ROOSEVELT CAUSE WANING LATEST HAPPENINGS SHOW

Convention Waits on Credentials Committee—Rumor of Released Delegates Soon Denied

Chicago, June 20.—The convention at 4 o'clock adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow because the credentials committee was unable to report.

Chicago, June 20.—Exactly four minutes—12:02 to 12:06 p.m.—was the duration of the opening session of the third day of the Republican convention.

The crowd, nearly 14,000 people who had fought their way into the hall after an hour or more in line, had to go out again.

The only business done was the prayer and the motion of Watson of Indiana to be in recess until 4 p.m.

When the recess was taken, the report was everywhere current that Roosevelt would come to the convention at 4 o'clock and make a speech.

At noon the hall was crowded to capacity. Almost the only vacant seats were in the delegates' section.

Col. Roosevelt and Senator Dixon conferred after the morning adjournment, and when they concluded their discussion, Mr. Roosevelt was rushed through the crowd at the Congress hotel to his lunch room and Senator Dixon announced the conclusion that had been reached.

"We will not recognize the legality of this so-called Republican convention until it purges itself of the seventy-eight stolen delegates enumerated in Hadley's motion yesterday."

"The nomination of a president has already been made. The American people have named Theodore Roosevelt and elected a majority of more than 100 delegates to this convention.

"If the convention does not unseat the 78 delegates, what will happen?" was asked.

"That will come later. We will wait developments before taking any further action."

Roosevelt arranged with a private conference with leaders after luncheon. Not all the delegates will be admitted.

"The statement that Roosevelt has released his delegates is untrue," said Dixon, "no such action has been taken."

Conflicting reports came from Roosevelt headquarters that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates from all obligations to vote for him.

"The time has come when I feel that I must make a statement, not only to the honestly elected national committee, but to the rank and file of the party and the honest people of the entire nation. I went into this fight for certain great principles.

"I can only serve these principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

Former Gov. Regis H. Post of Porto Rico, earlier had announced that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates but would remain in the race and thus was accepted by a number of Roosevelt leaders.

O. K. Davis of the Roosevelt headquarters, however, said he was authorized by the colonel to say the statement as to the release of delegates was absolutely false.

Roosevelt members of the credentials committee agreed in a noon conference to push only the Arizona, California, Texas and Washington cases, 48 delegates in all.

The total number of contests involved in the Hadley resolution was seventy-two and included also 22 delegates from Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Tennessee.

The prospect of holding the convention idle for several days was considered and induced Roosevelt men to agree to abandon the last group and center their fight on the others.

ULTIMATUM FROM ROOSEVELT.

"We will not recognize the legality of this so-called Republican convention until it purges itself of the seventy-eight stolen delegates. The nomination of a president has already been made. The American people have named Theodore Roosevelt and elected a majority of more than one hundred delegates to this convention.

CONVENTION AT A GLANCE.

NICE FILLING FOR SANDWICH

Sweet, Meat and Fancy Are the Grades—Just How They Should Be Prepared.

Sandwich fillings may be roughly classified as sweet, meat and fancy. Here are a few nice fillings of each grade.

Spread slices of brown bread with grapefruit marmalade, through which is chopped candied ginger. Another good sweet mixture is pineapple preserves mixed with candied cherries. Equally delicious is barbe-due and cream cheese, or grated maple sugar and chopped black walnuts.

Never use slices of meat in a dainty sandwich. Put the meat through a fine chopper until it is almost a paste. Cold chicken, lamb, duck and game make a delicious and simple filling by seasoning highly with salt, pepper and a pinch of cayenne, then moistening with rich cream—or whipped cream—until the mixture spreads easily. Minced ham or tongue is better when moistened with mayonnaise. Cold fish mixtures can be treated in the same way, but are improved by chopping olives through the dressing.

A good fancy filling is made from cream cheese mixed to a paste, with French dressing, and seasoned with chopped green peppers and slices of olives. Another good mixture is made from the outer leaves of head lettuce—the hearts can be used for salad—cut up fine, mixed with mayonnaise, and sprinkled thickly with crisp bacon cut in small pieces.

Red pepper sandwiches are artistic and appetizing. Use the canned sweet red peppers, chop fine and mix to a smooth paste with mayonnaise.

HOW EGGS SHOULD BE PACKED

Covered With Solution of Water Glass, They Will Keep in Good Condition for Months.

A clean stone jar holding six to ten gallons is the best vessel for packing down eggs for family use, but a tight wooden firkin or other vessel will answer very well. The eggs must be clean and fresh. Dirty shells and cracked or spoiled eggs will injure and possibly spoil the entire lot.

Place the eggs in the jar as they are gathered and cover with a solution of water glass (silicate of soda) one part to ten or fifteen parts of water. Cover the jar to prevent evaporation. Water glass is an amber colored liquid which can be procured of druggists or dealers in poultry supplies. It costs about 25 cents per quart, or less by the gallon.

Pure water should be used, rain water if you can get it. The jar should be placed in a cool cellar or room where it will not freeze in winter. According to Farm and Home, eggs preserved in this way will keep in good condition eight or nine months.

New Potatoes, Creole Style.

Get the tiniest Bermuda potatoes, shape them like marbles, and drop them in cold water to keep them from discoloring.

Mince very fine one white onion, one leek and one ounce of lean salt pork. Cook these together in a little butter and brown to a light golden color. Add the potatoes, salt and pepper and one bay leaf; after mixing the ingredients well together add one gill of hot water. Cover the pan and cook for 20 minutes, or until the potatoes are done. Dress on a hot dish, sprinkle with chopped parsley, and serve at once.

Good Pancakes.

