PENROSE ASKS INVESTIGATION

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR REQUESTS COMMITTEE TO PROBE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

URGED BY ROOSEVELT

Penrose Declares Colonel Knew of Standard Oil Contribution and Makes Attack on Him.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—Senator Penrose today asked the Senate to direct the Clapp committee investigating campaign contributions of 1904 and 1908 to probe the charges in his senatorial speech of yesterday in connection with the Penrose-Archbold correspondence.

He asked that the committee be directed to call as witnesses all persons mentioned in his speech. The motion was temporarily laid over. In a careful, deliberate speech in the Senate, Senator Penrose replied to charges made regarding a certificate deposit for $25,000 sent to him by John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil Company in 1904.

Senator Penrose admitted receiving that sum from Mr. Archbold, but asserted it was part of a contribution of $125,000 made by Archbold to the Republican National campaign fund, $100,000 of which, he said, went to the Republican National committee and $25,000 to himself for use in Pennsylvania.

"President Roosevelt had been advised of the contribution," Senator Penrose declared.

He said that later Cornelius N. Bliss, then treasurer of the National committee, asked for another contribution of $150,000 from Archbold and his associates "interested in the Standard Oil Company."

"The demand was urgent, insistent—I may say imperative—and it was represented that it came direct from President Roosevelt," declared Senator Penrose, forcefully.

William Flinn, Roosevelt leader in Pennsylvania, was scored by Penrose. The Senator charged that in 1904 Flinn offered him and Irelan W. Durham $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 if they would favor his candidacy for the Senate to succeed Senator Quay. Senator Penrose read what purported to be copies of telegrams to show that Flinn asked John D. Archbold to assist him in being elected.

Senator Penrose also attacked E. A. Van Valkenburg, editor of the Philadelphia North American, and referred to the "effrontery, hypocrisy and mendacity of the Van Valkenburg-Flinn combination."

The galleries of the Senate were filled and were bright with feminine fire in response to the announcement that Senator Penrose was to speak. The floor was crowded with Senators and members of the House. He read his speech from printed proofs, and talked slowly and impressively. At the conclusion of his speech Penrose promised further disclosures.

Senator Stone asked him if he knew anything of the contribution of E. H. Harriman to the 1904 Republican campaign fund.

"The papers are on file and letters exist," said Penrose, "which I think, during the campaign, will see the light of day. I think it would be very beneficial to the country if they should become public."

"Where are they now?" asked Mr. Stone.

"They are hidden in the archives of campaign committees, in the cellars and vaults of business men and in the offices of lawyers," returned Senator Penrose. "I think the time has come when these charges should be met and the American people should no longer be gulled by answers which insinuate that another man is a liar."

Penrose had the clerk read a newspaper with Col. Roosevelt, in which the latter was quoted as saying that Penrose had nothing to do with the Presidential campaign of 1904. The Senator said he was a member of the National committee, chairman of the Pennsylvania State committee and conducted the campaign in Pennsylvania.

"Mr. President, is this ingratitude, mendacity or political aphasia?" he demanded.

A ripple of laughter greeted this question.

Lord's Prayer Held Lawful In Schools

Oklahoma City, Aug. 22.—Attorney General West has decided that the repetition of the Lord's prayer in the public schools is not a violation of the provision which requires complete religious tolerance.

"I have been familiar with the prayer all my life," and the attorney general, "and have lately read it very carefully. I find nothing in it intolerant to the religious views of anyone."

The opinion was given at the request of A. V. Hamilton, superintendent of schools at Coalgate, where a discussion has been going on relative to repeating the prayer in the schools.

The delegates and visitors allowed lodge matters to lapse for a few hours last night and repaired to Lake Wichita where they were the guests of the local members at a reception in the pavilion. The occasion was strictly an informal one and was greatly enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served by the ladies.

WORKINGMAN IS VERY MUCH TAXED

REPRESENTATIVE UNDERWOOD SETS FORTH SITUATION BEFORE THE CONSUMER.

THE OPPRESSIVE TARIFF

In Simple Story Shows How Oppressive Tariff Has Increased Cost of Living.

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 22.—Representative Underwood, reviewing the achievements of the democratic house in the Congressional Record, sets forth, as he sees it, the situation before the American consumer under the present tariff system in this fashion:

"Under the oppressive tariff law, the laboring man returns at night from his toil, clad in a woolen suit, taxed 75 per cent; shoes taxed 50 per cent; stockings and underwear 71 per cent; a cotton shirt taxed 50 per cent; a wool hat and wool gloves taxed 78 per cent.

"He carries a dinner pail taxed 45 per cent and greets his wife as she looks through a window taxed 62 per cent with a curtain taxed 42 per cent. After scraping his shoes on a scraper taxed 75 per cent he wipes them on a mat taxed 50 per cent. He lifts the latch taxed 35 per cent, steps on a carpet taxed 62 per cent and kisses his wife clad in a wool dress taxed 70 per cent; she is mending an umbrella taxed 50 per cent, with thread taxed 30 per cent. The house is made of brick, taxed 25 per cent and lumber taxed nine per cent with paint taxed 22 per cent. Their wall paper was taxed 25 per cent and plain furniture 25 per cent.

