over $1,300 in 1904, the latest official record on this subject; the money in circulation from $12 per capita in 1860 to $37 per capita in 1900; the bank clearings, from 52 billion dollars in 1887, the first year for which an official record was available to 159 billions in 1911; the individual deposits in banks, from 2 billion dollars in 1875, the earliest year for

THE ARGUMENT HAS OPENED

STATE DISCREDITS TESTIMONY OF MRS. NORRIS.

TO JURY ON WEDNESDAY

Judge Simmons Allows Each Side Eight Hours—Hosey Opens for State—Lattimore for Defense.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 22.—A declaration that the State concurs in the acceptance of the testimony of Mrs. J. F. Norris, and in the attack by the defense on the testimony of Mrs. K. K. Taylor as the imaginings of a nervous headache, marked the opening arguments in the trial of Dr. Norris for perjury Monday morning. Judge Simmons agreed to permit eight hours to a side instead of six but declares he will not permit either to run a minute over that. That will send the case to the jury Wednesday evening.

Monday morning Assistant County Attorney George Hosey who directed the grand jury investigation opened the State's side of the case. He spoke until 10:15, Senator Lattimore opened for the defense and spoke until adjournment at 12:35 o'clock. Baldwin follows for the State.

In addition to the arguments, by agreement H. G. Brickhouse of the Southwestern Telephone Company was permitted to testify as to the telephone messages Detective Ritchie says secured him to delay going to the grand jury with the "top" letters. He said he had found no call to Ritchie's room at the hotel from Dallas, but that if the calls were paid at the other end there would be no record. He also found a call from Houston to Ritchie on that date, corroborating the detective's statement either way.

The crowd for the argument was even larger than for the trial. The attorneys' table was moved out and the additional space used as was also the space occupied by the witness box.

In court with Dr. Norris were Mrs. Norris and the two boys, James Gaddy Norris and J. Frank Norris, Jr. He was also surrounded by many friends and members of the congregation and several ministers. Among those gathered in the seats facing the jury box with Dr. Norris were J. L. Smith, of Amarillo, and Rev. J. R. Gates, president of Wayland College, Plainview, who came from their homes to hear the trial.

There was a number of people from Hubbard City, where Dr. Norris' boyhood was spent. From Fort Worth there were Rev. William Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who worked with Dr. Norris and others in the clean-up campaign; Clarence Miller, John Homan, F. W. Axzell, J. T. Pemberton, J. S. Sweet and many ladies of the congregation.

Close to Dr. Norris also sat Joel East the grand juror over whose vote and Foreman Quiner's statement there was such a wrangle during the trial. Dr. Norris appeared more cheerful than at any time during the trial.

Outside the railing in the front row on the spectators' seats sat Mrs. K. K. Taylor, her husband and little Miss House.

In the opening argument George Hosey pictured Dr. Norris' ambition, picturing him, as perhaps soon leaving the ministry for the lucrative lecture field. Monday morning Dr. Norris admitted that he had received several lecture tour offers but in his manner indicated that he would not accept any of them.

W. W. Gardner, Cashier of the Guaranty State Bank, led this afternoon on a business trip to Jolly.

TO STOP TALK OF INTERVENTION

STATE DEPARTMENT EMPHATICALLY DENIES SENSATIONAL RUMORS SET AFLOAT.

IS NO STRONG REASON

Why U. S. Should Intervene in Mexico. Many Reasons Why Should Keep Hands Off.

Washington, April 22.—The State department tried today to terminate the sensational talk that the United States proposes to intervene in Mexico by declaring that American consular reports indicate that whereas there is not one strong reason for military intervention there are countless strong reasons for non-intervention. Secretary Knox said that if a vessel went to the Mexican coast for news of Americans it would not necessarily be a warship.

WHO SENT THE TELEGRAM?

OFFICIALS OF WHITE STAR LINE UNABLE TO FIX RESPONSIBILITY FOR MISLEADING REPORT.

FRANKLIN ON THE STAND

First Vice President of Navigation Company Owning Titanic Examined by Senate Committee.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—P. S. A. Franklin, first vice president of the International Mercantile and Navigation Company was the first witness in the Senate Titanic inquiry today.

He said that neither he nor any subordinate of the company in the United States was communicated with by Captain Smith or Mr. Ismay at any time on the fatal voyage.

