

PANAMA BILL TO HAGUE IS LIKELY

QUESTION OF TOLLS MAY BE SUBMITTED TO INTERNATIONAL COURT.

PRESENT TREATY INVOKED

Americans Claim That It Contains Nothing to Prevent Bill's Passage.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., July 12.—That England's protest against the proposed canal toll bill now pending in Congress may result in the question being submitted to the Hague tribunal is indicated by the recent turn of events.

Great Britain's request that the administration bill be held in abeyance until Mr. Innes, the British charge, can present a note in behalf of his government, confronts congress and the state department with an extraordinary situation.

The request for delay has been communicated to the senate, inter-oceanic canal committee. It came from the summer embassy at Kineo, Maine, late yesterday and was sent by Mitchell Innes, the charge, acting as Ambassador Bryce, who is in New Zealand.

While the reasons for the request are not stated in the charge's note, there is no doubt that the British government is concerned in the clause to grant a re-passage through the canal to American vessels in coastwise ships. The Canadian railways are deeply concerned in both and it is thought that some of the representations will be made in their behalf.

The canal bill is now in the senate committee with prospect of being reported very soon, and will then go to conference with the house.

Law makers at both ends of the capital feel that if Panama legislation is to be had it must be at this session of congress.

Senator Brandegee has replied to the state department that the legislation proposed is regarded as extremely urgent, and that the senate committee had planned to report the canal bill to the full senate some time next week.

One of the provisions in the bill, as it now stands, would make it impossible for Canadian railroad ships to pass through the canal if they engaged in coastwise trade. Then the question of free tolls to certain classes of American ships involves the old question of the Hay-Poucoferte treaty. It is believed that the British government will hold that ships of all nations must be on an equal basis. The opinion among many American statesmen is that to grant free tolls to American ships is not a violation of the Hay-Poucoferte treaty terms.

That not only Great Britain but all of the maritime powers might be expected to protest against any discrimination in favor of American vessels has been fully anticipated, yet notwithstanding that fact, President Taft and Secretary Stimson, the member of his cabinet directly charged with the construction and operation of the Panama Canal, have after careful investigation committed themselves to the assertion of the right of the United States to regulate traffic in the manner provided in the pending bill.

The strongest statement of the administration's position was that made by Secretary Stimson in his Kansas City speech, November 14 last, dealing with the Panama Canal as a work about to be completed. He declared that he had not the least doubt of the right of the United States to pay tolls of American vessels using the canal, which would be equivalent to granting them free passage. He pointed out that substantially every government using the Suez canal paid such subsidies, and the Hay-Poucoferte treaty provided that the rules of the Suez canal were to govern the operation of the Panama canal.

President Taft has let it be known that he proposes to be guided in the matter entirely by the will of congress. So if the legislation is perfected on the present lines the legislative branch of the government will be bound to lend unqualified support to the state department in what is almost certain to be a period of extremely active and pregnant exchange of notes with the great maritime powers.

While it is true that Great Britain occupies a position of exceptional interest and power in regard to any isthmian canal by reason of her ancient undertaking of joint control with the United States it seems certain that any representations the British government may make will be supported by Germany and France and the other European powers. The matter of moment is how far those powers may go to sustain a protest against the proposed control of the Panama canal by the United States.

If they are looking for a real dark horse, what's the matter with Jack Johnson?

BOND GIVEN FOR WATER CONTRACT

MESSRS. KEMP AND KELL SUBSTITUTE FOR DEED OF TRUST.

COUNCIL TAKES ACTION

Step is Agreed Upon To Permit Company To Find Market For New Securities.

At a called meeting the city council this morning adopted a resolution cancelling a deed of trust given by the Wichita Falls Waterworks Company in January, 1904 to the city of Wichita Falls on all its property to bind the company to the performance of its contract and obligations made on January 7, 1901, and in lieu thereof accepted the bond of the Wichita Falls Water & Light Company with J. A. Kemp and Frank Kell as sureties.

This change was made at the request of Messrs. Kemp and Kell who explained to the council that they were negotiating for the issuance of additional bonds on the plant and property of the company and that the deed of trust stood in the way of the proposed bond issue. The request was granted by the unanimous vote of council.

REBELS DRIVEN BACK BY FEDERAL CAVALRY

Skirmishes Are Expected Frequently As Insurrectos Move Back Toward Texas Border.

By Associated Press. Juarez, July 12.—Information from rebel sources today is that the federal drove the insurrectos yesterday from Sauc, thirty miles north of the city of Chihuahua on the Mexican Central railroad, and only a few days ago the headquarters of Gen. Orozco. Only a small force of rebels was at Sauc and it retired in the face of the more numerous government cavalry.

A few shots were fired. Skirmishes are expected continually as the federals move north and the rebels retire toward the border. Less than 1000 are scattered along the Mexican Central along the 100 miles from Sauc to Juarez and today there are hardly 500 men in Juarez. Though General Orozco will return south tomorrow over the Mexican Central to a point about 140 miles south of here, no campaign is likely along that route.

SAY CONDITIONS IN CLAY COUNTY ARE EXCELLENT.

The Times received a renewal this morning from J. C. Hopkins who lives on rural route No. 3 out of Henrietta. He said he did not want to miss another copy of the paper. Speaking of crop conditions the letter said: "I have the best prospects for an all around crop I have had for several years. With another rain corn will make from forty to fifty bushels an acre. Cotton is fine. There are already full size bolls in my field. I also have some fine broom corn that will soon be ready to harvest. Cane, milo maize and kafir corn are growing nicely."

PROSPECTS FOR LAKESHORE CAMP

REV. J. W. HILL SAYS LARGER ATTENDANCE IS PROMISED.

PROGRAM IS ATTRACTIVE

Caters to Tastes of General Public. Encampment Will Begin July 29th.

Rev. J. W. Hill, pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, who is also one of the trustees of the Lakeshore Assembly believes it will be a much greater success this year than last. "We are expecting a larger attendance this year than last for a number of reasons," he said. "In the first place the Assembly is better known. Last year being the first session it was necessarily an experiment and comparatively few people knew much about what was intended by the institution, and yet it was a success. Then it was not supposed to be attended by anyone outside of the North and Northwest Texas conferences. This year the Western Oklahoma conference will be represented and a good attendance is expected from that region.

"Our program this year is superior to that of last year. It is more diversified and caters more to the general public. We will have some of the finest speakers, readers, singers and musicians in all the land. The Southwestern University Quartette will be with us again, and many new features will be added.

Dr. Hill was emphatic in his declaration that the assembly would not conflict with the Epworth League Encampment at Corpus Christi. Speaking of the latter encampment he said "that the property belongs in fee simple to the State League and represents the whole state, while the assembly here is in the interests of the conference named, and moreover is not confined to league work.

"It is more in the nature of a chautauque where general features are observed. It begins Wednesday evening July 29th."

CROWDS HUNT FOR PEARLS ON CADDO LAKE SHORES.

Austin, Texas, July 12.—Between 200 and 400 persons are now engaged in hunting for pearls on the shores of Caddo Lake, and some of them are realizing handsomely from this industry, according to Chief Game Warden Jeff D. Cox, who has just returned from the lake. He said that one man during the past week had found pearls on which he realized $750, while many have found pearls of lesser value. At present the State is not getting any revenue from this infant industry, but Mr. Cox said that he will recommend to the next legislature that an amendment be adopted to present a law providing for the levying of a small tax on this occupation, as it promises to become more lucrative as times goes on.

VOTE TODAY ON LORIMER

ILLINOIS SENATOR FINISHES SPEECH ON OWN BEHALF IN SENATE.

HAS CHALLENGE

Speaks Defiantly To Senator Kern Who is Absent—Dramatic Utterances.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., July 12.—Renewing his attack upon his opponents, Senator Lorimer today began the conclusion of the speech defending his right to a seat in the federal Senate. His belligerent attitude of yesterday, when he asked for no quarter, but assailed those who had been active in prosecuting him, was apparent from the outset. He launched once more into an attack upon Col. Roosevelt and characterized as inaccurate and unreliable the report of the minority of the committee which investigated his election.

