

CLARK LEADS, WILSON SECOND ON FIRST BALLOT-NO CHANGE IS SHOWN ON SECOND TODAY

HARMON GETS SUPPORT OF NEW YORK'S DELEGATION

To Be No Suffrage or Direct Legislation Planks—All at Sea As to Ballotting's Outcome

BULLETIN—Baltimore, June 28.—No choice on second ballot, result little change from first. Clark 446½; Wilson 339¼, were two highest. Clark gained six votes and Wilson fifteen.

By Associated Press. Baltimore, June 28.—Result of first ballot:—Clark 440½; Wilson, 324; Harmon, 148; Underwood, 117½; Marshall, 31; Baldwin, 22; Sulzer, 2; Bryan, 1; Absent, 2.

After sitting all afternoon and night the Democratic National Convention reached the first ballot on the Presidential nomination shortly before 7:00 o'clock this morning. There was no choice. All the candidates were so far away from the necessary two-thirds that the delegates looked forward to a long hard fight. After the first ballot, the convention at 7:16 took a recess until 4:00 o'clock this morning.

It was learned that at 8:00 o'clock this afternoon that New York would again support Harmon on the second ballot, going to Clark on the third.

A decision has been reached not to include planks for woman's suffrage and the initiative, referendum and recall in the platform.

VARIOUS FORCES PREPARE FOR LATER BALLOTS TODAY.

By Associated Press. Baltimore, June 28.—As was expected Champ Clark led the others on the first ballot; he received 440 1-2 votes to 324 for Woodrow Wilson, his nearest rival. Mr. Bryan got one vote from the Ohio delegation. Some of his friends had expected that he would receive more scattering votes, but the fact that he did not show any strength whatever on the first ballot was not discouraging to them. They still feel that in the event of a deadlock which early today seemed more than probable, Mr. Bryan might be turned to again lead his party in the presidential race.

Speaker Clark's vote was less than his managers had been claiming for him, but was about what the other candidates had conceded. The speaker's adherents were declaring early today that he would steadily gain as the balloting in the convention progressed and at the same time were busy with their delegates to see that there were no defections. The Wilson people, on the other hand claim that now the various instructed delegates had cast their votes on the first ballot in accordance with their instructions they would be free later on to look to a second choice. They expected to gain greatly on these changes.

One by one, late this forenoon Democratic delegates who participated in the all night session made their way into various headquarters all speculating on the possibility of another long exciting session and all guessing which of the candidates will be the convention's choice. At noon Chairman Ollie James reiterated the view expressed after the early morning adjournment, that there would be no deadlock and that the standard bearer would be chosen without another all-night session. The chairman was little the worse for wear after his arduous duties of the night. His voice rang true and his sturdy physique was serving him well in his efforts to keep the convention moving steadily forward amid the storm of popular demonstrations.

Political leaders who tried today to realign their forces for the second ballot concurred in a statement made at noon by Senator Kern of Indiana that "we are all at sea on the situation. One man's analysis of the figures of the first ballot is as good as another's."

Senator Ryan is being groomed as a dark horse in the race. When told today of a report that he and Mayor Gaynor of New York were to be put forward it was ascertained that there was a deadlock, he replied:

"Going to bring two fresh horses in the field, are they? Well, all I can say is that the microbe has not entered me. I am not bothering myself about it."

Kern said he did not believe that the Bryan "purging" resolution would have any effect on the candidates now urged as it was understood that Mr. Bryan put forward the resolution on his own responsibility. Delegates opposing Bryan openly assert that he made a great mistake in offering the resolution that he is breaking the back of Wilson's candidacy.

After one or two more ballots it was learned today that an effort will be made to break up the block of seventy-one votes cast by Pennsylvania for Gov. Wilson. That the second ballot which is to come this afternoon will show many switches in the votes is confidently asserted by the leaders.

There are a number of conflicting influences operating in the convention. One is the desire to nominate a candidate whose appeal to the people will be sufficiently strong; the other is to name a man who can make an appeal to the South and to New York, which are regarded as the sections both conservative in their tendency.

While Murphy, Sullivan and Taggart are yoke fellows at present it is felt they are likely to come to a parting of the ways very soon.

It is not improbable according to reports, that New York will turn to Clark while the Illinois and Indiana contingents are more likely to turn to Bryan ultimately. The South would prefer Wilson to Bryan, while New York would prefer Bryan to Wilson. The view held by Southern leaders is that after three campaigns for Bryan, it is desirable to turn to a new man. On the other hand the New York sentiment is that with Bryan they would know what they are taking, whereas Wilson is an untried candidate.

Bryan Sees Moral Victory in The Adoption of His Resolution By The Convention Last Night

By Associated Press. Baltimore, June 28.—W. J. Bryan had no word to say today on the first ballot cast for the presidential nomination by the convention and after the adjournment of the all-night session the Nebraskan hurried to his hotel where after breakfast he retired at once. He indicated that the delegates had already spoken their minds against Underwood and Harmon but was non-committal as to whether his choice was Clark or Wilson, although he added that he had voted for Clark.

Mr. Bryan believes he has achieved a great moral victory in securing the passage of the Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution which was hurried into the convention like a bombshell last night. Over the breakfast he talked freely of the resolutions and when asked what the effect would be, he replied:

"You wait for a week; there has never been such an alignment of a political party against an interest. Just see the vote that was cast for the resolution."

"Did not the elimination of the last clause demanding the withdrawal of any delegate representing the Morgan-Ryan-Belmont interest nullify the resolution?"

