WANTED ECHO OF TIMES' OUTRAGE

CHARGED THAT McNAMARA'S PLOTTED EXPLOSION ON ATLANTIC COAST

HOCKIN AN INFORMANT

Secretary of Iron Workers Union "Peached" as Soon as Government Began Investigation

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 5.—Five days after the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times building, when twenty-one persons were killed, a plot was considered by the McNamara to cause a similar explosion on the Atlantic coast.

United States District Attorney Miller, conducting the prosecution of the so-called "dynamite plotters" so asserted in delivering the government's outline of the case before the jury today. Mr. Miller said Orville McManigal had been selected to do the job and was sent to Massachusetts.

Mr. Miller's narrative of this particular charge was as follows:

"McManigal had been down to Highbridge, Kentucky, to see about blowing up a structure there. He reached Indianapolis on the morning of October 2. That was the day after the Los Angeles Times was blown up. McManigal first read about it in an Indianapolis paper. He immediately called up the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and talked to John J. McNamara on the telephone.

"McNamara said 'come over here.' McManigal went right over and said, 'Did you read about that Los Angeles job? Do you know who did it, and was it some of those fellows on the Pacific Coast?' he asked McManigal.

"I don't know," McNamara answered.

"McManigal asked McNamara whether he had heard from Jim, meaning James McNamara. John J. reached over to his desk and got a post card picture of the Times building or of a sign near the Times building which said, 'The Times for the News.'

"James B. had written beneath it, 'It will soon be the news for the Times.'

"I received that post card several days ago but haven't heard anything further," added John J. On October 5, McManigal again asked John J. whether he had heard anything from James B. and John J. answered, 'Yes, he's all right; he was a hundred miles away when the Times explosion occurred. Now what I want is an echo of the Times explosion in the East so as to make 'em sit up, but I want you to change that alias to J. W. McCreary. It's been hanging around you too long. That's the trouble with J. B. He has been hanging on to J. B. Brice too long and now they are looking for J. B. Brice on the Pacific Coast.'

"It was then arranged for McManigal to cause the echo of the Times disaster."

Mr. Miller said McManigal traveled about the East with explosives in a suit case finally blowing up a railroad bridge at Worcester, Mass., on October 10.

Showing, as he said, that the officials and executive board members of the Iron Workers Union were aware of the explosion and were appropriating money for the expense of carrying them on Mr. Miller quoted from books which he said were taken from the union's headquarters.

These records, he declared, showed that $11,000 was appropriated at a meeting of the executive board held in Indianapolis December 8, 1905, and was paid out at the rate of $100 monthly to John J. McNamara, with a specific understanding that McNamara was to assist in defraying the expenses of dynamiting and that McNamara drew on the fund regularly up to and after the Times disaster.

Newspaper clippings giving accounts of explosions. Mr. Miller said, were accepted as proof that the work had been done and upon which the regular fee for each job of $200 was paid to McManigal in one instance in the blowing up of a contractor's work in Indianapolis. Miller said it would be shown that E. B. Basse, a local business agent, also a defendant, told people the night before "watch the newspapers in the morning; something is going to happen."

SAN ANGELO MEN IN AUTO ACCIDENT

John Chambers Will Probably Die From Injuries—Five Others Hurt

By Associated Press. San Angelo, Texas, Oct. 5.—John M. Chambers, Sam Hodges, Bill C. Lee, P. L. Huggins, Felix Dudley and John Abe March, cattlemen and merchants were victims of an auto accident at 2 o'clock this morning. Chambers probably will die. Chambers had his right shoulder broken, his lungs crushed and was otherwise injured. Bill C. Lee was cut about the head and March sustained a broken ankle. Huggins has a broken rib and the others escaped with minor injuries. The party was enjoying a ride about the city and in coming down a steep hill at high speed the machine struck the railing of a bridge across the Concho and dropped 30 feet turning over. Chambers came to West Texas several years ago to take charge of a ranch left him by his grandmother.

ALL READY FOR MONDAY SALES DAY

Although Farmers are Busy in the Fields a Fair Attendance is Expected

While the farmers generally are so busy in the cotton fields that they will leave them only a short time, a fair attendance is expected at the First Monday Sales Day here tomorrow and it is probable much live stock will change hands.

A number of out of town buyers will be here and there is little doubt but that everything offered will be sold at fair prices.

NEW YORK GANG LEADER KILLED

BIG JACK ZELIG, ROSENTHAL MURDER WITNESS, SHOT TO DEATH ON STREET CAR

ASSASSIN WAS ARRESTED

Killer Claims he is Fruit Dealer and That Zelig Robbed Him—Whitman Investigating

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 5.—"Big Jack Zelig," the East Side gang leader whose name figured in the early stages of the Rosenthal murder investigation, was shot and killed on the East Side tonight. Phillip Davidson, a fruit dealer, pistol in hand, was arrested as he was running away from the scene.

The East Side gang leader and prospective witness in the trial of Police Lieut. Chas. Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, which will open Monday, was seated in a Second Avenue open trolley car when Davidson, who says he is a fruit dealer, jumped on the running board and fired the fatal shot.

Davidson leaped from the car and ran away, but was caught, pistol in hand. He admitted the shooting and declared it was for revenge the police say.

According to the prisoner, Zelig had held him up at the point of a revolver late today in an East Side hallway and robbed him of $400. The police were at a loss whether to believe Davidson's story and at a late hour reports that Zelig had been lured to the scene of the shooting by a telephone message were being investigated. Patrons of a Second Avenue restaurant some distance away told that Zelig, who was in that neighborhood earlier in the evening, had received a telephone call from some one who made an appointment to meet him at Fourteenth street and Second Avenue.

Zelig jumped on the car, the story ran, and a few minutes later word flashed back to the restaurant that he had been shot. Zelig mortally wounded, was rushed to a hospital, but died in the ambulance. On his body the police say only $2.34 was found, although a well dressed woman, whose identity was not learned, visited the Bellevue morgue not long after Zelig's death and asked the authorities to turn over to her $500 which she said Zelig had in his possession when he was shot. The woman was detained by the morgue authorities, they stated. The police also detained Hyman Givert, East Side resident, as a material witness. Givert says he saw the shooting.

Little is known about Davidson.

3 ORDINANCES WERE PASSED

SCAVENGER, FIRE LIMITS AND SIGN ORDINANCE PLACED UPON FINAL READING AND ADOPTED

ORDER BOND ELECTION

November 5th Date for $12,000 Street Lights and $10,000 Sewer Extension Bond Election

At an adjourned session Friday evening the city council finally adopted ordinances extending the fire limits, creating the office of city scavenger, and regulating the erection and maintenance of signs, awnings and banners and ordered an election to vote upon the issuance of $12,000 street and light improvement bonds and $10,000 bonds for the extension of sewers.

As announced in Friday's paper the election will be held on the day of the regular election, November 5, and the balloting will be one at the city hall.

The sign ordinance provides that no sign, banner or awning shall hang nearer than seven feet above the street or sidewalk, and prohibits the erection or maintenance of swinging or hanging signs. Signs and awnings already erected which are contrary to the provisions of the ordinance shall be removed or changed after three days notice from the city authorities.

Where it is impossible to erect one than hanging or swinging signs, an exception may be made provided the consent of three members of council and mayor is obtained. The ordinance provides a penalty not to exceed $50.

The office of city scavenger is created by another ordinance. The salary of this official is placed at $200 per annum. The ordinance also regulates the cleaning of privies, the removal of dead animals, etc. It provides that privies must be cleaned not less frequently than once a month and fixes the charge at fifty cents a month payable to the city secretary, six months in advance.

The third ordinance extends the fire limits to include the territory from Sixth to Tenth street from the railroad to the alley between Scott and Lamar avenues.

W.F.&N.W. UNIT IN A BIG SYSTEM?

FINANCIAL AUTHORITY SAYS WICHITA FALLS ROUTE LINK IN TRANSCONTINENTAL LINE

CANADA TO THE GULF

Moffat Road and Denver, Northwestern and Pacific Also Unites in System

That the Wichita Falls & Northwestern is destined to become a unit in a system which will eventually extend from Canada to the Gulf and be part of a new and great railroad system is the prediction contained in an article written recently by "Holland," the New York financial authority. The following excerpt from the article is furnished by the Young Men's Progressive League:

"The Wichita Falls & Northwestern railroad is a part of a system of railroad alliances and unification which when completed will create a through Canada to the Gulf road such as James J. Hill has worked out. The Wichita Falls & Northwestern has long been identified with the Katy and is now a Katy property. The Wichita Falls route has been building rather rapidly toward Denver and is now to the Kansas line. It runs in the general direction of the Fort Worth & Denver railroad, maintaining a distance of about seventy-five miles from that road.