Franklin was shown the following telegram which was received by Congressman Hughes last Monday: "Titanic proceeding to Halifax. Passengers probably land on Wednesday. All safe." Signed "White Star Line."

Franklin said he had examined the entire office staff of the White Star Line and had been unable to do so. He requested the Senate committee to investigate this misleading report further.

Ismay Issues Statement.

New York, April 22.—In a long statement given out here tonight, J. Bruce Ismay makes general denial of certain published accounts concerning his conduct at the time the Titanic sank, excuses himself from any possible responsibility for the disaster and concludes with this observation:

"In building the Titanic it was the hope of my associates and myself that we had built a vessel which could not be destroyed by the perils of the sea. The event has proved the fallacy of that hope.

"The present legal requirements have proved inadequate. They must be changed, but whether they are changed or not, this awful experience has taught the steamship owners of the world that too much reliance has been placed on water-tight compartments and on wireless telegraphy and that they must equip every vessel with lifeboats and rafts sufficient to provide for every soul on board and sufficient men to handle them."

He declared that he did not consult with nor advise the captain of the Titanic during the voyage as to the course she should take, or the speed she should make. He said the captain was given full authority and the rules of the company require that "no supposed gain in expedition or saving of time on the voyage is to be sought at the risk of accident."

Regarding the message from the Baltic that it had sighted her, he said Capt. Smith handed him the message, but he made no comment or suggestion.

Mr. Ismay also denied that he was dining with the captain at the time of the accident. He said he did not see the captain in the course of the evening. He was in his own state room when the collision occurred and went out in his pajamas and overcoat to inquire if the vessel was serious.

When being informed that it was returned and dressed himself, then he appeared on deck.

He said he helped put women and children in the starboard boats and when the last one, a collapsible boat, was being lowered, after aiding some women among the third-class passengers into it and seeing no more around, he sprang in and took an oar.

When he got in, he said, the boat would have accommodated six or eight more people if any had been on the boat deck to go. This statement, he said, could be substantiated by W. E. Carter of Philadelphia, who also was in the boat.

He declared that any inferences drawn from his messages from the Carpathia that he desired to avoid the Senate committee's inquiry, but was anxious to return home and to send the survivors of the Titanic's crew back to England.

He said he voluntarily appeared before the Senate committee and made a full and frank statement.

PRESENT FORMER MAYOR WITH WATCH

Citizens of Best Built City in Texas To the Best Mayor in Inscription On Gift.

In the form of a handsome gold watch, a testimonial of the esteem in which former Mayor T. B. Noble is held by the citizenship of this city, the citizens of this city presented to him today at the clean-up dinner at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Mayor Noble's retirement as mayor, two weeks ago, his friends have been planning to furnish him with some concrete evidence of their appreciation of his services, and the watch was chosen as the most fitting gift.

The presentation speech was made by Alex Britain, being in that young man's customary pleasing and eloquent style. Mr. Britain professed the presentation with some remarks upon optimism and grandeur, then, addressing himself to Mr. Noble, he paid a brief tribute to the former executive's service, which he characterized as unselfish, loyal, straightforward and thorough. The watch, he said, aside from its intrinsic value, carried with it a store of esteem that could not be reckoned.

Mr. Noble accepted the gift amid much applause. He expressed deepest gratitude, but said that it was impossible for him to convey in words the full measure of his thankfulness. He would always prize it, he said, far beyond its intrinsic worth.

The time-piece is a 28 Jewel $150 Howard, purchased from J. L. Art. The case bears the inscription: "Presented by the citizens of the best built city in Texas to the best mayor in Texas T. B. Noble."

THE WEATHER MAN FORECASTS FROST

Temperatures This Week Will Average About Normal in Southern States.

After reading this paper use it to cover any very tender vegetation in the yard or garden.

The weather man has forecasted frost tonight but it is not expected to be destructive only to very tender plants.

Temperatures this week will average about the normal in the southern and eastern states, or below, according to the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau.

"The weather during the week," continues the bulletin, "will be unsettled, with well distributed precipitation over the greater part of the country. The disturbance that is now over the plains states will move eastward and pass down the St. Lawrence valley; it will cause general rains the first part of the week in the region east of the Mississippi. Another disturbance will develop over the western plateau Tuesday or Wednesday, cross the Middle West about Thursday, and the eastern states Friday. This disturbance will be attended by general rains and be followed by considerably cooler weather."