"No," replied Mr. Bryan with emphasis, "the last clause was merely putting into effect the first clause. When before in any convention have we ever had such men named? What do you think of Virginia's vote in favor of this resolution? There were 23½ votes for it and one-half of a vote against it, and Thomas R. Ryan was sitting in the delegation."

"This resolution has made the delegates get in line. Those who nominated a reactionary after passing this resolution would never dare to go home if they lived west of the Allegheny mountains. The convention has gone on record."

An inquiry whether he would support a reactionary candidate seemed to nettie Mr. Bryan and he gave no definite answer.

"Mr. Bryan, it has been suggested among delegates that conditions might arise that would cause you to bolt?"

"I don't reply to every report that is started about me," he answered, "I don't think any man has a right to ask me that question. When this convention started could you tell what was going to happen? A man's course of action must be determined as circumstances arise."

Mr. Bryan's friends say the passage of the resolution has shown the country that this is a progressive convention and that a progressive must be named.

"Resolved, That in this crisis in our party's career, and in our country's history, this convention sends greetings to the people of the United States, and assures them that the party of Jefferson and Jackson is still the champion of popular government and equality before the law. As proof of our fidelity to the people, we hereby declare ourselves opposed to the nomination of any candidate for President who is the representative of or under any obligation to J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas F. Ryan, August Belmont, or any other members of the privileged hunting and favor-seeking class."

"Be it further resolved, That we demand the withdrawal from this convention of any delegate or delegates constituting or representing the above named interests."

The convention was thrown into a furore by the proposition, which, as originally introduced, called for the withdrawal of Ryan and Belmont, delegates from Virginia and New York, respectively. This part of the resolution was resented as invading the rights of sovereign states and its full import became known boos and catcalls, jeers and hisses were mingled with handclapping, cheers and stamping of feet in the galleries and on the floor.

Representative H. D. Flood of Virginia dramatically characterized the proposition as insolent and said it came from "the only man who desired to destroy the Democratic party."

Former Gov. McCorkle of West Virginia called it foolish. Mr. Bryan made the situation even more dramatic by asking Virginia and New York to request a modification of the resolution and when they scorned the suggestion he took the course himself.

From that moment sentiment changed and the voting indicated that Mr. Bryan, as the exponent of progress, retained his hold upon Democracy. He said it was not necessary for Mr. Flood to deliver a eulogy of the State of Virginia. It was there his father was born, and he would be the last to raise a question as to the integrity of its Democracy.

"Nor is it necessary for me to defend my own Democracy,"

"Boo, boo," came from a contingent of the delegates.

"St down, st down," called others.

"I do not intend that any delegate shall shield his vote against the principal part of this resolution by hiding behind the last part."

"In answer to the argument that this resolution should not be introduced here to disturb harmony, I commend to the gentleman from West Virginia the Bible doctrine: 'If thy right hand offend thee, cut it off.'"

"My reputation will not be worth defending when it becomes necessary to defend it from the charges of a friend of Thomas F. Ryan. I now withdraw."

A chorus of mingled cheers and jeers greeted this statement.

"Vote, vote," came a howl.

"And I'm sure if it is worth while port a reactionary candidate seemed to nettie Mr. Bryan and he gave no definite answer.

"Mr. Bryan, it has been suggested among delegates that conditions might arise that would cause you to bolt?"

"I don't reply to every report that is started about me," he answered, "I don't think any man has a right to ask me that question. When this convention started could you tell what was going to happen? A man's course of action must be determined as circumstances arise."

Tonight and Saturday generally fair.

ARE MAKING PLANS FOR JULY FOURTH

BIG BARBECUE AND GENERAL CELEBRATION OF DAY IS PROPOSED

TO FEATURE TRADES DAY

Excursions Will Probably Be Run From Nearby Points For Occasion

At a mass meeting at the Chamber of Commerce room this morning committees were appointed to solicit funds for a big barbecue and Fourth of July celebration here. If as much as $800 is subscribed the celebration will be thoroughly advertised along the Northwestern and other railroads entering the city, and a strong effort will be made to bring a big crowd into the city on that date.

Two committees were named to solicit the subscriptions. One is comprised of G. D. Anderson, F. H. Gohlke and Marvin Smith. The other is Dan Hardy, H. B. Hatton and Dick Wheeler. J. B. Marlow, T. R. T. Orth and M. J. Gardner were appointed a committee to have charge of the funds and to make the arrangements for the barbecue and other features of the entertainment. An effort will be made to secure a ball game and other attractions.

Merchants will keep their stores open throughout the day and it is planned to advertise the trades day extensively. Some of the merchants will advertise special sales for that day.

On the Northwestern the excursion rates will not apply for points north of Leedy as a big celebration is to be held there. Two sections of the regular train will be run to carry the crowd.

MRS. ROBERTA C. SHERMAN SUCCEUMS TO TYPHOID.

Mrs. Roberta Curry Sherman died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. O. Smith, 1107 Lamar avenue at about 10:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of several weeks with typhoid fever. Although it had been known for several days that Mrs. Sherman's condition was critical, her friends were not prepared for the shock of the news of her death.

Mrs. Sherman was 26 years of age and was born and had lived all her life in Wichita Falls. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Curry. She was very popular and was prominent in the social life of the city. Besides her husband and her parents, three sisters, Mrs. A. E. Myles, Mrs. J. O. Smith and Miss Denia Curry are the immediate relatives bereft at her death.