"Newman Erb has acquired the Moffat road and the Denver, Northwestern and Pacific Railroad, as a part of this unification plan. Erb, with his associates, control the Katy, the Minneapolis, St. Louis and Iowa Central roads. With the Canadian Northern, this group can be brought into close traffic alliance at the boundary. Erb is expected to build the connect road from the Hawley road terminal at..."

GLASS MAKING TO START SATURDAY

WORK IS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN IN THE WINDOW GLASS PLANT AT MIDNIGHT FRIDAY

BOTTLE PLANT IS DELAYED

It Will Probably Not Start for Two Weeks Yet—Window Glass Plant Almost Ready

The first window glass will be blown in Wichita Falls next Saturday morning. Work in the window glass factory will begin at midnight Friday, according to the announcement of Superintendent Shaw. Work will be continued in day and night shifts.

The past week had great progress in finishing up the plant preliminary to actual work in making glass and everything promises to be in readiness for the start Friday night. Fires in the furnaces have been burning steadily all week and the great lumps of broken glass are now congealed and will soon be of a molasses like consistency.

The start at the bottle glass factory will probably be delayed for several weeks yet on account of a delay in the shipment of materials.

The making of glass with the gatherers toiling before the glowing furnaces and the blowers swinging huge cylinders of molten glass over their pits and other activities of the big factory will furnish a most interesting sight for visitors at the factory.

While it will probably be necessary to place restrictions upon admittance into the factory later on it is probable at the start the factory will be open to visitors.

THREE KILLED IN GASOLINE LAUNCH EXPLOSION

By Associated Press. Gadsden, Ala., Oct. 5.—Three men were killed today by the explosion of a gasoline launch near Guntersville on the Tennessee River. They were A. Powell, Tom Dosssett and an unidentified laborer. All were employees of the HRT Lumber Company. A farmer saw the boat on the river and the next instant he heard the explosion. He ran to the bank and saw three hats floating on the surface. The boat and the three men had been blown to atoms.

TWO DEMOCRATIC LEADERS MEET

WILSON AND BRYAN GIVEN MAGNIFICENT OVATION AT LINCOLN SATURDAY

AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Wilson Says Bryan Set the Party Free to Serve the People—Bryan Speaks

Lincoln, Oct. 5.—"Hello, Mr. Bryan, Hello, Mr. Bryan."

"Welcome, welcome, Governor."

With these words alone, a cordial handshake brought together here tonight for the first time since the national campaign opened the presidential nominee of the democratic party and the one who three times was the standard bearer.

As the governor stepped from his private car almost into the arms of Mr. Bryan there was a din of cheers. Gov. Wilson and Mr. Bryan finally made their way to an automobile and to an accompaniment of blowing whistles, tooting automobile horns and band music they rode together through crowds along the streets for blocks.

There were cries for "Bryan" and "Wilson" and "Wilson and Bryan."

"This is great," said the governor, as he turned to Mr. Bryan frequently.

"Fine," was Mr. Bryan's reply.

For nearly an hour the parade continued and the crowd increased until the two took refuge in a hotel. It was a strenuous day for Gov. Wilson, as his reception in Omaha where he made five speeches kept him busy every minute of the time from 9 a. m. to 3:45 p. m.

Democrats of every faction in Nebraska, harmonized in the welcome. Secretary Hitchcock, Mayor Dahman of Omaha and others who opposed the nomination of Gov. Wilson, took part in the demonstration.

Gov. Wilson and Mr. Bryan spoke at a banquet of the democratic state committee. Gov. Wilson thanked Mr. Bryan.

WILL CHARTER HAVE RECALL?

ATTITUDE OF GOVERNOR MAY KEEP POPULAR MEASURES OUT OF NEW CHARTER

VETO WOULD BE FEARED

Colquitt's Signature, it is Believed, Could not be Obtained If These Measures are Included

Can Wichita Falls have the initiative, referendum and recall in the new city charter now being written? If the commission form of government is decided upon, it is fairly certain that these features will be part of the charter, which gives rise to the question of whether the governor would approve it.

It will be remembered that at the last session of the Legislature, Governor Colquitt vetoed several city charters which provided for the initiative, referendum and recall, announcing his unalterable opposition to these measures. As he will have to sign the Wichita Falls charter, this city may not have these desirable direct legislation sections in its new charter.

Some of the Texas cities under the commission form have charters without these features, but they are so generally adopted with the commission form that they have come to be considered part and parcel of it.

The absence from the city of two members of the charter sub-committee, A. H. Hrifain and R. E. Huff, has prevented much progress accomplished so far, although F. W. Householder, the remaining member of the sub-committee, has done considerable of the detail work. It is probable that the committee will get down to work again early this week.

18 ARE INJURED IN DERAILMENT OF THE SUNSET LIMITED

By Associated Press. Lake Charles, La., Oct. 5.—Eighteen persons were more or less seriously injured when the Sunset Mail, the fast eastbound train of the Southern Pacific railroad, was derailed near Midland, Louisiana, at 1:10 this morning. Six cars turned over, including the mail and baggage car, negro coach, two days coaches and a tourist sleeper.

CALEB BRAGG WINS THE GRAND PRIZE

WEALTHY YOUNG CINCINNATI DRIVER FIRST IN FOURTH INTERNATIONAL AUTO RACE

DE PALMA BADLY HURT

In Desperate Spurt to Win Famous Driver Collides With Car Ahead and May Die

By Associated Press. Racecourse, Watausau, Wis., Oct. 5.—Caleb Bragg, a wealthy Cincinnati driver, today won the fourth international grand prize automobile road race with a Fiat car, after a sensational finish last lap, crash, in which Ralph De Palma's Mercedes car was overturned and De Palma seriously injured.

Bragg captured the race from a field of twelve starters, which included the country's most widely known drivers of heavy cars. Only six cars finished. Bragg's speed averaged for the race was 59.3 miles per hour as against the late Bruce Brown's average of 74.7 miles an hour in last year's grand prize event at Savannah, Georgia.

He covered the distance 409 miles, 46.16 feet in five hours, 59 minutes and 25 seconds.

At Trinity hospital Milwaukee where De Palma and his mechanic, Tom Alley, were rushed, it was said that De Palma in addition to suffering broken limbs suffered a puncture of the abdomen and is in serious condition. Alley is said to have suffered a broken shoulder.

Bragg drove a consistent race. He never was back further than third place at any stage of the long run. He was in the lead during the running of thirty laps of the 50 laps contest. During the first eighty miles, Teddy Tezloff led the field, but Bragg and De Palma were close behind him all the time.

After elimination of Tezloff by a minor accident to the Fiat car in the 24th mile, the race settled down to a driving duel between Bragg and De Palma. The latter led for only four laps. However, when De Palma jumped into second place after Tezloff's withdrawal he was eight minutes

DEMONSTRATION BY UNDERWORLD

1300 WOMEN FROM THE "LEVEE DISTRICT" PARADE FASHIONABLE CHICAGO AVENUE

IN THE GAUDIEST ATTIRE

Some Weeping, Some Laughing, Some Worse for Drink, Others Brazen, Mingle With the Crowds

By Associated Press. Chicago, Oct. 5.—Chicago's south side "levee" for forty years a brightly lighted crowded quarter in the heart of the city, tonight was dark and deserted for the first time since the fire of 1872. The levee is populated, according to statistics collected by the Vice Commission, with four thousand citizens, twenty-two hundred of whom are women of the class against which the city and federal legal campaign is being waged.

Closed by numerous arrests during the last three days and dreading those threatened by city detectives and United States marshals who are working together, the proprietors of resorts today decided to spread the social pariahs through the city. State Attorney Wayman declared he would blot the "levee" out before December 1.

Dive keepers today decided that Wayman meant it. They turned their inmates into the streets and ordered them to seek lodging in other parts of town. They closed their houses and dance halls and fled, some to the west and north side tenderloins, some to other cities, many to residential quarters. The homeless inmates of the resort to the humber of nearly 1500 poured out into Michigan boulevard the main artery of communication north and south thoroughfare for a fashionable parade every day. It is stated many women had been ordered by resort keepers to dress themselves in their gaudiest dresses, to paint their faces with extra brilliancy and to go out and find other places to live "for the present at least."

