GRACE DEFENSE OUTLINES PLANS

WILL TRY TO SHOW THAT AT-LANTA MAN SHOT HIMSELF.

Will Also Contend That Wounded Husband Wrote Important "Alihi" # Letters Himself.

By Associated Press.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 1.-Eugene H. Grace was shot in a scuffle with his wife in their room during a quarrel over the sale of Mrs. Grace property, according to Attorney Brandt who outlined the defense case in a statement to the jury this morning. He said Grace tried to shoot his wife after choking her and during the scuffle the weapon was discharged. He said Grace made her leave home because he did not think he was badly burt and feared he would be disgraced if it got out he was shot in a "nigger row"

Attorney Brant said, "We will prove that Mr. Grace was going to Philadelphia to sell his wife's prophecy to get money for himself when the shooting occurred. He wanted to get his wife out of town first. She suspected that he had an engagement with another woman. She accused him of it and said she was going to take the power of attorney she had given him. Grace began scuffling with her over the doc ument and began swearing and threatening to kill her and grabbed his revolver. In the scuffle it was discharged and Grace was shot. He made his wife promise she would say nothing about it. The alibi letters were written by Grace himself and his wife knew nothing about them.

The text of the alibi letter written in pencil was:

"Tuesday Night. "My Own Darling Wife: After I put you on the train, I got to talking to an old boyhood friend of mine and got left, which will make me a day late in getting back. I am terribly sorry that is going to keep me away a day longer, but I shall hurry back. dear girl, and bring you back some thing real nice. My friend is here at the house with me now and I have been telling him what a nice, sweet girl you are. I am awfully sorry for what I said and what happened Sunday and I know it will not hap pen again. I hope you are having a fine time in Newnan and that you will see lots of people. I shall think of you all the time I am away and be as good as I know how. Be a good, sweet girl and think of me lots. With all my love and a billion "GENE."

The other letter, which the prose cution claims Mrs. Grace wrote on a typewriter weeks before the shoot ing, read as follows

"My Dear Wife, Daisy: After say ing bood-bye to you at the station today, I run into a fellow friend of mine from Charlotte, N. C., and Daisy, believe me, my heart went out to him compeltely. The chap is dead broke and he had such a pitiful story that I am going to try and get him a job. I am going to have him come out to 29 West Eleventh and make him take a bath and let him sleep all night with me, and in the morning I will give him a suit of clothes, as he is very tall, and I think my clothes will fit him if he pulls his suspenders up. Now, Daisy. dear, I am one day late getting away so I will be one day late getting back to Atlanta, so instead of me coming to Newnan, why, you bring mother up along to Atlanta with you and you and I will send a telegram when you may meet me at the sta tion. Hope you wrote to your moth er and told her I will be in Philadel phia and to have your satchel ready packed so I won't have to wait for it. All my love for you and a million kisses, from your devoted hus-"GENE."

Mrs. Grace's words of greeting to her husband when they met in the mospital, which the defense had fought hard to keep from the jury. also were admitted. George C. Bullard, city detective, was the witness who was permited to tell of the meet-

Judge Roan would not permit the witness to relate to the jury the subsequent conversation between husband and wife. He admitted her first claimed that it had been proven by witnesses who were with Mrs. Grace attorneys by him.

Notification of President With Due Ceremony

Washington, D. C., Aug. 1 .- President Taft today was formally notified of his renomination for president and in his speech of acceptance, gave a tentative outline of the issues upon which the Republican pary will base its campaign. Moving picture machines were turned on Senator Root and President Taft during their speech, it being the first time they ever were permitted inside the White House. The films will be preserved by the State Department.

Your title to the nomination is as clear and unimpeachable as the title of any candidate since political conventions bégan.' That was the keynote of Senator Elihu Roof's address to President Taft here today when, as chairman of the committee of notification, he formally advised the President of his nomination by the Chicago convention.

Surrounded by the members of the committee and a hundred or so invited guests, the chairman of the convention in a brief speech delivered the of ficial announcement.