The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Smith, 1107 Lamar street at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. J. L. McKee. The burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

SHEPPARD TELLS WHAT HE WILL DO WITH THE $250.

Waxahachie, Texas, June 28.—A large crowd heard Morris Sheppard, who spoke in the district courtroom here. Sheppard's statements were similar to those made at other places the feature being his announcement of what would be done with the $250 he received from his opponent at Athens.

"One half of the check will be given to the Star of Hope Mission at Houston to aid in its work of reclaiming human wrecks, many of whom are the finished products of the liquor traffic," Sheppard declared, "and the other half will be delivered to a temperance society at San Antonio to be given by it to a widow with a large family at Laband, Williamson county, whose husband was killed in a saloon brawl."

Sheppard later spoke at Italy, where his remarks were along similar lines.

GETTING READY FOR BIG FIGHT AT LAS VEGAS.

By Associated Press. Las Vegas, N. M., June 28.—Jack Johnson finds himself handicapped in his final training for the fight with Flynn by lack of sparring partners. In lieu of sparring he is doing long stretches of road work and says he does not mind letting up on boxing for a few days. With the big event only six days away, Johnson is being groomed to enter the ring at 212 pounds and Flynn is around the 194 mark.

Yesterday was a day of comparative idleness in the Flynn camp. Contenting himself with a 12-mile road run in the afternoon, today he commences mixing his routine of gymnasium and road work with a stiff boxing program. Advance reservation indicated that the arena which seats 17,150 will be filled to capacity on July 15th.

SAYS ROOSEVELT HAD SLUSH FUND

SCATHING CRITICISM OF EX-PRESIDENT'S CAMPAIGN BY LA FOLLETTE

"PROGRESSIVES ARE SPLIT"

Wisconsin Senator Declared That Interests Gave Money and Support To Roosevelt

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., June 28.—An editorial published by Senator La Follette in the current number of La Follette's weekly is in part as follows:

"Until Roosevelt came into the open as a candidate for the presidency five months ago, there was a strong and rapidly growing progressive movement within the Republican party. It was based upon clearly defined principles. It stood forth as the representative of modern political thought on fundamental democratic issues. It was united."

"Inid this movement, when it gave promise of National success, Roosevelt projected his ambition to be president a third time. He spent weeks carefully preparing a 'spontaneous call' for himself. He responded announcing that he would be a 'receptive' candidate. His candidacy began to drag. He and his friends were in despair. Then came his defeat in North Dakota. He became desperate.

"An enormous campaign fund was raised. Headquarters were opened in New York, Washington, Chicago and states east and west."

"Newspaper writers were engaged at large prices to boost his candidacy. Special trains were hired and 'receptive candidates' started in frantic pursuit of the nomination. In the history of American politics, there has never been in a primary campaign for presidential nomination an approach to the extravagant expenditure made. Men notoriously identified with the steel trust and the harvest trust became his most active supporters. Leading reactionaries, stand-patters, and political bosses of the Hanna and Quay sort became his closest political friends and representatives in many states.

"A number of the newer recruits to the Republican progressive cause, men who before 1909 with three or four exceptions had either become indifferent or opposed to the progressive movement, became the noisiest supporters of Roosevelt the 'winner.' It mattered not to them that Roosevelt had co-operated with Aldrich on legislation during the seven years he was president. They forgot that it was only when Roosevelt was out of office and in Africa, through the united efforts of men who for years had been fighting special interests and the progressive became a National movement, that Roosevelt was for Taft in 1910 when Taft was denouncing all progressive as 'pirates and traitors' that he waited until little more than a year ago, balancing the chances before deciding further to cast his lot with the progressives in this presidential year, contented for nothing with the class of progressives who wanted to 'win' not a real progressive victory. And they did win precisely that kind of a victory. They carried overwhelming the great stand-pat states of Illinois and Pennsylvania.

"That staffed the Roosevelt candidacy with its true character. No real progressive could have secured anything like such a vote in either of those states. It has, however, the outward seeming appearance of success, that catches the crowd. It enables Roosevelt to win in two or three really progressive states. Fortunately, it did not enable him to secure the nomination which have compromised the progressive movement and defeated real achievement for years.

"Upon Theodore Roosevelt and his followers rests the responsibility of having divided the progressives in their first National conquest."

Didn't Know Until He Got Up That He Was In Lead At Baltimore

By Associated Press. Washington, June 28.—Speaker Clark wasn't kept awake last night by the balloting at Baltimore. He remained up only a little past his usual hour and long before the delegates were casting votes for him he was at home fast asleep and did not know that he had led on the first ballot until this morning when the newsmen were shouting "extra."

ORATORS TELL OF CANDIDATES

NOMINATING SPEECHES WERE HEARD AT THURSDAY NIGHT'S SESSION.

VIRTUES ARE PORTRAYED

Addresses Brilliant, Forceful and Eloquent Employed in Making Nominations.

By Associated Press. Baltimore, June 28.—Nominating speeches were heard at last night's session of the convention and in brilliant oratorical efforts the virtues of the several aspirants for the nomination were presented to the crowd in the armory.

Senator Reed of Missouri, presenting Speaker Champ Clark's name to the convention for the Presidential nomination spoke in part as follows: "We are here, not to nominate a candidate, but to select a President. Today we shall contend, each against the other; tomorrow we must be brothers in a battle for humanity.

"Ours is a high privilege and solemn duty. It should be met in a spirit of exalted patriotism. Every consideration must be subordinated to the great cause of the people. We speak not only for a party, but for a nation, for mankind and for history. We are about to dissolve the partnership between monopoly and government.