His attack on Col. Roosevelt when he opened his speech was based on testimony given by Geo. Cortelyou before a senate committee yesterday regarding the $1,900,000 campaign fund raised for the Republican presidential campaign in 1904. Mr. Lorimer referred to Col. Roosevelt as "the custodian of all the morals of the country, private and public."

"Of course," he explained, "not a cent of that $1,900,000 could have been contributed by the predatory wealth of the country. Surely all of it was the free gift of the common people for whom this man is the great champion. No malefactor contributed to that fund, only the common people of whom he was the guardian."

The letter from President Taft to Col. Roosevelt expressing the hope that Lorimer would be ousted, which became public in the pre-convention campaign was again taken up by Lorimer. He drew attention to Taft's phrase "emphasizing the necessity of winning."

"Was ever mortal man more completely surrounded by conspiracy and intrigue?" The president of the United States, William Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president, a former Democratic presidential candidate, W. J. Bryan and the trust press of the country all were in it. All joined in the conspiracy to poison the minds of the citizenship in order that one man might be destroyed to satisfy the most corrupt set of newspaper owners ever known in the history of the country.

The Senate recessed at 1:10 to 2 o'clock to allow Lorimer to recover his strength for the conclusion of his speech.

Calling on Senator Kern of Indiana, to point to anything in his private, political or business life, where he had been guilty of wrong doing, Lorimer at a dramatic moment in the midst of his speech this afternoon declared he would "walk out of your door and never enter it again" if Kern "made good."

Senator Kern was not in his seat when Lorimer delivered the challenge.

"I have been charged by the Senate with political wrong doing," Lorimer cried, "here and now I challenge him to point out to this Senate anything in his record, anything he knows, anything he has ever heard, anything anybody has ever told him—I will make it broader than that. Let him point to anything where I have been guilty of wrong doing in private, in commercial, in financial or in political life, and if he will do it here and now, I will not embarrass the Senate by voting on my case. When he has done it, I will walk out of your door and never occupy my seat again in this chamber.

"Come on Senator Kern, you have sinned and smeared this record with suspicion—come on now and make good." There was a craning of necks toward Kern's seat, but he was not visible in the chamber. Lorimer repeated the challenge. The minority members of the committee to refute his statement or to produce proof of the charges they had made in their speeches.

"I challenge the members of the minority here and now to produce any proof that the statements I have made are not true," he cried, "let's have it if it is the truth, and if not, let's denounce it as a misstatement of the record and a deliberate effort to mislead the Senate."

"At another time," he said, "all right," pointing to the seat of Sen-

"PROGRESSIVES ARE FOR WILSON"

LA FOLLETTE SAYS MANY WILL VOTE FOR DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE.

ROOSEVELT AND BRYAN

Compares Course of Former at Chicago to That of Latter at Baltimore.

By Associated Press. Washington, July 12.—Under the caption "The case of Mr. Roosevelt, Senator La Follette has written an editorial in the current number of his weekly which says in part:

"Bryan at Baltimore, foregoing all chance of his own nomination, leaving Tammany and the trusts to rescue his party from their grasp, carrying the convention for the adoption of the most progressive platform yet offered and for the nomination of the most progressive candidate available was a towering figure of moral power and thorough and patriotic devotion to civil righteousness.

"Roosevelt at Chicago, backed by money derived from the stock watering operations of the steel and harvest-trusts, organizing what are now confessed were fake contests as to nearly 200 delegates in order to control the convention and secure his nomination, refusing to aid in making a progressive platform bound to have the nomination or destroy the Republican party, was a most striking example of disreputable power and unworthy ambition.

"Roosevelt had as great an opportunity to serve the progressive cause at Chicago as Mr. Bryan had at Baltimore. But Roosevelt was serving the man, not the cause. He wanted the nomination and he did not have enough votes to nominate himself upon an honest basis. He had enough delegates there ultimately to have nominated a read progressive and to adopt a progressive platform. He could have even nominated Hadley on such a platform and progressive Republicans could have supported Hadley just much the same spirit as hundreds of thousands of them will support Wilson."

PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE IS NEW ORGANIZATION'S NAME

Constitution and By Laws Have Been Prepared and Will Be Submitted To Members.

At a meeting of the directors last night the name of the Young Men's Publicity League was changed to the Young Men's Progressive League. This was done because it had been determined not to limit the work of the league to publicity as was at first proposed.

At the meeting last night a constitution and by laws were adopted. These will be referred to a meeting of the membership to be called in the near future for ratification. The number of directors has been increased from 21 to 24 and a quorum has been fixed at 9.

REBELLION IN CUBA IS NOW APPARENTLY OVER

Province of Oriente Is Turned Over To Civil Authorities, Small Garrison Being Left.

By Associated Press. Santiago, July 12.—Gen. Moneta, commander-in-chief of the Cuban government forces, has formally turned over the government of the province of Oriente to civil authorities declaring that the rebellion is over. He will embark from Havana July 19, leaving only sufficient troops to garrison the town and run down bandits.

tors Kern, Lee and Kenyon. "you may live by that rule if you like but all my life I have tried to make a reputation for never going back on a friend." He said this discussing White and said he had aided the legislator because White had primarily supported him. The minority of the investigating committee, he said, would have the world believe this wrong.

Always he said he had lived by the rule. "do unto others as you would have others do unto you." In a flash of angry determination he said he would see that all the world finally got the truth of the case regardless of the Senate's verdict.

Relating to his support by Democrats in the Illinois legislature Lorimer said nearly all of those who voted for him were his personal friends. "While the Republicans who voted for Senator Lea in Tennessee were delivered to Lea by the leaders of the Republican organization."

FARMER FOUND DEAD IN TANK

CHAIN AROUND HIS NECK

Body Found By His Wife Who Had Become Alarmed At His Absence

The body of F. M. McClure, a farmer residing about six miles north of the city was found this afternoon in a tank on his home. A chair was fastened around the neck and fastened to a projection.

The deceased was a well known farmer of this section.

The last time Mr. McClure was seen alive, he was going from the house to the barn. Several hours afterwards his wife became alarmed at his prolonged absence and went to search for him, finding his hat at the side of a small tank in the barnyard. She went to a neighbor and summoned help and the body was found by them, lying in the shallow water of the tank with a log chain encircling the neck. Ill health is assigned as the cause.

Mr. McClure was about 50 years of age. His widow survives.

FREAK AUTO ACCIDENT OCCURS IN NEW YORK

One Machine Turns Somersault While Another Passes Safely Underneath It.

By Associated Press. New York, July 12.—Probably the most remarkable automobile accident ever witnessed at a New York track occurred at Coney Island shortly after midnight. Two machines were racing at 50 miles an hour around the saucer track which has an angle of nearly 65 degrees when a forward axle broke on George Crook's machine. Auto and driver turned a complete somersault on the top side of the track, while the other machine driven by George Brandon shot underneath continuing in safety. Crook was found unconscious under his machine, but was not fatally injured.

350 CARS OF MELONS AT BURKBURNETT PROMISED

Arrangements Are Made For Handling of Enormous Crop Soon To Be Ready.

R. Brannon, secretary of the Burkburnett Melon Growers Association was in the city this week, to confer with General Freight Agent C. L. Fontaine of the Wichita Falls Route regarding the shipment of the melons and also to make arrangements for the handling of telegraph messages from Burkburnett to the markets when the crop begins to move.

Mr. Brannon estimates that no less than 350 cars of melons will be shipped from Burkburnett alone. A large quantity will also be shipped from Oklahoma points. A few melons are now ripening and the shipments will start the latter part of next week.

With two more timely rains Mr. Brannon says Burkburnett will ship 700 cars of corn next fall and winter.

HEAVY RECEIPTS OF WHEAT HERE

FIVE TO TEN THOUSAND BUSHELS IS BROUGHT IN DAILY.

IS NEARLY ALL MARKETED

Oat Receipts Light, Many Farmers Keeping Their Supply For Feed Purposes.

Wheat is now being marketed in Wichita Falls at the rate of five to ten thousand bushels a day. An almost constant stream of wagons is pouring into the city and often several wagons will be waiting at the elevator scales for weighing.