"The Committee of Notification said Senator Root "here present, has the honor to advise you formally that on the 22nd day of June, last, you were regularly and duly nominated by the National Convention of the Republican party, to be the Republican candidate for President for the term beginning

March 4th. 1913. "Your selection has a broader basis han a mere expression of choice be ween different party leaders representing the same ideas. You have been nominated because you stand pre-eminently for certain fixed and essential principles which the Republisafety for nations, as for individuals, ises mean anything, they lead directly is to establish and abide with the great toward the appropriation of what be practical rules of right-conduct that longs to one man, to another. he American people have set up for their own guidance and self-restraint who have left the Republican party effectual guide to conduct in any oth- a change for the better. er way than by judicial judgment upon

The supreme issue that confronts the voters, the President declared, was that of the maintainance of the na tion's institutions and the preservaion of the Constitution, threatened he said, on the one hand by the Democratic party and on the other by those Republicans who had left the party o try their fortunes in a new one.

Next in importance Mr. Taft placed the tariff. In the proposals of the Democrats for reductions in the present schedules, he said, lay danger of business depression and hard times. As an issue only less important than teh tariff the President placed the reg ulation of trusts. He said the Sher man law had been enforced with suc cess but added that specific acts of unfair trade should be demounced as mis demeanors that such acts might be avoided or when committed punished by summary procedure. Interstate business enterrpises, he said, should be offered a federal incorporation law.

Aside from those issued the Presi dent pointed to the record of the Re publican party and particularly during his own administration as an earnest of what it might be expected to do it the future if the people returned it to power in November. He attacked the Democrats at other points than the tariff, making special reference to the refusal of that party in the House of Representatives to continue the nava policy of two battleships a year. Tfat did not mention either Colonel Roose velt or Governor Woodrow Wilson by name but referred to each.

"I do not say that the two gentle nen who now lead, one the Democratic party and the other the former Re ublicans who have left their party, in their attacks upon existing conditions and in their attempts to satisfy the popular existing conditions, and in their attempts to satisfy the popular unrest by promises of remedies, are consciously embracing socialism. The message said:

"If the United States cannot handle the Mexican situation, let Presidio county handle it." The messages are in most cases being sent to senators and congressmen but some have been directed to the White House.

The arrival last night of two train loads of refugees from the most remote Mormon colonies has brought the number of refugees here since Sunday to a full 2500, most of whom are still here. Among last night's arrivals were several men from Pear son and Madera whose families came out last week and who have been living in El Paso at the expense of the Madera Lumber Company.

This company has now closed its mills at Madera and Pearson so that the men can leave. Refugees who are unable to secure better accommodations are still camping in the lumber sheds which have sheltered them since Sunday and they will re main there until the tents voted by Congress can reach here from St.

Charles Blackburn, the unsuccessful uitor for the heart and hand of Mrs. Rosy Zieglar was a witness this norning in her suit to have her marriage to Charles Ford whom she laims coerced her into the marriage. Blackburn testified that he was in is room on the second floor at 804 Scott avenue when Mrs. Weatherford Ford's sister, whom Mrs. Ford implicates in her petition, and the officer, called to induce her to move over to the Rucks rooming house.

He testified that after Rosy had eft the house he heard the officer who was with Mrs. Weatherford ad dressing another woman in the house say "I couldn't have fooled you that easy, could I?" Blackburn also told of the successful attempt to prevent him from seeing Rosy at the Rucks rooming house the afternoon before her marriage to Ford .-

Mrs. Ford again took the stand following Blackburn. She said after she had been to the Rucks rooming house she heard Ford tell Mrs Weatherford to pay the officer and that Mrs. Weatherford answered that she had already paid him.

After the testimony of these two witnesses the case was again coninued until tomorrow morning when tinue into the far future; that it is Mrs. Gee, the nurse mentioned by reasonable progress that experience Mrs. Ford in her testimony yesterday has shown to be really useful and will be placed on the stand, to tell about the efforts of Blackburn to talk with Rosy.