Compound a flour by using 2 pints wheat flour, 2 pints buckwheat flour and 1 pint cornmeal. This can be put into half-gallon fruit jars. Then beat up the cakes by using sour milk, a teaspoonful soda and a generous pinch of salt and flour to make a medium thin batter. One must regulate according to size of family and appetites. These are fine and can be used from early fall till late spring and much healthier than raised buckwheat cakes and better than any patent pancake flour.

Beef Rolls.

Take thin slices of beefsteak and spread with the following dressing, roll up and bake in a moderate oven, basting frequently. Dressing: Two cups bread crumbs soaked in hot water until soft, then squeezed dry. Add one boiled potato, mashed, one tablespoonful melted butter, half onion chopped fine, one egg and salt and pepper to taste, and it is ready for use.

Apple Salad.

Chop together 4 large apples, 1 cup celery and 1 cup nuts, add the following: Boiled dressing; take the yolks of 2 eggs, 1 small teaspoonful mustard, 1 teaspoonful salt, 3 tablespoonfuls sugar, one-fourth saltspoon cayenne pepper, 2 tablespoonfuls butter, 1 cup sweet cream and the whites of 2 eggs beaten stiff.

Browned Wheat Coffee.

Roast one quart of clean wheat in a hot oven, stirring often. When browned but not burned add two tablespoonfuls pure molasses and one heaping teaspoonful butter. Dry in. When needed grind and use the same as coffee.

Chicken Shortcake on Toast.

Stew chicken and make a cream sauce to go with it, well seasoned. Bake a nice shortcake in squares, and pour the chicken and gravy over them while hot. Slices of butter toast may take the place of the shortcake.

ORIGIN OF HEAD HUNTING.

Head hunting, the greatest passion of the Dyak, has its roots in his courtship and in his idea of immortality and filial affection. A Dyak legend tells that "the daughter of their great ancestor, who resides in heaven near the evening star, refused to marry until her betrothed brought her a gift worthy her acceptance.

"The man went into the jungle and killed a deer, which he presented to her, but the fair lady turned away in disdain. He went away and returned with a miss (orangoutang), the great monkey who haunts the forest, but this present was not more to her taste.

"Then in a fit of despair the lover went abroad and killed the first man he met and throwing the victim's head at her feet, exclaimed at the cruelty she had made him guilty of, but to his surprise she smiled, and said that now he had discovered the only gift worthy of herself."

"And to this day a Dyak girl will often refuse to marry a man who has not taken at least one head. Still more blinding upon the Dyak is the obligation to furnish a fresh head to attend the spirit of any dead member of his family.

WATCH INSIDE OF A PEARL

Pearls on watches are commonplace, but a watch in a pearl is surely a novelty. One has just been made by a Paris watchmaker after 15 months of work by his best mechanics. The pearl weighed 45 grains and was a perfect flattened sphere. Its diameter was 14 millimeters, or slightly more than half an inch. The watch is 11 1/2 millimeters, or 45-100ths of an inch, in diameter, and has a compensating balance of 5-12ths of an inch caliber. It may seem strange, but the maker says the most difficult part of the work was boring the hole in which the watch was to be inserted in the pearl. This watch mounted in a pearl cost $6,000.

Much of that which is wasted in America is put to use abroad. And another thing, if Jupiter Pluvius will not come to see us upon a simple, cordial invitation, let us make it "voluntary" with a few thousand pounds of dynamite. We need the rain—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

That's the Wichita way of doing things. There's no thing we want, and want bad enough that we won't make an effort to get. At the present writing, however, the four and one half inches of rain that fell in the Wichita Falls county on the 16th and 17th will do for awhile. That rain came just in time, and is worth millions of dollars to the crops.

Morris Sheppard has accepted Jake Wolters' challenge for a debate on the tariff question, and the two are to meet at Athens next Monday. Just how Jake is going to manage to get on the Democratic platform on that matter is a question this paper has been unable to understand. He contends that the tariff question is the main question, and yet he is out of harmony with both the State and National Democratic platforms. Sheppard, however, may be able to show him the position he now holds on the tariff is more in harmony with Republican politics than Democratic, and he may get right. At least, this paper sincerely trusts that if Texas is going to be represented by a Republican on the floor of the United States Senate, she will select one who is not ashamed of his politics, and not make the mistake of selecting a Democrat, who is such in name only, and who openly disagrees with the majority of his party in both State and Nation on the tariff question.

We've no particular admiration for Cecil Lyon, but we don't mind admitting regret at his own fall when it means the re-elevation of such as "Goose-neck" Bill McDonald into Texas politics, even if it is Republican politics, in which we have no interest and which cuts no figure in Texas anyway. Col. Lyon has his faults, perhaps more than one thing at least, and that he has labored hard to make the G. O. P. in Texas a party of respectability. His downfall brings such as "Goose-neck Bill" to the top of the heap and the re-organization of the "black and tan" wing with the disgusting spectacle of white men consorting with negroes solely that they may use them to further their own political ends.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

That is exactly the way we view the matter, and from now on there will be more Republicans than ever before who will not have the least hesitancy in saying that they are Republicans only when it comes to voting the National ticket. They will not vote with their party in State politics. Cecil made the Republican party decent in Texas.

Senator Earl B. Mayfield of old Bosque county is a candidate for Railroad Commissioner. If elected it will give us two Mayfields on the railroad commission, but if he is as well qualified for the position as the other Mayfield (and his friends say that he is), then Texas can well afford to honor him with the position. "At any rate, here's hoping he wins in the July primary."—Wichita Daily Times.