Grain dealers say that if the condition of the roads remain good practically all of the crop will be marketed within the next ten days. It was not until this week that the wheat began to come freely. This was on account of the rains that delayed threshing and made hauling difficult.

Wheat is yielding all the way from six to twenty-five bushels an acre with a probable average of fourteen or fifteen bushels. Not a single load yet received has graded No. 2, most of the crop testing from 52 to 56 pounds to the bushel. The price has remained steady at 90 cents per bushel on a basis of No. 2 wheat.

Only small quantities of oats have been marketed, most of the farmers finding it more profitable to keep their crop for feeding purposes than to put it on the market at the prices that prevail. The few oats that are being sold are being taken mostly by the feed dealers who have so far been able to pay a higher price than the quotations justified from the grain dealers who buy for shipment.

Reports from different sections of the country indicate that a larger acreage will be sown to wheat the coming fall than was sown last fall, but this will depend in a large measure on the conditions that prevail from now on. With occasional rains favorable for plowing and the preparation of the seed bed the acreage will be unusually large.

Many of the farmers do not want to sow the grain they have raised and have been to make inquiries to learn where they can find seed of a good will be no difficulty in obtaining this seed.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PASSES ON EIGHT-HOUR STATUTE.

Austin, Texas, July 12.—Attorney General Lightfoot today sent to Mayor Ed H. McCutcheon of Paris, Texas, an opinion in which he construes the eight-hour law. He does not attempt to pass upon the constitutionality of the act, but holds that for any employer to require an employe to work over eight hours per day on any city work would be a violation of the law; but if such employe voluntarily desires to do such work, he may do so without being in violation of this statute. As to voluntarily laboring more than eight hours, Mr. Lightfoot writes: "It is therefore my opinion that any person coming within the terms of the act may voluntarily labor more than eight hours if he so desires, but coercion of any kind, however slight, on the part of the employer, to require him to do so, is to exact of him additional hours, would violate the terms of the act."

CONTEMPT BILL PASSED BY NATIONAL HOUSE.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—The House passed the Clayton contempt bill 232 to 18. The measure provides for trial by jury for those accused of indirect contempt of a Federal court. If passed by the Senate and enacted into law it would have a direct bearing on such cases of contempt of court as those in which Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell of the American Federation of Labor are now involved.

COSTLY JOKE ON DETECTIVE

Philadelphia Took Seaman on Leave for Deserter From United States Navy.

Philadelphia, Pa.—As a result of a boat that he was a deserter from the navy, Owen Martin, a seaman on the battleship Idaho, at League Island, was arrested in Pittsburg, and brought back to his vessel two days before his leave of absence had expired, while the detective who paid the expenses of bringing him back to his ship in the hope of obtaining the customary reward of $50, returned to Smoky City without the money, a sadder but wiser man. Martin had been visiting his home in Sellersville, Ill., and was on his way back to Philadelphia when the incident occurred. In a spirit of fun he declared that he had deserted the Idaho several weeks previous.

Without waiting to write or telegraph to the Idaho for particulars, the detective, whose name is Miller, took Martin into custody and boarded the first train for this city. Martin denied that he was a deserter, stating that he had made the assertion in fun, but Miller was obdurate and insisted on accompanying him back to his ship.

Arriving on board the Idaho at League Island the detective found that Martin had been on a leave of absence and still had two days to his credit before reporting for duty. Miller could only retire as gracefully as possible, while the crew of the Idaho gleefully bombarded him with potatoes.

GROCERS' PROFITS ARE SMALL

One Tells New York Commission His Net Gain for a Year Was Sixteen Dollars.

New York.—The average New York family pays $5 a week tax to the grocer, according to testimony obtained by the state food investigating commission here from representatives of the Retail Grocers' association. The grocers declare that the profits in their business have shrunk appreciably in the last few years, owing to the necessity of selling many staples, such as sugar, flour, potatoes, eggs and butter, practically at cost. One grocer, with a business of about $100 a day, showed from his books that after allowing himself a salary of $25 a week his net profits for the year 1911 were $16. Another grocer maintained that the higher cost of living was largely due to the housewife's careless methods of buying.

"With prompt attention to the details of purchasing, the problem of keeping grocery bills within reasonable limits is an easy one," he said. "I knew of one woman, a customer of mine, whose husband's salary is $15 a week, and who managed to run his household of seven without any apparent difficulty. Her family always has enough to eat, although sometimes, when prices are high, she cannot afford to buy certain kinds of food. She markets like the old-time housekeeper, buying her food in bulk, and always paying cash."

GIRL GOES INTO A CAISSON

Cried in Gym Costume, Overalls and Jumper, Miss Ruth Kenny Watches Sinking of Piers.

Kansas City, Mo.—Miss Ruth Kenney, teacher of mathematics in the Rosedale high school, descended the narrow, muddy ladder to the bottom of the pneumatic caisson which is being used to build the foundation for the James street bridge in Kansas City, Kan., and remained half an hour thirty feet below the bed of the Kaw river.

Miss Kenney wore her gymnasium costume and over that a pair of overalls and jumper, just like the "mud hogs" who work down in the slime at the base of the piers.

She had been told by the foreman just how to take a full breath and slowly exhale, so as not to be affected by the air pressure.

"Often I have read how these piers are sunk," she said, "but I never had an opportunity before to inspect one in course of construction."

HIS OFFENSE NOT OUTLAWED

Wife Deserter is Arrested at York, Pa., Long After Spouse Remarried.

York, Pa.—When Detective Fiesche ran into Cornelius Lasaga upon the street he remembered a five-year-old warrant which he had been carrying about ever since 1907 and clapped it upon him. It charged desertion of three minor children.

Mrs. Mabel Lasaga, whose name appears upon the time-stained document as prosecutrix, has since secured a divorce and remarried. The children, whose ages appear as six and three years, and nine months, are now aged eleven, eight and six years, respectively.

Lasaga disappeared at the time of the prosecution and has been spending most of the time in Connecticut. He returned home to see his children.

Court O. K.'s Dishwashing Hubby.

Allentown, Pa.—When Robert Keck, who was accused of perjury, failed to appear in court when his trial was called, the sheriff, who went for him, found him at home washing dishes. He explained to the court that he was doing the housework as his wife was suffering with a broken ankle. The judge excused him and said that under the circumstances he was not in contempt of court.

There's so much real value in the Styleplus Blue Serge Suit at $17, that you might easily mistake it for a suit costing $22.50 to $25.00.

In fact, measured by its quality, it really should cost more under ordinary conditions.

But its unusual merit is the result of a new idea in clothes making by which the quality is improved without a corresponding increase of cost. The result is a $17 Blue Serge Suit, that honestly, is the best we've ever seen at the price—a suit dressy and stylish enough for any man, with lasting shape and satisfactory wear and service absolutely guaranteed. Styleplus Blue Serge Suits $17.00.

Examine the clothes. You will appreciate its soft even texture and its full rich color. Note the drape of the coat. Try it on. You will agree that it could not fit or become you better if it had been made expressly for you. The tailoring is the skilled result of expert workmanship, thoroughly inspected, characteristic of STYLEPLUS scientific methods of clothes making.

Call and see us; we have your size.

Quality is the foundation upon which we have built up our prosperous business. If you buy something here and find it unsatisfactory in any way, bring it back and get your money.

THIS BOOK HAS CAUGHT ON!
Once in a while a book is written that is so unusually popular, almost everybody wants to read it. Such a book is "THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE." By John Fox, Jr.
Perhaps you are not a book reader, but even so, you'll want to read this story of a young mining engineer in the Kentucky wilds where they have so many feuds—and where there is one girl in particular who is so fine that it's a shame she doesn't live in real life.
Look a little to read "The Magnet" by Henry C. Rowland, "The High Hand" by Jacques Futelle, "That Light Lure" by Percy Brebner, "The Second Wife," by Thos. Buchanan, "The House of Bondage" by Reginald Wright Kaufman, "The Cathedral Courtship" by Kate Douglas Wiggin, and "The Taming of Red Butte Western" by Francis Lunde.
These books have just been added to our line of popular fiction for 50c. Watch our window.

