

DEBATING MOTION TO OVERRULE DECISIONS OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE

FEELING RUNS HIGH AND MUCH TUMULT PREVAILS

Fist Fights Narrowly Averted and Personalities Throw Convention Into Uproar—Six Hours of Talk

By Associated Press.

BULLETIN—Chicago.—At three o'clock this afternoon the convention was thrilled by an ovation to Governor Hadley. The demonstration came after Watson said he believed Hadley would consent to let the "purging" resolutions go to the credentials committee. Cheers for Hadley continued twenty minutes. One man jumped on the stage shouting "Hadley the next President of the United States." There is more talk of Hadley as a compromise candidate.

Chicago, June 19.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon chieftains in the struggle for leadership in the Republican party were in the midst of a long argument over the proposition suggested by the Roosevelt side that certain Taft delegates be "purged" from the temporary roll.

Their arguments were based on declarations that the national committee had wrongfully seated delegates credited to Taft. Interest in the debate was keen.

At times the disorder was threatening, but finally Chairman Root seemed to have the disturbers cowed into a semblance of calm.

Perhaps the greatest disturbance was precipitated when Former Senator Hemenway, speaking for the Taft side declared he preferred Penrose of Pennsylvania, as an ally, to Flinn, the Roosevelt leader. It looked for a moment as if a small riot would break loose.

The Roosevelt strategy board was hard at work all night, but the Taft forces were none the less busy. Ante-rooms at both headquarters were crowded all through the night.

"The Taft forces will stand together exactly as they did yesterday," said McKinley, "if there is any shifting we will gain as much if not more than the others."

Gov. Hadley said at the conclusion of the Roosevelt conference there would be no change in Roosevelt's convention program.

"There is nothing to this compromise talk," said Senator Penrose at arrival at the convention hall this morning, "there will not be until we settle the question of organization. We will have more votes to reject Hadley's proposition to upset the roll than we cast yesterday."

All records for outgoing telegraph dispatches were broken yesterday, approximately 1,000,000 words being handled according to the telegraph companies.

Overnight developments gave promise of tumultuous debate on the Roosevelt proposition of substituting certain Roosevelt delegates for Taft men who were admitted by the national committee. Roosevelt was in absolute charge of his force, directing by private telephone over a wire strung from the hall to his apartments.

Taft leaders early declared there could be no compromise of any sort. Gov. Hadley announced he would not sanction a bolt under any circumstances. Gov. Deneen backed up Hadley and persons who had been speculating on a bolt by the Roosevelt contingent were willing to speculate as to whether this might indicate mutiny on the Roosevelt ship.

When the gavel crashed for order soon after 11 o'clock this morning the people in the great convention hall realized they were in for some stirring scenes.

Rev. Joseph A. Stolz offered the prayer for the morning session and immediately following the unfinished business was taken up. This was Hadley's demand for elimination of ninety-two contested delegates from the temporary roll. Root announced that an agreement had been reached between Watson and Hadley that three hours of debate equitably divided be the limit.

After Chairman Root reached the platform he was flanked on

Gibbs Predicts $35,000,000 Grain Crop This Season

"The wheat and oat crop of Texas for 1912 will amount, in money value, to at least $35,000,000 according to the best estimate I can now make with the information at hand, gathered from correspondence and from personal observation," said J. G. Gibbs, secretary of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association, who was in the city yesterday for a short time. "In many sections of Texas oats are yielding as high as 90 bushels per acre, and I am quite positive that the oat crop of the state is by far the largest in the history of Texas. Up to the time of the rain, which seems to have been heavier in the Wichita Falls county, but was general and abundant in a wide stretch of country from Dalhart to the coast, I had almost despaired of a corn crop, but the rain was timely and in my opinion a splendid if not the best and largest corn crop ever made in Texas one side by Gov. Hadley the Roosevelt leader and on the other by James Watson of the Taft forces.

As a preliminary to the day's expected hostilities, all three shook hands and "retired to their corners." Gov. Hadley for Roosevelt opened the three hours debate. He reviewed yesterday's events leading up to the ruling by Chairman Rosewater.

"We could have met, immediately and forcibly, this arbitrary ruling," he said and was roundly cheered, "we could have insisted on calling the roll and could have taken control. Instead we chose to wait patiently until today." Gov. Hadley appealed that personalities be left out of the debate. He read a statement from fourteen members of the national committee protesting against the action of the majority in seating many of the delegates especially in the California and Texas cases.

Gov. Hadley finished at 11:58 and was followed by W. T. Dovell of Washington, for the Taft side. Dovell said it was "utterly false that the State of Washington ever was carried for Roosevelt." At this point he was interrupted by angry jeers and interrogations from the Roosevelt partisans. Mr. Dovell characterized as "recklessly false" the statement credited to Roosevelt that an effort had been made to bribe the Washington delegates.

Dovell said "When it was discovered the night before the state convention in Washington that the Taft delegates were in control, the adherents of Mr. Roosevelt declined to come to the convention because they knew they were beaten."

Henry A. Allen of Kansas, speaking in support of the Roosevelt side, ridiculed the statement about the Washington primary and quoted figures to show that Taft's vote had been small. The midst of his talk, Allen was challenged to say whether he intended to support the nominee of this convention. He said he would under one condition, that his nomination is not accomplished by "fraud and thievery."

A great uproar followed. The chair sustained a point of order and asked for fair play for both sides. After being interrupted several times, Allen shouted at some of the Taft tormentors, "You haven't got anything until this convention is over. Then the Lord only knows what you have got."

Allen dealt in the figures of the primary held in Seattle. He said Roosevelt got all but 500 of the 6000 votes cast. A delegate asked him how many voters there were in Seattle. He replied "more than 100,000."