It was intended that the exodus should be a demonstration of what it would mean to the city to have the segregated vice area broken up and the inhabitants driven to mingle with the rest of the population.

The gaudy women left the tenderloin in beves, passing the procession of motor cars filled with women and children from the residential parts of the city and mingling with the well dressed strollers along "automobile row." There were tottering old hags and many young girls in the beves, some were weeping, some laughing, some the worse for liquor, others brazen. Late tonight most of them had found shelter. Many of the frequent

FOUR AMERICAN MARINES KILLED

FATALITIES RESULT WHEN ADMIRAL SUTHERLAND FORCE TOOK BOYOTEPE

FIGHTING WAS DESPERATE

American Forces, 1,000 Strong, Now Advancing on Leon, Remaining Rebel Stronghold

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Four American marines were killed and six were wounded, yesterday when the American forces took the town of Boyotepe from the Nicaraguans, according to a cablegram received early today by Minister Castillo, from Chamorro, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Nicaragua. The cablegram was dated Managua, October 4. It says:

"Manaya taken today by assault. We have one hundred dead, two hundred wounded. Americans early took Coyotepe with four dead and six wounded. Corea simultaneously took Barranca. Zeledon fled with followers and was captured eight leagues from Chamorro, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Nicaragua. The cablegram was dated Managua, October 4. It says:

"CHAMAOU." Zeledon, spoken of in the cablegram is a rebel general, a Honduran, in the employ of Mena, the fallen dictator recently captured and taken to Panama for exile. Though the lives of Americans have been sacrificed and others have been wounded in what appears to have been one of the most sanguinary battles fought in Central America in many years, yet technically the United States is not engaged in war.

As defined by the State Department the status of the relations between the United States and Nicaragua is one of friendship. What Rear Admiral Sutherland has done in opposing Nicaraguan rebels is declared to have been purely in pursuance of a duty imposed on the navy many times in the history of Central America, that of forcibly protecting American lives and property as well as of the citizens of European nations.

The admiral has strictly refrained from intervening in any way between the warring factions in Nicaragua and has confined himself entirely to the opening of railway communication and maintaining it free from interruption so that the large foreign element scattered through the Nicaraguan towns might be able to receive food. For nearly a week after the American naval forces managed to open the way from Managua to Grenada where the conditions of foreigners was pitiful. Gen. Zeledon's rebel forces entrenched on two hills at Barranca, actually commanded the line of communication by rail, and interfered with the free movement of supplies and prevented the unfortunate sufferers of famine from making their escape to places of safety.

Admiral Sutherland had several interviews with the rebel chieftain after the surrender, but found that Zeledon was not only determined to refuse any offer of amnesty, but determined to retain the position he occupied.

Revolution not Ended Yet, Says Dr. Ortega

By Associated Press. New Orleans, Oct. 5.—Revolutions in Nicaragua have not ended, notwithstanding the surrender of General Luis Mena, the conservative leader who inaugurated the revolt of July 29. This is the declaration of Dr. Ortega, a prominent liberal leader of Mexico, who arrived here last night from Leon, Nicaragua, the present strong hold of the revolutionary forces.

Dr. Ortega, who spent several days in the capital of Salvador after his departure from Leon on August 30, said that the populace is excited and incensed over the intervention of Washington in Nicaraguan affairs. He said a strong anti-American feeling prevailed, not only there but in other Latin American countries of the Washington government.

"International lies have spread broad cast throughout the United States to prejudice the minds of the American people against Nicaraguans," said Dr. Ortega. "But I desire to state that not one American has been killed or harmed in Nicaragua by the Liberals who head this revolt; nor has American property been damaged by them."

back of Bragg. He trailed there for thirty miles.

Then in the last fifty miles, De Palma started the terrific sprint which resulted in his car being overturned in the last five miles of the race. De Palma was two minutes and 36 seconds behind Bragg as the two swept into the last 7.88 mile lap. Bragg had slowed down considerably and De Palma set out to catch the first driver. He caught him on next to the last leg of the contest. In a desperate effort to pass Bragg on the road way near where Bruce Brown was killed Tuesday De Palma shot his heavy Mercedes into the rear of Bragg's Fiat.

In the recoil from this collision De Palma's car was thrown into the ditch and wrecked. De Palma and Alley were thrown clear of the car.

Bragg, as his part of the $10,000, received $500. Edwin Bergdoll of Philadelphia, who drove a Benz into second place after a pretty fight with Gill Anderson for the last sixty miles of the race, received $2500. Bergdoll's average speed for the race was 65.61 per hour. Gill Anderson who finished third with a Stutz car, the only American car to finish the race, got $1250 as his end. The average speed was 65.55 miles an hour. Barney Oldfield who finished fourth with a Fiat car, had an average of 64.75 miles per hour, and got $950 as fourth money. George Clark who was still driving his Mercedes with one more lap to go when Oldfield finished, was flagged by Starter Wagner and awarded $500 as fifth money. Bob Durman, who had taken Jone Horan's place at the wheel of a Benz car in the last fifty miles of the race was flagged with three more laps to go.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wichita Falls as second-class mail matter

Wichita Falls, Texas, Oct. 6, 1912.

Monday is Trades Day for Wichita Falls. In order to make this day a success, let's neglect no effort to make all visitors feel that every day is trades day in Wichita Falls.

Gov. Hadley of Missouri, has finally announced that he will support Taft for president. Now we can surely count on Missouri rolling up a majority of something in the neighborhood of 50,000 for Wilson.

One good thing a new city charter is likely to bring us is that the city poll tax and $2 per year street tax will no longer be levied and collected. The Times has always doubted seriously whether either tax was fair. The streets and roads should not be kept in repair at the expense of those who have the least use for them.

W. F. Thompson writes: The Times from Coffeyville, Kansas, under date of October 1, that he is in a position to send to this part of the country any number of cotton pickers that might be needed. "I can gather from 10 to 100 men and take or send them down to Wichita Falls, and would be pleased to do so," writes Mr. Thompson. "Those who wish cotton pickers might find it to their advantage to get in communication with Mr. Thompson, whose address is 714 W. 10th street, Coffeyville, Kansas."

"To be perfectly frank," says Robt. Ewing, chairman press contributions bureau for the Democratic party, "the National Democratic Committee is hampered by a lack of funds. We cannot look to the interests nor to the persons who would give for ulterior purposes for contributions. Our party platform and the wishes of our candidate preclude us from doing that." Did the democrats make a mistake at Baltimore in adopting the platform and nominating the candidate for president and vice president they did? This is a question those who are Democrats and who are simply able to back their convictions with their money ought to ask themselves. With victory in our grasp shall it be lost because Democrats have no J. P. Morgan, Geo. Perkins or Standard Oil Trust to finance their campaign? Time is short between now and the day of election—only about 30 days and if you wish to help clinch the presidential victory for the Democrats, the time for you to assist is at hand. All contributions left with the Times will be turned over to Hon. W. J. Bullock, secretary of the Woodrow Wilson for President Club, and he will forward them direct to the treasurer of the party.

FALSE IMPRESSION CORRECTED

It appears that certain persons are misrepresenting the Chamber of Commerce and an account of the meeting of the directors of that organization appearing in the Times relative to inviting the oil men to the recent membership meeting at the St. James Hotel.

These persons have circulated a report that the directors of the Chamber of Commerce unanimously voted not to invite the oil men to the meeting and that it was so reported in the Times.

The facts are that an invitation to the oil men to attend the meeting was suggested but it was decided not to invite them until a meeting to be held later when a more elaborate entertainment could be arranged for them. This was reported in the Times of the same day in the following language: "A suggestion that the oil men in the city be invited was made, but it was decided not to do so until a later meeting." The intention was and is to hold a meeting in the near future to which an special invitation will be extended to the oil men. No other construction could be placed upon the action of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce or from the account of the meeting that appeared in the Times.

The fire bell rings at midnight,
The village firemen hike

And make an awful fight.

And they get a check for forty plunks
Because they saved the lot.

She saw him in a Pullman car,
This stately handsome man,
Great learning stalked his noble face
Refinement marked his hands.

A diamond on his finger blazed,
Another on his breast;
His manner rivaled Chesterfield,
As he sat in languid rest.

