Ex-President's Supporters Reform New Party in Separation Presented to Regular Convention Votes--Sherman Form Adopted

The nomination of Taft by the regular Republican with Roosevelt as its "conditional" head, the consolidation of republican ranks--these were the events of yesterday, and in the Democratic party the joining of the Wilsons as temporary chairman presages interesting scenes this week at Baltimore.

MANY DELEGATES FAIL TO CAST VOTES IN ROLL CALL

Disorder and Dissension Mark Closing Hours. Taft Receives Total of 561 Votes in Convention.

CHICAGO, June 22.—With the party admittedly facing the greatest crisis in its history, Wm. Howard Taft of Ohio at 9:25 tonight was renominated for President of the United States by the Republican National convention.

The revolt of many Roosevelt delegates in the convention was open from the time the permanent organization was predicted. The split in the convention, occasioned no surprise. It was but a fulfillment of the prediction that had been made during the past several days.

The closing scenes of the convention were marked by counter demonstrations for President Taft and Col. Roosevelt. The first test vote after the announcement of the Roosevelt valedictory came on the adoption of the platform. The affirmative vote was 666, Roosevelt delegates present and not voting numbered 343. There were 53 noes, 36 of them La Follette States, North Dakota and Wisconsin. La Follette was placed before the convention but Col. Roosevelt's wishes were carried out by his followers and they remained silent during the call of the States.

On the voting for President the Roosevelt delegates again as a rule were silent. The delegates vote was:

Taft, 561; Roosevelt, 107; La Follette, 41; Cummins, 17; Hughes, 2; not voting, 344; absent, 6.

At times during the balloting the convention was in great confusion. California went two for Taft, four not voting. Colorado voted twelve solid for Taft and Connecticut fourteen for Taft; Delaware six for Taft; Florida twelve for Taft; Georgia 28 votes for Taft; Idaho seven for Senator Cummins and one for Taft; Illinois was called, Gov. Deneen announced the delegates felt that under the Illinois primary law they would be bound to follow instructions and vote for Roosevelt. The result was Taft, 2; Roosevelt, 52; not voting 27; absent, 2. Indiana voted Taft 20, Roosevelt 3; not voting 7. Iowa voted Taft 18; Cummins 10. The 18 Roosevelt delegates from Kansas refused to vote; Taft received two. Kentucky voted Taft 22, Roosevelt two. Louisiana voted 20 for Taft. Maine refused to vote. The roll call of Maryland gave Taft one, Roosevelt 9, not voting 5, absent one. When Massachusetts was reached a roll call was demanded and Roosevelt delegates recorded themselves as present and refused to vote. Chairman Root ordered that alternates be called instead. This ruling broke the storm. The Roosevelt men sprang to their feet and roared. "Massachusetts is a law-abiding State and will stand for no such dealings," shouted a delegate.

Root advanced to the front of the platform and said "If any delegate sent here by Massachusetts refuses to do his duty his alternate will be called to do it."

Tumult followed and the Massachusetts delegates became the focus point of a scene of wild disorder. Many Roosevelt delegates stood on their chairs and shook their fists at Root who stood unperturbed. Cries of "robbers," "thieves" and "crooks" came up from the floor and down from the galleries.

Delegate at large Fosdick of Massachusetts made to point of order that answering present was sufficient response to the roll call and did not entitle the alternates to vote.

Chairman Root ruled otherwise. Fosdick said he would appeal from the chair's decision. Mr. Root said the appeal would be allowed at the close of the voting.

"I defy this convention to make me vote for any man," shouted Fosdick.

In Massachusetts the alternates of the delegates at large elected at the primary were all pledged to Taft. As the clerk called the roll all of the delegates at large answered present and not voting. The alternates were called but only two voted for Taft.

The Massachusetts vote was announced Taft 20, not voting 16; Michigan 20 for Taft, 9 for Roosevelt, one not voting. Minnesota, 24 not voting. Mississippi 17 for Taft, three not voting. Missouri, Taft 16, 20 not voting. Montana, eight for Taft. Nebraska, two for Roosevelt, 14 not voting. Nevada, Taft 6. New Hampshire, eight for Taft. New Jersey, 2 for Roosevelt, 26 not voting. New Mexico, Taft 7, Roosevelt 1. New York, Taft 76, Roosevelt 3, not voting 6. North Carolina, Taft 1, Roosevelt 1, not voting 22.