Allen denounced the methods of the Washington State leaders

SIDELIGHTS ON CHICAGO FIGHT

BRYAN ENJOYS HIMSELF, THERE AS NEWSPAPER MAN

Says Republicans Won't Make Any Mistakes That Democrats Can't Rectify

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 19.—William Jennings Bryan, at the convention as a working newspaper man, says he is enjoying the gathering more than any other National convention of Republicans he ever attended. He said: "In previous gatherings, I have always felt a personal interest in either the candidate or in some phase of the campaign issues, but this year it is different. You see, I have been beaten by both of the principal candidates, so I am in position to go of the loser, whoever he may be and assure him that defeat is not fatal; that I have had it for my portion three times and am still alive and enjoying life."

"For the winner, I am in this position—whatever mistakes are made this week, the Democrats will have full power and opportunity to correct next week at Baltimore."

Hawaii will go solid for Taft, according to a statement given out at Taft headquarters late yesterday. This was in answer to widely circulated rumors that at least two of the island delegates pledged to the president would vote for Roosevelt.

A committee picked from members of congress will confer with the resolutions committee in an effort to have a food roads plank inserted in the platform. This course was decided upon at the fifth national good roads congress which met in Chicago yesterday.

Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth and her husband, Congressman Longworth, occupied advantageous seats right back of the press stands.

The colonel's daughter came in quietly and without attracting the attention of the crowd.

The box reserved for special guests was repeatedly scanned by spectators for sight of some members of the colonel's family, but it was some time before Mrs. Longworth was located.

The number of visitors to Chicago for the convention was estimated last night to be well above 150,000. Every hotel in the downtown district was crowded to its capacity, and late crowds were directed to outlying hotels.

WALL STREET'S BETTING

New York, June 19.—Betting odds in Wall street today swung a little in favor of Taft's nomination. Yesterday 10 to 9 was offered that the President would not be named as the Republican candidate at Chicago; today even money was offered and asked. Roosevelt's chances were measured yesterday by the betting odds at 7 to 10; today 5 to 10 represented Wall street's willingness to venture bets on the Colonel's nomination.

ROOSEVELT TO REMAIN AWAY FROM CONVENTION

For the Present Will Content Himself With Keeping in Touch By Phone

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 19.—Col. Roosevelt has been supplied with a bunch of tickets admitting the bearer to a seat on the platform. The source of these tickets has not been learned.

It is understood one of the questions discussed at a conference of Roosevelt leaders this morning was the advisability of Roosevelt's going to the convention hall to direct his fight at close range. It was decided that, temporarily at least, the plan pursued by Mr. Roosevelt yesterday should be followed and that he would keep in touch with leaders by telephone.

The usual nervousness that hung over the convention, the police and employes yesterday was curiously absent today. No one knew what to expect yesterday but today the policemen chatted and laughed, secure in the belief that they could handle any situation that might develop.

Quite a number of prominent Texas Democrats have arrived here to watch the convention proceedings and possibly learn something that will stand them in good stead at Baltimore, whether all of them are going.

Arrivals today include R. M. Johnson of Houston, retiring national committeeman; T. W. Gregory, delegate at large, and whose home is at Austin; T. A. Thompson, district delegate

SECOND CHOICE AS RUNNING-MATE

DEMOCRATIC VICE-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE MAY BE AUTOMATIC SELECTION

ACTIVITY AT BALTIMORE

Headquarters of Various Aspirants Open and Busy With Their Preparations

By Associated Press. Baltimore, Md., June 19.—Preliminary to the meeting tomorrow of the arrangements committee to select temporary officers of the Democratic National convention there was further discussion today of the proposition to have the presidential candidate who receives the second highest number of votes on the final ballot accept the nomination for vice-president.

National Committeeman Daniels of North Carolina, is strongly urging this proposition. He said today: "Of course, all the presidential candidates say they would not accept second place on the ticket, but what else could they say at this time?"

Daniels added that the makeup of the ticket from the geographical standpoint would be satisfactorily brought about by the adoption of this proposition.

The headquarters of the various presidential candidates were in full swing today and the rival camps issued hourly claims of victory. Secretary Woodson said that all of the contests received so far were quite minor in character. He said:

"All in all, I don't believe there will be more than forty seats contested, and these represent perhaps half a dozen delegations. No one of them is serious."

Leut. Gov. J. T. Ellison of Virginia, the National Committeeman from that State, says that several candidates in the field will receive part of the vote cast.

"Virginia will be satisfied with any good candidate," said Ellison, "the State has no candidate of its own."

TWO BIPLANES IN FATAL CRASH

FRENCH AVIATORS COLLIDE IN MID-AIR, BOTH BEING KILLED

WINGS ARE INTERLOCKED

Unable To See Each Others Machines They Run Together and Both Are Killed

By Associated Press. Douai, France, June 19.—Capt. Dubois and Lieut. Albert Peignan, officers of the French army and trained aviators, were killed today when their biplanes collided with a terrific force in mid air. They were flying over the military grounds.

The two officers who were close friends were unable to see each other while flying through an early morning haze. In making a curve their machines collided with an awful impact. The wire stays and canvas wings became interlocked and the two biplanes crashed to the ground.

Peignan was taken dead from the debris. Dubois died within an hour.

THIRTEEN MINERS ARE ENTOMBED IN COLORADO

Explosion in Mine Near Trinidad—Rescuers Are Making Little Headway

By Associated Press. Trinidad, Colo., June 19.—Thirteen miners are entombed and are believed to have been killed by an explosion in the Hastings mine owned by the Victor-American Fuel Company, early today. One miner, badly injured, has been rescued. The main slope was badly caved and rescuers have made but little progress.

WILL MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR FLAG TOMORROW NIGHT

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 19.—When the monster crowd gathered at the Coliseum today, it included women of many creeds, such as those who believe in votes for women, pleasure for women, clothes for women, society for women and even "no votes for women." The anti-suffragettes have thrown their hats into the ring. A delegation is ready to appear before the convention to attempt to counteract the efforts of the suffragettes who will try to have inserted in the party platform a suffrage plank.