A bill has been introduced in Congress asking for an appropriation of $2,000,000 for a National Highway to extend from Canada to Galveston.

ANNUAL CLEAN-UP GREAT SUCCESS

HUNDREDS JOIN IN WORK AND EXCELLENT RESULTS ARE BEING OBTAINED.

A BIG DINNER WAS SERVED

Workers "Cleaned-up" the Edibles as Thoroughly as They Did the Dirt Elsewhere.

With numbers of men at work in practically every portion of the city, Wichita Falls today underwent her annual spring house-cleaning and early this afternoon it appeared that excellent results were being attained.

The day was signalled by the closing of the banks and most of the business houses and stores, though the observance in this manner was not as general as had been hoped. Right and early a large number of citizens could be seen at work and by noon dozens of loads of trash had been sent to the dumping ground.

Nearly all of those designated as captains were on duty in their respective districts, taking an active and willing part in the clean-up work. There was a demand for teams that exceeded the supply at times, but all of the accumulated dirt will be hauled away. A pleasing feature of the work is the fact that some spots which have long been public eyesores are receiving attention and will present a much better appearance before the day is over.

Commander-in-Chief Bert Bean was in charge, assisted by T. R. T. Orth, assistant general manager, and the two saw that the work was distributed and the effort directed where it would do the most good.

At noon more than 100 of the workers gathered at the Y. M. C. A. building where the members of the Civic League had prepared dinner. The menu included ham sandwiches, pickles, beans, coffee and many kinds of pie, which those present "cleaned up" with avidity and appetite. BAXTER'S GOOD WORK WON GAME

THURBER SLABMAN WAS THERE WITH THE GOODS IN SUNDAY'S GAME

FIELDING WAS MISERABLE

The less said about the better—Brown started with the stick.

In a slow game, with playing that could hardly be classed as "mid-season form" Wichita Falls won from a Fort Worth picked nine at Lake Wichita yesterday. It was Baxter's masterful pitching, coupled with the locals' ability to hit heavy and often, that won the game. The fielding was something fierce.

Baxter fanned eleven of the visiting squad and allowed two meager hits. He issued seven passes, but managed to keep pretty well out of danger. This was his first performance since he first appeared with the Thurber nine, two years ago and he does not seem to have lost anything.

The locals reached Vogel for eleven hits, three being for extra sacks. Brown started, with a three-bagger, a two-bagger, a single and a sacrifice giving him a 1000 average. Phillips batted for two singles and drew two bases, his showing also being 1000. Phillips was not signed as a hitter but he seems to have something in that line.

The less said about the locals fielding the better. Carey at first had an off day. He threw one ball away and in the seventh allowed a throw to get past him for two tallies. Wichita made six errors and this does not count a few dumb plays that could have been handled better.

Wichita scored three in the first Lawrence singled and was sacrificed to second by Morris, scoring on Brown's two-bagger. Guthrie's single scored Brown and Clark's double scored Guthrie. Two more runs were added in the fifth when Lawrence singled and scored on Brown's three-base drive, Brown coming in on Guthrie's single over first. Phillips singled in the sixth and made the circuit when the Fort Worth infield flew up.

Fort Worth scored in the second when Groves reached first on an error, went to second when Carey threw the ball to center field and scored when Lawrence let a throw get away from him. In the seventh Osborn and McAlester walked an Ashmore singled. Taking the throw in, Naylor threw to first to catch Ashmore off the bag. The throw went past Carey and Osborn and McAlester scored before it was recovered.

The score:

Fort Worth	5	0	1	1	0	4

WAGON TONGUE RAN THREE FEET INTO GROUND

Starting at a point near the Palace Hotel and dashing madly across the street with such speed that it seemed almost certain that the outfit would clear squarely into the center of a house situated at 712 Scott avenue, two young ponies attached to a vegetable wagon belonging to Leonard James ran away this morning about 8 o'clock when one of them slipped the bridle and thus became uncontrollable. Mr. James was sitting on the wagon seat at the time and did all in his power to stop the team, but his efforts only made the ponies run the faster, and when at last it seemed that nothing could prevent a collision with the house, he jumped and landed safely in the grass on the lawn.