And the friends of Mr. Wortham say he is equally as well qualified as Mr. Mayfield. In fact, we have heard no one criticize the qualification and ability of John L. Wortham. He was raised on a farm, therefore his sympathies are with the producer. He has been a shipper, therefore understands the needs and requirements of this class. He has had one year's experience on the commission, therefore fitted by training for efficient public service. Will the Times kindly inform us what particular merit Mr. Earle B. Mayfield possesses that entitles him to re-election and election in preference to John L. Wortham?—Denton Herald.

To be candid in the matter the Times can give no reason why it prefers Mayfield to Wortham other than that the former is more in line with the politics of this paper than the latter. Both have been in the service of the State for a long time and from all this paper can learn both are well qualified to fill the office of railroad commissioner, but so long as only one is to be elected, this paper prefers Mayfield. The Times is influenced in its support of Mayfield perhaps in the same way the Herald is in giving its support to Wortham. The only difference being is that the Times is not making any effort to conceal the fact that, all things else being equal, it prefers to give its support to the candidate that stands for measures and policies for which it has always stood, rather than to the fellow who opposes such measures.

In my opinion there has not been a real high-toned, tolerant campaign for governor in Texas since 1894, when Charles A. Culberson, Sam Lanham and John H. Reagan were contesting for the nomination. There were no issues, upon which candidates were not agreed. There was no mud-slinging, no epithets but a dignified campaign, a friendly, courteous mingling of contestants and an old-fashioned Democratic love-feast at the close.

While I am at it, I will say further that we are not going to have a dignified, tolerant campaign this year. Good men are running but factional has led it abroad and candidates and voters are going to do whirling dervish stunts. A studied view of the situation convinces me that principles and people are moved more by a desire to down the enemy and operate the steam roller than to the country's real service.—Paper read by J. H. Lowry, of the Honey Grove Signal, before Texas Press Association.

In the above Mr. Lowry has sized up the gubernatorial campaign about right. Both candidates, while neither measures up to the size of a John H. Reagan or James Stephen Hogg, or average men, but unfortunately are engaged in slinging mud at each other, and if half what they are saying is founded on facts, neither is the right man for governor. There is nothing left for the Democrats to do but nominate one of the other. To get rid of this mud-slinging politics in Texas, it might be far better to amend the Constitution by increasing the term of the governorship from two to four years, and fix it so that no governor can hold but one term in succession. And it would also be better to increase the salary from $4000 to $7500 or $10,000. Texas is the greatest State in the Union and should not be niggardly in paying a salary to her chief executive that will justify him making a thorough campaign of the State. On the present day salary, no governor who is an honest man, can hope to make the campaign, necessary and in the event he is successful, come out of the governor's office at the end of his two years with as much money as he had before he announced as a candidate. Hogg was forced to make two hard campaigns, and while he was successful in both, he was virtually a bankrupt at the end of his second term. The way it is now, unless a candidate is well fixed financially, and is prepared to pay out as legitimate campaign expenses all the way from $10,000 to $15,000 in order to get a job that pays only about $8,000 for a term of two years; he cannot afford to make the race, and that is one of the reasons why the campaigns for the governorship are not pitched on a more high-toned and tolerant plane. Whether there is anything to it or not, when you see a man announce for an office that he knows by the experience of others is going to cost him more for legitimate campaign expenses than the salary of the office amounts to you figure it out that either the fellow has friends who are willing to pay his campaign expenses, or that he expects to get the money back in some other way. Lengthen the term of the governorship to four years and increase the salary to such an amount as will justify an able man to offer for the office and the State will not be the loser in the long run.

PERJURY CHARGE IS ON TRIAL IN DISTRICT COURT

D. Smith, Subsequently Indicted For Bigamy, Is The Defendant

D. Smith is on trial before a jury in the district court today on an indictment charging perjury. Smith was arrested at Childress after he had married a Wichita Falls girl and was subsequently indicted on a charge of bigamy. Witnesses were placed on the stand by the State to show that he had a wife from whom he had not been divorced still living. It was shown that this wife had been declared insane and was now confined in the State asylum. The Wichita Falls girl whom he married was in the court room with a baby a few months old in her arms. She appeared taking the side of her husband in the trial.

Hadley of Missouri were the names which seemed to be most under consideration.

Senator Cummins and La Follette were also mentioned. Several times it was reported that Senator Crane of Massachusetts had conferred with Senator Kenyon of Iowa regarding the possibility of throwing the Taft strength to Senator Cummins as a compromise candidate. "Nothing but rumors were available on this.

Governor Hadley of Missouri was expected to continue as floor leader for Roosevelt. In previous convention fights Gov. Hadley showed his preference for staying and fighting it out.

When the credentials committee assembled this morning to take up the contests, Roosevelt men unexpectedly appeared to take part in the proceedings. Only two of the fifty-two members of the committee were present when the doors were opened to newspaper men.

Hugh P. Halbert of Minnesota and L. N. Mitchell of Pennsylvania were the two Roosevelt men first to appear in the committee room. Francis J. Heney and the majority of the other Roosevelt men were not present when the committee met. Mr. Halbert and Mr. Mitchell joined in making the following statement:

"We feel that the action taken last night by the minority members of the committee has resulted in giving us a fairly good set of rules and open and free discussion. With the presentation of any new evidence that may not have been heard by the national committee, we are going to stick to the committee. We forced the adoption of fair rules."

The session opened with a petition from Mr. Hackett of Nebraska and Mr. Halbert, that notice ought to be served on all contestants. For a time this threatened another break, for Mr. Halbert appealed from the chair's decision. He later withdrew this appeal. The roll call showed the following Roosevelt men absent: Heney of California, McCormick of Illinois, Harris of Kansas, Covington of Maryland, Cowles of North Carolina, Norton of Oklahoma, Ray of South Dakota, Cady of Wisconsin.