"He hangs his pail on a steel pin taxed 45 per cent; using soap taxed 20 per cent. His looking glass was taxed 35 per cent. He proceeds to eat his supper which was cooked on a stove taxed 45 per cent, for which his wife used pots and kettles taxed 45 per cent. On their table is common crockery taxed 55 per cent and cheap glass tumblers taxed 45 per cent.

"The sugar he puts in his tea is taxed 54 per cent and he stirs it with a spoon taxed 45 per cent. His meal is a frugal one, because the cost of living is high."

JUST TWO WEEKS UNTIL SCHOOLS OPEN

Superintendent Carpenter Has Called Meeting of Teachers For September Sixth.

This is a happy time of the year for the children of this city. It is just a little over two weeks until school opens and of course all the youngsters are overjoyed at the prospect, are they not? Yes, they are not.

Preparations are being made for opening the schools September 5, two weeks from next Monday. The necessary repairs are being made on the school buildings, but there is very little work of this kind to be done, as all the houses are in good condition.

All vacancies in the teaching staff have been filled, but the assignments are yet to be made. This will probably be done early next month. Supt. Carpenter has called a meeting of the teachers for September 6, at which time the assignments will be made and plans for the year's work outlined.

It is believed that all records for attendance will be broken early this season, owing to the large number of new families that have moved in this summer. Many of the old men have been "baching" for some time have sent for their families and will become patrons of the Wichita Falls schools.

STREET TAX STILL BEING COLLECTED

THUS FAR 752 RECEIPTS HAVE BEEN ISSUED BY COLLECTORS—LAST YEARS TOTAL 942.

PAYMENT IS INEVITABLE

Some Ingenious Devices Resorted to to Escape But All Are Futile in End.

The works of collecting city street taxes for this year goes merrily on, and up to last night a total of 752 payments had found their way into the city's strong box. Last year a total of 942 paid their street tax, and it is believed that when action is secured on the warrants being issued today, that figure will be passed.

Over 200 summonses have been issued and failure to obey with them will be followed by an enforced visit to the city court and a fatherly rebuke by Mayor Bell, whose bright particular long suit is fatherly rebuking.

Collectors Brown and Ragdale are not finding their task an easy one, at all. The city did not begin to insist upon full collection of these street taxes until last year when it adopted more strict methods, so that this year the idea is to see the collector and doge him before he sees you. When he does see you, you can tell him a fictitious name and of course when the warrant is issued, it won't bother you much.

Collector Ragdale strolled blithely down into the railroad yards recently; it was just after railroad payday and no doubt the collector, in his imagination, saw the dollars rolling in to him in three dollar instalments, by the dozen. He found a crew of seven or eight making up a freight train near the round-house and he got busy. As soon as the railroad men realized who he was they piled onto one of the cars and the engineer proceeded to make the fabled Casey Jones look like a hostler just reporting for work. They lit out with some speed for the neighborhood of the cattlepens. The collector wasn't in any hurry; he had more time than money, so he picked out a shady spot alongside a freight car and sat down knowing that eventually the crew would have to come back to the round-house.

But he was wrong. Therailroad men sent a special emissary across Holliday creek and by a round-about path to the round-house, where orders were secured. Then they cut loose and passed the collector at a speed of forty-odd miles per hour, going across the river.

Slowly but surely, however the collections are being made and before the books for the year are closed it is hoped to have upwards of one thousand receipts issued.

There has been considerable talk of getting up a monster petition to ask to council to do away with the street tax so far as it applies to citizens who do not pay property tax. It is certain that such a petition would be signed by nearly everyone, and all that is lacking is some individual who is patriotic enough to devote some time to circulating the petition.

SWITCHMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED THIS A. M.

While engaged in switching box cars in the Fort Worth and Denver railroad yards this morning about ten thirty o'clock, Willie Copeland, a switchman, had the misfortune to slip and fall beneath the wheels of a refrigerator car with the result that he sustained injuries which may result in the amputation of one or both of his legs.

He was removed to the Wichita Sanitarium where an examination revealed a compound fracture of the right leg with numerous bruises, and a badly mashed left ankle. On both the left and right legs are numerous bruises of a more or less serious nature and other bruises were found on his body.

It seems that Copeland was engaged in switching cars and at the time of the accident was standing between two cars which he was attempting to couple. For some reason the engine began to move and Copeland was caught beneath the cars with the results above mentioned.

GOVERNOR WILSON IN SPLENDID HEALTH

He Attributes Good Health and Spirits to Satisfactory Beginning of Work of Campaign.

By Associated Press. Seagriff, N. J., Aug. 22.—Governor Woodrow Wilson drove across the lawn of the summer capitol today until he met his secretary, Joe Tumulty. "I wanted to see the Governor," you know I have never seen the inside of it." The governor has been so engrossed in work since his nomination that he has never found time to visit the busy office a few yards away where clerks and stenographers handled some of his mail.