SELLS CROP AT DOLLAR AN ACRE WHEN WINDS BLOW
(Henrietta Review)
Citizen Ed Bogan, who makes frequent trips to Belcherville, gives a tolerably sad story of a lost 20 acre corn crop in that immediate vicinity. On June 15 when the sun shone and the wind was a feeble cooer, a young farmer was bemoaning the loss of his little corn crop—a nice stand, clean and "up to yesterday" an ideal prospect, now all gone. A listening drummer exchanged a few sentences with the farmer, and on the latter saying he'd take a dollar an acre for the crop the drummer laid down the $20 on that card and took the crop. When Mr. Bogan was over there last Saturday, July 6, the subject was being discussed; and it was the consensus of local opinion that the corn would make 45 bushels per acre. This story has an obvious moral which fits nicely with the last words of one of our early naval heroes: "Don't give up the ship."

LAWRENCE BACK IN GAME

Rejoins Team and Makes Three Errors—Drillers Unable To Hit Russell

Special to The Times.

Bonham, Texas, July 12.—Baxter's wildness, coupled with miserable in-field support, enabled Bonham to win the first game of the season from Wichita Falls. Lawrence, who rejoined the Drillers, celebrated his return to the game by making three errors, two of which were severely costly.

Baxter held Bonham to seven hits, but walked eight men and as the team made six errors behind him, Bonham won easily. Only three of the runs were earned. Lefty Russell pitched very effectively and the Drillers scored only once, off a walk, an error and a single. The score:

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By FRANK ROTH.

The Catcher Who Saved the World's Championship for the Chicago White Sox, and Who is Considered a "Topliner."

There isn't a doubt in my mind but that the greatest play I ever saw in my career as a ball player was pulled off by Lee Tannehill. Late in the fall of the season the White Sox won their world's championship. If you remember, the team ran out of catchers late

FRANK ROTH.

In the season and I was hurriedly secured to fill in the gap until Sullivan or some of their top-notch catchers could get into shape or recover from their injuries.

I was doing the best I could, and Fielder Jones had every one keyed up to top notch and going hard. A fellow couldn't help playing ball for a manager like Jones. I think he made every man on the team about ten percent better than he really was by his magnetism.

I think the game was against Cleveland late in the season. There was a runner on third, Cleveland needed one to win, and there was one off, Bill Bradley was hitting, and at times Bill used to catch hold of the ball and send it down the third base line faster than a shadow. Tannehill was in on the edge of the grass, taking desperate chances to cut off the run from the plate. Bradley evidently gave the signal that he intended to hit, for as the ball was pitched the runner coming from third was in full motion. Bradley drove the ball down the line viciously. It was one of the hardest hit balls I ever saw in my life, probably taking two skips before it came to the fielder. The runner had to leap over the ball to escape being hit by it as it dashed past, and that leap, I believe, saved the pennant for the Sox and enabled them to win the world's championship. The runner, in leaping, went off his stride, and lost at least one step, so that one might say the Sox won the world's championship by a step that year.

As the ball was hit, Tannehill leaped and dived sideways. He either knew by instinct where it was coming or got a glimpse of the ball as it came under the runner's legs. He could not have seen it before that, as the runner was directly between him and the batter.

Tannehill has a wonderful pair of hands, and he needed them that time. He shoved out his hands and blocked the ball perfectly. In his effort to reach it he fell at full length, but so perfectly did he stop the ball that it dropped right at the spot where his hands struck it. I saw Tannehill struggle to his knees and that he had the ball in his hands. The runner was coming down on top of me at full speed, and he wasn't more than 15 feet from the plate when Tanny, still kneeling and without time enough to rise to his feet, cut loose a desperate throw to the plate. It didn't seem as if he had a chance. The runner was on the line between Tanny and me. The ball came right under the runner's arm as I squatted in front of the plate. I thought sure it would hit his arm, but as he ran the arm went up, the ball just grazed his sleeve and came straight into my hands. There was no time to dodge or protect myself. The ball and the runner hit my hands almost at the same instant as the runner slid. I had the luck to hang to the ball and we rolled across the plate together. Tannehill's magnificent play and nerve had saved us. (Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

PICK OF LEAGUE'S ALL-STAR PLAYERS

LIST OF BEST MEN IN EACH POSITION IS SUBMITTED.

THREE DRILLERS NAMED

Myers, Mullins and Brown On List. Selections Difficult For Several Places.

An All-Star Team.

Catchers—Hornbuckle of Durant, and Bobo of Sherman. Pitchers—Myers and Mullins of Wichita Falls, Russell of Bonham, Napier of Sherman, Green of Denison, Adams of Durant. First base—Pelky of Ardmore. Second base—Reed of Sherman. Third base—Harper of Durant. Short stop—Witherspoon of Bonham.

The above is submitted as the list of all-star selections for the Texas-Oklahoma league. There are many who have seen all the teams at work, who will probably not coincide in all of them and in making these choices, in some positions there are so many good men that it is hard to pick the best; in others, there are practically none who show much class.

The choice of Hornbuckle for the receiving end is subject to contest. Our own Foley White has few equals in Texas except that his "peg" is not safe and sure. Hornbuckle pegs safely and hits well. Bobo also has a good peg and goes after fouls sure and swiftly. He is a safe, though not a heavy hitter. Jerry Naylor, Townsend and Bailow are all valuable men and Chapman would be a top-notch if he could hit better.

Of pitchers, many are called but few are chosen. This writer ranks both Myers and Mullins above Jones, of Wichita Falls, for both are steady and their work the latter part of the season at least, has been better than Jones. Lefty Russell of Bonham has delivered the goods this season and has been called higher; with Napier of Sherman. Green, now with Denison, has few equals in this league and the work of Adams of Durant has brought good results. Baxter is slated for better than Class D when he gets control to the speed and curves he already has. Coraine of Bonham has a great deal, but he is not steady.

At first base the selection is not easy. Pelky's title to that place may be disputed justly by Covington of Denison, Yost of Bonham, Rayburn of Sherman. But the Ardmore man showed more class in the games here than any of the others. Our own Steakley is showing up splendidly and will be a valuable man when he improves his hitting.

There is only one choice at second base. That is Reed of Sherman who is as safe, steady and sure as this league can furnish. Phillips of Wichita Falls is second choice. Another season of professional baseball should bring something higher up for this heady youngster. He has more than made good here.

At third base and at short stop the selections are difficult. This writer accords first place to Harper, now of Durant. Harper's regular place in the outfield, but it has been necessary for him to play infield most of the season and he is a valuable man. Third base is as good a place for him as anywhere, but any position on the team save that of pitcher, finds him equally at home. He can catch, too.

Witherspoon's hitting entitled him to the choice for the short stop. If Pep Clark and Squee Lawrence were here, they would be very much in the running. Witherspoon's fielding does not equal that of Clark and Lawrence has few equals, if any, at third base. Simpson of Denison, is a reliable man at short, also, and Sporn of Bonham is a consistent, fast third-sacker. In the outfield, there is a wealth of good material. Nearly all of the outfielders in this league are heavy hitters and the selections listed above are based on fielding ability more than anything else. Williamson of Sherman seems to be the safest in left field. Bill Guthrie would be first choice if he were fifteen years or so younger and had more speed. In center field, Brown represents the class and speed of the league, both in pulling 'em down and in relating them to the plate. Stewart of Sherman and Welch of Bonham are both splendid center fielders, but are not up to Brown's height. In left field, there are several to choose from, but Conkrite impressed this writer as being about the best the league has. Kizlar of the Drillers, Art Naylor of Ardmore and Lambert of Durant are all good men.

As manager of this all-star aggregation, this writer would pick McEvoy of Ardmore, with Fred Morris as next best. Jimmie Humphries of Sherman can't keep out of trouble with the ump, but he certainly knows how to run a team. Leslie of Bonham and McCormick of Denison are both level-headed, reliable managers and the choice from the bunch is not an easy one.

Ell Higgins has bought a clay farm which is so hard that he has to shoot the seeds into it with a 22-caliber rifle, by gum.