Since the arrival of Alice Roosevelt Longworth her clothes and her movements have been watched closely. Yesterday she appeared on the street in a white lingerie dress with a white hat, trimmed with white wings. The cooler weather today made her return to wool. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt is here from New York. Arriving at her hotel she found the corridors filled with prominent men wondering where they were going to sleep. Luckily the Vanderbilt quarters were arranged for last January.

J. M. Keyes, delegate from Massachusetts, is a double for Col. Roosevelt, and the fact was the cause for considerable excitement last night in a Michigan avenue hotel cafe. While the delegate was enjoying his dinner there was a sudden stampede toward him. The stampede thought they were gazing on the ex-president.

It was necessary to get a detail of police to check the crowds who were about to rush the candidate.

Mr. Keyes wears on his lapel a photograph of himself labeled, "I am Roosevelt's double. Can you beat it?" He says he does not always enjoy the button as it is oftentimes the cause of considerable annoyance.

Senator Borah was ferreted out today by two broad-hatted delegates from the West, wearing Roosevelt ribbons. They made various suggestions to Borah. All of these he received and kept to himself. One, however, delivered in a parting whisper loud enough to be heard by others, was "Count on us for anything; we'll be glad to pull the rope."

IN DEFENSE OF ADMINISTRATION

GOVERNOR COLQUITT ADDRESSES LARGE CROWD AT OPERA HOUSE.

REPLIES TO CRITICISMS

Answers Many Things That Have Been Used Against Him—Plays "Red Heifer."

Before an audience of about 1400 people, which seemed to be largely in sympathy with him, Gov. Colquitt spoke at the opera house in behalf of his candidacy for re-election and in defense of his administration. He replied in detail to almost every criticism that has been made of him and while his voice showed the effects of the strain which it has undergone, it was not lacking in emphasis. That the governor has views upon the presidency was indicated by his expressing the hope, during his speech that the Democrats would nominate "an old-fashioned Democrat upon an old-fashioned platform." Governor Colquitt is understood to favor Harmon or Underwood for the nomination.

During his recital of the steps he had taken to protect Texas from Mexican depredations during the Mexican revolution, someone shouted "I wish you was president." The remark elicited decided applause and the governor said, "I'm not running for president; I can do more good as Governor of Texas."

Frequent applause interrupted his speech and there seemed to be little doubt that his address was well received. He was introduced eloquently by Judge A. H. Carrigan.

Governor Colquitt reached the city late yesterday over the Wichita Valley and was met at the station by a large crowd of citizens and by a band. Among those who occupied seats on the stage last night were Judge Scurry, Dr. L. Mackebauer, W. N. Bonter, Clint Woods, Judge A. H. Carrigan, R. H. Hudson, J. A. Kemp, Mayor Bell, J. T. Montgomery and T. L. Toland.

The first speaker was Judge A. H. Carrigan who spoke of the fact that Governor Colquitt opened his campaign here two years ago, a fact which he said made this city especially proud to do him honor. It was the custom in Texas to elect governors for a second term, he continued, and he expressed the fervent hope that this custom would not be broken.

He paid a tribute to Governor Colquitt for his "clean up" of the penitentiary system and said that any opposition to him should be based on principle and not on abuse. He then presented Governor Colquitt as "a governor who stood upon principle and was not afraid to do his duty." The governor received a substantial ovation when he came forward.

Governor Colquitt began by mentioning his opening speech here two years ago, saying Texas was still in need of the legislative rest and political peace for which he at that time contended. He referred to the fact that submission was an issue then and said that when prohibition was submitted he had voted and spoken against it; his opposition to it, he explained, had been on the ground that it was better for the people in the counties to choose for their own localities.

He said that his opponent had declared that he (Colquitt) lacked 70,000 votes of a majority two years ago, when as a matter of fact he lacked only 32,000.

"He's just 125 per cent wrong," said the Governor.

Referring to the legislature he said

Prayer is Preferred to Dynamite at Henrietta

Special to The Times. Henrietta, Texas, June 18, 1912.—With an official rainfall of 3.81 inches and a drop in the temperature from 112 last Sunday to 59 this morning, Clay county is rejoicing over the bright prospects for an abundant harvest of corn and cotton this season. As much as four inches of rainfall is reported from points over the county.

This rain has come at a time when it assures a fair crop of corn even if there should not be other rains until it matures and with another good rain in the next two or three weeks a bumper crop will be harvested. Cotton in many sections is already blooming and is in as good condition as was ever seen at this time of the year. "Already some of the farmers have grown bold enough to predict a bale to the acre, a thing which happened a few years back."

In this connection a circular was distributed here today which is interesting and self-explanatory, purporting to set forth one of the possible factors in the bringing about of the rain. The circular follows:

"THANKSGIVING."

"In view of the fact that Christians from all denominations met at the Baptist church Thursday night, the 18th, to pray for rain, and in view of the further fact that it was agreed that we should all pray in a secret place until it should rain, and in view of the fact that it has rained, it is hereby announced that all the prayer meetings will assemble at the Baptist church Wednesday night, June 19th, to view of the fact that it was agreed that we should all pray in a secret place until it should rain, and in view of the fact that it has rained, it is hereby announced that all the prayer Debating Motion to Overrule Convention at the state convention saying the conditions were such that all Roosevelt men practically were barred from the hall.

Former Senator Hemenway of Indiana spoke against the Hadley motion. He declared that of the thirteen members of the national committee who are protesting against the ruling, all but two had been retired from the committee this year.

Taking up the Texas case, Hemenway said that Cecil Lyon had controlled 150 federal appointments in Texas; that his word had been law but that this year the Republicans of the other faction had sent a delegation, not of Cecil Lyon's office holders, but of independent voters. From the Pennsylvania delegation came a yell, "How about Penrose?"

Bending over and shaking his fist in the faces of the delegates, Hemenway with flushed face shouted:

"Give me Penrose before Flinn every time."

The Pennsylvanians went wild. Climbing upon their chairs and brandishing their fists they yelled epithets and vituperations at the speaker. Flinn himself took a prominent part in the demonstration.

Throughout the hall there were yells and jeers and for a few moments tumult prevailed.