Mr. Halbert declared seven of the men who left the room last night were still absent. He asked for a delay until they could arrive. Chairman Devine said the meeting hour already had long passed and that contestants were ready and waiting to be heard. George R. Malby of New York and F. W. Estabrook of New Hampshire demanded that delay of the meeting be stopped.

"Oh, I know you are going to use steam roller methods," said Mr. Halbert.

"Not at all," retorted Malby. "We want to do business and you want to prevent it being done."

Mr. Halbert said he wanted "only fair play."

"Oh, yes," shouted several committee members, "you acted like it last night."

The Alabama case, the contest over the Ninth District, was taken up first. Oscar R. Hundley presented the Roosevelt case, claiming the Taft members of the committee there had bolted.

Mr. Hundley protested against the presence as a member of the committee of Alex J. Birch of Alabama who had participated before in the Alabama arguments.

After being in conference with Col. Roosevelt for half an hour, Hadley said:

"I will continue in the fight on the same lines as I have been following in the convention." He denied there was any disagreement between himself and Roosevelt.

Interest was keen in the proceedings of the credentials committee following last night's denouncement, when Roosevelt's members of the committee acting under the specific orders of Colonel Roosevelt broke out of the committee room at 10:30 o'clock after attempting to beat open the doors and bring all newspaper men into the room.

The doors of the committee room were suddenly thrown open by J. J. Sullivan of Ohio, who rushed out with the cry "All Roosevelt men walked out."

He was followed by Hugh T. Halbert of Minnesota, Francis J. Heney of California, George L. Record of New Jersey and other Roosevelt men. As they pushed open the swinging doors after Sullivan, they cried out to the newspaper men:

"All newspaper men come inside and see what they are trying to do to us."

Colonel Thayer, assistant sergeant at arms, shouted to the doorkeeper to admit no one. The Roosevelt forces shouted again for everyone to come in. Mr. Thayer called for policemen, who pushed their way through and kept the crowd from getting in.

The Roosevelt men poured out of the room, declaring they were acting under the direction of Colonel Roosevelt.

"Everybody go to the Florentine room at the Congress," shouted one man.

They rushed outside, followed by the crowd, and in the street they were overtaken by Secretary William Hayward.

"Why did you act that way?" he demanded of Heney. "Why didn't you wait until some rules had been passed?"

By Associated Press. At Gen. Huerta's headquarters, La Cruz, Mexico, June 20.—Five thousand government troops including infantry, cavalry and artillery commanded by Gen. Huerta are on the march toward Bachimba. Here the deciding engagement of the Mexican revolution is expected to be fought. It is expected that the entire detachment will be tonight in camp at Saculillo only 20 miles from Ortiz, which is the rebel front and 35 miles from the whole army. At Bachimba the federal vanguard consisting of 800 cavalry is expected to engage in frequent skirmishes with the enemy "around" Las Telicias, 8 miles south, as has been the case for some time.

PANHANDLE COLD WAVE BREAKS ALL JUNE RECORDS (Amarillo News) Yesterday's temperature, when the registration fell to 41, broke all previous June records for this station, covering twenty-one years. The rain was not considerable in this portion of the Panhandle, but in other sections it amounted to a thorough season.

While there was some little apprehension about damage to vegetation in some localities, it developed that this was well based, as everything was found to be in excellent shape after the sun's rays had warmed plant life to its usual temperature.

LARGE GAIN IN COUNTY VALUES

INCREASE OF $1,493,340 OVER LAST YEAR SHOWN BY ASSESSOR'S ROLLS.

DUKE TO OIL ASSESSMENTS

Total For County Reaches Sum of $14,800,930 Including Railroad Intangible Figures.

The assessed valuation of property in Wichita county this year shows a gain of $1,493,340 over last year. County Tax Assessor Robertson has just completed the compilation of the assessments. The total is $14,800,930. In arriving at these figures he has put in the railroad intangible values which are fixed by the State board the same as last year. It is probable that the board will fix these values at a slightly higher figure this year. The total last year was $13,307,590.

The increase is accounted for by the assessment of oil leases and oil property. Without these the assessment would have been practically the same as last year.

EL PASO LEGISLATOR ENDS LIFE BY SHOOTING.

JINX ANNOUNCER WILL PERFORM AT LAS VEGAS

Tommy Cannon of Oklahoma Said To Be Champion Hoodoo At Prize Fights.

Guthrie, Okla., June 20.—Tommy Cannon of Oklahoma, who will be the official announcer at Las Vegas on July 4 during the Flynn-Johnson fight, has announced five champions thus far in his career, and all of them have been defeated. Does this mean that Jack Johnson is to get his at the hands of Jim Flynn?

It was about two weeks ago that Cannon received a letter from Jack Curley, promoter of the Las Vegas fight, informing him that the job of announcer awaited him at Las Vegas, and Cannon immediately began arrangements for the trip. Cannon figures that a large delegation will go from Oklahoma to witness the fight. If a reasonable rate is granted by the railroads, he is enthusiastic over the coming fight between the white and the black, as strong for Flynn and predicts that the Pueblo freeman will leave the ring with the championship honors.

Cannon has been associated closely with many of the famous fighters for a number of years, and he is well known to all of them. He has promoted numerous good fights at different places in the United States and has handled many good boxers. At one time he was a fighter himself, but gave up the game after a few years. A number of bouts were promoted in Oklahoma City by Cannon a few years ago, when some of the best boxers came and went his way.

Cannon is a personal friend of J. Curley, manager of Jim Flynn, promoter of the Flynn-Johnson fight, and out of the many friends of Curley has chosen as official announcer on July 4. He has long been known as the silver voiced announcer among the big promoters of the country and has been chosen by them when his services were available.