When the governor came out of the office, his young cousin, James Woodrow, found him apparently so far free that he suggested a game of catch.

"I get the gloves," exclaimed the young man.

"I guess not," laughed the governor. "I am used to playing ball with my bare hands."

Governor Wilson has within the last week showed noticeable improvement in health and spirits. He attributes this to his satisfaction in the beginning of active work by the campaign committee and the organization of campaign details.

He planned to devote himself to correspondence today into which he said he had in the last few days made tremendous inroads.

By Associated Press. Moundsville, W. He did not write to tell her when he would return home but yesterday he quietly slipped into his mother's yard and tiptoed up to the window planning for a secret entrance.

Peering through the window he saw a dim light burning and saw his mother clothed in a shroud in her coffin. She had died on Sunday. Members of the family had been unable to locate young Crim not knowing where he was. The lad fainted and is in a serious condition from the shock.

NEW WELLS START AROUND PETROLIA

ACTIVITY IN OIL FIELD THERE IS NOW GREATEST IN THE FIELD'S HISTORY.

EXPECT DEVELOPMENTS

Wells Now Nearing Completion Will Have Important Bearing On Future Operations.

Special to the Times. Petrolia, Texas, Aug. 22.—There is much activity in the oil field here now and wells now drilling will extend the field in every direction.

Some of the new work being done or contracted follows:

W. W. Silk, manager for the Five Rivers Oil Co., was here this week and drove stakes for the location of a well on Byers Subdivision No. 36, one and a half miles northwest of this city. He also closed contracts for hauling the material out to the well and also for the digging of an earthen trench. Work is to start on this well at once. It is understood it will be drilled by the Henry Oil Co.

Developers Company is putting a standard rig over its No. 3 which so far has failed to flow oil and will clean it out thoroughly. The hole will also be shot. It is believed a good sand was drilled through with the rotary in this company's No. 2 and No. 3. After these holes are cleaned out work will be started on Developers No. 4. The location for the latter has not been announced.

Messrs. Bodley and Wantland have leased the west 100 acres of Block No. 37, Byers Subdivision.

J. W. Culbertson of Wichita Falls has just closed a lease on J. H. Smith's land northwest of Petrolia.

The Edmunds Oil Co. is much encouraged over the prospects for a good well on the T. A. Matlock lease three and a half miles southwest of town. W. H. Ellinger is drilling the well.

The Producers Co. is now in the sand on Byers No. 10. They have set the eight inch and have started the underreamer. The well is expected in a few days.

The Magnolia Petroleum Co. is down about 1900 feet in Site No. 1 and the indications are said to be very promising.

The Peoples Oil and Gas Company has moved its machinery to a location on the Kemper ranch three miles south of Petrolia and will begin drilling within a few days. This company has just finished up a big gas well on the Lockridge tract.

The Wichita Gas Co. is near the sand in their well on the Lockridge tract and expect to drill in a big gas well within a few days.

The Amarillo Oil and Gas Co. is down about 1400 feet in its well on the Joyce Subdivision, three miles south of Petrolia and the next week or ten days is expected to tell the tale in this hole.

The Magnolia Petroleum Co. is down about 1400 feet in its well on the Brummett-Ellis lease four miles south of town.

The Producers Co. is preparing to shut out the salt water in its Byers No. 7. This is said to be the best well in the field, but the salt water heretofore has been a bad handicap.

Brown and Shackelford are about 700 feet down in their well on the Schnell lease.

A large number of shallow wells are now drilling and the failures have been exceptional. These wells produce all the way from 5 to 30 barrels a day and the oil is found in most of them at less than 375 feet.

A big force is at work on the pipe line and more drilling is going on and there is more activity in leasing than at any time since the field was opened. Business in all lines is picking up in Petrolia.

Former President Declines to Add to Statement Relative to Penrose Charges.

By Associated Press. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 22.—"I hit hard; I never hit if I can help it but I never hit softly," said Col. Council of Grain Exchanges Crop Improvement Campaign

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 22.—A widespread campaign has been started for improvement in grain growing and marketing on a more intensive, scientific and business like basis, together with increased production per acre and increased acreage, by the Council of Grain Exchanges, composed of exchanges in many cities and supported in the movement by many large merchants of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, New York and other cities, who together with the exchanges are raising the necessary funds to carry out the project.

The Council of Grain Exchanges have sent out information, prospectus, preamble, constitution, by laws and blanks to the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association as the most representative and wide spread state organization representing business, agricultural and transportation interests. Extracts from the same embodying the chief points in condensed form are as follows:

"We have been authorized to offer the sum of $100,000 of which $1000 is to be given to each 100 counties in any state that will raise a fund sufficient to employ a permanent scientific agriculturist and farm demonstrator upon the following conditions:

Meeting of All Interests.
First: That a joint meeting be called by the commercial organization or organizations, business men, bankers and farmers. This meeting to be conducted by a member of the Crop Improvement Committee of the Council of Grain Exchanges, explaining the nature of the movement, and showing how, if proper methods of agriculture and marketing are introduced, that an annual increase of at least one-half million dollars may be added to the revenue of the county.