The ponies, upon reaching a point only a few yards from the house, suddenly seemed to realize their danger, and with a sudden swerve they changed the direction of their course, breaking loose from the wagon and came to a stop a few blocks down Scott avenue. The wagon, however, owing to its momentum, could not be turned, and the breakage of the harness left it free to choose its own course. The long tongue acting as a rudder, ploughed up the ground ahead, and the spectators had already scattered vegetables and a wrecked front porch, when without warning the wagon came to an abrupt stop and people who arrived quickly on the scene discovered that the tongue had buried itself about three feet in the ground thus checking the course of the wagon only a few feet from the house. Nothing was injured but the harness and a few parts about the single tree, so that Mr. James considered himself very fortunate in escaping so light.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I recommend it to my friends; for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health. It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.

Some Thoughts on Meningitis

"Some Thoughts on the Recent Meningitis Epidemic and the Anti-Meningitis Serum," by A. D. Patillo. M. A., Petrolia, Texas. Read before the Northwest Texas Medical Association and endorsed by the Lay Press at Cisco, Texas, April 9, 1912.

Meningitis, for the past few months the all-absorbing topic in Texas, is a disease long since recognized, but like many other diseases, it has pursued its own course until the discovery of the Flexner serum in the Rockefeller Institute in 1908 by Dr. Simon Flexner and his co-worker, Dr. Jobling. In 1887 the meningitis germ was discovered by Weichselbaum and called by him the diplococcus intracellularis meningitis. In 1889 Jager also proved that the germ discovered by Weichselbaum was the cause of meningitis.

Meningitis is an ever-present disease, occurring anywhere and at all seasons of the year, in sporadic cases and in epidemic and pandemic form, owing to the weather and other conditions which influence the disease. As statistics will show, there were about as many deaths in Texas from this disease in 1910 as there were in 1911 and nothing was done or said about it. The disease is like smoldering embers lying hidden and dormant only to be fanned into a blaze by bad hygiene and exposure to extreme cold weather and etc.

The mortality of the disease has always been high, until the discovery of the anti-meningitis serum. Since that time statistics are not wanting to show a drop from 80 per cent to 25 per cent in different epidemics, and even in the recent epidemic the mortality has not exceeded 50 per cent and in many instances much less. Many of the cases treated in the recent epidemic were not diagnosed in time to be saved by the serum, in many cases the serum was not available, and many who did receive the serum did not receive it in time and in sufficient quantities, and unfortunately some have suffered death from this disease of the prejudiced mind of the public against the use of the serum. Patients, the parents and relatives of whom would not permit the use of the serum, holding to the wild stories of some of the long-tongued lout, "That the serum is dangerous and means certain death in case the patient is not suffering from meningitis." Instead of following the advice of better elements of the medical profession, men learned on such subjects. Fortunately however, only a few of the less intellectual have adhered to this perilous view, but it is pathetic to see how some of the lout would rather have the opinion of one or two hoary-headed mucksters than to accept the advice of the world's most renowned on a subject of this kind.

In the recent epidemic in Texas, Dallas has been pre-eminently in the spotlight as the place most affected and the one making the hardest fight, as well as having for its leaders, in the fight men of national reputation. In the center of the limelight were to be seen Dr. Abraham Sophian of New York and Dr. A. E. Thayer, Professor of Pathology in Baylor University of Medicine. Dr. Sophian leading in the fight at the City Hospital, using and demonstrating the use of the serum and otherwise instructing in the routine treatment of the cases. At the pathological laboratory of Baylor University was Dr. A. E. Thayer working day and night making cultures and examining specimens of spinal fluids and swabs of throat and nasal secretions which were sent to him from the City Hospital, as well as for out of town physicians, including some for myself for which I am indebted. Dr. Thayer has also worked out a vaccine for immunization against meningitis which will, doubtless be used in future epidemics as a preventative as well as a curative agent.

The discovery of the anti-meningitis serum like many other discoveries in medicine in the last decade has marked a new era in therapy. The discovery being made possible through the charity of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, who has endowed the Rockefeller Institute with a large sum of money, thereby making it possible for Dr. Flexner and his able assistants to work out problems under favorable conditions, not having as most physicians do, to struggle for sustenance in the rush and turmoil to gain money place and power.

The Rockefeller Institute as many know is an institution for medical research. A place for the scientific investigation of hygiene, medicine and surgery, with special reference to the prevention and treatment of diseases, and founded in 1901 with an endowment from Mr. Rockefeller of $200,000 a year for the support of the institute for the first ten years. At the close of the first year Mr. Rockefeller made an additional gift of one million dollars. The total gift of Mr. Rockefeller from the founding of the Institute in 1901 to October 14, 1911 amounting to $7,186,554.