He looked the part of a feudal knight;
Of a priest, of a bandit king;
His frown was like a gathering storm,
His smile a day in spring.

Suit to cancel lease and try title was filed yesterday in the district court by G. B. Gauntt and wife against C. A. Greenless. The petition alleged that the defendant took a lease on 220 acres belonging to the plaintiff near Iowa Park, agreeing to start a well within a year, which it is alleged he failed to do, also that he failed to pay the stipulated rental.

WANTED ECHO OF TIMES' OUTRAGE

Herbert S. Hockin, the secretary of the Union, was referred to by Mr. Miller before the jury as a double crosser and a double dealer in giving information to the government about the dynamiting plot.

Herbert F. Hockin, Act. Sec. of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, has supplied the government with evidence against his fellow defendants in the "dynamite cases" according to a statement made in court today by District Attorney Miller.

According to Ortle McManigal, Hockin was as bold as were the McNamaras in causing explosions against employers of non-union labor and was an "inventor" of the alarm clock scheme by which the Los Angeles Times building was blown up some time after the bomb had been lighted and J. B. McNamara had escaped.

Mr. Miller's statements caused a sensation. All the other defendants looked toward Hockin who sat in their midst, burying his head in a newspaper. Next to Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' Union, Hockin had been the most prominent of the defendants.

Long before the Los Angeles Times building was blown up, Mr. Miller declared a quarrel occurred between McManigal, Hockin and James B. McNamara over the fixed price which was to be paid for dynamiting jobs, and McManigal threatened to expose the others.

McManigal said "I've a notion to quit the business and give it away," asserted District Attorney Miller. "If you do your life won't be worth much," replied Hockin. Hockin had been keeping back part of McManigal's money. They patched up their differences; James B. McNamara went to California and did his destructive work there, but as soon as the government investigation came, Hockin began to double cross the union by personally bringing evidence to the federal building," continued Miller.

NO INDICTMENT AGAINST TAYLOR

No indictment was returned against Mack Taylor of Holliday, by the Archer county grand jury, for the killing of W. T. Childs on May 7 of this year. The grand jury has been in session at Archer City during the past week and returned three felony bills and six misdemeanors.

Childs was killed on the road between Archer City and Holliday, a shot gun being the weapon used. It is understood that the facts of the case, as presented to the grand jury, made it impossible to bring more than a manslaughter indictment, under the law, and the grand jurors declined to return a bill.

Taylor, who is one of the best known citizens of Archer county, has been out on bond since the tragedy took place.

The district court will convene at Archer City tomorrow. It is not known whether the suits against Luke Wilson, in which several Archer county citizens are asking for heavy damages for alleged libel, will come up for trial at this term.

told the police, they say, that he came to this city from Beckville, N. Y., five or six days ago. He had been a fruit dealer, he said, but was not now in any business.

Only one shot was fired at Zelig. The bullet entered back of the gang leader's right ear. Davidson explained at police headquarters that after he had been robbed, he went to Jersey City, bought a revolver, and after making several ineffectual efforts to get his money back, chased Zelig aboard the car and shot him. District Attorney Whitman, who is to conduct the Becker trial, interested himself in the Zelig murder as soon as he was notified. He telephoned at once to police headquarters that he would be there directly. He requested that the questioning of the prisoner be deferred until he arrived.

STRIKE SYMPATHIZERS HOLDING UP TRAINS

Conductors and Flagmen Who are Found in Places of Strikers Beaten

By Associated Press.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Two passenger trains running in opposite directions between here and Atlanta on the Georgia railroad, were held up today by strike sympathizers and the conductor and flagmen badly beaten.

Similar treatment was accorded the strike breaking train crew of a freight train. No settlement of the strike is in sight, although Commissioner Nell was in conference with leaders of both sides this morning.

It was announced that the engineers probably would refuse to run trains unless the strike was settled within twenty-four hours.

NEWS FROM OIL FIELDS

There are sixty-six locations, rigs and drilling wells in the general stretch of territory between Petrolia and Electra, according to a count recently made. Two of these, the Eeds and the Schmoeker, have found the pay sand and everyone is hopeful that some of the many others will bring in well get into the producing stage.

The Producers No. 6 on the Bickley went into the thousand foot sands yesterday and looks mighty good from all indications. It flowed at four minute intervals and is believed to be a 500 or 600 barrel, making the Bickley tract look like the cream of the field. Guffey's No. 6 on the Miller was drilled in yesterday and is a small well, probably not over fifty barrels.

What is declared to have been a good showing at the depth of only twenty-five feet was struck yesterday on the Jennings lease, east of the Russell and Flanagan. The find caused much interest among the takers, and some of them came near spelling a good story for the oil reporter by declaring that the showing had dripped in from the lubricator. There seems little doubt, however, that a small showing was found at twenty-five feet, which is a record for this field.

The next ten days should bring news of some kind from the wells drilling in the country between the Eeds and the Schmoeker, as there are several that ought to reach the sand before long. The Washer well has already passed the Eeds sand, finding it dry and is being pushed deeper.

A. A. Liddle, who returned yesterday from Oklahoma, says that Oklahoma producers are beginning to sit up and take notice of the Electra field and they are keeping a watchful eye on the wells now drilling east of the field. Oklahoma oil men at first were inclined to be very slow about taking hold in the Electra field, but the sentiment now appears to be changing.

There are two new locations in the Burknet country, one on the J. S. Smith farm three fourths of a mile southwest of the Reilly, where O'Hara and Greenless are drilling, the other on the Joseph Lindsey tract, south of the Reilly. The rig is up on the Reilly and drilling will start Monday.

The Pierce-Porcy well on the Jennings tract near Electra has been abandoned at 1985 feet.

GOV. WILSON TALKS TO WORKINGMEN

By Associated Press.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 5.—Governor Wilson promised big crowds of workingmen whom he addressed here today that if he was elected president he would have associated with him in his cabinet a minister of labor.

"All the parties are now promising that there shall be a department of labor," said Gov. Wilson. "but the Democratic Congress already has passed such a bill and it is probable that the Democrats in the Senate in the next session, assisted by the Progressive senators, will make the bill a law so that the next president will have associated with him a secretary of labor."

The governor referred to laws, he said, should be passed to safeguard human life, shorten the hours of labor and otherwise conserve the energy of the rank and file of the country.

"I ran on a platform in New Jersey that promised those things," he said, "and I am happy to say we carried out every promise we made."

"I understand what increase in Socialistic sentiment means. It does not mean merely an interest in social programs, but men have made up their minds that nobody will pay any attention to them. Therefore, the great national parties have got to make good on that side or go out of business."

NEAR-FUR

FAVORED BY FASHION'S APPROVAL

A Handsome Seallette Coat for Limousine Wear

Seal Plush and White Fox Combined for Open Use

Velour du Nord Makes a Practical Motoring Wrap

Caracul is a Caracul Imitator of Agreeable Texture

JUST as it is no longer deemed a disgrace to wear a "reconstructed" jewel in a gold finger ring; so it is not to be considered parvenu to trim one's sealskin coat with a good imitation of Persian lamb; or to adorn with what is left of a handsome fox set, the new coat of near seal.

Fur imitations have become so clever that they are their own excuse for being—as "reconstructed" emeralds and rubies have gained a distinction of their own by their real beauty and excellence. Moreover fur imitations are absolutely indispensable, if the wives, sisters and daughters of others than multi-millionaires are to be provided with appropriate winter wearables. Because of the fashion for enormous fur muffs and neckpieces and for full length fur coats, the natural supply of pelts has run very low, though trappers have scoured every nook and cranny of the countries where the little fur-coated animals are to be found; and prices have risen by leaps and bounds, until now a really appalling sum must be paid for a fur set of even ordinary excellence, while a genuine fur coat ranges from $500 to $5,000—either limit of price being equally beyond the reach of the average husband or father.

Added to the already discouragingly high prices of furs, the recent fur strike has still further complicated the situation and it will be a lucky woman indeed, this Christmas, who receives a handsome mink or genuine seal coat from Santa Claus, or a set of real ermine, real chinchilla or fox; but so admirable are the fur substitutes that are being turned out, one may really snap one's fingers, at some of the exorbitantly priced pelts. And as a matter of fact, many women who could easily afford to invest in real sealskin or real breitschweiz (broadtail) prefer to use the substitutes, trimmed with quantities of genuine fox, ermine or other long haired fur, because such a wrap may be discarded without any twinges of conscience when its style has become passe, with no obligation about the tiresome making over which a costly pelt seems to demand.

