

TAFT SCORED BY SENATOR BAILEY

TEXAN CRITICISES PRESIDENT FOR "BUTTING-IN" ON LORIMER CASE.

CALLS HIM MEDDLESOME

Declares That Attitude is Violation of Spirit, if Not Letter, of Constitution.

Washington, July 15.—Senator Bailey attacked President Taft roundly on the floor of the Senate today for his attitude in the Lorimer case, which the Texas senator characterized as "officious and meddlesome." He referring to the president's expression on the case in pre-convention speeches and letters to Col. Roosevelt.

The Texas senator was speaking on a resolution of yesterday, declaring that any attempted interference in senatorial contests by the president constituted a "violation of the spirit, if not the letter of the constitution and ought to be severely condemned." Senator Bailey said:

"Executive interference in a contest in this body is so manifestly improper that it must seem very improbable if the facts did not prove beyond the question of a doubt that the president did use his influence in the case recently before the Senate."

Mr. Bailey declared he had purposefully postponed presenting his resolution until after the Lorimer vote and said his contention that President Taft had no right to interfere and appreciated he should not interfere was made evident by Taft's endeavors, according to his letters, to keep his activities secret.

"In God's name, has the Senate reached such a state of degradation," Bailey cried, "that the president must summons senators to the White House to urge them to discharge their duty under their oath of office?" Bailey declared that the clause in Taft's letter suggesting to Col. Roosevelt that he withhold his "Outlook" article on Lorimer lest such senators as Bailey who were intent on keeping Lorimer in the Senate might term it outside interference, was an intimation that he (Bailey) would not vote according to the law and evidence, but on the ground of outside interference. The Texas senator suggested that he had been singled out because Roosevelt entertained "an ancient prejudice" against him.

"I want proved that he slandered me," added Bailey, "and when I denounced him, as I now intend to denounce the present president, he coupled his hands in horror."

"None held him higher than the present president, but I have lived long enough to see him ransack the record of the war department to convict Roosevelt of a guilty falsehood. And he seems to have succeeded. When the president penned that infamous slander on me in his letter, no one knew it better than the president himself."

Bailey continued that it was far better that ten corrupt senators should sit in the Senate of the United States than that the constitution should be ravaged to oblige "those presidential politicians."

The resolution follows:

"Whereas, The Constitution of the United States makes the Senate the sole judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its members; and

"Whereas, Every Senator is required by his oath of office to decide all such cases according to the law and the testimony before him; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That any attempt on the part of the President of the United States to exercise the power and influence of his great office for the purpose of controlling the vote of any Senator upon a question involving the right to a seat in the Senate violates the spirit, if not the letter, of the Constitution, invades the right of the Senate and ought to be severely condemned."

FATHER ADVISES SON TO GO AND COMMIT SUICIDE

Boy Had Confessed To Murder of Little Girl and Was Told To End His Life.

New York, July 16.—Samuel Swartz, father of Nathan Swartz, the young man wanted by the police in connection with the murder of the child Julia Connors, in the Bronx last week, acknowledged that his son had confessed the child's murder, and that he had told his son to go out and commit suicide. The father said he believed the boy did as he was told.

It is said that the police know where the boy is and that they are ready to arrest him.

Gambler Who "Peached" Is Mysteriously Shot

By Associated Press.

New York, July 16.—Herman Rosenthal, proprietor of a New York gambling house, whose sensational charges that the police were guilty of grafting and oppression were to be investigated today, was shot down and killed in front of the Hotel Metropole early today by five men who escaped in a big gray automobile.

Rosenthal was murdered only a few hours before he was to appear in the home of District Attorney Whitman in an attempt to substantiate his charge that the police were grafting on gambling houses.

Within three hours after the murder, detectives visited a garage on Washington Square known to the police as headquarters of the taxicab robbers who recently robbed bank messenger of $25,000. There the police captured a man describing himself as Louis Libby, whom they made a prisoner on a homicide charge. They also recovered an automobile that they say was the one used in the murder.

Deputy Commissioner Dougherty asserted that eye-witnesses to the murder identified Libby as one of the five who drove up in front of the hotel. The gambler left his home late last night, telling his wife he had an appointment to meet Police Lieutenant Becker at the Hotel Metropole.

Rosenthal reached the hotel, where he was well known, some time after midnight and sat down alone in the lobby, smoking a cigar and whistling as he watched the usual midnight crowd in Times Square outside. Shortly before 2 o'clock, a state colored automobile drew up in front. A passenger got out and walked into the hotel, beckoning to Rosenthal.

"Herman," he called, "come out here, someone wants to see you." Rosenthal without hesitation walked out. He had reached a point not more than a dozen feet from the door when a volley of shots rang out from the car. Four of the bullets found their target and Rosenthal fell instantly with a bullet in his brain.

Almost before the crowd realized that a shot had been fired, the big touring car was under way and disappeared toward Smith Avenue. Police Lieutenant Syle of the central office staff was dining in the hotel with a party of friends, when he heard the shot and ran out. Without waiting for details he jumped into a taxicab and started in pursuit of the other automobile. He gave chase for a mile across the town before the slower machine dropped hopelessly behind.

The five shots that were fired attracted a large crowd and a few minutes after the attack the street was filled with hundreds of persons. Police reserves turned out to keep them in order.

James Considine, one of the owners of the hotel witnessed the shooting from the lobby. He said:

"I saw Rosenthal come from the hotel. He started as though he were going to Broadway and then stopped suddenly. I do not know whether he saw the men or not but the sudden way in which he stopped convinced he was afraid something would happen. One of the men in the car was a policeman."

Mrs. Rosenthal was driven almost frantic when a messenger told her husband was killed.

"This is the police again," she exclaimed, "it is just what I expected. I said yesterday that Herman would not get back safe."

Three men had been arrested up to this afternoon in connection with the case. It was a theory that Rosenthal was a victim of the gambling fraternity.

Hundreds of Americans Endangered In Mexico

By Associated Press.

Juarez, Mexico, July 16.—More than 500 American citizens together with their wives and families in towns along the Mexican Northwestern railroad are in danger of being isolated means of escaping the depredations of the Mexican rebel army now operating in that region. Sufficient facts became known today of the real situation along the Northwestern to warrant the statement that it would cause no surprise if the Americans in all the towns along the line were warned to leave Mexico at once.