"Sixteen years this partnership has levied tribute under the forms of law. It has taxed the crust upon the lips of hunger. It has siphoned from the pockets of poverty. Monopoly has financed the campaigns of Republican Presidents. It has been rewarded by immunity from punishment for violation of the criminal statutes. The people turn to the Democratic party for relief.

"Republican candidates have resorted to every form of false pretenses, every trick of demagoguery. In order to delude the people, one of these candidates has not hesitated to attack the courts of law, and to assail the fundamentals of our Government.

"We recognize the truth that all laws and the Constitution itself should when necessary be amended to meet changed conditions. But we refuse to assail the structure of our Government or to incorporate intellectual vagaries and fantastic experiments into our jurisprudence.

"We stand for government by law. It is for this very reason we insist that the law against illegal combination must be rigorously enforced. Under Roosevelt the trusts flourished as a green bay tree; under Taft the tree has grown and spread its branches until their shadow covers all the land. Roosevelt's policies in all their fundamentals have been perpetuated by Taft. If either is elected, these policies will continue.

"The situation is epic. In such a struggle as lies before us, give me for a leader no 'summer soldier or sunshine patriot.' Give me no political dilettant, who comes into camp when honors are most ripe to pluck. I want no half-fledged chameleon who is only just beginning to acquire a Democratic crew. Let me rather have for general him who has suffered the hardships of the camp, the toils of the march, the dangers of the field; who has stood at the bloody angle; who has proven his mettle in the baptism of fire.

"Let me tell you of such a leader. He was not born in luxury. He sprung from that stock which produced the men who subdued the West, the people whose hearts are instinct with patriotic love of country and liberty.

"We hear much today of Progressives. The term has perhaps never been clearly defined. But if you mean by a progressive, one who studies conditions, and recognizing an evil, bravely seeks for and applies a remedy, then I assert that this man has a record unsurpassed.

"He does not cling to a thing simply because it is hoary with age. Neither will he embrace one because it is new. He is conservative enough to believe that nothing should be destroyed merely because it has lasted a long time. He is progressive enough not to reject an idea simply because it is not covered with the mildew of antiquity.

"Twenty-four years ago he placed upon the statute books of his State a law guarding the secrets of the ballot.

"He advocated the direct primary system twenty years ago; and applied it in his congressional district.

"It is thirteen years since he contended for the enactment of the most rigid corrupt practice act to be found upon the statute books.

"Five years ago he advocated the initiative and referendum in his own State. He was not, as some others are, disturbed lest the people should destroy themselves.

"As early as 1885 he declared for the direct election of Senators. Five times has he voted for that measure, and for years in Congress has been its distinguished advocate.

"During all of his long public service, he has been one of the most valiant champions of tariff reform.

"I place before you this record, made not when lust of office lured, but written in the story of the years, and graven upon the public statutes of the country; and I challenge comparison.

Democrat. He has not been an occasional Democrat. He does not belong to that class of Democrats who steal out of nights, sleep in strange political beds, and then come trilling home about the time they can smell the breakfast bacon frying.

"He is not a fair weather soldier. He has marched in the procession when there was no band to lead. He did not enlist for one campaign; he volunteered for life.

"His popularity is confined to no section. In his campaign, he has remained quietly at his post of duty. He has not afforded the spectacle of a Presidential candidate clamorously parading the country with brass bands and red lights, soliciting votes.

"And so I nominate this man, who has fought a thousand battles for Democracy and not one against her; who has never lowered his flag or asked for quarter; who has never deserted nor taken a furlough; who does not know how to quit a friend or betray a party; whose back the enemy has never seen, but whose breast is covered with the scars of many a hard campaign; who leads today and who should continue to lead—the Lion of Democracy—Champ Clark of Missouri."

Democracy's real leader and best asset, invulnerable in his record of long public service, imperturbable in action and irreproachable in honor, and blameless in his private life, was the way in which Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, was described to the convention by Wm. B. Bankhead of Alabama, who nominated Mr. Underwood for the Presidency.

After declaring that the republican party "had become, in the hours of its present degeneracy, the embodiment of complacent incompetency and broken faith," and that, although it claimed to be the "protector of labor, the fruits of labor have been gathered as dividends by illegal combinations in restraint of trade," Mr. Bankhead asserted that the Democratic party had been acting safely and conservatively.

Then, going on to describe the qualities needed in a leader who could carry the Democratic party to success he said it would be logical to put Mr. Underwood in command of the forces in that battle where his brilliant achievements already had refuted democracy's opportunity and alleged Democratic pledges. The chief issue before the country, he said, was the tariff; and Mr. Underwood "has fought with the foresight of a patriotic statesman, and will continue to fight for a lower cost of living, for an equal opportunity for all men through the enactment of a new and righteous tariff."

"The acts of the Democratic party," he continued, "have appealed to the judgment of the country as wise, conservative and yet safe and progressive.

"Although success, under right conditions, is within our grasp," he warned, "never has it been more essential than now for us to nominate our best and strongest man. There is no safety in picking our nominee in haphazard fashion from among those who possess this or that special gift, unless it has some intimate relation to the requirements of an exacting campaign, to the chief issue before the people and to the duties and needs of our greatest executive office.

"What manner of man then," he asked, "shall this convention raise up to be its standard bearer? He should have had political training and experience, for these are almost as essential qualifications as a nominee for the Presidency as are the clinic and class room for the physician and surgeon. Without any pretentious parade of the virtues, he should be progressively conservative and conservatively progressive.