It is our opinion that we would not be justified in finding true bills for the seeming violation of the law in this particular. We would, however, recommend to your honor a repetition of said charge to the next grand jury, and call their attention to the promise made us by several doctors that in the future the issuance of said prescriptions by them will be in full accordance with

As to the stressed charge on the 'boot-legger," we find that his habi tation is largely confined to Elec rta and vicinity and that they are quite numerous there and there abouts but not quite so plentiful now as when our voyage of discovery began. If the name, boot-legger was a sufficient identity of said creatures on which to base an indictment, we might have found many true bills. Our advisers tell us that such identi ty is not sufficient, hence the fewness of bills against them. We have had no difficulty to get every ingredient of an indictment save that alone of the identity of the creatures. Mme. There was, of course, not the remotest hint of the newly organized association adopting any forcible methods for the purpose of bringing its propaganda into public prominence, The movement has a very solid sup port in academical circles. The great majority of university and gymnasia professors are strongly in favor of improving the civil status of women, and the movement is enlisting a considerable measure of support among the politicians and political publicists, and more especially among the members of the constitutional democratic party in the state duma. A distinguished professor in the Odessa university states that in their natural gifts and high and alert intel

Since the removal of the disqualifying the barrier which prevented women from attaining barristers' rank and ap pealing as leaders in the civil and criminal courts, there has been a remarkable increase in the number of lady candidates in the faculty of juris prudence. Medicine has also a similar attraction for women, and there are now close upon 200 attending the medical section of the university. The Ladies' Higher Course institute in this city is now attended by 1500 students, and at least 50 per cent of them are qualifying for one or another of the learned professions.

The civil emandipation of women a very likely and strikingly progressive movement in modern Russia, and so far it cannot complain of any serious opposition arising from class bias and prejudice. There is a very wide field n various imporant directions for wo. man's work in this country.

The covering of the shoots seemed o help for when they were left to the light and air they grew tremendously thrifty. His potato crop was always the wonder of the community. He raised watermelons and lots of here, but not for the usual purpose they are grown.

He pressed the juice from the melous, boiled it down in copper evaporators to a fair syrup and with this syrup he used apples for thickening, to make apple butter, and it was of a quality hard to beat.

He supplied large quantities of i to the nearby markets and at good prices. The syrup was of finest quality and much of it was used-J. H. H. Indiana.

ADMITS BEATING WIFE: REFUSED CITIZENSHIP.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 1.-Taalag Halversen Dahl has been refused citizenship papers on the ground that he beat his wife. Henry Hazard, United States naturalization agent, asked Dahl who was undergoing examination as an applicant for final papers, if he ever beat Mrs. Dahl. To this Dahl replied that he did. The judge immediately denied his citizenship. Dahl cannot apply for final papers for five years' more.

"Do you whip your wife?" asked he examiner.

"Oh, yes," beamed Dahl, apparently leased that he was getting on so vell. "Sometimes I whip her good." "Application denied," sternly declared Hazard, "we want no more wife-beating Americans than we have already." Dahl was crestfallen.

BOND ISSUE FOR JOINT HOSPITAL

DR. WADE H. WALKER CONSIDERS IT MOST FEASIBLE PLAN OF ACTION.

Believes That Mass Meeting Should Be Called To Consider Steps To Relieve Present iStuation.

After reading in your paper the two for Legislative positions, by the news recent articles with regard to the papers and by the people generally. need for a city or county hospital or sanitarium for the treatment of emergency cases where the patients are themselves, I take this opportunity of making known a plan by means of which the county and city can have their poor cared for in a proper manner with little or no expense at all. It is my opinion that we should vote bonds half on the city and half on than $25,000, for the erection of a upon their merits. small up-to-date institution with say fifteen private rooms and two or three ward rooms.

If this plan were followed I believe that the co-operation of every physician and surgeon in this city would be secured, and that the hospital or sanitarium could be made a paying institution from the very start. Of course all plans and details connected with the management and opera-ranged among the physicians and the city and county authorities who should work together in a harmonious manner towards the accomplishment of this worthy end.

This city is well located for an upto-date fifty-bed hospital and the need for the same is a very pressing one at present and has been illustrated a number of times during the past two years. Under present conditions, owing to the fact that neither the city or the county is in possession of a hospital where emergency cases may be treated, nor does any fund exist by means of which emergency cases may be moved to a private institution for treatment, a stranger in town who happens to become ill or suffers an injury, unless he has funds, is necessarily thrown on the mercy of charity or of private individuals. The latter. have many times responded very handsomely to calls in the past, but this city has grown to such dimensions that for present conditions to exist longer will not only become a drain on the pocket books of the generous ones, but will be a blot on the fair name of Wichita Falls which bears the reputation of being one of the most up-to-date and progressive small cities in the entire State. I believe that a mass meeting should be called at a date as early as possible so that this matter can be discussed and acted upon not only by the city and county officials and the physicians, but by the people at large,

Respectfully, WADE H. WALKER.