Gen. Pascual Orozco Jr., within the last twenty-four hours had ordered the Mexican Northwestern road destroyed between Pearson and Madro, 207 miles southwest of here, but the order has been mysteriously rescinded.

Though the destruction of the road for a hundred miles in a mountainous region where it cannot be rebuilt for months has been delayed officials of the road are in constant fear that it may be done at any moment.

What is feared is that after the destruction of the railroad and the telegraph, Americans marooned in the interior would have no redress if depredations by irresponsible rebel bands began. It is desired however, to take no chances and the women and children in the American colonies in Madero and Pearson probably will be moved at once to the United States.

Though the hungry rebel army may cause trouble in confiscating supplies and possibly in looting the many handsome residences erected by the Americans more apprehension is really felt that the rebels will demand the arms and ammunition which the Americans have for self-protection.

ARCHBALD IS FORMALLY SUMMONED BEFORE SENATE

Washington, July 16.—Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court the ninth man in the history of the United States to be impeached for high crime and misdemeanors was Monday tried before the Senate to stand trial. It was expected a postponement until fall would be agreed upon, late today.

PIONEER AVIATOR MEETS DEATH WHILE HUNTING.

Paris, July 16.—Hubert Latham, the aviator, and one of the pioneer of heavier-than-air aviation, was killed by a wild buffalo yesterday during a hunt in the French Congo.

AGRICULTURAL STATION FOR PLAINVIEW APPROVED.

Washington, July 16.—Senator Culberson's bill for an agricultural experiment station at Plainview was favorably reported today by the Senate committee on agriculture, with an appropriation of $50,000.

Sand Sea Causes Trouble.

Kingsville, Texas, July 16.—The Sand Sea, located thirty miles south of this city has been rolling heavily of late and the sand billows are more than fifty feet in height. The bed of the desert over which the currents of sand travel in obedience to the wind, is approximately twenty-five miles in length and has an average width of probably ten miles.

This natural phenomena is the puzzle of philosophers, the wonder of tourists and a menace to the Frisco railroad whose tracks penetrate the bed of the sea.

STEEL TRUST DISSOLUTION

HOUSE INVESTIGATION WILL MAKE RECOMMENDATION TO THAT EFFECT.

AGREE TO REPORT

Will Indorse Government's Suit Against Corporation—Members Reach Decision Today.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—Members of the House steel trust investigation committee today practically agreed to recommend the dissolution of the United States steel corporation in their report and to indorse the government's suit against it.

Representative Gardner of Massachusetts declined to sign the majority report of the House so-called steel trust investigating committee, and declared he would seek to have submitted a progressive minority report on behalf of Republican members of the committee.

He asserted the time had come when some definite industrial legislation dealing with the trust problem should come from a Republican source; so that there should be proposed laws which would not only start the general public to thinking seriously, but to take action, and that in this endeavor the present political situation should be absolutely ignored.

The full committee discussed the tentative report of the majority, written by Representative Stanley of Kentucky, the chairman. Mr. Gardner indicated he also did not agree with portions of a tentative report written by Representative Young of Michigan, a minority member.

"The Republican party," said Mr. Gardner, "must lead in submitting definite remedial legislation."

"We must take a progressive stand and right now, dealing with the steel corporation; it is the opportunity afforded for the party to lead the way. The present political situation should be altogether ignored in the finding of this committee. I hope and think the Republican members will join with me and that we can get together on a unanimous minority report which will recommend remedial legislation that will not only open the way for intelligent discussion but lead to actual results."

Texans Are Mentioned In Talk of Wilson's Cabinet

Special to The Times.

Austin, Texas, July 16.—If, as many confidently anticipate, Senator Charles A. Culberson becomes a member of Woodrow Wilson's Cabinet, there is expected to be a spirited scramble among the political elite for the toga he will have worn more than thirteen years. There are Democrats in New Jersey as well as in Texas who have been predicting for months that Wilson would mean an invitation to Charles A. Culberson to become part of the fixtures of the Nation's sanctum.

Wilson was named, and few men contributed as much to that consummation as did Culberson. There is none of those who have been making the prediction as to Culberson who does not expect Wilson and Marshall victory in November. All of them, so far as can be learned here, are more confident than ever that the first batch of nominations sent to the Senate by Woodrow Wilson will include the name of the senior Senator from Texas.

It is not believed here that Senator Culberson would move a hand to bury such an honor in his direction. On the other hand, places of trust like seats at the Cabinet table of a President are not to be lightly treated. Offered one of these posts, the Attorney Generalship, for instance, it is not believed Senator Culberson would decline.

There were hundreds of delegates at the Baltimore convention who wanted to see Charles A. Culberson made the presidential nominee. They were not of the Texas delegation, of which body he was a substantial part. As Wilson's Attorney General he might easily become the heir apparent, the beneficiary of the boundless popularity Wilson's admirers expect his administration to attain. The Democratic platform suggests the nomination of another than the man picked at Baltimore when nominations are to be made four years hence. Senator Culberson's friends provided he will allow them to do the boasting can already see him at the party's head in 1916.

Of course, all this is a kind of counting of chickens before they are hatched. If they didn't there would be no flocks to count. Four months ago the Express published an interview with a prominent Wilson worker of New Jersey, in which the prediction was made that Wilson would be nominated and elected, and that Senator Culberson would be offered the place of Attorney General. The first of the three prongs of the proposition has come around as indicated. Chances favor the consummation of the second. It is an iron-bound cliché that Woodrow Wilson esteems Senator Culberson as much today as he did in March or April.

Letters to Texans and expressions from places high in Wilson councils lead clearly to the opinion that Texas will be enabled to get almost anything her Democrats may want in the event of Wilson's election. It is even said that should Senator Culberson decline a place in the Cabinet another Texan would be honored with appointment of that sort. There are those who feel that former Attorney General Martin M. Crane of Dallas might be decided on. Again, Congressman Albert S. Burleson, Congressman Robert L. Henry and others are being talked about. While it is an indubitable fact that outsiders are doing more talking of this kind than Woodrow Wilson, the fact that there are so many outsiders talking produces the impression there is a fire which the smoke does not conceal.