Chairman Root came to the front of the stage and pointing to Flinn, shouted, "If the gentleman from Pennsylvania wishes to commend himself to the just and honest members of this convention and to the American people, he will cease to interfere with the delivery of a reasonable and decent argument."

Senator Root was cheered. Then in the midst of a new tumult, Flinn climbed upon a chair and demanded recognition.

"A point of order," he shouted.

"State it," said Root.

"It is that the mention of personalities of Penrose and Flinn are not in order."

"The gentleman's point is not well taken, he will be seated at once," Root ruled.

Hemenway was followed by George L. Record of New Jersey for the Roosevelt side. He dealt with Arizona and Indiana. A doublet convention was held in Arizona, he said. He declared that in two counties the Taft men had been in the minority and had then selected their own delegates to the state convention. The recognition of these contesting delegates, he said, gave the Taft forces control of the State convention.

The great crowd in the galleries became restless during Record's argument, it was near lunch time and many spectators were leaving. Senator Root appealed again and again for quiet.

An outbreak in the Indiana delegation followed an assertion by Record that in one district in Indianapolis the returns were made by the officials without even opening the ballot box.

Delegate English leaped to his feet and shouted "There was no contest in that district," English wildly waved his fist.

William Dye, Roosevelt delegate from Indiana, sprang to his feet and shouted at English, and the latter yelled back, "Liar! Liar!" and started toward Dye. Other members seized the men and kept them apart.

Mayor Shank of Indianapolis shouted to Record "If you keep on, you'll get a scrap out of me."

There was so much disorder in the galleries that Chairman Root at 1:30 ordered a recess to permit all who desired to leave the building to do so.

The session was resumed at 1:50 p. m.

The roll call on the temporary chairmanship which began at 2:20 yesterday afternoon was not concluded until after six o'clock, the result being 558 for Root and 502 for McGovern. Pandemonium broke loose when it became certain that Root was victorious.

When Root mounted the platform to make the "keynote" speech, he was wildly cheered and it was some time before quiet could be restored. The first fifteen minutes of his address were marked by frequent interruptions mostly in disapproval. "Receiver of stolen property," shouted one Pennsylvania delegate. There was considerable confusion occasioned by delegates and visitors leaving the convention hall and it was with difficulty that the speaker proceeded. There was a dramatic moment at the start when William Flinn of Pennsylvania, Roosevelt opponent, mounted the platform, but it appeared that he only wanted to shake hands with Mr. Root.

Root's address dealt largely with the work of the Taft administration and of course distinctly favorable to the President. He said, in conclusion: "With this record of consistent policy and faithful service, the Republican party can rest with confidence on its title to command the approval of the American people. We have a right to say that we can be trusted to preserve and maintain the American system of free representative Government handed down to us by our fathers. We will maintain the power and honor of the Nation, but we will observe those limitations which the Constitution sets up for the preservation of local self-government. We will perform the duties and exercise the authority of the offices with which we may be invested, but we will observe and require all officials to observe those constitutional limitations which prescribe the boundaries of official power. However wise, however able, however patriotic a Congress or an executive may be, however convinced they may be that the doing of particular things would be beneficial to the public, if that thing be done by usurping the powers confided to another department or another officer, it opens the door for the destruction of liberty. The door opened for the patriotic and well-meaning to exercise power not conferred upon them by law is the door opened, also, to the self-seeking and ambitious. There can be no free government in which official power is not limited. We stand with Abraham Lincoln, who said in his first inaugural address: 'A majority held in restraint by constitutional checks and limitations, and always changing easily with deliberate changes of popular opinion and sentiment, is the only true sovereignty of a free people. Whoever rejects it does of necessity fly to anarchy or despotism.' Temporary officials for the Re-

Wait, Michigan; Otto Bossard, Wisconsin; Thomas Williamson, Illinois. Tally Clerks—Archibald G. Graham, Indiana; Henry C. Woodill, Massachusetts.

The convention adjourned last night at 7:45. Following the call to order this morning, Rabbi Stolz delivered the invocation.

The prayer of Rabbi Stolz was as follows: "O, Lord, who art the loving Father of all mankind, the just Ruler of the nations, the everlasting God whose counsel of righteousness and truth prevaileth over the waves of passion and the tumult of voices, we beseech Thee that Thou hast set out our nation high among the peoples of the earth and has been our strength in every conflict, our present help in every time of need. In Thy bounty, Thou has given us this land flowing with milk and honey and in Thy gracious Providence, Thou hast destined it to become the Promised Land of Liberty and Equality, the home of the free, the refuge of the oppressed, the goal of the strong and the aspiring who would share our inheritance of Law and Order. And we praise Thee for the multitude who have found blessing within our borders; we thank Thee for every beneficent institution established within our domain, for what of Justice has become the common law of the land, for our godly heritage of tolerance and peace.

"And we beseech Thee, Lord of Hosts, be with us, as Thou hast been with our fathers. Make us mindful of our duties as well as our rights, our responsibilities as well as our privileges. Grant us the insight that a people perisheth where there is no wisdom and the understanding that a great nation maketh its rulers righteous and its officers Peace, seeketh leaders who despise the gain of oppression and withhold their hands from bribes, maketh chief those whose glory it is to serve mankind by Justice, Fidelity and Truth. Bestow upon the delegates assembled the spirit of wisdom and understanding, of counsel and might, that they decide in justice and equity and not after the sight of their eyes or the hearing of their ears, and that they guide themselves by the truth that righteousness exalteth a nation and injustice is a reproach to any people.

"An so may Thy Kingdom come and Thy Will be done on earth. Amen."

ANTI TICKET PREPARED FOR JULY PRIMARIES

German Texas State League Publishes Names of Candidates That It Favors.