Crop Improvement Committee.
Second: That a committee on crop improvement and county development be appointed by the president of the commercial club; that the members of this committee shall not act ex-officio as chairman of the sub-committees on Ways and Means, Membership, Grain, Good Roads, Marketing Agriculture in the schools, Dairy Inspection, Landlord and tenant, etc.

Farmers Join Commercial Club.
Third: That a special section be added to the constitution and by-laws of the commercial club providing for an agricultural membership at a nominal fee per year, in order to obtain a widespread special membership placing the farmer upon a business basis, establishing him as a business man among business men.

The Local Fund.
Fourth: That the sum to be raised in each county should equal annually one per cent of all the tillable land in the county, or a minimum of $100 to be subscribed by farmers, landowners, elevators, country merchants, professional men, blacksmiths, hotels, etc. in each township.

Fifth: That an equal amount be contributed by the commercial club, merchants, manufacturers, bankers and business interests of the county which shall not be less than a minimum of $100 for each township in the county. This divides the financial responsibility equitably.

State Selects Man.
Sixth: That a trained agriculturist of business tact and judgment shall be employed by the committee as above set forth; who shall be recommended by or satisfactory to the Dean of the state college of Agriculture.

That this man shall be responsible only to the local committee, and the committee shall have power to control his actions or discharge him, according to the terms of the contract.

Employed Two or Three Years.
That this manager shall be employed for not less than two years, and preferably three years.

That the commercial club shall establish an office for him in a suitable location, preferably with the commercial club.

Kept Busy By Press.
That he must submit his plans to the local committee in writing at least one week in advance, stating in detail what is arranged for each day, and a copy of these plans must be furnished to the newspapers in the county, with a request that they be printed in advance.

Duties of the County Man.
His duties shall consist in general as adviser to any farmer in the county requiring his services; to organize farmers' clubs; to conduct corn clubs and other agricultural contests; to arrange for exhibits of agricultural products; to give practical demonstrations and instruction in crop rotation, soil building, farm management, and horticultural work in various parts of the county under ordinary conditions; to co-operate with the superintendent of county and city schools in teaching the rudiments of agriculture, particularly of seeds, so that the children may ultimately test all of the seeds to be planted on each farm in each school district.

Children in It Too.
That the children of the public schools shall be furnished with crop report blanks between harvest and seeding time, and each pupil be induced to obtain a written statement upon these blanks by a different farmer stating the number of acres devoted to each crop and the annual yield as per directions furnished.

Who Lowers the Average?
That these reports shall be classified and the results tabulated and published by the committees in charge. The object of this is to learn not only the total yield of the country but how much each individual adds to the total. That the manager shall make as many personal calls as his time will permit, and answer all inquiries on agricultural subjects by telephone, or in writing.

Seed Breeding Plots.
Seventh: That the manager lay out a practical schedule of farm practice for the county poor farm which shall be acceptable to the county supervisors, with a view of putting the farm on a self-sustaining basis. It shall be his duty also to establish seed plots, both on the county farm and in various parts of the county on private farms to breed up to the highest efficiency the variety of seed wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye or other products which may be best adapted to the soil and climate of the county, so that eventually a single uniform variety and grade of each grain may be established which may be shipped in carloads free from mixture of other grains and the seeds of noxious weeds.

Plan Very Elastic.
Eighth: While it is not incumbent upon the local committees or of the manager of the county farm bureau to put all of these recommendations into practice, it will define a line of procedure which will enable the county committee and Crop Improvement Committee of the Council of Grain Exchanges to make a satisfactory agreement."

to the early closing law did not in fact favor it from principle, but as a policy gave it endorsement. It was a concession to those honest and sincere pros who firmly believe that such regulation will be conducive to better government and who are willing to accept that for the time being and cease the further agitation of the liquor question. There are extremes on both sides—wild anti and fanatical pros—who will be disposed to complain and grumble and continue the agitation to the great hurt of the people; but the conservative element of the two factions has found a common ground and it is up to them to effectively silence the grumbler and the agitator. We are delighted to know that our neighbor, the Times, takes the view of the declaration it does, for it means we will soon be found marching shoulder to shoulder and battling for the cause of good government.—Denison Herald.

A MINISTER PRAISES COLQUITT.