PHONES 432 & 232 YOU WILL GET IT QUICK

Sometime ago I put in a stock of both sweet and hot relish packed in quart jars. It was an experiment but has proved it very satisfactory one both to my customers and myself.

Every jar that has been sold has given full satisfaction and repeat orders have been received from many homes where it is used. This proves probably accounts for part of this as it is only 25c per jar, but for top quality and summer use, this relish is beyond competition.

Let me send you a quart and you will agree with the others.

If our state would pass a law prohibiting the killing of quail for five years the supply of bad bugs and noxious weeds would greatly decrease. Such laws would be worth much to farmers. Quail should be regarded and treated as domestic fowls instead of wild game.—Vernon Call.

Pletpockets are said to have relieved a Texas editor of $28.50 at Paris recently, while the said editor was boarding a train. Served him right. What business has an editor with so much money, anyhow? The chances are, however, that he really lost about eighty cents, and tacked on the $28 just to make it sound big.

The Bonham Favorite says a girl could learn in a day how to make a dress for a dance, but not in a year for school, but falls to tell its readers why she can do that. Is it because the dance dress is so much simpler to make than the school dress, or are we to take it that just any old dress will answer the purpose of ball-room floor?

The anti of Texas have suddenly become convinced that Woodrow Wilson is not a pro, as was commonly supposed during the presidential preferential campaign in Texas, and on account of this mistake, the anti, or at least the greater portion of them, lined up against him, while the pros, or the most of them were for Wilson, and Wilson won by an overwhelming majority in the State. But if the anti are now comforted, the pros have no reason to complain. Wilson suits them all right, and so far as the Times is aware, there is not a man, pro or anti, who gave his support and vote to Wilson has any regret whatever that he done so.

The Henrietta Review is complaining again. This time it is because their representative in the legislature has found it to his advantage to change his business residence to Wichita Falls while maintaining Clay county as his legal residence, and is a candidate without opposition for re-election to the legislature from the 100th district, comprised of Clay and Archer county. It strikes the Times that the Review's "kick" comes rather late to do any good. If the people of Clay and Archer county were dissatisfied with their "floater," they certainly should have taken steps to get out another candidate to take his place. As they did not do this, the Times is forced to the conclusion that the opposition to their candidate for representative is confined to Col. Edwards and his paper. He himself could, of course, have announced as a candidate for the legislature, but as he did not do so, he should not now complain at a time when he knows the complaint will avail nothing. The Terrell election law is not to blame. So long as a man maintains his residence in a district or county, he can go to another State, if necessary, and set up a business, and still be eligible to vote in the county and State where his family resides. That was the law in Texas before the Terrell election law was adopted and put into effect. Therefore let us not abuse the Terrell election law for everything, and particularly not for blunders that we ourselves have committed, and will continue to commit. The mere fact that Clay county's representative finds it more pleasant and perhaps more-profitable to make his place of business in Wichita Falls should not disqualify him from holding office.

THE ANNUAL SLAUGHTER OF WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Pensacola (Fla.) Journal.

It may be only a coincidence but it is notable that just as the silly season comes on, the annual slaughter of William Jennings Bryan takes place. This has been going on now for sixteen years and it is shown that the election Nebraska has many more lives than the proverbial cat. Many newspapers and many individuals mostly those subservient to what is generally known as the interests, clapped their hands in glee and proceeded at once to kill off Mr. Bryan when the Baltimore convention elected Judge Parker for temporary chairman. It's a habit.

Should the peerless leader linger much longer in the land of his nativity, doubtless Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart will with each recurring summer get together and just as effectively eradicate the Sage of Fairview from the map as they have done in the palmy days of yore.

It has long since become a matter of history that during the dark days of 1896, the wing of Democracy commonly known as the McKinley Aid Society, came to the rescue of Big Business and through the election of a Republican president announced that the "Boy Orator of the Platte" was permanently squelched.

Later on, when the silver tongued gentleman from the west, like the spook of the late lamented Mr. Bangor, refused to stay down. Mr. Bryan returned from a tour of Europe and in Madison Square Garden made a speech in which he suggested that perhaps the time would come some day when the government would be compelled to control the railroads and other public service corporations; otherwise these giant corporations would take over and control the government.

A great cry of "treason" went up all over the land and the edict was sent forth that Bryan was dead as a mackerel. That has only been a decade ago, but now nearly every state in the Union is making all kinds of efforts to control the public service corporations. All one can count on his fingers all the votes who are not now in favor of government regulation of corporations and both the great political parties, not to mention the great mass of independent voters who belong to no party, are advocating the suggestion first made by Mr. Bryan.

The task of killing off Mr. Bryan had to be carried over until the advent of the next silly season. The Great Commoner was put out of existence at the St. Louis convention eight years ago and a huge boulder was placed at the door of the sepulcher, but somehow when the next battle for human rule and human rights came off, his white plume was seen waving in the thickest of the fight, like that of Henry of Navarre.

This is much in keeping with the idle talk that found some circulation that Mr. Bryan would bolt and pool issue with the proposed third party. No doubt it was a grievous disappointment to the protected interests that Mr. Bryan did not bolt.

However, he still refuses to commit political suicide and remains on deck smilingly awaiting his annual slaughter.

INSTITUTE AT BURKBURNETT INSTEAD OF THIS CITY.

J. D. Cooper, president of the Farmers Institute of Wichita county, requests The Times to state that the county Farmers Institute meeting, which was to have been held at Wichita Falls Saturday the 13th, has been changed to Burkburnett. This change was brought about by the picnic that is to take place at Burkburnett tomorrow, at which all the county candidates are invited to speak, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

IN POLITICAL ARENA

If the House elects the president—Democrats generally expect Wilson and Marshall to win a majority of the electoral votes next November. Some fear that if the Roosevelt progressive party makes a strong campaign, it will draw as many votes from the Democratic ticket as it will from the Taft Republican ticket and as a result none of the four presidential tickets will receive a majority of the electoral vote. In that event, the election of president and vice president becomes the duty of the national house of representatives.

According to the terms of the twelfth amendment to the constitution, the house in choosing a president must vote by states, each state having one vote. A majority in each state delegation controls a vote of that state and a majority of the states make the choice of president.

In the present house the Republicans are in the majority in 22 states and the Democrats in 22. In four states the delegations are tied as between republicans and democrats. In the subjoined tables the party divisions in the several state delegations are shown:

Of course it is probable that some of the delegations will break away from a strict party lineup, but it is evident that if the election shall be thrown into the house the lineup will be very close and the supporters of the minority candidate may hold the balance of power.

Wilson the Philosopher. The Detroit Journal which has heretofore staunchly supported the Republican nominees in a recent issue had the following editorial comment concerning Woodrow Wilson:

Great is the credit due to the Democratic convention, it says. "It proved itself a deliberate body and not a party machine. It proved itself a judicial body, and not one whose decisions were dictated. It proved itself a self-governing body, and not a convention of servants or a mob of hysterics."

"Wilson is decidedly the thinker of these revolutionary days. The extreme progressiveness of the time has its great prophet in Bryan. It has its sensational evangelist in La Follette its mere opportunist in Roosevelt. But Wilson is the philosopher, the teacher, the great counselor. He is the wise man of the progressives, following not the applause of the crowd or the advice of beggar guides, but the white luster of a star in the East. The whole history of the Wilson advance is stimulating to patriotism and to patriotic hopes."

Governor's Year in Tennessee. The present year may be aptly termed "Governor's year" in Tennessee politics: Ex-Governor Malcolm R. Patterson is seeking the nomination for the United States senate, former Governor Benton McMillan and James B. Frasier are numbered among those who are striving for the governorship, and another former governor, John I. Cox, is a candidate for a seat in the legislature.

Vermont Votes Early. Less than two months hence the eyes of the nation will be turned toward Vermont, which state holds its biennial election the first Tuesday in September, leading Maine by six days. Both states vote for congressmen as well as for state officers, so the national significance will be apparent in the returns, at least to those who still hold to the old tradition that Vermont and Maine are barometric.