If Governor Wilson is elected he will send no nominations to the Senate before March 5. Unless the Texas Legislature is doomed to a longer session than is contemplated in the law, that body will then be rushing to its close. Probably, if Senator Culberson knew he was to be named as a Cabinet officer he might resign before that date. The chances are, however, he would await his confirmation before sending his quitting papers to the Governor. No secret or prophet is needed to infer the scramble that would follow notice of such a resignation, provided the Legislature was still grinding away. There would be some little moving to and fro if the matter were left to the Governor alone.

Much would depend on the action of the Legislature in selecting a successor to Senator Bailey. This matter is expected to be attended to in January, three months, nearly before the making of a Cabinet begins. Should Governor Colquitt be re-elected, and should Colonel Jacob F. Walters fail to win the senatorship, the influence of the executive might be thrown in the scales in Walters' favor. Should Judge Ramsey be the Governor, the gubernatorial weight would probably be upholding the Thomas M. Campbell chapeau provided the President's hat had been pitched into the ring.

If Congressman Morris Sheppard should fall of election in January he might be an active applicant for the second honor that fate had turned loose before the eyes of Texas statesmen. Speculation can be carried on ad lib. The purpose of this article is to call attention to the fact the speculation is being done. And, most of all, it is desired to voice the prevailing opinion of Democrats throughout the country that, in the event of Woodrow Wilson's election, there will be at least one Texan called to assist in the formation of the Chief Executive's council.

GAVE $250,000 TO PARKER FUND

AUGUST BELMONT TELLS OF LARGE CONTRIBUTION HE MADE IN 1904.

ANTICIPATED NO FAVORS

Says He Gave Simply As One Who Wanted To See Democrats Victorious.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—August Belmont, today testified before the Senate committee investigating campaign contributions that he contributed $250,000 to the Democratic campaign fund in 1904.

"Do you care to give any reason why you contributed so large a sum?" inquired Senator Jones of the committee.

"I was very active in the nomination," began Belmont, "and had been selected to serve on the committee and when funds did not come in I just contributed. I never intended to make any such contribution."

He was asked if he had any understanding of reward from Judge Parker the presidential candidate.

"From the very outset Judge Parker was a free and independent man and remained so," Belmont replied.

"Did you expect any favors?" Mr. Belmont asked.

"On the contrary, Judge Parker understood that there would be nothing I could accept. I was very much interested in the campaign and contributed purely as a democrat."

"Did you expect to have special legislation?" Senator Paynter asked.

"None whatever; there was no interest which I was concerned that could be helped by special legislation."

COL. WYNNE'S FUNERAL AT FORT WORTH TOMORROW

Body Lies in State at State Capitol This Morning—Sketch of Veteran.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 16.—The funeral of Col. R. M. Wynne, superintendent of the Confederate Home at Austin, whose death occurred last night at the latter place, will take place tomorrow in this city. The body laid in state in the capitol at Austin this morning.

Richard Wynne was born in Haywood county, Tennessee, on June 2, 1844. His parents were W. B. and Sarah A. (Moore) Wynne. Soon after his birth his family moved to Ruck County, Texas, in which place his boyhood was spent on the farms of his father. In the village of Bellevue he began his education. When the war between the States became inevitable, he, then just 17 years of age, filled with patriotic devotion for what he believed to be right, went to the front. For meritorious conduct on the field of battle his comrades promoted him to a lieutenant, and he was assigned to the command of Company B in the Tenth Texas Regiment during the Georgia campaign. At the battle of Murfreesboro he was severely wounded, becoming disabled for some months from active service, and again at the last battle of Nashville, when Hood made his famous raid into Tennessee, he was again severely wounded. At this battle he was left on the field wounded, and fell into the hands of the Federals. He was in Northern prisons until the close of the war.

Col. Wynne married Miss Laura B. Kelley on Jan. 23, 1867. In 1880 he was elected to the State Senate of Texas. He was one of five men who drafted and formulated a bill creating the University of Texas. In 1882 he made the race for Attorney General and was defeated. In 1898 he ran for the nomination of the Democratic party against Joseph D. Sayers for Governor and was defeated. He ran for Attorney General again and was defeated. On the election of Gov. Colquitt he was appointed superintendent of the Confederate Home at Austin, which position he held at the time of his death.

SHEPPARD AND RAMSEY GRAND JURY FAVORITES

Poll of Those Present This Morning Results in Favor of These Candidates.

Sheppard and Ramsey are the favorites of the Wichita county grand jurors by long odds. On a poll of the eleven grand jurors present this afternoon an expressed a preference for Sheppard in the senatorial race, and one expressed no choice. On the gubernatorial race the vote was: Ramsey 5; Colquitt 2; one not voting. No vote was taken on the congressman at large or upon the candidates for county office.

$105. Stolen Friday Night. Is Returned

The weight of a guilty conscience or fear of discovery drove the person who stole a purse containing $105 from H. J. Johnson Friday night to return the purse and the same amount of money last night. It was found by Mr. Johnson on his front porch when he awoke this morning. The full amount stolen was in the purse in bills of the same denomination as those stolen but a ten dollar bill and a twenty were not the same that were taken. The thief had evidently spent this much before deciding to return the money and had substituted other bills in their places.

"Mr. Johnson claims that he was able to identify several of the bills, a twenty in particular. Yesterday he claimed to have located this bill where it had been spent Saturday. He had determined to lay this information before the grand jury but the money was returned before he did so.

The purse and money were stolen Friday night from beneath the pillow on which Mr. Johnson slept at his home on Lamar avenue between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets.

Constitution of Young Men's Progressive League

ARTICLE 1.

Purposes.

Section 1. To advance the interests of the community and surrounding country as a whole through the advertisement of the resources and advantages of Wichita Falls and adjacent territory by means of a free newspaper service, the publication of literature setting forth the resources of this section, the purchasing of paid advertising space, the direct method of correspondence with wholesale or industrial enterprises wanted and of any legitimate advertising feature that may receive the approval of the directors, and further any other field of work having in view the advancement of Wichita Falls, the activities of this League to be carried on however in harmony with the Chamber of Commerce.