San Antonio Express. Rev. J. H. Collard, prominent prohibitionist and close friend of Judge William F. Ramsey, says every friend of Ramsey should join in praise of Governor Colquitt's stand for platform pledges during the recent Democratic convention. Mr. Collard says: "No matter what men may say as to the motives that actuated him, still they are bound to admit that Oscar B. Colquitt did the fair thing in the state convention. Common honesty ought to show willingness to give him credit for his position on the liquor question, and his fearless stand when the very people who elected him went wild in their efforts to defeat the platform. I do not doubt that the majority of the anti-prohibitionists were against the 9:30 closing plank. They were not only plainly in the majority, but they were determined not to submit to their own steam-roller. Scores led the hall in the belief that the row could never be settled. "But Governor Colquitt took the stand and read them the riot act. He had made certain pledges to the people of the state and he proposed to stand by them. If the opposition were determined to vote down his platform, then in justice to the truth, in justice to himself, he would sign any bill the prohibitionists would pass in the legislature, even if it closed the saloons at 5 o'clock. The mob was awed into silence, and it had been left to an anti governor, and not to a prohibition crank to force the saloons into subjection. They are the men that have been telling us that Governor Colquitt had the courage of his convictions, and would not be browbeaten, and we are all now ready to agree with them. They have told us that he was the greatest governor Texas ever had. A dozen times during that convention such statements as that were applauded to the echo, and they shall not be allowed to eat their own words if we can help it. Principle Correct, He Says. "The truth is that prohibitionists have fought for principles that all fair-minded men were bound to admit correct, and although defeated in the statewide election, yet the anti victory was so small that men like Colquitt saw, and many of the anti who were prohibitionists from principle and were not allied with the saloons, determined to show to the world that the saloons could be regulated. Colquitt went before the people on that platform and won. Orators on the stump were careful to explain everywhere that the governor would himself inaugurate a plan for the regulation of the liquor business, and every saloon man in the crowd would applaud the statement. Prohibitionists who hesitated in supporting him were won over by that promise. The entire vote, in prohibition counties show this to be true. What else was to be done? No honest man could have made such promises and then deliberately violate them in drafting the platform. Colquitt was consistent. He was fair. He acted the man. Impugn his motives, who will, yet you are bound to admit he did the square thing. "Was Fair to Ramsey. "There was another incident in that convention that ought to appeal to every right-thinking man. It was the invitation of Judge Ramsey to address the convention. That invitation was made by the governor's floor manager. It was unusual; in fact, I have never seen it done before in all the political history of Texas. It was magnanimous—just like all American, and still more like a Texan. It ought to receive the praise of all prohibitionists everywhere. If we have believed that those who opposed us had no generosity, no magnanimity and none of the spirit of fair play; if we have thought that because they called us cranks and hypocrites and would ruthlessly take from us every right and rub over us a thousand steam rollers if only they got the chance, let this simple incident remind us that all fairness is not confined to our crowd; that these insulting epithets were hurled at us during the heat of a campaign, and that when the battle was over the anti's showed themselves as generous as we. "And now that a prohibitionist has said that much, it is in order for some anti to get up and praise Judge Ramsey. His speech, his advice, his whole deportment ought to appeal to every right-thinking man. He, too, had won. The principles for which he fought had been victorious, although in a modified form, and they were written by the hand that smote him. He did not skulk nor leave the state to get away from the humiliation of a steam roller. He came boldly before the convention with a smile; and when he was called to address the convention he advised his followers to stand by the nominee and vote solidly for his platform. "And now let all good Democrats go to work to roll up the greatest Democratic majority ever polled in Texas for Wilson and Marshall." CURRENT COMMENT VOTERS POLLED IN CLEVELAND. The Press reporters interviewed 1513 Cleveland men this week—on street corners, street cars, and in hotel and theatre lobbies, and asked them whom they favored for president. "Wilson," was the answer of 764. Six hundred and three named Roosevelt. Only 146 chose Taft. Wilson was the favorite in 11 to 16 places where the poll was taken. Teddy had the edge on Wilson in Public Square, Star theatre, Euclid avenue downtown East One Hundred and 5th street and East Fifty-fifth street. In no place was Taft the favorite.—Cleveland Press.

The Speech and the Jury.

Clarence Darrow, one of the most brilliant criminal lawyers in America, has been acquitted of the charge of bribery as an outgrowth of the McNamara case. A Los Angeles jury declared Mr. Darrow not guilty after one of the hardest fought cases in the history of California, and of late this state has been making some vivid history. Perhaps Mr. Darrow had much to do with the greatest victory in his career as a jurist—that of exonerating by twelve good men and true of using his place as a member of the court to prostitute justice. Mr. Darrow made the closing plea for the defense. He did not neglect to add human interest to the story of his life. He used all the other oratorical arts of the criminal lawyer to convince the jury that an innocent man was before the bar of the court. We presume the evidence was strong enough to establish Mr. Darrow's innocence beyond a doubt but how much more complete would have been the victory had more eloquence played a smaller part? The jury has spoken. The prosecution could not convince the twelve men that the brilliant and able Darrow was a jury tamperer. The prosecution, like the defense, placed much dependence not in the evidence, but in the eloquence of its attorneys when the climax of the battle came. District Attorney Frederick turned his final speech to be in sympathy with the hearts of the jury. It was a battle of eloquence. When a man is forced into court he must frequently look up a lawyer who can speak in simile and allegory. So often he forgets to look up that thoughtful, retiring and so-called "office lawyer" who could have advised him how to stay out of court in the beginning.—Dallas Times-Herald.