In the Flexner serum we have a reliable remedy for the prevention and cure of epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis, but this serum like all other sera, to show the best results must be used in time and in sufficient quantities.

It may be said in regard to the manufacture of the serum that it is of considerable cost and magnitude. Upon advice from the Rockefeller Institute I find that it requires about nine months to immunize the horse sufficiently to produce a serum of adequate value. As regards the cost of the serum there are to be considered the cost of the horse which is from 50 to 100 dollars, its up-keep and the services of competent men to make the necessary observations, inoculations and tests. It is interesting to know that the Rockefeller Institute manufactured the serum from its discovery in 1908 till January, 1911 and supplied it to the world free of cost for humanity's sake. In January, 1911 the manufacture of the serum was given over to the New York Board of Health. The New York Board of Health also supplies the serum gratuitously to the needy and at cost to all others. The cost of the serum is at present about $1.25, in striking contrast to the manufacturing druggist who sells it at $2.50 for a relatively smaller dose.

There are doubtless many who believe that Dr. Flexner receives a royalty from the sale of the serum or has it patented or protected in such a way as to enjoy an income from the sale of it. Such an idea is erroneous as the services of the institute are gratuitous. "All discoveries while receiving compensation from the institute become the property of the institute to be by it placed freely at the service of humanity in accordance with the beneficent purposes of the founder."

There are those who no doubt believe that John D. Rockefeller receives a financial income from the sale of the serum. Even one of the leading daily newspapers published in Fort Worth contained during the recent epidemic a cartoon calculated to convey the idea that Mr. Rockefeller was increasing the amount of his tainted money from the sale of this serum.

Such an idea is erroneous. Granting that Mr. Rockefeller wanted or even needed money from this source it would be impossible for him to obtain it under the by-laws of the institute which is chartered under the laws of the State of New York.

Believing that there will be much written and said on the clinical and pathological aspects of this subject I have tried to leave untouched these phases of the subject and discuss one which I think should not be entirely overlooked.

I am loath to sit still and say nothing in the face of the great good that is being done suffering humanity by Mr. Rockefeller and the scientific institution he has so widely and generously lunched.

Why Not Less Butter and More Jam?

PHONES 432 & 232. AUTOMOBILE DELIVERY.

Since butter prices have been so high, it would surprise you perhaps if you knew how many families had been using jams a great deal more liberally.

The quality and low price of Curtis Bros. Blue Label jams has probably been responsible for some of this increased use.

Curtis Bros. Co. are exceedingly particular about the berries and fruits which they use in making their jams. If you could see these raw materials when they are being prepared, you would immediately make up your mind never to put up any more at home, but buy Blue Label goods instead. A 25c glass of strawberry, blackberry or peach jam of the Blue Label quality will persuade you to use less butter and more jam. It is not only economical but offers a wider variety as well.

The more we walk over this crossroad wood block paving the more we are "stuck" on it.

The Times is in receipt of a catalogue of the new School of Journalism of Columbia University, outlining a four-year course of study which includes modern languages, history and other topics. Training is a good thing in nearly every line of work, but we cannot figure out why anyone should want to study four years to learn how to work twelve hours a day for $20 a week.

Since Wolters and Ramsey who are to be in Wichita Falls the latter part of this week are so closely in accord on nearly every public question, it might be in order for their mutual friends to arrange a meeting where the two candidates could exchange ideas.

Had Major Butt and Col. John Jacob Astor been permitted to live for a hundred years instead of being cut off suddenly as they were by going down with the ill-fated Titanic, it is not likely either could have done anything more heroic than was their conduct on the occasion of the sinking of the Titanic. Both were game to the last, and showed by the most severe test they valued honor above everything else. It was different with Mr. Ismay, president of the company that owned the ship. He, in reality, was not a passenger, but the ranking officer of the White Star Line, and was endeavoring to break the speed record. Captain Smith went down with his ship, but Ismay put off in the fourth boat and Col. Astor, who gave up their own lives that others might live, Ismay, who in all probability was more to blame for the terrible accident than all others, preserved his own life, and for the balance of the time allotted him will be pointed to with contempt—not as a gamecock, but a dunghill, while the memory of Col. Astor, Major Butt, Capt. Smith and others who went down with the ship will never fade.