Section 2. To work in harmony with the Chamber of Commerce or any other civic organization having as its object the material welfare of Wichita Falls, and to refer all inquiries received as a result of advertising to the Chamber of Commerce for reply and effort to secure the location of the individual or enterprise prospecting for a new field; and to otherwise maintain friendly relations with the Chamber of Commerce to the end that both organizations may systematize their workings to secure the greatest possible benefit for the community which both organizations are desirous of serving.

Section 3. To confine the expenditures of this organization to matters that are of an advertising nature for the benefit of the community at large, subject to the provision in section 7.

Section 4. To participate as an organization in the moral support of any movement of a civic nature, or to refrain from participating in an organization in any movement of a partisan nature.

Section 5. To encourage the enlisting and training of the young men of Wichita Falls to interest themselves in matters pertaining to the welfare of the community in which they live and the subsequent enlargement of opportunities brought about through the expansion of the commercial and agricultural interest of this section.

Section 6. To lay aside ten per cent of all revenues to invest in safe loans approved by the directors with the ultimate purpose of purchasing a site and constructing a building for the home of the organization.

ARTICLE 3.

Powers.

This organization shall have all the powers necessary, proper or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes aforesaid but shall not have the power as an organization to engage in any enterprise designed for the pecuniary gain of its own or for the individual benefit of any of its members.

ARTICLE 4.

Directors and Officers.

The board of directors shall consist of twenty-four members and the officers shall consist of a president, first vice-president, second vice-president and a treasurer, the aforesaid officers to be elected from the membership of the board.

ARTICLE 5.

By-Laws.

By-laws for the regulation of the affairs and conduct of the organization may be adopted at any annual meeting and may be amended from time to time, provided that if two-thirds of the board so resolve by-laws may be amended, adopted or repealed by a majority vote at a special meeting called for that purpose. The by-laws shall prescribe the dues paid by members, regulate the order of business at all meetings, the qualifications of members, the salaries of subordinate officers of the organization, and such other matters as the organization may see fit.

ARTICLE 6.

Amendments.

The constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the organization voting in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting called for that purpose provided that due notice of the proposed amendment be submitted to the members in writing at least five days in advance of the meeting.

ARTICLE 7.

Location and Duration.

The location of this organization shall be in the city of Wichita Falls, Texas, and shall have as its fiscal year the first of January of each year, at which time all offices and pledges terminate unless otherwise provided.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE 1.

Members.

Section 1. Qualifications.—Any person, partnership, firm or corporation shall be eligible to membership in this organization and each member of any firm, partnership or any officer of any corporation listed as members shall be entitled to vote on any matter coming before the organization at any regular called meeting of the membership.

Sec. 2. Dues.—The minimum dues for membership shall be one dollar per month payable in advance, or as much more than the minimum amount that members are willing to subscribe, membership in this organization obligating said member to pay dues from time of enrollment until the first of January following when enrollment of members for the ensuing year shall be taken. Dues shall commence with the month during which members are enrolled.

Sec. 3. Any member whose dues lapse for a period of three months shall be dropped from the list of active members.

ARTICLE 2.

Officers, Elections, Powers and Duties.

Section 1. Board of Directors.—The board of directors shall consist of twenty-four members who shall be elected at the annual meeting in the manner prescribed in the following section.

Sec. 2. Election of Directors.—The board of directors shall appoint a committee of five members outside their own number two weeks prior to the annual meeting, said committee to place in nomination the names of double the number of directors to be elected for the ensuing term. The committee shall then mail a list of said names to each member of the organization so that members may be prepared to vote on the required number at the annual meeting. At the annual meeting additional names may be placed in nomination whereupon the ballot shall be taken. The required number of directors who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, and in event of a tie vote the meeting shall ballot on the members so tied to determine the person entitled to election.

Sec. 2. Terms of Directors.—The directors shall be elected in one and two year terms, twelve for one year term and twelve for a two year term, but no director shall be eligible to serve for two consecutive terms.

Sec. 3. Vacancies.—The board of directors shall have the power to fill all vacancies that may arise during the year. Any director who fails to attend four consecutive regular meetings shall be automatically dropped from the board and his place filled by the directors.

Sec. 4. Qualifications of Directors.—The qualifications to be generally recognized in the election of directors shall constitute a willingness to devote time and service in the interest of matters coming before the organization, but it is primarily the intention to elect those of the members who represent the younger business and professional element of the city, but no age limit shall be prescribed.

Sec. 5. Powers of Board of Directors.—The board of directors shall have power to direct the affairs of the organization, regulate all expenditures, and to generally advance the interests and purposes of the organization. The board shall carry out any instructions given it by any regular or called meetings of the membership and shall at all times represent the wishes of the majority if within the practical financial ability of the organization to carry out any plan requiring the expenditure of funds.

Sec. 6. Election of Officers.—The board of directors shall at the first opportunity after the annual meeting meet in session and elect from its members a president, first and second vice-presidents and a treasurer, and shall at its discretion employ a paid secretary who shall devote all his time to the work of the organization.

Sec. 7. Terms of Officers.—No officer elected from among the directorate shall be eligible to serve two consecutive terms in office.

ARTICLE 3.

Membership Meetings.

Regular membership meetings shall be held on the second Thursday night of the months of January, April, July and December, the regular January meeting to be the annual meeting. Special membership meetings may be held on call at such times as the directors think the occasion may require. Postal notices of all membership meetings shall be mailed to each member by the secretary.

ARTICLE 4.

Directors Meetings.

Directors meetings shall be held monthly at 2 p. m. on the second Thursday of each month and upon call by the president.

ARTICLE 5.

Officers.

Section 1. President.—The president shall preside at all meetings of the membership and of the boards of directors, and shall have general charge of the affairs of the organization subject however to the control of the board of directors. He shall with the secretary sign all vouchers drawn upon the funds.

Sec. 2. Vice-presidents.—In the absence, inability or refusal of the president to act the first vice-president shall assume the duties of the president, and in his absence the second vice-president shall preside. In the absence of the president and vice-president the board shall appoint one of its number to serve until the president or vice-presidents shall be in position to act.

Sec. 3. Treasurer.—No warrants shall be drawn upon the treasurer unless signed by the president and secretary and O. K. by the auditing committee.