North Dakota cast the first La Follette vote and the delegates were solid for him. Ohio, Taft 14, not voting 34. Oklahoma, Taft 4, Roosevelt 1, not voting 15. Oregon, Roosevelt 6, not voting 2. The roll call was demanded and Charles Ackerson shouted standing on his chair "I refuse to vote where the cards are stacked." The roll call proceeded amid disorder, resulting Roosevelt 8, not voting 2. Pennsylvania, Taft 9, Hughes 2, not voting 62. These were the first votes for Hughes. Rhode Island, Taft 10. South Carolina, Taft 16, not voting 1, absent 1. South Dakota, Roosevelt 5, La Follette 5. Tennessee, Taft 23, Roosevelt 6. Texas, Taft 31, absent 1, not voting 8. Utah, 8 for Taft. Vermont, Taft 6, not voting 2.

Senator Root asked that whenever a vote was challenged the rule would be followed. The answer of present and not voting was received from the State where there were no challengers. Virginia, Taft 22, not voting 1, absent 1.

Washington's 14 cast at 9:25 swung a majority for Taft and was greeted with groans and cheers. The roll call proceeded amid confusion.

In closing moments a resolution was passed under the gavel giving the National committee power to fill all vacancies and empowering the committee to declare vacant the seat of any member who refuses to support the nominee of the convention.

At 10:30 Delegates Esterbrook of New Hampshire moved the convention adjourn and the motion was adopted. The delegates filed out in absolute silence. As the last filed out, the band played "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

When it became absolutely certain early today that Mr. Taft would be nominated without great difficulty the leaders in control of the convention decided to give him Sherman as a running mate. All others dropped out and the Sherman was the only candidate before the convention. A motion from New Hampshire to make the nomination by acclamation was held out of order. There were many scattering votes. Amid much confusion the convention adjourned. At no time was there any indication of a walkout of Roosevelt men. They expressed their revolt for the greater part in silence.

With hope but no certainty of adjournment some time before daylight Sunday the convention met at 10:45. There was much disorder. No sooner had Root announced the opening than a stenographer's gallery voice shouted "al aboard." Chairman Root when quiet was restored introduced Rev. J. W. Hill who delivered the invocation.

The convention took up the credentials committee report seating the Taft at large delegates from Mississippi. There were two reports, the

WILSON IS WITH BRYAN

JOINS NEBRASKAN IN OPPOSING PARKER FOR TEMPORARY CHAIRMANSHIP

PEACE HOPE GONE

By Associated Press
Baltimore, June 22.—Prospects that the Democratic National convention would be organized without a fight almost reached the vanishing point tonight with the issuance of statements by Gov. Wilson of New Jersey sustaining W. J. Bryan's contention for a "convention of progressives," and by Chairman Mack of the National committee that the committee would make Alton B. Parker temporary chairman of the convention.

E. L. Hall of Nebraska, vice chairman of the National committee probably will call the National convention to order next Tuesday instead of Chairman Norman E. Mack. The latter received word tonight of the death of his mother at Buffalo, and he left at once for that city.

One conference followed another today among leaders of the rival camps to take over plan of battle on the national committee, where the next open fight on the question of naming Judge Parker will be made next Monday.

It was stated by friends of Judge Parker that he had no intention of withdrawing as a candidate for the temporary chairmanship, as reported. The Wilson leaders had little to say, preferring to await Gov. Wilson's answer to Col. Bryan. Mr. McComb campaign manager for the New Jersey governor, said he thought Gov. Wilson would leave the question to the convention.

Those national committeemen aligned with Judge Parker analyzed the replies of the candidates to Bryan's note and declared Bryan would find little comfort in them and that he would have to make the fight with only those delegates who joined with him.

NEW PARTY TO HOLD ITS CONVENTION NEXT AUGUST

Roosevelt's Acceptance of Nomination Conditional. Declares Issue is a Moral one.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Roosevelt was nominated for President on an independent ticket tonight in the dying hours of the Republican National convention in which he had met defeat.