"He must be well balanced, thoughtful, deliberative; and yet, in ability to inspire enthusiasm among his fellows be a natural leader of men. While he must be popular, he must possess that enduring popularity which has for its sure foundation established character and true worth; and he must be ready to serve in command or in the ranks. He must have the capacity to win great honors for the Democratic party, and so establish it in the public confidence that the people will grant to it a long tenure of office.

"His availability as a candidate can not be questioned. It is gratifying to those who know the generous hearts of the American people to appreciate the fact that sectional differences are forgotten, and the once-called Mason and Dixon's line has long since been tramped upon by the foot steps of friendly intercourse and commercial relations.

"Our candidate is a master of every detail of tariff legislation, upon which hang our reasonable hope of relief from insufferable conditions. Nominate him, and the platform instead of being so much party declaration, will become the creed of a waiting people. Nominate him, because his sterling reputation is not the creation of a day or night, but the steady growth of eighteen years of splendid service in Congress culminating in conceded party leadership.

"He is a man who in moral action is bound by the Ten Commandments; in debate by dignity and decorum; in intercourse by gentleness and candor; in victory by modesty and magnanimity; in action by prudence and courage; in government by the Constitution and law. He can give counsel without haughtiness and reprove without scorn. He fears no man's censure, but inspires every man's respect.

DRILLERS DUE HOME TOMORROW

RETURN FOR SERIES OF THREE GAMES WITH THE ARD. MORE TEAM

POOR SHOWING ON ROAD

More Defeats Than Victories So Far. New Faces To Be Seen in Lineup

The Wichita Falls team will be back on the home lot tomorrow for a series of three games with Ardmore as the opposing team. This is Ardmore's first appearance here since the opening series of the first half season, when the Oklahomans defeated the locals two out of three.

The results of the trip have not been all that they might have been. Eight games had been played up to today, the Drillers losing five and winning three. Some new faces will be seen in the lineup when the team gets back.

After the series here with Ardmore, the Drillers go to Ardmore for a series, including a Fourth of July double-header.

BUNTING GAME WINS FOR DENISON THURSDAY.

Special to The Times.

Denison, Texas, June 28.—The Katydids got to Baxter in the third inning yesterday and on a combination of hits, bunts and errors drove four base-runners across the slab clinching the game. Haislip opposed the Drillers in the box and fanned eight men, allowing only five hits.

BOBBY MYERS REPORTED TO HAVE LEFT THE TEAM.

Bobby Myers who has been with the Drillers as pitcher for two seasons and who was also with the old Irish Lads, is reported to have left the team to accept the management of an independent nine at Abilene. No information regarding him has reached baseball headquarters here, however. Myers has been one of the safest and most consistent pitchers the team has had and has earned his pay every time he worked. He was also useful as a utility man and was considered one of the best hitting pitchers in the league. He was the most gentlemanly of a team made up of gentlemen and there is not a fan but who will regret to see him leave the team, if the report is true.

Robaten's Mineral Water.

is highly recommended by physicians and patrons who have tested its merits, for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, kidney and bladder trouble. This water stimulates the secretion of the stomach, increases digestion and favors a more complete absorption of the food and prevents the action of germs that cause typhoid and other infectious diseases. This water can be purchased at the wells or delivered in jugs or cases. This well is located one mile south of Alamo school building in Floral Heights, two deliveries daily morning and afternoon. G. METROPOLITAN-LOOKING AMBULANCE IS HERE

Belongs to Freear-Brin Company and Presents Appearance That is Almost Inviting.

The Freear-Brin Company have received its new ambulance from the Rockford Manufacturing Company of Rockford, Ill. The ambulance was placed on exhibition this morning. It is an elegant vehicle and was admired by many.

It is a two horse vehicle; is finished in a silver color and the metal parts are nickel plated. The interior of the compartment presents practically a smooth and unbroken surface with the doors closed and the floor is in one piece leaving no seams or cracks for a lodging place for dust or germs. Hung on a pneumatic swing is a moveable surgeons' and invalid's chair fitted with handles so that it can easily be taken from or replaced in the swing when occupied by an invalid or injured person. By the side of this chair are two seats one for a nurse and the other a surgeon.

The compartment has door sash each side. The floor is swung low on easy springs so that lifting is almost entirely avoided. It is fitted with electric lights, the current being furnished from batteries carried in the vehicle.

Altogether the ambulance is as complete and elegant and convenient in every detail as any that are seen in the large cities.

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good. One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

UNION STORE

Wichita Falls, Texas

ORATORS TELL OF THEIR CANDIDATES

in the Union. Its solidarity cannot be disintegrated. False argument falls broken against it. A revolution of intelligent and patriotic millions is the expression of these necessities, motives and causes. Therefore New Jersey argues that Woodrow Wilson is the only candidate who can not only make Democratic success a certainty, but secure the electoral vote of almost every State in the Union.

New Jersey will endorse his nomination by a majority of one hundred thousand of her liberated citizens. We are not building for a day, or even a generation, but for all time. Let not the belief that any candidate may succeed rob us of sound judgment. What would it profit the Democratic party to win now, only to be cast out four years hence? The Democratic party should be commissioned to carry on a great constructive program having for its end a complete restoration of the doctrine of equal rights and equal opportunity—without injury and wrong to anyone. Providence has given us, in Woodrow Wilson, the mental and moral equipment to accomplish this reincarnation of Democracy.