In asking that his name be enrolled as a subscriber to the Times, J. J. Knight of Dallas, says: "While I am now permanently located in Dallas, I fell, next to Dallas, that Wichita Falls has about the liveliest citizenship of any little city in Texas, and consequently am always pleased to learn of its activities." That's the way nearly all outsiders speak of Wichita Falls, and we who are here should appreciate this. Had not our citizenship been of the right kind, the kind that is required to build cities and do things, it would have been next to impossible for Wichita Falls to continue to build, prosper and add to her resources and population during the time that a two year drought was prevailing. Now that the prospects for bumper crops are excellent, the future looks much brighter for Wichita Falls than at any time during the past two or three years. While there are more buildings, both residences and business houses, the demand for more is fully as great as ever before. Both city and country property values have held up well, and substantial increase in both may with confidence be expected during the next two or three months. No uneasiness should be felt for the future of Wichita Falls. The enterprises that have already been secured and that will be in operation before the year closes, can reasonably be expected to add a couple of thousand to the city's population. Come to Wichita.

ON CLEAN-UP DAY

member of the Civic League. It was written for publication on Sunday: The mighty sun that lights the world has since Creation's dawn On-westward in his ceaseless course the human-race forever drawn. Since the West again prosperly has felt the "boosters" of the agricultural east Shall never more disturb our tranquil lives, nor tempt us with their feast. We should not fret amid such pleasing scenes, where each succeeding day Brings something better for our city than those just passed away. When newspapers tell of new town-sites which lure the pioneer, We should not heed, for on earth there will never be, than Wichita Falls, a happier sphere. On Monday which is Clean-Up Day, we hope to see o're valley, hill and town, The trash piles blaze and all to the call of duty respond with a bound. We hope to see the Chamber of Commerce turn out with hoe and broom and rake And clean things out as our forefathers did the Mexicans when Santa Anna they did take. Away from this invading host of working men, Sore stricken with mad affliction. The spirit of uncleanness, disease and filth will wing forth in eternal flight. And where the morning sun looked upon a dirty, unkempt, neglected town, His evening glances will behold a city sanitary and clean as any to be found. As fades the streak of morning cloud before the roscate dawn. The past with its wild cow-boy scenes has faded from view and is forever gone. Gone are the hard times of the drouth-stricken years, their tale is but an empty dream. Prosperity now reigns o're all Wichita Falls, both hill, valley, plains and stream. Here Nature's deft and cunning hand has worked for ages through, Now our two clubs combined have a work which only they can do. Then let the Chamber of Commerce and Civic League join hands and this good work continue. Until we, no matter how great the cost, Shall have a garden of Eden like our forefathers lost. Some future day as little as you may think so our thoughts will wander back The stirring scenes of Clean-Up Day in fancy we will reenact. This will cause our hearts with pride to glow for we will long since have ceased to roam. But with lives contented be satisfied with Wichita Falls—our "Home Sweet Home."

Miss Dunne is now playing a return engagement in Wichita Falls and will probably be here for a week or more. The other acts are said to be of unusual merit and go to make up an unusually attractive program.

Road working is still in vogue here and I learn that the commissioner of this precinct is going to spend some money for the fixing up of the road that runs north from the Osborns northeast corner to where Mr. Derry-berry lives. This is one of the worst roads that we have in this community, being in very deep sand and should be looked after.

Mr. Floyd Pharris, Bruce Brooks and several others of the Osborns northeast corner to where Mr. Derry-berry lives. This is one of the worst roads that we have in this community, being in very deep sand and should be looked after.

Several in this community have been busy cutting stalks from off their wheat the past week. Clarence Biggers has been living with Mr. Rigby the past year, happened to a prett y serious accident last week while engaged in painting an elevator at Vernon. He was working on a swinging scaffold and a freight train backed down the siding and caught the rope in some way, letting him drop about 25 feet, bruising his hip and his face and body in several places.

Homeless Floaters Own Worst Enemy

simply because they lack that definite purpose in life—a home—that carries such an influence for frugality and integrity. Of course, there are few people who have not planned a home some time or other in their life, because it is human instinct to have a nest of your own, and good intentions are most praiseworthy; but the fact remains nevertheless that intentions lead nowhere, and while you are hesitating the cost of building material and labor is rapidly rising. Why not decide now to become a recognized factor in the upbuilding of our community and start that home you've been thinking about? We've got a lot of ideas about plans for all sized pocketbooks and by building with lumber you can start in small and enlarge as your demands increase. Think it over.