The Oklahoman left for Las Vegas last Monday to carry out some preliminary work for Curley, including several advertising stunts. In a letter just received from him by Chief of Police Tilghman of Oklahoma City, Cannon writes:

"This town is fight mad and there is certainly going to be a big crowd here on July 4. Jim Flynn looks awfully good and he is going to give the big smoke the fight of his life." Cannon says Las Vegas is an ideal spot for the fight and that the people are making preparations for ample accommodations for the crowds that will swarm to see one of the world's greatest fistic battles.

SEVERAL TOWNS THREATENED BY CREVASSE FLOOD WATERS

New Orleans, June 20.—Flood waters from the Hymelia crevasse are still threatening Algiers, Gretna and Westwego on the west side of the Mississippi opposite this city, and this morning the street railway tracks in Algiers were under water for several blocks. A desperate fight is being made to reinforce the levees but constantly rising waters make the result problematical.

Fifty homes are inundated on both sides of Comman Canal, Westwego, and the inmates have sought safety behind the levees. With the prospects of rain and reports of rising floods from the Brazataria section the citizens of the threatened towns are keeping a constant watch for breaks. Supplies were rushed to the Lake Salvador section yesterday in response to suffering refugees. The army relief officers have been assigned to the stricken territory and every effort to relieve destitution is being made.

MURDERED WIFE'S GHOST PURSUES HIM TO JAIL

Man Arrested in Oklahoma Says Specter of His Victim Followed Him.

Fort Smith, Ark., June 20.—"I could have escaped trial entirely. If it had not been for the ghost of my wife, which pursued me until I could not rest outside the prison bars," exclaimed Will Everidge as he was locked up in the county jail at Hugo.

Everidge killed his wife as she was asleep in her home at Bagletown, McCurtain county. The couple had parted.

Everidge shot through a window at the sleeping form of his wife. Her body shielded from his view the 2-year-old child of Mrs. Earl Dyer, who was asleep in another part of the house. The bullet that passed through Mrs. Everidge's body also killed the infant.

Mounting his horse, Everidge started for the Texas border, 150 miles away. To avoid capture he chose the mountain passes that lead through a wild country from McCurtain into Choctaw county. He only traveled at night, and owing to the unbroken condition of the country he had to travel slowly.

The moment he mounted his horse and started to flee the scene of his crime, unconscious of the fact that he had killed the infant, Everidge says the ghost of his wife began to haunt him.

"I imagined I saw a ghost riding on a horse beside me," he said, when taken into custody at Hugo, two days after the murder. "The first night, I was creeping through the mountains."

When told that he had killed the Dyer child Everidge collapsed. He is a member of a prominent Choctaw family and formerly was Clerk of the District Court, United States Deputy Marshal and Royalty Collector. He served as an officer of the Government when McCurtain and Choctaw counties were a rendezvous for bad men and he often has been commended for his bravery. In the Locke Jones feud some years ago he fought a revolver duel on a train with Sheb Locke and was badly wounded.

FORT WORTH BOYS ALREADY PLANNING FOR 1913 CAMP.

(Fort Worth Star-Telegram)

The forty-two boys and half dozen Y. M. C. A. leaders who made up the Fort Worth contingent at the Y. M. C. A. and Boy Scouts camp at Lake Wichita returned home Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock after an enjoyable ten days outing.

As they came through the depot gates at the Texas & Pacific depot with their blankets thrown around their shoulders in military fashion and their faces, arms and hands blistered and tanned by the sun, a large crowd gathered and saw the affectionate greeting of the boys by their parents.

Glad to get back home again, to tell their many experiences to parents, brothers and sisters, and boyhood friends, still they resented to part with one another as they left the train, and there were many promises of "I'll come over and see you tomorrow" as they left the depot.

George Saam, one of the leaders of the camp and Y. M. C. A. physical director, said that there was not an accident during the encampment. He said that one of other of the leaders of the camp had an eye on the boys at all times and they were kept out of danger of mischief.

The ten days spent at Lake Wichita were enjoyable—except the last two, according to Mr. Saam. It rained Monday and Tuesday and turned cold, and the boys became uncomfortable because of the cold.

During the encampment the Fort Worth boys formed a Wichita Campers' Association and a reunion will be held now and then, the first to be in September.

The Fort Worth boys played fourteen baseball games with the boys' teams of Wichita Falls, but won but six of them. Each tent of the camp had a team in the indoor baseball league.

The camp held open house Thursday and Saturday nights and large crowds of the men and women of Wichita Falls visited the camp and were entertained. An entertainment was scheduled to take place Monday night but had to be called off on account of the rain.

Plans have already been made for next year's camp. Steps will be taken toward the erection of a building on the lake which will be arranged to accommodate the row boats and motor boats, and provide sleeping quarters upstairs. A permanent camp site is also being considered. It is planned to combine with the Dallas Y. M. C. A., next year and have each city take a delegation of about seventy-five boys to Lake Wichita.

Fishing was good most of the time in the lake, but snipe hunting was unproductive. One night, which was ideal for snipe hunting, two of the boys were given sacks while a third was armed with a loud gong, and they were stationed at a point across the lake, but although the bell sounded continually for an hour and a half no snipes entered the sacks. The boys holding the sacks were charged with going to sleep while on duty.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LOSSES IN TAX MANDAMUS CASE.