Sec. 4. Secretary.—The secretary shall be appointed by the board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the board but no time contract other than from month to month shall be executed by the board in the election of the secretary. The secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the members and directors and otherwise preserve all the records of the organization. He shall receive and keep account of all money received by the organization and prepare vouchers for disbursements which shall be approved for payment by the auditing committee. The secretary shall render monthly reports to the directors of all receipts and expenditures and nature of the work prosecuted during the preceding thirty days.

SHERMAN WINS ANOTHER GAME FROM DRILLERS

Hits Are Scarce, Deschner Holding Wichita Falls To Only Two Safeties.

Special to The Times. Sherman, Texas, July 16.—In a game notable for the scarcity of hits Sherman again defeated Wichita Falls yesterday afternoon. There were only eight hits on both sides. Deschner allowing a stingy pair and Baxter yielding but six. The fielding was not of a high order, and Sherman won by timely hitting. CHICAGO AMERICANS TO GET MANAGER HAL CHASE.

New York, July 15.—There were persistent rumors in baseball circles here tonight that Hal Chase, the one time star first-baseman of the New York American League club and former manager of the team, will be traded to the Chicago Americans. It is said President Comiskey is willing to give infielder Zeider, a pitcher, an outfielder and a considerable sum in cash for Chase. Chase has not been going well this year, in fact he is having his poorest year since breaking into the big leagues. At present Sterrett, the former Princeton catcher, is playing such a good game at first that Chase could be let go without perceptible weakening of the team.

President Johnson is in New York with President Comiskey of the White Sox, and it is said the league executive is here in an effort to find out what is ailing the Highlanders. President Johnson realizes that the American league is at a low ebb in New York and may take drastic measures to strengthen the league's local representatives.

CONVICTED BANKER SEEKS NEW TRIAL.

Houston, Texas, July 16.—Counsel for E. F. Brown, the Houston financier convicted at Bastrop Saturday and given two years in the penitentiary on a charge of receiving deposits for his bank at Paige, when he knew it to be in failing condition, have forwarded a motion for a new trial, failing to receive which they will appeal.

Brown previously had been convicted on a like charge in the Fayette county district court and given five years and he is under bond pending outcome of an appeal in that case.

He operated a chain of small banks in Texas, all of which were closed by the state banking authorities. Among his institutions were banks at Paige, Bastrop county; Ehinger, Fayette county; and Elkhart, Anderson county, in all of which indictments were returned against him.

UNCLE SAMUEL SUES FIVE LITTLE PONIES.

Muskogee, Okla., July 15.—Five little ponies must answer to Uncle Sam for allowing themselves to be used to transport liquor into the Indian territory district. Libels against them were filed in the United States district court on complaint of W. L. Geary, a special officer.

Geary alleges that two sorrel ponies, wagon and harness, were used by Bob Danielson, near Copan, to bring in liquors. A pony and a buggy were used by another person near Ramona for the same purpose, he states. And a buckskin pony and a bay horse were the team that Ed King used for liquor hauling at Copan, he alleges. The horses and vehicles become contraband if the libels are proved. CHILDRESS RACE MEET WILL OPEN TOMORROW.

Special to The Times. Childress, Texas, July 16.—Childress is fast filling up with prominent horsemen of the country to participate in the big race meet which opens here Wednesday, July 17 and continues over Saturday.

The big stables at the fair grounds are now full and extra stalls are being provided for. Since Sunday afternoon twenty-three head of fast horses have arrived, and with those in training at the track total some eighty head. There are only three head of local horses at the track while horses from Kansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mexico and Texas. Four cars more are due to arrive today which will send the total number of horses past the hundred mark.

The feature race, the 2:25 pace on Wednesday, and the 2:27 trot on Friday, were filled July 1st. The first name has ten entries, while the second has seven. These races are for a purse of $500. The big barbecue will be on Thursday and Childress is preparing to feed 10,000 visitors. This barbecue has grown to be the oldest and largest in Texas, being given annually for twenty-three years.

Another attraction for Thursday is an exhibition of boxing by Cass Tarver, the Texas white hope of Anson, and his trainer, Frank Mayo. They will box ten rounds in front of the big grandstand which seats four thousand people. This feature will be held at 7 o'clock, in time for people to come from the south and return on the night train.

Large Sale Consummated. Brenham, Texas, July 16.—The largest realty sale of high class farm lands in the history of this section was consummated here recently when a tract of land consisting of 5,100 acres brought $306,000, an average of $60 per acre. It is reported that the land will be broken up into small farm tracts.

News From the Oil Fields

PETROLIA OPERATIONS: PROGRESS OF NEW RIGS.

Round-Up.
The oil field has been very quiet the past week and nothing of importance has happened though all the rigs in the field are busy drilling. It will be several days before any of the wells will be brought in except Developers No. 3, which will be bailed in this afternoon.

This well is located almost on an arrow line from Developers No. 1, and the Producers Byers No. 9, and is being drilled by contractor L. P. Hammond. Markovits who is the manager of the company is very optimistic over the showing they have found in this hole and is confident a good well will be made.

Developers No. 2, was found to be a good gas well but was ruined for the present by drilling through the sand into salt water.

The hole has been cemented at the bottom to shut out the salt water and we understand they will endeavor to make a well out of it, as soon as the cement sets.

The Edmonds Oil Company are down about 1300 feet and work progressing nicely.

Hyers 11 1/2 is at work again after several days "fishing."

Considerable interest is being manifested in the well now drilling near Thornberry, as several good showings have been found about 1400 feet. This well is almost on a direct line from the Petrolia field to the Burk Burnett well.

Dismuke and O'Neal are reported to be down about 800 feet in their second hole on the Knight farm near Iowa Park. The drillers were compelled to abandon the first hole at about this depth.

Staples and Company are shut down on the Winfrey place waiting for the installation of a new boiler.

STATE TAX BOARD FIXES LOWER RATE THAN 1911

Rate of Ten Cents On $100 To Apply On This Year's Valuations, It Decides.

Austin, Texas, July 16.—A reduction of two and one-half cents on the $100 valuation has been made by the state tax board, consisting of the controller, the governor and the state treasurer. The rate for 1912 will be ten cents, as compared with twelve and one-half cents a year ago.