Followers of Roosevelt gathered at Orchestra Hall less than a mile from the Coliseum and pledged their support to the former president. The informal nomination was said to be chiefly to effect a temporary organization. Beginning tomorrow, when a call is to be issued for a State convention in Illinois the work of organization will be pushed rapidly, state-by-state.

At a later time, probably in August, it is intended that a National convention shall be held. Col. Roosevelt in accepting the nomination said he did so on the understanding that he would willingly step aside if it should be the desire of new party when organized to select another standard bearer. The speech nominating him was made by W. A. Pendergast of New York who was to have presented his name to the convention. Dean Draper Lewis of the University of Pennsylvania Law school who was to make one of the seconding speeches, delivered the address which he had prepared for the Republican National convention. Representatives of 22 States composed the notification committee which informed Roosevelt of his nomination. He accepted and in a sense stood sponsor for the movement.

Roosevelt's speech of acceptance was as follows:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for your nomination and in you I recognize the lawfully elected delegates to the Republican convention who represent the overwhelming majority of voters who took part in the Republican primaries prior to the convention, and who represent the wish of the majority of the lawfully elected members of the convention.

"I accept the nomination, subject to but one condition:

"This has now become a contest which cannot be settled merely along the old party lines. The principles that are at stake are as deep and as broad as the foundation of our Democracy itself. They are in no case sectional. They should appeal to all honest citizens, east and west, north and south. They should appeal to all right thinking men, Republicans and Democrats without regard to previous party affiliations. I believe that the time has come not only when men who believe in progressive principles, but men who believe in those maxims of public and private morality under lying free government should join in one movement.

"Therefore I ask you to go to your several homes to find out the sentiment of the people at home and then again to come together. I suggest, by mass convention, to nominate for the presidency a progressive candidate on a progressive platform—a candidate and platform that will enable us to appeal to the northerner, the southerner, easterner and westerner, Republican and Democrat in the name of our common citizenship. I will make the fight even if only one State should support me. My only condition is that you shall feel entirely free to substitute any other man and in such case I will give him my heartiest support.

"Wherever in any State the Republican party is true to the principles of its founders and is genuinely the party of justice and progress I expect to see it come bodily into the new movement, for the convention that has just met in this city is in no proper sense of the word a Republican convention."

MANY DELEGATES FAIL TO CAST THEIR VOTE

The convention was called to order again at 1:30 p. m. after a lull of nearly two hours. More time was lost waiting for the report from the credentials committee on Texas. Eight Taft delegates at large were seated. A vote is probable on the 22 contested delegates.

The case of the fifth Virginia district was first presented. This was a case of two Roosevelt delegations, there being no Taft contest. The delegates are instructed. The national committee was sustained by the committee and there was no minority report. The delegates were seated.

The platform committee completed its deliberations and adjourned at 12:30. Its principal discussion was on the question of whether the tariff resolution should include recognition of the fact that certain duties were too high, with a pledge for their reduction. Action making such recognition was taken.

F. C. Bryan attorney for the Taft Texas delegates, declared the fight in Texas had not been between Presidential candidates so much as between the Lyon organization and the "great majority of Republican voters, who wanted to end its domination in the State."

The platform committee voted down by a bare majority of one a proposition by Gov. Hadley to insert a plank favoring the direct primary. Hadley announced that no minority report would be presented by the Roosevelt members. But it is possible that the La Follette faction will present one.

Chairman Devine of the credentials committee and R. R. McCormick of Illinois, a Roosevelt man, engaged in a heated argument in the committee room today over a statement issued by Roosevelt men, attacking the work of the committee. Devine said the Roosevelt members of the committee were "willful liars."

There was much disorder during the reading of the La Follette platform and few heard. Fairbanks moved to table the minority report. Cady of Wisconsin, presented the La Follette platform. When the rules committee reported, Watson the Taft leader, moved to table it; this was carried with a whoop, leaving the convention under the rules of 1908. A resolution to so proceed "until the adoption of new rules," was passed the first day of the convention. A minority report from the rules committee also was laid on the table.