An anti-prohibition ticket in the July primaries has been compiled and circulated by the "German-Texas State League," and is published below. The names on the ticket are those of candidates understood by the league to be opposed to prohibition. In this connection, however, W. M. Imboden, candidate for lieutenant-governor has issued a statement declaring that he is now and has always been, a prohibitionist. The circular follows:

To the County and Local Leagues of the German Texas Citizens and Citizens of German Descent in the State of Texas in General:

In compliance with the resolution adopted by the German-Texas State League at its last conference, the executive committee of the league convened and decided to recommend to the members of the league the following candidates for State officers and recommended and request the members to vote for these men in the Democratic primary on July 27th:

- For United States Senator: J. F. Wolters.
- For Governor: O. B. Colquhitt.
- For Lieut.-Governor: Wiley M. Imboden.
- For Treasurer: W. L. Edwards.
- For Attorney General: James B. Wathall.
- For Commission Agriculture: E. R. Kone.
- For Railroad Commissioner: John L. Wortham.
- For Supreme Judge: J. B. Dittrell and N. Phillips.
- For Judge Criminal Appeals: C. Muse.

The executive committee recommends these men because they believe that prohibition is the main issue in the approaching primary election and that the State League should unqualifiedly align itself on the side of those candidates it knows to be against prohibition.

The league knows that these candidates are against prohibition or at least it knows that they will do nothing to bring prohibition into our state. For this reason it recommends to the members of the State League that they vote for these men at the Democratic primary on July 27th.

We further request the members of the county and local league to set on foot an active campaign in favor of the recommended candidates and that their names be spread about as much as possible, and that every German be implored to go to the primary election on July 27th and vote for these candidates.

A GREAT RECORD

Hard to Duplicate it in Wichita Falls. Scores of representative citizens of Wichita Falls are testifying for Doan's Kidney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it, and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

J. R. Henson, 119 Indiana avenue, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I am quite free from pain and lameness in my back and also headaches and dizzy spells since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Prior to that time I was in a bad way and found nothing that would relieve me of dull, nagging pain across my kidneys. Mornings I felt depressed and devoid of energy and after sitting in a chair I could hardly stand erect. Sharp twinges often darted through me when I stooped. These troubles all disappeared after I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I feel that I cannot recommend them too highly." (Statement given December 19, 1910).

Re-Endorsement

On December 27, 1911 Mr. Henson said: "I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me some years ago. The cure effected at that time has been permanent. You are at liberty to use my statement as heretofore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sea of Soda Like a Mirror

At Magadi, in the East African protectorate, is a wonderful deposit of soda, a great commercial asset which will materially advance the prosperity of the British colony. Magadi is situated between the monster extinct volcano Kilimanjaro and the escarpment which forms the boundary of the main plateau. The lake is like a mirror and the great stretch of alkali beds glistens like an ice-bound loch of the northern regions.

ZEBRA-DONKEY A SUCCESS

The creation of a new type is always interesting; the effort of the government to breed a zebra-donkey, or a zebra-horse is particularly so since they already appear measurably successful. The animal breeders of the department of agriculture were impressed some years ago with the splendid conformation, large size and great beauty of the big Grey zebra which was presented to President Roosevelt by King Menelik of Abyssinia, and which found a home at the National Zoological park at Washington. The zebra was bred to donkeys and the resulting hybrids are apparently great successes, a half dozen colts and fillies now poking their noses over the fences at visitors to the zoo. So far as markings are concerned they show somewhat faint reproductions of the strongly marked black and white stripes of the zebra stallion, but their parentage is evident. They are, however, as hardy, apparently, and endure the climate of Washington as well as the donkeys.

The striking feature of the cross-breeding is that the hybrids show a decided improvement in other respects over both parents in action, conformation and disposition. The Grey stallion weighs 800 pounds and is 13½ hands high, and while he is a beauty, he is not particularly affectionate; on the contrary he is vicious. The average weight of the donkey dams is 550, twelve hands high. The weight of the hybrids when only a year old was 500 and they stood twelve hands high. They have good action, a neat, clean-cut appearance, and are as gentle as horses' foals of the same age.

The hybrids ought to be tough, for the zebra in Africa is about the toughest thing in the horse line in the world, and he apparently loses none of these qualities by change of residence. The hybrids, then, should develop into animals with much greater endurance than the mule, and should be almost as large.

The zebra in Africa is immune to many diseases and pests which kill off horses and mules, and it is expected that the new hybrids will prove themselves more hardy and disease resistant than even the famous Missouri army mule.

SHEEP THAT LED BATTALION

While making a practice march in the French Alps, near Sospel, a short while ago, a battalion of the Twenty-seventh Chasseurs Alpins became lost in a fog. The officer in command of the battalion asked his men if any of them possessed a compass, but no one had one. The situation appeared inextricable, when a stray sheep appeared in sight. The lieutenant immediately ordered his men to follow the animal, which quickly led them to the nearest village.

Since the stringent food laws have been in operation, much of the Mocha and Java coffee so called has disappeared from the market. As a matter of fact, there is not a great amount of the genuine article produced, which accounts for its high price.

Austin, Texas, June 18.—Attorney General Lightfoot said today the second primary which will be necessary to hold in some counties will not affect the candidacies of either the men who are running for State offices or those who are candidates for United States Senator.

Makes the Nation Gasp. The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July suggests humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore tips or piles. 25 cents at all drug stores.

There are times when one must be an awful hypocrite to congratulate a bride and groom.

It's easy enough to give advice about love affairs, if you have never been in love.

Don't pant. Don't pace the floor. Don't talk between your teeth. Don't address the window pane. Don't pull the braid off the best sofa pillow. Don't take one of her hands in both of yours. Don't sit for a long time without saying anything. Don't clasp your hands together. Same with your lips. Don't begin by saying that you have something on your mind.

RAM'S HORN BROWN

A good habit is one of the best of all good things. This man who walks with God will never get into the mire. A sin big enough to have a name is big enough to kill a soul. The man who forgets others will soon be forgotten by them. The faith that moves mountains also moves a lot of other things. It is better to be solid mahogany in the rough than polished veneer. The lower a good man has to go down the higher he should look. Love never fails, but a good man never fails, but a good man never fails, but a good man never fails.