With fifty-six counties still to report, Controller W. P. Lane told his fellow members of the board that, in his judgment, there would be a decrease of $67,000,000 over the totals of one year ago. The State's assessed valuations in 1911 amounted to $2,515,632,145. Mr. Lane thinks it probable the totals this year will not exceed $2,448,000,000.

Drouths in the Panhandle, Mr. Lane says, have caused a shrinkage in values in that section—not this year, but during the past several years. On the other hand, Gov. Colquitt says he is confident there will be an increase in the total of at least $100,000,000 and therefore feels certain the 10 cent rate will be amply sufficient to meet the demands of the various departments.

The board fixed the school rate at 16 2/3 cents, the same figures that applied last year. The meeting was of short duration and was not marked by the controversy that attended the session one year ago. At that time there were rather caustic comments about each other by both Gov. Colquitt and Controller Lane. Both were quite willing to observe all the amenities today.

Mr. Lane made the motion to place the ad valorem rate at 10 cents, and the vote was unanimous. Unanimity also marked the board's action in the fixing of the school rate.

GOVERNOR FOLK SAYS HE LENT HIS BOOM TO CLARK.

Star-Telegram.
Lost, one presidential boom. Finner will please return the same to Joseph W. Folk, St. Louis, Mo., and be suitably rewarded by Champ Clark.

The Missouri ex-governor, who surrendered his presidential campaign boom to Speaker Champ Clark for some unknown reason, was in Fort Worth Wednesday night, leaving on Thursday morning for the Santa Fe for Gainesville to deliver a lecture tonight. Mr. Folk is delivering a series of Chautauque lectures and is in Texas for that purpose, so he says.

The ex-governor admits that he loaned his boom to Champ Clark.

"Mr. Clark thought he was the strongest man with the people of the United States," he said, "so I just let him have it. He wanted to try it so badly."

"What do you think of the Baltimore convention?" he was asked, as he sat in an eating house across the street from the Santa Fe station, conscientiously and systematically placing away another of broiled bacon, poached eggs, on toast, a cup of coffee, one glass of milk and two glasses of water a few minutes before train time Thursday.

"Let us talk about something else; I don't care to discuss the subject. You probably know that I am a 'progressive' and of course the Democratic ticket looks good to me," responded Folk.

There was no use trying to worm anything out of Mr. Folk that he cared not to talk about. He would smile very pleasantly, raise his eyes and change the subject to what a wonderful town Fort Worth had grown to be or the still more wonderful crop prospects throughout the state. It seemed so easy for the ex-governor to talk about the crops, or of the wonderful possibilities that exist in the West for the young man of energy, but the Baltimore convention conversation seemed complex and dragged.

He told of meeting William Jennings Bryan in Oklahoma and said that he believed the "peerless one" would be in Texas before long, as he is out on the Chautauque platform.

Getting back to politics, Mr. Folk expressed himself as believing that outside of Vermont and New Hampshire, President Taft will not obtain another electoral vote. He firmly believes that Col. Roosevelt will carry three states to Taft's one and in the same breath he said that Woodrow Wilson is sure to be the next President of these United States. He didn't compare the coming campaign with the

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

A REAL RIOT.

As evidence that Woodrow Wilson is sincere in his contention for principles and that he was not a seeker after the Democratic nomination merely for selfish reasons, because he was ambitious, we have only to refer to that famous telephone conversation of the Friday before the nomination took place.

The conversation seemed hopelessly deadlocked. Clark had shown unusual strength. At times the Missouri candidate had more votes than all of the other candidates combined. There seemed no chance for a nomination unless some leading candidate should withdraw and throw his strength to some other candidate and cause a new alignment to develop.

Then it was that Woodrow Wilson displayed patriotism then it was that he convinced his admirers that he was battling for a principle first and that he looked upon his own case as of secondary importance.

This was the famous message which Dr. Wilson phoned to his campaign manager in Baltimore:

"Billy, if you think it would be in the interest of party harmony and of party success at the election, I authorize you to notify all delegates pledged to me that I release them from their pledges. Do this if you can find the proper man for them to turn to."

There was a hurried conference; the Wilson supporters decided that they were struggling for a principle and that their candidate represented the principle better than any other candidate did. They refused to consider the offer of their champion. They went back to the convention hall to contest with increased determination for the leader that they believed was best suited for President. It required several days for the convention to see it in that way, but eventually Wilson was selected for the reason that the delegates believed he is a real patriot.

THE COLONEL'S SUPERFLUITY.

In the preliminary draft for the platform for his "National progressive" third party Colonel Roosevelt proposes as novel plank provisions that shall take special care of the farmer and the wage-worker. He holds that the platforms of neither of the two great parties take sufficient cognizance of these classes, an omission which he believes needs to be remedied.

Passing by the fact that perhaps the Colonel is not unmindful of the political value of a specific appeal to these two classes, it remains as a matter of record that his promises of relief have already been discounted both by Democratic pledge and performance.

The latter is written in the conservative tariff reduction legislation engineered by Oscar Underwood, as well as many bills by Democratic representatives and Senators aimed at not only widening the markets for the products of the American, but also making the Federal Agricultural Department serve the farmer more genuinely.

So far as pledges are concerned, the Baltimore platform bristles with issues that bear with pronounced emphasis on the welfare of the agriculturist. What is more, the Democrats have already given earnest of intention to fulfill such pledges, while the "old guard" Republican wing has ignored virtually every promise it made, not only to the farmer, but equally to every element of American citizenship.

The provisional draft of the "National progressive" party given out for publication carries too close a resemblance to the clutching at straws to break the tidal wave toward the Democratic party.—Atlantic Constitution.

Fort Worth.—From the most conservative estimates there was approximately $16,150,000 of foreign capital invested within the state during the month of June. The majority of this amount was invested in municipal and electric railway securities.

The race is always to the swift when it comes to city building.

FARMERS' UNION MEETING AT BURKBURNETT.

The Wichita County Farmers' Union met with the Burk Burnett local union on July 12th and 13th, with delegates present from the different locals in the county. An average attendance was present and much business was given attention. The increase in membership during the past year has been 98 per cent—the membership is alive to every interest pertaining to the organization—and are ready and willing to co-operate with each other in a combined effort to make the organization and all its different branches—a complete success.