New Jersey believes that there is an omniscience in national instinct. That instinct centers in Woodrow Wilson. How can his power in every State be explained? He has been in political life less than two years. He has had no organization, only a practical ideal—the re-establishment of equal opportunity. Not his deeds alone, not his immortal words alone, not his personal powers alone, but all combined, compel national faith and confidence in him. Every crisis evolves its master. Time and circumstance have evolved Woodrow Wilson. The North, the South, the East and the West unite in him. Deep calls to deep. Height calls to height.

"From peak to peak, the rattling clouds among. Leaps the live thunder. Not from one lone cloud. But every mountain now hath found a tongue. And Jury answers through her misty shrouds. Back to the joyous Alps, who call to her aloud."

The lightning flash of his genius has cleared the atmosphere. We now know where we are. The thunder of his sincerity is shaking the very foundations of wrong and corruption.

If Providence could spare a Washington to lay the foundations of the United States of America; if Providence could spare a Jefferson to make Democracy a living reality; if Providence could spare a Lincoln to obliterate chattel slavery and unite the States in impregnable unity and brotherhood, New Jersey appeals to this convention to give the nation Woodrow Wilson, that he may open the gates of opportunity to every man, woman and child under our flag, by reforming abuses, and thereby teaching them, in his matchless words, "to release their energies intelligently, that peace, justice and prosperity may reign."

New Jersey rejoices through her freely chosen representatives, to name for the Presidency of the United States the Princeton schoolmaster, Woodrow Wilson.

In accepting the permanent chairmanship, Mr. James said:

"I congratulate the Democrats of the nation upon the fortunate auspices under which we have assembled. No charge of bribery hovers over this hall, no cry of thief and robbery is hurled by one fellow Democrat at another. No soldier stands in reserve to keep us from each other's throats. When the nominees are named by this convention they will have back of them every loyal Democrat in the republic, as well as the hearty support of progressives everywhere.

"There are two records that will be presented to the American people in the coming campaign for their consideration. One is the record of the Republican party with promises defiantly betrayed, and the other is the record of the Democratic party, of promises faithfully kept. The Republican party itself, recognizing that President Taft had been unfaithful, refused by an honest majority of the convention to re-nominate him, and it was only brought about by the most wholesale, conscienceless and deliberate unseating of delegates, honestly elected, that was ever perpetrated in American politics. The Republican party, flushed with many victories, imperious as a tyrant, took the reins of the government in 1908 under the solemn promise that they would revise the tariff in the interest of the consumer. Instead of keeping this promise, they betrayed it. They raised the tariff higher than before until it reached its maximum of protection, being 47 per cent.

"The Democratic party passed upon its record in the Sixty-first congress upon the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill to the American people, and it received from them a verdict of guilty against the Republican party and the bestowal of power upon ourselves. How faithfully we have kept our promises is but a resume of our official action.

"Having control of only one branch of the law making power, we undertook to reform the tariff in the interest of the consuming public, believing it is a tax that is paid by the consumer, most generally to the trust or monopoly that is sheltered by it, sometimes to the government, believing that the right of taxation is a governmental right, that it cannot be delegated to individuals, trusts, corporations or monopolies, believing that the right to levy a tax exists only for the purpose of running the government economically and efficiently administered, we present the tariff question to the people in segregated form.

"First, we reduced the tariff upon woolen clothes forty per cent. This was the one schedule that President Taft himself said was too high, that it was only made possible by reason of the strength of the wool trust in the east and the wool growers in the west, but he could not veto it because he would have to veto all the other fourteen schedules of the tariff bill. This bill went to the senate and though it were controlled by the opposition party, we found sufficient assistance from the ranks of our opponents to pass it up to the president.

"The president returned it to the congress of the United States with his veto and assigned as his reason that he had no tariff board to report and was therefore uninformed upon the question and for this reason returned it with his disapproval. We undertook to pass this bill over his veto. Our constitution requires two-thirds to accomplish this.

"We had more than one hundred majority in favor of the passage of the bill, his veto to the contrary notwithstanding. We lacked only eleven votes of having the necessary two-thirds to pass it through the house of representatives over the president's veto.

"I believe in the rule of the people. I am a progressive Democrat.

"We passed through the house of representatives a resolution submitting an amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of senators by direct vote. This was in obedience to our promise in former Democratic platforms. The senate of the United States had become the rock against which remedial legislation in the interest of the people had been wrecked. Wealth had made this body its last stand, privilege was making it a rendezvous. We believe the people ought to have the right to select their senators directly as they do their members of congress. And, today the American people have before them this amendment to the federal constitution by reason of the courage and support of Democracy. I believe the day is not far distant when the senate will be free and as responsive to the will of the people as the house of representatives.

"We then passed through congress a bill providing for publicity of campaign funds before, as well as after elections and denying the corporations the right to contribute to political parties at all.

"This is now law, and both elections of senators by the people and publicity of campaign funds met the disapproval of the Republican convention held in 1908 by more than 800 majority.

"We submitted to the country an amendment to the federal constitution providing for an income tax. We know that a hundred billion of our one hundred and thirty billions of wealth is escaping taxation for national purposes and in keeping with our promise to the American people, we have submitted this just amendment to the federal constitution which makes constitutional beyond the time spun theories of learned lawyers the most just of all taxes levied upon men. And, before the snow flies, I believe that this amendment will be endorsed by a sufficient number of states to make it a part of our constitution, and with it will come the Democratic honor and glory in the history of this republic that ever amended the federal constitution in one hundred years save by the sword.