More showers of blessing would strike the church if we did not have so much dry preaching.

CHEER-UP THOUGHTS. We never believe the "believe me" man. Laughter is the pepin for mental dyspepsia. The coward calls it "pursuing a policy of nonresistance."

We never know how good that UP thing feels until after we've been downed a few.

The time to hold your head up is when you feel cast down!

We've known a lot of men with retreating chins who never retreated. Bits the perforation off short when you're preaching to a man in hard luck.

We always take more stock in the man who proclaims things in the planissimo tone. The invertebrate, when he makes good resolutions, usually holds out for an occasional recess!

The boss gives ear to the aggressive employe, but he always fires the antagonistic one!

"They say" that "prosperity spoils more men than adversity"—but we're all willing to take a chance!

UNCLE OBADIAH SAYS— Talk is cheap—but it depends on who does the listening. Some folks can't meet enough troubles, so they overtake a few. Most physical culture exercises look like a poor imitation of work.

No matter what the skeptics say, Noah was a man who stuck to his job and won out. Efficiency isn't doing twice as much work as you are now doing, but doing it twice as well.

Eli Fitts is going to have his daughter's voice finished—but the neighbors think it hasn't begun fairly. Just because a man looks good in a long tailed coat he is apt to think his country is calling him to serve it.

An inventive genius is a man who rigs up a shingle nail to hold his suspenders instead of learning how to sew on a button.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE CHICAGO FIGHT

of Austin; and Eugene H. Blount, district delegate, Nacogdoches. Mr. Gregory says he is praying for the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, and believes his prayer will be answered.

"If Roosevelt should be nominated here nothing on earth can stop the sweep toward Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore," said Mr. Gregory. "We will probably know by midnight just what is going to happen and I shall be a happier man if the indications point to the nomination of the Oyster Bay citizen."

"Every little bit helps," chirped Philip La Follette, 17-year-old son of the Wisconsin senator who seeks presidential honors.

This lad was the busiest man, to all appearances, in the La Follette headquarters. If he was not pinning a badge on a delegation of La Follette rooters he was passing out literature to inquirers.

Philip, however, was not the only member of the La Follette family who was engaged in helping father. His daughter, Pola, now Mrs. George Middleton of New York, is electioneering for the cause of the family head. With Mrs. Middleton is Mrs. J. P. Dolliver, widow of the Iowa senator.

For the first time in the history of Republican National conventions, no picture of the President hangs in the Coliseum, where today 1,798 delegates from the States and territories of the nation met to name a candidate for President and Vice President and to formulate a party platform.

Rough iron work, arching overhead, is hidden beneath red, white and blue bunting, and the galleries are marked by lines of mountain laurel draped about tri-colored shields and more flags. Over the main entrance a velvet rug of royal purple marks the box of Chairman Frederick Upham of the local committee on arrangements and his Chicago aides.

The chairman's table bearing a brass plate inscribed to inform all that the desk was occupied by the chairman four years ago when Wm. H. Taft was nominated, stands about a third of the way from the south end of the rectangular hall, on a dias. Back of it are the seats of the National committee and the space for the "workers" and those who helped to finance the gathering. At its side are grouped 500 seats for newspapermen, where every word may be heard distinctly and flicked away to ninety million Americans and many times more persons of other lands, who will be awaiting the message of the men at the keys.

In a basement, in addition, the newspaper men have great spacious rooms, where a hundred telegraph operators or reporters may work for each press association or paper, and adjoining, two hundred operators of the telegraph companies attended by many messenger boys will be ready to add the news reports or convey other information abroad.

Right upon the wall, back of the speaker's stand, which fronts the chairman's table, hangs a broad blue shield, on which are embroidered in gold the arms of the United States.

Copies of the first thirteen-starred flag of the nation flank it, and above, below and around are hundreds of large silken emblems of America.

An enthusiastic Taft man tried to give a Taft button to Mrs. Geo. Pardee, wife of former Governor Pardee of California, in the lobby of the Congress Hotel. "Have a Taft button, please," said the Taft rooster to Mrs. Pardee. "We permit woman to wear them, even if they have not got a vote."

"Thank you," replied Mrs. Pardee. "I wear a Roosevelt badge, I have a vote and when my three daughters are of age we shall have three voters in the family. Mr. Pardee is for Roosevelt, I am for Roosevelt and my three daughters are for Roosevelt. I shall take the Taft pin as a souvenir, however."

Mrs. Alice Longworth predicts a week of victory for the Roosevelt family. The Longworths have a suite at the Blackstone Hotel. The congressman, when he is not busy talking politics, is practicing on a violin. His wife, the daughter of the intrepid colonel, doesn't mind talking politics.

"How does this campaign compare with the last one your father was in?" she was asked. "Well, it's a bit more exciting but the result is going to be the same," she laughingly replied. "I think every woman should make it a point to study politics. I never took much interest in it until we awoke to find father in the White House."

The Texas delegation cast thirty-one votes for Senator Root for chairman and eight votes for Governor McGovern of Wisconsin. One Roosevelt delegate, F. N. Hopkins of Alba, Tex., was absent. His alternate, S. L. Williams of Malakoff, also was absent, the result being that the Roosevelt candidate did not get all the nine Roosevelt votes of the delegation.

Eugene Greer of Comanche, another Roosevelt delegate, was also reported absent by the reading clerk and Sam Davidson of Fort Worth, an alternate, cast his vote for McGovern.

The line up of the Texas delegates

For the vote for temporary chairman was as follows: For Root—H. F. MacGregor, Houston; W. C. Averill, Beaumont; C. K. McDowell, Del Rio; J. E. Lutz, Vernon; J. E. Elgin, San Antonio; W. H. Love, McKinney; W. M. McDonald and G. W. Burroughs, Fort Worth; Phil Baer, Paris; R. B. Harrison, Texarkana; George Eason, Nacogdoches; C. L. Rut, Beaumont; A. L. Dyer, Celina; M. O. Sharp, Denison; Eugene Marshall, Dallas; Harry Beck, Hillsboro; J. Allen Myers, Bryan; J. H. Hawley, Galveston; H. La Price, Palestine; C. A. Warnken, Houston; Spencer Graves, Richmond; C. M. Hughes, Wharton; M. M. Rodgers, La Grange; H. M. Moore, Austin; R. L. Welch, Taylor; T. J. Darling Temple; B. G. Ward, Marlin; C. C. Littleton, Weatherford; J. M. Oppenheimer, San Antonio; John Hall, Lampasas; L. S. McDowell, Big Springs.