Austin, Tex., June 20.—The supreme court sustained the secretary of state in the mandamus case of the Houston and Texas Central Railway company, against C. C. McDonald, and the petition for mandamus was refused. The supreme court held that the secretary of state had correctly construed the franchise tax law when that official maintained that all corporations, whether their authorized capital stock exceeded one million dollars or not, were subject to the tax on surplus and undivided profits. The petitioner insisted that under the law all corporations whose capital stock exceeded one million dollars were exempt from paying a franchise tax on the surplus and undivided profits. The railroad company tendered the secretary of state $2750 to pay its taxes on a capital stock of ten million dollars, but that official declined to accept it, claiming $4569 which included a tax on the surplus and undivided profits.

SHERMAN TAKES ANOTHER GAME

INFIELD ERRORS BY LOCALS CONTRIBUTE TO VICTORY OF CUBS.

PINCH HITTERS LACKING

Dischner Cuts Batters Down When Men Are On Bases—Five Hits Off Jones.

Dischner's pitching and the Drillers' infield errors enabled Sherman to make it two straight yesterday, incidentally pushing Wichita Falls still further down the percentage column and giving them a bare even break for the at home stay of eight games.

The team left this morning for Bonham where a three game series will be played. This will be followed by games at Sherman and Denison, making it one of the hardest trips yet taken.

Inability to connect with Dischner in the pinches was the chief cause of the Drillers' downfall yesterday afternoon. Three times, with men on third, and a score all ready to hang up if a little single could be delivered, Dischner cut the locals down. The only score came in the second inning when White walked, forcing in a run.

Five errors were chalked up against the locals and the scout who occupied an inconspicuous seat in the grandstand was probably not very favorably impressed with the performance of the local infield. The only redeeming feature was Phillips who took everything that came his way. In the sixth inning he made one feature stop of Lomanoca's drive that seemed a certain hit and would have let in a score. On the Sherman side there was some punk fielding also, but not as bad as that of the home boys. Reed at second accepted seven chances safely.

Beckham pulled off the prize boner of the season in the third inning, giving Sherman one of her scores. With one out, Reed on third and Wakefield on second, Konkrite rolled an easy one to Beckham who fielded the ball safely and directly in Konkrite's path. Reed had already scored and Wakefield was safe on third, but Beckham allowed Konkrite to slip past him and get safe on first. A minute later Humphries and Wakefield worked a successful squeeze, giving a one-run margin.

The locals scored in the second, although they came mighty near failing to get a man across after three were on bases and nobody out. Kizlar and Phillips singled and Beckham was safe on Dischner's error. Jones rolled one to Reed who threw Kizlar out at the plate. Lawrence fanned, but White walked, forcing in a run. Brown was up next and everybody was hopeful, but he fanned.

Wichita's best chance to tie the score came in the eighth inning. McCarty singled and Morris fanned. McCarty took third on Kizlar's single. Phillips was up next and he hit a line drive to the right fielder. Kizlar had gone to second with the heave and was caught hopelessly off first base when Konkrite caught Phillips fly. Another chance came in the ninth. Guthrie was sent in to bat for Beckham and singled over first. Jones sacrificed him and Lawrence

Letter to JONES & ORLOPP Wichita Falls, Texas Dear Sirs: We reiterate: Every job painted Devos takes less gallons than of any other paint. The Drillers outbit the Cubs, eight to five but the hits were not timely and did not have the assistance of errors. Miller's smirking was not altogether a thing of beauty and Sherman undoubtedly suffered as a result of his judgment on some plays. The score:

ast before they be declared nominated. The ruling can only affect the races for sheriff and tax assessor, they being the only instances in which more than two candidates are running. Under his ruling the two men receiving the highest number of votes in the regular primary will be required to run the race over, provided no man gets a majority, or more than half of the votes in the first election.

The ruling is democratically sound, but seems a little hard on the two high candidates, for they will be called on to bear the expense of the second election. The doctrine that no man should hold office until he has been endorsed by over half the voters is what this second election is based on.

In this county there are three candidates for sheriff and tax collector. In the sheriff's race it is possible that some man may receive a majority in the Jury primary, but it is scarcely conceivable that any man can do so in the tax assessor's race, with eight men running. The second primary is fixed by law for the second Saturday in August.

PRESIDENT TAFT SIGNS EIGHT HOUR LABOR BILL.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—President Taft signed the act of congress limiting to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed on government work, and immediately afterward issued an executive order exempting any contracts on Panama Canal work until January 1, 1915. The canal will be finished before that date, according to the expectation of the engineers.

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By AD. GUMBERT, Former Pitcher Chicago and Pittsburg Teams, Later Sheriff of Greater Pittsburg and Expected to Be Next Mayor.

The great plays that I remember are those far back, plays made by men who have gone to the Great Beyond and those who have retired and gone into other businesses and perhaps only dimly remember the wonderful feats they performed. Not that we ever really forgot them, for when we of other generations of baseball get together once in a while and play them over again the old arms feel strong and the old hearts thrill again. The greatest play I ever saw, the one that comes to my mind whenever a great play is mentioned, was made by Connie Mack, now manager of the world's champions. That play, for originality and quickness of thought and execution, I believe was the greatest and most surprising I ever saw, and I had the honor of being one of the actors in it.

The play was made when I was pitching for Pittsburg and Mack was the catcher. No brainier catcher ever stepped back of the bat. We were playing Chicago and dear old Cap Anson was leading that team. In those days Anson was a terror at bat—and they may talk forever about great hitters and not convince me that any greater hitter than Anse ever walked to the plate. I pitched for him and pitched against him—and knew him. He was the surest man I ever saw in a pinch, especially with men on bases. In the game of which I speak we had a lead of one run and in the ninth inning Chicago had two men on bases and Anson at the bat. Any man who ever pitched to Anson knows what that meant. The old man swung a war club that looked as big as a center pole to the pitcher, and he stood there as solid as if rooted, and hit almost anything pitched, and hit it hard, squarely and on the line. The situation was bad, but Mack kept me working Anson, in, out and curve, until we got two strikes on him and, I think, two balls. Anyhow, we knew the next ball had to go over the plate—and Anson knew it and pulled his belt tighter and settled himself to hit.