"I believe in the rigid enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law. I would not proceed against these great monopolies in equity and when I found them guilty, tell them not to do so any more or to divide their army of pillage into separate marauding bands, but I would proceed against the ruler the criminal statutes and place upon them the felon's stripes. I do not believe that a monopoly can be reasonable than I would give a thief the right to steal reasonably. These trusts must be destroyed. The people know that they have grown up and have been fostered and encouraged by the Republican party and they cannot rely upon that party to destroy them. They have no vested right. Wrong never did and never will have a vested right in this great government.

"We are not opposed to big business. We recognize that in a big country there must be big business but we say with all the emphasis of our souls that big business like little business must obey the laws. We would strike from these trusts every character of protection. We would write a tariff law strictly for revenue only, and place the tax first on the luxuries, and if that did not produce sufficient revenue, then upon the comforts of life and lastly we would lay the burden of taxation upon the necessities of life.

"These infant industries must be weaned. Infants they began, but are mighty giants who have coalesced their strength to drive skyward the cost of living and oppress the people.

"The Republican platform adopted at Chicago upon the tariff and trust questions is a puzzle, absolutely meaningless to the American people, but they may rest assured that to this puzzle the trusts hold the key. Their financial plank shows great anxiety to make it easy for the farmer to borrow money. It seems that they recognize that their rule of this country of sixty years has made it necessary for the farmers to obtain credit.

"The Democratic party of this country never will consent that our finances shall be Aldrichized or controlled by the money trust.

TWENTY BUSHELS TO ACRE ON IOWA PARK FARM.

Iowa Park Herald

Messrs. Dettels and Starks started up their threshing outfit at the Will Dettels farm on last Saturday evening, when they threshed one wagon load of wheat from less than half an acre and received 10 bushels. They found the wheat a little too damp to do good work and shut down the machine until Monday, but on account of the heavy rain of Sunday they were compelled to lay off several days more. This 10 bushels did not test out as good as Will wanted to see it, and he said by waiting a few more hot days he would gain by doing so. His test was 51.

New Line Proposed.

Hereford, Texas, June 28.—A meeting was held in this city recently to consider a proposition to build a railroad from some point on the Rock Island line in Oldham county, probably Vega, through this city to Dimmit and then southward. The promoters of the line ask that a right-of-way be secured and a bonus of $5,400 per mile be raised. The proposition is looked upon with favor here and little trouble is expected in securing the necessary amount. The road will be approximately sixty miles long.

CROPS LOOKING FINE IN MUSGRAVE COMMUNITY.

G. D. Anderson, Otis T. Bacon, Fred Householder and Bentley Bacon made a trip out into the Musgrave community yesterday in Mr. Anderson's automobile. Mr. Bacon says that he never saw crops of all kinds look so well. In fields where the corn has been properly worked there are no evidences, he says, of any bad effects from the drouth and the corn looks as well as any fields he ever saw in Illinois or Indiana. Cotton is growing luxuriantly. Farmers are now planting milo maize and kafir corn. Peaches and plums are ripening and the trees are weighted down with fruit.

Oil Situation At Agatite.

(Quannah TribuneChief)

Manager Newby of the American solvent mills reports his well still producing over seven barrels of high grade oil daily.

A number of oil experts have been examining the well, and without exception pronounced the output the result of a fissure in the earth, which connects it with an oil pool that is underlying this country somewhere.

The flow is evidently sustained by a natural gas pressure. Hours passing there is no flow of oil or water, then again the oil and water begin pouring into the well with considerable force, and the smell of gas becomes so overwhelming that the men can hardly remain near.

TO INQUIRE INTO DEATH OF NEGRO

COUNTY CONVICTS' DEMISE REMOVED TO HAVE BEEN DUE TO BEATING.

NO EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

No Bruises Found On Body—Death Declared To Have Been Caused By Fever.

Will Geter, a negro who has been on the county road gang for some time, died yesterday from inflammation of the bowels. Geter was brought in from the gang in the upper end of the county with high fever last Tuesday. He was turned over to some of his negro friends but was given medical service by the county physician.

Rumors had spread among the negroes that Geter's (or Abilene, as he was known) death resulted from his being beaten. Sheriff Randolph accompanied by Dr. Bennett made an examination of the body together with Undertaker Hill this morning and failed to find any signs whatever that Geter had been beaten or mistreated in any way.

Geter had been fined $500 in the county court on a charge of boot-legging. He escaped soon after he was put on the road gang but was later recaptured and brought back to serve out his fine. Afterwards he was kicked by a mule which injury he claimed incapacitated him for heavy work and he was permitted to cook and do the chores around the camp.

While there are no indications whatever that Geter had been mistreated Judge Felder will investigate the rumor thoroughly, he says.

Lewis N. Jernigan, who is foreman of the gang for precinct No. 1, requests the statement that Geter was not a member of his gang and that if death was due to severe treatment it was in some other gang than his. Mr. Jernigan submits an affidavit to back up his assertion, as follows:

"State of Texas, County of Wichita, Before me, the undersigned authority on this day personally appeared L. N. Jernigan, foreman of road gang for precinct No. 1, Wichita county, who, being first duly sworn deposes and says that the negro who was convicted in said county for boot-legging more than a year ago, by the name of Will Geter, better known as "Abilene" has never been in his custody as foreman of said gang.

"Subscribed and sworn before me, this the 28th day of June A. D. 1912.

"W. A. Reid, Clerk County Court Wichita County, Texas by Carl Yeager, deputy."