For McGovern—J. L. Jackson, Tyler; Rube Freeman, Corsicana; Sam Davidson of Fort Worth in place of Eugene Greer of Comanche; W. H. Featherston, Henrietta; F. H. Hill, Panhandle; J. C. Scott, Corpus Christi; T. J. Martin, Stafford and U. S. Stewart, El Paso.

Of the ninety millions or more people in the United States and the hundreds of thousands in other countries intensely interested in the convention, less than 14,000 were destined to see the history making. In fact, it seemed hardly possible that the hall, huge as it looked, could hold nearly 14,000 people. Yet that is only a few more than the total—published figures to the contrary—that the Coliseum will hold as arranged for this convention. Seats, platform, press benches, aisles, runways, etc., are figured to hold a total of 13,770 people. This total includes 11,270 in the body of the hall, 1,990 on the platform; 150 sergeants at arms; 500 policemen, and 400 messengers, ushers and pages.

NEGROES CELEBRATING 'MANCIPATION TODAY

Gather at Grove East of City, Eat Big Dinner and Hear Entertaining Speakers

Cooks have left the kitchens, the wash tubs have been deserted and you couldn't hire "cullud" labor at any price in Wichita Falls today. The reason is the June 20th celebration that is in progress in a grove just east of the city. The negro population of the city is centered there and it is enjoying itself even beyond the limit.

The negroes began to gather on the grounds early this morning. At noon a big dinner was spread and a special shipment of watermelons that provident merchants had supplied themselves with was exhausted before noon.

The afternoon was devoted to speechmaking. Mayor Bell was one of the speakers. Prof. Trimble, the negro school teacher also spoke.

JONES CASE IS NOW WITH JURY

DEFENDANT ON STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF THIS MORNING

TELLS STORY OF KILLING

Declares That in Affair At Electra Last Christmas He Was Defending Himself

The fate of Jim Jones who has been on trial for murder now rests with the twelve men who have been hearing the testimony of witnesses for the last several days. The case was given to the jury late this afternoon. Jones himself went on the stand this morning to tell the story of the killing. He told of going to Electra and of hearing reports of threats against his life by Morgan, the man he killed. On Christmas morning he said he met Morgan in the post office and asked him about these threats. He said Morgan did not deny them and said the man what he had said and attacked him with a knife. Morgan was pulled off and he (Jones) went to a doctor to have his wounds attended to.

POLICE INVESTIGATION AT HOUSTON CONTINUES.

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, June 19.—The police investigation before the city commission continues to develop alleged acts of brutality by policemen. Some witnesses, however, comment Chief Ransom and his men. One new point developed is that Ransom's appointment as chief has never been confirmed by the commission, but to offset this it is contended that such action is unnecessary and that the mayor as full power of appointment and removal.

THE FACTORY PIANO SALE

IT STILL ON AND GOING AT AN UNPRECEDENTED RUSH

More than half of the factory consignment of pianos have already been disposed of, and buyers are coming every day. YOU CAN SAVE $100.00. An incentive to music lovers that has proven an irresistible motive. Just think of saving ONE-FOURTH the cost of a piano? Is it worth your while? Do you want a piano?

You do not need to pay all cash. The Crown and Concord factories are putting on this sale to place their instruments in as many houses as possible. In addition to the low prices, they also offer terms that any family can afford, and will place one of these high-grade instruments in your home on any terms that you wish. The sale will only last a very few days longer; but to secure the choice of the instruments at the best terms, you must call soon.

SHERMAN WINS HANDSOME GAME

DEFEATS LOCALS, 2 TO 1, IN WELL FIELDED AND BITCHED CONTEST.

NAPIER OPPOSES BAXTER

Prospective Major Leaguer Holds Locals to Three Hits, With None in the Pinches.

In a snappy, brilliantly-played contest, Sherman nosed Wichita Falls out of first place in the percentage column yesterday afternoon, the score being 2 to 1. It was Class A ball all the way through, one of the prettiest games of the season being seen here.

Napier and Baxter were the opposing pitchers and both had the real stuff. Three hits for the locals and five for Sherman were all that were recorded. Baxter pitched a splendid game, but even his performance was excelled by Napier. Foley White's home run in the eighth inning gave the locals their only score and though there were times when a measly little hit would have changed things, the pinch bingle was not forthcoming.

Before the game Wichita Falls and Sherman were sharing honors at first place. Yesterday's defeat shoves Wichita Falls down to second place, and it takes a reversal of things to shove her back into first place before the strenuous road trip begins.

Yesterday's game was worth four bits of anybody's money. There was only one error and mighty few men got on bases. Sherman won on timely hitting and nothing else.

The Cubs scored in the first inning when Humphries hit for two bases and came in on Williamson's long drive to deep center. Williamson wanted a home run on his drive but he failed to touch third base and was credited with only a two-bagger. With two down in the eighth and the hopes of a score fading into the distance, the locals tied things up on Foley White's home run. If there had been a man on base at the time, we might have a more cheerful story to tell. But there wasn't.

Sherman won out in her half of the ninth. Humphries walked, was sacrificed to second by Lamonia and scored on Conkrite's clean two-bagger.

Each side had five innings in which it failed to get a man on base and it was three up and three down for most of the way. Wichita Falls had the bases full and only one out in the third inning, but both White and Brown failed to solve Napier's pitching and the side was retired. In the sixth, Guthrie singled and was sacrificed to second and third. Squee Lawrence was next up and there were fervent hopes, but an infield pop-up was all.