SOME TECHNICALITIES.

Walter Jones is sentenced in Montgomery to be hanged September 13, but sentence has been suspended to await the result of an appeal to the Supreme Court. Some of the grounds for asking for a new trial were of a kind that arouse outcry against the prevalence of technicalities in criminal procedure. One was that a juror talked with the sheriff at a distance from the other jurors, not, however, having gotten out of the custody of that sworn officer of the law; another, that the defendant was indicted as Sigan or Ed Rowan, and was not known as Ed; another, that the diagram of the car in which the murder took place was inaccurately drawn; and still another that the county solicitor's speech excited applause from the assembly in court. The judge overruled all motions. The appeal, however, will be prosecuted on just such technical objections as above mentioned. No one would refuse the accused every right allowed by law; nor is there any wish to criticize the accused's attorneys for availing themselves of every weapon. The blame is upon the law and the customs of courts. If we wish to see justice expedited, we must have a reform of these.—Mobile Register.

STILL A REPORTER AT 80.

James Norwell, the veteran Yonkers newspaper man who boasts he is the oldest reporter in the business, celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday. He has just rounded out fifty years as a reporter. Norwell is hale and hearty and despite his advanced age, and still writes for a Yonkers newspaper. Just before the Civil War he entered the employ of the Yonkers Herald as a reporter. After the war he worked for the Yonkers Statesman and was on its staff forty years. Following his custom for fifty years he presented the Yonkers newspaper men with watermelons in honor of the occasion. Mrs. I. A. The one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Many sportsmen are finding that plover are now quite numerous in the fields and pastures surrounding this city, and every afternoon a number of local hunters drive out from town to engage in the sport of plover hunting. So far as can be learned, the great majority of these return with well filled bags, and the plover at this season of the year are especially fat and palatable.

FAME OF WICHITA HAS GONE ABROAD

Chamber of Commerce Receives Communication From A. Marks At Bad Langenswalbch. The fame of Wichita Falls has soared across the waters into far-away Germany. The Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from A. Marks in Germany, stating that he contemplates going to this country and settling somewhere in the West. He wants to go into either the banking or wholesale grocery business and makes inquiries regarding such business here. Mr. Marks is now at Bad Langenswalbch, at least that is the name on his letter head. The letter is post marked at Priesen, where there are mineral springs and it may be that the other name is German for some of the ailments treated there. The Chamber of Commerce will endeavor to have Mr. Marks locate here. Recently a resident of Venezuela wrote the Chamber of Commerce that he was coming here to live and it appears that Wichita Falls' fame has penetrated to more than one distant land.

LIGHT SHOWERS FALL SOUTH OF THE CITY

Light Rains Fall Along the Valley From Holiday to Stamford. Only Sprinkle Here. The country south and southwest of Wichita Falls was visited by light showers last night, according to reports received at local railroad offices. This rain is opportune for both cotton and late feed crops. Locally there was only a light spatter of rain, but there was enough lightning, thunder and wind to make everyone believe that a storm was on the way. Practically all points on the Valley from Holiday south to Stamford and west to Spirit report rains, ranging from light drizzles to good showers. Points on the Wichita Falls & Southern also received good rains, as did Byers and Peoria on that branch of the Valley. Fred Worth was the only point on the Denver reporting rain. The electrical display here was a spectacular one and was accompanied about 10:30 by a high wind and a few drops of rain. The sky was overcast with dark clouds which gave every promise of rain, but they were completely dissipated before morning.

TWO AMERICANS ARE DELIBERATELY MURDERED

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—Two Americans are reported to have been deliberately murdered in the massacre of Nicaraguan troops by the rebels at Leon on August 19. One was said to be Harry Dodd of Mississippi and the other a man named Phillips. The two men had been wounded and were seeking refuge in a hospital, according to a report received today at the State Department. They were said to have been fighting with the government troops. After the defeat they were taken to a hospital and killed in the massacre which followed. The State Department is pressing for more information. A delayed dispatch from Corinto today says the rebels are taking that town. They are reported to have captured a large plantation and a military containing $5,000,000 worth of alcohol.

ESCORT ARRIVES FOR AMERICAN MINERS.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 22.—Governor Colquitt was today advised by wire that the Mexican escort has arrived at Pominal to protect the American miners there and it will take them to the coast at once. Governor Colquitt had interested with President Madero in their behalf. Poor Cotton Around Brownsville. Brownsville, Texas, Aug. 22.—The Chamber of Commerce of this city has been investigating crop conditions in this county and reports that the yield of cotton this season will fall below all previous years. The boll weevil and the army worm have been at work quite extensively and in parts of the county the cotton is badly damaged. It is estimated that less than 12,000 bales of cotton will be produced in the entire valley.