Mr. Jernigan replies also to some criticism that has been made of the county commissions for appointing him foreman. This criticism, it seems, was based upon the allegation that he had lived here but a short time. Mr. Jernigan states that he has resided in this county six years and that his earnings are invested here and that he considers the criticism unjustified. He was appointed, he says, without having applied for the foremanship.

Big Irrigation Project.

Cotulla, Texas, June 28.—Reports by the engineers of the Cotulla Reservoir and Irrigation Company indicate that the proposed project to dam the Neuces River in order that the land in La Salle county will be feasible, and it is expected that actual construction work will start in the near future. Three sites are available for the dam, any one of which will furnish a basin large enough to impound water to irrigate 50,000 acres of land.

BRYAN SEES VICTORY IN THE ADOPTION OF HIS RESOLUTION

to cut off the right hand to save the body, it's worth cutting off Ryan and Belmont and Morgan to save the Democratic party."

With this Mr. Bryan sat down.

Lewis Nixon of New York then took the stand.

"The sovereign State of New York does not ask that any part of this resolution be withdrawn. We ask for a vote," declared Mr. Nixon.

Chairman James had the resolution read as modified by Mr. Bryan. It omitted all of the last paragraph demanding the withdrawal of delegates representing Ryan, Belmont or Morgan.

Lewis Nixon and several other delegates protested against Mr. Bryan's being allowed to withdraw any part of the resolution, demanding a vote on it as a whole.

Vote on motion of Mr. Bryan to suspend the rules for immediate consideration of his resolution putting ban on any man for Presidential nomination who is allied with J. P. Morgan, T.

SHALLOW CULTIVATION WHILE GROUND IS SOFT.

To the Farmers of Texas:

The recent rains have been of incalculable value to the State, but great as this value is, it can be wonderfully increased if every farmer will get into his field just as soon as the top of the ground is dry enough to pulverize properly, and by using a sweep or a very short tooth, harrow, that will cut not more than one inch or an inch and a half deep, and make a soft cushion of mulch on top of the soil, the major part of this moisture can be conserved for the use of the crop, instead of being pumped out by myriads of small pores or tubes that operate actively like so many steam jets, when the surface of the ground is hard. If this character of cultivation is repeated just as often as the condition of the top soil indicates the necessity for this work splendid crops can be made with the moisture that is already in the soil. In all sections where there was anything like a good rain fall. Do not lay your crops by, but continue this shallow cultivation that will pat air into the soil, keep the weeds down and prevent the loss of moisture by this pumping process.

HIGH-PRICED YEARLINGS SOLD BY QUANAH FIRM.

(Quanah Observer)

White & Swearingen last week sold their yearling steers, about 150 head, at $28 round. This price is said to be an excellent one, and indicates that there will be no immediate prospects of very cheap beef.

Grass on the range, generally speaking, is making fast, and it is stated that cattle are in a better condition now than at any similar time. There is plenty of water. In many cases the heavy rainfall two weeks ago washed out dams and tore up earthen tanks, besides filling all water holes and tanks that were sufficiently seasoned and strong enough to hold. Cattlemen are in fine feather this year.

MELON PROSPECTS GOOD IN WILBARGER COUNTY.
(Vernon Record)

Wilbarger county's melon crop shows every indication of being the best this section has known in many years. The acreage in both watermelons and cantaloupes is increased over last year, and the recent heavy rains have given the vines a healthy growth and they are now putting on blooms. With average conditions for the next two or three weeks it is certain that the melon growers will reap a good money return from their crop.

Acres in cantaloupes has been estimated at 100, compared with 75 acres devoted to that crop last year. The watermelon acreage is estimated at from 250 to 300, representing a good increase over last year.

Shipping of cantaloupes will begin about July 8th or 10th, while the watermelon crop will be later.

So many men think their mere assertions are arguments.

No test had yet been made at the Corsicana Petroleum Company's well on the Schmocker farm near Burk Burnett up to noon today. Drilling which was resumed yesterday still continues today. The drillers are feeling their way slowly and are taking every precaution to prevent a blow out. It is reported they drilled about six feet deeper into the sand yesterday. Last night it was reported that the boiler would be moved farther away from the hole to prevent the ignition of the oil and gas in case of a blow out, but it was learned this morning that this would not be done. Leases near the well have sold for fancy figures. One lease sold yesterday for $40 an acre.

COMMISSION SUSPENDS BAGGAGE REGULATIONS.
Washington, June 28.—Every common carrier road and steamship line was affected by the suspension today of proposed new regulations restricting the dimensions of pieces of personal baggage. The new regulations would further limit the amount of baggage transported free for a passenger and increase the excess charges. They were suspended from July 1 to October 29 by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

SIX DAY SCHOOLS FOR FARMERS IN EVERY COUNTY

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, June 28.—Six day schools for farmers will be conducted in every agricultural county of the State during the summer and fall if a plan now being formulated by the State Department of agriculture materializes. The first of the series will come to an end in Washington county tomorrow. Prof. Scholl, entomologist of the department, who returned from there this morning says it was very successful. Lectures by crop, good roads and school experts were delivered at every school house in the county in the afternoon and night. The lecturers traveled a prescribed circuit and it is estimated nearly every farmer in the county attended at least one session.

Heavy Stock Business.
Fort Worth, Tex., June 28.—The live stock reports for May show that this city handled 129,638 head of live stock during the month, an increase over the same period of last year of 56,589 head. Kansas City handled 101,770 head and St. Louis, 54,569 head.