Then Connie Mack worked the play. He walked to the base line from home to first and made a sharp remark to Anson that for an instant took Cap's attention away from the pitching. At the instant he spoke Connie flashed me a signal to pitch and I suddenly grasped the idea and cut loose a fast straight ball right through the heart of the plate—where Anson would have murdered it had he been watching. As I pitched Connie made a leap and as the ball went over the plate he caught it and Anson was called out on the third strike, retiring the side and giving us the victory.

Talk-O-Grams

By T. H. F. DUNCAN

Aesculapian was the God of Medicine. Greeks and Romans paid him tribute. At one time there probably was a great healer by such a name who lived in the country north of Rome and Greece. Homer's tradition makes him a man, he had three daughters, Hygiea (health), Panacea (all healer) and Iaso (healer). He was the son of Apollo and Coronis. Coronis was a faithless nymph who with her lover Tachys was slain by the Gods, but Apollo rescued his unborn son from the mother's body upon the funeral pile, and put him in charge of Chiron, a philosophical god. The young Aesculapian soon excelled his master and could prevent death and raise the dead. At Plato's complaint Zeus slew Aesculapian with a thunderbolt and he immediately became a divine being. The cult was at its height about 420 B. C. As late as 293 B. C. It was introduced to the Romans on account of a plague. Throughout Rome and Greece are many temples to Aesculapian. Arcadia was a great seat of healing. The greatest temple and mecca was at Epidaurus, south of Corinth. In a beautiful grove fragrant with flowers, muscled with birds, shaded with olive trees was the temple, where the sick came to be healed. They were required to sleep one night in the grove and during the night a remedy was revealed to the temple priests that would heal their ailments. Those who were cured made offerings to Aesculapian. Today doctors are still dreaming of remedies that will heal and the cured still pay tribute to the doctors' dreams. The mystifying rites and rituals of the priests had its effect upon the mind. It inspired confidence, dispelled fear and the mind became receptive to health waves and diseases were eradicated. Try our methods of common sense treatment, osteopathy and electricity. Forget the strong drug that doctors dream of because dreams never come true.

Charlie Bell and wife spent Sunday night with Mrs. Bell's father, Wm. Friberg. The Thornberry baseball team crossed bats with the Lynville nine Sunday evening resulting in a score of 16 to 11 in favor of the Lynville nine.

Messrs. Harry Hurt, W. N. Pharis, Albert Aderholtz, Grady Smith, Dewey and Elvir Pharis went to the river Sunday and enjoyed an old time swim. Arthur Pharis and family visited Mr. Roup Sunday evening. Mrs. Smith, Lonnie and Josie and her son and daughter, from the Lynville farm spent Saturday night and Sunday with N. C. Pharis and family.

There is some wheat and oats to cut yet in this neighborhood. Everybody's doing it. What? Smiling over the fine rain that we had Sunday night and Monday. We had 7-1-2 inches all told which is the greatest rain fall since 1908.

Levy Fowler happened to the misfortune of getting pawed by a mule Monday. The mule struck him with his foot just over the eye-cutting quite a place, but no bones were broken and he is getting along nicely. D. F. Bentley went to Wichita Monday on business. The drillers on the well here resumed work again Tuesday evening having been closed down since Sunday night at 11:30 on account of the heavy rains that fell Sunday night and Monday.

People have gone to work with renewed energy since the rain.

DEFIANT STATEMENT BY SENATOR DIXON

The sub-committee on resolutions met at ten thirty and resumed its work on the platform as if nothing had happened. There was a noticeable absence of the three Roosevelt members of the committee and it was not expected any except Hadley would be present. Since it scarcely settled down to business last night when the announcement of the prospective division of the convention caused a hasty adjournment, the subordinate organization found it necessary to begin at the foundation today. A few minutes before 12 o'clock the subcommittee adjourned for dinner. During the sitting the Illinois, Maryland and Nebraska members of the full committee dropped in to say that they had no thought of ceasing their work in the committee. They were asked to sit with the subcommittee and accepted. Many of the proposed planks received attention and several were put in final shape for the consideration of the full committee. As a result of the position in which the National committee found itself at the convention's opening the rules committee today decided to draw up a set of rules, to govern the procedure in the future. Adjournment was taken until later to permit Nicholas Murray Butler to put the new rules into proper parliamentary language.

SLUMP IN ROOSEVELT BETTING AT CONVENTION.

Chicago, June 20.—While there was some slump of Roosevelt enthusiasm as regards a betting proposition his admirers are still wagering their money that the Oyster Bay candidate will get the nomination.

James O'Leary, who is acting as betting commissioner of hundreds of people who wish to lay a bet on Roosevelt at the convention, said that on Tuesday when he had money to bet on the Colonel were offering 10 to 9 that the president would not be nominated as the Republican candidate. Today there were money requests for even money on this proposition which means that betting has swung a little in Taft's favor since his forces drew first blood in the opening battle by naming Root as temporary chairman.

Around the hotels this morning there were several good sized bets made at these odds, although some rabid Teddy fans are willing to put up their cash among friends at even money. There was some tendency on the part of the Roosevelt men to demand much larger odds than the Taft adherents were willing to give.

Many freak bets have been recorded.