SIXTY HAVE ALREADY SIGNED FOR EXCURSION

Many Have Voluntarily Telephoned Their Names for Trade Trip On August 29th. Already more than sixty have signed up for the trade excursion to Wellington August 29th and the committee has not greatly exercised itself. Many of the signers have phoned their names voluntarily to the secretary. Practically all arrangements for the trip have been made. The caps to be worn were wired for yesterday and to be on the safe side the committee ordered a hundred and fifty, although a hundred and twenty-five excursionists are all that are needed to make up the party. Telegrams have been received from several towns along the route announcing that the excursion party will receive royal receptions. The excursion train will be turned over to the Young Men's Progressive League on the afternoon of the 28th so that it may be decorated. There will be forty-foot banners on each side of the front coach, bearing the words, "Young Men's Progressive League, Wichita Falls." There will be large pennants, appropriately worded, fluttering from the standards of the engine, and bunting and flags will be everywhere in evidence. The decorations will be turned over to Mike Benson and he has pledged himself to do it up brown. Many of those who have already signed up to make the trip have already provided suitable advertising matter and the general literature to be used advertising Wichita Falls and the September celebration will shortly be prepared. Those who desire to go are urgently requested to phone the secretary at No. 965 at once. It is absolutely necessary that the personnel of the party be made up not later than Saturday afternoon. If further information is desired, phone the same number. As has been heretofore stated, the trip will cost each participant $3.25, this paying for railroad fare, expense of hand, caps, badges, etc. The train will carry a baggage car in which meals will be served and it will not be necessary to make a stop anywhere for this service. MORRIS SHEPPARD MAY SPEAK HERE

Accepts Invitation to Deliver Unveiling Address Here Early in November. Morris Sheppard of Texarkana, the new senator from Texas, may come to Wichita Falls in November to address the citizens here. John T. Young, who was very active in Mr. Sheppard's behalf before the primary, wrote to him recently, inviting him to come here and the following reply has been received: "Texarkana, Tex., Aug. 19, 1912.—My Dear Friend: On my return from San Antonio, where I attended the State Democratic convention, I find your letter of August 14, extending me an invitation to come to Wichita Falls and deliver an unveiling address some time during the summer or fall. I appreciate more than I can express the very kind invitation you and the other sovereigns at Wichita Falls have extended me, and it will afford me very great pleasure to be with you on Sunday, November 10, if this date is satisfactory to all concerned. I shall leave here in a few days for an extended rest and during the fall I shall make an extended speaking tour in behalf of the Democratic National ticket. I shall probably not be in Texas until the early part of November. Please let me know if Sunday, November 10, is satisfactory to you and the other sovereigns of Wichita Falls. If you will arrange with the ministers of Wichita Falls to have a union meeting, I shall be very glad to deliver my address on "Christian Citizenship" at such meeting. Of course I do not know whether such a service could be arranged, but if the ministers of your city desire to have me deliver the address under these conditions, I shall certainly be most pleased to do so. I shall be glad if you will let me know as soon as you can regarding the arrangements both for the unveiling and also for the Christian Citizenship address. "With every good wish and assuring you that I shall never forget the splendid service you rendered me during my candidacy for the Senate, I am, Yours very sincerely, "MORRIS SHEPPARD."

By Associated Press. New York, Aug. 22.—Four police inspectors and two civilians were involved in corruption that netted them hundreds of thousands of dollars from gambling houses and resorts, according to information which District Attorney Whitman will lay before Justice Goff when the John Doe inquiry is begun as a corollary of the Rosenthal inquiry. The inquiry will be of such scope that those declining to testify will be sent to jail. It is expected to develop information that could not be gained in trials of men accused as Rosenthal's slayers.

LOVE FLED WITH YOUNG MAN'S HONOR

On Day She Was To Wed, Pearl Knight, Disillusioned, Gives Up Her Romance.

Iola, Kansas, Aug. 22.—The one ray of hope to which William W. Knight clung as the solace for his term in prison for burglary is gone. Miss Pearl Knight, daughter of a Savonburg farmer, to whom Knight was engaged to be married this afternoon, announced that her betrothal with Knight was at an end.

"But Knight insists that he loves you dearly; that he yielded to temptation under eagerness to hurry the day when you might join him in a happy home; that he is penitent and will lead a truthful and honest life hereafter," Miss Knight was told.

"Won't you stay by him in his hour of trial?" "Certainly not," snapped Miss Knight. "Why should I stay by him? Hasn't he brought all this upon himself? I'll not lift a hand to help him. He is so gentlemanly and so good while with me that I could not believe ill of him until he confessed."

"Then you'll not even come to see him before he is taken to the penitentiary?" "I certainly will not. I don't want anything further to do with him."

That was the information received by the under sheriff, Edward J. Dunfee, from Miss Knight at Savonburg in response to a pathetic plea from Knight that the officer telephone to the girl and ask her to come to Iola. A commitment was issued for the prisoner this afternoon and Sheriff Kerr will take him to Lansing at once.

Knight was at Lincoln, Kas., when he saw Miss Pearl Knight's signature to a letter in a farm paper. That was four months ago. Correspondence that began then led Knight closer to the vicinity of his sweetheart's home and he found work at Chanute.