A Seal Substitute That Has Won Great Favor. It would be hard to conceive of a richer and more distinguished winter coat than the model trimmed with vandyked borders of Persia fur; but this coat, much as it looks like soft, velvety real sealskin, is really built of seallette, one of the most clever fur imitations. Seallette has the deep brown color, with silvery glints when the pile is pushed the wrong way, which distinguishes sealskin, and when this material is smartly made up and trimmed handsomely, it is very difficult unless one examines it closely, to tell it from the genuine seal. The coat pictured is trimmed with Persia fur—a new substitute for Persian lamb, and one much used this season for coat and for trimmings on winter costumes.

Another black fur substitute is the seal which of course imitates seal and a graceful caracul coat is pictured. This coat has a Directorate of spotless ermine which for smart little vest between the revers of the garment. When desired, the ermine collar and vest may be unfastened and turned down to form revers over the deep revers of caracul. At the foot this coat has a tapering cut, though the width at the shoulder is generous—a feature of this season's models. The coat covers the frock completely, though it is short enough to show the buttoned boot. Footwear is so charming these days that fashion is really conferring a favor in detaching that street costume of all but a very formal nature shall show the boot. Patent leather boots with buttoned tops of dull calf—the correct and conventional street boot for the conservative woman—are worn with this caracul coat.

Sealskin imitations are numerous. French rat—a quadruped hunted in the sewers of Paris, is also used as a substitute for sealskin; and really one cannot turn up one's nose at French rat and then take kindly to American skunk. Plucked muskrat is also used for evening wear, and for carriage wear are illustrated also. One of these coats is a regulation evening coat, and the other is a smart straighter cut and falls to the hem of the skirt, though it is not trimmed enough in line to suggest a garment built for walking wear. Street coats show a tendency to define the lines of the figure a trifle and are nipped in a wee-bit more at the waistline than has been the case for several seasons. The street coat also is a few inches shorter than the skirt—sometimes as much as six inches shorter, and the full length coat covering the frock to the feet may be a dressier or more wrap like coat with an odd, new inserted under the arm, this section being lined all around with silk cording and having a slash down the center trimmed with a cord and tassels. The huge collar of gray wolf lence added elegance and distinctness to the coat. The other coat, intended for evening wear, has a collar of white fox, one side of this collar extending down over a broad revers of white brocade velvet which crosses the coat to the left knee. The garment is lined with white brocade silk.

Gay and Beautiful Linings in Rich Coats. The outside of a coat is not the only consideration of the fashionable and high-class furrier. He spends almost as much time on the inside of the garment, setting the lining in to perfection and trimming it with all manner of little gaieties in the way of pipings, shirrings, fancy pockets bits of embroidery and even garlands of small silk flowers which are so placed that they show effectively when the coat is thrown open. Of course an opera or restaurant coat spends most of its time thrown inside out, over a chair behind its wearer, so its lining is a very important consideration. Every woman of the present generation recalls the young lady in one of Louisa Alcott's stories who "never made the mistake of sitting on a blue sofa in a green frock" when she entered the room.

The limousine coat of seallette is a good example of the new evening gown. For lining the most costly coats the furriers use rich satin and velvet brocades, bengaline velvet.

NEAR FURS FAVORED FOR FALL WEAR

ed with chiffon, chameleon silks and heavy ottomans or fall silks. Less expensive coats have attractive linings of two tone taffeta, charmeuse and thinner brocades. A delightful mink coat, built for an American woman in Paris, has a lining of blue brocade, with the tiniest possible pleatings set into all the seams like pipings. No more than a quarter inch of the pleating stands out from the seam—which is corded—and the lines of the garment are in no way interfered with by the effective lining trimming.

The lining is also a very conspicuous feature of the fashionable muff, often forming a part of the muff itself, the center only, being formed of fur. The muff lining usually matches the shade of the pelt, and some of the mole skin muffs lined with shirred taupe chiffon or satin are extremely beautiful. Brown Furs Most Fashionable For Street Wear.

Though the woman who owns a handsome set of black lynx or fox will undoubtedly take delight in wearing it, this winter, she who wears sable, mink, marten, skunk or bear will be more in accord with fashion's mandate; for just now the brown furs are most modish for street wear. Russian sable of course heads the brown list but this fur is almost beyond reach now so scarce is it and so fabulously high priced. American bear is not a bad substitute for Russian sable and this pelt, while not extremely expensive, is very satisfactory. It is also so thick and long that a little of it goes a long way in trimming.

There are no successful imitations of mink, though some furriers streak marmot with black paint in an endeavor to produce the rich, striped effect of the mink pelt. After a month or two of wear however, the hand painted mink shows up for what it is and its wearer is apt to wish she had invested in a cheaper fur or a franker substitute. Australian chinchilla is a very satisfactory pelt, if one cannot afford the fragile, costly real chinchilla; and chivet is not a bad substitute for leopard. Fox furs come at a score of prices, depending on the length and softness of the hair, the dressing of the skin, and the color. Fox may be dyed almost any color, but the bluish gray shades are most expensive. Just at the moment "orange" fox—which is really no more or less than the plebeian little red brother of American fence corners—is at the pinnacle of fashion, placed there by Polret; and this pelt will doubtless soon be as expensive as that of the rare white Alaska fox. Mole skin One of Fashion's Favorites.

Taupe shades are this season the craze, and since mole skin is the only fur that exactly matches taupe, the skin of the tiny mole is at a premium. Mole skin has been rather expensive since its advent in the fashionable world a few seasons ago. Before that it was used chiefly to trim carriage boots and baby bonnets and could be picked up for a song. Now that taupe is the favored color, mole skin is almost prohibitive in price and every scrap of the precious pelt is treasured. A fur substitute called velvet du nord, comes in the soft, pleasing taupe coloring and the pile of this fabric has something of the appearance of mole skin. A motor coat of velvet du nord in taupe color is pictured. The coat is built on very simple lines with a rounded cutaway effect at the foot and a snug collar that may be turned down to form a deep, graceful rever. The sleeve is banded by a strap-cuff which may be drawn in around the wrist when desired. Chinchilla Squirrel Another Successful Substitute.

Since the real chinchilla is almost extinct furriers have bestirred themselves to secure a substitute and the result is chinchilla squirrel—the cheap and easily procured squirrel pelt being dyed to imitate the silvery, striped chinchilla. Squirrel is so delightfully soft in texture, that, successfully dyed in this way, it makes a very pleasing substitute for real chinchilla though it is slightly darker in tone.

The mosaic effects in mole skin and seal skin are very beautiful—and discouragingly expensive. Ermine also is used in this way, dark pelt being combined with the snowy, spotted ermine in an effective manner. Almost every seal skin wrap designed for evening or limousine wear has a border trimming in mosaic effect and some of these garments are exceedingly handsome; with mosaic work that must have required hours and hours of painstaking labor.

LOCAL GREEKS READY TO FIGHT TURKEY

If Their Native Land Needs Their Services Several Will go From Wichita Falls

If their Fatherland, far across the Atlantic, needs their services, a number of Wichita Falls Greeks stand ready, at short notice, to leave for home and join in the fight in which Greece is about to become involved in the Balkan States.

There are about twenty-five Greeks in Wichita Falls and eight or ten of these expect to go home if war is declared.

Among them is Peter Fell, of Fell Brothers, the confectioners. He has the title of Lieutenant in the Greek army, and while he has never been called into active service, he is only waiting the word now to go and join in the fighting. He has two brothers in the Greek army at present.

Mr. Fell estimates that fully sixty thousand Greeks will go home, as soon as war is declared, to join the army. Texas will furnish a large proportion of these, he believes. Practically all the younger members of the local Greek colony, Mr. Fell says, are ready and willing to go home the minute they see that a war is inevitable.

Most of these Greeks are comfortably established in business here and the financial sacrifice that each would be forced to undergo would be considerable; but this, apparently, is a minor consideration with them if they feel that their country needs their services.

W. F. & N. W. UNIT IN A BIG SYSTEM?

The Wichita Falls & Northwestern will give Mr. Erb a short line from Texas to Salt Lake City through Colorado. What his plans are after the Moffat road is finished into Salt Lake is a question. He will either arrange a traffic alliance with the Harriman lines or the Gould system or build another trans-continental line, but it is very probable that either one of the systems will be glad to turn Erb a big percentage of business.