FIGHTS WITH CLERK WHO WON'T SELL COCAINE

New York, Aug. 1.-Because the clerks in Kahn's drug store on Lexington street refused to sell him cocaine last night, John Adams, 42 years old, of New York, is said to have started a row in the place, and during the heat of the argument reached for something in his hip pocket and chased Bayard Vansant, one of the clerks, out of the store. This morning Adams faced Justice Supplee in the central police court on the charge of disorderly conduct. Vansant said that if he had not taken to his heels when Adams started for him he might have been forced to mix it

In his defense Adams said that he only wanted a small quantity of the drug to put into a tooth which was giving him trouble. He said that when he placed his hand in his pocket it was only to take out hi keys. He gave an exhibition of the manner in which he reached for his keys when he dug into his jeans and brought out $6.45 to pay his fine.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Aug. 1.—The clos ing of all the larger stores in Piedras Negras has created a stagnation of business in that city, though some of the smaller stores are doing a rushing business. The large merchants contend they will be compelled to remain closed indefinitely, as they cannot sell at prices to warrant paying the in-creased tax levy and contend further it is a hardship imposed without res-son on part of local authorities. ## WANTS DISTRICT JUDGES HONORS EVEN SO TO MEET IN CONFERENCE FAR AT ARDMORE

Hillsboro Jurist Suggests Meeting To Expedite Trial in This

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 1.—Hon. C. M. Smithdeal of Hillsboro, Judge of the Sixty-Sixth Judicial District, was in Dallas yesterday on court business. Speaking of the present discussion of the reform of judicial procedure, udge Smithdeal said:

"The people of Texas recognize the ecessity for judicial reform. The subject has been discussed by Gubernatorial candidates, by the candidates for Legislative positions, by the news-"I have had some experience as a trial lawyer in civil and criminal cases, and some experience as a trial financially unable to provide for Judge. As a lawyer and as a Judge I have often been astounded at the defeats which justice has suffered at the hands of "technical error. My experience has led me to believe that many changes in the substantive as well as the procedural laws of the State are necessary in order that the the county to the amount of not less courts may be enabled to decide cases

> "From time to time I have read communications from trial Judges suggesting repeals and amendments of statutes, but I have not yet read a suggestion which seemed to me to strike at the root of the evil. The District Judges ought to be able to discuss the subject of judicial reform intelligently. They come in contact daily with the defects of our system.

"Not only should they be able to point out the defects in our system. but they should be interested in bringing about such reforms as would simplify the practice in civil and in criminal cases. In criminal cases they should be interested in seeing that the defendant has a fair trial, but that organized society also has a fair trial. They should be able to suggest such statutes and rules as would enable them in civil cases to get at the merits of the controversy. The District Judges realize, perhaps, better than lawyers or laymen, that miscarriages of justice frequently result in civil and criminal cases from defects in our judicial system and in our codes of procedure.

"Therefore it seems to me that it would be well for the District Judges of Texas to meet in convention for the purpose of discussing the subject of judicial reform, and for the purpose of recommending to the Legislature such repeals or amendments of stat utes as would tend to promote the gen eral welfare."

AFTER THIRTEEN YEARS HIS CRIME GETS HIM.

New York, Aug. 1.-The woolen firm of Goodman Brothers found a shortage of $30,000 in their books 13 years ago and swore out a warrant against their bookkeeper, James Fisher, who had the power to sign checks and had much to do with the firm's finances. They never caught the man, for he left his house by the back door without coat or collar as a detective called at the front entrance and from then the police got no trace .619 of bim until last night when the two Goodman brothers, riding on a Broadway car, saw a man whom they de-cided was their missing bookkeeper. The man said he was Thomas Fisher, a liquor dealer. He admitted that he had worked for Goodman brothers. but that he was a brother of the man the police were looking for. A detective, however, positively identified him from a photograph as the missing bookkeeper.

Grape Juice is Just As Cheap As Lemonade

PHONES

IT QUICK.