The State meeting of Socialists at Childress was disappointing to those of that faith. Several thousand delegates and partisans had been expected whereas less than a hundred attended.

Socialist County Ticket. Wichita county socialists will have a county ticket of their own at the November election. Candidates have already been slated for the offices. These will be ratified at a county convention.

Candidates' Day. Tomorrow will be a great day for the candidates. Most of the day at the Farmers' Union picnic at Burkburnett will be given over to their speeches.

MEXICO BUYS AEROPLANES FOR SCOUTING PURPOSES. (San Antonio Express)—That the Mexican government is going to use aeroplanes for scouting purposes is given color because of the shipment of two flying machines that reached the city yesterday morning and went south in a sealed baggage car to the republic on the International & Great Northern train at 9 o'clock last night. The two "planes" are merely consigned to the Governor at Torreon. Beyond that nothing could be given out here, the car being handled by express and is billed through to destination.

Whether or not the Mexican government will attempt to use the machines with some of its aviators is not known. It is said that a dozen Mexicans are proficient in flying, having been instructed in aviation by the French. As far as is known here no one is accompanying the shipment to the republic. Aeroplanes will be of great worth to the Mexican army, and especially in locating rebel camps in some of the rugged country where travel overland is tedious. The "planes" will also prevent scouts from being ambushed. In Northern Mexico flying should not be difficult. Further south, where the altitude is greater and the air more rarified, aviators have experienced great difficulty at times to get their machines up, and this was especially true when the Molsant aviators invaded the City of Mexico a year or two ago.

Not long ago a flying machine was held up at El Paso. This "plane" it was thought at the time was intended for the rebels. Colonel Steever, in command of the American troops at El Paso, sent word to the aviator with the machine that if he attempted to fly from American soil into Mexico he would be fired upon by the troops. He did not fly.

RANDELL TO RESUME CAMPAIGN MONDAY. Sherman, Texas, July 12.—The present illness of C. B. Randell will not necessitate his withdrawing from the campaign given out yesterday afternoon by his friends. The congressman has been suffering from fever but his attending physician, Dr. I. P. Gunby, yesterday said: "I have been attending Congressman Randell since his return to Sherman last Sunday. He is suffering from a somewhat persistent fever, which has continued for nearly two weeks. His last speech on the stump was a very severe strain on his endurance, and has made it more difficult to break the fever and restore his strength. His condition is yielding to treatment and it is hoped and expected that he will be able to resume his speaking campaign by next Monday. No complications are indicated or anticipated."

WALKED TO HIS HOME WITH SWARM OF BEES ON ARM. Connersville, Ind., July 12.—Walking an eighth of a mile with a swarm of bees on his arm, Manuel Cullen consigned the swarm to a hive without receiving a single sting.

We was at work in a truck patch some distance from his home and had sat down to rest under a tree when a swarm of bees descended about him. He saw the queen of the swarm alight, but feared the attack of the whole swarm if he tried to remove her.

When the last one had settled the man made his way to his home. He gently shook and sifted the bees till he found the queen, which he dropped in an empty hive of his own. The bees all went inside and were shut up.

BURKBURNETT PLANNING MELON CARNIVAL SOON

Plentiful Crop In That Section Leads To Talk of Calling The Neighbors In.

Burkburnett citizens are talking of holding a melon carnival early next month. A large acreage near Burkburnett is planted in melons and the yield promises to be the largest and the quality the best ever known and many believe that a melon carnival continuing several days would be a great success. Such a carnival is held each year at Rocky Ford, Colorado, and at other places where melon growing is an important industry. It is believed the oil excitement together with the melons would draw a large crowd across the river from Southwestern Oklahoma as well as from Texas points.

OLD WOMAN ON MURDER CHARGE SECOND TIME.

Mobile, Ala., July 12.—The case of Mrs. Mary T. Godau, a deformed old woman, was put on trial here for the second time in her life on the charge of murder. This time she is accused of killing her son-in-law, Fred Wasserlaben, on the night of December 30, last. The woman, who eight years ago, was acquitted of the murder of her husband, entered a plea of not guilty and raised the point of self defense. A large number of witnesses have been summoned in the case and the hearing will occupy several days.

The killing of Wasserlaben, who was a policeman and a giant in stature, created a sensation.

Mrs. Godau, who has been married three times, was charged with the murder of her last husband, who was found murdered in his bed room. Her first husband, Wm. Green, disappeared and was never heard from. In her confession "Mrs. Godau said her son-in-law tried to assault her and that she shot him after a fight in his room. The dead man carried $7000 life insurance and the state will attempt to show that the mother-in-law and wife entered into an agreement to do away with Wasserlaben to get his money.

FOLLOWERS OF TAFT VIOLATE THE LAW.

New Orleans, La., July 12.—President Taft and the Taft White Republican club are the first to be affected by Louisiana's new law forbidding dissemination of the American flag by advertisements. The president's picture forms a center piece on the banner in front of the Republican club headquarters. Framers of the law, who are connected with the "Sons of the American Revolution" have requested that the picture be removed. The law will not be effective until Sept. 1, but the request has been made in advance as a preliminary notice that the presence of the president's picture on the flag is a violation of the statute.

HENRY REPLIES TO LETTER AGREEING TO DEBATE.

Patrick Henry, candidate for the legislature from the 101st district, has issued the following reply to the letter from his opponent E. W. Napier published in Wednesday's Times: Mr. E. W. Napier, Electra, Texas.

Dear Sir: Yours of yesterday, in reply to my letter of some two months is received. By reference to my former letter to you, you will notice that I suggested that we hold joint discussions which, to my understanding, are quite different from debates. In this connection will state that it was my purpose that we each address the people at the same time and outline the policies to which we would stand committed, and then have it to their judgment as to which candidate represented their views. This, to my mind, would be an excellent plan whereby we could conduct a campaign of principles, and thus leave the matter solely in the open, giving the voters a first-hand knowledge as to what to expect of us as their representative.

You suggest that this kind of a discussion, free and open, of the measures that we will propose and support, is "unreasonable," however, I find that the people, as a whole, have a thorough knowledge of the matters that will be presented to the next legislature for action, and they are manifesting an eager interest in knowing how their representative proposes to act in these matters. Furthering my commitment to the policy that a public servant should in deed and in truth reflect the wishes of the people whom he represents, I have outlined these measures and

HON. METHOD PAZDRA

OF McLENNAN COUNTY

Candidate for Congressman--At--Large

Will speak at Wichita Falls,

Friday Evening, July 12th

The address will be given on the court house lawn, and seats will be provided for everybody.

Mr. Pazdra is a distinguished citizen of Texas, a lawyer of ability and a most interesting speaker. He may be, and most likely will be, one of the Congressmen at large from Texas. Everybody is invited and should come out to hear what he has to say.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

Thornberry Items.
Thornberry was blessed with a half of three-fourths of an inch of rain last Friday night, which put new life into crops and garden stuff.

The picnic on the Fourth of July here was a grand success. Quite a crowd from visiting towns were present and everybody had plenty to eat and speak and ball playing were the main features of the day.

W. C. Pharris and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with Dan Gater and family of Wichita Falls.

The W. O. W. Lodge at this place attended the unveiling of W. E. Parker, a deceased sovereign of Thornberry camp on last Sunday at Riverside Cemetery at Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Belle Oats of Wichita Falls spent the week with her sister, Mrs. J. B. L. Hansard.

N. C. Pharris and wife left Monday morning to spend the week with their nephew, at Bowie.

Threshing is now getting in full swing, but not enough machines to handle the crop as it should be.

The pipe line from Electra to Petroleum is now being laid through this section. They are now near C. J. Shumake's place with the ditch digging.

The drillers on the well here have not done but little for the past few days. They have been waiting for an under runner. They are something like 1800 feet at present with indications good.

The people of this community are pretty busy at the present, some plowing cotton, some cutting hay and some threshing, while quite a few of them are trying to dispose of their peach crop, which is a hard proposition on account of the crop being very large this season.

Floy Pharris and Albert Aderholtz witnessed the double-header ball game Sunday evening between Sherman and Wichita Falls at Lake Wichita and from the looks of their clothes when they returned we think they must have engaged in catching the greasy pig.