"This rearranging of railroad lines is brought about by the Panama canal. What the railroads lose in transcontinental hauls they expect to make in traffic between the interior and gulf ports."

The league furnishes the statement as an indication that in the very near future Wichita Falls will find herself upon one of the most heavily patronized trunk lines in the United States with all of the advantages which such a situation will afford.

Bryan publicly for the support he gave him at Baltimore and Mr. Bryan in turn appealed to the democracy "to do for Wilson twice as much as they ever did for Bryan."

"I want to express," said Gov. Wilson, "on this the first opportunity I've had since getting into Lincoln, the very deep pleasure it gives me to find myself host to Mr. William J. Bryan. We are free to serve the people of the United States, and in my opinion it was Mr. Bryan that set us free. I think no one could have followed the course of events in that extraordinary convention at Baltimore without sharing in that opinion."

Mr. Bryan was given an ovation when he arose to speak. "I'm proud the leader we have," said he. "I'm glad he has shaved. Scholarships need not be lonely. Glad he illustrates as did Jefferson: that the educated man need not be separated in sympathy from the man less educated. In his presence and in yours I want to express my deep gratitude to him for the mastery manner in which he had led our friends in this connection."

Mr. Bryan added that on election night when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson read the returns, there will be a man and wife at Mr. Bryan's home just as happy and as rejoiced. He declared that it would be the completion of a fight begun eighteen years ago for progressive principles.

Immediately after the banquet Mr. Bryan accompanied the governor to the chief meeting of the evening at the auditorium where there was an immense crowd. It was arranged to have the governor address the overflow crowd also.

LITTLE HELEN GRISHAM'S BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED.

Last Tuesday was the fifth birthday of little Helen Grisham and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Grisham invited a number of little friends to celebrate the occasion. Games, home-made candy, ice cream and cake were provided for the little ones and all were done full justice, making the afternoon a most pleasant one. Barnard, Katherine Louise Strange, Bernice Harrington, Lola Strange, Rosella Williams, Dorothy Nolen, Ruth Nolen, Elizabeth Greenwood, Virginia Herron and Hallis Adams; Masters Henry Fountain, John Ray Duke, Pat Greenwood.

MRS. ANDERSON HOSTESS AT UNITY CLUB MEETING.

The Unity Club's president, Mrs. G. D. Anderson, was its hostess Friday at the first meeting of the season and the work of the year was inaugurated with a pleasant session. The meeting was opened with a musical selection after which Mrs. Anderson extended the president's greetings. The roll call was answered with summer diversions, following which the treasurer, Mrs. J. G. Hunt, gave her report. Then followed an outline and a general discussion of the club's plans for the year's work. The business session ended, it was followed by a social gathering at which the hostess served refreshments. The club has an instructive course of study for the year and the members began their duties with renewed enthusiasm.

SENIORS AND TEACHERS GATHER AT HIGH SCHOOL.

The members of the senior class, the post-graduates and the teachers of the high school enjoyed an informal reception at the high school building Thursday night, the seniors being the hosts. The gymnasium, where the affair took place, was decorated in the senior colors, purple and white. "Bunco" was the evening's diversion, there being seven tables of players, and when the games were finished, ice cream and cake were served and a pleasing program concluded the evening's entertainment. About fifty pupils and teachers were in attendance and the occasion proved a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Those present were Kathleen Benson, Annette Coffield, Lucy Coker, Una Cook, Lois Brothers, Flora Fore, Geneva Kennedy, Ruth Trueblood, Lucille Hagy, Zola Robertson, Lou Ella Morgan, Ruby Self, Bernice Taylor, Vera Taylor, Dorothy Beavers, Gladys Herron, Tommie Hale, Cecil Crowell, Karl Hammond, Leonard Smith, Jim Barnard, Preston Brown, Eustace Hickman, Levalle Childers, Luther Robertson, William Robertson, Markham Ferguson, and Miss Beavers; Miss Childers, Miss Alder, Mr. Owen, Mr. Vance, Mr. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS MEET AT TRAVIS SCHOOL.

The Mothers and Teachers Club of the Travis school held an enthusiastic meeting Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30. It took but a short time for the election of officers for the ensuing year and while the entire club regretted that Mrs. Shell could no longer serve as president, the members feel sure that they have a worthy successor in Mrs. Jack McMillan. Miss Clara Campbell was elected secretary. A plan was outlined for a sewing class to be conducted once a week, and two of the mothers readily agreed to come the following Thursday and give the first lesson. Miss Perry read an article which contained some valuable suggestions as to the improvement of the playgrounds and building. The meeting then adjourned and a short acquainted session followed. The member were much pleased at the outlook for a year of successful and beneficial endeavor.

RECEPTION FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The Christian Church was the scene of a reception Friday night, given to the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. F. F. Walters, and the members of the congregation. The church auditorium was transformed into a parlor, decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. Music was a pleasant feature of the evening and refreshments in the form of ice cream and cake, were an added attraction.

500 CLUB ENTERTAIN BY MRS. H. A. ALLEN.

The Five Hundred Club resumed its sessions Thursday after the summer inactivity and made a good start for the season at the home of Mrs. H. A. Allen where the first meeting of the fall was held. If this gathering was typical of the meetings to follow it every other week during the winter, some good times are in store for the members. The souvenir of the afternoon went to Mrs. Frank Cullinan, who proved the luckiest of the five tables of players. A tempting salad course was served by Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Felder assisting the hostess. Next week's meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. O. T. Bacon. Those present last Thursday were Mesdames Bacon, Kemp, Maer, Short, R. E. Huff, Doyal, Stanforth, McGregor, Walsh, Reese, Roberts, Wade Walker, Ruth Smith, Cullinan, Montgomery, Darnell, Snider, and Misses Chamberlain, Dent and Lucille Sherrod.

LADIES OF MACCABEES WILL OBSERVE BIRTHDAY.

The Ladies of the Maccabees, Hive No. 61, will celebrate the 20th birthday of the order on October 9 at 3 p. m. at the Odd Fellows' Hall. All visiting Maccabees and the members of the different fraternal orders are especially invited to be present. There will be a short literary and musical program, and refreshments will be served.

FRIBERG-PREY NUPTIALS AMONG EVENTS OF WEEK.

Two well known Wichita county families were united last Wednesday evening when the wedding of George Friberg and Miss Edna Prey was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prey on Austin street. The wedding was a quiet one, the guests including only the relatives and immediate friends. Rev. J. E. Coe performed the ceremony. A wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony and on Thursday night the groom's parent, Mr. and Mrs. Ed V. Friberg, entertained the wedding party with a luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Friberg will make their home on the G. E. Friberg farm northeast of the city. The groom is a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Wichita county, and the prominence of the bride's family, with the graces and popularity of the young woman herself, make the union indeed an auspicious one.

On Saturday, September 28, Miss Alta Friberg entertained with a luncheon shower for the bride-to-be, at the home of Mrs. G. E. Friberg on Tenth street and Miss Prey was presented with a box of dainty linen, the gift of her girl friends. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were the hostess, Miss Alta Friberg, and the honoree, Miss Edna Prey; Misses Lillian and Ruby Bachman, the Misses Hyman, Miss Minnie Friberg, Miss Agnes Andrea, Mrs. G. E. Friberg and Mrs. E. V. Friberg.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING OUTLINES YEAR'S WORK.

The first fall meeting of the Civic League last Tuesday found a representative attendance, with an inspiring amount of enthusiasm and determination in evidence. The session was given largely to plans for the work of the year, and while these are as yet indefinite, they are sufficiently well formed to make it plain that the League hopes to accomplish much. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Frank Kell.

In a general way, the work of the League this season is to be for better sanitary conditions, along the lines of individual improvement. To this end, it is probable that prizes will be offered next spring for the best-kept front yards and for the greatest improvement in the appearance of any one yard. A committee is at work on this idea and will also encourage in every possible way the planting of flowers in front yards.

The Civic League does not take kindly to the city council's proposal to sell part of Bellevue Park and devote the proceeds to the purchase of the "Seven Sisters" property. While the League has turned the park over to the city council, the members feel that they still have a decided interest in the tract and it is promised that the sale will not be made without objections on their part. A committee was appointed at the last meeting, to look into this matter. It is probable that the question of lights in the court house yard will also come up for further attention.