NORTHWESTERN TOWNS STILL DISSATISFIED

Had Become Accustomed to Double Daily High Class Service and Don't Want it Curtailed.
 Citizens of towns on the Northwestern may yet file formal protest against the taking off of the night trains on that line. It was learned today. When it was planned to discontinue the day service, vigorous kicks, coupled with threats, to carry the matter to the corporation commission of Oklahoma, were recorded in several towns along the line. The taking off of night trains is meeting with considerably less objection on the part of the towns affected, but there is said to be considerable dissatisfaction which may resolve itself into a formal protest before the Oklahoma tribunal.
 Officials of the Northwestern state that the change is only a temporary one and that the full service will be resumed as soon as business justifies putting the night train on again.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the sheriff or any constable of Wichita county greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Cabel Halrston, Sr. Willie Halrston, Anna Halrston, Nettie Halrston, Julia Halrston and Cabel Halrston, Jr. by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Wichita county, to be held at the court house thereof, in Wichita Falls, Texas, on the 1st Monday in June, 1912 A. D., the same being the third day of June, 1912 A. D., then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 20th day of April A. D. 1912 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court, No. 24268, wherein Mrs. L. A. Hursh is plaintiff, and Cabel Halrston, Sr., Willie Halrston, Anna Halrston, Nettie Halrston, Julia Halrston and Cabel Halrston, Jr., defendants and said petition alleging that on the 1st day of January, 1912, plaintiff was the owner and in possession of the following described tract of land in Wichita County, Texas, to-wit: A part of lot 4 in block 223 of the city of Wichita Falls, according to the original map of said city, recorded in book "E" page 264 of the deed records of said county. Said portion being bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on 12th street on the line of said lot 5, fifty feet; thence south parallel with alley 116 2-3 feet to 12th street; thence east along 12th street parallel the alley 50 feet to the beginning; and that on said date the defendant entered on said lot and ejected plaintiff therefrom to her damage in the sum of $2000.

Plaintiff further alleges that she has title to said lot under both the five and ten year statutes of limitation. Plaintiff further alleges that said property was the community property of Cabel Halrston, Sr. and his wife, P. H. Halrston at the time of the death of said P. H. Halrston in 1892, and that the property upon the application of said Cabel Halrston by the administrator of said Mrs. P. H. Halrston for the purpose of paying community debts, secured by a vendor's lien on said lot and that sale passed the title to said M. J. Tompkins and plaintiff owns same by regular conveyances from such purchaser. Plaintiff prays for judgment for the title and possession of said lot.

Herein full not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, A. F. Kerr, Clerk of the District Court of Wichita county.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this 20th day of April A. D. 1912.

A. F. KERR, Clerk District Court Wichita county. 294-396-312.

Big Seat Sale For Elks' Minstrel. The general committee in charge of publicity has given out the following: "Tickets were placed on sale this morning at 9 o'clock at the Rexall Drug Store for the big Elk's minstrel to be given on the nights of April 25th and 26th at the Wichita Opera House. There were more than a hundred people in line at the time of the opening, many of them reserving from six to fifteen tickets, for themselves and others, and in a very short time the brass tacks on the "dope sheet" made it look like a solid metal sheet. There are some good seats at scattered intervals left for the first night's show, and a larger percent of good seats, of course, left for the second night. However, it now appears that the house will be filled on both nights and those who cannot secure accommodations for the first night can bear in mind that the tone of the second night's production will be slightly better than the first night, owing to the cast having the benefit of one night's performance under fire. The big parade will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is likely that the minstrel men will come in on the northbound Denver train and that the parade will form at the Union depot. However, this detail has not yet been fully worked out. A large number of the Panther City Bills will be on hand to participate in the parade. It is announced that several box parties have been arranged for the minstrel show the first night and there is some talk of presenting the local and visiting baseball teams with the boxes on the second night, as a demonstration to the players that the Elks are earnest supporters of the great American sport. The committee promises the minstrel loving public that the harmonic feature will be par excellence. The choruses are in every way up to a professional standard and there are a number of individual voices in the cast that have been professional service. Watch the seat sale.