Napier was backed by some sharp, clean fielding. Several times there were drives that looked like sure singles but which were gathered in and fielded. "The Drillers" supported Baxter.

STRENUOUS TIME ON ROAD AHEAD OF DRILLERS.

The Drillers leave in the morning for one of the most strenuous road trips they have yet taken. They will meet Bonham, Sherman and Denison in the order named and it is going to take some ball playing to cop the long end of each series. Bonham is not as strong as she was, but both Sherman and Denison have signed new players that strengthened them materially. Denison has a number of new players and it seems safe to predict that Wichita Falls will not have the easy time with that club that she had before.

Talk-O-Grams

By T. H. P. DUNCAN

We want to apologize to two or three doctors in this town. It seems that one in particular took to heart something we said in one of our short medical talks. Far be it from such. Our advertisements are never aimed at individuals—if I ever have a cause to say anything about any physician personally there will be no doubt who I refer to. Wichita Falls is blessed with several splendid physicians, capable men, reliable men, sincere men, men worthy of the title of doctor. As a class, they are all above the average of a city of this size. Of course there are some boneheads, some quacks, some ignoramuses but they are in every community. They are the minus gauge with which we measure the maximum worth of other physicians. The physician who teaches you how to avoid doctors is the true physician. The scallawag who prays for pestilence, open sores and calamities is a curse to humanity. There are a few in this place.

I want you to read an article in "The Era" magazine by Elbert Hubbard on osteopathy. By the way everyone should read "The Era." It is the most up to date publication in America. It is a Roycroft product. So elegantly printed, on rich ragged edged paper, that you feel a sensation of pleasure just from touch. A joy from seeing, an ecstasy from reading. Ask your book man. We hope that the doctors will let us continue the practice of osteopathy, electricity, vibration and Haebe medicine without displaying their ignorance upon the subjects.

You know we are giving free consultation and examination, and our prices are $1.00 and $2.00 a treatment.

Fred Gaston of this city, who is officiating as an umpire in the Texas League, went to his hotel at Waco last night surrounded by officers as a result of a tendency on the part of the fans to do him bodily harm. A decision in the eighth inning that was considered incorrect by the Wocans, was the cause of the trouble.

DAILY DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN

DIETETIC KNOWLEDGE AT FORTY.

At forty, says an old proverb, every man is either a physician or a fool. This may not be true of other departments of therapeutics than diet, but it is certainly true of that. And yet it is surprising how little one can learn by experience in half a lifetime, even about the thing that most nearly concerns us, individually. The fact that men differ in temperament, physical and mental, implies a corresponding difference in food requirement, as indeed it does in drugs, but such differences are only as the exception that prove the rule. There are certain general principles that hold good of all, and the man who does not learn these from his own experience and from that, less expensive, of those food experimenters who are devoting their lives to it—in some cases literally—can hardly be included in the more honorable class.

of the heavy rains the out of town attendance at the opening session was small, but a number of local Baptists and townspeople were out.

Rev. J. P. Boone, president of the Encampment, called the meeting to order and in a simple statement recounted the origin of the movement for the Encampment and the development of the plans. He said it originated at a B. Y. P. U. meeting at Stamford and had taken up without the calling of any general meeting. He expressed the hope and a belief that the encampment would bring a great blessing.

Rev. Sallee of Waco, of the missionary department of the church, then delivered the introductory address.

He expounded the thought that if Christians are to know the full fellowship of Jesus they must enter into suffering with him and to do the work in their homes and in their towns that Christ would do. His address was an appeal for consecrated effort and was intended as a keynote for the proceedings of the encampment.

Approximately one hundred visitors were present this morning at the lake when a 7 o'clock devotional service was held on the pier near the pavilion. A talk was made by Rev. J. B. Tidwell, teacher of the English Bible in Baylor University at Waco, who discussed the subject "Deepening the Spiritual Life." The 7 o'clock hour will be a most important one in connection with the encampment, and each day will begin with services on the pier.

At 9 o'clock this morning Bible and Mission study classes were conducted by Rev. W. T. Davis, assistant corresponding secretary general educational board, Waco, and by Miss Margaret Terry of Baylor University in Waco. From 10 to 11 o'clock conferences were held with regard to the Sunday school, the B. Y. P. U., Church Finances, Woman's Work, Juvenile work, and other branches of church work.

One of the most pleasing features of the morning's program was an address by Rev. W. Eugene Sallee of China, who is spending a year in America, studying the better to be able to perform missionary work in China, when he returns there next September. Rev. Sallee is now making his headquarters in Waco, but came to this city last night from Comanche. He left this afternoon for Bellevue, where he has an engagement tonight. Rev. Sallee talked on the need of mission work in China, especially that portion in which he has been a resident and a mission worker. He explained how most of the mission work is being carried on at present, and took his hearers on a trip to the interior showing them a city of five, six and even seven thousand people. His talk was most interesting and was given careful attention.

Following the special conferences this morning there was a short intermission after which Rev. W. A. Hamlett addressed the encampment. Addressment was then taken for dinner. There were present a number of Wichita Falls Baptists, who expect to attend most of the sessions. This afternoon recreation will be indulged in until the time set for the sunset service, led by Rev. J. B. Tidwell, who will give a number of stereopticon views. His lecture will begin about 8 o'clock and the public is invited to attend. Delegates to the encampment are arriving on every train, and it is confidently expected that in a short time, several hundreds of visitors will be in attendance. Friday special excursions will be operated on most of the railroads entering this city, and an unusually large crowd is expected on that day.

Some of the visitors have already been established in tents, and two hundred cots were taken to the lake this morning. The Traction Company operates a special flat car to the lake for the purpose of transporting the luggage of the visitors, and also to take to the lake whatever supplies they may need. The lake hotel under the management of Cap Robbins has been leased to the encampment committee, and is filled with visitors. More tents are being put up as fast as they can be secured, and there is plenty of room to accommodate all who attend. The encampment will continue for two weeks.