These are but parts of the work the League has in mind. Further plans will be given more definite consideration at later meetings.

CENTURY CLUB MEETING AT HOME OF MRS. LYNCH.

The Century Club opened its season of work last Wednesday, the first meeting being at the hospitable home of Mrs. Kathleen Lynch, 1408 Austin. As this was the first meeting since last spring, the members did not plunge at once into the literary studies they have mapped out for the season, but gave themselves more to the social feature. The new president, Mrs. W. M. McGregor, delivered her address and there was a general discussion of the plans for the season's meetings. A cream and cake course added to the evening's enjoyment. Mrs. S. H. Burnside will be the next hostess for this club on Wednesday evening. At last week's session the new officers were installed, as follows: Mrs. W. M. McGregor, president; Mrs. C. B. Montgomery, vice president; Mrs. Grisham, treasurer; Mrs. I. A. Harris, secretary.

MRS. C. B. MONTGOMERY IS HOSTESS TO SEWING CLUB.

The Thursday Sewing Club met with Mrs. C. B. Montgomery at 1414 Tenth street last Thursday afternoon for the weekly session, which was a most enjoyable one. The hostess served cream and cake after a busy time with needle and thread. Mrs. Jenne will entertain the club at next Thursday's meeting. Those present last Thursday were Mesdames Gardner, Prealer, Murph, Jenne and Hartsook and Misses Lena and Reah Gardner and Miss Murph.

PRESBYTERIAN AID SOCIETY GETS MANY CHINA GIFTS.

The Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church is the richer by about two hundred pieces of china-ware as the result of a china show which was held last Monday evening at the South's residence in the rear of the church. About fifty ladies were present, all having secured various dishes and table ware from the Wichita Hardware Company and the Aid Society is now well supplied with dishes for future affairs as a result, the affair being a successful one in every way.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB WITH MRS. M. M. WALKER.

The card clubs are nearly all resuming their sessions after the hot weather dullness and the middle of this month will find about all of them in full play once more. The Tuesday Bridge Club is to meet for the first time this week, and Mrs. M. M. Walker is the hostess for the occasion, at 3 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

AUSTIN SCHOOL MOTHERS BEGIN WORK OF SESSION.

The Mothers and Teachers Club of the Stephen F. Austin school held its first regular meeting of the new scholastic year last Thursday afternoon. There was quite a large attendance of members and teachers and several new members were enrolled. The meeting was opened with the president, Mrs. J. W. Lee, in the chair and Miss Emma Haynes as secretary. The officers had been elected at the last meeting before disbanding in June, with the exception of the press reporter and a motion prevailed that the chair appoint this officer; Mrs. T. H. Peery was chosen. The other officers are Mrs. Frank Kell, vice president; Mrs. T. C. Thatcher, treasurer.

The principal object of the first meeting was to discuss plans for the year's work which discussion was heartily entered into by both teachers and members; some very interesting (Continued on page 2)

APARTMENT HOUSE WILL BE ERECTED

Many local people, particularly new arrivals among the oil men who are locating here, will be glad to hear of the erection of a modern apartment house at the corner of Tenth and Lamar street, opposite the Methodist Church. Messrs. Stampfli and Roberts recently purchased this corner through Bean, Huey & Gohlke and are having plans made for a two story apartment house containing three or four room suites, modern in every respect. The investment will be fully $20,000 and will be the first modern building of this character in Wichita Falls.

The corner to be improved is considered the most desirable for such purposes in the city having a south and east exposure. This corner is known as the old Tompkins "bird cage" property and the consideration paid by Stampfli and Roberts was $4500. Actual building will be started as soon as plans are perfected.

A selection on club work was read by Miss O'Neill. The meeting ended after a short social session, to meet again Thursday week. Near the close of the meeting a two course salad luncheon was served.

TEMPLAR COMMANDERY HAS BANQUET THURSDAY EVENING.

The local Commandery of Knights Templar enjoyed a banquet Thursday evening in the basement of the City National Bank building. While the affairs of the sterner sex are not properly to be set forth in this column, that of Thursday had enough of the saving grace of femininity in attendance to justify mention of it here. The wives and ladies of the Templars attended and the affair was a thoroughly satisfying one for all concerned. Music was furnished by the Katz orchestra. A parade of the members of the commandery, in full Templar regalia, was among the evening's features. Talks were made by Dr. J. W. Hill and T. C. Thatcher. The candidates for whose benefit the meeting was held were J. L. Staley, George W. Lawler, S. J. Ashmore, S. W. Jonte and H. G. McClenny.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

Practically all of the card, literary and other clubs have resumed their sessions for the fall and winter, and those which have not yet shaken off the summer lethargy will do so very soon.

The Elks intend to make the Thursday evening dance a regular social feature and more of these delightful affairs are in store for the members. It is assured.

The oil men are said to be planning another dance for Halloween night, October 31.

So far, no rumors of October weddings have come to the ears of the society editor and it is beginning to look as if the month would pass with nothing to record in that department. The Times would be glad to publish, in advance, the programs of the meetings of the various clubs and organizations, if the members will furnish them to this office. The society column can be made much more attractive and readable with this co-operation on the part of the clubs.

The oil business continues to bring more and more estimable families to Wichita Falls, with more names to be added to the social roster.

Some of the clubs at Waco got to and punch were served to twenty-seven guests and at 6 o'clock they departed for their homes, each declaring that they had spent a most enjoyable time and expressing a wish that Master Leslie would enjoy many more birthdays as pleasant.

ALAMO HOME AND SCHOOL CLUB MEETS NEXT FRIDAY.
The Alamo Home and School Club will meet at the Alamo school building, Eleventh and Van Buren streets, next Friday, October 11, at 3:40 p. m. The following address has been issued by the officers:
"Every mother, father and everyone else interested in boys and girls and in our school is urged to be present. There is something for you to do to make this school a better school. Come one and all. A good program is being prepared; come with suggestions for our year's work. There is much that we can do and let us do the things needed first."

AUSTIN MOTHERS' CLUB IS ASKING FOR CO-OPERATION.
The Mothers' and Teachers' Club of the Stephen F. Austin school, realizing that the vacation is at an end and that the school work has begun in earnest, realizes that its members must be "up and doing." The first meeting was held Thursday afternoon with a splendid membership present, all filled with enthusiasm and energy for the work of the year, anxious to do everything possible to better the school conditions, which are now fairly good, but there is still room for improvement. As this is a progressive age, we are never content with anything less than the best. This is a field in which woman can do her best work; the school and the home must go hand in hand, and the child must feel that the roof which covers one is but a continuation of the other. It is every woman's duty to have a well defined and active interest in the school to which her children are entrusted. We are anxious for every mother who will, to become a member of our club and we assure them that they will be benefitted themselves, a help to their children, an encouragement to us, of great assistance to the teachers and, last, but not least, will find these meetings entertaining, as we have well arranged programs of readings, papers, discussions, study and music. We meet twice a month on Thursday afternoon at the Austin school building at 4 o'clock. Make us a visit at our next meeting; you will be heartily welcomed and will spend a profitable and pleasant afternoon.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5. - Charles R. Crane of Chicago, Ogen Mills of New York and Charles Edward Russell, will testify Monday before the Clapp committee on the Senate investigation of the campaign fund and Charles Taft, brother of the president, Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National committee, and Judge R. S. Oggett, head of the Harriman railroad, will testify Wednesday.

QUICK JUSTICE FOR YOUTHFUL OFFENDER

Frederick, Okla., Oct. 5. - Within 18 hours after the time that they had burglarized the A. M. Frost dry goods store at Grandfield; Ralph Wilsey and Wayne Wilsey, wayward brothers, had been sentenced to the reformatory.

The burglary occurred Tuesday night, or early Wednesday morning. An entrance was effected to the store by breaking the glass out of the back window. The brothers were seemingly anxious only to provide themselves with reasonable raiment. Each took a blue serge suit, and one added an extra pair of pants to his selection. They then fitted themselves out with a pair of shoes apiece, took several pairs of socks, belts, neckties, hose supporters and two blue shirts.