REORGANIZATION OF ADVERTISERS

AD CLUB AGAIN FORMED AT MEETING HELD THIS MORNING.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

J. W. Bradley is Chosen President and F. H. Gohlke Secretary—Expect Large Enrollment.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce and of the old Wichita Falls Ad Club met this morning in the rooms in the city hall building and re-organized the Ad Club. The new club is organized as an adjunct to and as a part of the Chamber of Commerce and membership in the one entitles one to the membership in the other without additional expense.

The meeting this morning was the result of a resolution passed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning, at which time the benefits to be derived from an ad club were discussed and it was decided to appropriate $6 per year from the funds of the parent organization for each member who joined the ad club.

At the meeting this morning preliminary organization of the ad club was perfected by the election of officers as follows: President, J. W. Bradley; vice president, Bert Bean; 2nd-vice president, James Calvert; secretary and treasurer, F. H. Gohlke.

The officers were also constituted a committee on membership, and on committee to report at a meeting to be held Friday, June 23 at 10:30 a. m. It is felt that the organization of the Wichita Falls Ad Club is a matter that every business man and advertiser should take an active interest in.

It was pointed out by Secretary Forester at the meeting this morning that it is a direct means of keeping in contact with the brightest minds in the advertising business and thereby gain much valuable information. It also means a lot of good advertising for the city through the Associated Ad Clubs of America, and a very active social adjunct to the Chamber of Commerce. In addition it is considered a most valuable organization for the local advertiser in that it provides for him a means of discrimination between the good and the bad mediums and therefore insures a much greater return for the money expended for advertising than is possible in the haphazard method.

Among the delegates and other visitors at the Republican gathering: One man today wanted to bet $100 to $50 that there would be a riot in the convention hall before the business was wound up. He also offered to wager $150 to $50 that there would be a fist fight in the hall.

CLASSES AND LECTURES AT LAKE WICHITA LARGELY ATTENDED

INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

Excursions Will Be Run Here Tomorrow and Many Visitors Are Expected

Friday Morning Program: 7:00 a. m., Quiet Hour—Rev. J. B. Tidwell. 9:00. Bible and Mission Study Classes. 10:00. Intermission. 11:05. Special Conferences. 11:30. Address—"The Inspiration of Written Revelation"—Rev. B. H. Carroll. 7:15 p. m. Sunset service—Rev. W. C. Carver. 8:15. Song Service. 8:30. Address—Rev. A. E. Baten, president Blackwell College, Blackwell, Okla.

Prominent Baptists continue to arrive here on every train to attend the two weeks Interstate Baptist Encampment at Lake Wichita, and it is expected that the attendance will run into the hundreds tomorrow when excursions will be operated to this city on all railroads. Most of the Baptists are established at the lake, although a few are making their headquarters in town. The hotel at the lake is almost filled and a number of tents have been placed in use. A majority of the summer cottages are also occupied, and it was found necessary to secure additional cots for sleeping purposes. However, there is ample room to accommodate all who attend.

This morning was begun with a "Quiet Hour" on the pier, where the Baptists under the leadership of Rev. J. B. Tidwell of Baylor University, listened to talks by several of their number. This "Quiet Hour" feature is one of which the value is especially great, and similar services will be held each morning during the encampment. The services begin at 7 o'clock.

Following the services on the pier, classes were held in Bible study, mission work and other branches of the church. Much interest was manifested regarding the Bible and mission classes, and these classes were attended by more than twenty members. At 10 o'clock a B. Y. P. U. conference was held by about twenty-two members, and shortly afterwards a conference regarding church finances was held. Thirty-five were in attendance at the latter class.

A pleasing feature of this morning's program which came in the nature of a surprise to many was a short address by Dr. R. C. Buckner, founder of the Buckner's Orphan Home in Dallas. Dr. Buckner told of some of the history connected with the foundation of the home and reviewed some of the work which it has accomplished. He left for Dallas today but will return here next Tuesday to address the encampment during Denominational Day.

This morning Dr. B. H. Carroll gave the first address of a series which will continue throughout the two weeks. Dr. Carroll is considered one of the most earnest workers in the country, and is a man much sought after by conferences and encampments. He is president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. "The Facts and Philosophy of Revelation" was the theme which he took for a subject today.

It is announced by the committee in charge that Mrs. J. W. Snow, leader in charge of the juvenile work, instead of holding a class at 10 o'clock in the morning will conduct a daily lesson at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the change being made in compliance with the request of many Wichita Falls people who wish to be present. Some of the visitors also joined in the request as they are busy with other occupations at 10 o'clock in the morning and would prefer that the class be held in the afternoon.

W. A. Hamlett of Muskogee, Okla., arrived this afternoon and will speak at the sunset service tonight. The sunset service is a daily feature of the program, and is conducted east of the coliseum, in a shady spot. The public is cordially invited to attend, and the services will begin at 7:15 o'clock. Ref. Hamlett will also deliver an address tomorrow night.

This afternoon was given over to the recreation and the members of the encampment enjoyed themselves by boating, fishing and in other ways. Some of the children who took the encampment took a dip in the swimming pool. The number of Wichita Falls people who were in attendance today it is expected will be materially increased tomorrow. These will consist of members of the churches, B. Y. P. U. workers and members of the Sunday schools all of whom are cordially invited. At Monday's session new officers will be selected.

HIGHER COURT UPHOLDS VETERINARY EXAMINATIONS.

Austin, June 20.—The constitutionality of the act of the Thirty-second legislature creating the state board of veterinary examiners, was upheld by the court of criminal appeals in the case of Henry Pistole, appealed from Dallas county.

Pistole was fined $25 for practicing without first having stood an examination before the board or procured a license, as it was intended this to be a test case. The court today held that this law comes clearly within the police power of the state and is valid, and the Pistole case was affirmed.