A number of people have told me when I have suggested grape juice as a summer drink that it was too expensive. I then pointed out that grape juice diluted with one-half to an equal quantity of water was no more expensive than good lemonade, for with grape juice you require nothing but ice cold water and the juice, while with lemonade, a liberal amount of sugar is necessary, and there is considerable waste in the lemons, to say nothing of the work required making it.

If you figured out the cost of a given number of glasses of lemonade and the same number of glasses of grape juice, you would find that there was so little difference in the cost and so much more food value and satisfaction to grape juice that you would no doubt use grape juice oftener at least. It appears from the election return while the Democrats of Texas were willing to endorse Gov. Colquitt for a second term; and did so, they balked when it came to the point of re-elect ing the governor's appointeds. Looking at it from this viewpoint, it would seem that Texas Democrats did not believe Gov. Colquitt had been given sufficient time in which to make good and merely contented themselves by refusing to place their seal of approv al on some of his acts and give him an other chance to make good.

PROPOSES CONFERENCE The court house box, No. 2 polled 561 votes in last Saturday's primary and every man who voted took upon himself an obligation to vote the Democratic ticket at the general election from president to constable, or from head to tail, and so far as the Times is aware all will keep their pledges. Had every qualified elector voted, the total would have been around 700 at this box, which is en of the Kansas Public Utilities Commistirely too many ballots for one set of sion, the Corporation Commission of election officers to handle, especially is this true when the ballot is a long tee of the Common Council of Kansas one. In Saturday's election the offi cers at this box worked faithfully from Joplin and St. Joseph to frame some 8 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock Sunday morning without getting but little more than half through the count, and then adjourned until 10 o'clock in order to obtain needed rest natural gas situation. WILL PROBABLY HAVE VERY SMALL MAJORITY IN NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Iquor Complexion of Representative and Senatore Promises Little Restrictive Legislation.

That the Thirty-Third legislature hich convenes next January will have very slender majority in favor of prohibition legislation, if it has a pro majority tat all, is indicated by a poll of the liquor complexion of its prospective membership.

In the House, out of a total of 14: members, fifty-nine are classed as prohibitionists and fifty-five as antis, leaving twenty-seven undecided. Of these twenty-seven, at least eleven are from districts which usually send anti-prohibition members. In two disricts there was no Democratic nomination and the Republican legislators are usually classed with the anti's.

In the Senate, eleven senators are known to be antis and thirteen pros. Of the seven not classified, four are from districts in the prohibition country and if the races in those sections were "true to form" prohibition senators have been chosen. Senator Mo Nealus, the holdover from the Dallas-Rockwall district, is classed neither with the sheep nor the goats, but is understood to strongly favor all liquor restrictive measures.

Sufficient data is at hand to make it certain that in neither house of the legislature will the pros have two thirds majority and this fact renders doubtful the enactment of any restrictive legislation next winter. It is possible to pass a law when a bare majority favors it, but to get a measbers of the house can secure delays, sometimes indefinitely, and with this regulatory measures may be held up indefinitely next winter. In the last legislature the prohibitionists were decisively in the mapority and the poll of the membership of the next House and Senate indicates that they have lost considerable of their strength in this year's primaries.

R. R. Williams of Cumby, Hopkins county, who ran against Gov. Campbell four years ago, will be a member of the next House. W. O. Stamps of Gilmer, an ecceptric but influential member of the House for several sessions, has probably been defeated.

CO-OPERATION KEYNOTE OF FARMERS' CONGRESS

oultry Dealers and Truck Growers Plan Action To Market Their Crops Jointely.

Associated Press. College Station, Tex., Aug. 1.—This was the final day of the Farmers' Congress. Action was taken today by the Texas Poultry Association to launch plans to effect a system of cooperative marketing of poultry products and secure legislation making a punishaable offense to offer fertilized eggs for sale in the summer. Milo Hastings of Port OConnor and Mrs. Benigred Kalb of Crockett are behind the movement.

The Texas Truck Growers Association took steps to effect a cooperative system of marketing. The plan to have the chief train dispatchers in vairous truck systems receive daily reports of market conditions. A. R. Sprague ofn San Benito fathered this plan. He argued that at present the various truck farms compete against themselves. The constitution and by-lows of the Farmers Congress as revised by a commission will be presented for flast action of the congress today. It is expected a fight will be made over whether the delegates shall accept railread passes.