The youths were strangers in Grandfield, and had been observed loitering about the evening previous to the robbery. When it was discovered that the Frost store had been burglarized, they were immediately suspected, and the officers advised railroad agents along the road to look out for them. The agent for the Wichita Falls Route at Devol telephoned that a man answering the description of one of the suspects had been seen there. Sheriff Carter and Deputy S. W. Saddler of Grandfield, went to Devol in an automobile but found that the suspect was not one of the men sought. They were in the railroad yards when the morning southbound passenger train pulled in and saw the two Wilseys emerge from a grain car, which formed part of a freight train which had taken a siding at Devol, to allow the passenger to pass it. They were arrayed in all their stolen clothes, and there could have been no doubt

Now that the cool weather is advancing you will use more fried food than usual. There will be meats, potatoes and other dishes that will require a good cooking oil or grease. You will find in Crisco, the famous cooking oil which comes in hard form in cans the most desirable for all purposes. There is no odor nor taste, just pure, wholesome vegetable oil. It looks like lard but is more of a cream color. You can use it over and over again as it does not discolor readily and does not absorb odors. It comes in two sizes of cans at 60c to $1.15 per can. Get used to it and you will undoubtedly use it in place of either lard or butter and you will save much money.

of their guilt. They were brought to Frederick, arraigned in district court passenger train at Devol, but when and pleaded guilty. The officers approached them, they Judge Mathews on Tuesday afternoon made no effort to escape, and when noon, sentenced them to two years, accused of their crime, acknowledged each, in the state reformatory.

The "stunt" was planned and carried on by clubs, unaided and the result was a substantial sum of money. The Ladies Auxiliary to the B. R. T. will hold a novelty and doll sale early in December, the exact date and place to be announced later.

My Lady Goes To Club

(Written for The Times.)
I've been in such a rush all day;
Busy? O dear me!
A thousand little things to do—
It's club day, don't you see?

And I'm to read a paper, too!
Dear, dear, I'm in a fright;
It's twenty pages long—I hope
My dress will look just right.

And John, while I am gone to the club,
I wish you'd take the broom
And sweep the house; now, don't forget
To dust the spare bed room.

And churn the milk and wash the pans;
Remember, dear, at four,
That you must give the baby's milk,
A half pint, no more.

Dear me! It's nearly time to go!
Say, how'd you like this hat?
I think it's really quite superb,
When fitted up like that.

These feathers, dear—why John, old boy
What makes you look so sad?
It seems a literary wife
Should tend to make you glad.

Why, don't you know the Wichita clubs
Are just the thing for wives
Who toil and cook and fret around,
And just wear out their lives?

Oh, yes, I know you selfish men,
Would take away this pleasure,
And have us work from dawn till dark,
With troubles beyond measure.

My dear, you certainly must see
The truth of what I say;
Without the women's clubs, what would
This town do, anyway?

Now, there's the Civic League, for one,
And plenty of work it finds,
Men never think of dirt; in fact,
It's furthest from their minds.

You surely wouldn't hold us back
From building up the town—
Where DID I put that powder rag?
Oh, John, that awful frown!

Do smile for once, and try to think
The women's clubs all right;
If you should dare to interfere,
I'd certainly show fight.

But there, 'tis three! and I must go;
Indeed, I'll have to fly.
Have supper ready when I come;
Bye bye, old boy, bye bye.

Anna Hughes Carpenter.

The Economy Circulating and Ventilating Fireplace
HEATER

The householder who is in search of a satisfactory and economical system of "House Warming" should learn the advantages attached to an "Economy Fireplace Heater" that will heat your room or suite of rooms evenly and comfortably without the many disadvantages of the old fashioned open front poorly constructed devices, which will not impart warmth any portion of your apartment beyond a point immediately in front of the fire, and not even then when sufficient vent is given to remove the moisture and odor produced by the combustion. Economy fireplace furnaces will heat the air in the farthest corner of connected rooms so that there will be not to exceed 30 degrees difference in temperature between that point and a point immediately in front of the heater. You do not need to hug the fire, they heat your center apartment by circulation. Further: They will positively never give off any odor nor deposit any moisture on walls or windows when properly installed in a mantel having a chimney connection. Remember: An Economy Fireplace Heater warms all of the air in your rooms to an even temperature.

Contributors to Wilson Fund

Fifteen hundred or more Democrats in Wichita county don't seem to care whether the people or the privileged interest shall have the claim on the next President of the United States. At least this may be inferred by their failure to contribute anything toward the fund being raised by popular subscription in small amounts to pay the expenses of a legitimate campaign for the Democratic nominees.

Of course it cannot be concluded that the people are insensible to their interests in this campaign, but neglect and delay in contributing are liable to result in Democratic defeat. Every Democrat should contribute something, whether it is ten cents or ten dollars.

Your newspaper, your bank or W. J. Bullock, secretary of the Woodrow Wilson club, will receive contributions in any amount, and they should be made at once if they are to do the most good. The date of the election is less than thirty days ahead and funds are urgently needed at headquarters.

Up to noon Saturday the total contributions here had amounted to $149.50. This sum was contributed by 67 individuals. One of the contributions Saturday was made by a woman, Mrs. V. S. Kay. Mrs. Kay is the first woman contributor to the fund in this county, so far as can be learned. Another contribution Saturday was from a man who has been a life-long Republican, but who will this year vote for Woodrow Wilson.

SCHOOL PUPILS TO SAVE COTTON?

DISMISSAL OF CITY SCHOOLS TO ALLOW PUPILS TO GO TO COTTON FIELDS SUGGESTED

THE CROP IS IN DANGER

Death of Pickers Acute and a Storm Now Would Be Disastrous

In a letter addressed to the school board yesterday the Young Men's Progressive League suggests that the release of the larger boys of the schools so that they may go into the cotton fields and help save the crop, which is now threatened with damage or loss owing to the scarcity of pickers.

Thousands of acres of cotton is now fully opened in this vicinity which would be heavily damaged in case of a storm or heavy rain. Farmers have been unable to find pickers at any price and the success of the Women's Home Missionary Society at Iowa Park and of the Boy Scouts here has encouraged the belief that the older pupils of the schools could give material relief to the situation. Many of the schools over the county have either dismissed or delayed their opening until the cotton is picked.

The letter from the Young Men's Progressive League suggesting the dismissal of the schools here follows:

To the Honorable School Board, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Gentlemen: At a meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Progressive League on September 26 the board decided to assist in relieving the scarcity of cotton pickers in this section.

After an investigation of the conditions, it appears almost impossible to secure relief from North Texas, owing to the prevalence of the same unusual conditions in the cotton fields of North Texas and Oklahoma. Press dispatches advise that $1.15 and $1.25 a hundred pounds is being offered for pickers with no apparent response.

In this county and vicinity particularly the condition is such that threatens a heavy financial loss, a loss that is especially disheartening after two years of short crops. The committee therefore believes that the situation calls for patriotic co-operation and it occurs to us that if all the boys attending the public schools can be relieved of school attendance for a period of two or three weeks for work in the cotton patches, incalculable value to the crop and the county.

The teams were evenly matched in point of weight, and the game was stubbornly contested; there was little fumbling, considering that it was the first of the season for both teams.

Henrietta started the scoring getting a man around left end for a touchdown in the first quarter and kicking goal; a touchdown and goal from touchdown count seven points under this year's rules. Wichita Falls scored a touchdown in the second quarter, when Lynn Smith went around the end, but failed to kick goal, leaving Henrietta in the lead. In the third quarter, however, the game was won, when Burt Taylor went through the Henrietta line for another touchdown, goal being kicked. The Wichita Falls' line was strong and held at practically all stages.

One of the Wichita boys, Preston Brown played the entire first quarter with a broken finger. He sustained the injury on the second play, but disregarded it and it was not until the quarter was ended that a physician examined the member and found it broken.

A GREAT RECORD.

Hard to Duplicate It in Wichita Falls Scores of representative citizens of Wichita Falls are testifying for Doan's Kidney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

J. R. Henson, 119 Indiana avenue, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I am quite free from pain and lameness in my back and also headaches and dizzy spells since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Prior to that time I was in a bad way and found nothing that would relieve me of the dull, nagging pain across my kidneys. Mornings I felt depressed and devoid of energy and after sitting in a chair I could hardly stand erect. Sharp twinges often darted through me when I stooped. These troubles all disappeared after I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I feel that I cannot recommend them too highly." (Statement given December 10, 1910).

Re-Endorsement. On December 27, 1911 Mr. Henson said: "I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me some years ago. The cure effected at that time has been permanent. You are at liberty to use my statement as heretofore."