Notwithstanding the almost complete failure of crops of 1911, thereby causing many members to become involved in debt for supplies for the present year, we are blessed with a splendid crop which by judicious handling will liquidate his obligations and have a small balance left to his credit.

The organization is to be congratulated on having managed its business affairs in such a manner as to meet the endorsement of the public and the business interests of the state, and especially in Wichita county to be congratulated to get the unsolicited endorsement of that splendid organization, the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce.

The following named persons were elected officers for the ensuing year: President C. S. Maxwell, Burk Burnett; Vice President, M. H. Knouth, Burk Burnett; Secretary-Treasurer, D. R. Johnson, Wichita Falls.

New Frisco Offices.

Kingsville, Texas, July 16.—The seventy-five thousand dollar office building erected by the Frisco is now occupied by the general officers and employees of the road. The Frisco has invested in shops and buildings in this city approximately a half million dollars and the railroad population here exceeds two thousand people.

New Irrigation Project.

San Antonio, Texas, July 16.—Two companies have been organized in this city to promote an irrigation project which, when complete, will water an area of about 60,000 acres. The land to be developed lies in Bexar, Kendall and Comal counties. Two dams will be constructed across the Cibola and Comal rivers giving a total reservoir capacity of approximately 2,500,000 cubic feet.

A city's destiny usually lies in the hands of a few men. If they are the right kind we need have no fear of the ultimate outcome.

More than 10,000 people read the Times every day it is published. Of course, this does not mean that each one reads everything in it. Most of them, perhaps, dodge the editorial columns, but few fail to read the news columns and ads. So, if you want the best results plant your ads in the Times. Circulation and advertising rates considered, there is not a newspaper published that gives as much for as little money.

Back East some of the sports are betting their money that the Republican National ticket, known as the "Bull Moose" ticket, and which is headed by Roosevelt, will poll more popular and electoral votes at the November election than the Republican National ticket headed by Taft. That is at it should be. But as we dislike Republicanism the majority of Republicans make good citizens and as such they cannot consistently approve of plain theft. Roosevelt was swindled out of the Republican presidential nomination beyond the question of a doubt, and it would be a disgrace to the American people to re-elect a man president who is willing to accept a nomination that was brought about like that of Taft's. He is in a class with Lortimer though he may not have had anything to do with the theft.

Judge Walker Hall of Vernon, who is one of the judges of the Amarillo court, has no opposition, but it seems that he has taken it upon himself to do some campaigning for Judge Graham, who was appointed to one of the judgeships at the time Judge Hall received his appointment at the hands of Gov. Colquitt. Judge S. P. Huff of Vernon, is opposing Graham, and the fact that Hall is opposing Huff and making speeches for Graham has caused some bitterness to be aroused against Hall, which will vent itself in some of the Panhandle counties on the day of the primary by scratching the name of Judge Hall. In Childress county alone the feeling against Hall has grown to such an extent that it is believed that more Democrats who vote at the July primary will scratch his name from their ballots than will leave it on. Judge Huff is a very popular man in that district and is almost sure to be elected. Hall and Huff, at one time, were law partners, and just why he should have taken it upon himself to do campaigning for Judge Graham is something that many of the Democrats of that district have been unable to figure out. It strikes the Times that Judge Hall should have kept out of the fight.

Those papers that fought Gov. Woodrow Wilson tooth and nail in Texas, and that are now doing their utmost to climb into the Wilson band wagon, are making much of a letter written sometime ago, in which the letter showed Wilson to be against state-wide prohibition, but are silent as to a more recent letter under date of July 6, 1911 addressed to Mr. W. E. Grogan, of Byers, Texas, who is well and favorably known to many readers of the Times. For their benefit the Times produces the letter below:

State of New Jersey, Executive Department, July 6, 1911.—My Dear Grogan: You mistook me if you thought that I was treating your first letter as a communication of a politician, or if you supposed that I was trying in any way, to avoid the important question you put to me. The reply that I made was made in full sincerity. I believe that for some states, state-wide prohibition is possible and desirable, because of their relative homogeneity while for others, I think that state-wide prohibition is not practicable. I have no fear or doubt, from what I know of the circumstances, that Johnson-Flynn bout or its similarity to a horse race. Taft being left at the best with the flag down, and Roosevelt put through the fence at the second turn—but, he did say that Wilson had the easiest race ever known in a presidential campaign.

He was quite sure that had Wilson not been nominated that a great many progressive Democrats would have rallied around the Roosevelt bandwagon and that his election as President would have been practically assured. Wilson has stemmed the tide, in the opinion of Mr. Folk, and there is nothing left but to wait the time with patience until the badge of sweet victory will be hung to the mane of the Democratic donkey in next November.

After the speech at Gainesville, the Missouri ex-executive will go to Oklahoma City and then on North. He spoke in Waxahachie Wednesday.

CROP PROSPECTS FLATTERING IN PETROLIA SECTION.

Petrolia Round-Up.
The Petrolia country is just now busily engaged making a new wheat record. Clear weather has permitted threshing crews to work long hours during the past few days and as a result wheat laden wagons have been finding their way into Petrolia from all directions and have been readily taken care of by local buyers. Up until today at noon, 19 cars have already been shipped from Petrolia bringing from $0 to 90 cents per bushel, and threshing has hardly begun.

Corn is in ideal condition. In some fields big ears already formed, show that the conditions have been all that could be desired for the growth of this standard cereal this spring and summer. This time last year the country's corn crop had been burned up by the hot winds. This year great fields of dark green stalks are to be seen, some with ears already beginning to round out, and others at various stages of development, leaving no doubt that Clay county is to have a corn crop, and a big one, too. Cotton, although not so far advanced is equally encouraging.

Peaches have become so plentiful on the local market that the street price Thursday had fallen to 80 cents.

As a result pantry shelves will soon be groaning with preserves and butter, while for once, at least, everybody in Clay county may have all the peaches he can eat.