The total official vote on the adoption of the platform was 666 ayes, to 53 nays, absent 16. Present but not voting, 343. There was no Roosevelt draft on platform. The La Follette report was tabled.

Warren G. Harding, nominated President Taft. Harding's assertion that Taft was the great progressive of his time not only evoked a storm of cheers and "boos" but started a fight among the delegates where Maine and Florida were sitting. The police suppressed it, but it was several minutes before quiet was restored.

Harding's speech continued amid great disorder. "Booing" interrupted every sentence. Senator Root remarked about so much noise coming from "gentlemen who had intended to sit mute during the convention."

Harding's assertion, "that the people do rule" was followed by cries of "Where?" His first mention of Taft's name brought the Taft men to their feet and a noisy demonstration began. The Roosevelt men sat silent and under the Taft cheers was an undertone of "booing" not easy to locate.

Among the principal features of the platform adopted are the following: The Tariff. "We reaffirm our belief in a protective tariff. The Republican tariff policy has been of the greatest benefit to the country, developing our industries, diversifying our agriculture and protecting our workmen against cheaper competition abroad. The protective tariff is so woven into the fabric of our industrial and agricultural life and that to substitute for it a tariff for revenue only would destroy many industries and throw millions of employment."

"The product of the farm and of the mine should receive the same measure of protection as other products of American labor. We hold that the import duties should be high enough, while yielding a sufficient revenue, to protect adequately American industries and wages."

"Some of the existing duties are too high and should be reduced. Readjustment should be made from time to time to conform to changing conditions and to reduce excessive rates, but without injury to American industry. To accomplish this, correct information is indispensable. This information can best be obtained by an expert commission, as the large volume of useful facts contained in the recent report of the tariff board has demonstrated."

The pronounced feature of modern industrial life is its enormous diversification. To apply tariff rates justly to the changing conditions requires closer study and more scientific methods than ever before.

"The party has shown by creating a tariff board its recognition of this situation and its determination to be equal to it. We condemn the democratic party for its failure to either provide funds for the continuance of this board or to make provision for securing the information requisite for intelligent legislation."

"We protest against the Democratic method of legislating on these important subjects without full investigation. We condemn the Democratic tariff bill passed by the House of Representatives of the 62nd Congress as sectional, as injurious to public credit and as destructive of business enterprise."

Cost of Living. "The steadily increasing cost of living has become a matter of not only National but of worldwide concern. The fact that it is not due to the protective tariff system is evidenced by the existence of similar conditions in countries which have a tariff policy different from our own as well as by the fact that the cost of living has increased while rates of duty have remained stationary or been reduced."

"The Republican party will support a prompt scientific inquiry into the causes which are operative both in the United States and elsewhere to increase the cost of living. When the exact facts are known, it will take the necessary steps to remove any abuses that may be found to exist in order that the cost of food, clothing and shelter of the people may in no way be unduly or artificially increased."

Banking and Currency. "The Republican party has always stood for a sound currency and for safe banking methods. It is responsible for the resumption of specie payment and for the establishment of the gold standard. It is committed to the progressive development of our banking and currency system. Our banking arrangement today needs further revision to meet the requirements of current conditions. We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of business and the welfare of labor by producing constant employment."

"We need better currency facilities for the movement of crops in the west and south. We need banking arrangements under American auspices for the encouragement and better conduct of our foreign trade. In attaining these ends, independent of individual banks whether organized under national or state charters must be carefully protected and our banking and currency system must be safeguarded from any possibility of combination by sectional, financial or political interests.

"It is of great importance that the social and economic welfare that farmers have facilities for borrowing easily and cheaply the money they need to increase the productivity of their land. It is as important that financial machinery be supplied for the farmers' credit as it is that the banking and currency system be reformed in the interest of general business."

"Therefore, we recommend and urge an investigation of agricultural credit societies and corporations in other countries and the passage of State and Federal laws for the establishment of and capable supervision of organizations having for their purpose the loaning of funds to farmers."

Campaign Contributions. "We favor such additional legislation as may be necessary more effectively to prohibit corporations from contributing funds directly or indirectly to campaigns for the nomination or election of the president, vice president, senators and representatives in Congress. We heartily approve the recent act of Congress requiring the fullest publicity in regard to all campaign contributions."