The wedding day was set; he had the home ready and furnished; then came the temptation to steal that the home might be equipped quickly with a full complement of necessities. Officers readily traced the burglary to Knight and he was arrested. He at once pleaded guilty and was taken before Judge Oscar Foust, who sentenced him to serve a term of from one to five years in the state prison.

When Miss Knight was almost prostrated when her fiancé was arrested for theft, she at first believed him innocent. When Knight confessed, her faith in him faltered and finally flickered out with the announcement of the prison sentence.

When Knight was told that his sweetheart had deserted him, he gritted his teeth and said he supposed he would have to go it alone.

Logic in Women's Demands. Collier's Weekly.

With each succeeding year of development more of the hasty generalizations concerning woman's usefulness for a life of affairs are relegated to the pleasant land of myths. One of the last of that woman's inability to see with same and unexaggerated feelings a public issue for which her enthusiasm is very much aroused. Many still expect a movement supported almost entirely by women to be conducted with hysteria. The Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association has just sent out a circular letter to its members and others whose financial assistance it wishes to enlist. The letter reads:

A county, a people, must progress if

It is to continue strong. We believe that woman's suffrage is part of the progressive movement toward a more efficient and real democracy.

We believe that mothers and home need the vote to protect their financial interests.

We believe that mothers and home make need the vote to enable them to effect legislation concerning sanitary conditions, food supply, educational and moral conditions.

We believe that working women need the vote to give them power to effect legislation determining the conditions and hours of their work.

We believe that the state needs to utilize directly the knowledge and experience of women in those matters of social welfare in which they are especially interested, just as it needs to utilize directly the knowledge and experience of men in those matters in which they are especially interested.

We believe that a representative government should represent all classes of a community which cannot be definitely shown to be a menace to the community.

That is all, except a few simple details concerning the sending of remittances. How many man managed organizations have surpassed this for sanity, clarity, restraint, and completeness in the statement of a complex and difficult issue?

Colors For Fall Hats. (Millinery Trade Review)

In regard to colorings, the new fuchsia shade that one sees a great deal of seems to run through many of the materials and trimmings used for fall. A renewal of the Coque de Roche or burnt orange shade is noted, and while white and black, with white predominating, bids fair to come in for a large share of popularity, the brighter colors of fuchsia and amber, which are worthy of particular attention, along with royal blue and brown with touches of gold, all appear to vie with one another for first place.

The time has come when the selection of colors and styles is so varied that the purchaser may use that which is most becoming and still have a large selection from which to choose any number of hats.

WOMEN'S VOTES AMOUNT TO CONSIDERABLE FIGURE.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Figures on the expected Roosevelt vote, compiled in the Hotel LaSalle headquarters today, show that in the Progressive lineup the ballots of women are expected to make a generous showing of some 7 per cent of the popular vote.

This is deduced by figuring the vote in states where women have suffrage and followed by the assumption that practically all the votes of the women will go to Roosevelt. If these figures are any criterion the women should cast a million votes on the basis of a total popular vote of 14 million, being polled.

The suffragist voting strength was not estimated lightly, but it was not until Lauriston Ward, head of the literary bureau, got busy with paper and pencil that the heavy percentage which it may form of the vote of the entire country became apparent. Six states in which women have full suffrage was taken and their vote for the 1908 election shown to be:

Table with 2 columns: State and Votes. Utah 108,611; Washington 183,897; Wyoming 37,609.

Total 1,077,861. The total vote for the country that year was 14,887,133. The vote from the suffrage states was a little more than 7 per cent of the total.

The estimate for the November election is made by assuming that women voting in these states this year the total will be more than doubled. However, the statisticians admit that probably some women may not vote the Progressive ticket, and allowing for these defections reduce Roosevelt's share roughly to the vote in 1908. Out of the 531 electoral votes thirty-six will come from the six suffrage states. They will make up close to 14 per cent of the 266 electoral votes.

DR. H. A. WALLER, Dentist

Office: Room 207 Kemp & Kell Building. Phone 836.

I take pleasure in announcing to my former friends and patrons that my office is now open, on 4th floor Kemp & Kell building. My new office is equipped with all the latest sanitary dental appliances known to modern dentistry, including two full sets of instruments and an electric sterilizer. This enables me to use sterilized instruments on each patient. It is a well known fact that many contagious diseases, such as tuberculosis, diphtheria, pyorrhea, (that dreaded disease which causes the teeth to become loose and fall out commonly known as scurvy) and many blood diseases can be transmitted from the mouth of one patient to that of another by the dentist.

I wish to announce to the people of Wichita Falls that I have recently returned from Chicago, where I completed a special course in orthodontia, and am now prepared to treat all malformations of the mouth; namely: crooked, crowded and protruding teeth. There is no longer need for any one to go through life with these facial deformations. This work should be attended to early in life. Will examine and discuss cases of orthodontia on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons only.

It affords me great satisfaction to give my patrons this safeguard. Soliciting a renewal of your liberal patronage of past years, I beg to remain, Yours sincerely,

DR. H. A. WALLER.