Gregg County Values

Longview, Texas, July 16.—The taxable value of all property in Gregg county shows a total of $4,397,825, an increase over 1911 of over $250,000. The increase in value is due to the rapid growth of Longview and the Port Iron Ore Railway which passes through the county.

Fort Stockton—The Fort Stockton Irrigation Company has started work on its project in Pecos county.

The reservoir to be constructed will impound sufficient water to irrigate 25,000 acres of land.

Pecos—The state experimental station near here has completed arrangements for an exhibit of farm products at College Station during the session of the Texas Farmers Congress, July 30-31 and August 1.

A Liberal Reward.....

The sorrows of life may burden your soul, and you may feel that you are forsaken by loved ones and friends! There is much you do not understand; but my friend "Out of Sorrow" there is a lesson to be learned, an obligation to be fulfilled, a hope, some day to be rewarded. GOD IS NEVER UNJUST, for "Out of the gloom yesterday comes the smiles of today." Be faithful to the trust reposed in you; do your duty towards all, whatever befalls, and in the end will come LOVE, PEACE and HAPPINESS, the reward of the faithful.

We will give Twenty-Five Dollars to any one giving us the correct originator of the above sentiment.

Plan Trade Trip. Denton, Texas, July 16.—The business men of this city will leave the 24th of this month on a trades excursion to points in Oklahoma. A special train has been engaged to convey the party, which is expected to number about 100.

Commercial Club Active. Midland, Texas, July 16.—The Commercial Club of this city has completed all arrangements with the Texas, Gulf & Northern Railroad to construct a steam line from Tucuman, New Mexico, to San Antonio, via Midland. The company was organized several months ago and all the surveying has been completed. Construction work is expected to start about July 30th.

Home Cafe Changes Hands. W. I. Cameron has purchased the interest of his partner, C. M. Burnett, in the Home Cafe, 415 7th street, and will continue to make that place the most popular in the city.

Mr. Cameron is an experienced restaurant man, and much of the popularity gained by the Home Cafe is due to his close attention to business and seeing that his guests receive the courtesy and service due them. 55-1fc

Notice. Sealed bids for the deposits of the city funds will be received at my office until 12 o'clock noon, the 18th of July and the successful bidder is expected to furnish the treasurer and make all reports required by the council. W. A. McCARTY, City Secretary. 49-9fc

To Purchase Texas Land. Portland, Ore., July 16.—Harry M. Dentler of the Dentler and Dentler Realty Company, this city, has left for an extended trip to Texas points where he will investigate the farm lands on the Mexican border in the interest of local capitalists. Northwestern investors have become interested in Texas lands since the news of this seasons large onion crop was flashed to the world and it is expected that considerable Portland money will be invested in the Lone Star State this year.

YOUNG MEN DELIVERING EDUCATIONAL MESSAGE

Eleven Students Are Traveling Over State This Year To Address Citizens.

Austin, Texas, July 16.—The educational plans of the late James S. Hogg of Texas are being made known to the people of Texas this summer in a most novel and interesting manner. Eleven young men, all students of the leading educational institutions of Texas, are traveling throughout the State making educational addresses to the people of Texas. These young men hold their commission from the Hogg Organization for Higher Education in Texas. Four of them, Messrs. George W. Dupree, A. R. Grambling, Hugh M. Potter and L. S. Hoffman represent the University of Texas. Two of them, E. E. Cowart and D. T. Stevens represent the Agricultural and Mechanical College. C. D. Poole represents the North Texas State Normal College at Denton. A. A. Gunter represents the Sam Houston Normal at Huntsville. R. A. Stuart represents the West Texas State Normal at Canyon. Lynn Garrett represents the Southwest Texas State Normal, San Marcos. J. W. Thimms comes from Baylor and A. Frank Smith comes from Southwestern University.

Nearly all of these young men come from the country, or some secluded village and are themselves, therefore, forcible examples of what a college education can do for an individual. Indeed, the position of the men in charge of the Hogg Organization is frankly this, at least so far as this particular campaign is concerned. They say to the public in sending out these eleven young orators, "Here are examples of what college training will do for young men. Will it be beneficial to the State to increase the number of such men?" If the answer is in the affirmative, then is it not the wisest plan for Texas to provide facilities for college education equal to those offered by California, by Missouri, by Kansas, by Wisconsin, by Michigan, by Illinois. Honorable F. M. Brantly, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is an immediate charge of this big educational campaign, which will cover fifty of sixty of the counties of Texas.

In some counties as many as five addresses are given and the schedule of dates is arranged so that forty-eight hours intervene between each address. This will give the young men a chance to become acquainted and give out useful educational information. Not one of these young men is a drummer for any particular college. He is simply an exponent, as well as an example, of higher education. Next session each one will return to the college of his choice, and each, it is needless to add, will be a better informed and a more loyal Texan for his summer's experience.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTS ON INSURANCE RATES.

Beaumont, Texas, July 16.—The general dissatisfaction which has existed in this city over the schedule of rates promulgated by the State Fire Insurance Board, passed beyond the endurance stage today when the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution asking the coming legislature to repeal the law or amend it so as to insure equitable results. In response to a general demand for relief on the part of the citizenship, the Chamber of Commerce of this city sent a committee to Austin to plead with the board for relief. But the commissioner, only regretted "proud phrases" which they had coined at previous hearings, and the rate remained in a skyward position. The Chamber of Commerce will begin an active campaign throughout the state for the repeal of the law and a number of towns have signified their intention of joining in the movement.

Tangles up in a snarl,
And you like to hand a lemon
To the whole darned world.

At daylight in the morning,
When you flutter from your bunk
And can't find your trousers,
And the world looks punk.

With your business on a hummer,
And your system in a sling,
And you feel like a dead one,
And can't do a thing.

You need a box of Dike's Little Liver Pills. They turn gloom to gladness; grouch to glee and make you tackle the game with the endurance of an Indian instead of the impotence of the imbecile.

W. O. Gowen, whose young son met death by drowning last Saturday, requests the Times to extend thanks for him for the many kindnesses extended in his bereavement. A total of about $50 was raised by friends to defray the expenses of the funeral; residents of Pleasant Valley, the river district and several Wichitans making donations. Mr. Gowen, as a result of the injuries he sustained in attempting to save his boy, was unable to attend the funeral.