It will not be many days until the correspondent can have the pleasure of presenting the Times with a large juicy watermelon. (May the days be short.—Editor).

CORN, COTTON AND FEED IN IOWA PARK VICINITY.

(Iowa Park Herald)

It is predicted by many farmers throughout this section that one of the largest crops of corn raised in Wichita county will be turned out during 1912. The rains of last week have done wonders to the growing crops of corn, cotton, alfalfa, and feed stuff, especially corn at this time of the year. J. P. Sneyd who

The greater portion of my time, until the election, is taken in speaking dates already arranged, however, I intend this letter as an urgent invitation that you meet me at any one or all of the places named below, and let us at the same time, place our claims before the people, and leave them with an intelligent basis from which to select their representative.

If you desire to meet me at any of the places outlined above, I shall thank you for an early reply.

BOY'S CURIOSITY GAME NEAR RESULTING FATALITY.

Denison, Texas, July 12.—Curiosity came near causing the death of the eleven-year-old son of J. H. Jones, an employe of the Denison Cotton Mill company, and a resident of the cotton mill addition. The boy's desire to gain more knowledge as to the construction and workings of explosives will cause the loss of parts of three fingers on his left hand and possibly the sight of his right eye.

The youth, in company with several other boys, visited the good road, which is under construction west of the mill, and in their ramblings the Jones boy found what appeared to be an ordinary cartridge. Holding it in his left hand, he lighted a match and applied it to a small string like fuse. The result was an explosion which tore the left hand in a horrible manner, and it is thought that part of the shell struck the boy in the right eye. The attending physician believes that the sight will be saved, but the youth will lose the tips of several fingers.

NEW RURAL MAIL ROUTE ORDERED

WILL BEGIN SERVICE SOUTH OF CITY ON FIRST OF OCTOBER.

IS FIFTH FOR THIS CITY

Route Three Will Be Changed to Serve Patrons in Industrial Addition Near Factories.

A new rural route of Wichita Falls, the fifth to be established, will begin service on October 1. Postmaster Bacon this morning received the necessary authority from the officials at Washington. The addition of this route will permit the changing of route No. 3 so that the automobile, glass and pottery factory section west of the city may be served. The new route will run as follows:

Postoffice southwest to Scott avenue, thence southeast across Wichita Valley railway, thence south to Waco street, thence east to Florida street, thence south to San Antonio street, thence west and northwest to 18th street, thence southwest to city limits; thence south to Isley corner, west to Ford N. W. corner and south to Jents corner, west and south to Stoke N. E. corner, west and south to Simmons-Johnson corner, east to Lake Creek school house corner, north with jog west to Bauch corner, east to Stevenson corner, north, with jogs, west to Holliday Creek, west and northwest to Wichita Falls postoffice. Total length of new route, 28.1 miles.

The postoffice department not long ago authorized the employment of an additional city carrier—in Wichita Falls and this with the addition of a rural carrier, indicates the increasing postal business of Wichita Falls.

MOTOR CAR SERVICE ON QUANAH ROAD IS PLANNED.

(Tribune-Chief)

The Q. A. & P. railroad one of the most up-to-date railroads in the whole United States will inaugurate another improvement by September, which will go far toward popularizing this excellent road still more to the people of this country.

To give better and quicker service the railroad will run motor cars between Quanah and Paducah, and if business justifies it, two trips will be made a day. Convenient stops will be made for passengers at railroad crossings, and the farmers living along the road will no longer have to go to the town to board the train, but can flag the train at any old crossing. The service will be first class throughout, and the 45 miles from Quanah to Paducah will be made within one hour and forty minutes.

Vice President Sommer tells us that his company appreciates the business our people have been giving it, and are anxious to furnish the public with all possible conveniences. The motor car will carry passengers and express only, all heavy baggage will have to go by freight. If travel demands it, the motor car will carry trailers. A description of the car follows:

The gas electric car is seventy-one feet long, weighs 115,000 pounds, and driven by two motors of 100 horse power each. It is built of steel throughout, and equipped with separate generators for supplying the electric lights. Wall fans, driven by electricity, are to cool the air.

In winter time the car is heated by a hot water system.

There are compartments for baggage, mail, express, smoking and first class. The decorations within the car are of mahogany. Eighty-five people can be seated comfortably.

Copper automatic window screens are keeping out the bugs. There is a side entrance and a patent ventilator system.

The cost of the car is $30,000; it is probably the most expensive gas electric car in the whole Southwest.

RAT SURVEY ORDERED BY HEALTH AUTHORITIES

New Orleans, La., July 12.—In organizing a campaign against bubonic plague existing in Porto Rico and Cuba, the health authorities have provided for a "rat survey" and plans calling for the expenditure of $100,000 which the merchants and others of the city are expected to provide. Rats are to be gathered in every section of the city, and particularly on the water front, and carried to the experts to be "surveyed." All vessels entering the harbor are forced to use "rat shields" over their dock lines to keep New Orleans rats from associating with foreign rodents.

GIRL'S SCREAMS FRIGHTEN WOULD-BE-ROBBERS AWAY.

Paris, Texas, July 12.—A girl's screams gave two robbers here the worst scare of their lives. Miss Bonnie Baker, aged sixteen of Bonham, Texas, who was stopping at Emmet Whittle's home, was awakened in the night by two men in her room. She said one had his hand in her hair and the other at her throat. She screamed and at the sound of her voice, both men leaped through a window screen, crying: "It's a girl." They tore the screen partly loose in their jump, but left on the floor of the room the money which they had taken from Miss Barker's purse.

First Cultivate Your Personality Then Branch Out

Early Education Must Be Directed Toward This End

By Professor JOHN GRIER HIBBEN, President of Princeton University

THERE is a common phrase, "to receive an education," against which I would most emphatically protest. No one receives an education any more than he receives health or strength or life. AN EDUCATION IS WON BY WORK, and the labors to be undertaken and the end to be attained may all be summed up in the command—BE A PERSON!

AS FREEDOM IS THE DISTINCTIVE MARK OF A VIGOROUS PERSONALITY, ALL THE PROCESSES OF EDUCATION MUST BE DIRECTED TO SECURE THIS ESSENTIAL END.

It would seem essential, therefore, that in the early years of one's university experience those studies should be pursued which are peculiarly conducive to the discipline and training of the mind and eventually to the EVOLUTION OF A SELF DETERMINING AND SELF REALIZING WILL.

One who is to maintain the health and growth of his intellectual life must come, however, at some later period in his development to DELIGHT IN THE TASKS OF THE INTELLECT. To rejoice in the labors of the mind is NOT A PREVAILING CHARACTERISTIC of the natural man.

IF THERE IS TO BE INTELLECTUAL POWER IN THE WORLD IT MUST BE THE POWER OF A FREE SPIRIT, AND THE POWER OF A FREE SPIRIT IN TURN CAN ARISE ONLY OUT OF A SPIRIT OF DOCILITY.

Man's Brain Power Will Always Be Superior to That of Woman's

By Dr. EDWARD ANTHONY SPITZKA, Brain Expert and Professor of General Anatomy, Philadelphia

WOMAN AS A SEX NEVER WILL BE THE EQUAL OF MAN IN ABSTRACT MENTAL CONCEPTION—THAT IS, GREATER POWER FOR COMPREHENSIVENESS AND ORIGINALITY.

In the female brain, the convolutions are broader and of more SIMPLE TYPE than in the male brain. Each sex has its own part to play in life. Any brain difference would be expressive of physiological sexual difference.

In the female the percentage of frontal arc is less than the posterior arc. In the male the percentage is about equal.

An examination shows no other difference except that the BRAIN OF THE FEMALE IS SMALLER, which may be influenced by the fact that the female frame is smaller.

The example of the determination of the sex of a mummy through the examination of its head will explain my theory. Daniel Baugh presented an institute with the head of a mummy taken in 1891 from a royal tomb at Thebes. From the inscription on the outer casing it had been decided it was the head of a prince or royal priest of the twentieth dynasty (1200-1100 B. C.).