Conservation. "We favor such fair and reasonable rules and regulations as will not discourage or interfere with actual bona fide homeseekers, prospectors and miners in the acquisition of public land."

Parcels Post. "In the interest of the general public and particularly the agricultural and rural communities, we favor laws looking to the establishment under proper regulations of a parcels post. The Republican party is a party of advanced and constructive statesmanship. It is prepared to go forward with the solution of these questions which, social political and economic development have brought into the forefront. It will strive to enact the necessary legislation to safeguard the public health, to limit the labor of women and children, to protect wage earners engaged in dangerous occupations, to enact comprehensive workmen's compensation laws in place of the present wasteful and unjust system of employers' liability and in all possible ways to satisfy the just demands of the people for the solution of the complex and constantly changing problems of social welfare."

"The party will uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts both Federal and State and they may bear their burden to the complete satisfaction of public opinion. We favor legislation to prevent long delays and tedious and costly appeals which have so often amounted to a denial of justice in civil cases and to failure to protect the public in criminal cases."

Other Features. "The platform favored federal aid in maintaining the Mississippi levees, continuance of the policy of the government with regard to reclamation of dry lands, an amendment to the law that will reasonably extend the time in which the cost of any reclamation project may be repaid by the land owners under it, favor a liberal and systematic policy for the improvement of harbors, a liberal policy toward Alaska promoting the development of the great resources of that district with such safeguards as will prevent waste and monopoly; the opening of the coal land to development through the law leasing the land on such terms as will invite development; pledged the party to enactment of appropriate laws to give relief from the constantly growing evil of undesirable immigration; commend the administration's efforts to secure greater economy and increased efficiency in the conduct of government affairs."

Neal-Hunn Wedding. Last evening at 8:30, Miss Annie Hunn was united in marriage to A. L. Neal. The ceremony was pronounced by Justice of the Peace Brothers.

Both bride and bride-groom are highly esteemed young people of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Neal are at home at 503 Holiday street.

Heads of Father's Death. W. E. Franklin received word yesterday of the death of his father, in law, A. Skinner, which occurred at Pilot Point, Texas, early Saturday morning. Mrs. Franklin has been at the bedside of her father for some time, and will probably return home today. Mr. Skinner was 78 years of age and was one of the oldest residents of Denton County.

TAFT'S STATEMENT

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., June 22.—President Taft tonight made the following statement:

"The National convention of one of the greatest parties is ordinarily important only as a preliminary to a National campaign for the election of President. The Chicago convention just ended is more than this, and is in itself the end of a pre-convention campaign, presenting a crisis more threatening and issues more important than those of the election campaign which is to follow. The question there at stake was whether the party was to state its attitude as to the choice of the conservation to the nation of constitutional representative government or was to weaken the constitutional guarantee of life, liberty and property and all other rights declared sacred in the bill of rights, by abandoning the principle of the absolute independence of the judiciary, essential to the maintenance of those rights.

"The campaign carried on to seize the party and make it the instrument of ambition and upset the fundamental principles of the government was so sudden that time was not given clearly to show the people and the party the danger which confronted them. It was sought to break the wise and valuable tradition against giving more than two terms to any one man in the presidency and the danger from this breach could not be measured. The importance of the great victory which has been achieved cannot be over estimated. All over this country patriotic people tonight are breathing more freely that a most serious menace to Republican institutions has been averted."

FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT IN DALLAS SATURDAY.

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, June 22.—Nash Well, traffic manager for Sanger Brothers was instantly killed here this evening at 7 o'clock in front of his home when he was struck by an automobile driven by B. M. McHenry, a chauffeur. Mr. Well had alighted from a street car before it reached his residence and was running to cross the street when struck. His seventeen-year-old son witnessed the accident. Well was struck by the radiator of the heavy machine and attending surgeons say the blow was similar to the solar plexus of pugilists, resulting in almost instant death. McHenry was placed under arrest charged with reckless driving.