There was nothing left to prove the assertion of this inscription but the head, and before admitting the truth of the inscription on the casing I made an examination to ascertain if it was the head of a male or female. The frontal and posterior arcs corresponded to the percentage of the male sex. If the frontal arc had been smaller than the posterior arc I should have immediately declared it to be the head of a female.

School Children Today Speak Incorrect English

By MARY A. G. MITCHELL, Pittsburgh Educationalist

IN teaching English the teacher often sows on soil choked by the weeds of bad habit.

Care for exactness in oral expression seemingly is regarded as an affectation, a matter OF INTEREST ONLY TO THE GROWNUPS. The youth in our modern schools may understand and recite most intelligently on solecism, impropriety and provincialism in class, and a half hour later we may hear from those same fluent lips the most unpardonable expressions and MISUSES OF ENGLISH.

ARE THERE ANY MEANS OF INSPIRING PUPILS WITH AN IDEA THAT BOTH GOOD MANNERS AND REFINED SPEECH ARE A STANDARD MEASURE OF CULTURE IN ALL CIVILIZED COUNTRIES? CAN WE NOT FOLLOW THE EXAMPLES OF THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, WHERE EMPHASIS IS PLACED ON THE CULTIVATION OF ORAL EXPRESSION?

In France, Germany and England speech seems to be regarded as a serious and active agent in forming habits, building character, in acquiring power of thought, in creating ideas.

FREDERICK GRAIN SHIPMENTS CONTINUE VERY HEAVY.

(Frederick Leader)

The past few days have been busy ones for grain buyers again. Threshing had to be stopped Saturday on account of Friday night's heavy rain, but work with the threshers was resumed this week and is being pushed as rapidly as possible. Many reports come in of fields that are running over 30 bushels to the acre, while few are going as low as 20.

The demand now is for threshers, and many crews are working to the limit to take care of the record-breaking crop. Up to yesterday morning 85 acres of wheat had been shipped out of Frederick alone, and it is safe to say that as many more had been sent from the other stations in the county. Davidson alone, up to Monday noon, had shipped 47 cars.

The second cutting of alfalfa is being marketed. Fifteen cars from this cutting have been shipped from Frederick. Many of the farmers are saving the second cutting for seed.

The tin peddler had a runaway the other day and the echoes of it have kept the population of this village awake nights ever since.

A woman's smile is generally only skin deep.

HEAVY GRAIN CROP CAUSES CAR SHORTAGE

Fort Worth, Texas, July 12.—Traffic and operating men are beginning to see a car shortage in the near future, the cause of which is the extraordinarily heavy movement of grain, the crop this year being the largest that Texas ever has produced.

SAYS ROOSEVELT MEN ARE NO LONGER REPUBLICANS

Houston, Texas, July 12.—H. F. MacGregor, national Republican committeeman from Texas unqualifiedly asserts that the Roosevelt men who attended the Dallas meeting have read themselves out of the party and he will not recognize them as members of the organization in the future. He says an effort is on to capture the organization for the third party movement at the Dallas convention on Aug. 13 and that this will be resisted to the utmost and further that a compact loyal Republican organization standing squarely behind Taft and Sherman will be formed there even if less than a dozen men are in it at the start.

MANY JACKRABBITS KILLED IN BROWN COUNTY RECENTLY

Brownwood, Texas, July 12.—More than 23,000 jackrabbits have been killed in Brown county during the last four months, for which the Commissioners' Court has paid about $1,100. When the court last March offered a bounty of 5 cents each for jackrabbit scalps there was no idea there would be such a slaughter, and since $1.100 has been paid out in this manner the court finds it will have to discontinue the payment for the present as there is no tax levy to cover such an expenditure.

knocks once at every man's door says ancient adage, but we have never noted in historical record where he wore out a kit of burglar's tools trying to break in and thrust greatness on unworthy or indifferent shoulders. It seems that he is about to loosen the hinges on the front door of our municipal bouddil. He has handed us everything from a license to live in the best town on earth, to a right to guess at who the next president will be. We out held Bleeding Kansas with a glass factory in the pot, we took an automobile factory away from the whole world. The Wichita Southern will bet you $10,000 Dollars - against three hundred thirty-five a year that you live forever and we expect to film flam New England out of a cotton mill before the poets get busy with Autumn spasms. Shake the ground and let's get happy and if you need anything phone us; we carry nearly everything but lumber.

BRUSHES No. 40. Brushes are required for the good appearance of anyone, and in many ways they are important for your health, being necessary for the care of the teeth, the skin, your clothes, and your hair. No one likes to use poor brushes. They are annoying and do not give good service and are really expensive because they do not last. The brushes we sell are durable, from the inexpensive tooth brush to the imported military hair brushes and are made to suit your individual requirements. Our first consideration in selling you a brush is to give you the most service for your money. This is more important to us than the profit we make and more important to you than the price you pay.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—The jury in the case of Gorham Tufts, Jr., accused of having gained possession of approximately $100,000 from his wife, formerly Mrs. Roe of Fort Worth, by the fraudulent power of attorney, returned a verdict late last night finding Tufts guilty. He was remanded for sentence. His attorneys indicated that an appeal might be taken.

ESCAPED CONVICT SITS NEXT TO GUARD; CAUGHT

Salem, Ore., July 12.—After enjoying almost two years of freedom, John Pohl is again behind prison bars because he happened to eat dinner next to an ex-guard at Albany yesterday noon. Pohl was serving a twenty-year sentence. For four or five years he was a trusty. On July 31, two years ago, he escaped and succeeded in evading the officers. Yesterday he entered an Albany restaurant and dropped into a chair beside L. G. Lewelling, former guard in the penitentiary, but now practically recognized the convict. Quickly finishing his meal he informed the Albany chief of police, who made the arrest.

GALVESTON IS ANTICIPATING HEAVIER COTTON RECEIPTS

Galveston, Texas, July 12.—The recent announcements of removals of cotton concentration headquarters of several important firms to the ships' side at Galveston, coupled with the great increase being made in concentrating facilities by firms already operating here, will tremendously increase the amount of cotton concentrated at this port during the coming season. During the season of 1908-10, 250,000 bales were concentrated here; 1910-11 showed 550,000 bales and this season guarantees 900,000 bales with facilities promised and arranging for that stands for a prediction of 1,400,000 bales concentrated at the ships' side here during the season of 1912-13.

Judge P. A. Martin has returned from Young county where he spent yesterday with Judge Ramsey who spoke at Graham, Newcastle and Olney during the day and at Jacksboro last night. Judge Martin is an enthusiastic supporter of the Cleburne man and believes he will carry Young county by a larger majority than was given for statewide prohibition. This majority was over 700.

One sign of insanity is for a fellow to believe that he can get a good night's sleep in a hammock out on the front porch.

KATY MAY FACE A SECOND PENALTY SUIT SOON

Austin, Texas, July 12.—Another penalty suit is to be filed by the state against the Katy road for the alleged failure to operate its train known as the "Katy Limited" within the schedule time and for the violation of the thirty-minute rule, according to Assistant Attorney-General Robertson, who said he was preparing the petition.

It is alleged by the state that the Katy violated this rule eleven times during the month of June and the maximum penalty is $5,000 for each violation.

It was only about two weeks ago that the state obtained judgment against the Katy for this class of offense on the Limited between Denison and Austin. The petition, Judge Robertson said, may be filed this evening.

BAR TO PROBE LOSS OF NORRIS INDICTMENT

Dallas, Texas, July 12.—Following a report of the grand jury that it had found evidence tending to show that an offer of $50 had been made to M. G. Johnson, deputy clerk in Judge

Barry Miller's court to take the indictment of Dr. J. B. Norris out of the files, Judge Miller yesterday issued an order calling upon a committee of the Dallas Bar Association to investigate the conduct of an attorney and "to take such testimony as they deem necessary to present the matter properly to the district court." The report of the grand jury was the outcome of an investigation ordered by the court following the discovery that an indictment against Dr. Norris, charged with murder in connection with the death of Mary Walker Piner, had disappeared from the courtroom. The indictment was found, however, and the case turned over to the grand jury.