BY Buying a Piano

AT THE Crown Piano Factory Sale

There never was, and probably never will be again, such an opportunity in Wichita Falls to purchase a high grade instrument like the "Crown" or "Concord." The factory puts on these sales only once a year, and then in only four or five cities in the United States, so that it only comes to each city once in a decade. The choice of the factory's output is put into these sales. The sales are held solely to introduce the instruments, and every item of factory profit is entirely eliminated, so that the pianos go to buyers at the actual cost of manufacture.

There is no better instruments made in the world than the "Crown" and "Concord" Pianos

The factory sale will last only a few days longer. During that time, in addition to the remarkable low prices, exceptionally easy terms will be made, so easy in fact, that if you ever wanted a Piano, or ever thought of buying one—You can come in now and pick out the instrument you want, and make any kind of payments that you can afford.

We want to again impress on you that there is no guessing contests, fake drawings, or bogus check schemes attached to this sale. It is a clean, square deal put on direct by the factories to impress upon those who are fortunate enough to take advantage of it, as well as their neighbors and friends, the merits of the Crown and Concord instruments. There is little more than a half car of Pianos left, and the sale will be concluded as soon as these are disposed of. You must come quick to get one, and we urge you to be at the store as early tomorrow morning as you can possibly do so.

NEW PARTY IS TO HOLD CONVENTION

can convention at all. It does not represent the masses of the Republican party. It has served the purpose only of a group of sinister political bosses many of whom have used the party merely as an adjunct to money-making, either for themselves or for the great crooked financial interests they serve.

"I do not know whether our countrymen as a whole realize the gravity of the crisis we face. There is no use in holding primaries or in holding elections if we permit a small group of unscrupulous politicians, some of whom are certainly acting in the interest of big crooked business to use the veto power over these primaries and elections by upsetting the results at their own pleasure. The convention which today closes its discreditable career here in Chicago represents a negligible minimum of the rank and file of the Republican party but what it has done and what it has provided for the future offer material for very serious consideration. The only National committee chosen by politicians four years ago

"This fraudulent temporary roll in turn chose a fraudulent credentials committee and all the fraudulent delegates voting on one another's cases thereby made up the permanent roll which constituted the fraudulent convention. Thus it chooses a new and not less fraudulent national committee.

"Now, gentlemen, there are those who ask us to stay in the party which has just fraudulently nominated for the presidency a man who inspired and profited by, that fraud. They ask us to submit to infamy in the present on the ground that perhaps we may be able to prevent such infamy in the future. They seem to forget that the vicious circle has been completed and that this fraudulent convention has provided in its national committee a means whereby it can hope four years hence and with the like impunity to overthrow the will of the majority of the voters in the primary.

"The National committee over whose election and retention the voters have no control whatever makes up the fraudulent roll call which controls the convention. The convention fraudulently made up another national committee, which constituted by the same element that constituted the old one and has already shown by its action that it can be trusted four years hence to repeat the misbehavior of the old one.

After making preliminary arrangements for the organization of a new party, Col. Roosevelt this morning definitely severed his relations with the Republican National convention. In a statement setting forth his position in this regard, he said that since the convention had declined to remove the delegates who he contends are fraudulent, he could not recognize its authority. He urged his delegates to refrain from voting in the convention, although stating that in case they did not vote, he could not free them from the obligation to cast their ballots for him.

"Any man nominated by the convention as now constituted," said the statement, "would be merely the beneficiary of a successful fraud. It would be deeply discreditable to any man to accept the convention's nomination under these circumstances. Any man thus accepting it would have no claim to the support of any Republican on party grounds and would have forfeited the right to ask the support of any honest man of any party on moral grounds."

"The vicious circle must be broken. The powerful crooks and political bosses have and ought to have no feeling but contempt for the honest man who submits their dishonesty. If we permit fraud of this kind to triumph we do a shameful thing and show either that we are faint at heart or dull of conscience."

Maj. H. B. McDowell today circulated a progressive pledge "to obtain an honest expression from the people." He was asked if it meant he was advocating the formation of a new party.

About 11:30 Col. Roosevelt met the delegates who were denied seats in the convention. The delegates from Alabama were admitted first. The conference was expected to last several hours.

It was reported early this morning that a man had been killed north of the city. Officers at 2:45 a. m., were unable to confirm the report of the tragedy.
